Shankaiwan, located midway between Peking and Mukden, divides Chihli province from Manchuria. It contains a gate in the Chinese wall known to antiquity as "the first gate of the realm," a barrier which occupied a most important portion in ancient defenses.

The surprise element in the appearance of planes and the heavy concentration of Mukden and Peking forces, Thursday shifted the scene of interest from Shanghai, where rival factions are fighting for possession of that city, to the Chihli-Manchurian border, where Gen. Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian war lord, will attempt to wrest from the Peking administration the control of the government of all China, by invading Chihli province where Peking is located.

FORSTER SAYS ISSUE STEP IN CITY PROGRESS

Because a man or woman violates our laws is no reason why they should be confined in a building not suitable for human beings. The present city and county jail is not habitable, is congested and unsanitary.

"THIRD: Suitable provision should be made for our dead. A municipal cemetery can be made beautiful and the sale of lots would reimburse the city for the cost of the site and all subsequent improvements.

"FOURTH: I am in favor of beautifying the city in and around our parks and school grounds. Many cities, Sanford in particular, have neglected to do this in the past and in some instances have started too late.

"I have voted for every bond issue in favor of progress. My associates are all large taxpayers in the city, county and state and favor this issue.

"My motives are not mercenary. I am not interested directly or indirectly in any sub-division in or near Sanford.

"To vote against this bond issue or any other like issue means a vote against progressiveness and against Sanford becoming one of the largest inland cities in Florida."

Gold and Flowers.
SANTA MONICA, Cal., Sept. 19.—A ship load of flowers and a pot of gold await the army's round-the-world fliers scheduled to arrive here next week.

The cargo of blossoms is to be gathered by residents of the port of San Pedro from which the air-men took off on their globe-girdling flight last March.

The pot of gold symbolic of the rainbow's end, is being gathered by newspapers, banks and civic organizations of various Southern California cities.

reau now with the Seaboard National Bank, New York city, who appeared as a witness, in his recommendation that the work of the income tax division be decentralized. Secretary Mellon said this was being done as rapidly as safety would permit.

Ask Detailed Returns
The committee in its questionnaire called upon Secretary Mellon to furnish detailed returns of each taxpayer reporting net incomes exceeding $300,000 in 1918; the returns for 1920 of those who reported personal net incomes exceeding $300,000 for 1916; returns showing personal net incomes between $180,000 and $300,000 for 1916; returns from 1920 of those who reported personal net incomes between $150,000 and $300,000 in 1916; returns showing personal net incomes between $100,000 and $150,000 in 1916; returns from 1920 of those who reported net incomes between $100,000 and $150,000 in 1916, and returns from 1917 to 1923 inclusive of individuals who reported personal net incomes exceeding $100,000 in 1916.

Foreign Eggs Can Be Detected Very Easily
TAMPA, Sept. 19.—Eggs that have been shipped into Florida can be detected at a glance, if a plan being put forth by the American Poultry Association of Florida is adopted. The idea is to have Florida egg producers stamp their eggs to distinguish them from eggs of other states. H. J. Caldwell, of Winter Haven, an officer of the association, points out that during the spring months Tennessee and Georgia eggs in large quantities are shipped into Florida, and the rubber stamp method will enable buyers to discriminate between the Florida-laid and the other varieties.

E. A. Douglas and Dr. Marshall were voted the handsomest men of the party and while in Jacksonville received many compliments upon their appearance. Dr. Ralph Stevens and C. W. Stokes were pronounced the best physical specimens with Jack Lloyd acting as judge of the physical culture school.

Roy Chittenden in his golf togs was the Adonis of the party and Joe was his best man, Pa Schumpert was the Nestor, Bishop was Mercury, Whitehurst was Venus Unadorned, others looked like well, well, well.

It was definitely decided at every song practice that it would not rain any more and this song was responsible for the very dry time enjoyed by all.

Chips That Pass In the Night

Earl Jones of The Herald joined the party at Palatka and stayed as long as he was able. A. P. Connelly deserted the bunch at Jacksonville after making a wonderful speech at the Chamber of Commerce. He is visting in North Carolina to recuperate.

Arthur Yowell was chief officer of the day and Charlie Hand at night and they were assisted by "Sibiriff" Harden of Orange City. These gentlemen kept perfect order at all times and kept down mutiny in the ranks with a firm hand.

