

SEPARATE PEACE VOTED FOR INDIVIDUAL ROADS MEN WILL RETURN TODAY

PRESIDENT OF SEABOARD RAILWAY NEGOTIATES THE TERMS WILL END STRIKE

On Some Fifty Out of Two Hundred First Class Roads

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Members of the shop crafters' committee, who yesterday approved peace plans for ending the railway strike through separate agreements of individual roads, today began separate peace negotiations under the terms of agreement. Instructions to various system federation officials to sign negotiations and arrange agreements with their roads sent out from union headquarters by Bert Jewell, chief of the strike leaders.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Advices to the Labor Department today from representatives in Chicago, said railroads represent approximately 35 per cent of the country's mileage. Signified intention of ending the shopmen's strike on a basis of agreement accepted yesterday by the shop crafters' policy committee, and the roads representing additional 30 per cent are ready to end the strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—A settlement of the shopmen's strike is certain that the railroads will sustain the transportation act and should the questions upon which the strike predicated come back to the United States Labor Board, "the fullest, fairest consideration" will be granted, Ben Hooper, chairman of the board said in a statement today.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—The policy committee of the striking railway shop crafters yesterday authorized B. M. Jewell, strike leader, to sign a separate peace agreement with individual roads.

This action, it was stated, would end the strike on from 30 to 50 of the 222 class one railways of the country which it entered into direct negotiations with Mr. Jewell recently at Baltimore and on any others who cared to accept the peace terms.

With the announcement that partial peace had been voted, came the first definite statement from S. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line and representative of a railroad securities company said to control $13,000,000,000 of stock, which showed he was responsible for negotiations that finally ended in the agreement.

The agreement was reached before the committee of ninety adjourned about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Preparations for ordering the men back to work on the roads which are parties to the agreement, were begun last night in a meeting of the executive council, attended by the international officers of the six shopcrafts. This meeting—as those of the past—was closely guarded.

The first move in the negotiations which culminated in the agreement started in New York August 25; when all hope of ending the strike even through the aid of the "Big Four" brotherhoods had ended. Mr. Warfield telephoned Mr. Jewell and arranged further conferences. One week later, Mr. Jewell departed secretly for Baltimore and there the basis for yesterday's settlement was laid.

In addition to Mr. Warfield, Mr. Jewell and his executive council, the meeting was attended by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio and A. H. Smith, president of the New York Central. The basis for peace was agreed to by both factions. Then Mr. Jewell and his officers returned to Chicago while Mr. Warfield began active campaign to line up the eastern roads. Mr. Willard came west and opened secret conferences here with Western railroad executives.

Last Thursday, Mr. Jewell authorized a call for his policy committee to meet in Chicago September 10. News of the first morning was received by all the first morning was received

HARDWICK IS DEFEATED FOR GOVERNOR

HAD SERVED ONE TERM AS EXECUTIVE OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Sept. 14.—Thomas W. Hardwick, after serving one term as governor of Georgia, went down to defeat yesterday before Clifford M. Walker, whom Hardwick defeated in a similar race two years ago, according to incomplete returns from practically all counties compiled by The Constitution today.

ATLANTA, Sept. 14.—Clifford W. Walker, who was defeated two years ago by Thomas W. Hardwick for governor of Georgia, appeared to have turned the tables and won a sweeping victory in the Democratic primary for the gubernatorial nomination today, on the face of incomplete returns received up 11:30 o'clock today by the Atlanta Constitution.

The figures indicated that Walker had carried 103 counties with a county unit vote of 268, or a majority of the 416 unit votes and that Hardwick had forty-one counties, with a total vote of 108. Sixteen counties were yet to report.

Clifford W. Walker, appeared to have 218 county unit votes, out of a total of 416, or enough to assure his nomination for governor of Georgia, on the face of returns early last night, received by the Atlanta Constitution, from yesterday's state-wide Democratic primary. Those figures indicated Walker carried eighty-eight counties, and that Gov. Hardwick had thirty-seven counties, with ninety-eight convention votes. Baylor, the other candidate appeared to carry no counties.

In the other races today, J. J. Brown appeared to be well in the lead of O. A. Blalock and O. M. Houser in the race for commissioner of agriculture on the face of the Constitution's early returns; M. L. Dugan, it was indicated was leading in the race for state superintendent of schools and R. E. Davison, incumbent, appeared to be in the lead for prison commissioner.

