Constitution Revision Special Meet July 17

 Spending Bill Compromise Up To Kirk

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. Claude Kirk apparently isn't going to get the compromise spending bill he asked the Legislature's Democratic leadership to produce.

"We're doing nothing. We passed the bill and that's it as long as it is a bill, and there's nothing to do," said Senate President Verle Pope, D-S. Augustine, Tuesday.

The House Democrats agreed to the bill which would force Kirk to act on the proposed 1967-68 $1.338 billion appropriations bill, which follows his April 25 message and the supplemental $173 million bill.

Both parties have labeled the general spending bill as inadequate, and Kirk has indicated he wants some additional budget items since his budget message.

"The word compromise does not ring bells with me. The situation is the same," said Sen. John Matthews, D-Jacksonville, who joined Pope in meeting with Kirk Tuesday morning in a follow-up of Monday talks.

There was no indication from Kirk's office on his exact course of action. However, his top GOP advisers worked on bringing the two bills before him together, meaning Kirk may sign the general spending bill and let the House provisions of the supplemental bill to make an appropriations package.

"He says no new taxes. He can accomplish it. We passed the bills, they're available. He can veto them and we start again from there," Matthews said.

Kirk has until Friday to act on the general spending bill. He held a news conference Tuesday morning he didn't plan to leave Tallahassee for another period until the budget issue was settled.

He said that if he didn't get a compromise bill, he would veto it and to do the best I can with the two bills."

House Speaker Ralph Turlington, D-Gainesville, said that regarding further steps on appropriations, "He's got to make up his mind what he's going to do first."

"If he vetoes it we're on our way," Turlington said. He added that if Kirk vetoes the bill "we'll have a bill to him before the end of the week."

"You know we can move fast," Turlington said, referring to his speed with which he cranked through the appropriations bill after Kirk had vetoed their $1.536 billion general spending measure.

FEA Denounces Bill Stripping Authority

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—House and Senate leaders have agreed tentatively to adjourn the extended regular session of the Legislature July 8, take a nine-day recess and go into a constitution revision session July 17.

House Speaker Ralph Turlington, D-Gainesville, said the revision session would last at least a month, possibly 40 days.

The plan was worked out at a meeting Tuesday night by Turlington and Kirk, who will be finalizing the plan by members of the Legislature.

He said the nine-day recess would be used by some legislative leaders to organize the session "so we can hit the ground running."

Ways and Means Committee Chairman Verle Pope, D-S. Augustine, described as Tuesday night "brainstorming session" which would be necessary to check prices and interest rates, but gave no details of what the President will seek.

NO ESCAPE from a tax increase this year is the prediction of Gardner Ackley, President Johnson's top economic adviser. He told Congress the boost is necessary to check prices and interest rates, but gave no details of what the President will seek.

James Avery Zoning Appeal Slated July 18

A County Commission chamber jammed with protesting people can be expected at the zoning appeal of James Avery Jr. which has been scheduled for 11 a.m. July 18 before the County Commission.

Avery, at that time, will appeal the refusal of the Zoning and Planning Commission to rezone his property located on the northwest corner of Mainland Avenue and Granada Road from R-1A-A to C-1.

Avery has met with strong resistance from neighboring residents. The zoning board, which is reviewing the zoning appeal, has been divided 2-2.

The Republican governor has before him the $1.338 billion general spending bill that apparently has no one wants and a $172 million supplemental bill.

Kirk said his veto on Monday Tuesday as the Senate failed to override his veto of a bill prohibiting the taking of food fish within or without the waters of Florida with purse seine nets.

It requires a two-thirds vote to override a veto.

The Senate also voted Tuesday to reappoint John D. Matthews to the federal court reappointment plan in Florida.

Matthews was defeated in the election of the federal court, but he was reappointed to the court by the Senate.

U. S., Russians Propose Nuclear Weapons Curb

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union plan to submit to the Security Council a draft treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons.

The treaty draft goes before the 17-nation disarmament group, probably within the next few days. It may still be subject to change.

While Kirk told newsmen "I cannot report there was a great deal of progress" on the Middle East issue, other American sources said:

There is some agreement between the U.S. and Soviet positions despite their differences.

The Russian proposal would recognize Israel's existence as a state, in contrast to the Arab view. The Kremlin may have agreed that there should be a state of peace rather than a settlement of the Arab and Israeli.

