Longwood Wrestles With Funeral Home Operator's Suit

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

A suit brought by a funeral home operator against the city of Longwood seeking to force the city into allowing construction of a funeral home on State Road 434 east of Oleander Street will be discussed at a special meeting of the Longwood commission beginning today at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

City officials were served with papers Thursday in connection with the litigation prompted by refusal of the city commission to grant a conditional use request to Cy J. Case to operate a funeral home at the site owned by Case.

The suit filed by Gary E. Shader, Maitland attorney, in Case's behalf, is asking the judge to overturn the commission's Oct. 6 decision.

The commissioners also will take up a bid acceptance mistake, a fee increase for developers, street paving assessment, and sewer negotiations with Seminole County.

The commission will be meeting as a Board of Equalization on paving assessments for portions of West Warren Avenue, South Milwee, South Wilms, Short Avenue, Park Avenue and Georgia Avenue. Abutting property owners on the streets to be paved can submit any complaints to the board or requests for equalization to the board.

The commission is scheduled to vote on an ordinance proposed by City Administrator Ron Waller that would increase the Development Assistance fee (impact fee) on new development from $5 a gallon for sewage capacity to $8.50 a gallon.

The bid mistake concerns the discovery that the proposal and specifications on the lowest of five bids received on a generator for the new Longwood police station was inadvertently left out when they were sent by the Police Department to the Architects Design Group and GRG Engineering for analysis. Police Lt. Jack Bisland confirmed.

The bid submitted by Cummins Southeastern Power Inc. of Orlando was for $14,882 as compared to the $15,116 bid received from Modern Power. Bisland said the omission was discovered Tuesday when he called each bidder to inform them that the commission had chosen to award the contract to Modern Power as recommended by Police Chief J. G. Manning.

Games Torch Lit

Warmth, Sun Greet Seniors

"I know everybody can't win, but the nice thing is we get an opportunity to try." Golden Age Games Honorary Chairman Betty Schwartz told a Games opening ceremony audience this morning.

Summer-like weather and sunshine greeted senior citizens from around the nation today as the week-long 12th annual Golden Age Games were officially opened with 9 a.m. ceremonies at Sanford City Hall.

The many events for men and women 55 and older will take place at locations in Sanford and around

Tuesday's schedule, 3A

Seminole County through Saturday. The Games flame was lit by torchbearers Mary Bowermaster, 69, of Fairfield, Ohio, and Tom "Hopple" Hopkins, 75, of Sanford. This was the second time Hopkins was chosen for the honor. He first entered the games in 1978 and has won 15 gold medals in 11 different events. Also a gold medalist, Mrs. Bowermaster first entered the Golden Age Games in 1980 and has gone on to break national and world records in the high jump and long jump in her age category.

Horner said this will be his first year to compete in the Games. The Horners are signed up to compete in canoeing, swimming and golf.

Two other local VIPs committed themselves to entering next year — Sanford Mayor Betty Smith and Chamber Chairman of the Board Shirley Schilke.

Mrs. Schwartz, 74, who now lives in Sanford, holds gold medals from the 1928 and 1936 Olympics in the 100-meter dash and 400-meter relay. At age 16 as a member of the U.S. Olympic Team, she was the first woman to win an Olympics track and field event. She told Games participants, "I am really happy to be here."

Regan Defends Hostage Deal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans will appreciate President Reagan's efforts to secure the release of hostages in Lebanon once the full story is known and there is no administrative dissension because of a reported U.S.-Iran deal connected with their release, his chief of staff says.

White House chief of staff Donald Regan made the remarks Sunday amid reports that Secretary of State George Shultz may quit because of a dispute concerning the deal to get the hostages released.

Regan, who once appeared on "John McLaughlin's One on One," said:

"I'll say to anyone in public life that questions what we're doing, please hold your opinion of us, hold your questions. As quickly as we can we'll tell you the whole thing."

"I will assure you we're not breaking laws, we're not doing anything illegal or immoral and I think when we can tell the story all the American people will appreciate the efforts of this president to get the American hostages released." Last week, according to the Iranian government and administration sources, the United States sent military hardware to Iran via Israel to win freedom for the American hostages held by the Islamic Jihad in Lebanon.

On ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley," Sen. Sam Nunn, D-Ga., said the situation raises serious questions about who is making foreign policy decisions.

"I'm afraid the lesson may be, implicitly, that taking Americans hostages pays," he said.

The New York Times reported Sunday that Shultz was on the verge of resigning because the arms transfer violated U.S. policy of no negotiations with terrorists and because he had been kept in the dark about the deal.

"Pure speculation," a senior State Department official said when asked about the reports.

2 Boys Injured By Pellets

Booby-Trap Owner Sought

Seminole County sheriff's deputies early today determined that Betty Crowell, Orlando, owns the booby-trapped shed in woods near Oviedo where two Oviedo boys were wounded by pellets at about 11:45 a.m. Sunday when they tripped the crude device.

The boys, Glen Kilgroe, 15, of 1100 Allendale St. and Hans Beck 12, of 924 Woodcrest Way, were treated at Winter Park Hospital, Winter Park, and released after their parents first took them to the Oviedo Police station and then they were transported via ambulance to the hospital.

Seminole County sheriff's investigator Billy Lee said today that both had pellet-type wounds to the chest and arms. A third boy, the scene, just

Seminole Considers Utility Purchase, Fees

By Paul C. Schaefer
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County commissioners this week will consider beginning negotiations to purchase a water and sewer utility and review a transportation impact fee ordinance, which could be adopted before the end of the year.

Commissioners were to hold work sessions on the two items today, in advance of Tuesday's regular county commission meeting at the County Services Building, 1101 East First Street, Sanford.

Commissioners will consider beginning negotiations to purchase the Sanlando Utilities water and sewer plant, to service the southwest section of Seminole County.

According to county administrator Ken Hooper, the commission had considered purchasing the utility during 1984, but placed the deal on hold until a pending Public Service Commission audit was completed.

Jim Bible, director of environmental services, is now recommending the county buy the utility, since the PSC has established service rates.

Hooper said that while an actual offer was never tendered to buy the company in 1984, a dollar amount of about $16.9 million had been discussed. Hooper said that figure "never became a true offer from the board."

The Sanlando Utilities water and sewer services about 12,000 customers in the Wekiva Hunt Club, Sweetwater Oaks, Woodlands, and Springs Landing areas, Hooper said.

He said if the commission feels they wish to pursue the purchase again, that they will authorize himself, Bible, and county attorney Nikki Clayton to negotiate with Sanlando principal owners Lester Mandell and John Lowndes.

If the commission approves negotiating a purchase/sale agreement, Hooper said the money to pay for the buy would come from a bond issue. He said the deal could be complete "by the end of the calendar year."

Hooper added that the county has previously purchased water and sewer utilities at Greenwood Lakes, the Consumers Utility, and Lynwood. He said those facilities were built by developers, and then purchased by the county.

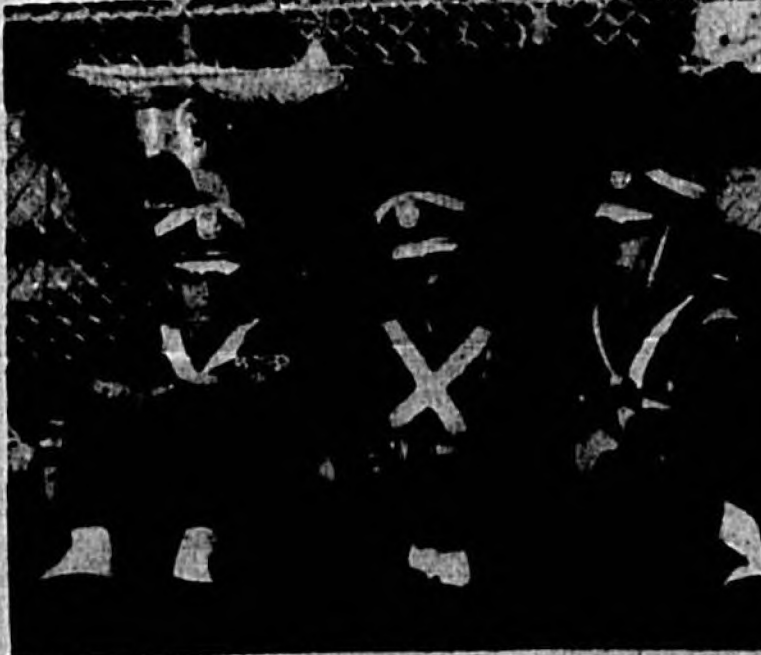

The proposed transportation impact fees to be collected from developers, to mitigate the impacts

Sanford Man Killed In Crash

A Sanford man was killed and another injured in a two-vehicle accident late Saturday west of Sanford.

Dead is Charlie Dickson, 45, of 1116 Willow Ave. He was a passenger in a 1986 Ford truck driven by James Mitchell, 44, of 122 Bethune Circle. Mitchell was treated and released Sunday from Central Florida Regional Hospital in Sanford.

According to a Florida Highway Patrol report, Mitchell and Dickson were northbound on Old Monroe Road when the truck drifted across the center line and sideswiped a 1983 Chrysler convertible driven by James Howard Santo, 40, of 18 Lake Drive, DeBary. Santo was not injured.

The truck then left the road and hit a tree.

The accident was alcohol related and charges are pending an investigation, the report said.

Dickson is the 31st traffic fatality of the year in Seminole County.

Deputy Bruised, But Back On The Job

Pride Hurt Most, She Said

Seminole County sheriff's deputy Cynthia Strickland said today her pride was bruised along with her body when a fleeing suspect backhanded her in the chest and knocked her to the ground to get away.

Although she is sore and stiff, Ms. Strickland, who was checked at the Sanford Fire Station, 1319 French Ave., Sanford, following the confrontation at about 10 p.m. Saturday, was back on the job Sunday and she and other deputies returned to the Elite Grocery on Southwest Road, Sanford, to search for the suspect and another man who escaped from her Saturday.

Ms. Strickland, 27, who drove herself to the fire station after the incident, was also checked at Seminole Community Hospital in Longwood. She was not seriously injured, but her pride was hurt, she said.

She said the trouble began when she approached the grocery in an area known for

Johnston Against Byrd In Senate Title Bout

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In a classic struggle, Robert Byrd of West Virginia, the wily champion, and Bennett Johnston of Louisiana, the cocky contender, are fighting for one of politics' big prizes — the job of Senate Democratic leader.

The winner will be announced Nov. 20 after Senate Democrats get behind closed doors for an "in-family" meeting and in secret elect their leaders for the 100th Congress.

The two contenders are equally confident they will win.

"That's one contest that's not too close to call," Byrd says. "You can call that one right now."

"I expect to win that race and I expect to win it perhaps by in excess of 30 votes," Johnston counters.

The winner would have to get 28 votes from the 55 Democrats who will be in the Senate when the 100th Congress convenes Jan. 6.

Byrd, who will celebrate his 69th birthday on the day of the voting, is the aging, battle-tested veteran, a brilliant parliamentarian and technician who in the past has been criticized for lacking a charismatic personality to lead and for taking too much power into his own hands.

Byrd, a self-confessed workhorse, has climbed up the leadership ladder, first serving two terms in the No. 3 spot, 1967-71, then pulling a political coup to oust Sen. Edward Kennedy as assistant Senate Democratic leader.

The West Virginian was elected Senate Democratic leader in 1977, after Sen. Mike Mansfield retired, and has stayed on since — four years when Democrats were in control, the past six as chief of the minority party.

He was challenged by Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., in 1984 but by the time that Chiles announced Byrd had the votes in the bank. He won 36-11.

Johnston, 54, is no Senate rookie. He was first elected in 1972 and is now in his third six-year term. He has never held nor sought a leadership spot. He is considered a more forceful personality, an excellent debater and more at ease than Byrd in dealing with the media.

Johnston, who announced last summer he would challenge Byrd, said the post of Senate Democratic leader is a "bully pulpit" that has not been used.

