

Traffic Deaths In Florida Hit All-Time High

Traffic deaths in Florida hit an all time high last year and are well on the way to setting an even higher toll this year, Sgt. Vince Smallwood, Florida Highway Patrol Safety Officer, told members of the Rotary Club Monday.

More than 900 persons have already been killed this year. The total last year was 1,489 deaths, with more than 75,000 accident victims requiring hospitalization, Sgt. Smallwood said.

He described the unpleasant job of the officer who has to go to someone's home and tell them that their husband, wife, child or other relative has been killed in a traffic accident.

"I wrack my mind all the way to the house trying to think of some way to soften what I have to tell them, but there is just no way to avoid the terrible fact," Sgt. Smallwood said.

Smallwood described the new Florida traffic laws which were passed by the last Legislature, and discussed the reasons for them.

He told how the air-to-ground arrest is made, when officers in the Highway Patrol plane clock automobiles on measured quarter miles, marked by white lines on the highways. He said that the Patrol has checked their clocking devices with the Daytona speedway clocking devices and found them accurate.

Smallwood pointed out some major traffic law changes: It is unlawful to drive on the left hand side of a multi-laned highway, except when passing or preparing to make a left turn, or when turning onto the highway from the left;

Motorists must dim their headlights when approaching another car from behind, as well as when approaching from the front, including on double-laned highways;

If you permit someone to operate a vehicle belonging to you in faulty condition, or in violation of traffic laws, you may be liable to arrest with the driver, if he is involved in an accident;

It is against the law to ride on the bumper, fender, radiator, hood, top, trunk or running board of a vehicle. It is also against the law to tow anyone on or with a single-seated bicycle, or to ride bikes more than two abreast or on the left hand side of the road;

If you park your car on the side of the street and open your door in such a way as to impede traffic and cause motorists to have to veer around you, you are liable to arrest;

Drivers involved in accidents amounting to property damage of $50 or more, or where anyone is injured or killed now have five days to file their written report to the Highway Department, instead of the former 24 hours.

Sen. Smathers Is Only Name Mentioned

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida Gov. Farris Bryant, chairman of the Southern Governor's Conference, said today he will work at the Democratic National Convention to get concessions for the South.

His chief goals, Bryant said, will be: —A southerner for the vice presidential candidate.

—Changes in the electoral college voting system.

—A mild civil rights plank in the platform.

Governor Bryant is a conservative, pledged to support and campaign for the election of President Lyndon Johnson. He is the head of the Florida delegation that was elected as pledged to Johnson.

Bryant attended a secret convocation of five southern governors in New Orleans last week at which the South's position in the coming Democratic convention and the November elections was fully discussed.

But apparently, and Bryant inferred as much, he was invited more because of his position as chairman of southern governors than because of his political views.

Bryant, who left the New Orleans meeting ahead of the other governors, insisted, and reiterated today, that no "concerted or common action" by the southern governors was agreed upon or even discussed while he was present.

"No vote was asked or taken," he said.

Since then, several of the governors have announced they won't attend the convention in Atlantic City, and won't go to Washington Saturday, two days ahead of the convention, to huddle with President Johnson and other Democratic governors.

Bryant is going to meet with the President for a two-hour work session and will also take his wife to dinner at the White House with the first family Saturday night.

But he said he'll be working all the time — both in Washington and in Atlantic City next week — to get the views of the South represented in the national Democratic platform.

He said he'll take advantage of both working and "social" sessions to push his views.

Nomination of a southerner for vice president would be the finest thing that could happen to the party this year as far as carrying the South is concerned, Bryant said.

He said he personally prefers Florida's junior U. S. Sen. George Smathers, but would go along with a number of other southerners.

But, he said, from what he can hear and read in the papers "it looks like the nomination is going to one of the boys from Minnesota (either Sen. Hubert Humphrey or Eugene McCarthy).

Bryant who paid a pop call on each office in the Capitol press suite for personal, private interviews rather than his usual mass Thursday news conference, as good as said the nomination of Smathers for vice president is the only way the Democrats can hope to carry Florida this fall for Johnson.

PNU TUC, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A Communist Viet Cong battalion overran an outpost in this Mekong River village south of Saigon early today and launched coordinated attacks or harassing action on four others nearby.

Harper Announces Race For City Commission

F. C. Harper Jr., Sanford businessman and civic leader, announced today his candidacy for the City Commission seat to be vacated by the incumbent, Joe Baker.

Harper is a native Seminole, graduate of Seminole High School, attended the University of Florida and served as an enlisted man in the U. S. Marine Corps overseas, and was later commissioned as a first lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper, the former Sue Collum, and their three children, reside at 2001 South Mellonville Ave. He is a member of the First Baptist Church, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, director of Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, officer in the VFW, Red Cross, and is a past president of the Florida Association of Electrical Contractors.

Under the active leadership of Harper, as president, the Sanford Merchants' Association was reorganized into a strong and active promotional group, resulting in the successful sponsoring of seasonal bargain days by the merchants of Sanford.

He is co-owner and general manager of Sanford Electric Company, one of Sanford's oldest business establishments.

Harper stated: "The time is here for our City Commission to be comprised of men with a stable, consistent and positive approach if Sanford is to assume its rightful and responsible position among the fastest growing cities in Florida.

"I pledge to actively work with all of the citizens and business people of Sanford for the orderly development and progress of Sanford with emphasis on fiscal responsibility."

LBJ Signs Anti-Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson cemented a major legislative victory today by signing into law a $94.5 billion "war on poverty" bill which he said will stimulate a "new era of progress" for those who have not

BEN WIGGINS

Seminole Soil Conservationist Wins Promotion

Ben Wiggins, local soil conservationist for Seminole County since 1951 has been promoted to the Brevard County Unit, and assumed his new duties there this week.

Wiggins will be replaced in Seminole County by Russell S. Rudd of Ocala.

Rudd is a graduate of the University of Florida and was with the Agricultural Extension Service for seven years before joining the Soil Conservation Service 15 months ago.

He is a native of Gadsden County and has a wife and two children.

During Wiggins' service here technical assistance has been provided to over 400 operators or local land owners in working out conservation plans for their farms.

Consulting services were also provided to numerous individuals, groups, schools and civic organizations during the past 14 years.

Wiggins and his staff have completed a detailed soil survey of all land in Seminole County and a report is expected within the next year.

Wiggins is a graduate of the University of Florida. He began his career with the Soil Conservation Service in 1949. He has been active in many civic enterprises during his 14 years in Seminole County.

Truck Breaks Man's Finger
Howard Hughes of Post Office Box 414, Sanford, suffered a fractured finger Wednesday night when a truck backed against a bench on which he was sitting at Magnolia Ave. and First St.

Police said a truck operated by Alphonso A. Linton of Rochester, N.Y., was being backed out of a parking space when the motor quit and the truck moved forward against the bench. Hughes was treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

New Tax Cut?
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration officials said today that President Johnson plans to ask Congress next year to cut excise taxes by $1 billion to $3 billion in time for the nation's 1965 Christmas shopping.

shared in America's prosperity.

"The days of the dole in this country are numbered," the President declared before using more than 50 pens to place his signature on the measure at a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden.

In an obvious reply to Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater's charge that the poverty program is just an election year gimmick to win votes, Johnson asserted:

"This is not a cynical proposal to exploit the poor with the promise of a handout or a dole."

Instead he said the program aims at getting unemployed youth "off the streets" and into job training, so they can look forward to a "productive life, not a wasted life."

"Every dollar spent will result in savings to the country and especially to local taxpayers in the cost of crime, welfare, health and police protection," Johnson said.

The signing was witnessed by a large number of House and Senate members, mostly Democrats; cabinet members, including Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy; governors and mayors, including Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York; business and labor leaders; and Sargent Shriver, whom Johnson will nominate to head the program.

"The American answer to poverty is not to make the poor more secure in their poverty but to help them reach down and help themselves out of the ruts of poverty," the President said. "The American people and the American system are making history," Johnson asserted.

"Today, for the first time in the history of the human race, a great nation is willing to make, and able to make, a commitment to eliminate poverty among our people. . . I firmly believe that as of this moment a new opportunity is dawning and a new era of progress is opening for us all."

Papy Quaiffes
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Herule C. Papy Jr., Key West, was qualified today as a candidate for the House of Representatives seat from Monroe County.

Sheriff Fights Aide's Ouster
ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — Sheriff L. O. Davis said today he would seek legal help from state officials in fighting a federal judge's order that one of his deputies resign.

U. S. District Judge Bryan Simpson of Jacksonville found volunteer deputy Charles Lance Jr., and a motel manager in contempt of court Wednesday in the first such action taken under the Civil Rights Act.

Simpson ordered Lance to resign his unsalaried position as deputy and ordered him and motel manager William Chew to pay attorney's fees for the Negroes who brought the suit.

"I'm hoping the state will take notice of this action of Judge Simpson's and give us some legal help," said Davis.

The sheriff called Lance "a fine man" who was acting under orders when he followed Negroes to protect them. Davis said Simpson himself had ordered local authorities to protect Negroes.

3 Die As Train Cuts Car In Two

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — A railroad engine split an automobile in two as it crossed today, killing three persons and critically injuring one.

City police said the car, carrying four local residents, twisted around the lowered rail barricade in an effort to beat the Seaboard Air Line railroad engine, which was pulling only a caboose.

The wreck happened minutes after the four — two young men and their dates — had left a night club, police said.

Dead were Jerry Dean Washington, 21, Bessie Stevens, 23, and Miss Eddie Willis Sitt, 23.

Critically injured was James Robert Johnson, 23.

