

Sore Elbow Vs. Ailing Back In Sixth World Series Game

CHICAGO (UPI)—Early Wynn, a right-hander with a sore elbow, and Johnny Podres, a lefthander with an ailing back, carried the winning hopes of the Chicago White Sox in the sixth game of the World Series today.

Although he has had only two days rest, Wynn was called upon by Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox to keep their series hopes alive. They faced sudden death, trailing the Dodgers three games to two in this best four out of seven game series.

Manager Walt Alton went along with Podres, the winner of the second game, confident that he would close it out and bring to the West Coast its first world's baseball championship.

"He tells me his back feels okay," Alton said, "so there isn't any reason why he shouldn't beat them again."

Tempers In 'Skin Camp Cool After Fist Fight

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Tempers cooled off today among the Washington Redskins after a one-hour scrimmage marked by a fist fight and another near brawl. Coach Mike Nixon's unusually tough contact work Wednesday erupted into a brief but vicious battle between halfback Jim Podoley and rookie defensive end Art Gob.

Another fight between rookie wingback Ben Scott and veteran offensive end Joe Walton was averted only when other players stepped between the two as they were winding up to throw punches. Nixon, whose Redskins are the only National Football League team holding actual practice scrimmages during the regular season, said he wasn't disturbed over the incidents.

Robson's Holds Bowling Lead

Robson Sporting Goods added to their total to hold the lead in the Sandspur Bowling League this week, as they won two games, making them a total of 12 wins, 6 losses. A tie exists for second slot, with both Pryor's Insurance team and the Pig N' Whistle having a 10-8 record.

SEC Action Heavy This Weekend

ATLANTA (UPI)—The nation's leading exponents of wait-for-the-breaks football—the fifth-ranked Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets and the sixth-ranked Tennessee Volunteers—match wits Saturday at Knoxville, Tenn., in a renewal of one of the southeast's leading classics.

This 10th meeting between Tech and Tennessee since 1946 rates as a tossup. In the other nine games, each team won four, lost four and tied one. In 1956, these teams met in Atlanta with matching 6-0 records and both were ranked even higher than now.

Navy Bowlers In 2-Way Tie

The Operations and Heavy Attack Wing Three "A" teams are tied for first place in the Sanford Naval Air Station Bowling League. Each team has a 6-2 record.

The Volunteers lack Tech's speed and depth. But Tennessee's defense blanketed powerful Auburn and held offensive-minded Mississippi State to one touchdown. Alertness has been the keynote in Tennessee's success. The volunteers intercepted four passes while ending Auburn's 24-game unbeaten streak.

TOUGHER JOB By Alan Mover

Sanford JV's Romp Over Cudas, 35-0.

By JERRY COVINGTON The Sanford Junior varsity struck pay dirt in every quarter here last night and completely overpowered a smaller New Smyrna ball club by a score of 35-0.

two of the scores and added three on beautiful pass plays. In the opening quarter the Seminoles won the toss and elected to receive. It wasn't long until the hard running of Bubba Davis and Bill Phagan had moved the ball within striking distance.

Seminole Look For Grid Upset

The hard charging Sanford Seminoles pack their suits of armor tomorrow and head for St. Augustine where they will be gunning for an upset victory over the favored Yellow Jackets from the ancient city. The Seminoles will be going against one of the traditionally strongest football machines in the state that continues to win year after year.

The fired up Seminoles defense denied the Barracudas anything at all throughout the evening and wasn't long until the locals had possession again. PeeWee Knight, Johnny Phillips, Ward Waters, and Don Harvey were the big guns in the forward wall and refused to give an inch.

The second Sanford score came in the late part of the second period. On second down and the ball resting on the mid-field stripe, little Tommy Hinson took the ball on a reverse and ripped off tackle for a 50 yard TD. Bubba Davis piled into the line to add the point and the Seminoles had taken a 14-0 lead as the half ended.

Southern Rated Tops

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mississippi Southern, Miami of Ohio, East Texas State and West Chester (Pa.) State—"little giants"—ranked 1-2-3-4 today in United Press International's small college football ratings.

Tech (Tex.), Western Illinois, Louisiana Tech and Butler (Ind.) completed the top 20 in that order. Buffalo (N.Y.) was fifth. Chattanooga, which tackles Alabama of the major college division Saturday, was sixth. Montana State College, Middle Tennessee State, Delaware and Xavier (Ohio) rounded out the top 10 in that order.

FSU Crawford Is Top Lineman

MIAMI (UPI)—A hair-breadth tackle that saved Miami's 7-6 victory over Florida State brought Hurricane linebacker Jim Crawford United Press International's Florida Athlete of the Week award today.

The guard and middle line backer with the fireplug build stopped FSU halfback Fred Pickard at the goal line on a two-point after touchdown try. Another six inches and FSU probably would have won the game 8-7.

Macmillan In British Vote Sweep

LONDON (UPI) A Conservative landslide swept Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative Party back into power today.

There were indications the Conservatives' campaign theme of peace and prosperity would net them a crushing majority of 100 to 130 seats in Parliament.

Midday returns from Thursday's general elections gave the Conservatives an absolute majority in the House of Commons, with results still pouring in.

The third in a series of defeats for the Labor Party cast the fate of the party and its leadership in doubt and bid fair to change the pattern of British politics.

With 606 of the 630 seats decided, the Conservatives had won 361, a gain of 21; Labor 250, a loss of 22, and the Liberals 5, a gain of 1.

The voters in Macmillan's own suburban constituency of Bromley re-elected him as their member of Parliament by a margin of 15,342 over his young Laborite opponent, John Murray. The margin was 2,000 greater than in the last general elections.

The Conservative victory had an immediate buoyant effect on the stock market, with industries freed from the fear of further nationalization by the Socialist Labor Party. Stock dealers in a sense were on the steps of the London Stock Exchange long before it opened in expectation of the boom.

MACMILLAN ACKNOWLEDGES CHEERS

Dockworkers Back On Piers Today

NEW YORK (UPI)—Longshoremen reported to work today from Maine to Texas, starting the flow of vital food and raw material cargo into eastern and southern ports for the first time in eight days.

The paralyzing dock strike was ended by a court order issued to protect the national health and safety.

In Washington, the Association of American Railroads lifted the embargo it imposed last Thursday on freight shipments to Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports idled by the strike.

All ports reported longshore gangs on hand but work was slowed in Philadelphia and southern New England by heavy rains.

In New Orleans, officials said it would take three weeks to clear waiting cargoes and return the port to normal operation.

First order of business was the unloading of 30 million dollars worth of perishable cargo, some of which was reported just short of the spoiling point.

The International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) ordered its men back to work to comply with a federal court order issued Thursday night under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

Federal Judge J. Lewis Kaufman acted on a government request for the injunction sought under orders from President Eisenhower who termed the strike as contrary to the health and safety of the nation.

Kaufman agreed. He issued a temporary restraining order for 10 days and will hold a hearing next Thursday on whether a permanent injunction should be issued for the remaining 70 days of the 80-day cooling off period called for in the Taft-Hartley law.

Landslide Win Could Mean Early Summit Meeting

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan probably will use his landslide election victory as an argument in favor of an early summit meeting with Russia, it was reported today.

Aides of the Prime minister predicted that one of the first acts of his rejuvenated regime will be to press the United States, France and West Germany for agreement to be held as early as next month.

If Macmillan has his way, a summit meeting this year dedicated largely to the issues of Berlin and disarmament would be only the first of a series of top-level efforts to solve East-West problems.

The United States, although it denied Macmillan's campaign claim that agreement on a summit conference had already been reached, was not believed to be averse to the idea of an early meeting.

In Washington, U. S. officials said an extensive exchange of views with London, Paris and Bonn would begin soon to review the Western position on Berlin and other critical issues to be discussed with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The British elections largely had held up such consultations but informed sources in London said Macmillan now would take a firmer voice not only in calling for early summit talks but in the talks themselves.

Police said the bus had stopped for a red light at 12:45 a. m. when the tanker crashed into it. Another college bus had just cleared the intersection.

Tornadoes, Snow, Freezes Cross Midwest

United Press International
The first touch of winter arrived in the Midwest today behind a mass of violent thunderstorms and damaging tornadoes.

Strong chilling winds out of the Dakotas spread snow and freezing temperatures in Minnesota, Wisconsin and upper Michigan. The mercury dropped to the 80s as far south as northern Arkansas.

Thunderstorms and locally heavy rains continued in front of the mass of frigid Canadian air from the lower Great Lakes and northern Appalachians southward through the central and south Atlantic coast states.

Tornadoes raked a three-county area of southeastern Wisconsin Thursday night, leveling some barns and homes and killing several farm animals.

Another tornado caused hundreds of thousands of dollars damage in the village of McHenry in northeast Illinois. No serious injuries were reported but about 25 homes were damaged.

In the south, tropical storm Irene, bringing heavy rain and gusts of 55 miles an hour, pounded Pensacola Thursday. Trees and wires were felled but there were no serious injuries or deaths.

Parts of the Dakotas dug out from a six-inch blanket of snow and ice that downed telephone lines and shut off service to several families in the Minot, S. D., area.

The Weather Bureau saw a moderating trend in the northern Rockies where the cold front first appeared two days ago. Great Falls, Mont., registered a reading of 46 degrees, 21 degrees higher than the day before.

Scattered snow flurries were forecast in the upper Great Lakes while widespread rain and thunderstorm activity were expected in a narrow warm air zone along the East Coast from New England to Florida.

Reds Ask UN For Rigidly Controlled Disarmament

Governor Still Gets Assessor Removal Protests
Supporters of Mrs. Mary Earle Walker, suspended tax assessor, still are sending protests against her removal to Gov. LeRoy Collins, but the governor's office indicated they are not having much effect.

