

Good Conduct Medals To 15

Fifteen men assigned to the Heavy Attack Wing One staff at the Sanford Naval Air Station today were presented three-year Good Conduct Medals by Cdr. Charles W. Meshier, the Wing's Chief Staff Officer.

The presentations took place during a special muster of Wing staff personnel in front of the Station's administration building.

It was the seventh such award for two of the recipients: Master Chief Aviation Fire Control Technician Edwin G. Neville and Clement B. Reeves Jr., Chief Aviation Machinist Mate.

Five others received their sixth award; Bennett D. Buckingham, RM1; Freeman W. Firestone, ATC; John Stankiewicz Jr., PTCA; John F. Uhr, AECS; and William G. Young, PTC.

In addition, Chief Uhr was awarded a certificate of permanent appointment to the rate of Senior Chief Aviation Electrician's Mate.

Others receiving Good Conduct Medals (the number in parentheses is the number of times the recipient has received this award): Billy B. Ryan, AKCS (5); Kenneth C. Fehl, AOC (4); Wendell Holmes, AQ1 (4); Clifford C. Lord, AK1 (2); Henry L. Casey Jr., YN2 (1); James S. Kent, RM2 (1); Herman F. Waller, YN3 (1); and Lawrence L. Hills, PH2 (1).

Troop 338 Has Campout
By Jane Casselberry
Girl Scout Troop 338 started out Girl Scout Week with a Campout at Camp Ticochee, the Citrus Council's Camp near Barberville which is supported through the sale of Girl Scout Cookies.

The girls left Friday afternoon after school and returned Sunday afternoon. While in camp they stayed in cabins in the Tall Timbers Area. A Scouts Own ceremony, consisting of Bible reading, singing and prayer, was conducted Sunday morning by Becky Totten, Cheryl Watters, Karen Krias, Melinda Casselberry, Susan Hunter and Alice Dunnett.

Other girls who made the trip were Karen Cass, Doris Alkens, Mary Jo Hulbert, Joy Hornbuckle, Annette Hender and Cathy Johnson.

The group was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Russell, leader; Miss Joan Ostrow, teacher; at South Seminoles Junior High and Miss Lee Van Wormer, a scout leader in a Winter Park troop.

Check to be sure the hospital patient feels well enough to have visitors.

Freeze Damage Estimates Severe

LAKELAND (UPI) —Citrus damage from the December freeze apparently is even more severe than was thought at first, according to Florida Citrus Mutual.

So severe, in fact, that Mutual said this weekend the chances of having even half a citrus crop next year are "remote."

Tree damage and wood loss are high, according to a report from Executive Vice President Robert W. Rutledge and groves are showing increasing damage.

The report said only a few areas escaped widespread damage. These were mostly in the Indian River and lower ridge sections which missed the brunt of the December cold wave.

Nurses Assn. Meet Thursday

Members of District 37 of the Florida Nurses Assn. will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Health Center on French Ave., for the monthly session.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Alvin Kilpatrick, from the Red Cross office, who will present a program on Water Safety. She will bring "Annie" along for demonstration purposes.

All registered nurses in Seminole County are invited to attend.

Firestone Piped Over Side

The Chief Staff Officer of Heavy Attack Wing One today released orders to the Fleet Reserve for Freeman W. (Rusty) Firestone, ending more than 20 years of active Naval duty for the Wing's Public Information chief.

Firestone, a chief aviation electronics technician, has been stationed here since January 1960.

The orders were read by Cdr. Charles W. Meshier, Chief Staff Officer, during a special awards muster of all Heavy Attack Wing One personnel in front of the Naval Air Station administration buildings.

Double columns of "side-boys" composed of other chief petty officers assigned to the Wing staff saluted and the whistle of a bo'sun's pipe sounded Firestone's departure to inactive duty.

Lundberg To Be Circle Speaker

By Shirley Wentworth
Assistant County Agent Ernie Lundberg will be the guest of the Bear Lake Garden Circle as the program speaker for this month's meeting.

The circle will meet at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lorne Evelaizer, corner of Causeway Dr. and Pearl Lake Dr. in Forest City.

Firestone's Naval career extends back to 1933, when he enlisted for duty in Chicago, Ill. Except for the periods 1937-42 and 1945-50, he has served the Navy ever since.

His career included duty in both the Pacific and Atlantic fleets. He flew as commander of patrol aircraft during World War II. His introduction to Heavy Attack was in 1950 with Composite Squadron Seven (now Sanford-based Heavy Attack Squadron Seven), then home-ported at NAS Moffett Field, California.

Later in the 50's he served aboard the aircraft carriers Lexington and Midway, finally coming to NAS Sanford in 1960. Except for brief assignments to special projects, he has worked in Public Information ever since.

Firestone, his wife, the former Dorothy Beigert of Nekeos, Wis., and their three children live at 211 Citrus Drive, Sanford.

Attorney Funds For Indigent Out

Seminole County attorneys appointed by the courts to represent indigent defendants must continue to do so without pay. It was voted by the County Commission Tuesday afternoon.

The Seminole County Bar Association had requested Commission support of one of two plans: Statewide legislation providing for counties to name public defenders or, if that failed, to budget funds to pay court-appointed attorneys.

It was pointed out Tuesday by Clerk Arthur H. Beckwith Jr. that the State Supreme Court has ruled attorneys must serve indigents when named by the circuit court judges.

Carroll Burke, bar president, submitted to the Commission Tuesday an estimate that $3,500 would be sufficient for attorney fees for a year.

Dispute Talks Resume Again

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's railroads and five rail unions resumed talks Tuesday in their long-standing "featherbedding" dispute.

The fight between the railroads and five on-train brotherhoods over job-cutting work rules changes would wind up in a crippling nationwide rail strike.

Even though hopes for an early settlement appeared dim, it appeared likely that the quarrel would be dumped on the White House doorstep before strike stage is reached.

Navy Attack Plane Crashes; One Killed

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — A single-seater Navy attack plane crashed Tuesday night killing the pilot as he practiced simulated carrier landings and had been in the air only 2 1/2 minutes, the Navy said today.

Killed was Lt. Cdr. Jack C. Tholl, 32, of Jacksonville, a member of Attack Squadron 46 based at Cecil Field Naval Air Station, about 2 1/2 miles from the crash scene.

The A4C Skyhawk burned and set fire to dense brushwood in the area. Fire fighting units from the Naval Base and local volunteer units doused the flames.

Quick-Thinking Cited In Train-Truck Wreck

Quick thinking by a railroad engineer was being credited today with preventing injury and possibly death for passengers aboard his train when it struck a liquid gas truck killing the driver, Delton Theodore (Ted) Teston, Tuesday afternoon at Altamonte Springs.

When fire from the truck's liquid gas spewed the area the engineer, C. P. Harkey, of Sanford, drove his train, 16 cars with two diesel units, through the flames to a point of safety.

Trooper J. L. Sikes today recounted the accident: Teston, 21, of 100 Garrison Drive, Sanford, was driving his truck, owned by Mid-Florida Gas Company, Sanford, on Leonard Street parallel with the Atlantic Coast Line tracks and at 1:45 p.m. pulled onto the tracks in front of the train, the "City of Miami" owned by Illinois Central but operated by an ACL crew.

Teston was killed instantly, crushed in the cab of his truck. Flames scorched nearby houses, outbuildings, railroad ties, trees and shrubs.

Violent Storms Rake Southland

By United Press International

Violent thunderstorms raked the flooded Southland today and a blustery March storm dumped heavy snow across Nebraska and Iowa. Thousands were homeless. The death toll mounted.

An airline pilot reported a tornado near Indianapolis, Ind., during the night. Warnings of severe thunderstorms, damaging winds and hail were posted along an 80-mile-wide swath deep into the heart of Ohio.

Soaking rains across the South sent rivers and creeks spilling from their banks. More than 30,000 persons fled the rising waters in the Virginias, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama Tuesday.

FEC Strike Called Hazard

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 40-day-old Florida East Coast Railroad strike poses a national hazard, Rep. Dante Fascell, D-Fla., told members of Congress Tuesday.

Fascell criticized the railroad and 11 non-operating locals for the failure to come to an agreement.

In Jacksonville, meanwhile, strike leaders said they had moved "in a new direction" to settle the dispute.

Bond Program Probe Urged

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State Rep. Frederick Karl of Daytona Beach called today for a legislative investigation of bond programs in Florida including the $157 million bond-financed Sunshine State Parkway.

Karl said he will ask the Legislature meeting here April 2 to set up a special committee to investigate not only existing bond programs but also study laws on deficit spending to determine whether the "fiscal integrity" of the state has been violated.

He said he hopes the study will produce legislation to prevent "fiscal irresponsibility" in the future.

Karl suggested that legislators representing the East Coast meet early in the session to discuss the whole matter.

Soviets Charge Navy Warships Fired On Trawler

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged today that two U. S. Navy warships fired on a Soviet fishing trawler about 70 miles east of Norfolk, Va., five days ago.

The charge was made in a Soviet note to the United States published here today. The note said the incident happened March 8.

The note said the first volleys were fired at 12:15 p.m., but did not specify what time was being used. The American ships then moved to within one kilometer slightly more than half a mile from the Soviet vessel and fired two more volleys, warhead volleys that landed 60 meters from the trawler, the note claimed.

"By such actions American warships endangered the Soviet trawler and its crew," the note said. "The Soviet government looks upon the shooting at the fishing trawler of the Soviet Union by American Navy ships as a rude violation of generally accepted norms of international law, of principles of freedom of navigation on the open sea and as an act of arbitrary rule which can lead to serious consequences."

"The Soviet government states to the American government its protest connected with the above stated provocative actions of American warships and expects that those guilty will be punished and that necessary measures will be undertaken not to allow such actions in future."

The note made no mention, in the version published here, of recent American charges that Cuban fighter planes had fired at an American-owned shrimp boat.

Cooperative Teacher Training Program Set Here

Tentative plans for a Cooperative Teacher Training Program were made public today by School Supt. R. T. Milwee.

