SOUTHERN COURTESY IN THE ELEVATORS

WILL BE REVISED AND "HATS OFF" WILL BE THE SLOGAN

(By The Associated Press.)

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 22.—"Hats on" in elevators, even though there may be women passengers in the slogan of the Cincinnati Building Owners and Managers' Association which has started a crusade to that end. Whether they will win their contention that the removal of hats in crowded elevators is a menace to passengers in the immediate vicinity of those who take off their headgear remains to be seen for many prominent Cincinnati women are opposed to the abolition of this old-fashioned courtesy. "The habit" said Captain W. M. McIntyre, president of the association "was introduced by southern people traveling in the north. Originally I understand, negroes were required to remove their hats on entering elevators and in time white men followed the example when women were on the lift. On the same principle why do not men take off their hats when traveling in a street car which also contains women passengers?"

And Captain McIntyre got the following answers from women:

"I do not see any reason to discard this courtesy. Courtesy is not a gift. It is merely an exemplification of what a man is. Women never will endeavor to decide this problem for the men."—Mrs. Kennon Dunham, president of the Cincinnati Women's Club.

"Just because women have been enfranchised is not a sufficient reason to effect the innate courtesy of men which a true gentleman will show toward a woman."—Mrs. Fenton Lawson, president of Woman's City Club.

"I do not see why now that women have been given equal voting right with men that any established custom should be effected."—Miss Agnes Hilton, representative of First District of Ohio, League of Women Voters.

"I do not believe men are going to lose their chivalry and experience during the recent campaign convinced me that the men are not going to lose it. The question depends upon the woman to a great extent. If she is the sort of woman men respect she will hold this respect no matter what field of business or political activity she may enter."—Mrs. Florence Goff Schwarz, member of Hamilton County Republican Executive Committee.

EDKLE ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY

CONSPIRACY CHARGES AGAINST THREE MEN FOLLOWED FIRE AT OKLAHOMA MINE

MIAMI, Okla., Dec. 22.—Lee Dekle of Tampa, Fla., and Gus Howerton and Tex Hill of this place, arrested some time ago on the charge of conspiracy in connection with destruction by fire of the Tiger mill Nov. 15, were cleared at the preliminary hearing held here today.

No evidence against any of the men that would tend to show that they had the plant set on fire, as was charged, was brought out. Dekle is president of the Georgia Mining Company. That concern had purchased the Tiger plant, paying part of the consideration down. The purchase was made from Howerton's company.

Following the fire, which burned the greater part of the plant, the matter was investigated by the state fire marshal's office and charges of conspiracy to commit a felony developed. It was on these charges that the three men had their preliminary hearing today, and of which they were acquitted. This would appear to finally close the matter.

GIVES REASONS FOR PARDONING ED. C. CHAMBERS

PALMER MAKES OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF EVERGLADES LAND CASE

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer has sent to congress the first official explanation of the reasons that prompted the president to grant a pardon to Edward C. Chambers, who was convicted in the so-called Everglades land case. The official explanation is as follows:

"Chambers was convicted in Missouri of selling Florida Everglades land to small purchasers at from $10 to $65 per acre and $1 down per acre and 1 per month per acre, without interest or taxes until paid. The lands were not drained, but the purchasers knew they were undrained. The state, however, was draining them and had a contract with a responsible dredging company to have the canals dug by July 1, 1913, and purchasers were so informed. Through unforeseen difficulties, but through no fault of either Chambers, the state, or the dredging company, the canals were not completed as contemplated, and for a time dredging ceased, the result being that the operations released much of the water of Lake Okechobee, and the lands upon which some of the settlers had located were flooded and were in a worse condition than before the dredging operations began. At the time the application for pardon was considered, condition had greatly changed, and the soil which had been regarded by expert witnesses for the government as worthless, was found to be valuable, fertile, and susceptible, with cultivation and proper application of fertilizer, of raising valuable crops. The attorney general sent a special agent to the Everglades to investigate conditions there. The agent's report was very favorable to Chambers, and showed that many of the representations made to the jury regarding the fertility, etc., of the soil were incorrect. The Attorney General reported to the president that there was every indication that Chambers bought and sold the lands in entire good faith, that the project failed through no fault of his, and that if the facts since developed by the department's own investigation had been known at the time of the trial and brought to the attention of the jury, there would have been no possibility of convicting him. Under these circumstances and on the ground of newly developed and newly discovered evidence, the Attorney General recommended that pardon be granted.

STATE FAILS TO MAKE A CASE AGAINST THE FOUR DEFENDANTS

(By The Associated Press.)

MACON, Ga., Dec. 22.—All four of the defendants charged with poisoning Fred H. Shepard of Houston county, for his money, were discharged here late last night by Judge H. A. Mathews of superior court. The judge held that even granting that Shepard was poisoned, the state had not presented sufficient evidence to connect them with the deed. He also declared testimony of experts regarding the alleged poisoning was conflicting.

There was a mild outburst of applause as the preliminary hearing, which had lasted a week, came to a close and then Shepard's widow, now Mrs. Pauline Elmer of Jacksonville, leaped up and facing the judge cried: "Jesus did not walk alone in the garden. I did not walk alone. God was with me."

The woman's words drifted off into incoherency and suddenly she toppled over backward, but was saved from a fall by attorneys nearby. Friends crowded around the other defendants.—Mrs. Elmer's son, Ernest Hopson; her younger sister, Mrs. Iona Henry, and Mrs. Annie Cutts of Fitzgerald. In a few minutes Mrs. Elmer had recovered sufficiently to be taken away by her friends.

