Senate Approves Warren's Bill On New Citrus Laws

House Okays Measure To Hike Unemployment Compensation And Payment Time

TALLAHASSEE, May 12—(AP)—The House today adopted a resolution commending newspaper reporters covering the Legislature for "fairness, impartiality, accuracy and thoroughness." Rep. Power of Jacksonville, introducer of the resolution, said he often depended on the press "to tell me what went on in the House."

TALLAHASSEE, May 12—(AP)—Reg. Bridges of Calhoun today proposed an appropriation of $100,000 for construction of a stadium at Florida State University. A similar bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Hivner of Chipley. The University has no stadium of its own. It plays its home football games at Centennial field in Tallahassee, which also is used as a baseball diamond and for high school games.

TALLAHASSEE, May 12—(AP)—The Florida Senate passed by a 34-2 vote today Governor Warren's citrus bill to provide a taste test and revamp many citrus laws. The first vote came after two days of argument and after the supporters of the measure beat down every attempt to wreck the measure by amendment.

Closest opposition came in a move to exempt bulk truck shipment from groves from provisions of the bill. The vote defeating the truck amendment was 19-17. Only Senators King of Winter Haven and Moore of Sebring voted against the final bill. Discussion was spirited in the amendment by Moore to let truckers back their vehicles up to (Continued on Page Three)

C. W. Johnson Is Installed Head Of V. F. W. Post

C. W. Pat Johnson was installed as commander of Post 3382 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at its meeting Monday night at the Tourist Center. Other officers installed by Post Commander F. D. Scott were: Jack Gordy, senior vice commander; Mr. Scott, junior vice commander; E. A. Monfort, chaplain; B. Boyle, advocate; and Roy Wright, quartermaster. Outgoing Commander John L. Galloway was given a "round of applause" for his work for the organization during the past year. Commander Johnson asked for cooperation of the membership in carrying out programs during the coming year. Cash prizes were given to J. C. Jenkins and Billy Little, winner and runner-up in the marble tournament for boys which the Post sponsored. John "Texas" Brady was named as a delegate to attend the state VFW convention in St. Petersburg. Prior to the meeting, members and visitors enjoyed a fish fry.

Four County Lakes Restocked With Bass

Ten thousand fingerling bass, supplied by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, were recently placed in four lakes in this area by members of the Seminole County Sportsmen's Association, George A. Speer, president, announced today. The lakes in which the bass were placed are Seminary Lake, Lake of the Wood, Triangle Lake and Golden Lake. This was the first delivery of fingerlings by the Commission this spring, said Mr. Speer. Applications for more fish are pending.

Paul Manning, chairman of the Quail Committee of the Association, reported that 19 quail trapped in closed areas where hunting is not permitted had been put in "shot-out areas" of public hunting grounds in this county. Atlantic Pact Door Slammed Tight On Spain

Senate GOP Leader, Vandenberg, And Truman Back Acheson's Firm Stand

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, Republican leader in foreign affairs, said today: "I am not in favor of Spain's entry into the North Atlantic Pact." This unqualified stand followed strong anti-Franco statements yesterday by Secretary of State Acheson—remarks which President Truman endorsed today at a news conference.

Together, they apparently slammed the door tight on any possibility of Spain's entering the Atlantic Alliance. But there remained a difference over sending an ambassador to Spain. Both Vandenberg and Senator Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, have said they favor having an ambassador to Madrid.

Acheson's position—backed up by President Truman—is that whether or not this country has an ambassador there is unimportant in itself. But the withholding of an ambassador, Acheson said, has become important as a symbol of the disapproval of other nations for Spanish Fascism.

Vandenberg gave his views on Spain during hearings on Senate ratification of the pact. At present, the Foreign Relations Committee is (Continued on Page Three)

Lake Mary Girl Places 20th In Spelling Contest

Frances Bridgeman of Lake Mary placed 20th and Carole David of Geneva 30th Friday in the Miami Herald's district spelling bee in Miami, B. C. Smith, principal of the Sanford Grammar School, reported.

State winner in the contest was Leo Garrett, 14, eighth grader of Everglades, who outspelled 40 other contestants from 24 counties. He receives the grand prize of an all-expense trip to Washington, D. C. to compete in a national spelling contest. The Miami contest was held in the municipal auditorium which was filled with an enthusiastic crowd of rooters, including teachers and the relatives of contestants.

Leo Garrett was the first boy to win the contest since 1941 when Homer Lynn of Dade county won. In the contest Friday 11 year old Lavonia Milligan, seventh grader of Fort Pierce, placed second and (Continued on Page Four)

Krider, Shinholer Go To Tallahassee

City Commissioner John Krider and Edwin Shinholer, city attorney, returned yesterday afternoon to Tallahassee to contact Senator Boyle and Representative Gilman and Smith regarding city sponsored measures to be introduced to the Legislature.

The bills include the new City Charter, pledge of Sanford revenue for an RFC terminal loan, and transfer by the County to the City of two parcels of land; one on hospital site on East First Street, and the new baseball park on McCallville Avenue.

Americans And Britons Are Having Quarrel On Subject Of Finance

NEW YORK, May 12—(AP)—Americans and Britons are having a family quarrel on the subject of finance. The arguments sound very much like some you may have heard at home on how to make ends meet. The British say: we should cut down on expenses. The Americans say: you should go out and make more money.

The dispute, which comes out into the open today in Paris for the neighbors to hear, is over what to do about Europe after the war. The British plan to cut down on expenses. The Americans say: you should go out and make more money. The reason: their prices are too high. The French, and the Italians, appear to have adopted the American view that Europe should first get its house in order by cutting down on expenses. Then Americans should go out and sell more goods around

Commie Armies Open 2 Attacks In Shanghai Area

Government Troops Reported Holding Firm At Shihutang

SHANGHAI, May 12 (AP)—Red forces pushed to within 21 miles of Shanghai today. Two separate Communist attacks were underway. The nearest was at Luchang, 21 miles to the northwest. But fighting there was reported by the Shanghai Garrison to be on a small scale.

The Shanghai Garrison ordered all government departments out of Shanghai within two weeks. The Communists had made a substantial advance from Kweichow, about 50 miles southwest of the city. They would put the southwest part of the Red forces and the northwest force about equal distance from Shanghai. The northwest force was described as flexible, ranging from 21 to 25 miles from the city.

The Tanchang action was described as fairly heavy. The Reds have two regiments against the Nationalists under an artillery barrage. The Communists said the (Continued on Page Four)

1,830 Acres Of Celery Remain To Be Cut In Florida

Celery is about two weeks ahead of the regular growing season and only about 1,830 acres remain in Florida, M. I. Cullum, sales manager for Chase and Co., announced today. On May 1 remaining acreage was about 2,367.