To include Volusia, Orange, Brevard, Seminole, Indian River and Ocala Counties, the project was announced following a meeting of area Superintendents. Also attending were Dr. Ray V. Sowers of Stetson University and Dr. W. T. Edwards of Rollins College who assisted school officials in designing the project.

Aimed at meeting anticipated needs for teachers, especially on the elementary school level, the new plan would permit a college graduate to meet requirements for teacher certification while teaching. "It is expected that the adoption for the proposed two-year Cooperative Program will clear the way for school officials to recruit needed teachers from among college graduates in the local community," Milwee said.

It was emphasized by both school and college officials that the plan will include all essential features of a standard teacher education program. It will be scheduled to help the new teacher work with children during the training period and will function so that strong professional preparation will be insured.

Following expected approval by the State Department of Education, present plans call for the sequence of courses in the pilot program to begin during the coming Summer Session at Stetson University and Rollins College. Milwee said the Cooperative Program had received enthusiastic support from all county superintendents and the participating colleges.

Regarding future recruitment plans, Milwee said, "we do not intend to reduce our efforts to secure fully qualified teachers for our children. However, past experience tells us that we probably will not otherwise be able to completely staff our schools."

The Cooperative Program

will enable the school, the college and the teacher to work more closely together to provide the most effective training for the teacher during the critical phase of her career," he added.

Interested prospective teachers are urged to contact the Superintendent's office for further information, he concluded.

Papy Defeated

MIAMI (UPI) — Florida voters, reacting to a spring-like change in the weather, came back strong in a 16-county runoff primary Tuesday to cook the political goose of oldtimer Bernie Papy and vote down three Negroes seeking Legislature seats.

The turnout was still far short of what would be expected were there some statewide races and a few hot issues on the ballot. But most polling place officials reported voting was up from the first primary two weeks ago, beset by a statewide rainy weather and a bulky ballot.

In Dade County, most populous in the state, over 125,000 voted in the top race Tuesday, compared to 107,000 of the county's 411,000 registered voters in the Feb. 26 primary.

There were six runoff races in five senatorial districts, five among Democrats and one between two Republicans. There were 27 House contests, two of them among Republicans.

Republicans will be running in most of the general election contests March 26, six days before the reapportioned and expanded 1963 Legislature begins its spring session.

Top race in statewide interests in Tuesday's special runoff primary was the Florida Keys battle between Papy, 60-year-old former dean of the House who lost his first campaign in 28 years when he missed being re-elected last spring in the regular primaries, and Monroe County Sheriff John M. Spottawood.

Spottawood, sheriff for the past 10 years and making his first important bid for a state office, ended Papy's comeback try in the reapportionment-provided special elections with a narrow victory in the Democratic 41st District runoff, 5,734 votes to 5,222, with 428 absentee ballots to be counted. Spottawood, 43, and Papy once were mutual supporters but their runoff campaign turned bitter near the last. But Spottawood called on Key Westers after the election to make sure "the election and all that went with it are past and forgotten."

Three other races being watched closely were between Negro and white candidates in Democratic runoffs in Dade, Duval and Escambia counties.

In Dade, Lee Weissenborn had better than a two-to-one victory over Earl J. Carroll, a Negro who emerged on top of a 22-man field in the first primary. In Duval, attorney Tom Greene ran up a similar lead over Negro attorney Ernest D. Jackson.

In Escambia County, retired Navy Admiral Phil Ashler of Pensacola defeated William C. Dobbins, Negro Methodist minister and integration leader, by better than four-to-one.

Vegetable Market

In New York Tuesday, the market for cabbage and celery was dull, with practically no change in prices. Cabbage was mostly $2.00-$2.75 a crate with a few at $3.00 and one mark $3.25. Red type was $1.75-$2.00 and savoy $1.50-$2.00 per crate. Crates of Chinese cabbage were mostly wrapped at $2.75. Carrots were steady, crates of 48 one-lb. slim bags medium to large size bringing $1.25. Collards were also steady, with bushel baskets loose selling for $1.75 and poultry crates bunched at $2.00, few $3.50.

Bushels of turnip tops were $1.25-$1.75, and spinach sold for $2.30. Endive was unchanged at $1.50-$2.00, mostly $1.75-$2.00, and escarole was a little lower, ranging from $1.50-$2.00 but mostly $1.50-$1.75. Romaine lettuce brought $1.75-$2.00, mostly $2.00-$2.50 per crate. Curly parsley in crates of five dozen bunches was about steady at $2.50-$3.00.

North Orlando Garden Club Sets Meeting

The March meeting of the North Orlando Garden Club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Wolfe, 40 N. Devon Ave.

On the agenda is the election of a three-member nominating committee and reports from committee chairmen.

Guest speaker for the meeting will be County Agent Cecil Tucker.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Charles Rowell. Those wishing to attend the meeting are invited to do so as guests of the club, Mrs. Billy Ryan, president announced.

Rev. Sandstrom To Conduct Lenten Service

Rev. Duane H. Sandstrom of Leesburg will be guest speaker for today's 7:30 p.m. Lenten Service at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Sanford. His subject will be "The Magnetism of the Cross."

A native of Rock Island, Ill., Sandstrom graduated from Augustana College in 1959 and from the Lutheran School of Theology summa cum laude in 1961. His internship was served at Robbinsdale, Minn., and he was ordained at Seattle, Wash., in 1961 on a call to Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Leesburg.

He is chairman of the Synodical Youth Activities Committee of the Florida Synod and will serve as Camp Director at Emmanuel Lutheran Camp in Groveland. He also serves on the Camp Committee of the Florida Synod, is vice president of the Leesburg Ministerial Association and a member of the Friends of the Public Library in Leesburg.

Celler Opens News Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Emanuel Celler, (D-N.Y.), today opened an inquiry into the news industry with a pledge to seek ways "to protect, and if need be, expand our free market place for the exchange of news and ideas."

He said new antitrust exemptions for newspapers might be one such step.

Gainesville Cop Kidnaped

A Gainesville policeman was kidnaped and his patrol car commandeered early today. He was found unharmed with his car about four hours later.

State, county and city police, aided by bloodhounds, conducted a manhunt for the kidnaper in a hazmat area in southwest Alachua county.

The reason for the kidnapping was not immediately learned.

A deputy sheriff said the area being searched contained patches of woods, with heavy growth overhead but light growth on the ground in most places.

Authorities said the policeman, Grady Benton, was found with his car on Archer Road, some three miles from Gainesville.

Benton was abducted at gunpoint about 12:40 a. m. and it was about 4:30 a. m. when he was found.

Debt Ceiling Means Recession—JFK

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy said today that an "unrealistic debt ceiling or budget cut" now would ultimately cause a recession.

Kennedy, in a speech prepared for delivery at the Advertising Council, said, "We have an obligation to learn the lessons of history if we do not wish to relive it." The government he said, must not repeat the "errors" which led to recessions in 1927-1930.

The President headed a team of high administration officials appearing before the council to support Kennedy's fiscal proposals. Other speakers included Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges.

Kennedy said Congress must decide this year on the limit of the national debt, the size of the federal budget and the question of tax cuts.

for the American economy as a whole," he said. "I do not speak as a partisan," the President said. "The errors of a Republican administration and a Democratic Congress during those crucial years (1927-30) have been previously acknowledged by members of both parties."

In 1927, he said, the government decided "to keep the debt limit unrealistically low, to cut back and stretch out budget expenditures, to tighten monetary policy and to reject all efforts at tax reduction. The harsh results of those decisions are still with us," Kennedy declared.

The present ceiling on the national debt is $308 billion. It would drop to $305 billion April 1, and down to its permanent level of $285 July 1 without congressional action.

"The President wants it kept at $308 billion through June, after which he has said he would ask a temporary increase to $320 billion.

"An unrealistic debt ceiling or budget cut today," Kennedy said, would also cause a slowdown in contracts, a stretch out in payments, a cash drain on business, and ultimately another recession.

"Instead of balancing the budget, it would produce a deficit far greater than the temporary addition to the deficit that will come from tax reduction.

"We are not asking for uncontrolled budget increases, but for a prudent budget which, contrary to the trend at all levels of government, actually reduces civilian expenditures below their level of the previous year, a feat which has occurred only four times in the last 15 years."

As for his proposed tax cut, the President said "certainly it is clear that, if we slide to another recession, the deficit without a tax cut will be far larger than the projected deficit we face with a tax cut."

Reds Admit For First Time Withdrawal Of Cuba Troops

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union admitted today it is withdrawing Russian troops sent to Cuba to prepare Premier Fidel Castro's forces against "any intrigues of imperialist aggressors."

The official Communist party newspaper Pravda said in a dispatch from Havana that four Soviet ships had left with soldiers by last Sunday. The dispatch, dated March 10, said a fifth ship, the Nakhimov, had arrived in Havana to remove further Russian units.

The Pravda statement was the first admission by the Soviet Union that it was removing troops from Cuba, although reports in the West had indicated a withdrawal was being made.

The Soviet people had been given no prior indication that a troop pullout was even contemplated. The troops were sent to Cuba before, during and after last October's Cuban crisis between Russia and the United States.

The Pravda statement was coupled with a renewed threat of war in the event of any United States aggression against Castro's regime. The statement quoted a departing Soviet colonel as saying Russian troops in Cuba were determined to fight side-by-side with their Cuban brothers.

Pravda did not specify how many troops had been withdrawn or would be withdrawn at this time. It gave no figures on the number of soldiers in Cuba or how many would remain.

The withdrawal was in line with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's promise to the United States on Feb. 18 that he would remove "several thousand" Russians from Cuba by the middle of March.

The Kremlin was reported to have had 17,000 military forces in Cuba at one time, including 5,000 organized in combat units. Khrushchev has claimed they were "instructors" and presented no cause for the United States to worry.

The presence of Russian troops just 90 miles off the Florida coast has caused an outcry in the U.S. Congress and has brought demands that President Kennedy take steps to get them out of Cuba.

Mrs. Randall Services Held

Mrs. Olga Kay Randall, 43, died Saturday at the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital, in Orlando.

Mrs. Randall was a native of Perth Amboy, N. J. but has lived at West Lake Branley Road, in Forest City, for the past four years. She was an active member of the Highlands Seventh Day Adventist Church, in Apopka.

