WORLD PEACE IS STILL IN DOUBT AS 1930 CLOSES

Past Year To Go Down In History As One Of Much Uncertainty

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Unparalleled in activity and turbulence since the World War, the year-end finds the field of international relations facing every prospect of being written into history as an unusually hectic and uncertain period.

Lacking a serious threat of international war, 1930 has been marked with civil strife, internal discontent and political changes which have mainly as their basis the economic depression of virtually the entire world.

Most important of the diplomatic developments since the Washington arms conference of 1922 was the London naval conference—the crowning event of the year. After three months of tedious negotiations, clouded many times with the threat of a breakdown, the London party succeeded in limiting the naval armaments of the three principal naval powers, the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Following closely was the measure of success met at Geneva in the final session of the preparatory disarmament commission in laying the ground-work for a more general disarmament on land, sea and in the air.

Spasmodic revolts, following upon one another with surprising speed, occurred in Bolivia, Argentina, Brazil, Peru and Guatemala. Administrations were changed by force in those countries, and the State Department promptly recognized all of the new governments except that in Guatemala, where a study of the political status of the new regime is being made. Abrupt revolts took place in Spain and Chile and there were rumblings of possible upheavals in Ecuador, Cuba and Venezuela. While far removed from the United States, the discontent and bloodshed in India was watched closely by American diplomats in view of its possible effect upon the British empire.

Important in the changes in China was the gain by the Nationalist Government of Nanking of supremacy over the Northern coalition which for a time threatened the most stable government China has had for many years. This success of the Nanking administration was countered, however, by a bandit menace, involving the capture of American missionaries and thefts and destruction of property.

For the State Department, one of the most important developments during this, the first full year in office of Secretary Stimson, was the increasing participation of the United States in affairs abroad. The department under the policy of President Hoover with regard to international conferences, accepted invitations for American participation in more than 75 such meetings.

Linked with the economic depression throughout the world were the flood of rumors and counter-rumors involving the

London Fog Swept Away By Draughts Of Clean, Fresh Air

LONDON, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Old Man Weather crammed copious draughts of fresh air down upon London Tuesday, dissipating the fog which has caused 13 deaths and played havoc with business and people generally throughout southern England for a week.

The climax of the dense, eye-smelling pall that mixed itself with swirling smoke and soot was reached Monday at noon, and Monday night it began swishing away. By noon Tuesday transportation systems had snapped back on schedules twisted and halted by the fog.

Four persons were drowned when they walked off the banks of streams hidden by the cloud.

Along the fog area many wrecked autos and trucks, abandoned temporarily by their owners, stood where they had stopped after ramming other conveyances, poles or falling into ditches.

The most telling blow delivered by the haze to the Christmas life of London was the almost complete paralysis of thousands of tons of overseas mail for Americans and others who are spending the holidays in England.

question of war debts and reparations with hints of a possible more lenient policy by the United States. Emphatic denials of any change in policy followed these rumors on each occasion.

1 Tennessee Daily Is Allowed To Go In Hands Of Receiver

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 24.—(AP)—In two decrees handed down Tuesday Chancellor James B. Newman placed the Southern Publishers, Inc., in receivership but denied an application for a receiver for the Tennessee Publishing company, publishers of the Nashville Tennessean and Evening Tennessean.

Southern Publishers, Inc., is a holding company for stock of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Inc., and Knoxville Journal, Inc., whose physical properties are in receiverships at Memphis and Knoxville. One company publishes the Memphis Commercial Appeal while the other operates the Knoxville Journal, a morning newspaper.

Col. Luke Lea is president of the Southern Publishers, Inc., as well as of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Inc., and the Knoxville Journal, Inc., and the Tennessee Publishing company. Rogers Caldwell is associated with him in all organizations except the Tennessee Publishing company.

The chancellor named Larkin E. Couch, Nashville attorney as receiver for Southern Publishers, Inc., and instructed the receiver to take immediate possession of Memphis Commercial Appeal, Inc., stock now held by the Nashville Trust company as trustee to secure a $1,500,000 bond issue of Southern Publishers, Inc., purchased by the Minnesota & Ontario Paper company of Minneapolis.

The Minnesota & Ontario Paper company, the Nashville Trust company and D. D. Robertson, receiver for the Bank of Tennessee, made the application for the receiver.

A Winter Playground

Throughout the civilized world Florida is coming more and more to be known as the resort center of the world.

Florida's stage is set. The curtain rises, and amazing scenes are disclosed. Bathers are plunging into the warm salt water on a thousand miles of sandy beaches.

From Jacksonville, rail, motor or water routes lead to all parts of Florida—to East Coast, Interior and West Coast.

