

Rangers To Put Bad Bears On Probation

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Wyo., July 23—(AP)—After three strikes a bear is out of Yellowstone National Park. That is a new regulation announced by rangers worrying over an increase of 125 percent in the number of bear-bitten tourists this year.

Under the new rules if a bear bites or strikes at a visitor, he is placed on probation and rangers keep a close watch over him. If he is found guilty a second time he is hauled to another part of the park. The rangers sash a streak of paint across his brow to indicate he is a "tough customer." When he bites a third time he is captured, crated and shipped to a zoo.

Prepared Hams Aid In Solving Meal Problems

By MARIE GIFFORD

How often have you wished that you could say "Presto Changeo" and have the meal appear like magic on the dinner table? Such a wish isn't quite as impossible as you think if your refrigerator boasts one of these grand new hams that are ready to serve just as they come from the market.

For years we've known that ham is an ideal summer meal purchase, partly because it is so well liked both hot and cold, but also because of its excellent keeping qualities. But a ham in the refrigerator used to entail at least 4 good hours of preliminary cooking—which meant an uncomfortably warm morning's work.

The new hams, mellow cooked, perfectly tender, absolutely ready to slice and serve look just like their ham brothers except for the difference in the wrapper which states plainly that it is "ready-to-eat."

And the cold dinners that you can create from one of these hams are legion. Ham, Potato Salad and Horseradish; Ham, potato chips and sliced tomatoes; cold sliced ham with pickled peaches and a vegetable salad; cubed ham jellied with celery and olives and sliced to serve with hot rolls and cucumbers in our cream dressing; piles of ham sandwiches to go with raw carrots, radishes and olives for a porch supper with iced tea and cookies; Ham salad to be served in tomato cups with bread and butter sandwiches; a green salad bowl dressed with French Dressing and topped with thin slices of cold ham for a warm noon-day. These are only a few of the "presto" meals that are possible with a ham on hand.

And here's some practical advice on slicing a ham for table service. When you buy it, ask the dealer to cut it in half. Keep one half wrapped until you have finished the first half. Then you won't be pulling it in and out of the refrigerator so often. It also makes it easier to slice.

Slice the shank half first. Turn the half ham on its side, (not on its back) and split it lengthwise along the bone. This forms a big boneless piece that slices into 18 or 20 good horseshoe slices. The other side can be boned and then sliced or sliced around the bone. When you get down to the end—save the chunky pieces for salads and sandwiches. The butt half has a more irregular bone, but it is fairly simple to carve around it.

Here are some ham salads that fit this scheme of cold meals beautifully.

SLIM-JIM SALAD
1 head lettuce
1 bunch watercress
1 can white asparagus tips
1 bunch radishes
2 tablespoons crumbled Roquefort Cheese

Slices of cold ham
French Dressing
Shred lettuce and mix with cream. Place in bowl and top with asparagus and sliced radishes. Dress with 1-2 cup French Dressing in which the cheese has been crumbled. Cut the sliced ham in long thin slivers and lay over the top. Serve with hot biscuits or rolls and tall glasses of iced coffee for a summer luncheon.

HAM SALAD IN TOMATO CUPS
6 large tomatoes
2 cups diced, cooked ham
1 cup chopped celery
2 chopped pickles
1-2 green pepper
Mayonnaise
Remove a slice from the stem

FREE-WHEELING LAMB owes the wheel and his life to John Osborne of Murrayville, Ill. Osborne, getting crippled lamb from a neighbor, fashioned this support for animal's ailing rear legs, and the lamb gets around with ease.

Noiseless Night For Istanbul Is Planned

ISTANBUL, July 23—(AP)—The municipal council is planning to make Istanbul a "city of noiseless night." A new ordinance provides heavy fines and imprisonment for anyone causing unnecessary noise between 8 P. M. and 8 A. M.

The "all quiet" order forbids milkmen and street vendors to "cry their wares" as they have done for centuries. Automobile drivers sounding their horns at night will lose their licenses.

Owners of radios must close their windows at 11 P. M. Defenders will be fined and their radio sets confiscated.

