

Sylvia Wallace Joins The Clan As A Novelist

NEW YORK (AP) — After more than 30 years as an invisible woman, Sylvia Wallace has come into focus.

Since 1941 she has been the wife of best-selling novelist Irving Wallace — the woman no one bothered to talk with at cocktail parties, so anxious were they to have a word with her famous husband.

Her two children are also writers. David, 28, collaborated with his father on "The People's Almanac" and has written other books on his own. Amy, 21, is co-authoring with her father "The Two," a biography of the famous Siamese twins, Chang and Eng.

But this year Sylvia Wallace has published a novel of her own, "The Fountains," and "Madness" people want to talk with her.

The book — the story of five women at a beauty spa called The Fountains — has had remarkable success for a first novel. Movie rights have been purchased, paperback and foreign editions are planned.

Sylvia Wallace is wondering now if maybe she couldn't have done it a little earlier.

When she met Irving Wallace, she was an editor at a publishing firm and a freelance writer. But after their marriage and the birth of their son, she felt compelled to give up her career.

"As a working mother, my guilt feelings were just unbearable," she recalled in an interview here. "I let myself be forced into a little box and was told, 'You must do the right thing.'"

She was unhappy as a full-time mother, and eventually she turned to helping her husband as researcher and editor for his books. Finally, with children grown, she began writing her own book two years ago.

"It just spilled out. It was astonishing," she said. "I might have been able to do it years ago if I'd felt capable."

But it's a risk to write a novel. You want to do it very well and I just wasn't free enough to invite the bumps and bruises a novelist gets," she said. "But things have been changing a lot in the last few years for women, and I've felt more free."

She wanted to write about women and the book centers on several — a writer torn between marriage and her career, a new divorcee, a career woman whose marriage has gone somewhat awry, and others.

"I needed a way to bring them all together, and so I settled on a beauty spa," she said.

She asked little help from her husband in the writing of the book, she said, "because I had been so unhappy and resentful about not having been permitted to develop as a person that I felt it would be a cop-out to then turn to a man for help. I felt the need to be validated and I had to do it myself."

She is already at work on a second novel, and she said to share — even with her publisher — the shape of the story.

Ms. Wallace, who prefers that designation, is 55 now — a small, tidy blond woman who is accustomed to meeting people for the sixth time who do not remember meeting her before.

But more and more people are realizing now that Sylvia Wallace might just be an interesting person to talk with.

Friends And Neighbors Salute The Bicentennial

How did you celebrate the nation's birthday? Your neighbors and friends from Winter Springs joined in the Bicentennial Celebration in a number of ways.

A large group of Hacienda Village residents got together and had an old-fashioned picnic at the recreation area. There were hot dogs and other goodies as well as pot luck dishes provided by the picnickers. Thanks for the enjoyable time go to Bonnie and Dolores Unger who did the "get ready" work for the picnic.

John and Barbara Newsome of the Terraces, spent part of the day at Grand taking part in that city's celebration and then went to Sanford to watch the fireworks display.

Robert and Pat Ewald of Tusawilla accompanied by his mother and their children spent the holiday in Jacksonville visiting with his brother and family.

Joe and Evelyn Nelson of Meadowlark, visited with relatives in Kissimmee on Independence Day. They returned in time to see the Sanford fireworks.

My family spent the day watching how the rest of the nation spent the day! We heard authentic Cajun music, listened to true Dixieland jazz, watched the parade of ships up the Hudson and finished the day by watching the spectacular display of fireworks around the statue of Liberty in New York.

John and Barbara Newsome of the Terraces, spent part of the day at Grand taking part in that city's celebration and then went to Sanford to watch the fireworks display.

Robert and Pat Ewald of Tusawilla accompanied by his mother and their children spent the holiday in Jacksonville visiting with his brother and family.

Joe and Evelyn Nelson of Meadowlark, visited with relatives in Kissimmee on Independence Day. They returned in time to see the Sanford fireworks.

My family spent the day watching how the rest of the nation spent the day! We heard authentic Cajun music, listened to true Dixieland jazz, watched the parade of ships up the Hudson and finished the day by watching the spectacular display of fireworks around the statue of Liberty in New York.

John and Barbara Newsome of the Terraces, spent part of the day at Grand taking part in that city's celebration and then went to Sanford to watch the fireworks display.

Robert and Pat Ewald of Tusawilla accompanied by his mother and their children spent the holiday in Jacksonville visiting with his brother and family.

Joe and Evelyn Nelson of Meadowlark, visited with relatives in Kissimmee on Independence Day. They returned in time to see the Sanford fireworks.

My family spent the day watching how the rest of the nation spent the day! We heard authentic Cajun music, listened to true Dixieland jazz, watched the parade of ships up the Hudson and finished the day by watching the spectacular display of fireworks around the statue of Liberty in New York.

John and Barbara Newsome of the Terraces, spent part of the day at Grand taking part in that city's celebration and then went to Sanford to watch the fireworks display.

Robert and Pat Ewald of Tusawilla accompanied by his mother and their children spent the holiday in Jacksonville visiting with his brother and family.

Joe and Evelyn Nelson of Meadowlark, visited with relatives in Kissimmee on Independence Day. They returned in time to see the Sanford fireworks.

My family spent the day watching how the rest of the nation spent the day! We heard authentic Cajun music, listened to true Dixieland jazz, watched the parade of ships up the Hudson and finished the day by watching the spectacular display of fireworks around the statue of Liberty in New York.

TWO HALLS FOR RENT

Suitable for Banquets, Weddings, Meetings

$150/night $100/night

60 x 40 2400 Sq. Ft. 30 x 40 1200 Sq. Ft.

- Kitchen available for your caterer
- Bar facilities
- Centrally located in Seminole County

For reservations contact Joe Badger, 862-2843, 831-9045

mary/esther's

Mid Summer Sale Continues

We still have a great selection of wonderful fashions, including: DRESSES, BLOUSES, PANTSUITS, SPORTS & SWIMWEAR

Long Summer Dresses Reduced 40%

Check Our Special $5 and $10 Rack

Crammed with colorful bargains

All Sales Final No Exchanges

mary/esther's

200 N. PARK DOWNTOWN SANFORD PHONE 322-2383

Stan and Phyllis Foster of the Terraces took in the celebration at Orvis and then went over to the Gulf Coast and did some fishing on Crystal River. They said it was a pleasant day except for the mosquito!

Waymon and Eleanor Snell of Meadowlark spent July 4 with their cousin Catherine Griffin who came from Fort Lauderdale for the day. The group went to Lake Buena Vista to browse through the shops but were turned away at the gate at Disney World.

Marge and Bob Williams from Tusawilla did the "tourist" act by journeying to Waymon and Eleanor Snell of Meadowlark spent July 4 with their cousin Catherine Griffin who came from Fort Lauderdale for the day. The group went to Lake Buena Vista to browse through the shops but were turned away at the gate at Disney World.

Marge and Bob Williams from Tusawilla did the "tourist" act by journeying to Waymon and Eleanor Snell of Meadowlark spent July 4 with their cousin Catherine Griffin who came from Fort Lauderdale for the day. The group went to Lake Buena Vista to browse through the shops but were turned away at the gate at Disney World.