Sanford Boy Scouts Re-Paint Aircraft

TROOP 244 Boy Scouts scraped and painted the Navy aircraft which is exhibited at Campbell-Lossing American Legion Home last Saturday when they met at the post for a general clean-up day in preparation for this Saturday night's court of honor. A total of 15 boys took part in the project under general supervision of Scoutmaster Jim Duhon.

69 YEARS OF WEAR in four months — The sturdy construction of a Mackle-built home has again been proven at the World's Fair. More than 1,000,000 feet have trod and shuffled through this Deltona model with no appreciable wear and tear to the traffic pattern inside the house. Only the rugs need frequent cleaning and the walls fresh painting. Mackle engineers figure the half million visitors so far equal a family of four using the same traffic pattern for approximately 69 years of normal living.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING of the main exhibit building of the Florida Circus Showcase, ground for which was broken Wednesday at Winter Haven.

Ground Broken For Showcase

WINTER HAVEN (Special) — Concentrated orange juice which was packed during the 1949-50 citrus season by the Minute Maid Company was served to those attending the ground breaking ceremonies for the main exhibit building of the Florida Circus Showcase (successor of the Florida Citrus Exposition) Wednesday.

The audience agreed on the excellence of the 14 year old juice and regarded the serving of the drink as "most appropriate" since the new 16 acre site of the Showcase near Lake Lulu is a part of the 97 acre recreational tract which the City of Winter Haven purchased from Minute Maid five years ago. The site for the Showcase was donated by the City.

The ground breaking climaxed an eight-year effort by the Exposition authorities to secure a larger site and better facilities than the old one which had been used since 1929. The site will provide space for the 23,000 square foot circular shaped concrete building, the only one of its kind in the state.

The $210,000 structure, including furnishings and "contingency fund" is being made possible by donations of $18,000 from the Citrus Commission, $25,000 each from the City of Winter Haven and the State Department of Agriculture and a loan of $145,000 from the three local banks.

The Navy aircraft exhibited on ground of Sanford American Legion Campbell-Lossing Post 33 was scraped and painted by Boy Scout Troop 244 last Saturday when the boys met at the post home for a general clean-up day in preparation for court of honor ceremonies scheduled there this Saturday evening.

In addition to repainting the plane, the group under direction of Scoutmaster Jim Duhon, dusted and mopped floors of the hall and cleaned and mowed the lot.

At noon the working crew had sack lunches and lamosade.

Taking part in the clean-up project were Fred Welder, Jack Hansen, Daniel Bernsky, Waine Thompson, Mike Parrish, Tommy Foster, Donald Corkill, Jim Russell, Michael Shannon, Jim Prokocch, Charles Knight, Pat Morgan, Johnny Ramsey, Johnny Foster and Kenneth Russell.

Troop 224 is sponsored by the Elks Lodge of Sanford and has a membership of 30 boys. Regular meetings are held each Wednesday evening at the American Legion home.

PRIZES in the second fishathon sponsored by the DeBary Fishing Club as part of the summer youth program were won by, from left, Andrea Barber, smallest fish; Jimmy Glenn, largest fish and Joseph Sweeney, most fish. Poles, bait and prizes were provide by the club. (Cox Photo)

Slavia 4-H Boy Writes Essay On Studies Of Conservation

By Evelyn Lundy

Editors Note: George Bradshaw, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bradshaw of Slavia who spent several days this summer at Camp McQuarrie with a large group of Florida 4-H boys, has written the following essay which will be entered in national competition. An active 4-H Club member for the past five years, George is vice president of the county council this year and will be a sixth grade student at Slavia. He is most interested in conservation and plans to make his career along such lines.

Camp McQuarrie, located in the Ocala National Forest, was the sight of the recent 29th annual Wildlife Camp. This camp is designed mostly for the older 4-Her who has an interest in the conservation of our natural resources. One hundred and eight boys were chosen from 24 counties to attend the camp for a week of learning and fun. The camp is sponsored by the Federal Cartridge Corporation in co-operation with C. L. Horn, president of the firm.

BECKY FITZGERALD

Lake Mary Youngster Wins WHOO Title

By Frances Wester

Rebecca Ann (Becky) Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell R. Fitzgerald of Lake Mary was crowned "Little Miss WHOO of Orlando" in ceremonies held Wednesday night.

The contest was in celebration of radio station WHOO's sixth anniversary party and those competing by photo had to be six years old during the month of August. Becky, who was chosen from the accompanying photo, is even prettier in real life.

In addition to the glory of winning the contest and being crowned, Becky also received a complete wardrobe for the coming school year.

There were four classes held each day such as fishing and fishing tackle, wildlife, forestry, and gun safety. Teaching the boys was a group of men, each specializing in the field that they were teaching. Mr. Jim Roland, salesman for the Robinson Tackle Company and expert fisherman, taught the fishing and fishing tackle class. Mr. A. S. Jensen, Assistant Extension Forester, taught the forestry class. In gun safety, Mr. W. J. Platt Jr. and L. C. Cobb, taught the boys the rules of gun safety and how to handle and shoot a gun properly. A group of Biologists from the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, taught the Wildlife Conservation class. Everyone enjoyed these classes for the reason that what these men taught them should be practiced and not just heard.

Each night the boys were shown movies of conservation practices in use. On August 3 the boys were privileged to have 14 guests from seven different counties. The men and women who are county agents in their own county, came over to this camp to see how we operate our Department of Agriculture and our 4-H Club.

The next day, the 8th, everyone at camp was taken on a tour and cook-out in the Ocala National Forest. The United States Forestry Service gave this cook-out and tour.

The camp adjourned on Sat. Aug. 8th, bringing a week of excitement and fun to a close. The boys have given up a week of their time to learn important facts of a cleaner and richer American way of living and they have received the best of training from the best instructors. The county agents and instructors are to be very highly commended for what they have accomplished in past and present times and most certainly the future, toward making the BEST, BETTER through the use of the 4-H's HEAD, HEART, HANDS AND HEALTH.

Contract Let

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A contract to build a new post office at Winter Park and lease it to the Post Office Department was awarded Wednesday to George and Marie Hill.

Stiles Named

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — John D. Stiles, Jacksonville, was named assistant director of marketing in the State Department of Agriculture. The position becomes effective Sept. 1.

SQUADRON EMBLEM is placed at the new quarters of Heavy Attack Squadron 13 at Sanford Naval Air Station. The unit has just joined the local base after a prolonged tour of duty on the West Coast. Lt. (jg) G. H. Digie, gives an assist to B. F. O'Connor, A2AN, in setting up the emblem.

VAH-13 FLAG is set up in the main offices of Heavy Attack Squadron 13's quarters at Sanford Naval Air Station. Lt. Cdr. J. L. Griffin inspects the flag while K. A. Doucet, ATNS, places the base in its socket. The squadron joined the local facility this week, arriving here from the West Coast.

SQUADRON RECORDS are shown being carried into the building of Heavy Attack Squadron 13 as the unit arrived at Sanford Naval Air Station from duty in the State of Washington. Shown are B. F. O'Connor, A2AN, and K. A. Doucet, ATNS. Additional personnel will be airlifted here soon. (Herald Photos)

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My problem may not sound very serious to you, but it has caused a small war between my girl and me. I am a mechanic, 23 and single. I am going with a very nice girl who is 22 and works in an office. Her office is having a party. (A hayride, of all things.) They decided not to ask anyone who is NOT employed in their office. That isn't too bad. But the clincher is that no wives or husbands are invited. They are all over 21 and drinks are served. If I were a married man working in an office, I wouldn't go to an office party if my wife was not welcome. My girl is on the hayride committees and she says I don't work in an office and I don't know what I'm talking about; that any time you have married couples at a drinking party it always ends up in a drunken brawl. Am I wrong? Or is she?

MECHANIC: She is. And, furthermore, if a married person is in danger of becoming involved in a "drunken brawl," he is better off with his own wife. DEAR ABBY: I am an attractive (I'm told) 23-year-old woman who has more than her share of dates, so please don't think I'm man-hungry. I have a next-door neighbor who is approximately 26. He has been living there with his brother and sister-in-law for about a year. I am not the flirty type, so things have been going slow. I know he is shy, and so far the most I have been able to get out of him is a "hello." I know he is aware of my existence, but that's about it. I don't think he has a steady girl as he's home a lot. How can I go about wrangling a date with him?

INTERESTED: DEAR INTERESTED: Your best bet is to become better acquainted with the sister-in-law. You can always borrow a cup of sugar. Once she knows you better, if the man is available, interested, and normal, you'll have your chance. Otherwise, who needs him?

DEAR ABBY: I would like to know what to do about a neighbor who talks about sex all the time. No matter what anybody says, he always puts a dirty meaning to it, and gets off on his favorite subject. He uses filthy words, too. His wife must think it's cute because she is right there and she laughs right along with him. The rest of us are embarrassed and try to change the subject, but he can turn any subject back to sex again. We are disgusted with him but don't know how to handle the situation. Any suggestions? "MRS. CLEAN"

DEAR "MRS. CLEAN": A good friend could tell old foul-mouth to shape up or shut up. Unless a one's around, how out of his company and avoid him. CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAILOR ON THE U. S. S. KITTY HAWK CVA-63": Glad to hear that under that uniform beats the heart of an "old-fashioned" boy who has respect for virtue and womanhood. And you'll be glad to know that there's an "old-fashioned" girl for every man in your outfit!

