

Florida Fishing May Get Better

GAINESVILLE, Fla.—Florida sports fishermen may find the fishing better in their favorite lake or river in the future as a result of a research project now underway at the University of Florida.

Scientists at the Engineering and Industrial Experiment Station, working under a grant by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, are devising means of ridding Florida waters of "rough" fish by electricity.

Summer Hookworm Time In Florida

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Summer is hookworm time in Florida. And the barefoot boy is most susceptible. But the State Board of Health says anyone can get the disease at any time—and it can be serious.

The answer is better personal hygiene and sanitation; and wearing shoes to avoid picking up any worm from infected ground.

Collection Of Taxes Showing Increase, Galloway Reports

In his annual report to the Board of County Commissioners, John I. Galloway, Seminole County Tax Collector, shows collections for the year 1954 of $231,503.80, which is, Galloway said, approximately 99 per cent. This is quite an increase, the Tax Collector said, over the year of 1953 when collections amounted to $212,267.22 on a Tax Roll of $233,153.82.

Galloway stated that a great majority of the tax payers of Seminole County paid their taxes last November taking advantage of the four per cent discount allowed. Collections last November amounted to $233,610.55 which is approximately two thirds of the entire Tax Roll.

Committee Reports Drop In Contracts

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee reports a drop in defense contracts awarded small businesses and says that "many small, efficient producers will be forced to close their doors" unless the trend is reversed.

The Senate Small Business Committee said Sunday night that contracts awarded by small firms represented 28.3 per cent of the total in the 12 months ended June 30, this compared with 23.1 per cent a year earlier.

Industry buyers were blamed for contributing to the drop by being "too picky" in awarding contracts by negotiation instead of competitive bids.

Approximately $25,000 will be spent this summer in general repairs and maintenance to Seminole County Schools, R. T. Milwee, Superintendent of Public Instruction, said yesterday, as he surveyed the summer's activities prior to school opening this fall.

Most of the work is already underway, Milwee said, with painting of various classrooms and outside woodwork in all of the schools. In addition to the painting and general repairs, it is expected, the School Superintendent pointed out, that new lights in both the West Side School and the Lake Mary School.

Milwee said yesterday that ten rooms at the new Pinecrest School will be available for the beginning of the 1955-56 school year with the entire plant turned over to the school system by January 1, 1956. The Pinecrest School, at the beginning of the year, will house grades 1 through 6, while the completed school expected to be in use by the first of the year will include grades 1 through 8.

In addition to the Pinecrest School, Milwee said that four new rooms will be ready at Lyman School by September 1. Another new addition will be ready by September 1 when ten classrooms and a cafeteria at the Goldsboro school will be put into use. With the completion of one classroom, two science rooms and a cafeteria at Crooms Academy, this school will become a secondary school with grades 7 through 12. Goldsboro School will absorb all of the elementary school pupils assigned to Crooms Academy. Hopper Academy, which is being added to absorb all of the colored children from Georgetown.

A three classroom addition at the Oviedo white elementary school is expected to be ready for use by October 1.

Teachers will report for work on Aug. 15, Milwee said, with a three-week pre-school workshop will be conducted prior to the school opening on September 6.

Girl Dies In Crash Of Cousin, Father

MEMPHIS, Neb. (AP)—Kittie Johnson, 19, of Memphis, died in the crash of a car driven by her father, Grover, 46, and a truck driver by a cousin, Marlin Johnson, 20, at a county road intersection near Ashland, Neb., yesterday.

Kittie was thrown from the car. Her father was critically hurt. Marlin was treated for shock. Deputy Sheriff O. A. Robbins said the intersection has a "blind" corner.

The death raised Nebraska's 1955 traffic toll to 145 compared with 176 Aug. 2, 1954.

Break-In Reported At Fruit Warehouse

Shoes Are Left At Scene Of Crime; Three Held On Burglary Charges

The American Fruit Growers warehouse on Boardwalk Ave. was broken into Sunday night, according to a report this morning by Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway. Galloway said that three Negroes have been taken into custody and charged with the burglary.

However, the Constable said, that in the act of taking gasoline from the warehouse, about five gallons of the flammable liquid was spilled and ignited. One of the colored men involved in the breaking and entering, literally was so hot he left his shoes at the scene.

Willie Smith, 40-year-old Colored Negro, when the fire got so hot in his shoes, soaked with gasoline, had to come out of the warehouse. He also left his cap there, Galloway said.

Also involved in the warehouse breaking and entering were: Bobby Johnson, 18 and James Green, 29, both of Canaan City.

Constable Galloway said he found Willie Smith at the local hospital suffering with "burned feet."

Smith and Johnson are charged with "breaking and entering" according to Galloway, while Green has been charged with "being an accessory." Smith is still confined to the local hospital. Green and Johnson are lodged in the Seminole County jail.

George Tells Group 'Not Interested'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-OR) has told friends he is not interested in any State Department post and has indicated he will run for the Senate again next year.

George, 77-year-old chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, heads home today for a vacation and an assessment of a Georgia political situation in which he may be challenged for re-nomination by former Gov. Herman Talmadge. George has been in the Senate since Nov. 8, 1923, longer than any other present member.

Asked if he intends to announce formally for re-election, he told reporters "I expect I'll be running again, but I haven't made any final decision." Earlier, in an emotional farewell to his colleagues, George said, "I hope I shall come back."

Tear Gas Is Used To Disperse Crowd

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Police at Eva Peron used tear gas last night to disperse demonstrating members of Argentina's opposition Radical party.

One group of Radical later congregated at a street corner and began shouting slogans. Police hauled them in prison.

The disturbances followed a street meeting at which speakers declared there can be "no pacification unless the government restores the climate of simple liberty in the nation."

President Juan Peron called for pacification following the unsuccessful rebellion June 16.

Co-Workers Honor B. H. Williams Upon Retirement

An insurance representative who has seen Florida come and go, retired recently when he reached 65 and is now looking forward to a life of leisure.

B. H. Williams, after serving 25 years with the Gulf Life Insurance Company, retired after being honored by his co-workers of this district. He was presented with an electric fan after receiving the praises of E. L. Huff, of Leesburg and H. L. Spears of Orlando.

Williams said that 20 years of his 25 years with Gulf Life were spent in Sanford. "I remember the street car tracks when I first came to Sanford," said Williams as he recalled some of his early days here.

"I wouldn't change a minute of it," said the retired insurance man. And he added, "I feel like a graduate who has closed one phase of life and stands on the threshold of a new future."

Judge J. Leonardy Passes Heavy Fines In Court Action

Nearly $1,000 in fines was collected following Sanford City Court yesterday afternoon when City Judge Leonardy imposed heavy fines in both illegal whiskey and bolita cases.

Four cases of illegal whiskey and four of possessing and selling a share in lottery came before the Judge for disposition.

Police Chief Roy Williams said today that "it looks like a little local talent is getting mixed up into the gambling operations."

He said, "Some are individuals with only two cases attributed to out-of-town connections."

Chief Williams pointed out that the investigation into the illegal whiskey operations as well as bolita and gambling has been going on for about six weeks. A special police officer has been assigned to this particular phase of our investigations, he said.

Illegal whiskey cases involved Lester Mathews, Celia Mae Zygler, Charlie Brown, and Morris Carter. Celia Mae Zygler and Morris Carter were fined $202 while fines against Mathews and Brown were $152.

