Struggle Is Said To Be Spreading Over Large Area As Axis Continues To Gain

LONDON, June 29. (AP)—Agitation over Prime Minister Churchill's replacement as defense minister mounted today with the Axis claim of the capture of Matruh. Some of London's most influential newspapers supported the removal of war strategy from Churchill.

The capture of Matruh in a fierce battle in Egypt was reported by the Axis today, reducing the first of the defense strongholds on the road to the Nile, Alexandria and the Suez Canal. The British did not deny the claim.

Amid indications that the British withdrew for another day, the Axis reported the capture of Matruh's western front, including the beach and the harbor. The capture of Matruh is a major blow to the British position in Egypt.

Be An Optimist
Be an optimistic optimist.
No matter how you feel,
If doubt or gloom assails you,
Work on with greater zeal.
Think always of the sunshine
Behind the lowering sky.
You can rise above depression
If you let ill-thought go by.
The pessimistic pessimist
Sits complaining all the while;
Unhappily he does not know
The true value of a smile.
What you think within your heart
Will shape your life each day.
The antidote for worry
Is to smile dull care away.
It is better to be pleasant
Than to wear a frowning face;
All good things work together
To promote a happy race.
Be an optimistic optimist,
Ignore depressing things;
The man that wins life's prizes
Is the man who works and sings.
—Grenville Kleiser.

I Will Succeed
If you will keep your faith in me,
Though life be like a stormy sea,
And difficult my task may be,
I will succeed.
If you will look with smiling eyes,
Though days be dark with lowering clouds,
And nights are fraught with weary sighs,
I will succeed.
If you will speak a word of cheer,
Though harassed oft by doubt
and fear,
And ugly failure hovers near,
I will succeed.
If you will share your love with me,
Though hard the pilgrimage may be,
The golden harbor I shall see,
I will succeed.

One Thing I Do
This one thing I do,
Leave all else behind;
I press toward the prize
Of Infinite Mind.
This one thing I do,
My eyes are set above;
I press toward the prize
Of Infinite Love.

Getting Along With Newspapers

An attitude of "working with," rather than "dealing with" newspapers will pay dividends of good will from editors and reporters, insists Yandell C. Cline, treasurer of Noblitt-Sparks Industries, Inc., Columbus, Ind., writing in the current Executive Service Bulletin published by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Cline warns against trying to stall newspaper men or influence them against printing news a business man may not like. "To suggest that a newspaper man keep something out of his paper because you don't like it," he says, "is like waving a red rag at a bull." Another important "don't" is "don't expect a newspaper to print puffs about your company; stick to the facts."

Mr. Cline warns also against giving half-truths or colored information to a newspaper man. Above everything else, never try to "put one over" on a newspaper. It is axiomatic in a newspaper that "There's always another day." You might fool a newspaper once, but you cannot keep on doing it. "In my experience," he writes, "it is always possible to talk frankly with newspaper men. They will never betray a confidence if you explain that the information is confidential or off the record."

Finally, advises Mr. Cline, get acquainted with your local newspaper editor. You will find him a man with as driving a sense of his responsibility to supply news to the public as is your sense of responsibility to supply, say, shell fuses to the Government. Meet him, Mr. Cline urges, to develop an understanding which will benefit you both.

Mr. Cline should write a book on "How to Make Friends and Get Along with Newspapers."

Figuring on Nitrogen

The conferences now going on between government officials, State agronomists, fertilizer industry representatives, and farmers on the use of nitrogen in fertilizers will wind up in some kind of an order curtailing such use. This is almost academic since we depend so heavily now on Chile for supplies of nitrates and the sealanes between Chile and the United States are not in the best of condition—to put it mildly.

But there is no order in existence yet in spite of what the farm bloc understands the situation to be—and no final action will be taken by WPB until the regional meetings have been concluded, every one has been heard, and the whole supply situation and prospective needs for nitrogenous fertilizers next season have been surveyed.

The thinking is along the lines of making the best use of what we have and can expect to get. This might mean a reduction in the grades available for certain uses, farmers being told on which crops they can use the fertilizers and which they cannot. If this plan is adopted the agriculture department would decide which crops are to be helped and which are not, probably on the basis of farm product supplies and demands.—OPD Observer

Success

An inquiry into the traits and characteristics of 400 of the most successful insurance salesmen in twenty different companies brought out the following interesting conclusions. It was found most successful men possessed:

- 1. High character.
2. Willingness to do full day's work.
3. Ability to get repeat business.
4. Capacity to make friends outside of pure business relationships.
5. A nose for business and the ability to see needs wherever they see people.
6. Capacity to reach out into new classes of prospects.
7. Ability to get prospects to talk.
8. Ability to tell a good story about insurance.
9. Ability to prove that insurance is necessary.
10. Ability to manage properly their own finances.
11. Ability to translate thoughts into action.

