MONROVIA, Fla., Jan.
15.—For the second consecutive week Florida will experience a taste of real winter weather and tomorrow, the government weather bureau warned today.

A cold wave sweeping from the north and west will hit Florida tonight and tomorrow, the weather bureau said.

North and central portions of the state will be affected tonight and the morning of Sunday.

WINDY CITY SHIVERS AS MERCURY DROPS TO 12 DEGREES BELOW ZERO; FREEZING GALE MAY BREAK GOTHAM RECORDS

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—(INS)—With the snow-laden blizzard passing on to the East, Chicago and the entire middle west shivered today in a sub-zero wave that followed.
Unofficial readings this morning showed the mercury in Chicago from 7 to 12 below zero.

Eight deaths here in the past two days have been attributed directly to the severity of the weather.
Most of them were the result of accidents. Three persons were known to have died from expansion.

The extreme cold centered over the Northern plains states. International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border, with a temperature of 23 degrees below zero, was the coldest spot in the United States.

Devils Lake, N. D., reported 21 below.

Cold wave ends in Texas

The blanket of cold extending southwest into northern Texas and Oklahoma. Temperatures ranging well below freezing were reported from the Panhandle district. Citations in Missouri reported temperatures ranging from 8 to 14 above zero. Welfare workers were kept busy in Chicago on warning calls for fuel and clothing. Suffering among the poorer classes was reported as keen. Supply stations will be kept open day and night, it was said, to administer relief.

Record Cold In Gotham

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(INS)—Northwest winds of gale intensity and accompanied by cold wave which may smash all records here for the winter.

The arctic blasts will sweep out to sea the balmy temperatures which set in during mid-winter.

When the full force of the cold wave is felt the mercury will drop to near zero, probably touching the lowest point tomorrow morning.

Kirtley Awarded

$2,000 Damages In Circuit Court Suit

A jury in the case of C. H. Kim-ber versus Thrasher Brothers Transportation Company awarded the plaintiff the sum of $2,000 for damages alleged to have been sufficed by him in an accident near Altamont, Spring.

Mr. Kirtley, through his attorney, DeCicco, Spence and Digh-ployee, ran into his car, on the wrong side of the road enroute to Sanford several months ago. The suit was for $25,000. The defendants were not represented in court when the verdict was returned and it is not known whether or not they will appeal the case.

General Andrews Declares That If Congress Enacts Proposed Legislation Big Strides Will Be Made Soon

Dry Aides Working
On Huge Conspiracy

Details Of Many Smuggling Rings Throughout Nation Will Be Revealed Shortly

By ROBERT R. THORNBURGH International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—(INS)—

With the center of a whirlpool of political controversy, political and otherwise, prohibition will celebrate its eighth birthday in the United States tomorrow.

Gen. Lincoln O. Andrews, enforcement chief, said upon his assumption of office 18 months ago that if he didn't make material progress in "dry-ing up" the country in a year he would resign.

Today the General declined to make any prediction as to the present state of affairs or the future of the dry movement, other than to say that if well organized dry machine and provided legislation recommended to Congress is enacted a long step can be taken in closing sources of needless supply.

Completing Big Probe

On the eve of the anniversary government undercover agents were completing the investigation of dozen large smuggling rings, representing a capitalization of close to $100,000,000.

One ring alone is said to be operating on a payroll of $1,000,000 a month. Profits of the various rings have been enormous. In the last year.

The干人干团 likewise has a heavy overhead, a big item of which comes under the head of salaries of public officials. Profitates that literally millions of dollars in public money have been offered to officials in the hands of the authorities.

Details of a number of the smuggling rings will be presented to federal grand juries within the next few months, according to officials. Much of the evidence was obtained through the operation of government "speakeasies" in New York and other cities, which have been the butt of a strong attack from congressional wets.

Most of the House committee center in New York. A few operating on the Gulf and Pacific coasts and around Chicago are under investigation.

Congressional attacks against the government's prohibition policy were characterized as the objective of the congressional attacks to be repealed of the prohibition laws on the grounds that they cannot be enforced.

Andrews indicated that no change in policy is contemplated.

