Truman Expected To Ask Americans For Big Sacrifices

4 Million Man Army, $100 Billion Dollars A Year For Defense Foreseen

By JACK REIL.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—President Truman calls on Americans at 10:30 tonight to unite in greater sacrifices behind the critical effort to build up the free world's military might.

The tempo of that effort was already being speeded up rapidly. But members of Congress and others were demanding definite manpower and production goals. It was disclosed officially today that the government has picked a site near Paducah, Ky., for a $500,000,000 atomic energy project—the second expansion of the atomic program to be announced within three weeks.

And Secretary of the Army Pace was disclosed to have told Congress that the $41,841,000,000 voted or sought for the military establishment this year probably won't be enough. He said the latest request for $16,844,000,000 has been outmoded before Congress can act on it.

Mr. Truman, speaking at 10:30 p. m. on radio and television, plans to outline the home front sacrifices he thinks are necessary to meet the grave crisis of military defeat in Korea and the threat of new Communist aggression elsewhere.

A declaration of national emergency—to speed up military contract letting and put the country nearer to a war basis—seemed certain either as a prelude to affirming the President's speech. This could be accompanied or followed by selective price and wage controls. Most speculation was that these adjustments would be gradual while personnel in jobs vital to the war effort were held in place.

Administration officials said the declaration of an emergency may be quickly followed by calls for a 4,000,000-man Army and an eventual expenditure of 100,000,000,000 a year for defense.

Word that the armed services will need more money came from testimony by Pace before a House Appropriations subcommittee on Dec. 9. It was made public today. Pace told the lawmakers the huge emergency money bill they are considering "has already been overruled by the rush of recent events."

Word of the new atomic energy project came from hearings on the same bill, which covers a Presidential request for $1,050,000,000 for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Testimony revealed that it will include two gaseous diffusion plants. The gaseous diffusion process of enriching atomic materials is the one employed at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The commission disclosed on Nov. 28 that it will build a new plant in South Carolina. Testimony released today placed its cost at $800,000,000 or more. AEC (Continued on Page Eight)

GOVERNMENT WORKERS

LONDON, Dec. 15—(AP)—One British worker out of every four is employed directly or indirectly by the government, Labor Minister George Leese reported today.

Giving figures on to last June 30, Leese said the total working population is 23,600,000, of which 5,715,000 work for local or national authorities.

State-owned industries alone employ 2,110,000 he said.

JOBS BENEFITS

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 15—Unemployment compensation payments for the week ending Dec. 8 totaled over $83,000, a decrease of nearly $9,000 from the previous week, according to a report from the Florida Industrial Commission.

Recipients also decreased nearly 1,000 during the week. There were 5,228 persons receiving weekly payments during the week ending Dec. 8 compared to the 6,228 the week before.

In Seminole County there were 11 receiving payments which totaled $147.

Court Orders Still Ignored In Rail Striked

Industrial Output Is Slowed By Strike; Mail And Freight Embargo Imposed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—Attorney General McGrath announced today he will bring contempt actions in the federal district courts at Chicago and Cleveland this afternoon against the brotherhood of railroad trainmen.

He said these courts will be advised that the union has disregarded the restraining orders which they issued during the last two days directing an end of the railroad yard strike, which is continuing to spread.

A third restraining order against the walkout has also been issued by the federal court here. It was indicated that the government will give the union some additional hours to obey the local court order before bringing additional contempt proceedings in Washington. Successful contempt action could lead to heavy fines against the union.

The strikers continued to ignore the court orders. The strike was spreading. It hit home front mail deliveries—particularly parcels—even harder. Today it struck at express.

The Railway Express Agency, Inc., announced an embargo on all shipments in and out of Chicago and St. Louis today. Express where drug, hospital supplies, funeral supplies and government shipments. The agency said a partial embargo is in effect in Washington.

The union, the brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is striking a 40 hour week at 48 hours pay for its yard workers.

The strike already had affected vital shipments of iron and steel, and slowed the industrial output.

The Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company said today one of its 12 blast furnaces at Gary, Ind., had been shut down and four others may be affected shortly. In the company's south works in Chicago, four blast furnaces also have been shut down and remained down today.

The Post Office Department last night clamped a partial embargo on Parcel Post mailings.

An Army spokesman made it clear that the Army recommended contempt action.

He said that heavy industry and "heavy food"—that is, the steel and meat packing industries in the Chicago area—"will be in a difficult position if they are not already."

Besides, he said, the Chicago postmaster's depot, through which passes a great deal of army supplies of all kinds, is being affected.

Demand for swift and effective government action arose in Congress.

Rep. Garden (D-NC), chairman of the House Labor Committee, accused the trainmen of paralyzing our railroad systems with strikes, not only against the cooperation of the Post Office.

SALVATION ARMY

The Jaycees presided today at the Salvation Army letter in front of the Post Office and McGroarty's. Among those scheduled for duty were Ralph Hufford, Dr. Ring, E. J. Moughton, Jr., Gordon Bradley, W. P. Hunt, Alvin Odum, Robert Rumbly, W. E. Stempert, John Williams, Pat Gingles, Harris Folds, "Boony" Powell, A. R. Pinkerton, Gordon Sweney, Judge Douglas Stenstrom, Malcolm Swain and Phil Stanley.

On Wednesday the women of the First Methodist Church were on duty at the letter. Retirees will officiate tomorrow, said Capt. Eva Williams.

AUTO LICENSES

Owners of automobiles over 20 years old only have to pay $5.00 for a license tag. In order, however, to insure safety it is required that the antique license be inspected by a member of the Florida Highway Patrol.

E. D. Morrison, highway patrolman, announced today that such inspections will be made Tuesdays afternoons and Friday mornings at the Court House.

Resignation Of Acheson Asked By GOP Group

Republican Members Of House Demand Housecleaning Of State Department

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—House Republicans today adopted a resolution calling for the ouster of Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

The action was taken at a closed meeting of all House party members. GOP leaders said the resolution was approved "overwhelmingly."

The resolution will be sent to President Truman.

In addition to asking for Acheson's replacement, it urges "changes in the personnel and policies responsible for this lack of confidence" in the State Department.

Senate Republicans may take some stand concerning Acheson before the day is over.

While the House Republicans were in session, the Senate GOP Policy Committee called a meeting of all Republican senators for 4:30 P. M. to consider a formal vote of no confidence in Acheson.

Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the policy committee and a resolution drafted by Senator Ives (R-NY), together with certain suggested amendments. The Ives resolution asks that President Truman fire Acheson.