Gestapo, Hitler's Hatchmen, Grows In Power And Influence

(The following story is by Alvin Steinkopf, formerly of The Associated Press Berlin bureau. He returned to this country recently in the exchange of German and American nationals.)
By ALVIN STEINKOPF
NEW YORK, June 23, (WW)—The Gestapo, Hitler's hatchmen, grow in influence and power as the war goes on.
In his latest speeches, including the Reichstag address in which he proclaimed war against the United States, Hitler hinted darkly that there is sabotage among the German people. He warned with all the oratorical vigor of which he is capable, that any refusal to give less than everything to the German war effort will be punished ruthlessly.

$2,200 Will Be Spent To Remodel Building

Work now is going on at the brick building at Magnolia Avenue and Second Street where the A. and P. Tea Company will establish a large grocery store. Greedy Duncan, City Inspector, recently issued a permit to the company to remodel the two-story building at an estimated cost of $2,200.

Other permits were given to put a new restaurant on the corner at a cost of $100. Eddie Belcher, to tear down a one-story frame building on East Street between First and Second streets, to be replaced by a new one-story building at an estimated cost of $1,000.

FALLEN ARCHES

Army Will Have Headache With Dependency Bill

By JOHN LEAR
WASHINGTON, June 23, (W)—Fighters of the American army are being assured that their families will have food and clothing while they're gone.

But handling matters of dependency is going to give the Army some headaches.

The dependency bill, okayed by the army in advance of its passage by congress, gives the Army wife $40 a month, $22 from hubby's paycheck and $18 from the country's taxpayers—with additional sums for children and provision for parents or other if the fighting man is absent.

There are no "ifs" and "buts" to the guarantee to wives. The bill says the money shall be paid. The government is determined to end all cause for worry, either by the man at the front or by the little woman holding the home fort in his absence.

This is fine for the men who make up the greatest part of the army and navy, those who live happily with their families in peacetime and look upon the disruption of war with sorrow.

It also protects wives whose husbands have tired of domestic life and have joined up "to get away from it all."

But the bill makes no exceptions for underserving wives. All the wife must do is claim the money, says Prof. Noel T. Dowling, and she will get it.

During the last world war, the dependency law was different: Compulsory payments were omitted when "for good cause" shown the soldier or sailor could prove his wife was undeserving.

WASHINGTON

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON, June 23, (W)—The capital can keep a secret.

Rumors run rife. Tales are told out of school. Gossip splashes all over the place. But put the press, radio, government officials and that portion of the general public in the know on their honor to keep a military secret until such time as it should be released, and the tight lips in this democracy make the totalitarian, constantly under the threat of death for talking too much, seem like a bunch of garden hose gardeners.

The second method is collection of information by demoralization. The week visit here was nobody's secret—except America's. The giant Russian bomber in which the Red Air Force came flying over New York last night, it flew over Washington and landed here.

Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK, June 23, (WW)—The custom of men's pants on Broadway came higher and higher, and the coats go longer and longer. The more extreme stylists now have their coats hanging almost to their knees.

Tommy Dorsey at his opening the other night in a new grey suit, and his coat was so long that it had buckled on a pocket which would have looked like a Confederate general.

Apparently J. Edgar Hoover doesn't believe there can be any such thing as a perfect crime. He was asked by Max Martin, who writes a "Perfect Crime" broadcast for radio, if he had ever heard of one. "I've which Hoover replied, "If it was a perfect crime, how could I ever hear of it?"

Phil Cooper is something of a philosopher as well as the operator of a cleaning shop near Broadway. Much of his trade is from actors. "I can usually tell what part a man plays by the stains on his vest," says Phil, "but in Cafe Crown they had me fooled. I thought for awhile they were playing my old friend Sam Jaffe as a short order cook."

About 4:00 o'clock the other afternoon I went over into the RCA building to talk with Peter Siskind, of the American Spirit Co. It was a dreary day. The sky was overcast, and the people as they passed seemed to me to be in a bad mood.

As he is, he considers himself a specialist in a specialized field, in which topnotchers earn all the way from $10 to $500 a week. At the Hotel New Yorker, where he presides over the bar show and double as troubador, his concert act has been removed four times.

A master of all-around singing, he is contemptuous of master of ceremony who crack anxiety glands, command applause, and thrust themselves to be looked.

"A good singer," he says, "will rise above his designation and become an entertainer." Himself, he should be master of the situation and avoid embarrassment for the establishment and himself.

You appreciate what he means by that when you know that two days ago he had to hold the stage alone for two hours while the lights of the Atlantic City beauty pageant burned brightly in the selection of Miss America.

He got out everything in the crowd from impromptu to comedy bits. Last year, they called him "The King of the Beauty Pageant."

