CAPITAL WILL RESUME ACCUSTOMED ROUTINE PRESIDENT RETURNS TODAY

COOLIDGE MOTORED DIRECTLY FROM SPECIAL TRAIN TO HOTEL

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

Will Be at Hotel for Several Days While New Arrangements Are Being Made

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—President Coolidge returned to Washington early today from Marion where yesterday he attended the funeral of President Harding. He motored directly from the special train to the hotel.

The president's return to his desk is regarded as marking actual beginning of his task of formulating policies which are to govern his conduct in office. During the interim since he took oath of office a week ago he has been almost constantly engaged with funeral ceremonies of his predecessor and he made it a rule to take no decisive action on any public question until last obsequies were over. One of the first concerns of the president will be to select a secretary to the president to succeed George Christian who resigned yesterday. Few other immediate changes are expected in the personnel of administration. All cabinet members will stay for the present at least.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—On the train that bore her husband's body across the continent from San Francisco, then to Marion for burial yesterday Mrs. Harding returned to Washington today to pack her personal belongings at the White House and to arrange for her final departure from the capital.

As the train, which will have place in history, by virtue of its momentous journey approached Washington, the widow of the president, called to the state-room every member of the party which had made the pilgrimage to Alaska and back and thanked each one individually for remaining with her "until the end." She appeared still to be bearing up courageously after yesterday's ordeal in Marion. She was driven directly to the White House where she said only a few days would be required for her to finally close out affairs there and take leave of the mansion which had been home since 1921.

School of Instruction For Sanitary Inspectors

Colonel Turk's recent announcement of a school of instruction for municipal sanitary inspectors to be held in Jacksonville September 18-22 is meeting with a ready, cordial response from all quarters. Letters being received at the office of the State Board of Health indicate that a large, enthusiastic number of officials will attend the school, also indicate that the school is timely; the idea is meeting with a most generous approval.

Colonel Turk is having an attractive program arranged, one which will appeal to every health and sanitary worker in the state. Every phase of municipal sanitary inspection work will be discussed, especially mosquito control procedure which is receiving so much attention this summer.

ATLANTA, Aug. 11.—Bobby Jones National open golf champion, Perry Adair, Southern amateur champion, are playing Jack Hutchinson, professional and Frank Godchaux were all square at end of nine holes of play in the morning round of 72-hole exhibition match here. Jones shot the course in three under par for 32, Adair took 33, Godchaux 35, Hutchinson 34. A woman spectator was struck on the nose with golf ball driven by Hutchinson at second hole.

Arthur Howell favors long skirts. He says since they made them longer there are less accidents on First street crossings.

SANFORD SOLDIERS COMPLIMENTED ON THEIR FINE APPEARANCE IN MANEUVERS AT CAMP

H. R. Stevens has just returned from a day spent at Camp Johnston where he visited with the boys and looked them over. He says the boys are all to the good and have received many compliments upon their appearance at the various military maneuvers. Sunday will be a big day and Thursday will be Governor's Day and then the boys will be ready to return home after winning honors at the rifle range. Mr. Stevens said the Sanford Band was playing concerts in the city and for the grounds and was being complimented everywhere as they have a very strong organization this year. The boys are in excellent health and are enjoying the camp as it is dry and clean and healthy this year and many improvements have been made in the camp and in conditions.

FAT MURPHY HERE

The redoubtable Pat Murphy is here today mingling with his many Sanford friends and getting advertising for his booklet. Pat is one of the best known men in the state and is a walking encyclopedia of knowledge in the political game. He has been at every National Democratic convention since Grover Cleveland was nominated at Chicago and is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic convention next year representing the state at large. He wants all his friends at Sanford to remember him on election day as Pat is a former Sanford citizen and a booster for this city.

Zachary-Tyler Company Achieve Great Success in Crate Manufacture

Shipping Celery Crates To New York and Add to Equipment

Among the many thriving manufacturing plants of this city none of them are doing any more business or reaching out after new business than the Zachary-Tyler Veneer Company. With one of the biggest veneer plants in this part of the state this firm has aspirations to become the biggest crate manufacturing plants in the state and they will have their efforts crowned with success in a few weeks.

