Committee Draws Up List Answering Criticism Of Foreign Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (UP) — Foreign aid chiefs admitted today they once sent an electronic microscope to a recipient who had not electricity to run it. It worked all right through. They just built a power plant to furnish the current.

At the same time they told Congress they did not either use foreign aid funds to:

—Conduct a Klosey-type survey of sex habits in India.

—Build roads in Iran to nowhere.

—Furnish collapsible toothpaste tubes in Cambodia.

—Build a village in Italy in which no one wanted to live.

The village, they said, is "definitely inhabited."

Moreover, the officials said, there was a very good reason for doing some of the other things they did and for which they've been criticized.

—Put $48,000,000 into a sort of retirement program for 80,000 of Chinese Nationalist Chief Chiang Kai-shek's over-age soldiers so younger men could take their places. But they said this wasn't for pensions no matter what has been alleged.

—Bull bathrooms on small lots in Manila, hoping that the Filipinos would build houses around them. Although the plan didn't catch on, the Philippine government later made good use of the plumbing. It built the houses around them itself for minimum rent occupancy.

—Made a survey of the reproduction of a Latin-American flower "which could reasonably be mistaken as ornamental" because it also is useful as a hamp and burial substitute.

The denial, explanations and rebuttals were contained in a volume formally answering a list of 66 questions and criticisms of the foreign aid program. The list was drawn up by the House Foreign Affairs Committee and submitted to the International Cooperation Administration.

Use Delayed

The ICA acknowledged it sent two electronic microscopes to the Philippines and that use of one — at the University of the Philip-— was delayed because of a lack of power.

When the anticipated power source failed to deliver, the ICA said the United States helped the university build its own generating plant and "here's plenty of power for other needs."

Earlie

answered some of the 66 charges including claims it sent iceboxes to Eskimos, not true; provided striped pants for Greek under-liners, another falsehood — it was shoes for Greek soldiers; and built public baths for Egyptians camel drivers, a half truth — the baths were for everybody, to help stamp out hookworm.

A 75-YEAR-OLD NEGRO was burned to death in a frame dwelling late yesterday afternoon. Firemen brought flames, which gutted the building, under control quickly and discovered Charlie Reed in the small bathroom of the rented home at 709 Pine Ave. (Staff Photo)

Board Authorizes Five Additions To Gas Franchise

Five additions to a proposed franchise to be tendered to the Sanford Gas Company were authorized Monday night by the Board of Sanford City Commissioners. Commissioners authorized the City Attorney, William C. Hutchinson Jr., to prepare the proposed franchise for possible delivery to the local gas company organization.

The proposed document is a similar legal agreement to that used by DeLand in recent negotiations for operations there. However, city commissioners changed the details to include a 20-year franchise instead of 30 years; included the city of Sanford's right to inspect lines, require company to work in public property, include no automatic renewal clause, and include the right to audit books regarding utility tax that must be paid within a stated time or the franchise becomes null and void.

Other business completed by the lengthy session Monday night included a policy to eliminate advertising signs on the block fence surrounding Seminole Memorial Baseball stadium; heard a report from the Sanford Boat and Ski Club that it could not use the Yacht Club building due to a time requirement for all improvements to be completed; and authorized the renewal of a five-year bus franchise with the Yellow Cab Company of Sanford.

Negro Man Burns To Death In Home

A 75-year-old Negro man burned to death late yesterday afternoon in his frame dwelling on Pine Street.

Charlie Reed was found slumped down in a corner of the bathroom against the door apparently dead from his burning clothing.

The three-room frame dwelling was a shambles from fire of unknown origin. Investigators believe that there are possibilities that the flames started when Charlie Reed stood on the porch of his rented home. He was seen to go into the dwelling at about the time fire was discovered.

Apparently saturated with kerosene from an exploding oil stove, Charlie Reed, known to be deaf, sought the shelter of the small bathroom either from the fire or in a frantic effort to get possible valuable belongings.

Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. heading his fire fighters quickly doused the blazes that had fully involved the house and had gutted two rooms of the frame home.

Firemen, cutting into the room with fire axes, found the Negro man dead.

Chief Cleveland said that it is hard to determine just exactly how the fire started. However, he said that there are possibilities that Charlie Reed lit his kerosene stove, stepped out on the porch to talk with neighbors, and went back into the home walking into a wall of flame.

The fire occurred shortly after 5 o'clock.

Charlie Reed was a familiar figure around Sanford. He formerly worked as a janitor at Hopper

Dulles Says U. S. Willing To Attend 'Summit' Meet

MANILA (UP)— Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States is willing to attend a "summit" meeting if there is hope of reaching a disarmament agreement and of relaxing world tension.

Dulles, in a major policy pronouncement at a Big Three foreign ministers conference here, said the present world tension has "brought us close to the sparks of world war on more than one occasion."

Dulles met today, with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd to consolidate their stand on Russia's propaganda-laden calls for a summit conference and to study the threatening situation in Indonesia.

Dulles also told his nervous Asian allies attending a SEATO conference here the United States has no intention of softening its strong stand against the recognition of Red China and its admission to the United Nations.

He told the eight SEATO nations that the United States forcefully stated its policy on Red China a year ago, that this policy remains unchanged "and I can also state that this reasoning will continue to dictate United States policy in this matter."

The repeated Soviet call for a summit conference was the main topic of Big Three conversation today. Both Pineau and Lloyd stated flatly they would discuss have considered too unyielding on his position.

Both Pineau and Lloyd were agreed with Dulles on the major issue — that a summit conference or the failure to call one must not be allowed to turn into a Communist propaganda victory. How to prevent this has not yet been decided.

A spokesman said the United States will not agree to a summit conference unless advance preparations make the chances good for agreement on at least one of the three major East-West problems — disarmament.

SHS Talent Will Entertain Longwood C of C Tomorrow

Members of the Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce will be offered an opportunity at their meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock to hear a varied musical program that will feature some of Seminole High School's most versatile talent.

The well-known, popular Triple Trio will be heard in a group of several numbers and a newly organized quartette billed as "The Counts" will feature Pat Donahoe on the guitar, Gregory Walker on the drums with vocal aid from Teddy Walker and Wally Phillips Jr. The four young men scored a big hit recently at an appearance at the Mayfair Inn and are re-booked there Saturday night. They offer unusual arrangements of some of their own compositions in addition to other popular numbers.

The Triple Trio, which has scored big hits in many local appearances, is made up of: first soprano, Linda Anderson, Evie Kraetzner and Eileen Vihlen; second soprano, Linda Yeackle, Connie Brown and Shirley Morgan while the altos are Marcia Looschell, Marcia Bunnarner and Janice Eitzen. Their accompanist is Edith Hanson.

A period of community singing under the leadership of Charlie Morrison with Mrs. Lulu Bailey at the piano, will conclude the program which will be staged in the library, on Church St.

