

Traveling Celery Feds Go To Jacksonville Thursday To Play Julia Landon High

Local Squad Can Win If Boys Don't Tire Near End Of Game

By HENRY SLAUGHTER
The Seminole High-Traveling Celery Feds travel to Jacksonville Thursday night to play the Julia Landon High School Lions.

The records of these two teams show that Landon will be the favorite before the game starts, but if Coach McLennan's boys put on the kind of fight in this next game as they waged during the first three periods last week against Orlando there will be a different story than the records of these two teams indicate.

The Celery Feds dropped their game last week in the last quarter when they seemed to tire out and his teammates took advantage of this break and Orlando scored a 26-0 victory. It was fortunate that all the Sanford men came out of the battle with no more than the customary bruises.

The Lions tackled the strong team of Lee team of Jacksonville in an Armistice Day game and came out victorious. At present there is no report of any of the Landon men being out of the game Thursday night, but those boys had to play awfully hard to win from Lee, and it looks as if the Celery Feds have a good chance to rack up their second win this season.

Edwin Humphries, 185 pound tackle, will be lost to the team for the rest of the season as he met Dan Cupid and received a knock out blow and was forced to quit school to support his bride. "King Kong" Williams, who was out of last week's game because of sickness, may not be able to return to the team any more this season. Although he is better he is not in good enough condition to play a game of football this soon after his illness and may be kept on the bench next Thursday night in Jacksonville. "King Kong" will be missed by the whole team as well as to those fans that will make the trip, for it is seldom that he does not play a good fast game of football.

In the event that "King Kong" is out, Buddy Wilkerson, who played an excellent game in Orlando last week, will be in there showing that he can play as a regular as well as the next. Jim Stapler will be in Humphries' position where he has been for the past three weeks.

The Celery Feds have learned they can win a game and will be out to get Landon Thursday, and if they fight as they did in Orlando and do not tire in the last period there is little doubt that

Chattanooga Club Arrives March 3

The Chattanooga baseball club has accepted the rate schedule as made by the Valdes Hotel, and the 50 members of the club will make that their headquarters while in Sanford next spring. Valdes Hotel management was notified yesterday that the professional league players will arrive in Sanford on Mar. 3 and will be here for three weeks.

They will emerge victorious over another conference leader as they did Ocala.

In the backfield the Celery Feds have a good fast bunch of players who will cause the Lions line lots of trouble. Leland McClelland, who has played an excellent game at fullback will be in there charging and tackling as if it meant his life to lose a game. Leland will be aided by Billy Zachry and Leon Lawson at half, and either Wright or Phillips at quarter. All these boys are ready to fight to the end for Coach McLucas and the school.

State Orders Cities To Carry Insurance; Companies Reject It

public liability insurance as well. The Continental now has the City's automobile liability insurance.

Commissioner W. A. Laffer expressed the opinion that Sanford does not need public liability insurance, as in 20 years there has been only one claim against the City for damage and that was settled with the $12 purchase of a pair of spectacles. This proposal that the workman's compensation insurance could be written if the City would also buy the public liability insurance which the Commissioners said the City does not need brought forth Commissioner Rhinholser's expressed opposition to "sweetening the pot." It also brought from Commissioner Vivian A. Speer a motion that the letters from the insurance companies, or copies of them, be sent the attorney general of the state and to the state insurance commission. The motion was passed without a dissenting vote.

Mayor T. L. Dumas made the observation, during the discussion, that the state fixes the premiums on workman's compensation insurance, but that a municipality cannot force an insurance company to write a policy if the company decides the rate is too low. "So what?" he said.

Regulation By U. S. Of Bond Groups Asked

George W. Simons of Jacksonville, secretary and field agent. Dunn, under questioning, admitted $3 of every $7.47 his group collected went for fees and expenses.

On Wilcox's desk, at the time, lay tables submitted by the committee showing it had collected since its organization, $747,774.74, distributed $413,271 to bondholders, disbursed $300,760 as "net expenses" and held $32,763 cash on hand.

Clearwater—$135,739 collected; $73,780 paid bondholders; $43,578 net expense, and $18,380 cash on hand. Stuart—$180 collected; nothing paid to bondholders; $1762 net expense, and $1602 deficit. Wilcox read from tables supplied by Dunn showing Clearwater was charged $5878 plus $38 for expenses for the New York firm of Thomson, Wood & Hoffman; $500 plus $767 for L'Egrie & Shands, Florida firm; $600 plus $92 expenses for still another lawyer and his share of $27,750 general fees for Thomson, Wood & Hoffman.

Dunn also admitted $2500 had been paid J. C. Clements, Fort Myers lawyer, for lobbying in the state legislature, this amount being assessed against holders of the bonds of Lakeland, and Wilcox said "we expect to show still more payments to Clements."

The Fort Myers man yesterday admitted he had received $4067 from bondholders committees in Sanford, St. Petersburg and West Palm Beach to lobby at the 1931 and 1933 sessions of the Legislature.

Simons testified he "approved" the payment to Clements, but said his own work had to do only with collecting and gathering of information. He denied any political activity.

City Moves To Obtain Better Water Supply

ville, which a few years ago had a poor supply of water, has been able to improve its palatability. Jacksonville has the same source of water as has Sanford, he said. Mayor T. L. Dumas said he had had several conferences over the water situation with an engineer in Orlando and that the latter had coincided with Commissioner Rhinholser that this City's supply could be enhanced and improved by going west of the City. Commissioner Laffer suggested that after the proposed conference with the engineers cost estimates be obtained from other concerns on the installation of a treatment plant.