"My view is that the Democratic Party has been reactive, has been the party of the lowest common denominators, rather than the progressive consensus," Johnston said. "We have not been bold."

But an aide to a veteran senator said of Johnston, "He's identified the problems but for us, he's not the answer. He doesn't give us enough reason to leave Byrd."

A Sun Belt senator, who did not want to be identified, said, "Right now I would give the edge to Byrd," but added the momentum of the elections could benefit Johnston.

He said there could be a "a sense now, with a new crop, a new majority, (that) the people are ready to make a change."

The senator said Byrd is very apparently "committed body and soul to the Senate and no one questions that he knows procedure. But there is another function, outside the Senate; this is where I think people feel others are stronger."

The day after the midterm elections, Johnston counted between 21 and 23 votes, including leaners for him, and 17 to 18, including leaners, for Byrd. But he conceded the totals are "squishy."

Byrd carries his tally on a small card that he does not show but claims more than enough to win. Byrd, who has never lost an election, is considered a master vote counter.

There are some reports that Byrd is asking for only one more, two-year term. He neither confirms nor denies this, saying he takes events a day at a time and is not thinking about two years from now.

The 11 new Democrats, who were helped in their campaigns and solicited before and since by the two candidates, could be a deciding factor. More than half are House veterans and already know Senate politics.

Johnston says he hopes to grab a "a big majority" of the freshmen but a spokeswoman for Byrd counters that her boss has "picked up votes from both incumbents and new senators beginning Tuesday night."

She noted Byrd said he had enough votes to win and "has added to that ... and Senator Byrd knows how to count votes."

Underscoring Byrd's painstaking attention to detail, he has already decided that Sen. Jay Rockefeller of West Virginia will place his name in nomination and Kennedy and Sen. Dennis DeConcini, D-Ariz., have agreed to make seconding speeches.

Johnston will place his own name in nomination, giving him a chance to again explain why he is in the race, a spokesman said. Seconding speeches have not been decided.

Little Change Seen In House Leadership

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The familiar figure of Speaker Thomas O'Neill will be gone when the House convenes in January for the 100th Congress and almost certain to take his place will be Jim Wright, a smooth-talking Texan who has spent more than three decades in the House.

Wright's ascension will cause other shifts in the House leadership, but for the most part all the faces are familiar and no dramatic changes in policy or procedure are expected.

Democrats have controlled the House since 1955 and went into Tuesday's election with a firm 253-182 majority. As of Friday, Democrats had won 258 seats, a net gain of five, and Republicans had won 175 seats. A total of 218 are necessary for control of the House.

As a result, the Democrats once again will select the leadership, name committee chairmen and generally determine what legislation will be acted on in the next Congress, which convenes Jan. 6.

The selection begins Dec. 8 when House members gather at the Capitol for their respective party caucuses.

The Democrats will vote on candidates for speaker, Democratic leader and assistant Democratic leader. The winners' names then will be submitted to the full House on the opening day of the new Congress.

Republicans also will have a candidate for speaker — GOP leader Bob Michel of Illinois — but given the overwhelming Democratic majority the election is a forgone conclusion. Wright, assuming he is the choice of his Democratic colleagues, will be elected House speaker for at least the next two years.

Wright, 63, a former Golden Gloves boxer, World War II bomber pilot and mayor, has served as Democratic leader, the

No. 2 leadership spot, for the past 10 years. When O'Neill announced his retirement, Wright declared his candidacy to succeed the Massachusetts veteran and quickly rounded up enough pledges of support to discourage potential rivals.

Rep. Tom Foley, D-Wash., the widely respected assistant Democratic leader, made his move to take Wright's job and also is running without opposition.

The only leadership contest in either party is for Foley's old job. Reps. Tony Coelho, D-Calif., Charles Rangel, D-N.Y., and Bill Hefner, D-N.C., are in the running, with the contest mainly between Coelho and Rangel.

Previously, the assistant Democratic leader's post was appointive, but two years ago the Democratic caucus voted to make it elective beginning in the 100th Congress.

Michel, first elected to Congress in 1956, has been Republican leader since 1980. He is well-liked on both sides of the aisle but often must walk a tight-rope between the Democratic majority and the more militant members of his own party.

Rep. Trent Lott, R-Miss., just elected to his eighth House term, will continue in the GOP's No. 2 leadership post as assistant Republican leader.

The only two House members mentioned as possible presidential candidates in 1988 hold identical leadership posts in their respective parties: Rep. Jack Kemp, R-N.Y., is chairman of the House Republican Conference, and Rep. Richard Gephardt, D-Mo., is chairman of the House Democratic Caucus. Both are expected to be re-elected to those posts next month.

With one possible exception, all returning committee chairmen are expected to retain their posts. Only Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, faces a challenge.

State Wins On This One

An undeclared cease-fire in the superpower spy war finds the American ambassador's wife clearing her own coffee cups in Moscow and the Soviet KGB gnashing its teeth over the loss of much of its espionage network in the United States. On balance, the added inconvenience imposed on U.S. diplomats in the Soviet Union is a pittance to pay for strengthening America's national security by expelling scores of Russian spies from this country.

As the smoke clears from four rounds of expulsions and retaliatory actions, the score stands at 10 Americans kicked out of the USSR and 80 Soviets ordered out of the lopsided exchange, the number of Soviet diplomats here and the number of American diplomatic personnel in the Soviet Union will be equal at 251. Such parity already was mandated by Congress last year to counter the Kremlin's ambitious espionage campaign against the United States.

These numbers do not count Moscow's mission to the United Nations in New York, where another 270 Russians are stationed. They include, according to a report by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, Vladimir Kolesnikov, a top KGB agent and assistant to Secretary General Javier Perez de Cuellar.

It can be argued that the Kremlin did Americans a favor by withdrawing from the U.S. embassy in Moscow some 260 Soviet employees who were janitors, cooks, maids, chauffeurs and other service help. The Kremlin supplied the Russian workers and no doubt relied on their access to gather intelligence from inside the embassy's walls. Moscow never would dream of employing an American support staff supplied by the U.S. government to snoop around its embassy in Washington and its consulate in San Francisco. Nor was it ever wise for the State Department to hire a Russian support staff for the American embassy in Moscow and the consulate in Leningrad.

Americans benefited directly from the diplomatic tug-of-war because the expelled Soviet agents constituted the cream of the KGB spy network here. Most of those removed were chiefs, not Indians; similarly, the top ranks of the GRU, the Soviet military intelligence agency, also were depleted.

For years, various State Department officials have warned against deporting large numbers of identified Soviet spies, on grounds that it would prompt the Kremlin to expel American diplomats from Moscow. The latest exchange suggests that Soviet espionage is something Americans do not have to tolerate after all.

Bitter Twilight

As society becomes more egalitarian and more women enter the labor force, the patronizing term "women's work" is slowly leaving the national vocabulary. But it should be remembered that many of the 40 million women 45 years and older forsook education and employment to undertake the invaluable task of raising children and maintaining households.

What support, then, exists for these women if they are suddenly divorced or widowed? Not much. They often lack marketable job skills and rarely have any equity in pension or health-insurance plans.

Statistics compiled by the Older Women League bear out the grim truth. About 2.3 million, or nearly three out of four of the elderly poor, are women. Only one in five receives pensions, which on average are less than half what a man receives. And, several million women over 65 are forced to survive on just $3,000 annually in Social Security benefits.

Then there is health care, which is a particular dilemma because women live longer than men. About 40 percent of divorced women and 27 percent of widows, for example, have no private health insurance. Approximately one in six has no health insurance at all and has little chance of qualifying for it. A related problem is that 72 percent of the approximately 2.2 million people providing non-paid assistance to 1.2 million invalids are women. This means that women who have sacrificed all their lives receive no respite even in their twilight years.

This is nothing less than a national shame. Thankfully, the problem is slowly getting the attention it deserves. The 1986 Budget Reconciliation Act requires numerous employers to offer low-cost health insurance rates to divorced wives and widows of employees for up to three years.

'86 Races Were Down, Dirty And Dumb

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Looking back on the '86 campaign, in which candidates slandered each other left and right, it's difficult to pick the lowest points.

Which was the nastiest contest? That dubious distinction probably belongs to the House race in Indiana's 4th Congressional District.

Democratic Rep. Frank McCloskey again won re-election in a race against GOP challenger Richard McIntyre. Their battle two years ago had been 1984's closest contest: McCloskey had won a disputed re-election by four votes, and he was finally seated by a vote of the Democratic majority in the House.

This time around, McCloskey, again the incumbent, squared off against McIntyre in a rematch that featured low blow after low blow.

The lowest point occurred when McIntyre produced two retired Bloomington police officials. They claimed that — based on information from an informant, who they refused to identify — McCloskey used drugs while mayor of Bloomington 14 years ago. McCloskey accused McIntyre of "slander."

The voters perhaps agreed — giving Mc-

Closkey a clear victory in '86.

The McCloskey-McIntyre campaign just barely beat out the Mark White-Bill Clements gubernatorial contest in Texas and the Robert Kasten-Ed Garvey Senate race in Wisconsin for down-and-dirty "honors." Winners: Republicans Clements and Kasten.

The distinction of running the silliest political ad of 1986 belongs to successful incumbent Sen. Patrick Leahy, D-Vt.

Former GOP governor Richard Snelling had been hitting Leahy hard about his lack of attention to farm problems.

Leahy's ad had him standing in a barnyard with a group of dairy farmers going on about what a friend of the farmer he is, and how he will get their votes. Standard political fare. Except that the men were surrounded by a small herd of cows, each proudly wearing a "Leahy For Senate" bumper sticker.

Leahy won despite the fact that the bovine vote didn't count.

The honor of being the out-gunned candidate of the year goes to Democrat Rick Gilmore, who tried to unseat Wyoming's only congressional House power, Rep. Dick Cheney. In one of the nation's most heavily Republican states.

Gilmore appealed to 702 political action committees and did not receive a cent. Two weeks before the election he had $3,500 in the bank; Cheney had $600,000. Gilmore challenged the incumbent to a debate. Cheney said he didn't have the time.

Not unexpectedly, Cheney received almost 75 percent of the vote.

The political dirty trick of 1986 was the brainchild of Democrat Michael Sullivan, who was challenging GOP Rep. William McGrath in New York's 5th District on Long Island. McGrath is separated from his wife.

Sullivan reportedly has admitted hiring four women to approach McGrath in a Washington bar and tape-record their conversations with him. While the ensuing chat was not among the most uplifting of the year, voters apparently agreed with McGrath's assessment of the tactic as a "Watergate-style cheap back-alley trick." McGrath won the contest with 66 percent of the vote.

WASHINGTON WORLD

When Mud Flies

By Arnold Sawisak

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There was a lot of negative comment during the political campaign that mercifully ended last week about all the "negative advertising" — candidates using much of their effort and money knocking each other.

Not that negative campaigning is something new in American politics. Some historians suggest George Washington, who was unanimously elected president in his first two terms, really decided to go home to Mount Vernon when political critics started calling him "tyrant" and "dictator."

In any case, there is an argument to be made for campaigns that criticize.

It is entirely within the rules of civilized campaigning to criticize a candidate's voting record or a challenger's positions on the issues.

It is legitimate for an incumbent to question whether a challenger has the qualifications for the office being sought or a challenger to criticize the incumbent's attendance record on important votes.

But just as there is a difference in football between "a clean hit" and "a cheap shot," there is a difference in politics between legitimate criticism and mudslinging.

It is dirty politics to pretend that a legislator who voted for everything in an anti-drug bill except a capital punishment clause is a friend of the dope pushers. It is mudslinging to insinuate that a candidate is a homosexual because she is a feminist or he is a civil libertarian.

It is as off base to suggest that a member of Congress who votes to cut defense spending is a communist sympathizer as it is to claim that a legislator who supports more money for the Pentagon is a warmonger.

It would be nice to report that candidates who play dirty politics always or at least usually lose. Some do, but the really sad truth is that when one candidate starts slinging mud, the other frequently gets down in the slime to reciprocate.