More than 100 claimants are still seeking title to 9,782 acres of land along the Mississippi north of St. Louis, in a dispute based on grants given by Spain in 1802.

According to the U. S. Office of Education there were in 1933-34 almost 680,000 teachers in elementary schools, 250,000 in secondary schools and 90,000 in colleges.

Rebels Bomb Ebros Dams In Attempt To Destroy All Bridges

ATHENS, Greece, July 29.—(AP)—A revolt today against the regime of General John Metaxas, dictator of Greece, was apparently quickly crushed. The governor of the Isle of Crete, where the uprising broke out, cabled Metaxas that order had been restored in Crete, Crete capital.

All rebel-held government buildings had been re-occupied by authorities, he reported, and revolutionists fled. Four hundred armed men, said to be sailors, effected a coup by taking advantage of the weakened garrison at Canes. Most of regular troops had been sent to northern Greece to provide vacation relief for other garrisons.

SHANGHAI, July 29.—(AP)—Japanese fliers today were accused in Chinese reports of causing hundreds of civilian deaths during persistent bombardments of middle Yangtze River region. A Japanese naval communiqué charged that Chinese planes bombed a Japanese hospital ship at Tachihana Maru near Kluang although she flew a red cross flag. No mention was made of damage.

HENDAYE, Franco Spanish Frontier, July 29.—(AP)—Spanish insurgents opened all the dams in the Ebro River and its tributaries today in an attempt to sweep away bridges behind government's advancing armies on the Catalan front. Reports said the river became impassable in 30 minutes.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

EXPERIENCE JUSTIFIES FAITH: For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that I am able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.—Tim. 1:12.

Senator and Mrs. J. J. Parrish, have just returned from a vacation spent in Toronto, Canada.

That was a whole of a story Henry Hudson of the Titusville Star Advocate sent out the other day.

Of course there are probably a few people who don't read the newspapers. They know it already.

These new-fangled bathing suits, we'll bet a hat, are doing more to keep folks from getting fat than all the reducing diets in the world.

Palatka voters turned down the city utility proposition. They didn't like the idea of going into debt in order to compete with existing facilities.

Liquor users in Florida paid $2,250,000 in taxes last year to the State of Florida. In spite of a 50 percent increase in the tax rate there was only a 28 percent increase in collections.

St. Petersburg authorities considered the advisability of levying a cigarette tax in order to balance its budget. But after five hundred irate citizens marched on City Hall they decided that at least for the time being they could get along without it.

Douglas Corrigan who flew to Ireland when he thought he was going to California has received countless offers of jobs, but the one he wanted, from an airplane company, he admits has not been forthcoming. He not only flew the wrong way, but he has been offered the wrong jobs.

Two Seminole county representatives hit a cow on the highway on their way to the Moon River caucus. If they keep up the number of members of the majority will have had such contacts with cows on the highway they may do something about getting 'em off.—Ocala News. DeLman didn't have to hit a cow himself to be in favor of a law, and that's no bull.

Seminole County has at least two citizens who have been significantly honored in the last few days. H. J. Lehman and John D. Darnley are sporting certified citizenship certifying that they are members of AHOA, the American and Honor Roll Order of Foresters of America, founded by Bill Barney of the Tampa Tribune as a mark of distinction for meritorious service in the war to rid the highways of roaming cattle.

New York a man stands on a ledge 17 stories in the air, holding all appeals to cause a fatal jump to his death. The "Angels almost at the door" a young woman was about to go the way of the Benito in "Foot of the Devil" political opponents and political boss. In Texas a formerly unknown flour salesman elected governor by means of a "Wily hand." The American Association condemns a court procedure. A Chicagoan declines an appointment even after reports that the star would not be hit.

