about a third of the children who will be helped are in seven war-depleted European countries. The rest live in disadvantaged rural areas of America and on the Navajo Indian Reservation and belong to such low income groups that they are to a considerable extent dependent on this clothing in order to go to school.

Mrs. Gordon S. White, director of the Federation's New York Workroom, which packs all Bundle Day clothing sent overseas, and much of that for domestic use, has some pointers for clothing givers who want to be sure their clothing will do the most good:

Most important is warm clothing—heavy underwear, wool skirts, suits, sweaters and coats. Bundle Day clothing goes to people whose first need is warmth—not style. If the clothing is warm, even adult sizes can be cut down and gratefully used.

Children's shoes are next in importance. Even though scuffed, America's outdoor shoes still have miles of use left in them. Here again, some adult sizes can be used. But, she warns, high-heeled women's shoes are of no use to either mothers of children in areas served by the Federation. Babies' clothing is in constant demand. Diapers, crib-blankets, night-shirts, warm sweaters and undershirts are needed.

Mrs. White's note to Superintendent Lawton stressed the importance of having all gifts clean and in as good repair as possible. "Because these gifts will be symbols of new hope to many needy children."

A settlement made." As did MacArthur and Marshall, Bradley testified behind closed doors. A stenographic report of his testimony was given to reporters after first going through the hands of censors so they could cut out anything they thought might damage public.

Like Marshall, Bradley contended that adopting the MacArthur proposals would chance losing of some of this country's allies.

Senator Bridges (R-NH) wanted to know whether the State Department ever had told Bradley "that some of our Allies would run out on us in case we followed the MacArthur recommendations."

"No, I don't think we were ever told in any positive terms such as that," Bradley said. But he said the possibility had been talked over in discussions with State Department people.

"I believe it is well known," Bradley said, "that the British have a different policy toward China and Formosa than our government has, and they are the principal contributors to the forces in Korea other than ourselves and South Korea."

Second Probe Of Florida Colleges Proposed In House

Revision Of State's Insurance Code Rejected By House; Crime Bill Cleared

TALLAHASSEE, May 16.—(AP)—The Senate today passed H.R. 854 by Senator Boyle to pay county commissioners 7 1/2 cents per mile and not to exceed $25 monthly when traveling within the county on official business, and S.R. 835 to give commissioners $10 per diem and 7 1/2 cents per mile when traveling outside the county. Also passed was H.R. 856 authorizing commission to call for bids on all goods and supplies and construction which cost above $750.

TALLAHASSEE, May 16.—(AP)—Another two-year investigation of management and courses at Florida's State-supported colleges was proposed to the Legislature today by the head of a committee which has been making such a study for the past two years.

The recommendation came from Rep. Bryant Patton of Franklin county in a formal report which said his committee has been hampered by lack of funds. He suggested the next committee be given money with which to work.

He said the new committee should pay special attention to what students call "frill courses," or "frill courses" which are of no practical value and are a waste of the taxpayer's money.

He suggested it also look into business management, purchases, salaries and other costs of higher education in Florida.

Most of the report dealt with an investigation of Florida A. & M. College for Negroes nearly two years ago which led to resignation of President W. H. Gray, Jr. under pressure, an audit report of financial irregularities, and a report of the state auditor.

He said another report dealing with the University of Florida and Florida State University will be given to the House before it adjourns its session.

Dillon filed his report on a full legislative day while House and Senate both were working on comparatively minor measures.

A couple of long sought bills went by the boards.

The House Insurance Committee rejected by overwhelming vote a proposed wholesale revision of the State's insurance laws which a committee of agents and representatives worked 18 months preparing. It already had been passed by the Senate.

Rep. Merchant said there would be no effort to get the House to override the adverse committee report because the "insurance interests are lined up so solidly against it."

The House defeated by a vote of 65-40 a Senate-approved proposal to do away with all school trustees and turn their duties over to the county school boards.

The proposed constitutional amendment to abolish trustees was recommended by the Citizens Education Committee which drafted the 1947 school code, and was backed this year by the Legislature's own Research and Information Council.

Opponents in the House said it would be a blow to local self-government. Supporters said it would do away with conflicts in school authority.

The Senate passed a bill which would take money from sale of Chinese Hordes Stream Down From Hills In 2nd Spring Offensive

TOKYO, Thursday, May 17.—(AP)—Red troops poured out of the hills in attacks all along the eastern front of Korea Wednesday night.

It was too early to tell whether it was the start of the expected Red offensive, or new probing in force.

They struck strong blows from Chunchon, 45 miles northeast of Seoul, eastward to the Sea of Japan.

The attacks came not long after the United Nations divisional officer said the Communist will have to do more probing before the attack. They are not too familiar with our defense lines.

Allied patrols reaching across the 10 miles wide mountainland also probed continually into Chinese positions. Deeper penetrations ran into artillery fire from self-proclaimed guard.

A divisional spokesman said increasing numbers of Red prisoners were being brought back, including one, weakening of Communist morale.

Peiping radio sought to bolster Chinese troops by assuring them a striking force of 90,000 Red was ready for the signal to begin their biggest offensive of the war.

Chinese Breakthrough Is Described By Commander Madden

Commander Madden, an group commander at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, today told some of his experiences during a four month period with an Army Group I in Korea to Kiwanis.

He was introduced by Kaylie Housholder, first lady of the Kiwanis.

The U. S. S. Lyle, an Essex type carrier of 27,000 tons, arrived in the Korean area on Oct. 9 after a voyage from the Mediterranean, through the Panama Canal to the West Coast across the Pacific, he said. It participated in action until Jan. 2 of this year.