The courtroom, which had been well filled throughout the hearing, was crowded tonight and friends of the defendants crowded around to congratulate them. As they left the court house, they were halted again on the sidewalk to receive congratulations.

Evidence was completed today in the preliminary hearing of Shepard's widow, Mrs. Pauline Elmer, her son, Ernest Hopson; her younger sister, Mrs. Henry, and Mrs. Cutts, charged with having caused Shepard's death in order to get possession of his fortune. Arguments consumed the forenoon session of the court and late today Superior Court Judge Mathews presiding announced that a night session would be held. It was expected the judge would render his decision before midnight on the question as to whether to hold the defendants for the grand jury and if so whether to grant bail.

MRS. COACHMAN SERIOUSLY HURT

(By The Associated Press.)

LAKELAND, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Walter Coachman, of Jacksonville, is in the Morrell hospital here, seriously, if not fatally injured, and her daughter, Mrs. William Burbridge of Jacksonville, is suffering with a broken right arm the result of an automobile accident near Haines City at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Coachman, their son, Charles Coachman, and Mr. Burbridge, who were in the car also, sustained only bruises and a severe shaking up.

Mrs. Coachman's left arm is broken in two places and it is feared she sustained concussion of the brain and possibly internal injuries as well. She has not regained consciousness since the accident.

The Coachman party, in the elder Coachman's machine, had just passed through Haines City and were headed in this direction, and going at a pretty fast rate of speed as they approached the curve near the railroad crossing. It is presumed the car was too close to the edge of the road, and the wheels skidding caused it to go into the sand and turn over.

Dr. R. R. Kime, of Orlando, happened along soon after the accident and administered first aid to the injured, then brought the party here and placed Mrs. Coachman in the hospital. The others of the party were able to go to a hotel.

Walter F. Coachman is chairman of the board of the Consolidated Naval Stores Company, Jacksonville, and one of the best known businessmen in the state. (His concern owns large interests in this section of the state and Mr. Coachman is a frequent visitor here.)

First reports were that both Mr. and Mrs. Coachman were fatally injured.

BISCHOFF WILL BE GOOD IN FUTURE

REAL ESTATE DEALER GIVES THE FACTS ABOUT THE TARRING AND FEATHERING

John D. Bischoff, the real estate operator with offices in the Baldwin building who was tarred and feathered by four unidentified, masked men nearly Sunday night, spent Monday morning in bed at his home at 719 Oak street.

However, according to reports from his home he will be at his office in the afternoon.

Reports that he intends to leave Jacksonville and dispose of his property here were denied by persons at the Bischoff home Monday morning.

Responding to a telephone call at his home by a man giving the name as "Mr. Cummings" Bischoff was whisked in an automobile from Julia and Monroe streets and carried to the outskirts of this city. There the automobile was stopped and Bischoff was stripped of his clothing.

The four men covered his body with warm tar and a coat of feathers was then administered. He was gagged and a silk black mask was placed over his head. He was carried to the city in the automobile and was thrown from the automobile in a crocus sack between Laura and Main streets on Forsythe, shortly before 9:00 p. m.

Several men standing near a cigar store on Laura street were attracted by the sounder bag. The bag was removed from Bischoff's head. Then the gag was taken from his mouth and the mask was removed. Bischoff then told them that he had been kidnapped by the men and feathered.

Someone telephoned the police headquarters and shortly afterwards a nautomobile filled with patrolmen and detectives arrived on the scene. Bischoff was taken to the police station and was later carried to his home in Riverside in the police wagon.

It is supposed that Bischoff was tarred and feathered because of a letter written by him assailing The Florida Metropolis for its stand on Americanism. Bischoff flayed The Metropolis because of a story recently published in this paper calling the Germans "Huns."

The letter was published on the front page of The Florida Metropolis Saturday and created keen bitterness against Bischoff. In Bischoff's letter he declared that he would boycott The Metropolis and see that his friends in this city would cancel their advertisements.

On Bischoff's back a placard reading, "I am a Hun," was glued by tar. There was not a space on his body more than an inch wide that was not covered with tar and feathers according to patrolmen who saw him at headquarters Sunday night.

A huge crowd gathered at the scene when Bischoff was removed from the sack. He was carried to the police station where he made his identity known. Later he was carried to his home in the police ambulance.

According to Bischoff someone telephoned his home early Sunday night stating that he was wanted by a friend to transact some business matters. He was told to meet the friend at the St. James Hotel.

When Bischoff arrived at the entrance of the hotel an unidentified man approached him and asked if he were Mr. Bischoff. He was then asked to accompany the man to an automobile standing at the curb. When Bischoff approached the car four men with revolvers directed him to enter.

Bischoff entered the car, according to his statements at the police station and was rapidly driven to the outskirts of the city. He was stripped of his clothing when reaching a spot about six miles from the city, he said.

He was forced to put his hands behind his back after he was stripped of his clothing. His hands were tied and he was gagged. The men then proceeded to pour tar and feathers on his body. While he was being tarred, according to his statements to the police, one of the men lectured him on "Americanism."

He stated to the police that the men told him that if he was not satisfied with the United States he and others with the same attitude should return to their native land. He was also lectured on the part the soldiers did in the recent war and "One hundred per cent Americanism" was the keynote of the speech, according to his report to the police.

While being returned to the city, Bischoff declared that he was warned not to attempt to describe the men who kidnapped him. He was threatened with worse than what occurred Sunday night and they stated he would be killed if he tried to describe them.

Bischoff admitted to the police he believed they would kill him and he stated that he would keep quiet in the future.—Metropolis.