'Ersatz' Tennis Balls Will Keep Players In Action

CHICAGO, June 23, (WW)—"Ersatz" tennis balls in quality lots are being turned out to keep the game going during the war. Governmental rubber rationing has already taken care of the supply of balls made of new crude rubber. There will be no more manufactured for the duration.

Collection and salvaging of rubber, the important ingredient, is the first phase of "ersatz" tennis ball production, according to I. B. Freely, president of the Wilson Sporting Goods company. Salvaging rubber for use in wartime tennis balls, Freely pointed out, is no different from the process used in salvaging rubber for retreading of automobile tires, since the material involved in both instances is the same.

Most of the reclaimed rubber is used for the hollow molded rubber spheres which are the cores of regulation tennis balls. The remainder goes into production of cement necessary in the manufacture of tennis balls. Freely explained a tennis ball consists of the hollow molded rubber ball, to which is vulcanized two dumb-bell shaped pieces of woven or knitted wool felt. The base and edges of the felt are cemented to the molded center to give a bonded unit. The rubber center is molded in halves, which are cemented and vulcanized to the felt application.

The principal difference between a tennis ball made of reclaimed rubber and one made of virgin rubber, he said, is a slight decrease in bounce on the part of the reclaimed rubber. Machine testing and actual play over a period of three months period have indicated the tennis balls made of used rubber are satisfactory in most cases, according to Freely.

Share Your Car Clubs Are Formed

A sure sign of lack of patriotism is to have no back-seat drivers. "Going my way" and the thumb wags have a new significance these days. No more are they limited to the old-time hitch-hiker. Even polite society is loaning rides—with or without the thumb wags—as a result of rubber rationing all over the country and gasoline rationing in some parts.

Suburbanites, however, all with the same problems of getting papa to the 8:15 A. M. train, the kids to school and themselves to the market and their work, have formed "share your car" clubs. Today it's Mrs. Jones' turn to do the hauling on her gasoline; tomorrow will be Mrs. Wilkins' day to make the rounds, and so on through the week.

In endorsement of this widely popular "pooling" arrangement, John L. Collyer, president of the B. F. Goodrich company, says: "Every mile saved through the use of true American ingenuity exceeds the life of America's greatest rubber stockpile, the 1,000,000 tons of rubber in the form of tires on America's automobiles."

Whirlaway Gives Horse Laugh To Racing Experts

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—It is becoming an increasing wonder that Whirlaway didn't bust his sides out with all the laughing he must have been doing at the expense of a lot of the "race parts" for the last year or so. He must have been during the horse equivalent of saw-hawing a large portion of the time that he wasn't running, which he also has done quite a bit of since his earnings now amount to $404,488. He not only broke the money-winning record by July 18, but also to secure the turf's first half-million dollar breadwinner before he's through. Ever since he became famous in the Kentucky Derby a year ago under the handling of Eddie Arcaro, after showing a lot of wacky ways of running earlier in the year, the myth has been built up that he was the greatest jockey of them all that the Kentucky Italian made him what he is. But in his two most recent outings, George Woolf has been on him. And all the seaman has done with Mr. Hugal is smash Arcaro's track record for a mile and an eighth and then crack the mare for the mile and a quarter Brooklyn Handicap yesterday, as the feature on a card from which was relief netted thousands.

Tobin Pitches 3-Hit Game As Braves Split

BOSTON, June 29. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs snapped out of a batting slump Sunday in time to gain an even split with the Boston Braves, winning the nightcap, 3 to 1, after bowing before Jim Tobin's three-hit pitching, 3 to 0. Shutout yesterday by Al Javery, the Cubs had failed to score for 21 innings when they plect together three hits for two runs in the fourth inning of the second game. Pitted against Claude Passeau, the Cubs' ace, Tobin held the Cubs to three hits and no Chicago runner reached third base. The victory was Tobin's seventh against 10 defeats, and the setback was the fifth for 11-game winner Passeau.

German Spearheads Are Said Crushed By Reds At Kursk

Sevastopol's Weary Defenders Rally To Beat Back Repeated Nazi Blows

(By Associated Press) Soviet forces on the Kursk front above Kharkov cut off German infantry forces which pierced their lines in several sectors and more than 200 Nazi tanks were smashed in two days, the army publication, Red Star, said. Much of the sting has been drained from the German attack, Red Star said.

Sevastopol's weary defenders rallied to beat back repeated German shock troops to positions from which they launched their 48-hour assault on the Kharkov front, violent but indecisive fighting still raged.

Another heavy attack, by some 200 planes was scored by the RAF on the Bremen seaport and submarine base for the third time in five days. Targets in Norway, west Germany and occupied France also were hit. The British lost nine planes in their 27th raid.