Dying Pilot Saves Ship And Passengers

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Nov. 12.—Fighting a falling heart in mid-air Capt. Donald Buckman, 34-year old Army pilot, raced 100 miles against death last night to bring to safety three passengers in a transport plane. Capt. Buckman, air service supply officer stationed at March Field, Riverside, Calif., died a few minutes after he landed his plane. Physicians said death was due to heart disease and that he suffered an attack while in the air. Capt. Buckman, stocky, heavy-set and his face twisted with pain, stepped out of the plane and collapsed in the arms of airfield attendants. "I'm hurt," he gasped. Attendants carried him into the airport hangar, where he died.

Passengers in the plane, which took off from March Field yesterday afternoon, apparently were not aware the flier had been stricken until he brought the plane down. Capt. Buckman said he had been seized with a pain in the region of his heart when he was over the Mojave Desert, about half the distance from March Field. His body was taken back to Riverside by Army airplane.

A recent military paragraph at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, showed the Hawaiian division of the army to be completely motorized. The army mule had vanished.

Florida's Dairies Are Declared Best

Kiwanians were told at their luncheon in the Montezuma Hotel today noon that "no state in the union has more sanitary dairies than those in Florida." The declaration was made by Dr. J. M. Scott, chief of the inspection bureau of the milk control board in Gainesville. There were two guest speakers at today's meeting, the other being E. R. Purvis of the extension department of the agricultural chemical division of the State University. He explained the service given by the department and told something about the research work being carried on.

Roy Harris, one of the best of America's serious composers, was driving a truck at the age of 25. Music came later.

How A Woman's Nervousness Was Helped By CARDUI

"Shortly before the birth of my youngest child I was very nervous and run-down in every way," writes Mrs. Fernell Tidale, of South Bloomingville, Ohio. "I had lost my appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep. I heard of Cardui and decided to give it a trial. After I had taken one bottle, I was so much better every way that I got six bottles and took them. My neighbors all say they never saw anyone make such a change in so short a time. I have built back my weight and today I am a strong and healthy mother." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. —Adv.

GAMBLERS AT THE CROSS:
 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots that they might fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vestment did they cast lots.—Matthew 27: 35

The other day we met a fellow who admitted he didn't know what caused the depression.

William Randolph Hearst declined Gov. Shultz's invitation to reside in Florida, but he didn't raise giving his opinion of tax gofers.

Apparently Ann Harding, the movie actress, is going to marry an Army officer. She insists there is absolutely nothing to the rumor.

According to Washington Merry-Go-Round, "William Jennings Bryan may have had rough sledding as secretary of state, but his daughter, Ruth Bryan Owen, is at least one woman in the New Deal who has made good."

To pronounce the names of some of these Ethiopian towns, all you have to do is pretend you are still a 3-year-old. For instance, "Addis Ababa" is pronounced "Addie Awawa."

A group of women meeting in Miami are referred to as the "state nurses." And all along the people thought the politicians married the state.—Sarasota Herald. Or is it the state that nurses the politicians?

Talking with a fellow from Mississippi the other day, we asked him about the sales tax which was among the very first to try it. He said the funny thing about it was that the very people who opposed its enactment are now the loudest in their praise of it, while the people who at first favored it are bitterly complaining against it.

"I would not be frank with you," says President Roosevelt, "if I did not tell you that the dangers that confront the future of mankind as a whole are greater to the world and therefore to us than the dangers which confront the people of the United States by and in themselves alone. Jealousy between nations continues; armaments increase; national ambitions that disturb the world's peace are thrust forward. Most serious of all, international confidence in the sacredness of international contracts is on the wane." And he might have added, national confidence in the sacredness of national contracts is also on the wane.

Secretary Wallace says "the big iron reduction control of the steel companies in 1933 was in principle 1000 times as damaging as the big reduction campaign of 1935." By this he meant that it is worse for industry to voluntarily reduce production when markets are over-supplied than it is for the government to buy, or compel in one way or another, farmers to plow under their crops, or destroy their pigs. It seems to us, however, that industry should have the right to manufacture as much, or as little, as it likes, and that farmers should have the same privilege. The government, supposed to represent the interests of consumers, as well as producers, should not buy whatever it likes, or sell in either case. If the government had passed a law paying the steel companies to reduce production (even though it threw out of work half the people) it would have made a profit on the wheat and cotton that they'd sell the goods.

Black-Jacking Business

Unfortunately, what Frank Evans told the Chamber of Commerce the other night about the apparent failure to appreciate the value of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to this community contained an element of truth in it which is neither creditable to Sanford nor the part of good business judgment.

While more thoughtful people recognize the large share of city and county taxes paid by the railroad, the sizable payrolls maintained in this community, and the rather extensive employment which the railroad furnishes to scores of local families, there are nevertheless many among us who, perhaps because business in general is bad, like to knock the railroad.

But the same thing is true of other lines of business. Mr. Evans might well have added that no more appreciated than the railroad is the bank, the utility company, the telephone service, the local theater, the few factories which have located here, or downtown merchants. Thoughtful people, of course, realize that in these special fields of endeavor Sanford is particularly fortunate in having business houses which compare favorably with those in cities much larger than this one, but there is not a single institution of any kind in Sanford which does not have its special chorus of throaty knockers.

The telephone company like the light company is gouging the public! The bank is a cold storage plant, which freezes deposits, while at the same time squeezing the blood, Snylock-like, out of those to whom it has previously lent its depositors' money! Our local theater charges too much, puts on dirty shows, and robs the public on bank night! Our factories are sweat shops in which the laboring man is exploited for the benefit of profiteering capitalists! Our downtown merchants have a bum stock of goods, charge too much, and cheat their customers!

