

Washington Window

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Hon. Timothy Tugbuton came storming into the office today yelling for blood or, anyway, a court-martial.

Tugbuton's rage had been boiling up for nearly a week since he had read in his hometown paper, the Alton, Kan., Empire, that some Navy knucklehead, an admiral no doubt, had been wasting the taxpayers' dollars.

"Three million, two hundred thousand bucks," the old man shouted. "They oughta keelhaul the varmint. How'd a critter as dumb as that ever get to be an admiral, anyway?"

"Maybe he wasn't an admiral, Tim."

"Of course he was an admiral," Tugbuton insisted. "They don't let lieutenants, captains and such spend that kind of money."

Tugbuton spread his copy of the Empire on the news desk and indicated the paragraph that had enraged him, a United Press International story, as follows:

"The General Accounting Office charged yesterday that the Navy wasted $3.2 million buying new aircraft engine parts during a recent 18-month period when it had plenty of excess aircraft engines in storage from which the parts could have been obtained."

Tugbuton said he had had his eye on the Navy for a long time and that the spare parts incident was not the first such snafu.

"Things like that happen all the time," the old man shouted. "And I'll tell you something else and don't forget it, the Army and the Air Force are just as bad, maybe worse."

"This feller Campbell, (Joseph Campbell) comptroller general of the United States, has been turning 'em up for years. This Campbell checks all of the spending and the contracts made by the government. His checkers look for deals in which the government gets gypped or gypa itself and mighty often they find 'em. Then this Campbell reports to Congress and that's the end of it."

Tugbuton had built up a head of steam. He banged his cane on the news desk, kicked over a basket of Teletype tape and swept the paste pot to the floor.

"This feller McNamara, what's he going to do about these generals and admirals? Nothing, most likely. That wasn't the way he ran the Ford Motor Co., I betcha. And if he had, young Henry would have given him the sack. That's what President Kennedy ought to do, too, if this McNamara can't make his generals and admirals take better care of the people's money, can him and get another boy!"

Lakeland Sues 5 Electric Firms

LAKELAND (UPI)—The City of Lakeland has filed damage suits against five electrical firms accused of price-fixing in the selling of equipment to the city for the municipal power plant.

City Attorney J. Harden Peterson Jr. filed the suits in U. S. District Court in Lakeland against Allis-Chalmers, Westinghouse, General Electric, Maloney Electric Co., and C. H. Wheeler Co.

A city spokesman said the suits did not ask for a specific amount of money, but only for "overcharges" made by the firms.

Finn Reds Lose In Elections

HELSINKI (UPI)—President Urho Kekkonen had voter support today for his efforts to keep Finland clear of the East-West cold war.

Kekkonen's Agrarian party and the Conservatives scored the biggest gains in two days of parliamentary elections which ended Monday. The voters handed a sharp setback to Finland's Communist party.

China was the first country to ornament its fine silken material with patterns, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Board Orders Official To 'Spare The Paddle'

Herald Cuts Bait For Biggest Liar

By LARRY VERSHEL
 ARE YOU KIDDING DEPARTMENT: . . . Take a look at these stories that were published in the Herald last year.

1—Sept. 3, 1961: "Seminole County got some encouraging news from Senator Spessard Holland today that things are looking bright for the county to get approval for its $9 million water control project." Himmhmmmm!

2—Sept. 1, 1961: "The State Road Department plans to ask for bids on a new Osteen Bridge by January of 1962." Himmhmmmm against Max Brewer, fifth district road board member, said the bridge won't be constructed until 1963.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said he has prepared and completed sanitary sewer plans and cost estimates for the proposed shopping center on Hwy. 17-92. Groundbreaking should be within 60 days.

Just for the record, Seminole County schools got a good report on accreditation from the Southern Assn. of Secondary Schools.

Forgot to mention that Commissioner Vernon Dunn came out with the choice quote of the day at the board meeting Tuesday. Some 20 seconds after the meeting got under way, Dunn said, "We ought to frame the minutes of the Jan. 26 meeting." It lasted only three minutes. . . . By the way, Tuesday's meeting went on for three and a half hours.

Regarding that proposed widening of Seminole Blvd., Mr. Dunn wants it emphasized that he would favor the project if it was in the county and not in a municipality.

Don't forget that the Department of Public Safety has announced that as of Feb. 1 it has discontinued issuing Florida drivers licenses automatically to newcomers holding licenses in other states. This will mean that new residents will have to take the vision test and a written examination on Florida rules.

Qualifying petitions for North Orlando's March 20 election for two councilmen were picked up Tuesday night by F. Stewart Helmy and Henry Ward. Bob Stephenson is being urged to run by a large group of residents.

It also is being said around the Village that the organized group which protested annexation of its area early last summer is planning to take no part in the coming election and that its members won't even register to vote.

Jim Lee, president of the Lions Club, told us that the organization has published copies of a pamphlet entitled "The Law And You" and is making it available to youngsters at Seminole High School. The pamphlet, which was written by local judges, emphasizes the need for a basic understanding of the law.

Received a letter from Mrs. Charles Hayes urging better cooperation between city, county and school officials on increased recreation facilities for our youngsters.

Road department crews are finishing up Penitentiary Dr. off Lake Brantley Rd. as part of a joint participation project.

Ford Cavannah has expressed a definite interest in running for the legislature in the spring.

There's a 35 bed Civil Defense field hospital ready for any emergency at the road camp office down at the county home property.

Sanford's Thriftway Supermarket purchased some 10,000 pounds of the best beef out of the FFA cattle show in Ocala recently. Joe Gagli tells us it will feed some 16,000 persons — It was the reserve champion at the show.

Seeking true facts is a newspaper tradition, but The Herald will take the opposite route next week in one instance.

The newspaper will help sponsor a contest for the best fish story. It will have only one degree of honesty in that it will be called "The Fishing Liars Contest of 1962."

Harry Robson, of Robson Sporting Goods, who emphasized that he has absolutely no experience with such fish stories, will be the co-sponsor of the contest.

Prizes will be awarded for the best fabrications and there will be only one rule:

Entries must be submitted in writing, with the liar's name and address on each story.

The contest will begin Monday and will be open until March 17. Stories may be mailed or brought to The Herald or Robson's Sporting Goods, 304 East First St.

All entries will be printed in The Herald's Knee Deep in Outdoors column and will be judged by a panel of experts in the lying field.

So—lie to us, fishermen, and with a clear conscience!

Oviedo Seeks Funds For Athletic Field

The newly organized Oviedo Athletic Assn., Inc. will kick off a fund-raising campaign Wednesday, Feb. 14, to raise money to build an athletic field, John Courier, president of the association announced today.

The purpose of the organization, according to the announcement is to "provide athletic and recreational facilities for the youth of Oviedo and the surrounding territory."

The fund raising campaign will be conducted in Oviedo and the nearby communities over a two-week period, Courier said. This will be followed by a series of community activities until sufficient funds have been raised to complete the first phase of the program, he explained.

The first phase includes the acquisition of a suitable place of property and the erection of a field and improvements on it in time for the Oviedo High School to field a football team next fall, President Courier said.

The initial phase of construction will include grading and sodding the playing area, construction of bleachers, a building a fence and installation of lights for night activities.

Complete plans call for additional improvements which will provide facilities for baseball and other athletic events, Courier added.

Officers, in addition to the president, are James Colbert, vice president, and John Evans, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Ben Jones, Roswell Noegel, Frank Wheeler, C. W. Holder, James Pearson and Merritt Staley.

Ask Higher Talks
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Macmillan today proposed elevating the forthcoming disarmament conference in Geneva to the foreign minister level in an effort to halt the nuclear arms race.

The County School Board today reprimanded the assistant principal at Sanford Junior High School for "severely" paddling a 14-year-old boy and officially warned the official "not to do it again unless it was justified."

Board Chairman Roy Mann read a letter from attorney Gordon Frederick that assistant principal Tom Barker paddled a youngster and that the paddling "had been excessive and that the child had sustained injuries."

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said that charges against Barker had been made in the past and at one time he paddled three children in the lunchroom in one day.

However, the board felt that on several occasions paddling was a necessity for discipline and reaffirmed its earlier policy that except in most unusual circumstances corporal punishment shall be used only as a last resort after other measures have failed to bring results.