Sanford Twenty Years Ago: Born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Purdon, a fine baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Shinholler have returned from a trip to Clearwater Beach. They made the trip by auto and thoroughly enjoyed every bit of it. Mrs. E. P. Morse and Mrs. B. A. Howard are here today looking after their farming interests. They are at Daytona Beach for the summer where they have a cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Dressner expect to return from New York the latter part of August and get ready busy "fixing up their" new store which is now located in the heart of Sanford in the Woodruff Building formerly occupied by the Santa Cafe. Reading Hours

With the consolidation of the two Gainesville newspapers, another city has joined in the nationwide recognition of the fact that duplicated services are uneconomic, wasteful, and contrary to the public interest. Previously within the past year, newspaper consolidations have taken place in Miami, and Sarasota, as well as in scores of other cities throughout the United States.

The Gainesville Sun is one of the oldest and most substantial newspapers in Florida. It has a record of 59 continuous years of service to the people of Alachua county. The other newspaper there, the News, was founded in 1921, at a time when the newspaper business was definitely on the upgrade, as a weekly publication, later becoming a daily. In announcing the consolidation, the Sun-News says, "The arrangements for combining the two publications have been effected because of the realization that the best interest of Gainesville can be promoted through a newspaper organization in which all efforts can be directed toward providing the community with the best service economic conditions make possible. Much larger cities than Gainesville find it to their advantage to have a united cooperative service through a single newspaper published afternoons."

Indicating the superior advantage of newspapers published in the afternoons over those published in the mornings, in the great majority of cities, the Gainesville paper also says, "Statistics show that of the 1,993 daily newspapers in the country, 1,587 are published in the afternoon, while only 406 are morning newspapers. Of the 406 morning newspapers, 189 are combinations published in the same plants with afternoon newspapers under the same ownership. In the smaller cities, comparable in size to Gainesville, the single afternoon newspaper is the rule."

We have often been asked the question, why The Herald does not publish in the morning instead of in the afternoon. The answer to that one is easy. The Herald can render far greater service to the public as a whole as an afternoon newspaper than as a morning newspaper. For most people, evening hours are reading hours. Most people go to work too early in the morning to spend much time then reading newspapers.

Handwriting

A post office official in Washington complains that careless handwriting costs the department about $1,500,000 a year, leaving one to wonder, if it costs the post office department that much, how much does it cost the people of the United States through errors made in business and private letters, in writing checks, notes, drafts, and countless other papers.

Urging people to address their letters more clearly, and to avoid making careless mistakes, this post office official points out that last year more than 100,000 Americans neglected to put any address at all on their envelopes, just mailed them blank. Hundreds of thousands of others were sent to the dead letter office because no one, even the experts, could read the writing.

Bad hand writing is more a matter of psychological maladjustment than anything else. A person writes poorly because he thinks so much faster than his hand can make letters, or in some cases, because his hand moves so much faster than he can think. Good handwriting is merely a matter of co-ordinating the mind with the movements of the hand.

Careful attention to this matter of co-ordination will improve anyone's handwriting. It takes some practice to do this, but it is worth the effort. Millions of dollars are lost annually because of faulty handwriting, to say nothing of painful headaches caused by trying to decipher someone's scratchy hieroglyphics.

Everyone should learn to write legibly . . . and then use the typewriter.

Competitors are sent away from the starting line at a signal from a timer, ride at top speed toward the targets, then swing down the firing line, releasing arrows at straw-filled objects placed at fixed intervals. Then the contestants return at breakneck speed—the time required, as well as the accuracy of their hits, figuring in the scoring.—Thomas V. Haney in N. Y. Times.

AN EMPLOYER had spent a great deal of money to ensure that his men should work under the best conditions. "Now, whenever I enter the workshop," he said, "I want to see every man cheerfully performing his task, and therefore I invite you to place in this box any further suggestions as to how that can be brought about." A week later the box was opened; it contained only one slip of paper, on which was written: "Don't wear rubber heels."—The Hartford Agent Magazine.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS—By JOHN HIX

