Fate Of Demo Party Will Likely Be Determined By South Tomorrow

ATLANTA, Nov. 1, (AP)—Southerners tomorrow will determine in good measure the fate of the Democratic Party, perhaps for years to come.

Lying the backbone and cohesive force of the party, the South protested it simply could not support President Truman and his end night proposals. So the democratic South cracked.

Many observers held that the result will be a major realignment of party members—that many who have voted democratic in tradition, while thinking Republican, will now shift and ally themselves with the party.

Even President Truman apparently has become concerned by the political fact that in 1948, the party cannot count on the whole South.

For a while it appeared the President might try to woo the South back into the party. Certainly he spoke tonight last Oct. 19 in Raleigh, N.C., when he (Continued on Page Two)

SYLVESTER, Ga., Nov. 1, (AP)—Jesse James Roberts, Jr., charged with stealing $100,000 worth of automobiles and selling them to used car dealers, pleaded guilty to three theft charges today.

Roberts was sentenced to not less than three years nor more than four years on each count. He faced a fourth charge of car theft in North Superior Court.

Roberts outsmarted Atlanta police last May by borrowing papers of a cellmate in the Atlanta jail and obtaining his release on bond. He called his Atlanta attorney and told him he had "paid" his way out and that "I'm on my way."

String Beans, Squash, Peppers And Cucumbers Sell Well At Market

The Sanford State Farmers Market has been crowded lately with huge vans and trucks, with drivers seeking freight loads of produce. Demand for vegetables has exceeded supply at times.

There has been considerable activity in purchase of string beans, squash, peppers and cucumbers, reported Harold Kastner. The bean deal has been active with hampers bringing $3.00 to $3.25. Some of these are locally grown. The other locally grown items is cucumbers. These are in a bit of slump and are bringing $1.50 to $3.00, a basket compared with $5.50 to $6.00 realized at this time last year, according to William Williams, dealer. Quality appears good.

Leesburg has been shipping fine cucumbers here; peppers are coming from Wauchula. The bean deal in the Glades are expected to open up between Nov. 10 and 20th.

Sweet corn from the Zellwood area made its appearance last week on the platform of the Sanford Produce Co., which has moved across to the new addition and is operated by Al Skinner and Joe Cooley. Cheese and Co. occupies the other half of the building.

Trial Of Communists Is Postponed Again

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, (AP)—Trial of 12 top leaders of the Communist Party, charged with advocating violent overthrow of the federal government, was postponed again today, this time to Nov. 15.

The postponement was decided by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina after defense counsel moved for an unlimited delay and criticized the trial as "one-manufactured out of hysteria."

The defendants, who include Communist Party National Chairman William Z. Foster, are all members of the party's national board. They were indicted by a federal grand jury last July.

The trial originally was set for Oct. 15, then postponed until today.

The Pope assailed those who, in "declaring that their own system is the only one truly 'social,' do not defend the personal dignity of the worker, but make of his productive capacity a simple object of which society disposes at its will."

STATES RIGHTS DEMOS MAY CAUSE
ELECTION TO BE SETTLED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1, (AP)—Keep your eye on the electoral votes when the election returns start rolling in tomorrow night. There are 531 electoral votes divided up among the states. The candidate who gets a majority of them—266—wins.

Why those 531 electoral votes? Because they equal the total number of people the 48 states have in Congress: 96 senators and 435 house members.

Each state is entitled to a number of electoral votes equal to the number of people it has in Congress. For example:

There are 47 New York State people on Congress. The two Senators and 46 House members. There the Republicans have a slate of 47 electors. So have the Democrats.

Republican Thomas E. Dewey gets 8,000,000 votes in New York, and Democrat Harry S. Truman gets 5,999,999. Then Dewey, although receiving only one more popular vote than Truman, gets all of New York's 47 electoral votes. Truman gets (Continued on Page Eight)

Demo Party To Round Out Long Term Of Presidency On Jan. 20

By ALEXANDER GEORGE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

WASHINGTON—The Democratic party, come the presidential inauguration January 20, will be rounding out 15 years and 10 1/2 months of White House occupancy, its longest stay since the two major parties began battling in 1850.

Prior to the Roosevelt-Truman regime, the longest continuous hold on the presidency by a Democrat was Woodrow Wilson's two terms from 1912 to 1921.

The Republicans set the modern record of a 16-year stretch with four G.O.P. presidents in succession from 1869 to 1885. They were Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Arthur. The G.O.P. tied that mark in the McKinley-Teddy Roosevelt-Taft era.

Back in the early days of the nation Jefferson Republican-Democrats were White House occupants for 24 consecutive years. Jefferson, Madison and Monroe each held the presidency.

President-smashing Franklin D. Roosevelt gave the Democrats a record when he broke the anti-third term tradition and went on to win election for a fourth term. This record may stand. Up to recently 21 states had ratified the proposed constitutional amendment limiting a president to two full terms. The ratification of 36 is required to make an amendment effective.

In 1937, the crest of New Deal political supremacy, the Democrats had a record majority in Congress. The Senate lineup was 75 Democrats to 17 Republicans and four members of other parties. The House had 333 Democrats, 89 Republicans and 13 members of other parties.

That overwhelming Democratic control of the government was brought about in the 1936 election, when Mr. Roosevelt hit his high in popularity with the voters. His winning of the electoral vote of 46 of the 48 states was a record.

President Roosevelt set another record in appointing seven men as Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States. The entire court membership now is Democratic-appointed. President Truman nominated the other two—Chief Justice Vinson and Justice Burton.

The depression, the Roosevelt political revolution and the country's involvement in the war made the recent Democratic era one of the most turbulent in our political history. Drastic economic measures, the spending of billions, sit-down strikes, government regulation of business, Roosevelt's attempt to reorganize the Supreme Court and his aid to the anti-axis countries stirred bitter political strife.

Taking office March 4, 1933, in the midst of the depression, the President closed the nation's banks until they could be reopened on a sounder basis. Then he called Congress into special session for emergency action.

For 100 days a willing Congress ground out legislation tailored almost completely to his order. He signed 111 bills and 100 resolutions, voluntary economic bills swept through both houses in a single day.

President Roosevelt began his second term in 1937 with an attempt to "infuse new blood" into the Federal Judiciary. A bill to increase the nine-man Supreme court to 15 was killed by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Labor unions had a rapid growth of power, and the newly-organized C.I.O. employed the sit-down strikes in the automobile and steel industries. Meanwhile, Europe was moving toward war.

