Jaycees To Help Push Letter Writing Drive

Top News In Brief

WASHINGTON — The House Appropriations Committee today slashed 28 per cent from the budget of Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks who had "lured" Congress to cut it.

OSAKA, Japan — U.S. ambassador Douglas MacArthur II warned today against the "sudden flood of low-priced goods that often causes trouble." In an address before the Japan-American Society here, MacArthur, who took over his post two months ago, said Japanese business ignored this rule and led to the trouble that developed in the United States over dollar blouse and velveteens from Japan.

WASHINGTON — Supporters of the 2 billion dollar compromise school construction bill today planned a strategy of delay to win passage despite the congressional economy drive. They all but openly acknowledged that otherwise the bill faced death.

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has strongly urged the nation's parents to take a more active interest in getting to know their children's teachers. The President told the National Education Assn. that he was "astonished" to learn in talks with groups across the nation that many parents did not know their children's teachers.

WASHINGTON — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee planned today to push ahead with a general investigation of U.S. diplomats in the Mideast despite Canada's bitterness over the suicide of its envoy, named in the Senate inquiry.

Baseball Situation Here Dim; FSL Will Start With 7 Clubs

"The baseball situation here looks very dim and we are planning now to go with seven clubs," John Krider, President of the Florida State League said today. "Interest came too late," he said, "to get the commitments from the major league clubs."

The major league clubs, Krider explained, had already made their commitments for the year and the interest in Sanford was so late that they had made arrangements for the placing of their players.

"Unless something unforeseen develops," said Krider, "Sanford is out—however, something might yet develop which would make it possible to field a team here."

The season will open on Apr. 12 for the Florida State League with seven clubs. "It just means that each date that Sanford would have played will mean an open date for the odd club," explained Krider.

"TREAT" FOR TEACHER!
ENID, Okla. — Capt. Roy C. Smith, of Enid Air Force Base, had to eat his theory that "there is no reason for a man to starve as long as the woods are full of insects and other animals." His survival training class Thursday gave him a farwell dinner of alligator soup, fried blueberries, fried rattlesnakes, sauteed jumbo grasshoppers, fried Mexican worms and hard-boiled quail eggs.

A concentrated effort to spur letter writing in the interest of the effort to retain the Sanford Naval Air Station in Seminole County by John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

"I thought the Jaycees effort was one of the greatest contributions toward the effort to keep the Navy here," he said. "Somebody had to furnish the leadership and the motive power and that you did."

"I think you should be awarded in some way for the day that you provided," said Krider. "We have had some response to letter writing but it has not been impressive enough and now I would like to ask another favor of you—we can do something yet and the quicker the better," Krider said.

The Jaycees responded immediately to Krider's request to man tables on First St. Saturday and pass out the leaflets asking local citizens to write to the Secretary of the Navy stating their reasons for wanting the Navy to stay in Seminole County.

"The letters should be personal," he said, "written in the citizens own handwriting." Krider explained that "the only thing I was asked to do when in Washington was 'keep the letters coming' and we want to make an indelible impression. It is so important," he said, "that I think we can ask the people who are interested in keeping the Navy here to write a letter."

All letters, he said should be addressed this way, and he demonstrated: "Secretary of the Navy, Navy Department, Washington, 25, D. C."

Tomorrow, Jaycees will be in downtown Sanford performing another gigantic task, this time, asking local citizens to tell the Navy Department why they want the Navy to remain here.

Market Reconstruction Plans Underway Today

C. R. PHILLIPS, DIRECTOR of the State Fire Fund, a function of the State Treasurer's office arrived in Sanford this morning to look over the Sanford State Farmer's Market fire loss. Officials Surveying Damage

The Sanford State Farmers' Market will be rebuilt immediately, according to a statement from Tallahassee this morning directed to Senator Douglas Stenstrom.

Senator Stenstrom, by telephone to The Sanford Herald today, quoted a letter from Nathan Mayo, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mayo, in his letter to Stenstrom said "Immediately after you left the cabinet room this morning I got the Budget Commission's approval to start immediately rebuilding the Sanford State Farmers' Market and not wait on the insurance adjustments."

"Also," said Mayo, "I have authorized L. H. Lewis, Director of the State Markets of Winter Haven, to take all of the men he has started the reconstruction immediately."

"I emphasized to them that we did not have an hour to lose as the spring crop is right on us. We want you to know we are making all the speed possible to get the market back in business," said Mayo in his letter.

In the meantime, L. H. Lewis arrived in Sanford yesterday to plan the reconstruction and has already issued a request for bids for materials, lumber, hardware, millwork, electrical, plumbing, roofing, concrete and all items necessary for constructing buildings to replace Units one, five and 10 of the local market destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

C. R. Phillips, Director of the State Fire Fund arrived in Sanford this morning to look over the disastrous fire and start adjustments for insurance on the huge wood structure through which blazes ripped early Thursday morning.

Debris is scattered over the entire market area and fire still smolders throughout the area. The Sanford Fire Department was called back to the scene about mid-morning today to douse small flames jutting from the remains of the office section of the market.

Senator Stenstrom this morning said "It is my thought that we should provide adequate storage facilities for produce to be stored through the summer months in order to make the market a full 12 (Continued on Page 10)

Leaders To Await Pay Raise Bill Before Acting On Increase

TALLAHASSEE — House education leaders voted today to wait for Gov. LeRoy Collins' teacher pay raise bill before they act on the $1,000 salary increase demanded by Florida's 30,000 school teachers.

The House Education Committee took up the bill sponsored by the Florida Education Assn. and which Collins called "unrealistic," at an early morning meeting.

Even though 11 members of the 21-man committee signed up as co-introducers they decided to wait until all the various formulas for raising teacher salaries have been presented before they act.

The bill also must clear the Appropriations Committee, headed by economy-minded Rep. James Moody of Hillsborough, before it can be studied by the full House.

Later this morning the Florida House suddenly passed by voice to day a resolution of interposition, declaring the U.S. Supreme Court's desegregation ruling null and void in Florida.

An identical resolution plunged the Legislature into bitter debate in a special session last summer. This time it took only a few minutes of spirited debate before it was approved and sent to the Senate.

The resolution was brought up by freshman Rep. Wellborn Daniel of Lake County who said it was identical with the measure advanced in the special session by former Reps. Prentice Pruitt of Monticello and Farris Bryant of Ocala.

Rep. W. C. Herrell of Miami and Republican Rep. Thomas M. Carney of St. Petersburg tried to delay it, but were voted down 59 to 29. The resolution bore 56 names as co-introducers.

"Name one time that a resolution of interposition has worked effectively on any matter," Herrell demanded in asking a delay. "It assisted the sovereign state of Virginia in recent cases involving its segregation laws in the schools," Rep. John Crews of Baker answered.

"If we adopt it and our officials do not back it up, then of course it will not prevent integration," Daniel said. "If they do back it up then no power or body can force integration in Florida's schools."

There were only a few "no" votes when Speaker Doyle Conner called for a vote.

Both drivers were taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital to be treated for injuries.

Jarrell, 50 received facial injuries and Green, 27, was reported to have received facial injuries plus left knee and chest injuries.

$250 damage was estimated on the Jarrell car and $100 damage to the green car.

Archbishop Ends 13-Month Exile; Leaves For Africa

MAHE, Seychelles Islands — Archbishop Makarios of Cyprus ends a 13-month exile today and leaves by ship for Africa on the first leg of a journey to Europe.

He planned to board the Greek tanker Olympic Thunderer later in the day to begin a trip he hopes eventually will take him back to his eastern Mediterranean home.

Up to the declaration of his freedom last week by Britain, the archbishop had been confined to his villa near here.

The archbishop and members of his staff were exiled to the Seychelles March 8, 1956. The British hoped his removal from Cyprus would break the back of the EOKA terrorist activities there.

