Total 143 Today American POWs Being Released

By PETER ARNETT
CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — North Vietnam and the Viet Cong released 143 American prisoners of war today, the first to be freed under the Vietnam cease-fire agreement. The North Vietnamese freed 116 Americans in Hanoi and the Viet Cong released 27 Americans north of Saigon after an 11-hour delay. Officials of Operation Homecoming here first said that one American prisoner gave up his place to another, whose mother was reported gravely ill, but later announced that both had arrived here. A spokesman said Lt. Col. Robert B. Purcell of Louisville, Ky., "is here, he's on the fourth floor of the hospital. His condition is fine." Purcell was reported to have given up his place to Cmdr. Brian Dunston Woods, 40, of Lemoore, Calif. A spokesman said both men are here, bringing the total of men released by Hanoi to 116. "Unfortunately there was an erroneous report. But fortunately Col. Purcell was not replaced and is with us," the spokesman added. The 115 POWs freed by Hanoi arrived in three U.S. Air Force Starliner hospital planes at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines. Their release left 31 American prisoners still in North Vietnamese hands, 29 in South Vietnam and seven in Laos, according to information furnished by the North Vietnamese. Those still held in North Vietnam are expected to be freed at two-week intervals in groups of about the same size as today. "We are honored at the opportunity to serve our country under difficult circumstances. God bless America," said the first POW to step down on Philippine soil, Navy Capt. Jeremiah A. Denton Jr. of Virginia Beach, Va. The second man out of the 143 was the first American flyer downed in North Vietnam, Lt. Cmdr. Everett Alvarez Jr. of Santa Clara, Calif., who had been a prisoner since Aug. 5, 1964. Despite his long captivity, he walked briskly down the ramp and smiled broadly as he shook hands with Adm. Noel Gayler, the commander in chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific. Greeting the men with Gayler was Lt. Gen. William G. Moore Jr., commander of the 13th Air Force, and several thousand base personnel and their families were on hand to cheer the arrivals. One of the POWs limped as he walked from the plane. Another had his arm in a sling. But many of the spectators agreed that the men seemed in surprisingly good shape considering the years they had spent in captivity. As each plane arrived, the men were quickly loaded into hospital buses and taken to the base hospital for a thorough checkup. In South Vietnam, meanwhile, the Viet Cong delayed the promised release of 19 U.S. servicemen and eight civilians (Cont'd. On Pg. 8A Col. 1)

Volusia Continues Green Valley Probe

SAN MATEO, Fla. (AP) — State Atty. Stephen Boyles of Volusia County says an investigation is continuing into the conduct of officials of the Green Valley School for disturbed children where a weekend police raid uncovered drugs, shackles, a bullwhip and various shocking devices. Boyles said Sunday he did not know if the items recovered in the pre-dawn raid the day before would warrant closing the school. The acting head master of the school on the bank of the St. Johns River near Orange city, Ronald E. Nowicki, 37, was arrested during the raid on a charge of false imprisonment. Three other persons, who were identified as residents of the private school, were charged with possession of marijuana. Efforts to contact Nowicki for comment were unsuccessful. A force of about 50 state police troopers, Daytona Beach city police and investigators from Boyles office raided the 53-acre campus after receiving complaints from parents and students of cruel punishment practices. Officials said parents and student alleged that youths at the school were shackled with handcuffs, placed in "shock collars" and locked in a 12-foot square bomb shelter for long periods of time. Nowicki was arrested on a warrant charging him with handcuffing a student to a porch railing. He was released on $5,000 bond.

Obviously we share in the tremendous relief with the actual start of reparations... and will comment on same in another graph or two... but... How 'bout that "over-the-hill" phenomenon called Arnie Palmer? Pulling for him as soon as the Hope Classic yesterday made its debut on the "tube" around 5 p.m., and when the announcer made reference to Palmer being two-up on Nicklaus, well I just couldn't wait for the conclusion... And when he did win with that dramatic birdie putt on the 18th hole... However, when we didn't get the chance to share in his personal triumph... even after being constantly reminded to "be sure and stick around for the presentations at the conclusion, etc."... The local TV outlet elected not to cover the awards. A perfect example of "how not to influence viewers, I'm afraid."

About the returning POWs... we respect and honor this moment too highly to infringe on their privacy at this time. Although there are a number of them residing in our area, it would be presumptuous on our part to intrude at such a delicate time in their lives. An open invitation... when you feel you'd like to share the joy of having your loved one's return, only then will we feel comfortable in bringing our reporters and photographers into your homes. This is the "understanding" which we made many months ago, and one which isn't about to be broken for the sake of a " scoop".... A considerable number of people in this country get killed by guns that aren't loaded and by drivers who are.

Nixon Issues Statement On Prisoner Welcome

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon says today for the nation to welcome the American prisoners of war being released in Vietnam is "with quiet respect for their fortitude in the ordeal that is now ending for their privacy in the time ahead."