TWENTY NATIONS JOIN THE LEAGUE APPROVE COURT

(By The Associated Press) GENEVA, Dec. 21.—Twenty-two nations today signed the protocol giving executive approval to the league plan for an international court of justice. Four countries, Portugal, Switzerland, Denmark and Salvador, agreed to compulsory arbitration.

When the parliaments of the signatory nations ratify the protocol, the court will immediately become operative. Inasmuch as the majority of the nations which signed did so only after consulting with the governments and parties, the league officials believe that the approval of the parliaments soon will follow. The delegates who signed expressed the hope that the United States would at least give executive approval, notwithstanding the fact that it is not a member of the league. They point out that such action by the United States would materially strengthen the court's chances of success and encourage all nations to adhere to the court. The American government, it is added, could give executive consent by sending a representative to Geneva to sign the protocol, then place the matter before the senate for final acceptance.

The countries and the order in which they signed follow: Portugal, Greece, Paraguay, Japan, Uruguay, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Salvador, South Africa, China, Poland, Brazil, New Zealand, Norway, Denmark, Holland, India, Italy, France, Great Britain and Panama.

TO PERMIT EXPRESS CO.'S CONSOLIDATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Authority was granted today by the Interstate Commerce Commission for permanent consolidation of the transportation business and properties of the Adams, American, Wells Fargo & Co. and Southern Express companies into the American Railway Express Company. The commission said that it was their belief that the public would best be served by one consolidated company serving all lines with equal rates.

The permit granted by the commission was based on an application filed by the four express companies last March.

The commission divided on the question of permitting the express consolidation, effected by the railroad administration as a war measure to be made permanent, Commissioners McChord and Meyer dissenting from the majority and presenting a minority report written by the former.

The consolidation, the dissenting report asserted, "creates a monopoly" and "destroys every semblance of competition."

The other members of the commission in their report declared they were "of the opinion and find that the public interest will be promoted by the consolidation."

SAYS JOHN D. FAILED REPORT ALL INCOME

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The government today entered suit against John D. Rockefeller for $292,678, charging that his income tax report was "incorrect, misleading and false."

The government alleged that on his return filed March 18, 1920, Mr. Rockefeller failed to include in it as part of his income 50,104 shares of Illinois Pipe Line Company and 67,176 shares of the Prairie Pipe Line Company.

Mr. Rockefeller is in the South, but his representative here tonight issued a statement declaring that pipe line company shares mentioned in the charge were acquired in 1915 as stock dividends, which, under a rule of the United States Supreme Court, they contained, are euntaxable.

The amount sought in the suit filed today, the statement added, Mr. Rockefeller believes is not legal taxation and declines to pay pending a decision of the courts.

JAMES IS CONVICTED OF MURDER

Killed Paul to Rob Him of $40,000—Alleged Confederate Claimed He Did Job.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 21.—Frank J. James was convicted yesterday of murder in the first degree without any recommendation for mercy by a jury in connection with the killing of David S. Paul, Camden bank messenger.

During the trial James' plea of a "taint of insanity in the blood" was refused by Justice Knutzenback. He ruled that unless the defense submitted evidence to prove that James was insane at the time of the killing of Paul, no testimony could be entertained to show that the prisoner's mind might have been unbalanced when he committed the crime.

In summing up for the prosecution, Mr. Wolverton said: "It does not matter who struck the fatal blow, James is equally responsible with Raymond W. Schuck in the commission of the crime."

Paul disappeared on October 5 with $40,000 in cash and $30,000 in checks which he was taking from a Camden bank to a Philadelphia banking firm. Eleven days later his body was found in a shallow grave in the Jersey pines in Burlington county. Suspicion was directed to James, who was the last person seen with Paul. Schuck was later arrested as an accomplice. Both are alleged to have made confessions, accusing each other of the crime. Paul, they said, was beaten to death with an automobile tire iron.

PASCAGOULA, Miss., Dec. 21.—A party of sportsmen, returning home Sunday evening from an outing on Horn Island, reported seeing for the first time in their lives a flying horse, or pegasus, which they declare had been grazing on the island.

This hypostomidian fish resembled a donkey with wings, the sportsmen say. Its head was flat and the snout quite long. An attempt was made to shoot the hippodame, but the swift-winged animal made his escape beneath the cerulean waters of the gulf. Local prohibition officials are said to be considering an investigation.

Only three more days until Christmas.

And we can all say we are glad it is soon to be a thing of the past.

The older we grow the less we like to see Christmas come for it means much worry and a "goneness" in the region of the pistol pocket.

And anyhow some folks are worrying because some one took the "ri" out of Christmas on the first day of last January or thereabouts and since that time there is danger of going blind.

After having passed the shortest day in the year successfully we can perk up, today being on the next lap for a longer day and one more day closer to that good old summer time when we can go fishing and take a day off now and then without holding up the paper.

With all the talk about building in Sanford there is going to be something doing sure enough. There should be no dull summer months here with everything moving even though there is no summer baseball team.

JOE EARMAN WILL RETIRE

In the last issue of the Palm Beach Post, Joe Earman stated that on the first of January he would retire from the newspaper business and also from politics. This is made necessary because his physicians have advised him to cease all worry about politics and newspaper work and everything that might aggravate the dread disease that is working havoc with one of the best fellows that ever lived and Joe Earman's retirement from the newspaper field will be a sad blow to his many friends and he has legions for Joe is a square fellow, loyal to his friends, fair to his enemies and believes in going straight to the core on any and all subjects. He has a style of writing all his own and the Palm Beach Post has occupied a big place in the ranks of Florida journalism. It is all right, Joe. Come to Sanford and get well and you can still have many years to live and get back in the game again. You will never be able to entirely give up either politics or newspapers and we all hope you will never be compelled to do either. We need square men in both branches.

