Abductor shot dead, kids safe

BY DAVID FRAZIER
Herald Staff Writer

ORLANDO — The three-day standoff between law enforcement agencies and a suspected kidnaper ended this morning with the suspect fatally wounded. "Our ultimate aim was to rescue the children," said Orlando Police Chief William Kennedy at a press conference early this morning. The children have already returned to are Josh Priest, 2, and Malcolm Phillips, 4. Armstrong's hostages during the ordeal. The decision to go into the house was made after Armstrong refused to allow medicine to be delivered to one of the children who needed it. The situation began around 3 a.m. Tuesday when Armstrong went to the Winter Park home of "Ironie Truck" Wilson. Armstrong allegedly shot Wil-

Tale of two cities

Lake Mary closer to development agreement, but could still appeal

SHARI BRODIE
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — Two of five signatures are on the agreement but the city will still transmit an appeal to the Florida Department of Community Affairs today. Sanford and the developer have agreed on an agreement that will put conditions on the development of 54 acres of property on County Road 40A across from the Hills of Lake Mary. Mayor David Mader said Thursday night that all of the board's language was contained in the agreement but the opinion of the board was in contention to move forward with the appeal process in order to be ready for the Monday deadline.

"I believe that everything is needed for us to move the plan," Mader said.

Negotiations between the developer and the homeowners broke down Tuesday after a final, draft submitted. The draft language that would require the developer to build a fountain at the entrance of the Twin Lakes apartment complex. The Hills of Lake Mary Homeowners Association Board had asked Wallace R. Devlin Jr. to contribute $25,000 to the beautification of the entrance of that community. Board president Cecil Thompson said they plan to use that money to build fountains on their side of the street.

Lake Mary has until Monday to file an appeal to the land use change passed by Sanford in November. Special counsel Lane Skip Towler has been directed to continue preparation of the appeal. It will be transmitted to an accommodation address today and held there until Monday. City Manager John Linton said that the SANFORD — The City of Sanford has signed off on an agreement that will allow the construction of a 600-unit apartment complex.

After mulling the proposed agreement and rejecting it twice by a vote of 3-2 at its meeting Monday, the proposed Twin Lakes project to be located off County Road 40A was approved through a revised agreement on Thursday by Mayor Larry Dale, who represented the city commission. The land owner is expected to sign off on Monday.

"It's a good agreement," Dale said. "Sanford would have done those things stipulated in the agreement anyway with the exception of the items discussed at the meeting."

The agreement was presented to Sanford officials by Lake Mary officials acting on behalf of the Hills of Lake Mary Homeowners Association and developer Wallace R. Devlin Jr. The homeowners, with the support of Lake Mary, had tried to halt the project until the developer met conditions relating to density, set backs, walls and entrance enhancements.

Lake Mary principals had planned to file an appeal with the state's Department of Community Affairs over Sanford's decision to allow a land

LAKE MARY — Every daughter is their father's little angel, but in the case of Arielle Searle this is more true than in other father-daughter relationships.

Arielle, a vivacious 7-year-old, has been "immortalized" as the angel "Mimi" in a Christmas book written by former Lake Mary resident William Raymond and illustrated by her father, Michael.

Michael is a commercial graphic artist who freelances all over the country. He and Raymond agreed to collaborate on the story that Raymond had written several years ago.

Not the least bit partial, Michael decided the Nordic features of his eldest daughter would perfectly illustrate the story of The Angel With The Smallest Wings.

The story of Mimi is set on Earth and tells the tale of Mimi's search to find the perfect place for the baby Jesus to sleep on the day of His birth. Mimi is fearful that God will not be pleased with what she has to tell him.

Drug war gets $1 million boost from federal level

BY MARIA OREM
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — The local drug war effort has received a $1 million boost from a federal level.

Spurring a program to combat drug trafficking in Winter Park, Seminole County Sheriff Don Eslinger, U.S. Attorney John Mica and U.S. Senator Bob Graham announced the formation of a high-level, multi-agency task force. Agencies include the community development office, U.S. Marshals, Florida Dept. of Corrections and Hillsborough.

The program, estimated at $1 million will be allocated to ward the fight against drugs for the first time. Funding is coming from Daytona Beach to Tampa.

This ensures a more focused effort on drug prevention, said Seminole County Sheriff Don Eslinger, who has been appointed chairman of the HIDTA task force executive board. "This affects the quality of life of more than 4.5 million residents along the I-4 corridor."

The task force will pool the resources of local state and federal law enforcement agencies to help establish a drug eradication program, Eslinger said.