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

Men frequently complain that women are difficult to live with. They forget that there are two sides to a coin. These suggestions are for you husbands to consider and, judging from the letters many wives have written, you should benefit from these hints. 1. Share the doings of the day with your wife. Don't clam up as soon as you get home in the evening. The "strong silent type" with emphasis on the "silent," is a bore to live with. 2. Have enough common courtesy to let your wife know if you are going to be late to dinner. Nothing annoys a woman more than to get a meal ready to serve and then have to sit and wait because the man of the family hasn't bothered to say he'll be late. 3. Be neat. No woman likes to feel like a servant—and that's the way she feels if she has to pick up after you constantly. 4. Show some appreciation for the things your wife does for your comfort. And go easy on criticism. Praise gets quicker results than fault-finding. 5. Don't be a stay-at-home stick-in-the-mud. Most wives like some social life, but it isn't much fun if they have to argue before you'll go with them. 6. Work out some kind of financial arrangement so that your wife doesn't have to ask for every cent she spends. That may make you feel big and important—but it's hard on her dignity. 7. Tell her how important she is to your happiness. When a woman knows she is needed she will do her best to make you happy.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

8-9 P.M. CBS. Rawhide. "Incident at Quivira." Royal Dano tonight plays a seemingly demented prospector who talks Mushy into stealing horses and supplies for a journey to a lost treasure. Eric Fleming and Clint Eastwood star with James Murdoch as Mushy.

8:30-9:30 P.M. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "One Clear, Bright Thursday Morning." Miyoshi Ueki is so wonderful as a pregnant leukemia victim that she makes this fundamentally depressing story an exhilarating experience. James Shigeta co-stars as her doctor husband.

9:30-10 P.M. NBC. New Christy Minstrels. Another pleasant folk and comedy session with the large, loud alleging group and the very withdrawn, very funny comedian, Jackie Vernon. This show was taped at Knotts Berry Farm, Southern California's chief competitor to Disneyland. The songs include Randy Sparks' versions of "Ravin' Gambler," "Wagoner's Song," "You Know My Name," etc.

9:30-10:30 P.M. ABC. The Jimmy Dean Show. Loaded with gimmicks tonight. Lashle is Rowf's guest and, considering that "she" is a he, one has to be a bit dubious about Rowf after he serenades "her" with a love song. Patty Duke guests and sings. Jimmy offers a few folksy numbers, Jackie Mason is on hand for one of his patented dialect routines, Tex Ritter adds a western touch and the Jubilee Four contributes a spiritual.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

The East and West hands are not shown today because you don't need to see them in order to play the hand properly. All you need to know is that East follows to the first trick with the three of hearts. You start by "C"ounting your winners, both sure and first trick you are sure of eight tricks and can make 11 if you pick up the queen of diamonds. Now you "A"nalyze the lead and "R"eview the bidding and note that if you lose to the queen of diamonds and if West has led the queen from a five-card suit the defense will cash four heart tricks and set you. You also note that West has over-called and probably has that five-card suit.

a heart to lead to his partner. How about a four-card heart suit? In that case, you can lose to the diamond queen and still make the hand. Now about that likely five-card suit? How can you make the hand? Suppose you let the queen of hearts hold? West may continue. In that case, you win with the king and finesse against West. East can make the queen of diamonds if he has it but your contract will be safe. Suppose West shifts? Now you finesse against East for the queen of diamonds. If West holds it he will take a trick with it but you will still have the hearts stopped and will wind up with your diamonds, three spades and two clubs.

Table with columns for NORTH, SOUTH, WEST, and EAST, listing card suits and tricks.

Louisiana Threatens To Bolt Convention

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Gov. John J. McKeithen has warned Louisiana might be the next target of the "Freedom Party" if the predominantly Negro group gets the Mississippi delegation's seats at the Democratic national convention.

McKeithen repeated at a news conference yesterday the 84-member Louisiana delegation will walk out of the convention if the regular Mississippi delegation is denied its seats.

The convention's credentials committee has withheld seats from the Mississippi delegation because of the dispute with the "Freedom Party" over who gets the chairs.

McKeithen said if the regular delegation were refused seats it could lead to "a breakup of the National Democratic party as we know it."

However, he added he thought the national party would be "realistic" and seat the white delegation.

He said he told the Louisiana group to walk out if any southern delegation is denied seats. He said he felt most would follow his instructions.

A Louisiana delegate holding public office would commit political suicide if he decided to stay, McKeithen said. A delegate with political ambitions would also have to return home, he added.

McKeithen said early this week he will not attend the convention which opens Monday in Atlantic City.

He added he did not think

President Johnson was the choice of the majority of the state delegation. He said the group would be willing to support a favorite son candidate from the South but did not know who would be nominated.

McKeithen said he did not discuss a potential favorite son candidate with four other southern governors at a meeting last week in a New Orleans hotel room.

On the tidelands issue, McKeithen said he did not feel the presidential race would effect chances of a settlement. Earlier, he said he believed any tidelands accord would come before the fall election.

Florida Boy Killed

ROANOKE, Va. (UPI) — Christopher Alexander Myers, 14, of Eau Gallie, Fla., was fatally struck Monday by a car while riding his bicycle along Route 60 near Covington in Allegheny County. He died five hours later in a Roanoke hospital.

Hoffa Denies Union In Revolt

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Teamsters union president James Hoffa emerged from the opening four hour session of the union's executive board here yesterday and said: "There's no revolt."

"There's no question in my mind about who's running the union. There's no question in anyone's mind in the Teamsters. The revolt is just in the minds of you reporters, and you're not members of the union," he said.

Hoffa, facing two federal court decisions sentencing him to a total of 13 years in prison, reiterated the union's executive board meeting is routine and wouldn't discuss his future as union boss.

Hoffa is appealing both prison sentences.

Asked if the board meeting was being held in Miami Beach to avoid summonses at Teamster's headquarters in Washington, Hoffa replied, "We've met in Miami Beach for 20 years."

He has not asked the board for a vote of confidence.

"There's no reason to ask for one," he said.

Bryant Denies He Wants Job As FSU Prexy

ORLANDO (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant flatly denied yesterday he had any intention of becoming the next president at Florida State University.

"The Bryant family plans only to move back to Ocala where I will enter my private (law) practice again this fall," Bryant said.

He made the statement during a television (WFTV) interview here which was taped for broadcast Sunday.

Unconfirmed reports had been circulating that Bryant would be in line for the Florida State position following the resignation of Dr. Gordon Blackwell. Last month Bryant said he would not accept or refuse a job that hadn't been offered him.

Blackwell stepped down from the job to accept a similar post at Furman University in Greenville, S.C., following criticism from a board of control member, Carl Forman, who said Blackwell permitted a climate of ultra-liberalism to develop at the campus.

The Governor also said he would not attend the Democratic convention's platform committee meeting in Atlantic City Thursday since he had an appointment with President Johnson in Washington Friday.

Bryant and 28 other Democratic governors will meet with the President on the eve of the national Democratic convention at the White House.

Baby Bitten By Monkey

MIAMI (UPI) — A 16-month-old baby faces a series of painful rabies shots starting today unless doctors can find the monkey that bit him.

Thomas Vanaman was bitten on the arm while sitting in a car at a used car lot. His parents were looking at automobiles.

The monkey belonged to another customer who said he was an employe of a soft drink company.

Republicans Try To Make Political Hay With LBJ Family Fortune

WASHINGTON (UPI) — mostly due to the television boom during that time. The family has interests in valuable Texas broadcast properties. As set forth by the auditing firm of Haskins & Sells, the figures represented the "book" value of the family's extensive holdings. There was no estimate of what the real estate and broadcast properties would bring if sold on the current market but Life magazine this week put the figure at about $14 million.

Republican national Chairman Dean Burch said the estimated net wealth of the Johnsons was "incredibly low." "It is peculiar that the bulk of his fortune was made in areas subject to federal control," he said. Burch told a news conference "Johnson must be 'the greatest free enterpriser in the world' to have amassed this fortune while drawing a salary averaging slightly over $12,000 annually since entering public service in 1951. Rising to the stack after the Burch statement came usually mild-mannered Mike Mansfield, Senate Democratic leader and close personal friend of the President. He accused the GOP of running a presidential campaign "attended to the titillations of a pitchman at a financial peep-show."

Mansfield told the senate he was delighted that Johnson had issued the financial statement. He labeled "political prowlers" those who "slunk into the financial history of the Johnson family and, finding nothing suitable for jackals, slunk out again to spread the half-truth and half-inuendo." The holdings of Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater and his wife totaled $1.7 million, mostly in stocks and bonds, as of June 30, according to the Phoenix, Ariz., bank which administers the couple's trust accounts.

Library Sets New Schedule

By Julia Hartow
Mrs. James Walter, president of the Altamonte Springs Library Association, today announced a change in library schedules for the fall. Starting Tuesday, Sept. 1, the library will be open on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2 until 5 p. m. and on Saturdays from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. Mrs. Florence Courson, librarian, and her staff, have publicly expressed appreciation to the anonymous donor of the rug which was left recently at the library. It now is on the library floor and is quite an improvement.

Tolls $841,410

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Drivers paid $841,410 in July to use the state's toll bridges as a near-record number of cars rolled over the facilities.

RICHARD L. Atchison, a aviation electronics technician third class was advanced to his present rate on June 25. He was presented his certificate of advancement at ceremonies held at Naval Air Station, Sanford. Atchison's knowledge of his rate enabled him to achieve a high score on the Navy-wide competitive examination and lead to his advancement in rate. Atchison entered the Naval Service on Sept. 13, 1962 at Raleigh, N. C.