THE VOICE OF CHRISTMAS

The voice of Christmas sings sweetly, clearer and stronger today than ever before.

The song the herald angels sang over the midnight plains of Bethlehem rings round the world with unending beauty—soaring above the battle fields and the monuments of crime, telling of the grace that saves. It makes new harmony in the minds of men, bringing them to a higher consciousness of the significance of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men!

As the hymn that greeted the Nazarene finds its way to the hearts of me, civilization becomes better, nobler and truer, day by day.

Whatever your creed may be, however you may regard that wonderful figure in the Garden of Gethsemane, you cannot fail to be exalted by the

CHARITY SHOULD BEGIN AT HOME.

Colonel Bob Davis writes the following pretty story for the Gainesville Sun:

Yesterday we stood for a moment watching the people pass in and out of one of our popular grocery stores. Amongst them we noticed a woman, carrying a child in her arms. We stood where we could watch her inside the store. We saw her look wistfully among the laden shelves but she made no purchase. Then she came to the front of the store where vegetables were kept fresh and crisp—some wilted and growing stale. A clerk approached her and evidently named to her the prices of the different vegetables and she bought a bunch of wilted turnips, opening her thin purse to find the prices. With these, in a paper bag, she walked away. She looked thin and weary but her sad face indicated character. The babe in her arms was warmly, if coarsely clad. We stood watching and wondering if what she had purchased was all she was able to buy. That was here in Gainesville. Not in the Far East. Not in shell torn Europe. Not in the slums of New York. It was here. We may have misconstrued the incident but we do not think we did. We had the impulse once to follow her. Then we hesitated for fear we might be mistaken. As God is our judge, we believe that poor woman is needy. We believe there are more than we realize of just such people as that. The expense of living during war times and since, the world over, has been almost unprecedented. Most of us have met the situation with a smile. By the unfortunate and the poor it has been met with a tear. We are willing to give and, in no place on earth, are people more willing to give than here in Gainesville. Let us open our purses as our hearts are open—this Christmas.

FORESTS AND THEIR RELATION TO THE CITRUS INDUSTRY

Will the cutting down of our forests result in disaster to our citrus industry? The ameliorating influence of great bodies of woodland has long been acknowledged by scientists who have made climatic matters a specialty. But the intimate relation between forests and rainfall did not need a scientific investigation to be established. It has always been a matter of common knowledge which found its expression in the old time saying, "There'll be no cold weather right now because there is too much water in the woods and the ground is too wet." The desire of planters to locate a grove in the lee of a big body of woodland, or on the right side of some lake, is another proof of the same thing. The Old Timer knows what it takes the newcomer some time to learn, it may be by a sad experience. The forest makes a valuable windbreak, and the lake gives protection against frost and cold.

Heavy forests insure a regularity of rainfall unknown elsewhere. The forest conserves the rain that falls within its area for a considerable time, allowing it to seep into the ground and gradually find its way to the lakes and rivers, thus keeping them at a uniform level. Cut down the forests and the rain that falls runs off rapidly to the creeks and rivers causing destructive floods, but leaving the ground practically as dry as it was before the rain, and long and disastrous droughts follow. The levels of many Florida lakes are materially lower than they were some years ago. This is confirmed by the records of surveyors, as well as by the memorials of old residents. That it is due to the denudation of timber lands cannot be doubted.

Again large pine forests have an especial value as windbreaks. Any one who has ever ridden along a country road with a forest on his windward side must have noticed the difference in the temperature, and the stillness of the air. The tall pine forests break up the wind currents and drive them to the higher atmosphere where they do no damage. The citrus growers along the lower east coast recognize the value of these natural windbreaks and spend much money to reproduce them. Citrus trees do not like wind and are not at their best under windy conditions. Note the condition of the groves after a frost and you will see that the trees on the outside, where they have been exposed to wind are most injured. The trees in the middle of the grove, where they are somewhat sheltered from the winds will be comparatively uninjured. The history of the citrus industry is illuminating. It formerly extended far to the northward of its present boundaries, but with the cutting down of the great pine forests which formed a great natural barrier to the cold winds and killing frosts it has been driven farther and farther south. Our real estate men talk knowingly about the "frost line," but their talk is purely imaginative. Such a line does not exist. Frosts have been known as far south as Key West, and may happen again. It is not beyond the bounds of imagination to say that the time may come when orange growing in a land stripped of its forests may become a perilous enterprise, and we shall lose our greatest asset, our always genial climate.

We should take warning by the experience of China, where millions are dying from famine, and death swings his destroying scythe where there are no crops for men to gather. In a certain district no rain has fallen for eight months, and as there are no trees there are no reserves of moisture, hence no crops, and the inhabitants are dying off like flies. A treeless land cannot support a great population, and the soil gradually deteriorates and becomes worthless for cultivation. We should conserve our forests and plant new ones while it is yet time.—Tampa Times.

EAT FRUIT FOR VITAMINES

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 21.—"Why do we eat fruits?" asks the Journal of the American Medical Association in an article on their well-established great value in the diet. Their caloric value is low, they contain no fats and scarcely any protein, although some contain a certain amount of sugar and starch. They are not valuable contributors of the mineral salts needed by the body and their laxative organic acids are offset by their indigestible waxes, gums and cellulose.

"Recent investigations demonstrated that the food value of fruits lies in their content of vitamins, that group of as yet ill-defined properties or substances which promote well-being in ways that still require elucidation.