Nixon kept a close watch Sunday on developments relating to the first release of U.S. prisoners since the Vietnam cease-fire. After he was informed Sunday night that the airlift of prisoners from North Vietnam had begun, the Western White House issued this presidential statement. "As the first group of Americans held as prisoners of war in Vietnam arrives home, the whole nation would like to be there to welcome them back to the country they have served so well. "Let us remember, however, that this moment belongs above all to the returning men themselves and to the families waiting to welcome them. We can join most fittingly in that welcome, not with fanfare, but with quiet respect for their fortitude in the ordeal that is now ending and for their privacy in the time ahead."

Watches TV Sees Hubby POW Return

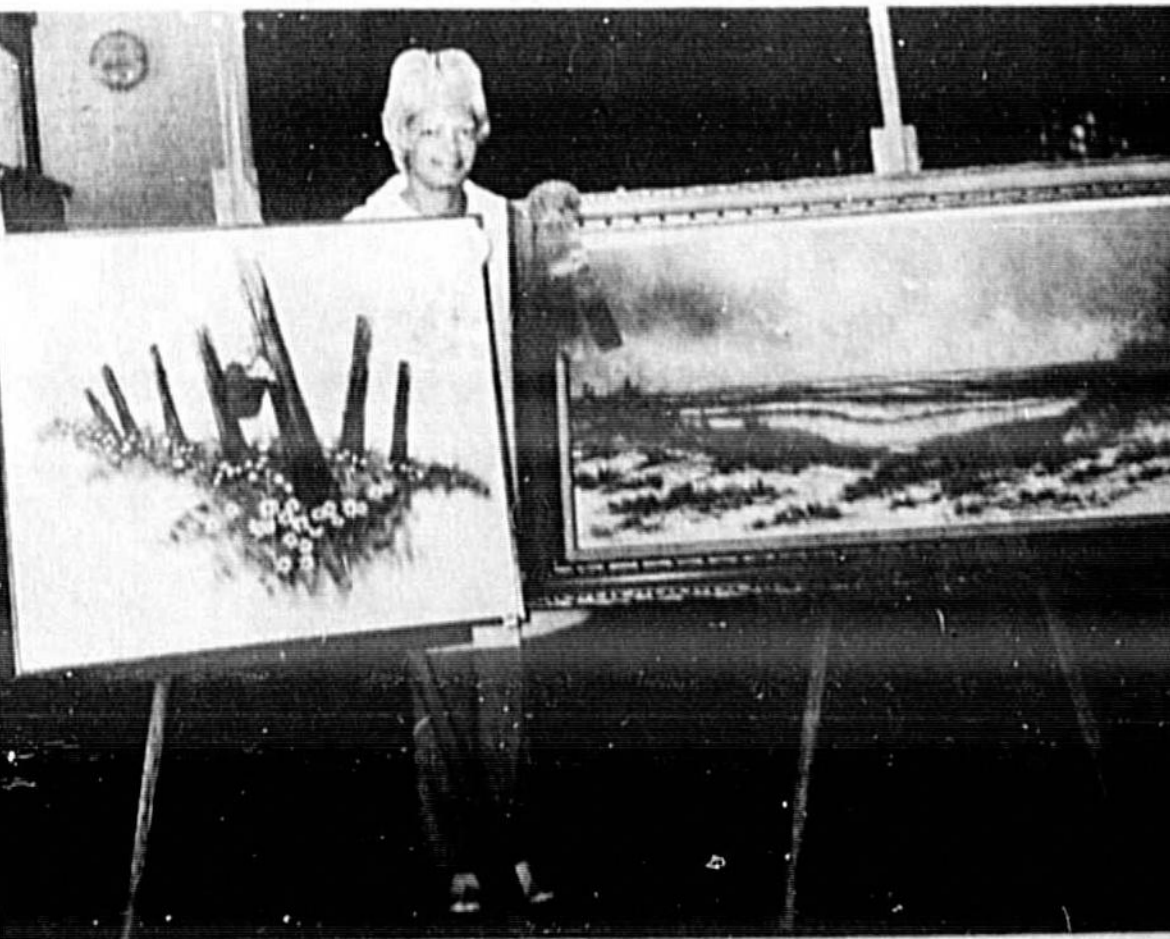

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 "He looks just like he did when he left," squealed Mrs. Glendon Perkins today as she watched on television as her Air Force husband stepped down from the military jet that brought him to freedom from seven years in a North Vietnamese prison camp. "I'm really happy," Mrs. Perkins said. "I'm waiting for my phone call." Mrs. Perkins of Orlando was among the relatives of seven Florida POWs who were included in the first of 116 men flown from Hanoi to Clark Air Base in the Philippines today. The television networks broadcast live coverage of the arrival. "We thought he looked marvelous," said Mrs. John Helwig of Miami, whose Navy pilot husband was shot down over North Vietnam in May, 1966. "We screamed. We were just overjoyed. We stayed up all night to see him." "He was a little thin but he looked just beautiful," said Mrs. Ralph Gaither, the mother of Lt. Cmdr. Ralph E. Gaither Jr., who was shot down in 1965. "It's hard to believe, I don't know what I will say to him when I get to call." Army Spec. 5 Frederick Crowson of Pensacola was among the group of 27 American POWs who was released by the Viet Cong today following a agonizing procedural delay. His mother, Mrs. Orvis Crowson, said she was informed early today that he was aboard a flight out of Saigon. "I'll believe it when I see him on TV," Mrs. Crowson said. "They told me he now has asthma. He didn't have it before." Other families of Florida POWs received word Sunday that their loved ones would be aboard the first three flights from Hanoi. Sanford Mulls Fire Sprinklers