The resolution adopted by the House Republicans says: "In this critical hour, confidence of the American people in their leadership is essential to our security."

"It is completely obvious that Secretary Acheson and the State Department under his leadership have lost the confidence of the Congress and the American people and cannot regain it."

"Recognizing this fact, we earnestly insist for the good of our country that Mr. Acheson be replaced as Secretary of State, and the House Republicans hereby housecleaning in the State Department, and changes in the personnel and policies responsible for this lack of confidence."

The resolution was offered by Rep. Martin (Mass.), the GOP floor leader.

Those attending the session said it was adopted by a voice vote after Rep. Jevins (R-NY) failed in an effort to have it referred to the House GOP policy committee.

The conference was well attended although there were some absences. Speakers have privately told reporters they were opposed to the resolution, and did not attend. They declined to permit use of their names.

By their vote, the House Republicans picked up a ball the senators of their party have been juggling.

Over a week ago, the Senate GOP policy committee named a subcommittee of four to consider the Ives resolution and draft a party expression on Acheson and foreign policy. This group held (Continued on Page Eight)

William C. Marlowe, 48, Is Found Dead

William C. Marlowe, 48, of Maitland was found dead last night at 7:00 o'clock approximately 50 feet east of the Orlando Highway and between Death Valley and the San Orlo Club.

The body was discovered by a neighbor whom Mrs. Marlowe sent to look for her husband when he failed to return home for supper.

No evidence of foul play was found, said County Judge Douglas Stenstrom, who with Deputy Sheriff Charles Beck and W. H. Merriam investigated the death. Mr. Marlowe, he stated, had been at work all day clearing the land and his automobile was parked nearby.

A post mortem investigation of the body was made at the Erickson Funeral Home, and further inquiry into the death will be made, said Judge Stenstrom. Mr. and Mrs. Marlowe moved to Maitland from Ohio a few weeks ago.

Each Noble and his wife attending the dinner and entertainment of the Shrine of the Morocco Temple of Jacksonville at the Mayfair Inn at 8:00 o'clock tonight in request of Roy Howell, president of the Sanford Shrine Club, to bring toys for distribution by the Salvation Army and to the Florida Methodist Home.

Heroic Platoon Is Wiped Out As Chinese Reds Swarm Down On Shrinking U.N. Perimeter

Editor Declares US Suffers From Case Of Jitters

Moral Decadence Is Biggest Threat To American Security

DELAND, Dec. 15—(AP)—America currently is suffering from a bad case of jitters as the result of the growing threat of Communism, C. L. King, editor of the Florida Times-Union editorial page, said today.

There is no discounting the seriousness of that threat, but the nation is faced by an infinitely greater problem, he told Stetson University graduates at fall commencement exercises.

The greatest threat to America and to western civilization is moral decadence, the Jacksonville editor said. It was this weakness that opened the doors of the United States to foreign enemies of democracy "who came preying through the American people."

"Moral depravity is finding expression in the organized racketeering that takes a toll through its widespread ramifications of 45 billion dollars annually in the United States, which in 1940 was 28 per cent of all expenditures by the American people," he continued.

"The far-reaching and vicious tentacles of the racketeering machine have been indicated by the facts developed by the Kefauver Senate Committee."

"What has this, obviously brought to light, of course, obviously largely touches the surface of prevailing conditions, despite the fact that at least one of the nationally prominent ring-leaders is in prison following his confession of guilt, allegedly having been made to save face for men high up in national politics."

Touching on the Florida scene, King said:

"Racketeers, whose activities in Florida have been brought into the open by the findings of the Kefauver Senate Committee, have joined the Communists in taking advantage of our weakened moral and spiritual condition this produced."

"The outlook is not an encouraging one, but it is not hopeless. The good people of America can make their country what they want it to be in national politics."

"It is said that one per cent of humanity causes most of the world's major troubles. Surely more people can be mustered into service who will accept and exercise their individual and collective responsibilities in working to restore America's moral and spiritual strength."

Orlando Air Base To Be Reactivated

ORLANDO, Dec. 15—(AP)—City officials were notified today by the Department of Defense that the Orlando Army Air Base will be reactivated in January, Harold Stuart, assistant Secretary of Defense for air, reported the decision to reactivate the base in west Orlando where up to 10,000 soldiers were stationed at one time during the World War II. No announcement was made as to number of troops to be stationed here. The decision was confirmed in telegrams and phone calls from Florida Senators Holland and Pepper.

Cease Fire Group Begins Attempt To Halt Korean War

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—(AP)—The new United Nations cease-fire committee today began its Korean peace mission by inviting U. S. delegate Ernest A. Gross to a private luncheon conference.

Gross has been designated to represent the United States in the cease-fire negotiations. Today's meeting was arranged to get the U. S. views before appointing the Chinese Communist envoy, General Wu Hsiang-shan.

The three-man committee has not yet arranged a meeting with Wu, informed quarters said.

The first move came and report that the cease-fire group might send a representative to Peking, if necessary. No decision has been taken on this question yet, however, it was said.

Meanwhile, the 1950 session of the General Assembly wound up all business except the Chinese-Korea problem. It recessed at 12:30 P. M. subject to call of the President.

The delegates were told further meetings would be arranged as soon as the cease-fire committee had something to report.

Outspoken Russian opposition promised little success for their efforts, but the committee went ahead nevertheless.

The tri-General Assembly President Nazimollah Entozan of Iran, India's Sir Benegal S. Rao and Canada's Lester B. Pearson holds its first meeting sometime today. Their next move appeared to be to seek from Red China representative Wu Hsiang-shan what his government considers acceptable cease-fire terms.

The U. S. reportedly has said it will stop fighting if the Reds do the same. Though Wu has made no public statement, Russia's Jacob A. Malik has said the Chinese will withdraw from Korea if foreign—United Nations—troops pull out.

House Committee Urges Passage Of Armed Force Bill

Total Expenditures For Armaments Go Up To $42 Billion

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today urged Congress to grant the extra $16,844,000,000 asked by President Truman to speed up national defense.

It did not cut a single penny from any of the extra funds requested for defense after Chinese Communists launched their successful offensive in North Korea.

But the committee trimmed a amount sought for the Atomic Energy Commission, the National Committee for aeronautics, the Tennessee Valley Authority and the advisory activities control board created by the new anti-subversive law.

Appropriations for these and various other agencies were lumped by the committee in an omnibus $17,800,000,000 bill for House consideration later today.