"The fresh juices of the edible parts of the orange, lemon and grapefruit contain the vitamins frequently spoken of as water soluble B or anti-neuritic vitamin. It is, indeed, surprising to learn that the potency of orange juice, for example, in the water-soluble vitamin, is comparable, volume for volume, with that of cow's milk. This must not be understood, of course, to apply to these nutrients as sources of energy, but only to the contents of vitamins. It is even hinted that orange juice may contain some fat soluble vitamin. It is, indeed, surprising to learn that citrus fruit has acquired a dietary popularity. The advocates of a national temperance drink may be disappointing in the relatively poorer showing of grape juice as a source of vitamins.

"Apples and pears are not devoid of vitamins of the water-soluble variety, though they cannot be rated as rich in this food factor. Prunes are apparently somewhat richer in it."

USE IDLE LABOR ON STATE ROADS

SUGGESTION IS MADE BY THE HEAD OF AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—"If unemployment assumes widespread proportions, the most logical answer to the situation would be the prompt utilization of this excess labor in the building of highways of an interstate significance," comments David Jameson, president of the American Automobile Association, which has been prominently identified with roads betterment since its formation at Chicago March, 1902.

"It will be remembered that when Congress was approached some two years ago for $200,000,000 additional under the provisions of the Federal Aid Road Act," continues Mr. Jameson, "it was set forth that this money, which called for an equal amount from the several states, would serve to carry on roads building and absorb the surplus labor which it was anticipated would result from the abrupt conclusion of the big struggle. Besides this total of $100,000,000 from the national treasury and the several states, $9,000,000 was added to the $10,000,000 previously appropriated for the construction of roads in Federal forest reserves.

"But the period of non-employment did not arrive, besides which there was difficulty in obtaining materials and their shipment and the abnormal prices cut down very substantially new road mileage. Present indications, however, are that the supply of labor in the near future may considerably exceed the demand, and hence a recourse to important public improvements would be a direct means of stabilizing labor conditions. Surely there can be no greater benefit conferred upon the entire country than by the building of highways which will materially reduce the cost of transportation and facilitate the exchange of farm and manufactured products between the country districts and the centers of population.

"Congress could not act more wisely than to pass at this short session the Townsend bill calling for the creation of a Federal commission to lay out a great system of interstate highways and arrange with the several states for the prosecution of this national undertaking at the very earliest moment. The building of roads is one thing which will unquestionably improve conditions, and we are all now well aware of the fact that public sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of maximum activities in this regard, from nation, state and county."

HALIFAX, Dec. 22.—With the arrival in this port of his majesty's Canadian ships Aurora, Patriot and Patrician, the Dominion navy, which heretofore has existed nominally through possession of the Rainbow and Niobe, cruisers of an ancient pattern, today flung to the breeze the banners of maritime strength and prepared to take rank with other "naval powers" of the world.

The vessels, a cruiser and two destroyers, were presented to the Dominion government by Great Britain.

Goaded "Prospect" Finally Forced, in Self-Defense, to Rise to the Occasion Himself.

"But this is such a sweet little model, honey. Perfect on you. Look at the quality of this dvelty, dearie. Now, honey, did you ever see such lines?"

There may have been heroes of grand opera who could fluke love with the fluency and intensity of a salesgirl drawing near to a sale, but no expert exists whose ardor can thus flame when the actual moment of decision between the higher and the lower comes, writes Marian Storm in the New York Evening Post.

"Lots of little girls that buy these little suits just leave off their little blouses and wear them like little one-piece dresses. Now, this little style, dearie, was made for you. Look, honey, not a wrinkle in back. Isn't it lovely on her?"—appeals to another enraptured creature—"Isn't she just the little girl to wear this little model? Of course, not every one can wear this little suit, dearie. It takes a figure, honey, just like you've got. I wear the same suit myself.

"Dearie, in two weeks you couldn't buy this little suit for half the price again. Isn't it lovely on her? I said, honey, when you came in: 'There's the girl that can wear that little special we got today.' Now turn around, dear. You won't have to do a thing to it. Length—just right, honey. Sleeves—just right, honey. 'Sweetness,' she urged, at passionate climax, "don't let a little chance like this go by! Dearie, if you only

"But, oh, my beloved," returned the gilded customer half fiercely. "The price! The price!"

HOUSE PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Robson are having a house party which is to last through the holidays. All of the guests are in this part of our country for the first time and the pleasures one always has on a house-party are being enlarged by the natural beauty of Florida. Each day Dr. and Mrs. Robson are taking their guests on trips of interest to Daytona, to Orlando and they expect to motor down the East coast.

The guests who are enjoying the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Robson are: Dr. C. Singleton Dreedin and family and Mr. C. Martin of Anderson, S. C.; Miss Elizabeth Barbot of Winthrop College, Dr. J. S. Parker of New Orleans and Alfred and James Robson who are at home from Georgia Military Academy.

Dr. C. Singleton Breeding is a surgeon and is going to locate in Sanford.

Secretary of War Baker said in an address before Rivers and Harbors Congress, Dec. 8, that transportation of bulk commodities at high speed, involving a high carriage cost, is a wasteful process, and growing necessity for conserving natural resources of the nation demands adequate and rapid development of waterways of this country. Called attention to the fact that in the act returning control of railroads to private ownership congress had placed with the War Department a responsible part of development of traffic on inland waterways and that the program was now working out successfully. Florida is vitally interested in the improvement of waterways.