Fashion Stylist Stages Constructive Clinic On Latest Sewing Techniques

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Miss Barbara Lieuwen, fashion stylist for the McCall Pattern Fashions of New York, recently conducted a clinic at the Caucus Room of The First Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Mrs. Caroline Holtzclaw, owner of Milady's Fabric Shoppe and sponsor of the clinic, introduced the attractive Miss Lieuwen, who held the large and attentive audience captive.

The stylist gave instructions on the proper selection of a pattern and the correct procedure in pattern adjustment, whether too large or too small. She explained in detail the proper placement of darts and the method of enlarging or decreasing them.

Miss Lieuwen was stunning in a two piece ensemble of Beuterne silk, featuring a loose fitted bodice with a rolled collar and three quarter length sleeves with accessories in accord. She graciously answered a barrage of questions from the audience and continued the session later with further questions and answers at Milady Shoppe.

Homemakers

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

I am really pleased by the response of ladies wishing the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Recipe Book. I am still receiving calls about it. That's great, and I hope more homemakers will write for it.

It's an old American custom to take many everyday things for granted. The brightly labeled cans of fruit on our well-stocked pantry shelves, for example are rarely given a second thought. But it hasn't always been possible to have tree-ripened fruits in mid-winter... to have the fixin's for a desert or salad within easy reach, or to even buy the variety of canned fruits available today. Why do we enjoy these conveniences?

Because the canning industry has realized and met the need for these canned fruits, canned fruits make salad fixing easy and fun. Some salads you can make in a jiffy, just by garnishing a sweet fruit with a simple topping. Then there are molded and frozen salads too, which require a little more preparation time. Here are a few tips and hints for salads.

Use a favorite canned fruit alone or combine several. Top with softened cream cheese, cottage cheese, coconut, chopped nuts, or any other good-to-eat topping.

Garnish a platter of sliced meat with peach halves filled with current jelly, pear halves topped with cranberry sauce, apricot halves filled with mayonnaise and a dash of horseradish, or try pineapple chunks broiled on a skewer.

For parties, make tasty appetizers by broiling pineapple chunks wrapped in half slices of bacon.

PINEAPPLE CARAMEL PIE
1/2 cup brown sugar
3 tbs. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. salt
1 No. 2 1/2 can crushed pineapple
1 tbs. grated orange peel
2 tbs. butter
1 recipe plain pastry (for 3 crust pie)
Mix brown sugar, cornstarch and salt. Combine with a little of the crushed pineapple; blend well. Add remaining pineapple. Cook, stirring constantly until thick and clear. Remove from heat; stir in orange peel and butter. Cool slightly. Line a 9 inch pie pan with pastry, leaving 1/2 inch hanging over edge of pan. Pour in pineapple mixture. For lattice top, roll pastry to size of pan. Cut 10 strips, 1/4 inch wide. Lay half of strips one way across filling. (Twist strips as they are laid across pie.) Lay same number of strips diagonally across. Seal and flute. Bake in a hot oven (325 degrees) about 25 min. Serves 6.

MOLDED PEAR SALAD
1 can No. 2 1/2 size, pear halves
1 cup pear syrup
1 pkg. lime-flavored gelatin
1 cup gingerale
Drain pears. Heat pear syrup, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add gingerale. Chill until slightly thickened. Arrange pears, cut side down, in rows in a shallow pan. Pour in gelatin. Chill until firm. Cut so each piece contains a pear half. Place on salad greens and top with mayonnaise.

MOLDED FRUIT COCKTAIL
1 No. 303 can fruit cocktail

1/4 cup chopped pecans
1 pkg. lemon flavored gelatin
Drain cocktail. Add enough water to fruit cocktail syrup to make 2 cups. Heat; add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in drained fruit cocktail and pecans. Mold as desired. Chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens. Serve with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Need a good recipe for left-over Ham? Here's one from the Rice Council that is quick to do.

SWEET AND SOUR HAM OVER RICE
1 No. 2 can apricot halves
3 tbs. butter
1/4 cup arrowroot
1/4 cups chicken broth
1 1/4 lbs. cooked ham, cut in 1" pieces
1/2 cup dark elder vinegar
1/2 cup sugar
3 tbs. soy sauce
4/4 cups hot cooked rice
2 green peppers, cut in 1 inch pieces
Drain apricots and reserve liquid. Melt butter in a saucepan. Stir in arrowroot. Stir until smooth. Gradually add chicken broth and apricot juice, stirring constantly to prevent lumping. Add ham, green pepper, vinegar, sugar, and soy sauce. Stir until mixture begins to thicken. Add apricot halves, cover and simmer for 15 minutes. Serve the Sweet and Sour Ham mixture over beds of hot fluffy white rice. Serves 6.

PIRATE "PATUCIES"
1/2 lb. butter
2 tbs. brown sugar
1 orange (4 tbs.) juice and 1/2 cup grated American cheese
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
3 egg yolks and 1 whole egg
2 1/4 cups pastry flour
2 tsp. baking powder
2 tbs. sweet cream
Cream butter well, add sugar gradually, then orange juice, grated rind and cheese. Mix thoroughly. Add salt, nutmeg, and eggs. Add flour (sifted with baking powder) alternately with cream. Beat until smooth. Place in refrigerator for 1 hour to chill. Roll to 1/4 inch thickness on slightly floured board. Cut with floured 3/4 inch cookie cutter. Place 1 teaspoon grape jelly on circle, moisten edge of the circle with milk, and place another circle on top, pressing edges together. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven 425 degrees for 10 minutes. Makes 3 1/2 dozen cookies.

Mangos are now at their best. Serve them fresh for any meal during the day as an appetizer, in fresh fruit salad, as a dessert. Their unique blend of peach-pear flavor is at its peak when the fruit is eaten fresh. For an unusual treat for the family try this

MANGO NUT BREAD
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs
1/2 cup raw mango, cut fine
2 cups sifted flour
2 tsp. soda
1 tbs. lime juice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs. Stir in dry ingredients, mango and lime juice. Mix all together. Add 1/2 cup of chopped nuts. Bake in a loaf pan at 375 degrees for 1 hour. Do not cut until second day.

Freeze mangos with sugar or syrup. Very ripe, juice mangos may be frozen without sugar or cyrup.

Mango slices - Wash and peel mangos. Cut off slices. Do not slice off flesh near the seed, as this is unusually fibrous.

FOR SUGAR PACK-Cover with cold syrup. To make syrup, boil 1 1/2 cups sugar to 2 cups water.

FOR DRY PACK-Pack in to containers and seal. Lime juice may be added to syrup if desired.

We have a request for RHUBARB CONSERVE. We hope the homemaker likes this one.

3 lbs. rhubarb
2 oranges
3/4 cups sugar
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 lemon
Grate rind of oranges and lemons. Extract juice. Wash rhubarb. Cut in 1/2 inch pieces. Combine all ingredients except nuts and heat slowly until sugar is dissolved. Simmer slowly, stirring constantly, until mixture is thick and clear. Add nuts and cook 5 minutes.

Women's Hair Strength Proves Astounding

Know why the cave man used his love's hair as a handle to pull her by? He wanted her to go with him, yes. But hair is one of the strongest animal fibers. A woman's head of hair can support the equivalent of five tons of weight without pulling from the roots. So, one way to take a lady from one place to another, drag her by the hair—but at your own risk.

Bedside Marriage Ceremony Unites Miss Jeanne Patchin, D. M. Simpson

A most unique wedding ceremony was performed last Sunday afternoon, August 16, at 2 p.m. at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Timms, 2430 Myrtle Ave. Rev. Timms, who is suffering from a broken foot in traction and a sciatic nerve condition, officiated from his bedside, in uniting Miss Jennie Patchin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Patchin of Sanford and David M. Simpson, son of Mrs. Catherine Simpson of Yale, Ill. In holy matrimony in the presence of close friends and relatives.

Although informal, the double ring ceremony was most impressive, using a small unusual pulpit draped in red velvet, trimmed with gold fringe, which the Timms brought with them from Birmingham, England in 1924.

Attending the bride as matron of honor, was her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Vogel of Sanford. Michael Hinkel of R-VAH-1 served the groom as best man.

A neighbor Mrs. Ashby Jones, who was unaware that a wedding was in progress came to visit Rev. Timms, and being a vocalist, provided the impromptu nuptial music.

The bride is formerly from Hudson, N. Y., having lived in Sanford for the past three years. The groom is serving a tour of duty with the United States Navy, and is presently attached to R-VAH-9, stationed at Sanford Naval Air Station. The young couple will make their home in Sanford.

REV. W. E. TIMMS, in bed, performing marriage ceremony Sunday, August 16, 1964, uniting Miss Jeanne Patchin of Sanford and David M. Simpson of Yale, Ill. The unique ceremony transpired at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Timms on Myrtle Avenue.

Flower Arranging To Be Conducted By Professional

Flowers no longer have a season, thanks to the new life-like polyethylene plastic blooms. These flowers bloom all year around.

To help teach women in the area how to arrange these flowers in attractive bouquets and designs, the J. C. Penney Company Department Store here will provide special instructions.

Penney's has arranged for Sal Bianco, professional custom floral designer from New York, to be on hand opening day, August 20, at the new J. C. Penney Winter Park Mall.

Customers will be able to choose life-like flowers from a large collection of the newest colors and styles. Mr. Bianco will arrange a customer's selections in attractive bouquets to match individual home decor.

Penney's cordially invites all interested persons to attend Mr. Bianco's demonstrations. As a bonus to persons attending, a folder on "Flower Arranging for Enjoyment" will be distributed.

Earliest Petroleum

North American Indians made the first known use for petroleum. They found oil seeping up through cracks in the earth and coming out on top of water in springs. These Indians were using oil for medicinal purposes when Jesuit missionaries first came to the continent in the early 1600s.