Florida's diversity of playgrounds is continued in the interior highland and lake regions, sought by the thousands who have given existence to scores of attractive cities and towns.

"Florida provides entertainment for a tourist democracy."

The Tax System

A bigger cause for complaint among our people today than Florida taxes is Florida's tax system. One class of property is taxed to the limit; other classes of property escape taxation almost altogether.

"Just how far Florida is from this at the present time," says the Tampa Times, "is easily seen. It has 67 different assessors charged with the duty of valuing all kinds of property without a standard rule."

"To do this the constitution will need amendment to permit classification of all property. It now permits classification of intangibles but a law must be passed carrying out this permission."

Cantata Presented By Choirs On Sunday

"Bethlehem" by J. H. Maunder, a Christmas cantata, was presented by the choir of the city last Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church under the direction of B. C. Moore with Mrs. Frances Woodruff as organist.
The church was decorated for the occasion with quantities of poinsettias and ferns accentuating the theme of Christmas. The hymn "Joy to the World" was sung by the congregation after which Mrs. Woodruff played an organ solo in interpreting the wondrous music of the Orient.

The opening number on the program was a shepherd boy's solo by Mrs. J. H. Colclough which told the story of a shepherd boy tending his flock on the plains of Bethlehem. This was followed by the angel's chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest," sung by all the ladies in full chorus.
Mrs. George Harden, as the shepherd, then told of the "wondrous thing that had come to pass" and Mrs. Arthur Branan, Mrs. B. C. Moore, A. H. Stone and Dr. H. Wade Rucker formed a quartet who sang, "Only a Little Village". The entire choir then joined in with "Rest We Secure from Danger" and "Darkness Hath Passed Forever".

Christmas Fails To Be Noted In Russia

MOSCOW, Dec. 25.—(AP)—Christmas day dawned in Soviet Russia with the managers of a city to reflect the celebration in the Christian world outside.
There was not a Christmas tree to be found, even among the Christians, who usually celebrate modestly. There were said to be no Christmas trees available because the authorities do not permit the promiscuous cutting of pine and evergreens.

At the church of the Redeemer in Moscow, one of the greatest edifices left standing in Russia by the communist anti-religious campaign, some 400 worshippers of the "living church" observed the day, most of them aged men and women.

Christmas Program Is Given By School

A program that gave Christmas joy and cheer was that of Friday morning at the South Side Primary School given by the First Grade pupils under the supervision of Miss Vivian Crosby, assisted by Miss Zillah Welsh. A feature of the program was the play, "Santa Claus Workshop" which was presented in a manner evidencing careful training.

- The following is the program rendered:
1. "Merry Christmas to You"—School.
2. Scripture with Chorus—School.
3. "While Stars of Christmas Shine"—School.
4. Announcements.
5. Song, "Santa Claus"—School.
6. Play, "Santa's Workshop".
7. Song, "Santa's Friend"—Nancy Dighton.
8. "Upon the Housetops".
9. Tap Toe Dance—Doris Jackson.
10. Reading—"Walter Haines".
11. Reading—"Happiness"—Estella Williamson.
12. "Merry, Merry Christmas Bells".

YOU AND YOUR CHILD

By Irma Morris

Bringing Them Up Alike
Ethel had just slammed the door of her room. She was in disgrace again. She couldn't ever do anything to please her mother. She'd like to run away! She wished she was dead! Then they'd all be sorry!
Ethel's mother, just as unhappy as the child, sat brooding in her room. Why was it, she pondered, that she couldn't do anything with this youngster, when her younger child was always so good and so easy to manage? "I've brought them up exactly alike," she said to herself. "Whatever Jennie has had Ethel has had, too." Having exonerated herself from all blame she ended up by blaming her old friend heredity for the whole trouble.

Miss Ruth Dressor Is Wed To M. B. Menarry

The home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Gibbs was the scene of a pretty wedding at high noon on Christmas Day when Miss Ruth E. Dressor, sister of Mrs. Gibbs, was united in marriage to Mr. Martin B. Menarry, of Jacksonville. Dr. E. D. Brumley of the First Presbyterian Church used the impressive rite ceremony which made the couple man and wife.

PERSONALS

Miss Elaine Perry, Pete Sones and Elmore Sones, of Haines City spent yesterday afternoon here with friends.
Miss Ruby Booth has arrived home for the holidays from Central S. C. where she has been attending college.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bosch, of Daytona Beach, and Miss Mary Mahoney motored to the Bob Memorial Tower today.

A DISH A DAY

When a hearty meat and vegetable course is served at dinner, one wants to be confronted with an elaborate salad, yet one doesn't want a salad so crisp and juicy that it is unpalatable. In many homes, the salad and dessert courses are combined, a thoroughly chilled fruit salad with cream on a slice of iceberg lettuce floating in a compromise between the two. In a family where there are children, however, any such mixture would be greeted with protests.