Charged with bolita operations, were Mimmie Robinson, Houston West, Roy Howard, and Horace King. Each was fined $202. There were two cases against Horace King.

Attendant Admits Rifling Cash Boxes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Douglas E. Rushing, 25, was formerly a service attendant for soft drink machines. And he had a key to open cash boxes.

Yesterday, police said, he admitted using those same keys to rifle at least 75 cash machines between here and Marion since he quit the job two years ago. They said he got between $2 and $65 from each cash box.

And, they added, he even admitted rifling the machine in police headquarters.

Police charged him with entering a safe depository.

Bart Petersons Featured In Story In Tropical Homes

An all-Florida magazine came to Seminole County for one of its feature stories in its August 1955 issue.

Tropical Homes and Gardens, published in Miami, and boasting of a nation-wide circulation, features this month, a story written by Ruth Stuart Allen about "Hidden Lake," the home of Bart and Mary Peterson of Sanford.

The author tells her story in both words and pictures to give the reader a comprehensive, yet full-blown description as well as a narration of "Hidden Lake" and all of its beauties.

The intriguing pictures, take the reader from the gardenia bushes near the lake, up to the lovely home, and then a trip, pictorially, through it. Shown with the story are Grappa Bart, and granddaughter Bessie swapping yarns about the big fish caught in Hidden Lake, along with a picture of Mrs. Bart Peterson Sr. holding a wildcat killed in the vicinity of Hidden Lake.

This unusual story is just one example of the fame that is being brought to Sanford and Seminole County through the medium of its beautiful homes, surroundings, and culture.

Seniority Dispute Agreement Hit At Auto Factory

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—An agreement has been reached in the seniority dispute which led to the closing of the Studebaker plant here 11 of the past 13 work days.

Officials of the CIO United Auto Workers said last night.

Studebaker-Packard Corp. officials were available for comment.

William Ogden, president of the Studebaker local of the UAW, and Raymond H. Berndt, a regional director, said workers are to be given "bumping" rights on the basis of seniority.

"Bumping" privileges assure a worker with longer service to the firm the right to claim a job held by a person with less seniority in the event of a layoff or job reshuffling.

Money Request Denied

The Seminole County Board of Commissioners this morning adopted a budget for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1, ignoring a plea by Judge Ernest Housholder for an appropriation of $8,000 for the office of the Juvenile Judge.

Housholder asks the Board of Commissioners for more than an hour, covering, he said, every phase of the work done by his office for the Juveniles in Seminole County.

The County Judge pointed out to the commissioners in his plea that "I have operated at far less than the amount of money necessary, and at a hardship." And he added, "I have even used approximately $100 of my own money in emergencies."

"I have not heard one objection to the proposed budget for the Juvenile Court," Housholder said. "I have heard many, many people approve it," he said.

Outlining the duties of his office, Housholder said, "I have exclusive jurisdiction over every person in Seminole County under the age of 17, and with the new laws created by the 1953 Legislature, I now have added to that group some of the parents."

"When I presented the proposed budget," Judge Housholder said, "I don't do it idly, but with mature thought because I wanted in every degree the support of the County Commissioners."

In outlining his duties and the operations of his office, the County Judge told the commissioners that in the past 11 months he had consulted with 1,400 people on juvenile matters, 200 conferences were held with the Juvenile officer, 100 hearings were conducted concerning juveniles, 50 odd problems were handled concerning juvenile delinquency, and 200 calls at all hours of the day were received.

"At any time that the Seminole County Commissioners decide that it should have a separate Juvenile Court, and feel it can bear the expense," Judge Housholder explained, "I am willing to go along with you." "I have had and am giving to that office 42 years experience" and added, "I am giving 42 years of public service and in dealing with people." The Judge explained, "I feel that I understand the people and believe that I am beginning to more thoroughly understand the problems of the juveniles."

"Turning to the budget," Housholder said, "as I view the budget it does not require a raise in taxes to grant my request." However, he said, "Only 3 cents of a mill would raise the entire amount and I don't think you'd find a citizen in the world who would object." "They are behind this program," he said.

Housholder, coming to the climax of his appeal to the Board of Commissioners exclaimed, "I am ashamed to go into the juvenile councils of this State and tell them I get the paltry sum of $16.66 a month as a Juvenile Judge."

And when questioned about the number of cases coming before him by Commissioners H. C. Boyd, Judge Housholder said, "I have 40 on probation now with seven coming before me last Friday." And then said, "I have about 10 or 15 a month added." He then turned to the commissioners and said, "I do as much as any Circuit Judge in the State of Florida."

O. P. Herndon, Clerk of Court, following the appeal made by Judge Housholder, requested permission of the board of commissioners to make an explanation.

He said, "I think the air is fouled a little bit because of a slight misunderstanding." Herndon took the proposed budget of the Juvenile Court and explained that each item, other than the Judge's salary was included in the proposed 1955-56 budget to be adopted. "Everything has been taken care of," Herndon said, "except the $2,200 salary requested by Judge Housholder."

Commissioner Otis Fouracre proposed that the budget be adopted an amended (a $2,200 item added for recreation). The motion was seconded and carried by the unanimous approval of the Board of Commissioners.

Judge Housholder, following the adoption of the budget, requested that the $200 appropriated for the Juvenile Judge's salary be contributed to charity or to the road and bridge fund. He said, "I want to let the people know that I am getting the most and get the money."

Some Red Satellites Arresting Those Favoring Cooperation

President Tito of Yugoslavia says some satellite Communists are still arresting people who favor Soviet-Yugoslav cooperation.

This can mean one of three things:

First, that the satellite leaders in question are out of the control of Moscow;

Second, that the satellite leaders are afraid the current regime in Moscow will not last;

Or that there is a large element of fraud in the recent apologies to Tito by Soviet Communist boss N. S. Khrushchev and Premier Bulganin.

In a speech last week Tito declared he still has powerful enemies in the Eastern Communist bloc countries, and added:

"But they dare not speak loudly because they learned far long ago from Stalin. They must not speak loudly, but they are intriguing under cover and refuse to admit what the Soviet men admit . . . They are still arresting men who favor friendship and cooperation with Yugoslavia, who express themselves freely, who approve what Khrushchev and the others did."

Tito said such things were going on "especially in Hungary." But the Soviet Union has had enough power in Hungary recently to have the Premier of the country thrown out for not losing the Moscow economic line. Surely it would not tolerate political defiance from Hungary's ruler. And if, as Tito said, his enemies worked "behind the scenes," how could they jail anybody for Titoism without the knowledge of the Communist party leaders?

These enemies, said Tito, "still are saying this (normalization of relations) is only a maneuver, because the Soviet Union follows a wise policy and knows how — how shall I say it — to deceive and so forth."

" . . . We regret that this is so, but I do not believe that they will be able to do enough damage to prevent what we desire and what the Soviet leaders declared here and what they are also doing. That is, I do not believe they will be able to sow a quarrel between us again and to cause relations between our countries to deteriorate again."

Tito thus openly gave expression to fears that the Soviet gestures might not have been genuine. If satellite Communists can hold to such an opinion and continue jailing suspected Titoists, despite their obvious fidelity to Moscow in all other things, then something surely must be wrong.

Tito, by speaking so openly about the subject, may be seeking iron-clad assurances from Moscow that the rug will not be pulled out from under him.

Former President Herbert Hoover Relates Mistake

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover says that in trying to cut down on the amount of his official handshaking he took a step which turned out to be "very foolish."

