

Burnett Continues Lead In Local Bowling League

Burnett Painters continues in the lead of the Sanford City Bowling League by taking two games from Celery City Printing Co.

At the same time, New York Life Insurance also took two games from Bukar's Music Shop to remain only one game behind the leaders. In other league action, Mather of Sanford continued to move up by taking two games from Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners.

Burnett emerged the winner of two games out of three in the contest with Celery City Printers. Both teams seemed to do their best to give away the victories, as high game for the set was only 77. Printer Carl Van Buren with a 62, and Painter Dick Richards with a 47 led their respective teams.

New York Life, led by Jesse Cook's 52, bested Bukar's Music Shop two out of three times. Bukar, led by Fred Harrison at 125, couldn't apply the pressure at the right times.

Ed Wheeler bowled a nice 317 to lead Mather of Sanford to its twin victory over Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners. Ron Perry, of the Furnituremen, bowled an even 200 to take high single honors for the night. Hal Gilstrap led the Cleaningmen to their lone victory with a 401.

Only split-shinker for the night was Tom Brown, who made the 5-6-10.

Averages for the league are: Perry—166, DePalma—154, Richards and Von Herbitz at 143, Mather and Stemper at 162, Wheeler and Best—161, Kazee and Pasold—160, Cook and Steiler—153, and Bukar, Swann, and Steele at 137. Also Gilstrap—156, Krueger and Kenis—155, Bing, Ferguson, and Rugenstein at 134, Callan—133, Huhn—132, and Kirchhoff, Brown, Holler, and Pivec at 131. Also, Burnett, Pructor, and Herbst at 130, Extralge at 142, C. Fliezy—10, Howard and Harrison at 135, Perry at 129, and H. Sherry at 125.

Perfection Holds Lead In Sandspur

Tuesday night saw Perfection Dancers still in there fighting to retain the lead in the Sandspur League.

It split the four points with A. B. C. Garage Service, each taking two points.

Perfection now has a grand total pinfall of 17,905 pins for each game, an average of 596 for each game bowler. This team has a 134 pin handicap, has now won 20½ and lost 13½. Lucille Harris sparks this team with her 131 average.

Roumillat & Anderson Drugs regained the second slot, with 24 wins and 16 lost. It has a total of 17,800 actual pinfall, a 156 handicap and average 593 pins each game. Alberta Shaw is the high bowler with 130 average.

A. B. C. dropped back to third this week, with 22½ wins and 17½ losses. Having the highest total pinfall in the league with 18,322 pins, has a 141 handicap, and average 610 each game. Donna French is anchor on A. B. C. with a 129 average.

Robson Sporting Goods is still holding fourth place with 13 wins and 22 lost. It has a 16,665 total pinfall, 164 handicap and average game of 562 pins. Pat Foster leads Robson's with 127 average.

Wilson-Maler climbed into fifth place alone with 15 wins and 25 losses. It has the lowest handicap in the league with 149 pins, but second highest total pinfall, 18,063, which gives them an average 609 game for the season. Margie Woods rolls as anchor on the furniture team with a 145 average.

Wade's Market will gladly trade places with anyone and give up last place position. Seems they hit the other teams on their good nights, and even their 157 pins handicap cannot stop them. They have a total of 11,285 pins rolled, making them 316 pins for each game. Wade's has 14 wins and 26 losses. Dot Teslo is high bowler on this team with 126 average.

Alberta Shaw had high single game Tuesday with 168, and Olga Martin had the handicap game with 122. She also had high scores scratch, 69, and handicap 549. Splits were picked up by Frances Cross, 8-10, and Marilyn Bailey made the same difficult one.

A. B. C. rolled the highest team scratch score, 1,406, and Roumillat & Anderson backed up the highest team scratch game with 693 pins. This week sees Roumillat & Anderson rolling on alley one against Wilson-Maler, Robson's and A. B. C. on alleys three and four, and Perfection and Wade's will meet on lanes five and six.

Duffy Daugherty Hanged In Effigy

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Duffy Daugherty has joined football company. At 12:20 this morning, under a scoreboard in Spartan Stadium, the Michigan State football coach became the fourth Big Ten mentor to be hung in effigy this fall.

Daugherty's predecessors were Dennis Dauterban of Michigan, Murray Warmath of Minnesota, and Woody Hayes of Ohio State.

A placard hung around the neck of the dummy read: "Good-bye Duffy, being back Biggie."

The reference was to Spartan Athletic Director Biggie Munn who moved up to the administrative post since the 1954 season. Since then, Daugherty's clubs have won 29, lost 14 and tied 1 and won one Rose Bowl crown.

But the Irish elf of the Red Cedar River has fallen on hard times this year with the Spartans sliding to the Big Ten cellar at breakneck speed. State is in ninth place. The Spartans tied Michigan in their conference opener and then lost the last four Big Ten games including shutouts at the hands of Illinois and Indiana.

MSU, ranked high in the preseason polls, has by a team only Pittsburgh and California this year. Ironically, both the Panthers and Golden Bears are prime contenders for bowl berths.

Shuffleboard Meet

The Sanford Shuffleboard Club will play host to the Coronado Club Wednesday at 2 p. m. Also on the Sanford schedule is a meet Friday at 2 p. m. in Orange City.

Ballymoss Getting Plenty Of Backing For Tuesday Race

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—Ballymoss, undisputed champion of Europe, gained increasing support today for the $100,000 Washington, D.C. International with the possibility that the odds on the Irish colt will be hammered down to even money by post time Tuesday.

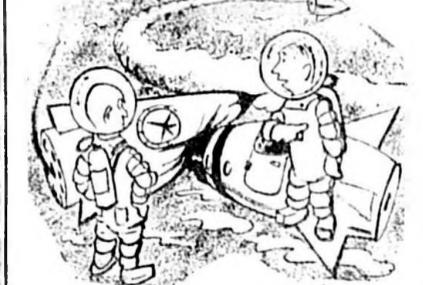

Ballymoss' reputation as a runner had preceded him to this country and now that he has been here, on the Irish for three days, racing fans agree that the few looking on may be disappointed to go with his impressive record.

Ten horses from seven nations will run in the race with Mrs. Alice F. Rand's colt, three-time champion of Royal Lodge and Mrs. Herbert Herz's Fido, Ex-En, Englishbred who has been racing in America for three years, defending the U.S.A.'s prestige in the mile and one-half race over a turf course.

Fast positions for the International, worth $100,000 to the winner will be drawn today.

Ireland and Russia each will have two horses in the turf-class race. Sharp also carries Ireland's seven-year-old colt and Zanzibar, the first steed from the Soviet ever to race in America, representing the USSR.

Sharp is owned by Carleton H. Palmer of New York and is destined to remain in America as is Silvio's Guide, Australia's hope.

Stretch-Runner Boros Wins Carling

By DAVID M. MOFFITT
United Press International
ATLANTA (UPI)—His fellow pros aren't kidding when they call Julius Boros "the best stretch runner in golf."

The popular Connecticut Yankee, now playing out of Mid Pines, N.C., turned in another strong finish Sunday to walk off with the big share of the purse in the $30,000 Carling Open tournament.

Boros sank a pair of birdies on the final two holes for a 2-over-par 74 and a 72-hole total of 284. That was good enough for a take home pay of $8,500—$1,500 first-place money and a $5,000 bonus for repeating in the Carling which he won previously in 1954.

Boros needed those two birdies. Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., two strokes behind after 34 holes, was only one back after Sunday's 16th hole. Casper also birdied the short par-3 17th but Boros ended the threat on the final hole by placing his approach shot within three feet of the pin, then sinking the putt.

The victory raised Boros' winnings for his year past the $35,000 mark and within $7,000 of pace-setting Arnold Palmer, Masters champion, who made only $510 in this tournament as he finished in strokes back at 24.

Boros was the leading money winner in 1952 ($37,000) and 1953 ($63,000).

Par golf was hard to come by Sunday over the rugged 7,004-yard Cherokee course. The recently-completed course is still in poor condition in spots and a gusty wind didn't help matters. Only 6 of 71 golfers were able to better par-72 in the first round. The best mark was a 4-under-par 68 by Tom Neipert of Bronxville, N.Y. Neipert, who failed to match par in his first three rounds, ended up at 292. Bill Collins, Baltimore, Md., and a 74-287 for third while Pete Cooper of Lakeland, Fla., who had a 70, and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., who had a 70, tied for fourth at 288.