One of the secrets of their success is service and the best crate made in the south. This is a big assertion the Zachary-Tyler Co., makes but they are able to back it up by actual results. They have the goods and their success is the result. They just received a large order for crates from New York state and made their first car lot shipment of this order left the day the order was received. These crates are for the celery growers of New York state and they gave the order to Zachary-Tyler after testing out the crates made north and south. The Zachary-Tyler Veneer Company recently purchased the Palatka Crate Company plant and equipment and will start operations there in a few days and they are also contemplating the purchase of another big plant in the state that will then give them the equipment and capacity to make them the largest crate factory in the state of Florida. This is something of which the company and the people of Sanford can well feel proud and their weekly payroll here now is a big item in the finances of the city.

When the Zachary-Tyler Co., was organized here many tried to discourage them by saying that the timber was not available but the men at the head of this hustling firm know their business and they knew that with the railroads and the river they could freight and raft all the timber they wanted. In a few weeks they will build to the lake and join the bulkhead plan and arrange for rafting much of their timber here from the tracts on the river and right into their mill. They not only get all the lumber they want but they have one of the best equipped veneer or crate mills in the state and their phenomenal success is proof sufficient that big things in the factory line can be accomplished in Sanford if the proper men get behind it.

This city has wonderful facilities for woodworking and a handle factory and other side lines could and will be established here in the near future. The Zachary-Tyler Co., intend to enlarge their plants from time to time and keep up with the orders if such a thing is possible but they are usually sold out in orders before the vegetable season starts so great is the demand for a crate that has stood the test and has proved beyond any question to be the kind of crate needed to pack and ship vegetables and fruits.

The Herald wishes to congratulate this enterprising firm upon their success achieved—success that did not come to them overnight but came after much hard work and much money was expended upon the plant that their own Mess could be a real fruit and vegetable crate could be carried out in detail.

Judge Phillips Travels to Study Good Roads In the Other States

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Aug. 10.—Judge H. B. Phillips, chairman of the Florida Highway Board, contemplates a trip to several other states some time in the next future during which he will study road-building methods as applied elsewhere in search of ideas that may be used to advantage in this state.

North Carolina, Virginia and South Carolina have been decided upon as states he will visit. In the Tar Heel commonwealth the judge will view some of the results of that state's $50,000,000 road-building program, which has put it in the front rank among good-road building states of the union.

After a stay in North Carolina, he will investigate the methods of road construction in Virginia, and later in South Carolina, both of which are pushing programs for the betterment of the highway systems.

ATLANTA PAYS FOR BIG STUFF IF NECESSARY

If Atlanta Wants Grand Opera Let Her Pay Says Representative

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 11.—New York with its pay night life and metropolitan opera company, and so described "luxury rolling, silk rattling, diamond wearing, monkey petting" persons of the Southland, today became storm centers in the Georgia house of representatives when the heated debate had ended what was termed a heavy tax schedule had been voted on all opera organizations operating in the state.

The house had under consideration the general tax act, and amendments were offered to it so as to include the opera companies. The amendment, passed by a vote of 75 to 67, provides that all opera companies appearing in the state shall be taxed $2,500 for each contract in cities of more than 100,000 and $1,000 in cities of less population.

During the past several years a group of Atlanta citizens has underwritten contracts to bring the Metropolitan Opera Company to Atlanta. A tax on opera companies was levied two years ago after a bitter legislative fight; but in presenting the tax act this year the house ways and means committee excluded the assessment on the ground, the chairman stated, that the movement in Atlanta had been supported financially by public spirited citizens for the advancement of music and education in the South.

Representatives Stovall, Knight, Pope, Kood and others immediately objected and the clerk's desk was flooded with amendments to provide the assessment.

"The people who attend grand opera are able to pay the tax," Mr. Pope said. "I plead with you to tax these luxury rolling, silk rattling, diamond wearing, monkey petting persons who attend grand opera. Why should we let them escape when we tax the poor, down-trodden farmer?"

