Bevin Supports Anglo-U.S. Plan For Holy Land

Signs Mounting That Jewish Representatives May Appear At London Conclave

LONDON, Sept. 16 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin spoke up at the Palestine Conference today in support of the Anglo-American experts' plan to federate the Holy Land. Bevin asserted that the division of Palestine into four provinces with limited autonomy was workable and could lead to what he called a final solution.

Last week the Arab delegates had leveled bitter criticism against the idea. Today Bevin took 90 minutes to make a statement detailing Britain's reply to that stand. The conference was meeting behind closed doors and the text of Bevin's speech was not made public. Conference sources emphasized that Bevin made no new proposals to substitute for the federalization scheme.

Meanwhile, there are mounting signs that Jewish representatives may join the conclave. Three members of the Jewish Agency executive flew to Paris today for a meeting of the committee. Jewish sources said the discussions might result in a decision to participate in the London parity.

N. M. U. Steps Up Tempo Of Wage Walkout

Curran Asks Truman To Intervene For Contract To Give Workers Pay Hike

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—Some A. F. of L. longshoremen again threatened to ignore CIO picket lines today as the National Maritime Union stepped up the tempo of its strike for equal pay for CIO seamen.

In New York, where the NMU drew up solid lines of pickets along several sections of the waterfront, the loss of the A. F. of L. longshoremen, Joseph Ryan, reiterated that his men would not respect "any common picket line."

Ryan himself eluded his way twice through an NMU picket line along the North River. He said A. F. of L. stevedores were at work at least two piers. Other longshoremen, however, refused to work strike-bound vessels.

Meanwhile, hundreds of CIO pickets massed at piers in Manhattan, and the union said picketing also would be increased at Brooklyn and Staten Island piers. Some pickets handed out pamphlets saying, "The ship owners have locked us out."

As plans got underway for a mass demonstration by thousands of pickets in New York, the CIO mariners also began to intensify their strike in ports all over the country.

This action followed the break down of negotiations and the strike. NMU officials conferred last night with east and Gulf coast operators, but the parity collapsed when the operators refused to consider the demands of two west coast unions, the Marine Cooks and Stewards Union and the Independent Marine Firemen's Union.

The CIO maintained that negotiations would be pointless until west coast shipowners remained talks. NMU President Joseph Curran described the action of the shipowners as a lockout.

Curran also made a bid for government intervention by sending a telegram to President Truman. He asked the President to instruct government agencies to employ the same pay increases already given to A. F. of L. unions for the same work.

The A. F. of L. won increases of $22.50 and $27.50 a month for its maritime unions. Previously the CIO was granted an increase of $17.50.

Lieut. F. G. West Does Not Expect War With Russia

Declaring that although there is a good deal of misunderstanding between this country and Soviet Russia at the present time, he does not believe a third world war is imminent, Lieut. F. G. West, who is connected with the Naval Reserve program in the Sanford-Orlando area, told the Rotarians at their regular weekly luncheon today that a victory over Russia would be a hollow one as "you just don't win a war by force alone."

Fred H. Williams, Dr. Orville Barks Purchase Building

Indicating the expansion of the Sanford downtown business area is the recent purchase of the apartment building at the corner of Elm and Adams streets by Fred H. Williams, civil engineer and Dr. Orville Barks of the Sanford Clinic, who announce that they will convert the property to business use.

The firm of Moughtin and Lindsay, local architects, have been employed to make plans for the conversion of this property, one of the old Sanford landmarks, from residential to business property. The building, of brick construction, contains six apartments and was remodeled and repainted last year. An addition will be made on the lot adjacent to the property.

In purchasing the property, Mr. Williams and Dr. Barks expressed confidence in the future of Sanford and its growth. Both are war veterans. The former is the son of the late city engineer Fred H. Williams. Dr. Barks served overseas and for a long time was prisoner in Germany. The building was purchased from Mrs. Alice Howell of Jacksonville.

