Freedom Is 'Buried' Under Dictatorships

By Leon Dennen
NEW YORK (NEA)—The tragedy of Mihajlo Mihajlov, the young Yugoslav writer who lost his teaching job and is threatened with the loss of his liberty, is another reminder that true freedom cannot exist even in the most benevolent of dictatorships.

According to President Tito himself, Mihajlov was guilty of a serious crime against the Yugoslav state when he dared to write the truth about Russia.

In an essay printed in the Yugoslav literary journal, "Delo," the 30-year-old writer and scholar, though a Communist himself, described the tragedies of Russia's concentration camps. "The first death camps were not formed by the Germans, but by the Russians," Mihajlov wrote, among other things.

President Tito, the benevolent dictator who is often described as a liberal by some American intellectuals, was incensed. But not because he was unaware that Mihajlov wrote the truth.

Even the present Russian rulers have been compelled to reveal the unbridled reign of terror under Stalin and the enormity of the crimes perpetrated by their predecessor in the Kremlin. Tito himself was nearly one of Stalin's many victims.

But Marxist-Leninist dictators—whether they are "revisionists" like Yugoslavia's president or "dogmatists" like Red China's Mao Tse-tung—are brothers under the skin despite their differences over Communist doctrine.

In Tito's eyes, Mihajlov's unvarnished expose of life in the Soviet dictatorship was a reflection on his own rule. For a similar "crime" Milovan Djilas—once Tito's closest friend and collaborator—is serving a nine-year prison sentence.

Such a fate, it is clear, is also awaiting young Mihajlov. He has already been denounced by Yugoslavia's regimented press as a man with a "deranged psyche" and a writer of "senseless fiction." The editor of the journal which printed his essay was forced to resign and the offending issue has been withdrawn from circulation.

But it was Tito himself who hinted that young Mihajlov faces a grim future in Yugoslavia. In a speech to a frightened delegation from the office of the public prosecutor, the liberal dictator said:

"You ought to have instituted an inquiry immediately against the person who wrote the article and printed your decision in the press. It was necessary to make known that an indictment was raised against him."

When I talked with Djilas in Belgrade he had just completed serving one jail term and was about to begin another. He was a resigned but heroic man. He would not "confess" his errors or plead for a pardon.

People like Djilas and Mihajlov are today to be found in all countries ruled by dictators. They continue to fight a lonely battle for freedom and human decency, though the odds are against them.

How much more heroic are these fearless men behind the Iron Curtain than the assorted American professors who, enjoying the benefits of a democratic society, sponsor new newspaper advertisements which castigate United States policy in Viet Nam and elsewhere—without ever troubling to learn the true facts?

When will the American "liberal" intellectuals, or their European counterparts, protest against the persecution of men like Djilas, Mihajlov or Josef Brodsky, the young Russian poet who chose exile rather than to submit to Communist party dictation?

$100 Million Teacher Pay Hike Urged

WEATHER: Fair thru Saturday, high about 80; low tonight about 60.

VOL. 57 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1965 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 160

The following is lifted from a column by Sam Hunter in a Fort Worth (Tex.) newspaper:

Now 'ear this! The tree-planting craze that has been sweeping FW these past few years may take on a tropical atmosphere. Now comes a seed import from Florida—the ear tree, or more scientifically, the concaste.

George Fagan, who spends about as much time with his in-laws, as the Robert H. Williams, at (2432 Yale Avenue) Sanford, Fla., as he does here, brought back the seed—in an ear!

Producing a piece of "fruit" from the concaste, the faint-hearted in the office almost faints.

It looked for all the world like an ear sliced off a man or woman, and left in the sun to blacken. Inside are the seeds, of course.

Mr. Fagan passed around a few seed-bearing "ears" to friends. Many hope to try raising the beautiful and massive tree in FW climate. It may prove too cold here, however.

The ear tree is a tropical American timber tree, producing a valuable wood, much of which is used in making furniture.

The colled ear-shaped fruits are shaped so much like the human ear that few natives of Florida know the concaste as anything but the "ear tree."

We'll be glad to report in a few weeks—or months—what progress, if any the seed planting brings.

The 30-month Orange-Seminole transportation study now underway will provide answers to many of the area's traffic problems. High speed computers will be used to simulate traffic flow on the survey. Over 10,000 home interviews will be conducted.

Sidney M. Richard, superintendent of public works, will attend the first environmental health urban planning project to be held in Florida April 19-30 in Gainesville.

Joe F. Tart, of Osteen, will be graduated from the Florida Highway Patrol's recruit school Saturday in ceremonies on the Florida State University campus. Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Comer will deliver the commencement address to the 39 graduating state patrolmen.

The Herald's head writer had a little fun coining the word "astronautess" on Jane Casselberry's feature story about flying with the Forest Rangers. Now Jane says her friends have coined a new word, too... "astro-naughtiest." (Or, did she say, "astro-outtliest?")

It's about prom time again. The Seminole High Junior-Senior Prom will be held at the Civic Center April 10.

W. H. Stemper, Sag realtor and mortgage broker, is attending the Florida Association of Realtors quarterly board meeting in Jacksonville.

Wilson, deGaulle Parley in Paris

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson opened diplomatic talks today aimed at improving chilly relations between the two countries. British sources said there was a "relaxed and friendly" atmosphere.

ERNEST COWLEY, Seminole County school music co-ordinator, was elected president of the Seminole County Education Association Thursday. Other new officers are Mrs. Roberta Richards, vice president; Mrs. Alicia Schmidt, recording secretary, and Mrs. Mary Frances Holton, treasurer.

Race Car Noise Control Vowed At Longwood

By Donna Estes
At regular meeting of Longwood City Council Thursday evening, temporary chairman Carl A. Lommier read a resolution passed by the Central Florida Stock Car Racing Association concerning the proposed Joyce Brothers Stock Car Stadium.

The resolution reads, in part, "In the event it becomes necessary for the Longwood Stadium to reduce the noise level, the Association will modify all vehicles used at the track or install sound resonators on the vehicles."

Posibility of excessive noise was one of the complaints made by opponents of the track at a public hearing on the matter held Feb. 1 and at three council meetings since.

The track is to be located on SR 434 (Sanlando Springs Drive) in the southwest part of the city. Permits in the amount of $6,840 already have been issued for three buildings at the track for concessions stands, restrooms, and office buildings. No permit will be necessary for installation of the track, itself.

A copy of a letter was read from Peter H. Griffiths, orlando, to Mrs. H. R. Joyce, a partner with the brothers in the stadium venture, clarifying his company's position on locating an electronics plant in the city.

The letter stated, in part, that "on facts made available to the board of directors, we do not regard the presence or absence of the proposed track as being a fact that will in any way affect our final decision."

Griffiths appeared at a council meeting March 11 explaining his firm's interest in the area and said at that time that one factor in the company's final decision would be what land is available and what the city planned to do with it in the future.

Lawyer Charged For Lewd Calls

MIAMI (UPI)—A Miami Beach lawyer was charged today with lewd and lascivious conduct in connection with hundreds of telephone calls made to housewives in the area over the past nine years. Floyd S. Glick, 44, was arrested at his downtown Miami office by police Thursday. Police charged Glick with using fictitious names and posing as a doctor in making the telephone calls.

Vast Highway Plan Proposed By Gov. Burns

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Haydon Burns said today he will ask the Legislature to authorize a $300 million highway construction bond issue to be paid for by a pledge of about $10 million a year in gasoline tax revenues.

The program, similar to one authorized for higher education construction two years ago, would require a constitutional amendment. It would be a sort of "pay-as-you-use" method of providing in four years road improvements which the Governor said could not be accomplished in 20 to 25 years under conventional financing.

He said he will ask the Legislature to propose the constitutional amendment as an emergency so it can be put before the voters for approval or rejection in November of this year.

This would require a three-fourths approving vote of each house—or 33 senators and 84 House members, a number hard to get on controversial matters.

To pass as a regular constitutional amendment would take less votes, three-fifths, but delay the public ratification until November of 1966.

Burns unveiled the program for the first time Thursday night to a private dinner at the mansion attended by 16 newspaper publishers and editors representing about 44 newspapers.

LBJ Determined To Press War

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson, determined to press the anti-Communist war in Viet Nam with "increased efficiency," climaxed his strategy talks with Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor today at a National Security Council session.