It was not certain when port the Olympic Thunderer would take Makarios to. The British said he was free to go anywhere except Cyprus.

Weather

Generally fair today, becoming partly cloudy with scattered showers Saturday. Little change in temperature; low tonight 61 to 68.

AN ACCIDENT IN FRONT of the Mayfair Inn at Lee Ave occurred shortly after 8 o'clock. Both drivers were injured and taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital for treatment. (Photo by Bergstrom)

SYMBOL

Legend has it that, long ago, the dogwood came into bloom on Calvary and that, afterwards, a cross was implanted into the flower itself, to remain for all time. You can see it if you look closely, rust brown against the white of each individual blossom.

Many of us carry crosses, faint like the dogwood's emblem but with us, nevertheless. Somehow, in this Lenten season, we become particularly conscious of them and of our need for help—a certain kind of help, that can be found only through the things we learn in Church.

The Church doesn't pretend to banish our cares and woes. But, its teachings realistically consider the experiences of life itself. No matter what our personal cross may be, we seem able to bear its burden with more strength.

Lent is a wonderful time in which to begin making church-going a regular part of your life—if you haven't already.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

JACKY FENWICK

Wednesday afternoon was an important time to little Miss Mary Beth Finnegan. It was her sixth birthday, and her mother worked hard to make it one she'll remember! Sixteen small guests were transported to the Elk's Playground, where they played to their heart's content, and were served ice cream, cup cakes, and punch. Several of the mothers aided Rosemary in serving, and keeping track of the "crowd"! They were; Mrs. T. B. McFall, and Mrs. James Gut. Also helping out were the teen-age twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Conner, Jean and June. In addition to Mary Beth, her sister Sharon, and her brother Patrick, those attending were: Tom Ball, Margie Ball, Paty Owens, Elaine Owens, Eddie Gold, Beth McFall, Henry Gut, Jimmy Gut, Sharon Scott, Sherry Scott, Mike Scott, Billy O'Conner, and Jimmy O'Conner. Each little guest was presented with a little Easter Basket as a favor, and a remembrance of a wonderful afternoon!

neckcherchiefs, and ribbons. V.A.H. 5 got "rained out" of a softball game last Monday, but they made up for it on Wednesday, by beating I.A.T.U., 5 to 1! I told you they practice all the time!

Want to add my own word of praise for the men of the N. A. B. fire department, for the wonderful work they did in helping to fight Wednesday's night's conflagration. This is not to detract from the work done by the civilian fire-fighters, but since this is a "Navy" column, I thought I'd make mention of the together when the necessity way they all turn out and work arises. A "well done" to all of them.

Bisek Family Feted With Farewell Parties

Several farewell parties were given in honor of the Edwin Biseks of Alexandria, Minn. this week.

Monday evening Mrs. Irene Watt of Pinecrest invited relatives of the Biseks to her home where a pleasant evening was spent visiting.

Refreshments of apple pie and ice cream were served to Mr. and Mrs. Fay Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trapp of Enterprise, Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Watt, Mrs. J. G. Davk and children, Branda and Brent, Mrs. Adlene Taylor and children, Elizabeth and Susanna, and Mrs. Effie Melker, Joyce and Pam.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Trapp of Enterprise gave a dinner party for the Biseks and Mrs. Irene Watt and Pamela Mielke. Mrs. Bisek is Mrs. Trapp's niece.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Effie Melker honored her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bisek with a coffee party at her home on Vermoog Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Lee then gave a turkey dinner feting the Biseks.

Invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Trapp, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Watt and Cindy, Mrs. J. G. Davk, Brenda and Brent, Mrs. Adlene Taylor, Beth and Susanna, Irene Watt, Mrs. Mary Larson, Mrs. Effie Mielke, Joyce and Pamela.

Young Miss Sharon Enloe is a long way from home! Sharon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Enloe, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Potts, at their home in Waynesville, N.C.

Got to remember to get these reminders! One is for all the friends and their wives about the square dancing lessons that will start this coming Monday, April 5. That will be at the "Chiefs Club", starting at 8:00 P.M. So get out your dancing shoes, polish them up, and be there when the fun starts!

Also another reminder: for V. A. H. 7 wives, about their meeting, also this coming Monday, April 5. And also starting at 8:00 P.M. This will be a little problem that some Chiefs' wives in "W" will have to work out for themselves!

It was my turn last Wednesday night to have the Canasta group over! Those that did me the "honor" were: Mrs. Doris Shortland, Mrs. Adele Heltman, Mrs. Joan Greenwood, Mrs. Joyce Williams, Mrs. Marilyn Bailey, Mrs. Jimi Gold, and Mrs. Rosemary Finnegan. They all told me and had a good time, and I do hope they did! High score prizes were won by Mrs. Shortland and Mrs. Greenwood, and low score by Mrs. Bailey, and yours truly! After the game, I served coffee, bread tea, and a real easy to make coffee cake. We're getting pretty regular with these card games and all the girls look forward to them!

Related congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hanlon on the birth of a little daughter, Sherry Lynn. The baby arrived on March 29, at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

On Good Friday, April 19, there will be an inspection of N.A.S. personnel, in full-dress whites. This is one of the most impressive and inspiring sights to be seen, at least in my estimation! Row upon row of men, all in sparkling white uniforms, standing in the sun! And this will be an extra special one. In addition to their full-dress whites officers will be required to wear their large medals, gloves, and their sword! C.P.O.'s will also be required to wear their large medals and gloves, and their uniform will be service-whites. Enlisted men will wear undress-whites.

Wednesday afternoon was an important time to little Miss Mary Beth Finnegan. It was her sixth birthday, and her mother worked hard to make it one she'll remember! Sixteen small guests were transported to the Elk's Playground, where they played to their heart's content, and were served ice cream, cup cakes, and punch. Several of the mothers aided Rosemary in serving, and keeping track of the "crowd"! They were; Mrs. T. B. McFall, and Mrs. James Gut. Also helping out were the teen-age twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Conner, Jean and June. In addition to Mary Beth, her sister Sharon, and her brother Patrick, those attending were: Tom Ball, Margie Ball, Paty Owens, Elaine Owens, Eddie Gold, Beth McFall, Henry Gut, Jimmy Gut, Sharon Scott, Sherry Scott, Mike Scott, Billy O'Conner, and Jimmy O'Conner. Each little guest was presented with a little Easter Basket as a favor, and a remembrance of a wonderful afternoon!

Aerialist Says Takes Work, Pain To Become Star

By DOC QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK UP—How does a pretty girl become a thrilling headliner aerialist in "The Greatest Show on Earth?" Work. Just plain work, and years and years of it. Plus plenty of pain.

Take the case of Gaila Shawn, a slip of a lass with green Irish eyes. She will celebrate her 23rd birthday next week by doing her regular two-a-day head stand performances on the high trapeze in Madison Square Garden with a steel brace guarding her broken back.

For 17 of her 23 years she has been doing acrobatics and aerial work—a long apprenticeship for her opening in the big town last night as a star of the Ringling Bros., Barnum & Bailey Circus.

On Stage at Six

She was born in Sioux Falls, S. D., but lived there only two days. Her mother was a trapeze performer, her father a dancer, and their vaudeville act had to move on. She began working when she was six, after long and tedious practice in private.

It was in a Houston, Tex., night club that her father carried the six-year-old on stage in a suitcase. He opened the case and she jumped out, dressed in a sailor outfit, ate a banana and drank a glass of milk while standing on her head on a little pedestal.

Her mother had eight girls and three boys, and soon all 11 kids were working in the same act, billed as "The Gallagher Family." They did a teeter-board acrobatic act. The kids, their parents, and three pets—a pebble dog named Reno, a rabbit, and a guinea pig—traveled together in three cars and two trailers. Quite a show in itself.

Seven years ago the family act broke up, and Miss Shawn has been doing pretty well in movies. She once doubled for Zsa Zsa Gabor in a circus movie, was with Pat O'Brien in another.

