Illing to give."
Bishop Wing held the audience in rapt attention as he stressed clearly and interestingly the great principle of freedom and liberty ortunate we are in this country that our theory of government is far in advance of other countries of the world in opportunity.

He stated that likewise the Episcopal Church, holding the same theory within the Church's jurisdiction, allows freedom of thought and action; something more to be desired than regid afficiency; which, he said, stifles individual development. He also individual development: He also pointed out that this freedom and liberty carried with it its propor-tion of responsibility for right-equaness and spiritual progress-

When news is left out. the public is quick to condemn and slow to appreciate the mechanical difficult'es involved in printing so much news matter and so much advertising matter and having it all come out even in just so many pages. If we knew in advance exactly how many ads we would get and how many news stories would develop, the problem would has been continuously employed be simple, but these facts are always subject to the vagaries of life. Often we are faced with the situation where the acceptance of a six-inch ad or the development of a small story will mean the necessity of printing two extra pages ated in a short service at the Brickson Fueral Home at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon after which the remains were entrained for Jasper, Als. where fueral services or the alternative of leaving out some other news atory. The reading public can halp by turning their stories in early, and the be conducted and in advertiser can assist by retire his advertising in at the earliest possible moment.
