MIAMI, Fla. — Pineapples are making an "o-ner" comeback in Florida. Once a profitable industry in these parts, the growing of pineapples completely disappeared until S. K. Ferry, a man with an idea and an armload of blueprints, set up shop in North Miami. Ferry's project, which he calls the Miami Pineapple Plantation steaded property amounted to $2,966,080; homestead property, $2,777,160 and only $311,500 on all vacant property, making a grand total of $5,994,740, which includes $95,000 for improvements made to property during previous years.

Monday evening, the Commission authorized Mr. Sayer to advertise for bids for construction of a concrete tennis court on City owned land on the south-east corner of French Avenue and Ninth Street. It was announced that the Sanford Tennis Club had put the decision for the tennis court location in the hands of the Commissioners. The contemplated Eighth Street and Park Avenue location was rejected on the grounds that trees would have to be removed, and also the court might have to be dug up for future repairs to sewers running underneath.

Police Chief Roy G. Williams presented a letter from W. A. Leffler, manager of Chas and Company, proposing that as a means of encouraging safe driving safety stickers be given to persons with good driving records.

as members of a "Safety Drivers' League." He also proposed that stickers be removed from cars of drivers guilty of traffic violation or involved in accidents due to careless driving. The matter was taken under advisement by the Commission.

Sidney Hillman, PAC Chairman, Dies Today

59-Year Old Labor Leader Is Victim Of Heart Ailment, Physician Reports

POINT LOOKOUT, July 10, (AP)—The national chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee, Sidney Hillman, died today. The veteran labor leader was 59.

Death occurred at 8:40 A. M. (E.D.T.) at the Hillman summer home in Point Lookout. Dr. John Cahill said that death was caused by a heart condition.

Nassau County police said that Dr. Cahill had telephoned a request for a supply of oxygen after Hillman had been found unconscious in bed by his wife.

Two patrolmen rushed an oxygen tent to the Hillman home but the labor leader died shortly after they arrived.

Hillman was president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America and vice-president of the CIO.

The labor leader was born in Zagare, Lithuania, and came to the United States in 1907. He went to work as a cutter in the garment industry.

Hillman became interested in the labor movement and his activity as a leader throughout the years caused him to be regarded by workers and management alike as one of the most powerful, competent and brilliant figures in the labor movement.

In 1914 as a member of the United Garment Workers Union, Hillman led the revolt against the leadership of Thomas Ricketts and formed the amalgamated union. He won a liberal agreement for the new union with a Chicago men's clothing manufacturer.

The publicity director for the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, Richard Robinson, said that a successor to Hillman as CIO Political Action chairman will likely be chosen by the executive council next week. PAC now has three vice-chairmen. They are Tilford Dudley, Thomas Burns and Jack Kroff.

National Guard Recruiting Will Begin On Aug. 1

TAMPA, July 10, (AP)—Active recruiting for Florida's reactivated National Guard, which probably will include two infantry regiments, two field artillery battalions and anti-aircraft and coast artillery units, will begin about August 1, Col. Homer W. Hesterly, Tampa member of the National Guard Advisory Board for Florida, said yesterday.

By September 1 the reactivated units should be mustered into the Federal service, Colonel Hesterly said.

The advisory board, convened by Adj. Gen. Vivian Collins at St. Augustine, made the following recommendations to Governor Caldwell, Colonel Hesterly reported:

1. That the 24th Infantry regiment be assigned to Jacksonville and West Florida.
2. That the 31st Infantry Regiment be assigned to South Florida counties.
3. That the 11th Field Artillery Battalion be reactivated with headquarters in Tampa, as before the war.
4. That the 14th Field Artillery Battalion be assigned to various towns in Polk County.
5. That units of two anti-aircraft battalions and of a coast artillery battalion be scattered throughout the State, as may be desired later.

Tampa, Orlando, St. Petersburg, Jacksonville and Tallahassee were considered as possible headquarters for a reserve air squadron, but the final decision was left to the Governor.

State headquarters will remain in St. Augustine.

In general, units will be located in the same places as before the war, Colonel Hesterly said, but there is the personal matter of nearly twice as many units as before, there will be need for many new units.