SHARPSHOOTERS PATROL NEW YORK'S STREETS

NEW YORK, Dec. 22—Armed with repeating rifles, twenty sharpshooters of the New York police force last night scoured the city in automobiles in a hunt for bandits. Each sharpshooter, a picked man from the police rifle squad, was accompanied by three detectives and a uniformed patrolman. Under orders to shoot every suspect who attempted to escape them, the men searched the highways and byways of the city throughout the night.

Other drastic measures to curb New York's crime wave, which today swept the city's border into nearby New Jersey towns were launched by police officials and judges. Removal of Police Commissioner Enright was proposed in a resolution introduced at a meeting of the board of aldermen. The resolution was tabled, however. Similar action was taken on a resolution to appoint a special committee to investigate the police department and report to Governor-elect Miller, and on another to request the police commissioner to furnish the board with information concerning all arrests made in New York City during 1920. An increase in the police force of 769 men was authorized by the board of estimate, an issue of special revenue bonds in 1921 was approved.

BID FAREWELL TO OLD FRIENDS

TIMES STAFF BIDS GOOD-BYE AND GOOD LUCK TO CO-WORKERS

With a pleasant little dinner-party at Garcia's, members of The Times' editorial staff Monday night showed J. E. Worthington, retiring editor of editorial writer of the paper, a little of the esteem in which the two are held by their former colleagues. "Jack" Worthington has been managing editor of The Times for the past five years, but resigned several weeks ago to become owner and editor of the Lake Wales Highlander. His departure has thrown an atmosphere of sadness over the entire Times' force that is only partially assuaged by the knowledge that "Jack" is going into a great field where his success is assured. The Times bunch will miss the "chief" mightily.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Worthington, Miss Bella O'Donoghue, who is retiring as society editor of The Times for "better things, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rovira, Mr. and Mrs. H. Plass, Miss May McNair, C. G. Mullen, Paul L. Murphy, Joe Mickler, Tom Davis, Ray Vance and Joe Butzloff.

Mrs. J. T. Rovira, gracious in the role of toastmistress, called on each of the staff for a few words of farewell to the Worthingtons and to Miss O'Donoghue. All were emphatic in declaring their regret over the departure of part of the gang. C. G. Mullen, general manager of The Times, said he expected to see the Lake Wales Highlander blossom forth as a daily instead of a weekly within a short time.

The Worthingtons expressed their regrets at leaving, and invited the whole bunch to drop in on them when they got established in their new home. Miss O'Donoghue neglected to extend this invitation, but there were extenuating circumstances.

Mr. Worthington, who severed his official connection with the Times with Saturday's edition, is still in the city but expects to leave for Lake Wales some time this week.—Tampa Times.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Worthington are former residents of Sanford and J. E. Worthington is well known here.

FARMERS URGE HIGH TARIFF ON FARM PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The farmers' organizations of the country, which maintain a formidable lobby here, have decided to begin a campaign in favor of high tariff on farm products. It is asserted by the representatives of these organizations that sentiment in favor of the removal of cotton, corn, wheat, cattle, wool and other products from the free list is growing among farmer members of congress.

Surprisingly large imports of those articles, combined with the depression in the price of all agricultural products, is responsible for the sentiment, which is particularly strong among southwestern and western members.

Thomas W. Page, chairman of the United States tariff commission, at the request of a member of congress has prepared statistics of farm imports that came in duty free for the year ending June 30th. The figures are surprising to members of congress who represent agricultural constituencies. Here are some of them:

Corn, 10,220,240 bushels.
Wheat, 4,744,712 bushels.
Wheat flour, 167,896 barrels.
Cattle, 575,328 head.
Wool, 427,578,038 pounds.
During the four months of July, August, September and October of this year imports of principal farm products were as follows:
Corn, 5,317,376 bushels.
Wheat, 12,040,541 bushels.
Wheat flour, 221,989 barrels.
Wool, 44,435,246 pounds.
Cattle, 142,139 head.

Free war materials, according to Representative Blanton of Texas, a Democrat, has almost bankrupted southern producers who by law are required to buy everything they purchase in a protected market and sell everything they produce in a free market.

Western members are opposed to the free wool and meat provisions of the Underwood tariff law. They will make a drive to secure the repeal of these provisions. The ways and means committee, recognizing this sentiment, has fixed a period of six days when advocates of a farm products tariff can be heard.

Again we ask you not to wait for your shopping until the last night before Christmas. Have some pity for the tired clerks on Friday night and do your shopping tomorrow.

Come in and get your new typewriter at the Herald office now. A real typewriter at $65, the best you ever saw for the money or for twice the money.

CHRISTMAS DON'TS AT THE POSTOFFICE

List of Things That Should Not Be Done During the Holiday Rush.

While preparations have been made by Postmaster Elder and his assistants at the local postoffice to take care of the annual rush of mail at the Christmas season, the attention of the public is called to the following set of "don'ts" for mailing Christmas packages.

First and perhaps the most important of the "don'ts" is this: "Don't delay until the last moment before mailing your packages." Other "don'ts" are:

"Don't place decorations on the address side of the Christmas package.

"Don't sacrifice durability for daintiness."

"Don't use tissue paper for the outside."

"Don't depend on ribbon for holding packages."

"Don't lose patience if delayed at mailing window."

"Don't fail to write the name and address as well as the street number on all of your mail so that it will reach its destination."

"Don't forget that the Postal Laws require that all mail be delivered as addressed."

The greater the distance your package has to travel the earlier it should be posted. Do it today.

PETITION MADE RATE BODY FOR RAIL CONNECTION

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 22.—Members of the state railroad commission Monday took under advisement the petition of the board of commissioners of the state institutions of the State of Florida, in which it is sought to compel the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company to make connection with the private side track leading to the Florida State Hospital for the Insane at River Junction, following a hearing in the matter here.