Mrs. Walker said yesterday that 42 petitions containing 2,107 signatures had been sent to the governor by a group headed by LeRoy Strawder who circulated letters opposing Collins' action suspending the assessor.

The signatures were obtained in one week in all sections of the county, Strawder said.

William Durden, administrative assistant to the governor, acknowledged receipt of one petition and 45 personal letters asking that Mrs. Walker be left in office. He said there may be others he has not seen.

Durden said that the governor is replying to the writers explaining his action was taken "in the best interests of the county."

First Shot Is Key
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Dr. Jonas F. Salk, developer of the Salk polio vaccine, said Thursday any failure by the vaccine to provide protection can be blamed on "insufficient" strength of the first dose.

"The idea that there is 5, 10 or 15 per cent of the population who cannot respond to the vaccine is not so," Salk said.

The University of Pittsburgh scientist explained in a speech here that the first dose is "crucial" because it creates a barrier for subsequent inoculations. He said the strength of the first dose also affects the protection level that will be gained by a "booster shot."

Proposal Includes Inspection
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—The Soviet Union today proposed creation of an international control organ compelling all the world's countries to supervise Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's total disarmament program in three stages.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov told the United Nations Main Political Committee such a control organ should be given all facilities, including aerial observation and photography, "to carry out strict and effective control."

Kuznetsov said violators of the "general and complete disarmament" agreement should be halted before the UN Security Council and General Assembly for punishment.

However, he maintained the Soviet contention that disarmament "cannot and must not be dependent upon the solution of still outstanding international problems."

Kuznetsov was the first speaker as the 82-nation committee began debate on the proposal put before the General Assembly by Khrushchev on Sept. 18. He added little to Khrushchev's speech but spelled it out in details of three stages in which the Russians want it to be accomplished.

Kuznetsov said the Khrushchev plan had a seven-point overall aim:

1. Renunciation by all countries of any kind of armed force except minimum forces necessary for internal security.

2. Abolition of all land armies, navies, air forces, general staffs, war ministries and military training establishments.

3. Dismantling of all foreign military bases.

4. Destruction of all atomic and hydrogen bombs and prohibition of their further production with fissionable material to be used exclusively for peaceful economic and scientific purposes.

5. Elimination of all military missiles and scarping of all guns, tanks, shells, torpedoes, warships and military aircraft.

6. Destruction of stockpiles of means of chemical and bacteriological warfare.

7. The Khrushchev program, Kuznetsov said, would be carried out within a four-year period in three stages starting with reduction of Soviet, U. S. and Red Chinese armed forces to 1,700,000 men each and those of Britain and France to 650,000 each. The reductions would be agreed upon at a special session of the UN General Assembly or at a world disarmament conference.

Employment Boom For Sanford Area Set To Continue
The employment "boom" for Sanford and Seminole County is expected to continue for many months to come, Dan Hahn, manager of the Florida State Employment Service here reported today.

Hahn noted a 30 per cent drop in unemployment for September compared with the same period last year.

According to Hahn, last September there were 900 unemployment claims while this past month there were only 150.

Hahn pointed to the manufacturing industry as the greatest single factor for the increase in employment in Sanford and Seminole County.

He said that the garment industry here is expanding at a rapid rate making more jobs available and various electronics plants have informed the state agency that they will increase their labor output by more than 50 per cent in the months ahead.

One plant, Dearborn Laboratories, is expected to hire 60 additional persons from this area in the very near future, Hahn said.

Discussing the agricultural industry, Hahn said the outlook is bright also with a good citrus crop expected this fall and with the forthcoming bean harvest.

With the increase in building permits and valuations soaring over the $1 million mark for September there is every indication that construction work also will pick up in the near future, he added.

President Confers On Steel Strike
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower conferred with top cabinet advisers today on the deadlocked negotiations in the 87-day-old steel strike. The White House was silent on whether he would invoke the Taft-Hartley Act to send the strikers back to work.

The President heard reports from Secretary of Labor James F. Mitchell on the dim prospects for settlement of the strike by members of the United Steelworkers Union.

Three other cabinet members took part in the unscheduled conference this morning at the White House.

They were Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson, Atty. Gen. William F. Rogers and Commerce Secretary Frederick Mueller.

Afterwards, White House News Secretary James C. Hagerly, who also attended the meeting, was asked if a decision was made to seek a back to work injunction to halt the strike for 90 days.

"I have no comment at this time," Hagerly told newsmen.

The President attended the top level discussions with William F. Parsons, assistant to the President, and David Kendall, White House general counsel, and Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors.

Producer Testifies He Told Witnesses To Lie
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A television producer fired by the NBC network, testified today he advised 25 or 30 persons to lie to a New York grand jury investigating rigged TV quiz shows.

Howard E. Felsher, discharged a week ago by NBC as producer of the "Pie-Tac-Do" program, made the statement in testimony before a House investigating subcommittee. He had testified previously that at least three out of four contestants on the night-time version of that program had received question and answer information in advance.

Subcommittee counsel Robert W. Lishman asked Felsher about his contacts with contestants prior to the grand jury proceedings.

Felsher said he met with four or five individuals but telephone 22 or 23 of them.

The subcommittee waited, meanwhile, for an answer from Charles Van Doren, big money winner on the old "21" show, invited to appear as a witness.

Felsher said he told "Pie-Tac-Do" contestants that "if I were to testify before the grand jury I would deny that I had given them questions and answers in advance."

He also said, in response to a question, that he suggested that contestants also deny that they had received such assistance.

Asked whether Dan Enright of the Barry & Enright Production team advised him to make the suggestion, Felsher said no.

NBC fired Felsher as producer after he was subpoenaed by the subcommittee and refused last week to supply NBC with an affidavit that he had not supplied contestants with answers in advance.

Red Tide Study To Continue
ST. PETERSBURG (UPI)—The State Conservation Board planned to resume its aerial reconnaissance of the fish-killing red tide today and had high hopes it would find something good to report.

The current outbreak of the red tide was one week old Thursday it is the first once since 1957.

Cross-U. S. Tour Ends Up In Jail
APALACHICOLA (UPI)—Three Montana high school girls who picked up three young burglars for a cross-country romance in a stolen car solemnly advised other teen-agers today not to follow their example.

"I don't know what gets us into things," said 16-year-old Sherry McDowell in a jail-cell interview. "Somebody should use their heads. I feel sure I didn't."

The girls and the three convicts were arrested as they left a motel here Thursday in a gaudy pink car stolen at Snohomish, Wash. Police found two rifles, a shotgun, five attacks of dynamite and a set of burglar's tools in the car.

The men were to be arraigned today before the U. S. commissioner at Tallahassee. The girls were held here, without charges, to be returned to their parents at Helena, Mont. They left Helena a week ago and had been the objects of a nationwide search.

The men were George R. Jann, 28, Frank H. Spicer, 21, and Frank J. Fisher, 20. Jann and Spicer were cell mates in two California jails.

Claudia Fuller, 17, said she, Sherry and 11-year-old Sharon Balazs drove around the streets of Helena and picked up the three men when the men whistled at them.

Ebenezer Church Resumes Evening Service Sunday

The Ebenezer Methodist Church has reopened its Sunday evening services, the pastor, Rev. W. E. Timms, reported.

Sunday evening a vividly illustrated sermon will be presented by Mr. Timms and his wife, entitled, "The Boy Who Lived in a Packing Case." The props for the sermon, appealing to the "eye gate" as well as the "ear gate" will take up more than 14 feet of the platform. Part of this story comes from one of the Timms' experiences when they were visiting London several years ago.

This illustrated message is the first of a series which the pastor will give on the theme: "You'll reap whatsoever you sow."

Baptist Committee Guests At Oviedo

The WMU of the First Baptist Church of Oviedo were hostesses to the Executive Committee of the Seminole Association of Baptist Churches at the church.

Luncheon was planned under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Jones, social and circle chairman of the women's circles of the church. Representing the several circles were Mrs. Mae E. King and Mrs. W. F. Jackson of the Nettie Farnell circle; Mrs. Jones and Mrs. G. W. Allford of the Mary Lawton Circle; For the Kelle-Sue Circle Mrs. Gordon Penzance substituted for Mrs. Anthony Daniels and Mrs. Ray Beasley. Mrs. Roy Allford represented the Pearl Martin Circle. The president of the WMU, Mrs. W. H. Anderson, also assisted.

Methodist Youth Group Reactivated

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Ebenezer Methodist Church was recently reactivated. Mrs. V. Arnett and Mrs. E. Busch are the adult counselors, for the young people who will meet each Sunday at 6:30 p. m. Officers are William E. Johnson, president, and Janet Johnson, secretary. Young people in the Sunland Estates area are especially encouraged to attend the youth meetings at Ebenezer Church which is located nearby on the Old Orlando Highway.

Teen Age Group Names Officers

New officers have been elected for the Pilgrim Fellowship, an organization for teenagers of the Congregational Christian Church. They are Robert Bullard, president; Barbara Allford, vice president; and Barbara Middleton, secretary-treasurer. Teenagers who do not attend some other church are invited to attend the Pilgrim Fellowship meetings each Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Upsala Church Dinner Slated

A Fellowship dinner will be served at the Upsala Community Presbyterian Church Sunday following the morning service. All friends are invited to bring a covered dish.

The guest of honor will be Mrs. Josephine D. White, whose husband, the late Rev. Clarence White, served as the minister of the Upsala Church from 1949 through 1957.

