TABLETS LIQUID N.Y., as Congress passed a bill

By HAROLD A. HARRIS First Christian Church

"He took the cup." Familiar words are these to the Christian. In this season of the year church members will not only be hearing these words, but will on World Wide Communion Sunday, October 7, join in a spiritual fellowship with Christians around the world in coming to the Lord's Table and partaking of the cup, in remembrance of the cup of suffering of which our Lord drank on the cross.

the vine. But if your eyes have been anointed by the Holy Spirit you will see much more. Can you imagine what it means to have the blood drained from your body? Through the cup you can see the emaciated body of Jesus Christ. In the cup you can see His face full of sorrow, such as man

Then you can see that look of infinite love showing thru the sorrow? No matter how much you have failed Him, if you see His sorrow you will see His love. You will also see His forgiveness. How wonderful it is. It is not a partial, but a full forgiveness. You will see your freedom-freedom from condemnation to eternal death, and the gift of eternal life.

These are but a few of the things to be seen in the cup. Now the cup represents His blood given for us. As you partake of the fruit of the vine, it is a symbol of your receiving life from Him. You are a new creature by transfusion. The same things that you see in the cup should become a part of you. Not that others may see a great demonstration of it, but you are conscious of these characteristics of Him in your life.

Perhaps you may see the look of disappointment as Peter did. How many times we have failed Him. We failed to use the strength He has offered to us. Perhaps we may not deny Him audibly, but we may have denied Him by our silence! Can you look upon those who have wronged you as Jesus looked at Peter? Certainly there is always pain in woundings. But is there that beam of love which shines through and beyond your sorrow?

When you think of the millions who know nothing of the cup into which you have looked and from which you have gotten life and joy, are you grieved? Is your heart torn? His was and

Yes, He took the cup, one which no one else can ever take When you take the cup it is a profession of your remembrance of all that His cup involved. Keep remembering, and above all remember that through His blood you have life and it is a life like His, to be shared with others. Remember that in the days to come you took the cup. Don't let this be just another Communion Service. Make it an experience that will deepen your spiritual life!

As we observed Worldwide Communion Sunday, we indeed eat one bread, and one body. It is a day in which to rejoice in the oneness of Christ's body. The ensuing decade, has discovered unities in the Lord's table deeper and probably more significant than simultaneous observance. That is the recognition of sharing in the celebration as the single most ingful and inclusive act in Christian worship.

Study and discussion of the eucharist (a traditional term for the Supper, based on the element of thanksgiving-Greek eucharista-in it) is demanding increased attention amongst churchmen. Driven to Scripture as the common basis of investigation, Roman Catholics, Anglicans, Orthodox, Lutherans, Reformed, Methodist and other groups have (as one of them stated) "made tremendous progress toward recognizing the eucharist for what it is intended-a acrament, a sign of unity...central act of worship of the

Electrical Probe Continues

The Sanford Herald

By MARK WEINTZ

Herald Staff Writer The end may be in sight for the Seminole County Grand Jury probe into conflict of interest charges against the county board of electrical examiners and other building department

Friday, Oct. 5, 1973-3A

While no official word or findings or possible indictments has been given, indications are that the grand jury will consider indictments against at least some members of the electrical board, and possibly of other county and municipal officials.

Among the allegations against the board that have been substantiated by testimony, The Herald has learned, are the following:

On at least one occasion, a board member personally postdated a construction permit application after the job had already been completed, but not inspected as required by

Revenue Loss Faced If Cities File Late

TALLAHASSEEE, Fla. (AP) — Comptroller Fred Dickinson says cities could lose part of their $154 million in state revenue sharing funds if they fail to file financial

Dickinson called a meeting of Florida mayors today to brief them on new reporting requirements imposed by the

"This meeting is extremely important to our cities since they face possible loss of revenues if their reports are not compiled properly and on time," Dickinson said in announcing the session.

When lawmakers earmarked $154.6 million in revenue sharing funds for cities, Dickinson said they also made him responsible for determining each municipality's share of the money.