Miss Hession Kempton, who is one of the two women members of the house, told legislators that the guarantors of the opera company's performances in Atlanta had been compelled to meet deficits each year and the tax was met by them.

The objecting representatives were invited by Representative Smith to attend grand opera next year, assuring the members they would enjoy each performance.

"If you folks want to hear Italian singing in some language you can not understand, then you should be willing to pay the tax," one of the amendment supporters shouted.

"There is as much difference between bringing a grand opera company to Atlanta and bringing a Chautauque to a small town as there is between porterhouse steak, surrounded by mushrooms, and two small mutton chops," Representative Wood replied in answer to a statement that if opera companies were taxed Chautauque organizations also should be assessed.

"You pay the Italians to much," a member shouted.

When the first and highest tax amendment was offered for passage, it carried and the other proposed changes were declared out of order.

A new city is in prospect for Volusia county. It is said to be located on the DeLeon Springs property lying 9 miles north of DeLand on the main line of the Atlantic Coast Line railway. This large tract of land is located near the famous boiling spring said to have been discovered by Ponce DeLeon and named after him.

The Georgia protest was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, which recently referred the matter to the various states interested with the request that extensions of approval or disapproval be filed with it before the formal hearing to be held in Washington the latter part of September.

The letter signed with the name of Salas, was sent to General Abraham Carmona, the Federal commander of Durango, who forwarded it to President Obregon. It is very detailed and long. The president turned it over to the attorney general for investigation and he announced its contents Thursday night.

Federal Government Issues Warning About Foods in Cans

Food and Drinks in Galvanized Cans Are Dangerous

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 11.—The federal government has issued a warning against allowing foods or drinks to stand for even a short time in a galvanized iron vessel and against the use of such utensils in making preserves or jellies. Neither should such containers be used for cider or other fruit juices, according to information received by the state agricultural department. Some of the zinc which the bucket or utensil is galvanized probably will be dissolved and will not only give the food an unpleasant taste but is very apt to cause sudden and intense illness, the advices say.

A recent instance of poisoning apparently resulted from the presence of zinc in food. Twelve men at the Guam Naval Station each drank a bottle of root beer and immediately began vomiting, the bulletin states, and continues: Chemical examination of the contents of three bottles transmitted to the Bureau of Chemistry for analysis disclosed the presence of substantial quantities of a salt of zinc in each bottle. It is the opinion of the officials that even one-half the contents of one of the bottles would have caused the vomiting.

Experiments carried on by federal chemists with quantities of lemonade, orangeade, milk, carbonated water, Washington City tap water and distilled water held over night in galvanized iron buckets prove that zinc contamination occurred in each case. The officials, therefore, warn against the use of such utensils as containers for food or drink.

RESOLUTION OF LOVE AND RESPECT TO MRS. ROLAND MARSH

We met in the class room Sunday morning, there was another vacant chair. We met in our monthly social meeting and the vacant chair was there. We were reminded more than ever before that Mrs. Marsh would be with us no more in our meetings and in our class rooms as we meet each Sunday morning. Her genial smile and kindly affectionate greeting and true christian spirit drew us all to her. We find ourselves looking after her as she has flown from our vision, as we think over our association with her we feel she has lifted us higher and now she has gone to answer to that call of her master whom she was delighted to serve on earth. The time will be brief when we shall see her again by the side of our blessed heavenly father.

Therefore, be it Resolved, first, that we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, realizing she has gone to be with her Lord in that land where no storm clouds and sorrows ever come; second, that we extend our deepest sympathy to her bereaved family and loved ones; third, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy spread on the minutes of our Sunday School class and a copy furnished the Sanford Herald for publication.

Tampa Tribune says that negro down there with a bullet in his brain is alive and well and is eating and sleeping and enjoying life. Of course it is all right to say the bullet is in his brain—if they can find the brain.