Dr. Ensminger To Give Sermon

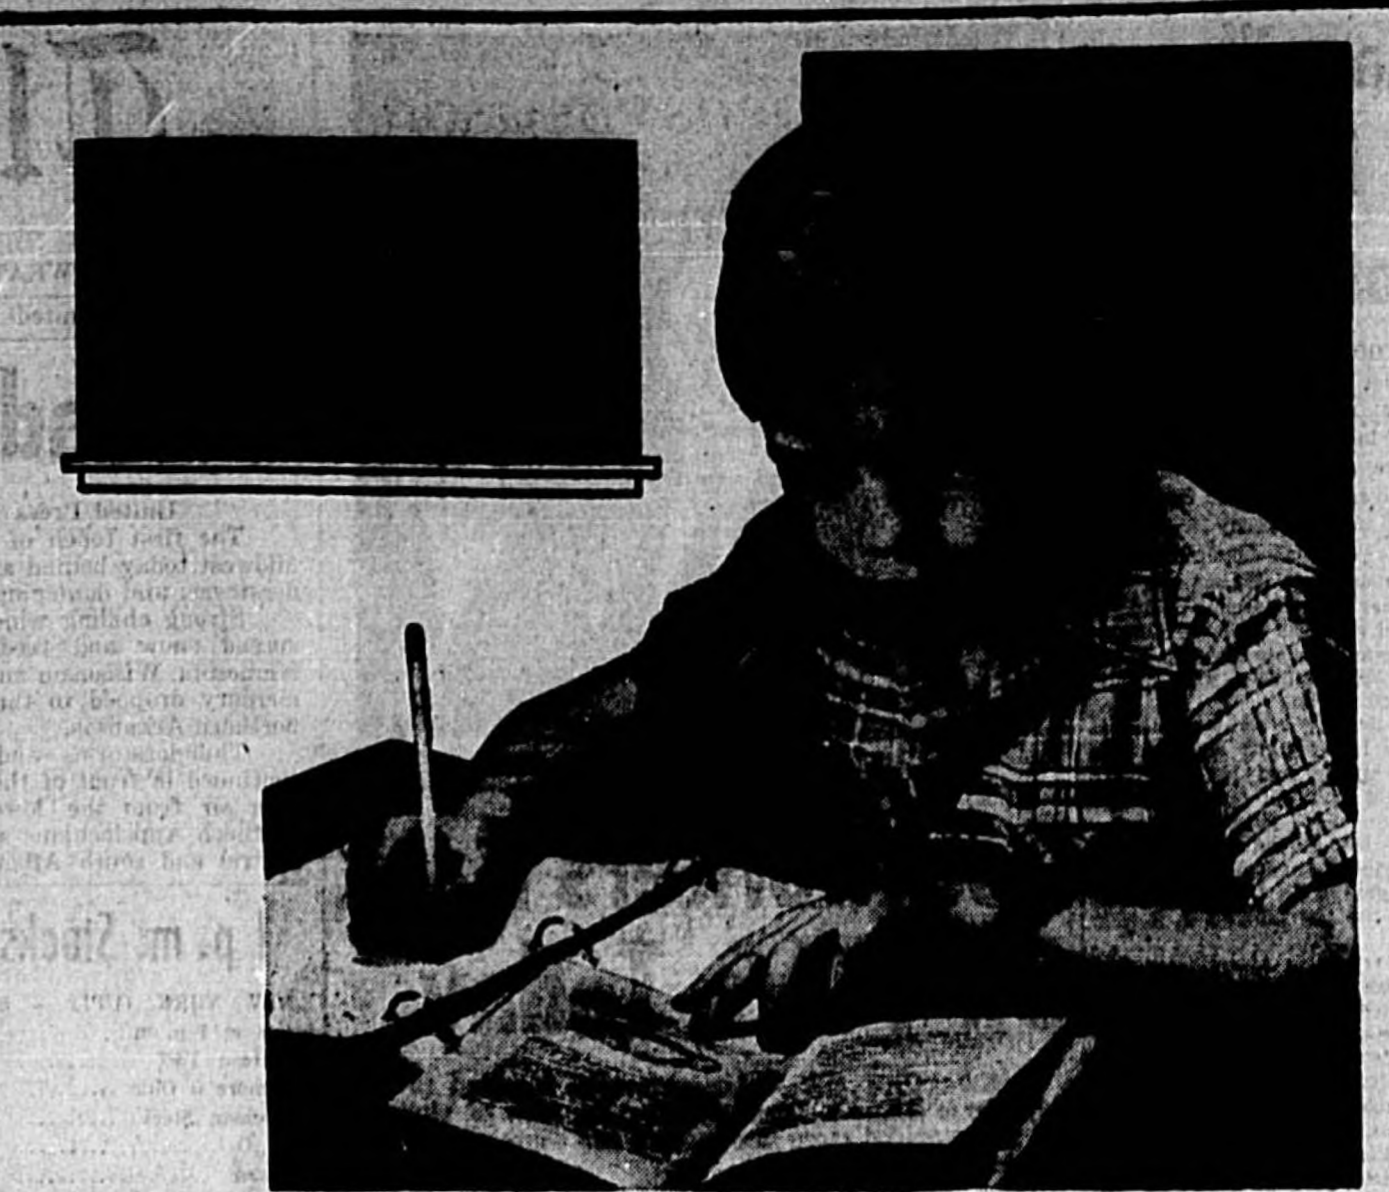

Dr. Fred Ensminger will deliver the morning sermon at the Congregational Church Sunday. The church is hearing prospective ministers, but Dr. Ensminger, who has served the church for several years as associate pastor, is carrying on the pastoral work. His subject this Sunday will be "Tuning Up."

McIntosh Speaker At First Baptist

Laymen's Day will be observed in Sanford's First Baptist Church Sunday, at both the 8:45 and 11 a. m. services.

Kenneth W. McIntosh will speak at both services on the subject, "The Man Who Waited Too Long."

The Civitan Club will be special guests at the 11 a. m. o'clock service. The public is invited to attend either service.

Fred spends about 1,000 hours each year in school. When he graduates from high school he will have sat in classrooms for 12,000 hours.

Plus homework Miss Harkins assigned nine pages of science today. Mr. Brent expects a book report tomorrow. And so it goes every school day—every year.

Don't let Fred's crowded school roster worry you. He is getting an education—the fine education every American child is entitled to. Let Fred's empty spiritual roster worry you. He is spending ZERO hours in Church School. He is getting NO religious education. And his tragedy is shared by MILLIONS of AMERICAN YOUTH.

A new kind of homework is needed. By friendly encouragement, by sincere interest, by the example of our own families in faithful church life—we must inspire the Freds and their parents to take advantage of the spiritual opportunities that America's churches offer.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Womans Club Opens Season Presents Program On Poland

The Sanford Womans' Club opened the fall season with a luncheon meeting Wednesday at the club house. Mrs. George Wells, president, presided at the business session and the Fine Arts department was in charge of the program.

Luncheon hostesses were Mrs. G. Harrison, Mrs. Blanche McHort, Mrs. J. E. Baker, Mrs. C. M. Wine and Mrs. Clyde Ramsey.

The club house was attractively decorated with arrangements of dahlias, ferns and a colorful pumpkin centerpiece graced the officers table.

Mrs. P. J. Westgate was guest speaker and narrator of picture slides showing scenes of the southern part of Poland. Mrs. Westgate spoke about her trip to Poland last year. She told of experiences on a ship with people who spoke Polish and considered English a foreign language.

"Mountain climbing is the favorite sport with the Polish people," said the speaker and she also told of living conditions there which are very inferior to our way of life. No one takes a vacation without a doctor's permission.

Livestock are housed under the same roof with the family. There is practically no transportation except horses and wagons, no advertising by radio, newspapers or billboards. People listen to Radio Free Europe whenever possible.

Mrs. Westgate closed with the remark that to really know what is meant by a rich and free America all you have to do is take a trip to some foreign country and observe living conditions there.

At the business session Mrs. Douglas Stenstrom was elected second vice president. Members voted to sponsor a scholarship for some high school graduate of 1939 to the college of her choice. The club will be in charge of a cancer survey to be conducted in the near future.

Delegates were elected to represent the club at the district meeting in Leesburg, Nov. 3. They were Mrs. Wells, Mrs. E. C. Harper, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mrs. George Quinn, Mrs. Jack Stenstrom and Mrs. Donald Flamm.

Altar flowers were Mrs. B. B. Crumley, Mrs. Harry Hooley, Mrs. Roy Tillis, Mrs. Sibyl Routh, Mrs. Al Hunt, and Mrs. Albert Hardesty. Mrs. Tillis was also appointed chairman of the committee for arrangements when the Seminole County Federation meets at the club Nov. 19.

SHOWN AT THE OFFICERS TABLE are Mrs. P. J. Westgate, guest speaker, Mrs. R. C. Wiley, fine arts department chairman and Mrs. George E. Wells, club president.

Plant Fall Annuals For Spring Flowers

BY CECIL A. TUCKER, II
County Agriculture Agent

Winter in Florida doesn't have to be a time of drabness, with flowers in bloom in the garden.

Many annual flowers that we prize most are cool-weather flowers. Their colorful blossoms come in winter and spring. These cool-weather annuals are usually tolerant of cold and unless the winter temperature goes extremely low, they will thrive here.

You can sow seeds of such annuals in boxes, pots, or outdoors. You use some sort of container. Make certain that drainage is good. You can sow the seeds in vermiculite, peat moss, sand, or mixtures of these.

When seeds are in place, water them, cover containers with a piece of glass or plastic, and place in a protected location away from direct sunlight. In a few days the seeds will germinate and more light will be needed to prevent leggy and poorly colored seedlings.