Marge and Bob Williams from Tusawilla did the "tourist" act by journeying to

Tom and Barbara Landress of Old Town did what a lot of Americans did for the day. They had a picnic and cookout in their own backyard. They invited relatives and friends

Tom and Barbara Landress of Old Town did what a lot of Americans did for the day. They had a picnic and cookout in their own backyard. They invited relatives and friends

Tom and Barbara Landress of Old Town did what a lot of Americans did for the day. They had a picnic and cookout in their own backyard. They invited relatives and friends

Dissolutions Of Marriage

Wolfe, Everette and Carolyn B. Stewart, Joanne R. and David W. Solitro, Barbara A. and William R. McChery, Lorine Green and Jack Raymond, Garl, Richard D. and Sandra H. Smart, Andriano, Dominick V. and Irene Josephine Binkley, John T. and Ellen G. Wooten, Ted I and June Allen, Judith Ellen and Albert Raymond, Sipe, Myron K. and Christine M. Gallagher, Norval D. Jr. and Patricia A. Jones, Nellie Mae and Dennis W. Pagels, Dennis W. and Patricia L. Share, Jack W. Jr. and Judith R. Shumaker, Candace Jones and Steve Brinton, Duffy, Robert H. and Marcia A. Levitt, Melissa Marie and Michael Edward McAdam, Catherine E. Long and Lawrence A.

Going out of Business SALE!

Phil Deere is going out of business and must sell Complete Stock of Fine Home Furnishings & Accessories To The Bare Walls!

UP TO 75% Off

Here are just a few of the Hundreds of Bargains!

Sofa & Chairs REG. 299 $174 Sleeper Sofas REG. 499 $258 Recliners REG. 189 $98 Sleeper Sofas REG. 288 $188

Occasional Tables REG. 514 $54

8 Pc. Sloppy Joe Living Room Suite Heavy Pine Construction REG. '1039 $698

OUR ENTIRE STOCK Bedroom Sets 1/3 OFF Bedding UP TO 40% OFF

Bed Pillows

Reg. Size 1.19 Reg. 5.98 Queen Size 1.59 Reg. 9.95 King Size 2.19

ATTACK FAT ON TWO FRONTS

POUNDS and INCHES MELT AWAY with the BEFORE and AFTER MEALS

SLIM-TWINZ

REDUCING PLAN It works because it makes sense!

The only way to lose weight is to eat fewer calories than your body uses. Any doctor or dietitian will tell you that. And that's why the new SLIM-TWINZ Reducing Plan may work for you even though nothing else has before! The SLIM-TWINZ Plan includes not one BUT TWO TABLETS. You take one before meals to help curb your appetite. You take the second one after meals to help maintain nutritional control.

Helps Control Calorie Intake... and Fat Output!

You actually burn off more calories with diet than you take in! You control 80% of the calories intake and fat output! You attack fat on two fronts! Each tablet is individually strip packed and marked. Take them anywhere. Complete instructions included. "Slim-Twinz" diet plan developed. Dramatic results guaranteed in 15 days or money back.

• ALL ITEMS SUBJECT TO PRIOR SALE
• ALL SALES FINAL
• ALL MERCHANDISE SOLD AS IS

FINANCING AVAILABLE

phil deere FURNITURE, INC.

Sanford's Finest HWY. 46 (WEST 1st ST.) - 1 MILE EAST OF I-4 - SANFORD - PH. 323-0230

Sale Held Pursuant To Seminole County Permit For Going Out Of Business Sale No. 6-Granted July 12, 1976

OPEN THURS. & FRI. NIGHT TIL 9 P.M. SAT. TIL 6 P.M. SUN. 1 P.M.-5 P.M.

LAMPS

As Much As 70% OFF

Evening Herald

68th Year, No. 282—Friday, July 16, 1976 Sanford, Florida 32771—Price 10 Cents

Convention Ends In Jubilation

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter today returns to Georgia where his giant-killer campaign began and where he will map plans to capture the White House in the Nov. 2 election.

Carter and the other half of his Blue-Gray ticket, Sen. Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, closed out the 1976 Democratic National Convention with tandem acceptance speeches Thursday night that proclaimed "a new mood in America."

Before leaving New York, where delegates approved his nomination, stamped a platform drawn to his taste and endorsed his running mate with more harmony than Democrats have seen in a decade, Carter scheduled his first post-convention strategy session and meetings with Democratic National Committee leaders.

"Nineteen seventy-six will not be a year of politics as usual," Carter told the convention. "It is a year of concern, and of quiet and sober reassessment of our nation's character and purpose — a year when voters have already confounded the political experts."

"It can be a year of inspiration and hope. And I guarantee you it will be the year when we give the government of this country back to the people of this country."

Carter said there would be staff meetings following today's meeting between the two candidates.

Carter opened his speech with the line which mostly brought chuckles when he started using it 19 months ago, "My name is Jimmy Carter, and I'm running for president."

Poking fun at the Republican division in the nomination race between President Ford and Ronald Reagan, Carter predicted a victory with his relatively youthful Democratic ticket. "No matter which Republican party they decide to send against me," he said. "We are a new generation of leadership," Mondale said. "We are strong. We are experienced. And we're ready."

Carter is 51, Mondale, 48.

The 1976 Democratic National Convention ended with the Rev. Martin Luther King, father of the slain civil rights leader, declaring, "Surely the Lord sent Jimmy Carter to come on out and bring America back where she belongs."

After today's meetings here, the Carter caravan was to head for the family home at Plains, Ga.

As he introduced Mondale as his choice for running mate, Carter said, "The first duty that Sen. Mondale will have will be to help win the election in the fall."

Carter said Mondale and his staff would be asked "to put forward their own proposal about what areas of the nation he should visit most, what particular states he would find most compatible with his own campaigning, and to share responsibilities for major events."

Carter said there would be staff meetings following today's meeting between the two candidates. Presumably, the bulk of the planning will be done in

Carter Mapping Election Strategy

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter today returns to Georgia where his giant-killer campaign began and where he will map plans to capture the White House in the Nov. 2 election.

Carter and the other half of his Blue-Gray ticket, Sen. Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, closed out the 1976 Democratic National Convention with tandem acceptance speeches Thursday night that proclaimed "a new mood in America."

Before leaving New York, where delegates approved his nomination, stamped a platform drawn to his taste and endorsed his running mate with more harmony than Democrats have seen in a decade, Carter scheduled his first post-convention strategy session and meetings with Democratic National Committee leaders.

"Nineteen seventy-six will not be a year of politics as usual," Carter told the convention. "It is a year of concern, and of quiet and sober reassessment of our nation's character and purpose — a year when voters have already confounded the political experts."

"It can be a year of inspiration and hope. And I guarantee you it will be the year when we give the government of this country back to the people of this country."

Carter said there would be staff meetings following today's meeting between the two candidates.

Carter opened his speech with the line which mostly brought chuckles when he started using it 19 months ago, "My name is Jimmy Carter, and I'm running for president."

Poking fun at the Republican division in the nomination race between President Ford and Ronald Reagan, Carter predicted a victory with his relatively youthful Democratic ticket. "No matter which Republican party they decide to send against me," he said. "We are a new generation of leadership," Mondale said. "We are strong. We are experienced. And we're ready."

Carter is 51, Mondale, 48.

The 1976 Democratic National Convention ended with the Rev. Martin Luther King, father of the slain civil rights leader, declaring, "Surely the Lord sent Jimmy Carter to come on out and bring America back where she belongs."

After today's meetings here, the Carter caravan was to head for the family home at Plains, Ga.

As he introduced Mondale as his choice for running mate, Carter said, "The first duty that Sen. Mondale will have will be to help win the election in the fall."

Carter said Mondale and his staff would be asked "to put forward their own proposal about what areas of the nation he should visit most, what particular states he would find most compatible with his own campaigning, and to share responsibilities for major events."

Carter said there would be staff meetings following today's meeting between the two candidates. Presumably, the bulk of the planning will be done in

Near Brawl Ends SHA Workshop Session

By JACQUELINE DOWD Herald Staff Writer

A Sanford Housing Authority workshop session nearly ended in a fistfight Thursday night as Commissioner George Brown and Executive Director Thomas Wilson III squared off in a shouting match over the authority's operating budget.

The two men were restrained by tenants and housing authority employees in the audience.