They are still shooting people from ambush in some of the backwoods counties of Florida. You can't expect much from some of the people who have been doing this thing for years and will continue as long as they are allowed to run wild.

A cow slipped on the Memorial Highway near Tampa and strained her back and the owner is suing the county for damage. We had a cow-slip on a daisy one time and strained her milk but we never brought in a suit to the cleaners on account of it.

Yeggs in Orlando stole an entire sale down there the other night. We hope they will not carry off the two newspapers, the hotels and apartment houses and Lake Lucerne. Of course the yeggs infesting Orlando have nothing to do with Bill Glenn taking his vacation just now.

Weather conditions can not be attributed to a state of mind but your state of mind has much to do with the weather. It is hot, yes. But Florida heat is so much better than the heat of other states that we have no reason to complain and if you keep busy you never know how hot or cold the weather may be.

One can not walk in the streets of Sulphur Springs in bathing suits without being arrested and fined. We fail to see where in the law applies but suppose it applies Sulphur Springs alone. Certainly one could walk down the street of Sanford in a bathing suit if one wished to do so and we have sulphur water here.

Politics can be carried to the extreme and is carried to the extreme wherever the newspapers and politicians are allowed to carry it that far. Playing politics to the exclusion of everything else never made a great city or a great country or a great state. Charleston is just now going through such a political mud and when they emerge from the smoke of the battle they will find they have lost a lot of valuable time, made many bitter enemies among the people and gained nothing.

Some folks know nothing about golf but they should play it if possible. It is like fishing—it makes many warm personal friends among those who did not know each other before. It gets one out in the open air and in the sunshine and brings out all the good points in your character and makes you forget your troubles and worries and makes you a man again. The editor of the Herald is an ardent fisherman but we never have time to go fishing any more. We also like golf but we never have time to play any more. We are like a lot of other business men and some time we will take time to die and then what have we gained by being so busy? We should all get away more to go fishing and to play golf and to take some time for pleasure for we are not getting enough out of life unless we enjoy life as we go along.

Wherever you go you hear good reports about the growth of Sanford. And all of them say that our growth is sure and steady and solid. We are not having any boom here and we do not want a boom. We want to keep the "City Substantial" in the substantial column and we can do this by keeping the buildings going up as they are needed. Sanford should have many more residences and apartment houses before the winter visitors get here and everyone should boost the golf club and other attractions. Sanford is growing and Sanford is being talked about in other quarters. It is a good healthy sign and a little more advertising and a little more boosting and a little more confidence and a little more vision will put us in the twenty thousand class almost before you know it.

The Sanford Daily Herald is endeavoring to give the people a good paper during the summer months even if business shows signs of summer complaint. We are not laying down on the job and there is no reason why the business men of Sanford should stop advertising because it is summer time. Sanford is an all-the-year-round city and summer dullness should never strike us. This is the time to do more advertising, put on special rates, stimulate business, cut your prices in half as some of the merchants are now doing and advertise to the world that you intend to sell all your summer goods and get ready for winter business. The weather should have nothing to do with business and whenever you get the "lazy bug" you will let your business lay. We often wonder what would happen if the newspapers ever get tired and quit like other folks.

A WOMAN OF WHOM AMERICA IS PROUD.

The words that Mrs. Harding uttered when her husband first was stricken—and repeated when he was taken by death—were: "I shall not break down."

She did not break down when the fatal hour arrived and he was taken from her side without warning, in the very hour when the crisis seemed past and hope was once more in the ascendant.

It was something inherent in the fiber of true American womanhood that inspired her to make that promise and to keep it in the spirit of so many of the brave women we know and love who are faithful unto death and serene and unconquered in the hour of trial.

Let us reflect that it was but a short time ago that fear gripped the heart of the loyal husband of this brave woman, while she herself was ever yill, that she would be taken from him. This brings home to us the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Harding stood together as the type that gives to the American home all that is best.