By BOB LLOYD
 "People die of asphyxiation before the heat rises to the point of setting off automatic sprinkler systems and alerting firemen." "Smoke detection equipment is geared toward saving lives—sprinklers toward saving property." Architect John Dragash said his firm feels sprinklers and smoke detectors can be used for the "most effective and efficient protection of both buildings and lives." "Smoke detectors give the alarm first and allow people to get out. Sprinklers help control the fire." Kelley pointed out that in modern buildings with "four hour fire rating" materials used in the building itself won't burn—only the contents. (Cont'd. On Pg. 3A Col. 4)

South Is Recovering From Cold Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Near Frozen Southerners were recovering from a surprise winter storm that dumped the heaviest snow on the region in this century last weekend. As much as 15 inches fell in portions of middle Georgia. Temperatures dipped to 9 degrees at Macon, Ga., and it was 12 degrees at Augusta during the weekend. Even as sunshine began melting the snow Sunday, much of it remained, although most highways were passable again. Skies were clear today, but the bone-chilling cold lingered. It was 11 degrees at Macon, Ga., a record low for Feb. 12. At Columbus, Ga., where snow plows are a curiosity, the city used road scrapers to clear away the 14-inch snowfall on the main streets. The snow extended into the Florida Panhandle, where about an inch and a half was recorded at Pensacola on the Gulf. Although roads in south Georgia were thawing, roads along the coast of North Carolina and South Carolina remained hazardous.

American POWs Being Released

Total 143 Today

Vietnamese spokesman said the Americans would be handed over at Loc Ninh, 75 miles north of Saigon, during the early afternoon. U.S. helicopters were waiting there to fly them to Saigon, but the afternoon passed without any announcement of the release or what was delaying it further. The Saigon government went ahead with its part of the prisoner swap. A spokesman said 200 Vietnamese POWs were flown to Phu Bai, in the northern part of South Vietnam, for release just below the demilitarized zone, and another 735 were being flown to Loc Ninh. They were to be exchanged for 1,033 South Vietnamese prisoners of the Viet Cong.

The senior U.S. representative on the Joint Military Commission, Maj. Gen. Gilbert H. Woodward, refused to attend an afternoon meeting of the four-party commission in protest against the Viet Cong's failure to deliver the American POWs. By contrast with the delay in South Vietnam, the release of the prisoners in Hanoi went off without a hitch.

The advance party included the hospital planes that took off from Clark. They were to have arrived in Hanoi at hourly intervals, but the North Vietnamese asked that the schedule be speeded up and that only 30 minutes elapse between them.

Top Greyhounds

Lyman wrestling coach Bill Scott gives out special awards to his grapplers for their achievements on the canvas and this week's citations are as follows.

The "Mr. Pin" award went to Mike Tenyson who had a string of nine straight pins before seeing it end. Doug Peters, the Greyhounds' unbeaten 101 pound freshman was given the "Mr. Points" award.

The "Mr. Takeaway" award was shared by the trio of Gary Miller (115) Ray Loece (141) and Tenyson (158). Loece is another of the unbeaten Greyhounds, sporting a perfect 11-0 record.

"Wrestler of the Week" award was given to Tenyson. Lyman did have a match with Florida Air slated for this evening but the East Coast grapplers would not make it and the bout was called off.

There are four Honors who have yet to lose a match. In addition to Loece and Peters there's Glenn Hill the 170 pound junior who has a string of 24 straight dual meet victories and 188 pounder Bob Brucado who is 5-0 on the year.

Next scheduled match for the Honors will be this coming Saturday when they meet the Lake Brantley wrestlers.

World Series Of Stocks

While all of the "big action" is taking place at the Daytona International Speedway there's still a few "little guys" who are trying to sell their own product.

Ed Otto and Bob Bartlett got their "World Series" of stock car racing off the ground this past weekend at the New Smyrna Speedway and have four more nights of racing this week.

Among the top performers at the track is Dick Trickle of Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin. Trickle just might be termed the Jack Nicklaus of the Stock Car racing scene.

Last year Trickle carried the checkered flag around the track no less than 67 times. In 1968 he was the USAC Rookie of the Year but he changed to late models because he could make more money.

Trickle is the Wisconsin Short Track Champion and single laps, covering it in 17.09 seconds. The fastest time recorded at New Smyrna has been a shade over 20 seconds.

WITH THAT GUN SILENCED, the South Vietnamese youngster apparently feels safe riding his bicycle through the emplacements.

More Crises In Uruguay

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—President Juan M. Bordaberry and his rebel generals continued negotiations today as Uruguay's government crisis went into its sixth day.

The army and air force commanders, who sparked the power struggle to save an anticorruption campaign they have been waging, were reported considering new concessions from the president.