When the first pair of true leaves develop, it is time for transplanting. Set the tiny plants in pots or plant beds. Later, plant them outdoors in their permanent location.

Alyssum are useful for edging flower beds or borders. Sow seeds of this white or pink flower where they are to grow. Balls of Ireland produce green bell-shaped bracts which remain on the plant when mature. They are useful as fresh cut flowers and also for dried arrangements. Sow seeds of Baby's Breath where the plants are to flower. These white or rose colored flowers are ideal as fillers in arrangements. Calceolarias produce double and single bright orange or yellow flowers which are good for cut flowers. They are also long-lasting. Corn flower or bachelor's button comes in single or double flowers of blue, white, pink or dark red colors. Each plant produces many flowers useful for dainty arrangements.

The brilliant colored flowers of Dianthus (carnations) are fragrant and excellent for winter color. They are low growing, free flowering plants.

Gallardia is commonly called blanket flower, possibly because it covers sunny spaces with large, long-blooming showy flowers. Gallardia comes in both annual and perennial varieties. Both are good for cut flowers.

The Larkspur's double and single flowers are in colors of white, rose, blue, lavender and purple. Flowers grow on erect spikes during the early spring. Larkspurs are very useful for vase arrangements.

No garden would be complete without petunias. The colors range from white to deep velvety purple. Unfortunately, many people allow petunias to reseed themselves year after year and the result is a growth of sickly lavender-colored flowers. You can avoid this by sowing new seed each year. Besides the common petunia, you have a choice of fringed, frilled and double kinds.

Snapdragons are treated as annuals in Florida. The botanical name means "snout-flower." If you look closely at one of the flowers, it seems to have a funny face. This flower comes in a variety of colors and is ideal as a cut flower.

Sweet peas are one of our most important winter and spring blooming annuals. Their fragrance, delicacy of texture and design have won them high regard. Use trellises, wire or bushes as a support for the climbing types.

Verbenas are low, semi-trailing plants with clusters of showing flowers during late winter and early spring. They are used for massing in beds, edgings and ground cover.

If you have not bothered with annuals in the past, try a few this fall. You will appreciate their colorful blooms during the cool winter and spring season.

HAPPINESS THROUGH HEALTH BY DR. F. LEO KERWIN

Eyes Of The Future:

Many more small children today are wearing glasses than ever before. Often, when a child first begins at school, there is detected a slight deficiency; called nearsightedness, farsightedness, slight convergence, or by any of a multitude of names given to abnormal conditions of the eye.

The eyes are usually examined immediately and the child given correction lenses which are to accommodate for the eye deficiency. However, very seldom is the spine examined in the case of eye trouble; either in a child or an adult. As a general rule, children's eyes will respond better and more quickly than the adults' as that applies in most any disease.

The eyes are supplied by nerves just as every other part of the body. When nerves leading to the eyes are partially blocked there will be disease or a lack of ease in function in some part of the eye.

Often the eye muscles become weak, thus causing lack of near or far vision. Muscular weakness also causes the eyes to cross. The muscles are of course supplied with life by the nerves. A fall or a minor accident can displace one of the bones of the spine just enough to pinch nerves and block life's forces to the eyes.

Remember a physical examination is not complete unless the spine is examined. If your child is wearing glasses, consult a Chiropractor who will be fair in telling you if he can help the optometrist to affect a correction; by removing the spinal cause of the eye weakness; that the eyes of tomorrow may be strong.

Is your child a Chiropractic case?

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 E. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Diversification Key To State Economy

By GORDON J. TOLL
 Manager, Security Associates, Inc.

Over 2,000,000 new residents and thousands of new businesses have appeared in Florida since World War II. Their steadily mounting demand for electric power has resulted in a period of tremendous expansion for the state's electric utility companies. From 1940 to 1958 power production climbed 77 per cent in Florida and generating capacity went up 480 per cent, reported the Florida Growth Fund. All this power was needed to supply the increased per capita usage of a population which grew some 137 per cent during the same period. Between 1948 and 1958, Florida power output rose about 275 per cent compared to 183 per cent for the U.S.

According to Florida Growth Fund, the keynotes to Florida's expanding economy is increasing diversification. One of the major stabilizing elements often overlooked is the growing number of retired people with assured pensions who move to Florida to live.

While these people are not wealthy, as a rule, their income is independent of changing business conditions. Although figures are not available for the exact amount of private pensions paid to Floridians, the U. S. government expects to pay more than $250 million in social security benefits to 266,000 residents of this state during 1959. Florida ranks tenth nationally in payment of these benefits. All this assured income means steady demand for many consumer items in Florida whether business elsewhere is good or bad.

Some very big blocks of stock are being put on the market in special offerings. Sales of stock by large stockholders are going on at a relatively fast pace. During the week ended October 3, it was reported that the following secondary offerings of stocks were announced: United States Steel, 300,000 shares, worth about $80 million; Standard Oil (New Jersey), 810,000 shares, worth about $14.9 million; Standard Oil of Indiana, 182,100 shares, about $6.5 million; Republic Steel Corp., 84,000 shares, $4 million; American Airlines, 100,500 shares, $2.6 million; American Stores, 45,100 shares, $3.6 million; Dresser Industries, 63,000 shares, $2 million; American-Marietta, 25,000 shares, $1 million.

Many sources believe that big holders of stocks, usually individuals or estates, may be taking profits in stocks—paying the capital gains tax—and investing in tax-free bonds that now can be bought to yield 4 per cent or more. Stocks are meeting competition from bonds. Such sales usually indicate that large investors are switching into other stocks or into bonds.

Massachusetts Investors Growth Stock Fund, a mutual fund with August 31 assets of $299,686,822, added five new stocks to its portfolio in the June-August quarter: 19,400 shares of AMP, Inc., (over-the-counter); 14,000 Eastman Kodak; 18,000 Ligon Industries; 6,875 Moore Corp. (Toronto Exchange), and 3,900 shares of Owens-Corning Fiberglass. It eliminated its 30,000 shares of Ford Motor, Canada A stock (listed on the American Exchange) and its 35,000 Raytheon.

Domestic bottlers of Coca-Cola are currently spending more than $1 million a month in new plants and equipment, Lee Talley, president of Coca-Cola Co. reported. Talley said these bottlers have invested $153,696,000 in new facilities since 1947. It was further revealed by James A. Farley, chairman of the Coca-Cola Export Corp., that overseas new Coke plants are being added at the rate of three a month. Talley said "Coke sales this year will be at a record level, and this momentum will be carried on through 1960 and the years ahead." He forecasts a 100 per cent increase in Coke sales in the next 10 years.

Hermit Seeks Normal Life Again

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Six years ago, a disturbed and disillusioned young man returned from the Korean War not knowing which way to turn. He could have gone home to his family in Nebraska but decided against it. No one heard from Dennis Farrell for the next five years. And it wasn't until recently that the 23-year-old ex-GI finally agreed to re-enter the civilized world. Farrell was "The Hermit of Griffith Park," where he spent six years as a recluse, hiding in the hills of the 4,300-acre city-owned park on the northern edge of Los Angeles sleeping in caves, eating picnic leftovers. For the first five years, his identity was unknown. A number of people had seen the bearded figure in tattered clothing as he wandered about the park. But few paid much attention to him. His secret was uncovered when police picked him up for questioning as a possible prowler. As it turned out, he was not a prowler and actually had done nothing wrong so he was allowed to go back into the park. Again, he disappeared. A couple of months ago, the Hermit of Griffith Park decided to come out of hiding for good. He had a lot of time to think things out and had decided to seek help in re-entering the world he once knew.

Penal Committee Finds Honor Code Impressive

OCALA (UPI) — The legislative penal committee's tour of Florida penal institutions moved to Lowell Women's Prison Thursday where 19 former employees have charged the warden with misconduct. The committee was impressed Wednesday with the "honor system" at the minimum security prison at Avon Park. The tour will end today with a look at the main state prison at Raiford. It was just last month that former employees of Lowell charged Warden Harvey West with consorting with a woman employe, abusing prisoners, browbeating employes and withholding an inmate's funds. The charges came Sept. 15 at a hearing here before State Prisons Director H. G. Cochran Jr. He took the matter under advisement and said he will announce his decision later. Of the five committee members, only two were present for the tour at Avon Park Wednesday. But both Rep. Clarence Roberts of Union County and Sam Saunders of Clay County apparently liked what they saw—or what they didn't see.