Florida will work closely with Georgia and South Carolina in setting up the National Guard system as the three states are dividing two divisions among them, he reported.

Kettles Expects Good Football Team This Fall

Coach Tells Kiwanis That Feds Should Quit Slump Soon

A resident of Winter Park today told Kiwanis that the Semole High School (Celebrity Foot) football team will have a good season, "with enough experienced players to give opposing teams a good tussle." This Winter Park-er also predicted that the Sanford baseball team would (before August) come out of its present slump that has resulted in only four runs in as many games. The speaker was C. F. Kettles, star pitcher of the Sanford team, and during the school term, coach for the Celebrity Feds.

"Everybody has a bad day at slumps," said Kettles, "and so does every team. The boys have only scored four runs

Senate Okeys River And Harbors Bill

WASHINGTON, July 10, (AP)—The Senate approved by a voice vote today a conference report on the $1,000,000 Rivers and Harbors Bill. The measure now goes to the White House.

The measure received final Congressional okay after Senate and House conferees had reduced a $150,000,000 authorization for the Arkansas River to $55,000,000. Meanwhile, another $1,000,000 bill authorizing flood control projects has moved nearer final Congressional approval. A conference committee already has agreed on several projects added by the senate.

25 Servicemen Die In Crash Of Fortress

Rescue Forces Find Grim Remnants Of New England's Worst Air Tragedy

HOLYOKE, Mass., July 10, (AP)—Death in blasting plane has put an end to the homeward bound journey of 25 Army, Navy and Coast Guard servicemen—the entire crew and passenger load of a converted flying fortress that smashed against a 1200-foot granite cliff near Holyoke, Mass., last night.

In the theory mist of daybreak today Army rescue forces, and the grim remnants of the tragedy, scattered plane wreckage with mangled engine coverings and mangled parts of fuselage, saving off an intense heat from the tree that devoured the B-17 when it exploded and still blazing trees that caught the flames along the 400 foot path the ship plowed up as it tore into the dense woods. Pile of mementos—typical GI mementos of a happy homecoming—lay scattered on the charred ground: snapshots of families, a gold wrist watch glittering in the ashes with its hands stopped at 10:20—the approximate time of the crash.

Just what caused the grim accident is not yet known. Army officers at nearby Westover Field where the plane was to have landed on it, from Newfound Lake, said that the pilot may have been mistaking the terrain and failed to observe Mount Tom until it was too late. The Mountain rose abruptly and above the Connecticut valley. A light rain, a haze and a black night probably made it all the more difficult for the Tenants before the crash. The bomber, a converted Westover Field, that everything was fine and nothing was heard from it until the Army received word of the crash. The huge plane exploded in a flash of fire and smoke. The second time they started out for the falling rain averted a forest fire. Salvage crews are laboring to extricate all of the bodies in the ship. The names of the victims, New England's worst air disaster, are being withheld pending certification of kin.

Tenants Question Wolcott About Rent Increases

About six telephone calls, announcing an increase in home rentals, together with questions of what to do about it, have been received by H. W. Wolcott, area rent representative of the OPA at the Army, since then.

Mr. Wolcott said today that he had told the tenants, whose rent increases averaged about 30 percent, that he could do nothing about it unless the OPA was reactivated. He is keeping his office open, however, and giving the public information, but issuing no orders, he added.

Should OPA rentals be restored, rents would be retroactive to rentals charged on July 1, 1943, which constitute a total cost of 100 percent. The rents would be set upon a comparable basis, he declared.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that rents on some 20 nearby homes were doubled by the owner, who raised the rents from $8 to $16 a month.

Asked whether landlords who raise rents would have to refund the increase in event of the return of the OPA ceilings, Mr. Wolcott said he was not prepared to answer that. He pointed out, however, that in large cities there is often demand on the part of tenants that ceilings on rent be restored.

Telephone Recorder Back In News As Result Of War Profits Investigation

WASHINGTON, July 10, (AP)—The telephone conversation recorder is back in the news as a result of the Senate war profits investigation. It seems the committee received quite a bit of the evidence from recordings of telephone conversations.

