

President Presents Budget To Congress; Stocks Rush Upward

Appropriations Totaling $3,830,445,231 For Fiscal Year Are Sought By President

Big Reduction Made Over Previous Year

Anticipated Surplus Amounts To Total Of $122,783,966.00

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(INS)—President Hoover's first budget, presented to Congress today, called for appropriations of $3,830,445,231 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, a reduction of $146,000,000 from the 1930 budget submitted by former President Coolidge.

The budget, however, contained no amount for the revolving fund for the foreign-territory board, which amount was placed in the 1930 budget for administrative purposes the sum should be deducted from the total budget, placing its total slightly lower.

Total expenditures for the year, including retirement of the public debt and other items not included in the budget, were estimated at $4,122,727,500, a loss of $21,069,100 from 1930, and a gain of $254,000,000 over actual expenditures for 1929.

Budgets were estimated at $4,122,727,500, a loss of $21,069,100 from 1930, and a gain of $254,000,000 over actual expenditures for 1929.

The budget would provide no additional surplus of $122,783,966 for 1931, as compared with the actual surplus of $184,789,035 for 1929.

The budget features of the budget include:

(1)—President of $12,000,000 for military defense, including confirmation of the endive and mineral carrier programs.

(2)—Appropriation of $3,000,000 for war and navy departments for procurement of airplanes under authorized program.

School Club Plans Entertainment For Football Players

At a meeting of the Seminole High School's High "Y" Club held last night in the high school building plans were discussed and formed concerning the annual football banquet of the club, it was learned, today, from Clifford Beasley, active member of the club.

It has been the custom of the High "Y" club, together with the girl's high "Y", for the past several years to honor the members of the football squad with a banquet.

Several members of the club expressed their opinion that they did not want the custom to be broken this year, and despite several setbacks they plan to entertain the gridiron heroes in good fashion.

Several members of the club expressed their opinion that they did not want the custom to be broken this year, and despite several setbacks they plan to entertain the gridiron heroes in good fashion.

The most important contribution of the High "Y" to its school is going to be the publication of a monthly paper called "The Gopher". This paper was introduced two years ago, with Dick Hansell as the first editor-in-chief. Jack Peters succeeded Mr. Hansell in this position and remained leader of the club, and several other members of the Senior Class of '26, Floyd Russell was summoned.

How many of these contributions can or will be carried out before next June is unknown, but Congress hurried itself to a hasty meeting to be completed as of course, conjectural.

But the speed with which Congress is proceeding to carry out his chief recommendation—that of reducing federal taxes to the tune of $160,000,000—signals well for the general program.

It was more like the annual report of the chairman of the board of directors of a large corporation than the "Gopher" of '26. This paper was introduced two years ago, with Dick Hansell as the first editor-in-chief. Jack Peters succeeded Mr. Hansell in this position and remained leader of the club, and several other members of the Senior Class of '26, Floyd Russell was summoned.

The members of this club are taken from the Junior and Senior classes. The officers are: president, Robert Yancey; vice president, Loston Edmonson; second vice president, Ben Coulking; treasurer, Olen Crenshaw.

Rockefeller Stops In Jacksonville Or Journey To Ormond

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 4.—(INS)—Steering southward in his private car to spend the next few months at "The Casements," his winter home at Ormond Beach, John D. Rockefeller and his party stopped in Jacksonville for a half hour today.

The king was seated in his compartment playing cards with other members of the party when he was interviewed. He laughed and talked at length, appearing in fine spirits and the best of health.

He withdrew four dimes and distributed them. When his supply was exhausted, he remarked: "There's that all you've broken the bank." A moment later he added: "But let me tell you, many banks would not fail if their friends and their confidence were there."

He said he would remain in Florida probably until April.

SHOPLIERS NOW WEAR BUT LITTLE

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 4.—There's always a few wrinkles of two in the gentle art of shoplifting, but a system uncovered here by police has department store detectives guessing as to how to spoil the game. Two women arrested when a small sumptuous clothing was found in their compartment, told of their operations. Their customary street costume were an overcoat, step-in hat and coat and shoes. Entering a shop was easy to pick up a dress and go to a dressing room to "try it on"—then walk out in it. Any one who happened to meet the suspects and would find they had no extra dresses.

FORGET HIE NAME

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 4.—"Dear sir: Will you please look up my birth record. I have lost my name and record was born in 1905 or 1906 and my name is Clarence George Cox or George Clarence Cox?" That is the letter that reached the secretary of vital statistics recently. But Kansas did not register births until 1911, so Cox may never learn his name and age.

Freak Football Plays By Will B. Johnstone

Dr. Joseph Rubenstein, No. 2383 East 17th Street, Brooklyn, writes as follows:

"Reading your frank play in The World reminds me of one I saw in a high-prep Thanksgiving Day game four or five years ago."

"Erasmus Hall was playing Poly Prep in annual Thanksgiving Day game. The championship of Brooklyn was at stake and the Manual League, emblematic of this, would go to the winner.

"The play was in the last quarter and neither side had scored. With two or three minutes to play, Poly worked the ball down to the Erasmus 20-yard line, where Erasmus put up a stone wall front. On the fourth down Poly went into a drop kick form.

mation, just who did the kicking I've forgotten. The Erasmus team lined up to break through and block the kick.

Their safety man, I think it was Miller Moore, the Captain of the team, stood about on the 30-yard line right between the goal posts. The Poly man got the drop kick away safely. It went straight for the crowd, but then started to drop short right over Moore's head. Moore, not knowing this, jumped up to bat it down, but he miscalculated and tipped the ball with his outstretched fingers. This tipping gave the ball enough impetus to go over the crossbar. The score was permitted to stand and Poly won, 3 to 0."

Ware, Of Leesburg, Is Named New Head Of State Chamber

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 4.—

The Florida State Chamber of Commerce, at its annual convention here today, voted endorsement of President Hoover's pro-petty program, voted re-affirmation of confidence in the future development of the state, urged repeal of the federal inheritance tax and adjourned harmoniously after a two-hour wrangle on the other over election of a state president.

George Ware, Leesburg banker and Florida member of the board of directors of the federal service bank at Atlanta finally was selected as the new president of the 1930 convention city will be held at a later date.

Mr. Ware, who did not attend the convention, was elected president on a two-hour wrangle on the other, whether or not executive officers of the large should be permitted to cast their ballots in the election of executive officers.

David Shultz, Daytona Beach, acting president, was apportioned an argument by Mr. Knigut. More than an hour elapsed, and then a presidency was tendered to J. C. Cooper, Jacksonville lawyer, who refused to accept it on the grounds that he did not have sufficient time to devote to the work. After a short recess, the meeting resumed and the election of Mr. Ware was unanimous.

Joe Gill, Miami, was elected vice-president; R. C. Grinstead, Jacksonville, treasurer.

Five vice-presidents were elected. They were William Wilson, Panama City; E. F. Finch, Lakeland; Dr. P. H. Terrell, Ocala; J. A. Griffin, Tampa, and A. Seaman Alfred Weng, West Palm Beach.

He withdrew four dimes and distributed them. When his supply was exhausted, he remarked: "There's that all you've broken the bank." A moment later he added: "But let me tell you, many banks would not fail if their friends and their confidence were there."