Empysemata Deaths Triple In Florida

MIAMI (AP)—Deaths from emphysema have almost tripled in Florida during the last 10 years, according to a report from the Florida Tuberculosis and Respiratory Diseases Association.

Emphysema—a progressive disease of unknown cause in which the lungs retain their secretions—killed at the rate of 6.3 deaths per 100,000 population in 1956.

Ten years later the disease killed at the rate of 21.3 per 100,000. Deaths rose from 226 in 1956 to 1,257 in 1966, the report said.

Chronic bronchitis deaths increased in the same period from 4.9 to 17.1 deaths per 100,000 population.

"Tuberculosis still causes more deaths in Florida each year than the 30 next most frequently reported infectious diseases," the report said.

Part of the increase stems from the state's population growth and is concentrated among men, especially the elderly. It is found in minority and low-income groups, but in many cases those admitted to hospitals for treatment of other illnesses.

"But the picture for the long haul against tuberculosis is one of optimism," the report said. It cited new drugs and the use of out-patient clinics to shorten patients' stays in hospitals.

The state board said there were nearly 1,600 new active cases of tuberculosis reported last year.

Junk Mail Bounces

DELLHILL, Colo. (AP)—Postal officials said a Denver insurance firm refused to accept one of its business reply mail pieces from a Tucson, Ariz., man.

The capl was mailed on brown paper, wrapped around the postcard. The postage due was $4.57.

The enclosed bill, weighing more than five pounds, carried no return address.

Stock Clerk Gets A Thrill

WOODLAND, Calif. (AP)—Stock clerk David Van Hooser, who makes $87 a week at a hospital, held a money order for $190,029 in his hands. But that's not for long. "It's all a mistake, bring it back," said a Woodland bank, where a $100,000 mistake instead of a $90,000 money order. Hooser, a 40-year-old man, said the figure just as he was going to mail the money order for an insurance payment.

Another Work Day In The Sun

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—For six years, Volney Davis Dingle made a living pouring asphalt under the hot Miami sun.

He pitched his pennies and dreamed of the day when he would have a down payment on a house that would take him out of a Negro slum.

Every week, Dingle saluted away $6 in a deposit box at the Post Office. In six years it had been $360.

Dingle took the money home Monday and told a real estate company to send a man out. He the agent couldn't come until Tuesday, so Dingle put the money in a pair of old work pants and hid them in his room before going to work.

Ready to move to the new home, Dingle's wife cleaned house for the last time. She found the old pants and threw them on the trash heap.

When Dingle got home and heard what had happened, he rushed outside. The trash had been dumped.

He searched the trash truck and the dump, talked to the trash driver. No pants. Authorities believe they probably were burned.

Tuesday was supposed to be moving day. For Dingle it was just another day of work, pouring asphalt under the hot sun.

Old Jerusalem Annexation Approved

JERUSALEM (AP)—Apparently moving toward annexation of the Old City of Jerusalem, the Israeli Parliament approved legislation Tuesday night which would give it up to Jordan.

The Knesset, Israel's Parliament, also gave overwhelming approval to a bill promising protection to both Christian and Moslem holy sites in the Old City and in nearby Bethlehem, including the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Church of the Nativity, both in occupied parts of Jordan.

Three Communist members cast the only votes against the two measures.

The municipal law joins the water and electrical services in both sectors. A spokesman said houses in the Old City are already connected to the Israeli water system and electric services are functioning. Israel is supplying 60 per cent of the water for the Old City. The balance comes from the former Jordanian sector.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said before the Arab-Israeli war, inhabitants of the Old City could draw water only two days a week. Now they have water 24 hours a day.

Israeli Jerusalem is preparing to furnish the Old City with education, welfare and health services which previously were handled by voluntary organizations. Postal services are about to be resumed, and a spokesman said food supplies are moving and garbage is being collected.

"The basic purpose of the municipal law," the spokesman said, "is to ensure full municipal and social services to all inhabitants of the city for which Israel authorities are now responsible, so that there should be no social inequality and legal differences in respect to services, welfare, education, etc."

Premier Levi Eshkol told a meeting of Christian, Jewish and Moslem leaders that the opening of the national convention will be given the administration of their holy sites.

B52s Plaster Red Supply Lines

SAIGON (AP)—B52 bombers unloaded a train of bombs today on Communist positions in two provinces where U.S. ground troops face threatening enemy buildups.

The bombers plastered 80,000 pounds of bombs on Red infiltration routes in Quang Tri Province adjoining the demilitarized zone where a heavy Red truck and mortar barrage killed nine Marines and wounded 12 Tuesday—and unleashed a similar attack on the highlands of Kontum Province where infiltrating Red troops recently decimated an American paratroop company.