Now, the question everyone is asking is what is the status of these recorders in the light of official regulations? No one in Washington can say for sure today.

Six months ago, the Federal Communications Commission held a hearing on this subject—but it still hasn't given any verdict.

Telephone companies led the opposition to the gadget. They expressed doubts whether they were legal, noting that certain regulations forbid the use of any device on a telephone unless it is approved and installed by the phone company.

And the ethics of the whole business had the telephone companies worried, too. They said they wanted to keep the same informal spirit that prevails in face-to-face conversations.

For all this, the recording company officers had a dignified snort. They said the device was purely a labor-saving mechanism that insures accuracy. Ethics, they said, played no more part in this than they did in any telephone conversation.

At the time of the hearing, 19,000 sets selling at from $480.00 to $900.00 had been sold.

In view of some of the complaints, this may surprise you: But congressmen are listed among the good customers for the device. A company spokesman says a majority of the Senators have telephoned recorders and a good many representatives, as well.

More Products Prohibited From Price Regulation

WASHINGTON, July 10, (AP)—The Senate has voted to forbid price controls on milk and dairy products. The vote was 51 to 27.

The Senate voted 42 to 34 today to prohibit price regulations on cottonseed and soy beans and their products in any revival of OPA. These amendments to the new OPA extension bill came after a plea from Senator majority leader Alben Barkley to stop loading the bill with amendments. The bill would make it inadvisable to cottonseed and soy beans price controls. The latest bill would prohibit the Senate from before an amendment to disallow price of dairy products. The committee already has voted the removal and poultry from price regulation.

County Commission Will Meet As Tax Equalization Board

BIRMINGHAM, July 10, (AP)—Admiral W. H. P. Blandy says that one million tons of water will be blown into the air by the underwater atomic bomb. A column of water nearly one-half mile in diameter and 8000 to 10000 feet high.

The task force commander says that ships in the area of the high water column will get an awful working time and that there will be a lot of damage.

Admiral Blandy says that the bomb will be thrown at the sea but that the waves will be so high that they will reach the shore of Bikini Island. Blandy says that some ships may be captured by the waves.

Scientists estimate that when the underwater atomic bomb explodes, a water column will rise to a height of 8000 to 10000 feet. The water will be so high that it will be impossible to see the surface of the water. The water will be so high that it will be impossible to see the surface of the water. 400 Members Of Seafarers Union Form Picket Lines About Staten Island Biers

NEW YORK, July 10, (AP)—AF of L seamen have begun to picket CIO-manned ships in New York in a move which may spread to all Atlantic and Gulf ports. More than 400 members of the Seafarers' International Union have thrown picket lines around two Staten Island ports. According to Paul Hall, chairman of the Union's Maritime Council of Greater New York, the picketing is an answer to so-called CIO raids on AF of L Maritime unions along the Pacific coast.

Hall described the picket lines as "a warning to Harry Hedges and the Communist-dominated CIO committee for maritime unity to the seafarers of the world." Then he added: "If it is not so, we will be on the picket line in every port in the world."

Gen. Devers Calls For More Training Of Officer Cadets

WASHINGTON, July 10, (AP)—The Chief of the Army Ground Force, General L. H. Devers, has ordered more and tougher training for officer candidates.

Devers' order, issued at Fort Benning, Ga., says that all officer candidates must undergo 21 weeks of training at Fort Benning, Ga., before being sent to the front. Devers says that the present 18-week training is not enough and that the extra three weeks will be required by the first of next year.

After evaluation of the successful men will undergo two additional months' training at one of 14 special training schools. The classes of 200 men each will start training at Fort Benning every two months from quotas allotted each school and service.

CANADIAN SEATED
NEW YORK, July 10, (AP)—The Soviet delegate to the United Nations Security Council, Andrei Gromyko, met another rebuff when he invoked the veto for the sixth time in council history.

Gromyko tried to prevent Canada's representative from participating in council discussions on atomic energy questions. However, the council chairman, Dr. Francisco Castillo Mijang of Mexico, ruled Gromyko out of order, and the Canadian, General A. G. L. McNaughton, was seated.