"We are trying to coordinate a method of collecting data and work more collectively," he said, adding that the task force will have a finalized plan by February.

There are currently 22 HIDTA areas in the country funded by $100 million for 1998. An additional $40 million is expected to be allocated to the program.

Graham said the money will be used to develop a plan with actual operations beginning in October 1998. He said he will work to help get additional funds allocated to Central Florida, hopefully close to $10 million, which is the typical level for HIDTAs.

"We know we have a problem here," he said.

He credited the HIDTA effort for the reduction of drug trafficking in South Florida. The increased drug activity in Central Florida is because this area is viewed as "softer" market, he said.

According to Graham, the focus of law enforcement will be on drug trafficking bosses and money laundering operations.

"This HIDTA says that every possible federal resource will come together to make this work," Mica said.

Mica said drugs have taken a toll on the community and schools and it's important to get the problem under control for the sake of

Paulucci is Santa to needy

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Following his tradition, food magnate Jeno Paulucci is playing Santa Claus by dispatching a sleigh of holiday good will to needy families in Seminole County in the form of two semi-trailer loads of Michelin's and Yu Sing frozen entrees from Lugano's Inc.

There will be turkeys, too, as a holiday gift from the Jeno and Lois Paulucci family, set to arrive at Rich Food Mart of Florida, 401 West 13th Street, Sanford, on Monday.

Each semi-trailer will be packed with about 60,000 frozen entrees for a total of about 120,000 dinners. About 50 charities and organizations that have applied for participation in this food giveaway on the basis of their service to needy families are located in Seminole County, some are in Lake County as well.

The Paulucci family and Lugano's, Inc., which is headquartered in Sanford, are frequent contributors of food products for distribution to needy families through charitable agencies and organizations. In its seven-year history, Lugano's has furnished, at no charge, more than 5 million frozen dinners to needy families throughout the nation, with special emphasis for communities in Florida, Ohio and Minnesota, where Lugano's, Inc. has offices and facilities.

Lugano's recently furnished a semi-trailer of Michelin's and Yu Sing entrees to families at

The book is illustrated in full color and Mimi is on every page. Michael said the book has gone to the publisher and should be available for purchase next year.

In the meantime, daddy's little angel will be busy with her other pursuits, dancing and singing.

Arielle, has been chosen to dance as a "treat carrier" with the Sugar Plum Fairies in Southern Ballet Theatre's presentation of The Nutcracker, which begins this weekend at the Bob Carr Performing Arts Centre.

"I'm not nervous," she said.

Arielle takes ballet lessons one time a week and gymnastics lessons three times a week at Brown's Gymnastics.

But wait, that's not all. She also takes voice lessons and will have a solo in the Messiah concert this weekend at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Lake Mary. Arielle will sing "O Holy Night" in the sixth annual concert.

A busy little girl, Arielle gets music lessons from her mother and art lessons from her father. What does she like best?

"I have a couple of favorites," she said, "gymnastics and singing."

She also has a duty to make a good impression on her two younger sisters, Tiffany, 3 ("I'll be four in January"), and Vendela, 20 months. She gets her good looks from her mother, who was born and raised in Sweden. Michael, a graduate of Brigham Young University Hawaii, met Nina when he was on a mission to Sweden.

Arielle speaks fluent Swedish. The family settled in Lake Mary about two years ago. Michael said he hopes to take advantage of the "Hollywood East" influence of the film industry in Central Florida.

With all of the artistic influence in the family, Michael is not surprised that Arielle has chosen to become so involved in the arts. "She just has this desire."

The Nutcracker opens Friday at 7:30 p.m. and runs Saturday, Dec. 13, Thursday, Dec. 18, Friday, Dec. 19, Saturday, Dec. 20, Sunday, Dec. 21, Monday, Dec. 22, and Tuesday, Dec. 23 at 7:30 p.m., and Saturday, Dec. 13, Sunday, Dec. 14, Saturday, Dec. 20 and Sunday, Dec. 21 at 2 p.m.

More than 100 children have been selected from the School of Southern Ballet Theatre and more than 20 Central Florida dance studios to complement the SBT's world class professional dancers.

Andrew Lane will conduct the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra to the famous Tchaikovsky score.

This year's production is all new and is the world premiere with original choreography by Artistic Director Vasil Petritu.

Tickets range from $15 to $31 and are available at TicketMaster or the SBT Box Office by calling 426-1728.

In 1995, Orlando ranked fifth in the nation in cocaine deaths per capita and more than 1,500 children between the ages of 12 and 17 were arrested for drug possession or use. In 1996, Orange and Osceola counties had the highest number of heroin deaths in the state.