Milwee said that Barker used a piece of plywood 18 inches long and three inches wide and the youngster was hit four times.

Milwee said that apparently this child had bruised easily and the punishment had left its mark and required medical attention.

Mann also read a letter from Dr. Robert J. Smith who administered to the boy. Smith stated that the child was "complaining of pain and an examination showed marked contusions and abrasions."

Frederick, who represents the parents of the youngster, said in his letter that it appears "quite obvious from the nature of the doctor's report that far more than justifiable discipline was administered. We request that such steps be taken including a reprimand of the person involved in order to avoid further recurrences of this problem."

Fair Booths Ready For Exhibits

All booths and partitions for the Seminole County Fair have been completed and are ready for exhibitors. Joel Fields, president of the Legion Fair Assn., announced today.

Fields said the big tent was in the process of being erected this morning and that the Page Combined Shows will occupy the midway. "Twenty rides and shows will be provided to entertain all ages, from eight to 80," Fields declared.

Communities which have never participated before include Lake Mary, sponsored by the Fire Department Auxiliary; Longwood, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and Lake Monroe, sponsored by the Lake Monroe Ceramics Club.

Exhibitors who have selected booths and are ready to move in are the Sanford Art Society, which will have an exhibit contributed by all members;

The Sanford-Seminole Student Artists will set up a studio which will include an animated exhibit.

Members of the eight 4-H Clubs will vie for club ribbons and cash awards.

The Seminole High School Science Club will have a science exhibit and the Future Farmers of America will set up a manual training exhibit.

A booth of antiques from Seminole County will be displayed by Bill Vincent and members of the Home Demonstration Clubs culinary and arts and crafts departments will vie with each other for honors.

When the big tent is up Legionnaire carpenters will get to work erecting pens and stalls so that the animals can be moved in Monday, Fields reported.

Seminole School Needs Stressed

Curriculum experts in the school system painted a rosy picture of accreditation standards in the county schools but emphasized the need for more equipment and materials to upgrade them during the next school year.

Instructional Director Stewart Gatchel cited the need for additional guidance counselors, increased industrial arts courses and more arts and crafts subjects.

He said his staff had undertaken a massive study to upgrade accreditation standards and plans to ask for a more flexible junior high school program next year.

One of Gatchel's assistants, W. W. Wharton, reported that accreditation standards were on an average with the rest of the state and nation and pointed out figures to sustain his point.

W. H. Deshazo, secondary school supervisor reported that the percentage of high school graduates that attend college from the county schools is high and revealed figures that from the 1961 class at Seminole High School, 33 percent attended college, Lyman 29 percent and Oviedo 65 percent.

At the same time, Administrative Assistant Walter Teague cited figures that by 1966-67 enrollment in the schools would reach the 29,508 mark and we must be ready for them.

He said the fastest growing areas were in Oviedo where enrollment would be 2,109 in 1966 and 10,722 in the Lyman area.

In other business, the board heard Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the long range planning committee of the Chamber of Commerce, invite members to serve on a special committee to get ready for the Nova impact on the schools and said his committee would work with school officials to help upgrade technical programs in the schools and look for additional school sites.

Board To Pay Medical Bills Of Injured

The County School Board today gave Orlando contractor J. Hillert Sapp a "clean bill of health" and ruled out any negligence on his part as the result of a partition falling at the Lake Mary School Jan. 26 where three 11-year-old pupils were injured.

At the same time County School Board attorney Douglas Stenstrom said that the board was liable for all medical expenses to the youngsters. The board then agreed to pay all medical and hospital bills.

Architect John Burton said that the accident occurred because the mortar did not develop its full strength under a period of time the constant pressures gradually loosened the mortar bond.

Burton added that he did not feel that this reflects "inferior materials" or any negligent action on the part of the contractor.

Board member John Brumley urged Burton to make a check to "see that we don't have any other walls in schools like this and Burton answered that he had checked and there was none.

"We don't want this to happen again," Brumley said.

The partition, located in the school lunchroom was three feet high and about 12 feet long. It separated the entrance from the serving area.

Earlier Milwee said he felt partition blocks in the separator structure apparently were not properly anchored. It was constructed on a mortar base without tie-in reinforcements.

Guatemala Rebel Force Scattered

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — Loyal troops have scattered the rebels who attacked two villages northeast of here Tuesday and are chasing them into the hills, it was reported today.

Defense Minister Enrique Peralta said five army men were killed and seven wounded by the raiders, including a lieutenant who was said to have been "executed" in cold blood by his captors.

Peralta said a number of raiders have been killed, wounded or captured, but he had no precise details.

Police Col. Alfredo Castaneda's car was bombed early Wednesday, but Castaneda escaped injury.

Official statements say the rebel leaders are three ex-army officers who were involved in November's abortive revolt.

They were said to be wearing green fatigue uniforms like those of Fidel Castro's

Former Castro Envoy Executed

MIAMI (UPI) — Cuban refugee sources said today Enrique Canto, Fidel Castro's first ambassador to Spain, has been executed secretly in the eastern city of Santiago for "counter-revolutionary anti-government activities."

The sources hinted at a link between the execution of Canto, who was arrested months ago, and the reported assassination Sunday of Lt. Agustin Bumbaut, chief judge of Santiago's revolutionary tribunal.

They said Canto, who was very popular in the eastern provincial capital, was tried secretly and then shot.

The ex-ambassador, a wealthy Santiago businessman, was an active campaigner against ex-President Fulgencio Batista, whom Castro overthrew in 1959. Canto had fled to Spain as a refugee while Batista was in power.

4th Weather Eye Shot Into Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The United States today rocketed into orbit its fourth "weather eye" satellite to television pictures of earth's weather from deep in space.

The satellite was launched from this spaceport at 7:43 a. m. EST aboard a three-stage, Thor-Delta rocket. One hour and 33 minutes later its radio signals were picked up by a tracking station at Wallops Island, Va., indicating it was in orbit around the earth.

The 285-pound satellite was aimed at a circular orbit about 600 miles up.

German Mine Deaths At 260

SAARBRUCKEN, Germany (UPI) — Grimy rescue workers searching for possible survivors of one of the worst mine disasters in Germany's history found more bodies today, raising the death toll even higher than previously feared.

Officials of the Saarland Mine Commission said at least 260 miners were known dead in an explosion.

They said the toll probably would mount even higher because an unknown number of miners still was trapped a quarter of a mile beneath the ground.

By early this morning, 219 victims had been brought to the surface.

Ten bodies were located deep in the pit and one miner died in a hospital during the night.

Group To Form Fire Department

Further details of organizing and setting up a volunteer fire department to serve Forest City Voting Precinct 12 were ironed out at Monday night's meeting of the Forest City Civic Assn.

Adolph Juhl, elected president of the proposed organization, called a meeting for further preliminary discussion at his home on Lakeview Circle Dr. in Forest City for Tuesday at 8 p. m.

Another general meeting of the civic association was scheduled for Feb. 19 when remaining officers for the firemen's group will be elected.

Kennedy Refuses Data On Censors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy invoked his power of executive privilege today to prevent a Senate subcommittee from obtaining the names of individuals who censored specific Defense and State Department speeches.

His claim was upheld by the chairman of the Senate group.

The President's instructions that the historic doctrine of alleged military muting were referred to the subcommittee by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

The defense chief previously had tried to avoid invoking privilege.

But Kennedy declared in a letter dated today that disclosure of the information sought by the subcommittee would be contrary to the public interest.

Commie Convoy Prowls Border

BERLIN (UPI) — A Communist convoy of 100 vehicles with armored troop carriers and mobile guns prowled the Western border of Berlin today.

The cigar industry here makes the "Light Havana" cigar, which is based on a particular type of tobacco grown only in Cuba.