He estimated the remaining Central Florida acreage in celery is 932 acres of which 622 acres is golden variety and 410 parcel. Most of this acreage is in the muck areas of Zellwood and Oviedo. Gearhart Eiser Reported To Be Ship Stowaway

Immigration Officer Says Man Is Positively Identified

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Immigration Commissioner Watson Miller said today a stowaway aboard a Polish ship off the coast of New York was "positively" identified as Gearhart Eiser, missing army Communist.

The 33-year-old Eiser, who is facing two possible jail sentences in this country, disappeared last week from his home in New York. He was free on $2,000 bail.

The liner Ratus, which sailed from New York six days ago, later radioed that a German stowaway aboard identified himself as Eiser. Miller told reporters "we have a positive identification."

Asked for details, Miller said the stowaway gave his birth date and place and they corresponded to our records of the fourth date and place of Eiser. He added: "I don't suppose any ordinary stowaway would be coming around with Eiser's birth date and place." When newsmen asked whether Eiser had any information as to how Miller got aboard the ship, Miller said: "It's a strange procedure. One would wonder how he got on the boat."

Mrs. Walker Tells Business Women Of Human Rights Needs Of Hospital Are Explained By MacDonald Bryan

Mrs. Amelia Hines Walker, internationally known for her work for Equal Rights for Women and chairman of the international relation committee of the National Woman's Party, last night told the Business and Professional Women's Club that she believes the National Congress will pass an amendment removing women from the category of their husband's "goods and chattel" and make them equal with men as far as human rights are concerned.

Mrs. Walker, who is wintering in Winter Park, was introduced by Mrs. Sally Mero Williams, BWPW president, and her talk was broadcast over Station WTRR. This amendment to the Constitution of the United States, she said, is not to make women and men identical but to give "equality of right under the laws shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or (Continued on Page Three)

T. E. Tucker Named Chairman Of Seminole Savings Bond Committee

TAMPA, May 12 (Special)—V. H. Northcutt, executive vice-president of the First National Bank of Tampa and chairman of the State Advisory Savings Bonds Committee, announced today the appointment of T. E. Tucker of Sanford as chairman of the Seminole County Savings Bonds Committee.

Mr. Tucker, now cashier of the Florida State Bank at Sanford, was born in Blountstown, Fla., and moved to Sanford in 1944 after attending Washington and Lee University. During the war he served in the Air Force as an aerial photographer from 1941-42 and was a purser in the Merchant Marine from 1943-44.

He is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Presbyterian Church, is active in Scouting and is a director of the Hospital Association and an active committee member of the current hospital drive.

In making his acceptance known, Mr. Tucker said, "I feel that proper management of our national debt is the responsibility of every American and we can do no finer thing than to encourage more people to put away some of their savings in U. S. Savings Bonds, thereby becoming a shareholder in our government and pro-

Berlin Blockade End Called Source Of Encouragement For World By President

WASHINGTON, May 12—(AP)—President Truman today has news conference today he still sees a need for a $4,000,000,000 increase in taxes to avoid a deficit and retire part of the public debt. He believes in and has been practicing rigid government economy.

The tax increase to apply between $2,000,000,000 and $3,000,000,000 toward the public debt. Answering reports who asked whether he still felt a $4,000,000,000 increase is necessary, the President said that would be worked out when the amount of the deficit is determined. Later he said he did not expect any changes in the tax program he proposed last January.

The last estimate of a deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30 placed it at between $600,000,000 and $700,000,000. The discussion came when a reporter asked whether Mr. Truman's views agreed with those of chairman Douglas (D-N.C.) of the House Ways and Means Committee. Douglas and other members of the committee favored rigid government economy instead of higher taxes.

Mr. Truman said he completely agreed with Douglas about economy and that he had practiced this in making his January budget report. (Continued on Page Four)

Higgins And Kilbee To Attend Flood Committee Meeting

Chairman of Committee Manager Edward Higgins and County Commissioner W. G. Kilbee today accepted the invitation of the Flood Control Committee of Florida to attend a meeting Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Oklawaha County Courthouse to discuss flood control.

In the telegram sent Mr. Higgins, the invitation mentioned the proposed bill now in the Legislature with reference to maintenance and operation of levees being born by local areas. The meeting was termed of "informal" importance.

Under the proposed bill, Mr. Higgins stated, "nothing will be levied in each county affected. Your county will definitely be included by this bill." Mr. Higgins pointed out that (Continued on Page Four)

Small Tomato Grows On Potato Plant

What appears to be a small green tomato is growing on a potato vine in the yard of Mrs. and Mrs. R. F. Hubbard, 2014 Lily Court. The plant is one of one of Irish potato plants. Near a line of Irish potato plants, Mrs. Hubbard has a row of tomato plants.

Mrs. Hubbard, soil conservator, who viewed the plant this morning stated that the tomato-like growth might be the result of a cross with a sort of wild tomato vine which grows in the vicinity. More can be told when the plant, now several months old, is nearer maturity, he said.

started discussion again of how far the trend toward smaller and lighter cars may go. Most producers, of course, are equipped to turn to a similar line of cars whenever they think the time is ripe. All the industry's sales chiefs will be watching the demand that develops for the new Dodge model.

Announcing a factory retail price of $1,645 for its two-door Wayfarer sedan, Dodge said the car was designed to meet a demand for "a full sized family car at the lowest possible price."

Trade sources have been speculating that at least two lightweight account of sex "It is the laws for human beings we want to make identical, not the people" she quoted Helen Hunt West, a Jacksonville attorney and worker, as saying.

Mothers' pensions, she declared, will not be affected. These pensions are for the benefit of children, and should a mother die the pension should be paid to her husband. They are equally responsible for the bringing of their children.

"The women of the United States do not have equal rights," Mrs. Walker said, "because our laws for the most part were based on the old English Common Law, which regarded women as the goods and chattels of their husbands." In concluding her talk, she urged the women to petition Congress for the passing of this amendment.

McDonald Bryan, executive director of the $25,000 hospital fund drive followed Mrs. Walker with a brief talk on the needs of the hospital. He was profound in his commendation of the omnipotence of McCrory's store for their pledge of $66 to this fund.

"These persons among the lower income bracket have recognized their responsibility and responsibility and we believe that other citizens will also give to make this campaign a complete success," Mr. Bryan said. "When you leave here talk to others and help them to avoid the possibility of a nagging conscience should someone lose his life because of inadequate hospitalization being nearby."

the B&PW Club will be held on May 18, at 7:30 P. M. at the ficers for the coming year will be elected.

growing and it could fruit without having it come under provisions of the bill.

Supporters of the Moore amendment said it would help the little man. Opponents said it would "scuttle" the bill.

The House passed 57 to 42 a bill which would raise maximum unemployment compensation payments to $20 a week for 20 weeks.
The present maximum is $15 a week for 10 weeks.

Opponents of the proposal said it would encourage "loafing."
They cited instances of compensation payments to live in idleness.

Supporters declared the measure is needed to aid workers unemployed through no fault of their own. They said the present law is inadequate, especially for those with families to support.

The measure now goes to the Senate for action.

