

Holmes' Pointed Maxims Attracted Wide Attention

Late Liberal Voice Of Supreme Court Used Homely Phrases Often In His Decisions

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—(AP)—In his decisions, Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes' enclaved formal legal language except where it was necessary, and used instead homely maxims.

Some were:

A horsecar cannot be handled like a rafter.

A man cannot shift his misfortunes to his neighbor's shoulders.

Most differences are merely differences of degree when nicely analyzed.

Every calling is great when greatly pursued.

The notion that with socialized property we should have a piano for everybody seems to be an empty humbug.

There is no general policy in favor of allowing a man to do harm to his neighbor for the sake of doing harm.

One of the eternal conflicts out of which life is made up is that between the efforts of every man to get the most he can for his services and that of society, disguised under the name of capital, to get his services for the least possible return.

Fair competition is worth more to society than it costs.

Nature has but one judgment on wrong conduct—the judgment of death. If you waste too much food you starve; too much fuel, you freeze; too much nerve, you collapse.

Those trampling the road of life have at their command one and only one rule to success, to bring to their work a mighty heart.

The man of action has the present, but the thinker controls the future.

Man must face the loneliness of original work.

We cannot live our dreams. We There is no basis for a plowman are lucky enough if we can give ph that tells us what we should a sample of our best and if in want to want.

our hearts we can feel that it has been nobly done.

Life is action, the use of one's powers. As to use them to their height is our joy and duty, so it is the one end that justifies itself.

Life is an end in itself, and the only question as to whether it is worth living is whether you have had enough of it.

There is in all men a demand for the superlative; so much so that the poor devil who has no other way of reaching it attains by getting drunk.

We are all fighting to make the kind of world that we should like. Others will fight and die to make a different world with equal sincerity and belief.

The life of the law has not been logic; it has been experience.

The constitution is an experiment, as all life is an experiment.

Great constitutional provisions must be administered with caution.

Some play must be allowed for the joints of the machine.

Legislators are ultimate guardians of the liberty and welfare of the people, in quite as great a degree as the rooks.

The word "right" is one of the most deceptive of pitfall—most rights are qualified.

Congress certainly cannot forbid all effort to change the mind of the country.

The best test of truth is the power of the thoughts to get itself accepted—no matter how it comes.

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays

Newspaper Woman Satirizes American Scene As Mrs. Roosevelt, Others Laugh

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—(AP)—"Just one day, please make her a newspaper woman's satire tired."

On the current scene—Huey Long and Harry Johnson, the Duane quintuplets, and cabinet wives exploring capital allies—was staged Tuesday night before Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and other women notables.

The perpetual-motion propensities of a President's wife were the subject of one skit in this annual affair presented by the Women's National Press club. And Mrs. Roosevelt got her annual chance to reply in a speech "off the record."

An imperial scene, with Huey Long enthroned as emperor, started off the satire.

Dictating a letter to the head representative of the House of Representatives, Emperor Huey demanded more gold coins ("every man a king"), then issued a proclamation ordering every husband and wife in his domain to take a second honeymoon as a stimulant to business recovery.

Next came a scene from the Eleanor Roosevelt home for broken-down newspaper women, where a large sign said: "One bell never rang—Mrs. Roosevelt goes by train; two busses, by plane, three trolleys, by auto; four telephones, foot."

But an inmate in an Eleanor blue uniform explained to an harassed new-comer that the bells never rang—Mrs. Roosevelt just had them put up, and also put in a new-ticker, to make the "Times" reporters feet at home.

But a premonition suddenly came to a reporter suffering from travel shock, lying on a couch, and she jumped up shrieking.

"Something here (hands to head) no here (hands to legs)—tell me Mrs. Roosevelt is going somewhere."

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

This caused the new-comer to say "let me pray the prayer they say that Franklin prays."

—From the New York Times

—Opposite attempts to check

—We should be extremely rigorous in the expression of opinions that we loathe.

When differences are sufficient for reaching, we try to kill the other man rather than let him have his way.

A dog will fight for his bone.

THE SANFORD HERALD
Established in 1886
Published every afternoon, except Sunday's Standard Herald.
111 Main Street.

What Becomes Of Sweepstakes Fortunes
"What happens to those who win fabulous sums in the sweepstakes?" asks Lamayne A. Jones in the April Cosmopolitan.

THE SANFORD HERALD

What Becomes Of Sweepstakes Fortunes
The Editor,
Sanford Herald,
TOWNSEND OLD AGE PENSION PLAN.