Mrs. H. L. Johnson and girls took Pauline up to Doerun, Ga. last weekend for Pauline to visit with relatives a few weeks. . . . Saw Jack Mann put his dime in the bucket Saturday for the March of Dimes. The high school kids were certainly doing a good job collecting for it. . . . Don't forget the County Fair next week. Hope you all plan to enter something. According to Joel Fields it will be the best ever. So help to make it so. . . . Linda Stapler and Suzanne Orano along with several other Girl Scouts will leave Friday for Tampa. They will spend the night in a cabin on the beach. Saturday they will take a cruise around the island. That evening they will go to the Tampa Fair, Sunday morning to church, then eat lunch and then head for home. Sounds very very interesting girls. I know you will have a wonderful time. . . . At the yearly corporation meeting of the Upsala Presbyterian Church the other night the following were nominated to serve for the coming year. President, John Andes; Vice President, Mrs. R. L. Johnson; Secretary, Robert Carroll; Treasurer, Mrs. Daisy Dowell; Trustees, George Pezold, W. H. Starnes, Ben Hodge, Brad Thayer. . . . I'm not even going to mention anything about the weather this week. I was told 'that the groundhog saw his shadow. Soon! . . . Our quote this week is a "PRETTY" quote. It goes like this: To ACT pretty we must feel pretty, and to feel pretty is almost as good as being BEAUTIFUL.

Christmas Island Okayed For Tests
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Britain has given the United States permission to use Christmas Island in the central Pacific to conduct atmospheric nuclear tests if President Kennedy decides to resume such experiments, informed sources said Wednesday.

They also said the United States agreed several months ago to let the British use U. S. facilities in Nevada to conduct underground nuclear tests.

Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan agreed at Bermuda last December to make preparations for a resumption of atmospheric experiments in view of Russia's tests. They did not definitely decide such tests would be resumed.

Steelmen Prime For New Pact Meet

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The United Steelworkers Union primed today for the opening of negotiations next week on a new contract, placing security and fringe benefits above a wage increase.

The opening of bargaining next Wednesday marks one of the earliest starts in the history of formal industry-union steel negotiations. The present three-year contract expires June 30, leaving negotiators about 20 weeks to reach agreement.

Most significant in the demands drawn up Wednesday by the 170-member Wage Policy Committee was the fact that the union subjugated a wage increase to a secondary role. In past years, the union had demanded substantial wage increases.

David J. McDonald, president of the million-member USW, said an earlier start was being made on bargaining at the request of President Kennedy. McDonald indicated that job security was perhaps the most important facet of the coming negotiations.

"We must provide a system of job security," he said, "and provide some way of solving unemployment among steelworkers."

McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper of the U. S. Steel Corp., who will head the industry bargaining team, issued a joint statement which said that because of the "national interest" an early start in negotiations was "very desirable at this time."

Cooper admitted that improvements in job security were needed.

"While there is no agreement as to the means by which this job security can be achieved, most effectively, there is no doubt as to its importance as a general objective."

Representatives of the 11 major steel companies and USW officials will gather here next Tuesday for separate preliminary sessions on the eve of the opening of formal talks.

Flying Saucers? —No Not One!

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force says that the only flying saucers it has discovered in outer space came from earthmen's launching pads.

The Air Force's "Project Bluebook" task force, assigned to unidentified flying objects, said in an annual summary that it started 488 investigations last year and completed 483 of them.

Of the 483 completed, the Air Force said 55 turned out to be artificial earth satellites, a new hazard for flying saucer watchers.

It brought the total of investigations since 1947 to 7,369, and the Air Force said it has yet to come up with any evidence that the saucers exist or that any were launched from outer space.

Of the 483 objects investigated last year, the Air Force had to leave 10 in its "unidentified" classification. Another 99 were put in the "insufficient data" category.

Thurmond Asks Censors' Names

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S. C., has urged that President Kennedy intervene—if necessary—to see that senators get the names of individuals who censored specific Pentagon speeches.

Thurmond, prime mover behind the Senate inquiry into alleged "muzzling" of military officers, said Kennedy should overrule Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara if McNamara continues to withhold the names.

The senator made his statement as the special Senate subcommittee called Arthur Sylvester, assistant defense secretary for public affairs, to testify on speech review policy.

Heart Show Star Set

The star of the 1962 Melodee Skate Rink Queen of Hearts Show Feb. 25 will be 14-year-old Miss Barbara Meixall of Jacksonville, the Southeast Regional Figure Skating Champion of 1961.

Talented, graceful Barbara has placed first or second in free style, dance, and figure skating competition for the last five years, being Juvenile Champion in 1957, taking second place in figure skating in 1958, first in Junior Girls competition in 1959 and in 1960, besides numerous other honors in the various categories of the annual regional skating contests.

BARBARA MEIXALL, 1961 Regional Figure Skating Champion will star in the Melodee Rink "Skating Around the World" Heart Fund Show Feb. 25th.

Born and reared in Jacksonville, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Meixell, Barbara is a ninth grade student at Bishop Kenny High School, and skates at the Skateland Roller Rink in Southside Jacksonville.

She started skating when she was eight years old, and regularly practices about 20 to 24 hours a week in the summer and 9 or 10 hours a week during school times.

In spite of her busy life, practicing and going on trips to compete in amateur contests all over the country, Barbara maintains her A-B average in scholastic studies. Barbara and Mrs. Meixell also design and make all of Barbara's skate costumes.

She has competed in national roller skating championship competition in Fort Worth, Tex., Little Rock, Ark., Boston, Mass., Cleveland, Ohio, and Oakland, Calif., as well as last year's contest at St. Petersburg.

She has earned her Gold Bar in Dance, Figure and Free Style skating and has a whole glass case full of medals and awards which she keeps at home.

The 1962 Heart Fund Show and Queen of Hearts Contest at Melodee Skate Rink on Dinora Rd. got underway Tuesday, when the six girls who are contestants for this year's Queen of Hearts were announced.

Miss Loretta Fore, Pam Jones, Carol Sue Higginbotham, Frankie Jones, Linda Mills and Louise Higginbotham are the six girls who are candidates for Queen of Hearts.

The winner is determined solely on the amount of money that each girl is able to solicit for the Heart Fund. Each contestant will have tickets for the Heart Fund Show, which will have a minimum donation but no maximum.

Jars have also been placed in the Florida State Bank and at the Skate Rink under a photograph of each girl for donations in her name.

Every penny donated to the Heart Fund in a girl's name counts as a vote for her.

Miss Adelaide Conte played background music on the Sanctuary organ console during the dinner hours for which serving began at 4:30 p. m. Laura Arrington and Sidney Swallow served as floor supervisors and Mrs. Everett Swift and Miss Beatrice J. Tyson were at the ticket table during the event.

Overall hostess was Mrs. Charles Creasey who was assisted by members of her committee and of the Society all wearing identical aprons and caps of a gay, multi-colored striped material.

Conference Time Is 'Good Time' At The Altamonte School

By Shirley Wentworth
Conference Time came again to Altamonte Elementary School last Thursday night and all day Friday. This very efficient way of bringing parents and teachers together was pioneered by the Altamonte School last year and continues in popularity.

According to Principal George Dabbs, conferences are held every six weeks at the end of the grading period when report cards are given out to parents attending the sessions. If a parent is unable to attend, the report is sent home the next school day with the student.

More than 200 conferences were held last week with many of the informal talks being attended by both parents, Dabbs said, explaining that here problems confronting either the teacher or parents are discussed and often ironed out while questionable situations are avoided by their joint cooperation.

Sessions are arranged not only by the individual classroom teachers but also by Mrs. Trene King, Mrs. Roberta Richards, Mrs. Mary Frances Holton and Don Hasley, instructors for the large Block classes.

Dabbs pointed out that due to the willingness of teachers who volunteer their off duty time and of the parents who take the trouble to attend school, conference time has become a "good time" at Altamonte Elementary.

Mrs. Stiles In Charge

Mrs. Winnie Stiles will present a program entitled "Using Credits Wisely" at Tuesday's 10:30 a. m. meeting of the Lake Mary Home Demonstration Club at the Fire House.

appear in the show, with some highlight numbers.

Solo numbers and duets will be interspersed with the colorful costumed numbers of the various troupes, Cowley said.

All proceeds from the show will go into the Band Benefit Fund and tickets are available at the door or from any members of the majorettes or the band.

DeBary Fire Chief Issues Precaution

Fire Chief Edward Healy of DeBary warns residents about burning trash and other articles, and leaving them unattended. Last Sunday morning around 3 a. m. while Constable Papineau was making his rounds of the town, he discovered trash burning close to a home in full blaze. Using the hose belonging to the home owner, he was able to wet down the blaze.

