Wastewater Winding Up In Lake Monroe

Sanford Ready To Plug Up Sewage System

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

After four years of jousting with the state, Sanford appears ready to formally concede defeat and sign an agreement committing the city to changing its sewer piping system, thus preventing sewage from draining into Lake Monroe.

Meanwhile the city and DER are working out the details involving a change in the city's sewage treatment methods that if adopted could triple or even quadruple residents' sewer bills.

The city currently dumps treated effluent into Lake Monroe, along with some untreated sewage and storm runoff during flooding conditions. The state Department of Environmental Regulation has been pressuring the city since 1981 to stop the overflow and to change its sewage treatment process to a landspreading technique. The DER has threatened to shut down Sanford's sewer plant if the city does not correct the overflow into the lake by Jan. 1987.

The city's permit to operate its sewer plant expires that month. In addition to the shutdown, the DER could declare a moratorium on sewer hook-ups, effectively bringing construction in the city to a standstill.

The agreement, in the form of a consent order, is scheduled for review today by the Sanford City Commission at 4:30 p.m. in city hall. The city and DER agree to abide by the provisions of the consent order once signed.

In the order, the city admits to discharging untreated sewage and runoff water into the lake and agrees to modify its treatment plant and piping to correct the condition. If the city does not make the change it can be fined up to $10,000 a day for each day the order is violated. In the consent order the DER waives its right to take the city to court regarding the overflow issue until the consent order expires, Dec. 30, 1995. However, if the city has not corrected the problem by then, the DER reserves the right to take legal action against the city.

Sanford has also unofficially capitulated to DER's will and agreed to expand and switch to a landspreading treatment method whereby effluent is sprayed like fertilizer and allowed to filter through the soil. The city and the agency are now working out the details for a temporary operating permit allowing the city time to convert to the technique, said Alex Alexander, director of the DER's Orlando office.

Male Go-Go ... Again

Officials Object To Show, But No Laws Violated

By Tom Giordano
Herald Managing Editor

In April 1982, Sanford police warned management of the then-Molly Magee's restaurant/lounge at 2544 S. Park Drive to discontinue its male burlesque review — for women only — or face being cited for violating the city's laws governing lewd and lascivious behavior.

On Sunday, Sanford police again monitored an all-male review for women only at the same location — now doing business as the Gypsy Cab Company — and except for requiring one of the dancers to change costumes, found the review violated no city ordinances, according to Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett.

Several city officials in 1982 were opposed to the lounge act, and if Mayor Bettye Smith's and Harriett's reaction to the current effort to bring male reviews to Sanford is any indication, the opposition may be even stronger today. The mayor said such activity is unwelcome in Sanford, especially if it violates city ordinances. Harriett also says such activity is inappropriate for Sanford and "isn't conducive to the local lifestyle."

The owner of the Gypsy Cab Company, Lori Hontz, said she considers the male review the lounge featured Sunday a "tastefully done act." She also said she feels that attitudes in the Sanford area have changed since 1982 and that such male reviews are more widely accepted today than a few years ago.

Harriett said he had heard rumors a few weeks ago that such a show was planned, "but we didn't have a time certain." He said when he found out late Saturday that the show was planned for Sunday afternoon, he conferred with his staff and decided to speak with Ms. Hontz Sunday to inform her the show would be monitored. Ms. Hontz said she had no misgivings about police attending the performance.

She also said if police told her the review violated city ordinances, she probably would discontinue the shows. She also said, however, that she was more interested in how customers and the community respond to the show and would plan them, perhaps on a monthly basis, if they generate business ... "and if police and the community have no objection."

One aspect of the 1982 review found objectionable by police was the male dancers bumping and grinding, scantily clad in bikinis or G-strings, up to the women customers and allowing them to tuck tips of dollar bills inside the front and rear of their costumes. They also danced "suggestively," touching customers in the process and that, according to police, also was a violation of city law.

Sunday's male review apparently violated no city ordinances, Harriett said his undercover people reported to him. He said only one dancer was not allowed to perform with the bikini he planned to use because it "was unacceptable." The costume apparently was too skimpy, Harriett said.

If the reaction of the audience at Sunday's performance is any indication, the male review was a smashing success. More than 60 women ranging in age from early 20s to 30s and 40s yelled, screamed, applauded and otherwise eagerly encouraged the performers to "give us more."

Without polling the female patrons, it was difficult to tell how many might have been from Sanford, but when the emcee asked if there were any Sanfordites in the audience, there was thunderous applause, foot-stomping, table-pounding and screaming.

The women paid a $5 admission charge for Release Rumored For 1 Of 7 Hostages

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — An Arabic-speaking man telephoned two Western news agencies to say one of seven Americans missing in Lebanon had been freed but neither U.S. officials nor the man's family could confirm the report.

The man, who refused to give his name, said Sunday the Rev. Benjamin Weir, 61, was freed Saturday by Islamic Jihad. Weir, a Presbyterian minister and longtime Beirut resident, was abducted outside his home on May 8, 1984.

Islamic Jihad — Arabic for Holy War — is believed to be a code word for a loosely connected network of militant Shiite Moslems allied with Iran. The group has claimed it is holding seven missing Americans and four Frenchmen.

The hostages are believed to be held near Baalbeck, in the Syrian-controlled Bekaa Valley in eastern Lebanon.

"The Islamic Jihad organization announces the release of American Father Benjamin Weir last night," the caller was quoted as saying in the phone calls to two Western news agencies in mostly Moslem west Beirut.

"We have no information about this," a U.S. Embassy spokesman said. "But we are checking."

In Berkeley, Calif., a spokeswoman for Weir's family said they had received no word and were awaiting information from the White House and State Department.

Susan Weir, one of the couple's four daughters, said, "As more time goes by we're optimistic, just because no one is categorically denying it."

But Weir's sister, Pat Weir of Alameda, Calif., noted that all they had heard were rumors.

"We all try not to get too high on that kind of thing," pointing out that reports of his imminent release have surfaced before.

And Chris Weir, another of Weir's daughters who lives in Berkeley, Calif., said in a television interview that earlier reports that her father was being released prompted the family "to clean the house and pack the bags but then nothing happened."

President Reagan had no comment on the report. The administration has been reluctant to publicly discuss the status of the kidnapped Americans or efforts to secure their release.

White House spokesman Peter Rouselet said, "We have seen the report, but have no confirmation."

Hazardous Waste Firm Tries Again For Transfer Site

By Janie Gnat
Herald Staff Writer

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. That seems to be the motto of a hazardous waste firm that has been scouring Seminole County for a permanent home for its hazardous waste transfer station.

The company, Hazardous Waste Consultants Inc., is scheduled to go before the county Board of Adjustment at a public hearing tonight to request approval of two sites for that transfer station.

The public hearing is scheduled for 6 p.m. in room 120W of the County Services Building, 1101 E. First St.

One site is on an Entzinger Farms addition between Seaboard System Railroad and Old Sanford-Oviedo Road. The other site is on the east line of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and St. Gertrude Street, on the northwest corner of First and Riverview Avenue. Both of those sites are zoned industrial.

The firm withdrew a request for an appeal from the Seminole County Commission Sept. 10, because of overwhelming public opposition to a proposed site on Silver Lake Road southeast of Sanford.

Pat Vindett, vice president and manager of the firm, told commissioners media coverage was responsible for the citizens' concerns about contamination of groundwater and that her company would continue to look for a permanent

SR 419 To Be Closed

State Road 419 from U.S. Highway 17-92 to State Road 434 near Winter Springs will be closed for six months beginning today, said State Department of Transportation spokesman Micheal Beha.

Lanes will be widened by two-feet and paved shoulders added along the 2.6-mile stretch in Seminole County, he said.

Hubbard Construction Co. of Orlando is the contractor for the $1,655,962 project.

Next Move Is Thatcher's In Spy War

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, locked in a battle of wills with the Kremlin, met with two Cabinet ministers to consider a new round of Soviet expulsions in response to Moscow's retaliatory ouster of 25 Britons.

Government sources described her hour-long meeting with Foreign Secretary Sir Geoffrey Howe and Home Secretary Douglas Hurd late Sunday as "urgent." They said that, during the discussions, Thatcher reached a decision on the next move in a spy war triggered by the defection of Soviet master spy Oleg Gordievski.

The sources said Britain's next move probably would be announced today before Thatcher leaves on a five-day Mideast trip.

The government would not comment on what decision was reached but some sources, noting the presence of Hurd, who is in charge of national security, said Thatcher was leaning toward further expulsions.

Responding to disclosures by Gordievski, Britain Thursday ordered the expulsion of 25 Soviets and accused them of spying. Moscow responded Saturday by ordering the expulsions of 25 Britons — a move branded "vindictive" and "malicious" by British officials.

News reports said Thatcher's government had readied a second "hit list" of Soviet spies in case of retaliation but officially the Foreign Office said no such list was prepared.

Diplomats warned further expulsions could trigger the worst crisis in Anglo-Soviet relations in many years and called it a battle of wills between Thatcher and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

"It's the man with the teeth of iron against the Iron Lady," said one NATO diplomat.

Thatcher also had the option to hit back by cutting the 46-member ceiling for Soviet diplomatic staff in London, restricting travel privileges of Soviet officials, scrapping cultural links or cutting back technical missions, sources said.

Sources said Gordievski, whose defection was described as a major coup for western intelligence, named more than 25 KGB agents operating in Britain but that the government, seeking to contain Soviet reaction, chose not to expel them all. Sources estimated the Soviets have about 70 KGB agents in Britain.

Bar Owner Wants $50,000 For Fish Story

WINTER, Wis. (UPI) — Scott Pettit may have the state's biggest fish story, but he wants $50,000 to tell it.

Pettit's claim that he owns the world's largest muskie has folks in this tiny northwestern Wisconsin town talking. Most local anglers are dubious.

"I'm not giving out any information. You make your own decisions," said Pettit, the owner of the Big Musky Bar and Museum. "When I tell the story it'll be worth $50,000."

A 6-foot long muskie — or a reasonable facsimile — hangs on the back wall of the bar. It has a 3 1/4-inch girth and supposedly weighs 105 pounds.

If it's real, it easily beats the world-record muskellunge — 69 pounds, 15 ounces — caught in the St. Lawrence River. If it's a hoax, it wouldn't be the first in this part of fishing country.

Pettit wouldn't allow the fish to be photographed, but several local anglers have seen it.

"It's a hoax," said Bob Kutz, director of the National Freshwater Fishing Hall of Fame at Hayward, Wis. "If you believe that, I've got a bridge to sell you."

Lynn Thompson, a game warden for the Department of Natural Resources, described Pettit's fish as an obvious fake.

"Look at the head," he said. "It isn't a muskie head. It looks like a trout."

"We are checking it out closer, though," he added.

Derailed Train Spills Sulfuric Acid In River

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Workers spread lime and built dams today to contain more than 100,000 gallons of sulfuric acid that spilled into a river from a derailed train, forcing hundreds of evacuations, killing thousands of fish and making the river unsafe for irrigation or recreation.

As much as 300,000 gallons of the acid — described as five times the strength of battery acid — leaked when a 28-car Southern Pacific freight train derailed late Saturday as it approached a bridge spanning the Medina River, about one mile southwest of San Antonio, authorities said.

The more than 300 people who were evacuated because of fumes from the spill spent a second night away from home. Authorities worked to find out how far the spill reached and how much damage had been done to the river.

A high school — about a mile away from the accident site, but located along the river — was ordered closed today.

"If a wind was to come up and blow those acid fumes into the school, there wouldn't be any way they could get the kids out in time," said Lt. Robert Blount of the Bexar County Sheriff's Department.

'Mercy Killer' Commits Suicide?

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — Preliminary autopsy results indicate an elderly doctor facing murder charges in the mercy killing of his longtime patient may have turned a needle on himself, authorities say.

An autopsy on Dr. John Kraal, 76, revealed puncture wounds on his right leg, indicating he probably injected himself with a hypodermic needle, Medical Examiner Dr. Nicholas Forbes said Sunday.