Brown, a retiree in his 70s who lives in one of the housing authority's 480 units, was angered when he learned Wilson had submitted a budget proposal to the regional office of the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development

Blackburn Is Arrested On Marijuana Charge

One-time Central Florida gambling czar Harlan "The Colonel" Blackburn — free on appeal bond while his lawyer tries to convince the United States Supreme Court to hear his case — was arrested in Orlando Thursday night and charged with possession and delivery of more than 30 pounds of marijuana.

This morning, Blackburn was being held in the Orange County Jail on $50,000 bond.

Blackburn, 57, was arrested shortly after 1 a.m. in the parking lot of a South Orange Blossom Trail motel. Also arrested and charged with possession and delivery of marijuana were two women, Shirley Rouse, 41, of Goldenrod, now free on $15,000 bond, and Nola Anderson, 20, who was still in the Orange County Jail this morning on $15,000 bond.

Capt. Wayne Bird of the Orange County Sheriff's Department said the arrests "culminated a nine-week investigation." He estimated street value of the marijuana between $10,000 and $12,000.

Earlier this month, Blackburn was ordered to begin serving a six-month to 10-year state prison term in connection with a 1971 assassination attempt on his former associate, gambler Clyde Lee.

During the sentencing hearing, defense attorney Richard Rhodes said during the last five years Blackburn has "separated himself from the past" and urged the court to change the state prison sentence to probation and "judge him as he is now."

Since being paroled after serving 3 1/2 years of a 22-year federal prison sentence on gambling and income tax evasion convictions, Blackburn has been employed by ABC Nurseries and has operated a produce sales stand in south Seminole near his home.

Blackburn, who has never admitted guilt in the Lee assassination attempt, was convicted in January 1974 of aiding and abetting a man already acquitted in the June 1971 shooting of Lee in a telephone booth on SR-434 at 14 west of Leeward.

Blackburn was charged with hiring Sam Cagnina of Tampa — later acquitted of the shooting — to kill Lee, who was wounded but survived and now works as a county jailer in Georgia.

Spaziano Gets Death

Joseph "Crazy Joe" Spaziano, one-time member of the Outlaws motorcycle gang, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair.

Circuit Court Judge Robert D. McGregor overruled the jury's recommendation of mercy in Spaziano's January conviction of the 1973 sex-mutilation slaying of Laura Lynn Harbert, a teenaged, Orlando hospital clerk.

McGregor said he felt he erred in not permitting the jury to hear testimony about the packed courtroom, smiled and patted the death head tattoo on his right arm.

Several motorcycle gang members were in the audience, along with at least 20 sheriff's deputies in plain clothes. More deputies were stationed outside the courtroom.

Prosecutor Claude Van Hook said if the jury in the Harbert case had known of the "brutal" Orange County rape, they would have "pulled the switch."

When the death sentence was announced, Spaziano turned to the packed courtroom, smiled and patted the death head tattoo on his right arm.

The last man to be sentenced to death in Seminole was Dennis Bernovitch of Sanford, who was convicted of rape in August 1971.

County Commission Slashes Sheriff's Budget By $115,000

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk submitted a $3 million budget to the county commission Thursday, then watched while more than $115,000 was slashed from the request — including funds to establish a new patrol zone in the north end of the county.

Commissioners Mike Hattaway, John Kimbrough and Richard Williams went over Polk's $3,058,475 proposal at a workshop session which also included Pat Gilson, head of the county finance office (the Office of Management Analysis and Evaluation).

Polk, who had conducted extensive preliminary budget reviews with Gilson's staff, was agreeable to the $115,329 in reductions the commissioners made on their first examination of the budget.

Another workshop session was planned for Monday but has been cancelled, according to Dot Wade, supervisor of the commissioners' office at the county courthouse.

Polk's proposed 1976-77 budget — up 21 percent over last year's appropriations — included a request for four new deputies to create a tenth patrol zone in Seminole County. By postponing the move, commissioners trimmed $37,225 from the budget and cleared the way for one new deputy to handle community service duties and another new officer to deal with increases in vice crime.

The sheriff also asked for a 42 percent hike in operational appropriations to cover the five divisions in his department. In addition, the budget called for a 100 percent increase in funds for investigations and an 80 percent boost in the insurance and bond account.

Kimbrough said he felt Polk's budget was "not out of line."

"There are a number of minor areas which can be approached with less capital outlay than he's requested," Kimbrough said. "But overall I think it's a good budget."

Williams said he wanted to make sure the sheriff's requests were absolutely necessary to meet a list of departmental goals and objectives set forth in the report.

"I would also like a comprehensive review of the activity level," Williams said, "of efficiency and the jobs that are being done. It would be sort of an efficiency review, hoping that there are some things we could eliminate without reducing the quality of service."

Inside Sunday

A Honey Of A Deal

Ever been stung by a honey of a deal? Seminole beekeepers have — but they keep plugging away at one of the industry's least visible industries. There's more than meets the eye — and it's in this week's Seminole Magazine.

INDEX

Around the Clock	4-A	Dear Abby	1-B
Bridge	6-B	Horoscope	6-B
Calendar	3-A	Hospital	5-A
Church	3-B	Obituaries	5-A
Comics	6-B	Sports	6-7-A
Crossword	6-B	Television	5-A
Editorial	6-A	Women	1-B

WEATHER

Thursday's high 97, today's low 78.
Hot and mostly sunny today and Saturday. Chance of an afternoon or early evening thundershower. Highs mainly in the mid 90s and lows tonight in the 70s. Variable mostly westerly winds 10 m.p.h. or less. Rain probability is 20 per cent.
Details and tides on Page 5-A.

Budget Needs Cutting

By KRIS NASH Herald Staff Writer

Preliminary 1976-77 budget requests amounting to $21.5 million have been submitted to the Seminole County Commission, roughly the same initial total that was asked for last year. But commissioners will have to do more trimming this time to keep the tax rate at its present level.

Pat Gilson, director of the county finance office (the Office of Management Analysis and Efficiency), delivered the report Thursday at a commission workshop session.

The preliminary budget includes a deficit of $4,773,504 which will have to be effectively slashed during upcoming hearings to prevent a hike in the county's certified millage level of 5.37 — or $5.37 per $100 of property evaluation.

This tax rate will bring in countywide revenues of $4,773,504.

Presenting A CHECK

Junior police cadets (front, from left) Billie Harper, Carol Freeman and Kim Williams tried out new mini-bikes while Sanford Optimist Club President Dale Coppock presented a check to cover insurance for the bikes to Iona Ilkavik, juvenile officer for the Lake Mary Police Department. Cadets (back, from left) David Hobby and Robert Haglan look on.

NATION IN BRIEF

Empty School Bus Found; 26 Children Feared Kidnaped

CHOWCHILLA, Calif. (AP) — Twenty-six children and the driver of their school bus who vanished on their way home from a swimming outing apparently are the victims of a mass kidnaping, the Madera County sheriff said today.

Deputies and police searched the San Joaquin Valley farmland through a windy, rainy night split by lightning and thunder for some clue to the whereabouts of the children, who ranged in age from 5 to 15.

It appears to be an abduction, Sheriff Ed Bates told reporters. "We are waiting to be contacted."

Alcoa Payments Disclosed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Aluminum Company of America paid at least $25,000 to Jamaican political parties and officials in 1971 and 1972 after U.S. Ambassador Vincent Delouet suggested the firm contribute to a shadowy educational fund, U.S. officials say.

Ford To Meet With Indians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has invited about 200 American Indian leaders to meet with President Ford, but some tribal leaders fear Ford may be trying to drum up campaign publicity.

Anti-Union Plot Claimed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A union official, charging that grand jury indictments against seven Washington Post pressmen were fabricated by the Post and U.S. Atty. Earl Silbert, says Silbert turned "a labor dispute into a criminal matter."