Survivors are her husband, John; daughter Gladys and two step children, Jane and Leslie Randall.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Garden Chapel Home for Funerals, in Orlando.

Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery, in Orlando.

Chuluota Club Hears Report On Lawn And Garden School

The fact that all Florida soil is infected with nematodes and should be treated before planting was stressed by Russell J. Hammond in his talk for members of the Chuluota His and Her Garden Club at the group's last meeting.

The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carlson on Seventh St. Asked by Chairman Charles E. McCune to report on the fourth lecture of the Lawn and Garden School, Hammond said that every speaker has advised sterilizing the ground. Sylvester A. Rose, assistant county agricultural agent of Brevard County, spoke on "Bulbs for the Home Garden," Hammond said.

After giving general information on ground preparation, digging and storing of bulbs, corms and swollen roots, Rose covered in detail many of this type of plant which does well here. Daylilies, amaryllis, gladiolus and crinum—because many club members have these in their gardens—were selected by Hammond to be talked on more fully.

A general discussion on flowering trees and shrubs which might be used in landscaping the central entrance to the Chuluota residential area from SR 419, together with evergreen and daylilies, was led by the hostess.

Motor Vehicle Employes Pay Hike Questioned

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State Rep. Ralph Turlington questioned pay raises proposed Tuesday for motor vehicle agency field supervisors who were removed from merit system salary controls and listed as "policy makers."

Mr. and Mrs. George Haig, reporting on the Library Association meeting, said the main topic of discussion was moving the library to a place near the general store and post office. Such a possibility is being investigated, Mrs. Ward Atherton, Librarian, has many reference books, biographies, fiction and non-fiction on the shelves and will obtain books for anyone, if they are not on hand, Mrs. Haig said.

The Alachua County lawmaker, member of an appropriations subcommittee taking a close look at proposed agency spending for the coming two years, challenged the policy-making designation for the employes. "They are administrators, not policy makers," he told Commissioner Arch Livingston.

Hospital Notes
MARCH 10 Admissions

Livingston said the 12 supervisors had complete charge of their areas and were required to make decisions about area administration. But Turlington contended the supervisors followed policy laid down by Livingston, and did not make it themselves.

Dismissals
Anna C. Obermayer, Clara Tasch, DeBarry; Irene Pizzo, Longwood; Emma Lee Wright, Altamonte Springs; Marie F. Biddle, Lake Mary; Dorothy L. Higginbotham, Betty McAlexander, Patricia A. Reynolds, Richard Sprayberry, Addie Brooks, Elton E. Hart, LaVerne Wells, Georgia Redd, Ella Adkins, Patsy Burke, Rosalee Bruton, Velez Carlos and Iris Emerson, all of Sanford.

The supervisors were 12 of the 20 employes Livingston removed from the salary protection of the merit system council last year when other agencies took like action. Turlington said he didn't question that the commission's attorney was not under the merit system, and likewise, the agency's personnel director.

Births
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Molo-hon, Sanford, a daughter.

Dismissals
Evelyn Britton, Mary S. Patterson, Eula Davis, John Harris, Frank Forrie, Reynolds T. Thomas, Louise Sander, Doris A. Thomas, Alice M. Solomon, Floreta Smith, Ralph Marion, Emilia Meisch, Stella Barton, Willie Gray, George Pittard, Hazel Gillon, Willie Mae Jones, Josephine Chandler and Nancy Lou Richardson, all of Sanford.

But he said Livingston was the only agency head who "went so far down the line in designating employes as policy making personnel."

"Supervisors," he said, "are not even remotely involved in the policy making process. I'm satisfied that all you wanted to do was to get them out from under merit system controls."

Dismissals
Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Britton, Sanford, a son.

Dismissals
Lauren Lester, of Titusville, Pearl Hollis, J. C. Wynn, Carrie Bell Jones, Thelma Butner, Donald N. Flamm, Jennie Speigle, Terry Hunt, Florence Dimmock, Frank P. Riddell, Mrs. James W. Phillip and baby and Mary H. Oylar, all of Sanford.

Turlington called on Livingston to "get together" with lawmakers to re-evaluate the designation of policy making positions. Livingston sought pay raises for field supervisors from the present salary of $5,700 a year to $7,200 a year. The proposed raises would not have been possible under the merit council.

McFarlane Hurls One-Hitter

THESE 35 SHAD were brought in by Will Furnins, left, Henry Winner, Stanley Linton and Oral Evans and were caught near Crowe's Camp over the weekend.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS ALDER and son, Billy, of Chicago, Ill., with the 31 shad that they caught at Crowe's Camp this past weekend.

By Bill Vincent Jr.
I guess some of my readers think I went knee deep in the outdoors, but I haven't. It seemed like I was running behind and for the first of the month that ain't good. But I did manage to mosey on over to the fishing camps and get in on the fishing news. It ain't been too good because of this crazy weather we been having around here.

Marina Isle had two visitors from Pennsylvania. They really did good for the conditions. V. P. Horst and W. W. Wood got themselves a nice string of 17 shad, including seven roe.

A. K. McBride and H. M. Case come over from Ormond Beach and they brought in 18 shad, with seven roe. Mrs. Russell said that the shad were kinda taking it easy because of this bad weather.

Well, I kinda drifted on over to John Crim's place and things were going slow there, too. Jim said that he had some military brass come over from Mt. Dora and do some bang up shad fishing with 22 shad and 14 roe. These were brought in by General Burley and Admiral Aulls.

Also Mrs. George Trautman had an unusual catch. She was guided by Bill Hoffman and she landed five bass with two of them weighing eight and five pounds.

I noticed that Jim Crowe had a nice crowd of fishermen around the camp and things did look pretty prosperous in the line of fishing. James F. Langille of New Smyrna Beach had himself a nice catch of 20 shad, with 10 roe. R. H. Barnes and Thomas Puley of Virginia strung up 17 shad with 11 roe.

Sanford Cops 2nd Straight Whitewash

Danny McFarlane hurlled a nifty one hitter Tuesday afternoon as the Seminole High baseballers blanked Wildwood, 6-0.

It was the second straight win of the young baseball season for the locals and the second straight whitewash.

McFarlane gave up only one hit—and that to the game's first batter. After that he hurled masterful ball until he retired in the sixth frame. Rick Hires finished up for the locals and allowed two hits.

Faced by Butch Riser, Marvin Sheffield and Rick Gallagher, the locals scored one in the second; two in the third, two in the fourth and one more in the fifth.

Riser drove in three runs with his booming bat while Gallagher slammed a triple and Sheffield banged out two hits in three trips to the plate.

Sanford journeys to Deland next Tuesday for their next contest.

Pairings Set For Mayfair Play Sunday

Two Keglers Top City Loop

Although they were forced to bowl with two blinds, city league leaders Jet Lanes still managed to take three points from 7th place Buddy's Auto.

Rick Murphy's 231-610 led the pace with Boradorf throwing in an even 200 and Von Horbulla and Mac Intyre opposing with a 217 and 204. Second place Lake Monroe Inn kept pace with the leaders by taking three from Sweeney's.

Al De Palma hit hard for the second highest game and series for the league this season with his 269-056 score. Uhr's 228 and Fox's 209 helped the team take a firmer grip on second place.

Although Marcotte was tops for Sweeney's with a 580, he couldn't quite make a 200 game, but Dorman, Brunfield and De Jong all compensated with 210, 208 and 200 respectively.

Engle's and Sanford Mfg. Co. battled to a 2-2 tie with Swann and Kirchoff leading their respective teams. Honeycutt rolled a 211 for the only 200 plus game in the match.

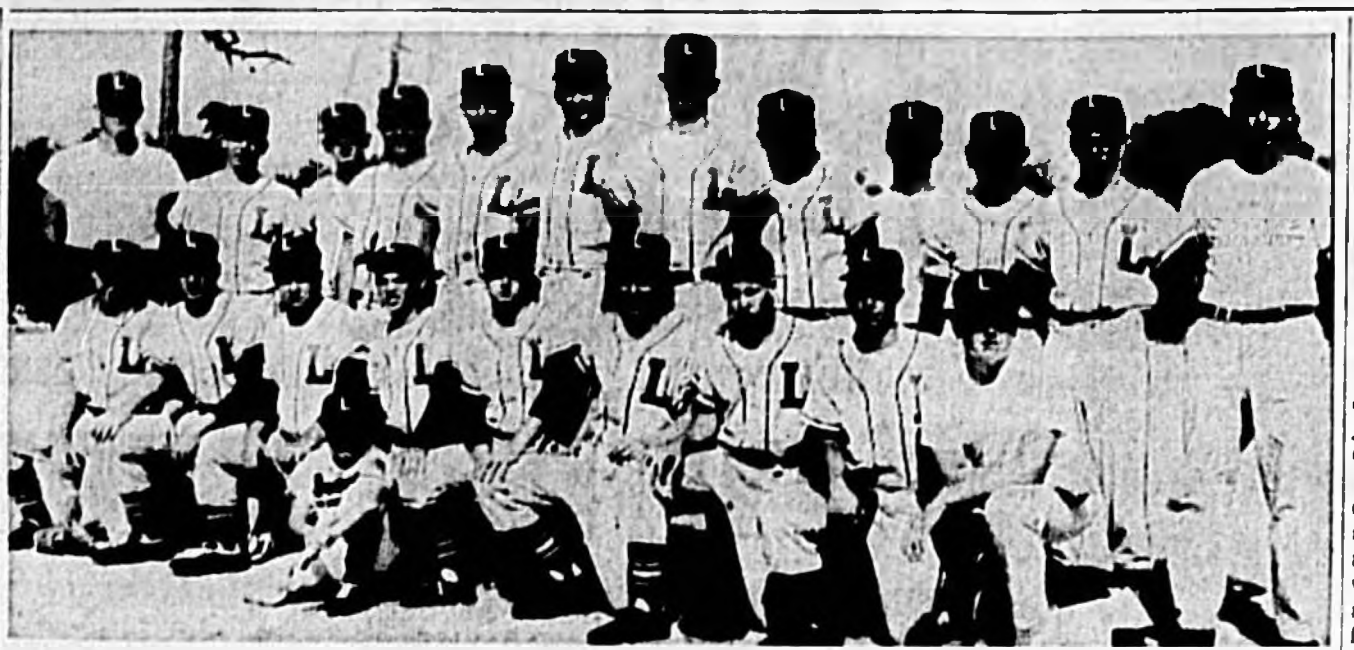

B&W Marine Service came up with a surprising 3-1 win over team No. 1, only the second time in 26 weeks they have been able to take 3 points. John Robison was high for BCW while "Doc" Ring led the losers. In the only remaining match, Team No. 4 also took 3 points, these from Harry's Liquor.

