WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 16 .- (75) William Leifheit, truck driv who originally contended he could not be convicted of drunk-ened driving because Kansas' 3.2 beer legally as not insoxicating, won acquittal here recently.

But Police Judge Murray instructed the six jurors to consider only whether Leifheit was intoxicated when his transport truck was involved in a highway accident. In his trial, Leifheit testified had drunk only 3.2 bee which was declared non-intoxi cating by the last legislature.

Defense Attorney Madden contended that under the law Leifheit could not be drunk legally.