Sherman Lloyd and Claude were the sweet singers on the trip and George Brockhahn and Paul Whitehurst were the musicians in charge. Brockhahn and Whitehurst and Claude were also on the program at Jacksonville and were highly complimented by Senator Fletcher who failed to hear them.

Cy Smith and Joe Ludwig were there to look after the wants of the party and Bob Penman as usual was everywhere at one and no where in particular but he had perfect arrangements for every part of the trip and there was not a sore head or a big head on the trip.

John Meisch and Jack Davison talked real estate on the trip even though they were a long ways from shore.

L. A. Brumley and Joe Cameron with Ben Squires and Joe Ball were serious enough to talk about celery growing on the trip and with Harry Stevens and Charlie Henry were appointed on the committee to investigate various doing of one of the party. Billy Parker said that rumors were rife about a certain party using "White Horse Hair Tonic" and this matter will be dragged into the courts, no doubt.

E. A. Douglas and Dr. Marshall were voted the handsomest men of the party and while in Jacksonville received many compliments upon their appearance. Dr. Ralph Stevens and C. W. Stokes were pronounced the best physical specimens with Jack Lloyd acting as judge of the physical culture school.

Roy Chittenden in his golf togs was the Adonis of the party and Joe was his best man, Pa Schumpert was the Nestor, Bishop was Mercury, Whitehurst was Venus Unadorned, others looked like well, well, well.

It was definitely decided at every song practice that it would not rain any more and this song was responsible for the very dry time enjoyed by all.

Jeff Sligh of Orlando and Mulhearn and Thompson of Sanford had a very able argument about where they would go if they fell overboard. Jeff contended that he could float across Lake Monroe smoking a cigar and never expected to get drowned either in the lake or in a barrel.

Stevens, Yowell, Stokes, Jack Lloyd, Charlie Hand, Charlie Henry and Jeff Sligh were fine looking specimens of young manhood when they were in their athletic uniforms in the Olympic games.

There were two senators on board—Sen. Overstreet of Orlando and Sen. Works formerly of Minnesota but now of Orlando. Van Valkenburgh acted as their private secretary while on the trip and took down all the "amanuensis."

No bankers were present on the trip. This fact being commented upon by Jeff Sligh and Mose Overstreet were immediately pressed into service and they passed on all loans and other financial matters pertaining to deeper and more water with plenty of ice at all times.

OUT OF TOTAL NEARLY 200 CASES PRESENTED STATE PARDON BOARD, LENIENCY IS GRANTED 29 PERSONS

Twenty-One Conditional Pardons, Five Paroles, and Three Restorations of Citizenship Given Thursday

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 19. Out of a total of nearly 200 cases presented to the state pardon board, at the conclusion of its regular semi-annual meeting, announces the granting of 21 conditional pardons, five paroles, and three restorations of citizenship.

In a statement issued Thursday, the board explained its action in extending leniency to prisoners, as follows: "There are more than fourteen hundred convicts in the prisons, which number does not include county prisoners. With this large number of prisoners and holding but two sessions a year it is but natural that there would be a large number of cases presented at this session."

"We especially invite the public to read the short articles given them in the press regarding each case in which conditional pardon was granted. The board of pardons is not trying to re-try cases. The law contemplates that there shall be a board of clemency and we have had this thought in view. Long and faithful service has been a determining factor with us. Physical condition of the prisoner is entitled to much consideration and in a large percentage of the cases pardons have been recommended by the judges, state's attorneys and jurors who tried the cases."

The statement then describes each case, naming those to whom leniency has been given, and the reasons therefor, as follows:

"HARRY ARMSTRONG: White man, age about 28. Charged with breaking and entering. Has been in prison since May, 1918. Has rendered faithful service; has helped in the capture of escapes; is an engineer. Was paroled to the state road department.

"JIM ARMSTRONG: Colored man; has been in prison nearly 12 years. Good record. Killed a negro man in an ordinary fight at the penitentiary camp. A conditional pardon was granted.

"BOOTS BAKER: Has been in prison nearly 10 years. The state's attorney who prosecuted him has made special request for his pardon. His record has been excellent. A conditional pardon was granted.