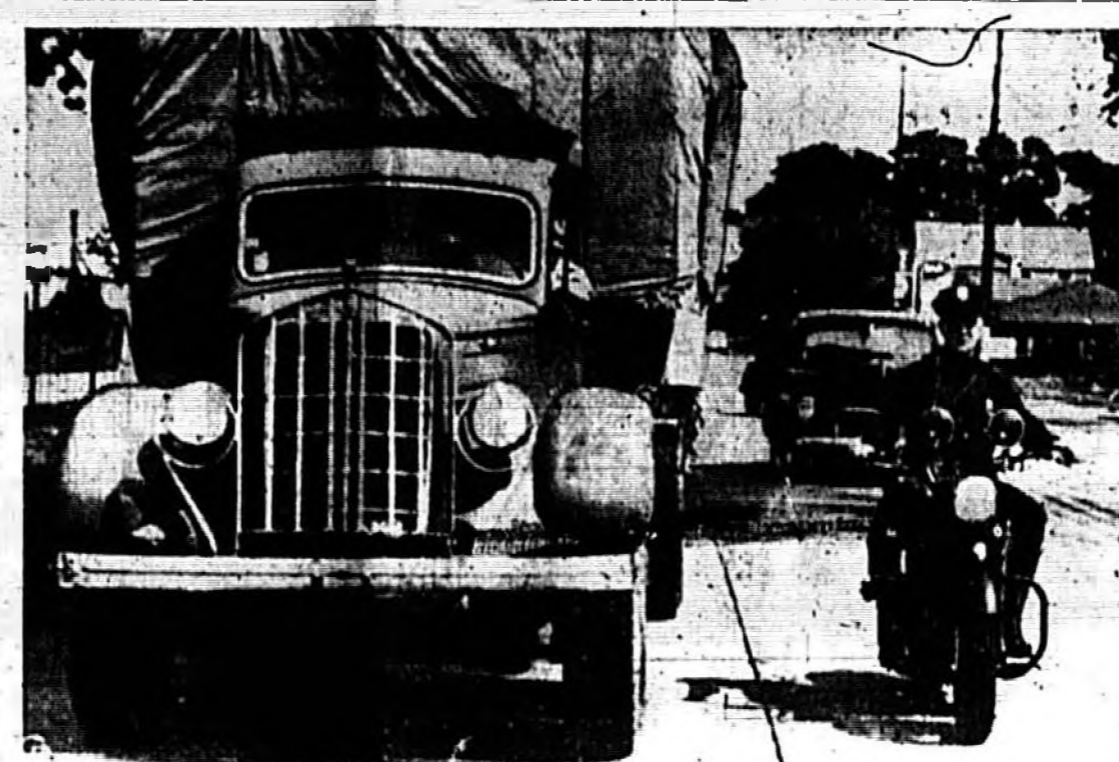

Wallace Stands Pat On New York Speech

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Wallace made his first public statement on the controversy stirred up by the foreign policy speech he made last week. Declared Mr. Wallace: "I stand upon my New York speech. The Secretary made it clear that he will not back down on the statements he made which were sharply at variance with the policy being carried out by Secretary of State Byrnes with the backing of President Truman.

Wallace said, "It was interesting to find out that both the extreme right and the extreme left disagreed with the view expressed. Feeling as I do, however, that most Americans are concerned about, and willing to work for, peace, I intend to continue my efforts for a just and lasting peace and I shall, within the next future, speak on this subject again."

Texas Democrat Says City Must Be Made Symbol Of Security And Peace In World

PARIS, Sept. 16 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally has told the Paris Peace Conference that Trieste must not become another Danzig. Replying to demands of Russian Foreign Minister Molotov on the Trieste question, Connally asserted that the Conference must establish Trieste as a truly free state. The key Adriatic port, Connally added, must be independent of both Yugoslavia and Italy.

Included in the Texas Democrat's "Let us make Trieste the symbol of peace and security in the world."

Connally went on to say that the proposed free territory of Trieste must not be a satellite of Yugoslavia or of Italy. Yugoslavia and Italy, he said, are both subordinate to world peace. World peace is more important than a few miles of territory or national pride, Connally asserted.

Connally continued the Senate Foreign Relations Committee head.

The challenge to peace is here, right here on our doorstep, right here on this table. Trieste must not be another Danzig. It must be free from intrigue and conspiracy.