There were a number of campaigns like that in 1986, and the fact that some candidates got elected with dirty campaigns probably means that "political consultants" — the new horde of professional campaign managers — will be at it again in 1988.

So what is the voter who is offended by such tactics to do?

One possibility is to refuse to vote for any candidate who runs for office by crawling through the mud. Another is to pay no attention to candidates when they begin such tactics.

Gold: Aquino's Other Miracle

By Jack Anderson
And
Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON — The Philippines government is backing efforts by a group of American and Filipino treasure hunters to recover a fortune in stolen gold believed to have been buried offshore by the Japanese during World War II.

The government's support is limited to protection by the Philippine coast guard, but the Aquino government has hopes that recovery of the buried treasure could give the Philippine economy a badly needed boost. In fact, when the American leader of the venture met Aquino last March, she listened intently and reportedly exclaimed, "My God! It could be the second miracle." (The first, of course, was her surprising progress from widowed housewife to president in the space of a few months.)

Conventional War?

It has become a cliché of contemporary politics that nuclear weapons are dreadful, which of course they are. But the Soviet claim that President Reagan in Iceland offered to eliminate all nuclear weapons over a period of time produced something like a panic, especially among our European allies, but also among military strategists here.

This reaction was intellectually clarifying.

The Europeans depend upon nuclear weapons to deter a massive conventional Soviet assault across the West German plain. An effort on NATO's part to match Soviet conventional forces would cost billions and would require a military draft. Our own conventional capability would also have to be greatly expanded, at heavy expense, and we would have to reinstitute conscription. Politically and economically all of this would present great difficulties.

The idea of eliminating all nuclear weapons has also startled people into thinking again about "conventional" warfare. When you talk about "nuclear war" and "conventional war," the latter has a relatively friendly sound by contrast. But when you actually think about large-scale conventional war, that friendly sound disappears.

World War II is estimated to have cost 55 million lives. The firebombing of Tokyo killed more people than died at Hiroshima. German, Russian and English cities were pulverized.

The first great modern "conventional" war was World War I, which was absolutely awful. Fifty thousand British troops died in the mud on the first day of the battle called Passchendaele. The Ypres salient was a charnel house. A half million men died at Verdun. The American attack in 1918 through the Argonne forest, which the Germans had had four years to fortify, was a slaughter. General Pershing pushed his forces through the Argonne, but the price was appalling.

This columnist's mother was on the Broadway stage during the 1920s, and the theater people voluntarily entertained the wounded men in the veterans' hospitals. A young woman, she was utterly shocked by the men with arms, legs and faces shot off, and lungs eaten away by mustard and chlorine gas.

That "conventional" war so disgusted Americans that they utterly rejected Wilsonianism and swept Warren Harding into office in order to "return to normalcy." No Democrat had a remote chance of getting elected president until the Great Depression. All through the 1930s, here and in both England and France, there was a widespread feeling of "never again." And if you visit the mile upon mile of military cemeteries in France, silent, eerie, you can easily understand why.

In the absence of nuclear weapons, however, we almost certainly would have had a "conventional" war with the Soviets in Western Europe, which would have been very rough. Modern "conventional" weapons are much more powerful than those used in World War II.

And so, though nuclear weapons indeed are dreadful, we are now realizing that there is something to be said for them. They have prevented a big war from breaking out for more than 40 years.

Free World Problems

LINCOLN, Neb. — One of the surprises of the Conference on European problems held here at the University of Nebraska is that the problems facing the old nations of Europe are not unlike those confronting the United States.

Consider, for instance, the problem of uncontrolled immigration. Americans are very familiar with the silent invasion along their 2,000-mile border with Mexico, with perhaps two million illegal immigrants entering the U.S. each year. However, they aren't well-informed about West Germany's problem with Iranians and Tamils who enter the Federal Republic through West Berlin. The Soviet airline Aeroflot carries the Iranians and Tamils from Sri Lanka to East Berlin, where they cross over under provisions of the West German refugee law.

Up to this point, the West Germans have been unable to find a constitutional means of stopping this flood of migrants from the Third World. When West Germany's refugee law was drafted, no one imagined that it would be the means of such an extraordinary population transfer.

The presence of a large foreign community in West Germany — 400,000 Turks in West Berlin alone — represents a threat to the national character. No European country ever conceived of adopting America's melting pot experiment. It simply isn't feasible for West Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy or other continental countries — some of them with very low birth rates — to incorporate disparate ethnic elements on a permanent basis. European countries don't have a tradition of pluralism in their societies. Therefore, the influx of Third World migrants poses a severe threat of "alienization" for what always have been very organic societies.

Europeans also devote considerable attention to the issue of legitimate government, though they don't employ that American term. East Bloc regimes constantly seek to demonstrate their legitimacy while the captive peoples of Eastern Europe rightly regard the communist regimes as illegitimate. Indeed, beginning with the Soviet Union, are truly illegitimate. That is, they aren't validated by the people or by history.

In an effort to gain an appearance of legitimacy, East European governments make some effort to present themselves as embodying nationalist aspirations.

The American parallel is found in the effort of radical groups to delegitimize our most legitimate of governments.

Bicyclist On Sidewalk Warned, Taken To Jail

A 21-year-old Sanford man who allegedly ignored a Sanford police warning not to ride his bicycle on the sidewalk has been jailed.

Police reported that at about 5 p.m. Friday the man was told not to ride his bicycle on the sidewalk on Second Street in Sanford. Within about six minutes a policeman again reportedly saw the man riding his bicycle on the sidewalk.

The suspect was pursued and nabbed.

Mark Andrew Garden of 106 Sunland Drive was arrested at 5:13 p.m. He has been charged with resisting arrest without violence, violation of a prohibition of riding a bicycle on the sidewalk and failure to obey a police order. He has been released on bond.

JOHN DOE ASSAULT

Sanford police reported charging a man identified only as "Kool Aid" with aggravated assault after he allegedly threatened with a handgun Mary Ann Williams on the sidewalk of 13th Street, Sanford, early Saturday.

The suspect, who was arrested at 1 a.m., was being held in lieu of $1,000 bond. Jail officials said early Saturday the man had not been identified.

CALLS & THEFT

A 19-year-old Sanford man who allegedly entered a home at #5 Hattaway Drive, Altamonte Springs, on Sept. 17 and without permission made three long distance telephone calls to California has been arrested in connection with that burglary and also charged in connection with the theft and sale of a $300 ring taken from that home at the same time.

The ring was reportedly sold to Ace Pawn Shop, Altamonte Springs.

On Friday the suspect was questioned by Seminole County sheriff's deputies, and at the sheriff's department at 4:30 p.m. he was charged with burglary, grand theft and dealing in stolen property.

Joel Sam Daugherty, of 2020 Lake Drive, has been released on bond.

AT JOB DEALS

Sanford police reported watching as a suspect allegedly made two illegal drug sales from his pickup truck in the parking lot of his workplace, S & H Fabricating, Jewett Lane, Sanford, at about 9 p.m. Friday.

Police had received reports of previous drug deals allegedly at the same location by the same suspect.

After the second sale was reportedly made, police moved in and arrested Russell Eugene Mitchell, 25, of 156 Third St., Lake Mary. He has been charged with two counts each of sale and possession of more than 20 grams of marijuana. He has also been charged with possession of less than 20 grams of marijuana.

Earthquake Victims Treated

BOSTON (UPI) — Eleven young victims of last month's devastating earthquake in San Salvador arrived Saturday in a special airlift arranged by the White House to be treated for severe burns at the Shriners Hospital.

Another three children were dropped off enroute in Tampa to receive orthopedic care, hospital officials said.

The victims, each with parent or guardian and flown in to Logan International Airport, range from 18 months to 20 years. A 2-year-old girl suffering life-threatening burns was flown in earlier this week.

The children were the first of 100 young victims of last month's Salvador earthquake who will be flown to the states for treatment at various Shriners hospitals. All medical care is being paid for by the Shriners.

The Oct. 10 earthquake devastated the city of San Salvador. It severely damaged four of the city's hospitals. Those remaining were "inadequate" to care for the severe burn victims, Shriners spokesman Harold Foley said.

"These kids are in desperate need of reconstructive care," he said.

The joint effort to assist the young victims of the earthquake was initiated when the White House contacted Project Hope, an international organization which promotes health care and education worldwide.

A team of Shriners doctors flew to El Salvador Oct. 28 to identify the 100 children in most need of treatment for burns and bone injuries.

FAKE PRESCRIPTION, BAD CHECKS

A 30-year-old Orlando woman, who on several occasions allegedly obtained and tried to obtain a controlled pain killer with bogus prescriptions, and reportedly paid with checks drawn on a closed account, has been arrested by Seminole County sheriff's deputies.

The woman allegedly on both Tuesday and Wednesday with a fake prescription received the medication at Humana Med First, State Road 434, Altamonte Springs. On both days the suspect at that health facility had contact with a sheriff's deputy, who reported telling her that the checks she paid with had been drawn on a closed Landmark Bank account. The suspect allegedly claimed she didn't know the account was closed and said she would resolve the problem with the bank.

On Friday the same sheriff's deputy was called to the office of dentists Severs & Offenback, Bear Lake Road, Forest City. There the suspect had allegedly gotten a prescription for 30 Percodan from Dr. Mark Offenback. She allegedly presented another check on the closed account. According to a sheriff's report it had been determined that the prescriptions presented at Humana Med First were fake.

Regina Lynn Weekley Mobley, was arrested at the sheriff's department at 11:15 a.m. Thursday. She has been charged with attempting to obtain a controlled substance by fraud and obtaining a controlled substance by fraud. He was also charged with possession of cocaine and was being held in lieu of $3,000 bond in Seminole County — the cocaine reportedly was found in his jacket pocket after his initial arrest.

Jack Raymond Hill, 28, of Christmas, has been charged in the case. He was also being held for Orange County.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE CITIZENS OF DISTRICT 4:

CARRIAGE COVE, DREAMWOLD, GENEVA TERRACE, GROVEVIEW VILLAGE, HIDDEN LAKE ESTATES, HIDDEN LAKE VILLAS, IDYLLWILDE, MAYFAIR VILLAS, PINECREST, PINE RIDGE CLUB, RAMBLEWOOD, SANORA, THE OAKES, WOODMERE PARK

AND ALL OTHERS IN THE CITY OF SANFORD SOUTH OF 25TH STREET

Another Important Election THAT CONCERN YOU

LET YOUR VOICES BE HEARD ON DECEMBER 2nd!!

SANFORD IS YOUR CITY. IT IS RAPIDLY GROWING. YOU have a stake in how the city is run. Will it be a city that reflects the desires of its residents — a city you can take pride in? Or will you, by default, let others make decisions that your tax dollars pay for?

In the last city election of 1982 only 613 voters out of over 4,000 who were eligible to vote in District 4 cast a ballot. Yet we represent more than 13 different neighborhoods and encompass the largest area of the city.

Did you feel it wasn't worth bothering about, because no one listened to the individual citizen anyway? Perhaps you had my experience. In 27 years of living in the city, I contacted a commissioner on only two occasions. Both times my requests were brushed aside as someone who was bothering a BIG city official who had more important things to worry about.

To me, the city is it's PEOPLE. Each and every one of you is important. That's why I decided to run for city commissioner. It wasn't a last minute decision, but one made with a lot of thought. My seven children are grown, and I now have the time, energy, enthusiasm, and dedication to represent YOU.

I represent no special interest group. Mine is a grass roots campaign with YOU as my campaign manager. My platform is whatever is in the best interest of YOU, the voter, I'd like input from you now and in the future. I will always be available to listen and represent you. My phone number is 322-2438.

My goal is to enable every citizen to have a VOICE in how our city is run and how OUR tax dollars are spent. To do this I plan to have neighborhood town meetings whenever an issue arises that affects your neighborhood.