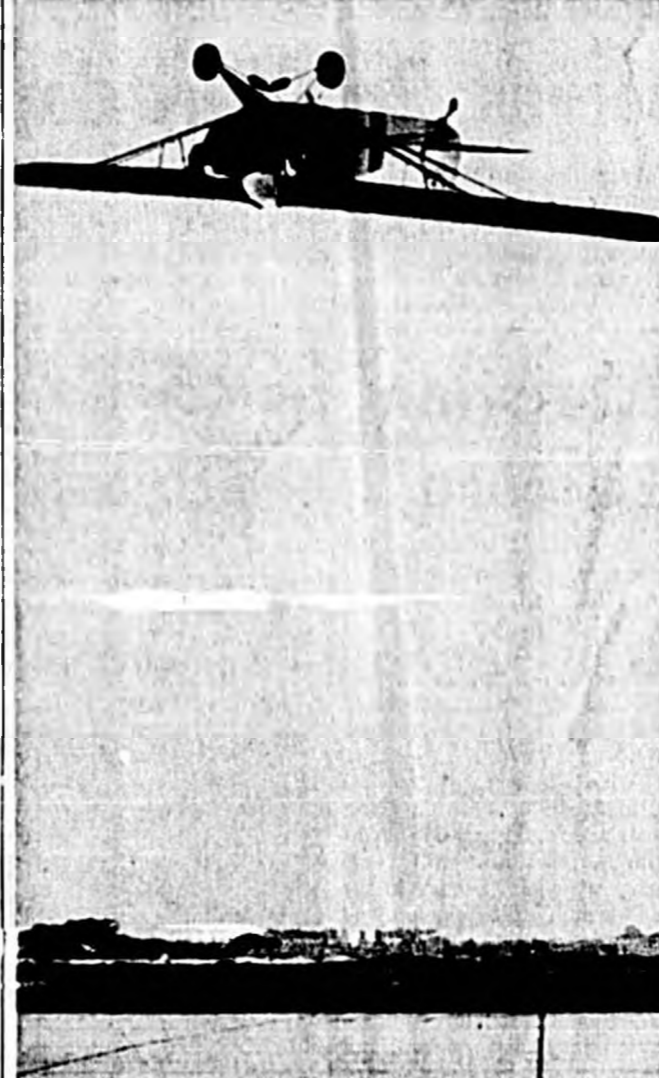

The President has ruled out any overly "dramatic" moves for the time being, although reserving full freedom of action to meet anything which may develop.

His primary emphasis is on more effective use of manpower and military equipment already in the field. But some additional war material for U. S. forces and economic aid for the South Vietnamese will be sent.

Air Offensive Inflicts Defeats

SAIGON (UPI)—The government shattered the week-long lull in the South Vietnamese war with a double airborne offensive that inflicted major defeats on the Viet Cong.

The actions cost 29 American casualties and five helicopters shot down.

HOW NOT TO FLY will be demonstrated by the Navy's "Flying Professor," Capt. Dick Schram (USNR) next Saturday, April 10, during the air show culminating the week long Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby. Here he is upside down (or downside up) only a few feet above the runway at Sanford Naval Air Station.

Competition Keen For Derby

Competitive spirit among Navy personnel attached to squadrons at Sanford Naval Air Station is running high as the competing units await the beginning of the six-day 11th annual Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby Monday morning.

Personnel of the various squadrons have been putting in long hours during the past several weeks preparing for the readiness exercise.

The men feel a strong identity with their units. They feel a competitive pride in comparing their unit with others. That's the feeling that will be on the line as the Derby gets underway, sparking the performances of flight crews and ground support personnel alike.

A total of 15 awards and immeasurable squadron pride are at stake. One of the most prized possessions of each squadron is its trophy case in which the mementoes of unit accomplishments are displayed. An addition of a new trophy always is a grand occasion.

The trophies will be presented by visiting dignitaries at a special military review and awards ceremony Saturday morning.

The purpose of the event is to provide training for squadron personnel through participation in various competitive exercises, thereby enhancing the overall readiness of the wing.

The first event will be an exercise in the loading of a simulated nuclear bomb. Squadron weapons crews, one from each competing unit, will apply their shoulders and skill to the heavy cargo at 7 a.m. Monday.

Their mission is to install the "bomb" on weapons receptacles of designated aircraft as quickly and efficiently as possible.

New York Hit By Deep Snow, West By Rain

United Press International
Snow and rain hit the eastern seaboard and Far West today, dumping up to 10 inches of new snow in western New York and triggering mudslides that threatened to bury 40 homes in Southern California.

Heavy snowstorms plagued the northern Appalachians. Olean, N. Y., reported 10 inches of snow and Bradford, Pa., had four inches in six hours. Rain spread from the Carolinas and Maryland to the Great Lakes.

The western rain storm washed the region from southern Texas to the Pacific Northwest and Southern California. Authorities kept a close watch on 40 homes in Burbank, Calif., and said they would move out residents if necessary.

Heavy rains pushed a mass of mud and water down Burbank's exclusive Country Club Drive Thursday, washing a car before it and forcing most residents to leave their homes.

Traffic accidents on rain-slick highways in the Los Angeles area killed about a dozen persons the past two days. A two-year-old girl was killed when rain shorted wiring in her home.

Auto Industry Builds Record

DETROIT (UPI)—The auto industry set some records Thursday.

For the first time, the industry has built more than 900,000 cars in a single month. The industry built 964,292 cars in March, shattering the old one-month high of 866,632 set last December.

Carmakers also set a three-month record by building 2,560,545 cars over the January-March period.

This broke the old quarterly mark of 2,391,173 cars set in the final three months of 1963.

Last Ditch Effort In Citrus Crisis

TAMPA (UPI)—Citrusmen were to meet with U. S. Labor Department officials here today for a last-ditch effort at resolving the offshore labor crisis which threatens the Valencia orange harvest.

The citrus industry once again will ask the labor department to extend its April 15 deadline for foreign laborers now picking crops in the state.

Top Salary Would Be At $6,500

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Florida Education Association director Ed Henderson said today the Legislature will be asked to provide teacher pay raises costing $100 million a year even though it will require new taxes to finance.

Henderson, head of the teacher lobbying group, said the FEA is insisting on a $500-across-the-board raise for every teacher at a cost of $45 million a year plus a raise in the maximum pay of the five different ranks of teachers at a cost of $55 million a year.

Gov. Haydon Burns has said he will oppose new or increased taxes. So have the presiding officers of both houses and the majority of the members of the appropriations committees of both houses.

Governor Burns went before the FEA at its state convention and told them he'd recommend pay raises if there was any money left above what is now anticipated—but he frankly admitted he saw little chance of it.

Henderson said it is up to the FEA to tell the Legislature what is needed for quality education regardless of the state's financial situation—and then the Legislature can decide how far it wants to go in meeting that need.

"Everywhere we go, the people tell us they are willing to pay additional taxes for education," Henderson told a morning news conference. He said the sales tax was the only available source.

The increased state funds being asked would raise the starting salary to about $4,400 or above and the average teacher salary to $6,500 a year.

It would push the top salary for a 15-year teacher on continuing contract to about $6,500 from state funds.

Florida now ranks 21st in the nation in teacher salaries, he said, and 35th in state support of all education compared to eighth in support of hospitals, 10th in police protection and 30th in roads.

Blackberry Crop Harvested Here

One of the most promising new crops in the area is blackberries, which now are being harvested in the Central Florida Experiment Station reports.

Dr. P. J. Westgate, who is in charge of the blackberry experiments at the station, reports blackberries are selling at $5 to $6 a flat (a dozen pints) on the wholesale market, as compared to $1.50 to $2.50 for strawberries.

"We have perfected two hybrid strains which produce fat, juicy berries that are bringing top prices to growers although there are at present few blackberry farmers in the area."

Henry Simpson of Geneva has a few acres, as do Russ Alfred at Lake Ashby and Glenn Walton at Loch Arbor. Tom Lemon, of Osteen, has several acres and Paul Brill in DeLand has five acres.

Dr. Westgate reports that the berries grow well on the Florida sand, or in a mixture of sand and muck. This strain was developed first in 1933 by Prof. Ralph Sharp, of the University of Florida, crossing Texas blackberries with native Florida dewberries.

The two hybrids now being planted are the "Florida-grand" and the "Oklawaha." Another brand, the "Texas Brazos" also is popular. Blackberries grown at the local experiment station are sold only at local markets, but regular growers' berries are sent to New York markets.

Youthful Driver Hurt In Crash

A teenage boy was slightly injured Thursday in an auto collision on Palmetto Avenue in front of the Post Office.

Tommy Lee Hayes, 15, of Eastle, was the driver of a car which was struck by another vehicle driven by James W. Dodson, 17, of 117 West 16th Street.

Police said Dodson was backing out of a parking space and struck the Hayes auto. Dodson was charged with failure to yield right-of-way, according to the police report.