The cattlemen's bill to ban livestock from Florida highways without forcing owners to fence them up in the back country apparently is going to win out over a more stringent measure.

Senator Baynard of St. Petersburg, who led the fight for the total fencing bill preferred by Governor Warren, said a committee which has been seeking a compromise will accept the cattlemen's bill.

He is a member of the conference committee which was set up after the Senate passed the governor's version and the House adopted the cattlemen's substitute.
He said the committee probably will make its report tomorrow.

The House took up Baynard's bill to put all private Florida gas and electric companies under regulation by an expanded Railroad and Public Utilities Commission lost out in the first flurry of floor debate today.

Opponents succeeded in taking off the calendar of bills ready for consideration and sending it to the Appropriations Committee.
Then they beat off efforts to have it withdrawn from the committee immediately and put back on the calendar.

A bill to levy a 3 percent gross receipts and abolish all property taxes was introduced by Senator McArthur of Fernandina. He said it would raise between $180,000, 000 and $200,000,000 a year for State and counties and cities.

It would create a State revenue division to collect all taxes levied by the State. The collection division would be under the supervision of the state controller.

Two-thirds of the tax collected by the levy would go to the State.
The remaining one-third would be allocated to counties and cities on a basis of population and on the amount collected within their respective boundaries.

Thirty-five percent of the amount to the counties would be earmarked for schools.

tions Committee is giving most of the hearing time to critics of the Pact. But there were growing indications that neither their arguments nor the lifting of the Berlin blockade would sway the Senate from prospective overwhelming approval.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters he sees "no great opposition" to ratification. He and Congressional leaders predicted the end of the blockade will have no effect on the Senate's vote.

In today's hearings, the National Lawyers Guild argued the pact violates the United Nations charter.

Clifford J. Durr, former of the Federal Communications Commission, appeared for the public.

Durr told the committee "the pact can not be squared with the provisions of the United Nations

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

Keep your mind free from evil thoughts. Every evil deed was just a thought to begin with.
A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will know no evil thing.—Ps. 101:4.

You and I cannot of ourselves blow any one much, but we can be channels of infinite power.
The blessing of Jehovah be upon you; we bless you in the name of Jehovah.—Ps. 129:8.

Glad to see the traffic lights working out at French and Thirteenth. They cost a lot of money, but they may save a life.

Consumer income, the money which the people have with which to buy clothes and groceries, dropped nearly three billion dollars during the first quarter of this year. But taxes have not declined any. The people, who have less and less to spend for living expenses, have more and more to pay to support the government.

Governor Thurmond of South Carolina was often condemned during the last presidential campaign as being a reactionary. He was, however, liberal enough to appoint a woman to the State Industrial Commission, a position which she was later recently denied by a Senate rules committee because she testified "my sympathies are with labor".

The growing importance of oil in Florida was emphasized at a meeting of the Inter-state Oil Compact Commission in Jacksonville the other day when Frank Wright, Governor Warren's assistant, pointed out that Florida now has 23,000,000 acres under lease for oil rights and production since 1943 when the first well was brought in—amounts to 760,000 barrels.

Senator Byrd who has often been denounced for being "one Byrd too many", says that in 1941 federal taxes amounted to 7 percent of the income of every man, woman and child in this country. Today they amount to 17 percent of such income, and if the President's budget is accepted they will amount to 21 percent of income. This does not include, of course, city, county or state taxes.

Senator Mathews $60,000,000 gross receipts tax has been defeated in a Senate committee, and a 3 percent sales tax has been introduced. Governor Warren has said he would veto a sales tax because it is paid by the poor as well as by the rich. However, the gross receipts tax, which is also paid by the poor, would have gotten the Governor's signature, according to Senator Mathews who said, "Governor Warren does not object to any other kind of a tax except the sales tax".

From the heart of New England comes fact-finding testimony against Governor Warren's indictment. "It is evidently false," declares The Berksire Evening Herald, of Pittsfield, Mass., after reading a revealing article on the matter by John E. Kelly in Barron's Weekly, "that Southern mills are obsolete and unsanitary, rattleback rules of the reconstruction era; on the contrary, a large proportion are new. It is certain that Southern mills pay stravagant wages; the wages seem to be almost, if not quite, on a par with wages elsewhere. This means, in effect, that they are higher in purchasing power, because of the mid-or climate. Living costs are cheaper where growers plant peas in January, where peach trees bloom in February. The need for less taxation for individuals and for less government interference in business is a national demand."

Enforcing Treaties

The United States and Great Britain are continuing to press their charges that Bulgaria, Hungary and Roumania have violated their peace treaties by suppressing human rights and fundamental freedoms. The comment in some quarters suggests that a move against Russia in the cold war, rather than the policing of the peace treaties, it is hard to say whether or not this interpretation might be accurate.

The enforcement of the treaties from the Second World War ought by all means to be primary and continuous concern of the Western Powers. The behavior and activities of every treaty nation should be kept under scrutiny, and every one of the nations should be required to comply with its treaty in every detail. If it is decided that some provision of a treaty is unreasonable, it should be changed, but disregard of the treaties should not be tolerated. The experience with Germany between the world wars leaves no question at all about this principle. International treaties are like civil laws; if habitual violations are tolerated the treaties come to be regarded with contempt and become worthless.

The integrity of treaty obligations, together with other forms of international promises, is one of the roots of difficulty in relations between East and West. A formula for enduring peace will never be found until all nations understand, beyond doubt, that the pledged word must be kept.

Short Terms

When Jefferson Caffery resigned recently as ambassador to France, it was remarked that he had served continuously for five years, longer than any other American ambassador to Paris in all our history. Myron T. Herrick holds the record for total time in the job, not much longer than Caffery's and divided into two terms, several years apart.

Five years is not a long time for a diplomat to be in one post. If he goes to a new country, it will take him all of that to get really acquainted. That is assuming that he speaks the language. If he does not, he will need a longer time.

European countries appreciate that fact, and keep their diplomats on the job for considerably longer periods. The French practice may be summed up in the career of two of her greatest ambassadors, the Cambon brothers. Jules was ambassador to the United States from 1897 to 1902. Then followed five more years at Madrid and six at Berlin, where he resigned shortly before his death. His brother Paul had eight years at the Turkish court, and no less than 26 as French ambassador at London. At the end of that time he knew Great Britain almost as well as the British themselves.

Our diplomacy might be more effective if we adopted the Continental practice of keeping veterans in harness longer. The five years of a Caffery should be the minimum, not the maximum record.

New National Shrine

Visitors to Washington now have a new attraction. In near-by Alexandria, Va., they can now see Woodlawn. This is a 127-acre estate which George Washington gave as a wedding present to his adopted daughter, Nellie Custis. It has recently been turned over to the public as a new national shrine. This is the work of the Woodlawn Public Foundation which has been raising funds to prevent the sale of Woodlawn to private interests. The foundation is still collecting funds for decorations and improvements to the grounds.