Secretary of the Treasury Martin, who just submitted a report to Congress on the donating policy, is now preparing another report on the activity of undercover prohibition agents. Andrews has asked the undercover chief for a full review of his activities and indicated that a voluminous report would be sent to Congress.

Mr. Kirtley, through his attorney, DeCicco, Spence and Digh-

Hornsby's Love For Horse Races Caused Break in the Card Owner, Says Bredon

ST. LOUIS, MO., Jan. 14.—(INS)—"I don't approve of men who make their money playing baseball gambling it away on horse races," Sam Bredon, owner of the Cardinals, told International News Service today in discussing the incidents which caused the break between himself and Rogers Hornsby, former Cardinal pilot.

His statement was made in connection with the appearance here and the threat of Frank L. Moore, a betting commissioner, to try through Commissioner K. M. Landis and the courts to collect an alleged debt of $22,000 from Hornsby.

"I have nothing to do with the matter," Moore, collecting his from Hornsby, told Bredon added. "I told Moore that he called me up and wanted to see me. That is a personal matter between them."

It had been known quite generally, although previously of officially "denied" that Hornsby's friendship with Moore was the reason for the break in relations between the Cardinal owner and manager.

Moore arrived at the training camp of the Cardinals last spring in San Antonio, Tex., as Hornsby's agent. They were seen together about the camp each day. Bredon objected to the friendship and went to Hornsby, who at that time was on the closest terms with the club owner.

"Drop that man," was the substance of Bredon's edict to Hornsby.

Mr. Clark's letter follows:

Dec. 8, 1926
Mr. A. P. Phillips, Sales Director, Mount Plymouth Corporation, Orlando, Fla.
Dear Sir:

With the completion of the St. Andrews, the first of the series of 18 hole courses at Mount Plymouth.

The effort to create short holes possessing some particular merit and distinctive features without the natural topography to actually "make" such holes is an almost impossible task for the golf course architect. There is little that the architect may do with the exception of a large amount of money to put hills and valleys where non exist, that will not in the end look "made" and artificial. Therefore, when the golf course architect is presented with a piece of property where by his genius can be brought into play and can be given free scope, the task to him becomes a comparatively simple one and is within itself an inspiration to him. The whole term "wild" at Mount Plymouth Corporation has chosen to make a golfer's mecca of is such a nature and character.

Good Events Promised Fans On Getaway Day For Oval Where Curtain Is To Ring Down On Winter Meeting

The final day of the 31-day meeting at Seminola is to see a big card of bankrolls listed for the getaway events and thousands of fans are expected to flock to the big plant for their last glimpse of the horses in action until spring meets time rolls around again.

The present meeting has been a success in many ways, with a loss financially, according to Edward A. Pohlman, managing director of the Seminola Racing Club, who stated today that the losses were increasing all over the state during the past few weeks. Letting go conditions for racing will probably be late this spring and in the meetings next winter.

Improvements which have been made at the track during the past few months, together with those planned to be put through during the coming year, are expected to add materially to the beauty of the entire plant. Thousands of dollars have been spent in the program for beautification, according to Mr. Pohlman, as the coming summer will see hundreds of new flowers, trees and shrubbery laid out, he stated.

Additional stables are expected to be built this year to take care of the larger number of horses which will probably be sent here next season. This year the stables were filled to overflowing during the

Year's Greatest Feat
"What do you record as the greatest athletic feat of 1926?" writes a sport enthusiast, who, it seems, would have my opinion on the subject.

When one sees, talks, and writes sports for 365 days of each year, he becomes rather blasé to thrills. Yet, 1926 was unusual in many respects to get unduly excited.

I must admit that Gertrude Ederle compelled me to do considerable cheering for the fair sex when she swam the English Channel. No doubt many of the experts will rate it as the master sport achievement of the year.

It was unfortunate that so many others should have accomplished the fast after Miss Ederle's successful attempt. It took some of the kick out of the performance.

Channel Was Dacile
I am told that swimming the channel is a gamble as much on the that body of water has been quite good.

However, it would seem that some one must have worn a smooth path through the water, so easily was the channel conquered after Miss Ederle's triumph.