When German armies overran western Europe in the spring of 1940 Mr. Roosevelt asked Congress for military conscription. In a gesture for national unity, he appointed Republicans to two key posts in his cabinet—Frank Knox as secretary of navy and Henry L. Stimson as secretary of war.

Then in December, 1941, came the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and war with the Axis. President Roosevelt died April 12, 1945, less than a month before the collapse of the German military machine. Harry Truman stepped up to the Presidency. The former Kansas City haberdasher had to decide whether atomic bombs should be dropped on Japan to shorten the war.

When Japan offered to surrender after the dropping of the bombs, President Truman probably was at the height of his popularity, but the Republicans won control of Congress in the 1946 elections. Political misfortunes for President Truman included his feuds with

FDR Planned

The Progressive Party presidential candidate said in campaign speeches that Roosevelt "laid the plan aside temporarily because of the war" but intended to take it up again.

The plan, Wallace said, was dropped at Roosevelt's death because "the Democratic Party was taken over by Wall Street men whom Roosevelt called in to help win the war and whom he ran -- they didn't run him."

By "cleaning house," Wallace said, Roosevelt meant "ridding the party of its business reactionaries and city politicians."

"Roosevelt told me that unless this could be done, we would have to build a new and progressive party," he added.

Wallace told largely Jewish audiences at 13 meetings in Brooklyn. "If Palestine and the Middle East come under either the Russian or the British thumb, the balance of peace will be seriously threatened."

The only way to prevent upsetting this balance, he said, is "by a strong Israel with the Hebrew to develop."

This, he said, would end 150 years of British-Russian rivalry in the area -- "It makes no difference whether under the Czars or under the Bolsheviks."

Wallace told a well-estimated crowd totaling 100,000 that President Truman is "splashing like a top on the Israel question."

Florida Voters

the name of another person of his choice.

Up to this year, voting for President has been somewhat of a mystery. The voters never found the name of any presidential candidate on the ballot. Instead, he had to vote for party presidential electors who in turn would elect the President.

The Legislature in special session six weeks ago changed that and set up a simpler way. This is the way to vote now.

In the 67 counties where paper ballots are used, at the top of the ballot you will find four black-bordered squares. Each square will contain the name of a presidential candidate, his vice-presidential mate, a big circle, eight presidential electors and squares besides their names.

There are two ways you can vote for President on the ballot. The quickest and easiest way is to mark an (X) in the big circle, which will automatically be counted as one vote for each of the presidential electors named below it. Or, you can do it the harder way, and mark an (X) beside the name of each elector individually. Your vote will count just the same either way.

In the six counties which use voting machines, here the system varies. In Dade, Hillsborough, Volusia and Palm Beach the machines will be set up so you can vote by exactly the same procedure as in paper-ballot counties. Instead of marking an (X) in a circle to cast a combined vote for eight electors, you will be able to do it by pulling single magnets. Or, if you prefer, you can pull down the individual pointers advised against "passion and prejudice" at the polls. But then, just as the faithful were beginning to work openly for him, he addressed a group in predominantly negro Harlem in New York city, saying:

"Our determination to attain the goal of equal rights... must be resolute... I intend to keep moving toward this goal."

His words spurred the States Rights Democrats, the Southerners who broke away for the express purpose of engineering his defeat. They now claim 100 Electoral College votes for their candidate, Governor Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

The Republicans in the South have taken full advantage of the situation, even to the point of claiming they will carry the region for their candidate, Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The Progressives even have made a few shoddy heads, though mostly in pain as they fought to get on the ballots. Little has been heard from the camps of the Prohibitionists, the Socialists or Socialist Labor groups.

There once there were only two parties, the Democrats and Republicans, there are now four on the ballots in every state, five in some, six in Virginia and seven in Kentucky.

The real strength of the States Rights party apparently lies concentrated in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama. These states have a total of 38 electoral votes.

One high placed States Righter, making an official appraisal, gives the group a good chance of carrying Tennessee and Florida.

CONFORM TO THAT LAW AND
IT WILL BE IN A RIGID AND EXULT IN SPIRITUAL AND PHYSICAL HEALTH. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.—Ps. 19:7.

Vote as you please tomorrow,
but vote, and don't blame us if you don't vote right.

While Russia keeps American attention focused on Berlin, she cuts our throat behind our back in Manchuria.

Labor leaders, like to pan Republicans for the Taft-Hartley Act,
but you ought to see the bill President Truman proposed in the middle of the railroad strike.

People suffering with allergies,
hay fever, asthma, and skin sensitivity, sometimes develop blind spots, a prominent Atlanta physician tells the Southern Medical Association at Miami. The trouble with some of us Southern Democrats is, we are allergic to Republicans.

Roger Babson, world famous economist, predicts the United States is heading for a gigantic but and an atomic war, but Arthur Whitehead of Dunn and Bradstreet says it isn't so, and sees very little difficulty ahead of us unless there should be an international breakup. So there you are, folks, you pay your money
and you take your choice.

Anyone who thought that "good old Uncle Joe," as President Truman was wont to call Stalin, would be a strong influence for peace
whenever it came to a showdown were doomed to disappointment
last week when the Red dictator revealed that he is just as unpleasant and disagreeable as Vishinsky.

Firemen, as a rule get small credit from the public as a whole,
but when a fire breaks out in your home or an apartment house where you are trapped on the fifth floor, you'd be willing to give them your entire bank account. Eight persons were reported injured in a Chicago apartment fire, but 25 would have been burned to death, if firemen hadn't rescued them.

Just how much influence the United Nations has in preventing war is shown by the situation in Palestine where UN cease fire orders have been repeatedly violated by both sides. Now if the UN can't bring peace to the Holy Land, what chance would it have between two major powers such as France and England, for instance, or Russia and the United States?

We boast about two-party government in the United States, but when Florida voters go to the polls tomorrow they will find four presidential candidates listed on the ballot, representing four separate and distinct parties. More than that, in various other parts of the country, the Socialist Party, the Socialist Labor Party, the Prohibition Party, the Christian Nationalist Party and the Socialist Workers Party will have their candidates' names on the ballots. If you can't find what you want out of all that assortment, it's your fault, not the system's.

In connection with tomorrow's election, you may be interested to know that in 1944 Governor Dewey received 143,000 votes in Florida against the undefeatable
Roosevelt in the middle of a war when few people were disposed to change horses. Dewey's vote was 30 percent of the total, with Roosevelt receiving about 339,000.
With no Roosevelt to run against and no war to contend with this time, Dewey should be able to increase his percentage to at least 40. That leaves 60 percent which must be divided among Truman, Thurmond and Wallace. And it could be Thurmond, Truman and Wallace.