Kraal's death was not officially ruled a suicide, pending results this week of toxicology tests, expected to reveal what drug or drugs he took.

Kraal was charged with second-degree murder Aug. 26 in the death two days earlier of Frederick Wagner, 81, who was injected with a massive insulin overdose in his room at the Penfield Nursing Home.

In a statement to sheriff's deputies, Kraal admitted killing his childhood friend and patient of more than 40 years, saying he could not bear to see Wagner suffer the degenerative effects of Alzheimer's disease.

Troopers Search For Fugitives

HOT SPRINGS, N.C. (UPI) — Hundreds of lawmen with bloodhounds and helicopters scoured Doggett Mountain for two "very dangerous" fugitives wanted for killing a state trooper and believed to be holed up in the rugged Blue Ridge country.

Troopers with shotguns and SWAT teams with high-powered rifles searched isolated farmhouses, and police switchboards lit up with calls from residents who thought they spotted the inmates who escaped the Franklin County, Ark., jail.

But the only trace of the fugitives was a pickup truck found abandoned Saturday on a logging road.

Officers On Trial In Attempt To Assassinate Libya's Khadafy

CAIRO, Egypt (UPI) — A band of "resentful" Libyan army officers are being tried in secret for attempting to assassinate Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy, Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency reported.

In a Cairo-dated dispatch Sunday, the news agency quoted "sources close to developments in Libya" as saying disgruntled officers last week opened fire on Khadafy with pistols but missed.

"Two of his guards suffered serious injuries," the agency said.

It was the second reported move against Khadafy by military officers in a month. The Egyptian newspaper al-Ahram reported an attempt to overthrow Khadafy last month but the report was denied by the Libyan ambassador in Rome.

The Middle East News Agency Sunday said a secret trial had been convened for an unspecified number of officers accused in the latest assassination attempt. It quoted unnamed sources as saying it was not known if the accused were connected with a foreign country.

Anti-Apartheid Strike Called

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI) — White and black clergymen made an illegal call for a daylong strike Oct. 9 to protest apartheid as police reported one of the quietest days in months in South Africa's riot-ravaged black townships.

"Christians, rather than attending the places of their usual employment, should give the day to repentance, mourning and prayer for those sinful aspects of our national life which have led us to the present crisis," the churchmen said in an advertisement published Sunday.

The quarter-page ad, which appeared in the mass-circulation Sunday Times, was signed by 13 church leaders — including Nobel Peace Prize-winner Bishop Desmond Tutu.

The call — which exempted people employed in essential services from joining in the strike — was issued in defiance of emergency regulations that bar anyone from endorsing or proposing politically motivated strikes.

Police said there were no reports of political unrest Sunday.

Miss America Suffered Tragedies

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Miss America 1986 Susan Akin, recalling the death of her little sister and the divorce of her parents, said today winning the crown was a dream she pursued single-mindedly despite personal tragedies since she was 4.

Akin, 21, a blue-eyed blonde from Meridian, Miss., said she had sacrificed much of her social life and a boyfriend in pursuit of the title, which she won Saturday night after being declared the handicappers' favorite.

Smartly dressed in a blue wool long-sleeve dress trimmed with black, black shoes, pearl and gold bracelets and her rhinestone crown, Akin said she was politically conservative, although she said the issues of abortion and premarital sex should be left to the individual and declared her support for sanctions against the South African government.

She said she had never had cosmetic surgery and has nothing in her past to be embarrassed about, "although everybody has skeletons in their closets."

Pledging to work with handicapped children in the Special Olympics, Akin's voice ached with emotion as she recalled the death of her younger sister at the age of 11 from Down's Syndrome.

"She loved me in pageants," Akin said. "I would see her smiling face down there whether I won the crown or came in last place.

"I get emotional because if there's one thing I could change about my life I wish that I could have her today with me."

Akin said the divorce of her parents when she was 13 was traumatic, but both her mother and father have since remarried and, in their case, "it's better to be divorced and happy now."

The 5-foot-9 beauty, who was named Little Miss America in a contest when she was 6, said beauty pageants "have been my life since I was 4 or 5 years old."

"I think pageants are wonderful," she said. "It's not only because I'm Miss America now, it's because it gives me so much. It's helped me grow so much inside."

The University of Mississippi senior, who plans a career in public relations or entertainment, said winning the Miss America crown "has been a dream of mine" because "it's the ultimate. It's so respected by many, many people. I was Little Miss America and I always wanted to be the big Miss America."

Chevy Sprint ER Most Gas-Efficient Car

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chevrolet's Japanese-made Sprint ER, a minicompact with a fuel economy rating of 55 miles per gallon, was ranked by the government Sunday as the most gas-efficient car in the United States.

Only one domestic car — Ford's diesel-powered Escort FS — with a rating of 41 miles per gallon, ranked among the highest-mileage vehicles, according to the annual fuel economy list compiled by the Environmental Protection Agency. The figures are for city driving.

The list is dominated by four models of the Sprint, manufactured for Chevrolet in Japan by Suzuki, and three versions of the Suzuki Forsa. All seven models have 1.0-liter, three-cylinder engines — the only three-cylinder cars sold in the United States.

The top-mileage Sprint ER, which tested at 60 miles per gallon in highway driving, will not be on the market until January. It unseated the Honda Civic Coupe HF as the most gas-efficient car in America, besting the Civic's 1985 rating of 49 mpg in city driving and 54 mpg on the highway and its 1986 rating of 52 mpg in the city and 57 mpg on highways.

The 1986 figures "show that manufacturers continue to improve fuel economy from year to year," the EPA said.

The agency noted that four-cylinder engines continue to dominate the fleet of cars sold in the United States, but the range extends from the three-cylinder Sprint and Forsa to the 12-cylinder Jaguar XJ-S.

The agency also noted a trend toward use of fuel injection systems in place of carburetors.

At the low end of the mileage scale is the Rolls Royce Silver Spur limousine, which tested at only 8 miles per gallon in city driving and 10 miles on the highway, the EPA said.

Using statistics for city driving, high-mileage cars on the EPA list are the Chevrolet Sprint ER, 55 mpg; Honda Civic Coupe HF with a 1.5-liter, four-cylinder engine (feedback fuel system), 52 mpg; Honda Civic Coupe HF with a 1.5-liter, four cylinder engine, 45 mpg; Nissan Sentra, 45 mpg; Chevrolet Sprint, 44 mpg; Suzuki Forsa, 44 mpg.

Also, Chevrolet Sprint Plus with five-speed manual transmission, 44 mpg; Suzuki Forsa V with five-speed manual transmission, 44 mpg; Chevrolet Sprint Plus with automatic transmission, 41 mpg, and Suzuki Forsa V with automatic transmission, 41 mpg.

All cars are gasoline-fueled except the diesel-powered Nissan Sentra and Ford Escort.

Winter Springs Man Resists Arrest, Gets Charged With Eight Offenses

A Winter Springs man who told a female officer no woman was going to remove him from his home and take him to jail was arrested on eight charges.

The charges included batteries on a law enforcement officer.

The officer initially went to 219 S. Moss Road in Winter Springs because neighbors complained of a domestic disturbance, according to a police report.

When the officer knocked on the door to the home, a man answered and said: "What do you want? Do you have a search warrant?" He slammed the door in the officer's face. When the man answered a second time, he had a second man with him. The officer asked if there was a problem. He said there wasn't, though there was a woman yelling in the background. She was crying and the officer asked her if she needed help. She said she did, and the officer stepped inside.

The man grabbed the officer by the arm and told her to get out. The woman inside said the apartment was hers and told the man to shut up and leave the officer alone. The woman told the officer she and her husband were fighting. Meanwhile, the man began yelling at the officer telling her to leave because she did not have a search warrant.

The officer told him to sit down so the problem could be resolved. He swore at the officer, struck several times in the mouth after he made an obscene gesture at a truck driver.

Anthony John Denasi told a sheriff's deputy he and a 15-year-old friend were driving on State Road 434 near State Road 436 when a man in a Chevy pickup began beeping his horn at them. Denasi said he and his passenger "flipped a bird" at the man who then tried to run them off the road. Denasi said he pulled his vehicle in front of the truck and it stopped. He told the deputy a man got of the truck and walked to his vehicle. Denasi said the man opened the door of the vehicle and struck him several times in the mouth.

Deputies reported they have the name and age of a 32-year-old suspect.

PRIVATE EYE INVESTIGATED

A private investigator and a female companion were arrested on drug charges after Sanford police raided their home.

Sanford officers with a warrant searched an apartment at 110 W. Airport Blvd. Friday at 10:17 p.m., according to Police Chief Steve Harriet. Harriet said the search by the six officers was the end of a month-long investigation by his department.

The officers reported finding triangle-shaped plastic packets containing cocaine and plastic bags containing marijuana.

Arrested and charged Friday with possession of cocaine, possession of more than 20 grams of marijuana and possession with the intent to distribute were William Patrick Foster, 42, and Barbra Jean Robare, 20.

Each was released on $8,000 bond pending a court appearance.

SMOKE DETECTOR

An Altamonte Springs man was arrested after a deputy smelled marijuana odor coming from his vehicle.

According to a deputy's report, he was on routine patrol when he saw a truck parked in a wooded area. The deputy smelled marijuana then arrested and charged the driver with possession of less than 20 grams of the drug.

Released on $500 bond was James Monroe Holton, 21, of 361 E. Notre Dame, Altamonte Springs.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS

A $200 rifle was stolen from the home of Jack Edward Spillane, 46, of 496 Ester Lane, Altamonte Springs, between Sunday and Tuesday, a sheriff's report said.

A video recorder and tapes were among $1,400 worth of items stolen from the home of Alonzo Montgomery, 24, of 770 Franklin St., Altamonte Springs, on Tuesday, deputies reported. And at 763 Franklin St., H. Lin Palmer, 40, reported the loss of $200 cash and about $500 worth of other items on Tuesday.

Longwood Considers 45-Day Moratorium On Development

Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

An ordinance setting a 45-day moratorium on development in Longwood will be up for preliminary approval at the next meeting of the city commission, which has been changed from Monday to Tuesday night because of the Jewish New Year holiday Monday.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at city hall, 175 W. Warren Ave.

The moratorium on applications for land use changes, and requests such as variances, site plan reviews, annexations, and subdivision plat development was proposed by City Administrator Greg Manning at the Sept. 9 meeting.

Manning said the ban would give the city staff an opportunity to catch up on processing applications already received before the ban goes into effect and allow City Planner Chris Nagle more time to update the city's land use plan.

Also on the agenda for Monday night:

- A public hearing on a conditional use request submitted by Mark Scime for Courtesy Pontiac to operate an automobile dealership on a 15-acre parcel located between U.S. Highway 17-92, Florida Avenue, Highland Street and Longdale Avenue and zoned C-3 general commercial.

- A public hearing on an ordinance prohibiting commercial vehicles and trucks exceeding 5,000 pounds grossweight from traveling resdential roads and streets. The penalty for violating the proposed ordinance would be a fine of up to $250, imprisonment for not more than 30 days or both. Exceptions to the ban would be emergency vehicles, vehicles making local pickups and deliveries, and trucks such as garbage vehicles, with prior written permission from the city.

- Preliminary action on an ordinance authorizing the sale of surplus city property located on Longwood/Lake Mary Road. The 3.75 acres was once used as a city dump, but the city now has no use for it. A public hearing will be set for Oct. 14 if approved.

- Review of a site plan submitted by Chevron USA, Inc. to build a Chevron USA Maxi Mart on the northwest corner of County Road 427 and State Road 434.

- Review of a site plan submitted by owner/developer Robert Floren for Quality Water Systems office and warehouse on Lot 14, Florida Central Commerce Park. The property is zoned I-2 Industrial.

- City Attorney Gerald Korman's report on the proposed vacating and abandoning of that portion of East Warren Avenue lying west of the Seaboard Coastline Railroad and east of County Road 427. The action would be necessary if the property is to be declared surplus and sold as has been proposed. The unused right-of-way is the municipal parking lot.