Ground fighting reported by U.S. military headquarters also centered in the DMZ and highland areas.

A sweeping force of more than 200 U.S. paratroopers from the 17th Airborne Brigade jumped about 50 paratroopers early today. In a sharp attack in the jungles of Kontum Province the paratroopers killed six North Vietnamese and took one prisoner. Two Americans were killed and eight wounded.

In Quang Tri, around the isolated western flank outpost of Khe Sanh, U.S. Marines kept up continual patrols to thwart Communist assaults. Three Marines were killed in clashes Tuesday and 27 were wounded, but the Leathernecks said they

Strikes And Spares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Excuse me for just a moment folks. Having spent more than a few days in New York City, I have to re-educate this amazing monster of letters on the correct pronunciation of certain words . . . I mean words.

These local guys has been bustin' up the pins pretty good, for snappers, that is. Well, around fifty-fold street and told avenue, we got some cats who can beat your good . . . how's left hand. And if they can't do it, we'll call on the Mets.

Seriously, I'd like to thank Gil Lusk and Alex Serrano for pin-busting for Spiltski and comment them for a fine job.

It was quite an experience attending the national convention of the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America. (Listen when you're quartered in the Hilton and you know that the rooms cost . . . at, why should I tell you. You wouldn't believe it anyhow.)

One of the most momentous features of the five-day program was listening to Bud Wilkinson, Director of the Lifetime Sports Foundation and co-ordinator with Stan Musial of the President's Physical Fitness Program.

It's just a matter of time until all schools in the country have bowling, tennis and golf as a regular part of their curriculum. These are the three sports which you may continue long after your days of formal education have passed . . . or are identified as "carry-over" sports.

Instead of spending more time and space on the meeting, let's take a quick look-see at what's happening on the local keeping scene. O.K.?

The Maryland Fried Chicken-Sixty Annual Firecracker Special Tournament is in need of quite a few entries to make it a success. Gee, I just can't understand why you have to coax some of these fellows to take a shot in a handicapped tournament at winning the top prize of $100. And that's not including the many other prizes and trophies which are to be presented.

So far, it's Dick (Slingshot) Murphy at the top of the heap with a not-so-big 670 series. Now remember, these scores are all handicapped. Riding into second slot with a 642 is Rod MacLeay while Bob Locke is still smirking with his 629, good for third position.

All of the punts who've donated a lot of time to make this one a success are looking for somewhere near 80 entries to make it worthwhile.

You have until tomorrow to qualify and remember . . . it's the top 82 (that's right - thirty-two) bowlers who'll have the rest of their eliminations all paid for by the association. Give it a whirl, won't you?

Thanks to Dave Penick for reminding me of his dad's good score while we were away visiting. The elder Penick (Price) bowled his first 300-plus game about two weeks ago in the popular Parent-Youngster League and finished with a 212. If you think Mr. Penick is proud, well, you ought to see his kid going around town with a big smile on his face.

Remember, he hasn't bowled in a league for more than 10 years . . . so he has reason to be happy.

MARGE REDMAN MARION MAGEE

Speaking of young Penick, reminds me of the Saturday morning Junior Bowling League, according to Marge Redman and Marion Magee, they have 12 full teams with a couple of "hot shots" from Matiland now bowling in the league and clipping 100-plus averages. We'll snap a couple of their pictures for you and feature them in next week's column.

Let me thank our women's traveling league for the handsome trophy which is now proudly on display at the lanes. These gals captured first place in the league and were just bustin' our buttons over — Marge Carathers, Dot Powell, Ellen Beta, Daris Owens, Gloria Acardi and Dot Johnson.

Looks like Larry Burgess gets our Bowler of the Week salute this week for his tremendous 270-651 combination in the Thursday Navy Mixed League. And how about that Marge Carathers coming in only a couple of pins behind with a 225-628 duo. Remembering other "stars" we had Honey Burgess 206-510, Alice Best 198, Ginger Smith 184, Ed Gallagher was away up there with a 225-624, Bob Gaudreau 780-551 and Bob Watson hit a 188-542.

Get a couple of "newsies" for you in the Friday Sand Spurs League, and their scores are pretty good, too, for beginners — Mary Dougherty 154, Lois Bristow 160 and Carolyn Clifton 140.