After earlier agreeing to dismiss Gen. Antonio Fracese as defense minister, Bordaberry was reported to have agreed to a broader reorganization of his cabinet with new men in other key ministries.

The navy, which had remained loyal to Bordaberry during the first four days of the crisis, joined the air force and army against the government Sunday. Rear Adm. Juan Zorrilla, the navy commander, submitted his resignation and appeared to have lost his post because he backed the president.

The rebel leaders—Brig. Gen. Jose Perez Galdas, the air force commander, and Gen. Hugo Chappie Posse, acting army commander—were booted by a crowd of 500 present outside the presidential mansion Sunday as they arrived for a 30-minute meeting with Bordaberry.

Tough Lyman Netters

Don't look now but shortly Lyman high school's girls tennis team may have a sister duo that could rival the famed Evert sisters of Fort Lauderdale.

Lyman's girls team has already won its first two matches, beating Kissimmee and Lake Highland Prep. And two big reasons are the Van Eepool sisters, Deb and Lin.

Each has won its first two singles matches this season and they also form the Lyman number one doubles team and she's only a freshman. Deb is a junior.

Other members of the Lyman team are Ruth Wilberger (also unbeaten), Kathy Clark and Carrie Schelker.

The girls are slated to battle Oak Ridge today at the tennis courts at Sweetwater Oaks. Coaching the Lyman girls again this year is Tony Swartout, known for her tremendous play with the Orlando Rebels girls softball team.

Closing Night

Well folks tonight's the finale of the present Orlando Seminoles Jai Alai season and if the past closing appearances are any indication tonight will be THE NIGHT to take in the popular sport.

Not being a "Betting man" we just take in the action for the "sport." And we've been on hand at a few finishing performances and the players put on such outstanding efforts that one would think their very life depended on their winning.

Some of the top individual titles have already been decided there is still a great deal of pride at stake as is the case when ever an athlete steps onto the field of battle.

Manolo Wins

Manuro became $200 richer when he was awarded that prize for the most wins this past season. Manolo won $100 for his singles title, Ibarra won a similar total for his doubles title and another $100 winner was the popular Laca who finished the most times in the money. Laca was popular in more ways than one as he finished in the money a total of 310 times with 112 of them being first place finishes.

Tonight will also be the last chance for many local fans to see some of their favorites who will be moving on to other fronts after this season. Among those who may be playing their final matches at the Orlando Seminoles Front are Martorell, Elorri, Juan, Pedro, Garita and Caballero.

Cobb, Patterson Shine As Lions 'Bite' Bulldogs, 67-49

It's taken 20 games, 19 of them wins, for the Oviedo Lions to gain state-wide recognition, as Coach Dave Miller's team, finally made it to the state Class AAAA-AAA rankings on a 67-49 win Saturday night over the Deland Bulldogs.

The Lions, who were rated 17th in the big school poll, have better won-loss records than 11 of the next 16 teams making the poll, but for Lion watchers, the recognition comes sweetly, even late, by their standards.

Leon Cobb and Glennie Patterson put across enough points to take double figure honors for the streaking Lions, who outscored their Volusia County rivals 36-8 in the first period and then coasted on to the win, never realizing any trouble from the scrappy Bulldogs.

The first period performance by the powerful Lions, who usually come on in later stages of the game to take most of their wins, put the game out of reach of the 'Dogs, who fared only a little better in the second frame, bowing by a 22-14 count to the Lions.

High point man in the contest went to Deland ace rebounder, 6-foot-6 Leonard Cook, who canned 10 doubleheaders for the evening for 20 points, but too late as the battling Lions held him in check, just enough to get the points they needed.

The shorter Lions, who have made a tradition of outbounding taller, more highly rated teams, also held Deland scoring ace Terry Jones and Eli Thorne to 10 markers each, actually outbounding the 'Dogs 30-28 from the floor and 7-5 from the charity stripe, giving no indication that the Bulldogs had any chance to regain mastery of the game.

The third period, usually reserved for the Lions pat-

Raider Hopes All But Vanish, 88-87

The top two teams in each of the four division receive a berth in the state tournament, scheduled for West Palm Beach this year. Valencia has clinched first place as they currently have only one loss. Going into last night's action, Lake City, Seminole and Florida Junior College were in a three-way tie for second place, all with 5-3 records.

The Seminole loss, combined with a Florida Junior College win over Daytona Beach, left Lake City and Florida Junior College tied with 6-3 marks, while the Raiders are 5-4.

Seminole still has a home game with Central Florida and road contests with Valencia and St. Johns, that could play decisive roles in the outcome of the race for second place.

Lake City and Florida Junior College both have three tough games left, including a battle against each other. Lake City won the first game between the two teams, 81-61. Lake City is also the only team to beat Valencia, doing it 56-41. Lake City has games to be played with both Florida Junior College and Valencia and they are both on the road.

The Raiders opened up an early ninepoint lead, 13-4, after seven straight points. Then the Timberwolves slowly caught up, until with 10:29 left in the first half they took over the lead 18-17.

The lead changed hands several times until the Raiders put together six consecutive minutes left, Gerald Owens shot and missed and Lake City took the rebound.