When the carrier arrived in Korean waters, the North Koreans were in retreat over the 38th parallel and it appeared that the situation was well in hand as far as United Nations forces were concerned, he stated.

The jets, Corsairs and Douglas fighters made air strikes daily at the North Korean, using rockets, bombs, machine gun fire and napalm or jelled gasoline incendiary bombs.

Commander Madden told of the strikes against railroads, forests, both railroads and bridges in North Korea as "pretty good" roads, however, are not good, and often dirt roads lead up to fine bridges.

MacArthur Firing Hurt Jap Morale, Dulles Declares

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—John Foster Dulles, Republican adviser to the State Department, today said the dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur from his Pacific command "struck down" the Japanese people regarded as a symbol of a just and quick peace.

Dulles is conducting special negotiations to arrange a Japanese peace treaty. He spoke last night in a radio address (CBS "Capital Talkers").

He said MacArthur's dismissal would not directly affect his peace treaty negotiations. But, he added in response to a question, the Japanese people are now afraid and they get a peace treaty soon "they will accept the keys to their jail—perhaps from Russia."

Dulles said Japan is Russia's "prize" in the Far East. He called the invasion of South Korea part of a Russian plan to dominate Japan.

The special envoy indicated strong U. S.-British differences. Referring to Japan, he said: "It is quite natural that the British would want to put restrictions on one of their strongest pre-war competitors, especially in regard to shipping and textiles."

Dulles will leave early next month for Britain to discuss the Japanese situation.

"The United States," he said, "believes the only hope for the future in the Pacific is to develop a strong, peace-loving and independent Japan."

He declared the United States opposes letting Communist China diplomatically recognized by Britain—has a hand in making the peace treaty for Japan. And the U. S. "believes the treaty should be concluded without the need for prior agreement on Formosa."

Republican critics of U. S. Far East policy have said the Administration might hand over Formosa to Red China.

Dulles said the U. S. had told Australia and New Zealand that Japan should ever again become a military threat to them the U. S. would be their ally. This would be done under what Dulles called a "triangular arrangement" for mutual defense in the Pacific.

Further, he said, the U. S. has proposed a "collective security pact" with Japan, as part of the peace treaty.

Dulles declared that President Truman and MacArthur are agreed on the need and content of a Japanese peace treaty. This agreement, he said, might lead to resumption of self-government for the East policy. He added that there had been "very little bi-partisanism and consultation" on Pacific affairs in the past four or five years.

Government Relations

Should some individuals and groups be exempted from the jurisdiction of certain laws? Over this question the members of the President's internal security commission resigned in a body except for one member who was out of the country at the time.

The purpose of this restriction is to guard against abuses of the federal authority by individuals working both sides of the fence. The recent scandals of influence peddling illustrate the need for such a safeguard.

At the same time it can be seen that strict application of this restriction sharply limits the people available for government service. It is seldom that anyone rises to eminence in private life without becoming involved in business with the government.

Exemptions have been made in the past, for such groups as the members of the staff of the special Senate crime investigating committee and the members of the Hoover Commission on Government Organization.

Fate Of The Czechs

The sixth anniversary of the "liberation" of Czechoslovakia brought high Russian figures, including the war hero, Marshal Ivan Konev, to attend.

What an unhappy country is Czechoslovakia! Ever since the fatal battle of the White Hill in 1620, when the Austrians defeated the Bohemian national forces and ended the liberties of the country, it has had no freedom, except for the brief period between the two world wars under the presidencies of Masaryk and Benes.

Shortly after the Conservative leader resumed his seat, the government announced that the not-yet-criticized rubber shipments to Red China had been halted for the rest of 1951.

The Long View

The conclusion that it is foolish to lay plans to be carried out "when the emergency is over" was reached by a group of educators who recently participated in a panel discussion on changes in our way of life.

The speakers cited the belief of many that our nation will be forced to live in an atmosphere of tension and uncertainty for a decade or more.

If we must live with fear and uncertainty, we must also make provision for relaxation. Constant tension can best be endured by forgetting it part of the time.

Women's Meeting Told End To War In Korea Not In Sight

By MARTHA COLE

HOUSTON, Tex., May 16 (AP) - The end of the war in Korea is not in sight, the General said.

MaJ. General Maxwell D. Taylor, assistant chief of staff of the Army, spoke these words at the National Defense Forum last night at the 50th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The American Army in Korea will match the best we had in the last war, he said.

"We're a fighting force. We don't know what round we're in. But this I can say - the enemy has been on the floor twice. He's getting up again, but he's getting up very slowly."

Two thousand delegates from 14,500 women's clubs in the United States and Alaska listened intently to General Taylor.

They applauded when Rockefeller declared: "We can't live in a world community unless we make up our minds whether we're in it or out of it."

He named as threats in the world Soviet imperialism, hunger, poverty, illiteracy.

"What can we do to help in civil defense?" they asked Caldwell.

"You women will be the ones at home when a bomb attack comes," he answered.

"We must learn what will happen when an attack comes, what to do and how not only to protect ourselves but give mutual aid."

"The women asked General Taylor how they could help in the war with Korea."

"Maintain the morale that comes from home. Write to the soldiers, but write confident letters. Don't keep worrying about them."

Iran Murder Plot

The premier has taken up residence in the parliament building - sitting there and sleeping there - with the avowed aim of staying until the national program is carried out.

All Tehran newspapers splashed the parachute troops report, but one was as outspoken as Shabed, which said:

"To reach this holy goal (oil nationalization) Iran will fight a holy war if necessary."

"If all nationalizations are obstructed by the bad policy of British politicians who refuse to face the facts, the day will come when not a single Britisher will remain in Iran."