$2.5 Million Federal Grant Possibility Has Seminole Making Spending Plans

Seminole County may receive $1.5 million to $2.5 million from the federal government under the federal Community Development Block Grant Entitlement Program. The funds are to be used for public service projects.

Although the money wouldn't be available until late 1986, if the county qualifies and is accepted for the program, plans are already being made to find the best ways to utilize the funds, said Tony VanDerworp, county planning director.

"Any project that benefits low to moderate income people is an acceptable project," under the program, VanDerworp said. Projects should constitute a public service or increase public safety such as community centers, street lighting, and drainage, he said.

Exactly how much the county gets depends on how much the federal government allots the program and how many counties qualify for the funds, VanDerworp said. Seminole County had applied for discretionary funds under the program in the past but never qualified, in part because the county had fewer than 200,000 residents.

VanDerworp said the county has over 200,000 residents according to the latest census figures. In addition to population the discretionary funds are also awarded "based on the age of housing in the area and the number of low to moderate income people in the area."

Vanderworp said. "It is almost impossible for cities to get the funds by themselves."

For that reason, the county's seven cities signed an interlocal agreement stating that they would not seek block grant funds on their own but would work with the county to get and distribute funds.

Toward that end, VanDerworp said a technical committee will be composed to act as a community citizens advisory committee, to make and receive suggestions on project ideas and to prioritize projects. That committee will recommend projects to the county commission for final approval, VanDerworp said.

Explicit Rock Lyrics Spur Call For Warnings On Records, Tapes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Years ago, it was Elvis' pelvis and the Beatles' hair that had parents concerned. Today, the big fear is rock lyrics that deal explicitly with sex, drugs, alcohol, violence and the occult.

Two organizations, one of them comprised of well-connected Washington wives, have set out to relieve the concern by demanding that records and tapes carry warning labels if they include songs judged to be objectionable.

"There's no other consumer product where you have to buy it before you find it's objectionable to you," said Ann Kahn, president of the National Parent Teachers Association, one of the groups pushing for the labels.

That effort, however, does not strike a chord with some in the music industry who believe the groups are engaged in nothing more than censorship.

"First of all, I don't disagree with the protection of children. This patently will not protect children. The net result is censorship," says rock musician Frank Zappa. "If you think rock 'n' roll is ugly ... nobody is making you buy it."

The debate moves to Congress Thursday when the Senate Commerce Committee holds a hearing on so-called "porn rock." No legislation is pending or currently contemplated.

Tipper Gore, wife of Sen. Albert Gore Jr., D-Tenn., a member of the Commerce Committee, says she became aware of the nature of some rock lyrics after buying Prince's smash-hit "Purple Rain" album for her daughter, then 11.

"She liked it. I liked it and I didn't know anything about Prince. We listened to it in the living room," she said. "Then we got to "Darling Nikki"

The song includes the lyrics: "I knew a girl named Nikki, I guess you could say she was a sex fiend. I met her in a hotel lobby masturbating with a magazine."

"I began to wonder what was going on," said Gore, 37, the mother of four.

She later shared her feelings with her friend Susan Baker, wife of Treasury Secretary James Baker, who, it turned out, had had a similar experience with her daughter.

Last spring, the two women and others started the Parents Music Resource Center, joining the National PTA in its effort to label offensive music.

Among the songs that have drawn the PMRC's ire are Judas Priest's "Eat Me Alive," about oral sex, Motley's "Live Wire," about sex and violence, and Prince's "Sister," about incest.

Although their demands have differed somewhat, the PMRC and PTA recently joined forces on three points. First they want an "R" label on records and tapes with lyrics that include explicit sexual language, violence, profanity or that deal with the occult or glorify drugs or alcohol.

They want a record industry panel to set the standards for determining what records need to be labeled and then want the individual record companies to make the decisions based on that standard.

Finally, they want the lyrics of all labeled records available to the consumer before they buy a record or a tape.

Thus far, 24 companies representing more than 80 percent of record and tape sales nationally have agreed to use a warning label that reads "Parental Guidance: Explicit Lyrics."

The decision to use the label, however, is left up to the standards of the individual company. A spokeswoman for the Recording Industry Association of America, which developed the label, says the group intends to go no further.

"We've done what we're going to do. The industry has made a responsible move. Parental Guidance is what they asked for," said Trish Helmers, the RIAA's director of public relations.

"They asked for a tool. We have given them that tool. 'R' stands for restricted and there will be no restrictions," Helmers said.

But Gore complains that a "PG" label "connotes mildness."

"We're not talking innuendo," said Gore, who claims her group has received thousands of letters of support.

Helmers also says the demand for making lyrics available does not account for the logistical realities of the music industry. Lyrics are sometimes changed at the last minute and in many cases record companies don't own the rights to the lyrics.

Zappa, scheduled to testify on the Senate hearing, takes a more hard-line view.

He claims the RIAA and the companies have agreed to the "PG" label because major legislation on home taping, a bill the industry wants, is pending on Capitol Hill.

"It's extortion pure and simple," says Zappa, who accused some PMRC members of being "very arrogant about what their husbands can do to an entire industry."

REWARD

Nelson & Company, Inc. and the City of Oviedo are offering a cash reward of $1,250.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the brutal attack on Charles "Chuck" Collins, Nelson & Co. Night Watchman, that occurred on Thursday, Sept. 12, 1985.

Anyone having information relative to this case may contact Detective Mars and/or the Oviedo Police Department at 365-5101, or if you wish to remain anonymous, contact CRIMELINE at 849-2482.

Declining Poverty Rate

President Reagan once commented that after "Reaganomics" started working, his critics stopped calling it Reaganomics. Quite true. So don't expect the White House to get much credit in liberal circles for the fact that the nation last year experienced its first significant decline in the poverty rate in nearly a decade.

Liberals already are protesting that President Reagan's policies had nothing to do with the fact that 1.8 million Americans recently managed to climb above the poverty level. To admit that Mr. Reagan's pro-private enterprise philosophy had anything to do with the economic good news would be political bad news for the tax-and-spend liberals.

First, the facts: Gordon W. Green Jr., the man in charge of socioeconomic statistics for the Census Bureau, said that "economic recovery and (the reduced level of) inflation are important factors in the continuing decline of poverty."

President Reagan hailed the fact that the poverty rate had declined nearly one percentage point to 14.4 percent as "news for which every American can be thankful. I believe these numbers are further proof that the greatest enemy of poverty is the free enterprise system," Mr. Reagan said.

But next, we hear from the nay-sayers: "There is little reason to believe this will be more than a one-year phenomenon," said Robert Greenstein, head of a Washington-based think tank.

Christopher Matthews, an aide to House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, said: "The bottom line is that there are more people in poverty today than before this (Reagan) crowd took office."

In other words, Mr. Reagan's critics are telling us not to be fooled even if we all become wealthy under Reaganomics, that the dollars in our pockets are illusory and even detrimental.

President Reagan's economic policies, no matter how much they benefit the public, will never be acknowledged as anything but disaster by his more dedicated critics. They are firmly committed to the precept that the only way to help the poor is through increased taxation and bigger federal budgets.

Fortunately, most Americans can read economic facts better than Speaker O'Neill and his like-minded advocates of the thoroughly discredited "tax-and-spend" experiments of some previous administrations.

The latest Gallup Poll indicates that 65 percent of Americans approve of President Reagan's job performance. Not since the "honeymoon" period just after his inauguration has the president received a significantly higher public approval rating.

Mr. Reagan's high public rating tops those received by President Richard Nixon, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Harry Truman at this point in their tenures.

It is reasonable to believe that a high percentage of the 1.8 million Americans who have recently climbed above the poverty level also approve of the president's performance.

They might even go so far as to praise Reaganomics.

Hold It, That's Not Reagan They Interviewed

In the approach to the Summit Conference, there is a big propaganda battle going on between Ronald Reagan and the Soviet Union's General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev. It's an interesting competition, with the press playing a leading role.

Suppose I told you that the No. 1 news magazine in America — Time — had just run an exclusive interview with Reagan. Time precedes the interview with a portrait of Reagan. He has — we are told — "naturally controlled energy." Reagan, Time tells us, "dominates a meeting with three extraordinary tools." What are Reagan's remarkable tools? Why, his eyes, his hands and his voice.

His eyes — oh, his eyes. They will "lock into a listener and not let go until the listener gives some sign of acknowledgment, agreement — or flinches." What else about those eyes? They "are neither harsh nor kind. They are big and strong, and sometimes quick, too."

How about Reagan's hands? They "have a variety of specific functions." (Stop the presses!) The right one holds his glasses. But "the left hand talks." It can "lecture" or "declaim" or "thump ... karate style" — but "always quite gently." (A gentle karate chop?)

And his voice? It is "deep, but also quite soft ... melodious." But sometimes, "without warning, his voice can cut across the room ... not angry or bullying, just stronger than any other sound in the room."

Reagan! What a man! Put it all together: "Occasionally the eyes, the hands, and the voice reach peak power at the same time, and then it is clear why this man is president."

Oops, sorry. That should read "general secretary" — not "president." All of the above is from Time's cover story on Gorbachev, not Reagan. Time submitted six puff questions in writing in advance to Gorbachev — a practice almost never offered to American politicians. Then five top Time journalists spent two hours talking to this remarkable leader who actually has eyes, hands and voice. Their questions make a slow-pitch softball pitcher look like Dwight Gooden.

Here are some of them: What are your impressions of President Reagan? Do U.S. anti-satellite testing and spy-dust charges damage the summit? Do you enjoy mingling with workers? Are people afraid of you? Only one question — about why the Soviet Union is taking an all-or-nothing position on space weapons — even half-challenges Gorbachev.

Time did not ask a question about Afghanistan, and why the Soviets are committing genocide there — a million people have already been killed. They did not ask about human rights in the Soviet Union, did not ask about the health of Andrei Sakharov or Anatoly Scharansky. Time did not ask why the Soviets feel it is all right for them to have space weapons, but not us. Time did not ask about the Soviet repression of Poland. They did not ask why communism has lost its appeal around the world.

Time's editors did not even have the sense of decency to laugh out loud when Gorbachev — who came to power as the protégé of former KGB chief Andropov — said that his policies "have led to a ... flowering of our democracy." They did not laugh when Gorbachev sorrowfully noted a global condition where "hundreds of millions of people go hungry" — including those in Afghanistan whose food supply is being scorched by the Soviet military.

Would Time interview Reagan without challenging him about his problems — South Africa, deficits, civil rights?

How To Lure A Banker

WASHINGTON (NEA) — For commercial banks seeking to escape what they perceive as restrictive laws or punitive taxes in their home states, Delaware offers a package of financial inducements matched by few other jurisdictions.

In the early 1980s, then-Gov. Pierre S. "Pete" du Pont IV launched an aggressive campaign to establish Delaware as the "Luxembourg of the United States" — a reference to the tiny European nation that serves as a tax haven for wealthy individuals and corporations.

In an extraordinary action, du Pont allowed lawyers representing two of New York's largest banks, Morgan Guaranty Trust and Chase Manhattan, to draft the statute designed to lure banks to Delaware.

Enacted into law without any written analysis on the part of Delaware's bank regulatory officials, the statute gives Delaware banks the power to impose unlimited interest rates, raise those rates retroactively and even foreclose on a home if its owner defaults on credit card debts.

In the four years since the law was passed, a half-dozen of New York's biggest banks (Citibank, Chase Manhattan, Morgan Guaranty, Chemical, Manufacturers Hanover and Bank of New York) have relocated part of their operations to Delaware.

Three banks apiece from neighboring Pennsylvania and Maryland also have moved some of their facilities to Delaware — but the biggest prize for the state would have been the entire headquarters operation of Morgan Guaranty, the country's fifth largest bank.

Unhappy about New York's combined city-state tax rate of 25.8 percent, Morgan Guaranty purchased 150 acres in Delaware and announced that it was "very seriously" considering a move to that state, where the tax rate on bank profits is only 2.7 percent.