For further proof address the author, enclosing a stamped envelope for reply. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Adventurous Author . . . A man who lived as he wrote and wrote as he lived was Edward Zane Carroll Judson . . . better known simply as Ned Buntline. First of the dime novelists, he invented and perfected that technique 12 years before it was popularized by the firm of Beadle & Adams. Born in New York State in 1823, Ned Buntline ran away to sea when a youngster and became a cabin boy. At 15 he won a midshipman's commission in the U. S. Navy for heroism displayed when a boat capsized in the East River on Feb. 10, 1838. Four years later he resigned to serve in the Seminole Indian War. Singlehanded, Buntline once captured two murderers and was rewarded $600.00. In 1846 at Nashville, Tenn., he was arraigned for the shooting of one Robert Porterfield, with whose wife Buntline was alleged to have flirted. Porterfield's brother opened fire on him in the court room; after a wild cross-town chase he was seized, jailed . . . then lynched. His neck was broken, but he survived in a windowless cell until someone cut him down and smuggled him back to jail. He was not indicted. Buntline later served in the Mexican War; was jailed one year for starting a riot in New York's Astor Place Theater; started an election riot in St. Louis, 1852, but escaped by jumping bail. Buntline it was who nicknamed William F. Cody "Buffalo Bill" and made a national hero of him in his dime novels. After many more eventful escapades, Buntline settled in his Adirondack home and devoted himself to his writing. During his life he produced the equivalent of 200 volumes of dime novels, and once wrote a 810-page book in 62 hours.

Army Officer Gets Reprimand In Case Involving Conduct

NEW YORK, July 29.—Lieut. Col. Stewart S. Giffin was convicted by an army court martial yesterday on two of six counts of drunkenness and conduct unbecoming an officer but was sentenced only to reprimand and a lower rating on the promotion list.

Since Giffin is to retire from the army in March on three quarter pay after 30 years of service, the demotion of 100 files on the promotion list will not affect him.

Giffin was disappointed, however, that he did not win complete exoneration on the charges brought by his former friend, reserve Lieut. James P. Smith, Jr., whom Giffin had entertained in his home for three months.

Smith, who admitted the charges were influenced by his personal animosity toward Giffin, accused the colonel of drunkenly crashing a dinner party to which he had not been invited, driving an auto wagon and knocking off a man's hat at a bar.

He said he became vindictive toward Giffin after the colonel "swished" up an agreement to make Smith his business partner when he retired from the army.

Lt. Arthur S. Cowan, president of the court martial, announced the verdict was based on the 20th article of war, instead of the more drastic 30th, which would have dismissed the army if mandatory on conviction. Giffin was tried under both articles.

THE ORCHESTRA of the Florida Baptist Children's Home, at Arredondo, shown above, will present a program at the First Baptist Church here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. T. M. Johns, superintendent of the home, will be in charge.

MEMOIRS OF MY EUROPEAN TRIP

By ESTHER LOUISE HUGHIE

June 18, 1937. A party of five teachers sailed from New York City on the S. S. "Arcturion" to visit eight European countries. Dr. Marion J. Giffin, a teacher of English at Florida State College for Women, was our director.

The port was crowded with people coming to their friends and relatives on deck. The ship was filled with colored people shown from the ship to the people on the pier. It was a very colorful sight. I was glad that my friends and relatives were not there to wish me a safe voyage.

On the 19th, we docked at Belfast. At 10 A. M. we had a party of hours. Several Lakeview teachers and I took the train to the city where I telephoned Mr. Frank Evans, a son of a friend of Lakeview. He invited us to a short time and took us to Belfast, a suburb of Belfast and Belfast, a beach resort.

We saw the graveyard in which Mr. Evans' wife lay buried. We rode a very high hill called Pows Mill. The Indians traded the land to a powder horn. We went to see Mr. Evans' dye laboratory in East Boston. After this we took us to the ship, and we left from Boston around 2 P. M. The second night out at midnight we set our watches ahead sixty minutes. We did this for six nights and then for two nights we set them ahead thirty minutes. The Transylvania is a Scotch ship and the majority of the helms is Scotch. Our waiter was very pleasant and accommodating, but his English was very hard to understand. Every morning at ten o'clock, breakfast with cracker was served on deck. At

Joe Pinder Hurls One-Hit Game To Blank Reds 8 To 0

Lookout Batters Blast Out Triple, 3 Doubles

Bob Pitman Leads Hitting Attack While Hudson And Stith Star On Defense; Belknap Strikes Out 8 Locals

Behind the one-hit hurling of Joe Pinder, the Lookouts took the more step in their "out of the cellar" drive last night by blanking the DeLand Reds by a score of 8 to 0.