The 11-man parliamentary board set up to find ways of carrying out the nationalization law met for the third session.

Even Iranians say they are not sufficiently trained technically to operate the world's biggest refinery and the wells supplying it.

So far, however, there has been no disposition to let down brass tacks and talk over some practical operating method with British representatives.

Further consolidation of big three (Britain, France, America) policies for the Far East was achieved when the U. N. sanctions committee, which includes these great powers, voted a world-wide ban on shipments of war goods to Red China.

There remain several more steps before the measure becomes effective. However, a big hurdle has been taken towards big three unity, which is what counts.

The first break in the embargo came last week just after former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill made a dramatic plea for big three unity in the House of Commons.

The man who shipped England through the last World War told Commons that preservation of the friendliest relations with the U. S. is a matter of life and death.

Mr. Churchill's statement was a tacit recognition of America's vast strength and consequent leadership. He declared that the Labor (Socialist) government should avoid giving the United States the impression that while Americans carried the heaviest load in Korea, Britain "pulled at their coat tails and read their moral lessons in statecraft and the love that we ought to have for China."

Shortly after the Conservative leader resumed his seat, the government announced that the not-yet-criticized rubber shipments to Red China had been halted for the rest of 1951.

This came after both Britain and France had made a fight against American insistence on the arms embargo. Economic and political interests were at the bottom of the Anglo-French opposition.

The consensus of observers is that this represents a proper settlement of the controversy. However, this doesn't mean that decisions should be dictated by the fear of American leadership.

It is not surprising that the Western Hemisphere should be so concerned with the problems of Europe. For example, an American dispatch from London reports:

British government - Labor Conservative - could easily persuade this nation to go to war against Red China in the present political and military circumstances. The government - and most Britons - feel that world peace is doomed unless a way is found of settling the Korean conflict.

Bradley Testifies

reminded the Senators he had not been asked yet to give the military opinion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the military reasons, that they gave General Marshall for thinking that General MacArthur should be relieved.

He said Marshall, the Secretary of Defense, had told him he could give those reasons. Bradley added: "I feel perfectly free to give those reasons which I think are the principal ones upon which I am qualified to testify."

Bradley also said MacArthur "screamed off from answering" questions about a presidential conference and Marshall had declined to answer a similar question. "There was nothing said" about that, Bradley added.

This left the course of the inquiry up in the air for the immediate future, but stymied it for the day at least.

At the charges hurled in the committee room itself, Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.) told reporters on leaving that he fears Republicans may be "trying to sabotage" the whole inquiry into MacArthur's ouster.

Fulbright told reporters: "Apparently things are not going the way they (Republicans) like. I think the inference can be drawn that because of this they are making unfair charges about the evidence."

This was a reference to a contention by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) that Bradley's stand "pulled the rug" with the President and that the White House was lowering an "Iron Curtain" on the testimony.

Fulbright said he objected also to a Senate floor speech yesterday by Knowland which Fulbright "regretted as indecent" and "not in the best interests of the country."

It looks like an inference could be drawn that Republicans are trying to sabotage this inquiry, Fulbright said. "I hope that is not true."

Told by reporters of Fulbright's comment, Senator H. Alexander Smith (D-N.Y.) said: "I disagree with that. There is nothing wrong with it."

But Fulbright said it appeared to him the Republicans were preparing to "cry whitewash" and "torpedo the whole investigation."

He said the same issue of confidential communications between President Truman and General MacArthur and Secretary of Defense Marshall "could have been raised but were not."

Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the inquiry group declined to comment on Fulbright's statement.

Russell announced the committee will meet at 9 A. M. tomorrow. He said these hours will be devoted to argument, and at noon, there will be a vote on his question:

"Whether or not a congressional committee has the power to demand an election and the President of the United States to disclose the details of a conversation between the President and the Secretary of Defense."

It looks as though the unity ball is gathering speed.

Giants Edge Palatka 6 To 5 In Fourth Straight Win

Sanford Climbs From Cellar On Strength Of Year's Longest String Of Victories

PALATKA, May 16.—(AP)—The Sanford Giants edged out a 6 to 5 victory over the Palatka Aztecs here last night to stretch their victory string to four and fight free of the Florida State League cellar for the first time in two weeks.

The Giants were completely handcuffed for six innings by Palatka hurler Floyd Bridges, but exploded in the final three frames for six tallies while holding the Aztecs to five.

Palatka outbit the Sanford club 7 to 6, but the Giants' safeties were all timely. First baseman Max Pfeiffer sparked the offense with two for four as Dolan, Petty, Klaus and Neville accounted for the remaining Sanford hits.

The Giants cut off three Palatka rallies with well executed double plays—one from Bailey to Therina and two started by Klaus going to Therina and Pfeiffer.

Blackwell Gives Up But One Hit In Win Over Boston

CINCINNATI, May 16.—(AP)—How can we come so close and yet both of us miss? That might be the question asked by Ewell Blackwell of the Cincinnati Reds and Vern Bickford of the Boston Braves, both of whom were right at the no-hit threshold here last night—and all in the same game.

Neither one of them made it but they came up with what apparently was the greatest twin pitching performance in the National League since 1917.

And to make it all the more dramatic, it was a home run by catcher Johnny Pramesa that won the game for Cincinnati, 1 to 0. Blackwell allowed only one hit as he turned in his third one-hit pitching job since last Sept. 2. Bickford allowed only two hits. All three safe blows were for extra bases—Pramesa's homer and Connie Ryan's double for the Reds and Bob Elliott's double for the Braves.

Except for Pramesa, however, not a man got as far as third base. The statistically minded had to dig back in the records to a frigid May 2, 1917 to find anything to top the Blackwell-Bickford job.