Burna rolled top scores for No. 4 while Jesse Cook was lead man for Harry's.

Cepeda Inks Giant Pact

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Orlando Cepeda, whose stubbornness can be attested to by numerous National League pitchers, relished a $5,000 victory today as part of his 1963 contract with the San Francisco Giants.

Orlando, who balked at taking a cut of $4,000 from his $47,000 salary last year, finally signed Tuesday, agreeing to terms that gave him an increase of "approximately $1,000." He will report Friday, according to Giant Vice President Charles (Chub) Feehey.

THE LONGWOOD baseball team won their opening tilt Tuesday as they nipped Florida Air 4-3 on Rick McCanna's single with the bases loaded. Gene Griffin hurled for the locals. Spring Roundup

Skowron, Fisher Off To Good Start

By United Press International
First impressions can be deceiving but the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers think their relations with Jack Fisher and Bill Skowron are going to be long and profitable.

Fisher and Skowron were involved in major winter deals—the Giants acquiring the pudgy pitcher from the Baltimore Orioles and the Dodgers obtaining the rugged first-baseman from the New York Yankees.

Fisher made his competitive debut for the Giants Tuesday with four shutout innings in a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox while Skowron ran his hitting streak to five straight hits in two games in a 4-3 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Fisher and Billy Pierce shut out the Red Sox with three hits for eight innings before Boston scored a run off rookie Bob Bishop. Joe Amalfitano singled in the fifth and seventh innings and went on to score the Giants' first two runs.

Skowron, 5-for-5 in his last two games, touched off the Dodgers' winning two-run seventh-inning rally with a single. Frank Howard's single, a wild pitch, two walks by rookie Harry Fanok and an error by Dick Groat completed the rally. Bill White had three hits for the Cardinals.

The Yankees could have used Skowron's hot Tuesday when Frank Funk, Claude Raymond and rookie Larry Maxie combined to limit them to one hit in pitching the Milwaukee Braves to a 5-0 victory. Raymond allowed the only hit—a scratch single by Tom Tresh. The world champions now have lost three of four exhibition games.

Don Lee, 3-8 last season, yielded a triple and a double to the first two hitters he faced and then didn't permit another hit for four innings as the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Cleveland Indians, 6-1. Rookie catcher Ed Kirkpatrick contributed a single and a triple to the Angels' attack.

The Philadelphia Phillies scored four runs in the third inning and six in the fourth to make a catch against the outfield wall in the ninth inning but his injuries are not believed serious.

The Pittsburgh Pirates went 10 innings to win their first exhibition game of the spring, 7-6, over the Washington Senators. Pitcher Frank Bork won the game with a run-producing 10th-inning single. Gene Alley had three hits for the Pirates.

Dave Nicholson drove in two runs with a double and scored another after a single to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 3-1 win over the New York Mets. Nicholson also bruised his knees and the heel of his right hand trying to leave hair uncombed than to comb it in public.

Cocky Clay, Doug Jones Mix In Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cocky Cassius Clay will try tonight to put his fast fists where his loud mouth is, for a fourth-round knockout over dangerous Doug Jones in jammed Madison Square Garden.

The Garden's first sellout crowd in 13 years—18,733 spectators occupying all seats and standing room—will watch unbeaten young Clay's attempt to fulfill his daring fourth-round prediction. The gate will approximate $108,000.

Twenty-one-year-old Cassius of Louisville, Ky., the world's second ranking heavyweight, has loudly but successfully pin-pointed in advance the exact rounds for 12 of his previous 14 knockouts.

And if the "Louisville Lip" can overcome the double Jonah of shooting for his 13th round-predicted kayo on March 18, he'll certainly be in line for a September shot at the heavyweight crown.

Chronically careless persons soon vanish from others' guest lists.

Control Board Sets Meet On Education Probe

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A special meeting of the Board of Control was called Tuesday for March 26 in Tampa to decide what recommendations from the space era education study will be put before the Legislature.

The 10 a.m. meeting at the University of South Florida was called by Chairman Baya Harrison Jr. who heard the $33.5 million worth of proposals outlined before the third governor's conference on education on Monday.

The bulk of the new money would go to step up graduate and research programs in the physical sciences, mathematics, engineering and oceanography at existing universities. Also recommended was a brand new space age university in the Orlando-Daytona-Canaveral area and a new four-year college at Pensacola.

The major recommendation, to which no price tag was attached, called for an autonomous board of control to run the universities without interference from the state cabinet which now rides herd on spending and other policies of the university system.

Meanwhile, Gov. Farris Bryant, who listened without comment as the recommendations were unveiled Tuesday, said he has not had time to study the proposals in detail but the study "provided some valuable guidelines whereby Florida can chart a course in higher education that will allow it to meet its responsibilities and opportunities in the space age."

He termed the $5,000 four-month study by out-of-state experts in the educational field "an outstanding job in analyzing Florida's system of higher education and pointing out feasible courses of action."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is stubborn as a mule. He had a large callous on the bottom of his foot and he tried to "trim" it with a razor blade. He cut more than he should have and it isn't healing. He's limping around but flatly refuses to see a doctor because he's afraid the doctor will ask him how it happened and he's ashamed to tell him. My husband is in his forties and is acting like a baby. Could I call our doctor and ask him to come by the house and order my husband to take his shoe and sock off? Or would that be too humiliating? I'm afraid it might turn into something serious.

WIFE OF A MULE

DEAR WIFE: Call your doctor, tell him the story, and ask him to come to your home. But don't expect him to "order your husband to submit to an examination. Doctors have gentler ways of handling full-grown babies. Don't let this go on. Better to have a humiliated husband than a sick one.

DEAR ABBY: My ex-husband has started to date me again, and there is a good chance that we will marry. The problem is: When I introduce him to people who did not know of our former relationship, how should I introduce him? Should I refer to him as my "ex-husband"? I can't say, "This is my fiancé" because we are not yet officially engaged. Please set me straight, but don't use my right name.

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: It is not necessary to mention your past relationship. Simply introduce him as your friend, John Jones.

DEAR ABBY: We men in the Marines on Okinawa read your column every day, and want to thank you for recognizing how much it means to get mail over here. Please tell the folks back home who think they can get first-hand information on the world situation from a man in uniform, that we aren't allowed to write about all the activities in which we are engaged because of security reasons. Also, tell them to write us GOOD news, not the depressing news we can't do anything but feel badly about. Thanks a million. MEN OF THE LIMA BATTERY

DEAR MEN: We folks at home have a responsibility to our men in uniform. They are keeping us free and safe, so if you know a man away in the service, write to him. Send him cartoons and clippings from his hometown paper. Make it happy. And make it snappy.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BUZZ: Let me put it this way, I have yet to meet the first person who told me that he was GLAD he quit High School. But those who have told me that they regretted quitting are without number. The "job" can wait. Graduate.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, BOX 3365, BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF., for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

My partner's jump to three no-trump was eminently correct. He only had nine high card points, but his fifth club represented a probable trick and could be counted as the equivalent of at least one high card point.

That does not mean that our three no-trump contract was sound, but every bridge player has made much worse contracts on occasion.

West had a natural heart opening and at this point I could count 11 tricks provided the club finesse succeeded. Suppose the club finesse didn't work? West would be in the lead. He might say to himself, "Maybe Jacoby doesn't have a diamond stopper." If West fol-

I saw that I had a fairly easy way to insure that West wouldn't shift away from the heart suit. All I did was to win the heart with my ace. Then I led a spade to dummy and tried the club finesse. It lost all right, but West immediately led his deuce of hearts.

No one can blame West. His partner's play of the jack and my play of the ace had clearly marked East with the queen. It was just too bad I had false-cards.

To forestall criticism I may point out that if West could have looked into my hand and actually led a diamond my false-card would have put me down six, but I had to take that little gamble.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

After using a desk calendar for some time, I happened to notice in fine print a "thought" for each week that gave me a few second thoughts. (The second thoughts are in parentheses.) "The best time to put the children to bed is when you can" (Or when you can't stand them any longer.) "A good idea that is shared with others will live forever." (Especially if you can make others think it was their idea.) "People who live in glass houses are interesting neighbors." (Better draw the draperies on that picture window.) "When all is said and done, it's best to leave it that way."

(Also, it's time to say "good night" and go home.) "The wise can learn by listening to the ignorant." (But vice versa is safer.) "About the time you catch up with the Jones, they re-finance." (But, that's one thing you've probably already beat them to.) "Men do not stumble over mountains, but over mole-hills." (And, also their kids' roller skates and toys.) "Few men have repented of silence." (But their wives have sure been bored.) "Morning comes long before you are ready for it." (And that goes double for Mondays.) "A contented man can't be said a thing." (Who's that contented?)

"A bachelor is a man who thinks twice before saying anything." (Except, "Well, I'll be seeing you around.") "The person who has everything should be quarantined." (But you'd still have to try to figure out what to give him for Christmas.) "Budgets are not merely affairs of arithmetic." (They're also something nobody seems able to stay within.) "No news is good news." (Not so with Ruth Millett's booklet, "How to Have a Happy Husband.") Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

decision that rocked the nation. The program is a must for anyone wanting to crystallize his opinion on the subject. The case on Long Island concerned constitutionality of a New York State Regent's prayer. The Supreme Court reversed these decisions and found the prayer unconstitutional. Eric Sevareid reports, 7:30-9 p. m. NBC. The Virginian. "The Golden Door." (color) Show in spots but good acting will keep you from being bored. Particularly good is Karl Boehm as an immigrant who faces a murder charge and is acquitted, thanks to the defense of Judge Garth (Lee J. Cobb). Following the courtroom action, the murdered man's son (Robert Davall) determines to wreak his own justice on the foreigner. Starring in their regular roles are James Drury as the Virginian, Doug McClure as Tampas, and Gary Clarke as Steve.