This bereaved widow of our late president thus becomes an object of sympathy and affection to all of us. We are able to enter into the real depth of her sorrow and know what these years of dwelling in the high places have brought to her both in joy and sorrow when we remember her words spoken at the time of her husband's nomination:

"I am content to see my husband in the limelight, but I cannot see why anyone should want to be president during the next four years. I can see but one word written over the head of my husband if he is elected, and that word is 'tragedy.'"

Were these words of prophecy? If they were not, it gives us a glimpse of what must have gone on in this woman's heart for three years. Yet, true to her fine and lovable spirit, she did not "break down."

The whole nation prides itself in her bravery.—Tampa Tribune.

GROWING HUCKLEBERRIES.

The demand for West Florida grown huckleberries is said to be far greater than the supply, and this in spite of the fact that huckleberry, like the pecan, grows more luxuriantly in almost every section of this part of the state. With the large and increasing demand for this luscious berry, at profitable prices, there would seem to be no reason why every farmer should have a huckleberry grove coming on, especially as the trees at setting the same are growing wild in many sections here and can be secured at a very nominal cost, or in most cases the farmer can go to the woods and get them for himself. At a conservative estimate, there should be put out at least a thousand acres of huckleberries this season.—Milton Gazette.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TWICE YESTERDAY

The fire department was called out twice yesterday about 4 o'clock. The first fire was in the grass and trash back of the Pico hotel and call was made as a precaution.

The second fire occurred in a bakery and restaurant at Ninth and Railroad due to some trouble with a gas stove. The room was considerably charred but the fire was confined there without great damage.

Oldsmobile Four at the top of Labajada Hill, New Mexico, after making a record climb.

Oldsmobile Climbs One More "Impossible" Hill

Labajada Hill is in New Mexico. Never had an automobile climbed this hill in high gear! Hundreds had tried—only to be thwarted by its steep rise of 650 feet in 1.7 miles and its 26 hairpin curves.

But an Oldsmobile Four has done it! Every inch of the way in high gear! And then—in response to a challenge—it repeated its splendid performance before witnesses.

Not only is the Oldsmobile Four noted for extraordinary power, but every vital part of the chassis is built correspondingly strong to insure long life and satisfying service.

People examine the Oldsmobile Four, and then—learning that the price is only $975—invariably are amazed that so much motor car can be sold for so little money.

Paige-Timken Rear Axles—
99.8% Dependable!

THIS Paige-Timken rear axle has delivered phenomenal service in the Jewett Six. A careful factory check-up recently made on the first 20,000 Jewetts in use revealed that only two-tenths of 1% had ever had any axle trouble whatever—even including those due to accidents.

A remarkable record—said to be unequalled in the history of the industry. But it is typical of Jewett's stout and dependable construction. Extra-tough steel and ample size give this Paige-Timken rear axle of the Jewett a great surplus of strength for safety. See Jewett Six for yourself—get the facts of its Paige engineering, big Six qualities. We'll be glad to explain them to you.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The services at the Congregational church tomorrow ought to be of great interest and value to all Christian people. The subject for consideration at the morning hour will be "Jesus Christ, His place in the mind of the Early Christian Church." Our attitude toward Jesus will depend largely upon our conception of his personality. Right views of, and right relations toward, Christ determine Christian character. The chief cornerstone occupies the place of prime importance in the Christian Temple. Do not fail to hear this Bible study.

At the night service the subject for discussion will be, "How can a man find Forgiveness?" All men have sinned and have need of forgiveness, on what basis and according to what plan may man be forgiven. Is atonement a necessary part of the plan? Mr. Burhans will endeavor to explain how "God can be just and yet justify the ungodly." We will be glad to have you with us at these services. Come.

FLORIDA FACTS

Florida's hog population numbers more than three-quarters of a million, and is valued at nearly three million dollars.

Hogs slaughtered last year for bacon reached a total of 497,856 and were valued at $3,012,706.

Those sold alive numbered 109,571 and brought $1,189,278.

Pasco county outstripped other sections in this industry, slaughtering 121,078 for bacon which brought $780,068.

Citrus county sold 48,759 alive for $487,590.