ISSUES AND CONCERNS BROUGHT TO MY ATTENTION THUS FAR

- GREATER POLICE PROTECTION AND MORE RAPID RESPONSE TO CALLS FOR HELP.
- SUPERVISED CENTERS WHERE TEENAGERS COULD MEET AND RAP.
- USE OF CITY OWNED PROPERTY ON LAKE GOLDEN FOR SWIMMING, BOATING AND RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES, WITH CITY MAINTENANCE AND SUPERVISION.
- PLANNED SUMMER RECREATIONAL PROGRAMS IN NEIGHBORHOOD PARKS.
- GREATER PUBLICITY GIVEN WHEN CHANGE OF ZONING THAT WOULD AFFECT NEARBY RESIDENTIAL AREAS IS BEING CONSIDERED.
- REASONS FOR THE ALMOST TRIPLING OF WATER AND SEWER BILLS.
- AS MUCH ORGANIZATIONAL SKILL, TIME AND MONEY SPENT IN ORGANIZING COMPETITIVE SPORTS AND TEAMS FOR CITIZENS OF ALL AGES AS IS SPENT ON THE GOLDEN AGE OLYMPICS.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Over $350,000 of your taxes was budgeted for GROUND'S MAINTENANCE AND CAPITAL IMPORVEMENT - I feel a large part of it was for the BEAUTIFICATION PROJECT FOR DOWNTOWN SANFORD. This helps the downtown businesses, but does it help your neighborhood??

Over $300,000 was budgeted for CULTURAL, AND RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES AND PARKS. On the surface this seems like a fair amount for recreational activities — BUT WHERE IS IT SPENT? The General Sanford Museum and Library is in this budget. They've been committed to get $70,000 as matching funds from the city.

Many people say they don't want to get involved in politics. THEY ACT LIKE IT'S A "DIRTY" WORD. YOU ARE INVOLVED EVERY TIME YOU PAY YOUR TAX BILL OR WATER AND SEWER BILL. POLITICS BECOMES DIRTY ONLY WHEN PEOPLE DON'T EXERCISE THEIR RIGHTS TO BE REPRESENTED.

RENTERS - Your are involved too! Your rent is a reflection of the cost of taxes and services to the owners of the property. EXERCISE YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE!

REMEMBER: Our forefathers fought the REVOLUTIONARY WAR because there was TAXATION WITH OUT REPRESENTATION. Are you going to let this happen to you?

IF ELECTED I WILL BE THE ADVOCATE OF THE PEOPLE OF DISTRICT 4 — THE WATCHDOG OF YOUR TAX MONEY — SEEING THAT WHEN DECISIONS ARE MADE THAT WILL AFFECT YOU - OR MONEY IS SPENT — THE PEOPLE OF OUR AREA WILL GET A FAIR SHAKE.

WE ARE OVER 4,000 VOTER STRONG, REPRESENTING MORE THAN 10,000 CITIZENS. (The non-voting TEENAGERS and CHILDREN depend on us.) LET YOUR VOICES BE HEARD!!! UNITE BEHIND THE CANDIDATE OF AND FOR THE PEOPLE AND VOTE.

WORLD IN BRIEF

European Community Ministers Producing Syrian Arms Ban

LONDON (UPI) — European foreign ministers met today in a one-day gathering expected to produce a package of common measures against Syria including a ban on arms sales.

Britain has called for the sanctions from its European Community partners because of what it calls "conclusive evidence" that Syria was involved in a plot to blow up an Israeli jetliner flying from London.

British Foreign Secretary Geoffrey Howe hosted the meeting of the 12 EC nations at a London conference center opposite Westminster Abbey.

London broke diplomatic relations with Syria on Oct. 24 because a Jordanian was convicted in the jetliner plot and court testimony implicated Syria.

On Sunday, French Prime Minister Jacques Chirac and West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl met and said they expected an agreement in London. When European foreign ministers met two weeks ago in Luxembourg, they stopped short of supporting Britain's action.

Philippines Said Stable

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — Defense Minister Juan Ponce Enrile met with top military officials today and said the country's situation hours after President Corason Aquino left for Japan was stable although "seemingly tense."

In another development, government negotiator Ramon Mitra announced the 4-month-old peace talks with rebel emissaries will resume tonight. He has said he expects to hammer out a cease-fire soon with the 23,000-strong New People's Army.

Enrile said in a brief statement he discussed the security situation in detail with the armed forces chief, Gen. Fidel Ramos, and the major service chiefs and urged Filipinos to "remain calm."

NASA Says New Booster Joints 'Best Available'

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — NASA officials are confident tests will show the new design for the rocket booster joint that doomed Challenger is safe, but some engineers claim alternatives were never seriously considered, a newspaper says.

David Winterhalter, NASA's chief of propulsion in Washington, told The Orlando Sentinel in a report published Sunday that an exhaustive review of design proposals from four other rocket manufacturers showed "nothing to indicate there were any better designs out there."

Tour Bus Crash Kills One

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — A speeding tour bus taking Latin American visitors to Disney World spun out of control and flipped over on the wet Florida Turnpike, killing one person and injuring 31 others, seven seriously, authorities said.

Witnesses told police the driver of the Miami-based Galaxy Tours bus, Fernando Ortiz, 39, was going about 20 mph above the 45-mph speed limit designated for a construction area of the highway, which was slick with rain at the time of the accident Sunday.

Terrorists Omit Mention Of Americans

French Hostages May Be Freed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — The pro-Syrian Revolutionary Justice Organization today said it will release some of its French hostages within 48 hours as a goodwill gesture toward France and in response to Algerian and Syrian mediation.

The group did not say which of the three French hostages it is holding will go free, but diplomatic sources said all three could be released.

"We announce to world public opinion our decision to free some of the French hostages as a sign of good will in response to the courageous and responsible attitude by France toward our people and Algerian and Syrian mediation," the group said in a statement sent today to a Western news agency in Moslem west Beirut.

2 Whaling Ships Sunk

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (UPI) — Militant conservationists boarded two of Iceland's four whaling ships and sank them in Reykjavik harbor to protest the nation's continued hunting of whales, an anti-whaling group said.

Police divers Sunday discovered sea valves on the 434-ton Hvalur 6 and the 427-ton Hvalur 7 had been opened, causing them to sink so that only their prows were left poking out of the icy water. No one was aboard at the time.

Paul Watson, president of the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society in Vancouver, Canada, said his group was responsible for the sinkings. He said activists entered the engine rooms of the vessels and opened sea valves, sending water pouring into the holds.

Watson, who broke away from the more moderate Greenpeace environmental group to form his own group in the 1970s, said the action probably saved about 200 whales.

"Our organization has the full right to sink the whalers because Iceland is violating the (International Whaling Commission) moratorium," he told United Press International in an interview from Vancouver. He said the activists already had left Iceland and declined to specify how many took part.

Fisheries Minister Halldor Asgrimsdottir denounced the sinkings.

"This will make us Icelanders stand even closer together," he said. "We will not allow acts of violence to influence us."

The Whaling Commission imposed a moratorium on commercial whaling four years ago.

"As a gesture of good will on our part — and to push the French people to exert pressure on their government to meet the promises made regarding our demands that were discussed among Algerian and French mediators and (Syrian) President Hafez Assad — we declare that:

"We will release some French hostages within the next 48 hours," the statement said. The Revolutionary Justice Organization has said in previous statements that it is holding three French hostages in Lebanon.

They are Aurel Cornea, 54, and Jean-Louis Normandin, 34, of the French Antenne Deux television network, and Marcel Coudari, 54, a businessman. Cornea and Normandin were kidnapped March 8. Coudari disappeared in the Beirut area in February. On Sept. 24, the Revolutionary Justice Organization claimed responsibility.

The statement said, "Our new initiative is a reiteration of our good will but we also remind France that it should not forget our demands."

It did not elaborate, but in previous statements, the group has demanded France pay back $1 billion paid by the late Shah of Iran for military equipment and stop arms shipments to Iraq.

The same group released two other French hostages, Philippe Rochot and Georges Hansen, June 20 as a "goodwill gesture" following moves by Paris to improve its relations with Iran. Rochot and Hansen were kidnapped by the Revolutionary Justice Organization Sept. 20 last year with Cornea and Normandin.

Twenty-one foreigners were still missing, believed kidnapped in Lebanon, following the release of American hostage David Jacobson Nov. 1 by the Islamic Jihad organization.

They include seven Americans, nine French nationals, two Britons, an Italian, an Irishman and a South Korean.

The missing Americans are: Terry Anderson, Thomas Sutherland, William Buckley, Falk Warah, Frank Herbert Reed, Joseph James Cicilio and Edward Austin Tracy.

The Islamic Jihad organization has claimed it "executed" Buckley, but his body was not found.

The missing French nationals are: Marcel Fontaine, Marcel Carton, Jean-Paul Kauffmann, Michel Seurat, Aurel Cornea, Jean-Louis Normandin, Camille Sontag, Florence Raad and Marcel Coudari.

The Islamic Jihad claimed it "executed" Seurat, but his body also was not found.

The missing Britons are Alec Collett and John McCarthy.

The Revolutionary Organization of Socialist Moslems has claimed it hanged Collett, but his body also was not found.

The other missing foreigners are: Irishman Brian Keenan, South Korean Chae do-Sung and Italian Alberto Molnari.

6 Teams Reap Region Reward

Rams, Lyman, Howell Beat Heat For Top 6

Lake Mary Has Heart, Does It Have Destiny?

The Lake Mary Rams are a team that has shown a lot of heart. After losing three out of their first four games, the Rams seemed to be forgotten by critics and fans alike.

Four weeks and four wins later, however, the Rams are vying for the district 5A-4 title. Lake Mary needs to have Spruce Creek beat DeLand next week if the Rams are to get a piece of the district pie. If the Creek wins and Lake Mary beats Lyman on Nov. 21, there will be three-way tie for the district. If DeLand wins, the Bulldogs win the district.

"We are the team of destiny," Lake Mary coach Harry Nelson insisted. "There will be a three-way playoff."

Lake Mary got the big plays that it has not gotten so far this season as three big plays made the difference in the Rams 21-7 win over arch-rival Lake Brantley. "We had not gotten any big plays until tonight," Nelson said. "They really came in handy."

Running back John Curry had another super game as the junior raced for 179 yards including a 78 yard touchdown run. "I got some good blocking tonight," Curry said. "We are really coming around as a team."

Lake Mary travels to Orlando Boone in a non-district, non-conference game on Friday night.

Lake Howell is eyeing the Seminole Athletic Conference title and the district 5A-5 title. Lake Howell needs to beat Lake Brantley on Friday and needs Apopka to lose to West Orange.

If Apopka wins, Winter Park must also beat Evans for there to be a three-way tie in the district.

Lake Howell can win the SAC title on Nov. 21 if the Silver Hawks beat Oviedo.

Friday night was another day at the office for Lake Howell as the Hawks crushed Lyman, 25-0. Nate Hoskins continued to show his rushing dominance as he ran for 154 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Lake Howell will host Lake Brantley in a 5A-5 game on Friday in the Hawks' homecoming game.

Oviedo played fairly in its 24-0 win over the Minutemen of Cocoa Beach. Willie Galtney rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown. The Lion offense was sluggish in the first half but came alive in the second half.

Oviedo will host Titusville on Friday night.

The Lyman Greyhounds lead the county in shutouts as the 'Hounds have been shut out three times this season.

Lyman is a team that has not much success offensively and the 'Hounds could manage but two first downs against Lake Howell.

Lyman travels to Satellite Beach.

Lake Brantley is 0-8 and has lost 16 of its last 17 games. In the Patriots 21-7 loss to Lake Mary, Brantley played well despite the score.

Brantley had a pair of long drives go to waste as it could not attack the ball in the end one when it got close.

ORLANDO — High temperatures and humidity accounted for the slow times in the District 4A-5 Cross Country Championships at Trinity Preparatory School's course Saturday but they couldn't keep Lake Mary, Lyman and Lake Howell from qualifying for the 4A-3 Region by finishing in the top six.