Ties To Europe

It is now decided that the Western Union in Europe will make a formal proposal to the United States and Canada that these two Western Hemisphere nations enter a military security agreement with the union of five European nations.
The political groundwork for some such pact already has been laid in Canada. But in this country public discussion of the possibility has been hardly more than casual, and the proposed treaty will come before the Senate with the impact of a new idea.

The United States has never entered, in time of peace, agreements committing American forces to war for the defense of another nation. The Monroe Doctrine, while it achieved much the same result as far as other American nations were concerned, did not have the sweeping force of a mutual defense treaty. Such treaties are among the "entangling alliances" which past United States policy has rejected.

A treaty committing the United States to go to war under specific future circumstances is not constitutionally possible. A treaty could be entered, however, under which the government would be bound to regard attack against another nation as an attack against the United States. When that situation occurred under a treaty, the Congress then would decide whether war or military action were justified.

We know now that we cannot avoid entanglement by refusing to make alliances. It is time to give serious consideration to the feasibility of using alliances as a way to prevent future wars of a kind which would inevitably involve us.

Eisenhower Politics

Is General Eisenhower a Democrat or a Republican?
This much-debated question receives for the first time firsthand answer in Robert E. Sherwood's new book, "Roosevelt and Hopkins", containing Harry L. Hopkins' war-time diaries. The diary says Eisenhower told Hopkins in June 1944, that he and his family had always been Republicans and had voted against Roosevelt every time until 1944,
but that he did vote Roosevelt the last time.

This would settle that question, except for one thing, Sherwood, commenting on Hopkins' statement, says that "Ike" said in March, 1944, that he and his family had always been Kansas Republicans, but that he himself had never voted in his life. Said Sherwood:

"He felt that since an army officer must serve his government with full loyalty and devotion regardless of its political coloration, he should avoid all considerations of political partisanship. He had been opposed to the third term simply because he was naturally conservative and a respector of tradition, but he was most emphatic in expressing his hope that Roosevelt would run for a fourth term
and be re-elected."

So that is that.

Silver Lining

So many of those who are either rich or famous or both credit their success to snatching at hope through dark clouds of trouble, pain, and grief that some of these lucky breaks deserve to be given notice. Perhaps when we are disappointed or are sorrowing over some mistake that threatens to engulf us in disaster, remembrance of how others turned catastrophes to good account will help us to do the same.

Failure was Howard Johnson's lucky break although it didn't seem so at the time for he lost $100,000 in his first restaurant. It was to pay his huge debt that he began all over—with a type of eating place built especially for motorists something no one else was doing. His insistence upon good food, attractive surroundings and moderate prices made the touring public seek out his restaurants wherever they happened to be—and made him a millionaire.

To Erle Stanley Gardner, his lucky break came in a caution from the district attorney of Butte County who warned him about not having a license to fight. In those days, Mr. Gardner was striving to emulate Joe Louis. The friendly encouragement of the district attorney helped him decided upon making law his career, although it meant studying nights. His first clients became story material.
And that's why he has so many fans that he is always busy either writing or planning another whodunit.

You never can tell in what guise your dark cloud may rain down gold, fame, or both. Just be ready like these men were when your turn comes to hit the jackpot.

How To Vote

By John Temple Graves

The bravest thing Andrew Jackson ever did," Harry Truman told Southerners at Raleigh, "was to stand up and tell his own people to their faces that they were wrong." Modestly Mr. Truman left his audience to fill in the picture of himself as the modern Jackson bravely telling Southerners
they are wrong about the Federal force proposals. But the picture won't fill itself in. Reading the President's words I remember a visit to his home town, Independence, Mo., last Spring, and Roger Barmon, the mayor, who introduced me, and who is Mr. Truman's best local friend, telling me we Southerners had the President all wrong on the civil liberties business. "He's your sort, really—it's just that he has to do this as a political necessity."

Maybe it's brave, maybe it's being a modern Andrew Jackson, to play politics with Southern wisdom on the race question like that, to sacrifice your real feelings and the vital interests of the States which have been your party's backbone in order to "win the negro minority votes which may have a balance of power in the big doubtful States. But somehow you don't think of Old Hickory as being like that.

In silence the crowd at Raleigh wrote Mr. Truman's statement that "we Democrats belong shoulder to shoulder." Maybe they were thinking what the President really meant was that we Southern Democrats being blindly loyal no matter how we are stepped on or betrayed. "Everybody—South and North—knows there is only one choice in this campaign," said the President. "Either the standard Democratic will be the choice or the standard Democrats will win. Dewey parties don't stand a chance." Everybody but Mr. Truman knows more than this. Everybody also knows that if you vote for the winning side there is no need to be afraid.

THE WORLD TODAY

By RUSSELL RHINES
(For DeWitt MacKenzie)
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

TOKYO -- Japan has not yet reached stability, but it appears almost rock-ribbed by comparison with China.

This is the conclusion I drew from a month's vacation on the continent. The din of clamorous China was still in my ears on returning to the outward calm of this occupied country.

The differences between the two countries are even greater now than they were a year ago, when I made another swing across
China.

In Japan the ideological war is continuous and so are the battles for political power. But under the occupation they are being fought in the bloodless arenas of argument and political maneuvering.
Even in Shanghai and Hong Kong, far from China's civil war fronts, it is impossible to escape
the violence of China's struggle.

The fall of Tsinan, capital of Shantung Province, increased the tension and apprehension in South
China.

The Japanese profess their disputes with a recapitulation of their new civil rights, even though they still do not appear to understand them fully. Even the Communist talk about these rights.
But in Shanghai the people are in fear of the secret police and the retroactive laws which are designed to enforce the new economic program of austerity and stability.

The Japanese at times appear restless under the occupation. But none except the Communists show any marked anti-foreign feelings or betray any attitude which might jeopardize American aid.
Foreign businessmen are impatiently confident of a future without government controls.

In Shanghai the hostility toward foreigners seems to be part of the atmosphere. American businessmen in China are extremely pessimistic. They say Chinese policies are crippling them, even though the Chinese themselves admit they need both foreign business and investment.

The Japanese have just been shocked by a bribery scandal amounting to $10,000,000. This is considerable, but it appears minute alongside the corruption of many Chinese officials.