Last Month's Sales Tax Collections Are Higher

An indication of continuing "good business" in Sanford and Seminole County is reflected in a release from the office of Ray E. Green, State Comptroller, reporting on sales tax collections for February based on January sales.

Green said that, statewide, there was a 32.2 per cent increase in sales tax collections over the comparable month last year. However, the report indicated that the collections, compared with the previous month, showed a decrease of 17.7 per cent.

Total sales tax collections this fiscal year, July through February, amount to $1,440,379,949, a 37.9 per cent increase over the amount collected during the same period last year.

In Seminole County, the sales tax collections for February, based on January sales, totaled $29,906.51 as compared with the $29,374.20 collected during the same month last year.

The collections in February of this year show an increase over the previous year of approximately 1.26 per cent.

February sales tax collections, based on sales in January, show a drop from the previous month of $11,440.39. However, the previous month's collections were based on the December collections and the heavy Christmas trade experienced in this area.

Green stated in his report "There are reports of improvement in business and it is hoped that collections for the coming months will reflect this improvement. I continue to remain optimistic about the future economic condition of the state."

Lt. J. Langford Places Second In Speech Contest

Lt. Jack Langford of Sanford placed second in the Toastmaster's International Area Speech contest held recently at the Langford Hotel in Winter Park. Lt. Langford represented the Seminole Toastmaster's Club. Winner was Bernard Kutchin of Patrick Air Force Base.

Six Toastmaster's Clubs participated from area five.

On Saturday afternoon each of the six representatives was given a choice of subjects. Their speeches were presented at the banquet, that night, attended by members and wives of the Toastmaster's Clubs.

Lt. Langford chose "Do It Yourself" as his subject, and attacked the topic from a patriotic and spiritual angle.

The Seminole Toastmaster's Club was formed officially in October. There are 24 active members, determined to improve their poise and aptitude for public speaking.

Carter Installed As Vice President Of Circle K Club

John C. Carter, Sanford freshman at the Southern Union College, has received his official installation as vice president of the newly organized Circle K International club at SUC.

Carter was installed by Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor Ralph D. Gaines Jr., who was also speaker for the evening. Douglas Wasson is president of the sponsoring Kiwanis Club of Wadley, and vice president of SUC.

Firm To Purchase French Avenue Site From City

Lee Brothers Plumbing and Heating has accepted the offer of the Sanford City Commission and will purchase French Ave. frontage and a storage area nearby for the sum of $13,333.

Harry Lee Jr., in a letter to Sanford City Manager Warren E. Knowles, said that the offer is accepted "with the added stipulation that unless we begin construction of our facilities within one year from date of sale the city shall have the option of repurchase at the sale price."

The City of Sanford has also agreed that the sanitary landfill operation will continue on the storage area tract so that the area may be reclaimed and used.

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners instructed City Attorney William C. Hutchinson Jr. and City Manager Knowles to draw up the necessary papers for the sale and authorized Mayor Merle Warner to sign the documents.

The city, however, has agreed to set aside the money derived from the sale of the city property to Lee Brothers for investment over a one year period. This move, commissioners said, is to protect the city should the city's option on the property be necessary.

Elk's Add Shed, 4 Barbecue Pits To Playground

The Elk's Club Playground Committee reported today that additions to the playground in Port Mellon Park have been completed and are now in use.

John Pope, Jimmie Hoolehan, and Ralph Wight, the committee, said that a shed and four barbecue pits have been added to the playground facilities adjacent to the municipal swimming pool.

Indications point to heavy use of these facilities, the committee said, which "makes us extremely happy."

"We ask that everyone who uses the facilities will leave the area in the same condition in which they found it," the committee said.

Two containers for trash and refuse will be added to the present facilities for those who use the playground, and as an aid in keeping the area free from litter and trash.

Complete Kitchen Taken From Homes

"They're very brazen about it," said Special Investigator Verne Brewster of the Seminole County Sheriff's office when he reported that burglars had taken complete kitchen equipment from two homes in south Seminole County.

"It used to be they took everything but the kitchen sink, and now it seems they're going to take that too, as well as the range."

Two homes, brand new, and still unoccupied at 600 and 605 Uranium Ave. in the Oakland Shores subdivision, were entered sometime during the early hours of yesterday morning, Brewster reported.

The way Brewster put it "They ripped the oven out of its cabinet, cut wires with a heavy pair of pliers, pulled the table top stove out of the cabinet, and carried off the Frigidaire refrigerator."

Loss is estimated at $1240, said Brewster.

Burglars gained entrance to the first home by forcing a door and unlocking a jalousie. At the second home, he said, they made entry through a window by kicking the screen off and turning the handle of the window.

"From the tracks they left it looks as if a pickup truck was used by bringing it up a side street and parking it near an orange grove," said the Special Investigator.

"It had to take some time to do the job for they carried the appliances to the truck by hand; even leaving tracks where they set the refrigerator down to rest," he said.

Vern Gallagher, one of the owners of Oakland Shores subdivision, reported the instance to the Seminole County Sheriff's office.

"Investigation will continue," said Brewster.

James Gut Named VFW Commander

James Gut Jr., Sanford insurance man, was named commander of VFW Post 3282 at a meeting held Monday night for the special election.

Gut will serve as commander of the post for the balance of the present term.

The special election was necessary because of the resignation of George DeMatteo due to pressure of business.

Commander Gut said "We will all pull together to build VFW Post 3282."

"I urge all members to get all veterans of foreign wars to affiliate with us," said the new commander.

Gut also urged all members to support the party that is being given at the VFW home on Highway 17-92 Friday night.

ACL Head To Speak At C of C Banquet

Tom Rice, president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, will be the principal speaker at the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet.

This will be the ACL President's first visit to Sanford, and according to a spokesman, the first visit of an ACL president to the Sanford area in modern history.

Merwin Crandall, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's Banquet Committee, said yesterday that the annual banquet has been set for Apr. 27, 7 p. m., in the new Sanford Civic Center.

Crandall said that this year's banquet will be the biggest get-together of the local Chamber of Commerce in the history of the local organization.

"Plans up to this point are incomplete," said Crandall, "but we hope to name all subcommittees and announce our final plans in the near future."

Rice, youthful and energetic president of the sprawling ACL system, is much in demand because of his unprecedented program, "and we are fortunate that he has been able to set aside this one day to speak to Sanford and Seminole County people," said Crandall.

Another first will be accomplished too, in that it will be the initial meeting of its kind slated for the new Civic Center building.

SOKC Newcomers To See Action In 'Hot Box'

A flock of newcomers to the Sanford - Orlando Kennel Club's elite circle of greyhounds will see action in the midweek "hot box" scheduled for the 10th race tonight.

Pat's Shadow, a standout all season, is in the lineup, but such stars as Go Sussie, Ed's Deacon Jones and Happy Steve have dropped down into the ninth race after taking a back seat recently to some less highly-touted steppers.