Lyman used a strong team effort to finish second as the 'Hounds finished with a team score of 81. Winter Park won the meet with a low score of 54.

Orlando Colonial took third while Lake Howell finished fourth with a score of 111, the Silver Hawks' sixth runner came through for them as Boone also finished with 111 but Lake Howell had a better sixth runner than Boone. Lake Mary finished sixth with 163 points to take the last qualifying position.

Trinity is known to be one of the fastest courses in Central Florida, usually providing the area with its fastest times.

The temperature, well over 80, is uncommon this time of year when all runners start peaking toward the state meet. The heat and humidity, if it continues, will come even more into the picture at the region meet, according to Lake Mary coach Mark McGee.

"The region is the meet where you try to qualify for state," McGee said about Saturday's meet in John Prince Park at Lake Worth. "That means kids are going to go all out despite the heat. I'm really concerned about someone getting hurt."

Lyman will attempt to keep its momentum going into the state meet to be held Nov. 22 at the DeLand Airport in DeLand.

The Greyhounds, though, may be without the services of Nick Radkewich. "I still have no idea whether or not he will run Saturday," Lyman coach Fred Finke said. Radkewich is also a fine swimmer and must decide between the region cross country and the swimming district.

Winter Park's Ken Gamber, right, holds a narrow lead over Lyman's Robin Rogers and Colonial's John Salyers, left, on the second lap of Saturday's run. Gamber held on to win the 4A-5 District title while Salyers finished second and Rogers was third.

The Greyhounds saw the return of Darren Marshall who is coming off an injury and Finke has been bringing him back to form. "We just wanted him to finish Saturday," Finke said. "I kept telling him to slow down during the race."

Marshall played an integral part in the Lyman attack earlier in the season and is expected to come on strong the next few meets. "We've brought him along slowly," Finke said. "We're going to need a strong effort from him and the team in the regional meet."

Leading the way for the Greyhounds was junior Robin

Rogers who finished with a time of 15:47.8 good for third place. Winter Park's Ken Gamber won the race with a time of 15:35.4 and Colonial's Allen Salyers came on to nip Rogers late for second at 15:44.1.

Radkewich was next finishing in seventh place at 16:16.5, Mike Moehler was a step behind at 16:22.2 good for eighth place.

Bears Assault, Battery Add To Bucs' Miseries

By Ira Kaufman

United Press International
TAMPA — The Buccaneers walked out of Tampa Stadium the same way the Bears walked in — battered.

Walter Payton shrugged off a toe injury to account for 208 yards of total offense Sunday in Chicago's 23-3 triumph. Tampa Bay, 2-8, lost for the sixth time in seven games and lost running back Nathan Wonsley and tight end Jerry Bell for the season.

Despite a dislocated big toe in his right foot, Payton rushed for 139 yards and added 69 yards on three receptions as the Bears improved to 8-2 with their seventh straight triumph against the Buccaneers.

Second-year quarterback Mike Tomczak, filling in for injured Jim McMahon, threw for one touchdown and ran for another, and Kevin Butler kicked three field goals to keep Chicago two games ahead of Minnesota in the NFC Central. The Bears also played without middle linebacker Mike Singletary.

Another Pro Bowl linebacker, Otis Wilson, played sparingly because of a leg injury.

"Walter Payton is something else," Chicago Coach Mike Ditka said. "We did a lot of good things. We ran the ball well and Tomczak threw the ball well. He never missed anything."

Attracting the first Tampa Stadium sellout in almost four years, the Bears took a 14-0 lead midway through the opening period. Payton, who carried 20 times, sliced through the NFL's worst defense for the 77th 100-yard game of his 12-year career.

"We were simply outmanned and beaten," Tampa Bay Coach Leeman Bennett said. "Everything totally changes once your starters are injured. They were just a better football team. Any coach that stays in the game long enough is going to have days when this many players get hurt."

Wonsley suffered a partial dislocation of his neck while making the tackle on the opening kickoff and he will be hospitalized for several weeks. Bell's right ankle is fractured and injuries also struck wide receiver Leonard Harris, safety Craig Swoope, running back James Wilder and linebacker Scot Brantley.

Former Heisman Trophy

winner Doug Flutie replaced Tomczak with 4:28 remaining and helped direct the Bears to their final score. Butler's 22-yard field goal with 1:58 left. It was Butler's 16th straight successful attempt. Flutie's only pass fell incomplete in the end zone on the play preceding Butler's kick.

The Buccaneers were limited to Donald Igwebuike's 42-yard field goal in the second quarter as William Perry led a defensive charge that sacked Steve Young five times.

Tomczak completed 11 of 24 passes for 265 yards, including a 37-yard scoring loss to Willie Gault. Payton's 57-yard gain on a screen pass set up Tomczak's 1-yard plunge for his first NFL touchdown. Butler kicked earlier field goals of 25 and 23 yards.

"Every time we play Tampa Bay, it's a tough game," Chicago tackle Jimbo Covert said. "I'd have to say that team motivates us. Even though they were 2-7, they played us tough today."

Young hit on 22 of 43 passes for 220 yards in his first career appearance against the Bears, who have allowed the fewest points (120) in the league.

Lady Lions Wear Crown, Look To Extend Domain

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

After making the district their domain, Oviedo's Lady Lions are now looking to rule the region.

Oviedo disposed of pesky St. Cloud in the 3A-6 District finals to advance to Tuesday night's 3A-3 Region playoff, which the Lady Lions will host, against Gainesville High.

Oviedo, the only Seminole County volleyball team still alive, takes a 23-2 record and 14-match winning streak into Tuesday's match. Oviedo downed St. Cloud, 15-5, 15-17, 15-8 in the 3A-6 finals while Gainesville rolled past Ocala Vanguard, 15-6, 15-8, in 3A-5.

"We're excited about the regionals Tuesday," Oviedo sophomore Suzanne Hughes said. "I think we all played with a lot of confidence in the last game (against St. Cloud)."

The cohesive team concept that coach Anita Carlson has instilled has made Oviedo able to pull together when the games get close. The Lady Lions trailed in the deciding game Thursday against

Volleyball

St. Cloud, but came back strong to win.

"We held together really well," Oviedo junior Jill Knutson said. "Even in the second game (17-15 loss) we didn't play that bad. We were just confused with them (St. Cloud) playing bump ball. We played a lot better the third game. We knew we had to have it then. It was too important to us."

The Lady Lions are now looking forward to the regional playoff where they dropped a heartbreaking three-game match to Ocala Vanguard last season. Oviedo had won the first game and had an 11-2 lead in the second before Vanguard came back.

Knutson and Hughes, along with seniors Kelly Price and Barbara Malone, provided the offensive power in Thursday night's win while dynamo Kelly Davidson had another fine night setting and Cindy Wood and Trudy Ferguson led the defensive effort.

Oviedo has never made it to the state tournament in volleyball although it came within a win of going to state in 1984. The 1986 edition of Lady Lions volleyball has all the ingredients and now just needs to put them together two more times to cook up a berth in the state tourney.

SEMINOLE, HOWELL BOW OUT

After starting the season with a combined record of 0-10, Seminole High's Lady Seminoles and Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks came on like gangbusters in the late season and both came within 15 points of reaching the 4A-9 District finals.

Seminole, 0-6 at the start of the season, defeated Lake Mary twice in three days (Monday and Wednesday) this week to advance to the tournament semifinals. Lake Mary was seeded third in the tourney and Seminole sixth.

Seminole played an outstanding first game and defeated DeLand, 15-10, on Thursday night but the Lady Tribe could not keep the momentum going and DeLand came back to win the match.

The play of senior Sheri Peterson sparked the Lady 'Noles to their late-season surge. Peterson has been on the varsity squad since her sophomore year but just this season took over the full-time setting duties.

"Sheri (Peterson) played so well all season and always picked up the younger players," Seminole coach Beth Corso said. "It was nice to make the semifinals, but I feel real sorry for her and all the seniors because we felt we could go to the finals."

The Seminoles will return a number of talented young players next season led by junior Cindy Bengie and sophomores Liz Long, Adrian Hillsman and Aretha Riggins.

Lake Howell lost its first four matches of the season but came back to challenge for the Seminole Athletic Conference and district titles. The Lady Hawks were the only team in the SAC to defeat league-champion Oviedo and the only team in Seminole County to upend DeLand (Oviedo didn't play DeLand).

Lady Hawks Win District, Avenge Loss

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

ORLANDO — A number of the top teams and most talented runners in the state gathered at Trinity Preparatory School Saturday morning. But, in the sweltering heat and almost unbearable humidity, it took more than talent to pull the athletes through.

Courage was the word of the day at the 4A-5 District Cross Country Championships.

●Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks, who suffered a crushing loss in the same meet and same course one year ago, withstood the heat and overcame a big emotional roadblock en route to the district title.

●Lyman's Lady Greyhounds, running without one of their top three performers, received gutsy efforts from freshmen Lori Jones and Adele Portnoy and junior Tara Brahney in a fourth-place team finish.

●The most courageous individual performance of the meet was turned in by Lake Mary senior Sue Kingsbury. Running in constant pain, Kingsbury was the team's number one runner as the Lady Rams took fifth place and qualified for the regional meet.

The top six teams and top five individuals in the district qualify for this Saturday's 4A-3 Region meet at John Prince Park in Boca Raton.

Lake Howell packed four runners among the top seven and finished with a team score of 34 compared to 46 for defending district and state champion Winter Park.

"I'm happy we got this meet out of the way," Lake Howell coach Tom Hammontree said. "Last year had been so bitter in the girls' minds. My biggest fear was a repeat of last year. Now that they're past the district meet, the girls can just go out and run."

On a course that usually produces times in the low 11s, Winter Park senior Kim Bovis was the only runner to slice through the thick air and break 12 minutes. Bovis, the two-time defending state champion, finished with a time of 11:53.4.

Not far behind Bovis was Lake Howell senior Lisa Samocki who put on a hard charge in the second mile and finished with a time of 12:01. Senior teammate Martha Fonseca came in next with a 12:17.3 clocking.

Solidifying Lake Howell's hold on the top spot was the sixth and seventh place finishes of sophomore Jenny Bolt and senior Mary Fonseca. Bolt's time was 12:37.9 while Mary Fonseca finished at 12:38.6. Completing the Lady Hawks' top five was junior Bonnie Oliver who came in 17th with a time of 13:04.8. Lake Howell's sixth and seventh runners also finished in the top 26 as sophomore Tammy Bolt was 21st at 13:20.2 and sophomore Michelle Lee 26th at 13:38.1.

"The girls didn't run really great times but they ran aggressively," Hammontree said. "That's what I'm really pleased with. They set the tempo for the next two weeks."

Behind Lake Howell and Winter Park in the team scoring was West Orange at 113, Lyman at 145 and Lake Mary and Orlando Oak Ridge tied at 146 with Lake Mary taking fifth on the strength on its number six runner. Lake Brantley, once ranked sixth in the state, failed to qualify for the region meet as it came in seventh at 164.

Lyman got solid performances from senior Julie Greenberg and junior Tracy Fisher. Greenberg finished 15th at 12:59.2 while Fisher came in 16th with a time of 13:00.2. The Lady Greyhounds were without number three runner Lynn Gomezperalta who is academically ineligible.

Following Greenberg and Fisher in the top five were Brahney (27th at 13:38.3), Portnoy (43rd at 14:22.6) and Jones (51st at 14:39.1).

"It hurts to lose your number three runner," Lyman coach Fred Finke said. "But the girls pulled together and ran a strong race today."

Kingsbury, who did not run in any practices this past week, fought through her pain and finished 19th with a time of 13:13.9 to lead the Lady Rams.

Composed Crowd Watches Cool Bell Heel Dawgs

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The crowd of 81,957 at the Gator Bowl Saturday was almost as composed as Florida quarterback Kerwin Bell.