Chief Healy wants it known it is entirely too dry, to leave anything that is burning unattended, in this dry spell. He asks that common sense be used, in not endangering yourself or your neighbor.

Surveying The Scene

(Part 3 in a series of editorials on Downtowns)

A prominent retailing organization recently surveyed a cross section of a department store people via mail questionnaires. One question asked, "What effect has shopping center competition had on a downtown business?" The answers are revealing. Three percent said no effect, 53 percent said slight effect and 44 percent said serious effect.

According to the tabulation the following are downtown problems in 1961 in order of seriousness:

- 1—Inadequate parking facilities;
- 2—Refusal of landlords to modernize;
- 3—Traffic congestion;
- 4—Antiquated buildings;
- 5—Insufficient retail promotion;
- 6—Slum areas;
- 7—Antiquated store equipment;
- 8—Antiquated building codes;
- 9—Inconvenient shopping hours;
- 10—Delivery congestion;

These results are of interest but are riddled with loopholes. The questions were to an extent loaded.

Respondents were asked to check off problems (precisely those listed above) from lists. This encourages mere checking off and discourages depth or answers about other problems—and some very important ones were simply not included. The rating of parking as number one is almost universal among retailers. . . We have found them rating it number one in some cities which were personally studied where parking was in reality in generous supply. And, when a question is hardly likely to get open and fair evaluation of such laws even if laymen were really knowledgeable about so complex a subject. We feel that such broad, thin surveys must be viewed with some suspicion. If a questionnaire is weak, or a sample bad, the results will be bad. And any results from nationwide surveys must be applied locally with extreme care.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Barrat O'Hara has correctly designated this as a Republic. So never disgrace this nation by calling it a democracy, for that term refers to the "might makes right" rule in Russia or under dictators. Our Republic is based on the Golden Rule which offers equal rights to minorities. See John Marshall's quote. CASE 1-484; Barrat O'Hara is the popular Congressman from my district in Chicago. He sends us voters frequent reports on bills before Congress.

Earlier this year in an eloquent letter he mentioned: "... the same faith in the destiny of our Republic that had moved to Washington..." Maybe you wonder why he referred to this country as a Republic instead of a Democracy? To help clarify this matter, the Indianapolis Star-News wisely launched a contest on this subject so school children could learn the true facts. Actually, the government of the United States is NOT a democracy!

And when school children recite the "Pledge of Allegiance" they distinctly salute the "Republic."

"Oh, but Dr. Crane," some college folks will then glibly reply, "this is a representative democracy, not a true democracy."

That's false! It is neither a true democracy nor a representative democracy, so you can be doggone grateful to our smart founders!

For in either type of a democracy the will of the majority quickly prevails.

"But isn't that what we want in America," you may ask. Not at all, for in a democracy, the rights of the minorities are then null. A democracy is thus mobocracy, as famous John Marshall, Chief Justice of our U. S. Supreme Court, has pointed out.

"The difference between our Republic and a democracy" said astute John Marshall, "is the difference between order versus chaos."

Those are strong words and opposites!

Republic vs. Democracy. Quibbling about a "representative democracy" gets us nowhere, for a "true" democracy is simply one where the population is so small that all voters can gather at one spot and vote personally on any bill.

In a "representative democracy," the population is so large that voters elect delegates called "representatives" to assemble at a capital city or parliament.

But then the same disregard for minorities occurs! As soon as the majority votes to appropriate the property of any minority, as the Irish or Catholics or Jews or Negroes there is no legal recourse. Minorities can be looted and killed in a democracy which is simply the jungle form of government where "might makes right."

In our Republic, however, we follow the Golden Rule so we prevent looting or killing of minorities even against any majority vote in Congress.

For we have a famous written document called the Constitution, that contains guarantees of certain inalienable rights to all minorities, even though 100% of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives vote to the contrary.

Nine faithful watchdogs (Supreme Court Justices) always guard that Constitution from invasion and thus can nullify acts of Congress.

Pilate's courtroom was turned into a democracy when he pandered to the crowd and let their voice vote replace facts. Christ was thus crucified in a democracy! Pilate, the Judge, knew Jesus was innocent and said so!

Send for my booklet, "How To Save Our Republic," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents, for a detailed account of why this is a Republic.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Cutting Castro Adrift

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Castro Didn't Expect It

(UPI)—Fidel Castro himself has made public confession of the blow to Communist Cuba's prestige suffered at the Punta Del Este conference of American states.

It is probable that the United States would have preferred another time and more favorable circumstances in which to hold the meeting known in advance to be incapable of total agreement on the key issue of Castro's expulsion from the Inter-American system.

Nonetheless, as a result of Punta Del Este, the Castro regime finds itself isolated at no time in its three-year history.

And, for the first time, the family of American nations clearly has linked Cuba with the threat of direct and indirect Communist aggression against the American hemisphere.

At Punta del Este, the Cubans had had hopes that the move to expel them from the Organization of American States would fail.

Their rage, then, became the greater when it succeeded.

Shouted Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos: "We may not be in the OAS, but Socialist Cuba will be in the Americas."

He denounced the OAS as a "political and military bloc."

Then on Sunday came a typical Castro performance. Into Havana's Plaza Civica poured hundreds of thousands of workers, many of them transported at government expense from surrounding provinces.

In the square, a burning coffin bore the label "Rest in Peace OAS."

At Punta del Este, the 13

Latin American nations voting to expel Castro all were geographically nearby. Some already had had experience in stamping out Castro-type uprisings.

These Castro tagged U.S. colonies. For the United States he had a familiar epithet: Imperialist!

In the end, he said, nothing could prevent the masses of Latin America from rising in revolt.

But these were only wordy evidences of Castro's wrath and his confession of the blow struck against his prestige.

There were other, concrete developments stemming from Punta del Este, and another which bore directly on communism's hemispheric threat.

The American foreign ministers learned that Communist bloc nations now may be shipping bombers and short-range rockets to Cuba to add to Castro's $100 million arsenal built with Soviet aid.

The news gave additional importance to the conference decision to establish a watchdog committee which would function as a warning system to any American nation threatened by direct or indirect aggression.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Opposition to President Kennedy's reorganization plan to create a new Cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs and Housing comes from four principal sources:

First of all, there is a racial question because the President has announced that he will appoint the present Housing and Home Finance administrator, Robert C. Weaver, as secretary of the new department and the first Negro cabinet member.

This is not, however, the first time Congress has refused to create a new Cabinet-level department because the lawmakers did not approve the man designated to head it.

President Truman wanted to create a Department of Welfare and name Federal Security Administrator Oscar R. Ewing secretary. There were enough congressmen who didn't like the idea to block it.

But the creation of a Department of Health, Education and Welfare was one of the first Eisenhower administration reforms which the Republican Congress whopped through.

Today the Republicans in Congress are proposing that the Kennedy Department of Urban Affairs plan be "studied" to death for reasons which are principally political.

Another source of opposition comes from the smaller towns and rural areas that look on big cities as their enemies.

Many congressmen represent districts which are predominantly rural and small town.

They fear the incessant demands of cities for redistricting to equalize shifts in population. This would give urban areas larger representation not only in Congress but also in state legislatures now controlled by rural counties.

The president's reorganization plan throws a sop to the smaller cities by promising that there will be planning funds for them, too, in the new department. But that may not be enough bait to lure them into supporting his plan.

Rural areas have been getting their development funds from Departments of Agriculture, Interior and Commerce. They have a concern that a new Department of Urban Affairs might be a competitor for the federal handout dollar.

This slops over into a related source of opposition to closer federal-city ties. It comes from states' rights advocates. They fear that a Department of Urban Affairs would bypass the state capitals. City governments would look directly to Washington for help and state governments would waste away.

All this opposition comes together in conservative elements who fear that the federal government is already too big and becoming too directly involved in the affairs of too many people. Bigger government is by them opposed on these grounds.

It is concluded, however, that none of this opposition nor all of it is going to stop cities from growing.

A century ago, 80 per cent of America's people lived on farms. Today 75 per cent of the people live in metropolitan areas.

This ratio is going to increase. The bigger cities become, the more congested and slum-ridden they will get unless somebody does something drastic.

