

HAZING AT UNIVERSITY WAS GREATLY EXAGGERATED PRESIDENT GLASS EXPLAINS

PUT SYRUP ON HEADS BUT DID NOT SHAVE THEM

ONLY HAIR CUT

GOOD NAME AND REPUTATION OF STATE SCHOOL IS SUSTAINED

The hazing stories that have been published about the mix-up at Gainesville have two sides according to students who are in attendance there and as usual there are always two sides to anything of this kind and since The Star has published one side only it is more than glad to give the rest of the affair. It appears that all that happened was the cutting of the hair from some of the boys' heads and through some informants who evidently lived at St. Augustine, Editor Felkel, of the Record printed information gained from them, which was resented by the freshman class. It is also stated by freshmen who have talked to The Star editor that the excitement of and they gave the "hazing" as an excuse for "flunking."

The statement of the freshman class president, appearing in the "terrible hazing" was put out by some students who left the school because they did not attend to their studies and fell down in their grades Florida Alligator, is as follows: St. Augustine Record, St. Augustine, Fla.:

In answer to an article which appeared in your paper on the front page of the issue of December 6, under the head: "Gainesville Hazing Gets Out of Control," the freshman class of the University of Florida declares it to be made up almost wholly of absolute falsehoods.

It is true that there has been some unpleasantness during the past week at the university, but to say that the trouble has gone beyond the control of the president and faculty is a ridiculous absurdity.

Let us take up each statement as it occurs in the article:

That Dr. Farr has sent away scores of students for protection in the absence of President Murphee is preposterous. As a matter of fact, four men have left the university since this unpleasantness started, one of whom has since returned. THESE MEN LEFT OF THEIR OWN ACCORD.

The statement that several sophomores were knocked unconscious by freshmen has no ground whatever and it is untrue, also that the freshmen have been beaten nearly every night since the opening of school, as was stated. We will admit that the freshmen have undergone some rattling in a mild manner, but only as is customary in all universities and colleges. We do not know where the writer of this article gleaned his information as to what a certain freshman said, but we are inclined to believe he is subject to pipe dreams. If there is any freshman with those thoughts we do not know of it.

This episode was started by several upper-classmen cutting the hair of a part of the members of the freshman class. These freshmen did not whip their "barbers," nor did the "barbers" hunt out those who escaped as was stated in your article.

As to the reported statement of an overseas man, we will reply that all of the overseas men in the freshman class have been interviewed and they declare that this statement is positively foolish and silly.

We want to emphasize the fact that the men's hair was merely cut and not shaved. Syrup was not used and "the most painful thing I ever went through" report, is laughable.

We wish that you would kindly give this statement as conspicuous a

SANFORD LETTUCE GOES UP

BUT NOT IN THE MARKET—ONLY IN THE AIR, BOYS

Sanford lettuce took a sudden rise Wednesday when Aviator George Wright, will Harry Fleetwood, took a crate of lettuce to Daytona via the airplane route and delivered the same to one of the hotels over there for their Christmas dinner.

The lettuce was of the new variety propagated by Albert Dornier on his Celery avenue place and known as the "Sugar Lump." It is something like the ordinary lettuce and something like Chinese cabbage but is much sweeter than either and the progenitor of the lettuce says it needs no sugar. It is very crisp, and has curly hair and looks very fine in packages. Mr. Dornier says that he will begin to ship ere long and that he has buyers galore for the new lettuce.

Aviator Wright and Mr. Fleetwood had a fine trip to the beach, making the trip in record time and having no mishaps; arriving home about 5:00 o'clock at Airport Field.

Mr. Fleetwood is the well-known proprietor of Fleetwood's place here and Lieut. George Wright is the darling little devil who is making so many sensations at the aviation field every Sunday and getting nothing for it. George should at least get a Christmas present from the people he has been entertaining and from the town he has been advertising for he is one of the best in the profession and while Sanford is rather surfeited on airplane stunts the fact remains that Lieutenant Wright has been advertising Sanford, his latest in carrying Sanford lettuce to Daytona, being one of them.

FIRST CAR OF SANFORD CELERY SHIPPED YES'DAY

D. C. MARLOWE BUYS FIRST CAR FROM DEN MONROE—FIRST FROM STATE

D. C. Marlowe shipped the first car of celery yesterday, the same being from the Celery avenue farm of Ben Monroe. The celery is probably the earliest golden self-blanching that has ever been shipped from this or any other section of Florida in car load lots. The celery is real good stuff and Mr. Marlowe says will bring a good price on the market even if it should fail to arrive by Christmas time.

It is understood that Mr. Monroe received a good price for this celery and has contracted for the entire field at a good figure which augurs well for the Sanford celery crop.

Several growers will have celery to ship next week and all of this is very early for celery of the golden kind. However, it appears that Mr. Monroe and Mr. Marlowe have won the prize this year for shipping the first car of celery from Sanford or the state.

BRIGHT, SNOWLESS DAY FOR CHRISTMAS IS THE PLAN EAST OF ROCKIES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Santa Claus, on his visits to the homes of American children tomorrow night will be compelled to resort almost completely to an airplane or, some similar new fangled conveyance for the weather bureau tonight forecast a snowless Christmas for almost the entire United States.

"Fair and cold," was the weather forecaster's prediction for almost the entire portion of the country accustomed in "the good old days" to a "white Christmas." The only snow of sufficient depth for the sleigh of the Christmas Saint, the bureau said, would be in Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, Northern New York, and Northern New England where snow fell early in the week and has not melted.

The Pacific coast was excepted from the forecast for fair weather, the charts and maps of the weather bureau showing that rain and generally unsettled weather might be expected west of the Rockies.