Attending the event were po-

Sanford commissioners initially rejected the proposal citing lack of protocol by Lake Mary officials. Commissioners chastised Lake Mary for not including Sanford when drawing up the agreement and also for trying to dictate the quality of life for city residents.

The final draft of the agreement included all the elements of the original with the exception of a provision by the developer to the Hills of Lake Mary for a $25,000 beautification project. That provision, along with the stipulation that Lake Mary would pay $4,000 for a traffic study, were incorporated into an addendum, which excluded Sanford, according to Sanford City Manager Bill Simmons.

"I think the matter has been resolved," Simmons said.

The homeowners association and the city of Lake Mary are also expected to sign off on Monday. Since the deadline for filing the appeal is Saturday, however, Simmons said the appeal would still be processed because "the deal is not done until all the paperwork is in."

"I think that is the reasonable thing to do since they have already spent some money in this action," Simmons said. "They have to cover those eventualities. I would do the same thing."

son twice in the head killing him. At 9:10 a.m., a chase began between Armstrong and two county law enforcement agencies on Interstate 4. The pursuit ended with Armstrong's Jeep Cherokee colliding with another vehicle. Armstrong was then able to escape police guns drawn on him to a nearby house where the long standoff began.

At 5:06 a.m. this morning, Orlando SWAT team members were instructed by Kennedy to go into the house, rescue the children and take Armstrong into custody. Once the children were secured, a fire fight ensued with SWAT team member Scott Perkins being shot in the hand and Armstrong also shot. Armstrong was pronounced dead at Orlando Regional Medical Center shortly thereafter.

According to Kennedy, Armstrong was classified a career criminal having committed numerous robberies. He had been serving a 12 year sentence but was released after four for armed robbery.

"We gave him every opportunity to come out peacefully," Kennedy said. Negotiations carried on for a total of 68 hours with hostage experts from the University of Florida and the FBI helping the Orlando Police Department. "He was not meeting his promises that he made to us," said Kennedy. The demands from Armstrong over the course of the three days were for a car, cigarettes, beer, soda and pizza, Kennedy said. "This is the longest hostage situation since I have been chief."

Orlando Mayor Glenda Hood said the Orlando Police Department as well as other agencies "did an outstanding job." Hood has ordered resources to come in and help residents who were evacuated from the surrounding area to get back in their homes comfortably providing cleanup and maintenance. The efforts could be finished later on today.

land owner, Bill Southward, can not sign the agreement until Monday and Thompson said that he would consider signing when the land owner did. The city of Lake Mary will then add their signature.

Commissioner Thom Greene, who was directed by the board to act in the city's interest, said the homeowners were hesitant to sign the agreement because "they've seen some things that bothered them and they wanted to deal with them."

Greene felt the protection of the homeowners interests justified the appeal. He said that since the Hills of Lake Mary was the second largest community in the city there was a significant impact to the entire city. He said that a petition had also been filed by homeowners in The Forest stating concern over the situation with the apartments.

Fowler told the commission that he felt that the city could prevail in the appeal, in which case the land use designation would revert to the 10 dwelling units per acre that existed when Sanford annexed the property from the county.

"There is a losing side to the appeal," Commissioner Gary Brender reminded the board. Should the agreement go unsigned and the city lose its appeal, they developer would be free to change the density of the apartments from 12.5 units to up to 20.

Fowler said cost of the preparation of the appeal would be somewhere in the neighborhood of $5,000 and the cost of rescinding would be nominal.

THE WEEK IN PREP ATHLETICS

Games of the Week

You're no sports fan if you miss...

By JEFF BERLINCKE
Herald Staff Writer

Dec. 12: Lake Howell at Lake Mary, boys basketball; 7:30 p.m.

LAKE MARY - It's only early in December but it isn't too early to call this one a must-win game.

Lake Howell entered Wednesday as one of two undefeated teams in Seminole County but that came to a screeching halt with a loss to Lake Brantley.

The Silver Hawks can either lament the upset loss that dropped them second in the county behind Oviedo, or it can use the experience as a wake-up call. They came out dead against Lake Brantley but maybe the Patriots deserve some of the credit. They've also knocked off Lake Mary this season.

Lake Howell is led by Reggie Kohn, a 6-1 dynamo that leads the team on the court. He has help, especially from bug man Ryan Smith who should have an epic battle with Lake Mary's big man Paul Beik tonight. Smith has been strong inside all season and was most valuable player of the Rotary Tip-Off Classic last week when the Silver Hawks bumped off second-ranked Mainland and host Dr. Phillips.

