We're told that we'll get out as soon as it's determined that those people who live there have the opportunity of living under conditions acceptable to themselves, or words and theory to that effect. Right? And this country is going to make certain that their rights are not denied. Right? Think again, baby!

According to no less an authority than retired South Vietnamese Gen. Duong Van Minh, who says, "U.S. involvement and repression by Thieu regime could prevent fair and honest October presidential election."

Now, if we honestly and sincerely aren't spilling our blood for the South Vietnamese people, then who is this mysterious power that wields such omnipotent power? It could'nt be the nil peo-

Cause it would give the enemy an advantage? What kind of an advantage? Surely we don't have to worry about the striking power and capabilities of the South Vietnamese . . . they've been making regular strikes into Cambodia and Laos all along. So, we're back to the same

Fall Leagues To Start

We're in the month of August and in two weeks many of the leagues will start to have their Familiarization Days . . . during which time the league secretary will be holding meetings trying to see which team is filled with bowlers, and trying to place those individual applications onto those teams which might be in need of a bowler or two.

So, if you've not gotten around to letting your secretary know the intentions of your team, or in the event you're one of those who'd like to join a league for the first time, then don't wait any longer.

Many of the leagues are pretty well defined at this point . . not only knowing how many teams to expect for the start of the Fall Leagues, but also in knowing who will be bowling Here's another example . . . The Wednesday morning