Earlier this year, however, New York amended its law to reduce the tax rate to 18 percent — and Morgan Guaranty recently abandoned its plans to move.

That wasn't the first time that a bank threatened to move and secured sympathetic laws in its home state. In 1982, two of the largest banks in the state of Washington (Seattle First National and Rainier National) both publicly proclaimed their interest in moving their credit card operations to Rapid City, S.D.

Why Hadn't They Heard Of Spy Dust?

By Jack Anderson and Dale van Atta

WASHINGTON — Apparently the KGB has been sprinkling "spy dust" on diplomats, dissidents and other suspicious characters for years. As far back as 1959, an infernal chemical was reportedly used to track one of the CIA's most valuable "moles" inside Soviet intelligence.

The story of how he was caught was brought to the CIA by a KGB defector in 1964. Yet, Adm. Stansfield Turner, director of the CIA from 1977 to 1981, said he'd never heard of "spy dust." Neither had Malcolm Toon, who was U.S. ambassador in Moscow from 1976 until 1979.

While they were kept in the dark, the chemical dust was used to trace

WILLIAM RUSHER

Gorbachev The Great

The journalistic run-up to the Reagan-Gorbachev summit in Geneva on Nov. 19 has begun, and the American public had better fasten its seat belt. If preliminary comments are any indication, we are about to be subjected to a torrential barrage of favorable publicity concerning Mikhail Gorbachev (and, in due course, concerning his wife), coupled with veiled hints that Mr. Reagan, in comparison, looks old and tired, and capped, when it's all over, by declarations that Gorbachev adroitly cleaned Reagan's clock.

The pro-Gorbachev line in the liberal media has been developing ever since he took over as general secretary of the Soviet Communist Party on March 11, 1985. His three immediate predecessors all looked as if they had been recruited from an old folks' home, and the last two, Andropov and Chernenko, each assumed power only when he manifestly already had one foot in the grave. But the Politburo was bound to run out of acceptable septuagenarians sooner or later, and when it did Gorbachev (who is only 54) inevitably looked good by comparison. He smiles readily, favors a Western-style fedora, and has a wife who is reasonably trim and dresses, at least by Soviet standards, almost modishly.

That, as any student of our liberal media could have predicted, was all they needed. This slightly overweight Communist bureaucrat with the unsightly birthmark on his bald head has blazed forth as a superstar: a cross between Clark Gable and Laurence Olivier, with the public relations skills of P.T. Barnum. And mind you, this is only September.

It doesn't take a genius to figure out who is being set up to take a fall.

The liberal media are sick unto death of hearing Mr. Reagan described as "the Great Communicator," not to mention being forced to acknowledge him as the most popular president of modern times. Their eagerness to treat Gorbachev as a challenger in the same league is some measure of how profound their suffering has been.

What, precisely, is the evidence for Gorbachev's alleged brilliance as a "great communicator"? Both Serge Schmemmann, a New York Times reporter in Moscow, and Tom Wicker on the Times' op-ed page specify the same master strokes:

1. Gorbachev granted an interview to the editors of Time — a feat of public relations roughly as difficult as it would be for Garbo to find a reporter ready to listen to something she had to say. According to Schmemmann, Gorbachev used this golden opportunity to accuse "Washington of making matters worse while the Russians were trying to act with 'restraint'" — a tired old scenario that has been the centerpiece of Soviet global propaganda for 40 years.

2. Gorbachev also granted an interview to eight U.S. senators, led by Democratic Minority Leader Robert Byrd, who were in Moscow during the congressional recess to try to engage in a little summit foreplay on behalf of Congress. To the senators Gorbachev hinted that the Soviets might offer "radical proposals" to reduce nuclear missiles at the Geneva arms talks if only Mr. Reagan would abandon "the militarization of space" (i.e., Star Shield). Might, might. If Gorbachev has something specific to propose, Mr. Reagan will gladly listen — and make a few proposals of his own in return.

DON GRAFF

More Than Welfare

We all know about Social Security — or certainly should. One way or another, the national old-age insurance program eventually touches almost every American.

Most of us also have at least heard about Medicare, Medicaid, the Job Corps, Head Start, the Veterans Administration, public housing, food stamps and the school milk program.

All are part of this country's vast system of social programs. It is a system that, directly or indirectly, affects the daily lives of most Americans. For the least-advantaged in our society, it provides a safety net that keeps them from falling out of that society entirely.

The basics of the system have been in place now for a half century, high time for review in the view of some thoughtful Americans.

One is Alan Pifer. He is chairman of the Project on the Federal Social Role, an ambitious re-examination of the system's overall design, purpose and impact in light of today's needs and tomorrow's challenges. He is a former president of the Carnegie Corp., one of 13 foundations funding the project which is being pursued through study groups in Washington and at several major universities.

To start with, says Pifer, the project is taking a broader than usual view of the federal social role. To most people, this role refers primarily to welfare programs. These, however, are only a minor part of the government's total social impact.

Its activities in other areas, such as regulation, the environment and especially tax policy, must also be considered. Federal social funding comes not only through direct budget expenditures, but also indirectly through "tax expenditures." This is the preferential treatment, accorded everything from home mortgages to corporate welfare deductions, that channels private expenditures in desired directions.

"There is enormous ignorance," says Pifer, "about all that really happens under the federal social role and why it is so important."

Most Americans, for example, are unaware of the degree to which the standard of living of the middle class is bolstered by what economists call "secondary consumer income," the benefits derived from social programs. Statistically, 47 percent of all American households receive some aid from the federal government, either in cash or in kind.

When everything is added up, according to Pifer, "a pretty small part of the federal social role is for the poor."

Not until 1964, when KGB Maj. Yuri Nosenko defected in Geneva, did the CIA learn how the KGB monitored Popov's movements. Among the wealth of information Nosenko gave his debriefers was the disclosure that Popov had been caught through the use of a chemical.

Nosenko didn't know the exact chemical agent used, but he reported that Langelle's Russian maid had dusted the diplomat's shoes with it. The KGB, using a sniffer dog, tracked Langelle to a mailbox where the police found a note he had mailed to Popov.

Footnote: We interviewed the CIA case officer, George Kisvalter, who handled Popov in Berlin. Now 75 years old, he said he couldn't comment because he is still employed by the CIA.

the movements of U.S. diplomats around Moscow. It has been detected several times since 1976, but its use against U.S. diplomats has increased greatly since last May.

The worry is that the stuff can be harmful to their health. It has been identified as nitrophenylpentadienol — or NPPD — which can cause cancer.

The diplomats pick up the surveillance chemical on their skin from, say, a car steering wheel. Then they leave an invisible trail on every doorknob they touch or hand they shake. The KGB simply administers another chemical to a suspicious hand or doorknob, and the telltale NPPD becomes fluorescent.

This is how a U.S. mole, known as Col. Popov, reportedly was detected. The story, which was both a triumph and a tragedy for the CIA, is locked in the agency's "top secret" files. But here are the essential details:

Popov was an officer of the GRU, Soviet military intelligence. He made contact with the CIA while he was stationed in Vienna in 1953. Later he was transferred to East Berlin, where he continued to pass secrets to the CIA.

After he was called back to Moscow, Popov continued to provide important intelligence to the CIA through Russell Langelle, an intelligence officer working under diplomatic cover. On Oct. 16, 1959, while exchanging a note on a Moscow bus, Popov and Langelle were arrested by the KGB.

Langelle was interrogated and kicked out of the country. Popov was executed.

'Almost TD' Would Have Made It Interesting

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

Eddie Banks said he caught it. That's natural. Jay Donnelly said he didn't catch it. That's natural. Jeff Blake said he caught it. That's natural, too. Sports writer J Richards said he caught it. He's the key.

"It" is the turning point in the Seminole High-Titusville Astronaut High opening-season football game Friday night in Sanford. You're heard of big "ifs," well, this was a big "It."

Even in lopsided 24-0 losses there comes a point when the game turns. That point for the Fighting Seminoles, who were on the short end of that 24-0 setback Friday night, came with 11 seconds left in the first half.

The Tribe and the War Eagles had staged a gallant first half. Both were young teams and both coaches — Donnelly and Seminole's Dave Mosure — had figured the first score or scores may prove pivotal.

The difference during the first half had been two big mistakes by Seminole. Theron Liggins and Dennis Lawrence, two veterans who know better, had let Hubie Williams get behind them on the third play of Astronaut's opening series for a 43-yard TD pass from Clark Cook. The other field goal was also a gift. A two-year starter on defense had jumped or lined up offsidelines on a 30-yard field goal attempt. It was short but when Roy DeYoung was given another chance from 25 yards he made it for a 10-0 War Eagle lead.

Astronaut, which doesn't have disgusting habits like penalties over five yards or turnovers, had the game in control but it by no means was in that much control. Seminole had put together two good drives but came up short on critical plays.

It seemed all the 'Noles needed was a break. Then it came. Uncharacteristically, the center snap on a punt came up woefully short of the punter and by the time he corralled it a band of Seminoles were creeping on top of him at the Astronaut 23.

All of this it may be noted came during a driving rainstorm. Although

Football

Donnelly's War Eagles, who have averaged almost eight wins a year for 13 years, looked almost normal on this play. It also may be noted that it came with just 31 seconds left so the good programs even know when to screw up.

Nevertheless, Blake did his best to get the Tribe in the end zone. The sophomore QB threw incomplete which cost nine ticks. Then he scrambled for 13 yards to the 10 and Seminole called time out. Next, Blake tossed a flat pass to Dwayne Willis to the 5. Another time out.

There were 11 seconds left. Blake took a short drop and looked over the middle. Banks, the tight end, was crossing from left to right. Blake fired a low spiral. Banks dove and appeared to catch the ball.

Now, if you've ever watched a football game, especially the NFL-type, you know all you have to do is hold it for a second once you break the plane for a touchdown. Banks was five yards into the end zone so a catch and hold for a second would do.

Blake, who naturally wanted Banks to catch the ball, said "he caught the ball and when he came up the man hit him (and knocked it loose)."

Donnelly, who naturally didn't want him to catch the ball, said "it came out (when he hit the ground). No he didn't catch it."

Banks, who naturally wanted to catch the ball, said "I caught it and when I was turning around (rolling over) some (Astronaut) guy pounced on me and it popped out."

Which brings us to Richards. J (there's no period or -ay) was positioned on the sideline at the goal line. Even though his eyesight isn't what it used to be, and it was raining to further restrict visibility, he said, "the kid caught the ball eight inches off the ground. That was a touchdown."

So there we have it. Two biased catches, one biased non-catch and an impartial catch. Of course, the officials' decision was the only one that counted but Richards said he didn't have a very good view of the play. The official was not around for comment.

Richards, as was earlier pointed out, was the impartial view. Although he graduated from Seminole High, the veteran football guru had spent many years covering football for the Titusville Star-Advocate. That should square any feelings one way or another. He's also a past sports editor for the Evening Herald, so his credibility is beyond reproach.

The "almost touchdown" might not have changed the course of the game. Seminole might have gotten beat, 24-7. But it would have been a big psychological lift to Mosure's forces. One that would have made a very interesting second half. Instead of the mess which followed.

Whatever, Blake kicked his 22-yard field goal attempt under the bar with six seconds left and the Seminoles went into halftime behind, 10-0. Thirty minutes later, they were thinking "what might have been."

Howell Packs Double Attack

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Pack fever is catching on quickly at Lake Howell High.

For the past two years, the Lake Howell girls team has bunched together to form one of the most successful programs in the state. Saturday, the Lady Hawks packed about as close together as possible as they finished with a near-perfect team score of 17 in winning their portion of the Lake Mary Opener.

But that wasn't the end of the story for Lake Howell on a cool, breezy Saturday morning at Lake Mary High. The Silver Hawk boys team also ran as a cohesive unit in claiming first place with a team score of 75 compared to 87 for second place Bishop Moore.

In the girls race, Lake Howell had seven of the top 10 finishers in devastating the rest of the field. Daytona Beach Father Lopez finished a distant second at 68. Bishop Moore (80) just edged out Lake Brantley (81) for third place. Other Seminole County finishes included Oviedo (seventh at 186) and Lake Mary (eighth at 222).