Lawyer Barred From Practice

WASHINGTON (AP) — The D.C. Court of Appeals has barred a former Gulf Oil Corp. vice president from practicing law for a year because of his admitted role in channeling $100,000 in illegal corporate campaign contributions to Richard Nixon's 1972 re-election campaign.

Ford Wood Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford used a state dinner at the White House to woo Southern delegates, and a top political adviser predicted the South may soon put Ford "over the top" in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Goebel Qualifies For Office

Terry Goebel, Seminole County property appraiser, stated today that he has qualified and is seeking re-election to another term.

Ford Wood Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford used a state dinner at the White House to woo Southern delegates, and a top political adviser predicted the South may soon put Ford "over the top" in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

College Student Tells Of Journey With SLA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 20-year-old college student related friendly recollections of a night on the run with the Symbionese Liberation Army, during the third day of testimony in the trial of William and Emily Harris.

Harris, acting as his own attorney, dangled a pair of broken handcuffs in front of witness Tom Matthews and asked, "Tom, do you remember these?"

Court Rejects Howe Request

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Utah Supreme Court has rejected a request from Rep. Allan T. Howe for dismissal of the misdemeanor charge Uno against him for trying to solicit sex.

Goebel Qualifies For Office

Terry Goebel, Seminole County property appraiser, stated today that he has qualified and is seeking re-election to another term.

Ford Wood Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford used a state dinner at the White House to woo Southern delegates, and a top political adviser predicted the South may soon put Ford "over the top" in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Goebel Qualifies For Office

Terry Goebel, Seminole County property appraiser, stated today that he has qualified and is seeking re-election to another term.

Ford Wood Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford used a state dinner at the White House to woo Southern delegates, and a top political adviser predicted the South may soon put Ford "over the top" in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Goebel Qualifies For Office

Terry Goebel, Seminole County property appraiser, stated today that he has qualified and is seeking re-election to another term.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Dolphin Autopsies Begin As Survivors Get Treatment

CASEY KEY (AP) — Specialists in two parts Florida are working desperately with long-nosed dolphins. One team trying to find out why 22 died, the other trying to save two survivors.

Rooster, Plant Cells Merged

BACON RATON (AP) — After three years of experiments and tests, a biologist says he has fused a tobacco plant cell and a rooster's red blood cell into what may be the first single-cell "plant-animal."

Christian's Battle Over?

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Former Education Commissioner Floyd Christian says he hopes his legal battle to keep a $25,000-a-year pension is over since an appeals court has ruled in his favor.

Chiropractor Loses License

ORLANDO (AP) — A chiropractor accused of treating a terminally ill cancer patient with astrology, a magnet and an unlicensed machine called a "biometer" has had his license revoked by state officials.

Piranha Sold By Mistake

TAMPA (AP) — Swimming around in some home fish tanks today are outlawed man-eating piranhas—mistakenly sold as docile little red pacus to four Tampa Bay area pet shops.

Tanzler Discloses Finances

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — Mayor Hans G. Tanzler Jr., facing charges of perjury and failure to report political contributions, has filed his 1975 financial disclosure statement.

Campaign Plan Opposed

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew's plan to campaign for Supreme Court Justice Joseph Hatchett is "unfair, undemocratic and unethical," an opponent says.

Tobacco Prices Remain High

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tobacco prices are expected to continue climbing at Florida-Georgia flue-cure tobacco markets as better-quality leaf reaches the market.

Goebel Qualifies For Office

Terry Goebel, Seminole County property appraiser, stated today that he has qualified and is seeking re-election to another term.

'He Misled Supreme Court In 1974'

Court Asked To Reconsider McCain Case

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Former Justice David McCain misled the Florida Supreme Court on a 1974 decision, say the leaders of last year's House impeachment investigation of McCain.

At a marine attraction near Orlando, two young "spinner" dolphins named Lester and Karen were being supported in isolation-tank stretchers to ease their breathing. Veterinarians kept watch on their condition.

Victims' Identities Sought

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) — Investigators are trying to positively identify the bullet-riddled bodies of two men found on an isolated road near here in what may have been a revenge killing, police say.

Christian's Battle Over?

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Former Education Commissioner Floyd Christian says he hopes his legal battle to keep a $25,000-a-year pension is over since an appeals court has ruled in his favor.

Chiropractor Loses License

ORLANDO (AP) — A chiropractor accused of treating a terminally ill cancer patient with astrology, a magnet and an unlicensed machine called a "biometer" has had his license revoked by state officials.

Piranha Sold By Mistake

TAMPA (AP) — Swimming around in some home fish tanks today are outlawed man-eating piranhas—mistakenly sold as docile little red pacus to four Tampa Bay area pet shops.

Tanzler Discloses Finances

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — Mayor Hans G. Tanzler Jr., facing charges of perjury and failure to report political contributions, has filed his 1975 financial disclosure statement.

Campaign Plan Opposed

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew's plan to campaign for Supreme Court Justice Joseph Hatchett is "unfair, undemocratic and unethical," an opponent says.

Tobacco Prices Remain High

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tobacco prices are expected to continue climbing at Florida-Georgia flue-cure tobacco markets as better-quality leaf reaches the market.

Ervin Olsen said McCain wrote a memo mistating procedural questions which led the 3rd District Court of Appeal to dismiss an appeal of the jury decision.

McCain wrote a court memo which omitted all reference to the demand for the $25,000 "kickback," Olsen said.

McCain, now practicing law in Miami, faces charges by the Florida Bar which could lead to his disbarment.

McCain took over the case from now-retired Justice Richard Ervin. Olsen said McCain wrote a memo mistating procedural questions which led the 3rd District Court of Appeal to dismiss an appeal of the jury decision.

McCain wrote a court memo which omitted all reference to the demand for the $25,000 "kickback," Olsen said.

McCain, now practicing law in Miami, faces charges by the Florida Bar which could lead to his disbarment.

McCain took over the case from now-retired Justice Richard Ervin. Olsen said McCain wrote a memo mistating procedural questions which led the 3rd District Court of Appeal to dismiss an appeal of the jury decision.

McCain wrote a court memo which omitted all reference to the demand for the $25,000 "kickback," Olsen said.

McCain, now practicing law in Miami, faces charges by the Florida Bar which could lead to his disbarment.

Fred M. Hitt Announces Candidacy

Fred M. Hitt, Altamonte Springs Attorney, has announced his candidacy for Seminole County Judge, Group 3.

The new judgeship is created by the 1976 Legislature in anticipation of a greatly increased County court caseload resulting from the phasing out of the municipal courts at the end of 1976.

Hitt, 39, is a 28-year resident of Florida and a practicing attorney in Central Florida for the past nine years.

Hitt is also a member of the Orange County Bar and both the Florida Bar and the Seminole County Bar Association.

Hitt is Committee Chairman of the Political Awareness Committee for the Altamonte-Casselberry Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Sanlando United Methodist Church and the Woodland Civic Association.

Hitt is also a member of the Orange County Bar and both the Florida Bar and the Seminole County Bar Association.

Hitt is Committee Chairman of the Political Awareness Committee for the Altamonte-Casselberry Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Sanlando United Methodist Church and the Woodland Civic Association.

Hitt is also a member of the Orange County Bar and both the Florida Bar and the Seminole County Bar Association.

Hitt is Committee Chairman of the Political Awareness Committee for the Altamonte-Casselberry Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Sanlando United Methodist Church and the Woodland Civic Association.

Woo's Summer Special

2911 Orlando Dr. SANFORD

WOO BURGER
Hamburger
1/4 Lb. 69¢

WORLD'S BEST CHILI
69¢

GOOD ALL DAY SATURDAY
JULY 17 10:30 am Till 11 pm

Woo's MILKSHAKES

10¢

WOOBITES
Steak
$1.59
(Covered with Secret Batter Deep-fried, served with French Fries and Salad)

remember our FAST drive-up window!!