On that date in Chicago Fred Toney of Cincinnati and Jim Hippo of the Chicago Cubs hooked up in a game that went nine innings without a hit by either side. The Reds finally got two safe blows in the 10th to win, 1 to 0, with Toney finishing the game.

balance of the way. Three hat double plays helped him over tight spots.

Seminole High Celeryfeds Play Deland In Baseball Tournament

The Seminole High School baseball team goes to the Sub-District Tournament in New Smyrna Beach today or a first round game with the Deland Tigers.

So far this season the Celeryfeds have compiled a 1-5 record winning from Seabreeze and losing three times to Deland, once to Seabreeze and once to Orlando.

Coach Carl "Goose" Kettles, who also manages the professional Cocoa Indians in the Florida State League, pointed out that the squad has only five players who were on the squad last year with almost a dozen freshmen and sophomores filling out the roster.

Kettles declared that his high school squad was one year away from having sufficient experience to compete effectively in the state tournament although potentially the team is the finest he has coached at Seminole High.

The New Smyrna tournament is a sub-group of the District competition composed of 25 teams. If the Celeryfeds win with Deland they will play either Seabreeze, Pearson or New Smyrna depending on the pairings.

Winners in the sub-group will go to a district tournament and from there to state competition.

Travs Retain Lead In Southern With Win Over Lookouts

By ASSOCIATED PRESS A pair of teams and three individuals recorded noteworthy "firsts" in last night's Southern Association baseball.

The pace-setting Little Rock Travelers downed Chattanooga, 6-4, for their first decision of the year over the Lookouts.

Second-place Atlanta rallied to nip New Orleans by the same score for the first Cracker victory on the field.

Old Bobu Newsom was a winning pitcher for the first time this season, slinging the Birmingham Barons to a 5-1 conquest of the fading Mobile Bears. The loss dumped the Bears into the league cellar.

Another Baron, centerfielder Roberto Ortiz, became the first Southern Association outfielder to register 13 putouts in one game.

The rinky Cuban topped the old mark of 12 posted by Atlanta's Willard Marshall in a 13-inning game with Birmingham in 1940.

Harry Isaacs, owner of Tronkfield Farms and two eligible horses to the Kentucky Derby, formerly bred pedigreed dogs.

The rinky plot for the Senators didn't know it at the time but he was headed for trouble again from the pesky Sanford club which took him that night 11 to 8.

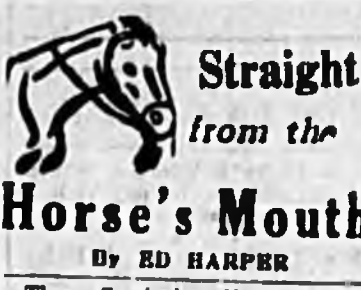

Gene Kistler, blocky second string Sanford backstop who has been converted into a third baseman, went to bat eleven times without a hit, but when he did start meeting the ball he slammed it with a vengeance, lashing out two singles and a homer in four trips.

Kistler has what the Giants have needed—chat. He's a wild man on the bases and keeps up a continual holley in the infield giving the pitcher encouragement and taunting the batters with attention-gathering yipes. And he's become a favorite with the local baseball aficionados although he's played in only two home games.

Gene may not be a ball of fire afield—although he has made but two errors—but he hasn't backed away from any of the hot ones and is doing an adequate job on the bases.

think it may be a good idea to leave him there—or find another spot in the lineup for him.

The ways of baseball clubs are often mysterious but there was some astonishment at Don Williams' being sold—especially at the second highest bidding average on the squad.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

The Seminole High School Celeryfeds go to New Smyrna Beach today to compete in the sub-district baseball tournament against Deland—a team that has beaten them three times this spring.

But Coach Goose Kettles optimistic about their chances of winning a couple of games in spite of the youth and inexperience of the Celeryfeds squad.

So far the baseball team has beaten only Seabreeze in its six starts but in no game were they defeated by a large score.

The Lions and Rotary League baseball programs have given the high school a lack of trained youngsters with which to work and even though the lineup is loaded with sophomores and freshmen, the Celeryfed team has given a good account of itself.

Ed Levy, manager of the Orlando team in the Florida State League, had dropped by for a talk with Goose before the game with Sanford yesterday and both were discussing the prospects in the FSL.

Levy said he thought Rocky Colavito, centerfielder of the Daytona Beach Islanders, was the finest hitter he'd seen in the last five years.

Goose agreed and added that the whole Daytona lineup was a miniature Alderson's row with Truss and Altobelli coming just in front of the rinky Colavito—who is a dead ringer for Joe DiMaggio at the plate.

Goose, whose Cocoa Indians have been battling Sanford for the cellar, said he is in need of a shortstop and a couple of pitchers at which Levy grinned and wanted to know who didn't need pitchers.

Levy was vituperative about the umpiring in the league, being especially bitter about his suspension over what he described as a legitimate beef. Both he and Goose agreed that Letz and Williamson were the best so far this year, running the ball games with authority and efficiency.

The Orlando manager, analyzing the Senators' loss to Sanford on Sunday, laid it to the pinpoint pitching of Carl Thies plus some remarkable fielding plays on the part of the Giants—especially by centerfielder Fred Pettit who twice robbed them of hits.

Levy said his club had been playing over its head anyway and were due for a slight let-down. "Nobody can hit 400 ball all season," he shrugged. Even so he figured a certain element of luck helped the Giants Sunday pointing out that every Orlando hit "had eyes"—looked for the glove of the opposition's defense.

The rinky plot for the Senators didn't know it at the time but he was headed for trouble again from the pesky Sanford club which took him that night 11 to 8.