Lake Mary has two losses in the conference already, but Beik is coming back into form after an early-season injury. He and Ben Kersenbrock and Robbie Shapiro give the Rams one of the best front lines around and Randy Abrams can heat it up from beyond the arc.

A Lake Howell loss takes away a lot of its early season momentum but a Lake Mary loss can almost bury them in the enormously deep conference and Class 6A-District 4 races.

Tonight: Lake Howell at Lake Mary, girls soccer; 7:30 p.m.

LAKE MARY - Once again, the conference is loaded and most people think Lake Howell is the team to beat. Didier Menard is a rookie coach but inherited tons of talent and most agree that these two are the class of the league.

Junior Carol Lewis is a strong goalkeeper but doesn't face a lot of shots because of Lake Howell's stifling defense. There are four freshmen in the starting lineup and three are members of the Olympic Developmental team.

In a rout of Seminole last week, the Lady Hawks were awesome and have a balanced offensive and defensive attack.

On the Lake Mary side, veteran coach Bill Elisele has yet another powerhouse as part of the Lady Rams' dynasty. Alyssa Benitez is the scoring machine but she has plenty of help.

With tough Lake Brantley and Oviedo in the conference, this one is important as both teams jockey for playoff positions.

Dec. 18: Lake Brantley at Oviedo, girls soccer, 7:30 p.m.

OVIDEO - This one will match up the other two powers in Seminole County soccer. Traditionally, Lake Brantley is maybe the best team in the county but graduation hit hard.

The Lady Patriots are led by a host of youngsters who can fill the net. Janey Halburg had five goals in 7-0 win over Deland and Ginger Sellick added three assists. This is a statement game for the Lady Patriots who some people are overlooking. With Lake Brantley, that wouldn't be wise.

Oviedo has to overcome a difficult schedule and what counts for them as a down season of 15-11. Still, Oviedo returns nine starters to coach Roby Stahl's team. Stahl is considered one of the finest soccer teachers everywhere and is responsible for the success of players all over Central Florida.

For the Lady Lions, Karyn Hall and Kristen Murray are among the senior leaders.

Since it will be almost impossible for any team in Seminole County to run the table, every game counts.

Looking to get better

Lake Mary girl hoopsters whip Lake Howell, 70-29

By JEFF BERLINCKE
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY - When you're good, you can always be better.

The second-ranked Lake Mary girls' basketball hosted Lake Howell last night, looking for a test to their 11-0 record and got one.

At least for the first 30 seconds when Becky Pedro hit a short jumper to give Lake Mary an easy path to a 70-29 win.

Lake Mary dominated offensively, defensively and in just about every other way possible routing the Lady Hawks who came into the game 8-6 with possibilities of contending for the runner-up slot behind Lake Mary in the district race.

The thing about the rout is that, even though Lake Mary jumped out to a 21-5 first quarter lead and were never close to being threatened, coach Carl Brown thought it could have been better.

"We played hard in the second half," Brown said. "We hardly even showed up in the first half (Lake Mary led 42-18 at the break). Maybe I'm just looking for perfection."

Point guard Ashlee Ballance wasn't satisfied either.

"We looked too sloppy," Ballance said. "We came out ready to play but we want to be perfect."

Fortunately, somebody appreciated the Lady Rams effort.

Unfortunately, for Lake Howell coach Dennis Codrey, it was himself.

"We've began playing well but that was the best team we've played in an awful long time," Codrey said. "They are so strong on the boards."

Lake Mary (12-0) will be in action again tonight, traveling to Kuonia for a non-district game against the Panthers. Lake Howell will return to the home court on Monday, hosting Bishop Moore in another non-district contest. Both varsity teams are set to tip off at 7:30 p.m.

Lake Mary was taller than Lake Howell in each of the five starting matchups and the mismatches showed. After Pedro hit, Lake Mary balanced it out and, after Cathleen Daus cut the lead to 4-2 for Lake Howell, the Lady Rams ran Lake Howell out of the gym. It was soon 14-2 as forward Mary Leah Sutton took charge on the way to a season-high 21 points and Lauren Bradley chipped in 17 to lead the Lady Rams.

After the early run, Lake Mary ran away and Brown was able to rest his starters, giving Lake Mary's strong second team a chance.

After it was over, Codrey remarked that he is still excited about his team's season, now that the one nearly unbeatable team is out of the way for awhile. He has eight seniors and has played close throughout the season. Of Lake Howell's seven losses, five are to unbeaten teams and two losses, including a game with Lyman, were decided by two points.

"We've had a chance every time out this year," Codrey said. "Tonight's the first time we've lost big and I still think we have a pretty good team."