8:30-9:30 p. m. ABC. Going My Way. "Boss of the Ward." Pat O'Brien guests tonight in a show that reminds us of the approach of St. Patrick's Day with all the subtlety of a shillelagh. Besides fathers O'Malley and Fitzgibbon, the guest cast includes O'Brien, J. Pat O'Malley and Erin O'Brien Moore. The story is entertaining if not entirely realistic, concerning a ward boss whose age is catching up with him. When his party replaces him with a younger man, the neighborhood hits the ceiling. Gene Kelly and Leo G. Carroll star. 9:30 p. m. CBS. The Beverly Hillbillies. When Rosemary De Camp guests on any series, it is like welcoming an old friend into the living room. Tonight she plays Mrs. Smith-Standish, a guest of the Drysdales and an expert on Early Americana. While Mrs. Drysdale fears the Clampetts may disturb her guest, Mrs. Smith-Standish is fascinated with them. She even finds reason to believe the Clampett ancestors may have preceded the pilgrims to America.

double barrelled impact

You can reach the buyers and the trade with one big gun—the daily newspaper.

Because newspaper readership is almost universal, 86.4% of all U.S. homes receive a daily newspaper... almost 100 million people read a newspaper every day. That means advertising in the newspaper reaches everybody—the buying public plus the wholesalers and retailers you do business with.

These businessmen don't need to be sold on the value of newspaper advertising. They know; they've seen the cash register payoff from their own newspaper advertising.

So draw a bead on both markets—the trade, the consumer—with advertising in the one medium that reaches them both because it reaches everybody.

Court Hears Attack On Inter-Marriage

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Constitutionality of the Florida law prohibiting interracial marriages was attacked in the State Supreme Court Tuesday as violative of the U. S. Constitution.

Also challenged was validity of a state law against unmarried persons of different races living together as husband and wife.

The case grew out of the June, 1962, conviction of a white woman and a Negro man on charges they lived together in a Miami Beach efficiency apartment. Each was sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of $150.

The Supreme Court did not indicate when it will rule. G. E. Graves, Miami (Negro) attorney for Connie Hoffman (also known as Connie Gonzalez) and Dewey McLaughlin, argued his clients were denied the defense of marriage to refute the charge of living in sin.

He said there was some evidence of a common law marriage but the jury could not consider it because a judge informed them a marriage was impossible because of the miscegenation law. He said this denied his clients a defense to a criminal charge solely because of race, denying them due process and equal protection of the law.

James G. Mahorner, assistant state attorney general, argued there was no evidence of a marriage beyond the "hearsay" testimony of the couple's landlady that Mrs. Hoffman told her McLaughlin was her husband.

Graves said there is no statute specifically barring married Negro couples or white couples from living together and the law relating to mixed couples is based solely on race and therefore is discriminatory. Mahorner argued the law is directed against the offense rather than a race and provides the same punishment for violators of either race.

Graves said the U. S. Supreme Court upheld 80 years ago a similar Alabama law against cohabitation by unmarried persons of different races "but this ruling is in conflict with presently existing interpretations of the equal protection clause" of the constitution. He said laws against mixed marriages were designed solely to "maintain the supposed purity of the white race" and had never been ruled on by the U. S. Court.

He said the Florida law against mixed marriages defines a Negro as a person having one-eighth or more Negro blood. Maintaining the law was vague and indefinite, he asked the court "Are we to examine the veins of every person seeking to get married or investigate his ancestry?"

Youngsters Visit Ranch

Miss Cindy Paulucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeno F. Paulucci, Washington Avenue, entertained recently for her cousin, Pat Trepanier, of Minnesota, who was visiting at the Paulucci home.

Cindy and a friend, Miss Diane Pell, of Osteen, took the visitor to the MQ Ranch for a day of sightseeing.

They enjoyed an early morning horserack ride over some of the ranch spreads and scenic trails, then came back to the cookhouse for lunch.

In the afternoon they took more trail rides and enjoyed Florida wild life from horserack.

The Minnesota guest enjoyed the outing and stated that it was certainly a very different kind of day.

Garden Calendar

Circles of the Sanford Garden Club have scheduled meetings for this Thursday as follows:

AZALEA Circle will meet at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Porter Lansing, 833 20th St., for a program on flower arranging. Bring an arrangement, big, small, artificial or fresh.

CENTRAL Circle meets with Mrs. J. L. Hobby at 9:45 a.m. Mrs. Paul Johnston will be in charge of the program on house and patio plants.

MAGNOLIA Circle will meet with Mrs. W. L. Gramkow at 10 a.m. Plans will be made for the flower show.

PALM Circle will meet at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. J. Martin Stinecoper. Following the business session, Dr. J. F. Darby will speak on cacti and small plants.

WOODROSE Circle meets with Mrs. Fred Gray at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Gerald Knight will present a program on horticulture and conservation.

Dr. Fred Ensminger Speaks On Library To DAR Members

The March meeting of the Sallie Harrison Chapter, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Lee with Mrs. C. E. Butler, Miss Emma Baker, Mrs. L. P. Hagan and Mrs. Lenabelle Jennings serving as co-hostesses.

Mrs. L. C. Wildner, regent, presided using the ritual, American creed, pledge to the flag and singing the Star Spangled Banner and suwannee River.

Mrs. Wildner honored past regents with the presentation of a beautiful white orchid to each. Mrs. F. E. Holt, Mrs. C. E. Butler, Mrs. L. P. Hagan, Mrs. A. R. Key, Mrs. A. W. Lee, Mrs. J. B. Ray, Mrs. P. E. Roumillat, Mrs. H. W. Tucker, Mrs. Lawrence Tinsley and Mrs. J. S. Sims.

Mrs. Butler, national defense chairman presented an interesting article and Mrs. C. A. Canaday spoke on "Holds Past Old Glory, The Flag of the United States of America."

Mrs. Tucker gave a report on the DAR good citizenship. Mrs. Roumillat, who will be chairman of the hostesses at the library during the Semi-Centennial, presented Dr. Fred Ensminger as the guest speaker for the day.

Dr. Ensminger, who serves as librarian at the General Sanford Memorial Library, talked about the books of Gen. Sanford and told about living in the old Country Club House at one time.

Others present for the program were Meses. M. J. Hram, Howard Brewer, C. R. New Arrivals

Capt. and Mrs. R. E. Garner of San Antonio, Texas, announce the birth of an eight pound daughter, March 11, at the Brookfield Hospital in San Antonio.

They have chosen the name Carol Rose for the new arrival who will be welcomed home by a sister, Lee Ann. Paternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Garner, Sanford, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lax of Savannah, Ga.

When the little ones are in bed but able to sit up after an illness, open two legs of your card table and let the other two remain folded. Put the table across the bed in the child's lap, with the two open legs on the floor. It gives ample space for playing, drawing pictures and so on.

Monroe Home Club Presents Program On Resuscitation

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson Mrs. Alvin Kilpatrick was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club held at the Ursula Presbyterian Church Educational Building.

Mrs. Kilpatrick, who is with the Red Cross, gave a demonstration on resuscitation. Using a model dummy called Annie who explained the new way of mouth to mouth and mouth to nose method. Annie was purchased by the insurance companies of Sanford. After showing the members the correct way they were given the chance of "saving Annie." A question and answer period was then held, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Ed Fitzgerald, president, presided over the business session and devotions were led by Mrs. J. H. Tindel. Plans were discussed for the fashion show sponsored by the club on March 28 at the HD Center. The show, which will be free to the public, will be given on latest disciplined prints by the Midway's Shoppe of Fine Fabrics. They will also sponsor a dress contest in conjunction with the fashion show.

Mrs. Robert Mann was introduced as a new member and welcomed by the group. Hostesses Mrs. Ed Dowell and Mrs. H. L. Johnson served refreshments in keeping with the St. Patrick's Day theme.

Others present were Meses. J. C. Sapp, Louise Rushlow, Hazel Gardner, J. Blackwelder, Mae Hahn, Wm. Carroll Sr., Wm. Carroll Jr., Marion Lee, Thelma Emerson and Jack Standifer.

April hostesses will be Mrs. Blackwelder and Mrs. Fitzgerald. Craft night will be held March 29 at the home of Mrs. Johnson.

By Mrs. Adam Muller The DeBary Woman's Club will meet at 2 p.m. this Friday at the Community Center. A musical program of Irish songs, honoring St. Patrick's Day, will be presented by Mrs. Ludwig Kupez, chairman of the Music Department.

Participating in the program will be Mrs. Emily Armstrong, Mrs. G. Donaldson, Mrs. Mabel Green and Robert McGee. Mrs. Kupez and Mrs. Laura Platt Brown, vice-chairman, will accompany the singers. Mrs. Norman Chivers and Mrs. Edna Heilly will greet members and their guests. Mrs. Walter Hanl and Mrs. Henry Lasher will preside at the tea table.

The Civic and International Affairs Division of the DeBary Woman's Club will meet Monday, March 18, at 2 p.m. at the Community Center under the direction of Mrs. Charles Duryea, chairman. Mrs. Henry Lohoff will show movies and comment on her four months' trip to Western Europe this past summer. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Neil MacDougall, vice chairman.

Mrs. Don Hamner Named President Of Chapter

The main item on the agenda at a recent business meeting of the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, was election of new officers.

Mrs. Don Hamner was elected president and Mrs. Banks Golden, vice president. Mrs. James Jones was named secretary; Mrs. Billy Wynn, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. La Mar Meredith, treasurer.

A program on speech was given by Mrs. J. L. Blythe and Mrs. Charles Kampf. They gave an illustration of an incident of an unfortunate person without a job or money who only by his command of their English language secured a high position with a large company.