William Meringer, who only a year ago won $155,000 in the Florida Sweepstakes, has enough to give his family a decent, dignified home enough to give a dinner for a hundred needy Dublin children. On his return he purchased a home. He assured his children an education by creating an annuity fund for them, banked the rest and now works two days a week in a restaurant. Stanley Menzella, who won $102,000 in a lottery in 1923, left his tenement dwelling, bought a home in New York state, then took his family for a trip to Bavaria. Now he plans a tour of Europe by subscribers which, if of importance or not, does not fully furnish the opposite side of the picture.

Valerio Zarbo, working in a Brooklyn mirror factory when he won a prize of $42,000 in 1920, also took an extended trip and toured the Continent for six months. He was tired of a life of leisure, so he bought a mirror works of his own to have something to do. Peter Dolan, Irish dock builder, didn't even quit his job after he won $150,000 in a lottery last October. He now works at his old walk-around business.

All evidently nations, cards, and other diversions, were used to entice him to the purpose of his sweepstakes.

The Herald is a member of the editorial and press corps invited to the meeting of the National Sweepstakes Association to be held in New York on Saturday, March 9, 1935.

ROLLAND L. DEAN
HOLLAND DEX - Sanford Manager

DESCRIPTION RATES

One Year $7.00
Six Months $5.00
Three Months $2.50
By Carrier Per Month $1.00

All advertising rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Front and back page rates are not included in the above rates.

Editorial

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

Editorial rates are subject to change without notice. The Herald reserves the right to accept or reject any advertisement.

THE SANFORD HERALD, SANFORD, FLORIDA

THE SANFORD HERALD

Baby Banks Sound Knell Of Death For U.S. LoanSharks

Over Billion Annually Picked From Poor Man's Pockets By Thieving Institutions

Children's Notes: Clerks, office workers, and storekeepers are resorting bankers, as result of the federal legislation authorizing organizations of Credit Unions. Credit unions, they are sometimes called, There is practically no capital necessary, and no assets. All that is needed is a small amount of stock which is ownership in the same place, membership in the same church, or even residence in the same neighborhood. The power of the baby banks is to prevent them from giving a borrowing power at a small rate of interest and in return to collect a high rate of interest. This is the reason why the Miami Daily News enunciates the shock of another depression. This is the fourth of a series of articles telling how the banks operate and their advantages.

MIAMI Mar. 9.—More than $1,000,000,000 is being picked from the poor man's pockets each year by loan sharks!

This is one of the startling facts uncovered in a survey made by those who campaigned for the legislation for credit unions.

A former secretary of the interior under Ex-President Mario G. Moncada, Alvarez was one of the original chieftains of President Mendes' nationalist party.

A bomb heavily damaged one of several water mains at Maracana which carried Havana's water supply, late yesterday afternoon, in the newest flare-up of the intermittent violence punctuating the storm of strikes raging around the Mendes government.

Even in states where small loan companies are operating under state charter, such as in Florida, the 3½ percent a month interest amounts to 42 percent a year. In the baby banks the maximum amount of interest permitted is one percent a month or 12 percent a year. It is a fact amounts to even less than that when it is considered that only members may borrow and that any net earnings of the organization are distributed as a dividend at the end of each year.

But the loan sharks, and the larger ones were organized thrive on depression and grow fatter as the poor man grows thin under a burden of debt which in many instances he is unable to pay. It was because the leaders of the loan sharks in many states prevented any action for organization of the baby banks, that the federal government stepped in and authorized such organization.

These baby banks, which are launched by any group with a community of interest, and without capital or assets, are expected eventually to sound the death knell for the loan sharks. They are also expected to encourage shift among the thrifites. Payments as low as 20 cents a month may keep a member in good standing.

Throughout the nation, there are about six out of every seven mainly employed persons using credit and so they are adversely affected by unwise-use ratio, a recent report of Averitt and Co. declared. The Averitt firm was one of the first to encourage the idea of credit union banks.

The Senate banking and currency committee, which studied the baby bank legislation and recommended it to Congress, said in a report:

"The national problems with which the bill has to do are problems with which we are concerned. At a time when industrial recovery depends on the buying power of the masses of the people, usurious money lending in amounts which are now figured in billions of dollars annually, obviously destroys vast totals of buying power, represented by the difference in what the average worker should pay for credit and what he actually does pay for credit."

As in the case of the Miami Daily News baby bank, the unions are launched with virtually no expense. Aside from the initial cost for charter and supplies, amounting to approximately $100, there is no expense. Officers usually serve without pay and as in the case of the Daily News, the employer provides the office space.