County Citrus Worth Millions

Seminole County last year produced citrus at the rate of 123 bushels for every man, woman and child in the county. Citrus was a big business—$80 million worth.

It's a growing industry in Seminole County according to Cecil Tucker, county agricultural agent. Figures compiled by Tucker revealed that at least 300 more acres have been cleared for citrus production since the completion of the tree survey by the State Plant Board in 1957.

As an example of the growth of the citrus industry in this county, Tucker said reports made by the University of Florida Extension Service show an acreage of 55,339 in commercial groves in Seminole. This is an increase of some 3,311 acres over the total reported in the 1954 Census of Agriculture, made by the U. S.

Sanford Suspends Recreational Fee

A group of Sanford County residents last night attacked the decision of the Sanford City Commission to charge a $5 recreation fee for non-residents of Sanford.

The fee covering all city recreational facilities, was suspended for 90 days due to protests.

Wiley Branton, chief attorney in Arkansas for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the suspension of the fee would have little effect on the overall situation in the Little Rock schools, because a permanent injunction which forbids the board from leaving out the schools for use by the private, segregated institutions.

The U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals Monday ordered the board to take positive steps to accomplish integration. The St. Louis court also ordered the board to file for the annual school elections, Dec. 6.

Commission Okays Parking In Park On Sunday Morn

Over protests from residents, the Sanford City Commission last night approved a plan to turn the Fourth St. park into an off-street parking area for four churches in the area.

Lack of parking facilities has caused congestion and traffic snarls during the busy Sunday morning period when all the churches are having services and Sunday School. A request for the parking area was made by the Ministerial Association.

The plan adopted would provide room for 116 cars with retaining the 180 large oak trees in the park and an abundance of grass and other shrubs. Trees surrounding the park also would be retained.

Residents protested the plan, saying that the parking lot would lower the value of their property. One resident said that when General Sanford gave the city this park he didn't mean for it to have an "eye" on the end of it.

While residents were talking, commissioners remarked on how little it is used. A petition reportedly has been circulated among the residents to retain the park.

Funds for the estimated $1,200 cost will come from the city's general fund. Work will start soon and the city has completed other projects. An estimated cost of $100,000 for the project was given by the city manager.

Man Still Seeking His Celery Plants

Sanford's reputation as "The Celery City" has suffered a grave setback, at least in the opinion of a St. Petersburg man who asked for $150 worth of celery plants.

In his second letter, Hankin inquired: "Are you able to find any celery plants there?" His address is 1021 23rd Ave. North, St. Petersburg.

New British Jets Arrive To Bolster Tiny Jordan

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—British jets arrived today to bolster the tiny air force of King Hussein against Syrian MIGs which tried to force his plane to land in Syria Monday.

At the same time the Jordanian parliament met in emergency session to consider what action it would take against the United Arab Republic which for more than a year has carried out a propaganda campaign aimed at overthrow of the Hussein regime.

The British planes were Hawker Hunters, purchased under last June's United States military aid agreement. They will reinforce the outmoded British Vampire jets used by the Jordanian air force and which are no match for the Soviet-made MIGs.

Berlin Blockade Looms; Khrushchev Goads Reds

It has been a long, long time—almost 11 months—since the Go Devils of VAM-7 left Sanford. This will return home Sunday and Monday, marking the end of one of the longest cruises for Heavy Attack.

The Go Devils have sailed almost around the world in the 11 months since they last saw Sanford. Now, they are coming home. The crew of VAM-7 Detachment 45 will bring to an end the development of the A-1 Savage.

The Sanford squadron is aboard the USS Essex, which stood by in Lebanon in mid-July, then sped to the Formosa Straits in September when the U. S. Seventh Fleet needed extra muscle.

Eight crew personnel are scheduled to land in Sanford at 1:30 p. m. Sunday. Other personnel will arrive in Mayport on the Essex on Monday morning.

Little Rock Board To Decide Future At Meeting Today

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—The Little Rock Board of Education will meet today to decide whether to accept a group in the face of a new federal court order that it proceed with plans to integrate the city's public schools.

The city Negro and three white high schools are already closed in defiance of integration rulings. Many white students are attending private, segregated classes under a massive, state-supported resistance plan.

Gov. Orval Faubus told a citizenship conference rally in New Orleans Monday night that the federal government has not one constitutional thing to say about the private segregated schools in Little Rock and they will continue to operate.

Counties To Split $24 Million From Race Track Taxes

FALLENBURG, S. D. (UPI)—Fifty counties will split an estimated $24,461,574 from racing revenue in the coming two years. This is 41 percent more than in the present biennium.

Part of the estimated increase would come from a new slot track near Monticello and a new 141-alar fronton expected to go into operation in 1959.

The rest would come from an expected increase in race track attendance and from the state's share of legalized betting.

The figures are from the Racing Commission's proposed 1959-61 budget filed Monday.

The proposed budget totals $26,000,000. The difference between the total and the counties' share goes to operate the commission and its laboratory and investigative services.

This difference includes requests for small pay raises for most personnel, including an increase from $10,000 to $10,500 a year for state Supervisor John Kelly at Miami.

Two Cars Collide, 3 Persons Injured

A two-car collision in Lake Mary about 5 p. m. yesterday injured three persons, one of whom still is in a hospital.

It was Mrs. Clifford Nelson, driver of one of the cars, Robert Johnson, Longwood, driver of the other car, and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. and Mrs. Johnson were taken to Semmole Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Nelson was treated for minor injuries and released. She was admitted for treatment of broken ribs cuts and a dislocated foot.

Mrs. Nelson was taken to the Naval Air Station dispensary. Her condition could not be determined this morning. Her small son suffered skinned knees in the accident.

Patrolman J. L. Sikes and Deputy Sheriff Vern Brewster said the accident occurred at the intersection of County High and W. W. Sikes Road. They said Mrs. Nelson was making a left turn and the Johnson vehicle crashed into the rear of the Nelson automobile. The high school band was leaving by the Highway 46 bridge.

Truman Proposes Military Training

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI)—Former President Truman today called for a new "universal military training" to keep this country from going to ruin like the Roman empire.

The former chief executive told a Veterans Day audience that universal service will give mental balance to the fathers of coming generations and teach them responsibility for the nation.

Truman said such a program would be a "big step" toward the goal of a "stronger, more unified and more united" America.

Truman said that the "universal military training" should be based on the fundamental principle of "citizenship."

He should be made aware and become familiar with that greatest document of government ever written, the Constitution of the United States," he said.

Men and women should not be allowed to vote until they can answer all the questions that new, naturalized citizens have to answer in federal courts.

"A universal service program of two years' length would give these things together with an understanding of just what free government means and what has to be done to keep it. This nation did not come along by accident."

Committee Of 100 Organizes Tonight

The first step toward development of Seminole County through strong organization will be taken tonight when the Committee of 100 holds its first meeting at the Sanford Civic Center.

Membership has grown beyond the 105 previously mentioned. A nominating committee of 11 men representing each type of business and profession in the county will be presented by Temporary Chairman Mark Cleveland Jr. The committee will choose officers from the large membership. All are expected to be progressive, energetic and available.

The Committee of 100 has been sponsored by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce. With its organization and subcommittee established, the group will attempt to stabilize county development and lure industry to this area.

Formation of the committee was based on plans found most successful in other Florida counties. The meeting will be held at 8 p. m.

TAMPA (UPI)—Eddie the Fatman Blanco, called a bolita kingpin in Florida, has been charged with running a lottery. Blanco was arrested as the result of an investigation begun last May by Deputy Sheriff Ellis Cliff, chief of the Hillsborough County vice squad.

County Sheriff Paul Johnson said Blanco was one of the biggest bolita bankers in Florida.

Reds Threaten To Start Daily Shelling Of Islands

TAIPEI (UPI)—A local Communist threat to resume daily bombardment of Nationalist China's Quemoy islands deepened confusion today about Red intentions in the Formosa Strait.