Refreshment Time

How often we look forward to refreshment time. Sometimes it is called the "coffee break" or at school it may be called "recess." Children as well as adults look forward to "refreshment time" when we gather for any purpose be it social or work.

The greatest refreshment that can possibly come to us, however, is that which is ours when we realize the presence of God. We all have the temptation, and many succumb to it, to get so busy with the many demands of life that we simply forget about His presence. How wearing it can be to live a life unto ourselves. Even though we do have interspersed with our work periods of recreation, we still find ourselves worn out and in need of the refreshment that can be ours only when the presence of the Lord is recognized.

The Apostle Peter said a long time ago words recorded in Acts 8:19 that seem most appropriate today. He wrote, "Times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord." These words seem like a cool wave splashing over a hot and tired body; like a refreshing glass of tea on a hot summer day. Peter lived in a world that was different from ours and yet very similar. It was like it in that it was a world of unrest. It was nearing the edge of the cliff morally and spiritually. It was one which needed God so much that destruction seemed certain without Him.

So many people say to me that they are insecure in their lives although they do have enough of the necessities that are often thought to make life secure. We have such an abundance of food, clothing, and shelter in our country yet we find a feeling of insecurity that becomes very apparent in the tremendous problems that result from it. The alcoholism that is growing by leaps and bounds, the emphasis on sex to the point of sickness, the desertion of high ideals, the lack of love for family and country and many other indications of soul sickness.

Bishop To Visit Christ Episcopal In Longwood

By Donna Estes
Rt. Rev. Henry I. Louth, D.D., Bishop of South Florida, will make an annual visitation to Christ Episcopal Church, Longwood, this Sunday.

Bishop Louth will celebrate Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m. and administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and deliver the Sermon at the 9 a.m. service.

The Episcopal Churchwomen will serve breakfast for those attending the early service and a reception for newly confirmed members of Christ Church and their families will follow the Confirmation Service.
Bishop Louth also will bless the new organ which has been purchased through combined efforts of members of the Men's Club, Episcopal Churchwomen and Episcopal Young Churchmen as well as by donations of labor and money from many other members of the church.
The Men's Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the parish house. A. P. Bowersox, president, will conduct the meeting.

Elder Springs To Register For Kindergarten

Elder Springs Christian Kindergarten is now accepting enrollment for the fall term.

The school, which is conducted at Elder Springs Baptist Church, is equipped to teach 20 children and registrations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. A child must be five years old before January 1, 1965, to be eligible to attend.

The teacher, Mrs. Kenneth L. Meadors, is a graduate of Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky., and has experience as an elementary teacher there.
Purpose of the kindergarten, according to Mrs. Meadors, is to help prepare a child for the first grade in school, help him live creatively, lovingly and securely in the present, and to offer religious training which helps provide a foundation for life's Christian living.
Tuition rates are moderate and the small registration fee covers costs of materials used during the year. Interested parents are invited to contact Mrs. Meadors at her home or at the church.

Holy Cross Chapter Meets Announced

Passion Play Inspires Group From Deltona

By Mildred Hasey
Two chartered buses transported Deltona residents through the beautiful orange groves to Lake Wales, the destination being the outdoor amphitheatre where the famous "Passion Play" was to be shown.

The day was a beautiful spring day, just perfect for the trip and the pause on shores of lovely Lake Wales for lunch.
Settling down on benches at scene of the play, one could almost imagine he actually was in the ancient town of Jerusalem. The hillsides were covered with blossoming orange trees and, as the audience watched, a caravan of camels plodded across the ridge, stopping to drink at the watering troughs.

Shepherd boys herded their sheep and lambs and women in flowing dresses stopped at the well and filled the jugs they carried on their shoulders.

Singing of wild birds and heady scent of orange blossoms gave the feeling of truly being in the market place in that ancient town and everyone felt how wonderful it must have been in that long ago time to have talked and walked with Jesus as he moved among his people.

The beautiful scenes of the Resurrection concluded the play and as the bus turned homeward again the Deltona group felt most grateful for the opportunity to see this most memorable offering of the famous play.

Local Solons Leave Sunday For Capital

Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. will leave Sunday for the opening session of the 1965 state legislature Tuesday.

Both said they have not yet received committee appointments which are expected to be made during the first week of the legislative meeting.

Quered as to their backing on local bills which have been requested, both said that they have had such a deluge of requests and have held so many hearings on local legislative proposals that they have not yet had time to study them and decide those which they will support. They plan next week to settle down to a serious study of the local requests.

Request of the county and city for riparian rights and title to off-shore lands in Lake Monroe and St. Johns River is considered one of the primary requests, with the possibility of some difficulties in this matter expected to be encountered by Cleveland.

The other top priority item will be the appropriation of funds for construction of the Seminole County Junior college, which already has been approved by the Junior College Board. The board recommended that $30,000 this year and $210,664 next year be appropriated. The school, if finished, is expected to be open for enrollment by the fall of 1967.

Cleveland called attention to the fact that all local county legislative bills are available to the public in the county clerk's office at the courthouse.

Both of the county's representatives will be living at Holiday Inn while in Tallahassee and may be reached there by constituents.

The primary fight before the Legislature, reapportionment as ordered by the U. S. Supreme Court will determine whether Seminole County will have local legislative representation in the next session of the state body.

Another bill on the agenda is one which would require the Legislature to meet every year instead of every two years.

Both Cleveland and Davis said that if at any time local citizens have questions, need information or have comments they will be "at home in Sanford most weekends."

Maris Arrested In Bar Incident

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — A bar shortly after midnight Wednesday.

New York Yankee batting king Roger Maris was booked at the Fort Lauderdale police station Thursday night on assault and battery charges.

Maris, 35, a professional model who swore out a warrant against Maris accusing the outfielder of hitting him out-side was formally arrested and booked, and paid a $300 bond.

He is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Tuesday on the charge, which is a misdemeanor.

Modzelewski told police in an initial report he could not identify the assailant who first swore at him as he and a girl were leaving the bar. He said the assailant refused to apologize when he returned after taking his date outside, and then followed him outside and hit him.

Modzelewski said another man, not identified and not charged, was with Maris.

When he came to the station with an attorney Thursday night, however, Modzelewski said he was sure it was Maris who had hit him. He said he had not been thinking clearly immediately after the incident.

Two Resign Posts On Racing Board

LEESBURG (UPI) — The two Bryant administration holdovers on the racing commission — Sam L. Pyles and John A. Torode — turned in their resignations to Gov. Haydon Burns yesterday.

Shortly after he took office, the new governor said he planned to name his own men to the commission in place of Pyles and Torode.

Burns said he would replace them under the same supreme court advisory opinion which said he could appoint his own board of regents instead of settling the Bryant "lame duck" appointees.

When Pyles and Torode were appointed in the final hours of the Bryant days, Burns called it another attempt by Bryant to "usurp the power of his young administration.

In their letter of resignation Pyles and Torode told Burns they had stayed on "at some sacrifice to our personal feelings" because they felt staggered terms for commissioners are valuable. They said such terms leave one or more experienced hand in an agency during a government changeover following an election.

"(We feel) we have, in some small measure, called to the attention of the general public the advisability of staggered terms," they wrote. "We do hereby, therefore, submit our resignations to you effective immediately."

There are three others on the commission, all appointed after Burns took over.

JACKS OR BETTER — J. C. Martin of the White Sox is not playing the little girl game of jacks, despite appearances. The Chicago catcher has just been jarred loose from the ball by a runner scoring from third.

Aaron's 66 Leads Field

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI) — Young Tommy Aaron felt today that the $85,000 Greater Greensboro Open (GGO) represented a good opportunity for him to win the first major tournament of his five-year professional golf career.

The quiet, 28-year-old pro from Gainesville, Ga., put together a five-under-par 66 Thursday to take the first round lead in the GGO. To hold that lead today, he will have to outdo challengers Bill Martindale, England's Bernard Hunt, seven-time winner Sam Snead, young Dave Hill and veteran Phil Rodgers.

Martindale shot a 67 Thursday which included the fourth hole-in-one carded on the PGA tour this year. Hunt, a five-time Ryder Cup player, matched Martindale with five birdies and one bogey over the Seegerfield Country Club course.

Snead, 32, who said he had "a scroungy round" Thursday was tied with the 27-year-old Lawrence for fourth place. Each had 68. Rodgers, from Perdido Bay, Fla., had a 69.

"It takes a lot of luck to win," grinned Aaron. "If you play well enough to win, you win, but it also takes luck. I think it's possible to have things go my way."

All of the first-round leaders are looking for their first tournament victory of the year. Four of the players who scored tournament wins this year did it for the first time — George Archer, Red Funseth, Bert Weaver and Dick Hart.