Unofficial and scattering returns to newspapers indicated that the incumbent were leading in the first, fifth, sixth and eighth congressional districts in their contests for renomination. For chief justice of the Georgia supreme court, R. B. Russell appeared to be leading the incumbent, W. H. Fish and R. C. Bell seemed to have a comfortable lead in the race to succeed himself on the court of appeals. J. A. Perry appeared to be leading in the contest to succeed himself for railroad commissioner, while the fight for the vacancy, caused by C. Murphy Candler's refusal to run for re-election appeared very much in doubt with the early vote indicating M. L. Johnson, J. D. Fannour and Walter McDonald standing in the order

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK—

THAT people who spend money want to receive courtesy as well as value for their money? They don't want to be met with a growl.
THAT your business men should not watch and wait for business, they should work to get better business for your city? They will have to WORK AND PULL TOGETHER TO DO IT.
THAT homes in your city must be at a premium, because every one wants one? WHY NOT BUY OR BUILD YOUR OWN HOME?
THAT with the right kind of co-operation of your citizens, your city can grow by leaps and bounds?
THAT you should display your public spirit and boost your city as she deserves.
THAT your city should always be energetic and that you should make her snap envied by your neighboring cities?
THAT the quickest way to sell or to buy, or to fulfill any want, is to ADVERTISE.
THAT by advertising, the desire is created in the minds of those who are able to buy.
THAT you should place your ad before those who have the desire plus the price.
THAT you should not stop too long to deliberate. DO IT NOW!
THAT opportunities are often lost by too much deliberation.
THAT IT IS THE GET TOGETHER, PULL TOGETHER AND WORK TOGETHER effort of every citizen that will make your city a GREATER CITY.—E. R. Waite, Secretary of the Shawnee, Oklahoma, Board of Commerce.

EASTERN SITUATION SERIOUS, MAY BE ANOTHER WAR INVOLVING ALL EUROPE

Powers Must Act at Once and Set the Bloody Tarks Down

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Eastern situation is causing considerable concern here, this was reflected in editorial columns of this morning's newspapers, some of which adopted distinctly alarmist tone. One says grave crisis confronts Allies, others declare situation drifting to a danger point, and that all elements are present for another flare war, that powers must act at once, and in agreement. If they fail to agree, nothing but a miracle can avert disaster.

REPUBLICAN MEMBERS REVOLT ON PUTTING THE DYE EMBARGO MEASURE BACK TO CONFERENCE

Some Leaders Surprised and Disappointed and Fearful of Result.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Revolt against the action of the conference in writing back into the administration tariff bill a dye embargo licensing provision and a duty on potash the House late yesterday sent that measure back to conference. Its managers were instructed to accept the senate amendments, repealing the existing dye embargo and placing potash on the free list.

Some Republican house leaders, plainly surprised and disappointed, were pessimistic as to what the ultimate result of the house action would be. Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, the floor leader, said he did not know what the outcome would be, while Chairman Fordney, said it looked doubtful whether there would be a bill at this session of congress. Chairman McCumber, of the senate managers, took a more optimistic view, however, stating that the senate would agree to another conference and that the differences would be adjusted speedily.

The vote in the house was 177 to 180, with 103 Republicans, 74 Democrats and the one Socialist voting in support of the motion by Representative Garner, Democrat, Texas, to recommit, and 128 Republicans and 4 Democrats voting against it. The vote followed a day of parliamentary wrangling and sharp debate and announcement of the result by Speaker Gillett was greeted by applause on both sides of the chamber and with loud cheers from many of the Democrats.

Republicans supporting the Garner motion included Scott and Taylor, both of Tennessee.

Democrats voting against the Garner motion were Campbell, of Pennsylvania, and Fabrot, Lazaro and Martin, all of Louisiana.

Most of the Republicans voting for the Garner motion are from the western agricultural states, and New York with a majority of them opposing both the dye embargo provision and the duty on potash. Other sections of the bill, however, came in for sharp criticism from the Republican side and the leaders regarded present settlement

WAS STEPPING TO DOOR OF NEGRO HOUSE WHEN FIRE DROPPED KILLED INSTANTLY

Negro Was Captured and Taken to Orlando It is Supposed for Safe Keeping

A tragedy that stirred the city to its very depths occurred this morning about 9:00 o'clock just off of Park avenue near the A. C. L. railroad crossing when Deputy Sheriff Cleveland Jacobs in the performance of his duty was shot and killed by a strange negro.