Nationalist monitors in the Quemoy said the Communist threat was broadcast by a loudspeaker near the southern tip of red-held Amoy island but not by other speakers in the chain opposite the outpost islands or by the Peiping Radio.

Communist gun were thundering when the announcement was made, but the bombardment followed the month's pattern of steadily diminishing volume. Up to noon, 292 shells had fallen on the Quemoy—114 fewer than at the same hour Monday.

Veterans Of Three Wars Honored By U. S. Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation paused today to pay tribute to the American veterans—living and dead—of three major wars in this century.

Veterans' Day ceremonies here and across the land stressed the sacrifice of the 616,619 service men who died for their country, and the task of keeping the peace shared by America's 22,723,000 living veterans.

Focal point for the national observance was the hushed acres at nearby Arlington National Cemetery. Solemn wreath ceremonies at the graves of fallen comrades were the order of the day.

Schools, government offices and some businesses were closed in many communities for the 49th commemoration of what was once called Armistice Day in remembrance of the end of World War I—at exactly 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918.

President Eisenhower was not present for the traditional presidential wreath ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington late this morning. Sumner G. Whittier, administrator of veterans' affairs, officiated on Eisenhower's behalf.

Whittier said the President joined him in a tribute to those who served the cause of freedom. "He said the nation, in honoring the

Man Is Fool To Fool With Weather

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Man would be a fool to fool around with the weather.

If he could change the weather and did, he might very well wish he hadn't.

That, at least, is the view of one prominent weather scientist, Dr. Harry Wexler.

Wexler is director of meteorological research of the U. S. Weather Bureau. He also is chief scientist of the U. S. antarctic research program.

In an article published today in the journal "Science," Wexler sets out current proposals for large scale weather modification, "rate solar energy back into space, either by reflecting or by using either of two methods: one is to produce clouds that are worse than the present ones."

State Senator Says New Taxes 'Must'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—State Sen. B. C. Pearce of Palatka says new state taxes will have to be enacted next year to keep Florida moving ahead progressively.

Pearce says he will make this report to the Legislative Council at its meeting on the eve of the annual legislative caucus of the House of Representatives in Tampa Friday and Saturday.

Army Says Missile Scores First Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Army announced Monday that the supersonic Nike-Hercules missile has for the first time successfully knocked down a test target more than 100,000 feet high.

It was the latest in some 200 tests of the dart-shaped air defense weapon. They have been conducted at altitudes from 5,000 to 100,000 feet.

The Nike-Hercules is capable of carrying a nuclear warhead against either a single plane or formations of aircraft some 75 miles from the launching point. The weapon is being installed at Nike sites in this country.

Eddie, Liz Report Is Denied Again

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Reports that Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, 26, planned to marry within a month were denied again Monday by a spokesman for the couple.

Fisher, 33, is still married to actress Debbie Reynolds, 26, mother of his two children, the spokesman said. They have not taken any divorce action and therefore the singer is legally constrained from marrying anyone at present, he said.

Miss Reynolds blamed her husband's frequent dates with Miss Taylor on New York several months ago as the cause for the breakup of their "ideal marriage."

Giant Pumpkin

ACUSHNET, Mass. (UPI)—Farmer John Taxaris' pumpkin harvest this year included a 206-pound which, it was estimated, could be made into 170 pumpkin pies.

dollar goes for schools, health and welfare. That leaves just 19 cents for all other programs, he said. And about six per cent of that goes for administrative cost.

Pearce said he was beginning to think public hearings on new taxes would be an unnecessary expense. He had announced earlier the committee would hold such hearings.

"I will put it on to the committee and the council in Tampa whenever possible," he said. "I will not be absent with the hearings or have our recommendations on 'information from our research staff' be said."

"If the state continues to grow, we have got to find the money to give the people something we promise them when we urge them to come to Florida to live."

He said he had no recommendations as to where the additional money should come from, but said a sales tax on groceries and medicine would be a last resort as far as he was concerned.

Nor was he inclined, Pearce added, to increase the rate of the present three per cent state sales tax.

Children Surprise Bus Driver With Birthday Party Saturday

Mrs. M. B. Bumgarner, driver of school bus No. 32, was surprised with a birthday party at her home Saturday afternoon.

Host and hostesses for the party were the children who daily ride her bus. Many of them have been riding with her since they began school. They represent grades one through six at Pinecrest School.

The party was wholly the idea of the children, planned without the knowledge of parents or adult supervision. Each child donated money to purchase gifts for Mrs. Bumgarner. At the last minute mothers got wind of the plans and assisted by preparing cakes, cookies and punch.

The small investigators were transported to the Bumgarner home at 401 20th St. in station wagons, manned by Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Ganas, and Mrs. Lucy Anderson. Mrs. Charles Robb and Mrs. Bumgarner's daughter assisted in serving. Mrs. Bumgarner was slightly

Changes In Furniture Styles Are Revealed

CHICAGO—(UPI)—Some way or another, the furniture industry learns a lesson from automobile manufacturers, and change styles as radically each year as last year's home furnishings would be obsolete.

No one has followed through, but recent furniture shows have offered enough "frills" to please any taste and pocketbook.

Ashley Furniture Corp. showed occasional tables with tops of either figured walnut plastic or small tile inlays, much like a cross-hatch pattern, priced from $20 to $25. Tables ranged from a window bench table to a nest of tables.

Another new table series is the Sparkle line, by Jem Furniture Corp. The white plastic tops are flecked with gold, and the legs are Danish walnut finished. The price, $15.95.

A five-piece dining set by Douglas Furniture Corp. for under $100 was designed for the modernist. The plastic table top is copied after travertine marble, the neck leather upholstery of the four chairs is pewter-colored, of washable vinyl, and the one-called Java—features glowing tubing legs.

For the living room, Kroschler Manufacturing Co. showed a modern sectional group, upholstered in foam rubber. Thirty-one and 41-inch half sofas can be combined into a three-piece sectional for $280 or less.

Look for white walters this winter. New styling has resulted in textures that can stay in town, go to the country or resort. The fabrics now have contrasting weaves, or ruffled, lace, mesh and knitted effects, brushed treatments and touches of color which make the white appear smarter.

Side-buttoned scarf dress of pewter Cambridge wool flannel is from the fall R. H. Wraggery collection. The easy silhouette is defined at the neckline by seaming.

Decoration Hints To Aid Homemakers

NEW YORK—(UPI)—A simple way for homemakers to broaden knowledge of home decoration involves 19 steps, says the Decoration Fabrics Institute.

Plan early, keep a scrapbook or file of decorating ideas, collect sample swatches and paint chips, visit model rooms and model homes, build a reference library on decorating.

Save informative literature from manufacturers and newspapers or magazines. Attend to business home decorating. Attend to seasonal short courses. Start sometimes offer courses on slipcover making.

Note good things wherever you are in restaurants, other homes, department stores, while browsing through newspapers or magazines.

And the key is to use these ideas through-out. Many home furnishings departments in department and specialty stores have interior decorating libraries.

Analyze the room you are working on.

Be ruthless. Don't stop at a red to adjustments for sentimental reasons. The Institute says the desire to keep everything in a room for one reason or another will hinder you.

Pre-Packaging Fad To Continue; Quality Of Products Decreasing

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—We're headed for the age of the "bland" in consumer goods. It'll be a sameness brought about largely by the increase in pre-packaging, says a package designer.

Saul Nesbitt predicts that within the next eight to 10 years, pre-packaging will just about reach the saturation point—that almost all foods, much of our clothing and other consumer products will come in take-home packages.

"So what will result?" said the industrial designer, who stands to profit from the trend, even as he realizes its flaws. "Sameness. Medium grade everything. Blandness. Look at beer already, all of the big brands now are light and less strong."

As companies get larger, they will try for products the least offensive to the greatest number. Like soups. The big companies don't make a strongly flavored soup. To get one, you have to go to the small manufacturer, who still turns out the gourmet product.

some consumer products will offer quite a packaging challenge. It isn't likely for instance that coats, suits or dresses will be sold this way; they need trying on and often alteration.

"But already women are buying pre-packaged hose, slips, bras, girdles, and some accessories," he said.

Furniture probably won't come pre-packaged although Nesbitt sees the day the housewife may look at one model on display and order from it.