Pete Peterson led the City League bombing with a 215-617 set and had good company with Harry Pentecost 204-588, John Fischer 202-545, Dick Schmitzer 200-543 and Dave Kasand 197-530.

Buckpasser Syndicated

NEW YORK (AP) — Buckpasser, the 1966 thoroughbred horse of the Year, has been syndicated for a record $4.8 million for stud duty in 1968.

Ogden Phipps, owner of the famed 4-year-old colt who has won more than $1.3 million, said 16 of 22 shares had been sold to prominent owners and breeders for $150,000 per share. Phipps said he was retaining the other 16 shares, or half interest.

The syndication will not become effective until the son of Tom Fool-Buanda passes a fertility test. He is scheduled to stand at the Claiborne farm of Arthur "Bull" Hancock in Lexington, Ky.

The previous record for a syndicated stallion was the $2.6 million for Harbor View Farm's Raise A Native last February.

Somebody Changed The Script

We Thought The Mets Were Actors

By MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

Before the game, the Pittsburgh Pirates put on an act for Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon. During the game, they put on an act worthy of Abbott and Costello. The first act proved more profitable. At least several of the Pirates earned $100 each for it. They didn't get anything for the second act except a lot of confusion and a $2 loss to the New York Mets.

In the pre-game festivities, the Pirates and Mets acted out a triple play for a scene in the movie, "The Odd Couple," which stars Matthau as a sloppy sports writer and Lemmon as his roommate who is obsessed with cleanliness.

In the scene, Bill Mazeroski, substiting for Roberto Clemente who rejected the $100 role—hits into the triple play.

In the game, the bizarre festivities centered around the part of the Pirate line-up that followed Mazeroski, the No. 5 hitter in the batting order.

In less than a minute, the National League games San Francisco blanked St. Louis 6-0. Atlanta clobbered Houston 15-4. Los Angeles whipped Cincinnati 9-0 and Philadelphia stopped Chicago 4-2.

The odd incident in the Pirate game came in the third inning after Jose Pagan cut the New York lead to 5-2 with a two-run double. As Jim Pagliarone stepped into the batter's box, Mets Manager Wes Westrum emerged from the dugout.

"That man batted out of turn," Westrum told plate umpire Al Barlick.

"He did?" Barlick asked, somewhat surprised.

"Yes," Westrum coolly replied. Indeed Pagan had batted out of turn. So had Gene Alley, who preceded Pagan with the second out in the inning.

As the puzzle became unraveled, the participants learned that in the official line-up handed Barlick and Westrum before the game, Pagan was listed as the sixth batter and Alley the seventh. But in the line-up listed on the scoreboard, Alley was No. 6 and Pagan No. 7.

Met coach Sheriff Robinson caught the discrepancy, but Westrum let it go through the first two innings when the regular lineup was used.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My girl friend is a brilliant college graduate with a Master's degree, and she earns $20,000 per year. I never went past high school, and I earn $5,000 per year. We go out three times a week and she likes to go to all the most expensive places, and she being sort of the leader, that is where we invariably go. I could have just as good a time at a less expensive place, but I don't want to look cheap by making an issue of it, so we always end up going to the expensive places.

Naturally, I pay the tab. I am supporting my aged mother and a child by a previous marriage, and these dates are more than I can afford. My girl supports me but herself and apparently doesn't realize my situation. I'm afraid if I tell her she will either have to go to less expensive places or help pay the tab, I will lose her. What is your advice in this case?

POOR MALE

DEAR MALE: Tell her you enjoy her company and that she affords her tastes, and that if she wants to continue to enjoy your company, she will either have to adjust to your standards, or help foot the bill. And if you lose her before you go broke, it'll be a break for you.

DEAR ABBY: Is it true that an OPAL will place a curse on the person who buys it if it's not that person's birthstone?

DEAR OPAL: DEAR LOVES: Only if that person can't meet the payments.

DEAR ABBY: I am a normal 17-year-old girl with very strict parents. The only time I get away from home is to spend the week-end with my girlfriend, and then I run with a pretty wild crowd. I've never been thrown in jail or anything like that, but most of my friends have, and I know of my girlfriends who have been in jail. I have been by the company she keeps.

I finally got a date with a decent boy for a change and I acted as nice as I knew how. All he got from me was a goodnight kiss. After two dates I have been calling me. He must have heard about my reputation and it scared him off.

Abby, how can I let him know I'm really not that bad, and have a bad reputation only because of my friends? I like him very much and wonder if you can help me get him back?