Woodlawn was bought from the estate of Mrs. Oscar W. Underwood, widow of the senator from Alabama whose supporters in the Democratic national convention of 1924 maintained their monotonous call of "Alabama casts 24 votes for Underwood". His name should not be forgotten by visitors to this new national shrine.

The newspaper, in the fourth of a series of copyrighted articles by staff member Don Pettit, said a Miami patrolman's telephone number was listed under the code name "piano", telephone men were referred to as "erie" and numbers used for bookie dealings were called "mush".

Names of "electricians, radio repair men and other persons whose services are necessary to keep the illegitimate businesses going," also were listed, the paper said.

drive will be officially opened in Florida Monday, May 16 by a statewide radio broadcast from the Orlando Junior Chamber of Commerce regular weekly meeting featuring an outstanding out-of-state speaker.

Mr. Tucker is seeking the cooperation of everyone to help put Seminole County over the top with its 801,000 quota of Series E Savings Bonds.

America's Business

getting Europe back on its feet through self-help.

At the April meeting the British are vowing to pay a steep price for austerity and even isolation—cut imports to the bone, especially imports from the United States, and let each European nation go its own way as best it can.

Americans are reported to have agreed the French and Italians on to demanding a stronger European Economic Union, an increase in exports geared for world markets that would mean greater imports by all. Of course, it would also mean that Americans would import more European goods, and some American producers won't like that.

However, other American businessmen take the view that this way the American consumer would replace the American taxpayer in footing Europe's bill. The consumer would be getting something in goods, whereas the taxpayer gets very little that's tangible in return.

The United States council of the IOU is urging today in Paris that the eight-man OEEC group meet at once and start doing something about members of the IOU, the Marshall Plan will turn into "gratitude relief" instead of intelligent reconstruction.

The French austerity program, the British "no more aid" and the American "no more aid" are all being pushed forward with a vengeance.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
You would think that after following diplomacy's devious paths for more than a generation, both at home and abroad, one would become accustomed to diplomatic idiosyncrasies—but your reporter still encounters difficulties.

Take, for instance, the case of Spain, which is under a totalitarian dictatorship of the Fascist brand, headed by Generalissimo Franco. The story runs like this: Just over two years ago the United Nations denounced this Spanish government and called on members of the peace organization to withdraw their diplomatic heads from Madrid. Some nations, including the United States, Britain and France, recalled their ambassadors. Others stood pat.

The other day the Political Committee of the U. N. General Assembly adopted a resolution to change the status of the blacklist. Members would be given freedom as regards their diplomatic relations with Madrid. This is despite the fact that there has been no change in the form of Franco's regime.

That brings us up to May 3 when the U. S. State Department gave Spain permission to negotiate directly with the Export-Import Bank for an American loan. The next day Secretary of State Acheson said this country had no political objections to an American government loan to Spain, but that the U. S. doesn't see how Spain can qualify for such credits until it makes fundamental economic reforms.

Two days ago Senator Tom Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate he saw no reason why the United States shouldn't send an ambassador to Spain. He agreed with Senator Brewster of Maine that "pressure of other nations" (Britain and France) was kept the State Department from recognizing the Franco regime. Senator Connally said there is no inconsistency in the opposition of Britain and France to full recognition, adding:

"They are being consistent with their own objective of building up their trade in Europe."

Yesterday Senator Vandenberg, former chairman of the committee, joined Senator Connally in urging that Washington clear the way to exchange ambassadors with Spain. He said the designation of an American ambassador would be in no sense an approval of the government to which he was accredited.

This was followed by a statement from Secretary of State Dean Acheson at a news conference that Franco Spain must go a long way toward restoring basic civil rights before it can hope to be admitted into the family of free European nations. He said the Franco regime is still Fascist and has denied such fundamental human rights as habeas corpus, trial by jury, religious liberty and free association.

He said these are the same rights which make the difference between free Europe and the iron curtain countries. He was asked why the United States and the Western European nations have ambassadors in Soviet satellite capitals and in Moscow while boycotting Madrid. He said the explanation was that the UN in 1946 tried to use the part-boycott to bring Spanish reforms, but government troops inflicted heavy casualties and beat off the attackers.

Chinese War

The communiqué said Red troops at Chennu, which lies south of Kunshan, a city 40 miles northwest of Shanghai, suffered 60 casualties when the Nationalists there counter-attacked. This action suggests the Communists are fanning out in a widening northwest front.

Central News said Hankow residents heard the rumble of artillery and many of them made for cover. The government, the news agency said, sought to dislodge the Reds from north of Hankow. The news agency said the Communists withdrew to Niehkw, about 13 miles north of the Yangtze port of Hankow.

Red losses in the Hankow fighting were put at 100 men, government losses were described as 58.

The Chinese air force, meantime, reported 200 Communists were killed in the eastern suburbs of Kashi, southwest of Shanghai. That seems to indicate the Reds, who attacked from the west, have swarmed through Kashi. The city, however, has not been announced as in the hands of the Nationalists.

Military observers were interested in a report the Communists were active around Tsingpu, some 25 miles west southwest of Shanghai. This might indicate an attempt to break Sunkiang, last remaining large city southwest of Shanghai still in the hand of the Nationalists.

He said he wouldn't argue that sending or withholding an ambassador is a proper lever for any purpose.

Many Americans of course condemn the Spanish dictatorship. They just as heatedly condemn all other totalitarian regimes—which are neither few nor far between. Still we differentiate among these dictatorships.

Why? Are we to conclude that it's a matter of expediency rather than of principle? If expediency enters into it there are a lot of folk who recognize that Spain not only needs to resume foreign trade relations but would be a vital military base in event of another world war.

Girl Is Cleared Of Murder Charge

SEATTLE, May 12—(AP)—Loretta Jean Minneker, 17, was unable to tell right from wrong when she killed her father with a milk bottle and butcher knife, Juvenile Court Judge William G. Long said yesterday.

He made the statement in a memorandum decision clearing the high school student of a second degree murder charge, but continuing her in custody of the court.

The court found the father to have been intoxicated and surly. It said he insisted on the girl drinking at a tavern "to ease her pain" after extraction of four teeth.

Judge Long said Loretta was "in a delirium" when she struck and stabbed her father a short time later in the family home after hearing "some kind of a commotion between the father and mother."

Lake Mary Girl

lost out when she misapprehended encroachment, leaving out the "a" in the word. Leo spelled it correctly, also the lengthy word, "propensity."

Mrs. Henry Wolcott, Oviedo, drove the two county contestants, Mrs. Louise David, mother of Carol and Principal Steele to Miami. During the trip they saw Jungle Gardens and were shown through the Miami Herald Building.

In the local contests held here, Carol David was first and Frances Bridgeman was second.

Flood Control Meet

some time would elapse before the whole program is put into effect and stated that costs to counties would be confined to operation of canals. In this district the cost would be divided by Brevard, Volusia, Orange, Seminole and Lake counties, he explained.

Gearhart Eisler

there last night. A woman who answered the telephone refused to give any information.