The South, where snow seldom appears a scarily as Christmas, if at all, will have weather slightly below the average for this time of year, the bureau said.

COMMITTEES FROM BOTH CITIES HAVE MEETING

TO GET TOGETHER

SANFORD AND ORLANDO TRADE BODIES HELD MEETING YESTERDAY

Sanford and Orlando will get together to work for better railroad transportation and better freight rates and the betterment of the two cities in many ways. The cordiale entente was established yesterday by the visit of a committee composed of President J. G. Ball of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce and D. C. Marlowe, chairman of the transportation committee, and John Meisch, R. J. Holly and J. C. Hutchison of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, to Orlando where they were met at the Orlando Board of Trade by Messrs. Donald Cheney and Secretary Cox of the Board of Trade, and Messrs. Moffitt and Ange of the transportation committee of the Board of Trade.

The Sanford party was the guest of Orlando at the Hotel Emping, where a nice luncheon was served and over the viands many matters of importance to the two cities were discussed. A movement will be inaugurated in a few days looking toward better service in the shipping of fruits and vegetables and better rates. It was the consensus of opinion that the railroads have been allowed to increase their rates and have received large sums from the government during the war and afterward to increase their facilities and the public was footing the bills but were not receiving the service that the high freight rate entailed. Also that the present high rates are prohibitive in the face of the present low markets for fruits and vegetables and unless relief was obtained there would be no fruits or vegetables shipped at a profit during the remainder of the season.

The Orlando committee treated Sanford's delegation royally, which is a trait of the Orlando people and the meeting also brought out the idea that a few meetings between the two trade bodies would bring about a more cordial spirit between the two cities and Sanford Chamber of Commerce will probably have the Orlando Board of Trade up here for a big time after the first of the year as there are many matters of importance that the two cities can get together on to the mutual advantage of both.

LOTUS HAS PLACE IN LEGEND

According to Mythology the Name Was Given to Flower by the Goddess Hebe.

The mysterious Egyptian lotus has been more identified with the world's history than any other flower.

The phrase "lotus eaters" is a common one in literature, and is used to describe those who live in a dream world. The food made from the dried seeds of the Egyptian variety seems to have had an effect similar to various opium products, and once in the clutches of the drug the lotus eaters forgot both past and family, and went about, oblivious of demands made by society, kin or even their own physical wants.

The lotus is closely identified with the ancient Egyptian religion, and was dedicated to Osiris, an Egyptian thinking of approaching a temple without three of the blossoms in his hand.

The name was given it, according to mythology, when a beautiful nymph of the same name, heartbroken over the coldness of Hercules, went to Hebe for sympathy, and by her was transformed into a flower.

The sturdy hero taking snip shortly afterward with Hylas, a youth he loved as his own son, came to an island where the latter landed and searched for a spring. He found one in the center of a pool, the pool being covered with beautiful blossoms. As Hylas stared at them, Lotus, in her nymph form, emerged from the blossom and drew him to her arms, and then to the depths of the pool, where he drowned.

NEVER GAVE UP A PROSPECT

Salesman Would Wait but He Had No Idea of Losing Sight of a Possibility.

Some years ago I went into a store to inquire the price of something, an expensive thing this was, that I wanted to buy some day when I had the price, says a writer in the New York Herald. They were just as nice to me as they would have been if I had come in ready to buy and plank down the cash.

Then for the time being I forgot all about it, but they didn't. About a year after my visit to the store the salesman I had seen there came in to see me. He was a very agreeable gentleman and in no way insistent; he had just looked in on the chance that now I was ready to buy; but my bank account hadn't looked up to any great extent and I was not ready, as I told him; but I added that when I was ready I would come in, and I would come to him.

That, I thought, ended it as far as hearing from them was concerned; but not so. A year later I had another call from the salesman, my friend, if he will now permit me so to call him, on the same errand; a pleasant call and a pleasant little talk, but with the same result as before; and now, a year to a day after that second call, he has been in to see me again. We had our usual pleasant little talk, and then I asked him:

"Don't you ever give up a prospect?" To which he answered, smilingly: "We never give up a prospect till he dies."

Imprisoned in Coffins.

The most terrible prison in the world is in Urga, Mongolia. It consists of a triple stockade enclosing a number of underground dungeons which are pitch dark and almost devoid of ventilation. But this is not all. The wretched prisoners condemned to inhabit them are shut up separately in heavy, iron-clamped chests, in shape resembling coffins. There is a small hole in the side of each, just big enough for the poor wretch inside to thrust out his head or his manacled hands. They see daylight for but a few minutes daily, when their food is thrust into their box-prisons through the hole. They can not lie down flat, they can not sit, for they are not only manacled but chained to the coffins. The majority are in for life sentences, and no prisoner is ever allowed out of his box under any circumstances, except when he is to be executed or, as happens very rarely—to be set free.

IDEA WOULD PLEASE DICKENS

First Free Children's Library in England to Be Opened in Old Home of Novelist.

There is to be opened soon the first free library for children in England in a building in which that lover of children, Charles Dickens, spent several eventful years of his own childhood. It is an idea so appropriate and fitting that all supporters of the scheme must wish for its success, remarks the Christian Science Monitor. The house in question is 83 Johnson street, Somers town, and the Dickens family lived here after they left Chatham, being tenants of the house for five years. From this house Dickens, the father, was taken to the Debtors' prison, the Marshalsea, an incident which afterward supplied his son with "copy" for two of his most famous books, "The Pickwick Papers" and "Little Dorrit."