Before a crowd of upwards of 500 baseball enthusiasts, the local team operated perfectly on the defense and at the plate. The game was featured by a three base out by Verner, two double baggers by Schmidt and a two base hit by Pitman.

Pitman led the hitting attack with four safes, including the double, in five trips to the plate. He also led in two runs and batted two assists. Hudson, playing first base, turned in an excellent defensive game, handling a total of 11 putouts. Stith, second turned in another good performance on the defense handling 7 putouts and six assists. He was also the key man in the two double plays executed by the Lookouts.

Charlie Bradshaw, entertained the boys with a cork surprise for their splendid performance. Bradshaw has just returned from a trip North.

The Lookouts began the evening with a muller in the first, one and pushed another across in the third. The Lookouts, however, trumped on Belknap in the fourth for three runs and 4 in the eighth for three more.

FIRST INNING. Newell was safe on an error by Stith and went to second on a sacrifice by Rutledge. Lynette, Pinder and Harry Rice hit a high fly to Verner, right field to end the inning.

Moore failed but Schmidt hit a double down the left base and Hudson went out on an infield hit to advance Schmidt to third and he scored on a ground ball by Pitman, who was thrown out attempting to steal a run.

SECOND INNING. Jackson walked and Jones went out on a high fly to Moore in left field. Shimer hit to D'Amico, who threw to second to get Lynette. The relay to first got Stith for the first double play and the end of the inning.

Adz, Verner and Stith were fanned in order by Belknap and the inning ended.

THIRD INNING. Pinder hit Pinder who threw out on a first. Belknap fanned out Hudson and Newell got the bases on by safety in a line to cover that stop. Adz threw in on a low fly, attempting to steal second.

Pinder was safe on an error by Shimer. DeRamus was safe on a fielder's choice by Pinder, who was forced at second. Moore walked and both runners advanced on a pass of ball by catcher Jackson. Schmidt filed out to right field but DeRamus tagged up and crossed the plate for the Lookouts, second put Moore advanced to third but he did not score. Hudson filed out to first.

FOURTH INNING. Belknap fanned out Pinder, Stith and Lynette. Pinder was fanned out by Belknap and Jackson was fanned out by Belknap. Belknap struck out Verner on a high fly to right field.

FIFTH INNING. Jones went out to Stith in right. Shimer walked and Pinder hit to Pinder who threw to second to get Lynette. The relay to first got Hudson for the first double and the end of the inning.

SIXTH INNING. Belknap fanned out Hudson and Newell. Belknap hit to Pinder who threw to second to get Lynette. The relay to first got Stith for the first double play and the end of the inning.

EIGHTH INNING. Belknap fanned out Pinder, Stith and Lynette. Pinder was fanned out by Belknap and Jackson was fanned out by Belknap. Belknap struck out Verner on a high fly to right field.

NINTH INNING. Belknap fanned out Pinder, Stith and Lynette. Pinder was fanned out by Belknap and Jackson was fanned out by Belknap. Belknap struck out Verner on a high fly to right field.

Florida Farm Income Is Lower Than 1937

Cellarites To Seek Another Victory In Drive To Top

Florida farm income is lower than in 1937, according to a report from the Florida Department of Agriculture.

The report indicates that the decline in farm income is due to a combination of factors, including a decrease in the price of agricultural products and a reduction in the amount of land planted.

Despite these challenges, the Department of Agriculture is optimistic about the future of the state's farm industry and is working to implement various programs to help farmers improve their income.

Tribunal Affirms Life Sentences For Two Farmers

TALLAHASSEE, July 23.—(AP)—The Supreme Court affirmed yesterday the life sentences of two Hamilton county farmers for killing a farm worker on July 28, 1935.

Wilson Stalnaker and J. T. Stalnaker, 67, were sentenced after a trial jury convicted them of the first degree murder of W. Harris. The jury recommended life.

