Seminole County School Board's Challenge

We are confident that the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction will rise to the challenge now in their laps to come up with a plan for school operations which will conform to the demands of the United States Department of Justice.

That this has not been done before is regrettable but understandable. Now with the heavy hand resting on this, as well as 19 other counties to get on with the job, we urge no further reluctance to face up to things as they are, not as many would like them to be.

The conference in Jacksonville last week came at a time when the whole complex of education in this state is trying to perform its traditional obligation of providing physical facilities and professional skills and suffering either had management or the inflation squeeze we are all experiencing.

Not only have changing times hurt them financially but their need for assistance from governmental sources has injected a further block. In Seminole County the private and parochial schools must be considered when the education picture needs clarification, as it does right now.

None Escape

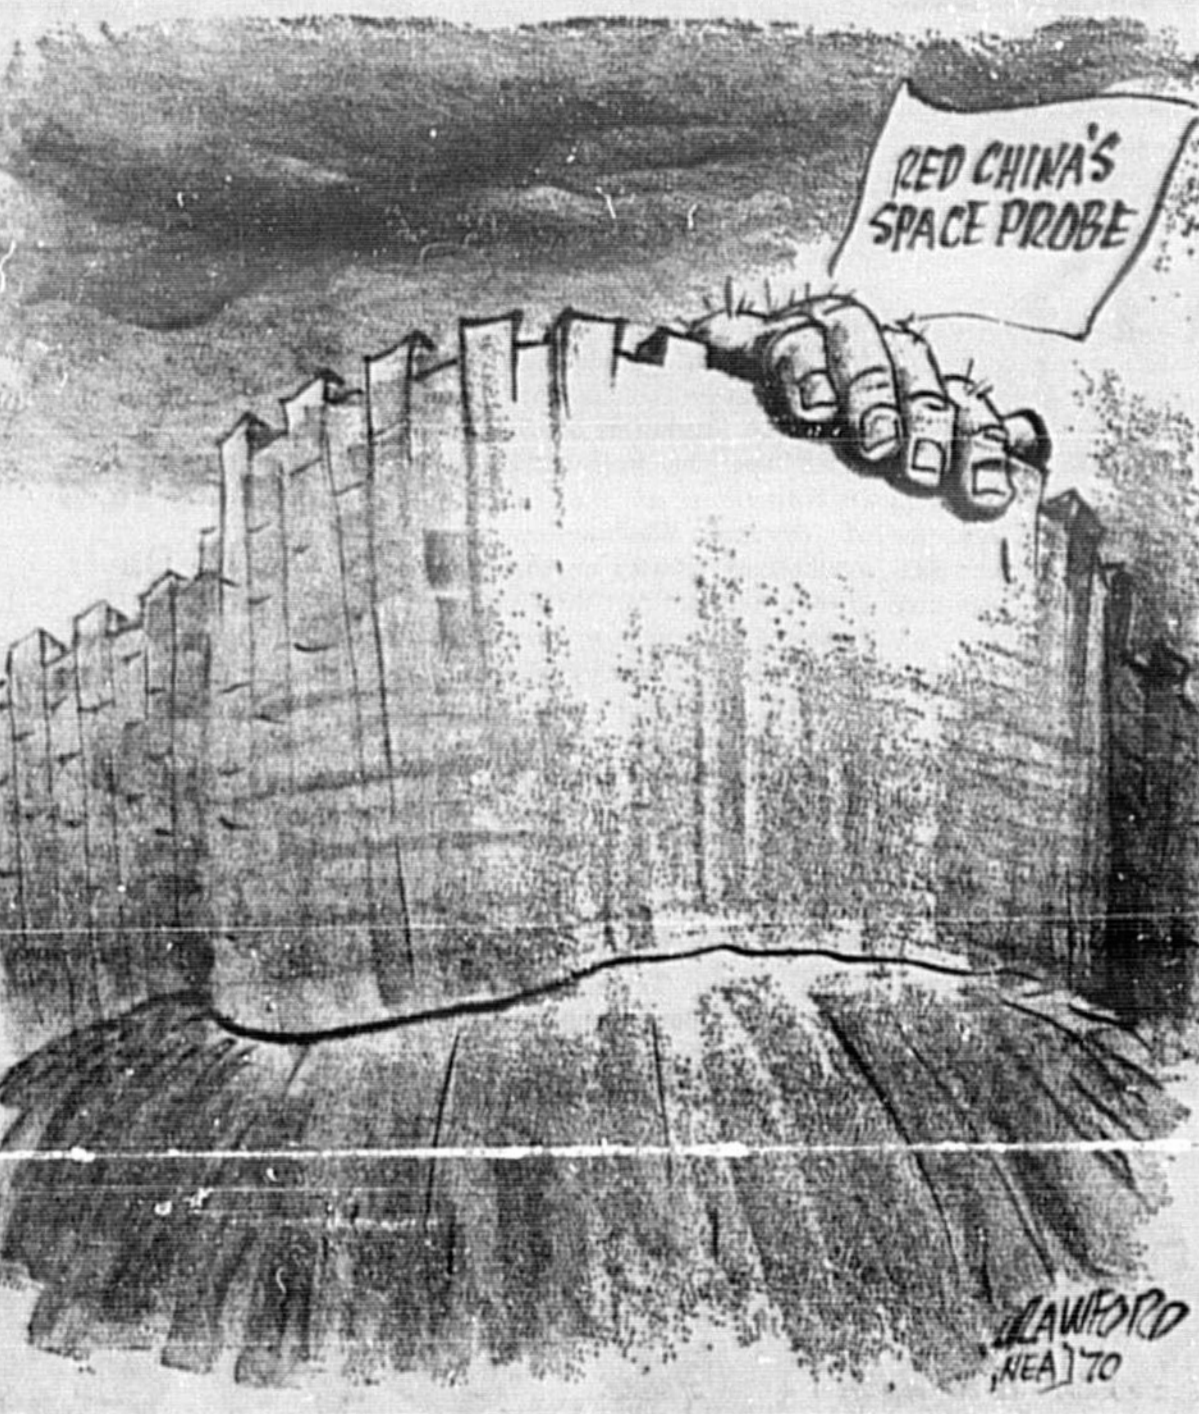

While it is quite true that inflation has affected lower and middle-income families, it is also a fact that upper-income families also are being hurt.

Syndicated columnist Sylvia Porter pointed out the fiscal stress and strain of more affluent Americans in a recent report — showing that 85 per cent of the family income is being chewed away by taxes, to begin with.

People Vs. Dirt

Sixty lawyers met at Princeton, N. J., last weekend for a purpose which ultimately would improve daily life for today's 200 million Americans and their offspring.

Troop Pullbacks Are Facts

By RAY CROMLEY NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) — A number of men who should know better claim President Nixon's troop withdrawal program is a snare and delusion.

These relations then sold up to about $50,000 in and $50,000 for the year ahead, not including troops withdrawing under the Vietnamization program.