Pre-packaging has its faults, but Nesbitt also listed some advantages—the biggest one being price. As labor costs soar, he said, merchandisers must find some way to keep prices down.

Package Advantages
Supermarkets are a good example of this, he said. By going self-service, they cut down on handling, and the number of persons needed to run a store. The saving is passed along in food.

Pre-packaging also gives the consumer a cleaner product; and for the retailer, it means easier sales because of package appeal.

Nesbitt said packages will take on more and more of the selling job in the future, not only through color but seasonal appeal. Foods, for instance, might be packaged in a motif practically shouting springtime from the shelves in April, May and June.

And there will be more packages which do more than just enclose the product. This type already has arrived; the cake mix in its own disposable baking pan, or the frozen prepared dishes or meals in disposable baking dishes.

Children Will Have Fish Pond

The children of the All Souls Parochial School will maintain a fish pond at the sixth All Souls Catholic Winter Festival slated for Nov. 22.

Each room in the lower grades had a box in which the children could place any toys, books, games, or other articles in good condition that could be used in the fish pond. Response has been overwhelming. The booth is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Estrella Mrs. Poulter, and Mrs. Eckhart.

Proceeds from the carnival will go toward the school building fund.

Games were played with prizes awarded to Linda DeMatteo, Herbert Anne Collier and Marlene Berger.

Donald opened his gifts, the highlight of which was a complete cowboy suit, including boots, clyen to him by his parents and grandparents.

Guests invited to the party were: Herbert Anne and Bill Collier, Patsy and Carrie Fred, Linda Purdy, Kathy Schindler, Michael, Susan and Maria Galletta, Linda and Arthur DeMatteo, Marlene and Alan Dean, Linda Noel and Joyce Harney, Audrey, and Bonakka's brother, Gary and Randy.

Assisting Mrs. Brown were Mrs. Bart Galletta and Mrs. Robert Burn.

Birthday Party Held

Donald Wayne Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie G. Brown, 1333 Edgall Ave., celebrated his fourth birthday on Saturday, Nov. 8.

Doreas Class Meets

Doreas Class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Horne Nov. 6 with Mrs. C. F. Greene as co-hostess.

Mrs. Thomas Best, president, presided. The session was given by Mrs. Wade Singletary. Mrs. G. A. Harris gave the treasurer's report.

Plans for a Christmas party were discussed. Mrs. W. O. Fanner invited the class to her home for the party to be held Dec. 4. A Thanksgiving basket will be prepared for a needy family, members decided.

Following adjournment a social hour was held with refreshments served to 11 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson returned Thursday from a two weeks vacation. The Andersons visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Keller and Mrs. L. G. E. Anderson, in Chicago. 3 months home they toured the 2,000-foot mountains, enjoying the fall foliage.

Anne Klein of Junior Sophisticians designs the "home" shape, subtly high-waisted and tripping gently toward the hemline. Gossamer white silk chiffon creates this romantic, feminine dress that curves deep in the back, where it is caught by a bow.

Try Devil Dogs

NEW YORK—(UPI)—If you're tired of the same old, same old choice between hot dogs and pizza, have both—on "pizza dog" dogs.

Prepared according to directions, while tough ribs add 1 to 2 minutes to cooking time, they're worth the wait.

Split 6 frankfurters lengthwise almost through and tuck 1 long narrow strip of American cheese in each slit.

Turn dough onto floured board, pat with flour and roll into 16-inch rectangle, with short ends cut into 6 rectangles about 1/2-inch thick. Place 1 frank on each piece of dough, spoon same amount of cheese, using about half the sauce for the 6 frankfurters, on a single with 2 tablespoons of melted cheese, being dough up top.

Roll up dough and pinch along top edge. Seal ends open. Bake off excess flour, bake on hot baking sheet in 425 degree oven about 15 minutes or until just brown.

Cut with remaining sauce, butter and spooned over, or use ketchup as dip.

It's Education Week, Time To Visit School

... This is American Education Week. Seminole County school officials have scheduled several events designed to acquaint the public with progress and problems of local schools.

These "weeks" which are proclaimed by officials mean little unless citizens take advantage of opportunities afforded during these special observances. And what is more important than the schools attended by local children? The church and home environment, perhaps, but few other things.

The local American Education Week committee has planned a series of panel discussions over the local radio station. This group will put reminders on the bulletin board, set up displays and put up posters. Foremost, however, in the plans of the committee is visitation to the schools by parents.

Schools have invited parents of every child to visit during the week and see the facilities, the type of training children are obtaining. The odds are that few parents will accept the invitation.

As important as schools are to the parents it is hard to understand why they rarely visit. Except in rare instances, about the only time a parent goes to a school is to "pick a bone" with some "mean old teacher" who has mistreated a junior.

Schools should not be a place to which youngsters are sent for some six hours each day "just to get them out of the way." Some parents, however, adopt this attitude. They can hardly wait for Monday so that the children will be returning to classrooms.

Parents should know what their children are being taught. They should know the teachers. They should know what kind of facilities are available for the children. They should discuss problems with school officials.

How many parents in Sanford have ever been inside the school their child attends? How many would know their child's teacher if they met outside of school?

The best way to have good schools is to have an interest in them. If parents aren't interested, good schools soon become poor ones.

Turkeys Would Agree

Thanksgiving still is a couple of weeks away, but all signs point to the "early" arrival of the Christmas season.

Yesterday, City of Sanford employees starting stringing those colored lights associated with Christmas. Santa and other decorations were put up along First Street. Last week, some local stores began displaying toys. Weeks ago, the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce began preparations for the annual Christmas parade.

Soon, local merchants will be reminding shoppers that only "so many shopping days are left."

With so much emphasis on Christmas and so little on Thanksgiving, maybe the family turkey will be spared for the latter occasion.

Cammack Elected Dairy Group Head

Elbert (Bill) Cammack, Geneva, has been elected president of the newly formed Florida Dairy Farmers Federation, an organization which combines the six producer associations in the state.

Cammack was elected temporary chairman of the group at its organizational meeting and named president when the dairymen formed their new state association. Other officers are Dr. James Acree, Jacksonville, vice president, and Wayne Webb, Tampa secretary.

Cammack and other officers meet at the University of Florida, Gainesville, once each month to discuss problems of dairy farmers. The November meeting was held Friday and Saturday.

Chamber Reports 'Goal In Sight'

Clifford McKibbin, membership chairman for the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, was a breathing a little easier this morning as the $10,000 goal set for 1958-59 inched into sight.

Latest reports show that 219 individuals and firms in the county have joined bringing the total to $6,037.30. The drive will continue until the goal is reached.

TOWARD HIGHER ETHICS

People often accuse us of asking the "doggedest" questions—but the habit often leads to some interesting answers. It was Saturday morning, Congressman Charlie Bennett was at his desk writing a letter by hand when we interrupted him. We asked the question: "Why in the world are you writing by hand when you have two secretaries on duty in the outer office?"

"This is a special sort of letter," Charlie said. "I'm writing to Sumner G. Whittier. He's the head of the Veterans Administration. I'm just telling him what a fine job he has done toward raising the standard of ethics in government. I feel that a handwritten letter is more personal than a typewritten one."

Then the Congressman explained what Mr. Whittier had done. His department had just issued a series of posters—in all-illustrating the main points in the Code of Ethics passed by Congress. The posters are red-white-and-blue and are to be posted monthly on the bulletin boards at all V-A installations. Each poster stresses one point of the new Code.

"When the Code was passed by Congress," Bennett explained, "each department head was given the go-ahead to implement it in his own way. I must say that Mr. Whittier is enthusiastic about telling everyone in the Veterans Administration about the Code."

The posters illustrate in order: the Code, printed in full; the stress on loyalty; upholding the constitution and the law; giving a full day's work for a full day's pay; seeking to find a better way to do the job; never accepting favors; making no private promises; engaging in no personal business deals with the Government; never using confidential information for your own benefit; exposing corruption when you see it; upholding the principles of the Code.

"I'm also going to write to the White House and call attention to this work by Mr. Whittier. I'm going to suggest that a similar program be started in other branches of the Government," Bennett said.