One can hear that kind of talk almost anywhere any time he will listen to it. Strangely enough, it is not confined to the "bolshaviks" or the unemployed. One business man knocks another business man. The railroad man condemns the light company for charging too much, and utility officials pan the banks for asking eight percent interest on a 90-day loan. The dry goods merchant criticizes the grocer for raising the price of pork, and the grocer goes to Orlando to buy his shirts.

It leaves one wondering if this hostile attitude toward business men is not a product of the depression. It may be that interest rates, light rates, railroad rates are too high because our incomes are too low. At the same time we are not sure whether this hostile attitude toward business men is caused by the depression, or whether the depression was caused by the hostile attitude toward business men. It would seem almost that it could be either way.

One thing is fairly certain that the continual knocking of business men will not help business, or increase employment. You cannot cuss a bank into making you a loan. When you think how much that has been tried during the past few years, the wonder is not that business has been bad, but rather that any of us have managed to survive at all.

An Important Highway

South of the Rio Grande a new highway is soon to come into being, according to the United States News, a highway that is to span 3,200 miles through the ancient and semi-tropical Central American republics, and that is to be partly financed by the United States.

Congress in June, 1934, appropriated $1,000,000 "to meet such expenses as the President in his discretion may deem necessary to enable the United States to co-operate with the several governments, members of the Pan-American Union, in connection with survey and construction of the proposed Inter-American Highway."

Last week, as the initial activity under this undertaking, President Roosevelt approved a program of bridge construction, at an estimated expenditure of $340,000. The bridges, to be constructed under the supervision of the Bureau of Public Roads, will span the Chiriqui River in Panama, the Choluteca River in Honduras, and the Fama-sulpapa River in Guatemala.

Under present plans, the United States will furnish surveys, plans, specifications and estimates for the bridges, all steel or other fabricated material for the superstructure, mechanical equipment and transportation of materials and equipment to the site of the work. The other countries will furnish local materials and the labor and transportation of such materials, together with rights of way and all labor required for constructing the foundations and substructures and grading approaches.

The Inter-American Highway will traverse Mexico and the republics of Central America, its termini will be Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from Laredo, Texas, and Panama City. Washington officials see in the Inter-American Highway a chance to further tremendously "good-neighbor" policies.

"The long ribbon of concrete across which economic and cultural relations will rapidly flow," the News declares, "will probably do more to change suspicion to mutual respect than years of political exchanges. To the vast majority of the natives, the proposed road takes on the aspect of a heroic conquest to come. The thought of a highway of concrete that will wind for thousands of miles along green ranges may possibly lead to another industrial revolution."

THE COMPASS

By Arthur Dunn

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 14.—Political sentiment in Alabama is most varied. I have met newspaper publishers (wise, though opposing the New Deal entirely), favor the re-election of the President. Mr. Roosevelt to the New Deal. Just how the two can be separated is not clear to me.

I was surprised to find in this Democratic state so much sentiment against the President, among his former supporters. In the country and small towns the methods of handling railroads, cotton acreage allotments and federal spending were strongly criticized. I heard frequently: "Some of these people on relief drive better than I do, and our money has to pay for it." "This spending has got to stop somewhere or we'll all be broke." Mr. Roosevelt is now very generally blamed for all tax increases—the city, county and state.

Small cotton farmers feel they should be permitted to grow a minimum number of bales, sufficient to live on, and undoubtedly they are right. Others argue they are no better off with AAA than before. I figured it out with a planter who had an allotment of 40 bales in '34. Prior to '33 he raised 80 bales. I called his attention to the facts of arithmetic—40 bales at 18 cents a pound brought $1440, plus $300 for rental for the idle acres—total $1740. Whereas, 80 bales at 6 cents amounted to $1120.

The Alabama Power Company has many friends in high places and among such there is strong antagonism to the TVA. While myself a believer in TVA, I have before criticized its methods of proceeding to force privately owned utilities to sell out to it at figures based on physical valuation. Threat of ruinous competition will become Uncle Sam, who should act as example in fair dealing. He should not imitate what he criticizes.

A public utility is a going business. Let the government squeeze out of the fiction in book valuation, and add to real physical value the worth of a going concern, always having in mind that the innocent stockholders bought shares based on value of a going business, and are responsible for our enjoyment of light and power years before the government had thought of it.

In spite of all opposition, the state is apparently still strong for the President.

The most interesting man I met in Alabama was ex-Governor Kilby. He is a big business man—he takes the broad view. Apparently he regards employment of the idle and diffusion of prosperity quite as important as making profits. Unlike most of big business men I have met in my tour of the states, he is hearty for the President and the New Deal.

When I told him of the complaints I had been hearing, he said:—"Yes, there is considerable defect in Alabama, but not enough to effect the result Roosevelt will carry the state by a big vote."

Col. Ayres, publisher of the Anniston Star, explained the situation by an apt story in 1894 an ex-confederate Caluso ran for Governor. He had done many favors for one named Dave and had not the slightest doubt that Dave would vote for him. Meeting him on the street during the campaign, he said:—"Well, Dave, I suppose you are going to vote for me?"

To his amazement, the reply was: "No, Colonel, I ain't." "Why Dave you remember when you were a private in my regiment and came on before me for court-martial, how I let you off?"

"Yes, Colonel, I remember." "And Dave, you recollect when you came out of the army broke, I let you have money to get you up on a little plantation?"