First word of the stowaway came last Monday when the Battery radioed here that one had been discovered, and that he then paid for first class passage.

A spokesman for the steamship line here said a routine report was made to immigration officials. The Battery then was asked for the stowaway's name, nationality and destination.

A message received from the ship yesterday identified the stowaway as Gearhart Eisler, a German, bound for Gdynia in Communist-dominated Poland.

After this information was relayed to immigration officials, they had the line ask the ship for the date and place of birth of the stowaway. An answer to that message was awaited today.

The U. S. State Department asked Scotland Yard to detain the stowaway when the Battery reaches Southampton. After stopping at the Battery is scheduled to stop at Copenhagen, Denmark, on Sunday and complete her trip at Gdynia Tuesday. The line flies the Polish flag, but is owned partly by Danish interests.

Truman Conference

commendation.

He added the subject of their talk was Social Security and the two also were agreed on that.

He declined to comment on reports that his Economic Advisory Council had reported to him that it would be desirable to avoid a big tax increase if it could be done without deficit financing. He did describe the report as not pessimistic.

The President said he makes economic reports to Congress twice a year based on the council's findings and other information, and until he makes another such report he stands for economic control. Whether this meant he may take a different position later was not clear.

He would not elaborate on Secretary of State Acheson's statement yesterday that Franco Spain is still a dictatorship which denies its citizens the fundamental human rights. He said Acheson answered the question, concerning which there has been recent controversy, as to whether the United States should resume fuller diplomatic relations with Spain.

Asked how his personal physician, Brig. General Wallace Graham, stands on his compulsory health insurance plan, Mr. Truman smiled and told the reporter he should know or Graham wouldn't be in his job.

Caswell of Orlando, at the Boyle home on Mellonville Avenue.

Miss Jean Caswell Honored With Party

The honors engagement to Miss Jean Caswell of Orlando, at the home of Mrs. L. P. Hagan, 702 Park Avenue, N. C. was announced over the past weekend in Orlando and the marriage will be an event of June 1. Residents of Sanford about nine years ago, the Caswells have many friends here and were prominent in many social activities.

Forming a lovely setting for the occasion were the attractive arrangements of roses and gerbera daisies in the living room with yellow lilies used in arrangements in the other rooms. A color theme of green and white was used in the dining room with the tea table being covered with a white embroidered imported linen cloth and centered with white gladioluses and Queen Anne's lace. White candles were placed in silver holders and other appointments on the table were also of silver.

Miss Caswell wore for the occasion a dress of deep turquoise shantung. During the morning the hostesses presented her with a bride's look. About 75 guests were invited to call.

Mrs. J. C. Whiddon served as hostess for a meeting of Circle No. 4 of the W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church held on Monday afternoon at her home on Rosalia Drive. Mrs. W. I. Whiddon was co-hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. R. F. Cooper spoke to the group on spiritual lessons and Mrs. R. L. Garrison on community missions. Cards were signed by all members to be sent to 117 members of the circle. A lesson on stewardship was taught by Mrs. L. N. Kimbrough.

At the conclusion of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served by Mrs. W. B. Stovall, Mrs. S. Nelson, Mrs. H. N. Lantry, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Mimie Stewart, Mrs. Kimbrough, Mrs. Roy Van Stone, Mrs. C. D. Henderson, Mrs. J. L. Jackson, Mrs. A. C. Williams, Mrs. C. A. Whiddon, Mrs. E. M. Carroll, Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Turner Lodge.

Sanford Moves Into Second Place In FSL Standings By Defeating Palatkins 8 To 6

Schultz And Barry Are Scheduled To Face Hats In Twin Attraction Tonight

By ARTHUR HECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

The Sanford Giants moved into second place in the Florida State League standings last night as the result of their defeating the Palatka Azaleas by an 8 to 6 margin and the Daytona Beach Islanders' loss to the Leesburg Dodgers by a 7 to 2 count.

Tonight Manager Hal Gruber leads his Sanford organization into a twin attraction in Deland with Manager Bill Perrin's Red Hats, and it is likely that Right-hander Joe Schultz will toss the opening seven inning affair, and Left-hander Larry Barry will get the nod in the full length night-cap. The contests are scheduled to start at 8:45.

Tomorrow evening the Sanfordites play hosts to the Red Hats in a single affair.

Last night the Giants hopped on the offerings of George Arbridge and Johnny Theobald for 12 hits in pounding out their victory over the surging Palatkas. Jack Hoback went the route for the Giants and scattered nine Azalea hits effectively.

Palatka opened hostilities in the first frame with a two-run upswing. Danson doubled and was singled home by McLeod. Danden walked, moving McLeod to second. Then Mayer shot a single into left field to drive McLeod across for the second run.

Sanford came back in the second frame to score four runs on a double by Connie Kavakis, a triple by Joe Malinowski and singles by Fred Weber, Hoback and Johnny McManus, coupled with one Palatka miscue.

The locals led the contest in the fourth count with three runs on five hits and a Palatka boot. Hoback paced the Sanford attack on the two Palatka pitchers with three hits, one of them a double, from the offerings of Arbridge and Theobald.

Dr. Buzzard Catches Large Black Bass

A. M. Dr. Buzzard Lewis, negro, caught a 9 pound 12 ounce black bass in a small lake near Markum, and was proudly displaying the fish in downtown Sanford yesterday morning.

The prize catch was landed on a paw paw lure early yesterday morning, he reported.

"I lost three others as large as this one," he asserted.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement all most killed me." "You mean each of us?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interjects my cousin Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South. "He means he 'killed' himself."

It was good for a chuckle, especially Ray, each of whom we know

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your head retrenchment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but what's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!

COMMENTS From The SIDELINES

By ARTHUR HECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

FLORIDA STATE LEAGUE

Now that all of the teams in the Florida State League have appeared in the Municipal Park, and people of the Sanford area have had a chance to witness each of them play and display their wares, we should like to put in our two cents worth about how we think the teams will finish the season.

We believe that the Daytona Beach Islanders have the team to beat for the Florida State League. However, there is a possibility that the Gainesville G-Men will come through to judge into the top spot on the ladder.

Sanford's veteran and limited service players are not producing the hits and the mound victories needed to put a team in the first division, and we do not believe that they can be counted on for much more than they are now producing. It will take more effort from the experienced ball players to put the Giants into the playoffs.

Sanford's veteran and limited service players are not producing the hits and the mound victories needed to put a team in the first division, and we do not believe that they can be counted on for much more than they are now producing. It will take more effort from the experienced ball players to put the Giants into the playoffs.

To this array of veteran players, the Daytona Beach Islanders added Clayton Stelling who hit a .318 clip for Palatka last year while playing first base, and Gus Montalbano, who hit .243 for the 'A's last year.

Gainesville has an excellent club and will win the Florida State League a run for its money, but we believe the G's will not have the power to stay up with the 'A's. Manager Spec Dozier of Gainesville played in the Class AA Southern Association for the Atlanta Crackers last year. Last year's manager, Myril Hoag, who won 23 games, while losing four for the G-Men is back in true form in the Gainesville harness and may top his 20 game mark again this year.