Most cities having fallen down on the job of taking care of their own growth, renewal, transportation, housing, crime, juvenile delinquency and related evils, the federal government moves in to help. This is the rationalization for the administration program.

President Kennedy claims his plan is creating no new federal activities. He says it is merely consolidation of half a dozen existing housing agencies for better government. They were last reorganized by President Truman in 1947.

The combined budgets for existing agencies is $3.3 billion for next year.

Pill Age Pillage

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The onward and upward march of man has been rather loosely divided into "ages" that mark certain periods of development.

Among them are the Stone Age, the Bronze Age, the Iron Age, the Jazz Age, the Age of Reason, the Age of Consent, etc.

The two most recent epochs are the Atomic Age and the Space Age. But I doubt that either of those will be recognized 100 years from now.

When historians of the future write of the current era, my guess is that they will refer to it as the Pill Age.

This conjecture is based in part on the drug investigation being conducted by Sen. Estes Kefauver. Tuesday, for instance, the Tennessee Democrat accused someone of "selling drugs like apples and bananas."

Although the allegation was denied, I am convinced that pills, at least, have been selling like hotcakes, if not like fruit.

Evidence of this can be found in my family's 1961 pharmaceutical expenditures, which I have just finished adding up as part of a plot to petition the government for an income tax rebate.

The number and variety of pills purchased by just this one small group for the treatment of only minor maladies was enough to make me sick.

During the 12-month span covered by Form 1040, we bought pills to make us sleepy and pills to keep us awake. Take one of each at bedtime and let them fight it out.

We bought pills to pep us up when our energies were flagging. We bought pills to calm us down when worries began nagging.

We bought pills to make us eat more, and pills to curb our appetites. We bought pills to make us quit smoking, although they didn't work.

We bought pills to prevent car sickness, seasickness and airsickness. We bought pills to combat hangovers, hangnails and halitosis.

Even so, we didn't begin to cover the field. We could have bought pills to make us virile and pills to make us sterile.

I might be more disturbed about this than I am if it weren't for the fact that a lot of other healthy people bought more pills than we did.

Mass pill-taking has become so commonplace that one couple I know make a little ritual of it. Just before they retire for the night, she requests him to bring her a pill.

"What kind?" he asks.

"Surprise me," she replies.

Byrnes Against Buying UN Bonds

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes said Tuesday night he opposes the purchase of UN bonds by the United States.

Byrnes noted that Britain reluctantly agreed to make a token purchase but "no other government will buy these bonds" to finance continued UN operations in the Congo.

Lady Golfers Do 'Slow Burn'

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) —The lady golf pros are doing a double burn today.

Fourteen of them took on Sam Snead in a four round tournament on a par three course and, leading him by two shots with one round to go and all even with only seven holes to play, they blew it by five shots.

Which gave them two major disappointments this year.

The first was that Mickey Wright, the belting blonde from Dallas who was all even with Samuel Jackson just seven holes from home, wasn't named the woman athlete of the year in the various polls conducted here and there.

Just how Mickey did manage to blow the duce isn't quite clear to anybody, particularly the women wedge artists. And, it might be added, in this corner.

Mickey, herself, is a real McGuire about it.

"I hope they never give it to me," quoth the dynamiter from Dallas who was beaten by track star Wilma Rudolph in most of those meaningless, meaningless, meaningless contests. "If they ever did, I wouldn't acknowledge it. Let's say I'm just not interested."

When you consider that Mickey on the fairways last year captured 10 tournaments, was the leading money winner in women's golf, and pulled a tremendous slam by capturing the U. S. Women's Open, the Ladies' Professional Golfers Association championship and the Titleholders tournament, it's small wonder that she carries a chip on her shoulder.

The lady pros don't always see eye to eye. But in this instance they are 100 per cent behind the pretty gal who wallops a ball farther than most men.

"Mickey certainly should have been anybody's athlete of the year," said Marilyn Smith. "It's almost as if the people who voted, whoever they were, didn't know what was going on."

There was agreement from Ruth Jessen, the classic blonde from Seattle, who was leading Snead by two shots on the heels of a four under par 30 as they started the final round in this par three tournament.

"People forget that we play all year, and every day. What do you have to do to be considered an athlete?" Louise Suggs, who beat Snead by two shots in this same tournament last year, figured that Mickey was cheated out of her just desserts "because for some reason people don't seem to be paying as much attention to women's golf as they used to do."

But Betty Jameson summed it up for all of them when she allowed: "It's as if the people who voted in any of those things don't know what's going on in the sports world."

Betty had another remark concerning Snead's victory, as close as it was up to the final seven holes.

"To say that we're disappointed," she acknowledged, "is the understatement of the year."

Considering Mickey's failure, as she finished double again, it was a case of double a-n-d nothing.

Managers Giving Out Talk 'All Going Well'

United Press International

Up and down the baseball beat, all the general managers tell you "everything is going along smoothly," but don't believe it because it's just a lot of pre-season propaganda.

The only major league general manager who can make that statement and mean it is John Holland of the Chicago Cubs. All of his players already are signed.

But now you take some of the others, like Huzzy Laval of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Nothing ruffles Buzz. He takes things in stride and says he expects "no trouble" even though he's having quite a bit of it with nearly a dozen unsigned Dodger players.

Larry Sherry, Sandy Koufax, Stan Williams, Frank Howard, Wally Moon and Willie Davis are among those asking for more money.

The Boston Red Sox claim everything is going smoothly, too, but only 13 players under contract out of 38 indicates the signing procedure is proving rougher for them than they're really letting on.

The New York Yankees signed two of their players Wednesday, pitcher Bill Stafford and outfielder Bob Cerv, although many a word was heard from their big problem, Roger Maris, plus 14 others, including Elston Howard.

Cleveland is having its problems also trying to satisfy Gary Bell, Jim Perry, Chalky Essegian and Ken Aspromonte along with four others, and no progress was reported by the Detroit Tigers in their negotiations with Al Kaline, Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito.

Orlando Cepeda looks as if he may be a tough nut for the San Francisco Giants to crack, and for all the money they're spending, the New York Mets have yet to satisfy 13 of the 35 players on their roster. They did, however, sign two Wednesday in first baseman Ed Houchens and pitcher Sherman (Roadblock) Jones.

Possibly the most refreshing signee was uninhibited Dick Stuart, who accepted a substantial raise from the Pittsburgh Pirates because as he put it, "I deserved it." You can't argue with figures. Stuart, who will draw an estimated $35,000 this year, drove in 117 runs last season, hit 85 homers and batted .301.

Veteran catcher Sherm Lollar and rookie pitcher Mike Drerick agreed to terms with the Chicago White Sox, who still have 15 unsigned players, while southpaw Don Ferrarese, outfielder Ken Walters and second baseman Leo Burke signed their contracts with the Philadelphia Phillies. Still unsigned though are Art Mahaffey, Jim Owens, Dallas Green, John Callison and Tony Gonzalez.

Others who signed Wednesday were Ken Hunt, Eddie Kasko and Joe Gaines of the Cincinnati Reds; Lu Clinton, Wilbur Wood, Bob Tillman and Bill Spanwick of the Red Sox, and Phil Ortega, Jack Smith, Tim Lincecum, Ken McMullen, Dick Tracinski and Dick Smith of the Dodgers.

Astiga Wins All Star Fronton Play

The All Stars played like the crowd expected for the Jim Rathmann Trophy. Rathmann, winner of the Indianapolis 500 in 1960 and racing again Sunday at Daytona, presented the trophy to spunky little Astiga. Astiga racked up six points in a row to topple the challengers. Favored Badiola squeaked out a place position to fill a 23.90 quincela.

Another racing star, the ace driver Fireball Roberts, will be at the Fronton Feb. 12.

Pryor's Takes Loop Lead

Pryor's State Farm Insurance took over the lead in the Thursday Nite Mixed League, after winning all four from Stine's Machine Shop, this past week. Powell's Office Supply dropped to third place, as Appleby's Restaurant jumped into second slot. Pryor's have a total of 5 1/2 wins in first, Appleby's have 5, and Powell's have 3.

Wilson - Maier Furniture dropped to fourth spot, followed by Stine's Allstate Insurance, Stine's Team Seven, Team Two, Plerro's and Stelmeyer Roofing.