With city officials intent on establishing crowd control for the annual Florida-Georgia game, police surrounded the field late in the fourth quarter and prevented a repeat of the 1985 stampede that injured Gator mascot Albert the Alligator. Of 46 arrests made just prior to the end of the game, 25 were for intoxication and 21 for scalping.

Bell, who missed three consecutive starts because of a severe knee sprain, threw for 272 yards and found Ricky Nattiel three times for touchdown passes, including a clinching 42-yarder with 5:34 left in Florida's 31-19 triumph. The Gators have won four straight after a 1-4 start to enter the bowl picture while the Bulldogs fell to 6-3.

"It was a pleasure out there today," said Bell, who engineered a remarkable 18-17 comeback victory against Auburn last week. "Give the offensive line credit — they made it easy for me."

Georgia's James Jackson completed just 4 of 17 passes for 50 yards and the Gators capitalized on the only turnover by the Bulldogs. Florida had pulled within 19-17 late in the third quarter when nose guard Jeff Roth and inside linebacker Arthur White caused a Tate fumble that Steve Stille recovered at the Georgia 45. James Massey's 3-yard run just three seconds into the final quarter gave the Gators a 24-19 advantage.

Football

Nattiel caught seven passes for 97 yards despite playing with a "constant ache" from a left shoulder that was separated against Auburn. He had TD receptions of 8, 9 and 42 yards and joined Carlos Alvarez as the only players in Gator history to exceed 2,000 receiving yards in his career.

"In my mind, I knew I was going to play," said Nattiel, a 5-foot-10 senior who draws continual double coverage because of his exceptional speed. "It was my last time to play Georgia and that was enough motivation. I just wanted to help, maybe catch two or three passes. I had no idea it would turn out like this."

FSU RALLIES BEHIND FERGUSON

The Florida State Seminoles rose from the dead before the grave digger arrived at South Carolina and are still alive for a possible bowl bid.

Florida State went into the second half trailing the Gamecocks 21-6 Saturday, scored 29 points in the third period and won going away 45-28.

The Seminoles are 5-3-1 and an invitation to a minor bowl is still a possibility.

For the top-ranked Miami Hurricanes it's only a question of which bowl to choose as they stomped mistake-prone Pittsburgh 37-10, running their record to 9-0.

At South Carolina on Saturday, the Seminoles struggled during the first half.

"We rose from the dead," said

Seminole Coach Bobby Bowden

Running back Victor Floyd ran for two third-quarter touchdowns while gaining 115 yards in 24 carries. Reserve fullback Dayne Williams also scored twice in the period and quarterback Chip Ferguson threw for a two-point conversion.

Ferguson replaced the struggling Peter Tom Willis in the second quarter and finished with 15 completions in 22 attempts for 228 yards.

Miami never trailed on its way to its ninth victory, but the Hurricanes were getting nervous with a 7-3 lead until David Kintigh returned apud 67 yards for a touchdown.

Vinny Testaverde continue to sail toward the Heisman Trophy while completing 17 of 26 passes for 291 yards and four touchdowns.

Montana's 3-TD Return Buries Cardinals, 43-17

United Press International

The San Francisco 49ers, who survived for eight weeks while Joe Montana's back healed, flourished Sunday when he returned.

Montana, who underwent surgery for a disc injury and was told there was only a 50-50 chance he would never play again, passed for 270 yards and three long touchdowns to Jerry Rice to lift the 49ers to a 43-17 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The triumph moved San Francisco within a half game of the first-place Los Angeles Rams in the NFC West.

In Montana's absence, San Francisco was 4-3-1 under backups Jeff Kemp and Mike Moroski.

"With Joe back, we seem more in synch," 49ers Coach Bill Walsh said. "There had to be some questions today about Joe's return, but you can't let outside influences affect you. All we could do is take the recommendations of the doctors."

Said Rice, who caught TD passes of 54, 44 and 40 yards: "Just to have him out there gives you such an emotional high. Joe likes to call audibles and he always seems to call the right ones."

Raiders 17, Cowboys 13
At Irving, Texas. Jim Plunkett's 40-yard touchdown pass to Dokie Williams early in the fourth quarter put Los Angeles in front for the first time, and the Raiders capitalized on six Dallas turnovers. Both teams are 6-4.

Chargers 9, Broncos 3
At Denver. Rolf Benirschke kicked three field goals, and safety Jeff Dale had two interceptions to lift San Diego. Benirschke connected from 25, 48 and 21 yards as the Chargers, 2-8, snapped an eight-game losing streak. The Broncos, 8-2, saw their lead in the AFC West trimmed to one game over Kansas City.

Giants 17, Eagles 14
At Philadelphia. Joe Morris ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns and New York had seven sacks — three by Lawrence Taylor — to improve to 8-2 and remain tied with Washington for first place in the NFC East. The Eagles fell to 3-7.

Jets 28, Falcons 14
At Atlanta. Ken O'Brien completed a team-record 17 straight passes, including three second-quarter touchdown strikes, to lead the Jets to their eighth straight victory and the NFL's best record at 9-1. O'Brien completed 26 of 33 passes for 322 yards. Atlanta fell to 5-4-1.

Vikings 24, Lions 10
At Pontiac, Mich. Anthony Carter set up his own 11-yard touchdown catch and a field goal with two long-gam receptions and Minnesota converted three Detroit turnovers into 17 points. Safety Joey Browner returned an interception 39 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter to help Minnesota, 6-4, stop a two-game losing streak.

Patriots 30, Colts 21
At Indianapolis. Tony Eason threw two third-quarter touchdowns and linebacker Steve Nelson made two crucial interceptions to rally New England over the NFL's only winless team.

Bills 16, Steelers 12
At Orchard Park, N.Y. Jim Kelly threw a touchdown pass after battling 40 mph winds and Robb Riddick ran for another score to lift the Bills.

Chiefs 27, Seahawks 7
At Kansas City, Mo. Bill Kenney threw three touchdown passes and the Kansas City defense shut out Seattle for three quarters. The Chiefs, who have not been in the playoffs since 1971, improved to 7-3 to stay in contention for a postseason berth. Seattle lost its third straight and fell to 5-5.

Saints 6, Rams 0
At New Orleans. The Saints held Eric Dickerson to 57 yards rushing, and made two Morten Andersen field goals stand up to improve to 5-5.

Redskins 16, Packers 7
At Green Bay, Wis. Jay Schroeder threw two touchdown passes and Washington shut down Green Bay after the game's opening drive. The Redskins, tied for first in the NFC East with the Giants entering the game, improved to 8-2.

Oilers 32, Bengals 28
At Houston. rookie Ray Wallace rushed for two touchdowns and Warren Moon threw for 310 yards to enable the Oilers to snap an eight-game losing streak. Tony Zendejas kicked four field goals for the Oilers, 2-8.

Schottenheimer: Miami Has More Than Marino Arm

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Dan Marino and a crisp, clear night at Cleveland Stadium mean that Miami is certain to use the NFL's top aerial attack when the Dolphins meet the Browns tonight.

But Cleveland Coach Marty Schottenheimer believes the Miami offense has more in its arsenal.

Schottenheimer and the Browns remember last Jan. 4, when the Dolphins rallied with 21 second-half points to take an AFC playoff victory by a 24-21 margin.

Running back Ron Davenport keyed the Miami comeback with a touchdown run of 31 yards followed by a one-yard plunge with 1:57 remaining.

"Ron Davenport's a powerful runner," said Schottenheimer. "We have to prepare for his presence because he's enjoyed success against us."

"Together with Tony Nathan and Lorenzo Hampton, Miami's got a very potent running game. They're 4-5, but they're much better than that and that's no secret."

The statistics indicate otherwise. The Dolphins average just 89 yards on the ground game, though a 284.6-yard passing average more than takes up the slack.

Davenport has carried 35 times this year for 147 yards and no touchdowns while Hampton has shouldered most of the running with 99 rushes for 363 yards and six touchdowns.

"I'm satisfied with the way we use our backfield," said Miami Coach Don Shula. "Of course, when you've got a quarterback who's passed for over 2,500 yards and 21 touchdowns, it's easy to be satisfied."

"But we consider our offense to be a blend of passing and running. Sure, we're known for the aerial approach, but the running game is like a dash of spice."

Shula said the Cleveland running game "has performed well against us."

"We rose from the dead," said

IN BRIEF

Raines, Barks Propel Alumni Past Faculty In Flag Football

Tim Raines raced 75 yards for one touchdown and snared a 50-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Barks for another as the Alumni blanked the Faculty, 14-0, in a flag football fund-raiser Saturday night before 151 fans at Seminole High School.

"The Faculty played us pretty tough," Alumni coach Tom Whigham said. "They played us a lot tougher than I expected."

The victory gives the Alumni a 2-1-1 record for the annual four-game series.

Raines, a 1977 graduate and National League batting champion this year for the Montreal Expos, broke loose on a sweep around the right side and outraced several defenders down the sideline. Barks hooked up with Levi Raines for the two-out conversion and an 8-0 lead with 5:10 left in the first quarter.

Much of the second quarter was dominated by interceptions as Faculty defensive backs Jim "J.T." Thompson and Mike Ferrell picked off passes. Lance Abney turned in several fine flag pulls.

With just 18 seconds remaining in the half, Barks, who piloted Seminole to an unbeaten season in 1971, found Tim Raines with a bomb down the right sideline for the 50-yard score. A run for the conversion was stopped.

The Faculty's biggest scoring opportunity came when Don Merrick returned an interception to the Alumni 40-yard line. But the Faculty offense, with Emory Blake at quarterback, couldn't find the end zone.

Unser Breezes But Rahal Wins

MIAMI (UPI) — As Al Unser Jr. breezed by him on the final lap of Sunday's Nissan Indy Challenge at Tamiami Park, all Roberto Guerrero could do was watch helplessly.

Guerrero was out of options, nearly out of fuel, and once again out of the winner's circle. Guerrero led for the first 111 laps of the 112-lap race, but with his car sputtering through the final two laps, lost out on notching the first victory of his three-year Indy career.

Bobby Rahal won the 1986 CART driving championship by finishing eighth. Rahal finished with 179 points to 171 for Michael Andretti, who left the race on the 60th lap with a broken halfshaft.

Unser, who overcame a nearly 30-second deficit, finished 35 seconds in front of Guerrero, who came in second for the third time in his career. Unser earned $68,160 for the victory and broke the course record by averaging 106.322 mph on the 1.78-mile, eight-turn course. The race was 200 miles long.

Rick Mears finished third, followed by Kevin Cogan and Geoff Brabham.

Martina Outlasts Shriver

WORCESTER, Mass. (UPI) — Pam Shriver's four-year wait to defeat Martina Navratilova nearly came to an end Sunday night. Then Navratilova mustered her competitive spirit.

Navratilova, the reigning Wimbledon and U.S. Open champion, outlasted the determined Shriver 3-6, 7-6 (7-3), 6-4 in the semifinals of a $250,000 tennis tournament to record her 44th straight singles victory in tournament play.

In a rematch of this summer's Wimbledon final, Navratilova will meet No. 2 seed Hana Mandlikova in tonight's match for the $48,000 first prize.

Mandlikova topped unseeded Bettina Bunge 6-1, 7-5 in Sunday's other semifinal. The No. 2 seed used her speed and strong serve to counter the shot-making ability of Bunge, who watched helplessly as her fleet opponent returned dropshots and softly angled volleys for winners.

Edberg Embarrasses Wilander

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Stefan Edberg crushed Mats Wilander 6-2, 6-1, 6-1 Sunday to win the $435,000 Stockholm Open and secure his position as Sweden's top tennis player.

Edberg needed only 80 minutes to send his compatriot to the worst defeat of his career.

Wilander, coming off a seven-week sabbatical from tennis, took the outcome with humor. He left the stadium dressed in a strait-jacket and carried on a stretcher, headed for his bachelor party. He will marry Sonya Mulholland Jan. 3.

"See you Stefan, if I survive this," Wilander shouted.