George Fultz returned to the G-Men from Waycross of the Georgia-Florida League and will be of much benefit to the G's. He will probably be one of the main cogs in their wheel.

Palatka is our choice for the third slot, because they have a very good ball club now, and they can expect additional help from the parent club, the Tampa Smokers. It is also rumored that Johnny Toneyoff is going to appear in a Palatka uniform after school is out. Toneyoff hit .250, while playing for Palatka and Daytona Beach last year. However, Toneyoff can be counted on to better his hitting average this year, since he was suffering from bad appendix last year, which we understand he has had removed.

St. Augustine gets our nod for fourth, because they have a better hitting team than do the Sanford Giants, whom we pick for fifth. We qualify our selections here by saying that in the event several of the Sanford rookie ball players come through with a little more power at the plate than they have displayed, the Giants may finish fourth.

Joe Kubel, Washington's Magician Manager, Pulls 9th Rabbit From Hat

By JACK HAMB (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Joe Kubel, the amateur (?) magician who manages Washington, just pulled a ninth rabbit out of his hat.

Nine straight triumphs by any Washington club, especially the lack lustre 1949 version, call for an explosive mixture of voodoo charms and black magic. Mr. Kubel must be a pro.

Kubel's sagging Senators started west on their first road trip 10 days ago eight games below .500. They had won only three of 14.

Two straight at Chicago, three more in St. Louis and three more over Cleveland, two by shutouts, brought them to Detroit for No. 9 yesterday. They hope to leave Detroit tonight with 10 in a row.

They shilled Detroit, 11-1, yesterday with a five-run first inning against Bobby Overmyer. Kubel used two pitchers. When Paul Catvert, pitching third, developed a blister on his pitching hand in the fifth, he called on Dick Weller. He needed a microscope to notice the difference. Detroit had only three hits.

The World Champion Cleveland Indians, relieved of the Washington plague after losing three games, welcomed the league-leading New York Yankees. The Tribe was so glad to see the Yanks, they won a 3-2 game before the game.

Warren Spahn, pitching back to his 1947 form, hurled his second shutout and fourth straight victory for Boston, with a three-hitter against the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-0.

They finally stopped the New York Giants after seven straight triumphs. Cincinnati's Howie Fox did the trick, 4-2.

Pittsburgh's rookie left-hander, Bill Werle, survived a ninth-inning uprising by Brooklyn to win a 5-3 decision.

Chicago ended Ken Heintzelman's four-straight win streak by coming from behind to nip the Phillies, 4-2.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Howie Fox, Reds-nipped New York Giants seven-game win streak and drove in two runs with timely single in 4-2 win.

Jack Graham, Browns-led St. Louis to 5-4 edge over Philadelphia with two doubles and single, driving in two runs and scoring two.

Bill Voiselle of the Braves drew a 500 fine in 1945 as a Giant when he tossed a home run ball to Johnny Hopp, then with the Cardinals.

Savannah Comes From Behind To Nip Macon 5-4

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some daring base running was demonstrated by the Savannah Indians as they came from behind to win, 5-4, over the Macon Peaches last night.

Cal Ermer hit a triple in the final frame to tally the winning run as Macon's catcher, Ray Cash, misplayed the throw from Bernard Grayhill in left field after George Wright filed out.

The victory was Savannah's fourth straight, and the Peaches fifth loss in a row.

Other games in the South Atlantic League found the Jacksonville Tars nipping the Columbus Cardinals, 3-2, the Charleston Rebels edging the Greenville Spinners by the same score. The Augusta Tigers defeated the Columbia Reds, 5 to 1.

Tar Dean Crooks yielded 10 hits to Columbus but he put the screws on in the clutches and fanned four. The Cards put in Pat Patrick to start, and he allowed all of the Tar's seven hits in the seven innings he worked. Bob Vogelant finished the game.

Bob Lemon got an early start in hoping to match his 10 shutouts of 1948. In his second start he blanked the Browns on five hits.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, May 12—(AP)—Casey Stengel, baseball's leading exponent of the two-platoon system, is likely to have a difficult time whittling his squad down to the required 25 players by May 19. He wants to keep on changing the Yankee lineup according to the pitching it faces, even though four of the five games the Yanks had lost up to yesterday were against southpaw pitching, while a lefty started the other one.

Cleveland's ace pitcher, Dale Mitchell, was tabbed for a couple of seasons as possibly one of the all-time great hitters, apparently in out to prove it this season. Dr. Cary Middlecoff, now the second-ranking money winner on the pro golf circuit, tabs Lloyd Mangrum as the player to beat in the Goodall

Large opening day crowd of the 1949 major league baseball season was 23,435 at Detroit.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

Billy Sheridan, veteran Lehigh wrestling coach, dropped into Athletic Director Percy Sandler's office the other day to inquire about the 1949-50 schedule. "It's just been completed," Sandler told him, tossing over a list that showed matches against six of the toughest teams in the East within three weeks. "What do you think of it?"

As he turned to leave, Sheridan replied: "They're all nearby."

Maryland, William and Mary and Temple are now additions to the 1949 Michigan State football schedule.

State, Public Officials Face Loyalty Oath

Action On Senate's Citrus Bill Is Delayed By Review By House Committee

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—(AP)—Senators Beacham of West Palm Beach and Beall of Pensacola today introduced a bill to permit Sunday night baseball in the state.

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—(AP)—A bill to remove present limitations on campaign expenses of candidates for political office was passed unanimously by the House today and sent to the Senate.

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—(AP)—The legislative act requiring all public employees and elected officials in Florida to sign a loyalty oath became law today.

Governor Warren signed the bill making it mandatory that all those on public payrolls must sign oaths they are not members of the Communist Party, will not aid the party and do not belong to any group advocating overthrow of the state or federal government by force.

The Governor also made news when the Legislature overrode his veto by a 69 to 5 vote.

Warren's veto was on a special act permitting Panama City to put tax on alcoholic beverages despite a general law giving that field of taxation to the State exclusively.

Wight Named Head Of Central Florida Cattlemen's Group

Members of the Central Florida Cattlemen's Association elected W. H. Wight, president, and discussed the merger of their cattle ranching interests after having almost been wiped out in the state, at a meeting followed by a barbecue yesterday at the Lee Ranch, Chuluota, County.

Mr. Dawson, who was elected secretary-treasurer of the Association, declared with a smile this morning: "I thought I was just going to attend a meeting and barbecue and found myself elected."

One of the major topics of discussion at the meeting were the cattle fencing laws now pending in the State Legislature, said Mr. Dawson, and he predicted that the cattle group will meet soon again to discuss these measures.

Referring to the tick infestation, he advised that specimens were brought to his office for examination.

Elected as vice-presidents of the Association were C. B. Lee, Ovidio A. B. Merritt, Oklawaha, L. D. McLeod, Jr., Orlando and Edward J. Cameron, Sanford.