How the swimmers got over is of no great moment. Those who turned the trick and conformed to the rules of sportsmanship are deserving of great credit.

You will recall that some of Miss Ederle's critics insisted she was helped by the tugs that accompanied her across the body of water.

Negro Suit Against Pullman Company Is Dismissed By Board

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (INS) — The complaint of J. P. Harden, Negro lawyer of Chicago, that the Pullman Company refused to furnish him Pullman accommodations from Atlanta to Chicago on July 7, 1926, was dismissed today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Harden sought $25,000 damages for alleged discrimination. Harden charged that he attempted to buy a Pullman berth and was informed by a ticket agent that "we do not sell Pullman tickets to negroes down here."

The commission said the refusal alleged would not constitute unjust discrimination in violation of section 2 of the interstate commerce act, which prohibits charging one person more than another for a like service.

Buick Ahead Again in the Yellowstone!

Again in 1926, more Buicks toured through Yellowstone Park than any other car except the one of lowest price.

Buick has held this same honor every year since the Park was opened to automobile travel.

This year there were 4,756 Buicks in a total of 44,472 cars registered. 101 different makes were represented in the registrations. One in every ten was a Buick.

Here is convincing evidence of Buick reliability—striking proof of the faith which Buick owners repose in their car.

They know Buick will take them and bring them back comfortably, safely and splendidly—across the Continent—or around the World.

By the President of Dodge Brothers, Inc.

Within a few months, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will introduce a new line of motor cars, in no way conflicting with the market for Dodge Brothers present types, but occupying a considerably higher price field and produced in limited quantities.

Combining Dodge Brothers well known dependability with exceptional performance and striking beauty of appointment and design these distinguished vehicles, we believe, will instantly set a new and higher standard in fine car practice.

Dodge Brothers will continue to produce their present line in maximum quantities to meet a demand which, during the year just ended, was very much the largest in their history, reaching the record total of 330,000 cars.

FOR R. S. S.

Come, camerado, the long trail is before us.
Perhaps your way is not my way, But we shall go (Shall we, camera-do?)

With a song upon our lips—Once more to the high hills,

Once more to the long trails That lead from star to star—

My hand, camerado, we have gone this way together,

Fought through many a battle, drunk at many an inn—

Drunk the cup of silence
And the cup of understanding And many a vagrant's reckless toast

To life and youth and love....

So now we part....

That is the way of life.
The roads go winding, winding,
And your way is not mine.

But while for now we tarry Let us raise our glasses (Shall we?)

To the life, and to the friendship, and the wine.—Charles Edward Smith.

In Defense Of Sanford

The Herald has frequently swallowed its pride and allowed to go unheeded nasty thrusts aimed at it by its morning competitor out the vicious attack launched this morning against the farmers, in particular, and our entire community, in general, it cannot endure without a word in defense.

Sweeping furiously through our flourishing back country and up and down our business streets, the Times flays repeatedly every man, woman and child who disagrees with it about a "celery festival," who dares to harbor an opinion of his own. Aiming directly at Frank Forster and Forrest Lake, of the older generation, who have devoted their lives to the building of this city. The Times says:

"The day is coming and is not far distant when the younger element of the city will revolt, will tear down the wall about Sanford. Distant rumblings are in the air, and the movement started by Mr. Markell and his committee must eventually open the community to the increased development so persistently fought now by ante-deluvian conservatives."

Beginning its tirade against Sanford's oldest families, the Times declares: "Pioneers who live in the past have so persistently fed a gullible public on an accomplishment diet that it is practically an impossibility to convince the average citizen that Sanford is backward in its program."

Speaking of the city in general, the Times characterizes it as having an underlying spirit of apathy and narrow-minded conservatism rising around Sanford like a Chinese wall.
"Stronger than concrete and masonry," it continues, "and more insurmountable than any possible physical obstruction, this wall bolstered by snug self satisfaction, has existed since the city's founding in 1871, and still exists as solidly as ever, despite the contrary contentions of many so crammed with 'what we have done' slush that dreamed of accomplishments appear to be realities."