Abernethy, Rose Lyman Royalty

Seniors Karen Abernethy and Charlie Rose, a pair of all-stars in soccer and swimming, respectively, were voted queen and king at Lyman High School homecoming festivities Friday night.

Abernethy has been an all-state soccer player for the past three years and figures to draw all of the college scouts' attention this winter. Rose is the defending state champion in the 200 individual medley and is being heavily recruited by several major colleges.

Lyman lost the football game, 25-0, to Lake Howell.

SCC's Women, Men Nab Weekend Wins

The 22-point performances of first-year players Paula White and Pam Jackson and the inside spark of Lisa Starks propelled Seminole Community College's Lady Raiders to an 83-64 rout of Brevard Community College in the Lady Raiders' opener Saturday at BCC's Melbourne campus.

White, a freshman out of Gainesville Buchholz High, hit 11 of 13 from the floor while Jackson, a Lyman High graduate and Tennessee transfer, pumped in 10 of 19 from the floor. Starks, a sophomore, tossed in 21 points of 9 of 13 shooting and pulled down an impressive 24 rebounds.

"Everyone yelled real well for the first game of the season," SCC assistant Debbie Scherr said. "They moved the ball well, executed well and our full court press forced Brevard to turn the ball over a lot."

Scherr took over the head coaching reins Friday as head coach Ileana Gallagher was out of town due to a personal problem. Scherr said the Lady Raiders performed impressively under the circumstances.

SCC returns to action Friday and Saturday in the Pensacola Junior College Tipoff Tournament.

Sophomore point guard Carol King ran the show well Friday as she added 10 points on 5 of 8 shooting and dealt out 12 assists. Fatima Lafond, also a sophomore, chipped in with six points.

White scored 16 of her 22 points in the first half as the Lady Raiders built a 42-27 lead. SCC, led by Sparks, controlled the boards with 48 rebounds compared to Brevard's 27. SCC also shot 60 percent from the floor (39-65).

For Jackson, it was her first game on the hardwood for a year. The pure-shooting Lyman product spent one year at the University of Tennessee before returning to the Central Florida area. Scherr said the layoff did not hurt Jackson.

"She's looked real good in practice so she wasn't stale

Saturday night, Scherr said of Jackson. "She's really aggressive and has good speed and a good shot."

HOUSTON BOMBS LIFT MEN

Malcolm Houston pumped in five three-point goals and finished with a team-high 21 points Friday as Seminole Community College's men roared to a 108-68 victory over North Florida Community College at Madison.

SCC improved to 3-0 with the win and returns to action Tuesday at Florida College in Temple Terrace. The Raiders have scored 100 or more points in each of their three victories.

Coach Bill Payne's Raiders open their home schedule Friday in the four-team Raider Tournament. Joining SCC in the tourney are Brevard Community College, Patrick Air Force Base and Orlando Naval Training Center. Games will be at 6 and 8 p.m. at the SCC Health Center.

North Florida actually played SCC to a 42-42 tie in the first half Friday before the Raiders blitzed their Madison foes in the second half. SCC scored 66 second-half points and held North Florida to 26.

"We played with no emotion in the first half," SCC assistant Dean Smith said. "We just couldn't seem to get started. We would get a 7-10 point lead and then just relax."

Foul trouble hurt SCC as Vance Hall, Claude Jackson and Barry Dunning all went to the pine with infractions. North Florida connected on 20 of 23 free throws to hang tough in the first 20 minutes. Fred McKee hit all nine charity tosses.

Houston, however, left the wakeup call in the first five minutes as he rang the alarm with four three-point goals. "We finally got our fastbreak going," Payne said about 16 second-half assists. "We played good defense, too. We limited them to 27 percent shooting in the second half."

Smith said the turning point came during a four-minute stretch midway through the half. Hall, a 6-8 All-America prospect, ripped off a missed shot by James Morris, whirled and dunked the ball behind his head.

Hall's slammer started a procession of another Houston three-pointer and two dunks, all in spectacular fashion. After an NFCC miss, Darris Gallagher stole the ball and fed Jackson for a dunk. After another errant shot, Efrem Brooks set up Jackson from another slam and a 12-point lead.

Hall led the way underneath with 17 points and nine rebounds while Jackson pumped in 16 points and Brooks popped in 11, including a three-point goal. Robert Williams added nine points while Darris Gallagher netted eight points and dished out nine assists. Morris and Holly Keller also contributed eight points each.

McKee scored 28 of the 68 points for North Florida including 14 of 14 from the free throw line.

UCF Plays Tough But Falls, 33-23

By Scott Sander
Herald Sports Writer

ORLANDO — University of Central Florida's Knights have played a number of opponents tough this season only to come up on the short end of the stick.

That was the case once again Saturday night as UCF gave defending Division II national champion Georgia Southern all it could handle for three quarters before falling, 33-23, in college football before a crowd of 11,137 at Orlando Stadium.

"There is no question that the better football team won tonight," UCF coach Gene McDowell said. "We are not as good as Georgia Southern is right now but in a few years I think we can be."

The Eagles (7-2) rallied behind the offensive heroics of quarterback Tracy Ham, the only quarterback in college football history to go over the 8,000 yards mark in combined rushing and passing, threw for 267 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

"We didn't play our best game tonight," Ham said about the ninth-ranked Eagles. "UCF had a lot to do with that, though."

McDowell said that the difference in the game was the play of Ham. "He won the game for them," McDowell said of the elusive senior. "I'm glad that he is a senior and we won't have to go up against him ever again."

Last year, Ham came off the bench to rally Southern from an 18-6 deficit to a 35-18 win over UCF.

The Southern offense is designed around Ham's ability to roll out. UCF could not contain Ham. "We worked on trying to keep him in the pocket all week," McDowell said. "But it didn't work. I don't think that anybody has ever contained him."

The UCF offense has relied mainly on the passing game so far this season, but against Southern the Knights rushed for 209 yards while throwing for 119. "We ran the ball very well tonight," McDowell said. "It was working well so we stuck with it."

GSU scored first when Frank Johnson capped a 69-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown toss from Ham. Tim Foley's PAT gave GSU a 7-0 lead.

After UCF recovered a fumble at the Southern 32, quarterback Tony Lanham scored on a one-yard touchdown plunge. Eddie O'Brien's PAT tied the score at 7.

UCF took the lead early in the second period when fullback Aaron Sam scored on a 16-yard run. O'Brien's PAT gave UCF a 14-7 edge.

Southern retaliated when Gerald Harris scored on a two-yard run. Foley's PAT made the halftime score, 14-14.

GSU came out in the third quarter and took control. The Eagles scored when Harris dove in from the one. The PAT was no good making the score 20-14 after three quarters of play.

After O'Brien's 32-yard field goal cut the deficit to 20-17, but UCF could get no closer as Foley kicked a pair of field goals (47 and 24 yards) and Ham sewed up the win when he hit Tony Belser with a 45-yard touchdown strike. The PAT put GSU up, 33-17.

UCF scored on the final play of the game when Lanham hit Neal Beasley with a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Declines led averages 502-357 among the 1,304 issues crossing the New York Stock Exchange tape.

Early turnover amounted to about 8,189,000 shares.

The stock market scored a gain in active trading last week but the bulk of its advance occurred in the beginning of the week while selling dominated activity at the end.

For the first time since early September, the Dow Jones Industrial average appeared as if it might be headed for a close above 1900. It fell just short, however, adding only 8.72 points to end the week at 1886.53.

Stock prices got a boost from bonds early in the week. Bonds climbed Monday before dealers started cutting prices during the Treasury quarterly financing auctions of $29 billion of notes and bonds.

The market's sharpest gain occurred Monday, when rising bond prices helped boost the Dow 16 points. Stocks retreated a bit Tuesday before advancing again Wednesday, after Democrats decisively defeated Republicans to regain control of the U.S. Senate.

With interest rates rising and takeover enthusiasm waning, the market spent Thursday and Friday gaining up ground.

Supreme Court Won't Block Damages In Spermicide Case

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court, acting in a case that could drive some birth control products off the market, left intact today a $4.7 million damage award to a couple who blamed a spermicide for their daughter's birth defects.

The justices refused to hear an appeal by Ortho Pharmaceutical Co., which argued there is no scientific evidence linking its Ortho-Gynol Contraceptive Jelly with abnormal development of fetuses.

In July 1985, U.S. District Judge Marvin Shoob of Georgia ruled that the spermicide maker, a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, was liable for various physical deformities in Katie Wells. Including a deformed right hand, no left arm and partial development of her left shoulder.

The judge awarded her parents, Mary Mahaffey and Gary Wells, $5.1 million for medical expenses, pain and suffering and lost wages. In May 1986, an appeals court upheld the judge's finding, but reduced the award to $4.7 million.

In other action today, the court:

● Took up the appeal of Juozas Kungys, who the federal government has accused of fraudulently obtaining citizenship and taking part in Nazi war crimes. The justices agreed to review a decision by the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that Kungys had concealed "material facts" — his birthday and birth place — in his visa and naturalization applications.

● Agreed to decide, in a case from Nevada, if states may pass laws calling for a mandatory death penalty for prison inmates who commit murder while serving a life term without chance for parole.

● Announce it will consider the extent of taxes that states may levy on out-of-state trucks, a decision that could mean millions in lost revenue to states. The American Trucking Associations Inc. is appealing a Pennsylvania court ruling that upheld a special tax on trucks from other states.

The spermicide case has spawned a debate within the medical community over standards to be used by judges considering scientific evidence.

Recently, Drs. James Miller and Duane Alexander of the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development said it demonstrates that lawsuits can be won with evidence rejected by the scientific community.

The pair, writing in The New England Journal of Medicine, said, "The decision to sue the medical community by a private citizen because of the overwhelming body of evidence indicates that spermicides are not (the cause of birth defects)."

They said the case would also encourage other lawsuits, which could drive such products off the market and "the practical effect of the Wells case could be to limit the public's access to useful contraceptives."

Eastern Unions Offer Buyout

MIAMI (UPI) — In a last-ditch move to block the sale of Eastern Airlines to Texas Air Corp., union leaders today offered the troubled carrier's stockholders a $600 million cash buyout proposal on behalf of Eastern employees.

Charles Bryan, leader of Eastern's Machinists Union, hand-carried the proposal to Eastern headquarters at 9:40 a.m. Monday. There was no immediate reaction from the airline's officials.

Bryan represented the Eastern Airlines Employee Acquisition Coalition, which was incorporated in Illinois in an attempt to acquire Eastern on the employees' behalf. The Air Line Pilots Association and the Transport Workers Union share membership in the coalition.

Bryan said the coalition was offering $10.25 cash for each share of Eastern common stock.

In a report on Cable News Network Sunday, Shultz responded with a brief, flat "no" when asked whether he was considering leaving his post.

Shultz was making a one-day trip to Guatemala today, as a regularly scheduled meeting with Reagan later in the week.

The president was returning to the White House today from a three-day weekend at Camp David in time to celebrate the Marine Corps anniversary at a Rose Garden ceremony.

Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger also reportedly was angry over the Iranian connection in the release of hostage David Jacobson on Nov. 2.

Senate Democratic leader Robert Byrd said Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press," "It is my understanding that Mr. Weinberger hit the ceiling. Mr.

Shultz's nose is out of joint. And I can understand."

Byrd called dealing with terrorists "a serious mistake" and warned it created a precedent of "arms vs. hostages vs. arms vs. hostages. And it guarantees the continued taking of hostages."

Regan said of Shultz and Weinberger: "Well, without putting words in their mouths, I've never seen them angry over what we're doing for the hostages. I simply don't believe those stories..."

News accounts indicated not only the State Department but also the Pentagon and CIA had been cut out of the deal to avoid leaks and evade requirements for reporting to Congress.

In a related development, congressional sources over the weekend reported that several congressional committees plan to investigate the National Security Council's role in facilitating the arms deal and if the purpose of that role was to circumvent

Congress, the Pentagon and the State Department.