Named as directors were Oscar John, Groveland; T. F. Thompson, Clermont; Clarence Nelson, Orlando; George W. Coward, Christmas; Francis Meriwether, Sanford and W. G. Kilbee, Geneva. Former President Bronson was elected director to the Florida State Cattlemen's Association.

W. E. Hathaway, veteran preparer of barbecues, received many compliments on the quality of the meat he had prepared for the barbecue that followed the meeting.

Cattlemen were urged by J. Gunn, Oklawaha county agent and secretary of the State Cattlemen's Association, to cooperate in the tick eradication campaign now being undertaken by the State Livestock Sanitary Board.

5,000 Police Join In Hunt For Sicily's Cop-Killing Giuliano

PALERMO, Italy, May 12.—(AP)—Some 5,000 police were chasing in today on the mountain stronghold where Sicily's "Robin Hood" bandit chief is holed up with about 20 of his men. The orders were to get this Sicilian Jesse James dead or alive.

The slaying of three policemen from ambush yesterday was bloody emphasis to the tension. The three were machinegunned about 16 miles southeast of Palermo.

Ironically, the authorities did not believe Salvatore Giuliano was responsible for those killings. They attributed the ambush to a lesser bandit, named Mauro.

However, the swarthy, dark-eyed, Giuliano and his men are estimated to have killed about 70 policemen since he took to the hills in 1943 after fleeing a patrolman who tried to seize his wagonload of black market wheat. He was 20 years old then.

The swaggar of the man, the growth of Robin Hood legend, his designation of the Montreux area as a "free state" and his barbed communications to the Italian government were other factors behind the hunt.

They've hunted him before, with forces up to more than 1,000 men, and failed. In each case they whittled away at his force and put a crimp in the aid supplied him by friendly peasants. Police estimate he has no more than 20 followers now.

Mrs. Eisler Is Re-Arrested To Be Questioned

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Gerhart Eisler today was re-arrested for deportation while the Justice Department laid plans to bring her husband back from his flight across the seas.

The Department announced that Mrs. Eisler was taken into custody in New York City this morning. She had been in liberty, without bond, on charges of being illegally in this country.

One reason for her re-arrest was that the government wished to question her about the flight of Eisler, 52-year-old admitted Communist, as a stowaway on a Polish vessel. The Justice Department said that Immigration Service officials in New York had been instructed to detain Mrs. Eisler on Ellis Island.

Except for the principle of the thing, the government could save quite a bit of money by just ignoring Eisler's flight, while under charges looking to his deportation. The 52-year-old admitted Communist owes this country time in prison for violating its laws while living here as an alien guest.

And while the Department frankly will not delight in tracking him from the United States forever, it insists upon doing this through the regular procedure by a deportation action which already is in motion. Hence, elaborate arrangements have been completed for interception of the stowaway about the Polish liner Batavia, now on the Atlantic, who has identified himself as Eisler. These arrangements call for his prompt return to America.

Mrs. Eisler, listed in official records as Brunhilde Rotstein Eisler, is a native of Poland.

She was first arrested in early 1948 on charges that she had overstayed her time in this country as a visiting alien.

Mrs. Eisler, now 37, came to New York in June, 1941, on a transit visa. That simply permitted her passage through the country to Mexico. However, this was later changed to a temporary visiting permit.

She and Eisler were married in New York City in 1942, and have since resided there.

Lieut. Comdr. E. H. Potter Returns To Sanford From Besieged Shanghai

Lieut. Comdr. Edward H. Potter, USN, who arrived Saturday from Shanghai, China, to join Mrs. Potter, the former Joan Azzarello and daughter Robin Ann, declared today that business in Shanghai, a city of 6,000,000 people, was practically at a standstill when he left on Apr. 25.

The wealthy Chinese were leaving as the Communist Army got nearer, the middle class was pushed, and the poor class was more or less indifferent, he said.

He had not seen his wife and child since November, when all departments of naval personnel were asked to leave China. Mrs. Potter and Robin Ann, who had lived for 14 months in Shanghai, arrived back in Sanford in December.

Comdr. Potter left when the Navy found his position untenable and withdrew from Shanghai due to the fact that the Whangpoo River, tributary of the Yangtze River, is so narrow that it could be easily bottled up, he pointed out.

His service in Shanghai totaled 21 months with "Fleet Weather Control" which kept track of weather conditions and which was located in the same building as the Chinese weather bureau. The Chinese did well with the limited weather recording facilities at their disposal, he asserted.

He told of the infectious environment condition in China in which a $500,000 Chinese bill would pay for a shoe shine only, with a rate of 12,000,000 to one U. S. dollar. The change is to GY currency on Aug. 19 brought the ratio down to four to one, but it again started upward on the inflationary spiral and by November was 50 to 1. Many Chinese lost life savings when compelled to trade hoarded U. S. gold or currency for GY money, he revealed.

The living conditions in the officers' compound were very comfortable, including the quarters but in which the family lived, he declared. An Amish or servant did all housework and cooking for a salary of $8 cents a day. Most food, including frozen foods, were shipped in from the United States.

U.N. Approves Italian Colony Partitioning

Committee Rejects Red Plan For Collective Trusteeships Over Lands

LAKE SUCCESS, May 12.—(AP)—The Political Committee of the United Nations Assembly approved today a plan for partitioning Italy's prewar African empire. The committee deleted only one small feature of the joint British-Italian program for disposal of the colonies.

The committee rejected Russia's plan for collective trusteeships over the African territories Mussolini lost in the war.

The approved plan assigns parts of the territories to Britain, France, Italy and Ethiopia either under the U. N. trusteeship system in an outright annexation.

The vote in the 59 nation committee was 31 to 10. Seven abstained.

The proposal now goes to the full Assembly in plenary session at Flushing Meadow Park for final action. A two-thirds majority of those present and voting is required for assembly ratification.

Only a simple majority was needed in committee.

Before the committee showdown on the British-Italian plan, included in a resolution prepared earlier this week by a 19-nation subcommittee, the delegates rejected a plan proposed by Russia, India, Iraq and Egypt as well as numerous amendments proposed by other countries.

The only part of the Italian-British plan deleted was a proposal to give the Western province of Eritrea to the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan. This was defeated by 19 votes against it and 14 in favor. Twenty-one abstained.

No provision was made for western Eritrea immediately.

The approved plan provides that:

1. Libya would be divided into three parts. One would be placed under British trusteeship. The Fezzan would go under French trusteeship. Tripolitania would remain temporarily under British trusteeship but would be transferred to Italian trusteeship in 1951. An advisory committee would advise Italian administration. Tripolitania.

2. Italian Somaliland would be placed under Italian trusteeship.

3. Eritrea would be divided. The eastern part would be ceded to Ethiopia. Disposition of the western province is to be settled later.

Russia had sought to have all the colonies placed under collective U. N. trusteeships instead of assigning administering roles to individual countries.