Dickens is a striking example of how much can be accomplished by a case of real genius under adverse conditions, and it is he himself in "David Copperfield," who tells us what help and enlightenment he got in his wretched surroundings from the few books which made up his father's tiny library. Though small, that library was a rich treasure trove to a clever child. Don Quixote and Gil Blas—each of these masterpieces is composed of many stories—and from Fielding, Smollett, Goldsmith and De-foe, Dickens must have learned the music of words, and the grace and dignity of a tale of life well told.

If his old house now becomes the home of a free library for children who, like him, may have a chance to forget the hard facts of their lives in the works of great authors, everyone who has the welfare of children at heart, must rejoice.

GAS TO FOIL BANK ROBBERS

Contrivance Threatens to Make Trouble for That Particular Class of Society's Enemies.

Bank robbers who make a specialty of attacking vaults with explosives will do well to beware of a contrivance newly patented by Richard O. Roessel of Harrisburg, Pa.

He proposes to provide a chemical defense for banks in the shape of an arrangement of glass tubes forming a sort of poison-gas battery. It may be made part of the gate inside a vault, or may have any other structural relation to the vaults that is deemed desirable. It may even be portable, so as to be placed in position at night, and removable in the daytime.

The tubes are designed to contain benzyl iodid, tear-gas stuff, or any other suitable chemical which, when it expands, is calculated to asphyxiate the robber or at least put him to flight. Bulbous expansions of the tubes furnish containers for the deadly material.

The robber has only to start something by setting off a charge of explosives. The concussion breaks the tubes; out flows the lethal chemical, and the business of burglary interests the nocturnal bandit no more for that occasion.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Beat Them to it.

An Irvington man planted several hills of bantam sweet corn in an isolated part of his garden to grow seed for next year. He remarked to a neighbor woman about the time that "the blackbirds and sparrows had not succeeded in finding his seed corn this year." The second morning after making this remark he found about forty blackbirds, near sunup, busily devouring his corn. He "shooed" them away and that evening pulled all the ears and put them away for safe keeping. The next morning he looked out to see whether any blackbirds were on hand. Sure enough an immense flock was sitting on the ground at the base of the now barren stalks looking at each other and around. The puzzled look on their "countenances," he says, was ludicrous in the extreme.—Indianapolis News.

packing and shipment of citrus fruits and other agricultural products. He stated that they must secure a site and commence the erection of a plant to house this machinery around the first of the year, and Orlando had been selected in the center of the citrus industry of the state as the logical location for their new plant. But one thing stood in their way, an adjustment of the freight rates of the state that would make it possible for his concern to operate without being forced to pay a double and triple charge in the receiving of raw material from Ohio and Indiana through Jacksonville and the marketing of their product within the state.

"Mr. Van den Boom cited instances of the unfairness of the present freight rates, which seemed to favor Jacksonville to the detriment of other shipping points in the state. He pointed out that the present rates charged made it possible to ship raw material from Noblesville to Jacksonville at a charge of only 20 cents per hundred pounds in excess of a similar charge of a shipment from Jacksonville to Orlando. A shorter haul of 22 miles was cited as another illustration—that of from Winstom-Salem to Plant City, in which the charge was $1.42 per hundred, against the haul from Winstom-Salem to Tampa with a charge of $1.18. This is unfair and it seems that we must locate in Jacksonville to receive the advantage of the present rates, he said. However, he continued, even though we locate our factory in Jacksonville we will establish our main offices in Orlando, as it is the center of the local marketing of our product."

Now we can wish you a Merry Christmas.

And forget about your Christmas shopping or when you do it.

All we ask is that you do your shopping in Sanford from this time on.

And about the first of January begin to think about what you intend to buy next Christmas.

Orlando wants to join Sanford in getting better freight rates and better accommodations of all kinds and Sanford will meet Orlando half way on this and any other propositions for the upbuilding of both cities.

Again we want to tell our readers that there will be no Daily Herald issued tomorrow—Christmas—as this is our only holiday in all the year. We wish our readers one and all a Merry Christmas and all the blessings and pleasures it is possible for them to have.

And at the glad Christmas time always remember that maybe there is someone near you who is unable to have a Christmas and if you can do something to make them happy you will be twice blessed. There are some, no doubt, who will need your assistance and they should be searched out and made to feel that Christmas is in truth a day of rejoicing and gift giving and happiness throughout all the world.

OUR CHURCHES

In this issue is a special edition for the Baptist Church commemorating in a most fitting manner the opening of the new church building. It is safe to assert that Sanford has more fine church buildings than any other city of similar size in the state and all of us take great pride in the fact that Sanford is a city of churches—a church-going town—and we congratulate the Baptists today upon the completion of their church. While the editor is a Presbyterian he takes an equal interest in all the churches and is happy in their prosperity for upon our churches as well as our schools the future characters of our young citizenship is builded. We induced Dr. Hyman to come back to Sanford and finish the building of his church for it was a project only half finished when he left Sanford to take up his duties as chaplain in the army and in France it was that we had the first opportunity of telling him all the news of Sanford, the great progress being made, the wonderful prospects of a greater city and the message that he must end his furlough after the armistice and when he was mustered out to return to his work here. That he has returned and has completed his church is the special edition of this paper a real proof. That one of the finest church buildings and store houses of efficiency is the result is proven by an inspection. That Dr. Hyman is known and beloved by all people of all creeds is shown in the manner in which they have responded to his special edition in advertising and in many other ways. And at the gladsome Christmas time The Herald wishes to join the J.P. SAYS: Long before the plant, equipment and facilities could be used in the manufacture of ice, electricity, etc., the raw material had to be mined and quarried from the bowels of the earth and by skillful process of smelting metal-urgy and chemical analysis, the raw material is properly converted into molten metal and cast or transformed in designed form and shapes of different sizes to be ultimately finished, assembled and erected in a profit producing equipment. The equipment could never have been built without labor of men and finance and it cannot become revenue producing until it has been placed into operation in the service of mankind. This also requires labor of man and finances. The ice and electric service in Florida is in greater demand than any time in its history. It requires immediate extension of service and enlargement of equipments, and the SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY proposes to finance these demands for its service through the sale of its 8 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PRIOR PREFERRED STOCK. A mighty good investment in a mighty good company. This stock can be purchased for cash or installments. There is none better.