DEAR BAD NAME: Unfortunately a reputation can be damaged overnight, but it can't be repaired that fast. You earned it, so now you had better set about living it down and building up a "new one."

EVERYBODY ON THE JOB: What's yours? Write to Abby, Box 68700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069.

Jacoby On Bridge

Jacoby and Son

The late Philip Hal Sims didn't believe in grand slam bidding unless he could count 18 tricks in no-trump. In his day there was a lot of sound reasoning in back of that theory.

Modern methods have made it possible for almost anyone to bid most grand slams. Thus, South has almost enough to respond two spades to his partner's opening diamond bid. When he contents himself with one spade only, it is promptly raised to game. It takes no imagination or brilliance for him to ask for ace and kings by means of Blackwood and to contract for a grand slam after his partner shows him the two aces and three kings that he is looking for.

There is one point of interest in South's bid of seven. He went to seven no-trump, not seven spades. There was no reason not to. South could count five spades, four hearts, two diamonds and two clubs. No-trump counts 10 points more and, as an added safety feature, nothing can be ruffed at no-trump.

The hand is also one that the experts classify as played South managed to go down. South won the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs and led a low spade to his queen. West showed out and it was all over.

The reason that this hand is classified as a laydown is that there is one, and only one, correct way to play it. If you lead the ace of clubs, 3-1 or 2-2 everyone makes the hand. If they break 4-0 with West having the four no one makes the hand, but if East holds all four, expert South always makes the hand because he guards against this by leading dummy's king of spades. West shows out and South is able to lead through East's jack-10 twice.

We The Women

By Betty Canary

One morning last week I called the children into the living room and said, "Sit down, darlings, and let mother tell you a story."

"Once upon a time, 16 years ago; in fact, 16 years ago..."

"Look, mother," Stu interrupted, "why don't you just say it's your wedding anniversary and you and dad are going away for the weekend?"

"Love mother alone," I managed in ecstasy, "Pancakes and fried chicken and chocolate pudding and maybe coconut cake and..."

"Stu has a big mouth," Casey said.

Then Babe confirmed that if Mrs. O'Donnell came to stay with them she was going to run away, and Stu agreed.

Polly's Pointers

By Polly Cramer

DEAR POLLY—My Pointer is for gardeners who want to plant slips of roses that do not have roots. We take several slips of our choice roses, make slits in the end of each limb to be put in the ground, put a grain of barley in the slit and plant it. The put lukewarm water on the ground. Sometimes cold water is shocking to newly planted things. The barley will grow and feed moisture to the rose limbs. This has worked every time for us but we have not always had good luck when planting the slips alone.

MARIE

DEAR READERS—I have not tried this last though it would be a fun thing for our gardeners to watch. Perhaps one slip with barley and one without could be planted side by side and watched for comparison. I will be something different to tell your garden club—POLLY.

Be Wise: Immunize — Leone

Warning to be on the lookout for tetanus, which can lead to lockjaw, was issued today by Dr. Frank Leone, director of the Seminole County Health Department.

"With summer here, the kids are out of school, the campers will be taking to the woods, the gardeners will be pruning, the swimmers will be floating it down to the beach and the anglers will be testing their lures. And in all these outdoor settings, tetanus spores lurk in every type of dust and dirt," Dr. Leone warns.

"Be Wise Immunize," is now a familiar slogan, but it is a useful one to renew each spring and summer to warn townpeople that tetanus is a killer. Over 60 per cent of the victims die, but their deaths could have been averted if they had been immunized with tetanus toxoid before infection.

"Tetanus can strike whenever a person's skin is penetrated. These spores are found in city dirt, garden soil, country barnyards, even on our bodies and clothing. The many people are without tetanus toxoid protection. With the return to outdoor activities, it is only good sense to make sure that every member of the family — young and old — is protected.

"Tetanus toxoid has been called the perfect immunization, yet about 11.5 million children under five have not been inoculated. Children are not the only segment of our community who should be immunized with tetanus immunization. Almost one-half of all cases occur in persons over 50, yet the adult population is so extremely nonchalant about tetanus that over three-fourths are probably lacking immunity.

"This vulnerability to tetanus can be eradicated by visiting your family physician or the health department. If you have not had a shot within four years you should get a booster. There is no discomfort following the shot. Immunization is your assurance for good health," states Dr. Leone.

Talks Boosted LBJ's 'Stock'

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP) — President Johnson's summit talks with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kossygin have boosted his political stock at home, Democrats and Republicans attending the Western Governors Conference agree.