Lake City stalled until there were just 34 seconds left when Willie Paulk hit a bucket to put his team in front 37-33. Eight seconds later in the first half to give the Raiders a ninepoint margin going into the second half, 45-37.

The Timberwolves came out of the dressing room and slowly began to chip away at the Raider lead. With 10:20 left in the game, Marvin Loyd hit on a pair of free throws to put Lake City in front 63-62.

After a couple of lead changes, the Raiders again pulled ahead, but Lake City caught up and went ahead 73-72 with 6:13 left. The Timberwolves never lost that lead. On several occasions, the Raiders were within two points with possession of the ball, but they never could manage to catch up. With just over a minute left, Gerald Owens shot and missed and Lake City took the rebound.

The Raiders actually outscored Lake City by two points during the free throw line. The Timberwolves committed five more fouls than the Raiders, but managed to go to the line two more times than SJC.

Owens paced the Raiders with 22 points, including 10 field goals and a two for two night at the free throw line. Wright had 19 points, while Paulk and Bennie Shaw had 16 apiece. Bob Hurst was also in double figures with 10 points.

Something that hurt the Raiders was the fact that Hurst, the team's leading rebounder, fouled out with 5:09 left in the game. The Raiders did struggle well on the boards, despite the fact that the Timberwolves had a big height advantage.

Slim Chance Left

Robert Unger, the Tampa pro who shared the first round lead with Fritz Gambetta broke from the pack in the final 18 holes and captured the first place prize of $2,000 in the Third Annual Deltona Open.

Unger fired a two under par 70 Sunday to go with his even par 72 of Saturday. And the Tampa pro needed all he could get Sunday what with Mal Galletta Jr., of Glen Cove, N. Y. finishing strong with a super five under par 67.

Galletta was not even figured to be among the top finishers after his horrible 76 of the first day's action. But the New Yorker put on a birdie rush to capture the second prize in the $1,250 event, staged for the third year at the Deltona Country Club.

There were no par shooters on the first day of the tourney. Unger and Galletta held a one shot lead over the trio of Roland Stafford of Verona, Pa.; Bob Augustine of Long Grove, Ill.; and Steve Wilerson of Tampa.

Eddie Pierce of Tampa and Jim King of Miami headed a group of five who were only two strokes off the pace at the end of the first round. Also in the group were Jim Taylor of Bethesda, Md.; Jim St. Germain, Birmingham, Mich.; and Bob Bratzer of Camden, Md.

Wilkinson gave Tampa two of the top three spots when he finished with an even par 72 in the second round and finished with a two-day total of 145.

Deale Welker of Fort Lauderdale took home the fourth place money when he finished a stroke behind Wilkinson.

J. C. Coosie, who fired a super 68 in the Deltona Pro-Am on Friday afternoon, failed to get his game together for the two championship rounds and finished well back in the group of pros, which numbered close to 200 for this stop on the Florida PGA tour.

Drive Flat Out

By GEORGE CROSSLEY

"You hit the wall just as hard as I'm on you do it, so you might as well drive flat out," were words of advice from a father to a son, and they stood him in good stead Saturday.

The father was Buddy Baker, the Daytona 500 pole sitter, who earned the top starting position for the Feb. 12th Daytona 500 in his 1972 K and K Insurance Dodge, with a qualifying speed of 135.82 miles per hour.

Baker's father, himself a NASCAR great for years, gave pretty good advice.

Baker started an interview with this reporter after the qualifying session that, "The weather was a factor. I could have gone a mile or two per hour faster in more favorable weather conditions."