He was always of the opinion that a president has too much handshaking to do, he said in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U.S. News and World Report.

"I carried out two revolutions in that direction," he said. "George Washington established the unfortunate habit of giving a New Year's reception to the entire population."

"He is said to have shaken hands with about 120 people at his first reception. I had 11,000 come to my first New Year's reception. Therefore I decided that reception had to be abolished."

"President Theodore Roosevelt had established the custom that at 12 o'clock each day he would shake hands with anybody who'd come. That only involved a few people at the start, but it rose to 2,000 in my time."

"That is quite a handshaking job, and it was right in the middle of the work day. I took several immediate steps. One of them was very foolish."

"I ordered that these callers must have an introduction from a congressman, a senator or some responsible person. Immediately the congressmen and senators used it as an occasion to entertain their guests from home."

"So, I had to abolish that reception. I do not believe presidents have those two fixed affairs any more."

Theory Suggested In Girl's Murder

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The theory that Stephanie Bryan's murder could have been an "intentional act to get rid of me" has been suggested by Burton Abbott, 27-year-old University of California student accused of the still-unexplained crime.

"But then, when I think of that, I come back to the question—Who would want to get rid of me?" he said Sunday in an interview copyrighted by the San Francisco Examiner.

Abbott, indicted on kidnaping and murder charges, told a reporter: "Look at it this way: This whole thing could have started as something else, you know. I don't know what. And then somehow, I was implicated unintentionally."

Stassen Outlines Atomic Weapons New Radical Plan

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said Monday Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower's special assistant for disarmament, has drafted a radical new plan calling for a halt in the making of atomic weapons.

The Times dispatch from United Nations headquarters said Stassen is trying to overcome objections to his plan by the Pentagon and State Department so he can present it to the five-nation subcommittee of the U.N. Disarmament Commission. The subcommittee resumes sessions at the U.N. Aug. 29, under a directive issued by the Big Four at the summit talks in Geneva.

Majority Of Hard Feelings Gone As Train Defeats Pony Express

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP)—Most of the hard feelings were forgotten in the excitement as the pony express anchor man galloped in seven minutes behind a much-maligned night train in a grudge race that caught the nation's fancy.

The contest ended early Sunday morning at this southern Oregon town, 75 miles from the starting point at Eugene. The horsemen blew a head start of nearly half an hour as they raced along the main highway, changing mounts about every mile.

Seven women riders were among the 75 or so who donned Western garb for the modern-day pony express run. Actually, it was an attempt to show up the Southern Pacific Railroad after it had proposed to abandon service on this branch line. The company said the run was losing money.

The railroad, vinting as residents along the line tabbed the line.

"It was gratifying the way our lowly Nightcrawler fought off the night-mares. We salute the gallant jockey of our iron horse and his valiant crew who delivered the mail so ably."

The Roseburg Chamber of Commerce and other groups who plotted the contest were a little disappointed at the outcome, and there were cries of foul from both sides.

The horsemen complained that the mail-express and passenger train whizzed by at least one regular stop. Train crewmen were dismayed when would-be passengers—some of them in riding boots—demanded to be picked at tiny whistle stops along the line.

He wouldn't say so, but engineer Claude A. Bridenstine, of Portland, probably had more fun than any of the riders or spectators. The 61-year-old railroader, retiring in a few months after 42 years service, told newsmen beforehand he thought it was a lot of foolishness.

But just the same, he was proud of his train and felt a little cocky as he stepped from his cab to wait for the last horseman.

You may owe your life to a CONCRETE PAVEMENT

You can see farther and stay drier on a concrete highway but guess chances in the rainy pavement there's why:

1. Concrete reflects up to four times more light than dark-colored pavements. You see pedestrians, obstructions and other hazards sooner and have more time to slow down or stop.
2. Concrete's porous surface lets rainwater drain off faster.

Jerry Lewis Is Left To Decide If Famous Team Will Work Again

HOLLYWOOD — Will Martin and Lewis end their civil war and resume their fabulously successful union? The issue is now up to Jerry Lewis.

Dean Martin says he's "ready, willing and able" to go back to work as a team. Jerry says, "no comment."

The civil war has now developed into a cold war. It has been two months since Dean and Jerry have spoken a word to each other.

They will have to reach a decision before long. They are scheduled to make a comedy western, "Where Men Are Men," next month. And Paramount has denied Jerry's request to perform separately, Dean reports.

Jerry has maintained a public silence through the whole feud. To all queries, he replies a polite "no comment." The team's agent, Lew Wasserman of M.C.A., offers no information. But Dean is open in discussing his side of the issue:

"I sent my letter to Paramount, Hal Wallis and NBC saying that I was ready, willing and able to go back to work under our contracts with them. Jerry did not write his letter. Instead, he asked Lew Wasserman to request that we be let out of our Paramount contract."

"Frank Freeman (Paramount studio head) went east to present the matter to the board of directors. The board said no, that Jerry will have to go to work."

"There is no possible way that we can get out of the contract. After all, Paramount paid X amount of dollars for a share of our company, York Productions. We signed a seven-year contract that still has six years to go."

"I want to go back to work. I don't want to break up the team. It's a xxxxx fine living and I want to hold onto it."

The question naturally arises: What has caused the break between these two performers, once considered the fastest friends in show business?

The answer is not simple. The picture came from a chain of incidents. There have been no hard words between them. Fundamentally, the trouble stems from the differences in their natures.

Jerry, the comic, is nervous, agile, like the excitement of show business living. Dean, the singer, is easy-going, prefers the comforts of life.

As Dean himself remarked: "I'm 11 years older than Jerry. This business of constantly touring all over the country gets you down."

"I've got a beautiful home, a beautiful wife and two lovely children. I like to spend some time with them. It seems to me that if we do three pictures a year and five TV shows, that should be enough."

Jerry doesn't feel that way. An associate of the team puts it this way:

"Jerry thinks the team should do more than that. He believes they should keep active in clubs, theaters, benefits and public relations work, as well as pictures and TV. He thinks that the other member of the team should participate to the fullest extent or else get out."

"For that reason, he has asked the release from their various contracts. He said he doesn't want to work with Dean again."

"A split is not an easy matter, since Martin and Lewis are a multi-million-dollar industry. They have firm contracts with Paramount, Hal Wallis and NBC, plus commercial tie-ups and other investments. Unraveling their interests would be a monumental job, even if the producers were willing to let them work separately.

DeLand Meeting Attended

Approximately 150 members of the Seminole Association of Women's Missionary Union at a Youth Rally meeting at the Second Baptist Church, DeLand, recently heard Miss Bonnie Jean Ray, former missionary to China, give an inspiring message entitled, "Outstretched Hands".

Miss Ray told of witnessing for the Lord to the Chinese people, of many heart touching conversions and examples of great faith. She reminded Christians that their hands must serve the Lord as he commanded. Miss Ray requested that everyone pray for the missionaries as they serve in the land of "golden opportunity."

Mrs. Jane Hickman, missionary to Paraguay, spoke on "A Woman's Work on A Mission Field". She reminded the women of their responsibility to their home and children as well as to their Lord. She concluded by saying that a Christian mother and housewife should be a better mother and housewife than a non-Christian.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickman have spent most of their year's furlough in Louisville, Ky. where Mr. Hickman received his Masters Degree in Theology. Aug. 6 they will leave for Paraguay.