"Yes, Colonel, I sure do." "And Dave, you recollect how, when this party of '94 hit us and you lost your plantation, I put you in a house with a few acres of ground, how I sent you a mule, some seed, fertilizer, provisions, and saved you from starvation and ruin?"

"Yes, Colonel, I recollect all that, too."

"Now then, Dave, what on earth is the matter? Why aren't you going to vote for me?"

"Well, Colonel, you ain't done nothing for me lately."

ROOSEVELT AND THE CANAL

BIRMINGHAM AGONY/ERALS

Very appropriate indeed was the presentation to President Roosevelt Friday of a token commemorating the beginning of construction on the $146,000,000 Gulf Atlantic ship canal across Florida. The token, presented by Senator Fletcher, of Florida, was a large silver tray bearing a shell from the coast of Florida, the shell encased in gold and containing a portion of the first earth excavated when the President started construction of the canal on Sept. 19 by setting off a blast with a telegraph key in Washington. On the gift are inscribed the names of 36 governors and 66 senators, representing all the states of the Union.

An inscription on the token reads: "With appreciation of his wisdom, vision and courage, those whose names are written hereon present this token to Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, builder of the Florida canal that our commerce may be spared,—our defense secured and the unity of our country preserved."

The presentation was especially appropriate, not merely because the canal was authorized in Mr. Roosevelt's Administration, but also because of the President's keen personal interest in the project. Since the beginning of his administration the question of building the canal had been considered, and always Mr. Roosevelt was sympathetic toward the undertaking. There were many difficulties in the way of obtaining authorization of the canal, and at times the prospect was discouraging.

Shirts And Sox Shipped By Japan To Pay For R. R.

MOSCOW, Nov. 14.—Orders for machinery, semi-manufactured goods and agricultural products totaling 70,000,000 yen ($20,128,000), or three-fourths of that part of the purchase price of the Chinese Eastern Railway which was to be paid in goods, already have been placed by the Soviet commercial representatives in Japan, and actual deliveries of the goods are beginning. The first shipments, consisting of Japanese textiles and haberdashery, are expected to arrive in Moscow soon and will be put on sale in shops.

Thus, the final disposal of the Manchurian railway, which was an instrument of imperialistic expansion to the czarist government and a cause of much diplomatic friction and trouble to the Soviet Union will become a tangible reality to the citizens of the Soviet Republic, hats and shirts.

This, however, represents only a part of the first shipment, amounting to 10,000,000 yen ($2,878,000). The remainder, which is now being delivered, includes soybeans, tea, flour, cement, rope, copper wire and chemical goods.

The remaining 60,000,000 yen worth of Japanese and Manchurian goods, already ordered by the Soviet commercial agents, but delivery of which has not yet begun, is said to include: 48,000 tons of soybeans, 8,500 tons of vegetable oil, 11,500 tons of wheat flour, 9,000,000 pounds of tea, 25,000 tons of various metals, 2,000,000 pounds of rayon yarn, 300 tons of sole leather, 6,000 tons of rope fishing tackle and nets worth 1,300,000 yen, copper wire and cable worth 7,500,000 yen, silk and woolen textiles worth 6,000,000 yen, 150 compressors, 450 Diesel engines, 1,500 electric motors, 2,500 small turbines a number of turning lathes, pumps and hoists, one dredge, one floating 150-ton boat, three metal barges and a number of small river fishing craft.

War On Slot Machines Still Being Waged Despite Supreme Court's Armistice

Two Sheriffs Would Outlaw Devices As Lottery Violators

According to reports in the Florida press, the State Supreme Court's ruling sustaining the legislative legalizing of slot machines was not even an armistice, to say nothing about being a treaty of peace, as the war against the devices, sometimes called "one armed bandits," continues. Casualties are even reported, casualties to the machines which have been confiscated in some sections.

Press dispatches reported the seizure of 58 slot machines in Lake county last Tuesday by Sheriff W. B. Gibson who claimed that the devices were gambling and not amusement contraptions. Monday's St. Petersburg Times quotes County Prosecutor Henry S. Raynard as stating "as soon as the so-called 'mechanical highwaymen' resume operation in the county he would start injunction proceedings under the constitutional act prohibiting lotteries." However, the Times says, slot machine operators in St. Petersburg were ready to act on the basis of a Supreme Court decision reaffirming the constitutionality of the law legalizing the devices and were prepared to revive business when Comptroller J. M. Lee begins issuing licenses. Sheriff W. W. Chase of Polk county will also attempt to outlaw the slot machines by declaring them lotteries, according to the Lakeland Ledger, which also quotes City Attorney M. R. Carver of Lakeland, who is also attorney for the Polk sheriff, as saying he would file an answer in Circuit Court asking that injunction proceedings be denied on the grounds that the machines were not being operated in keeping with state statutes.

Secretary Roper Assures Business On Reform Plans

Of the President's statement to Roy Howard, publisher, that the basic administration program "has now reached substantial completion and the breathing spell of which you speak is here very decidedly so," Roper said: "This declaration of the President is clear and concrete. It means specifically that the basic program of reform has been completed. It means that business no longer needs to feel any uncertainty as to what may come in the future with respect to governmental measures.

"Experience may make necessary some modification and adjustment of existing laws, but such changes, if made, will function to improve those relationships which are so essential to national progress.

The depression the secretary said, "functioned to make business feel the 'scapegoat' and added: "I am convinced that, if we are to be motivated primarily by the assumption that business must be penalized and restricted merely because of its size, broad and penetrating recovery will be impossible.