"This unity of opinion between the GOP and the two Democratic state executives shatters quickly, however, on how long this lift in Johnson's popularity will endure."

Democrats profess to see a climb in the polls as Johnson's business word is directed toward one of which is to bring the Vietnam war to some sort of satisfactory end. Republican response to his New Jersey discussions with the President offers no improvement in East-West relations and may boom against Johnson politically.

Colorado Gov. John A. Love, chairman of the Republican Governors' Association, voiced the general viewpoint of nine of his party colleagues when he said that as of now the summit talks have helped Johnson politically.

Although it is a confeder, the larch sheds its needles every year.

"I'VE CALLED THE PAPER 'IT WILL BE THE BEST' BY MAIL ON YOUR ACCOUNT."

The fledgling college, an outgrowth of the Baruch school program, is housed in the striking marble and glass Police Academy building, a few blocks from Granary Park in mid-Manhattan.

Setting into a black leather rocking chair in his office, Reisman said: "There's a growing realization that the police of the future must be college trained. When you recognize that the New York City police budget is over $400 million, you want to see it in good professional hands."

"It's quite clear in New York City that you're not going to be able to attract college-trained TALENT Show was presented for summer recreation program at Altamonte School by (left to right, seated) Jimmy Dehler, Kent Bowen, Edward Wright, Tommy Hill, Richard Hays, (back) Norma Herring, and Charlene, Valerie, Allen, Mark and Dennis Smalling. men in great numbers for many years," he said. "So the police department must recognize that the way to get college-trained men is to have them attend school after they become policemen."

All but a few of the 1,470 students at John Jay, founded in 1865 as a branch of the City University of New York, are policemen, policemen, federal agents or correction officers who attend part time. The rest are high school graduates interested in becoming policemen.

Mike Fleming, a patrolman for 2½ years, discussed his own feelings of what it meant to be a policeman. "The police department tries to tell you that when someone attacks a policeman, he's attacking the government and not the policeman. But we don't buy that one hundred per cent. The policeman sees so much emphasis on the government and not the policeman. He's attacking him simply because he is a policeman."

"But this college program shows us that we're not just looking for the public's reaction. Most London ditches wear blue stockings or tight bennies they wear in autumn, winter and spring. With the warmer days, they've returned to ordinary stockings. This leaves a patch of bare flesh between stocking top and panty bottom. This is the area that's causing the trouble."

The Highway Review said the seats were shaped to accommodate the body but admitted that early in the morning they can be cold. The magazine said other passengers find the seats too hard.

London Transport may unwittingly have dealt a blow to the minkist. It observed.

Summer Rec Held Daily At Altamonte

By JULIA BARTOS
Summer recreation program at Altamonte School is being conducted under direction of Mrs. Yada Gunter and Mrs. Beth Miller.

The 124 children participating enjoy recreation and arts and crafts on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. On Mondays they skate and on Wednesdays they swim at the pool at Mid-Florida County Club.

Each week a new form of entertainment is planned. Last Friday the young people presented a talent show which included puppet acts, pantomimes and playette shows.

London (AP) — Minkiered girls riding London thoroughbreds are finding new seats unbearable on their bare skin.

London Review, official magazine of the National Union of Railwaymen, says "London Transport is receiving a number of complaints about fiber-glass seats on the Inner Circle line."

London Review said the seats were shaped to accommodate the body but admitted that early in the morning they can be cold. The magazine said other passengers find the seats too hard.

London Transport may unwittingly have dealt a blow to the minkist. It observed.

Second Of A Series Tome Or Tract: There Is Lending Library Near You

By HILLAR KING LIBBY
Whether you want to use a tome or a tract, there is a lending library with both somewhere in your vicinity.

Webster describes a library as a building where the collection of books, manuscripts and such are kept for use but not for sale.

While some privately-owned libraries are run for profit, most facilities are available free to the public. Sometimes a nominal fee is charged to non-residents or a small subscribers' charge is made to cover purchase of new books and incidentals.

A graphic portrayal of man and the universe in which he lives exists in the archives of libraries where the past is being preserved for the future yet to be.

Here you can read the memoirs of illustrious greats; you may research your thesis for a coveted sheekins; or find facts for a high school term paper; you can check the Best Seller list and pore over the current newspapers and periodicals.

Making all this vast information available to us are the city, county, state and national governments and other agencies vitally interested in compiling and preserving knowledge.