This negro, who no one seems to know, had stolen another negro's pants and the negro giving chase had seen the thief go into the old Humphreys house that sits in the low swampy place on Park avenue. Telephoning the sheriff's office Deputy Sheriff Cleveland Jacobs responded and with Chas. Lord and the negro whose pants were stolen started to enter the house, Jacobs at the front and Lord at the back. The negro in the house had evidently prepared meantime by picking up a shot gun in the corner of the house and as Jacobs stepped in the front door he fired at close range the entire charge going into Jacobs chest and coming out on the left side of his body. Jacobs was immediately rushed to the Fernald-Laughton Hospital but died as they placed him on the operating table.

After being shot to death Jacobs fired two shots from his pistol at the negro and then told the negro, whose pants were stolen, to take the pistol and get him.

The negro meantime was surrounded near the Hart place and surrendered and was placed under arrest by Sheriff Hand, who spirited him away, it is said to Orlando for safe keeping. The feeling is very high against the negro and if he is found he will get no trial in the courts.

The dead deputy sheriff was a Seminole county boy and was about twenty-two years of age, well liked by everyone with whom he came into contact and as an officer was fearless in his duty at all times.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Jacobs, of Chuluota, where he was born and raised and had spent his early manhood. He leaves a wife and one brother and one sister and many other relatives to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the community goes out to the wife and the parents and relatives of this fine young man who was stricken down in the performance of his duty.

The funeral will occur at Chuluota Friday afternoon at 4:30.

ORLANDO, Sept. 14.—At 11 o'clock Sheriff C. M. Hand, of Seminole county, with a party of county and city officials brought the negro who this morning killed Deputy Jacobs to Orlando and lodged him in the county jail. He was allowed to remain here, however, not longer than fifteen minutes when he was put in a car by two Orange county deputies and hustled to parts unknown. The negro's name was Perry Bailey, 24, who it is said had been in Sanford but two days, coming from Louisiana. Those in the party that brought him here included in addition to Sheriff Hand, C. J. Ryan, city manager of Sanford; J. A. Killebrew, chief of police; J. H. Powell, of the police force who arrested Bailey; R. G. Williams, of the police force. At Winter Park the party was joined by D. V. Overstreet, chief of police of that city. The officers here lost no time in spiriting the murderer from Orlando county precincts. When he emerged from the jail here to make the further

FAVOR ELIMINATING WORD "OBEY" FROM WEDDING CEREMONY

PORTLAND, Oregon, Sept. 13.—The house of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church late today voted in favor of taking the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony of that church. The bishops voted to refer the proposal to eliminate the phrase "with my worldly goods I thee endow" from the ceremony back to the commission which had submitted it. The bishops were generally in favor of the phrase but objected to its wording, it was said. The vote to eliminate the word "obey" was 36 to 27. If the house of deputies concurs in the action the proposed change will be subject to approval at the general convention three years hence before becoming effective.

TOUCH NOT, TASTE NOT THE LIQUOR OF TODAY

It seems useless to point out to the fools of yesterday and today that they risk their lives if they buy what is called whiskey and drink it; the fools of yesterday are either dead or blind. The ones of today go on in their folly drinking wood alcohol. For months the Tribune and other newspapers have told men and women who crave liquor that the stuff that now is sold is poison; that it means death or total blindness.

One might as well pet a rattlesnake in August or take a bobcat home for the children to play with as to drink the liquor now sold by bootleggers. We have some sympathy for those whose appetites demand strong drink; but they should conquer that appetite. It is against the law to sell liquor; it is against the law to buy it. Both the bootlegger and the purchaser are guilty, and yet both go on in the business, and the undertakers are busier than ever. It is a waste of time to keep on telling the unwise that they will die if they drink that which is being offered for sale. Miami liquor is no better than the Tampa product. Better stop your liquor habits right now. —Tampa Tribune.

THREE PER CENT LOAN CONTRACTS

The Florida State Banker, published at Tallahassee, contains the following notice, which should be read and digested by those seeking loans on home-building contracts:

It has been evident from information received by the state comptroller during the past several months that the state of Florida has been invaded by a class of promoters and "fly-by-night" salesmen who are offering and, strange to say, are having some success in selling to some of the public, a form of so-called loan or home-building contract. It is quite apparent that the words "home-building" were used as nothing more than to make the bait more attractive for the sucker. Of course, any form of legitimate building and loan association or financial plan which is sound in principle and carried out under proper guarantees of faithful and honest administration, is to be commended rather than condemned, but the contracts under consideration are not of this class.