"OTTO BROWN: Colored man, seventeen years old when convicted. Record of testimony shows he was practically as guilty as the defendant. He has served about six years. The circuit judge and the state's attorney who tried him recommended his pardon. His conduct has been good. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JESSE BROWN: Colored man. Paroled to the Florida State Hospital some time ago. Case of manslaughter. He has served about six years. The judge and state's attorney have recommended his pardon. State's attorney in recommending says "case was very much conflict of testimony and I thought sentence too severe." Record has been excellent. A conditional pardon was granted.

"FRANK BURCH: Colored man, fifty years old. Charged with criminal assault on a colored girl of mature age. Was sentenced for five years. He has served four years of the sentence and his record as a prisoner has been excellent. Both judge and state's attorney recommended his pardon. A conditional pardon was granted.

"GEORGE CALDWELL: Colored man, charge of murder. Has served nineteen years. His record is good. He was granted a parole to the Florida State Hospital for service at that institution.

"FRANK GOODMAN: Colored man in difficulty with another colored man. Was convicted of murder and sentenced to hang. The judge has written letters to the board asking that his sentence be commuted. While in jail sheriff endorsed his application and there was provocation for his case. Chief of police, state's attorney recommended his sentence to be commuted. While in jail sheriff also he prevented some escapes other prisoners. Sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

"WILL GOLDEN: Colored man, 50 years old. Has been in prison nearly 14 years. Good conduct. A conditional pardon was granted.

"H. H. HAYS: White man. About 40 years of age. Charged with unlawful intercourse with an unmarried woman. Has served one year in state prison. All the facts of testimony in this case in connection with the party assaulted by the board to feel that he has served long enough. A conditional pardon was granted.

"J. H. JACKSON: Colored man, 50 years old. Charged with criminal assault on colored woman. Has served nearly six years. The judge and the state's attorney both recommended his sentence to be commuted. His record has been excellent while a prisoner. A conditional pardon was granted.

"WILLIE JAMES: Colored man. Has been in prison nearly thirteen years. Conduct has been good. Application largely endorsed by the white people of the community who knew the facts in the case. A conditional pardon was granted.

"ANTHONY JONES: Colored man. Has been in prison on a second-degree murder charge for more than 10 years. His conduct has been good. Physicians report his physical condition such as not to warrant hard labor. Paroled to the Florida State Hospital for work at that institution.

"PINKNEY JONES: Colored man. Been in prison nearly 12 years. Splendid record. Application very largely endorsed. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JOHN S. LONG: White man. Charged with forgery of check. State's attorney has written a letter and other officials have strongly endorsed his application. Has served two years of a three year sentence. His conduct has been good. A conditional pardon was granted.

"KID LUCKY: Colored man. Has been in prison nearly 11 years. It was an ordinary negro row in which the deceased was not without some blame. Prison officials and large number of the citizens of the community have interceded in his behalf. Excellent conduct. A conditional pardon was granted.

"EDWARD LYNCH: Young white man. Twenty-two years old. Charged with breaking and entering. Poor physical condition. State's attorney has written the board asking for his pardon. Has served about three years of a five year sentence; excellent record. A conditional pardon was granted.

"PRESLEY MACK: Indicted in 1911. Has served nearly 14 years. State's attorney endorses his application. His record has been excellent. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JAMES MILLS: Paroled to the Florida Farm Colony for the epileptic and feeble minded at Gainesville for service at that institution. Colored man, charged with murder. Has been in prison about 10 years; excellent record.

"PRINCE MORGAN: Colored man. Has been in prison little more than seven years. Circuit judge writes letter requesting his pardon. Facts in case do not show any malice. The board feels that shooting was perhaps accidental. Record excellent. Conditional pardon granted.

"J. N. M'QUAGGE: White man, about fifty years old. Convicted of trespass. Has served two years. Under all the circumstances in connection with facts of the case involving as it does dispute as to title of property on which trespass was alleged to have been committed, board feels prisoner has served long enough. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JOHN PORTER and JOHNNIE WALTER: Each charged with having liquors in their possession. No record of same. Sentenced respectively to $400.00 and costs of court and $100.00 and costs of court. Prison sentence imposed in connection with fines, commuted in view of applications being strongly supported and under all circumstances board feels that the fines are commensurate with the offense of having intoxicating liquors in their possession. Judge and prosecuting attorney both endorsed their applications.

states he will be glad to employ him in his service. Has been in prison more than three years. Application endorsed by the circuit judge, sheriff and county officials generally. Rendered meritorious service in helping capture escaped convicts. Young man 21 years old when crime was committed. A conditional pardon was granted.