Representing the railroad commission were Chairman R. Hudson Burr, Commissioner N. A. Blitch, J. E. Calkins, counsel, and J. H. Tinch, rate expert of the commission.

Others attending the hearing were: H. Mason Smith, superintendent of the Florida State Hospital at Chattahoochee; J. C. Luning, of Tallahassee, state treasurer; C. S. Hammatt of Jacksonville, state engineer; W. E. Kay of Jacksonville, general solicitor, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company; W. C. Ragin of Savannah, assistant general freight agent; J. P. Linton, agent at River Junction, and R. A. McVranie of Savannah, general superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Repentance is often confounded with determination not to get caught again.

SHEPARD DIED NATURAL CAUSES SAYS DEFENSE

CHARACTERS OF WITNESSES FOR PROSECUTION ATTACKED

MACON, Dec. 23.—With evidence to be introduced at the preliminary hearing that Fred D. Shepard, wealthy peach grower, died of natural causes, not of poison, as experts testified for the state, the defense today prepared to call on Dr. W. K. Orr of Perry, Ga., who attended Shepard when he first became ill last May.

Shepard died here last June and Dr. Chas. C. Harrold, who performed an operation to save his life, was the first witness for the defense after the state rested yesterday. Dr. Harrold declared Shepard died of general peritonitis and of a paralyzed condition of the intestines.

Defense counsel indicated they would introduce but few witnesses and declined to answer questions as to whether any of the four defendants would take the stand. It was indicated several days ago that Mrs. Annie Cutts, one of the persons charged with the murder of Shepard, would make a statement to the court denying that she had revealed to neighbors that Shepard was poisoned, but as the defense went on with its side of the case silence was maintained on this point.

The widow, now Mrs. Pauline Elmer; her son, Ernest Hopson, and her sister, Mrs. Iona Henry, are the other defendants. It was expected the state would offer testimony in rebuttal when the defense closed.

Before calling Dr. Orr, the defense renewed attacks on the testimony of former tenants of the Cutts' farm where it is alleged the poison plot was hatched. It was claimed that J. A. Thomas, his wife and son, star witnesses for the prosecution, were of bad character and that witnesses would testify that they would not believe them under oath.

Evidence for Mrs. Elmer was closed yesterday by the defense when they introduced Dr. Harrold to show that Shepard died of peritonitis. Witnesses for the other two defendants, Mrs. Elmer's son, Ernest Hopson, and her sister, Mrs. Iona Henry, and for Mrs. Cutts were heard today.

Dr. Orr said he held no suspicion of poison and said that calomel and other drugs he administered would not cause death.

HE HAD BUSINESS ELSEWHERE

Diner Didn't Care to Wait to See the Result of His Carelessness With the Pie.

Dr. Fabyan Franklin has a friend who vouches for this story. Coming downtown on the elevated one morning, he was struck by the explosive temper of a red-faced, choleric man on a seat nearby. This man, annoyed because a youth facing him had placed his feet on the seat which the man occupied, burst out in a storm of passion, denouncing the youth in tones that aroused the attention of passengers in the adjoining cars. He finally stamped out on the platform at a stop, boiling with rage.

That noon Doctor Franklin's friend went into a self-service restaurant for lunch. Getting a plate of vegetables and meat, and one of pumpkin pie, he placed them on the broad extension arm of one of the chairs provided for lunchers, and made room beside them for his cup of coffee. As he was finishing his lunch he reached for the pumpkin pie, and clumsily knocked it off the chair arm.

To his horror he saw it disappear into the gaping pocket of a large overcoat carelessly slung over the next chair—and then he perceived the owner of the overcoat bearing down upon him, all unconscious of the accident, with a plateful of food. It was the same red-faced, choleric man whose frightful temper had amazed the elevated passengers!

As soon as the culprit had perceived that he waited to see no more. —New York Evening Post.

WANT AMNESTY FOR VIOLATORS ESPIONAGE ACT

LABOR LEADERS WANT RELEASE OF PRISONERS NOW IN JAIL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Passage of congress of the France resolution asking immediate amnesty for prisoners held by the government for violations of the espionage act, was asked of the senate judiciary committee today by Senator France, author of the measure, and labor officials, headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. The resolution holds further imprisonment of the offenders is contrary to democratic ideals and fundamental traditions of freedom. The resolution also requests that congress ask the president, attorney general and secretary of war to grant immediate amnesty to all prisoners held under the act.

Mr. Gompers said the American Federation of Labor at its convention adopted resolutions asking amnesty for persons held prisoners for "spoken or written words."

He said Senator France of Maryland had been asked to introduce the resolution to make effective the sense of the convention on this subject.

Senator France told the committee that he acted principally on the realization that the welfare of the working man is bound up in the question of civil liberty.

"The espionage act is offensive to all men who know what freedom means," Mr. Gompers said, "and grates on the man who believes in American principles. I refer to common interpretation of the law."

An Expressman.

Speaking of juries, a veteran Cleveland recalls the difficulty experienced in securing a jury in a noted alleged poisoning case of many years ago.

One of the men summoned was both dense and deaf, with a limited knowledge of English, defects which were developed as his examination proceeded.

"Have you formed or expressed any opinion regarding this case?" the lawyer for the defense asked.

"Hay?"

"I say, have you formed or expressed—formed or expressed—do you get that?"

"Yes, yes. Farmed or expressed. Sure, I haf farmed and now I am expressing. Dot's all right."

But the expressman was excused.