Often unknown even to local citizens are the small library associations and volunteer librarians in hamlets and villages who work to supplement distant big-city services.

Woman's clubs, civic organizations and even concerned individuals contribute their time and money to provide this great service to their communities. These volunteer, tax-free associations are operating library services for residents and visitors.

Some operate in schools, providing adult reading matter in conjunction with student material. Others use rented spaces and donated rooms or buildings. In most cases the libraries serve without pay, reaping their reward through knowing she is "doing good to her neighbor."

The half century ago the Longwood Woman's Club founded what is now the Longwood Community Library, operated by the Civic League of Longwood and is located in their building on Church Street.

There are more than 12,000 kinds of paper and 100,000 uses for them.

'Hire Us' Plea
Opening Step Of
'Cool Summer'

FORT MYERS (AP) — Employers in this southwest Florida city were besieged today by groups of Negroes with the plea — "Hire Us."

It was the opening step in "Operation Cool Summer," a pilot program of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The men behind it believe the project can mean the end of race riots.

It's based on the formula: jobs mean money — money equals better living conditions — and that clips the fuse of any racial powder keg.

When the jobs are found in this city of 25,000, project officials will begin training Negroes to qualify for them.

The training includes a film on employer-employee relations, what employers expect and how to help management reduce costs. Applicants will be put through mock interviews and hear lectures on personal appearance and hygiene.

Malvin Davies, Florida Field representative of the NAACP, said, "It won't end there. We'll stay with them. They'll be asked, 'what happened?' and 'what did the employer say?'"

The project involves 80 percent of Negro youth over the age of 16, Davies said. "The community should meet these young people halfway."

"They talk about how bad we are when we riot. We are saying to them that if they don't want race, give us jobs. We have made strides in civil rights, but too many Negroes are on street corners because they have no jobs."

Isadore Edwards, head of the Lee County branch of the NAACP, said employment would do more to lessen race tensions than just provide a higher living standard.

"Employment will give these kids a better idea of self worth and personal dignity," he said. "They'll be more than just Negroes being handed something. They'll work hard... I know it."

"If a Negro is qualified to clerk, we want him behind a counter. If he can sell, give him an order pad," Edwards said. "He said first day interest was high. 'We won't know until Tuesday how many jobs are available, but the city council and County Commission seem interested and that's a real step forward.'"

Fort Myers, which dates back to the Seminole Indian wars, is famous as the winter homes of the late Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford. It has grown rapidly in recent years and the county now has a population of about 80,000.

There are no Negroes in responsible jobs in city hall or the county courthouse.

Church Union
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The proposed merger of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren EUB church into a religious body peers virtually guaranteed. The new religious body would be called the United Methodist Church.

HOW THEY WERE NAMED
Columbus set out to seek India and thought he had found it when he reached America so the natives of the western hemisphere came to be called Indians.

Bank Robber
Murders Two,
Slain Himself

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — An Illinois man who shot and killed two bank employees and wounded another was killed by State Police after a holdup attempt near Portage, about 10 miles west of here.

State Police Detective First Sgt. Edward Rekau, 44, Chicago Heights, was shot twice in the chest after he bolted through the bank's screen door and entered a waiting room. Rekau ripped a paper bag, Burke said, and money was strewn along the way as he dashed to his car.

Also killed were William G. Gregory, 51, manager of the a Burns Harbor office of the Northern Indiana Bank and Trust Company, a mile east of Portage, and his assistant, Douglas Terry, 29, both of Valparaiso.

Hospitalized in fair condition is Keith Stanton, 25, of Valparaiso. Police said the bank employees were believed to have been shot in the back of the head while lying face down on the floor.

State Police said they received a call from the bank that a suspicious man was seeking to open an account and bragged about having just closed a big business deal in Ohio.

The robber still was inside when State Police converged on the bank. Burke said he heard six shots inside, then Stanton dashed through the door waving what was believed to be the robber's gun and yelling for help.

Tokan then ran out and was shot.

New Congress
Area Plan Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Florida Congressional delegation is studying a plan to change Earl Faires into a Congressional district plan which leaves a population variation of only 14,000 between the largest and smallest districts.

Rep. Robert Sikes (D-Fla.) said the plan was endorsed by 11 of the state's dozen House members. Only Democratic Rep. Doug Fessell opposed the plan, Sikes said.

The present 11-county Fourth Congressional District would be changed to include Seminole, Volusia, Lake, Hernando, Citrus, Marion, Flagler and St. Johns counties and approximately 42,000 population from Duval County.