Bennett's interest in a code of ethics for Government employees and office holders has absorbed his interest since he first came to Congress in 1948. After working on the project for nearly 10 years, the Code which he wrote was adopted by Congress last summer.

"Now," Bennett said, "the big problem is to put the Code to work. The first job is to see that everybody in the Government knows about it. Congress didn't appropriate any money to do this. Each Department head was told to pass the word around the best way he could."

Bennett then revealed the surprise of the day—his own idea of how to help do the job. "I have ordered 600 beautiful art posters with the Code printed in full. They should be delivered by the first of the year. I plan to distribute them to members of Congress and to top Government department heads while the supply lasts. After that, I hope others become interested enough to carry on the idea."

The new poster is being printed by the Brown Biglow Company, one of the Country's leading calendar manufacturers. Although the finished work was done by a professional artist, he followed an original design submitted by the con-

Fred Othman Says

WASHINGTON—The national political community is full of forecasts of a coming Nixon-Rockefeller collision for the 1960 Presidential nomination just like the late Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio had in 1952 with Dwight Eisenhower.

These predictions are that history will repeat itself with Vice-President Richard M. Nixon as the young pro grappling with a popular amateur, Gov.-elect Nelson Rockefeller of New York, as old-pro Taft grappled with a similarly popular amateur, Mr. Eisenhower.

Some see the script for this drama as already written. It is complete with parts not only for the stars, Nixon and Rockefeller, but also for all the supporting players. The "Wall Street" Eastern Republicans are seen marshaling on one side of the stage ready to feed the socko lines to Rockefeller. The Midwestern regular Republicans are moving over to the other side of the stage to do their dramatic bits for Nixon.

There is plausibility in this picture. It is indeed probable that there will be another great contest within the Republican party between the Rockefeller "moderns" and all the rest of the Republicans put together. It is unlikely, however, that any really exact reproduction of 1952 can occur.

True, Nixon and his party wing may correspond roughly to Taft and his party wing. But there will be significant differences in the plot of 1960 from that of 1952.

The Vice-President is both more and less than was Taft. His leadership of the regular Republican organization is more sure than was Taft's at the comparable pre-convention period of eight years ago. He is an immensely more capable practical "operator" than Taft ever was. Heavy-handed mistakes by lieutenants at state con-

a human fact. It is that while the Vice-President's practical skill is far higher than was Taft's, he does not command the almost incredible loyalty of the regular rank-and-file that was automatically Taft's. When they thought Taft was wrong on an issue these rank-and-files would only shake their heads and say, "That's old Bob for you." It never cost him an ounce of their support.

Taft was a dynamic figure — so much so that they did not flinch even from their own awareness that the public never understood him and quite probably would reject him if ever he were nominated for President. What ever "Bob" did was all right with them — including those times when he would call them by the wrong names and clearly suggest that they would do well to go in immeasurably less vulnerable on another count. Terribly damaging to Taft was a wide feeling that he was bored on foreign policy; that he was some sort of isolationist. Nobody could rationally make that accusation against Nixon. First, his record simply would refute it. Second, he is much more gifted at explaining himself to the public.

He can handle the simplicities — and sometimes even the oversimplifications. But Taft always assumed that "intelligent people" would grasp what it meant; if not, then so much the worse for them. For the views of the "unintelligent" he could not have cared less. "He can't win."

There is, however, an important other side of the medal. This is remained unbroken. Nixon lieutenants will make no such mistakes. At the first sign of even potential ineptitude they would be lieutenant. Nixon, in a word, now has a harder grip on the regular party mechanism than Taft ever had. Moreover, though no one knows what the case may be two years hence, Nixon as of now certainly is not so vulnerable as was Taft to the old cry: "He can't win."

This is so mainly because he convention even opened. And it was characteristic of the Senator's awkward but moving grandeur as a man that these mistakes did not occur before the national elections compromised Taft's can-somewhere else and stop annoying him. Nixon simply cannot count on anything of this sort. The Old Guard might fight briskly for him. But the Old Guard would not stand in its tracks and die hopelessly for him as it would, any day, for Taft.

"SEND AWAY" GLOOMY FEARS

—"Authors Name Below—
 In ancient days, as soon as people became sick, most of them immediately gave up hope and prepared for the end. Positive cures were almost unknown. One really had to be very lucky to recover.

Nowadays we have many medicines that can be depended upon to give positive help. Physicians know more about the cause of most diseases. They prescribe from the thousands of different drugs pharmacists stock, the one that will help most. They are no longer restricted to the few they can carry in their bag or office. Do not fear any sickness, just visit your physician quickly.

Wright Will Make Report At Meeting

Report At Meeting

J. Dan Wright, Sanford, chairman of the advertising and merchandising committee of the Florida Extension Service, will make one of the important reports at the monthly meeting of the Commission in Lakeland on Wednesday.

Wright will meet with other members of the advertising and merchandising committee prior to the Commission meeting.

Among the items to be discussed at the meeting are: litigation pertaining to the artificial coloring of oranges, taxation of agricultural lands, license applications and a special report on programs and activities of the Florida Extension Service.

And, now at last, Charlie Bennett will see at the top offices in Washington, a beautiful rendition of a Code of Ethics that he dreamed of, then wrote, then pushed through Congress and finally had printed — at a cost of $1500 of his own money.

Bayou Bengals Top Grid Poll

By NORMAN MILLER
NEW YORK (UPI)—Louisiana State, which has confounded the "experts" this season not only with its perfect record but also by the huge margin of its victories, took over the No. 1 spot from Iowa today in the United Press International college football poll.

This was the sixth team to take over first place during the eight weeks of this unpredictable season. Ohio State, Oklahoma and Auburn led during each of the first three weeks, then Army and Iowa took over for two weeks each.

LSU emerged on top after crushing a respectable Duke team, 50-18, Saturday night for its eighth consecutive victory. Coach Paul Dietzel's Tigers have outscored their opponents 208 points to 47 thus far. The only team that came reasonably close in beating the Syracuse headed this week's second 10 group, followed in order by Air Force Academy and Ohio State. North Carolina and Texas Christian were tied for 14th place, trailed in order by Rice, Southern Methodist, Georgia Tech and Navy. Notre Dame was tied for 20 with California. These were the only teams which received votes this week.

Team Points

1. Louisiana State (20) (8-1) 324
2. Iowa (14) (6-0) 307
3. Army (11) (6-0) 233
4. Auburn (6-0-1) 212

6. Oklahoma (5-1) 169
7. Purdue (5-1-1) 154
8. Mississippi (7-1) 102
9. Northwestern (4-2) 82
10. Pittsburgh (3-2-1) 48
11. Syracuse, 39; 12. Air Force Academy, 31; 13. Ohio State, 29; 14. (tie), North Carolina and Texas Christian, 23 each; 16. Rice, 11; 17. Southern Methodist, 6; 18. Georgia Tech, 4; 19. Navy, 3; 20. (tie), Notre Dame and California, 1 each.

Deaths Decrease In Grid Contests

By ALAN KAHN
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The mid-season report on football fatalities, released today, showed that deaths resulting from play of the game have decreased 23 per cent as compared to the same period last year.

The report was released by Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood, associate dean at Los Angeles State College and chairman of the Football Fatalities Committee of the American Football Coaches Association.

Figures compiled by Dr. Eastwood recorded 12 deaths due to football play to Nov. 6, as compared to 16 fatalities last year at the same time. He pointed out that three of this year's deaths were in sandlot play while last year at the same time there were none in that category.

Top Golfers Coming Here

About 60 of the nation's top professionals, headed by defending champion Walter Burkemo, have accepted invitations to play in the $15,000 PGA Mayfair Open Golf tournament in Sanford, Dec. 9-14.

Among the entries in the star-studded field will be Julius Boros, the best "stretch runner in golf" who won the $30,000 Carling Open tourney in Atlanta last weekend, and Billy Casper Jr., who finished two strokes behind Boros in the Carling Open.

The other three top finishers in the Carling, Bill Collins of Baltimore, Pete Cooper of Lakeland and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., will be here.