Highway Program Gets Added Boost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government announced it would make $2,700,000,000 available to the states under federal highway programs this fiscal year. It also set maximum amounts it will pay to each state. The limits, imposed for the first time since the federal interstate highway program began in 1956, are intended to keep outlays from exceeding revenues. Each state may use its fund either for interstate system roads

Assignment Washington

By ED EOTEMBA
 WASHINGTON — Nikita Khrushchev's final formal appearance before U. S. newsmen left a bitter taste in my mouth. But it was partly my fault. I drank his mineral water. It happened quite naturally. Before the Soviet superman stepped into the National Press Club ballroom, his Geiger-counter-carrying valet stepped briskly up to the podium. He popped open a green imported bottle and poured a glassful of the contents and disappeared. Up until then, a lot of us had been intrigued by those widely circulated stories telling of Khrushchev's vodka binge. Aha, suspected I. In that bottle he's putting me over on our Sunday afternoon teetotaling press clubbers. For one hour I kept watching that green bottle and the filled glass, but with the world watching him via television, the tired, 12-day tourist left the refreshment untouched. To ally a certain curiosity, the minute the meeting broke up I stepped to the table and lifted the glass that was to have been Khrushchev's to my apprehensive lips—and got a mouthful of stale, warm carbonated water. It made me ill. There were other newsmen there who didn't feel so good, either. They didn't have any of the flat liquid. As it turned out, not only was the bite taken out of Khrushchev's water, it was removed from the questions which reporters had bottled up for days ready to pose on the Red. Less than five minutes before the big TV performance was to get underway, the announced Q and A procedure was suddenly reversed. Instead of presenting the queries "live" to Khrushchev, as originally agreed to, the Soviets said those questions would have to be in writing. And then to top it off, a last-

Supreme Court Studying Political Labor Pacts

BY LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — The legal test, now pending before the Supreme Court of political activities under union shop contracts throughout the United States was preceded by these events: The Congress in 1951 amended the Railway Labor Act specifically to permit the carriers and unions to make union shop contracts. Suit was brought to challenge this authority and came, finally, before the Supreme Court. This was known as the Hanson case. The court upheld the union shop contracts but included in its opinion a significant reservation. This reservation was as follows: "Judgment is reserved as to the validity or enforceability of a union or closed shop agreement if other conditions of union membership be imposed or if exaction of dues, initiation fees or assessments is used as a cover for enforcing ideological conformity or other actions in contravention of the first or the fifth amendments." Now before the Supreme Court on appeal from the Georgia Supreme Court is the Loper case. In this case several employes of the Southern Railway complained that unions to which they are compelled to belong to hold their jobs misuse union funds. The alleged misuse consists of spending dues money for purposes other than the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. More specifically, it is alleged that dues money obtained under compulsion of a union shop agreement would be used for political and legislative purposes by the complaining union members.

Georgia's Supreme Court found valid the complaint of the protesting union members. The complaint is its broadcast form was that to exact dues and other money from union members for such political and legislative purposes would be unlawful and a violation of the members' constitutionally guaranteed rights of freedom of association, thought, liberty and property. The Georgia court noted that the Supreme Court had not passed on this question. "We must render judgment now," the Georgia court said, "upon this precise question. We do not believe one can be constitutionally compelled to contribute money to support ideas, politics and candidates which he opposes. We believe his right to immunity from such exactions is superior to any claim the union can make upon him." The U. S. Supreme Court, if it desires, may decide this case at once without argument. If so, the decision could come any time, perhaps next Monday. More likely, the court will order argument. That would come sometime next winter. A decision in that event, still could be made months before the 1960 presidential election and in time to reduce the flow of political funds into union treasuries. The ultimate political effect would be considerable.

New School Site Asked Near Lake Howell Road

County School Supt. R. T. Milwe will contact Miami attorney Daniel Sepier to ask for 20-30 acres of land south of the Howell road on which to build a future school.

Walter Park realtor Malcolm Layton told the school board this morning that he thought Sepier, who owns 500 acres near the Orange-Seminole county line, would agree to give or sell land to the school board because a school nearby would increase his property's value.

English Estates, a new subdivision, is being developed by Clayton adjacent to Sepier's property.

Clayton asked if there were not some possibility of building a school closer to English Estates than an Alamonte Elementary school, since this building is already crowded.

The recently started Clayton development now has 14 homes under construction and the realtor expects to build 50-75 homes per year.

Personal Safety Rules Get School Board's Nod

"Rules for Personal Safety," to be distributed to Seminole County school children were approved by the county school board this morning.

The rules presented by County Director of Instruction Stewart Hatchel, West Side Elementary school principal Mrs. Elizabeth Aaron and Lake Monroe Elementary principal John Angel are aimed at warning children against molestation. This is a current problem in the nation, Supt. R. T. Milwe pointed out to the school board. The precepts warn pupils:

- Never take money, candy, or gifts from a stranger.
- Do not hitch-hike; do not accept rides from persons you do not know.
- Do not go inside another person's home without your parents' permission.
- Never go with strangers who ask you for directions.
- Don't play alone in alleys, woods, or parks.
- Keep away from deserted buildings.
- Do not agree to work for strangers without approval of your parents.
- Never wait around public restrooms in movies or other buildings. Always leave immediately.
- Don't let strangers touch you. Tell your parents immediately if any attempt is made.
- Use the buddy system - take along a pal or playmate - when you go to the playground, movies, park, or on a hike.
- Don't tarry on the way. When you start for school, home, or some other place, move swiftly. If you have to be late, telephone ahead.
- If you do on some occasion find yourself in a position where an improper act is suggested to you, please report that fact immediately to your parents, your school teacher, the police, or your minister. If you can, obtain the license number of the car in which the person is driving.
- Suggested by the Blue Grass Lodge No. Four, Fraternal Order of Police, Lexington, Ky., the rules are scheduled for distribution within a month. They were approved Wednesday by County proposals and will be printed free of charge for the schools by Sanford's Celery City Printing Co.

To be eligible for the exam, applicants must be United States citizens and Florida residents. If the applicant is under 21, his parents must have lived in Florida for at least one year.

The scholarships for teachers are as high as $400 per year. Nursing stipends range from $300-$500 per year, depending on whether the nursing program is a college type training or a professional program given through a school of nursing.

Zsa Zsa Leaves Off Marriage For Fun

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Zsa Zsa Gabor, Filmtown's premier authority on sex, marriage and Hungarian malaprops, is unwittingly contributing to Los Angeles' traffic safety campaign.

Local stations warn motorists: "Men of Los Angeles, drive carefully. You might be Zsa Zsa Gabor's next husband!"

But Zsa Zsa isn't looking for another mate. She's been single since divorcing George Sanders in 1954 and is not about to resume matrimony.

"I am married to my career, Sweetheart," she said. "My work is the most important thing in my life. I've been married since I was 15 years old, and now it is time for me."

La Gabor is single by choice. "I still get hundreds of proposals," the blonde beauty announced in the spaciousness of her Bel-Air manse. "I'd feel insecure if I didn't get at least one proposal a day. But a man is a full time job."

"It is easier to say 'no' to a proposal than 'yes'—you don't have to follow up so much."

Though Zsa Zsa isn't husband-hunting, she has both eyes open for the right guy—just in case. Herewith her qualifications for her fourth husband:

"He must be about 40 years old. And he must have been married before. If he is a bachelor, who wants him? He'd be much too careful for me."

"And my man would not half to be tall, dark and handsome—although I would prefer him that way. Men fall in love by what they see, a woman falls in love by her ears."

"My next husband would be intelligent and understanding, and also able to support himself because I couldn't respect him otherwise."

"It couldn't be a doctor. They have no time for their wives. But a lawyer, a producer or a director would be fine. Maybe in a writer would be best. No, I slink a missile scientist would be best."

"An actor, never!"

Zsa Zsa's career is soaring along so well she says she is among the top ten money-earning actresses, but she would give it all up for "Mr. Right."

"I doubt if it will happen," she sighed. "For some strange reason, I seem to frighten a lot of men."

Seminoles Meet St. Augustine On Road Tonight

Locals Shoot For 1st Win Over Jacket Team

By JERRY COVINGTON
 Coach Jim Papp and his Seminoles travel to St. Augustine tonight where they will face one of their toughest challenges.

The Seminoles are at full strength with the exception of starting halfback John Lovelace and they will be trying to even up their 1-3 record in the yet young season. In modern day football the two highly ranked high schools the Seminoles have never been able to score a victory over the Yellow Jackets. The Jackets have rolled over all of their opponents this season and have a 3-0 record.

The locals go into tonight's game with possibly a stronger defense than offense and if they continue to display their play-calling type of ball the Seminoles should be able to push over enough points to upset the Jackets on their home ground.

Big Nobby Bass, who serves as defensive captain, will be leading the way on defense with his usual hard hitting ability. Glenn Hodges and Rusty Sims will be with Bass in the middle of the Yellow Jackets should be held to a minimum here.

Tony Sulzberg and Mike Tanny will supply the beef on the ends to round out the big line. Bobby Barbour, Johnny Whitebel, John Moore, Jerry Dillard, and Alex McKibbin will be working mostly in the defensive backfield and all are able to stop many threats in the secondary.

The offensive line is solid for the contest with plenty of big men that are able to throw that key block. Big James Markham and Charlie Hogan supply a big portion of the power in the forward wall while Burk Wain, Billy Allford, and Tommy Butler have the ability to open quick holes up the middle for the fast Seminoles backs.

Butler has handled all of the offensive centering chores thus far in the season and has yet to make a bad play. Alex McKibbin, in addition to playing at the defensive linebacker position, has been moved to end and will pair with ball hawk Terry Christensen in the pass receiving department.

The offensive backfield is set with tall Mike Roberts handling the signal calling, passing, and punting from the quarterback spot. Ray Lundquist and converted Jim Gracey at the halfbacks, and hard running Lin Riser at fullback. Gracey was brought up to the halfback to replace John Lovelace who was injured in the Apopka tilt last week.

It's Baseball's Glory Road For Dodgers And Heartbreak Highway For Chisox Today

CHICAGO (UPI) — It was baseball's glory road for the Los Angeles Dodgers today, and heartbreak highway for the Chicago White Sox.

The Dodgers were the new champions of the baseball world, another Cinderella team.

Los Angeles closed it out in style Thursday, crushing the White Sox 3-3 back in their own park to bring the Far West its first championship in a series noted for new records—in money, attendance, hitting and pitching.

But there was one pitcher of one of the most unusual series of all time.

It drew a record total attendance of 490,794 — thanks to three record breaking crowds in Los Angeles; a record total of $2,630,972.44, any number of hitting marks and a series in which no pitcher went the distance.

But there was one pitcher who did the trick.

He was 24-year-old Larry Sherry, who began the season in the minors — at St. Paul — and came up to the Dodgers to become their biggest weapon. He won two games, including the biggest one Thursday, and saved two others. In another game, he was used as a pinch-hitter.