The dog to watch tonight may be Trans Kinda who has won three in a row by wide margins for owner E. L. Beckner. The veteran brindle miss bagged the top race of last week Saturday night by seven and a half lengths in a startling upset.

Trans Kinda went off at 9 to 1 and paired with Collins, a 60 to 1 shot, for a quinella worth $517.00. Collins, owned by P. C. Collier, is ready to go again in this five-sixteenths mile test and will probably rate more attention from racing fans.

Hoover: The Way To Greatness Is The Path Of Self-Reliance

Late in February, Herbert Hoover spoke at Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge. As he began, he told his audience that he would have a concluding surprise statement. The former president said, in part: "The nation is beset with difficulties and confusions. Many of us have doubt and grave concern for the future. But no one who reviews the past and realizes the vast strength of our people can doubt that this, like a score of a similar experience in our history, is a passing trial. . . .

"We must not be misled by the claim that the source of all wisdom is in the Government. Wisdom is born out of experience, and most of all out of precisely such experience as is brought to us by the darkest moments. It is in the meeting of such moments that are born new insights, new sympathies, new powers, new skills. . . .

"Rather must we pin our faith upon the inventiveness, the resourcefulness, the initiative of every one of us. . . .

"The memory of Americans who glory in Valley Forge tells us the truth which echoes upward from this soil of blood and tears: the way to greatness is the path of self-reliance, independence and steadfastness in time of trial and stress."

Then Mr. Hoover revealed his surprise. The address, save for a few slight eliminations, was identical with the one he had made on the same spot on Memorial Day, 1931.

What he said, in other words, is as true and urgent today as it was 27 years ago—and it will remain so in all the years to come. The faith that endured the terrible winter at Valley Forge made this nation. The same faith can preserve and maintain it.

Turnover Problem Is Excessive

An old problem to the military forces is excessive turnover of personnel. And it's a problem which is growing both in scope and in urgency. Men could be replaced quickly and at small cost when needed military skills were mostly of a simple nature. Nowadays, however, these skills are enormously varied and complex. Each military technician represents a heavy investment in time and money. With the new weapons that are coming into use, this investment is due to keep right on increasing.

Low pay is generally given as the major reason for turnover for men leaving the services as soon as their hitch is up. The Cordner Report, made some time ago at the insistence of President Eisenhower, has presented a blueprint for correcting this. It proposes a system of incentive pay, based on merit instead of rank alone. The cost is estimated at a little more than $500 million a year. Its advocates say that it would save billions over the years, largely by cutting training costs.

At the same time, it seems evident that money, important as it is, is not the only root that underlines the evil. Newsweek devotes a long feature article to the turnover problem in its issue of February 17, under the significant title, "Our Moral Mess." One-third of the personnel of the armed forces quits each year—and in large measure, it is the best men who leave. Newsweek points out, for instance, that plenty of men with "soft skills"—such as cooks and truck drivers—reenlist. But a mere thirteen per cent of men trained in difficult technical field sign up again.

The point of the Newsweek article is to find out why this is so. And the reasons it unearthed after exhaustive inquiry run a wide gamut. For one thing, seniority is still a big factor in promotion. If a man sticks around long enough and keeps out of trouble he rises in rank. Thus, in many instances, leadership is of an indifferent quality.

For another thing, today's service people are better educated than those of the past. They have higher IQ's. A big percentage of enlisted personnel is married and has families. As the article puts it, such men react less kindly to "irritants which still are mass-produced by the military mentality." They don't like what old soldiers know as "chicken"—seemingly needless spit-and-polish policies.

Housing is another sore spot. Wives, forced to live in what amounts to high-rent hovels, want their husbands to return to civilian jobs.

Conditions on the job loom large on the list of complaints. Facilities are often bad. And men find themselves assigned to duties which make no use of their talents.

Newsweek quotes one junior officer as saying: "There is no competition and I want competition." It adds "At the bottom of this frustration is an assignments-and-promotions system which prizes seniority and underplays merit of performance."

This does not exhaust the list of grievances, but it points up some of the more important. It looks now as if the service people will be given some kind of a pay raise. But it also seems certain that the military will have to inaugurate many other changes and reforms if the turnover problem is to be lessened, much less solved.

Look Ahead At Top World News

By UNITED PRESS
 United Press correspondents around the world look ahead at the news that will make headlines.

Out of This World
 Look for responsible American scientists to put the brakes on all this rocket to the moon and Mars talk. Representatives of money-hungry agencies or services tell congressmen of space-age marvels only a step away if only they had the cash. They make interesting reading, but sober scientists who feel the only path to space is paved with painstaking and unspacious research are getting fed up with rhetorical leaps into the unknown.

Souls
 Next arena for the battle for men's souls will be Red China. The Peiping regime already has jailed the Roman Catholic bishop of Canton to clear the way for clergymen willing to doxy the Vatican. Watch for additional arrests of priests in coming months. The Reds appear to be going all-out to destroy Vatican ties with the more than two million Chinese Catholics once and for all through their home-grown "China Catholic Church."

Suddenly It's Spring
 Romance note: Torretta Magness, 34, the eldest daughter of the late President Ramon Magness, is in love. Look for an engagement announcement shortly after March 17—the end of the traditional one-year mourning.

Summit Signals
 West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer wants to make another trip to the United States before any summit conference. He is 72 years notwithstanding. He wants to make sure the West has its signals straight about the need for reunification of Germany. Russia is holding fast to its argument that East and West Germans should settle the question themselves. But on other East-West issues, expect some major Russian concessions to win agreement on a summit parley. They want one bad—for their own purposes.

SEATO
 Japan will sign out of the SEATO alliance despite overtures to come on in. Any proposals made by the United States and the other seven SEATO powers at their Manila meeting this week will be rebuffed with the explanation that Japan's American-sponsored postwar constitution bans all future war for the country and will not permit the country to send troops abroad.

High Flyers
 In sports: The University of Dayton Flyers are riding high on the basketball circuit. After six unsuccessful attempts to win the National Invitation Tournament, this could be Dayton's year. The Flyers are a good bet to go all the way on their seventh bid when the tournament begins March 13.

Foreign News Commentary

BY CHARLES McCANN
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt has launched a wild propaganda campaign against Arab and Western countries.

In recent days, Nasser and his agents have savagely attacked King Saud of Saudi Arabia, King Faisal of Iraq, King Hussein of Jordan, the United States, Britain and France.

His object obviously is to inflame nationalist spirit in all Arab countries in pursuit of his ambitions to make himself the No. 1 man in the Middle East and North Africa.

He has declared open warfare against Saud, his chief rival for Arab leadership, as well as against Faisal and Hussein who reported to his Egyptian-Syrian-Yemeni merger by forming a rival federation between their countries.