CRISPY Onion Rings
39¢

2911 Orlando Dr. Next to ABC Liquors Sanford 321-0436

Sanford's Newest Idea in Fast-Food Service!

NOTICE

THE ELECTIONS OFFICES WILL BE OPEN FOR VOTER REGISTRATION MONDAYS THRU SATURDAYS UNTIL 5 P.M. FROM NOW UNTIL JULY 24

The books close then for the September Primary Elections

Office Hours Are:
8:30 A.M. Till 5 P.M.
Room 404 - Court House

Branch Office:
8:30 A.M. Till 1 P.M.
And 2 P.M. Till 5 P.M.

Seminole Plaza - Casselberry

Camilla D. Bruce
Supervisor of Elections
Seminole County

Small Tractor, Small Price
12-30 hp diesel

HOOD TRACTOR CO.
1733 G. Street, Tallahassee, Fla. 32304
Orlando, Fla. 32811
Altamonte Springs, Fla. 32711
Orlando, Fla. 32811

Evening Herald

Friday, July 16, 1976—Vol. 68, No. 282

Published Daily and Sunday, except Sunday and Christmas Day by The Sanford Herald, Inc., 200 N. French Ave., Sanford, Fla. 32771.

Second Class Postage Paid at Sanford, Florida 32771.

Home Delivery, 55 cents; Month, $2.40; 6 Months, $14.20; Year, $26.40. By Mail: 16¢ for postage same as home delivery. All other mail: Month, $2.75; 6 Months, $16.20; 12 Months, $32.40.

CALENDAR

FRIDAY, JULY 16

Tanglewood AA, closed, 8 p.m., St. Richard's Episcopal Church.

Longwood AA, closed, 8 p.m., Rolling Hills Moravian Church, SR 404.

SATURDAY, JULY 17

Sanford AA Women's Group, 2 p.m., 1201 W. First St.

Casselberry AA, closed, 8 p.m., Ascension Lutheran.

American Legion Auxiliary 53 hosts bingo every Saturday at 12:45 p.m., at 5066 Orlando Dr., Sanford.

MONDAY, JULY 19

Sanford Rotary, noon, Civic Center.

Sanford AA, closed, 8 p.m., 1201 W. First St.

TOPS Chapter 79, 7 p.m., over Baptist Church, Crystal Lake and Country Club, Lake Mary.

Altamonte-South Seminole Jaycees, 7:30 p.m., clubhouse Spring Oaks and SR 436.

TUESDAY, JULY 20

Sanford Lions Club, noon, Holiday Inn.

Winter Springs Jaycees, 7 p.m., VFW building, 17-92 Overaters Anonymous, 7:30 p.m., Florida Power and Light, Sanford.

Seminole Lions Club, 7 p.m., Quality Inn, 1-4 and SR 434.

Casselberry Jaycees, 7:30 p.m., The Barony.

Sanford Optimist Club, noon, Trophy Lounge, Bowl America.

Parents Anonymous, for troubled parents, 7:30 p.m., Casselberry Community United Methodist Church.

Longwood Area Serenaders Club, noon, Quality Inn, 1-4 and SR 434.

Sanford Senior Citizens, noon, Civic Center.

Sanford-Seminole Jayceettes, 7:30 p.m., Jaycee Building.

Democratic Women's Club of Seminole, monthly meeting, noon, Heritage Inn.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 21

Sanford Kiwanis, noon, Civic Center.

Casselberry Rotary, 7:30 a.m., The Caboose.

Sanford Serenaders Senior Citizens Dance, 2:30 p.m., Civic Center.

THURSDAY, JULY 22

Sanford AA, 8 p.m., 1201 W. First St.

Legal Notice

State Bank No. 570

CONSOLIDATED REPORT OF CONDITION OF FLAGSHIP U.S. BANK OF SEMINOLE, INC. OF SANFORD IN THE STATE OF FLORIDA AND DOMESTIC SUBSIDIARIES AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS JUNE 30, 1976.

	ASSETS	MIL. THOU.
Cash and due from banks	1,187
U.S. Treasury securities	2,128
Obligations of other U.S. Government agencies and corporations	549
Obligations of States and political subdivisions	3,651
Other bonds, notes, and debentures	0
Corporate stock	0
Trading account securities	0
Federally insured and other unearned securities purchased under agreements to resell	450
a. Loans, Total (excluding unearned income)	9,211
b. Less: Reserve for possible loan losses	48
c. Loans, Net	9,163
Direct lease financing	0
Real estate owned other than bank premises	1,064
Real estate owned other than bank premises	0
Investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries and associated companies	0
Customers' liability to this bank on acceptances outstanding	0
Other assets	277
TOTAL ASSETS (sum of items 1 thru 15)	19,461
LIABILITIES
Demand deposits of individuals, partnerships and corporations	5,028
Time and savings deposits of individuals	8,166
Deposits of banks and corporations	76
Government securities and political subdivisions	4,053
Deposits of foreign governments and other institutions	0
Deposits of commercial banks	0
Certified and officers' checks	155
TOTAL DEPOSITS (sum of items 17 thru 23)	17,478
a. Total demand deposits	6,736
b. Total time and savings deposits	10,742
Federal funds purchased and securities sold under agreements to repurchase	0
Other liabilities for borrowed money	0
Mortgage indebtedness	0
Acceptances executed by or for account of this bank and outstanding	0
Other liabilities	135
TOTAL LIABILITIES (excluding subordinated notes and debentures)	17,413
Subordinated notes and debentures	0
EQUITY CAPITAL
Preferred stock	0
a. No. shares outstanding 0 (Par value)	0
Common stock	0
a. No. shares authorized 80,000	0
b. No. shares outstanding 80,000	800
Surplus	820
Undivided profits	110
Reserve for contingencies and other capital reserves	88
TOTAL EQUITY CAPITAL (sum of items 27 thru 36)	1,848
TOTAL LIABILITIES AND EQUITY CAPITAL (sum of items 30, 31, and 37)	19,461
MEMORANDA
Average for 15 or 30 calendar days ending with call date:
a. Cash and due from banks (corresponds to item 1 above)	1,480
b. Federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell (corresponds to item 8 above)	993
c. Total loans (corresponds to item 9 above)	8,989
d. Time deposits of $100,000 or more (corresponds to item 2a plus 3b below)	4,613
e. Total deposits (corresponds to item 24 above)	18,093
f. Federal funds purchased and securities sold under agreements to repurchase (corresponds to item 25 above)	0
g. Other liabilities for borrowed money (corresponds to item 26 above)	0
h. Outstanding -- of credit	0
i. Time deposits of $100,000 or more (corresponds to item 26 above)	1,563
a. Other time deposits in amounts of $100,000 or more	3,048
1. Mary R. Douglas, V.P. & Compt., of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that this report of condition is true and correct, to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Correct-Attest: Mary R. Douglas W. Garnett White John Y. Mercer Directors

We Can Help You Find Your Dream House

Read HOME-Every Sunday

State of Florida, County of Seminole, ss:
I, Sworn in and subscribed before me this 12th day of July, 1976, and I hereby certify that I am not an officer or director of this bank.

My commission expires Jan. 25, 1980.

Dwan G. McCarthy, Notary Public
Publish: July 16, 1976
DEB-9

Russian Goals Crystal Clear

Even before the European Communist summit convened in East Berlin, it was obvious that the Russians were prepared to subvert the traditional claim to being the fountain of all wisdom in the Communist world.

It is still a thorn in the Russian hide, but there were high hopes that Chairman Leonid Brezhnev to the same table with Marshal Tito provided the perfect setting for the Communist parties of Western Europe to give credibility to their insistence that they, like their Yugoslav comrades, could gain political power and remain independent of Moscow.

The document circulated at the end of the summit could have been written by Tito. It asserted the "Equality and sovereign independence" of each Communist party, the right of each of them to follow different roads to socialism without interference from the others.