China's Nuclear Ability Proven

By CHARLES R. SMITH HONG KONG (UPI) — Communist China's ability and determination to develop nuclear weapons and a sophisticated delivery system apparently have been consistently underestimated in the past 12 years.

China's determination to gain was reaffirmed when it refused to participate in the treaty banning nuclear weapons tests in the atmosphere, agreed upon by the United States and the Soviet Union in 1963.

The Lighter Side

How To Edit F--- Letter Words

By DICK WEST WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the great problems that newspaper editors all over the country are grappling with these days is the treatment of F--- letter words.

It up to the reader to decide it was something he should read. In other words, "I would adopt a news rating system."

Bumper Problem

By DON OAKLEY NEA Editorialist Recent tests conducted by Insurance Institute of Highway Safety and the Department of Transportation (DOT) have revealed the astonishing fact that automobile collisions at speeds as low as five miles an hour can cause damage costing several hundred dollars.

Those big hunks of metal called bumpers, rusting at either end of a car are among the most useless appliances on the modern automobile. If cars really had functional bumpers, says one insurance company, official, auto damage losses could be cut by 25 per cent, or as much as $1.5 billion annually.

Letter Writing

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments by a pavement poet:

BERRY'S WORLD

However this chaotic age is remembered in the future, it won't be recalled as a period of great letter writing. It has neither the leisure nor the melior philosophy—or even the passionate desire to communicate one's thoughts—that stimulates the creation of great letter writing.

Hal Boyle Says:

When it comes to spinning a bad moment into good hunting possum, deer or goose to prove a point, few can equal Sen. Dempsey Barron, D-Panama City.