The total is $260,000,000 over the amount proposed by the President through the Budget Bureau. The largest cut $210,000,000 was made in the $5,000,000,000 sought by the Atomic Energy Commission for an expansion of atom bomb production.

The new allotment for the Army, the Navy and the Air Force would lower defense appropriations for almost $12,000,000,000 for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

And the committee said there are already indications of need for more funds. There were reports the Pentagon might ask for another $8,000,000,000 before the fiscal year ends.

That would push the year's total for defense close to $200,000,000,000 and represent about $200 for every man, woman and child in the country.

The additional money is designed to build up and fully equip with the new and more deadly weapons a military force of 4,000,000 by next June 30. It would provide 1,264,000 for the Army, 683,875 for the Navy, 105,155 for the Marine Corps and 651,995 in the Air Force.

This is about 1,264,000 more people in uniform than originally planned for the present fiscal year.

To speed up the filling of the military ranks, the committee (Continued on Page Eight)

Communist Cavalry Attacks American Tanks In Bizarre Beachhead Battle

TOKYO, Dec. 15—(AP)—Swarming Red Chinese attacks drove into the shrinking Allied beachhead in northeast Korea today and roared on tonight with the aim of annihilating the U. S. Tenth Army divisions.

Many Chinese were reported killed in headlong charges of Red infantry and cavalrymen under Allied tank, artillery and air counterattack and against withdrawing doughboy defenses.

But the Red kept coming into the blazing flatlands of the sea of Hungnam port area.

The first major attack was made by some 2,500 shouting mounted and foot soldiers who leaped aboard American tanks and tore at them with small weapons and their bare hands.

Higher attacks were expected tonight out of the force of 100,000 Chinese ringed around the United Nations force backed up against the Sea of Japan.

The beachhead was the last refuge in the northeast for almost 60,000 Allied troops who were forced to retreat by the Chinese entry into the war late in November.

One American platoon—normally 40 riflemen and one junior officer—was cut off and presumed lost in the initial attack by the 2,500 Reds.

A tank led column failed to rescue the platoon and had to fight off Chinese soldiers who pried at the tanks' hatches in frenzied hand combat.

The tanks withdrew undamaged after they ran out of ammunition.

The bulk of Allied forces in the shrinking beachhead south-west of Hungnam withdrew to new defense positions set up in depth to the seashore.

In northwest Korea, a two-week lull on the Eighth Army's front was expected to be broken soon by other Chinese forces. A big Red troop movement on the Eighth Army's right flank in central Korea northeast of Seoul was reported.

Another doughboy debacle is expected big war was waged by flashing jets in the extreme northwest corner of the peninsula.

The sustained assault by Chinese horsemen and infantry on the narrow Hamhung-Hungnam sector in the northeast proved the immediate and serious threat.

Program Planned By Civil Air Patrol

At a well attended meeting of the Civil Air Patrol Wednesday evening plans were made for participation in the Air Force's "Search" program, including aerial rescue by the C.A.P.

This will take place Dec. 12, 13, and 14, and senior members and cadets were instructed concerning their duties on this training mission.

In preparation for the program the local squadron will conduct simulated searches all day Sunday. Capt. Wally Krohn has donated the use of his plane for practice missions. Members were urged to turn out and to keep the plane flying all day.

Non-pilot members were also requested to attend as there must be an observer on each flight. There is a schedule posted on the bulletin board and members are directed to come out and fill in the schedule for flight best suited to them. Other private plane pilots will participate and many observers will be needed.

A short drill was held last night and the meeting of cadets and senior members followed.

Plantation Estates
by BESS PATTERSON

The last meeting of the year of the Plantation Estates Property Owners Association was held at the Club Rooms on Tuesday, Dec. 5, Col. N. J. Sepp, president presiding.

The invocation was given by the Rev. W. P. Kemper.

The committees' reports were given with nothing of outstanding importance having occurred. The Nominating Committee reported on their officers for the coming year, and said officers were accepted and voted in by a unanimous vote. They will take office at the next meeting which will be held the first Tuesday in January. The new officers are as follows—Mr. Everett Swift, President; Dr. Harry Whittaker, Vice President; Mr. Gaston Crosby, Treasurer; Mrs. Paul Froetscher, Secretary, and Mr. Louis Hofman, Sergeant at Arms.

The Board of Directors will be Mr. Norman Gould, Mr. Harry Klesper, Mr. Milford Leonard, Mrs. Ray Peck and Mrs. Fred Payne. Col. Sepp as past president and Mr. Everett Swift as present President automatically become members of the Board.

Three new amendments to the Constitution were proposed, discussed and voted upon. Only one, after some revision was passed.

The Membership Committee announced that they had 19 new members.

The meeting was closed after a prayer was offered by the Rev. Kemper for our departed member—Mr. Mortenson. We all regret of our community on Tuesday, the passing of the oldest member Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson were driving their niece, Mrs. Esther Jackson of Hartford, who has been visiting them for several weeks, to the Daytona Airport when Mr. Mortenson had a heart attack at the wheel and died immediately.

Mrs. Mortenson attempted to drive the car to a stop, but hit a tree and injured her knee rather badly. She and her niece accompanied the body to the North where Mr. Mortenson was buried in a family plot in a Hartford cemetery. He is survived by his one of the sons, William, who wife, four sons, nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren, has visited Plantation several times as a former Mayor of Hartford, Conn. Mr. Mortenson would have been 82 on Dec. 29. Our oldest citizen is now the Rev. William Payntelle Kemper who will be 82 on June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Connelly of Philadelphia have arrived to take possession of their new home on the corner of Columbus and Naranja Roads. Mr. Connelly's sister and brother, Miss May and Mr. Thomas McMonagal will live here with them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Nolte, the daughter and son-in-law of the Connelly's, are building their home on the property adjoining on Columbus Road which they hope to occupy soon with their three children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Luft of New York have moved into the Teague house on Palmira Road. The Teague's will not be ready to come to Florida for a year or two.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Luft of New York have moved into the Teague house on Palmira Road. The Teague's will not be ready to come to Florida for a year or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Savage took a trip to St. Petersburg. Mrs. Denney entertained the Savages for their 35th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. John Wellie were also guests at the affair.

Mrs. Walter Taylor is reported doing nicely after her operation at the Orange Memorial Hospital. Miss Nella and Miss Loi Banks entertained Amanda Hofman, Mae Leonard and Bess Patterson with Canasta on Wednesday. Their home is made lovely by the beautiful painting by Nella and the marvellously made hooked rugs by both the girls. They are both remarkably artistic and we tried to get them interested in starting a hobby art class. Of course, just now they are more interested in getting their grounds planted, as who isn't.