The Russian delegate said he reserved his right to raise the question again.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

IT IS NECESSARY TO RE-STRAIN MAD MEN AND NA-TIONS, AND TO KEEP THEM UN-DER RESTRAINT: Fight for your brethren, your sons and daughters, your wives and your homes.—Neh. 4:14.

Nine new cases of polio were reported in Miami during the first week of July making a total of 57 for the year.

We suppose the meanest man in the world is the one who robs the collection plate in church.
But then there is the fellow who steals money from a public library.

The City has finally authorized construction of a tennis court at Ninth Street and French Avenue. It now remains to be seen whether there is any labor, or cement, to build it with.

A group of Army wives arrived in New York from Los Angeles the other day. There were 28 of them, all war widows, and they spoke eight different languages.
Married life holds many new complications for them.

We suppose there is a moral to be found in that story about the 64-year old Miami man who married the 23-year old brunette, but it must be spelled with an "u" on the end of it and they both must have had a lot of it.

We suppose it would be a nice thing to lend Britain that four billion dollars with which to buy up America's dwindling supply of commodities, but we sure hope they don't get into the butter market with it.

Jurisdictional Dispute Garage owner: "Fourteen dollars? That's outrageous. . . I wouldn't pay Michigan to paint my garage at that price!" Painter (truculently): "Listen, if he does the job for any less, we'll picket the place!" — The Woman.

Senators trying to agree on are they trying to disagree?—on the new price control bill are having as much trouble as they used to when considering tariffs.
Everybody wanted low tariffs except on the things which competed with him. And now everybody wants price control except on the things he has to sell. As a consequence there is more lobbying, more log-rolling, and more downright favoritism than if the government had never entered the field of prices at all.

What does the Federal government think of Florida's antiquated prison system. Well, "it's a ves-tigial appendage of a bygone era," writes James Bennett, director of the United States Bureau of Prisons. After an exhaustive study of Florida's prison system, he told Governor Caldwell its road camp swat boxes are "relics of an archaic correctional system," and he advocated many early reforms before "some incident forces massive measures." Florida, which is so advanced in some lines, is dangerously remiss in others.

The price of milk has gone up four cents a quart in Sanford and no doubt some people will squawk. "That just goes to show what happens when the government removes its controls," they will say. "The producers just goose hell out of you" targeting that the taxpayers, and that means you, brother, have been paying four cents on every quart of milk you bought. Let them that drinks it, pay for it, we always say. If you want to know why your taxes are high, that's one reason.

Speaking of the CIO's attempt to use the church and religious sentiment as a means of organizing workers in the South, John Tennant Graves writes in the Times-Union, "there is Communism and near-Communism in the CIO as a national and international organization, and for so professionally Godless a thing as Communism to be approaching people in God's name is, to my mind, a piece of cold hypocrisy that is damnable indeed." The only thing more damnable than for the CIO to use the church is for some ministers of the church to hire themselves out on one side of this political-economic controversy.

Price Lines

First results of the end of OPA indicated that the worst fears of crazily soaring prices would not be realized. Straight across the country there appears to be concerted effort on the part of merchants to hold the price structure as steady as possible, and not take undue personal advantage of the situation.

Smart businessmen who have spent years building up good will among customers do not want a reputation for getting radically out of line by charging too much now. They are working together in retailers' organizations to slow down the inevitable rise in prices.

The true test, of course, will come not now, while merchants are selling out stock already on hand, but later, when they must add their legitimate profit to the cost of new goods which will come to them at a higher price from producers. That's when the public will feel the big difference.

Only in exceptional cases did the end of price ceilings really raise the roof. That is a good indication of widespread attempt to restrain inflation.

Professors In Office

Georges Bidault, France's new president, is a former history professor. "Why not get somebody practical, like a business man?" some persons may cry, but the French know that on occasion a business man may be wildly impractical, like Neville Chamberlain, who almost destroyed Great Britain.