Carl Von Herbulis led the league with a 204-578 scratch set, while Ed Michalek again came through as bowler of the week, putting six strikes together for a big 233 scratch. Other big series were Clyde Piercy's 584, Harold Appleby's 530 and Vergil Anderson's 210-550.

Alberta Warner and Johnny Downs both picked up the 3-10 twice, George Blake, Gary Folds, Buddy Bass, and Eleanor Anderson all made the 5-7, Erma Anderson got the 5-7 and 6-7-10, Danny Carder topped the 3-7, Ellen Betts 3-10 and 5-10, Ken Stone 5-8, Jimmie Anderson 9-10, Joy Thomson 5-7-9, Joanna Bass and Dave Dearolph both made the 4-5-7, Ron Robinson got the 3-7-10 and Wallace Woods closed the split circle this week by picking up the 4-8-10.

Roberts plays enough Jal Alai to give an exhibition on court against one of the fronton stars.

Villanova Jumps Into Tourney Prominence

United Press International

If you can't join 'em, beat 'em!

Villanova, refusing to believe the state of Pennsylvania has room for two top teams, rebounded into tournament prominence Wednesday night with an 82-63 victory over Duquesne.

The Wildcats from Philadelphia lost a two-point decision to sixth-ranked Duquesne of Pittsburgh last week, which helped grease the skids for a fall from the first 10.

But Villanova, aware of a potential at-large bid from the NCAA or selection by the NIT for post-season play, vaulted right back with an aggressive zone defense and a hot-shooting field.

The Villanova cause was helped by the ejection of two Dukes on fouls. Sophomore sensation Willie Comarst left the game with 7:02 remaining after he had scored 26 points. Earlier, at 3:23 of the second half, Mike Rice was sent to the sidelines on five fouls. Rice had been Duquesne's high scorer in the victory over Villanova at Pittsburgh.

Hubie White led Villanova's scoring with 25 points as the Wildcats raised their season's record to 16-4.

A college scoring record set by Will Chamberlain was equaled when Mike Wroblewski of fourth-ranked Kansas State netted 48 points in a 91-72 victory over Kansas. Chamberlain had set the Big Eight single game mark while playing for Kansas. Wroblewski also cracked his school's team record of 45 points that Bob Bonner had set in 1928.

Jesse Nash of DePaul hoped his first collegiate game was just the start of a long line of scoring records. His 19-point output against Louisville brought DePaul a 79-78 surprise victory, but what was most impressive was Nash's coolness in the clutch when he sank a pair of free throws in the last 14 seconds of the third overtime period.

Loyola of Chicago, which travels at a better than two-point-a-minute clip as the nation's major college scoring leader, defeated Western Michigan, 102-79. Jerry Harkness collected 32 points for winners.

Uelses Plans To 'Show 'Em'

QUANTICO, Va. (UPI) — John Uelses, the first man to pole vault 16-feet in competition, has answered his critics by saying he can hit 16 feet with either fiberglass or steel poles.

The 24-year-old Marine corporal, criticized because he used a fiberglass pole, said during a news conference at his base here Wednesday, he could clear 16 feet with a steel pole if given two months practice.

"After about two months' practice," Uelses said, "I can hit 16 feet just as I have with a fiberglass pole."

"Everytime someone sets a new record with a new recognized device," he continued, "members of the old school always bring up some sort of argument."

Features Fair Rated Top SOKC Favorite

One of the track's winningest greyhounds heads an all-star field in tonight's Grade A eighth race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. She is Jack Herold's Features Fair, who won one of the prelims and ran second in last week's Racing Queen Stakes final.

The beautiful white and brindle miss is regarded as one of the country's top greyhounds. She was runnerup in the Taunton Inaugural last August and finished third in the $25,000 Taunton Derby last October.

Incidentally, tonight's eighth race vies with the featured ninth in the quality of its entries. Aside from Features Fair the field is composed of Tish Tray, Panay Cross, Ram Rod Rowdy, Gussie Lee, Retained, Topka Rose and Lovely Boy.

Features Fair will be trying for her eighth win. Gussie Lee and Topka Rose will be seeking a fifth victory.

Jeff Mac, Husky Dick and Mrs. Mops will be trying for a fifth win when they go to the post in the featured ninth race. Opposing them will be such hard-driving speedsters as Diacredit, O. B.'s Molson, Sky Ruby, Kanco Bossman and Golden Echo.

Nicklaus Looms As Dark Horse In Phoenix Play

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — The favorites are Arnold Palmer and Gene Littler in the $35,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament starting today—but the big names better not look back or they may see National Amateur champion Jack Nicklaus closing in on them.

Nicklaus turned in his finest performance since turning pro when he fired a seven-under-par 65 to deadlock with seasoned Lionel Hebert Wednesday for top place in the pro-amateur tournament.

And he figures he finally has his putting touch working.

"I'm trying out a new putter," said Nicklaus after his round, "and it seems to be working out okay."

Ever since he learned to play golf, the 200-pound, 21-year-old Ohio State athlete has been using an old hickory shafted affair. Tuesday he started practicing with a mallet-head. And Wednesday he gave it the test.

All he did was: Sink a 20-foot putt for an eagle on the first hole; tank one from 23 feet for a birdie on the second. Then he got six more birdie putts from distances up to 10 feet. He did, however, three putt one green.

"But I'm playing real well," he added. "I missed four-foot putts on both the eighth and ninth holes. I just hope this putter helps me."

After he turned pro, Nicklaus said he expected to make a minimum of $30,000 on the tour his first year—or he would call the initial outing a disappointing campaign. But in the first five tournaments he won only $1,260 and stands 49th on the list of 1962 money winners.

However, most of the pros contend that he'll be a big money winner after he gets over his youthful jitters. It may be that Phoenix is the place he can turn the trick. Palmer had a 71 Wednesday and Littler a 74. However, they were just testing the course for size and weren't too interested in winning money.

Nicklaus and Hebert each collected $223 for their efforts.

Palmer is the defending champion of the tournament, but he won last year on a different course when the Phoenix Country Club in 1960, it was won by Jack Fleck. Fleck had a solid 69 Wednesday.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We are not young folks. We have married children. Three years ago my husband learned that a school-time sweetheart, whom he never ceased to love, was living in an eastern city. While on a business trip, he drove some distance to spend the week-end at her home. He told me all about it.

They have corresponded ever since. Now her husband recently passed on and she wrote that she would like to move to our city because she has "no one." My husband thinks we should ask her to live with us for a while. To me, this is ridiculous. What shall I say? WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Say, "Nothing doing!" If she wants to move to your city, you can't stop her but, under the circumstances, you'd be foolish to share your home with her—even for a while.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a father who pushes the button down on the telephone right in the middle of his daughter's conversation? "ON THE PHONE 30 MINUTES"

DEAR ON: He probably knew you were only "in the middle of your conversation" and didn't want to wait another 30 minutes.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is too much advice. I work with a wonderful, middle-aged man with whom I have fallen in love. He has been married twice, and has four children. He is presently free, and has asked me to be his third wife. I am twenty, and two of his children are older than I. The other two are very bratty, and have made it plain that they don't like me. He has custody of all his children.

My clergyman, family and friends have advised me against this marriage. I love this man, and know what I am up against, but I am willing to take the chance. Shouldn't this decision be mine? WILLING TO GAMBLE

DEAR WILLING: The decision IS yours, but don't ignore the advice of those who have only your best interests at heart. Marriage is forever, not something on which you "gamble." Your letter indicates that you are still seeking advice. I say the chances for a happy, lasting marriage with this man are poor.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

The general standard for the jump raise to game in a major suit is a hand with 13 or more points in support of partner's opening bid but not more than 10 points in high cards. In one respect it is a stop bid. Partner needs a lot to move forward, but because the opening bid of one of a suit covers a very wide range of strength the jump to four does not necessarily preclude grand slam possibilities. I am not going to get into an argument as to whether South's hand is strong enough for an opening two bid. South happened to open with one spade only because his spade suit was weak in high card strength. North had a perfect hand for the jump to game and because the spade jump surely solidified his trump suit, South simply asked for ace and went to seven when North revealed he had the one missing ace. The play was far easier than the bidding. South won the opening diamond lead and saw that all he had to do would be to trump three clubs in dummy and that he could afford to pull trumps first, even if both trumps were in one hand. South announced, "Drawing trumps," and showed his hand.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

In Japan the craze for "rounded eyes" has reached such a frenzy that many working girls have the operation performed during their lunch hour. The fashion for "westernizing" their eyelids is hitting Japanese women right at the time when American women are going all out for Japanese effects in their homes and gardens.