Eleven other players broke par and were knotted at 70. They were Bobby Nichols, Gordon Jones, John Cook, Labron Harris Jr., Mike Souchak, Bert Weaver, Bob Reith Jr. and 1962 GGO champion Bill Casper.

Most of the other big-name golfers were either at par or just above it. Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, defending GGO champion Julius Buras, Tony Lama and Dave Marr were among 20 players tied at 71.

Trudeau Wins Ponce de Leon

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — Romeo Trudeau, the Canadian seniors champ, defeated Texas and western king Bud McKinney 1-up yesterday to win the annual Ponce de Leon Seniors golf championship.

McKinney, of Dallas, dealt himself the death blow on the 17th green, which he three-putted for a bogey. Trudeau won the contest by matching the Texan's even par on the final hole.

It was Trudeau's first major amateur win in this country. Both he and McKinney are expected to be in Bellair, Fla., this weekend for the start of the American Seniors tournament.

ture. What more could he want? "I have planned for ten years to become a director," says Sinatra. "Eventually I'll be too old to play the kind of characters I like. I've studied the methods of Hollywood's best directors, and have spent a lot of time in cutting-rooms helping to edit my own picture. I think I know acting and story values. Then I found this script at Warner Brothers, written by a Japanese and telling a Japanese World War Two story about the Marines from the view of the Japanese. It was the best script that made me decide to direct at this time."

Mrs. Virginia Bosch, Mrs. Gerry Eyer, Mrs. Ted Willis, Mrs. Cecelia Tullo, Miss Kathy Willis and Mrs. Brenetta Morris.

A personal shower was given by Miss Sharon Alexander, maid of honor, and her mother, Mrs. Juanita Alexander, at the Longwood home of Mrs. Hazel Rollin.

A white umbrella was placed above the honoree's chair. The illusion of rain was effectively created by yellow and lavender streamers from ceiling to floor. The yellow and lavender color scheme was carried throughout the decorations in keeping with colors chosen by the bride-elect for her wedding.

Refreshments of cake, fruit punch, nuts and mints, were served.

Attending were Mrs. Lommler, Mrs. Harville, Miss Pat Harville, sister of the groom-elect, and Miss Janice Lommler, sister of the bride-elect.

Also, Mrs. Patsy McEvers, Mrs. Donna McEvers, Miss Lynne Miller and Miss Billie Crook.

A miscellaneous shower was given by the Women's Missionary Union Circle of the First Baptist Church of Longwood with Mrs. B. R. Gray, Mrs. Clyde Whitehead and Mrs. Charles Dudley as hostesses.

The serving table featured a tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bells. Cake and fruit punch were served.

Personals

Mrs. W. R. Chandler and sons, David and Billy, of Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif., are currently visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McAlexander, in Loch Arbor.

Deadline Changed For Easter Hats Prize Contest

Kay Gallagher of the Florida State Bank, has announced that the Easter Hat Contest being sponsored by the bank has extended the deadline until 1 p.m. Monday, April 5, and advance registration is not necessary, as hats are in by the deadline. Prizes totaling $100 will be awarded to the organizations who have winners. Any organized women's or girls' club who has not made plans to compete, it is still not too late.

Perhaps many feel they have no artistic or creative ability, but are fluent with words. A prize will be awarded for the most befitting wording to name a bonnet in this case, rather than the hat itself.

Other categories which will be judged will be most original in design, best use of materials, prettiest and funniest.

For further information call Mrs. Gallagher or Irene Brown at 322-1611.

Research Reveals Modern Females Grow Old Later

LONDON (UPI) — Many women are staying younger longer.

Science documents the development. A British physician, Dr. J. J. Frommer reports that menopause is occurring about four years later than it did 100 years ago.

"There may be a link between later menopause and the decreased rate of aging," he said, in a British Medical Journal report.

Dr. Frommer says that the median age of menopause for 443 women who were patients at London's Royal Free Hospital was 50.1 years.

In 1845, menopause occurred at around 45 years of age. In ancient times, Dr. Frommer maintains, it occurred at about 40 years.

The doctor believes that later menopause may be a result of better nutrition and greater knowledge of how to keep healthy.

Raisins hold quality better in foil-draped cartons than in cellophane bags, home economists report.

FASHIONETTES

The Paris spring fashion collections are long since shown, but their memory lingers on—in the young, mobile and feminine look. Necklines for the most part were clean and pure with many collarless costumes or costumes with small collars rolled away from the neck. Shoulders showed a broadening trend with sleeves set in.

A famous rug designer now turns to comment on women's clothes. Edward Fields, custom rug maker, suggests that women could do well to select clothes by the same rules applied to home decoration. "The well-dressed lady is reminiscent of a tastefully-furnished room, in that neither looks contrived," said Fields.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. J. Y. Clark Jr., District Director of Florida Federation of Women's Clubs.

Transportation is a force for freedom

Free from the Dictates of Socialist Planners, the men and women of America's Transportation Industries, through their ingenuity and enterprise, have created the world's finest transportation network.

Unhindered by bureaucratic controls, this vast industry speeds the goods we produce — by land, by sea, by air — to the Nation's markets everywhere.

Without unwarranted search and seizure at state and county borders, our transportation facilities are able to work at peak efficiency as a continuing force for freedom.

Yet there are those who would undermine individual initiative by having the federal government own certain of our businesses.

Today, we must combat this creeping socialism and vigilantly defend our freedom of individual initiative and enterprise to keep America Powerful.

Today, as part of the world's greatest power system, investor-owned Florida Power & Light Company speeds expansion to keep abreast of our growing need for more power. As in the case of the Transportation Industry, our past achievements have been possible only because our Nation has been free of oppressive bureaucracy. We hope, through even more outstanding performance, to encourage the trend in America today which proposes more freedom for private enterprise so that industry may serve our Country even more efficiently.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

APRIL 2, 1965
10-11 p.m. CBS. Blatter's People. "Question: Bill Dally, Why Did You Come Home?" A drama about conformity by legislation, tract housing and vested interest set against the cliched background of the aroused, mindless populace.

9:30-10 p.m. NBC. Jack Benny Program. "Jack Appears On Panel Show." There's a running gag about Jack's posing for a publicity picture with pancakes on his head. Then when he joins an intellectual TV panel show (as a replacement) he's smothered by everyone else, until the subject turns to money. Panelists Vincent Price, Angie Dickinson and Dr. Joyce Brothers make merry at Jack's expense, but reward the viewer with a lot of laughs.

9:30-10:30 p.m. ABC. Hollywood Palace. An assortment of good names dots this fast-moving variety show. Lisa Kirk gets a few minutes to sing a few songs, Tim Conway steps out of his Ensign Parker disguise ("McHale's Navy") to do a comedy turn. Mild-mannered George Gobel works hard for his laughs and Barbara McNair punches her songs over with considerable style. Dale Robertson is the host.

State Employment Soars, Wright Says

TALLHASSEE (UPI) — Florida non-farm employment soared to its second highest point on record in February.

The Industrial Commission chairman, J. D. Wright Jr., of Sanford, said February's high of 1,595,000 was just 1,900 short of the record-shattering high of last December. It was 61,700 above a year ago.

"Significant increases from January in the tourist-related industries are indicative of a good tourist season," Wright said.

The service employment category was up 3,500 over January, as restaurants and other refreshment places gained 900 employees over the month.

Overall, February showed a gain of more than 4,000 non-farm workers employed in the state above January.

Unemployment held about steady in February at 73,600, about 19,000 below February a year ago.

Ring Takes Long Trip

The story of a lost wedding ring that had a yen for travel was revealed today by officials of T. Bosgraaf & Sons, celery packers and shippers at Hudsonville, Mich.

It all started when Henry Feenstra, a Bosgraaf packing house employe, found the 14-carat ring, mounted with diamond, in a crate of Florida celery he was unpacking on the line. He turned the ring in to the Bosgraaf office, noting that it came from a crate of celery shipped by the Belle Glade (Fla.) branch of A. Duda & Sons, of Oviedo.

A note was dispatcher to the Duda firm reporting the discovery of the ring, but it seemed that there was a very slim chance of finding its owner as nearly a month went by with no one claiming the valuable piece of jewelry.

Then last week the Bosgraafs received a letter from Mrs. Sara Ann Edwards of Belle Glade, stating that she had lost the ring. She included an accurate description of the diamond band.

Normally it would take some time to locate the owner of the ring among the hundreds of employes of the Duda celery operation, but it was even more difficult in this case since Mrs. Edwards had stopped working for Duda between the time she lost the ring and the time it was found in Hudsonville.