"I'm very pleased," Lake Howell coach Tom Hammontrce said. "Going into the first meet, there are always unanswered questions like where you stand and if the fire is still lit. I thought the girls ran great, they were very competitive and I was pleased with the pack."

Leading the way was junior Lisa Samockl who finished first with a time of 12:21. Senior Amy Ertel took second at 12:36.8 and senior Angle Smith was third at 12:40.1. Smith put on an impressive kick at the end as she came from behind to nudge out Father Lopez' Marjorie Hawk for third place.

Hawk finished fourth with a time of 12:40.4, the only runner who could prevent Lake Howell from achieving a perfect score of 15.

After Hawk, then came the second wave of Lady Silver Hawks. Sophomore Bonnie Oliver took fifth place with a time of 12:54.3 and junior Martha Fonseca completed the top five as she finished sixth at 12:55. Freshman Jennifer Bolt had a fine debut for Lake Howell as she took seventh place with a time of 12:55.7. The Lady Hawks' number seven runner, junior Rachel Barnes, came in ninth at 13:10.7.

Lake Brantley's Lady Patriots did well in their opening meet especially considering the team consists of four sophomores and a freshman among the top seven.

Leading the way was junior Michelle Herbat who placed 12th at 13:29.7. She was followed in the top five by sophomore Renee Lievertz (13th at 13:32.9), freshman Kristin Longmire (16th at 13:46.9), sophomore Dee Decker (18th at 13:52.4) and senior Kim Pacetelli (23rd at 14:01.8).

Also running varsity for the Lady Patriots were sophomore Lisa Frizzell (33rd at 14:48.5) and sophomore Barbara Pantuso (41st at 15:17.9). For Oviedo's Lady Lions, another young squad, sophomore Renee Wynn turned in the top performance as she came in 14th with a time of 13:39.7. She was followed in the top five by sophomore Cathy Champ (36th at 14:56.0), freshman Valerie Wirth (44th at 15:49.7), junior Trinh Kossey (50th at 16:59.6) and junior Cathy Bergman (52nd at 17:19).

Lake Mary's Lady Rams, missing a few of its top runners, started the rebuilding process by finishing eighth among nine teams. Sophomore Heather Heikkila, running after just three days of practice, looked good on the first mile but fell back on the second and wound up finishing 42nd at 15:21.5.

In the boys meet, Lake Howell had three of the top nine and its fourth and fifth runners finished together as the Silver Hawks won their first varsity invitational in recent memory. Lake Howell won the Seminole

Vikings Subdue Tampa

TAMPA (UPI) — When Bud Grant rejoined a 3-13 team following a one-year hiatus, he couldn't have thought it would be this easy.

Grant's Minnesota Vikings, recapturing their image as one of the most opportunistic teams in the NFL, beat Tampa Bay 31-16 Sunday to register a 2-0 start for the first time in a decade. Cornerback Rufus Bess, who earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in Minnesota's season-opening upset of San Francisco, continued to excel with a fumble recovery and a blocked punt.

"As long as we can keep going the way we are, we're in for a good year," said Bess, a seven-year pro who forced three fumbles, recovered one and added an interception in the 28-21 victory over the 49ers. "Once the offense gets clicking, this is gonna be a very good team."

The Vikings ranked last in the entire league in defense in 1984 and registered just 29 takeaways under Coach Les Steckel. Since Grant ended his one-year retirement, Minnesota has forced 12 turnovers in two games — including five against the Buccaneers.

Minnesota overcame a terrific effort by Tampa Bay's James Wilder, who posted his fourth consecutive 100-yard game. The Buccaneers, who had a 349-262 edge in total yardage, are now off to an 0-2 getaway for the fourth consecutive year.

"The bottom line is that we did a poor job of coaching," said Tampa Bay Coach Leeman Bennett. "We gave this game away. There's no question we're losing on mental errors and we can't expect to beat any NFL team with the mistakes we made. I thought Steve DeBerg threw the ball well, but Wilder's two fumbles were not normal."

Wilder set two club records Sunday. He caught 13 passes for

Browns, Steelers On Tube Tonight

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Even the most Stallworth of the Cleveland Browns will pay more than just mere Lipps service to the Pittsburgh Steelers' wide receiving corps.

Nevertheless, Browns head coach Marty Schottenheimer believes the two teams' meeting to mark the 15th anniversary of Monday Night Football will be won on the ground and not in the air.

"I have the greatest respect for the likes of John Stallworth and Louis Lipps," said Schottenheimer of Pittsburgh's renowned receiving duo. "They're two very fine wide receivers, and (Pittsburgh coach) Chuck Noll knows how to use them well."

"But the Steelers are basically a power-running team, just like the Browns. This war will be won in bits and pieces."

Noll also says the nationally televised game (9 p.m. EDT kickoff on ABC) will be "a defensive test."

"Granted, we have great offensive players like (quarterback Mark) Malone, Lipps and

"But our short game must first grind it out, and that means running backs Frank Pollard and Walter Abercrombie."

If the backfield can take care of the short gains, Malone (21-for-30 for 287 yards, five touchdowns and one TD rushing against the Colts) will look for favorite target Lipps (nine receptions for 154 yards and three touchdowns) and Stallworth (5-65, one TD).

Brantley Captures JV Run; Politowicz Cruises

There were three teams that scored and six that had runners competing but the Lake Mary Opener girls junior varsity race Saturday was virtually a dual meet.

Either Lake Brantley's Lady Patriots or Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks had all of the top nine runners and 10 of the first 11. In the end, it was Lake Brantley that came out on top with a team score of 27, compared to 29 for Lake Howell in the closest of the four races run Saturday morning at Lake Mary High.

Lake Howell had the top two finishers, but the Lady Patriots had five of the next six which made the difference. Lake Brantley's top five included sophomore Kim Vleno (third at 14:12.1), freshman Heather Hunnicut (fourth at 14:13.6), freshman Melinda Olinger (fifth at 14:15.7), junior Jennifer Josephs (seventh at 14:20.6) and freshman Heather Camino (eighth at 14:34.1).

For Lake Howell, junior Martha Fonseca led the way as she took first place with a fine time of 13:39. Fonseca was followed in the top five by freshman Cindy Oliver (second at 14:00.7), freshman Kim Laeseur (sixth at 14:20), junior Kim Hammontrce (ninth at 14:34.4) and sophomore Terry Gringer (11th at 14:49.9).

The only runner outside of Brantley and Howell to make the top 10 was Father Lopez' Martha Castro who was 10th at 14:46.8.

Also finishing the top 20 for Lake Brantley were freshman Jennifer Collard (14th at 15:36.3) and junior Jennifer Burrows (20th at 16:51.2).

Other top 20 finishers for Lake Howell were sophomore Gwen Lane (15th at 15:45.2) and freshman Michelle Mitchell (16th at 15:58.3).

There were 42 runners in the girls JV race of which 27 were from either Lake Brantley or Lake Howell.

In the boys junior varsity race, Orlando Edgewater had the top three finishers and ended up with a team score of 32 compared to 37 for Bishop Moore. Lake Howell took third at 62. Lake Brantley fourth at 125, Lake Mary fifth at 149, Lyman sixth at 167 and Oviedo eighth at 210.

Lake Howell had all five of its runners finish in the top 20 led by senior Bret Crockett who was fifth at 18:57.4. Following Crockett were junior Steve Steffy (12th at 19:35.3), freshman Larry Cheeseman (15th at 19:50.1), freshman Kavan Howell (16th at 19:53.6) and sophomore Brian Horvath (17th at 19:54.4).

ADRIENNE FINISHES IN 11:47

Trinity Prep's Adrienne Politowicz opened her senior season in fine form as she sailed to a time of 11:47 to win the individual title Saturday at the Luther Invitational at Trinity Prep.

Although Politowicz performed well, the Lady Saints didn't place in the meet because they had no team score. Last year's number two runner, Katie Sams, moved to Texas after the 1985 track season.

State powerhouse (1A) Lakeland Christian won the girls title with a team score of 66, compared to 67 for Westminster Academy.

In the boys meet, Trinity Prep took third place with a team score of 119. Westminster won with 40.

The top two runners for the Saints included Jon Fritz who was fourth at 16:58 and Brad Shapiro who came in seventh.

Buddenhagen Takes 4-Mile Run
Jill Buddenhagen continued her dominance of Central Florida area road racing Saturday as she claimed first place in the Run For My House 4-mile road race at DeLand.

Buddenhagen, a 1985 Lake Mary High graduate, turned in a time of 24:41, almost one minute faster than her closest competitor. Buddenhagen, currently a freshman at the University of Central Florida, has won every road race she has entered this year.

Blue Jays Demoralize Yankees

United Press International

In the past eight years, they have slunk out of town, a dejected, beaten bunch. Sunday, the Toronto Blue Jays rode out victoriously, having sacked New York and pillaged the Yankees.

An 8-5 victory gave Toronto three straight triumphs in the four-game weekend series, and increased its lead in the Eastern Division to 4 1-2 games.

The Yankees won the series opener in dramatic fashion on Ron Hassey's three-run, upper-deck blast Thursday, but by yesterday New York was demoralized. Despite the final score, this one was a laugher for Toronto.

Although the Blue Jays have led the division since May 21, many believed they could not hold on, especially when the Yankees charged within 1 1-2 games by winning 11 of 12 prior to the series.

The skeptics have been silenced. "We didn't listen to all that walling and moaning about how we were going to fold," said Toronto center fielder Lloyd Moseby, who went 3-for-5 yesterday. "This wasn't a do-or-die series for either team, but it helps."

Cliff Johnson, who hampered New York's aspirations by mangling Goose Gossage's thumb in a showerroom scuffle when playing with the Yankees in 1979, was acquired by Toronto from Texas for the stretch run, and again damaged the pinstripes.

A.L. Baseball

"We came in confident, but not cocky," said Johnson, who drove in three runs. "This will go a long way, both psychologically and in the standings."

Of the 19 losses the Yankees have suffered at New York this season, Toronto has inflicted five, and lead the season series, 6-4.

Former Yankee Doyle Alexander, 16-8, struck out four and walked five in his fourth straight victory. The right-hander allowed five hits in 7 1-3 innings. Over the last three seasons, Alexander is 14-1 in Septembers and Octobers.

Toronto scored six runs in the third inning, chasing starter Ed Whittson, 10-8, with four consecutive hits.

Total attendance for the weekend series was 214,510, an American League record for a four-game series.

"They (the Yankees) gotta go on a big streak and hope it comes down to the last three games in Toronto, which can happen easily," Yankees manager Billy Martin said.

The Yankees closed the season with three games in Toronto, Oct. 4-6.

Elsewhere, Detroit defeated Baltimore 4-1. Minnesota topped Cleveland 5-2, Minnesota beat Milwaukee 4-2. Kansas City split a double-header with Oakland, losing the first game 4-2 and winning the second 7-2; California blasted Texas 12-4 and Chicago downed Seattle 6-3.

In the National League, it was New York 6, Montreal 2; Pittsburgh 5, Philadelphia 4; Atlanta 4, San Francisco 1; Cincinnati 10, Los Angeles 6; St. Louis 5, Chicago 1; and Houston 2, San Diego 1.

Tigers 4, Orioles 1

At Detroit, shortstop Cal Ripken's two-out wild throw in the bottom of the eighth inning allowed pinch runner Barbaro Garbey to score the tie-breaking run.

Twins 5, Indians 2

At Cleveland, Bert Blyleven, 14-15, threw a seven-hitter over eight innings to lead the Twins. Ron Davis earned his 22nd save. Roy Smith fell to 1-4.

Twins 4, Brewers 2

At Milwaukee, Jeff Sellers notched a victory in his major-league debut, and Dwight Evans collected three hits to lift the Red Sox. Mike Trujillo relieved for his first save.