GOP Swings Political Stick

Republicans Flex Muscles

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The GOP in Florida stopped walking softly and found a big political voice.

Florida had become a state of Democratic winners. In 1970, the state had elected a Democratic governor, and the bandwagon is making a lot of noise.

Insurance Industry Has Champion

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Harold C. Barron, D-Panama City, has been "irresponsible" in criticizing the insurance industry.

of any other industry that has such a small rate of profit, he turned, yet such a heavy amount of state regulations, as the insurance industry, that has been so severely distorted to its protection should have the same protection of the laws regarding its records as any other industry in Florida.

LAKE WORTH, Fla. (AP) — For four years George Girov was a boy with a rheumatic heart and a crippled hand. Twelve days after he became a Marine he was killed in a heart attack at a Marine Corps boot camp.

Had tape marked between draft boards and the military and a complete medical history outlining his heart defect never caught up with him. He did not detail it on Marine forms when he took another physical at Parris Island, S. C., authorities said.

Student Nurses Flay Nursing Curriculum

By BOB M. GASSAWAY Associated Press Writer MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Two thousand student nurses accused their teachers of mental kidnapping Sunday and demanded nursing school change.

"What we want to know is what we can do for the patients," insisted Nelson McCall, 24, a student of the Nursing School of Wilmington, Del.

Four panelists representing nursing education programs across the country were caught by surprise when the doors were locked at Miami Beach Convention Hall and the lights turned off for a blackout drama.

Wallace For Governor

Tossups Highlight Elections

By JERRY T. BAUGH
 Associated Press Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1970 election campaign moved into high speed Tuesday when George C. Wallace tries to regain the Alabama governor's chair in a tight race, possibly swinging on the black vote, and a star-studded field vies in Ohio's senatorial primary.

The races in both states are rated tossups and have important national impact. A Wallace defeat in the Democratic primary against Gov. Albert Brewer could dull his national political image. The Ohio race will decide a general election line-up that could be important in the fight for control of the Senate.

In Saturday's Democratic primary in Texas, Republicans gained a boost in the drive to take over the Senate. Sen. Ralph Yarborough lost to his conservative challenger, former Rep. Lloyd Bentsen Jr., a man the GOP says it will have an easier time defeating.

Black leaders in Alabama claim Negroes will decide whether Wallace or Brewer will be elected governor in Tuesday's primary — or a June 2 runoff, if one is needed.

Wallace, putting his political reputation on the line, gained ground on Brewer in the weeks of the campaign. About 1.2 million votes are expected to turn out — 60 per cent of those registered.

A neck-and-neck finish is also predicted in Ohio's senatorial primary which features the glamour of famous names.

Miss Forward, R. V. Hancock Married in Church Rites

By MARYANN MILES

Miss Patricia June Forward and Richard V. Hancock were united in Holy Matrimony Saturday, April 25, 1970, at 8:30 p.m. at the Sandal Springs Baptist church.

The bride is the daughter of Col. (ret.) and Mrs. William A. Forward, Forest City and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Sandal Springs, Longwood.

Rev. D. Haines was the officiating clergyman before the altar assisted with two priestly standards of white glads and mums and two seven-branched candelabra. White satin bows identified the family pews.

Mrs. Horace W. Pickering, organist, presented a recital of the couple's favorite songs which included "You Are Truly," "Oh Promise Me," "Song of Love," "No Greater Love," "Wonderful One," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Bridal March."

Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride chose for her vows a formal gown of silk organza enhanced with chantilly lace trim at the waist and the hemline. Seed pearls were scattered throughout the lace. The long chiffon sleeves flowed gracefully into lace bands embellished with seed pearls.

Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion was secured by a headpiece of lace embellished with little pearls. She carried a cascade of white carnations, yellow rose buds and baby breath flowers.

Attending the bride and maid of honor was Miss Nancy Napierata. Miss Debbie Buckner was bridesmaid. Their gowns were similar to the bride, who made all the dresses. Aileen Forward served as junior bridesmaid for her sister. Her very lovely gown was designed with a Mandarin stand-up collar. All the attendants wore a soft blue. They carried cascades of carnations and their veils were attached to large bows.