The chief basis for Nasser's campaign is the "disclosure" of a fantastic plot to assassinate him.

Conspiracy Financed
 It is alleged that Saud contributed most of a fund of $5,320,000 to finance a conspiracy by which the union of Egypt and Syria would be frustrated by the assassination of Nasser.

According to the charges, the money was paid to Col. Abdel Hamid Serraj, former chief of intelligence of the Syrian Army.

Serraj was offered a further $6 million dollars if the plot succeeded. It is alleged, and Serraj was promised that Saud would make him president of Syria.

Serraj is supposed to have advised Nasser of the plot.

Five Egyptians Held
 While these charges are being made, five Egyptians now in refuge abroad are being tried in their absence on the charges that they plotted to overthrow Nasser and restore King Farouk to the throne.

It is alleged that American and British intelligence agents were in on this plot, and that the United States 6th Fleet, based in the Mediterranean, was to help the conspirators to escape if necessary.

Finlay as all the charges are, they are likely to appeal to extremist sentiment in all Arab countries. Extreme Nationalists are hardly likely to question the truth of any allegation against Saud, the United States or Britain.

SYRIAN REDS GET ASYLUM
 VIENNA.—(AP)—Russia and Czechoslovakia have granted political asylum to the leaders of Syria's Communist Party who fled the Middle East when the United Arab Republic was formed by Syria and Egypt Feb. 1, diplomatic sources said. Khalid Bakdash, secretary general of the Syrian party, was among a group of Syrian Reds who arrived in Prague recently, the sources said. Others were reported in the Russian Crimea. In Egypt the Communist Party is outlawed.

STUDENTS CAUTIONED
 KARACHI, Pakistan.—(AP)—Former Prime Minister Chourhy Mohammed Ali advised the National Assembly Sunday night against sending students to American colleges because, he said, they return home with "inflated notions." He said young Pakistanis return from the United States believing life is meaningless without refrigerators and big cars. He suggested Pakistan send its students to Japan instead.

ALL THE EVIDENCE
 CHICAGO.—(AP)—Chicago aldermen are complaining that the press box in their new council chamber makes them feel a bit uncomfortable. It looks, several said, too much like a jury box.

Woman's Page Conning The News

By VIRGINIA CONN, Society Editor. There has been very little time lately for the gathering of local news, but I did read some northern newspapers the other night and discovered some things about Florida that I didn't know. For one thing, the Bahia Mar marina in Fort Lauderdale placed number one in a survey of marinas from Norfolk, on the south. Daytona Beach and Titusville came in next. This seems to show that Florida has just about cornered the market on super-duper establishments for yacht owners.

Thought the members of the Boat and Ski club might be interested in this information. If they ever solve the wrangle of the Sanford Yacht Club a Seminole Marina could be a possibility. On a smaller scale, of course. Basic equipment could be plenty of five gallon cans for those who always run out of gas.

Now that spring has come in Florida, every one in town is suffering either from wanderlust or seasonal fever. For those who are planning to travel, the World's Fair is opening in Brussels on April 17. It will run through October 19. During that time countless thousands of foot-sore travelers will roam from one end to the other, examining exhibits and buildings constructed by numerous countries.

After studying the cost of doing it, the World's Fair is opening in Brussels on April 17. It will run through October 19. During that time countless thousands of foot-sore travelers will roam from one end to the other, examining exhibits and buildings constructed by numerous countries.

NEW YORK.—A prominent scientist in a congress of learned men in Los Angeles made an bold as to declare that the world has had no women geniuses, and even as he was speaking, the Moscow Radio was telling Russian women they should not wiggle at they walk.

Some people just don't know genius when they see it. No genius of the gentler sex? Has the man never heard of apple pie or strawberry shortcake? There, inevitably was sheer genius. And he about the women who walk on high spike heels? There's a balance feat of genius incarnate.

His name is Dr. V. B. Green-Armystace, former president of the Royal Society of Medicine, who prepared a paper called "The Paradox of Genius" for a meeting of the International Congress of Surgeons. Part of the paradox is his assertion that most of the world's geniuses have suffered from alcoholism, narcotic addiction, tuberculosis, or mental instability.

And, he said, not one has been female. But on the same day that his words buzzed around the world, another dispatch, giving the lie to his contention, came out of Stockholm. There, lady corset models increased sales of their wares 150 per cent by one act that is touched with the fire of creation—they all put on horn-rimmed spectacles, along with their corsets.

Nobody but a genius, and a lady genius at that, would have the divine mottle to know that heavy-rim specs would sell corsets. The dispatch said that now all the smartest girls in Stockholm are wearing horn-rims, whether they need glasses or not.

High School Ball Team Plays Daytona Here On Friday

By JOHN MILLER
Friday the Seminole High School baseball squad will meet Mainland High School of Daytona here. The starting line-up has not been revealed, but Coach Bud Lyster said that the starting pitcher will probably be L. C. Smith and the catcher, Bobby Johnson.

An interesting note on this game is the fact that Coach Lyster's brother will be coaching the opposing team.

In an interview acquired for The Herald, Coach Lyster expressed his belief that "we have a tough defensive team. However," he said, "we are not as good as we will be in the batting end of it."

Cookie Lavagetto Predicts Yankees Will Win Pennant

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
ORLANDO, Fla. — Cookie Lavagetto, who has no pennant hopes for his Washington Senators, predicted today that the New York Yankees will win the American League championship by 15 games.

Starting his first full season as manager of the Senators, the former National League third baseman said he expected "to be panned a lot" for making a prediction like that, but added:

"I have to be honest, just as I have to be honest in saying I have no pennant hopes.

He hastened to explain that he didn't mean the other clubs in the league were giving up, but he just couldn't see any team in the class of the Yankees.

Probably Lost Power

"The White Sox improved their pitching, but probably lost some power in the process, and I can't see them winning the pennant unless Mickey Vernon, a shortstop, can play the outfield, and Billy Martin, normally a second baseman, can play shortstop."

The mention of Martin upset him for a moment.

"Let me tell you something," he said. "The Athletics made a mistake when they traded Martin to Detroit in that 13-player deal. They didn't get enough for him. Why we offered five players for Martin alone and believe me, the Athletics would have been a lot better off with the five players from us than those they received from the Tigers."

Lavagetto would not disclose the names of the players Washington offered for Martin because "they still are on our ball club," but disclosed that Roy Sievers, the American League runs batted in and home run king last year, was not among them.

Must Offer More

"I don't say that Sievers will not be traded," said Cookie, "but if he is, the clubs who want him will have to come up with a lot more than they have offered so far."

When manager Jack Tighe of the Tigers was told of Lavagetto's feelings on the Martin deal, he said he didn't want to comment on it because he did not know what five players Washington had offered.