Almost any decorating magazine you pick up today has articles and pictures showing American women how to create typical Japanese charm in everything from house design to furniture and little "intimate" gardens. Walk into a furniture store or interior decorating shop and the oriental effect is all over the place—in everything from flower arrangements to pillows on the floor, in place of chairs. So what it all adds up to is that the Japanese women are spending their money to westernize themselves and American women are spending their money to try and bring the "charm of the Orient" to their own homes and gardens. So East is no longer West—so far as the women of the two parts of the world are concerned. They are busy borrowing ideas from each other in beauty, fashion and decoration—each group apparently determined to have the best of the two worlds.

Lake Mary Residents Visit Student

Mrs. Ruby M. Linden and Mrs. Abbie E. Freese of Lake Mary spent the past weekend at Tampa and St. Petersburg. Mrs. Linden attended an important dinner in Tampa and they visited the Florida Presbyterian campus and Joy Wester, Mrs. Freese's granddaughter, who is a freshman at the college.

Joy had just returned from a trip to Mexico with a group of other students and gave them some gifts she brought back with her.

They report that the weather was much warmer there and nice for their stay. Before returning home they took the skyline drive over the bridge between St. Petersburg and Bradenton.

MRS. LOUISE WILSON celebrated her 90th birthday, recently, at a ten given by her niece, Mrs. J. V. Richards. Mrs. Wilson, who now lives at the Volusia Nursing Home, in DeLand, is a former resident of Enterprise, and many of her friends there called to wish her a happy anniversary. She loves to receive cards and notes from her former friends. With the honoree are her brother, Russell Palmer, Enterprise, left and her youngest son, Jim Wilson, of Pompano Beach. (Photo by Cox)

Purpose Of Newspaper Explained

By Mona Grinstead
Responsibilities of a newspaper to the area it serves and the area's responsibility to the newspaper were explained Tuesday night by Sanford Herald Managing Editor Larry Vershel at the North Orlando Village Council Meeting.

Also present for the meeting were County Commissioners Vernon Dunn, John Fitzpatrick and Jim Avery and County Zoning Board Member George Bobrow.

Examples of failure in community obligations and on the part of the newspaper were cited by the speaker who pointed out that North Orlando was not represented at all at the recent meeting of the Long Range Planning Committee in Sanford and that the paper failed to sufficiently cover planning meetings for county-wide drainage several months ago.

Vershel told of efforts made by the Herald during the past year to give better service to South Seminole areas and expanded briefly on future plans for this part of the county.

He pointed out that news of the County Commission meetings is given good front page coverage in the Herald's efforts to keep the people informed and advised that he felt it a resident's duty to read the accounts.

He explained that news of a community is used throughout the paper rather than in a specific location in an effort to get readers "not just to read THEIR news but to read the ENTIRE paper."

Avery spoke up to point out that a newspaper is just like any other business in the county . . . "they have problems with equipment and limited personnel and every edition they put out is a trial.

"I have less reason than anyone in the county to encourage this paper but I feel that it is everyone's duty to read it . . . It is the only paper in the county carrying all legal advertisements which I feel people should read just as they do the rest of the paper," he said.

Avery also pointed out that it is the responsibility of a newspaper to "report as it happens." This man can write an article of what went on here tonight and he can print it and turn it to give the citizens a completely different meaning from the way it was intended without ever telling a lie," he explained.

"The twist is in style now . . . whipping the county officials is stylish in this county and the paper, to a great degree, is responsible for this," he stated.

Dunn offered the opinion that "citizens take a delight in ridiculing public officials. They think we'll take it so they'll vote for us in the next election but they're wrong."

"If more meetings like this were held there would be better communication with the citizens and county commissioners. I don't know when I've enjoyed a better meeting or had so much fun," he concluded.

During the following open discussion, deviations in topic ranged from the Nova Project to a Civil Defense Warning System with questions coming from both the council and the audience.

The council's regular business meeting was held at the close of the program.

SO MUCH FUN are the rehearsals for "Mr. Crane of Sleepy Hollow" that the Lyman Choralaires cast is meeting twice a day in preparation for the Feb. 17 performance. The story centers around the Sleepy Hollow School for Young Ladies where Ike Crane, played by George Lewis, is hired as a dancing instructor. He and Tom Bones, played by Lemmie Hoover, are rivals for the hand of Kathy Van Cassel, played by Gloria Lovell.

Humor Intersperses Business At Oviedo's Council Session

By Reuben Killbrew
An Oviedo Town Council Meeting is more like a gathering of old friends than some sessions of town councils in which the participants are at each other's throats over some political maneuvering.

This is not to say that they are dull. Mayor M. L. Gary can always be counted on for a couple or three laughs with his fine sense of humor.

An incident which gave everybody a laugh came when Dot Courier was reading the proposed lease on the old Negro school which the County School Board wants to lease to the City of Oviedo. It read: "The rent will be one dollar a year, paid in advance."

And Councilman Ben Jones was the "host with the most and the latest" Monday night. He provided the refreshments after the meeting consisting of cake and cake in honor of his new, 11-day old (Monday) adopted daughter, Susan.

He said that his seven-year-old daughter, Mary is just as proud as punch of her new sister and that this is a welcome development to Mrs. Jones and himself.

Getting back to Dot, she literally went kiting off the beach with five youngsters and almost was found guilty of trespassing. The kids were flying a kite and the wind jerked the cord out. Then she shouted at them. She told all of them to run after it. This attracted a big, friendly St. Bernard puppy which joined in the chase. Then she shouted at them to not to run. Finally the kite string got caught on the roof of someone's house. The lady came out with a "what's-this-all-about" expression on her face. Dot explained and the lady was satisfied. What the kids chasers didn't know was that there was a "NO TRESPASSING" sign on the property. The kite? It was left flying high from the rooftop.

LAKE MARY FIREMEN have rushed construction on the new Fire Hall additions in order that they may be used for Saturday's annual chicken barbecue supper scheduled to begin at 5 p. m. Addition of the room provides for meetings and social functions which previously have been held in the truck storage quarters. Proceeds from the supper will go towards construction costs. ### Chuluota Club To Equip Area For Emergency

By Carol Jepson
The Greater Chuluota Community Club, at its Board Meeting last Friday night, voted to purchase 22 disposable oxygen tanks, complete with masks and 22 new improved resuscitator tubes with masks to be distributed at convenient stations in the community for emergency uses.

Reported plans are that the stations will be designated through use of green containers equipped with green lights.

Mrs. Virginia Chadwick, recreation director, requested and was granted permission to appoint George Haig as shuffleboard supervisor and Mrs. Fran Stumpf as assistant beach director for the coming season.

Plans also were made for having the beach area mowed and disked, the benches repaired and to build an elevated lifeguard stand as soon as possible.

Longwood C Of C To Discuss Fair Exhibit

The Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 p. m. today at the Civic League Building on Church St. for its monthly business and planning meeting.

Discussion will center around the Longwood Community Fair Exhibit which will be representative of business and industry in the area.

Chamber officials advise that if, by chance, any business person or manufacturer has not been contacted, he especially is invited to attend tonight's meeting or bring a representative placard or display directly to the American Legion Fairgrounds on Saturday or Sunday.

EDITORIAL COMMENT You Can Help

Several Seminole County Schools presently are conducting active campaigns to increase the number of books in their libraries in order that they may fulfill requirements set by state accreditation standards.

Parent-Teacher groups are asking for contributions or loans of outgrown or excess books and some are engaged in fund raising sales to purchase more books.

As Spring housecleaning time approaches, wouldn't it be a good idea to get a "head start" and give our schools a boost at the same time? Every household must have at least one book it could spare and where could it find a better purpose than in a school library?

Civic Group Discusses Sale; Appoints Nominating Group

Monday night's two hour session of the North Orlando Civic Assn. at the Village Hall was attended by 12 members and officers of the organization.