throng of church people in Sanford and the surrounding country in giving thanks to Him, who has allowed us to prosper in greater measure for building greater mansions in the skies. We wish them all a Merry Christmas and most prosperous year and many more in the future and to the Baptist and every church in the city we want to again emphasize the fact that The Herald is with you in every one of your projects and you have your regular space in The Herald to set forth the church news of your respective churches each week or daily if you wish. As ever we are your friends and hope that every church in the city may grow larger and stronger as the years go by.

LOOKING TWO YEARS AHEAD

Scarcely has Florida settled down after one biennial election until there comes rumblings of what will be in the next political campaign. However, this time it is a "humorous" feature, as the Scotch would say, which is injected.

Catts! Imagine it, can you? Catts running for the United States senate in 1922! Oh boy, what'll the people do to him?

Over in west Florida "Catts carried a county" last June. From over in West Florida comes this advice to him from one of the wisest and best papers, the old Gadsden County Times: "Don't you do it Sid! After the first of January you will drop into an obscurity so deep that you will never be heard of again in Florida politics. There's no 'come back' for you. You were put into a permanent political sleep when that Fletcher majority hit you last June and your following has shrunk to the vanishing point. A thoroughly exposed fakir can never do business with the same crowd again."

But Sidney Johnson Catts is a humorist himself. He knows he will never run again for anything political. He just wants to see if the state will jump and look around behind it if once more he lets out a loud and sudden p-s-t! It jumped a little and Sid chuckled. But Sid knows when he has got enough. He is no Bryan for punishment.—Tampa Tribune.

First Xmas Carol Found in the Roman Mass

CAROLS were originally accompanied with a dance, and this carol dancing is part of the rhythmic movement of the Oberammergau play, as well as of the dances of the Shakers of Lebanon in New York state.

The first Christmas carol in history is the "Gloria in Excelsis" found in the Roman mass, and in the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer. It is ascribed to Telesphorus, bishop of Rome, about the year A. D. 183, and is common in both the eastern and western churches.

An old English carol begins with the notable words:

Behold a simple, tender babe In freezing winter night, In homely manger trembling lies, Alas, a piteous sight.

The "higher critics" have wondered how the shepherds could watch their flocks by night, even in winter in Judea, but this presented no difficulty to Robert Southwell, the author of this quaint carol, who as a Jesuit was imprisoned in the Tower of London, and, after enduring the tortures of the rack, was executed in 1594.

A popular carol among the Germans is one written by Martin Luther for his little son Hans. It begins: From the highest heaven I come to tell The gladdest news which e'er befell.

A very sad story is told in connection with this carol. In order to give it realistic effect in a certain Lutheran church it used to be sung by a boy let down from the roof of the church dressed as an angel. But one day the rope broke, and the boy was killed. This put an end to a very beautiful but dangerous Christmas custom.

At a time when the liturgical and biblical plays were popular the Christmas carol was an important feature. In Italy in the time of St. Francis of Assisi, in order to instruct the people, the villagers came to the church carrying lighted torches, and there they saw the scene of the manger filled with hay, and the ox and ass standing in their places near the Virgin and Child. Then it was that St. Francis and his friars stood by the manger all night long, giving God thanks that by this means the hearts of the people had been touched.

"Rare old Ben Jonson," in the days of the "Good Queen Bess," wrote a carol which begins "I sing the Birth was born tonight." And about that time appeared a very popular carol which is sung in "Merrie England" even to the present day, the first line of which is "God rest you, merrie gentlemen." Some old Christmas carols have come down to us in half Latin and half English. Among them is a carol which appears in the collection for Grace church, New York city: When Christ was born of pure Marie in Bethlehem, that fair city, Angels sang with mirth and glee In Excelsis Gloria.

In this "Grace collection" there is a carol commencing "Over the world on Christmas morn," by Dr. Mackay Smith.

The uncouth carol of the sixteenth century has given place to the popular Christmas hymn of later days. Wherever the English language is spoken Charles Wesley's hymn, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" finds a place in the sanctuary. It is also translated into the languages of India, China and Japan. Its author was the brother of the founder of Methodism. He was a true poet and a perfect hymn writer. His masterpiece is the beautiful hymn "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," which was sung by the Princess Alice at the deathbed of the prince consort of England, the lamented husband of Queen Victoria.

"Come all ye faithful" is the "Adeste Fideles" of the Latin, and came originally from the pen of Aurelius Clemens Prudentius, a native of Spain, who flourished about the latter half of the fourth century. There is another hymn by the same Latin author which begins with "Of the Father's love begotten."

We have two well-born Christmas carols by American writers. "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was written by the popular Boston divine, Phillips Brooks. "Softly and Gently" was composed by Dr. Muhlenberg, the founder of the Church of the Holy Communion, St. Luke's hospital, and other charities in New York city.