It also was rather surprising that hydro-cooling, handling and the long truck ride did not dislodge the ring from the celery and the crate during its journey.

The Bosgraafs sent the ring back to Mrs. Edwards but this time it made the trip in a smaller container.

Lifetime scoring record in the NFL is held by Lou Groza, of the Cleveland Browns, with 1,068 points.

The Global View That Commie Threat On Cyprus

By Leon Denson

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Even President Johnson's most pessimistic advisers are beginning to realize that it is against Russia's vital interest that Red China should become the dominant power in Southeast Asia.

However, according to specialists on communism, the Soviet leaders are just as vitally interested that their Chinese rivals and the United States should be embroiled in the Viet Nam conflict as long as possible.

While Moscow's two strongest adversaries are fighting each other the Russians have an opportunity to step up their campaign to undermine NATO in Europe and to bolster their political and military position in Africa and the Middle East.

The Germans retaliated by suspending economic aid to Nasser and offering diplomatic recognition to Israel. But they face a rupture in relations with a number of Arab countries.

This can only increase the chaotic political situation in the Middle East. And the Russians are past masters when it comes to fishing in muddy political waters.

To press their advantage, they have decided to speed up the shipment of arms, including missiles, to Cyprus in order to bolster the pro-Soviet regime of Archbishop Makarios. Hostilities between Greek and Turkish Cypriotes, dormant for some months, have as a result flared up.

More important is the fact that Russia is gaining a foothold on Cyprus, a military base of strategic importance to NATO. The Kremlin leaders have also succeeded in widening the dispute between two NATO partners, Greece and Turkey, into a major European and Middle Eastern problem with possible grave consequences for the Western alliance.

Moscow exploits skillfully the Turks' feeling of outrage against NATO and, above all, against the United States for not showing more understanding in the Cyprus conflict. In this case the new Soviet rulers are indeed continuing the "peaceful coexistence" policies of former Premier Khrushchev.

Shortly before he was ousted from power Khrushchev suggested to Turkey that she should abandon NATO as a price for Soviet neutrality in the Cyprus conflict. Turkey, like most nations bordering on Russia, has been traditionally anti-Soviet and Premier Inonu firmly rejected Khrushchev's suggestion.

But General Inonu is no longer in power and according to reports to the State Department the number of Turks now favoring a rapprochement with Russia has increased alarmingly in recent months.

Thus by stepping up the delivery of weapons to Cyprus Russia aims not only to gain a foothold on the strategic island but also to force Turkey to choose between NATO and Soviet neutrality.

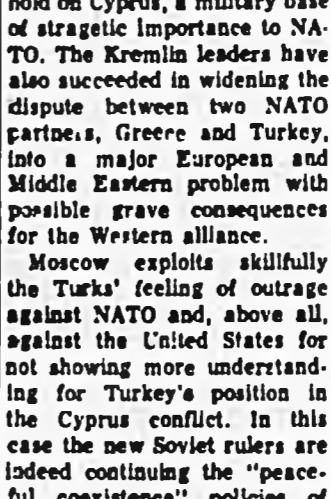

Time is not on the side of the West. The United Nations troops on Cyprus are no longer able to enforce agreements to maintain the truce between the Greek and Turkish Cypriotes and prevent the import of Soviet arms.

It is also too late to negotiate with Archbishop Makarios who, like Egypt's President Nasser, is now believed to be base on Cyprus which could be more dangerous to American interests than a Communist-ruled Viet Nam.

firmly on the side of Russia. However, it is not yet too late for the United States to press the Greek government to negotiate with Turkey an agreement to oust Makarios' illegal regime and remove Russia's missiles from the strife-torn island. America still has a great deal of influence in both countries.

LBJ Ponders VA Orders

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At least some of the 14 veterans' hospitals and old soldiers' homes due to be shut down July 1 could be saved under a compromise reported under discussion today.

President Johnson lent credence to the report Thursday when he told his news conference that he now had "some doubt" about the move, which brought cries of outrage from Capitol Hill when it was first announced late last year.

Infant Stevens Dies Wednesday

Laura May Stevens, 22-hour-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stevens, of Geneva, died at 9:42 p. m. Wednesday.

Survivors, other than her parents, are a sister, Barbara Lee, and a brother, Raymond Wade; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hall, of Sanford; great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hall, of Sanford; and her great-grandmother Mrs. Frankie Geiger of Geneva.

Brisson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Chief Executive said he had been studying the testimony on the closures given during six weeks of hearings by the House veterans affairs committee. He said he had directed Veterans Administration Chief William J. Driver to make a personal inspection of each of the facilities scheduled for closing.

"I am very anxious to see that no injustice is done," he said. "Our people, all of them who studied the details of it, feel they were justified in that decision but candor compels me to admit I have seen some of the hospitals and some of the testimony ... on them and they raise doubts in my mind whether we were a hundred per cent right."

Should a compromise on the closings fail to develop by Tuesday, the House veterans committee is ready with a bill which would keep all the facilities open until the committee has approved of each closing.

How To Get A Headache

A doctor in Cleveland, Ohio, may not know it yet, but he has made the boldest pronouncement since the U.S.A. called Russia's bluff in Cuba. This man said IN PUBLIC that one aspirin product or related compound is about as good as another. He actually said that:

"They're all good medicines, I suppose," he said, "but all of these combination products are probably no better and no worse than aspirin alone."

Anyone who has been exposed to the claims for various "aspirin products and related compounds" in the television commercials has to shudder for the good doctor.

One product as good as another, indeed! As television viewers know, each product is incomparably better than any other. In fact, all the others are—ugh.

Doctor, you'd better bolt the doors, shut off the phone, go to bed and take plenty of—well, you decide which one. We're chicken.

It makes you wonder.

Ugly Sound Of Silence

Among the many idiosyncrasies developed by Americans over the years, one of the strangest is our passion for sound and our evident dread of silence.

We live our lives amid the strident noises of workaday commerce: the clatter of the jackhammer as it rips up the pavement, the whir of ceaseless traffic, the wail of the police or fire sirens, the roar of the jets and the heavy trucks.

You might think that when we finally reach the sanctity of our homes in the evening we would revel in the quietude of privacy.

Not so. We hurry to the radio, the television set or the stereophonic hi-fi and turn it on full blast. Most of us keep it on until we are ready for bed, conversing over and through the lovely loudness of it.

Some of the younger of us even stuff a transistor radio beneath our pillow to lull us into dreamland and insure sleep undisturbed by quiet.

Oh the bliss of closing our eyes to the soothing sound of the Beatles or the relaxing strains of a hot combo straight from Dixieland!

We awake to the sound of a clock-radio. All day long we work to piped-in programs. We drive with the car radio blaring away, and we walk or ride the bus with a tiny radio glued to our ear.

Yes, it looks as though we have just about got silence licked. It is now possible to live our entire lives—awake and asleep—without ever having to endure a single moment of serenity.

With all these conveniences, how on earth can so many people get so jittery and crack up from tension?

Thought For Today

Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy scoffs, and an impious people reviles thy name.—Psalms 74:18.

Small people belittle your ambitions. The really great people make you feel that you, too, can become great.—Mark Twain.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Trouble At Grass Roots

President Johnson's Great Society has run into some bad trouble at the grass roots. More accurately, the bad trouble is at the roots of truck gardens and citrus groves in all areas of the United States where farmers raise perishable crops.

The worst of the trouble is in California and in Florida. Truck farmers and citrus growers in these states are pleading with Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz for farm laborers to harvest their crops. Wirtz is not tuned in to their pleas. The secretary hears more clearly the voices of President Johnson's liberal partners in the Great Society. Most clearly, Wirtz can hear the voices of organized labor and of Americans for Democratic Action ADA. Big labor, ADA and others long have protested the custom of importing Mexican and West Indian labor to harvest American truck and citrus crops.

The West Indians came in great numbers to the citrus groves of Florida, to the potato and snap bean farms of Long Island and elsewhere along the East Coast. The Mexicans, familiarly known as braceros, streamed across the border to earn U.S. dollars in Texas and California.

They were not compelled to work for U.S. dollars. They came to the United States on their own.

Under authority voted him by the U.S. Congress, Wirtz is moving to bar the Mexicans from the United States and to compel the West Indians to go home. He has cancelled work permits of 13,800 foreign farm laborers now in the United States and ordered them out.

LDJ's partners argue that U.S. farm workers labor under shocking conditions. Further, they contend that big growers take advantage of foreign and domestic workers alike but, especially, utilize the foreign imports to keep labor costs down. Wirtz and his Labor Department policy makers argue that there are 4 million unemployed Americans among whom the truck farmers and citrus growers should and must recruit their pickers, thus reducing unemployment totals which embarrassed the late John F. Kennedy's administration and continues to embarrass his successor.