Significantly, the document was not signed. It was thus not binding on anyone, letting Mr. Brezhnev off the hook. Indeed, in terms of the rhetoric heard at East Berlin, Mr. Brezhnev was a cagey bear.

What was this summit all about? The Russians had been trying for years to organize it, hoping to impress on their rivals in Peking that the majority of the Communist parties in Europe were loyal to the ideological leadership of the Kremlin.

So the summit could serve quite a different purpose from the one the Soviet leaders first had in mind. The Communist cause can best be furthered right now by helping comrades in Western Europe gain political respectability.

Radicals Rejected

The Portuguese apparently have had enough of radical politics. Gen. Antonio Ramalho Eanes, who was elected president with 61 per cent of the vote, was considered the most conservative of the candidates and has emphasized the need to give the country political and economic stability as the first order of business.

Although the Communists won about 15 per cent of the votes in the parliamentary elections two months ago, their presidential candidate placed a poor fourth—even behind Adm. Jose Pinheiro de Azevedo, who was stricken with a heart attack shortly before the election.

This carries Portugal over another hurdle in the process of establishing a democratic government, but the road ahead is anything but smooth. Gen. Eanes is expected to name Mario Soares, the leader of the Socialist Party, as prime minister, and though the Socialists won the most seats in the parliamentary elections they do not hold a majority.

BERRY'S WORLD

"I think I've put my finger on our problem. Jimmy Carter has been acting more presidential than we have."

Around

The Clock

It couldn't happen, but it did! To background this little story just a bit, we're sure you are aware by this time that the locks have been changed at the Seminole County Courthouse and that only a certain few individuals have keys that fit the new devices.

Too, after working hours the courthouse is patrolled by members of the Seminole County Sheriff's Department.

On the above time and place, while doing guard duty at the Seminole County Courthouse, I was checking the tax collector's office. (No. 101)

As I went into the records room located in the north end of the office, I pulled the door shut. After making check of said area, I attempted to exit the same door, and discovered that I had locked myself in.

This was due to the locking system being located only on one side of the door.

Due to the fact that the locks worked only from one side, I was forced to break down the plywood and bolted shut from the other side.

"It is suggested by this officer that the locks on this type of room be changed to where they function from both sides."

We feel pretty sorry for the young deputy, who was just doing his job. But can you imagine how embarrassed he must have felt to report that while locked inside the courthouse he was accidentally locked in a room and had to bust a door down to get out?

Speaking of the courthouse, we've got to tell one on ourself.

It happened Wednesday night while we were on our way to cover the much-talked about meeting of the Seminole County School Board, at which time it was decided by a vote of five high schools in the county accredited.

As usual, for us at least, we were running neck and neck with the scheduled starting time of 7:30 p.m. and felt extremely lucky to find a parking place right in front of the courthouse.

It happened Wednesday night while we were on our way to cover the much-talked about meeting of the Seminole County School Board, at which time it was decided by a vote of five high schools in the county accredited.

As usual, for us at least, we were running neck and neck with the scheduled starting time of 7:30 p.m. and felt extremely lucky to find a parking place right in front of the courthouse.

It happened Wednesday night while we were on our way to cover the much-talked about meeting of the Seminole County School Board, at which time it was decided by a vote of five high schools in the county accredited.

As usual, for us at least, we were running neck and neck with the scheduled starting time of 7:30 p.m. and felt extremely lucky to find a parking place right in front of the courthouse.

It happened Wednesday night while we were on our way to cover the much-talked about meeting of the Seminole County School Board, at which time it was decided by a vote of five high schools in the county accredited.

As usual, for us at least, we were running neck and neck with the scheduled starting time of 7:30 p.m. and felt extremely lucky to find a parking place right in front of the courthouse.

It happened Wednesday night while we were on our way to cover the much-talked about meeting of the Seminole County School Board, at which time it was decided by a vote of five high schools in the county accredited.

As usual, for us at least, we were running neck and neck with the scheduled starting time of 7:30 p.m. and felt extremely lucky to find a parking place right in front of the courthouse.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would gut the proposals.

Legislatures in several states already have responded to the public's dissatisfaction with self-perpetuating programs by proposing sunset laws. Colorado has passed such a measure. Congress has expressed interest.

TOM TIEDE

National Anthem: Unsingable?

NEW YORK — Once again the Democratic Convention delegates have survived a participatory rendition of the National Anthem. As Peter Duchin's orchestra provided the music, the delegates passed treacherously but safely through the words. Chorus played like a waltz, faces colored — yet according to attending physicians there were no fatalities and only a suspected coronary threat.

Fortunately, just the first stanza was required. There are four verses to the Star Spangled Banner, and the hazards after the first are truly awesome. Just reading the morass is painful.

Oh! Thus be it when freemen shall stand Between their loved home and the war's desolation.

Praises the power that hath made and preserved us a nation.

Then conquer we must, when our cause is just, And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."

And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave

I'm serious. That's verse four. Two and three are best not resurrected. Once a group of Nebraska school children are said to have sung the whole thing, and the dogs in Omaha howled for a week. People who witnessed that phenomenon said the dogs sounded better. One mother commented that whoever wrote the score must have thought fugue was something that went on between the Halfpinks and McCays.

Ah, the Star Spangled Banner. Oh! Say can you sing it? Most people cannot. Robert Gould once forgot the words at the ring-side of a heavyweight boxing championship.

Metropolitan Opera basso George London has said the difficulties of the tune "awene me." A minor league baseball executive used to tell his singers to move around the park while singing the anthem. "to present a moving target."

Francis Scott Key, of course, is partly to blame for the matter. A Baltimore attorney, he was on a British warship arranging for the release of a captured friend when Fort Mifflin was attacked (in 1814). For the most part, the attack was a minor incident in a minor war.

Key recorded it as an epic poem. Historians believe he fudged a bit; for instance he could not see the flag still waving, because it was wet with rain and because he was too far out in the Patuxent River. Nonetheless, his description caught the fancy of a nation that needed it.

However, it did not become the national anthem until 17 years later, when the nation needed it even more. In 1801, as Depression gripped the people, and as government searched for anything to lift the spirits, a Maryland congressman guided a bill through Congress to make Key's poem the national tune. An old English drinking song of no particular merit was selected as the music, and President Herbert Hoover and all Americans to sing it as they stood in the soup lines.

Early on, all the criticism of the song came from musicians who claimed it straightened out their tubas.

JACK ANDERSON

Carter Watching Struggle In Senate

NEW YORK — Jimmy Carter, looking ahead to the possibility that he may become president in January, has expressed an intense interest in the Senate leadership struggle.

He has questioned a number of senators about the outcome, which is expected to narrow down to a choice between Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Min., and Sen. Robert Byrd, D-W. Va.

Carter's private questions indicate concern that Humphrey, as a national leader with his own following, might use the leadership post to push his own policies.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would gut the proposals.

Legislatures in several states already have responded to the public's dissatisfaction with self-perpetuating programs by proposing sunset laws. Colorado has passed such a measure. Congress has expressed interest.

JACK ANDERSON

Carter Watching Struggle In Senate

NEW YORK — Jimmy Carter, looking ahead to the possibility that he may become president in January, has expressed an intense interest in the Senate leadership struggle.

He has questioned a number of senators about the outcome, which is expected to narrow down to a choice between Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Min., and Sen. Robert Byrd, D-W. Va.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would gut the proposals.

Legislatures in several states already have responded to the public's dissatisfaction with self-perpetuating programs by proposing sunset laws. Colorado has passed such a measure. Congress has expressed interest.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would gut the proposals.

Legislatures in several states already have responded to the public's dissatisfaction with self-perpetuating programs by proposing sunset laws. Colorado has passed such a measure. Congress has expressed interest.