The Glee Club met on Wednesday night with an attendance of 26. There was a business meeting at which Mr. Leonard presided, during which Mr. Swift read the short by-laws he and his committee had compiled for the Club. It was unanimously voted that they be accepted as read.

Mrs. Froetscher was appointed temporary secretary and a Nominating Committee was appointed to bring names of officers for next year to our meeting next week.

Mrs. Whittaker led us in singing Christmas Carols and other songs, and we were all very proud of how well the part singing went. Mrs. Leonard played the piano. We feel that we are very lucky to have Mrs. Whittaker living at the place and willing to help us, as she is an expert in the music field. She has been a professional musician, having for many years been head of the music department of the Bay Ridge High School in Brooklyn, and also Dean of Women at the institution for some of those years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne have been made very happy by the arrival of their daughter, Mrs. Vivian Frey for a month's visit. Her husband, Mr. Richard R. Frey will join her before Christmas. He is now with the firm of Park-Lexington Co. Inc., owners and operators of Grand Central Palace in New York City, which Mr. Fred Payne managed from 1911 until his retirement in April of this year. The Paynes entertained with a small dinner party for their daughter at the Club Diamond on Thursday.

Miss Etta M. Tucker, formerly of Providence, Rhode Island, and now a resident of Ogunquit, Maine, has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler of Naranja Road. Miss Tucker is spending the winter months touring Florida.

Wm. J. Elliott Sr. of Amityville, N. Y. made a surprise visit to his sister, Mrs. R. S. Cooper this week. With Mr. Elliott were Mr. and Mrs. H. Solderberg of Northport, N. Y. and Mr. George Bunc of Masapeque, N. Y. They are staying at the Fellowship Front in Sanford for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kraft of Babylon, N. Y. also stopped to visit the Coopers this month.

Mrs. Samuel N. Groves have arrived from New York with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Dee, to take possession of their lovely new home on Estrella Road. Mrs. Groves is very pleased with the work done on her house by the pets her English setter to arrive very soon but Captain Groves, her Davis Brothers. Mrs. Groves' husband, will not return from his present Mediterranean Cruise until the end of December and will then be in New York only nine days, during which time she will join him until he goes out to sea again.

All that is within the realm of possibility, even probability. The day may come when the archeologists of the future who have unearthed the ruins of our civilization will debate over the ruins of the mighty temples of mannan in New York, and over the ruins of Pittsburgh's cathedral of learning; whether they are the ruins of the Tower of Babel, or of an Aztec Temple. But the everlasting gospel will still be preached, and Christ's Kingdom will still be here."

The Golden Text is: "Sing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation. Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvelous works among all nations" (1 Chron. 16: 23, 24).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He... they sailed he fell asleep; and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm" (Luke 8: 23, 24).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus said: 'I knew that Thou hearest me always; and he raised Lazarus from the dead, still the simplest, healed the sick, walked on the water... A miracle fulfills God's law, but does not violate it' (134:26-28, 31-32).

Traffic Death Record Of 796 Set In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 15—(AP)—A new traffic death record was marked up for Florida today as 1950 fatalities reached the 796 mark.
The previous record was 795, set in 1947 and covering the full year. However, with the Christmas holidays and New Year's Eve still to come, Florida is expected to go well over the old mark. There were only 633 traffic deaths in the state last year up to this date.
The 796th death was that of little Janet Marie Hunter of Pensacola who was killed Wednesday. The 6-year-old was struck by a hit and run driver who has been charged with manslaughter.
There have been 6,097 deaths on Florida's highways since 1940.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their pocketbooks

There's been a lot of talk in recent weeks about "the buying power of the dollar"—past, present and future.
We can't foretell the future—but we can tell you this right now:
You'll look a long way before you'll find a car that offers as much for the money as you can get in a 1950 Buick.
Close to half a million of these cars have been built and sold this year.
Close to half a million people have checked their features and prices against the field—and decided they'd better buy Buick.
As to prices—they start down below some sixes. And whether you price the SPECIAL, the SUPER or the ROADMASTER, you'll find, on a cents-per-pound basis, that few other cars can touch them for value.
And this is for sure! When it comes to performance—ride—the way they handle and hold the road—and thrifty use of fuel and oil—Buicks have never been finer.
That's another way of saying that coil springs on all four wheels—Dynaflo®—torque-tube drive—and Buick's high-compression, high-economy Fireball power produce an out-of-this-world combination.
So if you want your dollars to do extra duty—the time to act is now.
Look at the price tags—look at the features—sample the power and thrill that you get for your money—and you'll know what we mean.
*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster. optional on other Buick models.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Paul had his beloved physician Luke, but God alone heals the body and soul. Keep in harmony with God so that soul and body may be whole; Jehovah will take away from them all sickness.—Deut. 7:19

Great Britain has decided to try to get along without Marshall Plan Aid, just in time to get ready for a new lend-lease arrangement for the third World War.

The Russians are now reported to have 33 divisions in East Germany, as compared to nine Allied divisions in West Germany. Yet, according to the Russians, it is the Americans who are the aggressors, who are preparing for war, and who will be to blame if war comes to Europe.

Isn't it funny that Sir Benegal Rau, India's representative in the United Nations, seemed to think the UN could issue a cease-fire order in Korea and that the Chinese Reds would cease firing. Like so many other foolish people, he still thinks that Joe Stalin is a man you instinctively trust.

President Truman is quoted as saying that he is under the handicap of living the lives of two men—that of President and of man being. So has every other man who has ever been President. But it isn't being a human being that gives the President trouble; it's being the kind of a human being that he is.

Most of the radicals in this country are apparently trying to blame MacArthur for the debacle in Korea which would not have occurred if American diplomacy could have kept the Chinese Communists out of the war, or if the United Nations hadn't ordered MacArthur to recapture North Korea without bombing Communist bases in Manchuria.

The Jaycees did a good job in getting all civic clubs to cooperate in turning out to hear their national president Richard Kemler. He made a good talk and one worth hearing in this day and time when so many young men do not seem to realize the importance of Christianity in our American way of life, or the benefits to be derived from democracy far greater than the Almighty Dollar. We particularly appreciated his explanation of how the "pursuit of happiness" got into the Constitution and his evident belief that "happiness" is not necessarily "property."