Ronnie Williams served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Dennis Smith and Tim Hopkins.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Forward chose a short sleeved light green double knit dress with long dress and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hudson, mother of the groom, wore a pale pink chiffon dress complimented with a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for 75 invited guests was held at the beautiful new home of the bride's parents on Burnell Road, Forest City.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by silver candelabra, with punch served by Linda Robinson. Andrea Newman acted and served the wedding cake. The guests also enjoyed the lighted fountain with the bubbling champagne.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore an orange knit dress with white accessories.

Following their wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Winter Park.

Special wedding guests included a great aunt, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Edith Johnson, who lives in Denver, Colo., and another aunt, Mrs. Inez Newman, and her daughter, Andrea, also from Denver, as well as her favorite uncle, John Forward.

At Afternoon Graduation Tea Tri-Hi-Y Club Honors Senior Girls

By DORIS WILLIAMS
Society Editor

The Park Avenue home of Mrs. R. B. Stevens was the graduation tea honoring the senior girls of Seminole High School.

Hostesses for the charming afternoon affair were junior class members of Seminole High Tri-Hi-Y Club of which Mrs. Stevens is sponsor. Other guests included all mothers of teachers at Seminole High School.

The class colors of yellow and white were carried out in the home decor and refreshments with arrangements of roses featured throughout.

The refreshment table, covered with a yellow sheer cloth bordered in lace, was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white daisies and yellow tuberoses in a silver bowl. Lime sherbet punch was poured from a cut glass bowl and silver trays featured a variety of finger sandwiches, pastries, buttered mints and assorted toast nuts.

In addition to the Junior Tri-Hi-Y members serving as hostesses, Mrs. Butler Bowers Jr., Dick (I'll call him) has always been a shy, but well-behaved boy.

I don't believe in physical punishment, but my husband used to spank him if he did something wrong. Later I told Dick about it "privately" and he overheard me talking a friend that if he got bad grades in school I would take a razor strap to him—which is certainly not true.

PERIWINKLE CIRCLE

The April meeting of the Periwinkle Circle was held at the home of Mrs. John Falzone. Seventeen members were present to hear Mrs. James West of the Stetson Flower Shop as guest speaker. She created two flower arrangements, commenting on the four points of design. Final plans were made for the Deltona Flower Show May 1 and 2 and also for the Annual Luncheon of the Garden Club to be held on May 20.

OVIEDO GARDEN CLUB

By LIZ MATHEUX

Members of the Oviedo Garden Club honored their husbands at a covered dish supper at the Oviedo Woman's Club recently. The club house was decorated throughout with several beautiful arrangements of spring flowers.

Following supper, colored slides were shown by George Means and Aubrey Myers of previous Garden Club meetings and of beautiful blooming plants to be found in the yards of the club members. As an added note, interesting scenic spots around town were also shown.

Hostesses for the dinner were Mrs. C. T. Niblack, Mrs. Aubrey Myers and Mrs. Thomas Moon.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Last night my husband, who usually comes home between 6 and 6:30 p.m., came home at 10:43! I was nearly out of my mind worrying that maybe he was lying in a ditch, in a hospital, or even in jail. It so happened he was tied up with his boss, but he certainly could have called me.

I told him I thought he was selfish and inconsiderate not to have called me. He said, "You are not my mother! What was I supposed to do, ask my boss to excuse me so I can call my wife?"

Abby, if I'm wrong tell me. But shouldn't a man call his wife if he can, and let her know he's going to be home later than usual?

NADINE

DEAR NADINE: Yes, and he should let her know if he's going to be earlier than usual.

DEAR ABBY: I have a 13-year-old son I am raising alone as his father was killed in an accident 2 years ago. Dick (I'll call him) has always been a shy, but well-behaved boy.

I don't believe in physical punishment, but my husband used to spank him if he did something wrong. Later I told Dick about it "privately" and he overheard me talking a friend that if he got bad grades in school I would take a razor strap to him—which is certainly not true.

MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in the letter signed BOOBY PRIZE. She said she didn't especially enjoy going to someone's home where the hostess insisted they spend the evening playing "brain games." (At least she admitted that she wasn't as well informed as some of the others, and didn't care to let people know how dumb she was.)

I'm not the smartest one in our crowd either, but I would much rather spend an evening playing "brain games," than listening to people tell dirty jokes, or talk about how much money they're making, or discuss their you don't like.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 6700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90009. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Live a Loveliest Wedding," write to Abby, Box 6700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90009.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Get that good completed with good friends and be social at the same time, so that you get out of some bad situation. Get out to that important social event this evening. Be charming.