Mrs. G. B. Drake, of Lake Mary, who is the chorister, opened the meeting with a song service. The program "Use My Hands" was presented by members of the auxiliaries. Miss Patricia Sykes and Miss Fay Ashley of the First Baptist Church here presented special music.

Mrs. A. J. Peterson was in charge of the business session and reminded the groups to contribute old gold or silver for a building fund to erect a meeting place at the Baptist Bible Institute at Graceville.

The Rev. Henry Adams of Oak Hill offered the closing prayer.

USO

Saturday night one of the "big crowd" events was the USO Senior hostesses and the American Legion represented by Mrs. Marjorie Tillis and Mrs. Lucy Courler. Junior hostesses for the successful event was Miss Mildred Awall.

Sunday night was TV night and was also attended by a large crowd. Mrs. Melvin Smith was senior hostess and Miss Margie Morrison Junior hostess.

Outdoor games were enjoyed by the little guests with prizes going to Angela Hirt, Debbie Morrow, and Anna Lee Herman. After the games, they cooked off as they were served delicious refreshments by Mrs. Debra who was assisted by Mrs. J. C. Newsum, Mrs. J. Carter, and Mrs. H. D. Dekle.

The honoree then opened her many gifts presented to her and the group sang "Happy Birthday".

Invited to enjoy the special occasion with Susan were Beth Morgan, Gay Stanley, Linda Stapler, Jane Hartz, Kay Scruggs, Barbara Frank, Cheryl Brooks, Johnnie Hawkins, Tom Brown.

Linda Bell, Anna Lee Herman, Sharon Gallowsay, Patricia Gustafson, Brenda and Jeanie Carter, Melody and Angela Hirt, Susanne and Mike Brown, Carlin Murray, Patsy Owens, Dee Gee Newsom, Debbie and Anita Morrow, Donna David, and Vickie McArdia.

Pinafores Are Pert On Social List For Younger Set

For the younger set's own social calendar here is a party-party outfit just right for that extra-special occasion.

Red and white striped cotton with coordinating solid red trim is used for a matching pinafore and bonnet. A separate red petticoat trimmed with a white eyelot ruffle peaks beneath the pinafore.

Easy to make and fit, this outfit is economical for the summer when clothing changes are so frequent with everyone.

The pinafore has pert red ties at the piped camisole neckline and a large bow in the back gives added interest. Beltons march down the back from the neck to the waist. The apple pocket in the same color is decorated with a green leaf. For a 3D apple effect line the pocket with interlacing to give it a bulge.

The poke bonnet lined with red is cut from one piece of fabric and a nonwoven interfacing is used to insure stiffness. A button on the back of the bonnet makes for an adjustable headsize and spreads flat to iron easily.

Local sewing center experts suggest using your multi-slotted binder for the binding and the buttonhole to make quick work of the buttonholes. Use your ruffler attachment for your sewing machine to make the ruffle on the petticoat.

A wide hem in the finished pinafore will permit your youngster to get several seasons' wear and enjoyment from her outfit. If you plan to make several of these pinafores use the assembly line technique in cutting out your solid pattern pieces and save yourself some time. For different pocket details use the new automatic zigzagger to applique a personalized design of your own.

For a grown-up touch use some of your left-over fabric for a tiny purse.

Little Susan Dekle Celebrates Seventh Birthday Saturday

Little Miss Susan Dekle celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday as her mother, Mrs. Melvin Dekle, honored her with a party at their home in Adams Court.

Outdoor games were enjoyed by the little guests with prizes going to Angela Hirt, Debbie Morrow, and Anna Lee Herman. After the games, they cooked off as they were served delicious refreshments by Mrs. Debra who was assisted by Mrs. J. C. Newsum, Mrs. J. Carter, and Mrs. H. D. Dekle.

The honoree then opened her many gifts presented to her and the group sang "Happy Birthday".

Invited to enjoy the special occasion with Susan were Beth Morgan, Gay Stanley, Linda Stapler, Jane Hartz, Kay Scruggs, Barbara Frank, Cheryl Brooks, Johnnie Hawkins, Tom Brown.

Linda Bell, Anna Lee Herman, Sharon Gallowsay, Patricia Gustafson, Brenda and Jeanie Carter, Melody and Angela Hirt, Susanne and Mike Brown, Carlin Murray, Patsy Owens, Dee Gee Newsom, Debbie and Anita Morrow, Donna David, and Vickie McArdia.

For that quick lunch: heat slices of ham and place on toast. Top with canned whole cranberry sauce and serve as open sandwiches. Good with a mixed green salad.

Gen. Sanford Memorial Library Will Draw Countless Visitors

Attractions, in any community, are an asset toward bringing industry as well as tourists to share the economy of a growing city.

The Sanford Zoo has provided amusement for many thousands of children and grown-ups; the "Big Tree" has drawn a goodly number of people from all over the world to see the tremendous proportions that a plant can reach; the world-famous St. Johns River, with the wide expanse of Lake Monroe providing recreation in many forms, has attracted its share of sightseers.

An Open Door

The Korean people are victims of the titanic struggles of the 20th century. They are not alone in this, but they are a prime example of the tragedy that results when a nation is overrun by war.

Their land was ravaged, their homes and schools and places of worship destroyed, by the strife of great powers. The United Nations, and especially the United States, have been working to rehabilitate this unfortunate country. But much must still be done for its physical and spiritual welfare.

Some of the work can be done by governments and secular groups. But a great deal of it will be up to the churches. Dr. Otto H. Schmidt, executive secretary of American missions for the Missouri Synod Lutheran church, said recently, Korea is "an especially open door for mission work." Dr. Schmidt declared that the church "must enter into the spiritual vacuum which exists in Korea, where people seem to be waiting for the gospel of Christ."

The Korean people saw enough of the bad side of civilization during the ordeal that began with the Communist onslaught in 1950. It is high time to demonstrate to them that western society, solidly based on sound principles, has more to offer than guns and chaos.

Care To Sign Up For Moon Trip?

NEW YORK UP—The sky is no longer the limit. Most these little kids who've been running around with rocket guns in their arms and plastic bubbles over their heads! Instead of playing cowboy like cowboy children, they've been talking for years about coming to other worlds in space ships.

And now, just as sure as the Lord made little atoms, by the end of the century tourist agencies will be featuring weekend space ship journeys to the moon.

The decision by the U.S. government to earmark 15 million dollars to throw up a basketball-sized earth satellite in just a matter of weeks, will go up and 200 or 300 miles, high around the world every 1 1/2 hours at an 18,000-mile-an-hour clip, then come down after a few days or weeks, burning up as it hits the earth's atmosphere.

But this first man-made falling star, naturally, will be only the beginning.

The satellites will become larger and larger, go up higher, finally reach a height where they can stay up and buzz around the earth forever. The definition of gravity—"All that goes up must come down"—will be repealed.

"Why, wouldn't you like to set foot on the moon?" my adventurous-minded friends ask. No, indeed. I was born in a time when a horse was something you rode on, not bet on. I yielded gracefully to the disappearance of the buggy, and the victory of the automobile; I have learned to put up with the airplane. But the idea of space ships separates the men from the boys, and I'm a man. It's the boys who will have to grow up and do their Sunday sky-larking in space ships.

No one is going to force my head into a repulsive plastic bubble and make me soar up and climb the arid foothills of the moon. There are some things and places in life that are better left unvisited. The charm of the moon lies in its distance. Familiarity with it would probably only breed contempt.