Royals 2-5, A's 4-2

At Oakland, Calif., Mike Heath hit a three-run homer following a two-out throwing error by losing pitcher Charlie Leibrandt, 15-8, to lead the A's in the opener. Chris Codrillo, 12-12, Steve Ontiveros and Jay Howell combined to snap Kansas City's four-game winning streak.

Cliff Johnson ...Yankee killer

Reggie Jackson ...three-run homer

In the second game, Frank White and George Brett homered, and Bud Black pitched a four-hitter. Black, 9-14, snapped his three-game losing streak.

Angels 12, Rangers 4

At Anaheim, Calif., Reggie Jackson drilled a three-run homer in the first, and the Angels scored five runs in the eighth. Rookie Kirk McCaskill, 10-11, snapped his four-game losing streak.

White Sox 6, Mariners 3

At Seattle, Carlton Fisk had three hits and drove in three runs to spark the White Sox. Reliever Dave Wehrmeister, 2-1, worked 4 1-3 shutout innings. Starter Mark Langston fell to 7-13.

Mets Get Heep Big Home Run

United Press International
While the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Mets both won Sunday, maintaining their 1-2 status in the NL East, a half-game apart, two unlikely heroes underscored the importance of a good bench.

The Mets got a three-run homer from Danny Heep, a last minute replacement for Darryl Strawberry, and defeated the Montreal Expos, 6-2, while the Cardinals got a 5-for-5 and four-RBI performance from Cesar Cedeno and whipped the Chicago Cubs, 5-1.

Heep didn't expect to find himself penciled into the lineup. "I was surprised that I played," said Heep. "I only knew that I was starting an hour before the game. You can't prepare yourself when you don't expect to play."

He seemed to be prepared, however, for the 3-1 fastball from rookie starter John Dopson, 0-2. He belted his seventh homer, a three-run shot, over the right field in the Mets' four-run first.

At Montreal, the Mets' based Dopson in the first inning. Mookie Wilson led off with a double and one out later Keith Hernandez walked. Wilson stole third and Gary Carter hit a sharp single off Dopson's leg to score Wilson. Heep followed with his seventh homer over the right field wall.

At Chicago, the Cardinals snapped a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning off loser Steve Engle, 1-5, on a walk to Tommy Herr and Cedeno's seventh homer of the year. After Tito Landrum walked, Jay Baller replaced Engle and gave up a single to Terry Pendleton. Landrum raced to third on the hit and Pendleton took second on the throw. Ozzie Smith was then intentionally walked to load the bases. Ron Meridith relieved Baller and pinch hitter Brian Harper forced Smith at second as Landrum scored.

Reds 10, Dodgers 6
At Cincinnati, Gary Redus hit a three-run homer to cap a nine-run sixth inning that lifted the Reds to victory. The triumph went to Tom Browning, 17-9, with Ted Power earning his 22nd save. Fernando Valenzuela, 17-10, took the loss. The Reds now trail the first place Dodgers by 7 1/2 games in the NL West.

Pirates 5, Phillies 4
At Pittsburgh, Denny Gonzalez' infield single snapped a 4-4 tie in the eighth inning and gave the Pirates their victory. Rick Reuschel, 13-7, hurled his seventh straight complete game. He allowed seven hits and one walk while striking out six. Reliever Dave Shipanoff, 1-2, took the loss.

Braves 4, Giants 1
At Atlanta, Claudell Washington drove in two runs to back the combined six-hit pitching of Steve Bedrosian, Rick Camp and Bruce Sutter to send the Braves to victory. Bedrosian, 7-12, surrendered five hits over six innings while striking out six to earn the victory. Camp tossed the seventh inning and didn't allow a hit, while Sutter picked up his 23rd save, giving up one hit over two innings.

Astros 2, Padres 1
At Houston, rookie Glenn Davis led off the eighth inning with his 15th homer of the season to send the Astros' Davis' blast into second deck in left field came off reliever Craig Lefferts, 7-6, on his first pitch of the inning. Reliever Jeff Calhoun, 2-3, pitched two innings for the victory.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Thorpe Holds Off Nicklaus To Win First Major Tourney

FRANKLIN, Wis. (UPI) — As Jack Nicklaus and Jim Thorpe were walking down the 18th fairway en route to Thorpe's first PGA victory, Nicklaus exchanged kind words with the man who had beaten him.

"I told him to enjoy it. You'll remember this for a long time," Nicklaus said after Thorpe took the $54,000 first-place prize in the $300,000 Greater Milwaukee Open Sunday.

Those were heady words indeed from Nicklaus, a player who has won 70 tour victories and 19 major titles in his illustrious career.

Thorpe, who tore up the 7,010-yard Tuckaway Country Club course in the third round with a tournament record 10-under-par 62 to take the lead, shot a steady 2-under-par 70 on the final day to hold off Nicklaus and the rest of the field.

Ryder: Europe Ends US Reign

SUTTON COLDFIELD, England (UPI) — Europe ended the United States' 28-year reign as Ryder Cup champion Sunday with a crushing five-point triumph in the biennial golf competition.

"We made history today," a jubilant Tony Jacklin, non-playing European captain, said after watching Briton Sam Torrance sink the clinching, 22-foot birdie putt for a one hole victory over U.S. Open champion Andy North.

The combined British-European team took a 9-7 lead into the final day and won seven of the concluding 12 singles, halving another, for an overall victory of 16 1/2 to 11 1/2.

LPGA: Carner Takes SAFECO

KENT, Wash. (UPI) — The one that got away from JoAnne Carner in 1982 didn't get away Sunday.

Carner shot a 4-under-par 68 to come from a shot off the pace and win a $200,000 LPGA tournament, known as the SAFECO Classic.

She missed winning the inaugural tournament in 1982 by one shot, taking second place to Patty Sheehan on the 72nd and final hole.

Carner's 72-hole total Sunday was 9-under 279, two shots better than Jan Stephenson.

Niekros: Joe Joins Phil

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pity the Detroit Tigers this week. They will be receiving a double dosage of dancing knuckleballs when the New York Yankees hit town.

American League batters had it tough enough facing Phil Niekros' flutter ball. Now they're in for more headaches when they play the Yankees, because New York acquired Phil's brother Joe from the Astros Sunday.

'Bama Gets Defensive, Strangles Aggies, 23-10

United Press International

Alabama has become quite defensive while trying to make amends for last year's losing record.

The Crimson Tide held Texas A&M to a minus 12 yards rushing and 39 yards passing in the last quarter Saturday night while breaking out of a 10-10 tie en route to a 23-10 victory over the Aggies.

That performance, tacked on to its opening win at Georgia, makes it appear that Alabama, only 5-6 in '84, is going to be No. 2 Auburn's main challenger for the Southeastern Conference title.

Auburn let up in the second half Saturday, but, with Bo Jackson rushing for 205 yards and two touchdowns, the Tigers got off to a strong enough start to beat Southern Mississippi, 29-18.

In other Southeastern Conference action Saturday: Tennessee blew a 16-point lead in the closing seven minutes in a 26-26 tie with No. 8 UCLA; Florida let a 21-point lead get away in a 28-28 tie with Rutgers; No. 10 Louisiana State opened its season with a 23-13 win at North Carolina; Georgia had to stave off a late aerial attack to nip Baylor, 17-14; Mississippi State beat Syracuse, 30-3; Ole Miss lost to No. 15 Arkansas, 24-19; Kentucky lost to Bowling Green, 30-26; and Vanderbilt lost to Kansas, 42-16.

Among the region's independents: Miami won at Rice, 48-20; Tulane lost at Texas Christian, 30-13; Memphis State tied Murray State, 10-10; and No. 5 Florida State and 11th-ranked South Carolina had open dates.

The SEC has a light schedule next Saturday with Auburn, Tennessee and Florida all having open dates. Cincinnati is at Alabama, Georgia at Clemson, Tulane at Kentucky, Colorado State at

Football

LSU, Arkansas State at Ole Miss, Mississippi State vs. Southern Mississippi at Jackson, and Vanderbilt at Iowa State.

Also Florida State hosts Memphis State and South Carolina hosts Michigan.

With Kerry Goode sidelined Saturday, Alabama's Van Tiffin broke his own school record with a 57-yard field goal in the first half and added field goals of 40 and 51 yards in the fourth quarter.

Bo Jackson, All-America in '83 but out with injury more than half of last season, now has 495 yards and six touchdowns in two games. But after building a 19-3 halftime lead, Auburn was outscored 15-10 in the second half.

Ahead 28-7 with only five minutes left in the third quarter, Florida Coach Galen Hall decided to rest sophomore quarterback Kerwin Bell, who had thrown three touchdown passes, Bell's understudy, sophomore Rodney Brewer, had two interceptions and a fumble and Florida's 10-game winning streak was ended although the Gators still have a nation's-best 12-game unbeaten string.

Rutgers Coach Dick Anderson claimed he was disappointed — even with the tie.

"I think we should have won it," said Anderson. "We missed two opportunities right at the end. It's better than a loss. But it isn't a win."

Kansas State Coach Resigns

United Press International
It took only three weeks for the first head-coaching casualty of major college football to occur.

Kansas State football coach Jim Dickey, whose team was upset in its first two games, resigned Sunday and Assistant Athletic Director Lee Moon was named interim coach.

"I'm more disappointed in me than our players," Dickey, 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year, said in a statement following Saturday's 10-6 loss to Division I-AA Northern Iowa. "I think that in our opening two games we looked, to me, at times like we were wading in mud. We were trying, but we weren't getting anything done."

With the exception of No. 8 UCLA, all other top 10 teams won Saturday. UCLA, tied Tennessee 26-26.

No. 2 Auburn defeated Southern Mississippi 29-18; No. 4 Ohio State edged No. 19 Pittsburgh 10-7; No. 6 Oklahoma State escaped with a 10-9 decision over North Texas State; No. 7 Iowa opened its campaign with a 58-0 rout of Drake; No. 9 Penn State squeezed past Temple 27-25; and No. 10 Louisiana State beat North Carolina 23-13.

Notre Dame, tied with Idaho South Carolina for the 11th spot in the rankings, lost to Michigan 20-12; No. 13 Brigham Young defeated Washington 31-3; No. 15 Arkansas beat Mississippi 24-19; No. 16 Alabama defeated Texas A&M 23-10; No. 17 West Virginia edged Duke 20-18; and No. 18 Maryland defeated Boston College 31-13.

Nebraska, ranked 14th, and No. 20 Texas were idle.

Florida, on probation by the NCAA and therefore unranked, shockingly was tied by Rutgers, 28-28.

Marino, Reveiz Propel Dolphins

MIAMI (UPI) — The Miami Dolphins don't have a lot of time left to whip into shape.

They showed improvement in their 30-13 win over AFC East foe Indianapolis, but Coach Don Shula says the team will have to get better in a hurry if Miami hopes to continue winning.

Sunday at the Orange Bowl, Dan Marino rebounded from his rusty performance in the opening loss to Houston to pass for 329 yards and two touchdowns and Fuad Reveiz kicked three field goals to lead the Dolphins.

The win raised Miami's record to 1-1 and the Colts fell to 0-2.

"Now we have to think about how to get better," Shula said. "We have three tough opponents in a row in Kansas City next week and Denver and Pittsburgh after that. We caught the Colts with some injuries and they had some more during the game. But we've got this one behind us and we're going to have to play better."

Marino, who turned 24 Sunday, showed the benefits of an extra week of practice following his 37-day walkout in a contract dispute. But both Marino, who set NFL records last season by throwing for 5,084 yards and 48 touchdowns, and Shula say the quarterback is not all the way back.

"I played much better, but I made a couple of bad decisions on where to throw the ball," he said. "I was able to make some throws this week while in some cases last week I didn't."

"I saw evidence of his hard work in practice last week," Shula said of Marino. "There were some good things and some things that were not so good, but that's not just Marino. That's the whole team."

Both teams suffered key losses in the first half. Miami lost wide receiver Mark Duper with a sprained knee and the Colts lost fullback Randy McMillan with an ankle sprain.

Miami started slowly and trailed the Colts 7-6 after Mike Pagel hit tight end Pat Beach with a 2-yard scoring pass in the second quarter.