However, when asked how much he thought outfielder Bill Tuttle and pitcher Duke Maas, the two leading players the Tigers gave up for Martin, would help the Ath-

A special attraction will be the appearance here of Happy Humphrey, the World's biggest wrestler. Humphrey, who claims to weigh 750 pounds, is preparing to leave Florida for a West Coast tour. Tomorrow night he will meet two other wrestlers.

The first bout will begin at 8:30.

Men's Golf Assn. Enjoys Outing At Mt. Plymouth

The Mayfair Men's Golf Association enjoyed a splendid outing at the Mt. Plymouth Hotel Golf Course last Sunday.

Eight foursomes, playing under the point system, toured the lengthy layout and turned in exceptionally good golf scores.

The team of Jack Allen, Martin Yost, Al Stine and Elmer Boerner won first prize with a team score of plus eight. All team members were plus. Allen had two birdies back to back on the seventh and eighth holes to card a fine finish of plus six.

Al Stine again found himself on the winning team. This is getting to be a habit with Stine who has won in four out of the past five events.

The teams of Sonny Powell and Dave Canning jointly shared second and third prizes by carding identical team scores of plus six points.

Association president John Ivey announced that another out of town tournament will be played in two weeks, on Sunday, March 23. Members will be notified by card of time and place.

CANADIENS DOMINANT

NEW YORK — The Montreal Canadiens occupied four of the six berths today on the National Hockey League All-Star team picked by NHL team captains for Hockey Pictorial magazine. The team included goalie Jacques Plante, defenseman Doug Harvey, center Henri Richard and left wing Dickie Moore, all of the Canadiens, plus defenseman Bill Gadsby of New York and right wing Gordie Howe of Detroit.

ies, Tighe answered: "Not anymore than they helped us."

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK — Robert Red Brown, athletic director at West Virginia, shook his head sadly at the recollection of the Mountaineers' lone defeat of the basketball season, a four-point setback by Duke at Durham, N. C. "It's tough to beat them there," Brown asserted.

Sitting beside him, Coach Bud Millikan of Maryland nodded agreement.

"It's tough all right," he corroborated, "but no tougher than beating West Virginia at West Virginia."

Brown's head shot up, like a firehorse hearing the bell, and he fired back: "Or like trying to beat Maryland at Maryland."

A Big Advantage

West Virginia, Brown had to admit, didn't lose a game at home. But Millikan elaborated almost exultantly: "We lost one at home this year."

All of which points up the fact that playing on its home court is worth anywhere — according to various estimates — from five to 15 points to the host team.

Basketball coaches are reluctant to come right out when they know they are going to be quoted, and lay much of the blame to "home" officials. These are officials, which they tell you privately, are influenced by the overwhelming influence of the home town cheering section as well as the fact that "home" officials are sure to be rehired for future games.

Joe Lapchick of St. John's has no such repugnance. "I don't pick on referees," Lapchick says. "But when you go into a strange field house and the referee stands at attention with his hand over his heart as the crowd sings the alma mater you know you don't have a friend in the house."

Brown Blames Lighting

Brown isn't looking to get into a feud with Duke, so his appraisal of the difficulty of beating the Blue Devils in Durham is a mild criticism of the gymnasium lighting.

"We knew before the season that the Duke game would be one of our tougher games," he said, skipping over the fact that North Carolina's Frank McGuire "called" the Duke upset of West Virginia before the game was played.

"Playing away, you expect to get a bit the worst of it," Brown admits. "The lighting at Duke is bad, or, at least, unfamiliar to us. Other bad ones are at Philadelphia's Palestra and at Uline Arena in Washington."

MACKAY ADVANCES

CAIRO, Egypt — Harry McKay of Dayton, Ohio, today occupied a berth in the third round of the Cairo International tennis tournament. McKay, a 22-year-old U. S. Davis Cupper, beat Fathi Mohamed Ali of Egypt, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2, Monday.

The track is one-seventh of a mile and has just been completed. Some of the events that will be entered are the 120 yard high hurdles, 100-yard dash and 800 yard relay. Some of the field events will be shot put, pole vault and the discus throw.

Coach Jim Pigott, the director of the track team this year, has invited the public to this meet. There will be no admission.

As to our chances Coach Pigott said, "The boys have been working out faithfully and hard. The results will tell how far we have progressed since the opening of practice on Feb. 17."

New Pitching Problem

By FRED DOWDY
United Press Sports Writer
Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs has a new pitching problem this spring—his hurlers all look good.

It's a mighty big change for the pennant-conscious Tebbetts, who last season tore out his hair while inept pitching tore the hearts out of his sluggers. The team finally collapsed in August and was lucky to finish fourth with a staff whose 482 earned-run average was the worst in the National League.

But the industrious Cincinnati front office gave Birdie seven new hurlers and a staff totaling 21 flingers this spring.

Harvey Haddix, obtained from the Philadelphia Phillies, and Bob Purkey, acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates, provided Tebbetts with reason for hope Monday with fine performances in a 5-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics. Earlier, Bill Wight and Jerry Cade, also newcomers to the staff, turned in strong exhibition performances.

West Virginia Is National College Basketball Champ

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK — West Virginia, with a remarkable 26-1 record this season, has been chosen as the 1957-58 National college basketball champion by the United Press Board of Coaches.

Coach Fred Schaus' Mountaineers, so lightly regarded in the pre-season forecast that they were not even picked to finish among the top 20 teams, barely edged Cincinnati for top honors in the closest race since the United Press ratings were initiated in 1950.

San Francisco was a not-too-distant third and Kansas State, which topped the ratings for the four previous weeks only to falter with two defeats last week, was placed fourth by the 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board.

Three-Point Margin

West Virginia's final margin over Cincinnati was only three points, 300 to 297. Twelve members of the coaches board, whose ratings have become recognized as the most authoritative in college basketball, made West Virginia their No. 1 choice; 11 voted for Cincinnati.

San Francisco attracted six first-place votes; Kansas State had four; and fifth-ranked Temple and seventh-ranked Notre Dame had one each.

West Virginia's greatest assets were a six-foot-10 center, a spectacular sophomore and the sound coaching of Schaus.

Lloyd Sharrar was the beanpole center who supplied the Mountaineers with the necessary rebounding strength. Jerry West, the sophomore flash, led the team in scoring with an 18.1 point average. Al Schaus, a former professional star in his fourth year of college coaching, developed a well-integrated ball club that proved at its best under pressure.

West Virginia suffered its only defeat of the season, against Duke, 12-6.

Qualify for Tourney

Schaus' men qualified for the NCAA tournament last weekend by winning their own post-season Southern Conference Tournament. They open guest of the NCAA championship against Manhattan tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Cincinnati 24-2, San Francisco 24-1, Kansas State 20-3, Temple 24-2, sixth-ranked Maryland 20-6, Notre Dame 22-4 and 10th-ranked Indiana 12-10 also in the NCAA Tournament.