"Angels from the Realms of Glory" is by the great hymn writer James Montgomery, who for thirty years edited a Sheffield newspaper in England. He is often confounded with Robert Montgomery, who was ridiculed and denounced by Macaulay. "Sing a Song This Blessed Morn" was written by Bishop Christopher Wordsworth, nephew of the great English poet and father of the present Bishop of Salisbury. Dr. Wordsworth was Master of Harrow, Canon of Westminster, and Bishop of Lincoln. "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night" is by Nahum Tate poet laureate, associated with the Tate and Brady version of the Psalms. He died when in prison for debt. The popular hymn "Christian Awake, Salute the Happy Morn," was written by John Byron, a Lancashire man, who was esteemed a good scholar and poet in his day. He was born in Manchester in 1691.

The two eminent sweet singers of the church, John Keble and Reginald Heber, bishop of Calcutta, have written Christmas hymns, but they lack those elements of popular song which constitute the Christmas carol. Keble sweetly sings:

Like circles widening 'round Upon a clear blue river, Orb after orb the wondrous sound Is echoed on forever, Glory to God on high, on earth and peace.

The lines of the gentle Heber have their lesson in these days of commercial unrest:

If gayly clothed and proudly fed, In dangerous wealth we dwell; Remind us of thy manger bed And lowly cottage cell.

FLORIDA WILL GET FULL SHARE OF WAR TROPHIES SHORTLY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The State of Florida will receive a large amount of war trophies and devices as a result of a distribution of such material that is about to be ordered by congress. The legislation is in the final stage of conference and it is expected will be completed in time for a distribution about Christmas.

The allotment for the various states already has been figured to a definite certainty on a very simple basis of apportionment. The trophies are to be divided among the various states in the proportion in which they severally furnished troops during the World War. Troops furnished to the regular army, national army, navy, national guard, marine corps, coast guard and the United States guard are all considered in establishing the basis of apportionment.

Under this plan Florida, which furnished .89 per cent of all the troops will get .89 per cent of the trophies. The following is a partial list of the trophies that will be sent to Florida: Seventy-five mm. guns, 4; 105 mm. guns, 4; 120 mm. guns, 1; 150 mm. guns, 4; 210 mm. guns, 1; 75 mm. trench mortars, 4; 170 mm. trench mortars, 1; 245 mm. trench mortars, 1; vehicles, 35; rifles, 621; machine guns, 89; bayonets and scabbards, 435.

SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK

Saturday—
Cotillon Club Dance at Valdez.

Dr. R. S. Keelor came last evening from New York to spend Christmas with his family.

Claude Howard leaves tonight to join Mrs. Howard in Jacksonville for Christmas.

Mrs. J. B. Ray has as her house guests, Mrs. W. E. Smith, of Ocala, and Mrs. Cater Lawton, of Oviedo.

EVERY-WEEK BRIDGE CLUB.
The Every-Week Bridge Club met with Mrs. W. J. Thigpen Thursday afternoon.

Two tables of bridge was played by the members of the Club and Mrs. Dumas and Mrs. Hazard, the two substitutes. The prize for high score—a box of powder—was won by Mrs. Forrest Lake.

At the conclusion of the game a salad course was served.

DANCE FOR MISS SARAH WIGHT

The dance last evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wight for Miss Sarah Wight at the Woman's Club, was a very beautiful one.

The Club rooms were most attractively decorated in Christmas greens and a real Christmas tree with fairy lights had the place of honor. The lights which were shaded by inverted Japanese umbrellas cast a glow over a scene made gay and beautiful by the many hued frocks of the young ladies.

The music, furnished by an Orlando orchestra, was very splendid.

The grand march formed about the middle of the evening was the occasion for giving favors of red, white and blue caps. Toy balloons and confetti added to the fun and gaiety.

Punch was served throughout the evening.

The guest list included all the College and younger set of Sanford.

The low down scurvy half-breed that swiped our log chain from the bridge where we were working does not need to bring it back, as we have another one, but if there is a hell for dogs, I hope he gets a seat in the front row with my compliments.—Lancaster (Wis.) Teller.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

The Christmas music at the Congregational Church will be as follows: At the morning service: Anthems, "Glory be to God," by Davis, Choir. Selected Solo, Mrs. Geo. Hoy. TAMPA INTERESTED IN PAPER PULP MILLS

Tampa's connection with the rapidly developing industry of manufacturing paper pulp from sawgrass was established last night when about twenty-five representative citizens assembled at Garcia's restaurant and during an informal dinner discussed with Gilbert Leach the actual status of the industry, how far the plans have been carried on and what plans are already made for future development. These plans contemplate the dotting of the sawgrass producing sections of South Florida with pulp mills, notably Fort Myers and Moore Haven, and all of the territory in which immediate development is contemplated is contiguous to Tampa.

Much has been written about this paper pulp industry, not only in Florida where the first benefits will be derived, but all over the North American continent, and it is pleasing to learn that the actual construction of the first mill at Leesburg is approximately 50 per cent complete. This means that actual manufacture of pulp will begin before spring, or at the latest, early in the spring.

As soon as the pulp manufacture is carried to the point of production that will make it desirable to establish a finished product will in the state, Tampa will be one of the competing points for this larger mill. The smallest pulp mill contemplated, producing a minimum of twenty-five tons daily, will employ about fifty men but the smallest finishing product mill, about fifty tons daily, will employ not less than three times that number of people. So far the points that have made overtures for this plant are Jacksonville and Tampa.

Contrary to the opinion of many who have discussed the probability of seeing this large paper mill for Tampa, it does not depend, according to the statements made by Mr. Leach last night, upon the sale of stock where it is to be built. The plan of financing the "parent corporation" which is the one now closing its organization, does not contemplate anything further in stock sales and no matter where the paper mill is placed, if present plans are carried out, not a dollar in stock will be sold. The money for this construction, estimated approximately at $350,000, will be available through resources of the parent corporation itself.