Following the program, each one present was given a short poem to read while their voices were being recorded on tape. They were placed back later so the members could hear how they sounded to other people.

Mrs. Blythe, who was hostess for the meeting, served refreshments during the social hour. Others attending were Mrs. Hamner, Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Wynn, Meses. James Daughtry, Bob Brown, Joe Dennison, Gil Dalgle, Jerry McCabe and Larry Mann.

Altamonte Springs Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Nordgren of Highland Rd. recently entertained her sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Willig and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchinson from Chicago. While here they enjoyed visiting Bok Tower, the Great Masterpiece and the Jai Alai Fronton. They also enjoyed cookouts and other outdoor activities impossible to have in Chicago at this time of year.

First time visitors were Mrs. Anna Kessler, from Chapter 408, Richmond Hill, Long Island, N. Y.; Miss Kathleen Clark, Tropical Chap. 38, Bartow and Mrs. Ione Keen, Chap. 47, Fort Meade. Miss Clark and Mrs.

OES Honors Past Matrons - Patrons

Fifty members and 11 visitors honored past matrons and patrons of Seminole Chapter 2, Order of Eastern Star and affiliated past matrons and patrons at a recent meeting.

Mrs. Nick Pfeiffert saluted them with a solo rendition of "Others" as they were introduced. They were presented gifts by the worthy matron and paid tribute by Mrs. L. E. Estes, associate matron; Mrs. Charles Cole, worthy matron and J. E. Blackman, worthy patron.

Past matrons honored were Meses J. C. Bills, William Click, R. E. Peurifoy, J. T. Sheppard, John Shepard, H. Anderson Jr., Floyd Albow, R. W. Turner, Walter Raines, J. E. Courier, Murray Jarvis, Maybelle Maxwell, Joseph Leinhardt and J. Corley. Past patrons honored were R. E. Peurifoy, Robert Williams, Harvey Dunn and H. C. Thomas.

First time visitors were Mrs. Anna Kessler, from Chapter 408, Richmond Hill, Long Island, N. Y.; Miss Kathleen Clark, Tropical Chap. 38, Bartow and Mrs. Ione Keen, Chap. 47, Fort Meade. Miss Clark and Mrs.

Keen are past matrons of their chapters and Mrs. Keen is past grand Martha of the Grand Chapter of Florida and presently chairman of Estari.

The altar was draped in memory of past grand patron George E. Turner and the charter draped in memory of Mrs. Sybil Booth, a past matron of Seminole Chapter. Mrs. Pfeiffert sang "Somewhere" at the close of the memorial service.

Mrs. Irving Pryor decorated the dining room table with a nylon net cloth with appliques of Kelly green and white felt shamrocks, pipes, harps and hats. The floral center arrangement was a made of yellow, white and purple tulips and eucalyptus.

Refreshments were served by hostesses, Meses Harvey Punn, W. D. Causey, Frank Kohler and L. J. Hamilton.

Jaycee Wives Welcome Two New Members

Two new members, Mrs. Charles Kampf and Mrs. Wendell Davis, were welcomed to the Jaycee Wives Club when the group met with the president, Mrs. Hammond Polk, for the monthly session.

Each member introduced herself to the new members and told something about her life so that the group could become better acquainted.

Also present during the introductions were four visitors, Mrs. John Hoyt, Mrs. Davo Berries, Mrs. Jack Wilber and Mrs. Jim Smith. During the business meeting it was decided to hold a St. Patrick's Day social, this Saturday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. F. Keith, in Loch Arbor.

Mrs. Paul Lewis, treasurer, reported that a $20 donation has been given to the Sarepta Rest Home improvement fund. The group has been experimenting with a new date for the monthly meetings and it was voted to revise the by-laws and set up the first Tuesday night of each month as a permanent date.

Mrs. A. F. Keith presented an informative and interesting program on the operation of the Little Red School House. Mrs. Keith, a member of the club also teaches at the school for retarded children.

Other members present were Meses. Charles Tetenbaum, Tom Price, Wally Peacock, Brad Foley, Bob King, Wendell Agee and Garnett White.

Mrs. John F. Moore and Mrs. Robert L. Rankin were co-hostesses for the monthly VAH-I officers' wives coffee at the after-burner, Thursday.

Mrs. P. M. Tischer and Mrs. A. S. Poulter were welcomed as new members of the group.

Mrs. Kay Bartholomew, a former tiger lady, was a special guest. Other guests included Mrs. Fandel and Mrs. O'Brien, both visiting mothers of tiger wives.

The ladies enjoyed coffee and cookies prepared by the hostesses. Table decorations were in orange and black, the squadron colors.

Friends Honor Casselberry Girl With Surprise Birthday Party

By Jane Casselberry
Valorie Shea, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Darwin Shea, 831 N. Triplett Dr., Casselberry, was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party last Thursday from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. given by co-hosts Jackie McClain and Billy Willis at the McClain home, 221 Triplett Dr.

The party originally was scheduled for the week before when the honoree actually celebrated her 15th birthday but was postponed because of her illness.

She received many lovely gifts and guests enjoyed dancing and were served refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream, birthday cake and soft drinks.

Those attending were Joyce Lovell, Becky Wagner, Meredith Nolan, Roger and Bobby Mobley, Steve Shook and Rick Mendez.

Chaperones were Miss Phyllis Casber and Mrs. Marvin McClain.

Hart - Abell Wedding Announced

Miss Leona Hart of Winter Park, daughter of Mrs. L. V. Hart and the late Mr. Hart of Oviedo, and James Wiley Abell, son of Mrs. Geneva Abell, of Oviedo, were married Feb. 23 at 11 a.m. in Winter Park.

Judge George Adams officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families, including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. T. Bailey Sr., of Atlanta, Ga.

Following the wedding and reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Louisiana and points north.

They are now residing at 2951 Nauru Drive in Winter Park.

Swedish Smorgasbord Big Success

Winners of the door prizes awarded every half hour during the recent Swedish Smorgasbord were Roy Puckett, Longwood; Virginia L. Ferraro, Winter Park; Phillip S. Boyd, Jeff Hodges, J. S. Kurian and Miss Ellen Carter, all of Sanford.

This event was hosted by the Ethel Root Circle of the Congregational Church and was their 11th annual Swedish smorgasbord.

Over 400 attended the outstanding event and folks throughout surrounding areas traveled miles to attend, making it a huge success.

The average American finds the gathering of foreign intelligence a pretty remote and mystifying business. This makes it glamorous but difficult for him, or his representatives, to appraise.

Some harsh things have been said about our intelligence gatherers' efforts with respect to the Soviet build-up in Cuba.

Many citizens may be sufficiently charged up emotionally to agree with the general judgment that there was a failure somewhere. Yet the heavy bombardment of comment does not help them decide exactly where.

Maybe the issue, as it relates to Cuba, can be narrowed down.

One problem that has arisen in the Cuban affair is how exhaustively we can rely upon aerial reconnaissance.

Despite amateur skepticism, the evidence appears strong that such aerial spying is amazingly effective under suitable conditions. The aerial camera records great detail, even from high altitude. Photo interpreters have developed superb techniques for analyzing the pictures.

But reporters looking back on the Cuban crisis of 1962 note that while the camera counted 42 offensive missiles outboard from Cuba, it never saw more than 30 on the ground at the sites earlier.

Notwithstanding assurances from defense officials that there was no "photo gap" in the weeks just before the big reconnaissance find of Oct. 14, it is also a fact that very little has been shown to indicate how the big missiles and supporting systems got across Cuba to the developing sites.

To the extent they were not found until at the site, to the extent that some were never seen by our flying cameras, aerial reconnaissance may be judged to have fallen short of total reliability.

The Russians may have moved the weapons largely at night, using ground cover to hide them by day. From time to time they may also have been helped by cloud cover.

Beyond this we need to know whether there was any lack of persistence on our own part, whether we failed to send out missions on some "good picture" days.

However, all this adds up, enough is already known to suggest that aerial spying cannot do the whole job.

The use of intelligence agents as a prime source of information is as old as history. But Cuba presents special difficulties in this field.

The inflow of Cuban refugees, many bearing tales quickly proved to be wildly inaccurate, has tended to cast an aura of unreliability over all "ground" intelligence—even some of that from established agents. Latins can be excitable. Many would like to convince us that invasion of their homeland is an early necessity.

Yet for centuries before the aerial camera, agents were the chief reliance. Obviously we need them still.

Their evidence is harder to still to skeptical neutrals, and allies, than are good pictures. But in our quest for clinching proof, it is possible our experts have themselves resolved too many doubts on the side of final skepticism.

If we do not have agents we can trust to be accurate, we should get some. For weather and darkness alone assure that there will always be some gaps in the story our cameras can tell.

HAND THAT ROCKS THE CRADLE

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Jerry has had two auto accidents within 3 months. The first cracked a man's ribs but the second killed a woman. On the surface, it looks as if headstrong Jerry were solely to blame. But read the rest of the case today and you will find two accessories to his highway murder of the woman in the other car.

CASE 0-181: Jerry J., aged 17, is in the hospital. "Dr. Crane," a neighbor of ours explained, "Jerry ran into our auto two months ago and almost demolished it. Fortunately, nobody was seriously hurt, though my father had several cracked ribs."

"Jerry was warned at that time about his reckless driving. Then, just last week, Jerry hit another car head-on and killed the woman driver of the other machine."

"It was Jerry's fault, for he was speeding and tried to pass three automobiles which were trailing behind a slow truck on the highway."

"Instead of waiting his turn to get around that truck, Jerry decided to swing out past the three passenger cars and truck, but he couldn't quite make it."

"So he struck the oncoming car head-on and killed the woman at the steering wheel."

"Now Jerry is recovering in the hospital. But will he ever learn to drive carefully?"

Jerry's father and mother are society folks who left Jerry and his younger sister in charge of a maid and a governess most of the time.

Then, when Jerry was old enough for school, they farmed him out to a boarding school for boys, to avoid and evade their proper parental duties.

Since then, Jerry has been indulged unduly, partly as a guilt reaction of his parents. For they sense the fact they have shunned their duty, so they gave Jerry unduly expensive toys and subsidized him with an allowance of $10 per week, even when he was in the lower grades.