Ninth-ranked Dayton 23-3 is in the NIT. The only team among the top 10 not in a post-season tourney is ninth-ranked Kansas 18-5.

Fangio Has Public Guessing About Sebring Plans

SEBRING—"When I am racing, I ease up a little some times so I can listen to the engine in another car. If it is near the limit, I speed up a little and get the other driver to follow me past the limit of his engine."

"That is one of my tricks." Speaking is Juan Manuel Fangio, five times world road racing champion and twice winner of the Florida International grand prix of endurance to be held next week, Saturday, March 22.

Fangio, now at home in Buenos Aires, Argentina, has been keeping about his Sebring plans the past several weeks, but now he has definitely decided to attend the 12-hour sports car classic at the inland Florida resort area.

Fangio made his agreement to attend with Chester J. Flynn, vice president of the Automobile Racing Club of Florida, just prior to explaining from New York to Argentina Saturday.

The agreement was confirmed by Alec E. Ulmann, president of the A.R.C.F., presently in Sebring completing preparations for the world sports car championship event.

Fangio won the 1956 Sebring classic, co-driving a Ferrari with Italian Eugenio Castellotti. The Italian lost his life later in Italy while test-driving a car for the 1957 Sebring race.

Fangio then teamed with Frenchman Jean Behra in a Maserati to again win at Sebring last March, setting a new record for the 3.2-mile winding, twisting flat course, 1,024.4 miles in 12 hours, averaging 85.4 miles an hour.

Fangio's present driving plans are still as much a mystery as were his travel plans a few days ago. His commitment to journey to Sebring next week is firm now, however, Flynn and Ulmann advise.

Fangio will fly from Buenos Aires to Sebring the middle of next week.

INNESS ACCEPTS OFFER

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — Al Inness of St. Francis N. Y., Ralph Savarese of Iona and Jack Powers of Manhattan are the latter basketball players to accept invitations to play in the New York-New Jersey All-Star game March 23.

The present state of California was ceded to the United States after the Mexican war.

MISSIS TAP

The White Sox scored their winning run when Detroit catcher Tim Thompson missed a tag play at the plate.

Albie Pearson, the 3-foot, 5 1/2 inch rookie, doubled home two runs off Bob Friend and singled home a pair off Ron Kline to lead the Senators to their first victory of the spring.

The Dodgers rallied for four runs in the eighth inning at the expense of 20-year old rookie Claude Raymond after two other Milwaukee youngsters—Ray Rippelmeyer and Dale Hendrickson—allowed only two runners to reach base in the first five frames.

Other camp news: Vic Werz suffered painful injury to toe when hit with foul ball during practice. Willie Mays scheduled to make spring debut for San Francisco vs. Cubs today. Orioles sent "steak eaters" Ken Tippery, Dick Sebelger, Jerry Gilmer and Angelo Dages to their minor league center at Thomasville, Ga.

Nervous Time In Videoland

By VERNON SCOTT
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD — It's nervous time in Videoland—the season for option-dropping, or picking-up, as the case may be. Any show not in the top 20 has cause for qualms. One such is "The Life of Riley" and its star, William Bendix. "Me? Worried? You bet I am," says Bendix, who didn't appear overly alarmed. "It's something everybody in television has to think about each spring. "Our show is now the oldest situation comedy on the air—since "I Love Lucy" retired. We began in 1952, and every year we have to sweat out option time." "I'm not worried," said Bill's daughter Lorraine. "Daddy's a great actor, and the show has been doing very well." Bendix winked, then fell to ruminating about his life of Riley. Starts On Radio "I started on radio back in 1941," he recalled. "The program was a smash hit. It wasn't any trick for me to make movies and do the radio show simultaneously. "When TV came along I turned down an offer to play Riley. It was too much work and nobody owned any TV sets. Late last year Bendix brought Lorraine on the show to portray Little Awwful Annie.

"It's terrible the way kids of famous actors are kicked around in this town," Bill argued. "They won't give 'em a chance. People have the idea these youngsters are riding to fame on their parents' names. Suggest Name Change "Lorraine would have a better chance if her name were something else." "When I visit producers about a job they're very polite," Lorraine explained, "but they want to talk about dad and what a great guy he is. Some tell me I don't have to work because my father is well fixed." "It's amazing," Bendix put in. "The very people I've worked with all these years are the same ones who are burning her down." "I may have to go to New York and try the stage," Lorraine said. "The handicap of being William Bendix's daughter won't be so bad there. Meanwhile, I'll try to make as many appearances as possible on "The Life of Riley."

Government Launches Military Inquiry Into Atomic Bomb Accident

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government launched a high-level military inquiry today into "widely reported" details of the atomic bomb accident at Florence, S. C., atomic bomb accident.

At the same time Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy made it plain U. S. Strategic Air Command bombers will not stop carrying unarmed atomic bombs in round-the-clock training flights in these "perilous times" despite fresh demands from Russia and others.

Ignoring U. S. claims that unarmed atomic bombs cannot produce nuclear explosions, Radio Moscow declared that an accident like the one at Florence could touch off World War III if America ordered its striking forces into action in the mistaken belief an enemy attack had started.

Defense officials, without leaving any formal counterstatement, indicated there is virtually no danger of starting a major atomic war by accident. They said there are two major precautions:—There is a foolproof system for recalling U. S. Atom Bombers if they start a retaliatory attack that proves unwarranted.

—The bombers cannot be lawfully dropped without the President's specific approval.

McElroy announced that chiefs of three major Air Force commands—Material, Research and Development, and SAC—have been ordered to set up "a high level group to investigate the wider implications of this unfortunate occurrence."

McElroy said the commanders have been directed "to determine if there is any action which should be taken, which has not already been provided for, to insure the maximum safety of our operations."

McElroy, in a statement issued Wednesday night, said the accidental dropping of an unarmed nuclear bomb near Florence Tuesday "demonstrated the accuracy" of a recent Pentagon statement that no nuclear explosion would occur from detonation of an unarmed bomb.

The bomb, dropped accidentally from an Air Force B-47 jet bomber, blew up on hitting the ground but did not cause a nuclear explosion, according to the Air Force after an on-the-scene investigation. Six persons were injured, none critically, and a home was destroyed.

Seminole County Business Booming

Angel Appointed Principal Of Lake Monroe School

John Gordon Angel of this city has been appointed to the principalship of the Lake Monroe School for the 1958-59 school year. The appointment was recommended by the School Trustees and was approved by the School Board in regular session on Thursday morning.

Angel will succeed W. J. Wells Jr., who is retiring after 32 years of school service.

From the town of his birth, Monroe, La., Angel's family moved to Sanford in 1926. He attended Seminole County Schools and graduated from Columbia Military Academy in Tennessee in 1942.

For four years during WW II Angel served as a Navy flier—two years being served in the South Pacific.