The general plan of all these so-called three per cent. loan contracts (in some cases four per cent.) is based upon the contract holder or purchaser paying into the company a stated amount each month—usually ten dollars per month on each one thousand dollars of loan applied for—continuing these payments until his contract is reached in order or until the "loan is ready."

A number of these companies have applied for a permit to operate in Florida under our "Blue Sky Law," and in each case their application has been denied by the board, which is composed of comptroller and attorney general. However, some of these promoters and schemers have undertaken to slip under the fence and have either organized local corporations or have set up business by way of the famous plan of declaration of trust. The declaration of trust usually is resorted to for no other purpose than to receive the benefit of a corporate body without having to submit to the laws regulating corporations. The promoters in such cases are very careful to absolve themselves of any liability whatsoever as individuals or as trustees. There are in Florida at this time loan companies using the three per cent. loan contract (or four per cent.), operating as local corporations and under the declaration of trust plan.

A sample contract used by one of these loan companies operating under declaration of trust shows upon its face that practically every provision for the protection and benefit of the contract holder usually found in these contracts has been left out and the purchaser of one of these contracts has no assurance of getting his loan at any specified time, neither does the contract state how much of the money paid in shall go into the loan fund or how much may be used by the company or the trustees for expenses, and promises only to lend the contract holder when the money is available for his loan, the difference between what he has paid in and the face of the contract.

RIDING THE NEWSPAPER

Important as is the newspaper to the life of the community, the state and the nation—and were we without it our whole political structure would crumble and a new form of government would have to be made—the newspaper is still of necessity a business proposition and must be so unless it becomes the instrument of government itself, owned and operated by the government.

There are plausible reasons for the government ownership and operation of newspapers. There are many more good reasons why it is impossible for the government to make a newspaper. It has been tried. It has been tried in a number of places at different times, and every time it has encountered failure because contending parties quarrelled over who had the right to ride the paper, most.

Perhaps the most interesting experiment was made about two decades ago in Los Angeles. Politicians in power became dissatisfied with the editorial bias and the corporation sources of subsidy of the newspapers then published in that city. They decided they would make a municipal paper. They would publish it at the city expense, and charge as near as they could estimate, a cost of production price to the subscriber. They found they had a few subscribers. The subscribers at once began to find fault with the paper because it did not at all times represent their particular opinion, and if it was the people's paper, they were the people, and they had a right to have their opinion published in their own paper.

To get readers they decided to give the paper away. They put it on every porch and at the door of every apartment in the city. Pedestrians on the street could have it for the asking. Newsboys refused to handle it because there was too little money in it for them. Complaints grew. Advertisers refused to patronize it because it was a "hand bill" and hand bill circulation has long ago been proven to be the best means of wasting an advertiser's money. That which is given away has little value.

Next the city decided to eliminate all advertising which would reduce the cost of publication. The housewife did not want the paper without the news of the market and shop and the department store. She complained about its being thrown on her porch. She ordered the city to stop throwing paper on her premises for her to pick up.

That was only one of the accumulating difficulties the city encountered. The party in power was accused of using the people's money to promulgate party propaganda. They doubtless did. Then they decided to let every party have editorial space in the paper, pro rata, in proportion to the party's last poll enrollment. The minority parties objected to this. They contended that their OPINIONS about government were just as important as the major party's opinion, that they could not hope to ever effect a change in government if the government itself was going to emphasize defense and minimize protest. They also complained about the matter of news. The stories were being handled in a Republican way; Democrats wanted the same stories handled in a Democratic way.

To meet this difficulty they decided to let political events be written by representatives of all the various parties that had a place on the state ticket. This multiplied stories on the same subject. All this made the newspaper dull and unreadable, absolutely unsalable and a tremendous cost to the people. The voters by a wave of protest stopped it.

The newspaper is of necessity a business proposition and must carry the editorial bias of the owner. If the railroads own a newspaper it is known that its opinions are the railroads' opinion. If it is owned by a politician seeking office they know how to judge it and if it is run by an independent its opinions are known as the independent's opinions. The people will like it or leave it. They will always recognize the source whence it comes.