Connally devoted nearly all of his speech to the fitting comment of the Yugoslav delegate, who had declared that the western powers were trying to draw a heavy curtain around the Mediterranean Sea. Continuing Molotov's demands for a dominant Yugoslav position in Trieste, the Brigade delegate said the United States and Britain were opposing the Slav demand only for the purpose of protecting Anglo-American interests in the Mediterranean. They are not concerned with the people of Trieste or the people of Italy, the sticky Yugoslav spokesman contended.

In reply Connally said that world peace is more important than either Italy or Yugoslavia. "The world peace is more important than either Italy or Yugoslavia," he said. "The world peace is more important than either Italy or Yugoslavia."

Violence Flares Again Today In Northern Greece

Many Persons Slain; Bridges, Telegraph Poles Are Destroyed

ATHENS, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Greek government today revealed a new outbreak of violence in Northern Greece. The Ministry of Public Order said that 42 armed bandits were killed in skirmishes brought about by a contract which would have allowed the Communists to communicate in that area.

The Athens government says two bridges between Katsika and Lofina were destroyed and 27 telegraph poles were cut down in the attempt. The Ministry adds that seven persons were slain in a battle on the island of Kephallonia and five others were killed north of Larissa.

These were not the only signs of unrest punctuated by shooting. Police say unidentified sailors shot to death a Communist who was escorting two women last night in one section of Athens. In the fashionable Kolonaki section of the capital a hand grenade was thrown during a meeting at a police station. There is no word of any casualties.

Wilson Says Meat Shortages Hike Opportunities Facing Poultrymen

World Parley On Atomic Energy Is Urged By Truman

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 16 (Special)—"A lot of us are meat shortages, following a close upon the heels of the revival of OPA, have seized this week-end to point up the opportunity facing Florida poultrymen in the troubled period," said William L. Wilson, director of Florida State Livestock Markets, today. "It became apparent some months ago that poultrymen were pulling their flocks aggressively, because of food shortages and price levels. At that time I expressed the hope that the poultrymen would effect to some extent by the maintenance of flocks on farms, and by home owners in other words that the operations of the small owners might offset the apparent imminent decrease in production by the large commercial poultrymen."

Three Auto Wrecks Occur In Sanford Over Weekend

Three people were injured shortly after 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the 1940 Ford on York Street which Sammie Henderson was driving, was out of control and overturned on the Orlando Highway about four miles south of the city limit.

When taken to the Florida Sanitarium it was found that Mrs. B. Nelson had a fractured collarbone. Mrs. Garry Thorne, another passenger, had several cuts and a bruised shoulder, according to State Highway Patrolman L. C. Bender, who investigated the accident.

William Herndon of Sanford, who was being escorted to the hospital when his Dodge sedan ran off the road, and a half mile out of the city limit, early Sunday morning, William H. Wilson was taken for treatment to Orange General Hospital at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon after his Studebaker sedan ran into a tree at Altamonte Springs. Patrolman Bender said that he had not been informed as to the extent of the injuries.

Investigation Of Vet Job Training Makes V.A. Program Much Clearer

By JULIAN STENSTROM

"This on-the-job training program is getting to be so common that I don't know whether I'm coming or going," says many Sanford people have heard that remark made lately?

It's certainly true that the recent changes made in the on-the-job training program have caused many of the employees who have been afforded excellent opportunities of taking advantage of the system to draw themselves in headache powders and aspirin tablets.

"Just how do I stand on this thing? Is my helper being aided or hurt by these changes? What happens if he works overtime and makes more than $200 per month? Suppose he makes a little money on the side, what then?" they're asking.

All these and many more questions have been answered through an investigation we made the other day with a representative of the Veterans Administration.

First of all, the trainee and employer know that the veteran's income cannot exceed $200 per month if the veteran is married and $175 if single. However, there are more ways than one in which a veteran can add to his income without running into trouble with the V. A. He can have a job on the side if he wishes and make as much money as he possibly can. Also, his regular job in which he is receiving training is limited to a standard number of hours per week, as set by the institution or firm with which he is training, and what he makes on overtime is not subject to the rules and regulations devised by the V. A.

For example, John Doe is married and working for the Blank Drug Company as a trainee. He hopes some day to make $200 per month as a pharmacist. He goes to work as a trainee on a 40-hour per week basis. If his total pay for the month does not exceed $200, including his subsistence, he is in the clear. Now suppose Doe puts in 18-hour overtime. Does that report what he received for his overtime on his monthly report, but this is not subject to any V. A. action.