This will be "homecoming" for Jay Hebert, Mayfair Inn playing pro, and Ed (Porky) Oliver, former winter pro at the local club. Others who have accepted invitations to play here are: Bert Weaver, Beaumont, Tex.; Ballard Brasley, Chattanooga; Jack Dosa, Hopkins, Minn.; Bailey Glenn Jr., Roaring Gap, N. C.; Bill Graybill, Baldwinville, N. Y.;

'Surprise' Teams To Clash Saturday

By DAVID M. MOFFIT
ATLANTA (UPI)—Surprises have been no rarity in the top-studded Southeastern Conference race this fall—but the two which had stood out as the most unexpected have been the success of the Louisiana State Bengals and the failure of the Mississippi State Maroons.

Those who were allegedly in on the know all insisted in early September that Mississippi State would finish no lower than third and could well win the SEC title this fall. Louisiana State, considered at least a year away, was rated no higher than ninth.

But here it is mid-November and Louisiana State is the class of the Southeast while Mississippi State now figures to end up dead last in the conference standings. The two met head-on this coming Saturday at Jackson, Miss.

That Louisiana State team, which, incidentally, has only three seniors, becomes more impressive week by week. Take last Saturday night. The unbeaten, untied Bengals, scored four times in less than 15 minutes during a 50-18 whipping. State actually led briefly in the second period but quarterbacks Richard Wood and Lloyd Nik sparked Auburn to a gain of 300 yards and a romp.

Woodruff Warns Of Arkansas State

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Coach Bob Woodruff today warned his Florida Gators not to take next Saturday's opponent, Arkansas State, lightly.

Woodruff pointed out that Arkansas State has won three games in a row and runs from a multiple offensive formation that is hard to stop.

The Gators took a day of rest Monday to recuperate from injuries received in their 7-6 victory over Georgia Saturday. There were no serious injuries reported, but Woodruff said that tackle Dick Brantley, who missed the Georgia game, may be sidelined again this week because of a bruised foot.

Tech's Faucette Chosen Southeast Back Of Week

By DAVID M. MOFFIT ATLANTA (UPI)—Halfback Floyd Faucette of Georgia Tech, a defensive specialist who Saturday, in Tech's 12-0 win over Clemson, ran like a stampeded buffalo was named Southeastern Conference back of the week by United Press International.

Faucette, a 180-pound junior from Brent, Ala., is Tech's leading ground gainer this season despite being assigned to the defensive unit in a modified platoon system. Saturday was his best performance as he used trickery and power to gain 116 yards in 10 carries, including a 54-yard touchdown.

Life Sentence Set For Deland Hubby Who Killed Wife

DELAND (UPI)—A judge will impose a life sentence on a remorseful husband who failed to keep his bargain of death with the wife he strangled. Judge Horace D. Reagle decided to recommend mercy for Antoni Paul Tercyak Monday night because he said the man was sorry for what he had done. This meant a mandatory life sentence for Tercyak, who had pleaded guilty to first degree murder in the death of his wife, Ella, Oct. 8. Tercyak had testified that he and his wife struck a strange bargain as the only way to settle their marital difficulties. He said they decided to take their own lives and "be together in the beyond."

The 43,000 fans at the Georgia Tech-Clemson game found it hard to believe what they saw. When would-be Clemson tackler pinned Faucette in, he danced away. When they grabbed him, he refused to go down.

Faucette was used infrequently by Tech as a sophomore and his defensive assignment at season's start didn't point toward much ball carrying this year. But Coach Bobby Dodd was forced to play his offensive unit on offense more often than expected. The result: Faucette now has 355 yards and 57 carries for an average of 6.2 yards per run. The conference lineman of the week honor was awarded by UPI Monday to Vanderbilt guard George Heiderich, a 200-pound senior who played 60 minutes of slashing offensive and defensive ball in Vandy's scoreless tie with Kentucky.

There were a host of backs nominated this week. Edged out by Faucette were: LEE STARS Quarterback Warren Habb and halfback Billy Cannon, the stars in Louisiana State's runaway 50-18 victory over well-regarded Duke. Quarterback Jimmy Dunn, the 142-pounder who scooted 70 yards in the fourth period of the Florida-Georgia game to give outplayed Florida a come-from-behind 7-0 victory.

Quarterbacks Richard Wood and Lloyd Nix of Auburn, co-stars in a 33-14 win over Mississippi State. Quarterback Bobby Franklin of Mississippi, whose passing and ball handling sparked a shocking 56-7 rout of Houston. And, quarterback Richie Pettibon who passed Tulane to a surprise 13-7 win over Alabama.

Leesburg Man Guns Down Former Wife

LEESBURG (UPI)—An Ohio television technician was in jail on a murder charge today after he shot and killed his divorced wife on a Leesburg street and had to be captured with tear gas.

Charles Hixon, 44, of Ironton, Ohio, was in the Lake County jail at Tavares. No bond had been set.

All Hope Is Gone For 36 On Plane

LISBON, Portugal (UPI)—Hope for survival of the 36 passengers and crew of a Portuguese flying boat missing in the Atlantic since Sunday faded today.

Hixon said he came here from Ironton Monday to attempt a reconciliation with his wife. He said they were divorced recently but that she had written him to come to Leesburg, where she had been living three months.

A 24-hour search turned up no sign of the plane or those aboard but the air-sea search was ordered to continue. Nothing has been heard from the plane since it crashed at 8:21 a.m. e.s.t. Sunday it was making an emergency landing in the ocean en route from Portugal to Madeira.

But he said when he got here she refused to re-marry him, and said instead she would marry a Leesburg man. Hixon and the woman were walking side-by-side on the main street when he pulled out his gun and shot her.

FBI Is Probing Bombing Threats

MIAMI (UPI)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation today stepped into the investigation of a rash of bombing threats, despite a police opinion that the callers were crackpots or psychopaths.

But he said when he got here she refused to re-marry him, and said instead she would marry a Leesburg man. Hixon and the woman were walking side-by-side on the main street when he pulled out his gun and shot her.

New threats were made Monday to a Roman Catholic Church, two Miami Beach hotels and a restaurant which serves Negroes at its back door, but as in three threats Sunday, no bombs were found.

Jets For Jordan

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI) The British and U. S. embassies announced Thursday that the United States would provide the Jordanian air force with 12 British-made Hawker Hunter jet fighter planes. The planes were bought by the United States under the offshore procurement program and will be used by Jordanian pilots trained in Britain.

Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALY NEW YORK (UPI)—A pair of boxing mystery men attempt to floor each other into limbo at Madison Square Garden on Friday night and the press row should be opened only to psychiatrists and who-hunt authors. The principals are Tony Anthony, a young gentleman with all the fistic ability in the universe who for some reason always blows the big ones. His opponent is a man named Sonny Ray.

Crucial investigators could have a field day with Anthony and certainly there never has been a deeper man of mystery in fiction than young Mr. Ray as he steps into a main spot at the Garden.

Rubble Is Sifted For Eight Bodies

MONTREAL (UPI)—Workmen aided by a demolition crane today sifted the rubble of a four-story midtown apartment building in a search for more bodies expected to bring the toll of a Sunday explosion and fire to at least 16.

But Tony also has lost five fights—all by knockouts. This would tend to indicate to those with a medical bent that he is, at least, allergic to a punch on the jaw. And they come usually in his "must win" fights.

Investigators from the fire department, the coroner's office and the Quebec Natural Gas Co. today began looking into the explosion. Eight bodies had been recovered by early today and police and firemen estimated that at least eight more were buried beneath tons of brick, stone and charred wood. Ten persons were injured.

Like the night he went in against ancient Archie Moore for the light heavyweight title, Tony was boxing magnificently and, through the first six rounds, even Archie ranked among his admirers.

Tampa Mayor Says 'Liar' Label True

TAMPA (UPI)—Mayor Nick Nuccio has admitted calling City Rep. Olin Hoffman a liar. But he says it wasn't slanderous because it's true.

Native of Tennessee. Diligent research has unearthed the fact that Sonny is 22, was born in Tennessee, fights out of Chicago and by hobby is a quail hunter. There was a question whether he might be related to a heavyweight named Elmer (Violent) Ray of a decade ago.