Star of Trapeze

In her first appearance with the Ringling circus, she stars in an aerial ballet in the center ring which has 22 other girls in the air at the same time. She takes to the high trapeze, stands on her head, swings, then juggles four hoops, one for each ankle and wrist. Her head-standing act finishes and a "twirl" amazes the trapeze in a fast whirl.

This hard worker has two children, Louis, 6 and Mark, 2, staying with their grandmother in Houston. Her husband, Louis Cuttin, travels with her, acting as manager.

"Also, he stands below me during the act to catch me if I fall," she said. "Only one time—he didn't catch me."

That was last Feb. 4, in Sarasota, while practicing for her big circus act. She fell onto a concrete floor and fractured one of her lower vertebrae. She spent two weeks in a hospital. Then—out and to work wearing a plastic brace with a steel plate.

Miss Shawn is a cheery sort. The pain is not so much. And the show—as they say—must go on.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Tarbutton are happy to announce the birth of their son April 3 in Norfolk, Va. He weighed 8 lbs. 7 oz. The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson of Flora Heights. Mrs. Tarbutton is the former Miss Rachel Johnson.

TABLE TOPPING WITH TILE

Would you like a coffee table that really adds a quality look to your living room and at the same time is very practical? Clever homemakers have found the answer. They are topping their tables with handsome, stain-proof ceramic tiles, which come in 200 different colors. Just warm soapy suds or detergent is required for easy cleaning.

Sanford State Farmers' Market Is Important To City's Economy

Yesterday's disastrous early morning fire which swept through the Sanford State Farmers' Market is a serious loss to Sanford and Seminole County.

And lessons are to be learned from the experience.

More than fifteen dealers, brokers, and shippers who move the greatest percentage of the fresh produce grown by Seminole County farmers, had no place from which to operate when they came to work Thursday morning.

Records were destroyed, equipment was burned, trucks were turned to rubble, telephones went up in flames, storage units were consumed by the terrific inferno, in fact, a mode of operation was seriously disrupted.

But only temporary!

Dealers, brokers, and packers found spots from which to operate—some in their homes, others from temporary locations where a telephone could be used and customers contacted. It wasn't many hours after the blaze had razed the Sanford Farmers Market that trucks headed for the western and northern markets were being loaded with local produce.

And while this was going on—the Seminole County legislative delegation in Tallahassee for the 1957 session of the State Legislature. Senator Douglas Stenstrom, Representative Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Representative Gordon V. Frederick was talking with Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo about the serious loss of the market in Sanford.

As if pieces of a jigsaw puzzle fitting together, the matter then came before the State Cabinet with Governor LeRoy Collins and Agriculture Commissioner Nathan Mayo looking into ways and means of placing emergency funds to work in rebuilding and replacing the very important asset to Seminole County and the farmers of the area.

Few realize the number of people employed at the Sanford State Farmers' Market and the value of the payroll in respect to Sanford's economy.

At the present time we do not have the exact number of employees—but with the size of the organizations doing business on the market, the number must run into a sizeable sum.

To be sure, any loss of this kind has a great impact on the local economy, and the tragic fire will be felt momentarily until the full operation of the market operators gets back into swing again.

One thing now that we can look forward to is a new, modern, year round operated market with the latest innovations in cooler space.

To The Editor

To the Editor
The Sanford Herald
Sanford, Fla.

Dear Editor:
The Veterans Security Act, H. R. 2562 in Congress would provide equitable benefits to veterans disabled in any military service. Would allow a veteran to be represented by an attorney of his choice. Would permit inspections of VA files and records by the veteran and his attorney, and provide for Judicial Review, in court, from any unjust or arbitrary decision of the Veteran Administration. We need this bill, because present laws are discriminatory, providing benefits to a certain group of veterans only, to the exclusion of all other groups of veterans. Many disabled veterans are wrongfully excluded from benefits by present discriminatory laws and the unjust arbitrary VA decisions of rejection in disabled veterans claims. The VA denied a veteran claim by error, claiming the veteran's disability did not exist until several months after discharge from the military service. Then later again rejected the same claim on the grounds that DISABILITY EXISTED PRIOR TO ENLISTMENT. The VA has stubbornly upheld such old erroneous decisions over and over again contrarily to all evidence submitted in the claim; That remedial legislation is needed to stop the VA's bureaucratic abuse of power denying justice to many veterans is very obvious. The proposed H. R. 2562 with its provisions for Judicial Review is the remedial legislation needed. Veterans should write to their congressmen asking his support for The Veterans Security Act H. R. 2562, and are invited to contact our committee and join in our campaign for our Veterans Rights Bill.

Sincerely Yours,
John L. Wilder, Chairman
United Veterans Committee
Jacksonville, Missouri.

Maldistribution Of Doctors

A distinguished small town physician gave some good advice, the other day, to the medical profession in general and to medical schools in particular. The heading of this advice would mean better medical care for many Americans, especially in rural areas.

It is the belief of Dr. Malcolm E. Phelps of El Reno, Oklahoma, the new president of the American Academy of General Practice, that emphasis on training specialists has brought about a national "maldistribution of doctors." The specialist tends to concentrate in large cities, and there are not enough general practitioners to provide adequate medical care in the rural sections of the country.

Addressing the Academy, which is the second largest medical group in the nation, Dr. Phelps also said that because of intense competition among specialists, some of them "attempt to carry on a general practice, in which they have been inadequately trained." He expressed the belief that specialists should no more engage in general practice than the other way around.

As a solution, the new president of the academy of General Practice would have the medical schools "adjust their curricula so that all their graduates were well trained generalists capable of treating the entire patient."

On the face of it, the number of doctors in this country is adequate. But, as Dr. Phelps points out, there is some maldistribution. Training a higher proportion of general practitioners, and recognizing their extraordinary importance in communities that have too few specialists, would do much to improve the situation.

Culture

It has come to be accepted as almost a truism that Americans are forever seeking new sensations. But a persuasive case can be made for the idea that vast numbers of Americans, far from seeking what is new and different, incline to favor whatever is commonplace and repetitious.

When it comes to music, for example, they want to hear the same paltry tunes over and over again. They like their movies predictable, and always with a happy ending. The TV comedians they praise do the same routines endlessly.

If such persons would climb out of their cultural ruts long enough to look about them, they might find that there really are some (to them) new and interesting sensations to be savored. We suggest a dip into poetry, the best of which condenses a great deal of life into a few striking lines. We recommend also, looking hard at fine paintings and sculpture to draw from them the meaning their creators intended. Or they can listen to some of the great wealth of music—everything from sweet songs to mighty symphonies—that is available to anyone with the knack of selecting good radio programs and for the price of a few good records.

All this may sound dimly like culture with a capital C. It is that. And there's more excitement in it than a whole barrelful of stale entertainment.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of current interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I understand that payments under the Survivor Benefits Act depend on the base pay of the rank held by the veteran. My husband died as a result of wounds incurred in World War I service. His rank was captain in the Army. Will the amount to which I am entitled be based on the military pay he received many years ago, or on the pay received today by an army captain?

A. Survivor Benefits Act payments are based on the current pay scale of the military, and not on the amount actually received by the veteran while he was in service. Your payments, then, would be based on what a captain receives today, not on what he received in World War I.

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany is making a big political comeback.

Only a few weeks ago the Social Democrats, the chief opposition to Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union, were confident they would throw him out in the parliamentary election to be held Sept. 18.

New political experts in Bonn, the West German capital, are predicting an Adenauer victory.

The "old man" himself—he was 81 on Jan. 5—is mapping out a whistle-stop campaign in order to show West Germany's 35 million voters that, despite his age, he still is vigorous and able to lead his government for another four-year term.

He plans to cover the country in his special train, taking his big black Mercedes sedan on a flat car for detours, and make at least three or four speeches a day in addition to a series of big set speeches spaced through the campaign.