Let's go further and say that another drug store in the city is selling Christmas cards and for a few weeks needs an extra clerk for a few hours in the evening to help sell them. The owner of the other firm hires Doe to work for him during the evenings and at the end of the first month, Doe has made $200 from his regular training position and $55 for his outside job.

Orlando Given One Game And Wins Second Over Weekend

Series To Resume Here Tonight; Schantel To Face Hyde On Hill

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.
Herald Sports Editor

Baseball by the Florida State League came to a new low at the local park Friday evening when the Orlando Senators defeated the Orlando Senators. The Senators were enjoying a 3 to 1 lead in the contest at the time of forfeiture. A delay of rain that came at gametime.

The Senators were given another game by the Peas due to the rain and the fullness of effect after the umpiring exhibition that was displayed Friday night. The Senators, downed the Senators by a 2 to 2 count with George Kettler, Jim Payne and Charlie Blason on the mound the Peas.

Orlando opened the contest by scoring two runs in the first frame. Sanford came back in the first of the inning to knot the count at two all as Kettler and Bryant singled, followed by an infield error and a sacrifice fly by Oscar Clarke to tally the tying run.

Then the Peas issued the Senators a big eighth frame to net the Jacksonville five runs. The Senators scored an additional two runs in the seventh to put the game in a tie.

Friday night's game the Peas were trailing the Senators on the first and after five innings the Senators entered their half of the seventh and Jim Payne popped to Kettler and Jim Payne grounded out. But Bryant stepped to the plate and after hitting a home run to tie the game, he struck out. In the eighth inning, Sanford scored two runs to take the lead. Sanford's lead was short-lived as the Senators scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game.

The game was a pitchers' duel between Sanford's Bob Zappel and Orlando's Oscar Clarke. Zappel pitched a complete game, allowing only four runs, two earned, and five hits. Clarke pitched six innings, allowing three runs, two earned, and six hits.

Los Angeles Rams Add Named Men To Hike Hopes

Hope To Bolster Team With Players Like Harmon and Susic

By BILL BECKER
AP Newsfeatures
LOS ANGELES—The rag-torn champions of the National Football League in 1945—the Los Angeles (nee Cleveland) Rams—have picked up glamor galore and a batch of big-name players they hope will bring another title. The aggressive Rams swooped into the City of Angels to become the league's first far western member, quickly sewed up prior rights to the mammoth Coliseum and proceeded to bolster their already formidable roster with such grid luminaries as Tom Harmon and Kenny Washington. They outbid the rival Los Angeles All-America Dons for Harmon's services, thereby rubbing salt into wounds which promise only to fester more—perhaps on both sides—as the blazing 1946 pro grid war progresses. The addition of Harmon at a reported $15,000 per year gives the Rams probably the two highest-salaried players in the league. Art quarterback Bob Waterfield, last

Casidy Decisions
Coach Adam Walsh has the complicated, though not unpleasant, job of fitting these expensive pieces together into a high-geared unit. Starting with Waterfield at quarter, Walsh's present plans call for Harmon to alternate with Fred Cehrke, last year's leading Ram ground-gainer, at left half; either Tom Farmer, ex-Iowa star, or Jim Gillette, holdover, at right half; and probably Steve Susic, former Illinois buster, at fullback. Washington, the superb ex-UCLA halfback, probably will spell Waterfield at quarter. Washing-

Coach George Halas Predicts Best Year Since 1943 For Chicago Bears

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
AP Newsfeatures
COLLEGEVILLE, Ind.—Skipper George Halas, back in personal command of the Chicago Bears after three and a half years in the Navy, is setting a comeback course. He expects to produce the best Bear team since the championship outfit of the 1940-42 era. But Halas, who doubles as owner and head coach, eschews a bald statement, and sets forth his opinion by circumlocution. "It looks like we'll be in pretty good shape in personnel," he says, as he glances at the huge squad training here. "I don't know where we'll finish, but we'll guarantee to win a few more games than last year. They'll be the best Bears in several years." That "several years" bridges back to the title days. The club, with Halas away, began to slide down the ways in 1944, and splashed into fourth place in the western division in 1945, with only three wins and seven losses. But things are looking up now for several reasons. Halas, a resourceful strategist and a relentless competitor, is back at the helm, ending conjecture that he might leave his actual coaching to his aides. "The old urge came back," he says, wagging a sheet of play diagrams. "I'm getting a great bang out of it."