It will be well for Tampa not to neglect to keep in constant touch with this industry for the purpose of securing the finished product mill when the time is ripe. Meanwhile, Florida as a whole and the southern portion of the state in particular, are to be congratulated upon the seemingly very near completion of extremely ambitious plans for the paper pulp industry.—Tampa Tribune.

WEATHER REPORT

For Florida—Partly cloudy and cooler tonight. Probably frost in northern and central portion. Saturday fair.

Do it today.
Merry Christmas.

The very last day to do your Christmas shopping.

Miss Myrtice Palmer, head nurse of the Fernald Laughton Hospital, is spending Christmas with home folks in South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McBride of Somerset, Ky., and Mrs. R. R. Brown of De Cantu, Ala., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bell.

Leslie Hill came up yesterday from Orlando to attend the Wight dance at the Women's Club last night. Leslie is now local agent at Orlando for the Metropolitan Insurance Company.

Mr. Roper is now at the Valdez Hotel taking the position of night clerk. Mr. Roper came here from Augusta and is a gentleman of pleasing personality and will be a valuable addition to the Valdez force.

Miss Lucille Denton and Miss Vera Sutherland, graduates of Battle Creek Nurses' Training School, will spend the holidays with Dr. Denton and family. After the holidays they will practice their profession in Sanford until spring.

The Herald made a mistake in yesterday's account of the Million Dollar Band. The band will render their first two concerts, which will be tomorrow and Sunday afternoon, at the band stand in Central Park and not on the street as published in The Herald.

The public will please remember this and be governed accordingly. These concerts are free and no collections will be taken.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Hunt are glad to see them in Sanford again. They are now living in Albany, Ga. Rev. Hunt was the beloved pastor of the Presbyterian Church here for many years.

Judge J. D. Doggett, of Jacksonville, is in the city the guest of his uncle, Hon. F. P. Foster. Judge Doggett is both mechanically and shrewdly getting the Sanford Daily Herald as good as any of them and is a credit to Sanford.

MRS. WINNIFRED SHOULET DIES

Mrs. Winnifred Shoulet, age 60 years, wife of Henry Shoulet of West Side, died Wednesday night after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Shoulet is survived by her husband, two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. E. W. Keeley, Simpsonville, Ky.; Miss Sarah Lyons and Patrick Lyons, both of St. Croix, Ind.; Barney Lyons, Lake Monroe.

Deceased was a most estimable woman. Throughout her long illness of four years she bore her suffering with great patience and Christian fortitude. Mr. and Mrs. Shoulet were formerly of St. Louis, but came here a year ago in hopes of the climate benefiting Mrs. Shoulet's health. She gradually grew worse, however, her case baffling all the physicians.

Funeral services were conducted from the Catholic Church Thursday morning. The remains were taken to Henderson, Ky, her old home, for interment.

CHRISTMAS DISPLAYS ARE VERY PRETTY

SANFORD SHOW WINDOWS ARE THINGS OF BEAUTY AND ADD MUCH TO CITY'S APPEARANCE.

Sanford stores have been a thing of beauty this season as the merchants recognized the fact that Christmas shopping depended upon advertising in the paper and advertising by show windows.

Dressers, McLaulins, Woodruff & Watson, Bower & Roumillat all have special Christmas windows that are very pretty and attractive. Yowell's have the best windows for display in Sanford and are naturally expected to have something tasty. Their windows this year have two rooms, one for the gents with a snow scene on the outside of the room and inside the gentleman's hat, cane, gloves, overcoat, etc., all laid out on the chair ready to wear. The other window is for the kiddies and has the fire place with the stockings hanging up and toys, wagons, dolls, the entire window trimmed in holly and Christmas berries. Maybe you might think that a grocery cannot make a window display but Sanford groceries think differently and McCuller has two good windows filled with a most tempting display of fruits, candies, nuts, raisins, dates, fruit cakes, etc.

Perkins & Britt had the expert services of Kenneth Murrell in decorating and Kenneth is an artist in this line. They have two good windows that not only show the holiday spirit but the store spirit as well, being filled with all the many things that the haberdasher carries. One of them is given over to the chimney scene with the wood fire burning in the open grate and the stockings hanging up for the kiddies. The windows are decorated with holly and Christmas greenery and are very pretty.

Fleetwood, Brady's Jewelry Store, Turners and The City Market all have good show windows that are very neat and pretty and are attracting much attention.

Speer & Son have two very pretty windows showing all the delights for the feminine eyes and denoting the best of taste in window trimming.

Miller & Son, D. L. Thrasher, The Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., Hill Hardware Co., Ball Hardware Co., Mrs. Grace Williams, Benjamin, the French Shop and the Sanford Furniture Co., all have pretty windows especially made for the holiday season. Sanford avenue stores are right on the job also and are getting into the limelight with their nice looking stores and windows and fine stocks of goods.

Lack of space forbids a detailed description of the many very pretty windows in Sanford or the very pretty interior decorations. One could take up the entire paper with such descriptions and the Herald wishes to congratulate the Sanford merchants, one and all upon their up-to-date ideas in preparing good window displays, in advertising their wares and in making Sanford the trading center for this part of Florida. This is the kind of spirit that makes a commercial center and those that do not show it will eventually dry up and blow away. It is the advertising stunts that bring the buyers and all kinds of advertising are good—only some are better than others.