LIGO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Find the right higher-up who can back you in your vocation and make you a more popular person as well. With persons you like and can trust this evening. Be happy.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) Get that new data you need or discard a heart from his hand. West will ruff in, but South will lose just that one trump, one heart and one club since dummy's queen of trumps will be there to ruff the last club.

Owlad: "Another line of make up for South to have trumps entirely alone and start after diamonds right away. In case East ducks twice, South should not lead, but lead hearts and another club. This way, he loses two hearts and just one club."

Both these lines are essentially the same and based on the idea that, in order to get real value out of dummy's trumps, South must lead hearts after it, he still has an entry to dummy."

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If associates are stubborn, don't be that way or you make little headway. Cooperation helps you get things done. If you are in a hinging sequence to "Blossom."

Worry Clinic By Dr. Crane

By GEORGE W. CRANE, P. D., M. D.

CASE N-518: Lon J., aged 31, is an irate clergyman.

"Dr. Crane," he protested vehemently, "I resent your recent column in which you labeled me as an emotionally juvenile."

"Why, I'd have you know that they are only seeking to promote love for their fellow man."

"And they are best able to understand love."

"So you have done them a rank injustice in your column. Before I reply to Rev. Lon, it may be wise to let one of his older parishioners add her comments."

"Dr. Crane," this wife, aged 28, began her explanation, "Rev. Lon dresses somewhat like a hippie himself."

"Oh, he doesn't wear beads or unkempt clothes, but he lets his hair grow long, with low sideburns."

"And he seems to pride himself on smoking the extra long kingly cigarettes, and he says 'He is somewhat the arty' type, but I have learned that he once tried to get on the stage as an actor."

"His wife also wears ultra abbreviated skirts, which would best be described as the mini-miniskirt."

"They hobnob with hippies in our city, apparently thinking that if they adopt hippie dress and outlook, then the hippies will be impressed with our church."

"But it is wise for religious leaders to cheapen themselves to fraternize with the non-church folk?"

"In this connection, George Washington voted any reduction in standards or ideals by saying: 'Let us raise a standard to which the wise and just may aspire.'"

"How, Lon dresses somewhat like a hippie himself."

"Oh, he doesn't wear beads or unkempt clothes, but he lets his hair grow long, with low sideburns."

New Era In Immigration

By JOHN HECKLER, Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's new immigration law is sweeping over a five-year-old law that was supposed to open a new era in U.S. immigration policy.

Strong protest against the existing law by such long-time friends of the United States as Canada, Mexico and Ireland, which never came close to being largely shut out by the new law.

For Mexico and Canada, the new law was more a blow to pride, Canada, Mexico and the United States had permitted unlimited immigration across each other's borders for years, and in Mexico and Canada the policy remains.

The latest proposal, offered by a key member of the House Immigration subcommittee, has a chief aim of lifting current restrictions on immigration from Canada and Mexico.