Stalnaker showed Harris was in an argument with Stalnaker and Hammock over dividend farm products.

Hammock Praytor, a third defendant, was convicted of manslaughter but the Supreme Court reversed this verdict on the ground there was no evidence connecting him with Harris' death.

In another case, the court reversed the verdict obtained by H. Stalnaker against Robert Kloopf, Tallahassee hotel operator.

The circuit court clerk received a writ for $25,000, charged as was unlawfully arrested Kloopf's hotel, and that certain effects, which he valued at $1250, were held by Kloopf.

Stalnaker appealed here when he was in the lower court. The Supreme Court said there was no evidence that Kloopf or the hotel employes acted in a lawful manner.

Stalnaker and eighty-nine other men were completed in the fall of 1935 with possession of the state.

Stalnaker had in the production of 1935 with 1,100,000 bushels of cotton.

GENERAL DISTRIBUTION OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES BY MOTORTRUCKS FROM THE SANFORD STATE FARMERS' WHOLESALE MARKET, SANFORD, FLORIDA

THE STATE FARMERS' WHOLESALE MARKET at Sanford has been designated as a typical truckers' market, according to above map prepared for nationwide use by the United States Department of Agriculture, which shows that produce gathered at the Sanford Market during the past season was carried over highways for hundreds of miles to tropical sale in twenty-nine states and Canadian provinces. Over fifty varieties of fruits and vegetables, equivalent to 1200 carloads, were handled from the one market during the 1935-36 shipping season, and an expansion program now underway will result in much larger facilities. The map is reproduced by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Oil Spot May Be Clue To Missing Hawaii Clipper

Army Transport Ship Sights Slick On Regular Route Of Huge Flying Boat

No Wreckage Of Plane Is Found

Coating On Ocean Is Located 500 Miles From Destination

SAN FRANCISCO July 30.—(AP)—The Pan American Airways officials said today that they considered the finding of the oil patch on the Guam to Manila course of missing Hawaii clipper "significant but not conclusive."
The search will continue, the company said.

MANILA, July 30.—(AP)—The Army transport Meigs today found a large patch of oil on the surface of the Pacific Ocean, indicating the missing Hawaii clipper may have plunged into sea 500 miles from Manila.

The Meigs made no mention of sighting any wreckage from the luxurious flying boat which disappeared with 16 men on a flight from Guam to Manila Friday (Thursday night Pacific time).

Two lifeboats were put out by the transport to search for tell-tale oil slick but were recalled at nightfall.

Her searchlights played on the surrounding sea but her captain said he did not expect much could be accomplished before daylight.

The Meigs said the coating of heavy oil was about 1500 feet in circumference, which experts said was "quite large" for a plane the size of the clipper. But marine men were unable to suggest any other source for the slick, an oil coating such as a plane leaves on the surface when sinking.

The slick was found directly on the course of the 24-ton flying boat. It was sighted approximately 500 miles west, southwest of the position last reported by the clipper.

Moonshiners Tell Judge R.W. Ware Of Finding Still

"Tesuli, Judge, we ain't moonshiners; we just happened to come across that old still and we was thirty for a drink and decided to make a little.

John Burk and James Brown, negroes, stood before County Judge R. W. Ware.

"How did you happen to find the still?" Judge Ware asked.

"Well, we's just foolin' around the woods and just happened to see it, and it looked like nobody owned it, so we just naturally took it over."

"So you're not moonshiners?" the Judge continued.

"No sir," was the emphatic answer in unison.

"Well, where did you learn to make moonshine?"

"Oh, we learned up in Georgia."

"By the way, where are you from?" the Judge asked.

"West Florida," was the answer.

"How long have you lived there?" the Judge was relentless.

"Oh, about 40 years."

"And you learned to make moonshine in Georgia?"

"Tesuli, we was passing through there once and a friend of ours showed us how to make it."

"Sixty dollars and costs of six months in the County Jail," declared Judge Ware as he sentenced the two negroes who were moonshiners to serve terms in the jail and new roads to Orlando by County Clerk Williams, of Sheriff G. M. Roper's office.