Unfortunately, as Codrey and the rest of Seminole County is finding out, it takes more than pretty good to beat the Lady Rams.

Imagine what could happen in March if Brown gets his perfect game.

Junior forward Mary Leah Sutton (No. 36) poured in a career-high 17 points to lead the undefeated Lake Mary Rams past Lake Howell, 70-29, Thursday night.

Seminole crushes Spruce Creek

From Staff Reports

SANFORD - Now that's bouncing back.

The Seminole girls' basketball team rebounded from Tuesday's heartbreaking Seminole Athletic Conference loss to Lyman in a big way, crushing Class 5A-District 5 foe Spruce Creek, 70-29, Thursday night at Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium.

The Fighting Seminoles took an 18-6 lead over the Hawks after the first period. But that was just the beginning as Seminole then out-scored Spruce Creek 21-8 in the second quarter to take a 39-12 advantage into the lockerroom at halftime.

The second half also belonged to the Tribe as they outscored the Hawks 18-8 in the third period and 15-9 in the fourth quarter.

"We came out good," said Seminole head coach Sylvester Wynn.

UCF athletes receive post-season honors

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO - With one of its most successful seasons recently completed, four players from the University of Central Florida were honored for outstanding individual accomplishments in 1997 by the Football News.

Junior receiver Staha Burley of Mesa, Arizona, senior defensive end Jermaine Benoit of Tampa and junior placekicker Fred Waczewski from Orlando were named to the Football News All-Independent team, while junior quarterback Daunte Culpepper of Ocala was named honorable mention All-America by that publication.

Burley, one of the biggest offensive surprises of the year, led the team in receptions and yardage this year with 77 catches for 1,106 yards and seven touchdowns.

The transfer from Mesa Community College finished the season ranked sixth in the nation in receptions per game and 10th in yards per game. He tied a school record with 231 receiving yards against the University of South Carolina and finished one catch shy of the school record for the year.

Benoit, also a pre-season All-Independent selection by Football News, became only the second defensive lineman in school history to record more than 100 tackles in a season.

He finished the year with a team-leading 105 tackles for the campaign. Benoit opened the season with 17

Crooms boys basketball squad squares record

From Staff Reports

ORLANDO - The Crooms Academy boys' basketball team proved Thursday night that when it competes against its own, it is very good.

Playing against a Class 2A team, the Panthers evened their record at 3-3 by holding off homestanding Lake Highland Preparatory School in Orlando, 68-60.

"In 1A or 2A we're doing okay," said Crooms coach Steve Carmichael. "Our losses have come against Lake Mary (Class 6A), Lyman (Class 6A) and Tawana (Class 3A)."

The Panthers took a lead of 18-8 after one period and 38-23 at halftime.

The Highlanders closed to within 40-42 after three periods and continued to cut into the lead, taking a one point lead with 1:45 left on the clock.

But Crooms battled back as two free throws by Terrance Perkins put the Panthers back on top and Josh Lee gave the local squad some breathing room with a field goal.

"We were able to turn it up and pulled away," said Carmichael.

Contributing to the Crooms attack were Titus Waldo (21 points), Perkins (17 points, seven assists), Lee (12 points, 11 rebounds), Tim McCloud (eight points, 11 rebounds), Brian Parker (six points) and Ernest Anderson and Vern Daley (two points each).

Ritvanen, a sophomore, finished the regular season ranked second in the nation in goals scored with 23.

An ankle injury kept him from playing the final two games of the season, preventing him from the opportunity to score the two goals he needed to break the school record he set for goals in a season last year. He finished the season with 47 total points, 23 goals and one assist.

Ritvanen has amassed 98 total points and 47 goals in the two seasons he has played as a Golden Knight. In November, Ritvanen was named First Team All-Trans America Athletic Conference for the second consecutive year. He was named Trans America Athletic Conference Player-of-the-Week (October 21) after scoring eight times and assisting on one goal over three games.

Ritvanen has six hat tricks (three goals or more in a game) in his career and has led UCF to its first national ranking under head coach Bob Winch. The Golden Knights were ranked as high as 13th in the nation by Soccer America this year.

Ritvanen was named TAAC Player-of-the-Week three times as a freshman and was the only freshman in NCAA Division I, II, or III to be named to the NSCAA/Umbro All-South Third Team. He joined 11 other players in the nation who were named to the Soccer America 1996 Men's All-Freshman Team.

HARPER NAMED ALL-DISTRICT
ORLANDO - The American Volleyball Coaches Association announced that University of Central Florida volleyball player Tyra Harper (Ft. Myers-Cypress Lake High School) has been selected to the AVCA All-District 4 Team for the second consecutive year.