The man to the moon has been a friendly hermit to humankind all these weary centuries. None can look up at him on a warm summer night without feeling a lifting of the spirit. Who wants to go up and count his peckmarks? Everything on earth is crowded in a grappling struggle of living, but not the sky. The firmament may be crowded, too, in its own way, but not in a man-made way. Its vast star-studded emptiness, a reach infinitely beyond our final knowing, confers awe in the moral mind, peace in the mortal heart, rest to the mortal eye.

Why clutter up the brinks of this endless vista with space ships trailing on dull round trips to the moon? The moon is no true stepping stone into the mystery of the universe—but only a pebbly pebble in the black.

I would rather stand on the earth at night and look up and imagine which faint far stars are milestones on the way to Heaven, which shine on Valhalla.

PLAY TABLE
An ideal base for juvenile activities is a rubber topped play table. It's easy to renovate a beat-up coffee table by covering with rubber tile, impervious to duds, spilled ink, paint, glue. Scrape off the table's finish. Lay out rubber tiles in desired pattern and glue tiles in place with a special rubber adhesive. You may also cut them into desired shapes with a scoring knife.

Washington SEE SAW
by WIN PERLSTEIN

Take a hint, Syd! - Last week Congressman Jim Haley had an old fashioned watermelon cutting in his office. We didn't get a taste. In fact, all of the melon was gone before we heard about the party. But, Haley did invite Congressman Gracie Ploof, of Idaho, and a few of his neighbors up and down the hill. The girls in his office, Alice, Marilee and Betty got in on it, too. But all is not lost. Sitting on top of the desk as you enter Congressman Syd Herlong's office is another watermelon. It is a 35 pounder sent to him from Leesburg. It has been on display for three weeks now. Everybody admires it. When you see it, your mouth waters. It would be a shame for him to let it sit there until it rots, wouldn't it?

Back Home - A sort of anniversary gift from their son, Congressman Dante Pascoli, was a trip back home to Italy for Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pascoli, of Coconut Grove. They sailed for Europe aboard the American Export Lines "Independence" last week. They will tour Italy, Sicily, with a short stop-over in Switzerland. This will be the first time that either of Dante's parents have visited their homeland since they left when they were less than 10 years old.

Report on the Baby - Congressman Charlie Bennett, month-old father, says he is now "used to" the baby. "He doesn't bother me," he said. "He gets hungry and cries in the middle of the night and Jean gets up and turns on the light and feeds him and makes a lot of noise, but I sleep through it all. Maybe I ought to be more concerned, but I've reached the point now where I don't even wake up."

In and Out - Stopping over in Washington last week were Byron Herlong, watermelon king, and Bill Herbert, with the USDA, of Leesburg, on their way home from the Elks Convention in Philadelphia. In the back seat of their car was an orange juice dispenser that was used to serve more than 10,000 glasses of fresh Florida orange juice to the Elks. . . . Seen with color camera on the Capital lawn were Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hanson, attractive young couple from Tavares. Both teach at Tavares High School. . . . just on a vacation. . . . Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Newcomer and daughters, Joan and Susan Jane, of Pensacola, visiting the office of Bob Sikes for passage to the House gallery.

Campaign warming up - This is the season when a politician's fancy turns to thoughts of Tallahassee and the chances he might have for the Governor's chair. Political pundits like to fill space by guessing and "predicting" about possible entrants. It may be the heat, and again it might even be something that we have overheard, but lately, we too have been wondering who will be in the starting line-up. This is the time that the smart ones begin to get their ducks in a row. . . . and part of that process includes calling long distance to Washington. Not a few of those calls are coming into the office of "be-con" Bob Sikes, the sage from Crestview—otherwise known as the "Dean" of the Florida Congressional Delegation. For it's rumored that he is ready (been working on it for several seasons), willing (chaffing at the bit), and able (which nobody can deny). When you ask him point blank, "Bob, are you going to run?" it takes him a full minute to think up some way to answer you without saying anything. And he can do it, too, in about 300 words. That, folks, is a sure sign. So, the next time you begin to write down the possibilities for the race and you put down the names of LeRoy Collins, Fuller Warren, Farris Bryant, be sure to include the name "Bob Sikes." He might, you know.

Girl Begs Boyfriend To Carry Shotgun Then Takes Life

WESTON, Conn. UP - Lynn Faust, 19, kept after her boy friend to take her crow hunting. They went off into the deep woods Sundays. Lynn begged her beau Buell Neidinger, 19, to let her carry his 12 gauge shotgun. He passed it over to her. She took it, leaned against a tree and put the end of the barrel under her chin. Neidinger was startled. "You're not thinking of doing anything with that?" he asked. No, Lynn said. Then she kissed him, told him she loved him and darted off suddenly. Neidinger was puzzled for a moment, but ran after her. Before he could reach her, he saw her stop, place the gun under her chin again and pull the trigger. She died instantly. Dr. Harry S. Phillips, medical examiner, said Lynn committed suicide. He said she had suicidal tendencies. Neidinger was so badly shaken he required medical treatment.

MEDICAL COMPLAINT DEPT. BANDUNG, Indonesia, (AP) - From now on, the doctors in Western Java are going to get an earful. The Prangsan Doctors Assn. has just opened an office where patients can lodge complaints about their medical treatment or their bills.

Without good health it is difficult to get learning, or enjoy many of the good things of life. Years ago, health was dependent on good luck.

Demos Generally Give Cooperation

WASHINGTON UP—Honeymoon is an overworked word. But the Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress has been a political honeymoon—this year, at least. There is no certainty the honeymoon will end next year either although 1956 is a presidential election year and the Democrats will need issues to win. They've created very few in 1955. Congress, ending its session this week, has given the President much of the legislation he urged, and with a minimum of fuss and fury. There were two things unusual about that:

1. They had been expected—after winning control of Congress in the 1954 elections—to go out savagely after the Republicans who had been berating and denouncing them for years.

2. When they took over in January they were expected to start building toward the 1956 election campaign by creating issues. Instead of abusing and trying to hamstring the Republicans, the Democrats generally cooperated with Eisenhower. On foreign affairs they gave him more support than his own Republicans. And they went along with him, more or less, on most of his domestic programs.

As for issues, the Democrats found or tried to create only a few. Two examples of where they went after the administration were the Dixon-Yates power deal and the financial affairs of Secretary of the Air Force Harold G. Tambo.

Why the political good with this year and the possibility of more of the same in 1956?

For one thing, Eisenhower's personal popularity. It makes opposition politicians wary about seeing off on him on minor issues. And Eisenhower has been astute enough not to give them many major ones.

For another, in foreign affairs Eisenhower was really following the program laid down by his Democratic predecessor President Truman. Since that was a Democratic program the Democrats are committed to support it.

On domestic policies Eisenhower followed a moderate course. But so did the Democrats. The times called for moderation at home, not for extreme experiments in economics or social welfare. Eisenhower took over a prosperous country in 1953. It has become even more prosperous under his leadership. People have jobs. There are no demands for radical remedies.

The moderation of Eisenhower and the Democrats was simply a reflection of the moderate mood of the country. Eisenhower looks like a good bet to run again, and win overwhelmingly. Perhaps the Democrats are reconciled to that and hope only that in 1956 the voters will let them keep control of Congress. If that's their modest goal, then they have prepared a talking point for themselves by their conduct in 1955: they've acted soberly and constructively, backing Eisenhower or often more solidly than his Republicans.