In 1950 the degree of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry was awarded by the University of Georgia to Angel. He thereafter taught Chemistry and Physics for three years at Stuart. Upon returning to Sanford, he taught at Seminole High School.

Angel has served as assistant principal at the Pinecrest School and is now the assistant principal of the Sanford Junior High School. He will receive the Masters Degree in Education at Stetson University this June.

For four years the summer recreation program in Sanford has been under Angel's direction. He will be in charge of the recreation program this summer at Lake Monroe. Details will be announced later.

In each of his assignments, Angel has made many friends. His sincerity and warmth have promoted an atmosphere of cooperation and a spirit of professional pride, a spokesman stated today.

Angel and his wife, the former Doris Daniels of Millen, Ga., have two children: John Jr., age 10; and Jacelyn, age 7. The family has active membership in the First Methodist Church of Sanford.

Business is booming in Sanford and Seminole County. This is supported by an economic report made recently to the board of directors of a local bank from a survey made in the area and by construction projects now under way or proposed for the balance of 1958.

At the present time, reports from the Seminole County Zoning Board on building permits issued reveals that construction of homes is continuing at an unprecedented rate of more than $1,000,000 a month. All indications point to the balance of 1958 exceeding this monthly figure.

Plans are being submitted for approval to both the Seminole County Zoning Board and the Seminole County Commission at a rate that has been and is continuing to be difficult to keep ahead.

At the present time, heavy construction on industrial building and road building is at an all-time high. Florida Power and Light Company is making unparalleled investments in additions to the present plant amounting to approximately $6,000,000. Other construction consisting of high lines and substations will continue.

Highway 17-92, with spending at $800,000 is being completed this year with the prospects already good in the widening and four-laning of West First Street to the Interstate Highway.

Also slated to get underway this year is the Interstate Highway bridge and road which is estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $5,000,000.

Commercial construction in the Sanford area is projected for this year will exceed $10,000,000.

In the face of additional construction, employment remains at an unprecedented high. Farm labor is employed to its peak with little unemployment at the present time. Labor is also transported out of Sanford to projects within a 50 mile radius with salaries paid being spent in Sanford.

T. E. Tucker, president of the Florida State Bank stated this morning that an economic report presented to the bank's board of directors stated that "We have confidence in the Sanford area. The area are not, by any means, comparable to the national situation."

Tucker said "We are ahead of other areas in deposits and earnings." He explained that the bank is from a half-million to one million dollars ahead in its earnings comparable to the same period last year.

The economic report to the bank's directors stated "It is predicted that we will have the best year the bank has ever had."

George Touhy, executive vice president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association said this morning "Our net savings in the month of March are approximately doubled those of the same month last year."

"We are continuing to experience demands for house construction and improvements," Touhy said.

Also seen on the local picture is the excessive demand for rental property which is causing interest in duplex building to meet the demand. The rental situation is caused by the heavy influx of people to the Central Florida area and to Sanford and Seminole County in particular.

Construction for the year, in commercial, industrial, and road projects has been estimated to exceed $60,000,000.

One firm, included in the Florida State Bank's economic report, stated to those making the survey that "sales continued the first two months of this year in excess of the same months last year."

Budget Director Brundage Resigns

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower today accepted the resignation of Budget Director Percival F. Brundage and promoted Deputy Director Maurice H. Stans to the post.

The switch will be effective shortly, probably on Saturday.

In his letter of resignation Brundage said he was following the example of his immediate predecessors to give the administration a chance to bring in a director "with a fresh viewpoint."

Brundage pointed out that he already had served "somewhat longer" than either of the administration's two previous budget directors.

He said he also "must attend to some personal matters that have been neglected."

Brundage made his resignation effective at the President's convenience.

Eisenhower, in a warm letter of reply, said he accepted the resignation "with great regret and reluctance," and would make it "effective on or about March 15."

Brundage promised to continue in civilian life working "enthusiastically" for your programs to strengthen our country and to obtain better international stability and peace.

In fact, he said, "I may be able to help more outside in this respect than within the government."

He also offered to undertake any special task which the President might ask of him.

Eisenhower expressed appreciation for both offers.

Brundage, a former partner in the New York accounting firm of Price, Waterhouse and Co., was appointed deputy director in 1954 and became director in 1956.

Robert E. Merriam, who has been assistant budget director since 1956, was named to succeed Stans as deputy director.

Stans, who will be 50 March 22, has been deputy director since 1957. Two years prior to that, he was deputy postmaster general. An accountant, Stans' legal residence is Kenilworth, Ill.

Merriam, 29, has been assistant budget director since 1956. He first went with the budget bureau as an assistant to the director in 1955. He was a member of the Chicago City Council from 1947 to 1953.

Both Stans and Merriam are Republicans.

Negro Man Killed As 10 Foot Sewer Ditch Caves In

The sloughing of and caving in of a 10 foot deep sewer ditch yesterday killed a Negro yarker as he attempted to run away from the more than a ton of hardpan which trapped him against the wall of the ditch.

Eddie Jones, about 47 or 48 years old, was making a connection at the bottom of the ditch while four other Negroes of the crew worked nearby. An alarm was sounded by a member of the crew from the top of the ditch but Jones ran in the direction of the cave-in. Had he run in the opposite direction, he would have been 12 feet or more from the break.

The Negro was completely covered but other members of the crew dug his head from under the debris of dirt, sand and hardpan. While a dragline operator held his head, others dug his body free.

Bradley Odham, president of Odham and Tudor, was standing about 20 feet from the scene talking with his brother, Billie Odham who had charge of the crew. "Every effort was made to save his life," Odham said. In no more than two or three minutes his head was free, he explained.

Jones' body was crushed. Coroner W. Hugh Duncan said. His chest was crushed, there was a crushed pelvis, an arm and a leg broken, and other internal injuries, he said.

Bradley Odham explained that well points were used to dry out the ditch area. "It was an exceptionally dry ditch," he said. Water from the recent rains had seeped along the bottom of a water pipe near the breakage in the ditch wall.

The Negro had been working for Odham and Tudor in the Sunland Estates area for approximately three or four weeks.

Jones came to Sanford from Tampa. He has seven dependents.

Bradley Odham said yesterday that all efforts were being made to locate the Negro worker's family and relatives and bring them to Sanford.

Coroner Hugh Duncan impounded a coroner's jury which viewed the body at the morgue and then went to the scene. Jury members are: Bert Chapman, foreman; John E. Fox, T. A. Vaughn, Larry Jones, Bob Miller and T. H. Harrison.

The jury did not render a verdict. An inquest has been set for 5:30 tomorrow morning.

Officers at the scene investigating the incident were Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway and Sheriff's Department Special Investigator Verne Brewster.

Storm Belt Twists From State Through Central Rockies

A storm belt twisted from a point 30 miles north of Miami northwestward through the central Rocky Mountains Wednesday night and today, bringing tornado winds to Florida and heavy snow to the southwest.