STONE, WILLIAMS, BEVIS, MCKAY TOP LIST

Forms Disclose Wealthiest Politicians

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Sen. Richard Stone, Lt. Gov. Jim Williams, Public Service Commissioner Bill Bevis and state Sen. Kenneth McKay have filed financial disclosure forms indicating they are among the wealthiest politicians in the state.

All were filed Thursday, with Bevis' being received hours past the noon deadline.

Election officials said they expect dozens more of the forms to flood in today from the hundreds of public officials required to file.

Stone, Williams, Bevis and McKay filed copies of their income-tax returns and net worth statements.

House Speaker Donald Tucker and U.S. Rep. Robert L.F. Sikes, who have denied accusations of conflicts of interest, filed the less revealing statement required by present law.

McKay, D-Ocala, reported assets of $1.09 million, much of it in land, and liabilities of $27,374 for a net worth of $1,062,626. A lawyer, McKay showed income of $35,585 last year.

Bevis had holdings in citrus groves with a net worth of $601,287 and an income of $75,536 last year, including his $36,000 state salary.

Stone said his net worth increased from $656,794 in 1975 to $856,794 with a large increase coming from interest in SSJ investments, a Miami firm.

He reported $44,327 in income, including a state salary of $35,413.

Tucker, who has denied allegations that he improperly used his position to aid in business dealings, reported that he owed $15,647 in various business ventures. He paid $10,422 in income taxes for 1975.

Williams, an Ocala citrus grower, reported his net worth at $880,842, $1,200 less than last year. He said he had total assets of $1,079 million, including $593,963 in securities.

He reported $44,327 in income, including a state salary of $35,413.

Tucker, who has denied allegations that he improperly used his position to aid in business dealings, reported that he owed $15,647 in various business ventures. He paid $10,422 in income taxes for 1975.

Williams, an Ocala citrus grower, reported his net worth at $880,842, $1,200 less than last year. He said he had total assets of $1,079 million, including $593,963 in securities.

He reported $44,327 in income, including a state salary of $35,413.

Tucker, who has denied allegations that he improperly used his position to aid in business dealings, reported that he owed $15,647 in various business ventures. He paid $10,422 in income taxes for 1975.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would gut the proposals.

Legislatures in several states already have responded to the public's dissatisfaction with self-perpetuating programs by proposing sunset laws. Colorado has passed such a measure. Congress has expressed interest.

JACK ANDERSON

Carter Watching Struggle In Senate

NEW YORK — Jimmy Carter, looking ahead to the possibility that he may become president in January, has expressed an intense interest in the Senate leadership struggle.

He has questioned a number of senators about the outcome, which is expected to narrow down to a choice between Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Min., and Sen. Robert Byrd, D-W. Va.

RAY CROMLEY

Lawmakers Sidestep Disclosure

WASHINGTON — The major payoff for members of the House of Representatives is in the "perk" — the free airplane rides, hotel rooms, special entertainment, honorariums, inside information of money-making opportunities and a variety of assorted benefits.

There are no reliable figures available but it is estimated from sources I've seen that perhaps a fifth to a fourth of our Representatives take advantage of these extracurricular payoffs. With clear conscience, of course.

Watergate of a house cleaning. That talk, withered.

The Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) scandal revived the talk with a vengeance. There was enough sex in the story to focus national attention on what Congressmen were doing with tax money. But it appears that this matter may well end, too, with the demolition of Hays, partial exculpation of the Administration Committee and a rechanneling of the route by which expense account funds reach Congressmen.

There was hope for a time that the combination of Watergate and Hays-Ray might coerce Congress to pass some sort of meaningful bill to make public gifts of value to legislators by lobbyists; and a companion bill to require legislators to disclose special favors received.

Now it appears that one way or another, both of these bills may be stalled permanently in the House.

Some coins indicate that everyone — almost — is in favor of disclosure.

Then comes a push to introduce amendments which can emasculate disclosure bills past all legislative and executive vetoes.

It has been suggested to describe opposition to lobbying disclosure bills as coming from big business — and only big business. In matter of fact, Ralph Nader's organization, The Public Citizen, the AFL-CIO, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and a myriad of liberal organizations, conservative and middle of the road, pro-business, anti-business and the rest, all have been in the forefront of the fight against full, detailed disclosure of where lobbying funds come from and where they go.

All we wave the flag, except where their own legislation is concerned. And all have silent cooperation from a wide range of Congressmen.

"One man working to tell the white hats from the black hats."

"Our only hope is to somehow get these measures on the floor of the House where most members won't dare vote against for fear of what voters might think of this November."

But the battle is not being fought on the House floor but rather in committee, where the maneuvering is fast and shifty. A seemingly innocuous amendment is offered here and another one there which, in analysis, would

Adventist

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH... Pastor: G. Brian Taylor...

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH... Pastor: C. R. Neill...

Assembly Of God

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. Don Cox...

Baptist

CALVARY BAPTIST ASSEMBLY... Pastor: Don Sheehy...

Church Of Christ

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Bill W. Coker...

Jordan Baptist Church

JORDAN BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: George Gentry...

Pinecrest Baptist Church

PINECREST BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Kenneth Hall...

Palmetto Avenue Baptist Church

PALMETTO AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Raymond Carter...

Eldest Springs Baptist Church

ELDEST SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Jay T. Conner...

First Baptist Church

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Dr. Jay T. Conner...

New Testament Baptist Church

NEW TESTAMENT BAPTIST CHURCH... Pastor: Pastor: Quality Inn North...

All Souls Catholic Church

ALL SOULS CATHOLIC CHURCH... Pastor: Fr. William Anderson...

THE HOPE OF OUR COMMUNITY, The Church... OUR NATION! Illustration of a church and a dove.

To Find Rest... Illustration of a mountain landscape with a path leading to a restful spot.

Lightning flashes across the sky. Thunder unleashes its ominous rumblings. The first spatter of rain falls briskly on a nearby row of rocks.

The Following Sponsors Make This Church Notice And Directory Page Possible... FLAGSHIP U.S. BANK OF SEMINOLE, J.C. PENNEY COMPANY, WILSON-EICHELBARGER MORTUARY, etc.

SEMINOLE COUNTY AREA CHURCH DIRECTORY... Lists various churches including Baptist, Methodist, Nazarene, and others with their addresses and pastors.

Methodist

LANLAND UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. Green...

Nazarene

GENEVA CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE... Pastor: Rev. E. Green...

Church Of God

CHURCH OF GOD... Pastor: C. D. Harris...

Episcopal

HOLY CROSS... Pastor: The Rev. Leroy D. Soper...

Pentecostal

FIRST PENTECOSTAL CHURCH OF CONWOOD... Pastor: Rev. E. Ruffin...

Lutheran

LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER... Pastor: Rev. Elmer A. Reuscher...

Methodist

GRACE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Marvin G. Becker...

Presbyterian

COVENANT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Michael Andrews...

Methodist

CHRIST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Daniel D. Sander...

Methodist

COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. William P. Casper...

Methodist

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Leo S. King...

Methodist

PAULA WELBYAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. A. Sikes...

Methodist

UPPALA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Darrell H. Smith...

Methodist

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Leo S. King...

Methodist

PAULA WELBYAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. A. Sikes...

Methodist

UPPALA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Darrell H. Smith...

Methodist

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Leo S. King...

Methodist

PAULA WELBYAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. A. Sikes...

Methodist

UPPALA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. Darrell H. Smith...

Methodist

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH... Pastor: Leo S. King...

Methodist

PAULA WELBYAN CHURCH... Pastor: Rev. E. A. Sikes...

Even Modern Christians Are Confused About Meaning Being 'Born Again' Indicates Rebirth Of The Spirit

NEW YORK (AP)—Since Jimmy Carter says it has happened to him, many people are wondering just what being "born again" means. Those versed in the New Testament know, of course, but studies show there's considerable illiteracy in that area these days, even among Christians.