More Citrus Fruits
Were Sold in Season
Than All Other States

TAMPA, Aug. 11.—Florida sold more oranges and grapefruit in the United States and Canadian markets, in the ten months ending last July 1, than did both California and Porto Rico, together.

To be exact, this state's proportion of orange and grapefruit shipments in this period was 50.1 per cent. California marketed 46.7 per cent of the orange and grapefruit crop, while little Porto Rico shipped the remaining 3.2 per cent to this country.

These figures were announced here today at the headquarters of the Florida Citrus Exchange. The comparison of shipments from the various sections, as made by the Exchange, includes only oranges and grapefruit. It does not take into account the California lemon crop, amounting to more than 12,000 cars, due to the fact that Florida is not a commercial factor in the lemon industry. The following table shows grapefruit and orange shipments from Florida, California and Porto Rico, from Sept. 1, 1922, to July 1, 1923:

Florida		California
	Carsloads, Per Cent
Oranges	24,616 28.7	Oranges and grapefruit	40,697 46.7
Grapefruit	18,641 21.4	Porto Rico
	43,257 50.1	Oranges and grapefruit	2,824 3.2
			86,768 100.0

California's shipments, as shown here, are lighter than usual, due to a short crop last year. Florida's crop for the past season showed an increase of about 15 per cent over what it was in 1921-22, when it totalled only 13,500,000 boxes. The crop last season approximately 16,000,000 boxes.

There is every indication, barring all possible calamities, that the Florida orange and grapefruit crop will in a few years exceed the total orange, grapefruit and lemon crop of California, in the opinion of Exchange officers. The condition of Florida groves was never better than it is now, and it is being generally predicted that next season's crop will run from 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 boxes. There are now more than 55,000 acres of citrus groves in Florida that have not yet come into bearing, which, even if another tree is never planted, will in ten years give Florida a crop estimated at more than 30,000,000 boxes.

The marketing situation brought about by the rapidly increasing Florida crop, Exchange officers declare, will necessitate the continuance of national newspaper and magazine advertising to develop sufficient demand to profitably sell the fruit. The Florida Citrus Exchange has already anticipated the need for greater sales effort and has laid plans for the extensive advertising of its Sealdsweet fruits next season.

When the citrus growers and shippers of this state get together and sell their crops co-operatively, instead of in competition with each other, and when they all co-operate in the development of new markets and new consumer demand, there will be no trouble, in the opinion of Exchange officials, in profitably disposing of any Florida crop, even though it be greatly increased in size.

Big-Sixes Studebaker Ever Built

The enthusiasm with which the new 1924 model Studebaker cars have been received locally is an indication of the reception they have enjoyed throughout the country.

No wonder. They are emphatically the most compelling values Studebaker ever offered and the public knows that Studebaker has been a consistent leader, year after year, in the amount of intrinsic value per dollar invested.

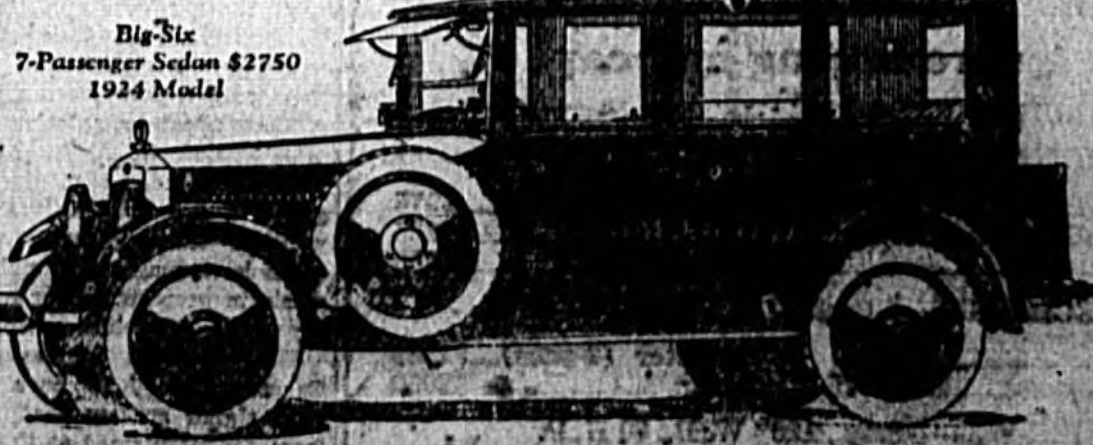

The Big-Six Sedan and the Coupe are the finest cars that have ever borne the name Studebaker. They provide all the performance, all the comfort, and all the dependability that any car will give—at a price that smaller producers cannot approach.