"PARK TUCKER: White boy, 19 years old; charged with larceny. Sentenced to two years in the state prison. He has served about 18 months. State attorney requests his parole and very strongly appeals from the citizens of the community asking that he be paroled. Parole granted.

"ALFRED WALKER: Colored man. Convicted of low degree murder. Been in prison nearly 11 years. Circuit judge endorses his application. Prison officials and citizens generally endorse his application. Conduct has been excellent. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JAMES WALL: Colored man charged with breaking and entering. Upon series of offenses of like character committed about said time was given sentence each commencing after the other had been fully served. Has been in prison since 1905. In the opinion of the board he has served long enough. A conditional pardon was granted.

"JOHN WOODS: Old slavery-time negro. Now about 75 years old. Has been in prison for murder about eight years. The circuit judge and prosecuting attorney have asked for his pardon. Record while in prison has been good. A conditional pardon was granted.

"HARRY HUBERT: Colored man charged with breaking and entering. Has been in prison nearly twelve years. Record good. The board feels he has served long enough. Conditional pardon granted.

"Restoration of citizenship granted to H. B. Blount, Claude and Marvin Hobbs."

One Great Unified Plan of Construction

If you have ever glanced at a map of Coral Gables—Miami's Master Suburb—or leisurely motored over its fine streets and boulevards, you must have been impressed with the great importance of these thoroughfares in linking together and tying up in one unified plan all of the widespread activities of the suburb. This is indeed one of the most significant features of Coral Gables development and the one which best reveals the skill and care which has been devoted to its planning. Even the casual visitor knows Granada Boulevard, Country Club Prado and Coral Way, and the relation which each of these fine streets bears to the entire development scheme.

Now—with the opening of the new Flagler Street section—we have another great avenue destined to be one of the most important in Coral Gables. It is Ponce de Leon Boulevard, the main artery of the addition.

Ponce de Leon Boulevard begins at the Flagler Street entrance, cutting directly through the heart of the new section, across S. W. Eighth Street (Tamiami Trail) and then sweeping down through the Douglas and Business sections to Coral Way.

Ponce de Leon Boulevard is 100 feet wide and will be illuminated for its entire length with white way. On it is now being constructed the new Wade Apartment Hotel. Further along the Coral Gables school is found. Then several buildings including the Bank and Post office now rapidly nearing completion. At Coral Way and Ponce de Leon Boulevard the new Administration Building has just been begun and a large group of other important structures are now in project.

Naturally enough, a fine boulevard of this character, upon which it is to be found so many important buildings, will attract investors who will quickly recognize its strategical value. A great deal of Ponce de Leon Boulevard plots have already been sold. This is especially true of the business site plots. But there still remain many choice locations, corner and otherwise, which will increase in value as construction develops, and upon which an early investment will prove profitable. And if necessary to stress further the advantage of early buying, the scarcity of sites on the other principal boulevards of Coral Gables would provide ample proof to convince anyone.

Come to Coral Gables aboard a de luxe Pullman bus. Go to the local office and make your reservation now. Coral Gables plots in the Flagler Street section are priced from $4,150 upward.

What do these Figures Mean to You as a Sanford Citizen?

Sanford's 1920 Population, 5,588.

Sanford's 1924 Population, 10,433.

Population increase in 4 years 86 per cent.

Sanford's Assessed Valuation 1920, $3,750,000.

Sanford's Assessed Valuation 1924, $8,300,000.

Valuation increase in 4 years 121 per cent.

Do these figures inspire you?

Do they strengthen the confidence you always had in the future of Sanford?

The confidence of outsiders in the future of a city is only as great as the confidence displayed in a city by its citizens.

The passage of bond issues by large majorities in the past manifested the confidence Sanford people have in their city's future.

This confidence has in turn been reflected in the handsome premiums paid for every bond issue Sanford has offered for sale.