Red Army smashed waves of German tanks at the Kursk sector, north of Kharkov, yesterday but was forced to yield some ground to reinforced German forces in the battle for besieged Sevastopol, the Russian night communiqué said today.

The high command indicated the German offensive in both sectors was increasing in violence, especially around the Crimean naval stronghold where German reserves were being used.

"On the Sevastopol sector, the communiqué said, 'our troops repulsed frequent attacks of superior forces of the enemy. The enemy put new reserves in the battle. With heavy losses, the enemy succeeded in advancing somewhat. The battles are extremely fierce.'

Torrential Rains Torque Jap And Chinese Armies

(By Associated Press) Tokyo reported today Japanese invasion armies, fighting in torrential rains, gained another 20 miles in their two-way drive along the vital Chekiang-Kiangsi railway in eastern China.

In clinching their first large-scale victory since they repelled the Japanese with heavy losses from Changsha last winter, the Chinese killed or wounded 3,000 Japanese in bloody battles throughout the past week on the Hsianan Province slopes of the mountains, west of the Peiping-Hankow railway, main artery between North and Central China, a military communiqué reported.

They killed 800 others in smashing a column trying to break up the southwestern slopes from recently captured bases in Shensi Province.

The Japanese, seeking to remove pressure from the vital railway and possibly to safeguard their rear in preparation for invading Siberia this summer, used heavy artillery, some motorized equipment, and some armor heavier than machine-guns, rifles, bayonets and hand grenades, in holding a mountain pass two weeks ago, they rolled rocks down onto the enemy.

National "Retailers For Victory Drive" Will Start Wednesday

75 Register At City Selective Service Office

Over 500 Young Men Are Expected To Sign By Nightfall

About 75 Sanford youths between 18 and 20 years of age registered in the Selective Service registration by 11:00 A. M. today. E. H. Carter, clerk of the Seminole County Draft Board, announced.

It was estimated that 500 or more would sign here and at the four registration places in the county before the deadline at 9:00 o'clock tonight. The government solicitor for taxes between 18 and 20 includes both white and colored.

Mr. Carter stated that registrars are to register at the following places: City Selective Service Office, 1000 N. E. 10th St.; Longwood, Orlando, and Geneva. Those living in other communities are to sign at the nearest place.

Three million or more youths, aged 18, 19 and 20, will register for selective service today, completing the listing of the nation's manpower for possible war duty.

The fifth national wide draft registration will round out the official record of some 43,000,000 males in the United States from 18 to 45.

The 20-year-olds signing up today will be subject to military service and the likely prospect is that many will be summoned within a few weeks to swell the ranks of the expanding armed forces.

These April 18 to 19 are not liable to immediate service, but Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Hershey, selective service director, has advised that it may be necessary to call young men in these age brackets.

He had been a director of Osceola Cypress Company for many years. He was also a director of General Reinsurance Corporation of New York City. He built and operated the Suburban Hotel in East Orange and Summit, N. J. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity.

Costliest U. S. Fiscal Year Closes

Senate Passes And Sends 42 Billion Army Supply Bill To Representatives

WASHINGTON, June 30. (AP) With only 21 minutes of discussion, the Senate passed and sent the 42-billion Army Supply Bill the largest appropriations measure ever submitted to Congress. The Senate approved with only a minor amendment a law prohibiting the carrying of arms in schools. The Senate also adopted a conference report on the bill appropriating $200,000,000 for the Works Progress Administration for the fiscal year.

It is estimated that this will take care of 400,000 on WPA rolls next year.

WASHINGTON, June 30. (AP) The Treasury closed its books today on the fiscal year that got on its last legs. The twelve-month spending was more than the entire world war and next year will more than double that.

Bonds, Licenses Due For Dealers In Farm Products

Compelling all dealers in farm products to take out licenses and put up bonds, the bond and licensing law, Chapter 2067B of an Act of 1941, starts its 1942 period tomorrow. If J. Lehman, manager of the Sanford State Farmers Market, stated today upon receipt of such information from Nathan Mayo, state secretary of agriculture.

Last year the bond was set at $1,000, but for the year starting Wednesday and running to June 30, 1943, the bond will be between $1,000 and $5,000. The amount will be determined by making the bond about 50 percent of the monthly volume of business of the various dealers, not to exceed $5,000, it was explained.

Circular Rainbow Is Seen Around Sun

A circular rainbow with the sun in the direct center of the circle was the phenomenon that could be seen by Sanford residents shortly after 1:00 P. M. today. Frank Evans of Lake Mary called The Herald, after he had seen the strange rainbow, and despite the blinding glare from the sun, the tilted circle could be seen clearly.

One man said it looked like an ominous sign to the world, while another declared he thought it was a signal of a United States victory. Those who witnessed it said it was the only time they had ever seen a rainbow.