"You'd have to say he did the job for us," commented Dodger Manager Walter Alton in baseball's understatement of the year.

He sure did.

When Dodger starter, southpaw Johnny Podres faltered Thursday behind an 8-0 lead, Sherry, the cocky kid making good for his home town of Los Angeles, came in to save the day.

He turned back the White Sox on four hits in five and two-thirds innings of another brilliant relief effort, climaxing one of the best clutch hurling efforts in series history. He won the fourth game, and saved two others.

So his record was eight hits yielded and one run allowed in 12 2-3 innings of pitching. He was the difference.

But Alton in paying tribute to his Dodgers—and he was confident all the way that they would hit the jackpot—singled out others besides Sherry.

They included Duke Snider, with his ailing knee; Gil Hodges, with his big bat; Carl Furillo and Chuck Essagian with their pinch hitting; catcher Johnny Roseboro with his throwing which kept the go-go Sox from going very far and a number of others.

It was a series of stars for the Dodgers—plus one of the most riotous innings in series history.

That was the fourth Thursday. It took 42 minutes to play it and when it was all over the Dodgers had scored six runs—to add to two they had plated earlier on Snider's 11th series home run—and the White Sox had tallied three.

There were five pitchers in the inning, two pinch hitters and one pinch runner. It was the final chapter in the greatest comeback baseball ever had seen.

Seventh Last Year

For when they left Brooklyn for California's baseball gold dust in 1958, the Dodgers wound up a dismal seventh.

They stoned for it in 1959—and did it the hard way. They tied Milwaukee for the National League pennant, won it in a playoff series, and then downed the White Sox, four games to two, in the series. There had been a lot of rags-to-riches epics in baseball, but none ever rivaled this.

For the White Sox, it was frustration. They wanted so much to win and wipe out those 1919 memories. But as their manager Al Lopez said as he congratulated Alton in the dressing room: "You deserved to win. We gave it all we had—it wasn't enough." "You went down like champions," Alton replied.

Top Ranking Elevens Are Even Favorites

Passer Don Meredith leads Southern Methodist against unprejudicable Missouri in the feature game of a Friday night program that opens a tough-to-pick week of college football.

West Virginia, Wichita, Tulane, and Oregon are favorites in other Friday night battles, and then Saturday will see five of the nation's 10 top-ranked teams — Texas, Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Purdue and Wisconsin — fighting in games where they are rated no better than even money.

West Virginia, with a 2-1 mark, is favored over winless Boston University. Wichita, 2-0, is a narrow pick over George Washington, 1-3. Tulane is a very slight pick over Detroit, 2-1. And Oregon, rolling in high with a 3-0 mark, is a solid favorite over San Jose State, 1-2.

Texas, ranked No. 4 nationally in even money Saturday against Oklahoma. Fifth-ranked Georgia Tech and sixth-ranked Tennessee are a toss-up in what could be the Southeastern Conference's biggest game of the season.

Eighth-ranked Purdue and ninth-ranked Wisconsin risk their Big Ten title hopes in their opening league game with much depending on the fitness of Purdue ace Ross Fichtner.

The high-ranked teams figure to have an easier time. National leader Louisiana state is a 21-point pick to make Miami (Fla.) its 16th straight victim. Second-ranked Northwestern is a 14-point favorite over Minnesota. Third-ranked Southern California is a 13-point choice over Vanderbilt, and 10th-ranked Iowa is favored by 8 over Michigan State.

Princeton is a six-point Ivy League favorite over Pennsylvania. Ohio State is the choice by six over Illinois in the Big Ten. Auburn is picked by seven over Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference, and Wake Forest by one over Maryland.

In leading intersectionals, Rice and Florida are even, as are Pittsburgh and Duke, while Michigan is a six-point choice over Oregon State, and Notre Dame is favored by 14 over California.

In other top games, Navy and Syracuse are rated even, Army is a six-point pick over Penn State in a game that could decide top Eastern honors.

FSU Gets Ready For TV Contest
 TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A 38-man Florida State football squad left by plane this morning for Blacksburg, Va., for the Seminoles' first television appearance against Virginia Tech.

Weather put a damper on FSU practice Thursday for the second day in a row. Part of the time the Seminoles drilled indoors and the rest in the rain.

 GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI) — Don Campbell, wide receiver and top recommendation from Eddie Shore, has been fired as goalie for the Greensboro Generals of the Eastern Hockey League. Campbell, a native of Saskatchewan, played with Shore's Springfield club of the American Hockey League last season.

Gator Gridders Fly To Houston
 GAINESVILLE (UPI) — The University of Florida football team flies to Houston, Tex., today to seek its fourth straight victory of the season at the expense of Rice.

The Gators were scheduled to hold a brief afternoon drill in Houston in preparation for the Saturday game.

Florida closed out its home drills Thursday with a limbering up session and kicking exercise.

Miami, Florida Fresh In Action
 MIAMI (UPI) — Miami and Florida freshmen football teams were rated among the best in the schools' history—clash tonight in a charity game in the Orange Bowl.

The baby Gators will start an all-Floridian team in an effort to win their first game from Miami in four years. As usual, most of Miami's players are out-of-staters.

Play Canceled
 The Sanford Ladies Golf Tournament slated Sunday at the Mayfair Course has been canceled because of wet grounds, it was announced today.

Miami Gridders Hit By Virus Bug
 MIAMI (UPI) — It was revealed today that intestinal virus has struck 19 players of the University of Miami football team, which will play Louisiana State Saturday night at Baton Rouge.

"What a break," moaned Coach Andy Gustafson. "It's not enough that we're playing the number one team of the nation Saturday—but almost half of the squad has to get sick."

Gustafson had to call off a full scale practice Thursday. His team worked out in shorts.

Trainer Dave Wike declined to name all of the players affected, but said halfbacks Mike Harrison, Ron Fritsche, Jim Bruno and John Ellis, guard Joe Stanley, and tackle Vic Savoca had been sick. Savoca, a 225-pound sophomore starter, missed Thursday's drill.

"Except for Savoca none are very sick right now," Wike said, "but they're still weak and uncomfortable."

The Hurricanes will fly to Baton Rouge tonight.

picked us to lose to the Braves in the playoff. That didn't work, either, so they just made the White Sox series favorites. There's nothing left now. I guess everybody really will admit what we've felt all along: we had it."

Don Zimmer pushed through the club of newsmen and jumped atop a locker. He poured beer over Snider's head and toasted the Coliseum.

"A pitcher's a pitcher any place," Larry Sherry said. "If you've got the stuff you can get a man out in the Coliseum just like any place else. If you don't have it, it's no use to blame things on a screen."

"They called our ball park a cow pasture," Norm Larker shot back. "They said everything in L.A. was a base hit. Well, we showed 'em. The singles we hit in the Coliseum turned into homers here."

Charlie Neal listened in silence. He started to maneuver his way into the shower.

"We fought and we fought," he said. "All the time, we kept on pushing. We always came from behind and we always stuck together. This day had to come. It just was a matter of time."

"It was a team effort all the way," Manager Walter Alton said.

Hard To Explain, White Sox Report
 CHICAGO (UPI) — It's hard to explain a 9-3 rout such as hit the Chicago White Sox.

Manager Al Lopez said "it was just one of those bad days for us. We never had a chance and they were hitting the ball solid."

Early Wynn, 39-year-old veteran who has always been Lopez's choice for the "must" game, didn't bother to explain. He took the sole responsibility.

"I goofed it up good," Wynn said in the dressing room after the game.

"I was trying to baffle 'em and I was succeeding, but Snider got hold of a high outside pitch and gave it a ride," Wynn said.

Duke Snider's home run in the third inning was good for only two of the nine Los Angeles runs, but Wynn seemed to regard it as a portent of things to come.

"I was trying to help Sherm (Lollar) with a high one outside because Wally Moon was gonna try and steal," Wynn said.

Vice President Chuck Kinsley broke through a circle of newsmen to congratulate the big pitcher who won 22 games in the White Sox march to the pennant. Wynn smiled and said "I'm sorry. It was a bad job."

The White Sox dressing room was a somber place, but none believed Wynn was at fault, particularly Lopez.

"Wynn had all his stuff and he did a good job. It was just one of those days for us. As someone said, you can't win 'em all, but I would have liked to have won that one."

Kissimmee Boat-A-Cade To Be Held Oct. 19-24

KISSIMMEE — Some 750 boats and 2,000 sportsmen representing 35 or more states are expected to participate in the tenth annual Boat-A-Cade, which will be held in Kissimmee on October 19, 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24.

In conjunction with the Boat-A-Cade, the third annual Boat Show will be held Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, October 18-21. On display will be the latest boats, motors and other equipment submitted by manufacturers from all over the United States.

Since its organization in 1950, Kissimmee's Boat-A-Cade has grown to the point where it has been recognized as the largest planned cruise in the country by such publications as Reader's Digest, Sports Illustrated, Ft. Yachting, Outboard and numerous other national magazines.

W. B. (Dick) Makinson, local merchant, sportsman, president of Boat-A-Cade, Inc., and originator of the cruise, has announced that plans for the 1958 event have been completed.

On Sunday, Oct. 19, registration will take place at the Boat-A-Cade office at the Kissimmee lakefront. The Boat Show, which is free, will begin at noon and will be followed by a marathon race sponsored by the Tohopekaliga Yacht Club. To be held in the North part of Lake Tohopekaliga, the race will last for roughly four hours, with all classes of motorboats being invited to participate. Winners will receive attractive trophies.