"I conceive it as the fundamental duty of the Department of Commerce to endeavor to see that no extreme measures are undertaken which may have deterrent effects upon business recovery. With the consistent support and co-operation of business, we will win in this objective.

Business profits cannot be penalized or the profit and loss system will suffer with a bad case of angina pectoris. Businesses making profits during the depression have been held up to censure because it was pointed out that millions were unemployed, while some companies were actually paying dividends. This contrast is unfair. As long as we maintain our present capitalistic system, and it will be maintained, no obstructions or deterrents must be permanently set up to prevent fair and reasonable profits.

"A vast number of companies are now in a position where they cannot increase their activities without taking on many additional employees. . . . The unemployed can be absorbed in private industry when and as more extensive profit-making develops. . . . If, through aggressive, bonafide business operations, are penalized we shall face problems of serious proportions."

pooled during the succeeding 24 hours. Warnings of possible frost will not only enable fruit and vegetable producers to guard against the impending danger, but will also be valuable to shippers who, Mr. Dawson said, would decide to rush out produce ready for shipment rather than to hold it for a possible rise in the market. Such a rise would come in the event of a freeze like that of last December, and produce rolling toward the market before frost damage would be liable to catch the market at its peak.

Reports from the Seminole County stations will be made to Ray T. Sherman at Orlando, field man assigned to duty in this section. Warnings will be transmitted to producers by means of the mail, telephone or carrier. Mr. Ellison, the meteorologist in charge of the new frost warning service in this state, comes to Florida from California where he was on duty a number of years. Every winter he was stationed at Santa Paula in Ventura county from which point he sent out warnings to truck gardeners and citrus fruit producers to set out their smudge pots and prepare for a visit from Jack Frost. Industrial plants there co-operated by sounding their whistles, bells would ring in all fire stations on the eve of an impending drop in temperatures, and motorcycle officers patrolling the highways, with their sirens wide open, carried the warning to outlying sections.

President For Less Interest, Longer Credit

Calls On Bankers Of Country To Aid In Business Recovery Throughout Nation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14. — President Roosevelt yesterday called upon the nation's bankers to extend ample credit to business and industry and to expedite recovery by making easy interest rates available to real estate and business as well as commercial loans.

He did not attempt to advance a general level for interest charges but indicated bankers should ask a maximum of six percent, preferably less, on real estate loans which, provide a good risk. Studies are being made, he said, looking toward perfecting a uniform scale of interest rates throughout the country.

The relation of easy money to the business of economic recovery was the subject of Roosevelt's conference today. It was the second time within 48 hours that the President has sought to impress upon bankers the necessity of extending private credit to business before the government can withdraw from the leading business.

Yesterday in New Orleans, delegates to the annual convention of the American Bankers Association, torn by a controversy over the New Deal, heard R.F.C. Chairman Jones tell them about their "stagnation" in making loans. Jones also read a message of greeting from Roosevelt.

In it he said he knew bankers were grateful because, all banks now, are in a strong position and added: "I hope they will take full advantage of the new banking act and provide credit, when it can be done on a sound basis, to business, industry and real estate."

It was interpreted as a gentle hint to the financiers that they still haven't taken their proper place in the battle against depression. He elaborated on his banking views today with newspaper correspondents. There is no reason, Roosevelt observed, why banks with portfolios choked with money shouldn't loan some of it to good land.

A reporter pointed out that these loans, in many instances in the past, had brought sharp criticism from bank examiners. This, countered the President, is a case where a banker has to use good judgment. First, he must be sure the land is a good risk and then should fit his interest rates accordingly. Also, Roosevelt continued, the banker shouldn't have too high a percentage of real estate loans.

He cited the case of a man who contracted to buy a farm and could only raise 60 percent of the sale price. He shopped about at various banks to get a mortgage covering the other 40 percent and no one would quote him an interest rate, lower than six percent.

That, the President emphasized, isn't helping recovery. Generally, however, Roosevelt indicated "private" interest rates had disappeared. As an example, he said, persons in Georgia who wanted to borrow on farm land at one time, had to pay as high as 18 percent interest.

Canal Contracts Are Approved In Capital

The successful contractors: George D. Auster Company, Jacksonville, Fla., $114,400 and $212,925; Harvey, Ray and Noonan, Pensacola, Fla., $406,930;

Celery Feds Are Credited With 2 Wins, 2 Defeats

Credited with a victory over Lake City because that town's team was thrown out of the conference because it played an ineligible man, the Celery Feds have a 50-50 score—two games won and two games lost. If they should win tonight's contest in Jacksonville over the Julia Landon Bulldogs will be left at the top of the ladder. Should the Jacksonville team win the fight will still be on between Jacksonville and DeLand, both of which teams now have perfect scores. Tonight's game in Jacksonville will change the complexion of the percentage table. Standings in the Northeast Conference today are as follows:

Florida Moratorium Law Before Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14. —(AP) — The Supreme Court, yesterday abruptly closed argument on the Florida moratorium (Futch) law and indicated it will rule that a three-judge court which found the law unconstitutional acted outside its jurisdiction.

The effect would be to reverse the three-judge court and remand the case to the federal judge of the Southern District of Florida.

Chief Justice Hughes stopped the argument soon after it was started to enquire if the parties against whom the suit was brought were state officers. Apparently determining they were not state officers but tax district and county officials, he indicated the case properly should be considered by the federal district judge.

A formal decision in the case probably will be handed down Monday.