The delegates had heard Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko in a previous session accuse the United States and Britain of making a "deal" to keep control of strategic parts of Mussolini's African empire.

Jaycees Pledge $200 To Hospital Drive For Funds

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday at their meeting at the Tourist Center pledged $200 as their contribution toward the drive to secure funds to operate the Florida Laughter Memorial Hospital. The organization agreed to move toward the drive if after an investigation of its financial standing, money is available.

MacDonald Bryan, director of the $25,000 fund campaign for the hospital, outlined the need for money on which to run the institution. Mr. Bryan told of the increase in costs of many items necessary for the operation of a well equipped hospital, and urged the organization and every individual to support the drive with "work and money."

President Gordon Bradley appointed Clifford Ables, treasurer, George Williams and T. E. Tucker to review the financial standing of the organization and to report to the meeting next week to see if the hospital donation may be increased.

George Williams gave the organization a report on the proposed docks and terminal project by the City, and action taken at the City Commission Monday night.

West Accused Of Torpedoing Berlin Block

Soviets Say Allies Are Evading Lifting Their Restrictions For Travel

BERLIN, May 12.—(AP)—The Russians accused the Western Allies today of "torpedoing" the agreement to lift the Berlin blockade. A Western spokesman promptly labeled the accusation "a lot of nonsense."

The spokesman was Lawrence Wilkinson, economic adviser to the U. S. military government. "We were told by our government to remove all restrictions put into effect since May 1, 1949," he said. "We've done that and more."

The Soviet protest was issued informally through the mouthpiece of the Soviet army newspaper in Germany, Luchter Rundschau.

"The western powers are evading the lifting of their restrictions under invalid pretexts," it charged.

"The agreement cannot be fulfilled by the Soviet side alone," it added.

Some observers say to those words an implied threat to reimpose the blockade—but such a step would be a matter of policy for higher authorities than the Russians, it is generally thought.

But the Rundschau statements did lend emphasis to the Russian effort for getting supplies from Western Germany for his nearby blockade occupation zone.

Wilkinson said that at a four-hour meeting of economic chiefs here yesterday, the Russian representative insisted on a formal order restating the East-West agreement of 1948. The Allies contend it is no longer applicable, he said. Wilkinson said "All the hard work has already been done."

"We told him east Germans were welcome to buy or sell anything they wanted with the West," he said, and that the Western Powers would not restrict international trade.

Wilkinson said "All the hard work has already been done by the West," he said.

Miss Chittenden Resigns Post On Seminole Faculty

Resignation of Miss Laura Chittenden, teacher in Sanford school for the past 31 years, was accepted yesterday by the County School Board. She will continue, however, to teach for the rest of the term, said Supt. T. W. Estlin.

Also accepted was the resignation of Mrs. Pearl Hansell, manager of the 8118 lunch room for the past six years, whose application to resign was made because of ill health.

Many Local Bills Come Up Soon In State Legislature

Legislation on bills related to Sanford and Seminole County will be introduced the first of next week, City Attorney Edwin Shumaker predicted upon his return from Tallahassee to which he and City Commissioner John Krider returned Wednesday to confer with Senator Boyle and Representatives Smith and Odham.

All information available on the bills, including the City Charter, R.R. loan and transfer of county property to the City, was discussed with the delegation, said Mr. Shumaker.

"Because of the fact that Representative Fry is expected to be absent from the upcoming session, the delegation advised us that his legislation would come up for action by them at the first of next week," he stated.

City representatives contacted to Tallahassee and successfully dodged cattle which were roaming on highways north of Tallahassee in "full defiance" of all pending legislation, to the contrary they reported.

1,000 Commies And Many Horses Are Killed By Chinese

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—(AP)—Six wireless and other radio communication companies reported today they were unable to transmit to Communist-occupied Shanghai. Dispatches from Shanghai were still being received, however.

A press wireless supervisor explained that the Chinese government radio sending and receiving stations are on opposite sides of Shanghai and that the receiving station, about four miles southwest of the city, was not acknowledging messages.

One battle raged outflowed of the city some 10 miles from Lungchow airfield. Lungchow is at the southwest edge some 10 miles from the heart of the city. The scene of this battle was around the village of Sankiang, on the Shanghai coast.

Francis Matthews Nominated To Be Secretary Of Navy

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Francis Patrick Matthews, Omaha lawyer, was named Secretary of the Navy today.

The White House announced that Matthews, 42, widely known Catholic lawyer, has been picked to succeed John L. Sullivan, who resigned recently with a view to Secretary of Defense Johnson for halting work on the Navy's super aircraft carrier.

President Truman's Secretary of Defense, Charles G. Ross, said Matthews' nomination probably would go to the Senate during the day.

Matthews is a Democrat and was a member of the President's committee on Civil Rights in 1946. He is a graduate of Cornell University and a native of Albion, N.Y.

Matthews said that the President had not yet ready to name a new Secretary of the Navy to succeed Matthews. He said he also was ready to accept the post.

The President told a recent news conference he still hoped to name a new Secretary of the Navy to succeed Matthews. He said he also was ready to accept the post.

The following supervisors were appointed, subject to approval of the school board: Mrs. Ruth Hand, instruction; Mrs. Joan Price, music; Mrs. Mildred Babcock, art; Mrs. Ouida Wilson, lunch rooms and Maggie Evans, lunch schools.

Americans, New Products Are Hard To Fit Into Existing Apartments

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK, May 12.—(AP)—Modern Americans are finding it increasingly hard to fit themselves and the new products they want into existing living quarters. Vitamins and new notions of how to live happily have made both the individual and his chattels too big. At the same time, high rents and construction costs have contracted living space.

Outsize furniture, for example, is now very fashionable. It is also impossible to squeeze into some city apartment houses, old or new. Store executives will tell you that many elevators, bulbs, doors and windows just won't take it.

Or, to paraphrase what your grandmother used to say about your appetite, your eyes when you read the ads are just too big for your apartment building's facilities. Many of these roomier were built for a slimmer race.

Big city furniture stores report plenty of trouble with the nine-foot sofas, curved couches and extra deep chairs that so many wives have their hearts set on. Often stores find they can't compete delivery to apartments, in old or new buildings. The old ones are apt to have corners and elevators that won't accommodate the furniture. The new ones may have excellent windows, killing the chance of hoisting the furniture up and in by derricks.

Some stores send out scouts to reconnoiter apartment house layouts before selling the lumber creations modern woman currently admires. They plot a course from sidewalk to living room before making the sale. Others demand the would-be buyer furnish exact measurements of elevators, stairs, doors and corridors.

Or take the American woman herself. Nowadays she is taller than was her grandmother, fifty years back. Vitamin D and the like has made a race of showgirls out of the pony chorus of grandma's day.

To take care of the healthy young women, there are such things as stores catering to tall girls, and dress and accessories manufacturers who make the large or garments.

But in the kitchen things aren't easy. Many a new, larger woman (Continued on page eight)