Adenauer Getting Stronger
It is interesting that Adenauer seems to be getting stronger while the leaders of the other three big governments in Western Europe—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain, Premier Guy Mollet of France and Premier Antonio Segni of Italy—all are in trouble over one issue or another.

Adenauer had succeeded in putting over an unpopular rearmament program including conscription. He was compelled to reduce the draft term from 18 months to one year. But the first batch of 9,733 draftees entered service Monday without incident and the draft is being accepted.

At the moment, on his way home after a state visit to Iran, Adenauer is preparing to enter important trade negotiations with Russia.

The Soviet government has long been seeking better relations. Though he reluctantly established diplomatic relations with Russia, Adenauer has not proved responsive to Russian gestures.

No Russian Talks
He has said publicly that he

ENTER HERE
SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Burglars broke into the rear wall of Jack Shultz's surplus store three times within a few weeks. Shultz, tired of repairing the damaged wall, hung a sign over the jagged opening: "Main Entrance."

does not care to enter either with Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin or with Soviet Deputy Premier and Trade Minister Anastas I. Mikoyan, who also wants to visit Bonn.

Adenauer's reason for his coldness to the Russians is because the Soviet government will not agree to Germany's reunification. He is determined, too, to keep West Germany tied to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization unless there is a revolutionary change in the European situation.

It is reported in Bonn that Adenauer is preparing to send a new communication on reunification to Moscow within the next few weeks.

Because of the unification situation, Adenauer has refused to enter a formal trade agreement with Russia. Hence the negotiations which are to start late this month or early in May will be for an informal trade agreement instead of a formal trade treaty.

Russia is so eager for the agreement that it is likely Mikoyan will head the Soviet trade delegation despite the fact that Adenauer is on record as not particularly wanting to see him.

"I LOVE LUCY" established not only the fame of Desi and Lucille but Producer Jess Oppenheimer as well.

The latter was playing a round of golf, using a ball with his name stamped clearly upon it, when he booked a drive onto an adjoining fairway. As he dashed over to retrieve it, another player calmly picked it up and put it in his pocket.

"Hay," yelled Oppenheimer, "you're picking up the wrong ball, aren't you?"

The player examined it judicially, then answered, "Nope. This is what I've been playing. An Oppenheimer!"

Thursday morning a coffee was given by Dorell Killeline for those who had helped with the fashion show held in March at the Mayfair Inn. The table was lovely with candles and red lilies. Spring flowers brightened other corners in the living room. Blueberry muffins and other fattening edibles were served. Marge Martin, the VAH-7 representative, poured the coffee. Attending were Mollie Barlow, Teresa Martin, Millie Thomas, Pat Hansen, Mike Stone, Jean Stetson, Katie Jackson, Betty Guy, Polly Savage, Hazel Rowell, Mary Muntz, Doris Francisco, and Ginny Conn.

Ruth and Joe Tully are the proud new parents of a baby girl born Wednesday night at the Seminole Memorial Hospital.

HATU bridge was held at Dodie King's Thursday afternoon. There were three tables of bridge, and extremely interesting hands. The cool breezes swept through the house, and made the afternoon even more delightful. Present were Mary Millsaps, Anita Hadden, and her mother, Mrs. Hildebrand. Mike Stone, Mac Edwards, Mollie Barlow, Treta Michel, Jean Dooley, Ruth Norvell, Jeanne McGuire and a substitute, (me) Jeanne McGuire is another bride in VAH-7. She and Wendell are living in DeBary, next door to our other newly-marrieds, Paul and Lois Grunder.

Dropped in to see Polly Brubaker and Spook Hook this morning. They were peacefully basking in the sun on Polly's lawn. When the annual race for the best tan is held, these two will be way ahead. Incidentally, Polly and Spook GAVE the coffee at the B. O. Q. the other morning for the Bears and Mildahns of VAH-7. I guess it didn't occur to me that they should be so generous when I erroneously reported that they had made the arrangements. Sorry. Another goof to chalk up on the ever growing list.

Our sympathy to the owners of the Sanford Farmer's Market and the truckers, who lost so much in the terrible fire early Thursday morning. It was indeed a holocaust.

Alice Mills twin sister is visiting her, and I will have to run them down—never can find Alice at home. Understand that Sanford navy abound in identical twins. We should get them all together and take a picture for Life. This would be one more way to put Sanford in the public eye of the nation.

Have been following with revulsion the scribbles in another newspaper of a former governor. How such drivel can be printed and the character paid for it I do not know. My morning cup of coffee is ruined, but I continue to torture myself to see if one thing of merit is said. Has anyone else found out how the legislature is proceeding, or do you simply see as I do, a constant rebash of the magnificent projects accomplished by this egoist while he was in office? To me, it is an insult to the very fine reporters we have on our Florida newspapers.

Class president, Mrs. Bob Landreth opened the meeting with a prayer. An attendance contest was planned with the winning group to be entertained with a spaghetti supper by the losing side.

Also "get" visiting days for group leaders and members was suggested. Visits to prospective members were urged.

The class requested Mrs. Walter Brook, personal minister chairman, to send an Easter gift for a chosen orphan boy at the Baptist Children's home in Lakeland.

Sincere regrets were expressed that Chaplain and Mrs. Charles L. Arnold are soon to leave Sanford. Mrs. Brooks presented Mrs. Arnold with a gift expressing deep appreciation for her loyalty to the Golden Circle Class during their affiliation with the Naval Air Station.

At the conclusion of the business session, a most inspiring "Chalk Talk" was given by Mrs. Arnold with Mrs. G. B. Drake singing two lovely hymns. "Both were at their best in presenting this unusual devotional emphasizing the clean "Whiter Than Snow" life of a true christian.

'Pillars Of Sky' Starts Sunday At Movieland

Jeff Chandler will rear across the screen of the Movieland Ride-In Theatre Sunday in the toughest, hell-for-leather, two-fisted role of his career in Universal-International's "Pillars of the Sky," which was filmed in Technicolor and CinemaScope.

Rarely has a hard-biting action story of such savage force combined so sensitively drawn characters with rich colorful backgrounds of the great Northwest so successfully. Chandler is a hero in this one, but definitely not a one-dimensional. As the hard-riding cavalry sergeant who takes love where he finds it, the giant leading man chucks up another his portrayal.

Dorothy Malone, as the general's daughter who fell in love with Chandler but married one of his superior officers, turns in a delicately shaded characterization which marks her definitely as top star material. Her husband is portrayed by Keith Andes in a role which seems thankless to start with but builds into one of the season's surprises.

The biggest surprise of all, however, is Ward Bond, the veteran heavy, who is cast with tremendous success in the deeply sympathetic role of the medical missionary who finds Chandler more difficult to convert to the ways of the Lord than the Indians.

There is poignant drama in this story of the Christianized redskins of the Oregon country who are led into a senseless war against the U. S. Cavalry by their ruthless leader. This chief is brought to life with convincing savagery by Michael Ansara.

The success of the film's action is due in no small part to one of the great battle scene directors of all time, George Marshall, who has made 400 films during his 49 years in the motion picture industry. Producer was Robert Arthur, who worked from a script by Sam Rolfe, based on the Will Henry novel, "Frontier Fury."

Jeff Chandler is a brave, tough cavalry sergeant fighting against Indians with whom he sympathizes in "Pillars of the Sky." Universal-International production in Technicolor and CinemaScope which stars Chandler and Dorothy Malone.

Manuel Feels Turnpike Will Have To Wait

TALLAHASSEE — State Turnpike Authority Chairman Thomas Manuel feels financing and construction of a state-long turnpike to the Georgia line will have to wait until the public and investors can be shown the authority operates on a "light housekeeping" principle.

Manuel, in a report to Gov. LeRoy Collins and the Legislature, said the state-long super-highway will be held up until the success of the "bobtail" spur from Miami to Fort Pierce is "completely assured."