71 yards, snapping his own single-game mark for receptions. The All-Pro tailback also ran for 113 yards on 22 carries, becoming the top rusher in Buccaneer history by passing the late Ricky Bell's 3,057-yard career mark.

"There are a lot of ways to win games and each week is different," said Grant. "Wildier's a horse, no question about that. It took him a while to get going but once he did, it was all downhill."

Allen Rice had a 2-yard touchdown run, Alfred Anderson scored from a yard out and Tommy Kramer fired a 54-yard TD strike to Ted Brown for the Vikings. Jan Stenerud added a 31-yard field goal and Joey Browner returned an interception 15 yards for another TD.

The Buccaneers, who have now been outscored 52-16 since assuming a 28-17 halftime lead in Chicago last week, scored on Wildier's 1-yard run, DeBerg's 12-yard pass to Jerry Bell and a 25-yard field goal by Donald Igwebulke. The rookie kicker missed an extra-point attempt following Bell's TD reception.

Kramer completed 18-of-28 passes for 183 yards while DeBerg hit on 26-of-38 for 237 yards.

"It's a new beginning," said Browner of the Grant regime.

"After getting whipped by everybody last year, coming back this year with two wins is great. The only way to make turnovers happen is to be around the ball at all times."

Brent Springhart (29th at 18:03.8) and Junior Bryan Droze (30th at 18:05.3).

Also running for the Hawks were junior Andy Terechenok (34th at 18:20.6) and senior Dylan Rowe (47th at 19:02.1).

Bishop Moore's Hornets took second place with individual champion Richard McKenna leading the way. McKenna, who also took first place in the Titusville Astronaut Invitational on Thursday, finished with a time of 16:10.

There was a four-way battle for third place with host Lake Mary winning it with a team score of 101. Lyman's Greyhounds took fourth at 111 while Lake Brantley was fifth at 112 and Orlando Boone sixth at 114.

"I knew it was going to be close," Lake Mary coach Mark McGee said. "It should be close all year. Lake Howell right now has to be considered the one to beat. Lyman is probably the most dangerous of all the teams. They have five guys that have already broken 17 either this year or last year."

Lake Mary was without senior leader Ken Rohr who was ill all week, another of its top five, senior Marc Eakin, was also battling the flu and a third top five runner, junior Domnick Rundle, is still out of state.

Lake Mary's top finisher Saturday was sophomore Eric

Petersen who came in 10th with a time of 17:05. He was followed in the top five by junior Anthony Surles (18th at 17:36.8), sophomore Paul Evans (20th at 17:53.1), Eakin (25th at 17:57.8) and senior Jeff Hale (28th at 18:00.9).

Also running for the Rams, both turning in personal bests, were sophomores Ashley Moraach (38th at 18:48.9) and Peter Schoemann (42nd at 18:57.7).

"There were some good points and some bad points," McGee said. "I was disappointed overall. Not so much with the kids but the circumstances. Ken (Rohr) was out sick and Eakin had the flu and wasn't up to par. That hurt us. But there were some good ones in there. Paul (Evans) ran his best time ever, he's gained a lot of confidence the last week or so."

Lyman's top five included freshman Nick Radkewich (sixth at 16:57.8), junior Mike Mohler (11th at 17:05.3), sophomore Robin Rogers (14th at 17:14.2), sophomore Kevin Quinn (23rd at 17:54.1) and junior David Mobley (59th at 19:56.8). Also running for the Greyhounds were sophomore Craig Webber (61st at 20:40.1) and junior Rick Junner (65th at 21:45.6).

For Lake Brantley's Patriots, senior David Payne led the way with a fifth-place time of 16:57.5. He was followed in the top five by senior Steve Drake (19th at 17:40.1), junior Jose Calvino (22nd at 17:53.9), junior Greg Webb (24th at 17:55.4) and senior Kevin Greenstein (43rd at 18:59.1). Also running for Brantley were senior Chris Borg (51st at 19:16) and junior Richard Cantoni (54th at 19:31).

Oviedo's Lions took eighth in the meet with a team score of 183. The Lions' top five included senior John Newsom (eighth at 17:00.6), senior Ken Wirth (33rd at 18:20.4), freshman Derek Bates (35th at 18:31.1), sophomore Garth Bolton (48th at 19:09.1) and junior George Wheeler (62nd at 20:40.1). Also running was senior Francis Vela (66th at 21:51.4).

"There are five teams in the county who have a legitimate shot at winning the conference," McGee said. "It's going to come down to who has the best day the conference meet."

Zendejas Hits Upright, Oilers Tumble To 'Skins

United Press International

Until the ball hit the upright, Tony Zendejas thought the game was winding down to a perfect ending.

Zendejas, the Houston Oilers' kicker, had a chance to tie the score against the team that traded him after a bitter preseason battle against Mark Moseley. However, Zendejas bounced a 33-yard field goal try off the right upright with 4:13 left in the game and the Washington Redskins held on for a 16-13 victory.

Zendejas also missed a 33-yarder earlier in the fourth quarter.

"I've always come through. This is the first time I didn't," said Zendejas, who was booed every time he stepped on the field.

"I wasn't nervous. Booming is part of the game." The Redskins gave Zendejas, a former USFL kicker, a $150,000 bonus to compete with Moseley but traded him during the week before the season began.

The Redskins, rebounding from a 44-14 whipping at the hands of Dallas Monday night, started fast Sunday but were held scoreless after the first 6:28 of the second quarter.

The Redskins scored on their first three possessions in carving out a 16-0 lead early in the second quarter. George Rogers ran 31 yards for one touchdown, Joe Theismann connected with Calvin Muhammad for another and Moseley kicked a 34-yard field goal.

The Oilers, who upset Miami last week, thought they should have won again. Along with Zendejas' misses, Houston was hurt by a close call on an apparent touchdown catch and untimely penalties.

"The calls really killed us," said Houston wide receiver Drew Hill, who caught one touchdown pass and had another one ruled out of bounds late in the fourth quarter. "There just can't be that many calls against us. But we showed we don't give up."

Hill's catch in the endzone was one of three apparent touchdowns called back by penalties or officials' calls.

On the previous play, wide receiver Tim Smith's 11-yard touchdown catch was nullified by an illegal shift call against the Oilers' offensive line.

Lions 26, Cowboys 21

At Pontiac, Mich., Eric Hipple passed for a TD and ran for another to help the Lions cash in on two turnovers at the start of each half. Ed Murray kicked field goals of 34 and 46 yards, and James Jones crunched in from the 1 to help Detroit improve to 2-0 under rookie coach Darryl Rogers.

Jets 42, Bills 3

NFL Roundup

At East Rutherford, N.J., Freeman McNeil rambled for a team regular-season record 192 yards and two TDs to help the Jets score 42 straight points. The Bills, 0-2, have not scored a TD this season.

Rams 17, Eagles 6

At Philadelphia, Charles White rushed for 144 yards and scored a fourth-quarter TD to lift the Rams. White, playing because of an injury to Barry Redden and the recently ended holdout of Eric Dickerson, scored on a 17-yard run with 5:21 gone in the fourth quarter. The Eagles committed seven turnovers and have not scored a TD this season.

Cardinals 41, Bengals 27

At St. Louis, Neil Lomax passed for two TDs and Neil O'Donoghue kicked two field goals to lift the Cardinals, 2-0. Lomax completed 17-of-31 passes for 250 yards. The Bengals fell to 0-2.

Bears 20, Patriots 7

At Chicago, Jim McMahon threw for one TD and set up another and Mike Singletary led a ferocious defense to help the 2-0 Bears. McMahon hit Dennis McKinnon on a 32-yard TD strike on the opening drive and set up a 1-yard run by Matt Suhey midway through the third quarter by hitting Willie Gault for 43 yards.

49ers 35, Falcons 16

At San Francisco, Roger Craig scored on runs of 9 and 62 yards and Joe Montana added touchdowns on a 1-yard run and a 9-yard pass to Dwight Clark to spark the 49ers, 1-1. Atlanta fell to 0-2.

Broncos 34, Saints 23

At Denver, John Elway passed for 353 yards and four TDs to ignite the Broncos. Elway threw scoring strikes of 65 yards to Butch Johnson, 26 yards to Clint Sampson, 10 yards to Gene Lang and 2 yards to Clarence Kay.

Packers 23, Giants 20

At Green Bay, Wis., Eddie Lee Ivory's 1-yard TD run with 4:07 remaining lifted the Packers. Ivory's TD capped a 75-yard Packers' drive, coming after the Giants had gone ahead for the first time on a 15-yard TD pass from Phil Simms to Lionel Manuel with 8:42 left. Both teams are 1-1.

Seahawks 49, Chargers 35

At San Diego, Dave Krieg threw five TD passes, including four to Daryl Turner, to help the Seahawks improve to 2-0. Krieg threw for 307 yards and Curt Warner ran for 169 yards and two TDs.

Gant Team Wins First

NASCAR

DOVER, Del. (UPI) — Veteran NASCAR driver Harry Gant and his pit crew are getting a reputation for inconsistency, but for sheer excellence when they're working right.

The team was undoubtedly at its best Sunday as its driver cruised to a 28.87 second victory over a determined Darrell Waltrip to capture its first NASCAR victory of the season.

Gant took the lead on the from Waltrip on the 320th lap and led the rest of the way without being seriously challenged.

Waltrip finished second after the runnerup spot first had been awarded to Ricky Rudd when Rudd passed Waltrip feet short of the finish line of the final lap. Waltrip coasted across the line, apparently out of fuel.

"It was really tight on fuel the last 50 laps or so," said Gant, the long-time Late Model Sportsman driver who picked up his second career victory on the Dover Downs International Speedway's "Monster Mile."

The 4 p.m. show which lasted about 2 hours, after which men were allowed to enter the premises. The women came dressed in jeans, skirts, fancy dresses and, apparently uninhibited, giggled, shook their hips in unison with the male dancers and continually shouted for more.

The emcee also had made it clear before the performance that customers were allowed to tip, but could tuck their tips only into the performers' bikinis at the sides: "don't stick anything into the fronts or back." The women complied, but from time to time when a performer bumped his way through the crowd, some of the women reached out playfully.

Susan Ekalo, Gypsy Cab Company manager, had said Saturday there would be no contact between dancer and customer, although Ms. Hontz said she thought the dancers would be looking for the tipping.

"That's part of the whole thing. That's what they do in Orlando. These reviews are widely accepted now. These male dancers are playing at J. J. Whispers and Park Avenue, and everyone accepts them readily."

But "everyone" may not include Sanford residents. At least not according to Harriett and Mrs. Smith.

Said Harriett today: "I don't believe such activity would be supported here (Sanford). It's not conducive to the community lifestyle." And although Harriett's staff found no violations during Sunday's review, police plan to continue monitoring the shows if more are staged. He said where there is a "potential" for violating city ordinances, "we'll keep an eye on it. But as far as yesterday's performance, they violated no city ordinances."

The mayor said she had heard of the pending Sunday performance and Harriett had conferred with her to tell her of police intent to monitor the show.

Does she see anything wrong with such shows in Sanford? "It's not at all what we want in this town. I'm chagrined for two or three reasons. Here we are spending all kinds of time and energy trying to encourage the right kind of growth in Sanford ... to upgrade it, and this is what's coming in. I honestly don't believe the community would support it, and I certainly would discourage it. Too, I was doubly chagrined with the day they selected ... a Sunday! When Steve (Harriett) told me what his plans were, I told him I support him in every way."

Mrs. Smith did a little campaigning on her own Sunday to discourage such activity. She said she was the luncheon speaker at a Holy Cross Episcopal Church function where she spoke on what it's like to be a mayor, what efforts are being made to encourage healthy growth in Sanford, then mentioned the fact that the male review show was planned that afternoon and suggested that those in the congregation who might find it objectionable contact Gypsy Cab Company management to protest.

"We can't stop them if they don't violate ordinances, but I wouldn't support it in any case."