Sounds like a good idea, the growers reply, but they claim they have tried to recruit Americans for these pickin' jobs without success. The Americans either will not or cannot do the work. So say the growers.

The growers further assert that their losses will be in the millions of dollars unless Wirtz relents, thereby hiking the prices of fruits and vegetables. It is not unreasonable to believe that Wirtz fears that ADA and big labor would have his head if he doubled-crossed them on this matter of imported farm labor.

The shame of it is that the average citizen—to whose food budget this dispute is important—has no means of ascertaining the facts for himself. If he distrusts Wirtz on suspicion of playing politics for leftwing votes, the average Joe may also distrust the growers on suspicion of demanding foreign labor because it is cheap.

Fortunately, however, there are some neutral voices. John F. Knight's well edited Miami Fla. Herald kids neither itself nor its readers. The Herald remarked editorially that Florida employers at their own expense had recruited jobless Americans to pick and to pluck.

"But it hasn't worked out," the Herald reported. "The Americans are not properly trained and don't do the job. Many vanish after a few days." They get to sunny Florida and go over the hill.

How about that, Mr. Secretary Wirtz? Answer up clearly, please.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Let us be entirely clear about what Mao Tse-tung's objectives are in South and Southeast Asia. These aims can best be outlined by going back 21 years when the U.S. Army and Navy sent some of us to Yenan, North China, to watch Mao and his government and to perform a variety of other duties connected with harassing the Japanese and aiding U.S. forces.

My own part in this action took eight months. As acting commanding officer of the American Military Mission to (observe) Communist China for half that time, it was my job to be in daily contact with Mao, Chu Teh, Chou En-lai or other of their top chieftains—the same men, with few exceptions, who are running Red China today.

Even then, when the Chinese Communists were headquartered in caves, they were planning for larger conquests when they became rulers of China.

There's was not the idle chitchat of Red underlings. It was the talk of the men who now comprise Red China's small, tight, top ruling circle.

They talked in blunt terms about "liberating" India, Burma, Thailand and all Indochina from the "imperialists."

Note that not only were India and Burma to be "liberated" from the British and the Nationalist Chinese, but Thailand was to be "liberated" from itself.

Even in this World War II period:

Mao forces were operating in what is now North Viet Nam and Laos. Mao's men were training Vietnamese, Laotians, Thai and Burmese.

Near Yenan, Mao was training an army of native Koreans, even though North Korea had not yet been formed and the Korean war would not come for years.

Those of us in Yenan watched Mao's men carefully screen Japanese prisoners. The susceptible ones were being indoctrinated in a cave school headed by the top-ranked Japanese Communist leader Ok-ano (later called Nozaka Sanzo). These brainwashed and schooled men would be sent back to Japan after World War II to do underground work for a Communist take-over.

This was at a time when Mao's armies were so weak the Japanese could take any territory the Reds held. The Nationalist Chinese could readily defeat them in open battle. Their central government had been pushed into the wastes of Yenan. Their only great strength was in the political-guerrilla underground in Japanese-occupied territory.

Mao's men, who had been at the Chinese revolution for 20 years, were planning for another two decades ahead. They knew it would be many years before they could get to some South Asian countries. Their "liberation" would take place gradually, one country, at a time. As one Mao man said, "organization is a slow thing."

But Mao was convinced there would come a ripe time for these take-overs. He was willing to plan, organize, infiltrate and wait.

Phil Newsom Says

Balance vs Peace

A basic policy of the United States in the Middle East has been to preserve a balance of military power between Israel and the Arab states as a means of preserving the peace.

Of late, however, two developments seemed to threaten both the balance and the peace.

These were the stepped up flow of arms from the Soviet Union to the Arabs and the increasing tension between Israel and the Arabs over Israel's diversion of waters from the Jordan River and the Arab's counter-plan to deprive Israel of those waters by diversion plans of their own.

Obviously neither the balance of power theory nor the rival plans for diversion of the Jordan provided any solution on the long-standing quarrel between the two groups which remained subject to upset by any sudden jar.

Against this background, the governments of the United States and West Germany suddenly find themselves thrust into a situation in which neither comes off with any great degree of honor.

The Germans especially seem to have fallen into a carefully laid Moscow-Cairo trap triggered by the visit of East German Communist strongman Walter Ulbricht to the United Arab Republic.

For the Germans the Ulbricht visit had serious political implications in that it seemed to imply Egyptian recognition of the East German state.

The ineptness with which the problem was handled could have serious repercussions against West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's government when it comes up for election next September.

West German reaction to the visit rested upon the 15-year-old so-called Hallstein doctrine which dictates that West Germany will break diplomatic relations with any government, except the Soviet Union, that recognizes East Germany.

The Ulbricht visit, however, involved more than that. It was preceded by a demand from U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser that West Germany cut off its arms aid to Israel. The alternative would be formal U.A.R. recognition of the East German regime.

The West German government capitulated to the blackmail, agreeing to cancel remaining deliveries of $90 million worth of arms promised to Israel in 1961.

Whereupon Nasser went right ahead with the Ulbricht visit, including a 21-gun salute upon his arrival.

I understand one has to have special permission to possess, sell or use fireworks in this state. Am I right?

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Sen. Paul H. Douglas invited me to his office at Washington, D. C., to see the expense of the false charges made against Krebiozen by our Food and Drug Administration. Since then, the FDA has been frantically trying to smear Dr. Ivy, though hundreds of formerly hopeless terminal cancer patients are now alive and well, with nothing but Krebiozen to explain their recovery!

CASE V-483: Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, America's foremost cancer medicine, has been advocating the controversial anti-cancer substance called Krebiozen.

Krebiozen is extracted from horse's blood by various solvents until it is finally obtained as a brownish powder. This is then dissolved in diluted mineral oil and injected into a muscle once per week via hypodermic needle.

Even the foes of Dr. Ivy admit that Krebiozen has no injurious medical side effects. Thus, it causes no headache, vomiting, pain, fever, or damage to vital organs.

So it will do a cancer victim no harm, even if it might not banish his malignancy.

But I have personally seen scores of formerly hopeless cancer patients, who had been operated on repeatedly and burned with all the X-ray they dared take, but whose cancers were still swelling up till their livers were bulging.

These patients were often in agonizing terminal pain that our medical drugs would not relieve.

And they had been told (or their doctors had warned their families) that they had nothing but a few weeks to live!

Yet I have personally seen them, now as long as 10 years later, with no symptoms of cancer but back on their jobs!

And nothing else explains these phenomenal effects except regular shots of Krebiozen!

But our Food and Drug Administration is manical in its hostility to Krebiozen, calling it rank quackery and even alleging that there is no such thing as Krebiozen.

Yet Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois (formerly a famous Ph.D. social scientist at the University of Chicago) not only demolished those propaganda arguments of our FDA, but even went on to describe the FDA as a victim of "bureaucratic schizophrenia."

The FDA then finally admitted there actually was something in the Krebiozen samples (after previously denying that fact) but this something was simply creative!

Yet its own scientists had admitted that while creatine is always white, Dr. Ivy's substance is always a tan or brownish color!

Their melting points and molecular weights also are not the same!

Spectrographic experts also pronounced their spectrographs as differing on 20 significant points.

And Prof. Roy Whistler, expert in carbohydrate chemistry at Purdue University, showed a dozen chemicals in Krebiozen that are not in creatine!

Yet the FDA, evidencing more of its "bureaucratic schizophrenia," still says Krebiozen is only creatine and is still hounding Dr. Ivy!

All Dr. Ivy asks is a fair test of Krebiozen. Take 1,000 women hopelessly dying of breast cancer.

Give 500 of them Krebiozen shots but omit Krebiozen from the other 500. In six months, just analyze the respective death rates!

That's all! Yet the FDA still refuses such a test!

Why?

Basically, I believe they are in terror of the relatives of 3,000,000 dead cancer victims!

They have allowed those 3,000,000 cancer victims to die in the past 14 years during this Krebiozen feud.

Suppose Krebiozen were now proved only partially helpful, (say in one case out of three), that would mean only 1,000,000 needless deaths! Imagine the anger of those relatives!

To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

I wish to take the opportunity through your newspaper to express my appreciation and thanks to all the fine people of Sanford and Seminole County who made my tour of duty at NAS (Shore Patrol) the top duty I have had. Working with them has been not only a pleasure but a privilege. To a fine county, a fine city and a wonderful people: Thank you.

(It's cold here.)

The American Army of the Revolution was disbanded on Nov. 3, 1783.