Japanese industrial production
is increasing despite many complications. War and unrest have checked China's industrial output, which always has been smaller than Japan's.

An for inflation, prices of essentials remain fairly stable in Japan. Everyone knows what happened in China before the government took steps to check runaway inflation. Now there are signs the new gold yuan, issued as a stabilizer, is beginning to skip.

The differences carry over into the physical appearances of the cities and the attitude of their inhabitants.

Japan's confident people are slowly rebuilding their bombed
metropolitan centers.

But the continuing deterioration
of Shanghai's towering buildings
-- untouched by war -- and the increased restlessness are saddening to one who knew that city
before the war.

Fruit Company has another theory. He says that the cold weather has not yet arrived in the north enough to cut down the flow of products there, and predicted that demand for citrus will increase when this happens. Quality of local fruit is good, he said, and about three weeks ahead of that of last year as far as maturity is concerned.

Packing of citrus fruit has been going on here for the last three weeks. Patrick Fruit Co. has a very interesting way of moving fruit in mesh bags by means of overhead conveyors from which the bags of fruit are hung by strings. They go quite a distance down the outside platform to chutes where they are shunted
either into freight cars or trucks.
Underneath the bags are the belt line conveyors for boxed fruit.
More than a million bags of citrus fruit were packed in bags
last year at the plant, said W. A.

indicated that speakers of national prominence in the field of control of tuberculosis would be on the program here.

Miss Boyd said that in the three states, three city or county and one state hospitals devoted to treatment of tuberculosis there are 1168 beds or one and a half beds for each death attributed to TB. Accepted standards fix a desired figure of two to three beds per death, but even so, Florida was reported far ahead of many states
in this respect.

Florida's 35 deaths per hundred thousand of population ranks
twenty-fourth in the country, said Miss Jones. Even with a death rate three times that of the white population, there is great concern over the fact that TB cases among negroes are still not being found and reported.

Worry Is An Enemy of Health

By W. V. Bittling
Touchton Drug Co.
There is an enemy of health
that you alone can conquer
... worry.
Worrying is fighting tomorrow's trouble today... waiting energy on fears that usually never materialize.
If every single day were lived for that day itself, observing those rules which make for future happiness, life
would be much pleasanter,
every bit as gainful, and health
would be better.
When you are worried about
your health, see the doctor, know what is wrong, if anything. That knowledge will help you to conquer instead of fear illness.
Very often the doctor's prescription when compounded by a skilled, reliable pharmacist
will erase whatever health worries you may have.

Victory Gives St. Augustine Clear Path To Championship Of Conference

By ARTHUR HECKWITZ, JR., Herald Sports Editor

A hard-charging team of St. Augustine Yellow Jackets of Ketterlinus High School overpowered the Seminole High School football field here Friday night by a 27 to 7 score in the headline contest of the year in the East Florida Conference.

The two teams were undefeated in conference games, and the St. Augustine eleven were unscathed upon in conference competition at the start of the contest. It was not long after the clash began that the Sanford fans knew the Jackets were too powerful for the Feds to halt.

The off-lacke jaunts of Bernie Masters and Bob Rinehart and the Ad skirts of Tom Beach were too much for the light Seminole gridlers.

The two teams played on a level even terms during the first period, and when the auto ended the Jackets were on the Sanford 38 yard line with third down and six yard to go.

To open the second period Charles Johnson raced around his own left end for 18 yards on the old Stand of Liberty play. Masters, Beach and Johnson alternated carrying the ball and moving it to the Sanford one. Rinehart plunged over for the first tally of the game, Masters tried to kick the extra point, but the ball was wide. St. Augustine led by 6 to 0.

After an exchange of punts, the invaders took over on their own 20. Two plays later Don Deal intercepted a pass from Rinehart on the St. Augustine 30. Deal and Charles Anderson moved the ball to the St. Augustine 11 yard line, when the whistle blew for the end of the half.

Sanford kicked off to the invaders to open the second half, and on a sustained drive of 23 yards Masters went over from the one yard line for a touchdown. Rinehart kicked the extra point.

The Celery Feds received the ball and immediately began to pass after the kick-off, but the drive bogged down. Sanford kicked out Johnson returned the ball to the Sanford 46, and six plays later Johnson went over for a Masters kicked the extra point. Touchdown for St. Augustine.

Midway the final stanza the Feds came to life. Masters kicked to Deal, who returned to the Ketterlinus 33. Anderson lost six yards gained three to place the ball on the Ketterlinus 30. Anderson handed off to Deal, who passed to John Keeling at the Ketterlinus 48. Keeling outran the St. Augustine secondary to cross the twin stripes into pay dirt. The play was good for 70 yards. Richard Bass kicked the extra point.

Following the kickoff, the locals recovered a St. Augustine fumble on their own 35. The visitors were penalized 15 yards for a foul, and the ball rested on the mid-field stripe. Deal attempted a pass, but it fell incomplete. Deal passed again, but Carl Harrison intercepted and scampered to the Sanford 36. Masters and Rinehart carried the ball to the two, where Beach went over for the score. Masters added the extra point.

The St. Augustine aggregation racked up 382 yards to 202 for Sanford and had 11 first downs to six for Sanford.

The starting lineups included:

Basmore	LE	Thomas
Clay	RE	Tyee
White	LT	Myers
Wills	RT	Kider
Barris	LG	Bass
Allen	RG	Harper
Brown	C	Dague
Rinehart (c)	QB	Keeling
Beach	LB	Deal (e)
Johnson	RB	Cooper
Masters	FB	Anderson (e)

Max Zaafsky, Chicago; Joe Fulk, Philadelphia; Ed Sadowick, Boston; Howie Dallmar, Philadelphia, and Bob Ferrick, Washington, were named to the star team of the Basketball Association of America last season.

Gil Stephenson And Charlie Justice Get Top Grid Attention

AP Newsfeatures

Gil Stephenson of Army and Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice of North Carolina are two backfield men who have been getting a lot of attention this fall.

Almost every section of the country still has unbeaten teams and brilliant ball carriers who make them click, and Stephenson and Justice are the big guns for their respective eleven.

Stephenson, 183-pound fullback from Columbus, Ga., is only a sophomore but he's the surprise of Eastern football this fall. Against Harvard he scored all three West Point touchdowns. The following week against previously unbeaten Cornell he averaged five yards per carry, tallying 121 yards on 25 attempts.