On Monday, Oct. 20, boaters may still register and attend the Boat Show. From 8 to 9 p. m. the Rotary Club will throw a real Southern dinner—a Florida fish fry, including hush puppies and all the trimmings, all at $1.25 per plate.

Tuesday, Oct. 21, will be the last day for registration and the Boat Show. Then, at 3 p. m., the Orlando A. F. B. Water Ski Team will perform. Boaters will get a chance to see this performance by the only Military Ski Team in the United States—for free. From 5 to 8 p. m. the Kissimmee Jaycees will serve their famous barbecued steak with all the trimmings for $2.00 per plate.

At 8 p. m. Tuesday evening a musical-briefing will be held for all Boat-A-Cade. Water conditions, safety regulations and last-minute data of great importance will then be reviewed.

At 9 p. m. for the second year, about 3500 worth of fireworks will be displayed. Last year this show was very successful and should be even better this year.

The cruise will begin Wednesday, Oct. 22, at a time to be announced at Tuesday night's briefing. The first night's stop will be made at the E-C camp, some 100 miles from Kissimmee.

The second day's run will be 75 miles, leaving the Kissimmee River to cross Lake Okechobee (the second largest inland lake in the U. S.) and arrive at Clewiston, Fla., a delightful town situated in the heart of the Everglades. It is called the "Sweetest town in America" because the U. S. Sugar Corporation has a large factory and ranch there, both of which will be open to inspection. Boaters can also look over the hurricane gates and other flood control structures erected by the U. S. Engineers.

On Friday, Oct. 23rd, the Boat-A-Cade will swing back to Kissimmee, arriving Saturday.

Unbeaten Boxer Favored Tonight
 PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Unbeaten Von Clay, a lightweight contender who has been knocking out opponents at a .727 clip, goes for his sixth knock in a row tonight against Kid Sixto Rodriquez in a nationally-televised 10-round bout.

The 20-year-old Philadelphian, ranked sixth and with only a draw to mar his 11 bouts, ruled a heavy favorite to spoil the eastern debut of Rodriquez, California state champion subbing for virus-stricken Jess Bowdry.

No Guns Heard In TV Thriller

BY FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — A milestone in TV private eye history was reached Wednesday night when ABC-TV unloaded its new series, Hawaiian Eye.

The show went through a full hour without a gunshot. This and some fetching views of Hawaiian beaches and streets were the only distinguishing features of the show, however.

We're always being told about the leisurely way of life Hawaiians enjoy, but the extraordinary languor of this new show is definitely not an asset. In order to use up the allotted hour, viewers were detoured into a nightclub floor show and other stand-in-killing devices while the water-tight plot marked time.

The regular characters, all played without distinction, are Anthony Eisley as private-eye Tracy Steele; Bob Conrad as Tom Lopez, Tracy's partner; Connie Stevens as Cricket Blake, Steele's side who also works as a nightclub camera girl and singer; and Ponce Ponce as Kim, a jive-talking cab driver.

The plot, a conventional excursion into uncovering the cause of some dangerous accidents that continually befall a visiting English-woman, was introduced by Efrim Ziballist Jr., a star of ABC-TV's most successful private-eye series, T.S. Sledge. Efrim spoke to Steele by phone to tell him to keep an eye on the case. Maybe next week Ed "Kookie" Byrnes will call up Ponce Ponce to chat about the 1940 car models.

There was a point in the show where a woman exclaimed "temperamental artists." Steele told her, "careful—you're married to one." The woman replied, "writers don't count."

They still do where TV mysteries are concerned. Orzie and Harriet began season No. 8 in tedious fashion Wednesday night. The ABC-TV episode, filmed last summer, centered around a visit by an old sailor friend of Orzie's and David Nelson's desire to leave school and join the globe-circling sailor.

The sailor, played with good humor by the late Wayne Morris, was supplied with a hammock because the Nelsons know that all sailors use hammocks. And Ricky brought in a bird's egg because he knows all sailors have parrots on their shoulders. That's the level of the humor, folks. Not only does this heavy-handed production lack subtlety, humor, intelligence, originality, imagination and a sense of daring, it also displayed some curious unreal detached acting by Orzie, Ricky and David Nelson.

The Channel Swim: Ed Sullivan is inserting a filmed interview with Mario Lanza into this Sunday's CBS-TV hour. The interview was filmed in Rome last summer, where Lanza, 38, died Wednesday. Sir John Gulligan is the star performer on CBS-TV's Thursday night Big Party, for Dec. 17. Dody Goodman pays another visit to NBC-TV's Jack Paar show next Wednesday.

Bob Cummings, whose age is variously given as 40, 32 and 56, is writing a book about his special germ food diet, "How To Stay Young and Vital." The late Paul Douglas appears on NBC-TV's Goodyear Theater on Monday in a half-hour drama called, "The Incorrigibles."

Screen Gems, a major TV production outfit, is hoping to land Brigitte Bardot for a TV special that would be filmed in France. Another French success, The Broadway Revue, "La Plume de Madame Tante," is being offered around as a possible TV special. Glamour doll Ariane Dahl is set for panel duty on ABC-TV's World of Talent Sunday, Nov. 1.

VICTOR JORY, left, continues a long film career in "Manhunt," a new action series. He is shown here with Charles Bateman as they capture Gavin MacLeod in one of the series which will be shown on Channel 2 at 8 p. m. Monday. The setting is San Diego.

Jacques Hirschler, an 8-year-old New York schoolboy with no acting experience, has landed a key role opposite Jack Hawkins and Jessica Tandy in the DuPont Show of the Month presentation, "The Fallen Idol," set for Wednesday, Oct. 14 on CBS-TV. Director Silvio Narizzano, who selected the lad after interviewing three dozen applicants, says he was impressed by the child's looks and bearing.

Steve Allen announces that he'll resume his ad lib audience interviews starting with his NBC-TV show of Monday, Oct. 19 . . .

Marc Connelly, Nancy Marchand and Glenda Farrell join Claudette Colbert, Robert Preston and Charles Ruggles in the CBS-TV production of, "The Bells of St. Mary's" set for Tuesday, Oct. 27.

Worry Clinic

In the self-pity, Nell acted juvenile and berated the man who read the book for romance: She needs to read the Book of Job, in the Bible, and all of you youngsters who think you must be rewarded every time you do the right thing in life. Discuss this case in Sunday School tomorrow. By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C-48: Nell D., aged 20, is a coed who came to me in tears. "Dr. Crane," she began, "I am the victim of my own moral principles."

"For I was in love with a senior in college. We had planned to get married after he graduated. "But while I was home attending my father for a couple of weeks while he lay at death's door from a heart attack, one of my supposed girl friends dated my sweetheart."

"And she entered into illicit relations with him. After he found out that she was pregnant, he confessed the affair to me, and said he felt he owed it to her to marry her, which he did. "She didn't play the game of love according to the rules, did she, Dr. Crane? Yet she won my fiancé."

"And I, who played according to the proper code, lost. So what's the use of being moral and following the established rules?" Follow the Rules

So I explained to Nell that we are not supposed to be rewarded every time we follow the rules. Even in baseball, one team always loses, though it still obeys the baseball rule book:

In the Bible, too, the case of the prophet Job was cited to show that sometimes a person loses the big prize in life, even though he plays honestly and properly, as per the rule book.

Circus trainers reward a pet seal or dog after every correct performance. And that is also good policy in starting a child on the proper habits of piano or violin playing, washing his teeth or telling the truth.

But when we reach adulthood, we are supposed to realize that moral human beings should follow the rules just because that is the best long range policy, even though we meet temporary setbacks.

Jesus thus stated: "God make his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust." And Christ Himself followed the rules, even though he ended on a Cross:

So act like adults and quit indulging in self-pity, or juvenile cry-baby stuff by saying:

Right To Act In Quiz Fix Questioned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman Earl W. Kintner testified today that if the Federal Trade Commission tried to prevent rigging of TV quiz shows it would be imposing "complete censorship of all entertainment."

Kintner told House investigators the commission never has contended that its power to crack down on "deceptive advertising" extends to "deceptive entertainment."

He testified as a House subcommittee held its final day of hearings on charges that some TV quiz programs have been fixed.

Kintner said there was "serious question" whether the FTC has legal authority to assert such jurisdiction, but added that this is "a gray area in the law."

The subcommittee prepared to end its public inquiry without testimony from $129,000 winner Charles Van Doren.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) told newsmen the subcommittee still has received no word from Van Doren, star of the now defunct quiz show "21," who was invited last week to testify.

Van Doren, who now has a $30,000 a year contract with NBC, was relieved of all work assignments by the network last Thursday until questions raised by the inquiry are answered.

Kintner's testimony was similar to that given Saturday by Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission. Doerfer expressed doubt that the FCC has authority to prevent quiz show fixing.

Rep. Walter E. Rogers (D-Tex.) said testimony showed the FCC had failed in its responsibility to police the TV industry. He suggested that there also should be an investigation of the FCC for what he called "brushing the whole thing under the rug."

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.), another investigator, charged that evidence brought out at the hearings showed the "contempt" TV producers "have shown, time and again, for the public" even in program content.

A third member, Rep. William L. Springer (R-Ill.), predicted that Congress would be asked in January to consider some "new, strong legislation" to correct abuses such as those aired by the group.

GOING FOR THE GOAL of 100 per cent participation in the United Fund drive which VAH-3 is launching today at NAS are, Lt. (j.g.) Don Hartley, left, and drive chairman Ens. J. E. Maguire. Money collected from the 12 divisions in the squadron will be given to the Seminole County United Fund. Each squadron member is asked to give in accordance with his rank. The winning division will get a 72 hour pass and the second place division a 48 hour pass. The model of the AJ "Savage" will be given as a prize with its bomb bay full of money in one contest to raise funds for the United Fund.