He said that this would show possible investors that the turnpike authority is operating on the principle of "light housekeeping."

"The authority firmly believes in the soundness and feasibility of the extension," Manuel said.

He said every effort would be made to effect a successful financing and to commence construction on the Fort Pierce-Jacksonville section of the road as soon as possible.

The bob-tail section opened on Jan. 23 and up to March 15 had passed $690,840. This was far in excess of pay for the project in 10 years.

He said with a normal increase in traffic, it will be paid off in less than 15 years.

A slow bond market has held up marketing of securities to finance the state-long extension.

Unpaid Bills In New York

By DOC QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — The most-unpaid bills in New York are those owed the grocer, the butcher, the laundryman.

The hardest to collect are those owed the dentist.

The "Park Avenue crowd" of alleged elite are "getting to be pretty terrible on payment of bills."

Those are the opinions of Abraham Miller, a bill collector, process server, and tracer of skipped persons who estimates that in the last 23 years he has collected more than 5,000 bills and served around 500 legal papers everywhere from City Hall to gangsters' back rooms.

Deadbeatism, he says, cuts across all layers of civilization. You just can't pick out one type of person and say his type leaves more bills unpaid than any other.

Actors Will Pay

"Take actors," said Abe. "I get quite a few unpaid actors and actresses. The thing is, you got to time them when they get money. If they have it, you'll get it."

"Take Park Avenue—I'd say 23 per cent of the people I deal with there are living beyond their means. The wife has charge accounts in most of the department stores. I been working Park Avenue for over 25 years and it's only in the last six or seven years that there's trouble. In the old days if I got a Park Avenue case I'd simply make a call and it'd be paid."

"But now they're away seven or eight months a year, and you can't get hold of them. Four or five months in Florida, then back in town a month or so, then away someplace else."

Limited Risks

"Also on Park Avenue we have this thing which is what we call kept women. A fellow gets an apartment, and he's living with a lady friend in a car. She comes in to a butcher and says she's Mrs. Jones, her boy friend's name and has this good address, and wants to open a charge account and the butcher says gladly. Well, the boy friend pays, but only as long as they're on friendly terms."

Abe says that dental bills are the hardest to collect because "people put in counter claims that they can't eat, can't sleep, dentures fall out—you get an upper or lower plate, you can always find something wrong with it."

Abe goes to Florida quite often tracing persons who have skipped town owing bills, and he's been as far as New Orleans on this same mission. He says relatives are valuable for learning where a person has gone.

"We find that in every family there's somebody who doesn't like you."

Additional Wesleyan Guild Elects New Officers At Monday Meeting

The regular April meeting of the Wesleyan Guild of the First Methodist Church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Burke Meale with Miss Mabel Chapman as co-hostess. The devotional was given by Mrs. Milton Wyatt.

During the business session Mrs. Porter Lansing reported that books had been sent in India for distribution by the Directorate of Literature. Plans were made for the Florida Conference Wesleyan Guild Week which will be held at the Methodist Youth Camp in Leesburg May 3-4. Mrs. L. M. Swain was appointed delegate.

Mrs. Robert S. Billhimer reported on the Boylan-Haven Mission School, and Mrs. Wilson Carver on the Brewster Hospital—both in Jacksonville. Conditions were made for the Cruise of the Cross for Foreign Students; also to the Boylan-Haven School.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Miss Mabel Chapman,

Hepburn, Lancaster Star In 'Rainmaker'

The finest performance of Katharine Hepburn's career; a powerful, immensely inventive characterization by Burt Lancaster; brilliant support by the entire cast; and a unique, deeply moving story that ranges from intense drama to high comedy make Hal Wallis' "The Rainmaker" superb movie fare. The Paramount picture, opening Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, deserves every bit of the acclaim it has been receiving. It is a gripping, deeply moving film with the force of "The Rose Tattoo."

This dramatic force stems equally from inspired performances and an uninhibited, unusual story, which revolves around the Curry family of Three Point, somewhere out West; the town's bachelor deputy sheriff; and Starbuck a foot-loose pitchman who wanders into their lives and turns them upside down. Lancaster, as Starbuck, a kind of pied piper with a calculating gift of gab, lures them all out of the rut of bleak, every day life into a world where adventurous dreams are real—meanwhile relieving them of $100 by promising to bring rain to their drought-stricken farms.

He jingles into town driving a wagon stocked with weird gadgets, and before he has quit Three Point, Miss Hepburn's Liz Curry has two suitors—two more than she has ever had; Sheriff Wendell Corey has not only defied the law but broken his bachelor's oath; older brother Lloyd Bridges has learned there's more to life than sour logic; kid brother Earl Holliman, hitherto held down, has snuk off to court the girl of his choice and received a blistering baptism of fire in the war between the sexes; and the Cameron Proud'homme has finally become a successful parent.

As for Starbuck, there's a special miracle reserved for him, but you won't get us to reveal that. You'll roar with laughter, and probably shed a tear or two when that happens, as you will watching Katie beautifully burlesque the wiles gals use to catch a man, and young Holliman, a terrific acting find, in some of the earliest teenage love scenes you've ever sat in on. Cute and shapely newcomer Yvonne Lime as Holliman's saucy girl friend and Wallace Ford as a whimsical sheriff match the high performance level.

Director Joseph Anthony, who also directed the hit Broadway play on which the picture is based, proves himself a master in this, his debut film, by drawing out the perfect acting in every role. N. Richard Nash, who wrote the play, has provided a screenplay that is at times earthy and violent, at times pure hilarity. With the same wizardry as his "Come Back, Little Sheba" and "The Rose Tattoo," producer Hal Wallis has given us another film to rank with the best the screen has ever offered.

American Cotton Manufacturers Institute Opens

PALM BEACH, Fla. — The eighth annual convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute opened here with the possibility the group may be consolidated with the National Federation of Textiles.

The board of directors of the ACMI announced that they had adopted a resolution opening the way for the merger. The resolution, which came out of almost six months of negotiations, will be acted upon Saturday, the final session of the annual meeting.