As a result, even with the low interest rate of one percent a month on the unpaid balance, the baby banks are able to operate at a profit, which is returned to the members in the form of a dividend at the end of the year.

Detailed plans for organizing a credit union may be procured by writing to S. E. Orchard, Director, Credit Union Section, Farm Credit Administration, 5200 E. St., N. W., Washington, D. C. Application forms for applications and other necessary detailed information.

Water emptied from the Manhattan, Kan., municipal swimming pool saturated in a temporary irrigation system in water trees and grass in the city park during the drought.

Havana Placed Under Virtual Martial Rule

(Continued From Page One) to break strikes gripping the nation.

The cabinet authorized the secretary of the interior to issue provisional licenses to individual citizens to carry arms, this in order to give employees filling strike workers' jobs means of protecting themselves.

Shortly afterward police at Camagüey struck at Autentico party one of the leading groups opposing the government, arresting Aurelio Alvarez, one of its national leaders.

A former secretary of the interior under Ex-President Mario G. Moncada, Alvarez was one of the original chieftains of President Mendes' nationalist party.

A bomb heavily damaged one of several water mains at Maracana which carried Havana's water supply, late yesterday afternoon, in the newest flare-up of the intermittent violence punctuating the storm of strikes raging around the Mendes government.

With some observers expressing the opinion that the strike movement threatened the entire political, educational and commercial structure of the island, the Adminstration faced this situation.

All but two government departments partially or completely paralyzed by walkouts.

Nearly 400,000 school teachers and students out of classrooms leading the movement for Mendes' overthrow.

Street car traffic in the city of Havana almost completely stopped the few cars operating having been seized.

Newspaper publications continually exposed the acts of strike leaders pressuring government officials.

Emergency hospitals and first aid stations functioning in makeshift style because workers were out.

No doctors, law officers because of the strike of the 7,000 strong department of justice employees.

The post office houses were mostly closed out of Cuba, and telegraph offices were closed.

Throughout the nation, there are about six out of every seven mainly employed persons using credit and so they are adversely affected by unwise-use ratio, a recent report of Averitt and Co. declared. The Averitt firm was one of the first to encourage the idea of credit union banks.

The Senate banking and currency committee, which studied the baby bank legislation and recommended it to Congress, said in a report:

"The national problems with which the bill has to do are problems with which we are concerned. At a time when industrial recovery depends on the buying power of the masses of the people, usurious money lending in amounts which are now figured in billions of dollars annually, obviously destroys vast totals of buying power, represented by the difference in what the average worker should pay for credit and what he actually does pay for credit."

As in the case of the Miami Daily News baby bank, the unions are launched with virtually no expense. Aside from the initial cost for charter and supplies, amounting to approximately $100, there is no expense.

Officers usually serve without pay and as in the case of the Daily News, the employer provides the office space.

As a result, even with the low interest rate of one percent a month on the unpaid balance, the baby banks are able to operate at a profit, which is returned to the members in the form of a dividend at the end of the year.

Detailed plans for organizing a credit union may be procured by writing to S. E. Orchard,

Director, Credit Union Section,

Farm Credit Administration,

5200 E. St., N. W., Washington,

D. C. Application forms for applications and other necessary detailed information.

BORAH SCORES TRUSTIS UNDER RECOVERY ACT

(Continued From Page One) to trustis to invert the small industries of the country."

Senator Ford, whose voice has sounded often in recent days against the Administration, also hastened to add his criticism of the NRA in the debate.

Boxers To Fight On Tuesdays In Future

Future Sessions Box Athlone Club bouts will be held on Tuesdays instead of Friday night, it was announced by club officials this morning.

The change is being made so as not to have weekly bouts conflict with school activities which usually are increased on Friday nights.

Last night's bouts were as follows:

Lindbergh Hall and Billy Barrimou and Pete Tully fought to draw decisions; Giles Chapman lost to Laurence Barrimou; Paul Moore lost to Frank Weeks; Charles Cameron won over Henry Lovell.

BOWLING NOTES

Hi-Grade Bakers won, 209 of three games from Kenneth Hattori's Shop team in a Sanford Bowling League match played last night.

The scores:

Hi-Grade: 114 118 122 114

K. Hattori: 114 118 120 117

P. Tully: 121 118 120 117

H. Lovell: 117 120 124 117

Totals: 372 442 449 437

RENAKERS: 114 118 120 117

P. Moore: 118 120 122 123

F. Weeks: 120 120 122 117

E. Cameron: 113 119 120 117

Totals: 442 427 438 437

CHURCH NOTICE

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Worship Service 11:30 A. M.

