There was a time when critics of society took pleasure in attacking the middle class as the repository of puritanical virtues, the fountainhead of anti-intellectualism, the fortress of parochialism and prejudice. Protagonists in novels of the '20s and '30s were invariably refugees from the Dullsville of their middle-class backgrounds who sought "meaning" in the Bohemian atmosphere of Paris or Greenwich Village.

The French had a word—bourgeois The French had a word—bourgeois—for all that the middle class represented. Americans coined a new one—Babbittism—from the name of the non-hero of Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street."

But nobody knocks the middle class much any more. Perhaps it is because recent history has proved that it is the absence of a staunch, flourishing middle class in so many newly estabmiddle class in so many newly estab-lished nations around the world that accounts for their unrest and instabil-

The idea? Buy tes direct from the Orient by the clipper shipload.

Eliminate expensive in-between costs. Sell directly to the public, at great savings ... a small profit.

1859...that's when our ship came in. That was the beginning. That's when our founder showed he cared about people.

Today, in keeping with that proud heritage, A&P is still dedicated to bringing the most good food, to the most people for the least amount of money.

Today, more than a century later, we can honestly say, "WE CARE...about you."

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