We had the same experience a few weeks ago. When doing a little investigation I learned "slumber parties" were being held and that the sleepless children had amused themselves by ringing phones at random. One family had to take its phone off the hook.

We are elderly people and our sleep comes dearly sometimes. Where were the parents?

A few weeks ago we had a siege of firecrackers (cannon size) in our neighborhood. Was very annoying to the grownups. But my little dog that is terrified at hundred or any such noise suffered a heart attack. One child was reprimanded for the throwing of a cracker at a dog.

I understand one has to have special permission to possess, sell or use fireworks in this state. Am I right?

Horoscope Forecast

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1965
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening when you are highly activated carefully to think out the ways and means by which you can add to your money and possessions. Also whatever has to do with itemized budgets or formulas for a greater amount of efficiency to care for mundane needs is highly powerful just now.

Horoscope Forecast

AQUARIUS Jan. 21 to Feb. 19

—Good day to sit back and think of basic matters and set a better footing on life. A visitor or one who dwells at home has A-1 ideas for you. Accept them.

FISCHS (Feb. 25 to Mar. 20)

—A fine free day to garner information you require and that is easily accessible now. Go about seeing the persons involved. Then you make big headway, get problems solved, and you're coasting to home TODAY. He or she will attract influential persons early who will be interested in seeing to it that you have the best of the offering for your most talented and charming progeny. Be sure to have only the finest youngsters about early to prevent errors that can well be avoided, since the life is spent pretty much in own environs—travel here in only for business.

MONDAY, APRIL 2, 1966

GENERAL FORECAST:

You awaken restless and eager to make some changes in your life, but you caution to wait until a more propitious time. Others are now likely to be so upset that they break through the barrier of their own inhibitions, counting the cost that is involved. This is a situation out of ordinary studies.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19)

—If you do not plan time and activities wisely, you can certainly do a lot of things without purpose. Don't depend on shattering deals. Be very practical and down-to-earth.

TAKES (Mar. 20 to Apr. 20)

—Property matters are best handled by being very practical and down-to-earth. Don't pigeon-hole your bills. Get as many paid as you possibly can and feel secure.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)

—If you are thorough in all of your labor, fine, interesting deals can be made in a jiffy. Be more attractive in appearance. Others will then be very eager to ally themselves with you.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)

—Why be discouraged because you seem to have gone awry? Know that whatever happens is always for the best. Be realistic, with others in a position to do you favors right now, but it is possible it could be vice versa. Be graceful. Don't get about socially and throw money away.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

—Negating on your obligations could certainly cause you to lose face with the higher-ups you depend upon now. Get your work done as quickly as possible, precision, too. Show you are on the beam.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

—New modes of operation are very attractive, but be sure you first consider well any changes to be made. Beware of some new acquaintances. Ideas may be quite faulty and ephemeral.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

—Better rely on logical thinking instead of following intuition today which could be quite erroneous. Pay your bills. Get personal obligations behind you quickly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

—Your partners are extremely pressed, so don't rely on them for personal favors or help. Be more dignified, self and carry through with promises. Then you get ahead just the same.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

—You are tempted to go off to some seemingly greener pasture and forget your obligations. This would be folly. Be more precise in the execution of your labor.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

—Seeking entertainment is all right, provided you get vital tasks completed and are not extravagant. Bring best talents before right people. Get their assistance.

FISCHS (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

—Since it is possible you are not feeling quite up to par, labor carefully and diligently, so you do not overdo. Get small duties out of the way. Bid yourself of whatever is about.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY,

there will be much excitement in the future. Your progeny will begin things with much fervor but then quickly lose interest. If you do not teach never to start what cannot be completed, and to finish what is once started, a worthy and inventive mind here. Send to college and give as comprehensive a course as possible.

IF YOU WOULD,

What you make of your life is largely up to you! Career, Rights, Individual Forecasts for your sign for May is now ready. For your copy send your birthdate and $1.00 to Carroll Richter, Forecasts, The Sanford Herald, Box 1981, Hollywood 28, California.

The three-day tourney brings together 120 young golfers from schools including Miami, Wake Forest and Florida State. These three seem like the hottest contenders.

Also hits Homer Ricks Allen hit a two-run homer and Tony Taylor contributed a triple good for two more runs in the Phillies' bombardment of pitcher Jim May. May, Ray Cota and Jack Sheehan limited Cincinnati to 14 hits, including seven Johnstone home runs.

Beyond the Blossoms

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When the buds burst into fragile flower, and their breath is everywhere, and a warming breeze caresses the cold, damp earth... this is more than Spring. This is the time of Promise.
For these same festive branches shall lift a precious burden of fruit when the red-gold mantle of harvest falls across the land.
When human souls awaken to the reveille of faith, and hymns and prayers fill the arches of heaven, and the warmth of an agonies hope reaches from heart to heart... this is more than Lent.
For the faith which blossoms today will bear its own precious fruit. Love! Joy! Peace! The harvest of souls like yours and mine is beginning anew to grow.

Hold Line On Tax, Solon Says

Port Authority Measure Faces No Opposition

By Dave Fountain
(Sanford Herald Bureau)
TALLAHASSEE — Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr., of Seminole County, at a pre-legislative interview here today before the opening of the 1965 Legislature Tuesday, stated that his primary concern this session is to hold the line on taxes.

"The problem is to provide the services that the people want and stay within the current budget," he said.

Senator Cleveland also made it clear if the people wanted more services than they would not vote for the extended service without providing additional sources of revenue to keep the budget balanced.

Cleveland said that as far as he knew there is no opposition to the formation of a port authority for Sanford.

He did say that he would propose an amendment to the law passed last session providing for the feasibility study of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal District. He made it very clear that he would NOT propose any drain on county or city taxes, either intangible or ad valorem taxes.

The proposed amendment would allow the canal district to offer revenue certificates to public sale to bonding houses with sources such as toll collections within the county to be used as collateral.

Senator Cleveland decided to withhold any statement on Gov. Haydon Burns' road financing plan until he had time to study it more thoroughly.

While legislators scurried over the capital today getting ready for Tuesday's opening of the 1965 session, Governor Burns went to an undisclosed hide-out to rehearse his message.

Nobody would tell where the Governor is, except that he is "out of town" going over his 10,000 word message to the afternoon session at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

The speech, which will include Burns' first report to the legislators on the "State of the State" as well as his recommendations for improvements, will run about 50 or 60 minutes.

It will be published and available not only to legislators for study but also to any interested citizen, Burns said.

The Governor's office was a breath-taking sight to visitors today in its newly-decorated splendor—sparkling in lovely tones of blue and gold.

The $40,000 redecorating job included complete repainting of the walls in a soft shade of blue, and a mural covering half of one wall showing an old southern mansion and oak trees. All the furniture was done over and new drapes hung.

Down the hall, the secretary of state's office also looked brand new, done over in shades of dark gold, dark red and dark green to give it a Williamsburg look.

One-Cent Bread Price Increase Seen

$200 Million Saving Eyed By President

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson asked Congress today to adopt farm legislation which would save the government about $200 million, but increase the price of bread to the housewife by an estimated one cent a loaf.

In addition to the rise in bread prices, Agriculture Department officials estimated that the new farm measure would mean a hike of a "few pennies per pound" in the retail price of rice.

The proposed legislation would shift some farm price support costs from the Treasury to the retail food-buyer.

The estimated $200 million annual saving this would bring would come principally in the government's wheat and rice support programs with the consumer picking up the tab for domestic marketing certificates.

It was expected that the total cost increase to the consumer would amount to about $300 million. The $100 million difference between that cost and the anticipated government saving would represent an increase in farm income.

In addition to the wheat and rice programs, Johnson asked for legislation covering feed grains, wool, cropland adjustment and transfer of allotments.

The domestic and export marketing certificates now used in the wheat program would be continued and also applied to rice.

By setting the value of the two certificates, the government could advance the domestic price of wheat and rice, while keeping export prices competitive with world prices.

Blue Angels, Vapor Trails Will Perform

The six-day Reconnaissance Bombing Derby, one of naval aviation's most comprehensive air training exercises, began today at Sanford Naval Air Station with a test of skill by bomb loading crews.

The Derby will end Saturday in a burst of air artistry by the Navy's famous Blue Angels flight precision team.

The Blue Angels will anchor a 2 1/2 hour air show highlighting a public open house observance at the air station Saturday.

Sharing the spotlight with the Angels will be "The Flying Professor," Piper Cub aerobatic act which was seen by more than 30,000 persons at the Seattle World's Fair in 1962.

The Navy last week added a third outside attraction to its 11th annual show, the Jacksonville Naval Air Station "Vapor Trails" parachute team.