We don't know who is worse, Senator McCarthy, or Drew Pearson, but there is an old story about what happens when thieves fall out. Well, it applies equally as well when a couple of mud-slingers like them fall out. You can't tell what is going to happen. So Senator McCarthy says he slapped his face. But Pearson says he kicked him in the shins. Who cares? Everyone will rejoice that Pearson finally did what was coming to him. And if he had done what he should have done when anyone kicked him in the shins, Senator McCarthy would have gotten what is coming to him.

Speaking of taxes, and equally worth remembering is, that whatever any future war may cost this country by way of lives, war bond sales, and higher taxes, property damage resulting from enemy bombing will be prorated among all the people of the country. A bill has already been introduced in Congress revising the War Damage Corporation and authorizing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to lend a billion dollars as capital for an insurance program covering all property damaged by enemy action. So if buildings in New York City are destroyed in the next overseas war, you'll be paying to rebuild them. This is so it should be, but perhaps arrangements should be made by you before making other

Defending The People

The Department of Defense wants nothing to do with the administration of civil defense, Congress has been told. An official spokesman is quoted as saying that the role mission of the Department should be the defense of the nation. Civil defense, he said, is a civil responsibility and should be handled by civilians.

There are sound arguments for keeping civil defense in civilian hands. It brings a war right down to individuals and their localities, lets them feel the pressure of war and have a part in waging the war. We like power in our own locality, not centralized in Washington.

Also there are sound reasons for making the military establishment responsible at least in some measure for civil defense. The most feared thing in the event of war would be atomic attack; the residents of every community want the assurance of knowing that their defensive unit is ready to cope with it. Certain information now is being distributed for civil defense use, but greater confidence would be inspired by a direct link with the military, since it keeps a near monopoly on knowledge about atomic weapons, their development and use, and counter-measures.

The Department of Defense presumably would be expected to supply equipment and advice, and provide immediate help in event of disaster. The military people are already on the ground for there are military establishments in almost every city which would be a likely target of enemy attack. And the military people are supposed to know what dangers to expect.

If there is a distinction between defending the nation and defending its people, it must be a very fine one.

Camelback Shadow

The shadow of a camelback has fallen across American life. This camelback, so called from the shape of the strip in which it is produced, is the peculiar compound of uncured natural, synthetic and reclaimed rubber which is used for recapping automobile and truck tires. The government has ordered rubber manufacturers to cut down the use of natural rubber, for tires among other things, but to continue maximum production of camelback.

It is a general and safe presumption that this action presages coming reductions in the production of new tires, suggesting that the rationing almost inevitably will follow, and a return of the times in which a car owner thinks not of new tires but of recaps. As the term "camelback" returns to its vocabulary, the motorist will recall that tire rationing was one of the first blows which fell on the civilian economy in World War II. Does the shadow which now has fallen warn of a return of war-time economy?

It is probably so. Whatever the immediate outcome of the dilemma in Korea, whether the following months bring total war or a restoration of uneasy peace, the United States faces the unavoidable prospect of a period of great military effort. If the effort is not required for the actual prosecution of war, it will be needed no less for the continuing attempt to avert war.

The necessary effort in either case cannot be made while we continue with life as usual, business as usual or government as usual. We face curtailment on every hand, a gridding of the loins, whether it be for a fight or the equally hard task of not fighting.

Easy Tax Forms

The Bureau of Internal Revenue apparently has put considerable study into the design of a remittance form for the use of employers of domestic help in paying the new Social Security taxes effective the first of the year. The form appears to be a model of simplicity and convenience. Only the barest information is required, and the form folds and seals to make its own envelope for mailing.

This is well. The Bureau doubtless will have trouble enough in adding to its employer tax rolls the millions of housewives who employ help a few days a week. Now that it has gathered some experience in the design of simplified forms, how about taking a fresh look at some of the ones used for other taxpayers?

Congressman Herlong Reports

Our mail discloses a tremendous concern in the hearts and minds of all our people over our critical international situation, with particular emphasis on Korea. We realize that things change so rapidly that what is written today may be out of date before it is published. One thing, however, is obvious. We are in bad trouble. There have been many statements issued and speeches made about who caused the trouble. Regardless of whose fault it is, I think the time has passed for destructive and political criticism. We must unite to get the "ev out of the ditch." What our policy will be with regard to getting out of Korea is not for the Congress to decide. This decision must be made by the President, the De-

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(AP)—This country has been in a continuous state of national emergency since 1939. But this week President Truman is expected to declare a state of national emergency.

The may sound confusing but isn't. The declaration won't affect the general public in such a widespread as price and wage controls and rationing.

Under a law passed this fall the President can order price and wage controls and rationing any time he thinks they're necessary. He doesn't have to declare an emergency to use them.

Why then declare a national emergency at all since we're ready living under an emergency declaration and have been since 1939? It may, of course, sharpen the public's realization of national danger.

But it is only by declaring an emergency that the President can bring into motion certain laws which he may think are necessary for this country's arms preparations can't be used without the formal declaration of emergency.

Generally, for the purposes of this story, it can be said Congress passes three kinds of laws: 1. Permanent laws. They're in effect in peace and war. They stay unchanged unless Congress itself changes them. Example: The Taft-Hartley labor law.

2. Emergency laws. They may have been passed years ago but Congress repeals them. Example: The War Relocation Authority law.

3. Temporary, wartime laws. Congress passes them in wartime to fill some special needs. When the war is over, or Congress thinks they're no longer necessary, they're repealed.

Example: The training course for Army officers at West Point ordinarily is four years. During World War II Congress made this three years. Later it made the course four years again.

Back in 1939, when Hitler was declared a limited national emergency. He later called it an unlimited emergency. This permitted him to bring into action laws which already were on the books but couldn't be used except in emergency.

So this country still remains in a condition of unlimited national emergency because neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Truman has ever ended it. And we're still technically at war, too, since the war has never formally been ended.

But in 1947, two years after the shooting stopped, Congress decided that the temporary, wartime laws it passed after Pearl Harbor were no longer necessary. So it repealed a number of them although the war itself was not declared over.

Many of the emergency laws no longer needed. So Congress declared the emergency was over in so far as it applied to use of some of the emergency laws—while letting the emergency continue in so far as it applied to some other emergency laws.

This meant that the President no longer could use those emergency laws—for which Congress said the emergency was over—unless he again declared a national emergency.

So, if he declares a national emergency this week, the President will be doing what he thinks is necessary in order to use some laws which would have to be dormant on the books without such a declaration.

There's question in the minds of some Congress members because the emergency declaration as we can. This calls for total mobilization and a complete governmental reorganization. This means greater sacrifices and inconveniences on the part of all of us. It means, too, the preservation of our way of life.