Everything for which one can wish in motoring convenience, comfort and utility has been provided—even to the extra disc wheel with tire, tube and tire cover (two on Sedan); handsome nickel-plated bumpers, front and rear; large, roomy trunk; automatic gasoline signal; and many other features. There is nothing more to buy.

The prices of the Sedan and Coupe are moderate because of Studebaker's large production, vast physical and financial resources, the manufacture of all vital parts in Studebaker plants, and the accumulation of experience and prestige gained through 71 years of building quality vehicles.

"The Rustle of Silk" again tonight. This picture pleased a large audience last night and those who did not go last night should be there tonight.

"The Rustle of Silk" stars Betty Compson, Conway Tearle and Anna Q. Nilsson.

It has an entirely different ending than the ordinary picture, no kisses and no marriages at the last.

And as an added attraction, the very latest pictures in International News.

It shows President Coolidge arriving at Washington.

It shows the last pictures made of President Harding while alive.

Shows a picture of President Harding's greeting at Cheyenne, Wyo., on his trip west and as a contrast shows the crowd in mourning as his body passes thru Cheyenne on the way back to Washington.

This is a wonderful program and the price is only 10 and 20 cents.

And tonight every one in Sanford with their last name beginning with "R" will be admitted free.

Monday night every one in Sanford with their last name beginning with "C" will be admitted free. Watch for your turn.

Starting Monday the matinee will begin at 3:00 o'clock instead of 4:00 as in the past—remember this change in time.

ROLLINS CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC ENLARGING FACULTY AND EQUIPMENT

ROLLINS COLLEGE, WINTER PARK, Fla., Aug. 11. In keeping with the development of the Bachelor of Music degree courses in the Conservatory of Music of Rollins College it has been found necessary by Director Christine Hayward to enlarge both the teaching force and equipment in order to meet the demands of these high school graduates who are taking up the study of music as a life work. This coming year will mark the graduation of the first B. M. degree class, since the music courses were placed on a degree basis only a few years ago. Some of the students completing this work have elected the Artist Course, majoring in voice, violin, piano and organ and are preparing for concert work or teaching, while other students have majored in public school music in preparation for a career as supervisors of public school music.

The extension courses offered in Orlando since 1918 have met with such signal success that the studio formerly maintained at the corner of Pine and Court streets in that city have been moved to 309 N. Orange avenue into larger and superior quarters. The entire conservatory staff will conduct classes there.

The enlarged faculty for 1923-24 is as follows: Theoretical: branches Christine Hayward (New England Conservatory of Music), Herman Sievert (Institute of Musical Art, New York), Ruric E. Cobb, (Antwerp Con-

Roofs that Challenge Weather

It was Mark Twain who said, "Everybody talks a lot about the weather but nobody does anything about it."

But there is one thing you can do about the effect of weather on the roofs of your buildings. Cover them with our prepared roofing or shingles and you can laugh at intense heat, pounding rains, driving snow storms and severe cold.

Free booklets and samples. Call at our office and let us tell you how good roofings will save money for you and add distinctive beauty to your buildings through their cheerful colors.

Be Careful About Your Choice of Feed—Good Feed Now Will Return Double Rewards Later

The moulting period is a very heavy strain on the vitality of your fowls and if they are not given the best of care and food they will come through this period in a weakened condition and you cannot expect many eggs from an undernourished hen. It is much cheaper to keep your chickens in good condition than it is to get them in good condition after you have allowed them to get poor.