The United States government recognizes its need of this private enterprise, the newspaper, so much that it provides a special class of mail, and gives print paper at all times the right of way. It knows that the newspaper is both the educator and the business builder. Yet the government itself will expect to ride free in the newspaper when it will not ask for a free gift from any other business. And it usually gets it.

The government made thousands of multi-millionaires during the last war, to put this adversely, we might better say that thousands of unscrupulous profiteers expressed their patriotism in the war by deliberately seeing how thoroughly they could rob the government on contracts with the government for merchandise and goods.

But the government appeals to the newspapers to GIVE it publicity for the liberty loan campaign and other patriotic propaganda.

WITH A PATRIOTISM UNMATCHED BY ANY OTHER BUSINESS ENTERPRISE THE NEWSPAPER RESPONDED.

As the government itself tries to ride the newspapers' so do business men.

Every newspaper office receives every day business propaganda in the mail. Under the thinly veiled guise of giving you news, private business expects the newspaper to pay the cost of type set and print paper and mail GALLEY—Riding Newspapers—ing cost, to say nothing of labor, to send its propaganda out to the newspaper readers.

There have been no bigger offenders in this business than the automobile people. They have gone so far as to demand that a newspaper give them free whole sections of publicity and won't advertise with the newspaper that refuses.

Newspapers are beginning to protest against this sort of industrial impudence. They are beginning to tell the story of the automobile people who withdraw their advertising for this reason. They should. So that abuse is rapidly growing less. One story of this kind has more than once stopped the sale of a car in a town. The people do not like bull-dog practices in anything.

The newspapers are beginning to tell the story of every business enterprise that tries, through methods however cunning, nonetheless dishonest, to get advertising for nothing, concerns that do not deal in a straight business matter in a straight business way.

It is a common practice for business houses and private enterprises to pay reporters a perquisite to slip news about their business into the columns of the paper. That's an old practice that intelligently managed newspapers are fast correcting. Many newspapers have been known not only to discharge reporters who engaged in that kind of absolutely dishonest double-dealing, but they have refused to take advertising from concerns that would in this way try to steal advertising from the paper.

We have known, for instance, of department stores that would engage a society editor ETAO INNENN— society editor to, as society editor of a newspaper, write to the society editors of papers in nearby towns, offering them a small perquisite, possibly five dollars or ten dollars, for lists of the best buyers in their towns. These requests were sent out on the newspaper's stationery even being taken out of the newspaper's shop to the department store where the soliciting letters were written. When the little trick was discovered the merchants themselves expressed utter amazement that the newspaper should be displeased, and went so far as to make insulting remarks to the newspaper owners who objected to these "shoplifting" practices.

The newspaper renders a greater public service than any department store was ever known to render. It is recognized by the government as infinitely more important than any mercantile house. It is the legitimate trade builder as well as educator. If the newspaper is not to be subsidized by selfish interests, then it must be maintained upon the highest business principles. Therefore the shallow-minded, self-purposed merchant who would undermine by methods more tricky than honest the legitimate business basis of a newspaper works against a free press in our country and for a subsidized press. And when you get a subsidized press you get a special interest press.

The newspapers all over the country are fast getting wise to this business of trying to ride the newspaper. The time is near when they will not only repudiate it, but they will put before the public the names of the men who try to steal the rides—Jacksonville Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary of Labor Davis shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon gave out a formal statement, in which he said that "with the settlement of the strike of 400,000 shop craftsmen the whole industrial machinery of the country is ready for a forward movement unprecedented in our economic history." "American industry," said the secretary, "has overcome the last obstacle in the way of his greatest economic revival the nation has ever known."

FLORIDA LEADS THE SOUTH IN BUILDING

In the Magazine Section of this morning's Tribune will be found a three-page feature story by G. L. Miller, president of G. L. Miller & Co., Atlanta, a real estate mortgage bond house, covering building in the southern states, by cities. It is the most wonderful revelation of what the South has been doing, and is doing, that has been printed in a score of years. The article includes tables showing that in eighty-four cities in sixteen states, a total of nearly $216,000,000 in new building was started in the first six months of 1922, a $64,000,000 increase over the figures for the same period in 1921.