County's Grid Elevens Continue Working On Fundamentals

Pigott States Punting Game Needs Polish

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer

Seminole High's second day of grid punting and passing drills. According to Head Coach Jim Pigott the Tribe's punting game needs much work. Pigott added that the extra points and kick offs looked good.

More lettermen returning Wednesday were Ronnie Hinson, Steve Clark, and Danny Tillie. Others coming out for the first time to try for positions on the 34-member squad included Ricky Dyess, Don Nicholas, Horace Johnson, Truby Kinland, and Phil Rohn.

Hinson and Joe Farless put the athletes through conditioning exercises after which they were divided into two groups for working purposes. JayVee coaches Ralph Stumpf and John Colbert worked with some of the younger candidates and varsity coaches Jim McCoy and Dick Williams worked with the lettermen and the rest of the candidates.

According to Williams, varsity backs look good, but they need a lot of practice and work on their timing.

McCoy said the varsity line is full of spirit and is working hard on the basic fundamentals of blocking and defensive maneuvers.

Pigott named Hinson, Farless, and David Neel as acting captains for the season. The squad wound up its practice by running plays and doing more conditioning exercises. Pigott described it as "a fine work out."

Although Titusville is not in the Metro Conference, the opener with the Terriers is expected to be a stiff contest. The Tribe opened its season last year with a 14-18 win over Titusville. The Terriers have been trying to edge the Seminoles for a number of years and are expected to come up with tough grid machine this year.

Baby Seminoles Plan To Defend Spotless Record

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer

The opening contest of the season for the Seminole High JayVees will be against the Winter Park Wildcats Sept. 24. The affair will be held in Winter Park.

This will be the first year for the Junior Varsity to play in the Metro Conference. Going into their initial game of the season, the JayVees have a very impressive record of 30 wins, no losses, and one tie.

Under the superb leadership of Coaches Ralph Stumpf and John Colbert the Baby Seminoles scored 93 points and were unscored upon last year.

The JayVees have a big reputation to live up to and everyone is watching to see if they do. According to Stumpf it's to soon to tell how well the team will do until the SHS varsity is selected.

The Junior varsity schedule for this year will be as follows:

Winter Park, Sept. 24.
away; Boone, Oct. 1, away;
Colonial, Oct. 8, here; Oak Ridge, Oct. 15, here; Evans, Oct. 22, here and Edgewater, Oct. 24, away.

Thinking Out Loud ...

Mira Needs His Own Ends, Say SF Fans

Editor's Note: Having resided in California a number of years and being counted among the ardent fans of the San Francisco 49'ers, we were anxious to find out exactly how the former University of Miami quarterback, George Mira, fared with the 49'ers fans in his first full-fledged appearance with the west coast pro grid eleven.

By Hal Wood
UPI Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The whole town's talking about George.

That's George Mira, son. And he's a quarterback with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

There's no proof yet that the former Miami of Florida grid star will make it in the big leagues.

But he has turned into one of the juiciest tidbits for football conversation since they first tried the forward pass a half century ago.

Mira wasn't exactly a bowling success in his first shot in the pro ranks. He completed only four out of 16 pass attempts. And that's not going to keep him in business. But he did drive the Forty Niners 84 yards for a touchdown.

The test game was against the Dallas Cowboys and he decided Mira would be strictly a passer. But before he got through, Gorgeous George had convinced them he also could run with the ball.

The comments from fans varied:

"He looks like a second Frankie Albert."

U. S. Attorneys Look Into CBS Deal On Yanks

NEW YORK (UPI)—Officials of the Columbia Broadcasting System CBS expressed no alarm when they learned the Justice Department's antitrust lawyers are scanning their purchase of the New York Yankees.

"The best legal advice that CBS could get assures us that no conflict with antitrust laws is involved," said Frank Stanton, president of the network, and Board Chairman William Paley in a joint statement Wednesday night.

UPI learned Wednesday in Washington that the Justice Department is conducting a preliminary investigation of the sale of 80 per cent of the Yankees to CBS for $11.2 million.

A Justice Department source pointed out that the antitrust division normally conducts a preliminary investigation of all matters in which a question of monopoly has arisen. It is used to determine whether a full investigation aimed at prosecution should be undertaken.

The Supreme Court has held that baseball is exempt from antitrust laws, but television networks are not exempt.

One of the questions raised immediately by the sale was whether CBS might obtain an unfair advantage in future bidding for rights to broadcast the World Series. CBS would have to bid in equal competition with all other networks, sponsors and with pay television. There is no conceivable way through which CBS could gain preferential treatment.

"Organized baseball is not going to show favoritism to one network over others because it owns a club — or for any other reason."

Teacher, Pupil Clash Tonight In AFL Contest

By United Press International

It'll be a case of the pupil trying to show his old teacher how it's done when quarterback Jack Lee leads the Denver Broncos against George Blanda and Houston tonight in an American Football League exhibition game on the Oiler's home ground.

Lee, who labored in the shadow of Blanda his entire career, much in the same manner as Y. A. Tittle to grow old, was sent to Denver by Houston last week in an unusual "lend-lease" deal.

The Jets, who trimmed the Patriots, 22-7, reported that offensive tackle Jack Klotz was the only casualty of the game.

The Patriots, on the other hand, reported a serious injury to reserve linebacker Don McKinnon as a result of the Jets' game. McKinnon fractured a hip socket and will be lost to his team at least three weeks.

In weekend action, Kansas City meets San Diego Saturday on the Chiefs' home ground and Buffalo travels to Oakland to play the Raiders on Sunday.

Greyhounds To Don Suits For Monday's Drill

By Jim Baehus
Herald Sports Writer

Head Coach Jim Copeland will suit out his Lyman High Greyhounds Monday in pads and practice uniforms as he continues to prepare his charges for their first season as a member of the Orange Belt Conference.

Handicapped somewhat because of the lack of returning lettermen, Copeland is nevertheless getting ready for what he considers will be a tough campaign.

Wednesday Copeland and his aides—Tom Barnes and Rodney Umberger, held only one workout—a one hour and 45-minute session which featured the fine performances of backfield men Al Cantrel, Jack Blanton, Allie Buesao and guard Chuck Wagner.

The Hounds continued to work on conditioning with the squad divided into three groups, ends, linemen and backs. Copeland had his backs doing quite a bit of running. Umberger ran his ends through pass patterns and Barnes put the interior linemen through some light (without pads) contact work. But the order of the day was the emphasis on the skills sessions. Copeland and his assistants outlined a number of offensive plays the 'Hounds will utilize this season.

Several new men joined the squad for workouts, including Jimmie Chambers, who is reported to be probably the fastest man on the team.

The Greyhounds will open their season against the Ocoee Cardinals.

Chicago Nips Yanks; Phils Extend Margin

United Press International

As a well known writer once said, rooting for the New York Yankees is like rooting for General Motors.

But somebody's going to have to pull a bit harder for the Yanks as they remained four full games behind the league leading Baltimore Orioles and three and a half games behind the fast moving Chicago White Sox.

The Sox moved to a half-game margin behind the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday when they took advantage of a Yankee error and pushed over two unearned runs to capture a 4 to 2 decision before more than 37,000 fans.

Meanwhile, 12,000 at Boston saw rookie Tony Horton double in Carl Yastrzemski with the winning run in the 10th frame to enable the Red Sox to edge Baltimore 4 to 3.

In a torrid battle for fourth place, Detroit took a 8 to 2 decision from the Los Angeles Angels at Tiger Stadium.

In other AL action, the Minnesota Twins dumped the Washington Senators 3 to 1 and the Cleveland Indians whipped the Kansas City A's, 6 to 4.

Over in the National, the Phillies moved into their most serious contention for the loop's flag when they downed the Chicago Cubs 9 to 5 and went out in front of the San Francisco Giants by six full games.

The Giants dropped a 7 to 1 decision to Cincinnati in what was San Francisco's fourth consecutive defeat.

Meanwhile, Nellie Fox's 10th inning single drove in the run that put the Houston Colts in front of the Cardinals by an 8 to 7 count.

Giants And Reds Become Involved In Beanball War

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Only quick intervention by plate umpire Chris Pelekoudas prevented San Francisco from becoming engaged in a full-scale fist fight with Cincinnati players during Wednesday's beanball war.

In the fourth, after Giants pitcher John Peregzer hit Reds hurler Bob Purkey, Cincinnati players on the bench shouted obscenities at the Giants and invited Manager Alvin Dark to fight. Dark, followed by coaches Herman Franks and Whitely Lockman and pitcher Gaylord Perry got as far as the backstop, Pelekoudas stepped in, called Reds Acting Manager Dick Sisler to the plate and warned him to have his players stop the taunting.

Cincinnati slugger Frank Robinson in the first inning was plunked by Giants hurler Ron Herbel.

Robinson went down, then got up raged toward the mound. Players from both benches poured on the field but no blows were tossed.

Later, Robinson slid roughly into second and got into a hot exchange with San Francisco shortstop Jimmy Davenport and were pulled apart.

Hart Hit Twice

In the second, Parkey's fast ball got away from him and smashed into Jim Ray Hart's shoulder. Dark has a standing order that his pitchers must throw at any pitcher who intentionally hits a Giant batsman. So when Purkey came up, relief hurler John Peregzer let him have it in the side. And that led to the near — battle between the two benches.

His Wife Isn't The Only One To Think So

ASH, England (UPI)—El Alf, the British bullfighter, scowled at Bimba, the pet ram. Bimba scowled back at Alf and charged.