But it is against the farmers that the Times is most unprising and unjust in its criticism, the farmers who dared to show a mind of their own and vote contrary to the wishes of the Times. "In the way of exploitation of local advantages on a big scale," laments the morning paper, "Sanford has scarcely made a start. The embattled farmers, hailed as the backbone of the community, have shown themselves to be a backbone without the legs necessary to carry themselves and their produce to a better plane. And when offered a buggy ride, their response has been such as to disgust all thinking men."

The Herald wishes to repeat at this point that it would never print a word derogatory to its competitor in its own behalf. Since the purchase of the Times last summer from T. R. Higgins, a newspaper man, with whom our association had been most pleasant since he started his paper in this city, the new proprietors of the Times have seen fit to conduct their business on the basis of a cut-throat competition, resorting in their persistent endeavors to injure the Herald to everything from cutting rates to instigating labor troubles.

Throughout this period of unpleasantness The Herald has mildly held its hands and kept its mouth shut. It now seems that an attack of such viciousness as launched by the Times this morning against practically everyone in the city, calls for some word in reply. Were the circulation of the Times confined to this county where the readers know the extent of the lie uttered, we might refrain from comment, but the Times may go to other cities, some in Florida, and some in other states where readers so misinformed will surely think Sanford an unspeakably backward community, unless we attempt to counteract the evil done.

And so we wish herewith to set forth merely a few of Sanford's achievements. In the past three years this city has practically doubled its population. It has added forty-five miles of paved streets, completed approximately three miles of bulkhead work and has established a white way system in the business section. It has acquired the water and gas systems as municipal projects. It has constructed and maintained one of the finest athletic fields in Florida and a sporty eighteen hole golf course.

It has constructed a yacht basin and municipal pier at a cost of $100,000. It has expended more than $500,000 in the extension and improvement of the city's sanitary system.
It has built a new city hall and jail at a cost of $125,000. It has expended over three hundred thousand dollars for better schools. It has invested well over four millions of dollars in new buildings.

It has a new tourist hotel as good as any in Florida through which Sanford is making its first appeal for tourists.
It has a celery crop which annually brings to this city from five to eight millions of dollars.

It is at the producers of this enormous income, the farmers, that the attack in the Times this morning was primarily launched. It was this same group of farmers who in the beginning gave to an insignificant village the necessary stimulus to become a city. It is now to these same farmers that Sanford must look for its stability at a time when real estate and business depression threaten.
They have made Sanford what it is and it is to them that we must look for what it shall be.

If the work of these men is what the Times calls "backward" and "narrow minded conservatism," then let us have more of it. By such methods as this Sanford come to be today the most flourishing and substantial city in Florida.

THE DIGNITY OF THE BENCH

NEW YORK WORLD

This tough case could have been—and almost was—brought before a judge in chambers instead of being paraded with public disclosure of its purient details for days and months before a master-with all the pomp and paraphernalia of a court in session, including tipstaffs.

Thus the Hon. Henry A. Fuller, judge of the Luzerne County Court, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in the course of a ruling on a divorce case that was pending before him and from his crisp phrasé one gets the idea that he has become seiently aware of the vulgarity which has crept into our law courts. Other judges might do well to take cognizance of the situation, which bears directly on their official dignity.

The fact which play as "Chicago" has come into being and the still more important fact that the audience instinctively its basic truth show that our administration of justice has come perilously close to being a joke.

The press tables, the special wires in the basement of the Court House, the telegraph messengers, the newspaper cameras men, cranc-king away as blithely as though they were grilling sausages—these things have become gradually that we have grown used to them, and give for funds to erect a monument their incongruity is often overlooked. Some of them perhaps and Doherty—Kansas City Star.

As Brisbane Sees It

The Latest—Not Too Good.
A Coolidge Miracle.
Free Love Is Bad.
Optimism and Work.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE VERY LATEST, last night, from Mexico was not pleasant. Mexican mobs in Guadalajara fired shots in the air, indicating annoyance at the steps taken in the campaign against the American consulate. Mexican students "will fight and die with Calles in the colors." Uncle Sam is the colossal Ninety-nine are killed in Mexican rows.

The Russian lady envoy to Mexico indignantly denies the truth of President Coolidge's statement of Bolshevik propaganda in Latin America. She says, "we are innocent."