Seventeen veterans who were in squads which earned National League titles have returned to form the nucleus of a postwar team, and three of them—Bulldog Turner, Sid Luckman and George McAfee—would make a neat nucleus for anybody's club. Then, there'll be fresh manpower—and novel maneuvers. Bob Zupke, who directed the University of Illinois to seven Big Ten pennants, has joined the brain trust as an advisory coach. "Some of the innovations will be quite radical," says Halas, who learned his football from Zupke in the 1914-18 period. "Zup has some new ideas. For example, he'll adapt the old Flying T-press play to the T-formation."

But the biggest factor in bringing the Bear out of hibernation is Halas himself. He has a rare knack for keeping the players on the hustle. "Perhaps Turner, an intelligent and observant fellow, can explain the Halas technique. 'Well,' the Bulldog says, 'he never lets the boys get the idea they're good.' It's some subtle psychology involved."

"None," says the Bulldog. "He just tells 'em."

First Break In Maritime Strike Occurs

A. F. of L. Longshoremen Are Unloading Cargoes Today At New York Harbor

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
—A. F. of L. sailors and longshoremen are back on the job in New York, Boston, Portland, Me., and other ports.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 (AP)—Striking A. F. of L. truck drivers have voted a partial resumption of trucking activities in New York City. The union drivers voted to go back to work for all operators who would agree to proposals advanced by two major trucking concerns. The drivers cheered and applauded the proposals of their leaders to return to their trucks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 (AP)—Stevédores have gone back to work in New York harbor in the first real break in the maritime strike since it began 13 days ago. The dockworkers, members of the A. F. of L. began unloading cargoes today without interference by CIO pickets.

The striking CIO workers had agreed a few hours before to stop picketing ships manned by A. F. of L. east and gulf coast seamen except in the case of vessels berthed at the same dock with ships manned by CIO crews. Also exempt from picketing are all foreign ships not under contract to the CIO National Maritime Union.

The order to cease picketing A. F. of L. ships was issued by N.M.U. President Joseph Curran in response to a demand from the A. F. of L. Seafarers International Union. At 8:00 A. M. today, Eastern Daylight Time, some 500 A. F. of L. dockhands were at work at New York City. The N.M.U. decision is expected to free about 40 A. F. of L. manned vessels which have been tied up in New York harbor as well as many others which have been stranded for nearly two weeks in ports on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Argentine, Britain Sign Monetary And Trade Pact Today

LONDON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Britain today signed a provisional trade and monetary agreement with Argentina. The pact settles differences between the two countries on sterling payments, meat purchases and British-owned rail ways in Argentina. Under its terms, London and Buenos Aires agree to continue their old trade agreements which recently expired, until a new one can be written. The agreement was signed today in Buenos Aires and simultaneously announced in London. It followed lengthy conferences which several times nearly broke down.

The two countries agreed that discussions be started at once to prepare a new pact in the expired treaty, which now is revived and will continue in force until the end of next December.

Among other things, it was mutually decided that Britain may pay all of Argentina's surplus meat for a four-year period, except small reserves to be sold in other countries. Britain agreed to pay at least 25 percent more for Argentine meat than at present.

Late Demands Stem Early Stock Declines

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 (AP)—Late demand for selected steel and industrial stocks early today caused a sharp decline in today's stock market with assorted issues converting minus signs into modest advances.

The direction was downward as a fairly active opening and losses of 1 to 3 or more points were widely distributed by midday. Dealings slowed, however, and near the close, extreme setbacks were reduced or cancelled in most cases. Transfers held to around 1,500,000 shares. Railway bonds retreated.

BRITISH TAKE ACTION
LONDON, Sept. 17 (AP)—The British government has obtained an interim injunction against the invasion of government-leased buildings in the spreading squatter movement. The government acted in the face of threatened opposition from organized labor.