Refusal To Respect NLRB Orders Hinted

AFOL Denounces Decision In Favor Of CIO Affiliate

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(AP)—A spokesman for the American Federation of Labor hinted at open warfare with the National Labor Relations Board and possible refusal to respect board orders.

In a statement denouncing a board order issued yesterday invalidating an A. F. of L. closed shop contract for a small group of skilled craft unionists in an Indiana auto parts plant, Joseph Padway, A. F. of L. general counsel, declared:

"One should not be amazed to find that in such a situation the order of the board will not be respected by employees whose guaranteed rights are trampled upon through biased decrees, thus encouraging war between the board and free American workers."

"There are some rights which workers legally possess," he added, "and these rights are paramount to the edicts of the National Labor Relations Board."
"The American worker is not yet prepared to submit to enslavement by bureaucratic decree."

The order which drew the rebuke from Padway was based on a board finding that the Serrick Corporation of Muncie, Ind., had helped the A. F. of L. obtain membership among the skilled tool room employees and had refused to bargain with the rival United Auto Workers Union, a CIO affiliate.

The board held that the CIO union represented a majority of the 670 workers in the whole plant, directed the company to bargain with it, and declared void the A. F. of L. contract negotiated by the Machinists' union.

Dr. Stanley Erwin Reports Executive Is Being Treated For Circulatory Upset

JACKSONVILLE, July 30.—(AP) Dr. Stanley Erwin said today that Gov. Fred P. Cone is in St. Vincent's Hospital here for treatment of what he described as a "mild circulatory upset."

"There is no occasion for alarm," said Dr. Erwin, the Governor's personal physician, "and he is in the hospital for observation." The Governor left his office at Tallahassee ten days ago for a "vacation" and associates have declined to reveal his whereabouts.

Dr. Erwin confirmed the Governor's presence at the hospital only after it had been disclosed from another source. He indicated the Governor had been taken to the hospital within the past few days but didn't specify the exact time.

The Governor, he disclosed, had been secluded in a hotel here for a week before going to the hospital. He said the Governor's hospitalization was for convenience in his treatment and not because of the seriousness of his condition.

"He's doing very nicely at this time," Dr. Erwin declared. He emphasized it was essential that the governor be kept quiet and not be disturbed by telephone calls or visitors.

Branch Cone, the Governor's brother and secretary, announced at Tallahassee yesterday that the Governor isn't in any hospital and he doesn't have any nurse," and said the Governor would be back in his office in a week.

Dr. Erwin said the Governor would be in a hospital here for some time.

Willie Lambkin, Cherokee Indian Is Claimant To Title As Oldest

DELAND, July 30.—(AP)—Florida has in William Lambkin a claimant to the title, oldest living man.

Lambkin, a Cherokee Indian, is listed on the records of the state board of social welfare as 131 years old.

But the aged Cherokee, who lives in the negro section here under the care of a 62-year-old negro woman attendant, has no birth certificate or other records to substantiate his claim.

He was born in Oklahoma Indian Territory in the early 19th century and they didn't bother with birth certificates out there in those days, which leaves his memory as the only record.

"I was born June 1, 1807 as Richard Allen Thomas, Jr.," said Lambkin, "in Oklahoma Indian Territory. My father and mother both were Cherokee except that I think my father was a little bit Italian. I don't know anything about him. He was killed in the Revolutionary War."

"He wasn't sure about what war his father was killed in however, for 'I got the names of all those wars mixed. My memory isn't clear."

"When I was 10," he continued, "we moved to Georgia. I learned to cook and got to be pretty famous. Cooks in those days were paid $150 to $200 a month and that was a lot of money. When I became most famous they nicknamed me Willie Lambkin because the man I worked for was named that. 'I've been called Willie Lambkin ever since.'"

Lambkin said he reached New York the day the war between the states broke out and enlisted on the Union side. He said his mother told him he was 62 when he enlisted, but if he were born in 1807 he would have been 64 when he enlisted.

"My mother was 15 years older than me," he said. "She still was alive when I reached my 100's; then we separated and I haven't heard anything about her since."