Dickinson already has been charged with collecting similar fiscal information from counties. State law requires cities to submit their financial reports to Dickinson shortly after the end of each calendar year. If cities fail to meet the deadline, Dickinson conducts an audit or orders one by an outside auditor paid for

Japanese Take A Look At Themselves

The "introspection boom" is riding a crest of popular and intellectual attention in Japan. During the last year, more than 40 new books were published on the general theme of "What is

The Japanese call this self-examination of their individual and national character "nihonjim-ron" and it is a theme that is discussed these days in Tokyo tearooms as well as in the academic halls of Kyoto.

Japan's seemingly sudden bursting-forth as a world power is one factor in this national quest

Author Hirshi Minami suggests that the recent Meiji Restoration Centennial, the suicide of author Yukio Mishima on Nov. 25, 1970, and the discovery in January 1972, of former imperial soldier Shoichi Yokoi-who had been hiding on Guam for 28 years-were among the stimulants for national self-examination.

(Reader Ray Worsley, Santa Monica, Calif. writes to comment: "About the World War II Japanese soldiers still hiding in the island jungles, ashamed to go home in defeat: Tell them Japan won the war; take them home; they'll never know the difference.")

The history of nihonjin-ron has always been a dichotomy balancing claims of Japanese superiority against charges of Japanese inferiority to Westerners.

Back in 1891, Setsurei Miyake wrote a book called "The True, Virtuous and Beautiful Japanese." He followed this with a work the Even today, the Japanese have not resolved this ambivalence. On the level of ideas at least, as an author named Yoshimi Takeuchi points out, the Great East Asian War (World War II in the Pacific) was at the same time an imperialist war (Japan, the aggressor) and an antiimperialist war (Japan, the liberator of Southeast Asian colonial states). A number of foods, including wheat, may be higher in price and more difficult to get in the future because of a shortage of fertilizer, which in turn is due to a shortage of gas which is because gas companies have found it unprofitable to expand exploration and production sufficiently. The shortage of petroleum in part is a shortage of refining fineries, uncertainties over environmental regulations and the environmental fight over the Alaskan pipeline.

The shortage of electric power is to a degree a result of stiff new anti-pollution requirements and confusion over what the future holds. The shortage of low-pollution coal needed for power plants is intensified by a lack of knowledge as to what mining practices will be allowed, in view of the new emphasis on preserving the landscape. Calculations by the research staff of the Federal Reserve

Board indicate that in the first half of 1973 the rate of capacity utilization in plants producing steel, cement, aluminum synthetic fibers, paper, paper board and in petroleum refin-ing was at the highest level in more than two decades. Officials have, with some well-advertised exceptions, paid little attention to practical, workable investment incentives. Investment in new capacity was discouraged, too, by the relatively low profits of corporations in the 1966-71 period.

Soviet Threats Denied

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) - The Eagles of the Palestine Revolution (EPR) today denied responsibility for Thursday's guerrilla threat to attack Soviet embassies abroad unless Moscow halts Jewish emigration to Israel. It called the ultimatum, attributed to it by the Beirut newspaper An Nahar, a "forgery aimed at casting doubts about the close friendship and cooperation between the Soviet Union and nationalist forces in the Arab world." The group clearly indicated it was part of the Syrianbacked Saiqa guerrilla group, whose actions usually reflect Syrian government policy. Neighbors in Houston lead a dog's life

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I do not approve of turning a .22 on a dog either, but I can understand why someone might. What I can't understand is people who insist upon keeping large dogs in the city. They send their dogs [some large as ponies] to do their dirty jobs on neighbors' lawns. Loose dogs chase children and bicycles and threaten pedestrians. On the other hand, fenced-in dogs often spend the entire day barking. The owners are usually gone ail day and don't believe it when they are told their dogs bark Similarly, dogs kept outside at night go on a five-minute barking spree every few hours all night long. One lady told me she wants her dog to bark at night because she likes the sound. Well, I don't!