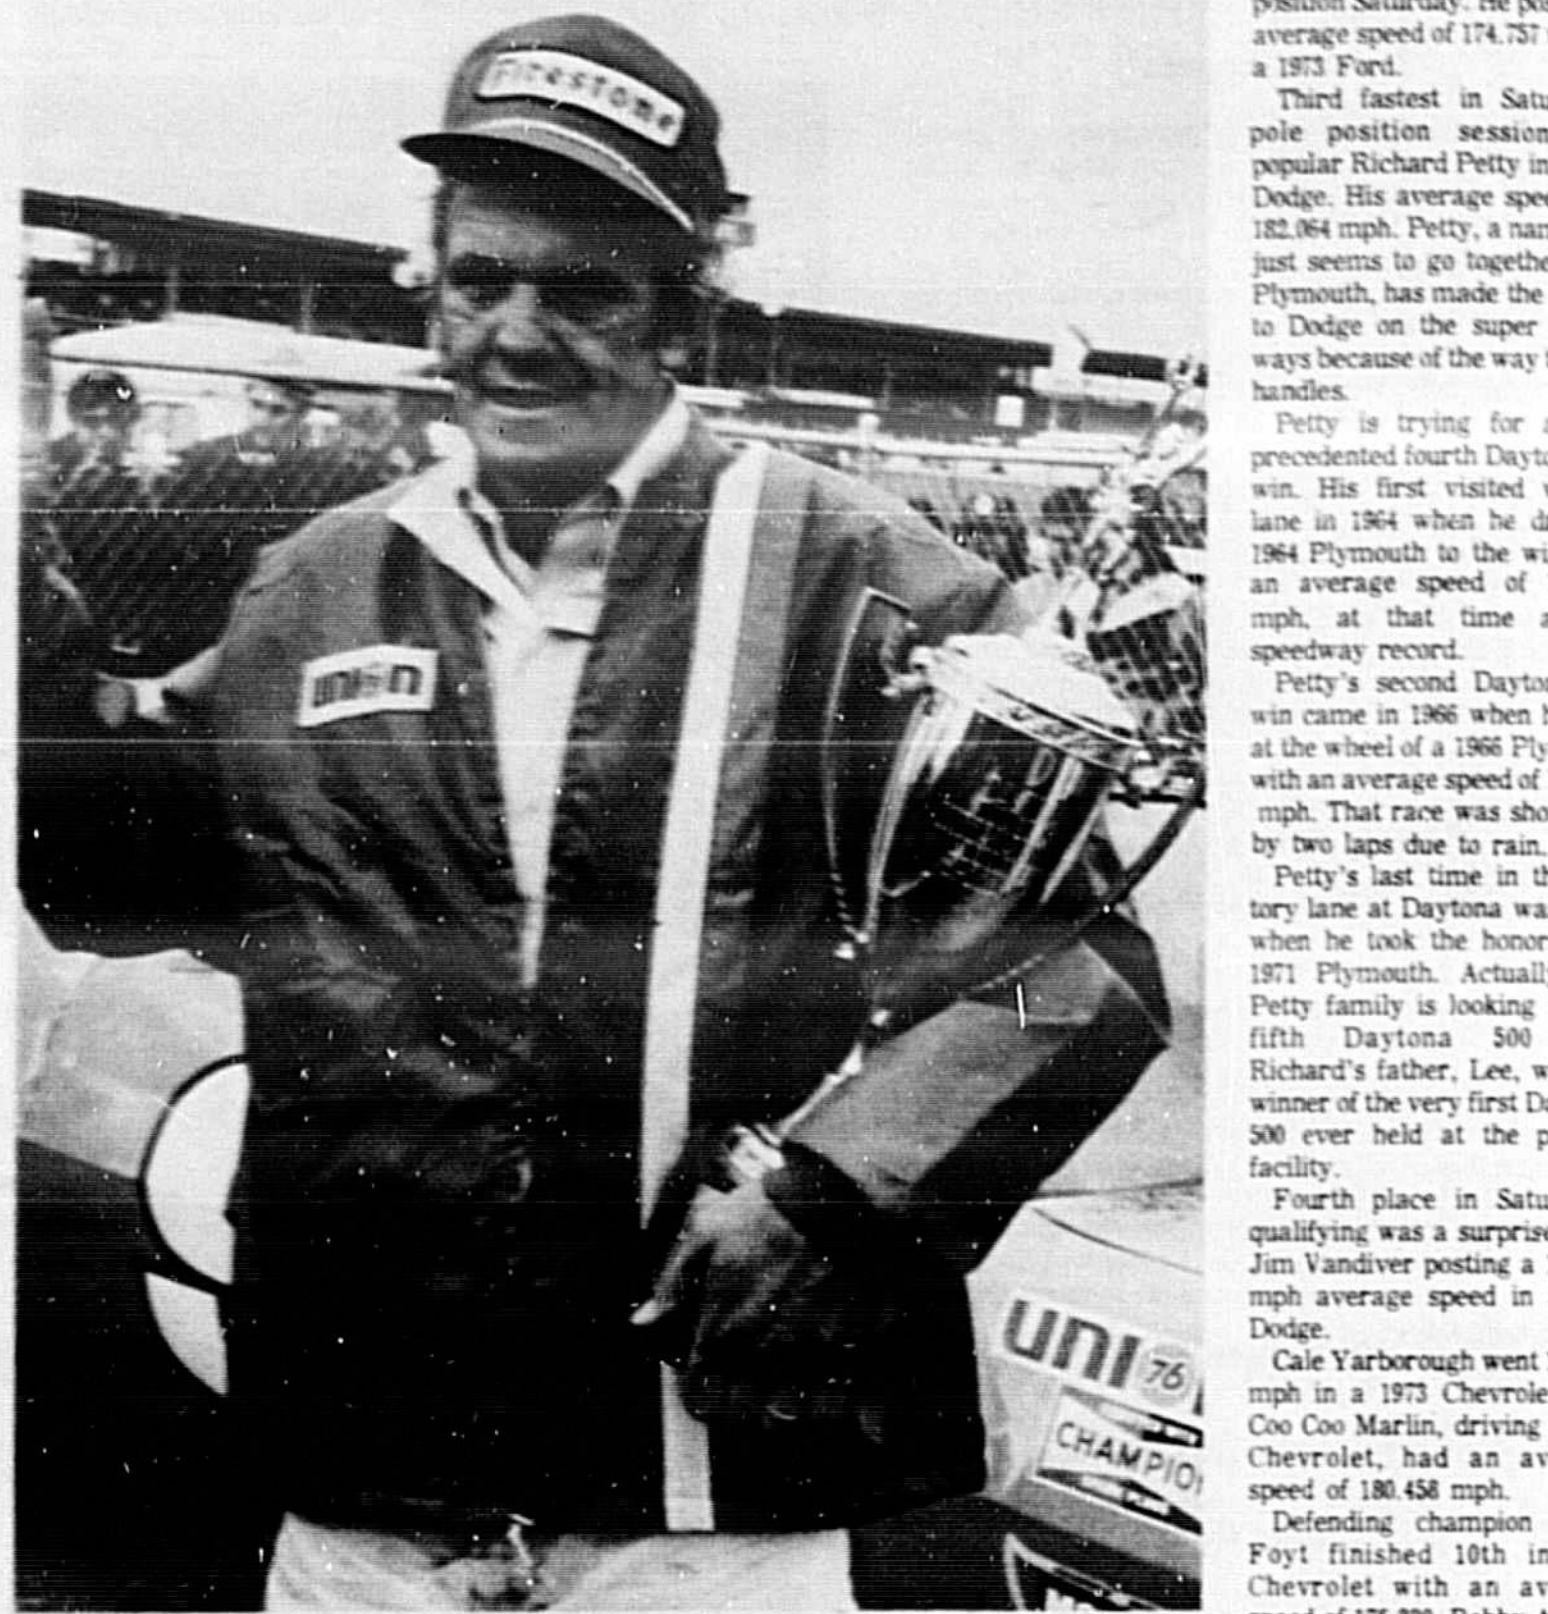

Buddy feels "it's a real advantage to be on the pole at the start of a race." He also pointed out that, "you can't be seven miles an hour slower than the pole sitter and still keep up with the leaders in a draft."

"Drafting will make this a great race," Baker said. "All the top Chrysler Corp competitors — Baker in a Dodge, Hamilton in a Plymouth and Petty in a Dodge — are aiming the Dodge engine this year. Pete Hamilton who qualified on the outside pole beside Buddy Baker said, "There wasn't a wedge in the garage area."

Hamilton further stated that, "I know why but I can't say."

It seems as if the NASCAR Dodge and Plymouth mechanics have found a way to keep the hemi competitive during the 1973 NASCAR season.

Since the hemi needs huge amounts of air to breathe the word is that the answer lies in making the engine breathe. The top four qualifiers in the Daytona 500 are all driving cars equipped with the Hemi.

ROYAL TRITON ARCA 300 winner Charlie Hampton called Sunday's victory his biggest win since the first time he took a checkered flag at a hometown speedway some 10 years ago. He collected the trophy and $5,400 for his efforts. Races are scheduled for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Daytona International Speedway, climaxed by the 15th Annual running of the Daytona 500.

Blanton, Royal Winner In 'Yellow Flag' Race

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Staff Writer

DAYTONA BEACH—The Royal Triton ARCA 300 could be in for a name change. And after Sunday's latest edition of the race, the 19th annual running of the Automobile Club of America sanctioned club, new names suggested include the "Yellow Flag 300" or the "Pit Stop 300." Some people are even suggesting that the race be shortened to 150 miles so there'll be some cars around to take the checkered flag.

Charlie Blanton, a 27-year-old from Gaffney, South Carolina, who started 18th in a field of 40 cars, drove a 1972 Camaro to a "small" engine to claim first place prize money of $5,400.