Charlie Justice, the Tarnseels ace tailback, was held scoreless for the first time in four games against a stubborn North Carolina State foe. However, with three minutes to go the Wolfpack failed to stop a Justice forward pass. It was a 27-yard pass to end Art Weiner, who ran 22 yards for a touchdown and assured a 14-0 victory.

In the rout of Louisiana State, Justice showed top form as a broken field runner. The 163-pounder eluded right end with tacklers dropped in at his feet for one score and moved to two others.

Both Stephenson and Justice are the men the opposition must stop as the two fast-stepping backs continue to lead their teams to sectional honors.

WINS CYCLE TITLE SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 1, (AP)

—Buck Brigance, Jacksonville, won the eight mile National Championship Motorcycle title in 8:09 minutes at the half-mile fair grounds track here Sunday.

Chet Dykgraft of Grand Rapids, Mich., who finished third, led for seven laps. Brigance then took over on the eighth and yielded to Chuck Grover of Port Huron, Mich., on the 11th. Brigance regained the lead on the 14th and held it. Grover finished second.

Richard Harris, co-captain of the Texas Longhorns, won all-conference honors at center in 1945 and 46, and was named All-American back last season. He is back at the pivot post this campaign.

Chicago Baseball Front Gets Trade Winds From Giants

CHICAGO, Nov. 1, (AP)—Trade winds were blowing on the Chicago baseball front today, but it was hard to tell which way and how strong.

Both the Cubs, who reportedly are dancing first baseman Eddie Waitkus and Catcher Clyde Coughlin as barter-bait, and the White Sox, whose most salable player presumably is infielder Don Kolloway, hold executive huddles aimed at bolstering their last-place finishes.

Owner Horace Stoneham and Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants were here yesterday. If they offered Catcher Walker Cooper and First Sacker Johnny Mize for an opening bid, they got a cold shoulder from Manager Charlie Grimm of the Cubs, who told reporters:

"I'm definitely not interested in Cooper or Mize. And I don't believe the Giants will trade anybody else."

With owner P. K. Wrigley and General Manager Jimmy Gallagher, Grimm spent most of last weekend listening to reports of Cub scouts and farm system business managers. Grimm planned further talks today on trade prospects with Wrigley and Gallagher.

At Comiskey Park, new Sox General-Manager Frank Lane and Charles Comiskey, 22, secretary and vice-president, did the same thing. Manager Jack Onslow is due for a conference Thursday when he may have something to report on a market in which he talked trade possibilities with delegates of other clubs.

Towler Continues To Pace Nation's Backs

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, (AP)—Dan Towler, Washington and Jefferson's talented halfback, scored two touchdowns and one extra point last week to maintain his lead among the nation's college football scorers with 87 points.

Hank Tresh of Hanover (Ind.) is pursuing closely with 14 touchdowns and 84 points. Fred Wendt of the Texas Mines in the Border Conference has 79 points, representing ten touchdowns and 19 extra points.

Lou Kuserow of Columbia, Don Walker of Southern Methodist and Eddie Talboom of Wyoing went on scoring spree Saturday to raise their point totals. Kuserow has 72, Walker and Talboom 70 each.

Joe Geigley of Georgia leads the Southeastern Conference with a total of 52 points in six games—five touchdowns and 22 points after.

REAL RIVALRY, NOW

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jim Henry and Chuck Rysner who are business partners in Kenosha, Ont., during the summer and have been rivals for the goal tending job with the New York Rangers of the National Hockey League in winter, have been separated.

Henry has been traded to the Chicago Black Hawks and will tend the nets for them. The two partners are facing each other from opposite ends of the rink this season.

Sammy Baugh Sets New Passing Mark

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, (AP)—Sammy Baugh, the star general of the Washington Redskins of the National Football League, has added another passing record to his collection that includes four lifetime marks.

The veteran quarterback gained 446 yards through the air yesterday as he pitched the Redskins to a 59-21 victory over the Boston Yanks.

Baugh completed 17 of 24 attempts and hurled four touchdown passes in surpassing the former mark of 433 yards, in a single game set by Sid Luckman of the Chicago Bears on Nov. 14, 1942 against the New York Giants.

The field day enabled Baugh to increase his record lifetime totals in attempts to 2,214; completions to 1,278; yards gained by passing to 10,307 and touchdown passes to 136. The Skins also set a new team mark for yards gained by passing, gaining 601 yards to break the previous mark of 488 set by the Bears also on Nov. 4, 1943.

Helsinki Ski Jumpers Jump Without Snow

AP Newsfeatures

Helsinki—The Finnish city of Lahti, known for its ski jumping competitions every winter, tried ski jumping without snow this autumn.

The slide of one of the smaller jumps was carefully greased with wax and the lower part of the slope was covered with straw. Some 1,500 skeptical spectators gathered to see the experiment.

Twenty five experienced ski jumpers volunteered and the public was amazed to see the first one leap 180 feet. The record of the day was 200 feet, only six feet short of the best winter record on that jump.

The jumper got good speed on the greased slide but met with abrupt resistance from the straw which caused some spectacular falls till they learned to overcome this handicap.

46th Annual North, South Open Slated

PINEHURST, N.C., Nov. 1, (AP)—Qualifying play was carried at the Pinehurst Country Club today to complete the field for the 46th annual north and south open golf tournament beginning tomorrow.

The 72-hole, $7,500 tournament will conclude with a 36-hole final program Thursday.

Today's leading qualifiers will join a select list of players already eligible by virtue of achievements in other major events during the past year.

—Biggest man on Michigan State College's 1948 football team is sophomore tackle William Miron from Escanaba. He packs 225 pounds on a six foot, three inch frame. The midget is George (Little Dynamite) Guerre, senior tailback star from Flint, who stands only five feet, five and weighs 157.

The Clubhouse

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Peter J. Layden continues to astound the experts. He's the new backfield star with the New York football Yanks.

Pete came up to the grid Yanks this fall after missing every pre-season practice session because he was playing the outfield for the St. Louis Browns. When the season started he was just a reserve.

Worse yet, he had never played pro football and had played none at all since 1945 when he was with an Army team in Honolulu.

However, when Specs Sanders showed little of his 1946 or 1947 form due to water on the knee and a general battering from the opposition, Coach Norman (Red) Strader of the Yanks decided to give Layden a chance.

Layden is one of those all-round athletes. One of the most famous was Ernie Nevers, Stanford All-American who went to the St. Louis Browns and later played with the Chicago Cardinals. He still holds a National Football League single game record, the result of six touchdowns and four conversions for 40 points in a 1929 game against the Chicago Bears.