There seems to be some uncertainty in the mind of the man in the street about our military commitment in Korea.

I am encountering many anxious questions as to whether the U. N. Army is bound to stick and fight it out until it either defeats the Chinese Communist hordes or is forced into the sea.

The answer is that the U. N. Allies are definitely committed to stick to the job.

They are pledged to carry on until they either achieve victory or encounter a "Dunkerque," that is, are driven aboard their ships. That is the significance of British Prime Minister Attlee's statement yesterday in the House of Commons in the course of a report to Parliament on his recent conference with President Truman in Washington and with Canadian leaders in Ottawa, he evoked cheers when he announced:

"We were agreed that aggression must be halted and we were equally certain that every effort should be made to prevent an extension of the conflict."

And at another point Attlee declared he had "good hopes that the forces of the United Nations will maintain themselves in Korea."

This being the agreement we may take it that there isn't any present intention of withdrawing entirely from the peninsula.

However, this we should recognize: The Reds are pouring something like a million troops down into the peninsula against the comparatively small U. N. army.

There might come a time when the pressure of this weight would become unbearable. Then we should see a General U. N. withdrawal by sea.

The Allies now have pulled back from most of North Korea. The Eighth Army, which has been in the northwest, has retired to the 38th parallel, the boundary between North and South Korea. On the other side of the peninsula it is reported that ships have started evacuating the 10th Corps after its retreat to the Hungnam plain. The Corps presumably could be landed further down the peninsula to join the Eighth Army in forming a new line.

Obviously the U. N. forces are in a tight spot. However, things are good enough so that MacArthur, after a visit to the front was able to announce that they "still are in an undefeated combat position of high morale and marked battle efficiency" and that their position is relatively secure for the time being.

An answer to this comes from the Moscow news, which reports the North Korean Prime Minister Kim Il Sung has ordered his troops and their Communist Allies to push the American Armies into the sea. His cry is: "Vengeance and death to American armed interventionists!"

There can be no doubt that Kim means what he says. The Communist alliance will make every effort to accomplish this feat. So we must expect terrific fighting to develop as the Chinese continue to pour their unlimited manpower into Korea.

Can the U. N. hold them? Who can say at this juncture? In any event, the United Nations will have registered an historic declaration against aggression.

There need be no uncertainty on that score.

The oldest Mission churches are in New Mexico, the first permanent church being built in 1598.

Boxcars stretching from New York to within 50 miles of Chicago would be needed to carry the weight displaced by the 400 ships of the UN naval force in Korean waters.

The Lemonade Opera, providing summer opera for New Yorkers, takes its name from the custom of serving lemonade between the acts.

Mrs. Frank MacNeill Honors Miss Brock

Mrs. Frank MacNeill entertained Wednesday night with a bridge party honoring Miss Betty Jo Brock, who, according to her mother, will be an event of the month.

The MacNeill home was attractively decorated throughout with arrangements of gladioluses, and a beautifully lighted Christmas tree in the hall added a festive note to the occasion.

Lovely luncheon sets were presented to the honoree, Miss Brock, and Miss Catherine Clark and Miss Mary Touchton. Bridge prizes for high and low score were won by Miss J. L. Terwilliger, Jr. and Miss Dorothy Carter.

Toward the end of the evening Mrs. MacNeill, assisted by Mrs. Al Hunt, served delicious refreshments to the guests.

Those invited to be with Miss Brock were her mother, Mrs. Betty Brock, Mrs. Ralph Lassing, Mrs. Walter Turner, Mrs. Terwilliger, Mrs. William Connel, Mrs. Allen Delaney, Mrs. George A. Smith, Mrs. M. L. Rabon, Jr., Mrs. Ed Dunn, Miss Daphne Connolly, Mrs. Clark, Miss Margaret Dinsfelder, Miss Helen Baker, Miss Tom Livingston, Mrs. Shirley Smith, Miss Carter, and Miss Touchton.

The Lamplighter

"You can change the World". So asserts Father James Keller, pastor of the recent and widely known which is rapidly gaining momentum. The message is this: that we, as individuals, DO count for something, that we are not mere automata pushed silylly by the indifferent hand of fate, but the shapers of our own destinies.

Being in with us look, there will soon appear a motion picture on the same theme which will star many of the bright figures in the entertainment field. Keller declares that too many bad influences are making themselves felt in the newspapers, teaching, writing. He feels that a counter action is needed that more good people should use these means and fight for the things which are laudable to our well-being, belief in God and the belief that we are important factors in the scheme of things and by our actions can literally "change the world".

Father Keller believes that the world is morally deteriorating and that is the reason he has inaugurated the Christopher movement which is, in reality, a tremendous drive to counter the forces that would seek to destroy us. Communism and skepticism are the evils today. "You can't change the world because it's what it is and it's always been that way. This is an attitude held by many, an attitude many parents inculcate into their children believing they are cushioning a shock which must sooner or later come anyway. However, it is an unholistic attitude and is morally indefensible.

When the Renaissance spread over Europe, a great change occurred in the attitudes of people in the world about them. The Renaissance was a marvelous thing; it freed people from the grip of medieval inhibitions and superstitions under which the masses had been enslaved and helplessly exploited.

But, what began as a cleansing and brilliant movement, has developed into a Frankenstein monster that has gotten out of hand and threatens to destroy us. Many people believe that the reason for the world's condition today is that we have turned away from God. We personally believe they are right, in turning away from God we have sown the seed of our own destruction. The one concept that can keep us hoping and growing. We have turned rather to the Darwinian concept that this is a cruel world where the "survival of the fittest" applies not only to the animal but to man also! What can man become, for what can he hope, what can he be, when he believes only and carries this hopeless note or despair into his daily life?

William James was the founder of the philosophy of Pragmatism which declares that that which is best is that which produces the best results for the individual. Surely if we put the above concept to the pragmatic test, they fall pitifully short of supplying a with any sense or purpose in living. And to assure, develop and grow, purpose and belief in something greater than ourselves must be fundamental.

The Christopher movement is something for all of us to think about, regardless of our religious affiliations. We must not talk. We must act, for in action lies the success or failure of a move which

Christmas Party Is Held By Lions

Members of the Sanford Lions Club and their wives enjoyed a Christmas party last night at the Seminole Country Club.

A turkey supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Mus O'Linger, and Lions brought gifts for underprivileged children which were placed under a large, lighted Christmas tree.

Following the supper the group had a fun test with the boys, and Al Skinner was seen and heard shooting off a cap pistol, Harry Robinson, the Lion being so smirking a water gun.