Salk Vaccine Shots Start This Month For 5-9 Age Group

WASHINGTON, AP—Private physicians and public health agencies will start getting Salk polio vaccine this month for inoculation of children 5-9 years of age.

The Public Health Service announced Sunday it has allocated enough for 60,000 shots. That amount will become available as soon as individual states report how much is to go to health agencies and how much to physicians. More vaccine will be apportioned as it is manufactured and cleared for use.

The distribution is the first under the department's voluntary program for placing the vaccine where it is most needed. Except for limited supplies which moved into commercial channels last April, the vaccine is the first to go to private physicians.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has received almost all the vaccine manufactured to date for use in its free immunization of first and second-grade schoolchildren. It reported Saturday its current needs have been met, although it said three million cubic centimeters more will be necessary to complete its program this fall.

Apportionment by the states was based on the number of children each has in the 5-9-year age group not included in the free vaccination program.

That age group is most susceptible to the disease. Older and younger children will become eligible later when more vaccine is eligible.

Each state governor has designated officials to oversee the distribution of vaccine. State and local medical societies also are expected to see that physicians limit the inoculations to children in the age priority groups.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE
WATE CULLMAN answered for them. "It's open range, and we're movin' in!"

"You're an old man, Cullman," the publisher told him. "You oughta have some sense. Turn this bunch of jughuggers around and get back where you belong 'fore somebody gets hurt."

"Who's goin' to hurt us?" Fred Cullman's voice rumbled with its last attempt. "You!"

"There's fourteen more men on Broken Spur ain't you?" he let you get away with this, an' you know it!" The man's eyes were cold and gleaming as he spoke. "I'm gonna see you all in a heap, and you'll be sorry you ever set foot on this range."

Doll Manufacturer Offers Apologies In Letter To Ike

NEW YORK, (AP)—Doll manufacturer David Rosenstein has sent apologies to President Eisenhower for a protest over the President's purchase of Swiss dolls for his grandchildren.

Rosenstein, president of the National Doll Manufacturers Assn., said Sunday the complaint, sent out under his name, was the work of an overzealous press agent. Rosenstein said he had not authorized the publicity release, and his personal feelings are exactly opposite to what it said:

The release sent to news media had quoted Rosenstein as saying the entire American doll industry was "shocked" by the President's purchase of Swiss-made dolls while in Geneva for the Big Four conference.

Mosquitoes were very little known, scientifically, until the end of the last century when their role in spreading human disease began to be appreciated.

Soviet Occupation Troops To Leave Ahead Of Deadline

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov has ordered 44,000 Russian occupation troops to leave Austria by Oct. 1—a month ahead of their deadline.

Marshal Zhukov, wartime friend of President Eisenhower, announced the decision in an order of the day Sunday. He also said Russia's large armed forces would be reduced by the number pulled out of Austria, in keeping with a Soviet proposal at the summit conference that all four occupation powers cut their forces by the number evacuated from Austria.

The Russian order came just four days after the deadline date of the Austrian Independence Treaty. Under that pact, all four occupying powers—the United States, Britain, France, and Russia—are required to remove their troops within 30 days.

When the four powers signed the treaty with Austria May 15, occupation forces totaled 70,000. Of these, 24,000 were Americans.

Game Commission Sets Two Meetings For Next Weekend

TALLAHASSEE—The Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will hold two meetings in Ft. Lauderdale August 3-4, A. D. Aldrich, Director, announced today.

The first meeting will be a joint meeting of the Commission and representatives of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District at the Lago-Mar Hotel, Ft. Lauderdale, at 7:30 p. m. Friday, August 3. Purpose of the meeting will be discussion of the 750,000-acre Everglades Wildlife Management Area in Dade, Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

The Commission-Flood Control District meeting will conclude the day-long public demonstration of equipment which will help develop the management area for public use. Demonstrations will be held at Audubon, west of Ft. Lauderdale and south of Lake Okechobee.

The Game Commission will hold the second meeting at 10 a. m. Saturday at the Lago-Mar Hotel, Ft. Lauderdale. Routine Commission business will be considered, Aldrich stated.

A meeting previously scheduled to be held in Okechobee August 6, was cancelled in favor of the Ft. Lauderdale conference with the Flood Control District.

Campanella Breaks Slump To Lead In Batting Circle

NEW YORK—Roy Campanella, slugging catcher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, broke out of a slump last week and today held a 10 point lead over Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn in the National League batting competition.

Campanella climbed seven points to 336 with 22 hits in 39 at bats. Meanwhile Ashburn dropped eight points to 288 with only six singles in 27 trips.

In the American League, Al Koussios of Detroit is the throne of his worst slump of the year, talked off 13 points. He's batting .200, but his lead isn't nearly as large as it was several weeks ago.

Harvey Kuhn of the Tigers is in the runner-up spot with 277. He increased his average one point. George Kell of the Chicago White Sox moved into third place at 268 with a five point gain.

Bobo Newsome of the Dodgers, the National League's third leading batter with 217, is tied with Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski for the home run lead. Each has walked off while Willie Mays of the New York Giants is right behind them with 20. Neither has the club's next man behind in RBI's.

Walter and Shirley Mando of the New York Yankees are designated

Treatment Started For Tony

NEW YORK—American Davis Cup ace Tony Trabert today began a 10-day series of treatments designed to eliminate his back miseries and have him in shape for the Challenge Round in Forest Hills at the end of the month.

While Trabert made his daily prescribed visit to the hospital for treatment of a pulled muscle, U. S. Tennis officials wondered if he would be able to get in shape for defense of the coveted mug.

Here is how they figure: Trabert, who was examined yesterday by two of the top orthopedic surgeons at the Hospital for Special Surgery, will be out of action until Aug. 12. The Challenge Round, in all probability against Australia, is slated for Aug. 25-27-28.

That would give Trabert exactly two weeks to get in shape after being out of action for more than a week.

"We'll cross that bridge when we come to it," said Cup Captain Bill Talbert, outwardly calm. "Our immediate concern is to keep Tony rested as the physicians directed and make sure he gets daily heat treatments both at home and at the hospital."

Talbert is keeping Trabert in his home for his period of convalescence.

"Actually, we don't know exactly how long the treatments will take or how Tony will respond to them. But we have the doctors' optimistic report and naturally hope for the best."

Trabert complained of a sore back in the final of the Meadow Club Tournament last Saturday and was forced to default to Ed Moylan in the final. A physician on the scene told him his ailment wasn't serious, but Trabert wanted to be sure, so he took Tony to the hospital yesterday.

"Nothing serious. Just a pulled muscle," was the verdict. "He needs rest."

20-Game Winners In Major Leagues Scarce This Season

NEW YORK—Twenty-game winners in the major leagues this season almost will be as scarce as sea-legged outfielders.

The way the pitching situation shapes up with only one-third of the campaign to play, only Don Newcombe of Brooklyn and Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies appear certain to wind up with as many as 20 victories.

Newcombe, the Dodgers' one-man gang, has an 18-1 record while Roberts, with at least 20 triumphs in each of the last five years, has won 18 games while losing nine.

Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox (16-4) has a chance to make the 20-grade. So have Early Wynn (13-3) and Bob Lemon (12-7) of the Cleveland Indians and Whitley Ford (12-3) of the New York Yankees. Lemon, seeking his seventh 20-game year, has been bothered by a hip injury. Dick Donovan of the Chicago White Sox has a 12-4 record but he was sidelined by an appendicitis attack.

From all indications, however, baseball's big leagues will produce the lowest total of 20-game producers since 1928 when only four pitchers did it.