It is for the home people only by adults, therefore, that the following suggestions are given for a final course at dinner. They are hearty and piping and most appealing to those who do not care for heavy sweets.
The first appeal, particularly to those who feel that dinner lacks an essential excitement on point of it does not finish with cheese.
PEPPER CHEESE SALAD
1 1/2 packages (11 tablespoons) blue-flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon vinegar
2 cakes (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened with
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoon paprika
Dash of white pepper
2 medium-size green peppers

Immediately after the economy of the bridal couple and wedding guests were entertained at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Russell on Chery Avenue. The home was decorated in Christmas greens and a color scheme of white and green was carried out in the dining room. A beautiful frothing cake, topped by a tiny bride and groom, centered the long dining table while lighted green candles and appropriate bridal gifts were further carried out the chosen color.

PI KAPPA FRATERNITY GIVES FORMAL DANCE

What was considered one of the most enjoyable dances ever given by the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity was that of last night when the alumni and active members of Alpha Eta chapter of the University of Florida entertained with their annual Christmas night dance at the Lake County Club near Eustis. During the evening the club and continued from then until early in the morning. Music was furnished by Ramon Currier's 10-piece orchestra of the University of Florida.

KAPPA DELTA DANCE IS GIVEN YESTERDAY

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 25.—(AP)—A Christmas gift of $20,000 was presented by the unemployed of Philadelphia, yesterday by Mrs. Edmund B. Walker of the Finance Office.

Mrs. Schirard Gives Party For Orchestra

Complimenting the members of Ramon Currier's orchestra of the University of Florida, of which her son is a member, Mrs. John Schirard entertained with a buffet supper last night at her home on West Teah Street following the Kappa Delta tea dance. Supper was served informally by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. C. Kay, of Jacksonville.

Adorning the rooms where the guests were entertained were quantities of poinsettias, wreaths and other Christmas decorations, while a large lighted Christmas tree centered the living room.
Three present were the Misses Catherine Kay and Nellie Kay, of Jacksonville; Katherine Schirard and Mrs. William Schirard, of Tampa; Ramon Currier, of Jacksonville; George Knight, Jack Peters, Leonard Miller, Bernard Schirard, John Schirard, Jr., Paris Walters, of Jacksonville; Hudson Farris, of Lakeland; William Dean, of Monticello; Merrill Patrick, of St. Petersburg; and Leon Robbins, of Gainesville.

When money is plentiful, do the usual. For a house without a budget is like a ship without a compass or a home without rules. It runs away with itself.
So budget with the help of your neighborhood AEP where you can be sure of getting real cooperation in the shape of good food at considerably low prices. For AEP stores handle business on such a large scale that they can afford to sell at a little more than cost.
Furthermore, they don't let you get into debt as far as they're concerned, but they will only for cash—nothing more than their prices are always so moderate.
So keep your home in order by planning efficiently and spending a little time and money at the nearest AEP. That's the way to make both ends meet when money's scarce. And it's the intelligent way to run a household when money is plentiful.

MANY DEATHS HAB YULETIDE DAY IN NATION

Twenty-two Ditzel families last night had replaced the holly wreaths of yuletide happiness for crepe, the symbol of bereavement. Unfold families had their hopes of a joyous Christmas dashed by fireworks accidents and under the wheels of automobiles, as reports were received here of numerous injuries to persons residing in the South.

Antos took a toll of 19 of the 22 persons killed Christmas eve and yesterday. Fire was responsible for one death and an accidental discharge of shotguns the other two fatalities.

Tennessee with six automobile accidents led the other southern states in total fatalities for the two days.

Kentucky and Mississippi each reported three fatalities within the state for the two days with North Carolina, Arkansas and Florida running close with two apiece and one each from Louisiana and Georgia.

Raymond Giddeon, 16, was killed accidentally at Pensacola, when a shotgun was discharged as he unloaded a wagon filled with holiday decoration greenery. Glover Braswell, young man of Monticello, was killed accidentally as his shotgun was discharged when he picked it up to start on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Antonio Rodriguez died at Birmingham yesterday from injuries received when her dress caught fire from a heater.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Christmas cheer ruled in the army majority of homes in the Middle West yesterday, but many families removed their holly wreaths to substitute crepe.

Forty-seven persons, including seven children, lost their lives in this section Christmas eve and yesterday.

Automobile accidents were responsible for a majority of the fatalities—killing 30 persons. Eight persons were burned to death; three were killed in hunting accidents, two died in the collapse of a bridge in Missouri, and one in an Indiana street car accident.