Details were discussed for a proposed fertilizer sale in the area to be sponsored by the association and the North Orlando Garden Club, Bob Stephenson, Donald Nail and Henry Ward of the association.

Final plans for the sale will be made at the March meeting.

Henry Ward was appointed chairman of a nominating committee which is to present its recommendations at the March meeting for April elections. Serving on the committee with him will be Mrs. Doris Dean, Marge Stephenson and Nail.

The group also discussed next month's membership renewal drive and Helmy was appointed to handle arrangements for getting new cards printed with the price not to exceed $10. A treasury report showed a balance of $69.80 in the organization fund.

It was voted to ask Mrs. J. D. Grinstead to remain as secretary with Mrs. Mary Campbell to assist.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to informal discussion of the forthcoming March 20 election for two council members and of various other community matters.

Lake Mary Girl Reports On Study Of Mexico

Joy Wester of Lake Mary, 1961 Valadictorian of Seminole High School and now a student at Florida Presbyterian College at St. Petersburg, spent the entire month of January in Mexico with a group of other students from the college, for study of the language and culture of the country.

The group, under the guidance of Dr. Pedro Trakas, professor of Spanish, was there for a special Winter Term Project, a month set aside for independent study by all students, which involves a change of focus from four or five subjects to one done intensively. The plan is the first of its kind in the nation. Proof of the efforts comes in a research paper submitted at the end of the month by each student.

According to Joy's report, the expedition started from Tampa Airport where the students gathered early before flight time to weigh-in with a load limit before climbing aboard the giant jet Pan-Am plane that flew them to Mexico City with the only stop being at Yucatan for customs inspection. Headquarters were a camp at Tepoztlan, near Mexico City. From there they traveled by bus to surrounding parts of the country. Among the places they visited were the Museum of Arts in Mexico City and the University of Mexico and palaces. At the wonderful Cathedral of Mexico, it seemed strange to see people walking on their knees reverently and at the same time hear noises from the markets which are all around with Indian dancing and merchants selling everything, like a great fair, for Sunday is market day.

A day was spent at Taxco, the city of silver, and at the interesting pyramids on the way. Traveling over the mountains was a scary experience. Joy said that if you dare look out the windows you feel you will go over the cliffs any moment.

The group stopped at Mercedo del San Juan and ate at Sanburns, an American restaurant, where students had filed in and a banana split, then went on to a family night club to see Indian dancers and singers perform. They went to a church in Cuernavaca. They visited Teotihuacan, the ancient city with the Pyramid of the Sun and Moon and the Astec ruins, a fantastic sight to be held because they are the remains of the past.

Joy learned how to make tortillas from the Mexican girls who did the cooking at the camp. They were young and prepared wonderful meals which was amazing to the modern students, since they had no electricity for cooking.

For breakfast they served eggs, bread, fruit, chocolate. For dinner, soup with all vegetables, and vegetables and meat. Supper was eggs, pea soup, vegetables, salad, chocolate and fruit. The fruits are wonderful. Joy said, especially papayas and pineapple, and they are always served for dessert. They have wiener roasts there too, but the wieners are smaller and different, but good.

Joy washed her clothes in the river on the rocks along with the Mexican women. She says the people are so friendly there—you can't believe everything you read about them, because she met wonderful people there and thinks the life is nice even if the villages are primitive and the life so different from ours.

The serenity was beautiful with mountains all around, and cows and horses everywhere. Joy went horseback riding often as the horses are smaller and easier to ride. She also went mountain climbing. One interesting side-light was the fact that hair grows much faster there from all reports from both the boys and girls.

Trying to change U.S. money to Spanish was hilarious, at least for the students. The weather is warm in the day and cold at night. The group was there the last of December and in time to celebrate New Years in the tradition of another country which will never be forgotten.

They had a party with a pinata and also went to a Bull Fight held on Sunday. Six bulls were killed. Joy said that it is like a slaughter house and indescribable, but after while you get used to it and it is terrific. The ears of the bull are cut off for the best matador and he gives them to the people.

Joy said everyone liked her name in Spanish which is Alegria. She brought back gifts of remembrance given to her by Mexican friends including a ring and a house carved of wood typical of Tepoztlan.

All were glad to get back to the land of hamburgers and potato chips, but returned with a certain regret for leaving the land of manana, south of the border.

Joy concluded her account with the quotation: "mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam, be it ever so humble, there's no place like home."

Joy Wester of Lake Mary, 1961 Valadictorian of Seminole High School and now a student at Florida Presbyterian College at St. Petersburg, spent the entire month of January in Mexico with a group of other students from the college, for study of the language and culture of the country.

Kennedy Hits Back At Jap Leftists' Jabs At U.S.

TOKYO (UPI) — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy's Irish temper flared in a heated discussion with leaders of the leftist Sohyo labor federation today and he accused them of using a double standard in judging the United States and Communist countries.

conception of what kind of government and what kind of people we are," Kennedy said. He invited his main antagonist, Akira Iwai, secretary general of Sohyo, to visit the United States this spring. Iwai hesitated in his reply and Kennedy pressed him. "Will you come this spring?" Iwai explained he was leaving for Europe Saturday. Kennedy urged him to come afterward. Iwai still did not reply directly and switched to another subject but Kennedy would not let him off the hook. "We're not forgetting this matter," the 36-year-old attorney general said. "You must come."

Americans are a "group of imperialists." "Is that the belief of Sohyo?" Kennedy said, raising his voice considerably and shaking his finger at Iwai. Iwai said that the way Sohyo saw it, imperialism meant "monopolist capitalists" and not necessarily "sending soldiers with guns" such as happened in Cuba and Laos. "We are not very well impressed by the way Americans were doing in Cuba and Laos," Iwai said, hastily adding that he did not mean American soldiers had invaded these countries. Kennedy shot back, "Based on Tibet and Hungary do you consider Communist China and the Soviet Union imperialists?"

"I would say there were some racial mistakes concerned," Iwai said. Kennedy told Iwai he apparently did not use the same standards in judging the United States and other countries. "You know the United States as run by this administration is not made up of imperialists and capitalists," the attorney general said, almost in a shout. "Did you gather that from Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg who came from the steelworkers union. Or from a country which has raised the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and passed the biggest housing bill in history. . . ."

County Can't Pay Sisk, State Rules

The Attorney General's office ruled today that the county has no authority to pay Orange County Health officer W. N. Sisk $100 per month supplementary pay for twice weekly visits here. In the past, Dr. Sisk, who took over as part-time health director when Dr. Clyde D. Brothers was fired last year, received no compensation for visits here. However, Seminole County paid out $500 out of State Health Department funds to Orange County.

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Argentina broke off diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro's Cuba Thursday night, and within hours the suburban home of a U. S. Embassy official was fire-bombed in apparent retaliation. Further anti-American outbreaks appeared likely today, although there were no immediate reports of violence. Foreign Minister Miguel A. Carcano handed Cuban Charge d'Affaires Martin Mora Zia his passport at the foreign ministry Thursday night in formal token of the diplomatic break. The foreign office announced that Argentine diplomats plan to remain in Havana for 48 hours, winding up details of embassy business. Mora was expected to remain here for about the same length of time.

Original One Ruled Out On Default

The Post Office Department will readvertise for bids on a new Sanford Post Office within the next 10 days, Congressman Syd. Herlong told the Herald today. Herlong said that the low bidder on the project was ruled out because of a default and postal officials could not successfully negotiate with the second low bidder. Two weeks ago, the low bidder, Brown, Mason and McHugh, Inc. of Jacksonville was given an ultimatum by the Post Office Department by Feb. 1 or the bid would be voided and the bond forfeited. There was speculation that the post office would start negotiations with Helmehead Corp., the second low bidder. The Jacksonville firm had been awarded the low bid on the contract Aug. 28. As of today no work has started clearing the property located between Sanford and Palmelle Aves., west of the Civic Center. The contract called for work to be started 30 days after the bid was awarded Aug. 28.

Customs while the importers sought to recover it through the foreign assets control division of the U. S. Treasury Department. Armando Solozano, Nicaraguan consul here, suggested that a substitute for Cuban tobacco might be developed in his country. He said he was sure that his government would cooperate in tests.