Tars Club Augusta For Seventh Win In Last Eight Games

By ASSOCIATED PRESS Joe Murray, Savannah left-hander, gained sweet revenge last night from the Macon Peaches. The Redskin hurler, who was humiliated by four home runs and a flock of two-baggers in one inning the last time he appeared against the Peaches, doled out seven hits in going the distance for a lop-sided 10-3 triumph.

The victory kept Savannah just a half game back of the who edged the Columbus Cardinals, 2-1, behind the slick, fresh hit pitching of Paul Almonte. Three of the Card safeties came in the first inning and provided the home team's lone run.

Veteran Pete Bryant pitched well, yielding only six hits, but his job was marred by three Columbus errors.

The Jacksonville Tars remained one game off the pace by clubbing Augusta, 9-3, for their seventh success in the last eight games. Catcher Joe Stringfellow, long a nemesis to Augusta pitchers, drove in four runs for the Tars with a homer, a double and a single.

Tiger hurler Monty Lopez was beaten for the first time this year. He had won four straight. Jim Graves coasted to his fourth mound success for Jacksonville.

The reeling Aeds of Columbia bowed, 10-6, as the Montgomery Grays climbed even with the 200 mark. The loss dropped Columbia deeper into the Sally cellar. They are now ten games behind the leading Charleston Rebels.

Bill Johnson eluded two-run homers for Montgomery in the fourth inning, his sixth of the young season.

tors didn't know it at the time but he was headed for trouble again from the pesky Sanford club which took him that night 11 to 8.

Restrictions On Press Freedom Are Asked By Nehru

NEW DELHI, India, May 15.—Prime Minister Nehru, defending his proposals to amend the freedom of speech clause and other sections of India's constitution, told parliament today the habit seemed to be growing abroad "to criticize us whatever we do."

Nehru said "there has been criticism, not only in India as there should be, but also in some foreign countries, where some of our friends—or those who were our friends—have got into the habit of criticizing us whatever we might do."

"If we seek peace, they criticize us. If we do something else, they say we are not peaceful. But we welcome this criticism, because in matters of this kind the more scrutiny the better."

Moving to refer a constitutional amendment to a committee of 21 members of parliament with instructions to report by May 21, Nehru said the amendment was "an enabling measure clarifying the power of parliament" and not to empower the government as such.

Termining the present period "a kind of prewar stage of the great crisis for which we have to suffer the consequences," Nehru denounced as "irresponsible" elements of the Indian press.

"What are we to do about these little sheets, coming out day to day, which poison and vitiate the atmosphere?" he demanded. "There is a limit to the license one can allow freedom carriers to carry. Responsibility, obligation, lack of it, is an absence of freedom and discipline. If these are freedom, a negation of freedom."

Nehru declared that "there is no such thing as freedom with no country in the world where regard to the press as India. But it is a matter of the deepest distress to me to see day to day these news sheets poisoning the oyster shell on state owned water bottoms and use of fish and oyster research.

A few new bills came in a constitutional five-man Salt Water or Fish Commission was proposed in the Senate by Senator Gaudier of New Smyrna Beach.

The commission would supervise regulation of shell fish, sponges and other forms of marine life. It also would operate hatcheries and laboratories.

Senator Ripley of Jacksonville proposed another change in the State Constitution to provide for a collector of revenue. He would be an administrative officer assisting the Governor and would be named by him. His term of office would be the same as the Governor's and he would "collect all revenues accruing to the state."

Rep. Carlton of Duval county proposed a single registration for all vehicles owned by the State. It would mean State cars and trucks would not need new license plates each year.

Reps. Turfington and Whitlock of Alachua introduced a bill to appropriate $1,275,000 for an agricultural laboratory and classroom building at the University of Florida and $325,000 for an addition to science hall there. A similar bill has been received in the Senate.

Legislators put aside money matters for a while.

They have 16 days left to decide how much the State should spend for the next two years and where to get any additional revenue that may be needed.

Bills putting tight restrictions on transmission and publication of racing information that would be helpful to illegal bookmakers are a step nearer to being the law of Florida.

They are among a dozen anti-crime bills which cleared through the Senate yesterday and are on their way to the House, some for no more than minor changes in measures already adopted by the house.

One would make it unlawful to print, sell or possess "wall charts, tip sheets, newspapers, scratch sheets, bookmaking tickets or other items in furtherance of gambling."

Another would prohibit transmission of any racing information from a Florida track in the hour immediately before the first race daily. It also would ban transmission of results until half an hour after each race has been made of the younger generation.

"Imagine our soldiers and sailors reading this day to day," he said. "The way untruth is handled about it is becoming impossible to distinguish truth from falsehood."

Referring to an amendment to enable state governments to abolish Zamindari (absentee landlordship without compensation) Nehru continued, "The essential problem for India and all Asia is land reform."

In the interests of stability, Nehru said, he preferred to pay "adequate compensation, but not too much of it" for the end of the Zamindari.

The Socialists and other opposition parties demanded abolition of Zamindari with no compensation.

Stressing that it was unlikely the amendments would be the basis for legislation by the present government and parliament, Nehru said, "I repudiate the suggestion that any of these amendments are designed for any political or party (congress)."

Acheson Squelches Resignation Rumor At Press Meeting

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today he has "no intention" of resigning and intends to stay in the Administration "as long as the President wants me to stay."

Acheson was asked about his attitude toward his job at a news conference and made this statement which he later authorized for direct quotation:

"I have no intention of resigning."

"The matter has been talked about many times and my position has been stated many times. I am prepared to stay as long as the President wants me to stay."