DEAR R. G.: Whether large dogs are kept in the city for protection, hunting, or as household pets, unless they are well trained and kept under control night and day, they are a public nuisance and, as such, should be carted offwith their owners-to Siberia.

DEAR ABBY: Like "Me" in Illinois, and the daughter who takes care of "Grandma" who puts $200 a month in the bank, I took care of my stepfather for four years and paid for two of his trips to the hospital.

When he died I requested his heirs to honor our "out-ofpocket" expenses that were spent directly for him. [I had check stubs for verification.] They laughed at me.

I hired a lawyer, turned in a bill for his keep for four years, his hospital bill, and his funeral expenses. The lawyer got me twice what I had asked for, AFTER his per-I really loved my steplather, and would have cared for

And how do I get rid of them? BUGGED IN NEVADA

DEAR BUGGED: I wrote to the University of Nevada Entomology Department, College of Agriculture, Reno, and heard nothing from them. Then I phoned the University of Minnesota's Entomology Department where I was graciously told: "Have the lady send a sample of the bug to us. We'll identify it and remedy her bug situation." By Joanne and Lew Koch

Today we take great pleasure in announcing the Reformed Male Chauvinist of the Year Contest.

Write us a letter of not less than 100 words and not more than 500 words explaining why your husband or boyfriend, boss or colleague deserves the Family Lib Reformed Male Chauvinist of the Year Award.

We will send $25 in cash to the author of the best letter, $15 to the second prize winner, $10 to the third. We will print or excerpt the prize-winning letters and cite letters

We expect most letters to be written by wives and girlfriends of ex-chauvinsists, but if you are a man and want to nomimate yourself or another male, your entry will receive equal consideration.

The important things to include in your entry letter are: 1. His (yeur) worst offenses as a chauvinist:

Wolf-whistles, underpaying secretaries or other female mployees, relegating your wife to the kitchen, treating her as a servant, cubjecting her to such Bunkerisms as "dingbat" or "stifle," (or implying same), giving your daughters less-than-equal educational opportunities, dis-"unfeminine" - these are only a few of the endless

2. What triggered the change in his attitude and ac-

Name any book or writer, friend, religious or political leader who has been instrumental in the change. Feminists such as Germaine Greer, Gloria Steinem or Betty Friedan may have influenced him. But demands from wives, girlfriends, daughters or sons may have played a bigger part in altering stereotyped views. Circumstances may have changed him — unemployment, a salary boost, new responsibilities because his wife has gone to work, or taken a vacation a new haby the response of a salary a new oney, the reappearance of an old

2. How do you know this male chauvinist has reformed? What has he done recently to prove that he has changed his attitude towards women? Changes are not always revealed in dramatic events. Sometimes small and subtle gestures are the most significant. When Lew cooked dinner for the family and included peas on the menu — a vegetable which he abhors — I knew he had arrived. Oh, he still has a long way to go be it measures the most form. has a long way to go, but I measure change from how far he has come, in Lew's case all the way from not lifting a finger in the house to regular and frequent help, from never changing a diaper to active participation in the care of our three children.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Listening closely to opinions expressed by those in power is the best course of action today. Then, later you can gain your objectives by a forceful attitude. Good for delightful entertaining. Avoid criticism of others.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are able to make new and interesting friends today, but sidestep the boring and the troublesome. Read good books that could be educational as well as pleasurable. Relax tonight. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A forceful attitude toward others, especially higher-ups, could result in trouble today or tonight. Don't forget to pay an important bill on time. Show that you are a fine citizen. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Don't give up a new interest simply because you have not studied the details carefully. Get busy with obtaining the data. Going off on a tangent now could lead to real trouble. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Be sure to complete any jobs you have left undone and make good use of your hunches. Listen to mate more and you increase the harmony at home. Avoid one who bickers. LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you first listen to what associates have to say, you can come to a real understanding with them now so that conditions are improved in the future.