The number of deaths by states was, Missouri, 11; Wisconsin, 10; Indiana, 8; Michigan, 6; Minnesota, 6; Illinois, 4; North Dakota, 1; and Iowa, 1.

Six persons were burned to death in a Whiting, Ind., rooming house fire, and a man and a girl died of burns in Michigan.

Two separate automobile accidents in Wisconsin accounted for 10 deaths. At Lomira a father, two grandparents and three children were killed in a collision between their automobiles bound for church and a train. The mother and a young son had remained at home. A father was injured, probably fatally, at Chippewa Falls, Wis. and his wife and three children were killed in a second automobile collision.

In Minnesota two automobiles collided and burned at Barnum, resulting in five deaths and critical injuries to a sixth person. A mother was killed and her husband and 9-year-old daughter were injured seriously in a Minneapolis auto. accident.

Necklace Lost Last Year Found In Cuba

HAVANA, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Secret police have unearthed in a pawn shop a pearl necklace said to be valued at $50,000, which was stolen last year from Mrs. Catherine Davis Daws, of Glen Head, L. I., while on a visit to Havana.

The necklace originally contained 126 pearls, from which was suspended a pear shaped diamond pendant.

After being stolen the necklace was divided into two strings. The diamond pendant has not been recovered. Both sections were stated to have been pawned for $900 by Arturo Valdes Prado, who was arrested.

Johnny J. Jones, Of Circus Fame, Is Dead In DeLand

ago, Mr. Jones was a veteran showman. He had been in the business 35 years, the last 27 of which he had owned his carnival, known as the Johnny J. Jones Exposition Shows.

He came from a family of circus folk, 14 brothers and sisters, only three sisters surviving, beside his widow and a son, Johnny J. Jones Jr.

Funeral services were held here this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment took place at Orlando later in the afternoon.

Showmen bowed their heads in sorrow as word of the death of their leader reached them, but true to the traditions of the troupe they carried on their preparations for the season's opening at Bowling Green, Fla., soon after the holidays.

The surviving sisters of the showman are Mrs. Grant Smith, known to the profession as "Sister Sue"; Mrs. Nellie Wreckly and Mrs. Raymond J. Mead. All the family was connected with the Johnny J. Jones shows. Mrs. Mead was en route here last night from Dubois, Pa., the family's former home.

Jones was well known in Florida and for 11 years held the carnival contract at the South Florida fair at Tampa. His shows are scheduled to play at the 1931 fair in February, and it was said at Tampa that Jones' death would in no way affect the contract.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Johnny J. Jones was at one time associated with the late mayor, Judge Bridges Smith, in an amusement enterprise at Crumps Park, in this city, when that park was in its heyday. The former Macon mayor, who died recently, considered him one of his best friends, keeping up correspondence over many years. Jones came to the Georgia State exposition here annually.

ORLANDO, Dec. 26.—(AP)—The death in DeLand yesterday of Johnny J. Jones, carnival man, cast a shadow of sadness across the Christmas observance of a host of friends in Orlando, where the Jones shows for many years made Winter headquarters.

Friends of the showman recalled that he was known as "the little Welchman of the carnival business" and that he was one of the leaders in "cleaning up" the midways.

Mr. Jones was known as a master showman specializing in wonders, close associates here recalled.

They said he "lived only for his son, Johnny J. Jones Jr." The Johnny J. Jones Exposition Shows had exhibited throughout North America and until a few years ago remained in Orlando during the winter months. The city declined to renew a lease on buildings at the fair grounds and Mr. Jones moved his Winter headquarters to DeLand.

Friends here said Mr. Jones became attached to this city and one of his last requests was that he be buried here.

Enforcement Group Takes Short Recess

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26—(AP)—The law enforcement commission recessed for the holidays Tuesday, with many of the major decisions as to what its dry law report will recommend still ahead. The commission will reconvene on Monday and then will come the real showdown as to what the report will urge. All 11 members are expected to be present for the first time in weeks. Several members believe their long task will end about the first of the year. Despite the adjournment many of the members will remain in the capital, working over some of the huge mass of data from which the commission has drawn its picture of conditions surrounding the dry law.

Small New York Bank Fails To Open Doors

NEW YORK, Dec. 26—(AP)—The Chelsea Bank & Trust Company, a small institution patronized mostly by theatrical people, was taken over by State Superintendent of Banks Joseph Broderick Tuesday to preserve its assets for depositors. The institution reported a loss of $100,000 in the Chelsea Exchange Safe Exchange corporation, a securities firm. A run developed Monday night and continued in the morning. Broderick said it was caused by rumors and banking officials began an investigation into reports that a malicious campaign was under way to injure banks. The Chelsea bank was not a member of either the federal reserve or the New York clearing house.