The many municipal improvements completed or in course of construction and financed thru bond issues are responsible for the increased values of property.

Phenomenal profits from recent real estate transactions indicate that the growth of Sanford, resulting from the many improvements during the past four years, has secured the confidence of outsiders.

Whether an owner of residential property or business property no one would consider selling at prices which prevailed before the large program of municipal improvements was begun.

The $325,000 bond issue to be voted on Monday, Sept. 22nd, is equally as important as any of the previous issues which have been carried by such large majorities.

Its passage will give further impetus to a greater city, a more modern city and to the citizens generally, greater prosperity.

Successful passage will insure further increased valuation of all classes of property. It will also indicate that there is no lessening of the confidence the people of this city have in the future of the CITY SUBSTANTIAL.

On Monday an Important Bond Issue will be Decided Upon Will you be among the majority voting for better conditions?

Vote For Progress Monday

On Monday an opportunity will be given the citizens of Sanford to show their faith in the city, and to have a part in making Sanford a better city in which to live.

It is hardly necessary for The Herald to repeat again all that has been brought out before in connection with this bond issue. Much has been said about the necessity of the various items.

Bond issues are sold at higher premiums when the vote is a decisive one. The greater the majority given in an election of this kind, the easier it is to sell the bonds at a higher price.

Sanford is in the limelight today. The people of Florida are watching every step this city takes. Investors have their eyes on it and dependent largely on the way the citizens back their city in advanced steps, rests their willingness to put their money here.

It is essential that every qualified voter votes Monday. Regardless of a person's attitude toward the bonds, every individual should vote. The election should be the verdict of the entire city and not of just a few citizens.

In urging citizens to have a part in elections a recent issue of The Presbyterian of The South, reminds us of the fact that in Roman law, the foundation and source of much that is best in modern law, there was one good law which as far as is known has not been adopted by modern lawmakers anywhere.

Monday will tell. The Herald has confidence in the people of Sanford and feels sure they will vote when the time comes and that they will vote for a more prosperous Sanford.

They Are Learning To Distrust Him... No, we've cut it out... The quiet voice had a quality that rang true, and the other fellow pushed his own cocktail aside untouched in a sort of unconscious deference to the Man at his side.

There is something else, too, that belongs to this speech, the man went on apologetically, "and that is the new feeling I have in my business relations with other men. I tell you, Dick, I am afraid of the fellow who boozes. I am afraid to let him get hold of any of my money. I am afraid of his advice. I distrust him—just as those clear-eyed little sons of mine were learning to distrust me!"

That is an excerpt from an actual conversation between two men whom many Herald readers know.

As Brisbane Sees It... Silence and Battleships. Thank Mellon. W. L. Douglas, Builder. Wait Six Months. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE, in the language of our youth, "says" a whole mouthful, as follows: "I don't believe that silence does me any harm. No candidate was ever injured by NOT talking too much."

VERY GOOD NEWS for the United States is this: The President is considering the relative value of battleships and airplanes. Those that sell battleships at forty million dollars apiece will tell the President that the country can't survive without plenty of battleships.

BEFORE the President builds another battleship let him ask the builder this question: "Are you willing to build that ship for forty million dollars and guarantee that it will be floated ten hours after being attacked by one hundred thousand dollars' worth of fighting airplanes?"

IF THE PRESIDENT discovers, as he will, that a hundred thousand dollars' worth of airplanes, manned by ten men, can destroy any forty million dollar battleship with more than a thousand men on board, he will decide not to build battleships.

SENATOR WHEELER will rejoice at leisure his statement that "Secretary Mellon helps only the rich." Secretary Mellon has paid off many hundred millions of government debt, and borrows with low interest that saves many other millions. Senator Wheeler knows that LITTLE people, in the long run, pay in rent and cost of living the public debt and the interest on it.

WHAT'S MORE important, when Harding persuaded Mellon to drop his own business, which was making millions for himself, and take a government job at the salary of a third-class salesman, he got one of the few men able to administer the finances of the United States.