Boys State Group Is Welcomed At Legion Meeting

Plans Are Discussed For State Roundup To Be Staged Here

Legion members of Campbell-Lossing Post 53 gave a hearty welcome last evening to the five boys from Sanford who attended "Boys State" at Tallahassee and their counselor, Edward Marshall who introduced them.

John Brunley, Jr., who was sponsored by the Lions told of various Boys State elections and of the campaign for "governor." He declared that the boys appreciate the chance given to them by the Legion, and that they really learned something.

Huston Babcock, who was sponsored by Rotary, and who was elected as House speaker, described various bills taken up and lively debates with "sure enough" politicking. He declared he had learned a lot about government and said that the Legion should make it possible for more boys to attend the next session.

Francis Wilson, Jaycee sponsored, declared that he had learned more about city, state and county government than during all the rest of his life. "Things were really beginning to get rolling when we had to return," he asserted.

Kiwanis sponsored Simon Dingfelder, who polled the highest proportion of votes of any candidate and became "secretary of agriculture" told of his interesting visit with Agriculture Secretary Nathan Mayo, and expressed appreciation to the Legion for the trip.

Larry Lossing, Elk sponsored boy, who designed many posters for political campaigns made by the boys declared that he was certainly glad that he had been sent to Boys State, and that it ought to be "twice as big every year."

A letter from Lieut. Col. Henry Brewster thanking the Legion members for kindness shown to his late father was read by Post Commander Henry Wolcott. The post discussed a program of entertainment and barbecue for the coming State Legion roundup membership campaign to be held here on Oct. 19 by the 40 and 8. This will be marked by a parade, and a wreck will be staged. It was promised by Chester Miller who stated that the "wreck" would be managed by the Orlando Volturs.

MONEY MISSING

Henry McLaulin, optometrist, reported this morning to police that cash totaling $125 was missing from his office on Magnolia Avenue. He told police that a side door to the store was found open this morning when he arrived and that the front door was properly locked. Most of the missing money was in a cabinet drawer in the office, he said.

Western Powers Are Charged With Seeking To Establish Bridgehead In Trieste For Military Action

PARIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Alec Heber, Yugoslav spokesman, opened a session here today at the Paris Peace Conference when he charged the western nations with seeking to establish a bridgehead in the free city of Trieste for future military action against his country.

This statement was the first charge of the present blueprint, a governor would be in charge of the free state, but Heber said the governor's powers are outlined in the plan can be explained only by considerations of power politics.

Declared the Yugoslav spokesman: "He can even call in foreign troops, but against whom? The face of their action is never named but is always implied, Yugoslavia."

Heber's idea is to push the proposed boundaries back to the city proper of Trieste—an amendment, contested by South Africa and Australia who have suggested that the free state south in border should include Pola and other Italian coastal communities.

While the Trieste wrangle dragged on the Italian peace treaty made another few inches of progress. The conference's military committee upheld the Foreign Ministers' draft of disarmament clauses in the pact.

The approval was given after the committee rejected a South African amendment which would have held Italy to military and naval restrictions for at least five years, regardless of the decisions which the United Nations Security Council might make. As matters now stand, Italy will be confined to the military clauses of the treaty until the U.N. makes some agreement with Rome for peace enforcement.

The committee also adopted without argument provisions for dividing surplus Italian fleet units among the United States, Britain, France and Russia. Charges Made Today At Railroad Convention In Miami

MIAMI BEACH, Sept. 17 (AP)—The president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, A. E. Whitney, today charged President Truman with encouraging fascism in the United States. He declared that Congress "paid only lip service to its pledges."

These allegations were contained in a keynote speech by Whitney today before the Brotherhood's 28th National Convention. "The rail union official also said: 'In one of the most tragic tragedies of history, the proof that fascism still flourishes came from a man whom labor helped to elect.' Then Whitney added these words: 'Harry Truman, in using his powers to smash the strike of the railroad trainmen and engineers last May, gave greater encouragement to the reactionary and fascist forces in our land than any President in our history.'"

Whitney referred to President Roosevelt's 12 years in the White House as "the period in which the Brotherhood was awarded its life." The trainmen's boss said that Mr. Truman was "approached in the same confidence." The spokesman closed, however, "That was our undoing."