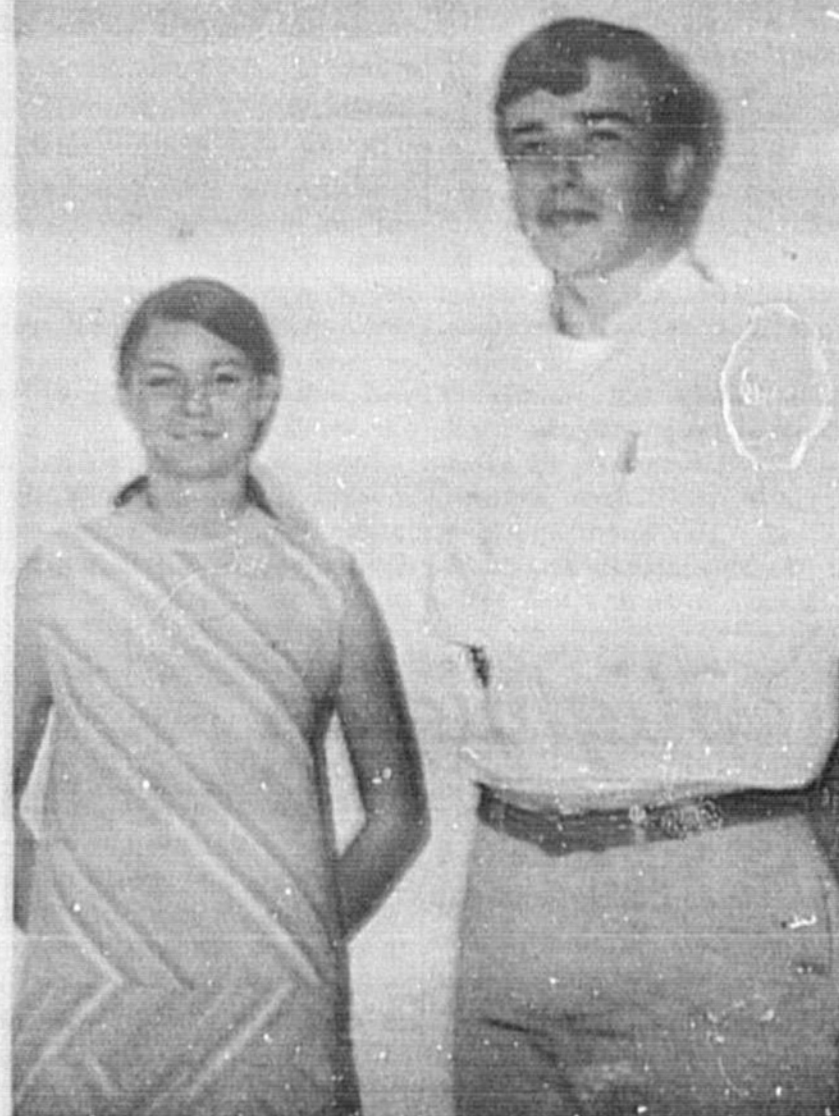

The bill by Rep. Peter W. Rodino, D-N.J., also would make it easier for refugees from Communist nations to seek asylum in the United States, and would revise the present preference system for admitting immigrants.

"The time is come," says Rodino in a speech explaining his bill, "to stop procrastinating and recognize that our current immigration policy is alienating our friends and neighbors and creating chaos in the Western Hemisphere."

Rodino's remark is strongly reminiscent of those heard five years ago when Congress was considering its first major change in immigration policy in 41 years. Those remarks were headed and in October 1965 Congress passed a brand new immigration law.

The 1965 act eliminated the 1954-established quota system based on the national origins of the American people and designed to preserve the ethnic balance of the nation as it existed in 1954. Great Britain, Germany, France, Ireland and the Scandinavian countries got most of the quota numbers.

For the first time, the 1965 act also placed a ceiling on immigration from the Western Hemisphere.

Schools Get Millions

Florida's 67 county school systems received $42.6 million during April, for an increase of more than $2 million above funds received in April, 1969.

Comptroller Fred O. Dickinson Jr. reported today.

Funds from the Minimum Foundation program provided $46 million of the total amount, while sales tax revenue supplied an additional $2.6 million.

Distribution for Seminole County for April, 1970, was $622,401, as compared with $642,942 for April, 1969.

'Escalation Of War' Denied By President

By KENNETH J. FREED, Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration maintains that new air raids against North Vietnam, like the attack by U.S. ground forces into Cambodia, are not an escalation of the war in Southeast Asia.

Officials said the weekend sorties across the demilitarized zone were limited to retaliatory bombing of air defense sites that had fired on unarmed U.S. reconnaissance planes. "Protective reaction," Vice President Spiro T. Agnew called the action Sunday.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers, saying much the same thing, called the bombing "suppressive fire."

Although some nearby supply dumps may have been hit in the air raids, the officials said, there has been no major change in the policy set in 1968 when U.S. bombings north of the DMZ were halted.

According to the administration, an "understanding" reached with Hanoi when the bombing was stepped provided that American reconnaissance flights would continue over North Vietnam without fear of ground fire.

The Vice President denied the air attacks and the Cambodia incursion were efforts to increase war pressure on the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in an effort to force them to negotiate for peace.

Rather, Agnew asserted, the moves are designed to protect the security of American units in South Vietnam—the position set by President Nixon Thursday in disclosing the U.S. incursion into Cambodia.

The enemy was attempting to extend its supply and sanctuary areas used by its troops fighting in South Vietnam to the Gulf of Thailand, Agnew said, and only threatens the security of American forces and the President's policy of withdrawing U.S. troops from the war zone.