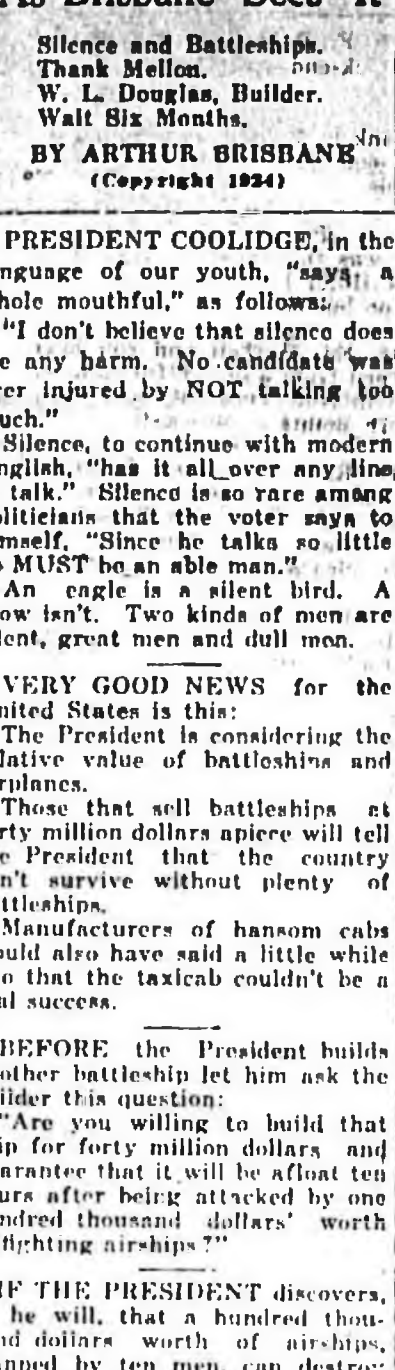

GOVERNOR SMALL of Illinois will consider a petition asking him to deprive a boy of nineteen who is sentenced to death, Darrow, who argued the case of Loeb and Leopold, will appeal to the governor. If it is desired to uphold respect for the courts, it would be unwise to hang any nineteen year old boy in Illinois until the people forget to say six months.

WHAT IS CIVILIZATION? You can't answer that question for real civilization has not yet appeared. We can imagine things that might occur in civilization. For instance, On the front page of a news paper you read in big type with outlined space, "how 'American Team Wins 21 to 6 Again Beating the British at Polo'."

THE DANISH Minister of Justice, visiting a Copenhagen prison, says the murderers "usually committing crimes under great excitement and regretting them" are the most pleasing of criminals. "Something in a human nature makes many of us sympathetic with violent crime. After men have outgrown all risk of committing crimes, the possibility of violent crime still remains. Our ancestors implanted that deeply within us. Many a man that would not steal food to save his life would kill to avenge his honor—and expect applause."

IT'S ANNOYING to Mr. Bryan and others, but the fish in the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, are blind. They have been there a long while. The eyes that evolution kept to their darkness took from them. Evolutionists compare to blind fish those that reject their theories, in a way not commendable.

THE BUSY MAN'S NEWSPAPER

JUST IN PASSING

Courtesy and kindness to strangers in the city is one of the assets to Sanford. Let us all try to be kind and courteous and make the visitor to the city feel that he is among friends even though he is just passing through.

SATURDAY EVENING SERMON

Roger Babson, of the Babson Statistical Organization, which employs 200 persons, who compiles statistics for bankers, brokers, manufacturers, merchants, and investors, the largest organization of this kind in the world, recently sent to his clients the following bulletin.

Picture of Peace:—The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.

The pathway of the living:—The pathway of the living is our overpast care. Let us do our best to smooth it, and to make it bright and fair, and to travel it with kindness, let's be as useful as we tread, and give unto the living what we'd offer to the dead.

The pathway of the living:—The pathway of the living we can beautify and grace; we can line it deep with roses, and make earth a happier place. But we've done all mortals can do, when our prayers are softly said, for the souls of those who travel over the pathway of the dead.

The pathway of the living:—The pathway of the living all our strength and courage needs. There, we ought to sprinkle favors, there we ought to sow our deeds. There our smiles should be the brightest, there our kindest words be said, for the angels have the keeping of the pathway of the dead.

Day by day in every way Sanford is getting better and better. A vote for bonds is a vote for progress. Let's vote for a good sewerage system and then advertise Sanford as the healthiest city on earth.