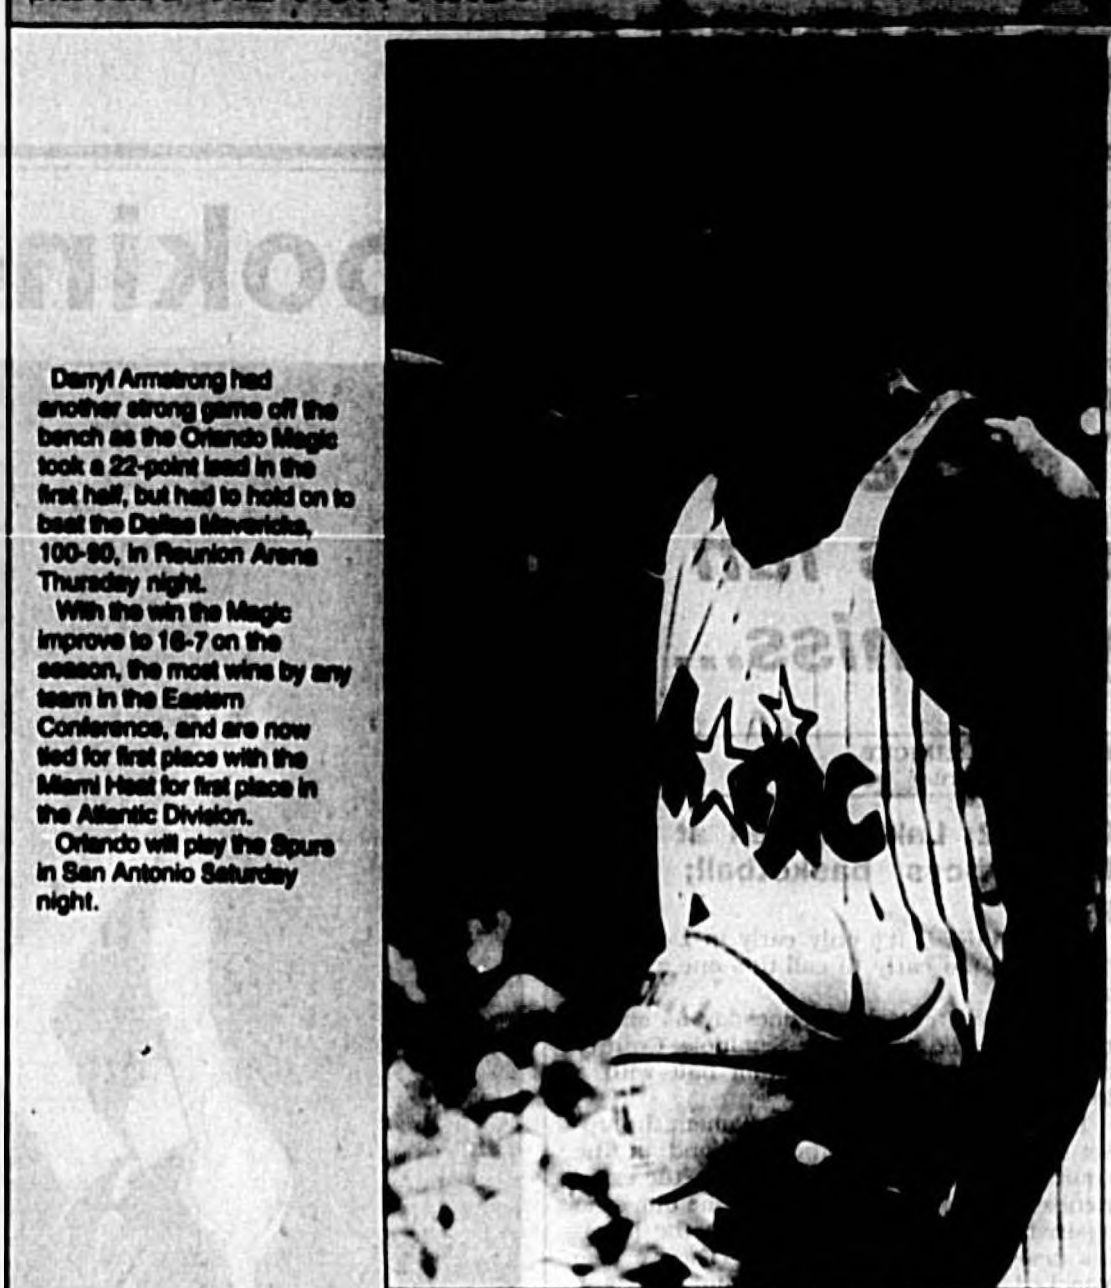

Harper, a 6-foot-1 middle blocker, had a stellar senior season for UCF recording career bests in kills (555), kills per game (5.34), and hitting percentage (.377).