Stop being so demanding. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Do your share of any work connected with agreements you have made, but make sure you are not stepping on the toes of others. Health treatments can help you become a more vital person. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you show good pals you like being with them, you can have a wonderful time today. Don't waste time feeling sorry for yourself. Show others that you are

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you listen carefully to what others have to say at home, you can improve conditions there appreciably. Help them to gain their cherished airms. Don't be forceful with others.

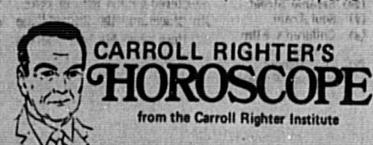

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Keep a vital appointment but make sure you don't become too demanding. Much care in travel is necessary if you want to be sure to avoid an accident. Entertain tonight. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) A more conservative attitude is necessary rather than a dramatic one today for the best results. Cut down on present expenses and build up a cash reverve. Evening is fine for fun. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Instead of fretting, get busy and to whatever will make conditions better for you and ers at home. Don't force anyone to do things your way. Use the more gentle approach. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Engage in confidential activities now that will help put your affairs in better shape. Listen to the troubles of others but don't become too involved. Take it easy tonight.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those delightful young people who will be so involved with the troubles of others that it would be well to direct the education along lines of humanitarian work, medicine and the like. Getting into government or police work is also fine here. Teach not to give advice to others unless asked. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

POLLY'S POINTERS Taking Up Slacks Is Her Pet Peeve

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY - My Pet Peeve concerns women's slacks. o many of them are made of heavy knit that is bundlesome. The waistband is made of the same material and a big wide piece of elastic is inserted inside that is always so tight it makes one feel like there is an inflated tube around the waist. I remove such bands, replace with a soft facing and use smaller elastic. This is a lot of trouble to go to with a new garment. They also sew the wide elastic to the band and slacks so the elastic cannot be pulled out and the entire band has to come off and be redone. - MRS. T. J.

Polly Problem DEAR POLLY - I do hope someone has help for a man who wants to know how to clean pewter that has become black and badly tarnished. Also, how can one be certain whether or not a piece of pewter is coated with silver? - CARLIE

DEAR POLLY - Mrs. L. W. B. can clean her washing nachine screen strainer by soaking it in vinegar, diluted if desired. I soaked mine overnight and then used an old toothbrush to scrub it under running water to make it look like new. (Polly's note - Such cleaning should be necessary only occasionally. Cleaning with a brush after each use should keep the strainer in good shape. I also find a crumpled paper towel works well when used just after each wash load.) -DEAR POLLY - I fastened a single wood embroidery hoop to the outer corner of my ironing board. Before I plug in the iron cord, I slip it through the hoop and the cord slides back and forth through the hoop and is not in the way as I iron. I use a large safety pin to fasten the hoop and leave it there all the time. Friends and relatives all seem to like this idea very much. - MRS. S. E.

DEAR POLLY - When I'm giving a dinner party the gravy boat always seems to empty the quickest. By the time the guests are ready for seconds of gravy it is cold. I solved the problem by using my fondue pot over the flame so it keeps warm. It holds more gravy, too. - SUSAN DEAR POLLY - Until recently, we had trying times with dogs digging holes in our lawn. Finally I dumped coffee grounds into the ill-favored spots, spread some on the grass to keep the grounds from showing and to date no more dogs

Herald Staff Writer

Well sports fans, it is again the time of week for the local pigskin prognosticators to come out in the open with those hidden thoughts concerning this week's grid battles. The guy who normally writes this column is sick in bed with frustration at trying to climb to the top of the pickin' heap; a feat that is, I dare say, next to impossible con-

Last week's scores show ever so humble scrubs me on the top again (as usual) with a 13-1 record that was only man ed by a four point difference.

One must admit however, that the field is closing in. Herald scribe Lee Geiger is sporting a hefty 12-2 log that puts him at one game out (and he says I steal his material!) J Richards does steal Geiger's material and still can't do anything with it. Poor J still has considerable difficulty with the complexity of the Anglo-Saxon, and to top it off he is almost blind. J has stolen enough to amass an 11-3 record.