THE POPE DENIES the charge by President Coolidge that Catholics have instituted rebellion in Mexico, and says Mexican Catholics have shown great self restraint.

This country sends the fifth regiment of marines to concentrate at the Quantico naval base, for "emergency" service. Two more fighting ships are sent to Nicaragua, and La Plata, powerful Argentine paper, reflects Latin-American public opinion in calling President Coolidge's message "an imperialistic utterance."

DSPATCHES from Mexico City report business almost paralyzed, a serious crisis threatening the Mexican cabinet, and Mexico. Many say that the fate of President Coolidge is in the hands of President Coolidge. Others think a conflict between Mexico and the United States inevitable.

It is dangerous to attack religion and oil, the heart and the pocket, at the same time.

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN Clements, of Missouri, says "nothing short of a political miracle can stop President Coolidge's re-nomination and re-election in 1928." The only question is does President Coolidge want the nomination?

There is no third term question involved. Mr. Coolidge has been elected President once. George Washington's idea was to prevent Presidents using the power of patronage to force repeated nominations and elections. 1828 would be President Coolidge's second election term.

THE SON OF A Methodist bishop demands a divorce because his wife believes in a new, strange, abhorrent theory of "free love."

It is strange, it is abhorrent; but it is not new. Monkey's entertainment that theory before there were any men on earth. And lower animals had it before monkeys came. That is part of the animal inheritance out of which we have seen slowly climbing pushed upward by the institution of marriage and strong will of women.

FLORIDA HAS CHOSEN "Optimism and Work" as the state slogan, following the big wind and a temporary land slump. It's an excellent slogan, especially if you put the heavy accent on "work."

Florida's future is assured as one of the great national sun parades. Incidentally, at this moment you can't for love, money or pull, engage rooms for the season at the big Palm Beach hotels. Try it.

ANOTHER GOOD slogan for Florida would be "Give us men like S. Davies to a state what blood is to the body."

Mr. Warfield, a born fighter, and successful in the face of vicious opposition, has forced new branches of his Seaboard Air Line system north, south, east and west in Florida, carrying passengers direct from the north to Miami without change of cars.

A far-sighted railroad man is as valuable to a state as a great governor, and as scarce.

"YEA, THE SPARROW has found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself."

It is reported that Count Salm, from Europe, who married a daughter of the Standard Oil, Miss Rogers, will withdraw all claims against the lady and her father for harm in the shape of $25,000. Old Bible times are no more.

Mr. Paine walked away with a piece of Joseph's coat. Count Salm walks away with a piece of Standard Oil change. And the mother must allow him to see her dear little boy. Very touching scene in modern domesticity.

"EVERY SWEET has its sour; every evil its good," says Emerson.

The Scopes evolution trial in Tennessee made the United States scientifically ridiculous, the world's laughing stock. But it caused hundreds of thousands to read and think about evolution that had never done either before.

Now Professor George, teacher of biology at Dartmouth, says the Scopes trial has greatly increased interest in natural science studies, causing expansion in the college course on evolution, geology, astronomy and geography. The Scopes foolishness becomes an asset.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT editor estimates the number of young men and women attending colleges in this country at 750,000.

The limit is not reached, far from it. Greater prosperity, better pay for fathers, will send more boys and girls to college.

In California it is necessary constantly to increase severity of entrance examinations to universities, so great is the desire for higher education.

Parrish-Bryan

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jackson Parrish request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Pauline Louise to Needham Whitefield Bryan on Wednesday evening, the nineteenth of January, nineteen hundred and twenty seven at eight o'clock First Presbyterian Church Titusville, Florida

The above invitations have been received in Sanford. Miss Parrish is the daughter of Senator and Mrs. J. J. Parrish of Titusville, and has many friends who will learn with interest of her approaching marriage.

Mrs. Potter Hostess To Bridge Associates Wednesday Evening

Among the many social affairs of the week, one of the most enjoyable was that of Wednesday evening when Mrs. W. W. Potter was hostess at bridge, entertaining members of the eight o'clock Bridge club at her home in Rose Court.

This cozy home was made more attractive with baskets and bowls of narcissus; calendula and roses, forming a lovely floral setting for the affair.