Alf ended up in bed, nursing a bruised shin and wondering what he will do when he stops practicing with the rams and faces a real live bull in the back yard of his pub here.

AM—Alfred Marvin, 69-year-old keeper of the King's Head pub—has promised to fight the 2-year-old Jersey bull, with all proceeds going to charity.

The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has threatened to prosecute if Alf kills the bull.

"We'll see," said Alf. "It all depends on the bull. If he gets nasty with AM, AM will get nasty with him.

"My wife thinks I am mad," he said. "She's probably right."

Horoscope Forecast

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

You now have a day and evening when much confusion can occur if you try to balance the old and the new, the usual and the unusual, the antique and the modern. So, make up your mind early just what you want to do; then get busy and put such plans into effect without allowing confusion to enter your mind.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You must be more explicit in outlining your plans for the future if you want others to coincide with them. Make better arrangements with pals. Success is then assured.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You must be conscientious now if you want to turn enemies into good friends. Show that you have the interest of the public at heart. Your profession may not make this apparent otherwise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Any novel ideas that hit you should be tested for skillful operation in daily activities or outlets. An out-of-lower may best be able to understand your aims—join forces.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You must be more accurate in carrying out promises if you want to get the backing of influential individual. Use your intuition. You are deserving of greater success.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) While you may desire to have a new partner, be sure you explain your aims more clearly; be a bit subtle. Meet others half-way if you want real results. Don't act too imperious.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 21) You will only go around in proverbial circles if you don't plan your time and activities early, wisely. Give quick attention to immediate conditions about you. Be efficient.

LIBRA (September 22 to October 21) It's all right to seek amusement today, but take care it doesn't cost more than it's worth. By your most dynamic, attractive self. Then off to the social delights you like.

SCORPIO (October 22 to November 21) Show that you can be depended upon to place home and family on a firm foundation. Generosity is the keynote. Don't hesitate to follow advice of those who are experts, leaders.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Information you want is best obtained by direct method—ask those who have it. Don't angle so much. Stinginess and fretting will get you nowhere. Expand.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) Live a little—add that swimming pool, new heating unit, or whatever brings comfort and harmony at home. Getting a mere up-to-date business system easily adds to profits.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) Following own inclinations is all right, provided you guard your good name and do not let higher-ups. Don't hesitate to show devotion to others. Dress in good taste.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) Planning a more profitable future is fine, but be sure not to confide in others now. Consult one who is a real expert. You can then be more sure of yourself and how to proceed.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be one of those interesting individuals who quickly gets out of dull routines and into new, very modern sciences and arts that are highly profitable, satisfying. It may very well be that the inventor, the New Age designer or architect are in this most ideal chart. Educate well.

'The Stars Impel, they do not compel.' What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Farm Committee To Be Elected

The election of the Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Service committee for Seminole County will be held by mail balloting beginning Friday. The election is to choose ASC farmer-committeemen to serve next year as local administrators of national farm action programs.

Farmers on the ASC records have been mailed a ballot with the following slate of nominees: Elbert Cammack, Fred A. Dyson, R. U. Hutchison, W. G. Kilbee, Charles S. Lee and Paul Lukas.

Vote is to be made for five persons and ballots returned by Sept. 1.

Generally, a farm owner or operator may vote in the election if he is taking part in one or more of the programs administered by the committee. Qualifications of persons to hold office as a committeeman include eligibility to vote in the election, and being a local resident. All eligible farmers are urged to vote.

The present committee members are Fred A. Dyson, W. G. Kilbee and Charles S. Lee together with alternates Curtis J. Green and Paul Lukas. Green chose not to be a nominee for the coming year.

Syncom 3 Eased Into Position In Outer Space

JON W. GRUBB, aviation fire control, technician third class, was advanced to his present rate on July 16, 1964. He was presented his certificate of advancement by Cdr. D. F. Syncom 3 Eased Into Position In Outer Space

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—American space scientists today eased the new Syncom-3 communications satellite into position for the world's first stationary orbit and a direct television link between Asia and the United States.

Using tracking data relayed from the Philippines by the year-old Syncom-2, scientists at Lakehurst, N. J., triggered two gas jets aboard the new spacecraft to swing it into position for the unprecedented orbital maneuver.

At approximately 1:20 p.m., EDT today when Syncom-3 whirled over Borneo on the third sweep of its temporary 90-day orbit a rocket aboard the satellite will be fired to kick it into a circular 22,300-mile path directly above the equator.

If successful, Syncom-3 will become a 24-hour-a-day station above the Pacific, ready to relay Olympic telecasts to North America from Japan in October, and provide reliable communications between the United States and hard-to-reach spots in Asia.

At its 22,300 mile altitude, Syncom-3's orbital speed will match earth's rotation, and the hatbox-shaped moonlet will appear motionless in relation to earth.

Foreign Policy Defended By State Department Official

By Mrs. Frank White
The U.S. Government's foreign program is strongly defended by John G. Kormann, embassy official at Manila who is in Delary with his wife, Elaine, and three children, ages 10, eight and three, visiting at his mother's home.

"It is no give away program, especially with border warfare going on," he stated. Noting that "Time is on our side," Kormann said that it is his opinion that "the nature of man is to own his own things and to work for these things. The Soviet Union and the Red Chinese are not allowing the enslaved countries to develop their own resources and they can't squeeze much more out of their farmlands... with their backs to a wall, they are not ready for war."

Born in New York City, Kormann graduated from Columbia University where he received his BA and MA degrees in political science and international law. A veteran of five years service with Airborne Division, U. S. Army Paratroops during which time he received a direct commission as an officer in the field, he spent two and one-half years in Berlin following World War II. He has served the State Department for a total of 14 years.

The Kormann children are receiving an education with an international flavor since they attended an American plan school in which students represent 27 different countries.

In Manila the family must boil all water used and vegetables must be thoroughly washed and scrubbed to avoid amoebic dysentery and cholera, therefore, frozen foods supply the major part of the basic diet.

Kormann will be making television appearances in Daytona and Orlando before the family departs for the west coast on their way to Manila for another two years. "Things in that part of the world should look brighter," he says, "with out two military bases, Clark Air Force Base and Subic Naval Base, and the strong anti-Communist feeling of the Philippine residents."

They'll Learn Someday

The frightening thing about the crisis in Viet Nam is the seeming irrationality that precipitated it. It is the same species of irrationality that in November 1962 sent hordes of Red Chinese troops against the frontier of neutral India, until then one of the Communist regime's best friends. It is hard to doubt that the order for the North Vietnamese attacks on American ships proceeded originally from Peking.

If the North Vietnamese had chosen to accelerate the ground war in Asia, this, though also a foreboding development, would have been at least understandable strategy.

The Communist guerrillas are at their best in the jungles there. All the vast armament of America, half out of the war, is relatively useless in that kind of fighting. The North Vietnamese could conceivably hope to force us to withdraw from an extremely unpopular war.

Instead they have chosen to attack us at sea—precisely where our power is at its strongest and most deadly, but where, up to now, it has not been involved in the war except to the extent of showing the flag and carrying out offshore and aircraft reconnaissance missions.

Moreover, the Communists attacked us without warning in international waters.

It is hardly credible that the North Vietnamese—and their Chinese puppet masters—believe their propaganda that America is a "paper tiger" that will run when attacked.

Yet the invasion of India revealed that the Asian Communists are amazingly out of touch with reality.

They consider themselves invincible, they care nothing about international law, civilized diplomacy and world opinion. They place a primitive reliance on brute force to awe their opponents.

What is credible, however, is that the Chinese are perfectly willing to escalate the Asian conflict right up to the point of general nuclear war—and beyond.

Mao Tse-tung has stated that China has little to lose—perhaps a few hundred million Chinese out of three quarters of a billion—while its two great enemies, the United States and Russia, would destroy each other.

This is the trap—fantastic as it is to contemplate—that America must avoid in this crisis.

President Johnson's "limited and fitting" retaliation is still the most effective and most feasible answer to Communist aggression—though it is painfully difficult to react in a limited way when American men are dying. And the international conference table still remains the place where the entire Southeast Asian situation must ultimately be resolved, slow and frustrating as negotiations may be.

Once again, Americans have responded to crisis with immediate unification behind their leaders. Some countries always seem surprised when this happens.

Perhaps they will learn someday.

Thought For Today

To educate a man in mind and not in morals is to educate a menace to society.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Holmes Alexander

Princes Of Privilege

WASHINGTON, D. C. — You'd have to say that the princes of privilege in American society of the mid-sixties are the criminal classes, the lower economic classes and the political employees of Federalism.

The future historian might someday write that the election of '64 would resolve the question of whether this trend of moral slackness should continue under a reincarnated New Deal — or was reversed by a spartan reformer from the cactus school of the Old West.

It was a time when the Justice Department, from its attorney general to its district attorneys, aided by the ponderous prestige of the chief Justice of the United States, put itself out to make life easier for minor and major crooks. The old custom of holding suspects for ball and chain, and the law enforcement chiefs of the land set out to have the ball statutes repealed. Petty thieves and burglars were restored to their loving families and their modes of livelihoods, rather than be inconvenienced by detention.

By consent of the same authorities, led by the attorney general, the death sentence in the nation's capital was rendered obsolete, as an example to the nation. The district attorney's office in Washington publicly declared, even boasted, that no longer would it ask the supreme penalty for murder in the streets. Governors beseeched their legislatures to strike down execution laws and not to trouble judges and State executives with the grim duty of snuffing out anti-social lives.