Sermons by the pastor, Madeline

Lee, Peppermint Division, etc.

Music Service 12:30 P. M.

Sermons by the Rev. J. B. Root

Curator of the Congregational

TIGERS SIGN 'DIXIE' HOWELL

Professional baseball has planned one of Alabama's most famous athletes, Millard "Dixie" Howell, the grid star who almost single-handed upset Stanford in the Rose Bowl game last New Year's Day. Howell signed a contract to play with the Detroit Tigers and began immediately to pack for the trip to Lakeland, Fla., to train. Here he is shown in his name on the dotted shirt.

(Associated Press Photo)

Holmes Was Stirred Easily By Civil War Memories

(Continued From Page One)

Element of the Southern Confederacy, Holmes was easily stirred by the memory of the Civil War.

He had seen the war as a boy, serving in the ranks of the 1st Virginia Cavalry, and had been present at the battle of Bull Run, the first major engagement of the war.

He had been present at the battle of Chancellorsville, and had been present at the battle of Gettysburg.

He had been present at the battle of Spotsylvania Court House, and had been present at the battle of Cold Harbor.

He had been present at the battle of Petersburg, and had been present at the battle of Appomattox.

He had been present at the battle of Atlanta, and had been present at the battle of Mobile.

He had been present at the battle of Franklin, and had been present at the battle of Nashville.

He had been present at the battle of the Wilderness, and had been present at the battle of Cold Harbor.

He had been present at the battle of the Crater, and had been present at the battle of Five Forks.

He had been present at the battle of the Appomattox River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

He had been present at the battle of the Rappahannock River, and had been present at the battle of the Roanoke River.

He had been present at the battle of the Potomac River, and had been present at the battle of the James River.

</div

The Sanford Herald

AN INDEPENDENT DAILY NEWSPAPER

Sanford Is The Only Central
Florida City Affording Rail, Highway,
And Water Transportation

Seminole County Produces
More Fruits And Vegetables Than Any Similar Area In America

VOLUME XXIV

Member Associated Press

SANFORD, FLORIDA, MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1935

Established In 1808

NUMBER 102

Ten Killed In Week-End Riots In Cuba

Havana Streets Are Deserted Except For Soldiers As State Of War Exists

HAVANA, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Five bodies of persons killed in Cuba's wild week-end of fighting were found today in the exclusive residential suburbs of Havana itself, lapsed into a trance-like calm under "state of war."

The discovery of the bodies in Marianao and the death of a wounded man in a hospital brought the total number of dead over the week-end to ten. Havana's streets are practically deserted except for soldiers and sailors.

Many stores which opened for business had no clerks and the owners themselves made transactions.

Although railroad men are on strike, soldiers forced a train at Camaguey to take a car into Havana.

A bomb was exploded in the rail zone building at Camaguey. The entire island is paralyzed commercially. Union after union joined the revolutionary strike for a nation-wide strike. The rest of the island was created with security; the one vote necessary to attack the McCarran-Walter amendment to the big relief bill over President Roosevelt's opposition.

Today, after weeks of delay, relief measure was back in the Senate without the prevailing wage amendment. But this time Long threatened a new delay by removing demands for a Senate investigation of Postmaster General Farley.

The House was unable to pass the measure to repeal the requirement for publicity of important figures on 1934 income tax returns. Passage was forecast.

Anxious to expedite action on the long-delayed Administration's $4,800,000,000 relief bill, Democratic leaders yesterday assured the Senate of an early vote on the bill.

Senate residents were vacating Davis in the heart of the Everglades.

James residents were vacating Davis in the heart of the Everglades.

The fire swept along a seven-mile front, over between 5000 and 6000 acres, in 11 sections of the Everglades.

Smoke smudged the skies over a wide area, cutting visibility to several hundred feet.

An east wind held the fire away from the hamlets. A change in wind directions would route the fire down into Davis and probably into Griffin.

(Continued on Page Five)

MARITIME NEWS

From the Port of Central Florida at Sanford, compiled daily by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce giving arrivals and departures of St. Johns River Sunday and Monday, Mar. 10 and 11, 1935.

ARRIVALS

Sunday
MS CITY OF SANFORD, miscellaneous cargo, St. Johns River Co.

MS MAGUIRE, miscellaneous cargo, Seminole Steamship Co.

MS FLORENCE in tow of oil barges, American Oil Co.

MS LEXINGTON, deck of St. Johns River Line Co.

MS MAGISTER, deck of St. Johns River Line Co.

MS RIVER LADY Co.