Acheson also hotly maintained the United States is absolutely opposed to Red China's membership in the United Nations and so far has succeeded in convincing a majority of U. N. members to take the same view.

That is the important part of the question, Acheson told a news conference. With unusual sharpness, he advised reporters not to fiddle around with a secondary question, as he called it, such as whether Red China's admission should be vetoed by the United States, if it ever came to that.

Secretary of Defense Marshall finished—except the last race of the day, when the embargo would be only 15 minutes. The ban could be lifted, also, for two feature races such as the Hialeah Flamingo Stakes each week.

Mons came on Nov. 1 when the "Chinese came into the picture," he declared. "With the Chinese coming down over the Yalu River, our job was to knock out bridges. Diving through canyons to hit bridges was difficult, he said, "but we did get some." He added that some anti-aircraft fire from the other side of the Yalu was experienced.

He told of the big Chinese breakthrough, and the period when the nearly-trapped Marines retreated to Hungnam. His air group worked in close support with ground troops, and on one occasion when he received a radio report from a jeep that a U. S. column had been stopped, his 12 planes plastered a Chinese occupied wood with napalm, and the column was able to go ahead.

"One of the big factors that surprised the Chinese was the fine

they have shown that the "United States is nothing but a paper tiger." The Red China broadcast said the war will continue until "We drive the mad, shameless American imperialists completely out of Korea."

American troops, somewhat time in a two and a half week lull, thoroughly bolster their defenses. A division spokesman said the best positions they said the Allied forces are prepared to hold. He said they're confident and in good spirits.

AP correspondent John Randolph reported that while Allied officers differed on just when the Reds will strike they agreed: "The Chinese are loaded and cocked and can explode southward any time they want."

The Chinese sharpened their probing attack a Wednesday morning concentrating on the central front. They have moved in considerable strength across the Pukhan and Soyang rivers on either side of Chunchon.

Asked for comment on United States desire to obtain a speedy, decisive termination of the Korean fighting, the Generalissimo said: "I cannot entertain an optimistic view of the Korean war. I cannot predict when it will end if continued on the present basis."

The old warrior against Communism then made his declaration that his Nationalists by a diverse and many counter-offensive against the mainland would halt aggression in Korea.

"It would take six months for us to start the large-scale counter-offensive after necessary and adequate equipment and supplies are available in Formosa, he said."

Plymouth's New "Safety-Flow Ride" Takes Bounce Out of Bumps

MOTION PICTURES made by our engineers show how little the new Plymouth goes up and down when passing over a bump, compared to cars that do not have the new "Safety-Flow Ride." New Oriflow shock absorbers, along with balanced weight distribution, synchronized springing, and other engineering features, hold the car closer to a level plane. They give Plymouth the riding qualities of a car weighing a thousand pounds more, in the opinion of Tom McCahill, automotive expert, writing in Mechanix Illustrated.

OUR TEST DRIVERS repeatedly drove the new Plymouth across ditches and deep holes. Instead of the terrific pitching and tossing you'd expect, the car absorbed the impact and stayed under easy control.

"SAFETY-FLOW RIDE" IS SO STEADY, even on rough roads, that you don't worry about giving rear seat passengers a toss or thump. This means peace of mind as well as bodily comfort. It's relaxed and restful—a completely new experience in riding comfort.

HEADS UP! With "Safety-Flow Ride" you can forget about the condition of the road immediately in front of the car and give your entire attention to oncoming traffic, pedestrians, and intersections ahead.

Bill Is Introduced To Strip Hialeah Of Choice Race Dates

Proposal Would Leave Allocation Of All Racing Periods To State Commission

TALLAHASSEE, May 17—(AP)—The old fight between horse race tracks, which has plagued the Florida Legislature since it took a hand in awarding racing dates four years ago, flared again today.

Nineteen members of the House joined in presenting a bill in the public amusement committee to repeal the 1947 law which in effect gives Hialeah Park the choice 40-day racing period at the height of the racing season.

The effect of the bill would be to leave awarding of racing dates solely up to the State Racing Commission, which does it for dog tracks and used to do it for horse tracks.

A battle by operators of Gulfstream Park to write into law a new formula that would give them the second-best dates tied up the 1949 regular and special seasons for days with some of the bitterest debate, parliamentary maneuvering and most determined lobbying in recent years. It was defeated on a vote in the Senate.

Although eight members of the Public Amusement Committee—a majority—were co-sponsors of the bill to repeal the 1947 Hialeah law, the group put off action on whether to send it to the calendar for floor debate until after a public hearing Monday.

In the Senate, Senators Gautier of Duval and Lewis of Broward, who led rival forces on the Gulfstream dates bill two years ago, joined in introducing today a bill that would let one race track lease another and operate it on dates granted the leasing track.

Gautier said the bill had no significance.

Plans of today's legislative session were made by the committee. The Senate Finance and Taxation committee approved a bill taking tax collection responsibility away from the State Revenue Department and giving the task of collecting beverage taxes to the State Comptroller. The Revenue Department would retain its enforcement duties under the measure.

As originally presented by Senator Davis of Manatee the bill would have abolished the Department of Agriculture and both tax collection and enforcement duties in the hands of the Comptroller.

The Senate's public health committee rejected unopposed a bill which would have brought the sale of cosmetics, toothpaste and home remedies under rigid state control. The measure would have required all states which sell these items to secure permits from the state board of pharmacy.

The House received a proposed constitutional amendment from Rep. Jernigan of Escambia county and Melvin of Santa Rosa county which would do away with the county fee of officers. Under the proposal all county officers would be paid straight salaries and all (Continued on Page Six)

This Armed Forces Day is observed in the midst of a steady mobilization of America's power. Our goal is security and peace. It is a mobilization of strength to deter further aggression.