There was a widespread response to soft-on-crime examples. Hardly a week passed when newspapers did not run stories of citizens who indifferently watched visible killings and public rapes rather than intervene or ring up the police. Violence beget violence. Southern juries would not find verdicts in cases against killers and arsonists where Negroes were victims.

Bruce Bioassat -- Ray Cromley

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — We can win the military war in South Viet Nam and lose the country.

That is the conviction I have brought back with me after an intensive tour of the war-torn land which included 120 interviews with tough fighting Viet Cong, Vietnamese, American military and political officers, and village and hamlet chiefs.

I spent two weeks getting their firsthand views in critical areas of the country.

The crucial problem is that I've gone into hamlet after hamlet and asked where the young men are. I've been told they're with the Viet Cong.

The Viet Cong strategy is to take over the countryside and isolate the cities. In major village and hamlet government is weak. By a highly selective process of killing or intimidating the small number of effective village and hamlet chiefs, the Viet Cong have made local government even weaker.

In districts I visited where local officials are weak, corrupt or indifferent, farmers don't cooperate with the government and the local militiamen won't fight. These districts are widespread.

In other districts I've seen where the Saigon government has sent in strong, graft-busting officials, the citizens sabotage the Communists and the local militiamen fight. But there are few of these districts.

The importance of men and arms brought down from North Viet Nam for use in the south has been seriously underestimated by U. S. military authorities.

Because of the importance of this traffic, the U. S. bombing of North Viet Nam naval facilities (which came while I was traveling on the remote Viet Nam-Cambodia border) had an excellent effect on the Vietnamese. It showed that the U. S. meant business. Many Vietnamese had begun to doubt our determination. The U. S. action was dramatic and positive. But the war still has to be won in the south. We're not winning.

Letters

The Herald welcomes letters from its readers on public affairs. The writer may use any name provided the letter also carries the writer's true name and address. Editor, Herald:

Just finished reading E. O. Cromartie's letter in your paper, and would appreciate your printing my answer. He thinks we should vote for Goldwater.

Does he want a president that is hot-headed and cannot understand responsibility. He would, God forbid, have others do as they want while he climbs into a hole and hid.

(During) the trouble we had last week in the Gulf of Tonkin, Goldwater, if he were president, would have had one of his flunkies order the destroyers to fire nuclear weapons on the Reds (sod) that would cause the end of the world. Is that what Cromartie wants?

I and many millions of other Americans know President Johnson handled that and all other situations wonderfully.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Albert's case history should give hope to the millions of homosexuals and their relatives. An scrapbook this case. And you parents should all read for the booklet below for homosexuality often starts at the age of 8 to 10 years! Parents, be on guard!

CASE T-432: Albert W., aged 23, is the homosexual who wished to change into a normal heterosexual way of life.

"Dr. Crane," he vowed, "I'll follow your prescription to the letter."

"For my mother is heart-broken and I realize life will be forever miserable unless I change."

So I helped him pick out a girl who was quite suited to Albert in religion, background, education, etc.

Then I prescribed that he "rush" this girl by dating her as much as possible.

Albert agreed. His mother was pleased at once to think he was going with a girl.

Albert enjoyed movies and the theater, art and picnics with her.

And they both were fond of swimming as well as tennis, so they had a great deal of fun.

"But, Dr. Crane," Albert protested, after a few dates,

"I haven't been able to force myself to kiss her."

"She seems like a pal but I don't have any romantic regard for her. In fact, the idea of kissing her makes me feel vaguely nauseated."

To which I replied rather curtly:

"Kiss her, anyhow. Action begets feelings. You can't control your emotions directly, nor can anybody else."

"But you can control muscular action. Kissing is a muscular act, so go ahead and try to put on an act till she thinks you mean it."

"As a smart college man, at least assume you are playing a role for the movie cameras in Hollywood."

"For when you go through the proper motions, you'll soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions."

Albert shook his head doubtfully, but he agreed to try my prescription.

On the next date, he kissed her, diffidently at first. Then he remembered my suggestion about being an actor before the Klieg lights, so he put a little forced fervor into his embrace.

Later he admitted he had to grit his teeth to carry one, but he found that with each succeeding date, it grew easier.

"At last," he confessed, "I reached the place where I began enjoying her kisses."

"In fact, I began to look forward to dating her so I could relish her kisses."

"That was the most influential moment of my life, too, for then I knew I had conquered this long-time homosexual fixation."

"I had grown up to the heterosexual level of emotions. So I proposed and we are to be married next month."

Maybe some of you wonder as to the outcome. Well, they now have three youngsters and are a happily married couple living in a congenial suburban neighborhood.

This is just one of many cases that I have personally seen whip the homosexual fixation and other doctors likewise can cite similar examples.

So send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

You parents should all have it on hand to help steer your children through their "gang" stage into the normal mid-teen heterosexual level of emotional maturity.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Clumsy Kind Of Justice

United Press International

AFL-CIO President George Meany will lead organized labor into another presidential political battle this year sheltered by a Supreme Court ruling that the law on campaign expenditures does not mean what it seems to say.

The unions will be fighting for President Johnson and against Sen. Barry H. Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee. This is the usual political alignment of organized labor with respect to the major parties.

Meany explained last week in Chicago, however, that it was not customary for the unions to endorse a party. Endorsements are for people, Meany explained, whereas AFL-CIO will not make any endorsement announcement until after the Democrats nominate President Johnson on August 26.

After an AFL-CIO council meeting in Chicago, Meany denounced the Republican presidential platform. He called it an insult to the voters' intelligence. The forthcoming AFL-CIO presidential endorsement will endorse Johnson with a fortune in union brains, brawn and money.

A great deal of labor money will figure in this year's presidential campaign despite a stipulation in the Taft-Hartley Act forbidding "any labor organization to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election at which presidential electors or a senator or representative" are to be chosen.

The law also forbids labor organizations to contribute or to spend in connection with primary elections or conventions to select candidates for federal office.

National banks and all corporations also are forbidden to spend or to contribute in connection with selection for any political office, federal or otherwise. But the courts have held that these prohibitions do not extend to spending and contributing for the education of the citizens.

More specifically, the Supreme Court has held that unions may make political medicine in their newspapers or use the medium of television.

For example, labor money was used in Michigan in 1954 for some television ballyhoo for the Democratic senatorial candidacy of Sen. Pat McNamara. He won the election. The government sought an indictment of the union that had paid for the television programs. The government lost.

Labor conducts its educational political programs through organizations supplementary to but controlled by unions or groups of unions. In some union jurisdictions there is a head tax of five cents or so a month to raise a political war chest. Five cents multiplied by many thousands comes to a lot of money. Some unions in closed shops industries spend from union dues for political education despite the objections of some members to the political objectives involved.

This practice was appealed to the Supreme Court which took a firm position straddling the fence on this peculiar aspect of the civil rights of a union member who is captive in a closed shop. The court held that the union could not be prevented from spending member A's union dues for political objectives which he opposed.

The Supreme Court instructed a lower court to work out a fair solution of that. The lower court ordered that after the union had spent the money and elected its candidate, member A could appeal to the court for a rebate of part of his dues. This is a clumsy kind of justice. It is not likely to give much protection to member A and his dues money.

Reds Trap Viet Force

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Communist forces headed the government one of its heaviest military setbacks of the war Thursday in a marshland ambush southwest of Saigon that left over 100 government soldiers and four Americans dead.

An American military spokesman said the Communist Viet Cong wiped out a battalion-sized force, killing at least 120, wounding 60 and capturing nine others.

It was believed to be the highest number of government forces killed in a single engagement.

The fighting took place about 45 miles southwest of Saigon on a nasty marshy battlefield in Kien Hoa Province.

The four Americans were killed by Communist gunfire just before sundown while accompanying a government force in pursuit of guerrillas who overran a tiny outpost at Phu Tue the day before.

After retaking the outpost, the pursuers advanced on the retreating Viet Cong and were overwhelmed by a strong force lying in wait.

Last July rebel forces pulled a similar ambush in Chuong Thien Province farther to the southwest and inflicted 187 casualties. There were 30 killed.

To Early To Decide, Baker Says Of Race

City Commissioner Joe Baker told the Herald by telephone today that he has "not yet decided whether or not I will run for reelection in November."

"It's a little too early to make a decision on that — the qualifying deadline is not until Oct. 14th," said Baker.

"I have had calls from people saying they regretted that I was not going to run again, after reading the announcement in the Herald Thursday from E. C. Harper Jr., who has qualified to run for my seat," Baker told the Herald.

"I wish to make it clear that I have not yet said that I will not run again. I will announce my decision later," said Commissioner Baker.

Baker's seat is the only one open this year, with the city election to coincide with the general election in November.

City Commission three year terms come up on a staggered basis, with two seats open each consecutive year, except for the year which Baker's seat becomes open.

Baker is completing his second three year term. He served as mayor in 1961.

Show Goes On Despite Rain

By Dottie Austin City Editor

The Kiwanis Day Kids Show Thursday night was a heartbreaker — in one way.

All the grins that could get together in one place played the show — it rained, the roof of the improvised stage leaked, the floor was wet, the lights didn't work properly, nor did the record player. Only a handful of people showed up.

On the other hand — it was a testimonial to the validity of the old show-business adage — "the show must go on."

And it went on — with all of the performers who had been invited to participate carrying out their acts with spirit and determination that would have done credit to seasoned trouper.

Youngest trouper was little Miss Elizabeth Cowley, clad in red velvet tights and laced boots, who statelyly twirled her little baton while the Seminole Band played loudly and spiritedly with the rain dripping down their necks.