This bona-fide statement is made—and it will be carried out to the letter—because we desire to do MORE good rather than LESS while "ENERGIZER" service is here. There is a mathematical ratio between Human Illness and Human CIRCULATION and all the money and brains in the world cannot afford the protection that BETTER STRENGTH and CIRCULATION will give you.

Everything is a matter of "per cent" and "degree" in this world, and each "ENERGIZER" treatment gets ANY adult a "per-cent" better in physical strength and CIRCULATION.

It is NOT a matter of money to YOU—it is a straight matter of GETTING IT—while the getting is good. The INCONSISTENCY of getting the "carbon" out of your auto and NOT giving your BODY similar care is truly CRIMINAL after due thought.

And "if thinking hurts—then 'DO IT NOW' because it FEELS GOOD." You cannot lose ANYWAY YOU LOOK AT IT.

Children at the Bread Kitchens

Three and a half million children in eastern and central Europe wait, gaunt and pinched like these, at the American kitchens for the hot soup and bread that mean life to them. In the winters since the Armistice, America has been the one friend that had food to give them. It is a common sight in Europe today to see a child five or six years old whose head has not healed. With a healthy well fed baby the skull should close before two years. America must see these children through the rigors of another winter, and to that end eight great relief organizations have combined into the European Relief Council. They seek to raise $33,000,000 to save this generation of Europe from death by starvation and the diseases that come with under-feeding.

HARVARD BOYS WORKING WAY THRU SCHOOL

ABOUT HALF OF THE STUDENT BODY ARE NOW WORKERS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 22.—Half the Harvard University student body of about 6000 is working its way through college in whole or in part. A survey of students employed just completed at the graduate school supplemented by figures from the student employment office shows that those obtaining regular and casual employment ranging from professional house-hunting to instruction in languages to an inmate of an insane hospital earned more than $77,000 toward the expenses of the academic year 1919-20.

Nine hundred and ninety-eight men registered for work last year, 382 of whom obtained it. The number of positions available is always less than the number of seekers.

Occupations in term time include that of waiter, chauffeurs, choremens, furnace tenders, hotel clerks, window cleaners, university guides, and players in jazz orchestras. Some students spend Christmas holidays chopping wood in the forests of Maine. One man is reported working nights, sleeping five hours out of the twenty-four, and earning $50 a week.

Tutoring is the most popular employment in term-time and in one form or another it is also remunerative in the summer recess. One man last summer earned $150 a month and expenses as supervisor of children's play. Another spent his mornings with a group of children at a popular resort on the Maine coast and made $1200 in two months. Several took ocean cruises as tutors, companions, or cooks. Another man picked up several weeks' expenses posing for an artist.

MILLION DOLLAR BAND WILL BE HERE FOR WEEK

Harold Bachman, director of the Million Dollar Band which is to play in Sanford all next week, has had a career which fits him admirably for the position he now holds as director of a concert band. After graduating from college where he specialized music for a period of eight years, he played for several seasons on the road with different concert organizations among which was the famous Bohumir Kryl Concert Band of Chicago.

Between seasons he studied his chosen instrument, the cornet with H. A. Vandercook of Chicago, and Mr. Vandercook counts Director Bachman as one of his most successful pupils, using his name on all his advertisements for his cornet school.

With experience Mr. Bachman was well qualified to make a name for himself as director of an army band in which capacity he served for about two years taking his own band on the road to enter into the commercial band business.

The Duluth Herald has the following compliment to pay to the ability of Director Bachman: "Those who have heard the Million Dollar Band at the Rex feel sure that they have seen one who is to become one of the foremost band leaders of the country. Conductor Bachman fairly dripped music from his finger tips and it is small wonder that his company of musicians did so well under his competent direction."

"LOOK OUT SOUZA" was the heading article in the Milwaukee News on the work of Mr. Bachman who played to record breaking audiences in the Millor Theatre of that city during the week of the 12th of October last season.

Mr. Bachman says that his band this year will be much better than ever before.

LOGAN STICKS TO HIS STORY THAT HE ALONE KILLED CARL DOERLER

CLEARWATER, Dec. 20.—That no one but himself had any part in the killing of Carl Doerler at Tarpon Springs, when the saloonist was called to his door and shot down one night in April, 1915, is the statement made to Sheriff A. E. Sloat by Chester E. Logan, self-confessed murderer of Doerler, according to the sheriff.

Sheriff Sloat arrived here Sunday night with Logan, from Lyerly, Ga., where the young man gave himself up to the authorities last week, confessing the crime.

Logan was running a pressing club at Rome, Ga. He told the sheriff that he could not get the killing of Doerler off his mind and his conscience troubled him so much that he decided to give himself up.

The sheriff is of the opinion that there is more to the story than Logan has told, and is rather in doubt about Logan having told the entire story of the affair.

Logan also told the sheriff that he shot Marion Langford at Fort Lauderdale in 1916, in a fight with another man over the girl in a hotel there, and that he served a year in the penitentiary for that affair.

It is probable Logan will be tried at the February term of the circuit court here, at which time he may tell a more complete story of his crime.

Amber Long in Use.
The modern use of oil of amber, both externally and internally, is often mentioned. It has been denied that amber was known to the Greeks in very early times, the Greek electron having been used as a name both for it and for an amalgam of gold and silver, a species of gold ore washed down by the Pactolus; but amber has actually been found at Mycenae, and the fact that the electron necklace mentioned in the Odyssey is said to have been a gift from Phoenicia means much.

The Phoenicians are known to have introduced amber into the East, and Herodotus says it was brought from the River Eridanus in the extreme west of Europe.