Scientists Urge Balance Of Terror

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A group of scientists working on Democratic Party policies have decided that the United States has no alternative but to maintain "a balance of terror" with the Soviet Union.

However, the scientists believe just as strongly that America must take every precaution to prevent an accidental "push-button" war which might wipe out civilization.

The group sees a "serious danger" of war until all nations possessing nuclear weapons are included in the "balance of terror" or until international disarmament is achieved.

These are the views of a group working under the Democratic Science Advisory Committee, United Press International learned that their ideas have been offered as the basis of a Democratic Party platform statement.

The group is composed of Dr. Harrison Brown, Charles C. Lauritzen and Frank Goddard, all of the California Institute of Technology, and Trevor Gardner of the Hycon Manufacturing Co.

The subcommittee also concluded that the United Nations should have available at all times for immediate use any army of professional soldiers, fully equipped. It proposed that the United States announce its readiness to contribute forces to such a unit.

4 Downed Fliers Rescued By Boat

MIAMI (UPI) — A Coast Guard cutter rescued four downed fliers from a tiny sand and coral island near Cuba today and radioed that all four were in good condition.

The four men used a walkie-talkie radio and a rubber raft dropped to them by a Coast Guard airplane in their rescue. After coordinating plans with the Coast Guard over the radio, they paddled from the west side of the island in the raft to meet the cutter.

A search plane spotted the Tri-Plane on the island of Anguila Sunday. The pilot reported he could see all four men waving at him and they appeared uninjured.

The men were identified as Patrick J. Harbert, 36, the pilot; Bob Freedman, 23; William Hamilton, 23; and Gilbert Stephenson, 35. All are auto repairmen at a Miami auto dealers garage.

They were en route from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to Nassau, Bahamas, on a weekend fishing trip Saturday when their plane went down. An intensive air-sea search was launched Saturday night after the plane failed to arrive on time.

Pope Uses English For First Time

VATICAN CITY, (UPI) — Pope John XXIII delighted American visitors Sunday when he addressed them for the first time in English—and used the occasion to indicate Mother Elizabeth Anne Seton may become the first American-born person to be beatified.

The pontiff's use of English came during a visit to the North American College in Rome, now celebrating its centennial. Today he was receiving scores of American pilgrims and scheduled an audience with John Cardinal O'Hara, archbishop of Philadelphia.

The Sanford Lions' Club will celebrate its 31th anniversary Tuesday night with a banquet and program at the Civic Center. State senator Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach will speak on "Community Service." An entertainment program will be featured at the celebration which is also a "ladies' night" program. The meeting will kick off the Lions annual light bulb sale which will start Wednesday night. Proceeds from the bulb sales will be given to sight conservation efforts.

Herlong To Make Appearance Here

Herlong will be in Oviedo about 4 p. m. Tuesday. Wednesday, he will be in Altamonte Springs at 10:30 a. m. and in Longwood about 11:30 a. m.

Admiral Jackson Returns To Area

Former commander of Sanford Naval Air Station, Rear Admiral Robert Jackson (Ret.) has returned to this area and plans to build a home in Crystal Lake Heights in Lake Mary.

Admiral Jackson was also active in Seminole County civic affairs.

Widows To Serve

The Royal Arch Widows will serve a covered dish supper at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday preceding the Royal Arch Masons' meeting at 7:30 p. m. in the Masonic Lodge. Members of both groups are urged to attend the combination meeting.

County's Citrus To Hit Pre-Freeze Level

Seminole County Agent Cecil Tucker today forecast that the county's orange crop this year would climb back to its pre-freeze level and estimated the value at upward of $4 million.

In Tucker's first estimate of the new season, he predicted that the 1959-60 Seminole orange crop at approximately 2 million boxes. This would be almost a million more boxes than were produced last season.

Tucker estimated also that the grapefruit and tangerine crop would also be "good if we can get a dry spell for a period of a few weeks."

He added that the size of this year's fruit would be above normal.

The last good year for Seminole citrusmen was during the 1956-57 season when 3,087,000 boxes were produced valued at $4,018,000.

The next year cold hit the county and state and production was down.

During 1957-58 season, 1,675,000 boxes were produced valued at $3,522,000.

Tucker said that citrusmen may have one problem, however. He said that on many places, spotted crops were seen and in instances heavy fruiting didn't bloom at all.

Tucker stressed also that if the prolonged rainy spell continues, the citrus crop could be severely hurt.

Tucker added that the first estimate for the citrus crop over the state was set at $3 billion by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This would be seven million boxes more than were produced last season and more than most Florida citrusmen had predicted for this season.

The study, made by Sindlinger & Co., business analysts, was said to indicate that 13 per cent of the American people changed their opinions of the Russian leader. Khrushchev's biggest gains were among management.

Khrushchev did not fare so well with workers, laborers and housewives. He suffered a net loss of favor with the American farmer.

Special Board Opens Steel Strike Hearings

Hope For Settlement Without Injunction

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A presidential board of inquiry opens hearings today in a dramatic attempt to settle the nation's worst steel strike without use of a court injunction.

The three-man panel has agreed to limit testimony on the need for a back-to-work injunction so it can focus on economic issues in the 80-day-old economic crisis, informed sources said.

Fact-finding board chairman George W. Taylor was expected to announce the decision at the opening of the public session.

Both industry and union officials were called to testify.

Steelworkers attorneys had planned to lay the groundwork for a legal fight against a Taft-Hartley decree by arguing that the strikes does not now threaten the nation's welfare.

The striking Steelworkers' Union said its members would return to work under a Taft-Hartley injunction. But it hinted that the walkout would resume after any such court order expires.

David J. McDonald, union president, made the veiled threat of a renewed stoppage in a statement submitted at the opening of the hearings.

Industry officials have indicated they also oppose use of emergency provisions in the law to send 300,000 steel workers back to their jobs for a court-ordered, 80-day "cooling off" period.

Arguments on this point, however, may be ruled out by the decision of the blue-ribbon board to concentrate on narrowing the differences between the union and the industry.

Sources said the board also decided against advising President Eisenhower on whether the work stoppage would imperil the nation's health or safety if allowed to continue. Such a finding was made by the president Friday when he set Taft-Hartley machinery in motion by creating the board of inquiry.

Board members felt that this issue should be left up to the courts if the government seeks an injunction.

Taylor, an arbitrator with 30 years' experience, announced Sunday that the panel would do all it could to get a voluntary agreement to end the strike.

He predicted negotiators for the union and industry, who were deadlocked when they broke off talks last Tuesday, would be closer together when the hearings end.

An avowed critic of the Taft-Hartley injunction procedures, the 58-year-old chairman raised the possibility of calling special mediation sessions with both sides.

Khrushchev Rise Due To Mass Murder, Famine

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A congressional committee has aired testimony that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev rose to power through mass murder, starvation and torture and should not be trusted.

The testimony, charging Khrushchev with the direction of mass famines, shootings, deportations and suppression of religion, was given by nine witnesses, all but one natives of the Ukraine.

Jews Celebrate Day Of Atonement

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — The normal bustle and bustle of daily life was at a standstill today in Israel on this Day of Atonement, most holy day of the Jewish calendar.

The entire nation plunged into 24 hours of fasting and soul-searching at sundown Sunday with the chanting of the Kol Nidre. At sundown this afternoon normal activities resumed.

All communications with the outside world—radio, telegraph and aircraft—were severed and even should a revolution strike there would be no news of it.

On Yom Kippur almost the entire population spends the day in the synagogue. Traditionally, criminals also behave and police blotter stay clean all day.

Most secularist non-religious Jews also observe the holiday day, if only out of respect for parental tradition and from a feeling of national unity. A few were moving into the Arab areas, the only parts of Jerusalem where restaurants stay open.

The nation this year was giving special attention in prayer to Jews incarcerated behind the Iron Curtain, and particularly to seven Jews awaiting sentence in Damascus.

Young Mother

TURIN, Italy (UPI)—Fourteen-year-old Maria Grazia Marra gave birth to a seven pound boy Saturday in the Sautana Hospital. The mother, who married a 21-year-old laborer last year when she was 13, and child were reported well.

Columbus Colonizer, Not Discoverer, Russian Says

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet historian said Sunday that Christopher Columbus did not "discover" America because he had learned of its existence from a dying sailor who already had sailed to the Antilles and back.

A Moscow Radio home service broadcast identified the historian as a Professor Tsypenik, candidate of history and lecturer at Kazakh Pedagogical Institute. He said Columbus and Queen Isabella teamed up to hoodwink historians.

The professor said Columbus really was an exponent of colonization who made up the story of fabulous Oriental riches to make people believe he had discovered a short cut to Asia and to make Spanish colonization popular. He said, Columbus altered his diaries to fool the world.

"I recently found a secret letter addressed to Columbus by the Spanish royal couple Ferdinand and Isabella," Tsypenik said.

"The letter makes it clear that Columbus knew not only of the position of the Antilles, but also what could be found there and how the land could be used by the Spaniards."

Tsypenik's claims raised no eyebrows in Madrid where one of Spain's top Columbus scholars said "historians here have been saying the same thing ever since the 16th century."

Ciriaco Perez Bustamante, a member of the Royal Academy of History in Madrid, said many historians had published the idea that Columbus had lifted the secret of America from a dying sailor.

The story as told in various Spanish reference books is that Columbus befriended a man sometimes identified as Alonso Sanchez and that Sanchez gave him maps of the New World and told him of his visit as he lay dying.

They Spanish historian said this account cannot be proved and many of the historians who told this version were jealous of Columbus' glory and fame.