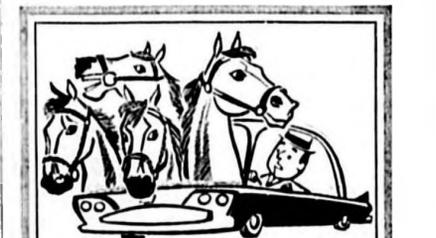

Horse To Get Honor

TOKYO (UPI)—First Frost, the dapple grey horse which used to be Crown Prince Akhito's favorite mount, is to be called out of retirement to be sanctified, it was disclosed today. The horse will be given to the 1st Grand Shrine, dedicated to the legendary sun goddess, to replace the shrine's sacred horse which died last year.

He told me I looked like I was going to be the champion," Anthony later said disconsolately. "But he didn't say when."

So Tony had to start to climb all over again, and now is getting well set for another title bid. Which brings him, and us, to Ray.

That was the end of the Webb-Brown matches. It also was the end of Webb as a title threat. Which shouldn't happen here. But with Anthony — and an unknown like this — you never can tell.

Alice Gobel Best-Known, Least-Seen Wife Of TV

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The best-known, least-seen wife in television is Alice Gobel — George's wife.

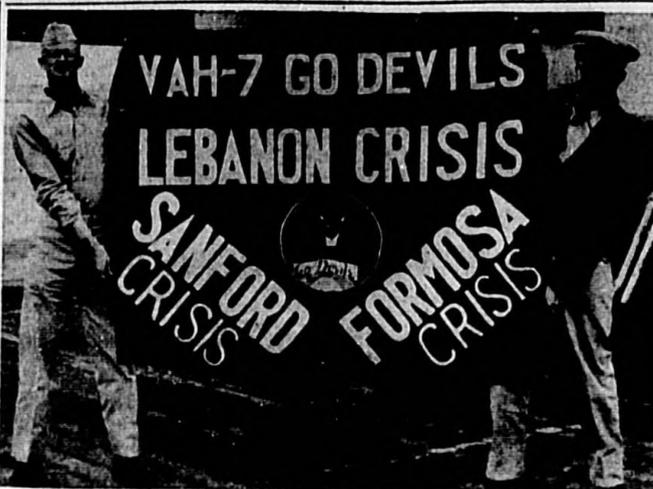

She's also the most maligned. To listen to George on Tuesday nights you'd think Alice was a nagging battle-axe who locks the comedian in a closet the other six nights of the week. It gets laughs on the air — and at home, too.

Alice, in reality, is a pretty, soft-spoken housewife who is terrified of publicity and the Hollywood limelight. Her world centers around the Gobel family—George, 38, Gregg, 18; Georgia, 8, and Lealee.

Sounds like a simple enough little world, but it includes a 6-acre estate in the San Fernando Valley and a home (under three separate roofs) that resembles the club house of a fancy country club.

Seminole Graduate Cited At Ga. Tech

Patrick F. Donahoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donahoe, 1958 graduate of Seminole High School, has been placed in a special merit section of English by the faculty of Georgia Institute of Technology.

Donahoe is one of 122 freshmen out of 1,150 who may earn credit for the full year of freshman English in one quarter. Selection was based on the student's scores in college entrance exams and an English placement test.

According to college officials, selection is an indication of the high quality of training received in high school, as well as scholastic aptitude on the part of the student.

Final Try Planned For Over 18 Club

Ronald Perry, city recreation director, announced today final efforts to provide a separate night for the "Over 18" residents of Sanford will be attempted Thursday night.

If no encouraging response is shown, the Youth Wing will be re-leased back to school age participants.

"For the past several months, the Thursday nights at the Youth Wing have been set aside for Young Adult activities. Only a handful of persons of this age have used the facilities. Thursday's interest will determine further action. It was hoped that an active club of "Over 18" residents might be formed with special dances and parties planned for the members. The Youth Wing is open from 7:30-10:30 P. M.

Plane Hits Tree, Tea Not Disturbed

HORNCHURCH, England (UPI)—Mrs. Mabel Vaughan was having tea under the apple tree in her garden when all the trouble started.

Ronald Black, 28, and a friend Mary Holmes, 27, were flying about the countryside in an American-built single-engine Aerona monoplane when the engine began sputtering.

Black zigged and zagged over the local golf course, sending golfers running for cover. Watchers sucked in their breath as the plane hit a 60-foot elm tree, spun twice and plopped right into Mrs. Vaughan's apple tree.

Black and Miss Holmes clambered out, uninjured except for a slight cut on Black's forehead.

Mrs. Vaughan sprang to her feet and quickly sized up the situation.

"Would you like a cup of tea?" she asked.

"Yes, please," they said.

They had their tea, left the plane in the garden and went home by cab.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y.—(UPI)—An intruder smashed out a large window where the Chippewa councilmen were meeting, apparently mistaking the gathering for a stag party.

The intruder—a large deer—fled when he saw the startled faces of the council members.

WHERE YOU STOP WITH Confidence...

...in gasolines that are first in performance

From long experience, Southern motorists expect Standard Oil to be first with the best, and Standard Oil dealers to supply them with gasolines that are constantly improved. That Standard Oil gasolines fulfill these expectations is evidenced by the fact that they are bought by more motorists than any other brand in the area served by Standard Oil dealers.

To further justify this continued confidence, the quality of all three of our popular gasolines has again been improved, to assure you a new high in performance, whichever you use.

Your confidence in us is reflected by our confidence in the future of the South. During 1957, our expenditures in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi, for additional real estate, buildings and facilities... enlargement, repair and maintenance of present plants and equipment... and all expenses of operation, including payroll, licenses and taxes (excluding Federal income taxes)—amounted to over $50,000,000.

Our future is the future of the South. We never lose sight of this fact in making plans and expenditures.

Leaders Want Harmony, Hard Work

Plea Made To Members Of Committee Of 100

Through harmony and hard work, the newly-formed Committee of 100 can lead Seminole County to new heights of economic development. This was the opinion expressed last night by speakers at the organizational meeting of the committee.

Calls for united effort, hard and diligent work and "elimination of personal feelings and jealousies" were sounded by Mack Cleveland Jr., Douglas Stenstrom and John Krider.

U. S. To Continue Rocket Work Until Reds Change Tune

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)

The United States told Russia today it will continue its rocket development program as long as the Soviet Union maintains its "aggressive imperialism."

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge told the United Nations Main Political Committee Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin suffered from "a malignant and tragic hallucination" in charging that the United States plans to use outer space for military purposes, including an attack on Russia.

Zorin told the 81-nation committee such reports should not be dismissed as "ill advised or fantasy." He demanded support for Russia's resolution calling for prohibition of military use of outer space and the dismantling of foreign military bases — from which most of the Soviet Union could be attacked by 1,800-mile-range U.S. rockets.

Zorin charged that the United States wanted to ban "the intercontinental ballistic missiles which are in the arsenal of the Soviet Union" while maintaining its own foreign bases for the launching of intermediate range missiles against Russia.

"We cannot take the Soviet remarks at face value," Lodge said. "They indicate either a true lack of understanding of the situation or a deliberate attempt to mislead this committee. These bases are not foreign at all, in the way the Soviet Union uses the word. They are mutual bases which are used mutually for common defense—and I stress defense—by common consent—and I stress consent..."

Movies To Cheer Forrestal Crew

Christmas will be brighter on board the USS Forrestal for 98 men of VAHS, who must spend the holiday in the Mediterranean. Movies of their families, complete with sounds of tears and laughter, will be shown at the Orlando Air Force Base photo school on Monday.

Families that have not been contacted are asked to attend the all-day filming. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Jack Langford, FA8-2870.

New Program Sought

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—The Richmond Newspapers were on record today urging the state to come up with a new program in its fight to preserve segregated public schools.

The News-Leader and the Times-Dispatch, proposed a state legislative commission be appointed to seek a new program.

Officials Attend Annual Meeting

Among the 600 county officials and wives arriving in Silver Springs today are Seminole County Commissioners John Krider, Homer Little and B. C. Dodd. They are attending the 25th annual convention of the County Commissioners' Association.

Scheduled speakers at the three day meeting are State Treasurer J. Edwin Larsen, Atty. Gen. Richard Erwin, Board Chairman Joe Grotgoh and Deala attorney Farris Bryant.

Association president is W. Earl Boyd of Micanopy.