John Cherwa, the poor boy, is stuck in the cellar as usual.

All that good advice and all he can do is a 10-4 slate. Well

LYMAN AT EDGEWATER

John, that is what you get for being a doubting Thomas!

All the scribes are in agreement over this one; number one that is. Edgewater wins with all four. Geiger picks the Eagles by 48-14, Richards at 40-14, Cherwa 34-14 and

KATHLEEN AT SANFORD

It could be a boring week in the prediction field with agreement like this. All four again are on the same side. Richards sees the Seminoles dropping this one by 51-7, Geiger forecasts 56-6, Long John views the board at 42-6 and yours truly picks 51-22. Sanford is going to upset somebody this year though folks! It just won't be Kathleen

OVIEDO AT APOPKA

Lee Geiger, who covers the Lions forecasts a 13-0 win for Ralph Stumpf and the boys. I call it 26-20 and J Richards feels 24-14 will be the count. Cherwa goes along with the pros and calls it 28-7 for the Seminole County outfit. About time John!

TRINITY AT LAKE BRANTLEY

J Richards and Lee Geiger need some help with their glasses because they don't seem to see the crystal ball all that well. J calls it 21-18 for the prepsters and Geiger predicts a 7-0 game. Cherwa seems to be more in tune with this one, calls it 35-14. I see 27-0 for the Saints and a cloud of dust by

ST. PETE CHRISTIAN AND SNA

Well, at least we didn't see them all the same J may be down in the cellar with the Longwood lad as he picks the middles to take St. Pete by a 7-6 count. about the investigation of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew say they will fight the action as an invasion of First Amendment

Reporters for The New York Times, New York Daily Washington Post, Washington Star-News, CBS, NBC, Time and Newsweek Magazines were ordered to appear in a Baltimore court Thursday, bringing notes of conversations with official sources.

"We will vigorously oppose this step in the courts with all the resources at our command," said The New York Times. "The Washington Post and Newsweek consider these subpoenas an invasion of their right and the rights of the public under the First Amendment to the Constitution, particularly since any response to them would require the revelation of confidential news sources," said Joseph A. Califano Jr., lawyer for the two publications.

Richard S. Salant, president of CBS News, said that without the ability to keep sources confidential "American journalism and the free flow of information would be dealt a severe blow. Agnew's lawyers were given authority earlier in the week to issue subpoenas and take depositions to probe the source of leaks about the Agnew investigation. The subpoenas were served Friday on: Fred Graham, CBS; Nicholas Gage, New York Times;

Richard Cohen, Washington Post; Robert Walters and Ronald Sarro, Washington Star-News; William Sherman, New York Daily News; Stephan Lesher, Newsweek; Ron Nessen, NBC, and unnamed Newsweek and Time staffers who helped prepare certain articles.

There were unconfirmed reports the Justice Department also was served with a subpoena, but a spokesman refused to newsmen representing six publications and two broadcast networks, seeking to force the reporters to reveal the source of news leaks concerning the Agnew investigation.

President Nixon might do if Agnew's lawyers tried to force testimony from administration officials about the news leaks. In its 23-page brief, the Justice Department said the Constitution is silent about criminal "no immunity exists."

Aaron Burr, Thomas Jefferson's vice president, in the early 1800s or that of Otto Kerner, a federal appeals judge convicted this year in Illinois of conspiracy, fraud, perjury, bribery and income tax evasion.

The brief said that to grant the vice president's contention that impeachment must precede indictment would make a failure by Congress to impeach equal to a grant of immunity from criminal prosecution.

House Speaker Carl Albert has rejected the vice president's request for immediate House investigation of the case but he left the door open for a future handling of the matter by the House.

The Justice Department brief said the statute of limitations would expire as early as Oct. 26 on "some of the possible illegal activities being in-