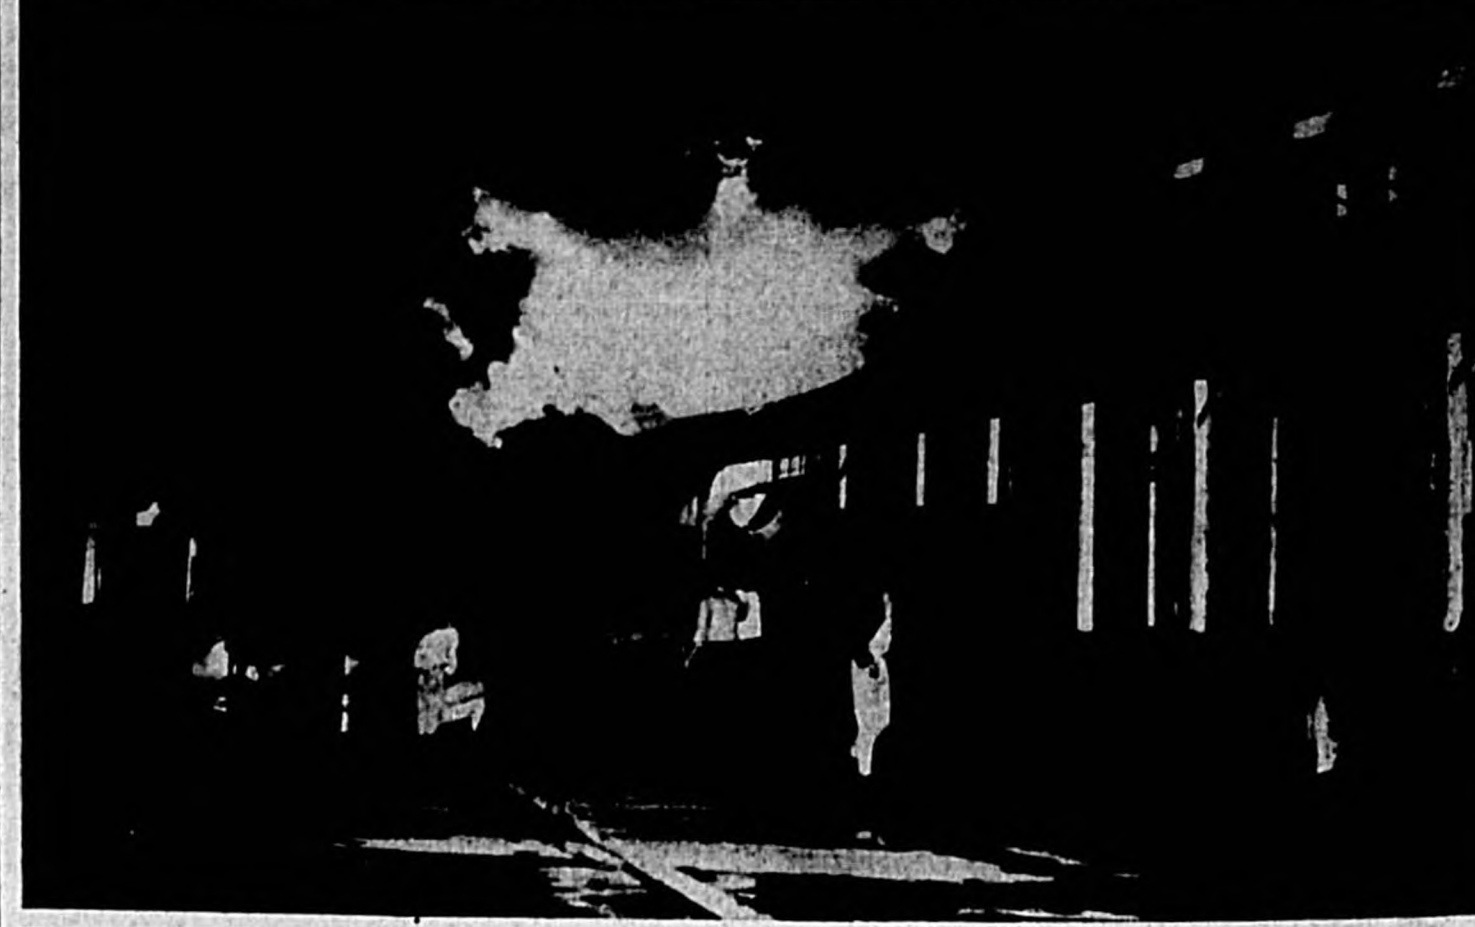

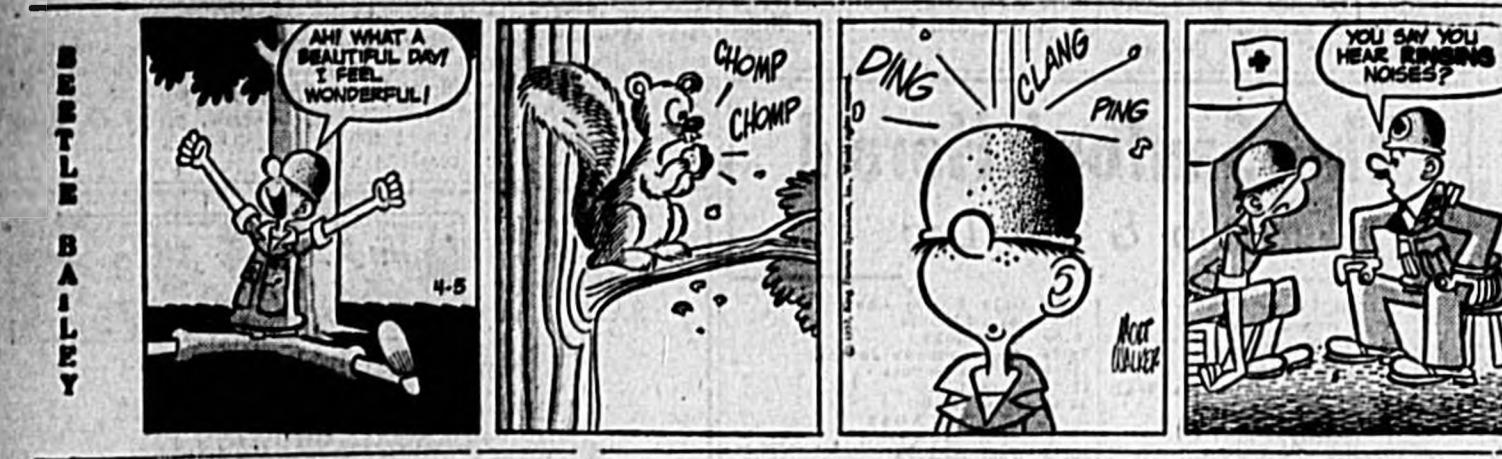

The NFT, an organization dealing primarily with man-made fibers and silk, is represented in 72 per cent of the mills whose executives are also members of the cotton institute.

Some 1,000 delegates met today for the opening session of the ACMI meeting.

Speakers at Friday's session will include Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson D-Tex who will be introduced by Sen. George Smathers D-Fla. Set to talk Friday is George B. Roberts, New York banker, and C. Canby Halderman, vice chairman of the Federal Reserve System.

Charlie Morrison Accepts Position With Car Dealer

Charlie Morrison, a member of the advertising staff of The Sanford Herald for nearly six years, resigned yesterday to accept the position of Director of Public Relations with Holler Motor Sales, local Chevrolet, Oldsmobile and Cadillac dealer.

Morrison, well-known through Central Florida as a song-leader, tennis umpire, program master of ceremonies and quiz master, has been a resident of Sanford for 18 years. A native of Troy, N. Y., he and his wife, the former Laura B. Fisher whom he married in New York City in 1914, came to Florida in 1920 where he managed theatres in Jacksonville, becoming District Manager for Publix Theatres Inc., in 1929. In that year he was also president of the Jacksonville "Stars" Baseball Club in the Southeastern League with a Sanford pitcher, Ben Cantwell, and a Tampa catcher, Al Lopez, as his stellar battery.

For many years Morrison served as song-leader for the Rotary Clubs of the state and has held membership in Winter Haven, Sebring and Tampa Clubs as well as being at the present time a member here. He also enjoys the distinction of being an Honorary Member of the Sanford Kiwanis Club.

He and Mrs. Morrison reside at 2600 Hiawatha Ave. and are the parents of two children, Mrs. A. B. (Pete) McRaney and Dr. Jack C. Morrison. Charlie's hobbies are tennis, getting people to sing and playing Santa Claus during the Christmas Season.

He will assume his duties with Holler Motor Sales Monday and as H. C. Kitchens, general manager of Holler's, put it, "will act as our good will ambassador with or without portfolio." Morrison was the recipient of a "goodbye and good luck, Charlie" party in the business office of the Herald yesterday afternoon which was featured by a mammoth cake suitably inscribed and the presentation of a substantial gift certificate.

Local Christian Church Schedules Visitation Week

Visitation week at the First Christian Church has been set for next week, and Palm Sunday, Apr. 14, has been designated Decision Day. Pastor Perry L. Stone announced today.

Organized evangelistic calling is planned for Tuesday and Thursday nights. It will also be done on Friday if necessary to visit all cultivated prospects on the church's responsibility list. The nights of calling will begin with a supper at the church promptly at 6:30. Women's circles will serve the meals. Assignments are to be made and the callers leave the church at 7:15 in teams of two. The persons who commit themselves to become Christians are to make a public confession of their faith at morning worship on Decision Day, and those who decide to transfer their membership will receive the right hand of fellowship at that time. A baptismal service is contemplated Easter Sunday, 7:30 p. m.