The restaurant-lounge management said Sunday afternoon they received no telephone calls from anyone opposed to the review.

home for the transfer station. In that instance Hazardous Waste Consultants was appealing a decision by the board of adjustment not to allow a special exception for the Silver Lake Road site, which is zoned agricultural.

At the county commission meeting Roberta Andrews, a county resident who lives near the Silver Lake Road site, said she had been fighting that proposed site since June and that she will continue to fight until the firm finds a "safe location."

The company was operating its transfer station on west S.R.

46 but it lacks the proper zoning and permits to do so. In June it was ordered by the county's Code Enforcement Board to cease operations by Sept. 30 or face fines of up to $200 per day. Prior to that the company operated at 2300 Belle Ave. in Casselberry without first getting a permit to store hazardous wastes.

The company also operated out of the Port of Sanford for about two years before public opposition and port authority members forced the company to move.

Hazardous Waste Consultants requests are 42 and 43 on a 46-item agenda but the board of adjustment can consider agenda items out of order if they vote to do so.

U.S. A World Debtor For First Time Since WW I

Payments Deficit $31.8 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. balance of payments ran up a $31.8 billion deficit in the second quarter, as the United States slipped into world debtor status for the first time since World War I, the government said today.

Huge merchandise trade surpluses will not drain away national wealth if they are balanced by equally large services earnings.

The Bureau of Economic Analysis figures today suggested that the United States now has more liabilities overseas than it has assets, the long-predicted net debtor status that will not be officially confirmed until the end of the year.

The United States was last an international debtor in 1914.

The foreign assets almost balanced foreign debts at the end of the last year. Government analysts said it appears the debts are now larger and growing at a rapid rate.

The balance of payments deficit was a record $101.5 billion last year. The first half of this year has already created a $62.1 billion loss to foreigners.

Debtor status by itself does not alarm trade economists. But the rate at which the United States is piling up international debt will soon make it the largest international debtor of all, perhaps exceeding that of Brazil and Mexico as soon as sometime next year.

Over time the flow of international balances tends to ebb and flow. But when they begin to ebb for the United States economists warn that the nation's standard of living may have to ebb as well, while the huge international debt — plus interest — is paid back.

Meanwhile the United States is enjoying the best of all worlds in international finance, with virtually unlimited credit that allows access to the savings of other countries and a strong dollar that makes imported merchandise a bargain.

The foreign credit allows the United States government to borrow $200 billion a year without raising domestic interest rates substantially.

The report said the foreign exchange value of the dollar depreciated 5 percent against the currencies of 10 industrial countries on a trade-weighted quarterly average basis.

Claims on foreigners reported by U.S. banks declined $4.4 billion in the second quarter, compared with a decrease of only $100 million in the first quarter.

U.S. direct investment abroad grew $4.1 billion, compared to the $1.9 billion shrinkage in the first quarter.

U.S. purchases of foreign securities were $1.9 billion, compared to $2.5 billion in the first quarter.

A shift in the U.S. investor's interest to rising U.S. stock and bond markets contributed to a drop in net purchases of foreign stocks, the government economists said.

As an incentive, DER has offered $8.6 million in state grants to help defray the cost of the switch. Last week the city selected a firm to guide it through a $33 million bond issue that will be used to raise the necessary funds to pay for the switchover.

Sanford and the DER conducted hearings in January and April during which the city unsuccessfully tried to convince the agency that the treated sewage was not harming the lake. In fact, city officials said the effluent was of higher quality than the lake's water.

As an alternative, the city sought to improve and expand the existing treatment plant at an estimated cost of $28 million, thus avoiding the more expensive landspreddy method. The DER refused.

The city also considered fighting the agency in court but abandoned that option as time-consuming and costly.

Other business the commission was scheduled to review today includes:

• The draft of an agreement between the city and Seminole County to work together in a regional sewage treatment program. If Sanford expands its sewage treatment capacity it could increase the capacity available for county use.

• A $79,000 payment to Inter-Bay Marine for emergency repairs to the city's marina boat ramps damaged by turbulence from boat propellers. A civil suit filed by the city against the Star of Sanford cruise line in connection with the damaged ramps is still in litigation.

• A priority list for resurfacing streets in the city. The list includes, in order, portions of McCracken Road, Persimmon Avenue, Third Street, W. 13th Street, Ninth Street, Eighth Street, Sixth Street, Park Drive, 20th Street, Country Club Circle, Hays Drive, Pecan Avenue, Park Avenue, and State Street.

American Side Falls Short To Many Niagara Visitors

DEAR READERS: I recently printed a letter that read (in part): "A busload of us senior citizens went to Niagara Falls for an outing. The Falls on the American side were grossly neglected and looked terrible, but the Falls on the Canadian side were beautiful, bright with flowers and well-maintained. The comparison made us Americans feel somewhat ashamed and therefore sad. I know it would cost our government a few dollars to restore our side of the Falls, but it would be well worth it to restore our national pride." — Sad Senior

After it appeared, I received a sharp rebuke from the mayor of Niagara Falls, demanding a public apology for having printed that letter. He also released his letter to local papers and from there it made the national wires.

Readers, I take no pleasure in reporting that to date I've received approximately 1,900 letters agreeing with "Sad Senior" — and fewer than 200 in defense of the American side: Some excerpts:

DEAR ABBY: You do not owe the mayor an apology. He owes you one. I teach a Sunday School class and one of my pupils (8 years old) said, "I just came back from a trip to Canada, and their side is much prettier, and does not have any trash like the American side." Children have no reason to make such a statement if it were not true. It's time to clean up, Mr. Mayor.

Dear Abby

CHARLENE BAKER, MANCHESTER, KY.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and our 10-year-old son visited Niagara Falls. I had looked forward to this all my life. What a disappointment! The Canadian side was magnificent. The New York side was ugly and rundown.

MRS. JOHN CAPO, SATELLITE BEACH, FLA.

DEAR ABBY: Don't apologize! I was in Canada a few weeks ago and saw Niagara Falls from both sides. The Canadian side was just beautiful. It had lots of bright flowers and neat parks. The American side looked poor in comparison.

SUSAN NOVAK, ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.

DEAR ABBY: When we visited Niagara Falls, the gardens on the Canadian side were an inspiration. The pride of the Canadian gardeners was evident in the immaculate care given every twig and flower. On the American side, a surly government worker charged us $1.50 to park our car ankle deep in mud.

B.E. TUCKER, LAKELAND

DEAR ABBY: Having just returned from both sides of the Falls, we thought the Canadian side was a neon nightmare with a sideshow look. The New York side's convention center area is still under massive construction, but if one takes a short drive over to the park area, he can stand between the Falls and hear the thundering water and feel the spray. How thrilling to see natural beauty win over the artificial look of the Canadian side!

LOYAL NEW YORKERS

DEAR ABBY: For the mayor of Niagara Falls: Instead of criticizing the messenger who brings the bad news, I respectfully suggest that all Americans should try to think of solutions for a national problem.

ELIZABETH MCALLISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW WESTBROOKVILLE, N.Y.

In conclusion, Dear Readers, I was shocked to learn that Niagara Falls, the "honeymoon capital of the world," is under the jurisdiction of the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historical Preservation.

Pity, Niagara Falls, one of the wonders of the world, is a national treasure, well deserving of federal funding.

Hispanic Honor Society Chapter Forms At LBHS

A chapter of the National Hispanic Honor Society has been formed at Lake Brantley High School to begin the 1985-86 school year. The local chapter is named in honor of Luis Marin, the first elected governor of Puerto Rico.

The National Hispanic Honor Society was founded in 1953 to recognize outstanding Spanish speaking secondary students nationwide.

Officers elected to serve this school year are: Tom O'Shea, president; Annabelle Arrington, vice-president; Tara Wilfong, treasurer; and Julie Fisher, secretary. There are 15 charter members.

The society's initial projects include producing an introductory Spanish course for an elementary school class, and working with Hispanic children learning English.

High-Fiber Diets Not Always Healthy Idea

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — Doctors are now recommending high-fiber diets for many intestinal disorders. Would this be good for ulcerative colitis? Is bleeding associated with spastic colon?

DEAR READER — High-fiber diets are not recommended for patients with ulcerative colitis; the indigestible material is just too rough for an inflamed bowel, which is highly sensitive. Spastic colon is not associated with intestinal bleeding. When bleeding occurs, doctors almost always look for another cause.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My girlfriend, 30, is very attractive, but she has a problem with dark circles around her eyes. She's thin (5 feet 4, 100 pounds). She seems to be getting enough sleep. Her mom has the same problem. What causes this?

DEAR READER — Your friend seems to have inherited a facial characteristic from her mother. Dark discolorations under the eyes tend to run in families. This attribute is not associated with any disease. It can be helped by plastic surgery, but most women are content to use cosmetics rather than resort to more aggressive treatment.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I try to drink several glasses of water a day and I also drink one to two glasses of iced tea daily in warmer weather, and one cup of coffee in the morning. I usually drink one glass of non-fat milk daily. My friend and neighbor thinks I drink too much liquid. She doesn't drink much of anything at all. She claims she gets enough in the food she eats and that water washes out all the vitamins and nutrients from our food. She has extremely dry and wrinkled skin. Will you please settle this argument?

DEAR READER — Years ago, people were encouraged to drink extra water because it was supposed to ensure good health. This never made much sense, and I'm glad the pendulum has swung back the other way. As a general rule, drink if you are thirsty and avoid fluids if you are not. Your brain's thirst center is a more accurate indicator of your state of hydration than is a doctor or a friend. Some folks need more water than others, depending on climate, activity and diet. I tend to side with you, because your neighbor seems to be taking an extreme view. Water will not wash out nutrients from your body. On the other hand, excess fluid won't do you any good, either. Listen to what your body is telling you and behave accordingly. I usually recommend that the best way for normal people

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

One of the truly disappointing results for the United States in international competition occurred last October in Seattle at the World Bridge Team Olympiad. Today's deal was the 64th and final hand of the semifinal match between Austria and the U.S., with Austria seven IMPs ahead.

now?

Suppose the defense proceeds along normal lines. Declarer will probably play low from dummy on the opening lead. West will continue with a second heart, ruffed by declarer. Next the 10 of clubs will be played to dummy's jack and the spade jack led from dummy. Declarer will pick up the king of trumps and score five spade tricks and five club tricks to make his contract. To break the contract, East must decide that his best chance of setting four spades is to find West with the ace of diamonds. If he assumes that much, he will overtake the queen of hearts with the ace even though dummy's king may not be played, cash the diamond king and shoot back his remaining diamond. That great play would have set the contract and would have put our U.S. team in the finals.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY
SEPT. 17, 1985

Much time and effort will be spent in the year ahead on self-improvement. The results will be all you desire and you'll take great pride in the new you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Usually you're a reliable person who others can depend upon, but today you might promise to do something, then fail to honor your commitment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Self-discipline will be required to cope with your extravagant whims again today. If you're wasteful now, you'll pay for it in regrets later.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Try not to be pompous or pretentious to impress others today. If you're not accepted for what you are, it's their loss, not yours.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) To make others sit up and take notice, you might be tempted to embellish the facts today. Unfortunately, this will produce an opposite effect.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Castles cannot be built upon sandy foundations today. If you're hoping to pull off something big, be sure it has a sturdy base.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) In career situations today, do not treat serious matters frivolously. If your attitude is too loose, it may scare others from doing business with you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) For the sake of your self-esteem, don't try to palm off on others today things that you should be taking care of personally. Stand on your own two feet.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) It's best not to try to advise friends today in financial or business matters. Your suggestions may be well-intentioned, but they could be erroneous.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) An opinion about which you feel strongly might not be too well received by others today. Don't try to force your views on people who aren't receptive.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you've been feeling a trifle sluggish lately, it could be because you haven't had adequate exercise. Do something today to stretch your mind and muscles.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It's important today to guard against overindulgence. A little of a good thing is OK, but too much of the same could be bad.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Don't make any major decisions today without first consulting your mate, especially if it pertains to a matter where the two of you disagree.