It will take some real cheek for the Cheeking forces to hang on to Shanghai. Isn't it funny how many people go to a fashion show and watch a flock of ladies' dresses parade by?

Walter Hagen has a mighty good change today, becoming American Open golf champion as well as the British Open champion. It won't be long before a cold snap will remind everyone that winter will soon be here and business is picking up.

We note the gasoline prices for thirty principal cities of the United States is quoted at 14.71 cents a gallon. Wish the price average would blow down this way. Folks trying to keep up with the Chinese war wish they were back in 1916 and 17 with only such easy names of places as Montdidier, Przemysl to worry about.

Do you realize that bill collectors can frequently throw business your way? With this in mind just what kind of a reputation do you give them when they ask you to pay what you owe? Golfers may be foolish people, but they don't play polo. Sarasota, Fla. Oh, yes they do, sometimes, and what makes you think golfers, or polo players either, are foolish?

Governor Fincher had an operation on his nose the other day to remove one of his salivary glands. For a while we thought Gifford was going to talk his head off but it seems that it was only one of his glands.

PUNCTUALITY AT SCHOOL

School teachers in most places would appreciate it very much if the parents would take a train stand at the beginning of this school year, that their children must get to school on time. While attendance is no doubt reasonably punctual now, yet there is usually a "hedge" for improvement. There are some youngsters who are natural dawdlers, and it is a hard thing for them to get there on the minute.

We Hope It Won't Come To This... Having in mind the experience of some of those lower East Coast towns that have been called on to contribute to the Ashley-Mobley gang of thieves, cut-throats and robbers through enforced levies made on the local banks, the incident comes to mind that officials of the Bank of Millstadt, up in Millstadt, Illinois, having recently experienced the bitter pangs accompanying the holding up of one's hands high above the head while robbers made off with bank funds.

DAN DOBBS SAYS

Defense Day has to be defended. Isn't it about time the two Chicago murderers were asked for pardon? They say a man recently met two millions in Wall Street. If he didn't make it, he got it. The annual baseball big league race to see which team will go next to New York is doing nicely. Reports from various sources indicate heavy winds are damaging the political plans. Chang Lin wants to be the head of China. We don't. The head of China is so liable to be cut off. Situation in Chile is said to be chaotic. Let's hope it won't be that way here when we are chills. Women are entering all branches of industry. Gini got arrested in New Orleans for bootlegging. The new Pact of London will help tobacco growers, but just the same it isn't a cigar pack. Well, the women in Deauville are wearing nose rings. Not around by them though. They are led by pocketbooks. We have looked everywhere and can't find a single war veteran buying bootleg and airplanes with his federal bonus. Three-fourths of our explosives are used in mining operations, road, and add, and the other fourth in elections.

FASHION REVUE FRIDAY NIGHT FEATURED BY LARGE NUMBER AMERICAN, FRENCH COSTUMES

The Fashion Revue at the Milne Theatre Friday evening put on by Baume & Mercier, Specialty Shop, demonstrated that Sanford is fast growing into a metropolitan city helped by her aggressive merchants. A crowded house testified that the Baume's fashion shows are each year gaining popularity and having a more delighted and pleased audience.

The stage was an appropriate setting for the lovely gowns, being made into an attractive living room scene where the color scheme of blue and gold predominated. Baskets filled with golden stamanda were used as well as handsome potted ferns to lend the setting an enchanted air. From center back an improvised stairway was arranged forming the ideal entrance way for the graceful mannequins.

The varied styles of American and French costumes art was displayed to advantage by the following beautiful models: Mrs. D. P. Drummond, Miss Mildred Simmons, Miss Julia Zachary, Miss Mildred Holly, Miss Olive Newman, Miss Dorothea Ray and Mrs. Harry J. Hawkins of Brunswick.

Each model wore eight lovely costumes portraying morning, afternoon gowns. Each forecasting a distinct fall fashion. The short straight silhouette for the slender models, as well as the unusual attractive normal waist line and short skirts were given a prominent place in the showing. Evening dresses both with bouffant and straight skirt lines were seen, large numbers being direct importations from Paris.

Hats formed a crowning glory in most cases. The small close fitting hat with the high and square crowns were witnessed with a degree of pleasure. A few large hats were also in evidence, the first that have been given a favorable place in a number of years.