For the fourth straight season, the career record holder in blocks led the Golden Knights at the net with her 144. The three-time All-Trans America Athletic Conference First Team and All-Tournament team member also earned TAAC Player-of-the-Year and Tournament MVP honors this season.

Harper was the only TAAC player to be honored by the AVCA.

MAKING THE FOR FIRST

Darryl Armstrong had another strong game off the bench as the Orlando Magic took a 22-point lead in the first half, but had to hold on to beat the Dallas Mavericks, 100-80, in Reunion Arena Thursday night.

With the win the Magic improve to 16-7 on the season, the most wins by any team in the Eastern Conference, and are now tied for first place with the Miami Heat for first place in the Atlantic Division.

Orlando will play the Spurs in San Antonio Saturday night.

CUPEPPER, who was a pre-season All-Independent selection by Football News, was edged out for the post-season award by Louisiana Tech's Tim Rattay, who led the nation in total offense. Culpepper finished fourth in the nation in total offense and set .5 school records in 1997.

He was the recipient of numerous honors this year, including being named a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award; a semifinalist for the Football News Offensive Player of the Year award; and being named to the American Football Coaches Association 1997 Good Works Team, for balancing academics and athletics and going above and beyond in the area of volunteerism and community service.

Culpepper was also voted the United States Postal Service College Football Player of the Week after a win at Kent University.

Safety tips for mail order foods

CONSUMER FOCUS

BARBARA HUGHES/GREGG

Item, it should be delivered as quickly as possible - ideally, overnight. Make sure perishable items and the outer package are labeled "KEEP REFRIGERATED" to alert the recipient.

Storage and Preparation Instructions. Will the food item come with storage and preparation instructions? Some mail order food gift items are of an unusual nature and some consumers may not know how to handle or prepare them.

Arrange A Delivery Date.

Tell the recipient if the company has promised a delivery date. Or, alert the recipient that "the gift is in the mail" so that they or a neighbor can be home to receive it. Otherwise it may sit unsafely on the front porch or at the post office for hours or even days. Don't have perishable items delivered to an office unless you know it will arrive on a work day and there is refrigerator space available for keeping it cold.

Check the temperature.

When you receive a food item marked "KEEP REFRIGERATED", open it immediately and check its temperature. Optimally, the food should arrive frozen or partially frozen with ice crystals still visible, or at least refrigerator cold to the touch.

Use A Sturdy Box. Pack your frozen food and cold source in a sturdy box, such as heavy foam or corrugated cardboard. Fill up any empty space with crushed paper or foam "popcorn". Air space in the box will cause the food and cold source to thaw faster.

Label It Perishable. Your package should be clearly labeled with the following words: "PERISHABLE - KEEP REFRIGERATED", as in Tips for the Purchaser above, arrange a delivery date with recipient. Ship your package by overnight delivery.

Bad holiday experiences may be 'normal'

Dear Mary,

I can't bear the thought of Christmas with my family. I haven't recovered from Thanksgiving yet. Needless to say, my family is not just like "The Waltons" from TV years ago. Actually, my idea of a great Christmas would be to get plane tickets to as far away from my crazy family as possible. Thanksgiving was a perfect example of why I feel this way.

Everybody was to bring a dish and we were all going to do Happy Homecoming at Grandma's house. I got there about noon. One of my brothers and his wife were going off in a frenzy about if we didn't all "find the Lord" (which means agree with everything they believe), we'd all be doomed to eternal damnation. My stepdad was waxing eloquent about his next big deal, which is going to make him a millionaire and put us all on easy street. He's almost 60 years old and has been talking this way since I was a kid; it hasn't happened yet. Then my other sister-in-law came in. She was in a rage. My stepbrother had been out all night, came in drunk and stoned and was lying in his own vomit on the floor of their apartment. Things went downhill from there.

FAMILY COUNSELOR

I love my family but I think they're all nuts - my mom included, for sticking around and putting up with this insanity. While the stories change each year, this is the way it has been every holiday since I was a kid. I don't know how much more of it I can put up with before I tell them all where to go and walk out.

Do you have any suggestions for how I can get through Christmas without losing my cool?

Dear Dad Up,

You'd be surprised how "normal" your holiday experience is. But nobody ever said that "healthy" and "normal" are synonyms. Now let's get one thing straight. Your family is not going to change because you want them to. They will change if or when they are ready. So, don't bother telling anybody anything about what they should or shouldn't do.