At least two other countries have had satisfactory experience with history professors. Woodrow Wilson ruled the United States for eight years, and interpreted the problem of future peace far more truly than many who sneered at him as a dreamer. And Romania's eminent citizen, Nicolae Iorga, was the head of his country's history teaching profession, and so esteemed that he became premier. The best testimonial to his ability in this post is the fact that the Nazis considered him a dangerous enemy and had him murdered by their sympathizers in Romania.

After all, why should not a history professor be a good head of a government? From his knowledge of the past he should be able to diagnose problems as they loom up, and know what remedies have formerly proved helpful. This kind of knowledge may more than compensate for lack of political experience.

Three In A Bed

The very dumb starlet was browsing around the Los Angeles antique shop. She spied an ornate bed that struck her fancy immediately.

"What a charmingly quaint bed!" she gushed.
The salesman nodded reverently. "This bed has an amazing historical background," he said softly. "In this very bed, my dear young lady, slept King Louis XIV, King Louis XV, and King Louis XVI."

The starlet raised what was left of a tweezed eyebrow. "Ain't that odd?" she chirped. "You'd figure that big shots like that could afford to sleep in separate beds!"—Detroit Times.

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

WHO CAN remember when Washington was concerned about keeping prices UP?
Neatest trick of the inflation era is seeing the blueprint designed through the $1.50 luncheon.
Pennies, nickels and dimes have become excess baggage.
What this country needs is a good 10¢-cent piece.
Money is secondary to everyone these days. Even John L.
Lewis finds he's better off bargaining for his miners' health.

Very truly yours,
Claude Pepper

We have just passed in the Senate a bill establishing a National Science Foundation to aid research in national defense, in health, and many other fields. The frontiers of our country are fixed, but the frontiers of science, as yet, have recently proved by the atomic bomb and so many other discoveries, is almost unlimited. Among the great things provided in this bill is the hope of an education for many able boys and girls through scholarships who might not otherwise get an education. This will venable any poor boy or girl who show outstanding ability to get every educational advantage he or she can take. That is democracy.

We are still hoping to be able to get a large enough volunteer army with increased pay for both officers and men to avoid the necessity for continuation of the draft. The army leaders prefer a volunteer army. If we don't have to have the draft, boys can go on with their schooling without interruption. These years are precious to them and many who went ahead in the army of occupation for a year or more would never go back to school at all.

The President was right in vetoing the OPA Bill. I recommended it in the Senate when the bill was passed that he should veto it. With the Taft amendment it merely legalized enormous increase in the cost of living and inflation and we might just as well have no OPA at all as to have that law, as the President said. The President's courageous veto gave the Democratic party in Congress a chance to win the elections this fall from the Republicans, who have as a party history, fought effective legislation. Because, however, we do not have effective working legislation between the White House and the Congress and the Democratic National Committee, it looks as if their chance is going to be lost.

While most folks dislike even thinking about the NEXT legislature, which is still nine months or so away, the honorable cenare not only thinking about it, but they have their sights trained on the man to follow.

Although the NEXT legislature will not assemble until 1949 and elections will occur before that time to determine its member-will be candidates for Speakership of the 1949 assembly. They are Neil C. McMullen, youthful Hill-able legislators cited for outstanding public service by a secret poll of lawmakers conducted by Allen with the Right to Work Amendrewind the state's accounting

Builders—Not Drifters

Many men work hard but fail to get far ahead in life because they lack the training to qualify for better-paid, more responsible jobs and become "drifters."

Your son, one of Tomorrow's Builders, must be trained to make best use of his opportunities. Help his chances for success . . . lift him above the ranks of drifters . . . by investing a small sum each month in a Woodmen Educational Endowment or Success Builder life insurance certificate to provide funds for his college or vocational training.

Taking part in Boys of Woodcraft's fraternal and social

Sally Kate Williams Weds Dwight Shower

Miss Sally Kate Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Williams, Sr. of Safety Harbor, became the bride of Dwight Williams Shower, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Shower, Sr. also of Safety Harbor but formerly of this city, in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3:30 P. M.

The marriage was solemnized in the presence of the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. J. E. Lewis officiating before an improvised altar of palms and flowers with white gladioluses.

The bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" She chose a gown of ivory satin which featured a fitted bodice with tiny covered buttons back trimming. The long satin sleeves ended in points over the wrists. The high neck was of net and lace and the full gathered skirt was over satin. She wore a Juliette cap with a fringe, tiptail and her bridal bouquet of white carnations was tied with long white bridal streamers.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Jean Williams of Sanford, was the bride's only attendant while J. B. Shower, uncle of the bridegroom acted as best man. Miss Williams' dress of blue net over taffeta was fashioned with a fitted bodice and off-shoulder sleeves. She wore elbow length gloves and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern.

The bride's mother chose a dress of blue silk and a corsage of red roses with gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom selected an ensemble of grey print crepe and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The guests were ushered into the living room by C. Boyd Cooman of Sanford, brother-in-law of the bride. The bride's father, A. S. Williams, Jr. was in charge of musical arrangements.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Roses, gladioluses and fern were used as decorations. Mrs. D. W. Shower, Sr., mother of the bridegroom, Miss Marion Shower, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Blanchard and Mrs. Robert Wood served punch and cake. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. C. Boyd Cooman of Sanford, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Approximately 75 guests were present at the reception.

in the last four games. However, I see no tenacity in them and predict we'll snap out of it before August," he added with a grin.
Speaking of the Falls Coach Kettles said: "Football prospects are a bit indefinite, but I know we are going to have a good team and we have enough experienced players back to give somebody a battle."
He added that Willis Anderson would be in the backfield and there would be Clyde Huff, Holly Pierce and Clarence Grantham back in the line up. He commented on his surprise to see boys go away on their summer vacation weighing 140 pounds and come back weighing 160 and 180 pounds, but declared that it often happened this way.
Roy H. Browning of St. Louis and DeLeon Springs, who with Harry Robinson will take over airport facilities during the month at Sanford Naval Air Station when the Navy turns the airport over to the City, and who will train G.I.'s, was introduced to the Kiwanians.
Other visitors were D. Huchey of Daytona Beach, a post office inspector, W. H. Waterman of Winter Park and Dan Mitchell, of Chicago, son in law of Fred R. Wilson.
Martin Stinecpher led the singing with Harry Kudell at the piano. Mrs. M. D. Gatchel was caterer. The meeting was held at the Community House. President J. W. Hall conducted a board meeting following the regular session.

Florida U. Is Given Ocala Banner Papers

GAINESVILLE, July 10. (Special)—Copies of the Ocala Banner from 1875 down to the present have been presented to the University of Florida by the family of Col. Frank Harris, one of Florida's foremost journalists and for many years editor of the Banner.

Considered of great historical value, the 150 bound volumes of the banner cover the growth of central Florida and Ocala which has figured importantly in the history of the section during the 70-year period.

According to Julian C. Yonge, director of the Yonge Library, the file is complete with the exception of copies for several years, which were destroyed by fire in the Banner office some years ago. Recently, the file has been housed at the Ocala Public Library.

Florida newspaper files are a specialty of the Yonge Library, which now has either original or films of the majority of all Florida newspapers established prior to 1890 and still in existence.

Acquisition of the banner file brings to two the complete publication files of Florida newspapers received by the Yonge Library in recent months. Recently, the complete file of the Bradford County Telegraph were given the Library by Editor E. S. Matthews of the Telegraph.

Russian Tass Agency Flays Byrnes, Bevin

Says Officials Were One-Sided In Presenting Views On Germany To Council

MOSCOW, July 11. (AP)—The Russian Tass News Agency accused United States Secretary of State James Byrnes and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today of presenting a one-sided view on Germany to the Foreign Ministers' Council.

The Paris dispatch asserted Byrnes had failed to answer satisfactorily a Russian criticism of his treaty proposal for disarming Germany.

The Paris dispatch also gave Premier Bevin the credit of having defended Lieutenant General Lucian Clay for what he called "Protopopov's Agency" charges.

Clay's illegal activities in the German-occupied zone of Germany were reported by the Tass news agency.

WASHINGTON, July 11. (AP)—Senator James Mead today described the award of the Army-Navy "E" to an Illinois munition company as "intolerable."