Farm-City Week Slated; Talks Planned For Clubs

Outstanding speakers will appear before local civic clubs to make the observance of Farm-City Week, Dec. 2.

Leading off here Tuesday night at the Seminole County Farm Bureau meeting will be William D. Gunter Jr., past national president of the Future Farmers of America, now a science teacher at Boone High School, Orlando.

Doyle Conner, speaker of the House of Representatives and also a past national FFA president, will address the weekly meeting of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce next week.

Cecil Tucker, county agricultural agent, will give Sanford Civitans a resume of Seminole's farming activities on Thursday night of next week.

On Nov. 24, Dr. Marshall O. Watkins, director of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, Gainesville, will address the Rotary Club. Dr. Ralph Easterwood, agricultural economist for the Extension Service, will address the Lions Club and Kiwanis Clubs on Friday and Wednesday, Nov. 25.

This is the fourth annual observance of National Farm-City Week, observed in an effort to bring about better understanding between rural and urban dwellers. This is the second observance the week here.

Last year, the Seminole observance was kicked off by proclamations of the mayors of the five incorporated municipalities, Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Longwood, Oviedo and Sanford.

The theme of talks to civic clubs during the observance will be the dependence of farm and city people on each other. Tucker's talk will show the effects of agriculture on the economy of Seminole County.

Curley, Ex-Boston Mayor, Dies Today

BOSTON (UPI)—James Michael Curley, last of America's big city bosses, died today, just eight days before his 84th birthday.

The former Massachusetts governor died at 8:45 a. m. after emergency surgery at city hospital where he had been recuperating from an abdominal operation performed Nov. 4.

The veteran political warrior had described the critical operation as "just another campaign."

Curley thus became the second former Boston mayor to die within a week. Former Mayor Frederick W. Mansfield died Nov. 6 at the age of 81.

Seven Women Killed

LASTAETTE, Germany (UPI)—Seven women were crushed to death today when a concrete ceiling collapsed on them while at work in a commercial potato-peeling shop in this tiny town on the German-Dutch border, police reported.

The shop was located on the ground floor of a fertilizer warehouse. It was believed the floor collapsed under the weight of heavy sacks of fertilizer.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The federal government has approved a $1,200,000 loan to build housing for married students at Florida State University.

Reds Back Down On Blockade Threat

BERLIN (UPI) — East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and Foreign Minister Lothar Bolt backed down today on their threats to take over isolated West Berlin.

The two Communist officials, faced by Western determination to hold the city by force, made conciliatory statements today which contrasted sharply with earlier hard statements.

He said the main point of Khrushchev's speech was not Berlin but the demand that Germany be given a peace treaty.

Bolt even acknowledged an opportunity to assert that the East Germans will take over control of West Berlin's lifelines to West Germany through the Soviet zone.

Bolt was asked if the East German-Soviet agreement under which the Soviets retain the right to pass Western Allied traffic to Berlin would be revised or annulled if relief for "legions" of West Berlin's lifelines to West Germany through the Soviet zone.

Milk Commission Plans Budget; Tax Hike Looms

ORLANDO (UPI) — The state Milk Commission began work today on a proposed $438,111 budget for the 1959-60 biennium which would require doubling the tax on milk producers and distributors.

The proposed budget represents a 500,000 increase over the current two-year budget. The increase would be met by raising the present tax of one-tenth of a cent per gallon paid by the producers and distributors to two-tenths of a cent.

Commission Chairman J. Bralley Olmham of Sanford said industry representatives have every right to object to the increase at the next legislative session. But he pointed out that the increase would provide better services by the commission, plus a surplus of funds to take care of possible future litigation.

Bob Carter, Jacksonville, state Board of Health representative on the commission, indicated he intends to ask for only 17 of a cent increase. This would provide just enough revenue to finance the commission's activities without any surplus.

"You either want to get in business and you do, or you get out," countered Olmham. "Without money on the books to do the job you've got nothing but a sham."

Administrator Howard D. Walton said the milk commission had kept no records of its operations until this summer.

"It was absolutely a mess," said Walton. "There was just a conglomeration of letters sitting there in Tallahassee."

With the surplus money provided in the tentative budget, the commission plans to hire a dairy marketing economist and keep records on milk production, up to the commission's budget meeting, which is scheduled to last through Thursday.

Dr. Dale Alfred, the only outspoken segregationist member of the board, left the meeting shortly before the others Tuesday and said he personally was not going to resign.

Alford was elected to Congress in the Nov. 4 general election by defeating veteran Congressman Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) in a write-in campaign.

Thought It Check, So He Cashed It

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — It looked like a check, so Fred Johnson cashed it, according to the police report.

Officers said a finance company sent Johnson a form informing him he was $101 behind in his payments.

It so resembled a check that a supermarket accepted it, investigators said, and in turn passed it along to an egg dealer.

A local bank wasn't so easily fooled, however. The "check" bounced, and today Johnson faced a charge of using false pretenses to obtain money.

U. S. Flag Flies Over Base Again

FALMOUTH, England (UPI)—The American flag that flew over the U. S. naval base here through World War II is back to help this English town celebrate American Independence Day. It was returned by Cdr. C. L. Ashley, wartime commander of the base and now a patient at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Md.

The City Council said the flag would be flown July 4 over a beach shelter the Americans left as a memorial.

Board Will Meet

The Seminole County Board of Public Instruction will meet in regular session Thursday at 9:30 a. m. in the School Administration Office, Sanford. A routine business meeting is scheduled.

School Board Asks Public To Meeting

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—The Little Rock School Board invited the public to a meeting tonight at which members are expected to announce their decision on resignation.

It was generally felt here that some members of the board would resign as a result of Monday's federal court order to proceed with integration of Little Rock's four public high schools.

The schools have been kept closed this fall because of the integration controversy.

The board held a closed, two-hour meeting at a hotel room Tuesday, but all that Wayne Up-ton, president of the six-member board, would say was "we're going to have a public meeting at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow (Wednesday)."

Dr. Dale Alfred, the only outspoken segregationist member of the board, left the meeting shortly before the others Tuesday and said he personally was not going to resign.

Alford was elected to Congress in the Nov. 4 general election by defeating veteran Congressman Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) in a write-in campaign.

Reds Turn Parley Into 'Cold War'

GENEVA (UPI)—Russia mobilized its satellites for a massive frontal attack on the West today in support of its drive to turn the Geneva East-West talks into a new cold war battleground on disarmament.

Backed by Communist Czechoslovakia and Albania, the Soviet delegation to the talks on prevention of surprise attack repeated its demands that the Geneva meeting be transformed into a full-fledged political and disarmament debate.

Moscow Radio made public only Tuesday night a formal Soviet note to the United States declaring that the Geneva talks were useless unless they are linked directly with disarmament.

The Communist delegates used today's hour-and-a-half session to reiterate the stand taken by the Soviet Union both in its Moscow note and its earlier statements at the conference.

They also repeated Soviet demands for a complete ban on nuclear weapons, destruction of nuclear stocks, liquidation of foreign military bases and substantial reduction of conventional weapons and armed forces.

U. S. Chief Delegate William C. Foster, the only Western speaker, restated the West's arguments that this should be a conference of experts to discuss technical matters concerning the problem of minimizing the danger of surprise attack.

Weather

Mostly sunny today. Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. High today 78 to 83, low tonight 58 to 64. Northeast to east winds 10 to 15 miles per hour.

14 File Protest On Park Parking

Fourteen property owners surrounding Fourth St. park have submitted a petition to the Sanford City Clerk, protesting the decision of City Commissioners to make a church parking area of the land.

Commissioners voted Monday night to construct 116 parking stalls in the park. The proposed plan would utilize island parking, in order to retain as much planting as possible.

The submitted petition says that "We have undersigned property owners on Fourth Street Park feel that to make this park into a parking lot would destroy its beauty and be detrimental to our property values and request the Commission to leave it as it is."

The petition was signed by Henry McLaughlin Jr., M. H. Brock, Mrs. A. Leggett, W. E. Watson, W. W. Frazier, Elizabeth Lang, Pearl Jordan, Hattie Franklin, Edward F. Lane, S. F. Durand, G. S. Selman, Mrs. Fred T. Williams, T. F. Benham, and L. V. McLaughlin.