Others who were successful with the pigskin before they went to the major league diamonds include Mickey Cochrane, Frank Frisch, Sam Chapman, Spud Chandler, George Stropwick, Eric Tipton and Alvin Dark.

There are many more but Layden is a bit different. He has gone from big league baseball to football. With most of the others, Nevers being an exception, they quit football when they hit the big leagues in baseball.

Layden batted only 250 in 41 games with the Browns this summer. However, few are the base ball rookies who make the grade at the age of 29.

In 1947 Layden, a 185-pounder from Dallas, divided his baseball between New Orleans and Louisville and hit a collective 267.

Layden got his chance to make games.

SEC Can Challenge Country As '48 Home Of Nation's Best Football

ATLANTA, Nov. 1, (AP)—The southeastern conference can challenge for the title "1948 home of the nation's best football" by naming four teams: Georgia Tech, Georgia, Mississippi and Tulane.

The four, led by unbeaten Tech, have won 21 and lost only three. Of the three losses only one, Georgia's defeat by North Carolina, was outside the small circle. Tulane's loss was to Tech and Mississippi's only defeat was by Tulane.

Together Tech, Georgia, Tulane and Mississippi have scored 356 points and allowed only 118 during their 24 games.

Last Saturday each of the four added to SEC prestige with big victories. Tech spotted Duke seven points and came back with 19 to win. Georgia smothered Alabama 35-0, the worst Tide defeat in 38 years. Tulane finished the wrecking of Mississippi State 9-0 and Mississippi made itself look better than ever with a 49-19 victory over LSU.

Tech's 1918 victory string of six straight is in the most danger this week. The Tennessee Volunteers came to Atlanta and for the first time in two weeks it is possible for Tech to lose the SEC lead.

A Tech loss and Georgia triumph over Florida in Jacksonville would put the Bulldogs on top, Tulane and Mississippi play outside the league—Tulane meeting Virginia Military of the Southern Conference in New Orleans Saturday and Mississippi moving to the University of Chattanooga.

Each of the four leaders is a big favorite to win and standings probably will be the same next week.

After scoring 275 points the previous week, Southeastern teams came back last week end with 252 more, rounding out a wild October of offensive football.

Vanderbilt's 47-0 victory over an Auburn team, which needs everything but more spirit and fight, lifted the Commodores from seventh to fifth place. Their game with LSU in Nashville this week, however, can't move Vandy higher regardless who wins since two losses already have been suffered by the Tennesseeans within the league.

L.S.U. could climb out of the doldrums by defeating Vandy and get itself out of the company of Kentucky and Auburn down at the bottom.

The Mississippi State-Auburn game in Birmingham Saturday is the least attractive of Southeastern games. Auburn's effort to better itself showed faults in every game this season except two—the early season 18-13 tie with Louisiana Tech and Friday's rout by Vandy.

The Plainsmen are further from their one-time power than many fans thought and rebuilding will have to continue under Coach Earl Brown for several more years.

Meanwhile, Mississippi State has continued to slip and show itself to be several notches below the top rung.

Very little can happen in Birmingham Saturday which would alter standings.

Alabama's loss to Georgia shouldn't affect the Tide Saturday against Mississippi Southern in Tuscaloosa. The game is Alabama's last outside the Southeastern this season and should get the Tide set for Tech, L.S.U., Florida and Auburn on successive Saturdays.

Kentucky's Great Lakes Bowl opponent of last year—Villanova—will be in Lexington. The Wildcats probably would settle for another 24-14 victory. Last Saturday's 28-7 decision over Cincinnati was Kentucky's third outside the SEC. In league games the Wildcats have yet to win.

"Solid South" Is 11 Southern States Ruling 127 Votes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—What is the "Solid South" and why is it important in politics?
As generally understood, the "Solid South" includes 11 southern states with 127 electoral votes. This is almost one-half of the 269 electoral votes a presidential candidate needs to win. If he loses in the North, the electoral votes of these 11 states exceed one-half of the necessary total.

Thurmond will reduce the number of electoral votes the Democratic candidate (Truman) not a unity could count upon as being in the Democratic bag. In 1928, Texas, North Carolina, Florida, Virginia and Tennessee voted for the Republican, Herbert Hoover, opposing Al Smith, a Catholic and a Jew.

Delaware has the highest average elevation of any state in the Union; its surface, if leveled, would be only 60 feet above the sea.

These are the Solid South states, with their electoral votes: Alabama 11, Georgia 12, Florida 8, Mississippi 9, Louisiana 10, North Carolina 11, South Carolina 8, Virginia 11, Tennessee 12, Texas 24, Arkansas 9. These states are traditionally Democratic.

The "border" states, where presidential results are almost always close one way or another, are Maryland 8, West Virginia 8, Kentucky 11, Tennessee 12, Missouri 16, Oklahoma 10 and Louisiana 10. Since 1880 the South has sent virtually solid Democratic delegations to Congress. And in presidential campaigns the South has voted Democratic almost without exception. This means a Democratic candidate for president usually starts off assured of this big bloc of Southern electoral votes.

State Negro Group Supports Truman

CLEARWATER, Nov. 1. (AP)—Milton P. Rookshorn, president of the state Progressive Voters League of Florida, said today this negro group would support President Truman and Fuller Warren at the polls tomorrow.

Chinese Bomb

(Continued From Page One) There was no hint of surrender from the weary Chinese leader, whose government has been shaken to its foundation by the wholesale defeat of his troops in the last three weeks.

In his first official appearance since his return from two weeks in the north where the cream of his armies were destroyed or went over to the Reds, Chiang declared:

"We have had reverses in the northeast (Manchuria) but the Communists are not yet in position to directly menace North China."

American authorities meanwhile instructed U.S. citizens to prepare to leave North China.

Authoritative sources here said the Communists had occupied Mukden completely at 3 P.M. and that the last government officials fled from there three days ago.

The government has had no radio contact with Mukden since 6 P.M. Sunday but the American consulate radio there is still functioning and in communication with American authorities here and in Shanghai.

The Chinese navy, backed by the six inch guns of its former British Cruiser, Chungking, is guarding the ports of Yingkiw and Yulitau as possible escape avenues for whatever national troops managed to get out of Mukden.

Chiang praised both the bravery and skill of his North China commander, General Fu Tao-Yi at Peiping. He said Fu "has made ample preparations and been sufficiently reinforced" to handle Red threats to that area.