Truman Lashes Taft's Stand On National Defense

President Ridicules Proposal For War With Chinese Reds

WASHINGTON, May 17—(AP)—President Truman lashed out today at General Douglas MacArthur and Republican Senator Taft today for seeking, at the President's put it, to have this country "go for an all-out war in China all by ourselves."

Mr. Truman virtually lashed a written speech prepared for the National Conference on Citizenship. He told his audience that one week of all-out war would cost this country "10 to 20 times" what it is costing to arm and contain the fighting in Korea.

"We must have friends in this troubled world," the President exclaimed. "Some senators and some other people would have us go it alone."

This was an indirect reference to testimony by General Douglas MacArthur, whom he quoted from the Far Eastern command last month.

Mr. Truman, appealing for strengthened price and rent control legislation, said there was no question that Congress will vote a two-year extension of controls expiring June 30.

He said the decisions he and Congress will make on this, on defense rearming and on foreign aid "ought to be above petty politics, because the welfare of the (Continued on Page Two)

Low Flying Naval Aircraft Are Making Simulated Carrier Landings

Naval planes flying over Sanford during the last few days at relatively low altitude are following a set pattern necessary in practicing landings similar to those on a carrier. Air Group Comdr. Walter Madden pointed out today.

He declared that some telephone calls had been received at the Naval Air Station from citizens complaining of the noise of the planes at low altitude, and asking if the planes cannot fly higher. The reason that the planes stay low is that if they flew higher they would have to make a gliding approach to the runway during the tests, and this would result in poor landing for this type of test, he stated.

Many of the pilots who practiced landings this morning had seen carrier action in Korea, and now find it necessary to practice the "bounce" after a five month interval.

Cross winds made landings somewhat difficult this morning, but most of the pilots were able to make good landings, making a turn to the left onto the runway, controlling speed properly and coming over "the deck" edge at about 15 to 20 feet altitude, touching the runway in a simulated aircraft carrier landing and then taking off again for another circle and try. The prevailing east winds made a circle over the city necessary.

Lieut. G. E. McQuinn, senior U. S. O. (landing signal officer) waved the signal flags. If a pilot appeared to be at proper altitude and speed he would be signalled to land; if not, he made another circle and tried again.

Present at the landings were Erickson, U. S. N. R., an L. S. O. officer and Lieut. Patrick Budge, an exchange officer of the British Royal Navy, and formerly attached to a British carrier in the Mediterranean. A signal officer technically is known as a "lateman."

Word of an approaching storm on the east coast was received at the Station this morning and Comdr. Madden ordered all proper precautions be taken to secure and protect planes in event of hard winds.

In recognition of Armed Forces week will be held Saturday afternoon at from 1:30 to 4:00 P. M. It was announced by Capt. J. L. Chittenden, commanding officer. The Station now has four jet planes, and additional aircraft here soon and Comdr. Madden here morning were made with propeller type planes, mostly Corsairs.

Russian Attempt To Stop Embargo On Chinese Fails

Soviet Delegate Says Security Council Must Pass On Plan

NEW YORK, May 17—(AP)—A worldwide arms embargo against Communist China was approved overwhelmingly today by the United Nations Political Committee.

The committee announced today that steel supplies for arms and other consumer "hard goods" will be cut about one-third below pre-Korea levels on July 1.

The Soviet bloc delegates remained in their seats.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik seized the floor on a point of order at the opening of the Political Committee.

He argued that any question of world peace or security—like the embargo proposal advanced by a Special Assembly Panelists Committee—belongs in the Security Council.

Russia does not have veto power in the Assembly and over-riding approval of the embargo plan had been foreseen. The Assembly took over all phases of the Korean question last fall after Russia paralyzed the Security Council by using the veto.

After making his objections, Malik said:

Massive Chinese Offensive Breaks Against UN Defense; Bradley's Silence Is Upheld

Committee Votes 18-8 Not To Demand Testimony On Confidential Truman Talks

WASHINGTON, May 17—(AP)—Senate investigators upheld today the refusal of General Omar N. Bradley to testify about President Truman's private talks with his advisers on firing General Douglas MacArthur.

Senator McMillon (D-Conn.) said the vote was 18 to 8.

The action sustained a decision by Senator Russell (D-Ga.)—chairman of the Joint Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committee—that Bradley had a right to keep silent on the talks.

Bradley declined on Tuesday to tell the committee, in response to questions by Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) what was said at a White House conference Apr. 3 which led to the President's dismissal of MacArthur as Pacific commander on Apr. 11.

A vote to overturn Russell's ruling could have led to a formal demand that Bradley answer the questions or face possible charges of contempt of Congress.

While the senators were settling this matter, President Truman put in some links for his point of view in the controversy with MacArthur over Korean war strategy.

In a speech to a national conference on citizenship, the President lashed out at "some senators and some other people" who he said would have this country "go for an all-out war in China all by ourselves." (Continued on Page Six)

Iranian Declares War Is Threatened By British Action

TEHRAN, Iran, May 17—(AP)—A national front deputy told the Majlis (Parliament) today that British pressure on Iran will cause World War III.

The deputy, Abolhasan Haeri-zadeh, a member of Premier Mohammad Mosaddegh's Nationalist Party, referred to reports of the possibility of British parachute troops being sent to Iran to help the oil companies of the British-controlled Anglo-Iranian oil company.

(The British have not said where parachute troops placed on alert early this week might be sent.)

"These threats do not frighten us at all," the deputy said. "We are not going to yield to the company's pressure. Any pressure on this country will cause a world war, Iran should be free, independent and prosperous or it will be a pathway for Red forces to all other parts of the world."