Many other parents likewise try to salve their conscience by thus pouring an undue amount of money upon neglected youngsters. Beware.

If Jerry's dad had been his pal in childhood and a Scout leader, Jerry would probably now be an Eagle Scout and an honor graduate of his high school.

He would have learned the value of money from having been placed on a piecework plan where he would have had to shed sweat and get blisters on his palms, earning his meager spending money.

Thus, Jerry would have had a solid foundation in practical economics.

Jerry would probably have bought his own jalopy and been a safe economical driver who didn't violate safety rules.

For a boy who learns mechanics by overhauling his own jalopy, thereafter has a machinist's "feel" for the car.

He isn't likely to gun the motor on takeoff or jam on the brakes for effect. Nor does he try to take a turn on two wheels.

For he has better mechanical sense. In the horse-and-buggy days we also saw young bucks like Jerry who had no "feel" for their horses.

Those nitwits would race a horse unduly on hot, humid days and ruin a splendid animal by such smart aleck driving habits.

The grandchildren of those sadistic horse drivers are now learning splendid automobiles apart by stupid driving behavior.

But part of the fault goes right back to Jerry's parents who tried to shun their proper parental responsibilities.

So send for the "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 30c.

Learn how to steer your children as wisely as you should steer your automobile.

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—President Kennedy's first "manpower report" to Congress is seen here as inaugurating something brand new in the federal government. This was a special message on unemployment—where it is now, where it's going, what should be done about it. The President calls this "the No. 1 economic problem."

The message and an accompanying comprehensive report from Department of Labor on "manpower requirements, resources, utilization and training" brought together all the separate programs the President has proposed to reduce unemployment.

These programs began with the Depressed Area Redevelopment and Training Act of 1962. One section of this latter act calls for an annual report to Congress on the country's manpower situation.

In time, this message may rank in importance with the President's budget and economic messages. The manpower report will deal with human resources instead of fiscal resources. For as the President says, "Manpower is the basic resource."

"The ideal of full employment—in the large sense that each individual shall become all that he is capable of becoming and shall contribute fully to the well-being of the nation even as he fully shares in that well-being—is at the heart of our democratic belief," says the President.

Programs Kennedy has proposed this year to increase employment include tax changes, the youth employment bill, expanded educational opportunities at all levels, a strengthened unemployment insurance system, broadened minimal wage law coverage and civil rights measures which will end discrimination in employment.

Bringing these programs together puts the focus on their common ultimate objective—reduction of unemployment, over 5.5 per cent the last five years.

The statistics and charts in the manpower report all seem to point to the conclusion that unemployment will get worse as the population and labor force grow in the 1960s and 1970s, unless a preventative measure can be taken now.

A foreword to the Labor Department's report by Secretary W. Willard Wirtz calls attention to two other supplementary reports which will complete the survey of human resources.

The first, already issued, covers training activities in the first six months since the Manpower Development Act became law. It shows that 25,000 workers, unemployed for more than a year, are now in training in 700 schools at a cost of $1,200 for each worker. The second supplementary report, still to be issued by Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary, Health, Education and Welfare, is to include a survey on vocational training.

All this material is to be made the subject of extensive congressional investigation. In handling manpower legislation during the last Congress, a Senate Labor subcommittee on employment was set up under Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa. He intends to hold further hearings over several months.

Owing to the present unsettled conditions in the House Education and Labor Committee, it is uncertain whether Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N. Y., will hold similar hearings. But eventually it is hoped there will be joint Senate-House hearings on all problems affecting employment.

In one sense, this may cut across jurisdiction of the Joint Committee on Economic Report which was created by the Full Employment Act of 1946. But in recent years the economic committee has concentrated on fiscal, monetary and general issues which only indirectly influence employment.

It is the threat of growing unemployment in the years ahead that has brought on this new, special attention from the President and Congress.

Dick West Says

We Need A Plaque For That!

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Many honors have been heaped on Lt. Col. John H. Glenn for his pioneering space voyage a year ago, but one tribute was rather long in coming.

Only recently did Glenn finally receive formal commendation for having been the first American astronaut to behold the Imperial Valley of California while in orbit.

I do not know the reason for the delay, but I, along with millions of other Americans, can rejoice with him now that his achievement has been fittingly acknowledged and immortalized.

A plaque commemorating his history-making glimpse of the valley was presented to Glenn recently by Rep. Pat Minor, Martin, (R-Calif.), on behalf of the Imperial Valley Development Agency.

He did, however, get to see a dedication in part: "Dedicated to Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. for his historic flight through space on Feb. 20, 1962, wherein he recognized Imperial Valley, California, its irrigated fields, Salton Sea and El Centro."

Incidentally, in a related ceremony, the "Friendship Seven" capsule from which Glenn viewed the valley was turned over to the Smithsonian Institution for display in its collection of aerial memorabilia.

The enshrinement of the capsule was staged almost directly over the "Spirit of St. Louis," Charles A. Lindbergh's famous old plane, which hangs from the roof of the Smithsonian.

Lindbergh, you may recall, flew across the Atlantic Ocean and therefore missed the Imperial Valley by several thousand miles, which is a pity as the development agency might have given him a plaque, too.

He did, however, get to see a dedication in part: "Dedicated to Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. for his historic flight through space on Feb. 20, 1962, wherein he recognized Imperial Valley, California, its irrigated fields, Salton Sea and El Centro."

Also hanging near the space capsule was the original Wright Brothers' plane. It barely flew far enough to get over an irrigation ditch.

One of the speakers at the ceremony noted that only 59 years separated the Wright flight from Glenn's orbital mission. His point seemed to be that a lot can happen in 59 years, and I guess he's right.

By the time another 59 years go by, the Imperial Valley itself may be flying.

As I was leaving the Smithsonian, I noticed that it also had on display an ancient "sedan chair," which is an aerial vehicle of sorts although it rarely reaches an altitude of more than six feet unless it is being carried by a basketball team.

Wonder if they would give someone a plaque for crossing the valley in that?

Matter Of Fact

The first census of Melbourne, now capital of the state of Victoria and second largest city in Australia, was taken in 1826 and gave the population as 177 persons—112 males and 35 females.

Most girls do a good job of making up, so why do fellows think that the check point needs retouching?

An Illinois judge ordered a man to pay his wife $200 a week alimony. A new kind of court plaster.

Minstrelsy, which is the only indigenous American theatrical form, was based upon the singing and dancing of the Negro slaves. Minstrelsy reached its zenith of popularity in this country and in England from 1850 to 1870. Stephen Foster wrote his greatest songs for minstrel companies.

In addition to their Bonsai art of tree miniatures, the Japanese also enjoy the cultivation of stones. For Sui-seki ("water stone") a natural stone of admirable shape is placed in a porcelain or bronze tray with sand and water. Months and years of patient watering and care may, according to the kind of stone used, bring forth a coating of moss, enlivening the stone with verdure resembling a mountain or an island with forest and meadows.

The first member of Italy's famous Medici family to achieve historical distinction was Salvestro dei Medici, who in 1378 was the leader of the revolt of the ciompi (wool-carders) of Florence, attaining a measure of recognition for the lesser guilds of the city.

Longwood Enters National Clean-Up Contest

Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann announced at Thursday night's meeting of the City Council that Longwood will be entered in the National Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Campaign this year.

He appointed Councilman John Heams to act as liaison officer to spearhead the local campaign.

Lormann advised that the city will have handbills printed and distributed to all residents and property owners urging them to cooperate and said that he also will request all churches in the city to set aside one Sunday for making a special appeal to their congregations for cooperation.

Foreign Group Gives Program For Area PTA

By Shirley Wentworth
The program of last Tuesday's meeting of the Bear Lake Elementary PTA was highlighted by a panel of three foreign students who took part in a roundtable discussion on educational facilities and requirements at the elementary level in their native lands as compared to those in this country.

Making up the panel were David Chan of Hong Kong, Balphazar Hayer of Switzerland and Martha Sanchez of Nicaragua. Discussion, led by Allen Actor, PTA program chairman, revealed that there is more similarity than differences in teaching methods used in all countries represented.

The regular monthly PTA business session was held preceding the program. Mrs. Marly Tomlin and John Hall were elected as delegates to represent the school for the County PTA Council and Mrs. Beverly Gray and Mrs. Joan Kelley were appointed to serve on a nominating committee with a third member to be appointed from the executive board.

Room count was won by Mrs. Gore's fourth grade class and fourth grade mothers were hostesses for the social and refreshment period.

Rollins Reading Professor Speaks For CTP

By Jane Casselberry
Dr. Carol Burnett, professor of Reading at Rollins College in Winter Park, was guest speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Council of Teachers and Parents held last Tuesday at the South Seminole Elementary School at Casselberry.

Speaking on "Children's Reading Problems in Elementary Grades," she expressed the belief that students should not be required to repeat a grade due to poor reading ability in the first three grades because some children are naturally slower than others in developing reading skills.

Dr. Burnett thinks that a good balance in the use of phonics or sight reading is preferable over specific use of one or the other.

Major Joseph Laird, CTP president, presided at the meeting.

Copies of the revised Constitution and By-Laws were distributed and will be voted upon at the April meeting.

A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. James Shepherd, Mrs. Charles Lockyer, Mrs. May Ostrow, Mrs. J. H. Legg and Principal Christy Harp, was appointed to select a slate of officers also to be voted upon at the next meeting.

The committee will meet Wednesday morning at 9:15 in the office of the principal. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria following the CTP meeting.

Water Vapor On Mars Proven

PALESTINE, Tex. (UPI) — The Stratoscope II space balloon probe of Mars confirmed the presence of water vapor and carbon dioxide on the planet, scientists reported today. But they could not tell whether there was enough to support any form of life.

During last Friday night's flight of the giant unmanned balloon with an instrument package and a 36-inch telescope, scientists got five "acans" of Mars.

They could not get more views of the red planet because of its position in the sky and trajectory of the balloon as it sailed from Palestine to land at a point near Pulaski, Tenn.