In the meantime, you can always limit your contact to the amount of time you think you can tolerate. Make other plans, arrive late, leave early. Do what you have to do, but don't behave in a way that makes you look bad.

Next year, you may want to consider a Christmas vacation away. Obviously, a lot of people are catching on to the idea, as resorts, hotels and tourist destinations find this one of their busiest seasons. Dare I say, "Happy Holiday", in spite of everything?

Wife thanks spouse for being such a heel

Dear Abby,

After spending yet another night alone while my husband was out having a few beers with his friends, I decided to write him the following thank-you note:

Thank you for the countless times you've gone out with your friends and left me home alone; it's made me realize I'm pretty good company.

Thank you for withholding your affection; you taught me I can live without it.

Thank you for refusing to help me do anything around the house; it's made me realize I can do just about anything myself.

Thank you for finding reasons not to spend time with me; it's made me learn to appreciate spending time alone.

Thank you for never sitting down to talk to me; the quiet time has allowed me to re-evaluate my life.

But most of all, and I mean this sincerely, thank you for giving me nine lonely years to realize with conviction that I can walk away from you and survive!

YOUR 'IN NAME ONLY' WIFE

DEAR ABBY: After spending yet another night alone while my husband was out having a few beers with his friends, I decided to write him the following thank-you note:

Thank you for the countless times you've gone out with your friends and left me home alone; it's made me realize I'm pretty good company.

Thank you for withholding your affection; you taught me I can live without it.

Thank you for refusing to help me do anything around the house; it's made me realize I can do just about anything myself.

Thank you for finding reasons not to spend time with me; it's made me learn to appreciate spending time alone.

But most of all, and I mean this sincerely, thank you for giving me nine lonely years to realize with conviction that I can walk away from you and survive!

ADVICE

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I can bear it no longer. I want to know what other people think of "clapping" in church after the choir - or an individual - sings. I am so weary of it.

I always thought that you sang in church to praise the Lord, not as entertainment. Most choir numbers or solos are very moving. Then to hear this rousing applause just galls me. People never used to clap in church after performances. Why have they started now?

I think it is rude rather than complimentary. A church should be a place of worship where people offer their talent to God - not an entertainment center.

After the service ends, there is plenty of time to say you enjoyed their singing.

P. MEYERS IN MISSOURI

DEAR P. MEYERS: A spontaneous outburst of applause in appreciation of the choir - or soloist having delivered an exceptionally moving performance - is understandable, although I have never witnessed it.

Discuss your concerns with your pastor and church leaders. If they find it objectionable, they can pass the word to the congregation that applause during a worship service is inappropriate.

DEAR ABBY: I need your help to resolve an ongoing fight in our home. My husband reads during every meal. Whether it's a newspaper, magazine or cereal box, he prope it up in front of him and reads. I find this rude and asked him to stop - but he sees nothing wrong with it.

Even more bothersome is his giving me a summary of everything he reads. He doesn't make conversation - he simply tells me what he reads.

Other than that, and the fact that he refuses to help me teach our young children table manners, our marriage is great. Perhaps I shouldn't complain. However, friends of mine also complain about this same fault, so your advice could help others as well.

Abby, please help me convince my husband that mealtime should be family time and the reading material should be put aside for another time. My husband will listen to you.

KATHLEEN, SAN PEDRO, CALIF.

DEAR KATHLEEN: If this is the only flaw in an otherwise perfect husband, thank your lucky stars. Compromise. Offer to keep quiet about breakfast table reading if he will make dinner time a family affair. He owes you one of the two, and dinner time is preferable.

DEAR ABBY: Now you've gone and done it! For 52 years, I've started each morning with a hug, a kiss and an "I love you" for my wife. I've helped with the housework, complimented her looks and choice of clothes, and sent flowers on non-occasions. I wrote love letters instead of sending commercial cards and tried to fulfill her needs and desires.

Now you reveal, in your answer to "Saying Yes All the Time," that it was all a plot to bed my wife - all the togetherness was a clever scheme to keep happiness in my bedroom.

Well, I'm guilty. My wife will be the first to acknowledge that. But the loving rewards, even in our twilight years, have been great.

ALVIN H. LEVIN, SCOTSDALE, ARIZ.

DEAR ALVIN: From the tone of your letter, I'd say there is happiness in every room of your house, and in every aspect of your marriage. Thank you for your delightful "confession." When this is published, Mrs. Levin will be envied by every wife in Scottdale.

And you, Alvin, should be cloned.