Celery Feds Hold Center Of Stage In Game Tonight

Play Landon High In Jacksonville; Team In Good Condition

By HENRY SLAUGHTER
The game between the Seminole High Celery Feds and the Landon Lions in Jacksonville tonight will be the headline attraction in the Northeast Conference this week. Landon needs a victory over the Celery Feds to become the co-leader with the DeLand Bulldogs. Sanford defeated Deale two weeks ago to leave the Lions and Bulldogs out in front. Should Sanford win from the Lions tonight, the Bulldogs will be the only undefeated team in the conference.

For the first time the Celery Feds go on the field with the breaks in their favor. The Lions played the strong Robert E. Lee team Armistice Day and are suffering several injuries. Two of their ace backfield men received injuries in this game and will not be in the Sanford-Landon tilt.

"King Kong" Williams, Seminole guard, may be in tonight's fray even though he is still in a weakened condition after his illness of last week. Other than "King Kong" the rest of the team is in excellent condition and ready to show that they can decide the Conference Championship game even though they can't win themselves.

The Celery Feds are going to Jacksonville with the determination to beat the Lions, and if the boys put up as good a fight there as they did in Orlando and do not tire before the end of the game they should emerge victorious over the Lions who are handicapped by injuries and over-confidence.

Coach McLucas probably will start the following players against the Lions: ends, Billy Colbert and Jack Purdon, with Sam Walts ready to relieve either of them; tackles, Frans Warner and Jim Stapler; guards, Bob and "King Kong" Williams with Jack Wilkerson ready to go in if "King Kong" can not finish the game; center, Edwin Squires; quarterback, it is rather difficult to say which quarterback will start, Roy Wright or Lester Phillips; halfbacks, Leon Lawson and Billy Zachary probably will start at this position, but are likely to be relieved as any time by Robert Merchant or Robert Stotland; fullback, Leland McClelland will start at full after the excellent game he played in Orlando last week.

Paving Work Is Started On City Streets

Water And Gas Lines Being Relaid; Soil Is Moved To Allow For Wider Arteries

Lighting Survey Made At Airport

Boundary, Entrance And Hazard Lamps Are To Be Placed

Relaying of First Street and Park Avenue was started this morning. The Sanford Municipal Airport was surveyed today preparatory to lighting the field and more than 200 women began work in four "work centers" in the city.

Two hundred and thirty-five men were assigned to the Sanford street projects, but less than 100 of them worked today. Tomorrow will be observed by the WPA as a holiday, but on Monday full crews will be on the two important jobs.

The work started today was restricted to relaying water lines on First Street and to relaying gas lines on Park Avenue, beginning at Tenth Street, preparatory to widening the Avenue. The soil is being piled up to the side, to be removed later.

Some of the water and gas service lines under First Street have been in use for more than 20 years, and those not in serviceable condition will be taken up and replaced with new lines. The main gas, reported to be in good condition, will be in place of the old work.

The street lighting survey was made by W. G. Right of Highway, stationed on First Street.

Action Taken In Court To Force Homesteads Tax

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Bon Her Life Association brought mandamus proceedings in Supreme Court yesterday in an effort to require the county to assess taxes against homesteads on the ground the taxes are needed to maintain the commercial market value of the county's bonds.

Homestead taxes are necessary to maintain market values on outstanding bonds, the association charged, regardless of the fact of whether bond debt can be paid from nonhomestead property taxes alone.

The county bonds issued before adoption of the homestead exemption amendment and pledged to homestead for security are held by the association.

"Big Mouth Bass At Their Sportiest," Reads Sanford Ad In Field And Stream

Paid for by the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce, advertisements in the December issue of "Field and Stream," magazine of general circulation, tell of the advantages this section offers to the sportsman. Next to this is one of the Mayfair Hotel in Sanford, telling much the same story. Central Florida as a sportman's paradise is further advertised in the magazine by Orange county and DeLand.

D. D. Smith, secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, states that the advertising campaign is to be continued through the winter months, and expresses the belief that the invitation the organization is extending through the magazine to the nation's sportsmen should bring a number of tourists and disciples of the Walton to Seminole County.

The Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce advertising in "Field and Stream" reads as follows: "Big Mouth Bass at their Sportiest," Good Hotels, Hunting, Golf, Fishing, and all the sports, Florida, Write for full information, Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Mayfair Hotel advertisement reads: "Where fish and game are plentiful. The Mayfair Hotel, on the St. Johns River, Sanford, Florida. Fishing, hunting, sports. To suit every age and circumstance, every year-round. Real outdoor guides. Write for information."

Kirchhoff Will Open Another Produce Mart Over Islands

Old Hill Lumber Yard Property Will Be Converted For Use As Public Market

Establishment of another produce market in Sanford is announced by W. E. Kirchhoff, Jr., operator of the Mayfair Hotel, who is converting the old Hill Lumber yard property for the purpose. He said today he hopes to have the new market ready for business by Dec. 1. The location is at French Avenue and Thirteenth Street, practically adjoining to the Sanford State Farmers Wholesale Market. Mr. Kirchhoff plans to operate the new mart personally.

A loading platform 25 feet long has been built, but this can be nearly doubled in length if a found more room is needed. Mr. Kirchhoff stated. Floors of the shed have been reinforced with two-inch planks. A total of 32 stalls will be available in the Kirchhoff market.

Office rooms will be provided in the new building at the entrance to the market grounds, and in the rear there will be a restaurant, pool room, barber shop and shower baths. Sleeping quarters for truck drivers may also be provided later.