Close Ramsey announced a snow ball fight, the snow balls being harmless wads of tissue paper. The ladies joined in.

The final entertainment of the evening was dancing to the music of five Stetson University students led by Peter Baker.

Al Skinner was head of the committee on arrangements which included Cecil Carlton and Clyde Ramsey, Jack Stenper, the Lion Twister of the club had a busy evening having time on members and collected several dollars for use in defraying convention expenses.

Junior Miss Club Has Christmas Party

The Junior Miss Club held its annual Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Grace Marie Stimpfner.

Members attending were enjoyed by the group during the afternoon, and Coca Cola, Christmas cookies and candies were served by Ann Stiles, Pauline Casson, mother, Mrs. J. M. Stimpfner.

The home was lovely with Christmas decorations and a large Christmas tree around which gifts were placed to be exchanged later in the afternoon.

Members attending the party were Rosemary Garner, Sandra Dunn, Patsy Collins, Jeanette Cleveland, Barbara Casabe, Bet Nancy Roundtree, Annette Brooks, Louise Benton, Joyce Jones, Carol Gaechele, Elton Lyons, Martha Jones, Patty Walker, and Patricia Cook.

North Carolina State Squeeks By Aroused Eastern Kentucky 65-64

By MILO FARNETT
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The wolfpack had to scramble some but the North Carolina State basketball five still is undefeated. State came from behind in regulation play last night then came from behind again in overtime to defeat Eastern Kentucky, 65-64.

Both teams wolfpack forward Sam Ranzino scored the vital points. He first tied the game at 58-58 on a free throw with 12 seconds left in regular play, and in the overtime Ranzino dribbled down court and sank the winning basket with just 26 seconds left. Little Joe Harper led Eastern Kentucky into an early second-half tie and from there on the two teams battled to the end.

Ranzino topped the scorers with 22 and Harper tallied 15 to lead the visiting Kentuckians. Each quintet rates high on the national ratings. Another strong bluegrass five, Western Kentucky, had it easy against Tampa, 103-70. The winning score tied western's high-scoring mark set against Bowling Green (5), last season. Rip Gish scored 21, Jack Turner 19 and Gene Rhodes 17 for the winners.

Georgia defeated Clemson 58-46 in a game at Athens marked by a flurry of fists. With 13 minutes left to play, Capt. Earl Davis of Georgia and Doug Haugk, Clemson forward, had a brief go at it and were taken out of the game.

The tussle came about when Davis was fouled by Haugk under the Georgia basket. Davis tossed in a free throw, then followed the Clemson forward to the sidelines.

A couple of fancy squads carried off the scoring honors. Georgia's Joe Jordan and John Snee, Clemson's pot-shot ace, each scored 17 points.

The half-time score found Georgia leading 30 to 18. City College of New York came back from its Missouri pasting to draw Washington State, 69-48, in Madison Square Garden. Ed Roman hit 16 for CCNY. Long Island defeated Georgetown of Washington, 75-66, in the second half of the garden ball. Sherman White scored 26 and Leroy Smith 21 points for LIJ and Barry Sullivan 25 for Georgetown. The district of Columbia five started an entire sophomore team.

Powerful Oklahoma A&M easily defeated Arkansas, 44-33. That makes it two over the porkers. Kentucky prepared for Kansas Saturday night with an 85-37 drubbing of Florida. Powerful Murray State, Louisville and Kentucky quintet, advanced to the final of the Marshall basketball tournament, whipping Marshall 75-54. West Texas State defeated Baylor, 70-70, in the other semifinal.

Missouri continued its winning drive since the CCNY upset. The Tigers defeated visiting Texas Christian, 50-46. Bud Heineman of Missouri led the scoring with 15 points. Missouri passed up several free throws late in the game to keep possession—Phog Allen's newest basketball invention.

Toledo edged Niagara, 73-70. Denver topped Drake, 66-60, and Evansville downed High Point, 75-54, in other Midwest games. Canisius defeated Texas, 69-46, at Buffalo and Boston College trounced Boston University, 88-48.

In the west, Wyoming defeated off-beaten Colorado, 64-51, and in the southwest, North Texas State downed Baylor, 54-50 and southwest Texas took Texas A&M 55-50.

Yale and Harvard have met 66 times on the football field.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

By ED BARBER

Veteran tennis professional Teddy Rericha, who led the Century Country Club in White Plains, N.Y., in the summer, will handle the Mayfair Inn tennis program this winter. Formerly ranked professionally, Rericha has been playing for the past 20 years and has been a professional almost as long. He began his career as a partner of Vic Richards and Frank Hunter and toured the East with Bill Tilden's troupe in the thirties.

Rericha says Tilden is still one of the best players he has met for one set, playing as well as he did in his prime until fatigue sets in. No other tennis player has managed to stay at the top of the game for as long as Tilden, Rericha added.

The new Mayfair Inn program will attempt to interest Sanford's youngsters in tennis and will hold periodic clinics to familiarize them with the game. He pointed out that tennis training should start when children are as young as 8 or 9 to be really effective. Rericha has had considerable experience as a coach having headed the Long Beach University's team in 1935 and 1939.

Of the pros active today Rericha thinks Jack Kramer is far and away the best. He led the initial defeat by hand-legged little Pancho Segura was more an accident than anything else, he said. Kramer has since been leading the tour in a consistent manner.

Kramer hits and plays much like the Venus, Hodge and Tilden group and is the top professional exponent of the "big game." Rericha explains he thinks it will probably be five years before anyone can seriously challenge Kramer's claim to bring the top tennis player.

Rericha thinks the big or "severe" game will invariably beat the steady, consistent type provided all other factors are equal. He himself played the severe style until he took up teaching, which requires both the "big" and steady tennis of a back court game.

Hitsy Grant and Frank Parker are among the best players who play the steady game. Both have been top-ranked nationally, but neither has been able to cope with the aggressive games of Rericha and Tilden.

Rericha says the Mayfair Inn will sponsor several tournaments during the winter as well as exhibitions by well-known tennis stars. Rollins College tennis team will also play an exhibition match here soon, he said.

By Finn, Art Larsen and Hodge Pate are the best American amateurs still active today. Rericha thinks Larsen, winner of the National Singles championship at Forest Hills, is probably the best amateur in the world.