Blanton, who didn't feel he had a chance going into the race, got his break after Iggy Katona blew an engine and Fred Farmer went to the pits for a lengthy stop with overheating problems.

Tom Hutchinson, who was the top qualifier in a 1971 Mercury, elected to start on the outside of the front row, and immediately jumped into the lead on the green flag. Hutchinson led for the first 25 laps, while the battle was for second, third and fourth places.

On lap 26, smoke began showing from Hutchinson's car and he fell off the pack. Farmer took over the lead for seven laps, while Hutchinson got the black flag and was forced to the pits.

Katona took over the lead on lap 34 when Farmer went to the pits. The pit stop lasted 40.5 seconds, and was slowed because Farmer's car was blocked in by Hutchinson's car in the next pit. Katona only led for three laps before heading to the pits because of a super and defect from the track was blocking the radiator. Farmer went back in front and held the lead 16 trips around the 2.5 mile trioval.

Farmer gave up the lead when he went to the pits under.

Tire Tale

DAYTONA BEACH—Charlie Blanton said his Firestone tires held up fine Sunday and he never had to pit for a change of rubber. Yet, it was a tire that almost cost him a win in the Royal Triton ARCA 300.

The tire belonged to N. D. Copley, and it came off his 1972 Ford as he came out of the control down pit road, with fire flying from under his car. It happened on about lap 40, and the tire rolled across the infield grass and into the path of the trioval toward the start line.

Blanton said he was nowhere near either the two accidents on the track, but the tire also got him as he came through the trioval. "I barely got under the tire," he thought it had me."

That was when Blanton thought he didn't have a chance to win. "I just hoped to finish in the top five," but the 27-year-old Gaffney, South Carolina resident got the good breaks, while the likes of Fred Farmer, Iggy Katona and Tom Hutchinson ran into bad luck.

Blanton was driving a 1972 Camaro with a 260 cubic inch engine, much smaller than the engines powering cars such as the 1972 Ford driven by Farmer.