Budget-Cutters Approach Billion Dollar Mark In Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—House budget-cutters closed today by approaching the billion dollar mark in their drive to cut President Eisenhower's $7,500,000,000 budget. They hope to boost the saving eventually to two or three times that much.

Passage Thursday night of a lightly-paired money bill for the Labor and Health, Education and Welfare Departments brought total claimed reductions so far to $821,400,000.

The Appropriations Committee met today behind closed doors to run the claimed savings higher possibly to near the one billion dollar level. The committee was considering the President's request for $871,500,000 million to run the Commerce Department

Oviedo Methodist Church Will Be Dedicated Sunday

By Marian Jones
OVIEDO—Remember what a good time we had the first Sunday in November at the Homecoming of the Oviedo Methodist Church? Well, get yourselves all prepared. Another is in store for you.

That time we have long looked forward to is here—the dedication of the new Methodist Church.

Those good people are planning as large an event as that held in November for the Homecoming—If not larger.

Invitations are in the hands of all former Oviedians that were members of the Church. Members of the other churches here are planning on affiliating with them for this memorable occasion.

Sunday School will be held at the Baptist Church, but the church services have been called off in order to attend the ones at the Methodist Church.

That well-known Reverend John Swanson will preside at the dedication service, assisted by Reverend George Carlton and Dr. Jesse Waller.

Following the services dinner will be on church grounds. We have been trying all week to get our good friend, Lee Gray, to say he will have us a good cake up there. He has promised to meet us and greet us again—on condition we attend the services as well as the dinner.

In spite of a busy week-end ahead for us in other ways, too, we plan on wedding in time to cook some goodies and bring on hand for the special occasion. Pack your baskets and meet us there—time—Sunday, Apr. 7 Sunday School time 9:45 a. m.—worship hour: 11 a. m. Counting on you.

months operation with a 12 month payroll in Sanford.

"I am suggesting this to the Department of Agriculture and I am hopeful this weekend to meet with market authorities in the thought that we can develop some type of a plan to present to the Department of Agriculture.

Yesterday, the Board of Sanford City Commissioners met in emergency session to quell wild rumors circulating about the market and the disastrous fire only a few hours before.

Meeting shortly after noon the Board of Sanford City Commissioners unanimously adopted a resolution "representing the Commissioner of Agriculture to take immediate steps to put the Sanford State Farmers' Market in operation."

The resolution will point up the economic importance of the market to both the City of Sanford and to Seminole County.

I have never seen such harmony as that which was displayed during the tragic fire, one commissioner said at yesterday's meeting. As a result, the Board of Sanford City Commissioners agreed to thank everyone publicly who helped in any way to fight the fire.

Particular attention was focused on the operation of the new pumps for the Sanford Fire Department. The pumps sprayed 3,500 gallons of water a minute over the fire where old equipment was capable of only 700 gallons a minute.

Details of the fire and its beginning began to seep into The Sanford Herald's newsroom. The first person to call in an alarm for the fire was a young man in charge of a filling station directly across from the market area. Bob Ricketts, a 17-year-old Seminole High School senior who works at night and goes to school during the day, said that he made the call and immediately went to the area to begin moving trucks away from the platform. He was assisted he said by Cecil Taylor who is employed by an adjoining oil company.

"I saw the small blaze at first in the corner of the building and immediately ran inside to call the fire department. I asked the telephone operator for help in getting the fire department," said Ricketts.

"When I came back out it looked like someone took a torch and lit the building," he said. Ricketts explained that he moved some of the trucks and then went back to the station to close it up and then return to the scene of the fire to help. "It was right after I got back that the wind got to rolling the blaze of the fire out of the roof and onto the adjacent building," he said.

The four boys, Mike Tammy, Bradley Schifard, Bob Ricketts and Cecil Taylor were receiving the praise of all officials connected with the Sanford State Farmers Market, insurance companies, and the city government, for their untiring efforts to save property regardless of their own safety.

Today, most of the dealers, brokers and packers who were located at the Sanford State Farmers Market are back in business either from their homes or in temporary locations until the market can be rebuilt. It is business as usual with the men who move fresh produce into the western and northern markets from Central Florida.

Many Representatives To Speak For Canal

Hearing April 10 At Mayfair

It was 50 years ago that the first move was made to extend the St. Johns River to Titusville for an inland waterway to take care of thousands of pleasure boats taking their leisurely trip along the scenic St. Johns.

At one time, the St. Johns River was the only access to Central Florida for winter visitors.

And now it is estimated, at latest count, that more than 22,500 boats would take advantage of the new scenic route through a part of Florida unknown to hundreds of thousands.

A hearing has been scheduled by the Army Corps of Engineers on the feasibility of the Sanford-Titusville Canal. Local, county, state, and surrounding area representatives will have their say before the engineers on the part they believe most important for the new waterway to play in the economy of the Central Florida section.

Conservation has become an important topic in the move to secure the Sanford-Titusville Canal. With both flood and drought conditions felt in Central Florida, the canal will serve as a vital controlling measure in storing water for use during droughts and for releasing water during times of flood conditions.

At Sanford, a new boat basin is being completed to allow stopovers here as new and more numerous visitors plan to take the inland route along the beautiful river to view the rolling hills and the lush Florida tropical splendor.

People, seeing these views for the first time, are attracted to the area for "water" homes.

The Sanford Docks and Terminals project will become doubly secure with the new route to Titusville and the Atlantic Ocean and with another connection with the proposed cross state canal to the

Evaluation Of Federally Owned Lands Proposed

VAH-7 Has 'Hottest 'Bombing Crew In NAF'

Three men who have been flying together only a month emerged as the "Hottest Bombing Crew in the Navy Air Force" in a recent operation conducted by Heavy Attack Wing One, United States Atlantic Fleet Air Force. The trio took individual honors in a week-long competition against the top crews from five squadrons. Heavy Attack Squadron Five won the squadron competition.

LTJr. Richard W. Mann, pilot; Joseph Valinski, AL1, bombardier; and Bobby Sandefur, third crewman make up the crew, which represented Heavy Attack Squadron Seven based at Sanford. On four successive days they flew missions on 16 targets with spectacular results. Their scores would have been envied even for a veteran crew, but only one of the three men (Mr. Mann) had ever flown such a mission before.

The crew reached its peak on the third day, when it set a record for accuracy on four successive missions. Although the scores are classified, their results might be compared to a modern William Tell who could throw a stone in to a funnel of a target light from across the Brooklyn bridge four times without a miss.

A native of Dickinson, N. D., Mann joined the Navy in 1942 as an Aviation Cadet. During World War II, he served in the Pacific and won the Silver Star for a distinguished performance. (Continued on Page 10)

WASHINGTON — Congressman

Syd Herlong today introduced in the House of Representatives a bill aimed at returning to local and state tax rolls Federal property which is not now being used.

Under the legislation, a special committee of nine House members would conduct an investigation of real property owned by the United States, and determine its need.

Later, the committee would make recommendations for disposal of that found to be surplus.

Herlong said he proposed this evaluation of Federally owned lands because much has been said in recent years about the government's vast holdings and the great need to get some of this property back into private ownership and on the tax rolls.

The fifth District congressman pointed out that much Federal land consists of mountain tops, swamps, desert areas and barren acreage that are unwanted and could not be maintained by private owners. (Continued on Page 10)

CofC Directors To Discuss Canal At Tuesday's Meet

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night, at 8 p.m. in the Commissioners Room of the City Hall.

The St. Johns - Indian River Canal will be up for discussion due to the fact that the hearing, called by the Army Corps of Engineers, will be held in Sanford at the Mayfair Inn on Wednesday, April 10.

John Krider, Manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, in issuing the notice of the meeting, urged all directors to make every effort to attend the session.

Savage Sons Win Bombing Derby

Sanford's Savage Sons of Heavy Attack Squadron Five have won the first quarterly Heavy Attack Wing One Bombing Derby. The victory followed an intensive month of concentrated practice bombing missions and ground training culminated by the week-long race for the coveted crown.