The Times also said that Shultz and Weinberger were aware that a secret channel had been opened to Iran last year by former national security adviser Robert McFarlane, with Israel as the middleman selling its old weapons to Iran while getting new shipments from the United States.

But officials said Cabinet officers argued that the operation should be shut down and Reagan agreed to halt the covert deal in May, the Times said.

However, the newspaper said Reagan changed his mind on the advice of current national security adviser, Admiral John Poindexter, and resumed the program under the auspices of the National Security Council.

Another White House official insisted that Shultz "has been involved from (the plan's) inception. ... He knew. The White House did not muzzle anyone."

Illegal drug deals. Two men turned to walk away as she arrived and she saw one drop a packet of crack cocaine, which she picked up before grabbing them and taking them to her patrol car.

Another deputy, Mark Lee, who arrived to assist, was distracted by someone else at the scene, Ms. Strickland said. When Lee left, the two suspects made a break and the one who dropped the cocaine grabbed it back from her before he ran, she said.

Ms. Strickland chased the man to the rear of the grocery into a trash-filled field, where he backhanded her across the chest and knocked her down onto a pile of trash. She got up and resumed the chase, following the man to a roadway where she said he may have mixed in with a group of about eight other men.

Ms. Strickland said she had the wind knocked out of her in the fall and felt a little faint, so she went to the fire station and the hospital to be checked. She said she "wasn't about to faint there," where a group of men had been cheering the escapees on.

The suspect is about six inches taller than she, Ms. Strickland said. —Susan Loden

I-4 Corridor Rail System Studied

By Paul C. Schaefer
Herald Staff Writer

A public railway system designed to serve Seminole County commuters is the subject of a $31,000 preliminary study now underway. The study area of the proposed system is through the Interstate 4 corridor through Seminole County, from County Road 46 to State Road 436.

Although the initial study being done by the consulting firm of Post, Buckley, Schuh and Jernigan is expected to cost $31,000, no county funds will be spent. Developer Jeno Paulucci, Sanford is contributing $6,250, and the rest of the money is coming from a $25,000 Urban Mass Transportation Administration grant, according to assistant county administrator Woody Price.

County commission chairman Bob Sturm said the commission has discussed the rail system only briefly, and said his fellow members are "totally open" on the idea at this time.

He said the time for the commission to begin serious consideration on the system will come after the consultant study is completed. The study will determine if county growth warrants such a transportation system.

Sturm said the grand had been approved "within the last 90 to 120 days," but said such an idea has merit.

"I think in the next two decades that kind of transportation would have a place in our overall transportation scheme," Sturm said.

He added that if such a rail system is eventually approved, it would probably "come down to a joint venture between private enterprise, and the county and state governments."

Commissioners will decide whether to pursue the idea or shelve it, based on the results of the initial study.

Paulucci's 1,200-acre Heathrow community at the intersection of I-4 and Lake Mary Blvd. is planned to have over 4,000 homes plus business offices and retail centers, and is one of the major developments in the corridor study area which could be serviced by the rail system.

Paulucci has said that the proposed system isn't being considered just for the benefits to Heathrow residents, but is a start toward a mass transit system he feels the area may need by the turn of the century.

A similar proposed rail system in Orange County which was proposed to link Orlando with the Walt Disney World resort area was rejected last spring, but if such a system was revived, officials say it may be possible for the Seminole and Orange systems to connect.

Officials point out that the proposed Seminole system is not like the failed Orange system, in that the primary users would be county residents, not tourists.

Price said the rail system could encourage more development in the I-4 corridor, which would provide more rail system users.

The proposed rail system is only part of transportation ideas being considered by the county, which continues to feel a population boom.

Commissioners recently said they would use a $35 million bond issue to widen ten sections of county roads amounting to 16.5 miles. Seven other road sections are also targeted for eventual widening.

Also approved this year has been a $6 million extension into Seminole County from the eastern end of the Orange County East-West Expressway, from the county line to State Road 426. From 426, the toll road will eventually link with either an eastern extension of Lake Mary Blvd., or I-4 near State Road 46.

Others participating in the opening program were General Chairman Jim Jernigan; State Rep. Art Grindie of Altamonte Springs; Miss Florida, Molly Peace of Forest City; Nina Riley, White Plains, N.Y., spokesperson for co-sponsor Post Cereals; and Brad Baird, president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Seminole High School.

Music was furnished by the U.S. Naval Training Center Band and the Knights of Columbus provided the color guard.

Opening day competition included sailing on Lake Monroe, tennis at Bayhead Racquet Club, bowling at Bowl America, synchronized swimming at Lyman High School, the quarter-mile bike race at Seminole High School, the 8-ball men's billiards, Sanford Civic Center; and canoeing at Sanford Landing Apartments.

West of Elm Street in the Black Hammock, Tinty Ford, 12, of State Road 426, Oviedo, was not injured.

Lee said deputies haven't determined just what type of shot was used in the device. The trap was made from a piece of three-quarter-inch metal pipe, with a rat trap attached as a firing mechanism.

The trap was attached to a coffee can, attached to a lock on the shed door, Lee said, when the boys touched the can the trap was sprung and they were shot.

Booby traps are illegal in Florida, and Lee said the trap setter faces at the least a possible charge of negligence.

of new growth on county roads. Commissioners hope to adopt a transportation impact fee ordinance on Dec. 23.

A new report by the consulting firm of Henderson, Young & Company, of Palm Harbor, Fla., separates the county into three zones — north, west, and east — and recommends fees according to road expansion needs in each individual area.

The combined fees for collector roads and county wide impacts in the north district are recommended to range from $408.65 per single family residential unit up to $2,353.83 per 1,000 square feet for banks.

The proposed east district fees range from $750.50 for a single family residential unit to $4,322.88 per 1,000 square feet for banks.

The proposed west district fees range from $540.30 for a single family residential unit to $3,112.13 per 1,000 square feet for banks.

The scale of fees also include those for multi-family units, hotel-motel units, offices, retail, hospitals, industrial, manufacturing, warehousing and restaurants.

According to the Henderson, Young & Company report, average roadway costs per mile are $3,617,900 to expand and existing two-lane road to a four-lane road; $3,810,950 to expand an existing two-lane road to a six-lane road; and $353,840 to upgrade a future four-lane road to six lanes. The estimates per mile include roadway design, right-of-way purchase, construction, and inspection.

Hooper said impact fees for public safety, libraries, and parks could reach the commission for consideration early next year.

The first public hearing on the transportation fees will be before the county Planning and Zoning Commission acting as the Local Planning Agency on Dec. 17.

Letters From Sufferers Music To Woman's Ears

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for printing all those letters from people who keep hearing music in their heads. I am one. I am now 76, and never told others because I was afraid of what they might think. I have been a nurse for more than 50 years and had never heard of this condition; I feared that maybe I was experiencing senility. I was truly relieved after reading in your column that many others had the same experience.

Dear Abby

During my waking hours I hear hymns and waltzes. All the waltzes I loved to dance to are drifting through my mind. Now I can tell my doctor about it and not be afraid that he will look at me, shake his head and think, "Poor soul. She is really falling!"

EMILIE IN BUCKS COUNTY
DEAR EMILIE: You would not believe the number of letters from readers who had also been hearing things and doubted their sanity. One man said he nearly went crazy because he heard bees buzzing continually in one ear — night and day. Another said he heard constant crackling sounds, like bacon frying. A woman heard "chirping" of crickets. Still another said it sounded like a freight train was roaring through her head. All thought they were going mad.

The constant sounds are due to a condition called "tinnitus," but the musical hallucinations are yet another matter. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: It was interesting seeing all the letters sent to you by people with musical hallucinations.

The two cases I described in my book, "The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat," were rather rare and special examples of musical epilepsy associated with damage to the brain. But musical hallucinations are relatively common, especially in older people, and though they should be checked out, nearly always turn out to be benign — a nuisance, but not necessarily a sign on neurological disease.

Readers should be assured about this. Yours sincerely,

OLIVER BAKES, M.D.,
PROFESSOR OF NEUROLOGY,
ALBERT EINSTEIN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE, BRONX, N.Y.

DEAR ABBY: I am sure I'm not the only one this happened to. I got married in a private civil ceremony; no family or friends were invited.

When I told my family and friends about my marriage, they said if I threw a party then I would get gifts.

Abby, if people want to give a present, why should the bride and groom be expected to shell out hundreds of dollars for a party? Can't friends and relatives give presents even if there is no party?

NOT ALONE IN RUTHERFORD, N.J.

DEAR NOT ALONE: Certainly. And the people who want to give a present will — party or no party. However, some people feel obligated to give a present (and therefore will) only if they have been invited to a party.

Unusual Disease Affects Appetite

DEAR DR. GOTT — At 22, after a lifetime of searching, my daughter was told she had Prader-Willi Syndrome. Few doctors are knowledgeable about this disease. What can you tell us about it?

DEAR READER — Prader-Willi syndrome is an unusual disease marked by lack of muscle tone, mental retardation and a phenomenal appetite. Children with the condition literally will eat everything in sight. It's not unusual for them to clean out the refrigerator in one sitting unless parents have padlocked the door. The cause is thought to be a lack of hormones from the pituitary gland or a malfunction of the brain's appetite center. Mild diabetes often accompanies the syndrome. The biochemical cause of Prader-Willi disease may be due to a chromosomal abnormality. The disease usually occurs sporadically, but familial cases have been reported.

DEAR DR. GOTT — On my package of K-Lyte there is a warning that in cases of hyperkalemia, it could cause cardiac arrest. What is hyperkalemia?

DEAR READER — Hyperkalemia is too much potassium in the bloodstream. Excess potassium causes nausea, diarrhea, muscle weakness and a form of heart stoppage called ventricular fibrillation. The product you are taking contains potassium, hence the warning about overdose.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have had glaucoma for 30 years. I was able to keep the pressure down using a variety of drops until last year, when I had laser treatments. Now the pressure is up again. Should I have another laser treatment or should I try more drops? My doctor is so busy that I've had to tell him about the new drops available.

DEAR READER — I don't know whether you are a candidate for further laser therapy or if you will need to take medicine. One way or another, the eye pressure must be kept down. An ophthalmologist can help you decide which type of treatment to use. Find one who is not too busy to give your eyes the attention they need.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I had surgery for a deviated septum about nine years ago. Recently, my breathing became uncomfortable again. I returned to the same surgeon, who said the tip of my nose was deformed and referred me to a plastic surgeon.

Dr. Gott

I'm reluctant to have surgery again if it won't be a permanent repair. What would you recommend?

DEAR READER — I would go with the plastic surgeon's opinion. However, you couldn't go wrong by seeking a second opinion from another plastic surgeon.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

When 16 high-card points opposite 11 produce a cold slam contract, you can bet that the hands fit well. Good bidders have the right methods to find a slam, while players without sophistication are involved in guesswork. Here the good slam was reached using the Jacoby two no-trump response to a major, a method first popularized by my father and me more than 20 years ago.

The jump to two no-trump shows at least an opening bid with four-card support. Then the opener is obliged to bid a singleton. If he doesn't have one, he bids three or four of the major or three no-trump. These bids show varying levels of high-card strength. Here three hearts showed a singleton heart. Responder now made a natural cue-bid of four clubs, but opener signed off at four spades. The five-club bid by North now announced second-round control of clubs as well and begged South to show any sort of control in a red suit. Thus South could bid five diamonds as a king-showing cue-bid. Five hearts then showed the heart ace, and South, trusting his partner's values to be sufficient to cover his losers, bid the slam.

The play was easy. Declarer could draw two rounds of trumps and still have enough trumps left in dummy to ruff his two losing clubs and one losing diamond. He did not even have to resort to setting up a long trick in the heart suit.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Set definite goals today where your career is concerned, but keep an open mind regarding the ways they should be attained. Leave space for imagination.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Everything is negotiable, so don't get uptight today if it looks like you've used up your alternatives. You've still got plenty of bargaining chips left.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A condition you've been anxious to change can be dealt with today, provided you show others how the shift will benefit them as well. Emphasize the advantages to them.