The Camaro's closed strongly, as expected, in the jump Saturday to win the third annual event with 39.5 points. Dartmouth was second with 28, followed by New Hampshire with 26.

Vermont freshman Petter Kongali of Norway won the jump and three teammates finished in the top 10. Brian Borge of St. Lawrence was the giant slalom, edging Dartmouth's Steve Murphy, who won the slalom Friday.

Dyson, Lapp Lead Saints Over Sanford Naval, 67-46

Doug Dyson and John Lapp, who have been most of Coach Curtis Keet's Trinity Prep boys' basketball team this season, combined for 40 points to push the Saints to a 67-46 win over the Sanford Naval Academy Saturday for the Prepsters Carnival for the first time.

The Christians closed strongly, as expected, in the jump Saturday to win the third annual event with 39.5 points. Dartmouth was second with 28, followed by New Hampshire with 26.

ORLANDO—After a strategic battle that would have done justice to one of Bobby Fischer's chess matches, the Florida Technological University Knights prevailed over arch-rival Florida Institute of Technology 81-78 Saturday night at Lake Highland Prep gym.

Both coaches, Gene "Torchy" Clark of FTU and Art Loche of FIT were busy making strategic moves before and after the second half. Loche's team had a 22-point second half lead.

It may still be the middle of basketball, and the weather certainly doesn't fit the occasion, but the Seminole Junior College baseball team swings into action Tuesday with the freshmen to play baseball. Both outfielders Larry Parrish and shortstop Roger Hanson inked pre-contract since last season. Parrish was ranked among the top five junior college hitters in the nation and was the state's best. Hanson was a strong shortstop with consistent play, a good arm and a good bat.

Schurtt Super Vee's To Inver House Win

DAYTONA BEACH—Mansfield Schurtt, one of only two driver's license examiners and one of the top 100 drivers in the world, took a checkered flag at a hometown speedway some 10 years ago. He collected the trophy and $5,400 for his efforts. Races are scheduled for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Daytona International Speedway, climaxed by the 15th Annual running of the Daytona 500.

Court 'Tired' After Aussie Tennis Win

MIAMI (AP)—Margaret Court of Australia says she was sluggish in beating countrywoman Kerry Melville for the $7,000 first prize in the second annual Inver House Tennis Challenge for Super Vees Sunday. Her average speed was 106.60 mph. Schurtt, driving a Royale, made his move just before entering the trioval, and took early in the race, he said he lost power after a muffler fell off.

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP)—Arnie's back.

The long, long victory drought is broken, Arnie Palmer is a winner again, the lingering doubts are gone, his head is up and the famed grin firmly in place.

"Ah, yes," Palmer said Sunday when asked if this was a victory for the old folks, and the 43-year-old pro from Pennsylvania added: "I feel pretty damn young right now."

The weather was cool, wet and windy for the final round of the $100,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic at Bermuda Dunes Country club, and Arnie was soaking wet. Yet, he said: "I thought it was a hell of a day, really. The sun shone all day."

Palmer had not won a tournament in 18 months before his final round of 69 produced a two-stroke triumph over the man who replaced him as golf's king, Jack Nicklaus, and 25-year-old Johnny Miller.

Nicklaus, who led or shared the lead all the way until the first hole of the last round of this 90-hole marathon, and Miller matched par on the rain-drenched course.

Palmer went ahead of Nicklaus by sinking an eight-foot birdie putt on the first green as Jack three-putted from 35 feet away. Later, however, came the suspenseful moments, and even Palmer, with all his experience admitted: "Well, I got a little excited. I was overly excited, I guess, coming down the 18th fairway."

Nicklaus had about a 30-foot putt for an eagle that everyone thought would force a playoff. The ball grazed the hole and Nicklaus said, "I thought I'd made it but it didn't go in."

Congressional Heads Satisfied With Effort

By JOHN HECKLER Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A newly strengthened House leadership is looking back with satisfaction at a five-week reform effort that has significantly altered the power structure of Congress.

So fast and far has the pendulum swung in the opening weeks of Congress that some reform leaders are already on guard against too much power shifting into Albert's hands. They want it held in the party caucus, to which all House Democrats belong.

New Death Laws Now Under Draft

By STEVE STIBBENS Copy News Service

It was French President Georges Pompidou who called capital punishment an "unbearable question of conscience."

Lawmen, especially prison guards, have lived in the torment of their own fears that nothing would protect them from the life with nothing else to lose. So far, though, the argument continues, surveys reveal that lifers are the most docile of prisoners; younger, revolutionary-bent short-termers have proved to be most dangerous behind bars.

While lawyers searched for the true meaning of the high court's decision, and law makers across the land searched for an answer to the dilemma, the populace settled the question of conscience.

Education Hopes Are Dim

By Legislative Delegation Lake Mary Bill Accepted

By MARION BETHEA

Seminole Brevard legislative delegation last night unanimously passed a bill for the incorporation of Lake Mary as a city. However, it may be pointed out this is merely the first step in the procedure in which the delegation must now present the bill to the state legislature, who will in turn approve or reject it. If approved, the bill is subject to public referendum.