Mr. Kirchhoff said that arrangements are being made to provide a citrus grading and packing shed, and that a number of celery growers have impounded him to put in a pre-cooling plant. Purchase or lease of the old Hill Lumber Yards sheds as an addition to the wholesale market was considered a few weeks ago by Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo and Market Commissioner Rhodes, and the proposition was taken up with the local committee at its last meeting. The State officials and committee members viewed the property, but negotiations were never carried through to a conclusion.

Extend Time For Final Inspection Of Citrus Fruits

LAKELAND, Nov. 15. (AP)—Maturity in peaches of citrus fruit was extended from Dec. 1 to Dec. 23 by the Florida Citrus Commission meeting here yesterday.

"The best grade of fruit ever sent out of the state" was the description given by C. A. Stewart of DeLand, commission member, to present shipments.

Secretary Frank E. Brigham told the commission factors in Northern markets had offered full co-operation in the Florida industry's first national advertising program opening today.

Regulations governing the stamping of boxes were altered to permit the name and address of a shipper to be in type three eighths of an inch high instead of three-quarters. The size for stamping the grade and the color-coded legend was not changed.

The Mutual Fruit Distributors of Orlando was given permission to ship graded fruit to New York, New York, and other markets. Bob Fryson and E. M. ## Family Night Of W. O. W. Attended By Large Number

Despite the sudden change to cooler weather, a large number attended the "family night" festivities of Celery Camp of the Woodmen of the World last evening. C. C. Collins of Sanford, head consul for the Woodmen, was master of ceremonies.

The main speaker of the evening was Miss Myrtle Crump of Tampa, state manager of the Woodman Circle, the woman's auxiliary, who talked on fraternalism and invited Sanford to send a large delegation to Lakeland in January when a big meeting is planned to honor Mrs. Dora Alexander Talley of Omaha, national president of the Circle.

The program also included short talks by L. P. Boyle, assistant state's attorney, and by O. P. Herndon, county clerk, and musical numbers by Josephine and Juanita Raul, Miss Joan Assarella, the Whitten trio (Earl, Donnie and Thelma Whidden), and the Purcell quartet from Orlando who sang over the radio. Under the direction of G. C. Hinchcliffe a demonstration of the uniform rank was given. Jno. D. Jenkins, county tax collector, opened the meeting with prayer.

War Material Being Shipped, Hull Declares

Warning To Business Men Not To Violate Neutrality Statute Made By Secretary

Warriors Ambush Italian Column

Ethiopians Reported To Have Engaged In Day Long Battle

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Asserting that a "considerably increased amount" of war materials is being exported from the United States, Secretary Hull today directed attention of American businessmen again to President Roosevelt's warning that any transactions they have with Ethiopia and Italy are at their own risk.

"The American people are entitled to know there are certain commodities such as oil, copper, trucks, tractors, scrap iron and scrap steel which are essential war materials although not actually arms ammunition or implements of war, and that according to recent government trade reports a considerably increased amount of these is being exported for war purposes," the secretary said.

The secretary's statements are directly contrary to the policy of this government as announced in official statements of the President and Secretary of State as it is also contrary to the general spirit of the recent neutrality act.

Italian correspondents in Ethiopia today reported the capture of strategic city of Harar was imminent. The British, who had been in a position only about 20 miles from their immediate objective, were reported retreating in disorder after a pitched battle yesterday.

Pershing Silent On Possibilities Of European War

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—Gravely silent about the possibility of another European war, Gen. John J. Pershing returned from France last night on the same boat that brought H. G. Wells, who held fast to his prediction that 1940 would see another world conflict.

"Take our dear departed Will Rogers," said General Pershing, "I know only what I read in the newspapers."

"War breaks out in 1940," said Wells, the British novelist and historian. Mussolini is the calmer ruler in the world today," said former Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas. "He's sure of his people and he thoroughly knows what he wants to do."

All three arrived on the United States liner Washington, General Pershing enroute to Washington, Author Wells enroute to Hollywood, and former Governor Allen on his way home to Kansas.

"In Europe, war is always possible," General Pershing said, "but I do not want to discuss it." The general, who recently observed his seventy-fifth birthday, said he was writing his memoirs, covering the entire period of his life thus far.

Get Up Real Early In The Morning And Maybe You Will See Shower Of Meteors

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Naval astronomers said yesterday that sky gazers will be able to see the year's biggest display of showers of Leonid meteors tonight and on the nights of Nov. 16 and 17.

Capt. Julius F. Hellweg, superintendent of the Naval Observatory, reported Naval astronomers planned extensive observations, chiefly between midnight and 4 A. M., when the maximum shower is expected.

All data secured by the Navy will be forwarded to Prof. C. P. Olivier, president of the American Meteor Society at the University of Pennsylvania.

Observations will be to determine the altitude at which the meteors appear and disappear, indicative of the height of the atmosphere; the speed and direction of drift of the long enduring trains left by bright meteors, for the study of the stratosphere and the number of all meteors visible simultaneously at different stations.

Boundary, Entrance And Hazard Lamps Are To Be Placed

Relaying of First Street and Park Avenue was started this morning. The Sanford Municipal Airport was surveyed today preparatory to lighting the field, and more than 200 women began work in four "work centers" in the country.

Two hundred and thirty-five men were assigned to the Sanford street projects, but less than 100 of them worked today. Tomorrow will be observed by the WPA as a holiday, but on Monday full crews will be on the two important jobs.

The work started today was restricted to relaying service lines on First Street and to relaying soil from the parking areas on Park Avenue, beginning at Tenth Street, preparatory to widening the Avenue. The soil is being piled up to the side, to be removed later.

Some of the water and gas service lines under First Street have been down for more than 20 years, and those not in serviceable condition will be taken up and replaced with new lines. The materials reported to be in good condition. W. S. Early, in charge of the work.