During the Civil War, a small band of Confederate soldiers crossed the Canadian border on Oct. 19, 1864, and raided the Vermont town of St. Albans, robbing the bank before escaping back into Canada according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

'Cracker Days': Bargains, Prizes

"Cracker Days" are here! With a "hi-de-hi" and a "ho-de-ho," Sanford shoppers will be offered an avalanche of bargains Friday and Saturday as the Downtown Merchants Association launches into its annual "Cracker Days" parade of sales offerings.

The shoppers probably will feel they have been carried back into time as merchants and their sales people will be dressed in costumes of yesteryear.

Glen McCall, association president, said today all downtown merchants are joining in the gala event, an annual custom to acquaint Sanford shoppers with Sanford stores.

Stores will hand out numbered tickets Friday and Saturday for door prizes valued at $5 or more each.

Drawing will be at the corner of First Street and Magnolia Avenue at 9 p.m. Friday and 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Ten prizes will be drawn each evening.

Also many store-members will be offering individual "enticements" for visitors. (See Herald ads.)

McCall invited shoppers "to join the fun and spirit by wearing 'cracker clothing' to town."

Twins May Come

The Minnesota Twins are seriously considering moving its farm clubs into Sanford, it was learned today.

Sherry Robertson, Twins farm director, has been quoted that the Municipal Stadium and the San Francisco Giants dormitory is "a likely minor league camp for Minnesota farm clubs."

The information was received today by John Krider, Chamber of Commerce manager, from Jeno F. Paulucci, Duluth, member of the Chamber's baseball committee.

The Twins' minor league base now is located at Fernandina Beach but, according to Robertson, "is not suitably located to arrange an exhibition slate with other minor league clubs training in Florida."

Robertson was quoted further: "The Sanford base is ideally situated in mid-Florida. I've had the Sanford property appraised and we're going to look over it this week. The Giants' asking price is a little high but the location is perfect, only 20 miles from the Twins' headquarters at Orlando."

Mayor Tom McDonald and Acting City Manager Henry Tamm said today they have not been approached by any representatives of the Twins.

Paulucci advised Krider he, too, will be in Sanford within the week, probably to confer with Robertson.

House Okays $1,138,000 For Naval Air Station

U. S. House of Representatives Wednesday voiced approval of a $1,138,000 construction program for Sanford Naval Air Station, according to Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr. The bill now goes to the Senate.

Congressman Herlong's telegram to The Herald reads: "The $1,138,000 item in the military procurement bill passed by the House yesterday for the Sanford Naval Air Station includes under operational facilities an aircraft parking apron $781,000; under maintenance facilities a hangar, shop and office building $256,000; the remainder for classified facilities."

The record $15.8 billion defense authorization bill is safely through the House but Senate action appears weeks away.

The House passed the bill to buy new missiles, aircraft and warships by a 374-33 vote Wednesday. It authorizes some Republicans and Democrats more money than Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara think is necessary.

The Senate Armed Services Committee has completed hearings on the bill. But transcripts of those hearings are still being reviewed in the Pentagon, and no action to pass the bill to the floor is expected for at least a couple of weeks.

House Republican leaders are apparently withholding their major budget cutting effort for the bill to appropriate the $15.8 billion. A similar pattern was expected in the Senate.

It also appeared likely that the Senate would follow the House in adding funds for the B52D warplane to the administration's bill.

The House including $497.7 million for more development of the B52D and two additional nuclear attack submarines which the administration felt were unnecessary.

The Air Force would get $7.4 billion of the bill, the Navy and Marines $6.6 billion, and the Army $1.7 billion. It would provide 3,000 aircraft, about 60,000 missiles and 45 warships.

Question before the Commission was to rezone from agricultural to commercial, to permit the construction of the shopping center.

Arguments for and against the shopping center required an hour's time, with petitions also offered for and against. Shoemaker, after the decision, informed the press that both petitions were argumentative, with many signatures being of property owners and their wives, and with both petitions containing the same signatures. In other words, property owners had signed petitions for and against the shopping center.

After an hour's debate, Robert Grumley moved the request for rezoning be denied. His motion was approved unanimously.

Massive Cleanup In Flood Areas

Residents of five states today dug out from mud and debris left by rampaging flood waters. The deluge left at least 17 dead, causing millions of dollars of damage and forced more than 20,000 persons from their homes.

Twenty Kentucky counties and 11 West Virginia counties were declared major disaster areas.

Health officials in Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Georgia made plans to inoculate flood victims against disease.

The mercury dipped near zero across the northern plains today while fog covered the Ohio Valley and North Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Burlington, Vt., picked up three inches of fresh snow Wednesday night.

$150,000 Center 'Turned Down'

"Thumbs down" was the signal given by the County Zoning Commission Wednesday evening on Joe Gazil's proposal to erect at $150,000 shopping center at Ravenna Park.

Some 75 persons were present at the Commission's hearing, with "pros" and "cons" being offered.

A K. Shoemaker Jr., chairman, disqualified himself from the vote since it is his firm which is promoting Ravenna Park.

Milk Mark-Up Proposal Slated

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A minimum of 62.5 per cent markup on half-gallons of milk at the wholesale level will be proposed to the State Milk Commission when it meets next week in Jacksonville, but only as a temporary measure.

Chairman Charles O. Andrews announced the proposal Wednesday and said he will put it before the commission at the Tuesday meeting as a means of stabilizing the market while the Legislature reviews price regulations throughout the milk industry.

The commission should set price controls at the consumer level several years ago, but still regulates prices at the producer level and prohibits retailers from selling below the cost from the wholesaler to them. The regulations do not apply, however, in south and southeast Florida, where the commission has no jurisdiction.

Effect of Andrews' plan, if adopted by the commission, would be to raise wholesale prices in areas where there is now a narrow margin between producer and middleman milk prices, particularly in the Jacksonville and Tampa areas.

Annual State Audits Proposed

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant said today he will recommend legislation setting limits on state-paid expenses of members of the Florida Turnpike Authority and requiring annual state audits of state spending.

At the same time, Bryant said he has "full confidence" in Chairman John Hammer, Tampa, and other members of his turnpike authority.

He said he ordered state auditors to make a complete audit of Turnpike books at the request of Hammer shortly after the St. Petersburg Times sent its own auditors to look into authority spending and started a series of articles pinpointing instances of high spending.

He said three auditors are now at work and a fourth is to be sent in to speed completion.

"This report when finished will be a public record," he said.

"It is essential that the facts be accumulated, published and decisions reached on the basis of the facts," he added. "To the extent that allegations are substantiated, remedial action is called for. To the extent allegations are proven to be wrong, we need to adjust public thinking relative to them."

Defense Chief Eyes SpaceShip

SEATTLE (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was briefed here today on progress on the Dyna-Soar program for a winged space-ship which could maneuver like an ordinary plane.

His conference with high Boeing Co. officials here was expected to help him decide if the Air Force's Dyna-Soar project should be junked in favor of Project Gemini.

Gemini calls for putting two men into orbit for long periods of time in a capsule similar to the Mercury spacecraft that carried astronauts John Glenn, Scott Carpenter and Walter Schirra into space.

Cubans Say Yank Pilots Cursed Carriers

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — A Cuban flyer said Wednesday he heard American pilots participating in the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba curse U. S. carriers for not sending air cover while they were under attack by Castro air and ground forces.

"You s.o.b.'s, why don't you send the planes?" the Americans shouted over their radios to a Navy carrier, according to Timoteo A. Cabrera, 38, a former Cubana Airlines pilot who flew two missions during the invasion.

He said the carrier replied: "Sorry. We've had no orders to release the planes."

Uncertain

4 Killed In Florida Bound Plane Crash

LAGRANGE, Ga. (UPI) — A small private plane carrying four persons to Florida for a spring vacation crashed near the airport here today, killing all aboard.

The dead were identified by authorities as Dr. Hollis

Hand, a prominent LaGrange surgeon and brother of Mrs. Fuller Callaway whose family owns the Callaway Textile Mills here; his son, Hollis, Jr., Alex Maddox, 18, son of a local industrialist; and an unidentified youth, a friend of young Hand.

Authorities said the group boarded Hand's twin-engine Beechcraft plane early this morning for the flight to Florida. The weather was foggy at the time and Hand apparently decided to return to the Callaway airport soon after takeoff.

The craft was coming in for a landing on the airport's east runway when it clipped the top of three trees. It crashed, exploded and burst.

Young Hollis was a student at the Darlington School for Boys in Home, Ga. Police said he and the other youths were home for the spring holidays and that Dr. Hand, who owns his own plane, had agreed to take the boys to Florida on a vacation trip.

Railroads, Unions Deadlocked On 'Featherbedding' Dispute

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's railroads and the five mammoth on-train unions, each backed by a powerful weapon, remained deadlocked today in their longstanding dispute over "featherbedding."

They met to discuss the issue Wednesday for the first time since the talks broke off last August. The talks lasted 90 minutes before coming to an impasse.

The railroads, backed by last week's Supreme Court decision allowing them to streamline work rules, announced after the breakup that they would put work rule changes in effect within a month.

The unions declared, after the Supreme Court backed the employers, that they would strike.

In San Francisco, negotiators for the Southern Pacific Railroad and the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, produced by President Kennedy, returned to the conference table today in their dispute over automation.

The President stepped in to the picture Wednesday when the 11,000 member union apparently was on the verge of issuing a strike ultimatum. He asked both sides to submit their differences to arbitration.

The railroad accepted, but union negotiators were expected to hold back an answer until they had discussed it. The union contended the railroad should retrain clerks displaced by machines. Southern Pacific said the plan would retard technical advance and create unnecessary jobs.

It was unlikely a strike would take place over featherbedding. It was believed Kennedy would step in with an emergency factfinding board to head off a strike for at least 90 days. Observers felt the White House probably would try to force arbitration in the dispute if the board's recommendations failed to satisfy both sides.

Further disregard for a teacher's instructions might make it necessary to eject the student from the classroom, said. The school head suggested use of "reasonable force for the purpose of propelling a pupil in a desired direction."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — City School Supt. Carl F. Hansen believes an "open hand, foot ruler or light weight paddle" is the answer to unruly students in the nation's schools. The union contended