Adorning the tallies used in playing scores for the card game, were quaint old fashion maidens, wearing bouffant skirts in the pastel tints. After scores had been counted, the prize for high score among the club members, an embroidered guest towel was awarded Mrs. Ben Caswell. The men's club prize, a leather bill folder, went to Hawkins Connally. For having held high scores during the year, Ned Chittenden won the men's prize a wallet.

Refreshments consisting of creamed chicken in patties, hot rolls, stuffed tomatoes, fruit cake and coffee were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the card game.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Woodruff and their guest, Mrs. Abby Gibbons of Tampa, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins Connally, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Chittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Meisch, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Meisch Jr., Miss Edith Jeanne, A. W. Lee and W. W. Potter.

At the evening service a program of Russian church music will be rendered by the following Rev. Harry Dronoff, basso (formerly professor of ecclesiastical music in the Seminary at Poltava, Russia), assisted by Mrs. John D. Meisch Jr., Miss Edith Jeanne, A. W. Lee and W. W. Potter.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to join us in any of these services.

All Souls Church

Meets in the City Hall every Sunday as follows:

Adult Bible study in "The Divine Plan," 11 a. m.

Study in "The Watch Tower," 7:30 p. m.

Entertaining in her usual cordial manner, Mrs. Ernest Householder was hostess Friday afternoon when she entertained at bridge at her home on Evans Street, honoring Miss Abbey Bogart of Plains, N. J. the guest of Mrs. Karl Schultz.

The pastel tints were emphasized in the decorations, which were bowls of narcissus, calandula, lilies and Sweet Peas.

Green parrotts adorned the tables used for the game, and the holder of high score, was awarded a lovely shoulder bouquet. The cut puff was a sweet rose posy.

Mrs. Householder presented her bouquet of honeysuckle, a box of dainty Italian embroidered handkerchiefs, as mementos of the occasion.

At a late hour, the tables were cleared and laid with hand made covers and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. There were four tables of players.

Lovely Party Is Given By Mrs. R. A. Winston Honor Recent Brides

Mrs. R. A. Winston entertained members of the Fidells Class of the First Baptist Church on Thursday evening at her home on Magnolia avenue honoring Mrs. Lewis V. Duane and Mrs. E. C. Strang, who are recent brides and Miss Frances Lott, a bride-elect.

Brightening the rooms where the events assembled were baskets of cranberries and yellow daffodils placed with artistic effect.

The most charming matron assisted by her attractive young daughter Sherley. Contests were enjoyed and afforded much merriment during the evening.

At a late hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. G. Colcough, served a salad course, cake and chocolate.

The next meeting of the junior high school Parent-Teacher Body Holds First Meeting

The Sally Harrison Chapter, N. S. D. A. R. was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Forrest Lake and Mrs. Monroe B. Hutton at the home of the former on Park Avenue.

Mrs. R. E. Tolar, regent, presided over the meeting, which included officers and committees. Among the regular reports of importance handled were the subscription of $10 from the club to International College for Foreigners in Springfield, Mass., which was increased by a personal gift of $5 from Mrs. De Forest.

Twenty-five dollars were sent to the Mont Verde School for the girls' dormitory fund; payment was made on the memorial chair for the first regent of this chapter in the Constitution Hall; and $45 was added to the auditorium fund for the building.

The next entertainment is scheduled for Feb. 11 and is in the capable charge of Mrs. George D. Bishop, finance chairman. It will be for the benefit of the work this organization is handling and supporting. A display of antiques to be followed by a colonial dinner and subscription bridge for the afternoon and evening will soon be arranged in detail

MODERN MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL

Sanford Needs It !!!

SANFORD'S present Municipal hospital is wholly inadequate-it is pitifully small and always overcrowded-doctors are forced to work under handicaps-it does not in any measure serve the needs of a city like Sanford ---- Sanford needs a Modern Municipal Hospital.

As a Substantial Citizen of "The City Substantial"

We know you will be at the Polls to do your duty on Tuesday--you could not do more for Sanford, you could not better serve humanity than to vote for and help secure for Sanford a Modern Municipal Hospital.