Last season produced six 20-game winners—Wynn, Lemon and Roberts with 21, Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee with 20 and Bob Grim of the Yankees, with 20. Antonelli is 12-4 this year. Spahn has a 9-11 record and Grim, out with a sore arm, has won only four games against two setbacks.

Don Stands Chance Of Beating Record

ST. LOUIS—Freddie Fitzsimmons, coach of the New York Giants, says Brooklyn's Don Newcombe has a "good chance" to break his won-lost pitching record in the National League.

Fat Freddy posted the league mark of 16-3 in 1926 at the age of 29 when he was with the same Dodgers.

Big Newb now stands at 18-1 with about two months of the season still remaining where a defeat or two could run the record bid.

"Newcombe has a good chance to break it," Fitzsimmons said before last night's Giant-St. Louis Cardinals game, "especially with that club behind him."

Preacher Roe came close in 1921 with a 22-3 mark, also for Brooklyn.

Fighting Is Simple To Tony Anthony

NEW YORK—Fighting is a simple thing to Tony Anthony. Either you knock out the other guy or he knocks you out.

Last night at St. Nicholas Arena it was "the other guy" and Bobby Boyd of Chicago flattened the New York middleweight in 1:18 of the third round of a scheduled 10-round match.

"I never got hit on the chin like that," said Anthony in his dressing room. "I never even knew what happened."

Anthony was down for an automatic eight-count in the first round but came back to stagger Boyd while winning the second.

As a reward for the victory, Boyd will get a Sept. 12 date at St. Nick's with Willie Trow, Don Savage or Betty Wynn.

For the American League home run lead with 20 apiece while Roy Johnson of Detroit is tops in RBI's with 24.

Spring Training Curb Dropped; Bonus Rule Next

CHICAGO—The major leagues knocked out the rule that a player cannot report to spring training before March 1, and scheduled definite action yesterday on the controversial bonus rule at a joint meeting in Chicago next December.

In dropping the curb on spring training, the American and National leagues, meeting separately, decided a player does not have to report before March 1 but can do so as wishes.

Last year, players were not allowed to report before March 1. On the player-bonus rule, which has been unsatisfactory to everyone concerned, the two leagues will meet jointly in an effort to eliminate it.

The present rule requires a team to carry bonus players for two years and include them within the 25-player limit.

Other matters such as minimum pay increases and winter baseball were discussed.

Commissioner Ford Frick, who attended yesterday's meetings, set Aug. 12 for a meeting in New York of baseball's Executive Council and representatives of the Carribean Confederation for further study of winter baseball. The players have asked that all restrictions be lifted from playing winter baseball.

Scott Frost Towers Above Top Trotters

GOSHEN, N.Y.—Harness horse fans who look in on the 20th Hambletonian Stakes tomorrow may be seeing the greatest 2-year-old trotter since Greyhound won the great sulky classic just 30 years ago.

That was the general impression today as Scott Frost stood out like a lighthouse in a field of 11 of the nation's fastest trotters.

Scott Frost is owned by Sol Camp, Shafter, Calif., potato and cotton farmer, and he bids fair to take racing's second big prize back west this season. California's Swaps won the Kentucky Derby, and Scott Frost is the early 3-5 favorite for this trotting counterpart of the derby at Bill Cane's Good Time Park.

"I haven't seen a trotter like him since Greyhound," said Sanders Russell, an old time Grand Circuit veteran.

Hoot Mon holds the Hambletonian time record of 2 minutes flat for the mile, and Scott Frost is a son of that 1907 winner.

Scott Frost is only one of three horses entered by Camp, and staminate Dutch Hanover has a good chance to grab second money. The other Camp contender is Home Free.

The main opposition to the West Coast triumvirate is Galophone, owned by William T. Mayberry, Dexter, Mo., machine tool maker, and Childs Hanover, property of the Texas oilman, K. D. Owen of Houston. Galophone is 4-1 and Childs Hanover 6-1.

The race will have a total value of $25,000. The winner netting $2,117.00 or 80 per cent. The second horse gets $2,718.50, with $2,000.00 to third, and $4,242.15 to fourth.

Em Tunnel, defensive backfield star for the football Giants, has played in every Pro-Bowl game since the classic was started eight years ago.

Nursing a paper-thin one-game lead and deprived of the services of their top pitcher, the Chicago White Sox tackle the rolling Boston Red Sox tonight in the tight American League race.

The White Sox are just one game and 12 percentage points in front of the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians and three games ahead of the Red Sox, currently the hottest team in the league.

While the White Sox and Red Sox are battling, the Yanks and Indians will be trying to knock each other out of the race in the first of a three-game set in New York.

Marty Marion's Pale Horse are hampered by the absence of Dick Donovan, their No. 1 right-hander. He is recuperating from an appendectomy and will be out more than four weeks.

Connie Johnson (3-1) will get the call tonight. Tommy Brewer (2-3) will be on the mound for the Red Sox.

To add to the White Sox's troubles, third baseman George Kell, third leading hitter in the league, has been having back trouble again and strictly a limited-service performer now.

The Yankees and Indians, eager to get off on the right foot, will send their ace to the rubber. Early Wynn (13-3) goes for the Indians, while Tommy Byrne (8-3) pitches for the Yanks.

No games were scheduled in the American League yesterday, but the National League had a wild slate. The Brooklyn Dodgers widened their lead to 1 1/2 games by coming from behind to defeat the second-place Milwaukee Braves 4-3 in 10 innings.

In other games, the New York Giants knocked the St. Louis Cardinals into seventh place with a 3-1 victory, the Cincinnati Reds climbed to sixth by winning their fifth straight, a 4-3 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies, and the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Chicago Cubs 4-4.

Law Burdette held the Brooks scoreless until they tied it in the seventh with three runs. They won it in the 10th when Johnny Logan bobbled a double play ball, per-

Yoshida Claims Notes Molested

TOKYO (AP)—Shigeru Yoshida says in his memoirs that some of Japan's leaders at the time of Pearl Harbor tampered with the text of a final U.S. note, thus persuading reluctant officials to agree to war.

"This was a fraud by the military and amounted to conspiracy," declares the 76-year-old diplomat and politician who guided Japan as prime minister through six post-war years.

He said the note from the late Secretary of State Cordell Hull just before the Pearl Harbor attack was marked "Not definitive." There was the added comment in the note that "this is a basis for negotiation" and part of the preamble emphasized "this is a tentative plan."

"Not only were all these words deleted," Yoshida said, "but the portion covering the Japanese stand was also deleted when the document was submitted to the Privy Council as 'the Hull note.' It was informed that only the American position was carried in a one-sided manner."

It was on the basis of this doctored note, accepted by Japan as a virtual U.S. ultimatum—that reluctant Japanese civilian leaders and some doubtful military chiefs finally agreed to war, Yoshida said.

Fairlane Terrace Plat Is Approved For A. C. Doudney

A plat was approved by the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole County yesterday. Fairlane Terrace, a subdivision in Lake Mary, was okayed by the commissioners when submitted by A. C. Doudney.

After a heavy schedule of items coming before the board at its meeting yesterday, Commissioner Fred Dixon requested that the commission consider the purchase of air conditioning for the commissioners room. Action taken by the board will require that bids be secured for the required air conditioning.