Demonstrations of air refueling, bombing and precision flying by Sanford-based Vigilante and Skywarrior pilots will round out the action in the air.

On the ground, a colorful military review will be held for presentation of trophies to squadrons and flight crews winning the week's exercise events.

The Derby's first competitive even, a weapons loading exercise, began this morning at 7 a. m. Ordnance crews representing each of the four participating squadrons matched their efficiency and speed in loading inert nuclear "shapes" into position on exercise aircraft.

During the next four days Sanford aircraft will be conducting reconnaissance and simulated strike missions over much of Florida and the South eastern United States.

Yanks Defy Reds

SAIGON (UPI) — American planes defied stiffened North Vietnamese air defenses today and carried out two devastating attacks on Communist territory.

Sixteen U. S. Air Force F105 jet fighter-bombers hammered Communist rail and highway traffic 120 miles south of Hanoi.

An armada of 60 U. S. Navy bombers from the aircraft carrier Coral Sea struck radar installations just north of the 17th parallel border.

One of the F105s was shot down by anti-aircraft fire but the pilot was rescued.

All of the Navy planes returned safely to the Coral Sea as it steamed through the South China Sea, a spokesman said.

The Navy planes poured tons of bombs and napalm jellied gasoline on the radar station at Vinh Linh, a target which has been hit on several previous occasions. No enemy opposition was encountered.

Inside South Viet Nam, an American soldier was killed today in a helicopter crash in the mountains 190 miles north of Saigon.

Two U. S. Army advisers were wounded Sunday in a clash with the Viet Cong in Binh Dinh Province 300 miles northeast of Saigon.

As the tempo of the war quickened on both sides of the 17th parallel, U. S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor returned to Saigon with new plans to boost American military strength.

Taylor was in Washington last week for high-level strategy talks in Washington with President Johnson and Defense Department officials.

Taylor told newsmen today that President Johnson was "heartened and encouraged by the progress which our Vietnamese allies are making."

"We have a difficult road ahead... but I believe it should be clear to friend and foe alike that our commitment here is irrevocable," Taylor said.

Storms Lash South, Dump Snow In North

United Press International
Winds up to 50 miles drove thunder and hail storms across the Southern Plains and Midwest today. A huge sleet and snow storm pushed eastward out of Wyoming.

Several tornadoes were reported in Oklahoma Sunday night, and one destroyed a farm house at Bartlesville, Okla., was pelted by hail more than an inch in diameter. Heavy rain and large hailstones lashed an area south of Wellington, Kan., today.

An inch and a half of rain fell at the Strategic Air Command headquarters south of Omaha, Neb., today. Winds gusted to 50 miles an hour at Wichita Falls, Tex.

The rain turned to snow in the Northern Plains and central Rockies, where three inches fell on Casper, Wyo., and up to four inches was forecast for a wide band extending into Minnesota.

Stockmen were warned to protect livestock in South Dakota and north central Nebraska from the heavy wet snow.

The Weather Bureau said the thunderstorms would increase in intensity later today in the Southern Plains and middle Mississippi Valley.

Spelunkers Send SOS

FIFTYSIX, Ark. (UPI) — Four missing explorers, trapped in rain-flooded Rowland cave, flashed an "SOS" to rescue workers today by temporarily short circuiting a string of lights leading deep into the cavern.

Hale Bryant, of Batesville, Ark., experienced cave explorer and head of rescue operations, said the men "ate alive."

Members of the Navy Deep Sea Diving School and the National Capital cave rescue team, both in Washington, arrived early today at the site of the remote cave in the foothills of the mist-shrouded Ozark Mountains. They immediately began a search for the spelunkers.

Commies Harass Berlin Traffic

BERLIN (UPI) — The Communists today harassed German road traffic to West Berlin and threatened to disrupt Allied air links to the city 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

East German police threw the lifeline truck and auto traffic from West Germany into chaos with slowdowns and road blockades.

At the same time, the Russians attempted to take over space in the Western Allies' three 20-mile-wide air corridors linking West Berlin with West Germany.

Movie Stars
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Movie stars from around the world converged on Hollywood today for the 37th annual Academy Awards, distinguished by the return to popularity of big, glossy musicals.

Bryant said he believed the spelunkers were being smart by not moving around.

"They are experienced cave explorers and doing what they should—stay put," Bryant said. Bryant said water was beginning to recede in the cave. It had fallen slightly more than an inch in the last six hours. He said two plans to rescue the explorers were under consideration.

One plan would be to take food to the men and wait for the water to recede. The other would be to take them scuba diving equipment, teach them how to use it, and then come out.

The missing men included two seasoned cave explorers, one of them Hugh Shell, who has diabetes. Shell, 42, a bookkeeper from Batesville, Ark., was said to have a three-day supply of medicine with him.

The other three are college students and were identified as Mike Hill, 19, a student at Arkansas College in Batesville and an experienced cave explorer; Hogie Bledsoe, 20, also a student at Arkansas College and Steve Wilson, 20, a student at Arkansas Tech in Russellville.

Bryant said the string of lights extends 900 feet into the cave and ends in the "cathedral room" which is some 40 feet high.

"We believe they are in the room and well above the water," Bryant said.

Earlier six scuba divers managed to get about 200 feet into the cave but were driven back to land by the coldness of the water.

One diver was hospitalized after having an attack of "the bends." He was not in serious condition.

A crowd of about 100 gathered before the cave entrance, alternately happy and dejected as the varying reports came.

With the crowd were relatives.

Hill's father, Nuel Hill, said hopefully he thought the four would be all right. He said they all knew how to take care of themselves and earlier he said the "SOS" meant they were all right.

He said if they were where the water could not reach them they would be safe.

THESE GIFTS WILL BE PRESENTED to the lucky winners during the annual Auto Show in downtown Sanford Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. DeWitt Mathews, chairman of the Greater Sanford Board of Trade, displays a color TV, a portable TV and a stereo record player.

Auto Show This Week

First Street in downtown Sanford between Park and Palmetto Avenues will be turned into a mall for three days this week at the Sanford merchants division of the Greater Sanford Board of Trade and the Sanford Automobile Dealers Association combine a unique auto show with a spring sales fete.

Gifts, entertainment, bargains in both autos and merchandise will be featured in the three-day event.

More than 150 brand new automobiles from seven dealers will glitter in the street with displays opening daily at 11:30 a.m. and continuing until 9 p.m. in the evening. All stores will remain open with hundreds of pre-Easter bargains expected to be displayed, for the thousands of shoppers expected to crowd the area.

Three prizes, a 21-inch color television set, a stereo console record player and a portable television set will be given away in drawings held each night.

Tickets are available at all stores. The portable GE television set will be given away Wednesday evening; the GE stereo on Thursday evening, and the RCA color TV on Friday evening.

A special added attraction will be the appearance of Glenn Reeves, famous television personality and his show which will be held each night at 7 p.m. and again at 8:30 p.m.

Auto dealers who will feature the very latest models in 1965 cars will include Hinkle Chrysler-Plymouth, Seminole County Motors, Strickland Storrison, Ellinger Motor Company, Bill Hemphill Motors, Hunt Lincoln-Mercury and Holler Motor Sales.

Cross your fingers. Knock on wood.

If Sanford gets through April without a traffic death it will have been two years since a fatality on city streets. Quite a record and something the city can really be proud of.

Sign on billboard near Orange City: "Open Under Old Management."

A man selling Bibles in the city was arrested the other day. No permit.

There's romance in the old boys, yet. We're talking about the waterways committee of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce. They really went for that full moon in June for the St. Johns cruise. (That's poetry, son.)

The telephone company is attacking its neck out again. Bob Shelden of Southern Bell says every customer in DeBary, Deltona and Enterprise will receive a return postcard in the next few days asking for comments or criticism of service.

"We're not necessarily seeking compliments," says Shelden.

"Our purpose is to find out which customers have complaints so that our company can try to remove the causes of these complaints," he adds.

Shelden says the phone company will contact everyone who replies unfavorably and try to make every effort to clear up the source of dissatisfaction.

Speaking of telephones, we heard the other day about a Winter Park woman whose phone bill runs as high as $2,000 per month! And she's not a bookie, either. She likes to talk and has plenty of money.

Also on phones: Atlanta has the largest metro phone exchange in the nation—maybe in the world. You can call as far as 50 miles away and the phone bill is still only $6.75 per month. Five counties and more than a million people are in the metro exchange area.

A "Herald Angel" will become a "Blue Angel" this week. Fred Van Pelt, managing editor, will go supersonic with the crack Navy flying team when it appears here for the Bombing Derby.