The president insisted the "overall war situation does not give cause for worry."

His speech obviously was designed to encourage Kuomintang leaders who were stunned by the news of the wholesale defeat.

Neutral observers recalled that Fu was in a precarious position in North China since the Communists had cut the corridor to Buliyau and interrupted the main supply route through which came the bulk of the food for his troops.

They estimated that only the prompt transfer of the 12 government divisions now "sitting" on the Hulutao Bench to Fu's command plus a rapid flow of war supplies would permit the north-ern general to hold his own with the Reds even temporarily.

"Bonifay State Farmers' Market reported its first sale of pecans as 12,056 pounds bringing a revenue of $1,851.31. Prices reported steady with expected increase in volume during the next few weeks.

"The second peanut auction of the season in the Bradford County area will be held Nov. 4 on the Starke State Farmers' Market. A good volume of better quality nuts is expected.

"Fort Pierce State Farmers' Market reports a light volume of about 800 field crates of tomatoes moving through that market with prices ranging from $1.00 to $4.00 per bushel. An increase is expected this week with the auction sale beginning today. Volume will increase slowly until the latter part of the month when the volume is expected to be good.

"Flood conditions are still hampering the planting in the vicinity of the Florida City State Farmers' Market. A good bit of ground is still under water but farmers are planting as fast as the water recedes. Tomatoes, pole beans, squash appear to be the major crops being planted. If good weather prevails, they expect to harvest tomatoes by the middle of January.

States Rights Demos

That has happened. In 1888 Democrat Grover Cleveland got a bigger popular vote than Republican Benjamin Harrison. But Harrison carried the states with the bigger electoral vote and won.

This year Truman, or Dewey, could make a sweep of 36 states and yet lose if his opponent carried only these 12 states:

California, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Indiana, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Texas and Wisconsin.

Why? Because those 12 states have 269 electoral votes, or three more than the 260 majority needed to win.

But suppose it happened that no single candidate got a majority of the electoral votes. What then? The newly elected House of Representatives would choose the President from the three candidates receiving the greatest number of electoral votes.

In that case the total house vote would be 48, with each state—no matter how many members it has in the House—entitled to only one vote.

So far in this story the electoral votes has been explained as it usually happens. But this is an unusual election. A little different from those in the past.

The Democratic Party this year is split because of Truman's stand on greater civil rights for negroes in the South.

Many Southern Democrats, who otherwise might have voted solidly for him, are angry at Truman. They have set up an organization of their own called the "States Rights Democrats."

And they will vote for Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, who is the States' Rights candidate for President. The result:

In Alabama Truman is not on the ballot at all. There the State Democratic Committee has pledged the Democratic electors to Thurmond.

In Florida the electors are split up among Truman electors and Thurmond electors and some electors who are not designated at all. Florida has eight electoral votes.

But the southern mix-up in electors won't be important in tomorrow's election results unless:

1. Only the loss of electoral votes in the south were to cost Truman the election, since ordinarily the south votes solidly Democratic.

2. The whole election is so close that no one candidate gets a majority of the electoral votes. That would throw the election into the House.

Final Pleas

(Continued from Page One) on campaigning. He is spending the entire day in New York City's Bronx. His final radio speech (ABC) is set for 10-10:30 P.M.

Governor J. Strom Thurmond lined up a final (ABC) broadcast for the States' Rights ticket from Columbia, S. C., at 8:45 P.M.

Election eve, as usual, finds the major presidential candidates confident of victory.

President Truman, speaking in St. Louis Saturday night, said the people, through the Democratic Party, "are going to win this election."

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican nominee, told a New York City audience it was the "eve of victory" for the GOP.

Truman has predicted a vote of 60,000,000. He says a heavy vote "is always good news for the Democratic Party."

Herbert Brownell, Jr., GOP campaign manager, looks for a 52,000,000 turnout with a margin of at least 3,000,000 for Dewey.

Governor J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights Candidate, predicted his ticket will receive "millions of votes" and prevent either Truman or Dewey from enacting an anti-job discrimination law.

Henry Wallace, describing the 1948 campaign as only one battle in a long war, says that regardless of the outcome his Progressive Party will fight on.

ICC Refuses Rate Increase For Railroads

Long-Term Basis Is To Be Considered In Nov. 30 Meet. Hearing Requested

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today rejected the railroads' petition for an immediate "emergency" 8 percent freight rate increase.

The commission announced that it will open hearings Nov. 30 on the general 13 percent advance in rates asked by the railroads.

At that time, the ICC said, it will also take evidence on the rail industry motion for an 8 percent increase to be collected while the commission considers the request for a 13 percent advance on a long-term basis.

The railroads asked the ICC on Oct. 12 for permission to boost rates quickly as an emergency measure in view of new wage increases for rail workers.

The carriers said the situation warranted action without hearing. But they said that if a hearing was necessary, it should be held before the end of October.

The commission's decision to let the matter stand for review on Nov. 30 followed requests from shippers and other interests for a full hearing before any rate increase is granted.

Among those urging a full hearing were the Department of Agriculture and the State Association of Public Utility Commissioners.

Other pleas for freight rate hikes came meanwhile from the Coastwise Steamship Lines operating between Atlantic and Gulf ports, the Inland Waterways Corporation and the Federal Express Corporation.

The freight forwarders, who assemble small quantities of freight for re-shipment in car load lots, requested advances in rates equal to whatever advances may be given the rail carriers.

The J. J. Boland was limping into the Toledo harbor with her bow badly damaged. Capt. Frank Monroe of the Boland reported that his ship collided with the S. R. Armstrong off Colchester. Local marine authorities had not located the latter ship at 10 A. M. Eastern Standard time.

How Smog Closes In On Stricken City

GRAPHICALLY ILLUSTRATING how dense is the death-dealing smoke and fog in Donora, Pa., this picture shows the lights of a main street glowing over a small area. Puffs from industrial plants, held in the smog, have caused 19 deaths. At least 62 persons had been crowded into hospitals for special treatment in this little industrial town, 26 miles from Pittsburgh. Officials said the high pressure area had prevented any movement of air at ground level, and it became saturated with fumes, which proved particularly deadly to persons suffering from asthmatic conditions. Red Formation Of German People's Police Force Told

Russians Announce Air Firing Practice In Corridor

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 2. (AP)—A former German general who fled from the Russians said today a "people's police force" formed recently in the Soviet zone is the first stage of a Red army manned by Germans.