Sanford City Commissioner John Krider appeared before the County Commissioners to report, along with commissioner Fred Dixon, on the colored playground in Goldsboro. Krider said that at least $15,000 will be spent on equipment for the playground. Also included in the plan, Krider told the board, are two tennis courts, a volleyball court, a basketball court and a softball diamond.

The City Commissioner told the board "I am confident that this project will do much toward eliminating juvenile delinquency."

Fishing Tournament Closes For Summer

The city-wide fishing tournament for youngsters, conducted by the recreation department during the summer program came to an end yesterday with a 12-year-old boy taking the top prize of a three-horsepower Evinrude outboard motor.

E. W. Christensen, recreation director for the city-wide recreation program, said that Billy Johnson, 12, East Magnolia Avenue, took the top prize with a seven-pound 15 ounce bass.

Frank Anderson, 11, of Golden Lake took the second prize with his four-pound 11 ounce bass, his prize was a reel.

Richard Powell, 11, of Rt. 1 Box 160, evidently an ardent fisherman, took three prizes in the tournament with a three-pound, two-pound, and 1 1/2 pound bass. He was awarded a reel, glass rod, and three plugs.

Robert George, 11, of Golden Lake took a reel as a prize in the city-wide event with a two-pound three ounce bass.

Earl Foulk, 11, Sanford Avenue, was awarded a plug and a fishing scale for landing a 1 1/2 pound bass.

Prizes for the fishing contest were made possible by The City Recreation Department, Hill Hardware Company, Robson Sporting Goods, Gene's Texaco Service, Crowe's Fish Camp, Hill Implement Company and the Firestone Store.

Recreation Director Christensen said that if any of the participants had not been contacted, to please call him at 2371-R for their prizes.

Sunday Operation Planned Membership Need Told By Maybury

In a mammoth operation Sunday, the Ground Observer Corps throughout the Southern Area, will test its strength and make test observations.

George Maybury, Commander of the Campbell Lossing Post of the American Legion, here in Sanford, said that an attempt will be made to organize the local group to add a tremendous strength to the defense of a vulnerable part of our country in case of enemy attack.

Maybury said that teenagers and adults of any age are asked to take part in this very important effort to protect the United States from attack by plane.

The test observation will be conducted at Lakeshore Boulevard Sunday. Maybury said, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Interested persons should go to the Legion building anytime during the day that they find can be spared to help build the Ground Observer Corps into a full-strength unit.

The Ground Observer Corps has been set up for the past five years, Maybury pointed out and in some states is operated on a 24 hour basis. The function of the defense organization, he said, is to spot airplanes of any type. Here in our State, Maybury explained, the ground is so low that it is possible for enemy planes to hedgehop without radar observation.

"It is in the interest of the defense of our country in very crucial times that the Ground Observer Corps serve," said Maybury, and we are hopeful that many citizens will join with us in this gigantic effort and test observation to better help defend our country.

As soon as enough of our citizens join with us to form this very valuable organization, the Ground Observer Corps, Maybury continued, we will appoint supervisors and chief observers in the permanent group. "Whether a person can devote a bit of time or just a small amount of time we are anxious to get as many people interested as possible," he said.

Casselberry Asks County To Share Funds

The town of Casselberry, yesterday, approached the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole County with an eye toward securing funds for its streets.

Represented by Attorney Allen Grant, Hubbard Casselberry asked the Commissioners for one-half of all of the Road and Bridge Fund moneys levied in its corporate limits.

Grant pointed out to the Seminole State Law (RMR) 8 R T P one County Commissioners that State Law makes it not arbitrary but compulsory that the funds be shared with the town of Casselberry.

"The town is hard up for funds and road money at this time," the attorney said and he added, "the town council has authorized me to ask for two things." These he pointed out were: (1) assurance that Casselberry would receive its share of the road and bridge fund beginning immediately, and (2) that Casselberry be given the amount of moneys that should have been shared during the past five years.

Commission Chairman John M. Moseley said, "This is the first time the matter has come to our attention." "It is my understanding," he said, "that Casselberry has levied any taxes to match the funds of the county and since Casselberry is a tax free town it is not qualified."

Seminole County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. asked for more time to study the matter.

T. E. Tucker Appointment Told To Be Good Will Ambassador

T. E. Tucker, president of the Florida State Bank received his appointment today as "Ambassador of Good Will" for the State of Florida.

The appointment was made by Nathan Mayo, Commissioner of Agriculture and Chairman of the State's Good Will Committee.

Tucker, along with his appointment, received a supply of good will material that Mayo said "I am sure will be used to a splendid advantage."

Material to be used by the local "Good Will Ambassador" includes identification cards of others to be appointed by Mr. Tucker. Lively Squabbles Are Seen In 1956

WASHINGTON (AP)—The things Congress left undone, a big part of the story of this year's session, promise lively squabbles in 1956.

Fourteen important measures President Eisenhower asked for did not reach his desk. Several other major bills also were left hanging.

All pending legislation will be alive when Congress returns Jan. 3.

Perhaps the most important Eisenhower bills stranded were those to start a multibillion-dollar expansion of the nation's highway building program and to aid in local school construction.

Bulgaria Admits Jets Downed Plane

LONDON (AP)—Communist Bulgaria admitted today that two of her fighter planes shot down an Israeli airliner last Wednesday.

It said it would "discover and punish those responsible for the catastrophe."

All 58 persons aboard the airliner, including 12 Americans, were killed. The plane, which had gotten off course, crashed just north of the Bulgarian-Greek border.

Previously the Bulgarians had said Red anti-aircraft guns downed the airliner and promised partial payment for the million-dollar plane. But the Israeli Foreign Ministry said Monday that Israeli investigators who inspected the wreckage saw "numerous bullet holes" and gained "the definite impression" that they came from machine-gun fire.

Young Girl Faces Big Decision

CISCO GROVE, Calif. (AP)—A thin 20-year-old girl today faced the biggest decision of her life: whether to return to the airman husband she thought was dead or stay with the man she married later and loves.

"I knew it was coming, but I didn't know when," said Mrs. Alfred Pine, who at 11 wed A. C. Daniel Schmidt, of Cour D'Alene, Idaho, and bore him an son after he left her overseas.

Now she is the wife of a husky 34-year-old logging camp tractor operator. They live in a small trailer a few miles from this tiny highway town in the High Sierra.

Only Monday she learned that Schmidt is one of 11 American prisoners due for mandatory release by the Chinese Communists after 3 1/2 years of imprisonment on spy charges. He went overseas 37 months ago.

She's flying to meet Schmidt when he arrives in this country. With her will go her 2 1/2-year-old son Danny, a dark-eyed youngster who has never seen his father.

"I honestly don't know what I'm going to do," she told a reporter. "Naturally, I'm tickled he is returning. Whatever I decide, the decision will be my own."

She said she married Pine two months before learning from the Air Force that her husband is alive and well as a war prisoner.

"I made a mistake," she said, "but I'm everyone entitled to one mistake?"

Mrs. Pine said she had never been officially told that Schmidt was dead. She received notification only that he was missing somewhere in Korea.

"I thought he was dead. You know how some prisoners die in prisons or are never heard from again . . . I didn't know."

Of Schmidt, she says: "I loved him very much. After all, he is the father of my child. But I was only with him a few weeks before he went overseas."

Of Pine: "We're very happy. I don't like it up here in the woods but he's been a good husband and I love him."

Pine himself says little about the strange situation.

"We met and we fell in love. That's about all there is to tell," he said. "Her happiness means more to me than anything. We talked it over and it's my wife's decision."