In these tables, and in this record of Southern states' accomplishments, Florida stands first, and stands head and shoulders above all the others in building values according to per capita of population. The article says: "Florida, which forty years ago, was scarcely less than a continuous stretch of swamp hammock and pine barren, shows the way with an expenditure of $52.72 for each person living in the state. It is also interesting to note that while it leads the other states in per capita building, it shows practically no increase over the previous January to June period; which indicates that the unusual building program has been in effect for some time past. Those who are in close touch with the affairs of the state realize that there is little likelihood of any abatement in the near future."

But it is only by a more intimate comparison with other states that Florida is really seen to be leading so well ahead. Taking the figures for the year 1921—because the figures for the last half of 1922 are merely estimated—we find that Florida's eleven largest cities, having a total population of 260,000 only, built new structures to the total value of $24,800,000. With that population and that total for building in mind, we will look at some of the other leading Southern States.

Eight cities of Alabama with a total population of 350,000 made a building advance of $9,000,000. Eight cities in Georgia with a population of 400,000 built $17,000,000 worth of new construction. Six cities in Louisiana with 500,000 population added to their construction record $15,000,000. Five cities in Tennessee with a population of 430,000, had a building record of $19,000,000. Five cities in Virginia with a total population of 400,000, built $17,000,000 worth of new structures.

And here is a concrete example of the hurt Tampa sustains every time such statistical records are tabulated and given to the public: This city is credited with building permits totaling $4,057,028 for the year 1921, putting it in fourth place. St. Petersburg exceeded it by half a million, Jacksonville by a million, and Miami by approximately a million and a half. Every bit of the building done about those three cities was within their wide extended corporate limits, while outside and around the restricted area marking official Tampa, was built new structures, almost exclusively residences, exceeding in value $2,500,000. This, if it could be counted in Tampa as the other cities have been able to count all their building, would put this city so far ahead in building for 1921 there would be no comparison. That outside new building is here to show for itself, here, as part of Tampa in every thing save only official name.

The position Florida has taken in the South, according to this showing is one which fully justifies the declaration of all who know their state, that there was never any hard times period in Florida, that there was never a time when building was not more active than in any other state, and that Florida is the fastest growing state, and fast becoming the richest state in the world.

Much of the prosperity of Florida is due to the fact that we have sane banking and investment laws, that taxes are lower here than in most any other state, and that our legislators are not of the kind to heckle and hamper outside money and industry which may want to settle here. In addition to these causes, may be mentioned as the greatest single thing to promote building anywhere, the thousands of miles of good roads built and being built. Florida leads in permanent road building as it leads in building construction; and the two have made for the state a record which well justifies the claim that it is the coming state in the Union for population, for diversification of industry, and wide dissemination of wealth.

Mr. Miller has done a great thing for Florida, especially, and for the South in general, in publishing this record, and comment, of the South's accomplishments during this and through the past year. He should be heartily commended for his deed.—Tampa Tribune.

TAKE A CAR HOME WITH YOU FROM JACKSONVILLE

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 14.—Take a little street car home and place it in the garage—going now for $120, formerly worth between $5,000 and $6,000—if you would be a traction mag note it certainly is your chance. This is the word passed out by J. P. Inglo, manager of the Jacksonville Traction Company, who announced a general housecleaning to make room for the smart little one-man cars of yellow hue.

The one-man cars made their puny appearance here several weeks ago and now it is planned to use them exclusively, Mr. Inglo says.

The two-men cars are antiquated, he says, and further he doesn't want to scrap them around their car barns. Of course, use of the company's tracks will not go with the purchase of a car. They will make nifty cottages though and as hot dog stands they should prove superb, he says.

St. Pete Tourists Cannot Use Park For Barnyard Golf

Heirs of Williams' Estate Object to Use of Park as Playground.

(By The Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 14.—Tourists who come to St. Petersburg this winter intent upon playing roque, croquet, chess or throwing horseshoes, will find their favorite courts scattered a pauper for Williams Park, where the games have flourished heretofore, has been made unavailable for the sports.

Heirs of General John C. Williams, founder of St. Petersburg, were granted an injunction by Circuit Judge McMullen which in effect ordered the city park board to remove its fixtures set up for playing of the games.

The park had been the center of the games for several years. It was estimated that 1,000 men, women and children gathered around the various matches every day. Last winter the horseshoe play took on national significance when an open tournament was held, participated in by pitchers of renown.