The smallest district in the plan would have a population of 297,000, Sikes said. The largest would have a population of 431,000. The variance between the largest and smallest districts would be 3.1 per cent, well within the 10 per cent guidelines set for equitable Congressional apportionment in bills now before Congress.

The state's present Congressional districts vary by more than 100,000 in population according to the 1960 census. Sikes, Dean of the Florida House delegation, said copies of the plan were being sent to state legislative committees as well as to Florida's 14 state senators.

Summertime Is Most Exciting Time Of The Year

By MRS. R. B. THOMAS, JR., 322-5736

Summertime is the most exciting and enjoyable time of the year. For the student, it's time with textbooks and homework. For the nine-month teacher, it's summer school. For the mother, it's what can I do to get rid of the kids? For the father, it's back to college, workbooks, institutes. For the working people, it's when will I ever earn enough money to take a vacation? For the man with the credit card, at three areas for our community. Monday through Friday mornings at Goldsboro Elementary, Castle Brewer Recreation Center, and at Hopper Elementary.

All three centers have such activities as softball, basketball, horse-shoe pitching, social dancing, arts and crafts.

The first week ended with the first week of the summer, making many beautiful and useful objects from plaster of paris, discarded plastic bottles, empty discarded commercial thread spools and bread baskets, jewelry boxes and napkin holders made from slat-sticks, commonly called pop-sticks.

Beautiful hanging flower baskets from coat hangers and picnic Aug. 11 at Goldsboro, Hopper and Midway Elementary schools.

A fee is required of all children registering. For additional information, contact the principal office at each of the schools listed above.

Achievement Citation Given Barracks Unit

By JULIA BARTOS

The Auxiliary Unit of World War I Veterans Barracks 2888 of Altamonte Springs has been cited for outstanding achievement on hospital and community activities for the 1966-67 year.

The award was presented by Mrs. Ollie Nolan, seventh district inspector, at the June 6 meeting of the group.

It was noted much credit for the honor is due to dedicated persons from our fair city who often visited Deland during these past tenager days so long ago.

The Merry Twenties Club held its last weekly meeting for the summer. Mrs. Marian Engle, unit president, will keep the books that record proceedings of the 13th annual department convention held in Clearwater recently, which was the largest convention in history of the department.

Income Tax Surcharge Delay Seen Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) - Despite prodding this week from two influential administration figures, Congress is likely to begin considering until late summer the income tax surcharge President Johnson proposed as a means to pay for his Vietnam war program.

Chairman William McCleskey Martin Jr. of the Federal Reserve Board requested Monday the call for a surcharge, saying he would support a steeper increase than the proposed six percent if needed to contain inflation.

Then on Tuesday, Chairman Gardner Ackley of Johnson's Council of Economic Advisors argued urgent congressional action on the surcharge, saying it would do the job.

But the congressional timetable appears to rule out hearings at least until August, even if legislation were sent to Capitol Hill before the end of July.

There were indications Johnson would not increase the surcharge until after the election, which is scheduled for November 3.

Red Cross News

American Red Cross is now offering two new volunteer services for those who want to give of some of their time to helping others. These are both year-round programs, and require one-half day a week. A Red Cross orientation which includes training in a greater understanding of the helping process and a standard first aid course are the two requirements for becoming a confident volunteer.

The first service is as assistants to the dentist at the dental clinic at the county health department. Mrs. Grace Fisher, director of Public Health Nurses, stated today that they could not run the clinic without the volunteers, that their help is valuable. Many children in the county would not get the dental care they need if the clinic were not open.

The second new service is at Seminole Memorial Hospital. The value of the trained and uniformed volunteers is commended enthusiastically by Mrs. Monserrate Vales, the in-training supervisor, and Robert Beaser, the hospital administrator. The volunteers are presently transporting patients to and from the Physio-therapy and X-ray departments, and assisting Robert Jones, the physio-therapist in this newly-established department.

Red Cross would like to offer this service to men also. Any man or woman interested in either or both of these services, please call the RC office, 322-4125 before 5 p.m., or Mrs. Helen Peasgood, chairman of volunteers, at 328-9050 after 1 p.m. Training classes will be set up right away.

Central Florida Chapter, American Red Cross, is made up of three divisions.

The north division being Seminole and the north portion of Orange County, the central division is Orange County and the south division is Osceola County. The fiscal year of the Central Florida chapter is July 1 through June 30.