The Sanford merchants have had a fine Christmas trade and are feeling very jubilant over the prospects for a good spring season. They have the goods and the prices are coming down and the future looks bright at this joyous Christmas season.

will bring Sanford a Gift in the way of a Band. And Santa says we can keep it here for a whole week. He already sent the band here for our inspection and we liked it so well that he will send it to us again on Christmas Day. The Band will play the first concert in the City Park on Park avenue, Christmas afternoon at three o'clock. This band is the—

MILLION DOLLAR BAND

KU KLUX KLAN PARADES JACKSONVILLE STREETS

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 23.—Preceded by mounted heralds bearing the flaming cross, a bunch of the Ku Klux Klan of the Invisible Empire paraded through the streets of South Jacksonville last night. More than two hundred members, completely disguised by white high pointed caps and long white gowns and their masks were in the line of march.

The purpose of the parade was not announced. J. J. Simmons of Atlanta, imperial wizard of the clan, has said that the organization is a "patriotic, fraternal body, chartered as a memorial to the Klan active in the South, during the reconstruction period.

"White supremacy" is one of the aims of the present Klan, although Mr. Simmons declared lawlessness would not be tolerated, and that the Klan would aid constituted authority in sustaining the law.

The "Klan" recently paraded Jacksonville's down town streets. At dusk Klansmen, in owing white robes, their horses covered to the ground in the white insignia of the order, rode up the main street. One blew a trumpet sounding the weird notes of the Klansmen's assembly. Another announced as he rode along: "A band of solemn determined men will pass this way soon and they want no one to follow them." Then in a few moments a single file of probably two or three hundred of the white robed figures, some holding aloft burning crosses, appeared in the street and marched silently and slowly over the city, while the crowds looked on.

The Klansmen gathered among the trees of the city park as darkness fell. They stood there a few moments silently and in perfect order. Then suddenly every light in the business section snapped out and the city was dark for four or five minutes. The lights were turned on as mysteriously as they were turned off and it was seen that all the Klansmen had disappeared.

CHRISTMAS BELLS

The great yule logs are blazing high,
The halls with holly green are drest,
And blithesome maids and merry lads
Are gayly clad in all their best,
And have ye seen the fairest maid
That ere hath dwelt 'tween sea and sea?

And for my love and for my faith,
Think ye he'll bring a gift to me?
O, ring, ye joy-bells, gayly ring!
O, merry minstrels, harp and sing!
Fill every heart with Christmas cheer,
For Christmas comes but once a year.

The yule fire blazes warm and high,
On oakened rafters, blackened walls,
It shines upon the fairest maid,
As down she dances thro' the hall,
I ring my weary harp aside,
(And will she stoop to such as I?)
I haste to meet her underneath
The mystic branches hanging high.
O, ring, ye joy-bells, gayly ring!
O, merry minstrels, harp and sing!
O, fill my heart with Christmas cheer,
For Christmas comes but once a year.

Who hath so rare or fair a gift
As this my love hath brought to me?
For I was but a minstrel lad,
A dainty, high-born maid was she,
Tut with her lips her heart she gave,
Her heart, all pure as Christmas snow
And for her love and for her faith,
Fourth unto joust and war I'd go.
O, ring, ye joy-bells, gayly ring!
O, heart of mine, rejoice and sing,
For Christmas love and Christmas cheer
Shall bless our lives the whole round

WANT BOOZE ON SHIPS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—A delegation of leading New York ship operators headed by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, conferred today with acting commissioner of Internal Revenue Meyer regarding the effect of prohibition regulations on American shipping. The shipping men were understood to have sought modification of the regulations forbidding liquor on American ships outside the three mile limit. They took up the question of the seizure of ships in American ports for violation of the prohibition law.

IMPERSONATING FLYING ACE MAN GET IN TROUBLE

HOTEL MAN, ENDORSER OF $740 CHECK, SWEARS OUT WARRANT.

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 24.—A John Doe warrant was issued here Wednesday charging embezzlement against the man whose wedding at St. Augustine Monday gave rise to reports that Capt. Eddie Rickenbacher, American aviator, had been married there. A telegram from Captain Rickenbacher, who is on the Pacific coast, disclosed the error Wednesday night. The warrant was taken by Charles Day, a hotel proprietor.

Embezzlement of a sum of money from Mr. Day by "John Doe" alias Eddie Rickenbacher, is charged in the warrant. Mr. Day has offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the man.

"Rickenbacher" stopped at the hotel of which Day is proprietor which is in this city and is said to have secured $750 on a check endorsed by the hotel man.

The first intimation that "Rickenbacher" was not the internationally known aviator, was received here on Tuesday night in an Associated Press dispatch stating that Rickenbacher is on the Pacific coast. An investigation was started at once by the police with the result that a nation-wide search has been instituted.

Mrs. L. H. Hannan, Christian Science healer, of this city and New York, stated that she did not know "Rickenbacher" but that her daughter told her that she had known him "a long time."

Mrs. Hannan declared that she was dumfounded at the turn of affairs, and that she suspected a conspiracy of some kind but that she believed her daughter had done no wrong.

"I only saw my daughter's husband five minutes, just before they left Monday night and he was of an exceptionally pleasing personality," she said.

A salesman for a grass manufacturing company was a witness at the wedding. He said last night that "Rickenbacher" had secured $1,000 in cash, his watch, diamond ring and diamond stick pin. Farans, the salesman, who was closely questioned by the police, established his identity to their satisfaction and was released.

In every babe that gains the light
Through rack of human pain,
In each new-breathing soul tonight
The Christ-child lives again.
In every drop of anguish, pressed
From pallid woman's brow,
In every virgin mother-bread
His Mother whispers now.

And wise men through the darkness hie,
Lo! In the East—a Star!
O little Christ who is to die
Was your soul's journey far?
Strange meteor wounds of death

Lighting an endless sea;
A little child has come to earth
And He must die for me!