The park board is planning to provide ample courts for the games this season, but the opinion is held by some that the tourists will not take well to the new locations. The various courts, in the first place, will be scattered. It is planned to lay eight roque courts on the waterfront, while four more will be placed near the Fountain of Youth pier.

General Williams set aside the tract which became Williams Park with the provision that it be used as a public park. He provided that no exclusive privileges in the use of the park should be granted.

As the winter games grew in popularity the last few years, however, various tourist clubs took over their operation and charged a small membership fee. This practice is understood to have formed the basis of the suit brought by General Williams' heirs.

FEDERAL JUDGESHIP ENDORSEMENT FALLS TO JONES, IS CLAIM

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 13.—According to advices reaching here today from Washington, Lake Jones, prominent Jacksonville attorney, counsel for the Southern District, United States Shipping Board, has been endorsed by the Florida Republican organization for federal judge to fill the new office, which was created recently by act of congress. In his capacity as counsel for the shipping board Mr. Jones territory covers the states of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. If it develops that there is any chance for a Democrat to secure the appointment, it is stated on good authority, the name of Judge Reeves of Tampa, will be suggested to the president, and endorsed by many Florida Democrats.

Mr. Harding has frequently stated that in case where Republican judicial timber does not meet the requirements for this high office, he would not hesitate in appointing a Democrat as he did recently in Georgia.

The endorsement of Lake Jones, of Jacksonville, by the Republican leaders of the state for appointment by President Warren G. Harding for additional judge of the Southern District of Florida, which embraces Tampa, does not come as a surprise to those who have been more or less conversant with the situation. Mr. Jones stands high in the estimation of the party leaders of the state, but if it should develop that the administration does not feel like offering the lucrative plum to Mr. Jones or any other Republican considered eligible, or an reason whatever, it is regarded by friends of Judge O. K. Reeves, of Tampa, that he will have an excellent chance. In view of the president's declaration that he will not hesitate to nominate a Democrat as judge should he feel that it is best, friends of Mr. Reeves have been active in his behalf. He is understood to have the endorsement of a very large part of the bar of the state. He is generally esteemed as one of the most able jurists of the state.—Tampa Tribune.

HARDWICK DEFEATED IN GEORGIA PRIMARY

ATLANTA, Sept. 14.—Clifford W. Walker appeared to have 210 county unit votes out of a total of 418, or enough to assure his nomination for governor of Georgia on the face returns at 8 o'clock last night received by the state-wide democratic primary. Those figures indicated Walker carried 80 counties and that Governor Thomas W. Hardwick had 32 counties with 96 convention votes. H. Beddinger Baylor, the other candidate, appeared to have carried no counties.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A quarrel with his wife, which resulted in his arraignment in police court, today proved the undoing of Ellis R. ANSWERS CHARGES

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 14.—Charges that the United States has failed to do its share in aiding the rehabilitation of the world were answered today by Comptroller of Currency Crisinger in an address here before the Indiana Bankers Association with the statement that in the past eight years this country has sent abroad nearly $22,000,000,000. "I feel," he said, "that the present is not an appropriate time to refer to this truly gigantic participation by our country in sustaining and stabilizing the finances of the world."

NEGRO ON MURDER CRAZE

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 14.—As the result of what the police said was "brooding over his martial difficulties," Willie Clayton, negro, 25, at his home in Henrico county, early today shot and killed his wife, Gertrude, his father-in-law, Alfred Brown, and his aunt, Melinda Carter. Clayton then surrendered to the county authorities. He told the police the tragedy was the result of his wife's infidelity and he shot his father-in-law and Melinda Carter when they interferred with him on behalf of his wife.

The bus will make a round trip daily between the two cities. The road has been the subject of much legal controversy recently. At the time it was on a fair way to being taken over by the Marion county court. Arrangements were made, however, after vigorous protests were made by residents along the road.

CARE OF TEETH

It is comparatively easy to prevent decayed teeth and diseased gums, providing the RIGHT DENTIFRICE is used. You cannot HEAL a SORE MOUTH with soap or gritty chalks, perfumery is useless in destroying the sixty odd germs in the mouth. A tooth-brush will not alone dislodge the decaying deposits between the teeth, for this reason "RIGGS" combines a medicated floss. RIGGS is compounded to relieve you of your mouth ills, PREVENT PYORRHEA and give you highest protection against infectious MOUTH DISEASES.