Including the oil companies, the British-controlled Anglo-Iranian oil company has stepped up with increased treatment in the press of the British parachute troops reported.

Public feeling also was aroused by yesterday's arrest of Abolhasan Haeri-zadeh, No. 2 man in the fanatical Feylavian Islam religious society on charges of plotting the assassination of Premier Mohammad Mosaddegh.

Feylavian Islam recently fell out with Mosaddegh, apparently feeling he was not moving fast enough toward nationalistic goals.

Police quoted Haeri-zadeh as saying Mosaddegh is lucky I am caught, otherwise he would have been shot within the next two or three days.

(U. S. secretary of State Dean Acheson said Washington is urging both Iran and Britain to avoid extreme steps in the oil crisis. He said the two nations have the opportunity to work out a harmonious settlement.)

THE MEN'S CLUB OF Holy Cross Episcopal Church will hold its regular weekly supper tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the Parish House. The annual election of officers will be held and the Rev. H. F. Johnson will be the principal speaker.

General J. C. Hutchison, commander of the 14th National Guard Division, will lead the Armed Forces Day parade on Saturday in conjunction with Capt. J. L. Chittenden, commander of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station. General Hutchison is a veteran of both world wars and commanded the 1st Division in the Pacific Theater of Operations during the second World War.

Tax Investigation Delinquent Girls Of Racketeers To Center On Miami To Broken Homes

Revenue Department Plans Crackdown On Illegal Operators

More than 74 percent of the girls at the Florida Industrial School for girls are sent there because of broken homes, Mrs. Alice D. McPherson, superintendent, told members of the Business and Professional Women's Club at their monthly meeting last night at the Yacht Club.

Mrs. McPherson, who was introduced by Mrs. E. B. Carter, second vice-president of the club, said that at present the school houses 115 girls whose ages range from 10 to 18 years. They are not sent there on a permanent basis but classified as delinquents.

The school activities and occupational training is geared as nearly as possible to outside activity so that when the girls return home they can adjust themselves easily, she said.

The reason for many problem children is that they feel that no one loves them or cares what happens to them," Mrs. McPherson declared. "Some of these girls complete their stay at the school without receiving a letter, package or visitor. They are not criminals but are unfortunate and should be given more consideration when seeking employment after returning home."

Mrs. E. J. Routh, club president, announced that a benefit baseball game between Orlando and Sanford will be sponsored by the club in the near future.

Mrs. Ed Little was appointed chairman of an entry in the Armed Forces Day parade on Saturday.

Plans were discussed for presenting the annual "Miss Sanford" beauty contest. Guests were Mrs. Helen Rinehart, Ocala, and Mrs. J. D. Land, Reading, Pa.

American Troops Plug Hole In ROK Lines; 500 Thousand Reds Launch Huge Attack

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., May 17—(AP)—Waves of attacking Chinese Reds failed today to break through the main United Nations defense line.

The Chinese smashed a hole in South Korean ranks and streamed through, but Allied troops rushed up and plugged the gap by nightfall.

Waves of Chinese stormed U. S. positions. But every time the Americans were pushed off a hill they counterattacked to recapture the high ground.

The actions were along the east-central front, hottest sector of the 75-mile wide battleground. Field dispatches said 30,000 Chinese were attacking in the 25-mile length of the east-central sector in the opening stages of and all-out Communist offensive.

Another 25,000 Reds were reported gathering strength on the Pukhan Valley invasion route of the west-central sector. Slithering Chinese had crept close to American lines at the junction of the Han and Pukhan Rivers despite extensive aerial and artillery punishment.

Far to the west erupting attacks and mounting pressure threatened a major advance toward Seoul might be tried later.

All along the line Red reserves were packed deep behind the bugle blowing assault units. Front line officers said Red strategy appeared to be to hit the center of the line regardless of losses.

Communists attacked relentlessly. U. S. planes, artillery and mine fields took a heavy toll. "We are killing them by the thousands," a U. S. air officer said.

Artillery batteries fired at a record pace. "We are not firing except at groups of 100 or more," an artillery officer said.

The U. S. Eighth Army estimated Communist casualties Wednesday at 3,892. The Fifth Air Force said it killed 850 Thursday in 417 combat strikes between 6 P. M.

Heaviest fighting was on a 25-mile sector of the east-central front near the Chunchon to Inje. The Chinese breakthrough was south of Inje, north of the 38th Parallel. Two South Korean divisions were reported retreating from the Inje area.

Elements of two Chinese regiments had slipped through the gap in the Republic's ranks.

Essy field dispatch referring to the breakthrough was heavily censored. AP correspondent William T. Raftery on the east-central front reported the breakthrough exposed the flank of other Republic units. He said these troops were gravely threatened.

South Koreans to the west gave ground heavy pressure. Still farther southwest, in the neighborhood of Chunchon, Americans generally held their positions in one instance U. S. troops counterattacked.

American lines were dented in spots.

The Communist version of the battle was broadcast by Pyongyang radio in North Korea. It said Reds "are successfully pushing through a major American and British aggressors all along the front."

The attack began on the east coast Wednesday and exploded westward. AP correspondent Kate Polowatz compared it to a string of firecrackers exploding as the flame crept along the coast for 45 miles.

From east to west front line dispatches gave this picture Thursday night:

South Koreans on the east coast fell before the attack of Communist stream, up mountain ridges.

Six hundred Communists penetrated South Korean lines north of Hangey. Allied troops rushed up to plug the hole. Hangey is 20 miles inland and seven miles northeast of Inje.

Communist struck hard all along the Inje sector, breaking through South Korean lines and (Continued on Page Six)