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The "Christmas Crime Wave" which has affected practically every large city in the country, is growing as the holidays approach, according to information gathered today by the United Press.

Despite police reinforcements in the shopping districts, establishment of a dorified curfew, arming of employes and other precautions, crooks continued to ply their trade in New York City. They were specializing in holdups, safe cracking and pocket picking with an occasional shooting. Other cities and towns in the metropolitan district were experiencing similar conditions, crimes in those communities increasing as they were invaded by crooks driven from here. In cities as distant as Buffalo and Albany known criminals were being met at trains and ordered to continue their enforced pilgrimage.

Chicago reported its "crime generally on the increase." Murders, holdups and burglaries were growing, although there was a decrease in payroll robberies. Police blamed unemployment.

In Cleveland more than 200 arrests had been made since the drive against crooks started six weeks ago, but there was no appreciable diminution in crime. Bootleggers and gamblers were among those rounded up. Nearly every large city in Ohio was conducting a similar drive, their arrests totaling another thousand.

The American Legion and other civilian organizations were planning to co-operate with the police in St. Louis to check the "Christmas crime wave." A change in the platoon system added 50 per cent to the effective strength of the police department. Holdups and robberies occur nightly and murders are frequent.

The Atlanta police, facing the worst situation in the city's history, asked for reinforcements and additional motor equipment. They were planning to arm detectives with shotguns.

Six murders have occurred in Memphis in the last six weeks. The city is also suffering from an epidemic of criminal assaults on women.

Boston police were preparing for increased criminal activity as Christmas approached. Nearly 50 suspects had been rounded up in a drive against crooks.

On the Pacific coast, civilians in many cities were co-operating with the police. San Francisco reported a big influx of undesirables from

Xmas Posy Party

"A Garden of Flowers"—an ideal scheme this for a fancy Christmas dress party. When the invitations are sent out each guest should be requested to come to "the Garden of Flowers" dressed to represent a flower. Whatever flower is chosen should be intimated to the hostess when accepting the invitation. For the supper table decoration for this party, in the center stand a large doll dressed as a rose—the queen of flowers. In her hands should be fastened as many garlands of baby ribbons or strings of small blossoms as there are guests. Attach little gifts at the other ends of the garlands appropriate to the costumes of the guests that are to receive them, such as brooches and scarfpins with flowers in baskets, baskets of sweets trimmed with flowers, or pretty cut glass bottles of perfume, decorated with blossoms. The ribbons or garlands should be arranged that each small guest finds a corresponding gift; thus, Violet's present is adorned with the flowers she represents, etc. The menus should be in the form of flowers or petals and the lamp or candle shades of rose colored silk.

the East, with robberies and hold-ups increasing. Sex crimes have been fewer, however, since prosecution of the Howard street vice gang of which the Santa Rosa lynchings were a noffshoot. A vigilance committee in Oakland was organized to protect women. In Tacoma, shotgun squads patrolled the streets at night. Police in Los Angeles began enforcement of a dormant curfew law, prohibiting children on the streets after 9:00 p. m., because of numerous criminal attacks on women and girls. Every person on the street after midnight was subjected to investigation. All women leaving their homes after dark were advised to obtain a police escort. Major crimes were decreasing but petty crimes increasing in Portland, Oregon.

Christmas Greetings! Good fortune attend you, good angels defend you, good thoughts possess you, is the hearty wish towards all this happy yuletide. That the greatest blessings shower you, prosperity follow you, peace and happiness unfold you throughout the joyous season.

The great Christmas spirit, with its glow and warmth, descended upon our school the week before the holidays. Happy faces grew brighter still, animation pervaded the atmosphere as the great holiday approached. Santa Claus in many and various expressions was much in evidence, also sketches of holly, mistletoe, bells, etc., were a pronounced feature. Then too, the graceful Christmas tree with its softly colored lights and pretty decorations was carefully drawn. All these suggestions were oozing between times, till Thursday when the mid-term examinations were over, restraint was lifted, exuberance soared, teachers and pupils were as one.

Then away to the woods where eager hands claimed an evergreen from 't Florida. Within the auditorium it was carried its massive proportions filling space from floor to ceiling, its wide-spreading arms extended in benediction over the happy, rollicking, merry children. Soon all was a gala scene. Big sprays of holly, mistletoe, Christmas posters, tinsels, bells, all were there. The Christmas tree, gay with decorations, the most of them fashioned by the hands of the children, fairly groaned beneath the weight of the many presents. One feature of the decorations that deserves special mention was the blackboard drawings: The First Christmas, Christ, the New Born King, and The Stable of Bethlehem, the latter being drawn by a little nine-year-old girl assisted by one of her classmates. So admirable was this that it received the approval of everyone.

At 7:00 o'clock the lights were switched on and soon the hum of voices denoted the fast-filling auditorium. The exercises were in keeping with the occasion and consisted of songs, recitations, instrumental music, etc., until the crowning feature when Old Santa Claus made his appearance and having hailed from the North Pole clear to the Land of Flowers, by way of company, Mrs. Santa Claus come too. Although ludicrous in the extreme in her far-north clothes, she having forgotten to change at Jacksonville, she was none the less welcome, and was altogether useful in the distribution of the many gifts to our boys and girls.

And so the happy hours sped away and the hearts of our children, and older people as well, were gladdened and made merry by the true Christmas spirit.

Miss Roberta Wynne entertained her friends with a birthday party. Games were enjoyed and delightful refreshments served. All had a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dorcas and daughter, Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Yaddy and son of Pennsylvania, left for Miami after a few weeks' visit to J. W. Miller.

Mrs. Emma Lake of Louisville is a guest of her son, Ben Lake and