The airport lighting survey was made by W. G. Ricketts of Hillsborough, mentioned on Page Two.

Action Taken In Court To Force Homesteads Tax

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Bar Her Life Association brought mandamus proceedings in Supreme Court yesterday in an effort to require the county to assess taxes against the homesteads on the ground the taxes are needed to maintain the commercial market value of the county's bonds.

Homestead taxes are necessary to maintain market values on outstanding bonds, the association charged, regardless of the fact of whether bonds should be paid from non-homesteaded property taxes alone.

Two county bonds issued before adoption of the homestead exemption amendment and pledged to homesteaded property are held by the association.

Old Hill Lumber Yard Property Will Be Converted For Use As Public Market

Establishment of another produce market in Sanford is announced by W. E. Kirchhoff, Jr., operator of the Mayfair Hotel, who is converting the old Hill Lumber yard property for the purpose. He said today he hopes to have the new market ready for business by Dec. 1. The location is at French Avenue and Thirteenth Street, practically adjoining the Sanford State Farmers Wholesale Market. Mr. Kirchhoff plans to operate the new mart personally.

A loading platform 275 feet long has been built, but this can be nearly doubled in length if a found more room is needed. Mr. Kirchhoff stated. Floors of the shed have been reinforced with two-inch planks. A total of 32 stalls will be available in the Kirchhoff market.

Office rooms will be provided in the new building at the entrance to the market grounds, and in the rear there will be a restaurant, pool room, barber shop and shower baths. Sleeping quarters for truck drivers may also be provided later.

Mr. Kirchhoff said that arrangements are being made to provide citrus grading and packing shed, and that a number of celery growers have impounded him to put in a pre-cooling plant.

Purchase or lease of the old Hill Lumber Yards sheds as an addition to the wholesale market was considered a few weeks ago by Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo and Market Commissioner Rhodes, and the proposition was taken up with the local committee at its last meeting. The State officials and committee members viewed the property, but negotiations were never carried through to a conclusion.

Extend Time For Final Inspection Of Citrus Fruits

LAKELAND, Nov. 15. (AP)—Maturity in portion of citrus fruit was extended from Dec. 1 to Dec. 23 by the Florida Citrus Commission meeting here yesterday.

"The best grade of fruit ever sent out of the state" was the description given by C. A. Stewart of Deland, commission member, to present shipments.

Secretary Frank E. Brigham told the commission factors in Northern markets had offered full co-operation in the Florida industry's first national advertising program opening today.

Regulations governing the stamping of boxes were altered to permit the name and address of a shipper to be in type three eighths of an inch high instead of three-quarters. The cost for stamping the grade and the color-coded legend was not changed.

The Mutual Fruit Distributors of Orlando was given permission to ship graded fruit to New York, on the St. Johns River, Bob Fryson and E. M. Prosser, Mutual officials, offered to post bonds for faithful observance of regulations if their company could use bags more than once in conveying fruit to New York where it is to be sold in containers having the grade marked upon them.

The Weather Bureau says conditions were generally fair along the route of the projected flight, with the exception of unsettled conditions along the coast of Victoria, to the southern portion of Bahia State.

Family Night Of W. O. W. Attended By Large Number

Despite the sudden change to cooler weather, a large number attended the "family night" festivities of Celery Camp of the Woodmen of the World last evening. C. C. Collins of Sanford, head consul for the Woodmen, was master of ceremonies.

The main speaker of the evening was Miss Myrtle Crump of Tampa, state manager of the Woodman Circle, the woman's auxiliary, who talked on fraternalism and invited Sanford to send a large delegation to Lakeland in January when a big meeting is planned to honor Mrs. Dora Alexander Talley of Omaha, national president of the Circle.

Herndon, county clerk, and musical numbers by Josephine and Juanita Raul, Miss Joan Anzerello, the Whidden trio (Earl, Donnie and Thelma Whidden), and the Purcell quartet from Orlando who sang over the radio. ### Ethiopians Reported To Have Engaged In Day Long Battle

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Asserting that a "considerably increased amount" of war materials is being exported from the United States, Secretary Hull today directed attention of American businessmen again to President Roosevelt's warning that any transactions they have with Ethiopia and Italy are at their own risk.

"The American people are entitled to know there are certain commodities such as oil, copper, trucks, tractors, scrap iron and scrap steel which are essential war materials although not actually arms ammunition or implements of war, and that according to recent government trade reports a considerably increased amount of these is being exported for war purposes," the secretary said.

"It is directly contrary to the policy of this government as announced in official statements of the President and Secretary of State as it is also contrary to the general spirit of the recent neutrality act."

Italian correspondents in Ethiopia today reported the capture of strategic city of Harar was imminent. Italian troops were reported to have been in a position only about 20 miles from their immediate objective. Defenders of the Harar region were reported retreating in disorder after a pitched battle yesterday.

Pershing Silent On Possibilities Of European War

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—Gravely silent about the possibility of another European war, Gen. John J. Pershing returned from France last night on the same boat that brought H. G. Wells, who held fast to his prediction that 1940 would see another world conflict.

"Take our dear departed Will Rogers," said General Pershing, "I know only what I read in the newspapers."

"War breaks out in 1940," said Wells, the British novelist and historian.

Mussolini is the calmer ruler in the world today," said former Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas. "He's sure of his people and he thoroughly knows what he wants to do."

All three arrived on the United States liner Washington, General Pershing enroute to Washington, Author Wells enroute to Hollywood, and former Governor Allen on his way home to Kansas.