Originally established in December, the Derby was created in order to stimulate morale and improve bombing proficiency throughout Heavy Attack Wing squadrons.

The exercise was begun Monday with Sanford's four Heavy Attack Squadrons: Five, Seven, Nine and Eleven and VAH-3 based at Jacksonville participating VAH-5, 7 and 11 flew the propeller driven, North American built AJ SAVAGE, while VAH-3 and 9 vied for honors in the twin jet Douglas A3D Skywarrior.

Jacksonville was chosen as the "bombing range" for the exercise with certain bridges and buildings designated as targets. All bombing was accomplished by a radar bomb plotting unit at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station which tracked the aircraft as they streaked towards their targets.

The accuracy of this method of scoring has been developed to so fine a degree that the expense of dropping actual bombs is never incurred nor were any dropped during the operation.

Three outstanding crews were chosen to represent each squadron in the Derby and as the citizens of Jacksonville worked, played and kept the heavy bombers were the vapor trails many thousands of feet overhead.

Each day the tournament saw the process of elimination take its toll as one squadron after another bowed from the race until the final day when Heavy Attack Squadrons Nine and Five remained for the showdown with VAH-5 emerging.

1st St. Whiteway Put In Yesterday; Walk Lights In Use

The steel standards for Sanford's First Street Whiteway were put in and erected yesterday morning by city crews.

Moving of the heavy standards got underway Sunday morning about 7 a.m. when loading began in the French Ave. trailer park area where they were stored.

Work on First St. got underway about 8 o'clock to avoid the heavy weekend traffic and the blocking of the business area when hoists lifted the tall poles into place and set them on concrete forms built especially for them.

Work also got underway in the synchronization of the walk lights at First St. and Park Ave. with the traffic lights at the same intersection.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles left yesterday for Delray Beach where he will attend a four-day City Managers Short Course.

The 11th annual short course got underway yesterday at 2 o'clock. Knowles said he will return to Sanford Wednesday night. The short course is conducted by the General Extension Division of Florida in cooperation with the Florida City Managers Association, the Public Administration Clearing Service of the University. Truck Tears Bridge Housing; May Be Closed Two Days

The Lake Monroe Bridge, on State Road 15-600, will be closed possibly two days, according to the Seminole County Sheriff's office after investigating a crash of a truck loaded with heavy equipment when it tore the bridge housing and two of the main steel cross beams.

The truck, a Ford V-8 semi trailer, with two pieces of heavy equipment, smashed into the top housing of the bridge shortly before 11:30 this morning.

Deputy Sheriff H. S. Smart, investigating the accident, said that the Bridge Tender, K. W. Fight, had stated that the bridge would be closed to both highway and river traffic because of the damage.

Estimate of the damage was put at approximately $25,000, said the Deputy Sheriff.

Driver of the heavy truck was Charlie Johnson, Negro truck driver of Bunnell. C. B. King, sawmill owner of Bunnell, owns the truck.

The truck, it was said, had a vertical clearance of 18 feet. However, the bridge, according to signs, has a vertical clearance of only 14 feet.

A huge steel boom protruding from one of the pieces of heavy equipment carried on the semi trailer first crashed into and bent one of the steel cross beams at the entrance to the bridge. It then tore into the housing above the center of the bridge and tore steel beams and housing from place.

The frame housing, at noon today, was hanging in place supported only by the boom from the truck and from the two steel

Public Hearing Scheduled Tonight At Board Meet

It is expected that miscellaneous business from the floor and City Commission will far exceed the four-item agenda confronting the Board of Sanford City Commissioners tonight at the City Hall.

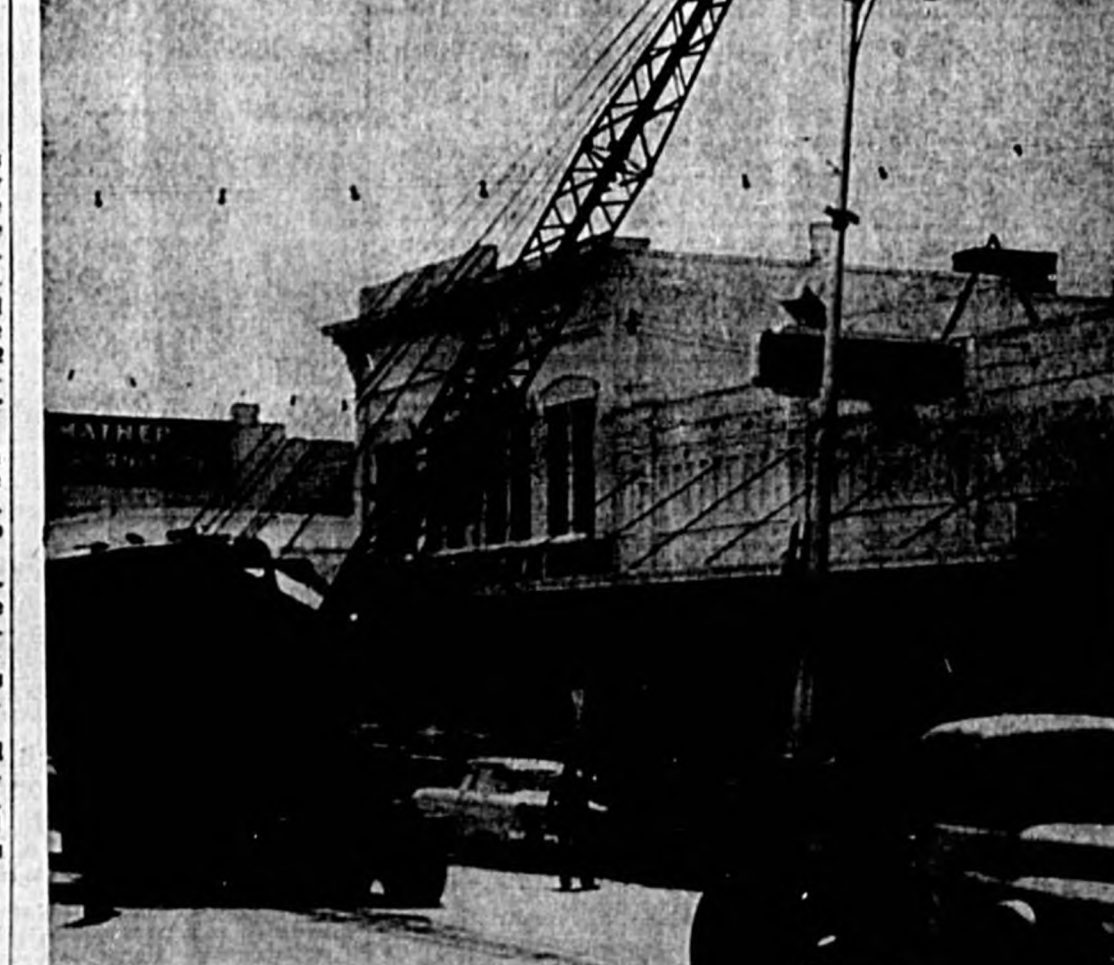

Regularly scheduled to be heard will be a Public Hearing on the vacating of 19' of a foot by 32 feet of the right-of-way of Sanford Ave. of the southeast corner of 5th St.

There will be a discussion of a request to pave the alley in the block from First to Second St. between Magnolia and Palmetto Aves.

Two resolutions will come before the board for adoption. One opposing the bill whereby municipalities would not be able to control the sale of liquor on Sundays and the other is on the Navy Appreciation Day commendations.

Also coming before the Board of Commissioners is the awarding of the bid for a street sweeper. Awarding of the bid has been held up until tests and investigations were made.

Weather
Generally fair today, increasing cloudiness tonight and Tuesday with scattered showers late tonight or Tuesday. Cooler Tuesday; low tonight 60 to 65.