In a later statement, the Vice President said the Cambodian drive was not an effort to destroy the enemy elements. "I don't think it is a knockout blow at all, it's simply to provide for the orderly progress of the Vietnamization program."

He made the remark on NBC's "Frank McGee Report."

The political ramifications continued to take firmer shape Sunday in the wake of the air raids and Agnew's defense of the new Nixon war policy.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien said the Nixon-Agnew position "means, in effect, that the American policy of disengagement has ended."

Weekend Burglary Loot $779; Teenager Arrested For B&E

By BILL SCOTT

Weekend burglaries have resulted in the loss of nearly $800 in cash and tools estimated at $379 value in three separate incidents reported to Seminole sheriff's office and Sanford police.

The John Bunifant home at 2218 Palmetto was entered some time Sunday by prying open a screen door and an estimated $57 in cash removed from Mrs. Bunifant's purse.

Tools valued at $379 were taken in a burglary at Gator Lumber Company by thieves who entered by window.

Jane Jackson, barmaid at Wild Goose Inn on I-92, reported several vending machines were ripped open and at least $186 taken from the cash box in an entry by a thief who apparently wore gloves since Detective A. J. Calogero reported no fingerprints were visible.

Deputy Roy Hagley caught a 16-year-old boy inside the Floral Heights grocery in a break-in attempt and arrested the youth for breaking and entering. He was lodged in the county jail awaiting juvenile court action.

Harry Samuel McMurray, alias David McMurray, an 18-year-old Lake Mary youth, has been charged by Sanford police with aiding, abetting, counseling juveniles to make false reports of a bomb planted at Seminole High School. He was released after posting a $1,000 bond.

Three juveniles also involved in the incident, were arrested by police but turned over to juvenile officers.

NORTH ORLANDO—An appointment by Mayor Clifford Jordan is expected to be made at a meeting of North Orlando Village Council tonight, to fill the vacancy on the Council created by the death of Albert Marshall. Jordan has said that he has several persons in mind and has been non-committal.

A possibility for the seat is Charles Kelley, chairman of the planning and zoning board. Kelley was defeated in the recent elections to the Council by Rick and Allen by a slim margin of seven votes.

Village Clerk Mary Norton is also scheduled to be sworn in officially at the meeting. Mrs. Norton has been serving in a provisional capacity for several weeks following the resignation of Mrs. Frances Watson.

Recommendation are anticipated by the planning and zoning board for a rental trailer park on Hays and Moss Roads bordering SR 434. The area is currently zoned for private trailers and encompasses 97 acres.

County Agenda

In contrast to events of recent weeks, Seminole County Commissioners face a relatively brief agenda at tomorrow's meeting.

A request will be presented from the road superintendent regarding equipment purchases.

A discussion will be held regarding the county road program.

Representatives of the West Side Improvement Association will appear regarding the Lincoln Heights utility plant. Mrs. Ruth Higgins, president of the association and others have been attempting to improve the area, but feel that it is an uphill battle due to a polishing pond used for sewerage treatment. The polishing pond and open drainage ditches are located in the Lincoln Heights area and Mrs. Higgins has stated that a child drowned several years ago in the drainage ditch located adjacent to the polishing pond.

Four public hearings are scheduled; three on rezoning requests and one upon amendments to water and sewerage regulations.

Dust Commander Wins

Central Heating and Air Conditioning

By JOHN G. GRIFFIN UPI Sports Editor LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—His trainer has faith, and his horse has $100,000 in loose cash. It appeared certain today that Dust Commander, runner-up winner of the Kentucky Derby, will start in the Preakness Stakes on May 16. Only a formal meeting late Monday between young trainer Don Combs and owner Robert Lohman was needed to complete the Preakness plan—both already were saying separately that Dust Commander will probably start for second year in the Preakness Triple Crown.

Editorial Comments Parents Hurt Little Leaguers

As the little ball player stepped up to the plate, there were tears in his eyes. His father had just been asked to leave the park. Why? Because he was shouting profanity at the players, was no where near the umpire and had just called the umpire an unmentionable name. How many times do these incidents happen? Too often, that's for sure. No longer is Little League baseball in game for the boys. It's a contest for the coaches and entertainment for the parents.