Pastor's Corner

By Rev. E.A. Reuscher, Pastor, The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer

The Florida-Georgia District Convention was held in Orlando recently. I think it was a good convention. There were some tense moments when opposing views were presented concerning synodical matters, but on the whole the delegates seemed to want to move forward in doing the Lord's work in our District.

PRO CAGER GUEST SPEAKER

Jerry Lucas (second from right), former professional basketball star and now an avid speaker for Christian Athletes, talked to people attending Winter Park's Calvary Assembly recently.

First Baptist Church Of Oviedo

A special "Senior Citizens Week" begins July 18 at the First Baptist Church of Oviedo.

Senior Citizens To Be Honored

A special "Senior Citizens Week" begins July 18 at the First Baptist Church of Oviedo.

Two Movies For Youths

Two movies are scheduled for the "Children's Film Fellowship" this Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Oviedo.

HOW TO ERASE A GOOD PART OF YOUR FUTURE...

World Wide Pictures, the Billy Graham film enterprise, has been producing dramatic films for nearly 25 years.

My Newspaper Carrier Is A Genius!

"I WAS ALMOST FRANTIC about my Grocery Bill last week. I could just picture myself fighting those crowds looking for the specials. I really dreaded getting started.

ONE AFTERNON MY DOORBELL RANG. It was the neighborhood newspaper carrier.

I AGREED TO TRY THE PAPER, and he was right!

I THINK MY NEWSPAPER CARRIER IS A GENIUS. You can be sure I'll never be "too busy" to read the paper again.

Call Now 322-2611 Evening Herald For Home Delivery

Jerry Lucas (second from right), former professional basketball star and now an avid speaker for Christian Athletes, talked to people attending Winter Park's Calvary Assembly recently.

Senior Citizens To Be Honored

A special "Senior Citizens Week" begins July 18 at the First Baptist Church of Oviedo.

Two Movies For Youths

Two movies are scheduled for the "Children's Film Fellowship" this Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Oviedo.

HOW TO ERASE A GOOD PART OF YOUR FUTURE...

World Wide Pictures, the Billy Graham film enterprise, has been producing dramatic films for nearly 25 years.

My Newspaper Carrier Is A Genius!

"I WAS ALMOST FRANTIC about my Grocery Bill last week. I could just picture myself fighting those crowds looking for the specials. I really dreaded getting started.

ONE AFTERNON MY DOORBELL RANG. It was the neighborhood newspaper carrier.

I AGREED TO TRY THE PAPER, and he was right!

I THINK MY NEWSPAPER CARRIER IS A GENIUS. You can be sure I'll never be "too busy" to read the paper again.

Call Now 322-2611 Evening Herald For Home Delivery

Oral Roberts

"IS SOMETHING BOTHERING YOU?" Question: I never seem to be content. I keep wanting things, but as soon as I get one thing, I want something else. Why can't I be happy with what I have?

Answer: I get a lot of letters from people who feel restless and discontented. Today's world is demanding and confusing, constantly telling us this or that will give us happiness. But it turns out to be just another empty promise.

Is it possible to have everything and still feel unhappy? If you've lived long enough, you probably know the answer is "yes."

So if we know all that, why do we fall into the same old familiar trap? "If only I had... a new sports car, a different job, a higher standard of living... then I'd be really happy."

I guess that's because something in us wants to believe that just around the corner is a possession that will finally spell happiness for us. But it never does.

I think it's time to stop and tell ourselves, "Contentment is not a matter of things. It doesn't depend upon how much or how little I have. From now on I won't look for contentment in things or circumstances. Because I know it's not there."

That's a valuable lesson to learn. What is this hard-to-define thing called contentment? I'll admit it's easier to tell you what it isn't than what it is. But I can tell you one way I've found contentment is in giving... of my love, of my time, of my money.

Now it's hard to become a giver as long as we depend upon ourselves. But it's easy to be a giver when we depend on God. When we know we belong to God and that He is our Source of total supply we can stop struggling toward what we think will make us happy. We can begin believing God has a perfect plan for us... that He gives us the ability to live our lives according to His plan.

He gives us happiness... it comes from our giving happiness to someone else... He gives us peace. These are God's rewards, and in His plan of giving and receiving there is a power of contentment.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

William Marr, pastor of the church of pastorium, the church of pastorium.

BLONDIE comic strip panels 1-4

THE BORN LOSER comic strip panels 1-3

BEETLE BAILEY comic strip panels 1-3

ARCHIE comic strip panels 1-3

BUGS BUNNY comic strip panels 1-3

PRISCILLA'S POP comic strip panels 1-3

CAMPUS CLATTER with BIMO BURNS comic strip panels 1-3

FRANK AND ERNEST comic strip panels 1-3

TUMBLEWEEDS comic strip panels 1-3

DOONESBURY comic strip panels 1-3

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

Delight crossword puzzle

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

ARIES (March 21-April 19) ... SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) ... TAURUS (April 20-May 20) ... GEMINI (May 21-June 20) ... CANCER (June 21-July 21) ... AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) ... PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) ... LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) ... VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) ... LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

WIN AT BRIDGE
By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

What first decision... What other chance did he take? He might get doubled but who was going to double? He, West, had good trumps and his partner had bid the suit first.

WEST EAST
K J 8 3 A 2
A 10 9 5 Q 8 3
K 9 8 2 A 10 9 4
A 8 4 A 8 4

WEST North East South
1 W 1 A
2 W 2 A
3 W Pass Pass
Pass Pass
Opening lead - 3 W

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

SUNDAY EDITION Evening Herald

68th Year, No. 283-Sunday, July 18, 1976 Sanford, Florida 32771-Price 20 Cents

Fannie Gordy of Lake Mary didn't inherit the now-famous Carter grin - but she learned it somewhere along the line after she married "Miss Lillian" Carter's brother Tom and became Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter's aunt. Now she's looking forward to the day she can visit her nephew in the White House.

'Aunt Fannie' Cheers Carter On To Victory

By KRIS NASH Herald Staff Writer
When Jimmy Carter announced late in 1974 he was running for President, he was a figure so obscure that the "I've Got a Secret" television quiz panel could not guess his identity - even without a mask.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

Jimmy Carter calls her 'Aunt Fannie' - Mrs. Tom Gordy of Lake Mary.

Grand Jury Indicts Four In Seminole On Lottery Charges

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer
Four persons whose Seminole residences were raided by state agents three weeks ago have been arrested on lottery indictments issued by a statewide grand jury.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

Grand Jury Indicts Four In Seminole On Lottery Charges

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer
Four persons whose Seminole residences were raided by state agents three weeks ago have been arrested on lottery indictments issued by a statewide grand jury.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

Forms Not Filed For 3 SHA Officials

Officials Fail To Disclose Finances

By JACQUELINE DOWD Herald Staff Writer
County officials have not received financial disclosure statements from three Sanford Housing Authority officials.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

'Colonel' Released On Bond

Officials Fail To Disclose Finances

By JACQUELINE DOWD Herald Staff Writer
County officials have not received financial disclosure statements from three Sanford Housing Authority officials.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I have been reading your recent columns on diarrhea caused by milk. I have this problem, too, and would appreciate having some information.

Sanford Taxpayers Settle Old Debt
Sanford taxpayers have something to celebrate. Like homeowners finally paying off the house mortgage, city taxpayers have finally paid off a 40-year-old "boom time" debt.

New Firm Backed By Experience
John Wall is no stranger to the aluminum business. All told, he has more than 40 years' experience in the management and actual manufacturing of the product.

'Colonel' Released On Bond
Orlando County sheriff's agents arrested Blackburn and two women early Friday in a parking lot at a motel on South Orange Blossom Trail in Orlando, and seized more than 30 pounds of marijuana.

Officials Fail To Disclose Finances
County officials have not received financial disclosure statements from three Sanford Housing Authority officials.