Miss Linda Bryant of DeLand, a champion twirler went on with her graceful and skillful act even though the record player quit on her, and the rain put out one of her flaming baton.

news... BRIEFS

Signs Defense Bill
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson signed the $48.7 billion defense appropriation—the largest money bill to come before Congress this year.

Lynda Hostess
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's daughter Lynda will give a costume ball at the White House tonight with her friends coming as their favorite figures in American history.

'Good Times' LBJ
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's message to the nation's businessmen—and just about everyone else — this election year is: "Times are good — and you know it."

Pressure On
 NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — The United Nations, anxious to preserve the fragile peace on Cyprus, today tried to persuade President Makarios to honor an agreement to lift an economic blockade against Turkish Cypriot communities.

200 Stage Riot
 MUSKEGON, Mich. (UPI) — An angry mob of some 200 Negro teenagers staged a brief rock-throwing, name-calling disturbance with police early today in front of a grocery store in Muskegon Township.

Recess Set
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress planned to recess today to allow Democrats to attend their national convention, but when legislators return in two weeks, they will face several pressing problems.

Wind And Rain
 By United Press International
 Drenching rains came to the parched fields and prairies of the Midwest today and a tornado forecast was posted for parts of Oklahoma. High winds swept Iowa and Illinois.

Smathers Declines
 JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Sen. George Smathers says he would not accept the Democratic vice presidential nomination if it were offered, and that a Southern vice president is not what the party desires or needs.

Kill Indonesians
 KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (UPI) — Malaysian security forces killed two more Indonesian guerrillas and captured "several" others today in a daylight gun battle near the beach where a commando-type force of about 50 waded ashore last Monday.

Little Comment On NAS Project
 Officials at the Sanford Naval Air Station today had little to say about a report from Washington that Congress from the Senate and the House of Representatives included figures on two Florida projects in a $1.5 million military construction bill.

Donaldson Job Made Permanent
 Clarence Donaldson, acting postmaster at Lake Mary since December, 1962, today received his permanent appointment to the office.

The Commission was dated Aug. 8, and became effective Thursday.

Donaldson, better known to his Sanford and Seminole County friends as "Cracker", is the 31-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Donaldson, resident of Lake Mary for the past 40 years.

RFK Announcement Set For Tomorrow
 NEW YORK (UPI) — Political attention was focused today on city hall where Mayor Robert F. Wagner was expected to bestow his personal blessing on Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's candidacy for the U. S. Senate.

Wagner was expected to give his okay to the Kennedy candidacy before leaving for the Democratic National convention in Atlantic City this afternoon.

Kennedy had expected to throw his hat in the ring in Washington late today, but it was learned that he has changed his plans and will fly to New York Saturday to make the announcement.

Kennedy repeatedly has insisted that an avowal of support from Wagner was a prerequisite in getting his first bid for elective office off the ground.

Without the mayor's backing, Kennedy said, he would not enter the Senate race — despite the fact that many other party leaders in the state have urged him to run

Delegation Trouble Brewing For Democratic Leadership

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Three busloads of Mississippi integrationists rolled into town today with a warning that a failure to seat them at the 35th Democratic National Convention would cost the party thousands upon thousands of Negro votes in November.

HEATING APLENTY in this huge auditorium, the Atlantic City Convention Hall, where the Democratic National Convention opens Monday, but it appears now that there will be a heated battle over the seating of a Mississippi delegation and maybe an Alabama delegation also. Workers are shown here rushing to completion the seating arrangement in time for the opening.

Area Planning Spelled Out

By Harry I. Johnson Managing Editor

A massive coordinating effort in the East Central Florida Planning Council area was spelled out today as council members cope with the predicted growth of the section contiguous to Cape Kennedy.

Meeting in the Seminole County Courthouse were members of the council, state authorities, city and county officials, the latter chiefly from the Seminole-Orange area.

The study will affect transportation, utilities, natural resources, public facilities and every other facet involved in coping with the growth of the area.

"The problems show no respect for city or county boundaries," Robert H. Doyle, executive director of the council, pointed out. He noted that an estimated 400,000 persons are involved in the two counties of Orange and Seminole.

He called for "orderly plans" concerned with urban growth and to preserve "that which is good." Land uses for parks, schools, businesses and other facilities are included in the exhaustive study the council is making.

The Joint Orange-Seminole Planning Commission is currently involved in the study and was told by Gordon Orr, planning director, that Cape Kennedy soon will become the greatest tourist attraction in Florida.

He said all phases of growth, including housing trends, need for transportation, utilities, natural resources such as water and others will receive a careful analysis.

A huge map depicting the present uses of Seminole and Orange counties was displayed and showed the residential, agricultural, industrial, business, parks and other sectors in the "metropolitan complex."

The council represents the seven county area of Seminole, Orange, Brevard, Lake, Volusia, Ocala and Indian River.

Consulting firms from throughout the United States are being used in the overall planning director, that Cape

Thousands See Mall Opening

After a 15 minute ceremony which got underway at 9:45, thousands of Central Floridians swarmed into the Winter Park Mall.

The new $15 million shopping center, is highlighted by a 300-foot high fountain under the central skylight of the air-conditioned structure.

Among a large and varied number of shops of lesser size, the two principal stores are Ivey's and the largest regional store the J. C. Penney Co. has established in the south.

Among the dignitaries participating in the opening ceremonies were Robert H. Jacobs, owner and developer; President William M. Batten of the J. C. Penney Co., New York City, and John Fielder, executive vice president of the J. B. Ivey Co., Charlotte, N. C.

Also taking part in the ceremony was Mrs. Joan Penney of Coral Gables, the current Mrs. Florida.

A reception was held immediately following the ribbon-cutting at the huge fountain.

By the time of the reception the mall's parking area, which can accommodate some 3,000 cars, was jammed.

Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, flatly rejected a proposed settlement of their credentials fight with the state's all-white regular party delegation.

Aaron Henry, chairman of the Freedom Party, said his group would not accept a compromise said to have White House approval because any compromise with the regulars would be "evil."

Henry, a Clarksdale, Miss., druggist, said that "Negroes all over this country — and whites too — are concerned with freedom — will be watching Atlantic City."

If the Democrats seat the regular Mississippi delegation, he said, it would "register negatively with thousands and thousands of Negroes across the country." He predicted they would show their disapproval by boycotting the polls in November.

Tenry, who is also president said his group did not yet have 11 credentials committee votes necessary to bring the fight to the convention floor should his group be turned down by the committee.

But Joseph L. Rauh Jr. of Washington, D. C., counsel for the group, said he thought "we are closer to the 11 than Mr. Henry indicated." Rauh predicted the fight would have to be settled by the full convention.

The credentials fight was one of two confronting the Democrats as they began gathering in this famed boardwalk city to nominate President Johnson and confirm his still unannounced choice of a vice presidential running mate.

The other struggle centered on the civil rights plank of the platform on which Johnson will run in November against Republican Harry M. Goldwater. But the credentials fight seemed likely to stir up the biggest storm—at least in public.

The compromise rejected by the Mississippi Freedom Party spokesman would call for the seating of the all-white delegation and recognition of the freedom delegation as a fraternal group without voting rights.

There also was a possibility that the seating of the Alabama delegation would be challenged—but on different grounds. There were reports that it might level this challenge if no one else did but that he preferred to concentrate on Mississippi.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, a crusading segregationist, was scheduled for an afternoon appearance before the Democratic Platform Committee late today at its final hearing. He was to be followed by Sen. Adam Clayton Powell of New York from the other end of the civil rights spectrum.

Testimony from both Wallace and Powell was expected to contrast with the proposed soft answers offered Thursday by another southerner, Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia.

Sanders told the platform committee that the party must stand with the new civil rights law but that recent racial disturbances had shown that law alone could not solve racial problems. (See companion story on Page 3).

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Hurricane warnings went up on islands at the southeastern corner of the Caribbean Sea today as tropical storm Cleo built up rapidly in the Atlantic and sped westward.

The San Juan weather bureau ordered warnings posted at noon on the island stretching from St. Vincenta northward through the Grenadines to Barbados, and to Martinique and in "Safety precautions should be started immediately," a midday advisory said. "Winds will begin increasing early Saturday and should reach hurricane force Saturday forenoon in the area of hurricane warning display."

Navy reconnaissance planes found highest winds in Cleo to be about 70 miles an hour this morning. The weather bureau said the storm was increasing slowly in size and intensity and surely would become the season's first hurricane with top winds of 75 mph within 12 hours.

The Navy hurricane hunter planes found Cleo had moved toward the west at a fast clip during the night.

At noon, Atlantic Standard Time, the weather bureau placed the center of the storm near latitude 12.9 north, longitude 52.4 west. This was about 970 miles southeast of San Juan, and 400 miles east of Barbados.

The budding hurricane was moving toward the west at about 14 mph a course it was predicted to hold for the next 12 hours.

The weather bureau also ordered gale warnings for the Grenadine Islands south of St. Vincenta, including Grenada, and for the area north of Martinique and including Guadeloupe.

Forecasters said gale force winds fanned outward 110 miles to the north and east of the center and 45 miles in the southern semicircle.

The storm's noon location placed its center about 2,000 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Registration Set At Little Red Schoolhouse

Parents of mentally retarded children are invited to register them at the Little Red Schoolhouse any time between 9 a. m. and noon all next week.

Enrollment is limited to ten children and Mrs. Ada Sires is the teacher. Classes are held from 9 a. m. to noon Monday through Friday throughout the regular school year. Parents must provide their own transportation for the children.

The Little Red Schoolhouse is a non-profit educational organization which provides classes for educable or trainable mentally retarded children who cannot attend public schools.