Here is Mrs. Picard's own statement: "About six months ago I began having vague aches and pains. I had a very hard time getting my work done—watching my two little daughters, keeping the house clean and doing all the cooking. I had lost my appetite and I could hardly get any sleep at all. Finally I was forced to go to bed and my sister had to do my housework. I felt terrible. I then heard about HADACOL and how other folks were feeling wonderful because of HADACOL. In just three weeks' time I could tell a difference. I got wonderful night's sleep and, best of all, I now have a fine appetite. HADACOL is certainly wonderful. I have told all my neighbors how really wonderful HADACOL is. Yes, You Should Try HADACOL... as have thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamin B1, B2, Iron and Nicotin. The HADACOL formula is so effective for aches and pains and a general run-down condition when they are due to such deficiencies in your system.

Make up your mind to give remarkable HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamin B1, B2, Nicotin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size $1.25, or the large family size $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The Lablanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana 70503. The Lablanc Corporation.

Wyoming To Use Neyland System In Gator Bowl

Undeclared Cowboys Have Top Tailback In Eddie Talboom

LXINGTON, Va., Dec. 15.—(Special)—The aura of mystery surrounding the actual strength of the University of Wyoming's undeclared, undeclared football squad was beginning to vanish here where Washington and Lee's Generals are preparing for their New Year's Day engagement with the westerners in the Gator Bowl.

W. S. I. Coach George Barclay turned off his motion picture projector, rubbed his over-stained eyes, and declared, "I don't like what I have just seen."

It was no ghost Barclay saw, only the films of two smashing Wyoming victories over Skyline Six Conference opponents, Utah State and Brigham Young.

With their powerful Tennessee-type single wing attack roaring at full speed over the desperate Utah State and BYU defenders, the Cowboys racked up rather methodical 40-7 and 48-0 triumphs.

Until seeing the movies, Barclay thought the Wyoming's Coach Hossain Wyatt for films of the Generals' games with Virginia and Richmond, there was no one in this locale who could testify as to the genuine strength of the Cowboys, except they had triumphed in a respectable Baylor team, 7-0.

Barclay's preliminary survey, contained in half a dozen footnotes to diagrams he drew from the Wyoming movies, went something like this:

(1) Wyoming is entirely too heavy.

Rericha, who has an eight year old son already swishing a racket, says the Mayfair courts are in top condition and are not as fast as he would have expected concrete courts to be.

This column has been pushing tennis in Sanford for the past two months especially for the younger set. It looks as if Teddy Rericha may be just the man to stimulate that interest.

Mrs. Lee Picard, of Church Point, Louisiana, says the cooking some women do with fancy new stoves and so forth may be easier but one certainly doesn't get the same results. Mrs. Picard says for an honest-to-goodness "old-fashioned meal," the kind that puts a man in trim to do farm work, she'll take old-fashioned cooking methods every time.

Since she has been taking HADACOL, she doesn't have a bit of trouble cooking for her whole family and doing her chores about the house for the food that by taking HADACOL her system overcame deficiencies of Vitamin B1, B2, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Picard's own statement: "About six months ago I began having vague aches and pains. I had a very hard time getting my work done—watching my two little daughters, keeping the house clean and doing all the cooking. I had lost my appetite and I could hardly get any sleep at all. ### Baseball Seeking Commissioner To Replace Chandler

By TED MEHR
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Chandler situation continued to simmer in baseball circles today as a four-man committee looked for a successor to A. B. Chandler as commissioner of baseball.

The committee, composed of two representatives each from the American and National Leagues, was named yesterday. No announcement is expected from them until the New York baseball writers dinner in February when the major winter meetings is scheduled. In the meantime they will interview possible successors before making a recommendation.

Lou Perini, president of the Boston Braves, and Phil Wigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, are some of the important Eastern or Southern squads this year.

Barclay recalled Coach Dud De Groot's comparison of the Wyoming and Army teams after his New Mexico squad had been welcomed by both of them. "I haven't seen Army, but from the movies I watched of Wyoming's team, I might safely surmise that Wyoming would give Army a thoroughly busy afternoon. De Groot's observation was based on sound judgment," Barclay said.

The W. L. director also had a practical word for the clever program editor who devised the weight charts shown in the Wyoming game program he used in picking out the Cowboy personnel.

"Comparing their program weights with what I saw in their movies, I'd assume they weighed these Cowboys when they were freshmen and haven't revised them since," Barclay said.

Among the latest suggested as successors to Chandler are Frank E. Lausche, Governor of Ohio, and Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn). Lausche had no comment, but Senator Kefauver said he isn't interested.

Navy played a 14-14 tie with Washington State in the 1924 Rose Bowl football game, but Army has never played in the Bowl.

York Giants, 26-7, on snow-swept gridiron.

Football Coach Charles (Rip) Engle finds Army tough to beat. His 1950 Penn State team lost to the Cadets, 41 and his 1946 Brown eleven hit, 59-7.

Williams was the "newest" opponent on the 1950 Bowdoin College football schedule—the teams have met 23 times.

Schneidenschach And Jack Hackett Fight For Miami Quarterback Job

MIAMI, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Baron Bol Schneidenschach, the emergency quarterback who pulled the University of Miami Hurricanes out of the fire in its hour of crisis, may have captured a starting position when Miami meets Clemson in the Orange Bowl New Year's day.

Schneidenschach was drafted from defensive fullback to offensive quarterback only five days before the crucial University of Florida game. Regular quarterback Jack Hackett was sidelined for the balance of the season by a shoulder separation received in the Georgetown game the previous week.

Baron Bol not only filled Hackett's shoes, but passed, generally and unapologetically the injury-riddled Hurricanes to a 20-14 triumph.

Hackett virtually has recovered from the injury and has been working out daily for the New Year's day classic. But it will be a scramble between him and Schneidenschach for the starting position.

At this point Schneidenschach seems to have the edge. Coach Andy Gustafson has been using him regularly in first team offensive drills.

Hackett, before he was injured, was one of the leading passers in the south and one of the ranking pass tossers in the nation. His shrewd signal calling was one of the major factors in Miami's upset victory over Purdue the week after the Bolmakers stunned the red world by upsetting Notre Dame.

Arden Miami fans will ever be grateful to Schneidenschach. When Miami faced Florida its star running back, Frank Smith, co-captain Ralph Feiler and several others had been benched with injuries received in the rough and tumble Georgetown fracas.

Every college has its "game of the year" and the Florida game is Miami's.

Hackett will see action, but how much is open to conjecture. Gustafson indicated he may switch Schneidenschach, Smith and offensive ends Feiler and Tom Jolley to defensive part time in an effort to thwart Clemson's single wing attack.

"We're going to need a great defense to stop this Clemson team," Gustafson commented. "I feel that we will need the playing ability of these men just as much on defense as on offense."