Seven persons were injured when winds hit West Pompano Beach, Fla., where several trailers were turned over. The weather bureau said a tornado was sighted west of Pompano, but reported no casualties.

New snow clogged sections of Texas and Oklahoma, where the accumulation reached five inches. Missouri, where a four-inch blizzard brought the total to six inches. On the West Coast, light showers of snow fell in California, Oregon, Washington and the great basin states.

Commission Approves Use Of Civic Center For Episcopal Confab

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners yesterday approved the use of the Sanford Civic Center auditorium by the Episcopal Church for a South Florida Diocese Convention which will include 40 or 50 Negro representatives of Episcopal churches.

The approval came at a special meeting called by Mayor Merle Warner to discuss with officials of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church, details of the Episcopal Church convention to be held here April 22-24.

Mayor Warner explained "The commission insists that this be an open meeting with no 'off the record' statements."

City Manager Warren E. Knowles said "we understood that the convention would be held on a segregated basis" and stated that he advised members of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church that "the auditorium is still available on a segregated basis."

"The city commission stands ready to assist in any way possible," explained Knowles about his conversation with church officials. "There is a danger, however, of establishing a precedent."

"There has never been a segregated Episcopal Church convention in Florida," explained Frank Mabane Jr., a member of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church committee planning the convention.

"Before attending one of the conventions I didn't understand how they were handled," he said. However, he said, as it was a church service the matter of segregation did not enter at all.

Mabane explained that the opening service would be held at the civic center, the Women's Auxiliary would use the civic center for their daily meetings, and the men would use the ballroom of the Mayfair Inn.

"At least 750 people will be spending the night in Sanford and a small minority of them would be colored." However, he said conventions have been held in Fort Lauderdale, Daytona Beach, Key West, Sarasota and here in Sanford in 1939 and the '20s, with no trouble at all.

"The convention is held in a devout atmosphere," Mabane told city commissioners, "with the church's business run at these meetings."

"With this feeling in mind," Mabane said, "I was surprised yesterday when all of these plans were causing so much discussion."

Randall Chase, a Holy Cross

Episcopal Church vestryman, told commissioners "In carrying out the plans for the convention, we have used the same plans that have been carried out in other places."

"I believe in segregation," he said, "but a very small percentage of those attending will be colored. It has never occurred to me that this convention would be segregated or non-segregated."

Chase emphasized "From strictly a selfish standpoint, it would be a tragedy if this convention couldn't be held here. I would hate to see a black mark against the community. We are not establishing a precedent—only what has been carried out for over 50 years."

The Rev. John Thomas, of Holy Cross Episcopal Church told the Board of Commissioners that the convention has been in preparation for 11 months. "Ratified Generalists, bankers, lawyers will be here. Delegates are people of tremendous influence."

"I humbly hope that they will meet in the civic center," he said.

The Rev. Thomas staunchly told the commissioners "The convention of the Diocese of South Florida will meet in Sanford—even if we have to meet in the streets."

"My entire waking moments are dedicated to the advancement of God and I beg of you to let this convention meet in the civic center," he said.

Commissioner David Gatchel, the first of the commissioners to speak, said "This was a shock to me when I found out the nature of the convention."

"We want to cater to conventions—we want to be known as a convention center, but in view of the recent rulings of the Supreme Court I feel if you want to wave a red flag, just mention integration," Gatchel said.

"I read in a Central Florida newspaper of investigations of your church," Gatchel remarked. "We want to think of the future of Sanford has had more bitter experiences than I," as he spoke of handling the National Guard Army for functions on an integrated basis. "These experiences are very firmly implanted in my mind," said Gatchel.

"That is my particular concern in the use of the Civic Center on an integrated basis. It behooves the City of Sanford and the Episcopal Church to work this thing out," he said.

The Rev. Thomas, in a brief explanation, told commissioners that "the operation of the convention is closed as to who will be there. It is a closed corporation."

"Just our own people will be at the banquet," he said and "the only adverse publicity is if this is refused. It is then we will have national agitation."

Commissioner Robert S. Brown, following only brief statements and questions from commissioners and church representatives offered a prepared motion for adoption.

The motion read "I feel that certain information was withheld from the city when this convention was arranged by the church representatives for the use of the Civic Center. The entire City Commission resents the embarrassment that this has caused all of us; whether the information was intentionally or unintentionally withheld, we have no way of knowing."

"Since the city did enter into an agreement to provide the Civic Center for this convention and, since the convention is of a National Church Organization which has determined its membership on its own volition, I move that the City of Sanford reluctantly authorize this convention to proceed as previously agreed. This shall in no way constitute a precedent as to the use of the Civic Center in the future."

The motion was seconded by Commissioner A. L. Wilson and carried.

"We thank you, said the Rev. Thomas, "and promise that the convention will be handled in as discreet a manner as possible."

Arkansas Man Named To Head Lyman School

In regular session on Thursday morning the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction approved the recommendation of the School Trustees to appoint Ralph Diggs of Rison, Ark. as principal of the Lyman School for the 1958-'59 school year. Diggs is to be the successor of E. S. Douglas who is to succeed Fred Murray as director of adult and vocational education.

The Lyman School is Seminole County's largest and fastest growing school. This year's enrollment of 1200 students in grades one through 12 represents an increase of 30 per cent in one year. It is believed that the Seminole County School System is fortunate in procuring for this important position the services of a man with the experience and record of Diggs.

Diggs is a graduate of the Hickory Ridge High School in Arkansas, class of '38. He was president of the senior class and was active for four years in the glee club and in sports. At Arkansas State College he received a Bachelor of Science degree with major in social science and in physical education. While attending Arkansas State College Diggs was a member of the Glee Club, the Journalism Club, the basketball squad, the football squad and the "A" Club. Later, upon graduation from Memphis State University, he was awarded a Master of Arts degree with a major in school administration. The quality of his work was such that he was given a "Darius" award for advancement in education.

After four years of experience as a classroom teacher and an athletic coach, Diggs was appointed to the position of superintendent of the Hickory Ridge School District. After which, during a period of 14 years, he received three promotions—each time to the superintendency of a larger district.

He has held the following memberships and positions in Arkansas: Arkansas Education Association, board member of the Arkansas Education Association, chairman of Coordinating Committee of Arkansas Education Association representing District VIII, National Education Association, president of Cleveland County Teachers Association, Lion's Club, Masonic Blue Lodge, Scottish Rites, Shrine, Board of Stewards of Methodist Church, Boy Scout Master, Sunday School Teacher of Men's Adult Class in Methodist Church, and president of Cross County Athletics Association.

Diggs and his wife, Jessie Mae, have three children: Billy Ralph, age 17; Jean Ann, age 15; and Barbara, age 10. All members of the family are active members of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Diggs is Worthy Matron of the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.