The former officer, Maj. General Walter Schreiber, told a news conference this force would pose a potential threat to the Western zone of Germany if the Allied occupation forces withdrew. He said the Russians have suggested such a withdrawal.

Schreiber, wartime surgeon general of Berlin, said he had been offered the post of "chief of sanitation in the Soviet zone within the organization of the police force," but refused it.

He said Kurt Fischer, minister of the interior in the Soviet zone, told him and five other generalists that the "people's police" would be armed with tanks and artillery. He said four of the generalists agreed to take part in it.

British and American authorities have estimated the strength of the force at from 200,000 to 300,000 men.

Governorships In Two-Thirds Of States Will Be Decided Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (AP)—Two-thirds of the nation's governorships went on the election block today with Democrats and Republicans battling to end the present snap-election split.

With 100 candidates entered in the 32 state contests, it appeared certain that the 24-24 party deadlock will be ended when final returns are in. At stake are 18 Republican and 14 Democratic chairs, with close contests in seven states.

Republicans hope their victory in Maine's Sept. 13 election was a forerunner of success in today's balloting. But a spokesman for the national committee indicated a belief that the outcome may hinge on the size of the vote piled up by the Dewey-Warren ticket.

A Democratic official also predicted that the fifty-fifty ratio will be altered, but in favor of his party.

Here is how these two privately staked up some of the closer races:

Central Florida Cities Are Lighted By Klan's Crosses

TURKEYEYE

WILDFLOWER, Nov. 2. (AP)—A band of robed and hooded men burned two crosses at last night. One was burned in front of the Turkeye county courthouse and the other at a highway in the town of Turkeye. The latter, famous school for negroes.

All of the crosses, planted by hooded and robed figures as a motorcycle of Klansmen, swept through four towns, were burned in negro sections.

W. H. Brough, a Wildwood metal worker and the Klan's Florida organ said they were a warning that Klansmen would not be tolerated in the state.

More than 100 motor cars, each containing two to four hooded figures, drove through Plymouth, Turkeye, and Leeburg before stopping up with a barbecue here.

At the head of the cavalcade at Turkeye, a vehicle bearing a large cross lighted by red electric bulbs. Hundreds of spectators lined the streets to watch, but negroes remained close to their homes.

An unidentified white man pulled off a cross after the Klan left.

The only report of trouble came from Leeburg, a girl reported a group of hooded figures smashed her car and ordered her to leave the vicinity.

Klan officials denied it. They said they interfered with no one (Continued on Page Eight)

Rotarians Hear Ratigan Explain World Federation

U.S. Government Formation Compared To World Group

The alternative to World Federation is a third World War, Jack Ratigan, president of the local chapter of World Federalists, told the Rotary Club at their luncheon Monday. "We may have to fight a third World War anyway," he admitted. "But if we do, let's get into it with the knowledge that we have something worth fighting for and that out of it will emerge an organization capable of preserving the world's peace."

John Pope, Rev. H. E. Zander, and Dr. V. H. Horner were present. President George Ratigan presented each of them with a Rotary pin and copies of the Bulletin of World Federalists.

In his program, Ratigan outlined the organization of the United Nations, which he said was an attempt to solve world-wide conflict. He said that only one thing had prevented this organization from achieving a lasting peace, that is, the refusal of the individual nations to sacrifice their sovereignty in order to achieve world peace.

Klan officials denied it. They said they interfered with no one (Continued on Page Eight)

Miners Fight French Troops In Coal Fields

Pickets At Lievin Are Chased From Mines By Police, Tear Gas Bombs

PARIS, Nov. 2. (AP)—French troops clearing strikers from the northern coal fields met serious resistance today for the first time.

One unconfirmed report said both were exchanged between the government forces and the strikers.

Police threw tear gas bombs to chase pickets at the No. 3 mine in the Lievin group, about 20 miles southwest of Lille.

It was here, according to the semi-official French Press Agency, that shots were heard.

At Oignies, strikers tried to capture one pit but government forces but were driven off.

The government charged that strikers disabled two mines, teams of three columns of troops drove into the last pits held by the Communist-led coal holders in the Lens area.

Government sources prefer that a back to work movement among the miners in defiance of Communist strike leaders will cause the collapse of the nation-wide walkout this week.

About 30,000 soldiers were sent to the extreme east end of the northern coal basin in the area near the Belgian border, workers in two small mines have continued to dig all through the 23-day walkout. They have been pulled from the pits along 35 feet of track.

The same thing occurred for the second time during the strike on the Aubagne-Le Barque line near Marseille. No casualties were reported in either dealignment.

Police have used tear gas and police supported by tanks and armored cars, are reported to be 100 miles north of the northern coal fields.

Communist union leaders called a 24-hour general strike for today in the Valenciennes region, about 100 miles from the front. It was not reported whether the railway and other public services were operated normally under police protection.

Dynamite bombs were thrown at the railway station in Ennemy. Six men and six cars were damaged.

In Valenciennes, second most important of the French mines, strikers continued to dig.

Reds Call For Chinese Forces To Surrender

Reports Say Fighting Has Ceased In Mukden Battle Area

PARIS, Nov. 2. (AP)—Premier Wen Wen has announced today that his government has attempted to force the Communist government to balance the national budget, but the total failure.

PARIS, Nov. 2. (AP)—Chinese Communists called today for quick surrender of Chiang Kai-Shek's beaten forces in Manchuria and openly invited they would surrender all of China.

Reports from the military and fighting had ceased within the Mukden area. There were no reports from the source and the Communist Red forces had taken their usual prize of the road.

No further information came on the situation in Mukden from the bombing of Mukden yesterday by government planes an hour after the Communists completed their occupation. Several bombs exploded within two blocks of the U.S. consulate.

The impact of Mukden's fall and the disaster in Chiang's army forced China. The military setback added heavily to economic instability.

A dispatch of the National Economic Wing Wen Wen reported that the government had sought to hold the new gold standard, but prices jumped 300 to 400 percent.

Mukden's capture, said students, including foreigners, to time normal activities. The proclamation was signed by the committee of northeast people, a negotiation of temporary peace was agreed to by the Manchoukou.

A wider scope of Communist rebellion was set forth by Ma Tze Tung, chairman of the Chinese Communist Party. He called for Communist nations to control all of China. He made his prediction in the latest issue of the bulletin published in Beijing.

Ma said Red forces already control 24.5 percent of China's area. Under them, he said, are 108,000,000 people, about 45 percent of the total population.