Costs followed the straight line silhouette of the dresses displaying construction of nature's forces. So he was inspired to write:
"In the Cross of Christ I glory."
"In the cross of CHRIST I glory."

Nellie Turner Circle Holds Meeting on Wednesday

The Nellie Turner Circle held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. R. Whittle on French Avenue.

Mrs. Huff led the devotional and this was followed by a business meeting in which reports were given from the various committees. Money was turned in from various sources.

At the conclusion of the business a delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Whittle assisted by Miss Essie Whittle.

Members present were Mesdames R. E. Estridge, B. G. Methvin, T. H. Lamb, George Huff, T. B. Bragg, C. J. Wozz, J. B. Fields, Bob Penifoy, Young, Tebber & Warren. Visitors included Mrs. Savage, Mrs. C. F. Marshall and Miss Essie Whittle.

Jennie S. Circle Hears Missions Talk

The Jennie Spaulding Circle met at the home of Mrs. Archie Gault Wednesday afternoon. The meeting proved exceptionally interesting. Dr. King giving a talk of Missions.

The next meeting will be held September 24, 1924, at the home of Mrs. John Abrams.

All the members are urged to attend each meeting.

Lake Monroe

Farmers in this section are busy breaking ground and getting ready for the fall and winter crops. Most of them feel hopeful that the season will be a success. Seed beds are doing well. Many farmers are getting ready to set early celery, tomatoes, cabbage, peppers, and a few other crops are set in field and growing off nicely.

Rev. James Johnson, of the Free Methodist Church and Sunday School, Rev. Johnson is quite a favorite in that section and has been very successful in organizing a large Sunday School class of about 70 members.

Quite a number from Monroe attended the Annual W. M. U. Association of the Baptist Church held at Sanford this week.

About 25 children are attending the High School at Sanford from this place. Alvin Johnson, a student of the High School has charge of the transportation for the two weeks before the regular bus starts.

Miss Abbie Doinney, our popular county school nurse, has returned from a delightful vacation in New York and paid her first visit to Lake Monroe school Wednesday. Teachers and children welcomed her return.

Miss Doinney came back with many new ideas and much enthusiasm and made a very instructive and entertaining talk. She encouraged the children to retain the Gold Star which was won last year over all the schools in the county for the most health corrections. Our slogan for this year is "Hope, Happiness and Health."

Mr. and Mrs. Burdell and family have moved to Jacksonville where Mr. Burdell will engage in business.

Guy Stafford and family have moved into the cottage vacated by Mr. Sloan and family, the latter having moved to Florida.

Prof. J. Tilden Jacobs and Mrs. Jacobs visited Mr. and Mrs. McBride at Sanford Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Holly who has spent the summer in Cleveland, will join her husband here this winter.

hair a flintstone band was worn and wrapped in the folds of a Spanish shawl of black and white, crepe Miss Zachary was never eclipsed.

Miss Olive Newman proved a stunning youthful model of the brunette type, showing to advantage a girlish street model of boned-in trim with kid. With this was worn a hat of red especially good on the brunette type. In the Peggy Paige dinner frock of black crepe with Spanish silk ruffles across the front Miss Newman was a delight to her audience. A black Spanish shawl gave a stylish cast to this costume.

Miss Mildred Holly proved her time. In the black satin faced Canton fashioned in the wrap-around effect with a full length tassell, touched with trimming of Shutter green, Miss Holly proved an exquisite model. The new quaint styled hat of Shutter green was a part of this charming outfit.

In the new and distinct style and the new combination of flesh chiffon with folds of serise chiffon fashioned into an evening gown, Miss Holly proved a rare model of all that embodies grace and beauty.

Bags, furs, bracelets and furs, all in the newest fashion were worn so that each costume was complete.

In addition to the fashions a lovely program of home talent was arranged that delighted the large audience. Several numbers were a rare treat that was received with hearty applause and several encores. The program as they appeared were:

Miss Rosamond Radford, reading; Miss Martha Fitts and Margaret Garner, specialty dance; H. C. Clause, songs; Johnnie and Bernard Schirard, instrumental duets; Mrs. R. L. Glenn, songs; S. S. Bennel, songs.

The music was furnished by Joe Reimstein's Orchestra and aided much in the enjoyment of the evening.
