Halt Is Ordered In Federal Low-Rent Housing Program

Budget Requests Are Cut By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today ordered a halt to the government's low-rent housing program as it cut deeply into the 1954 budget requests of 13 federal agencies.

The action, if sustained by Congress, also would start getting the government out of the mortgage and housing business by ordering it to dispose of home mortgages it now holds and to refund local housing bonds held by the Public Housing Administration.

By committee arithmetic 81 percent of $21,425,007 was topped from original Truman budget estimates of $1,174,444,100 but some Democrats described much of the cut as "phony." In the same category was a large part of the additional $1,046,472,000 the committee claimed would pour into the Treasury as a result of its recommendations. In some, but not all, cases the Truman budget was revised downward by the new administration.

The actual money cut was the largest ever imposed by the committee in the so-called independent offices appropriation bill. Coming as it did on the first of the regular 1953 money bills, it started the GOP economy drive off with a bang.

The bill's total in new money for use during the fiscal year starting next July was $451,020,493, a reduction of $400,350 from what the same agencies received for the present fiscal year. In most cases it will mean deep personnel cuts.

Largest reductions from amounts requested by former President Truman in his last budget were in funds for the Civil Service Commission.

Titusville Canal Is Discussed By River Association

Herbert C. Gee and Theodore B. Jensen, consulting engineers of the firm of Gee and Jensen of West Palm Beach, were scheduled to discuss progress up to the present time of plans for the Sanford-Titusville Canal at this afternoon's meeting of the St. Johns-River Improvement Association at the City Hall.

The session got underway at 2:00 o'clock.

First item on the agenda was a resume of activities by the association to discuss progress up to the present time of plans for the Sanford-Titusville Canal at this afternoon's meeting of the St. Johns-River Improvement Association at the City Hall.

A program of action for the association under five components was listed as follows:

1. Publicity in Sanford area concerning the project and the flood damage survey;
2. Issue of questionnaires to land owners and businessmen of the area;
3. A follow-up by designated individuals to obtain accurate and complete data on flood damage suffered in recent years;
4. Analysis of flood damage information and completion of report by Gee and Jensen;
5. Request Corps of Engineers for date to appear before the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.

Last item on the agenda was a financial report and a partial payment to the engineers for their services.

Mr. Gee, who has just returned from Iowa, is expected to inform members of the association that his firm has recently received from the United States Geological Survey certain stage discharge data of the St. Johns River and is now studying and correlating this data.

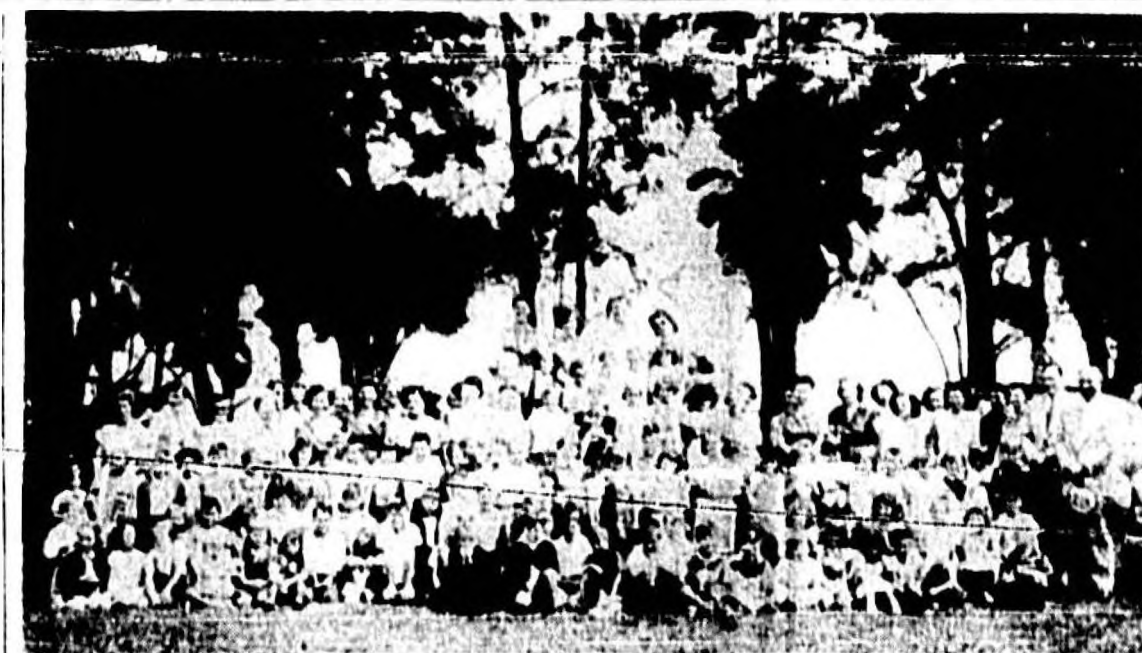

Work is being done on out of town areas near Lester Bush, manager of the Palatka Chamber of Commerce, and Captain Noah J. Palmieri, also from Palatka.

Session was General Gibbs, president of the St. Johns-River Improvement Association, was here from DeLand along with Eddie Gilliland, manager at DeLeon Springs.

A. W. Lee, chairman of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Waterways Committee, headed the local delegation.

When interviewed by a Herald reporter just prior to the start of the meeting, Col. Gee, who came to Sanford accompanied by his wife and two children, listed the following:

Meeting Slated Sunday To Talk Over Peace Deal

Probe Is Begun Of Jeffreys' Case In Ft. Lauderdale

Money Would Be Paid Into State Coffers

WASHINGTON, Korea (AP)—The United States and Communists today agreed to hold a liaison meeting Sunday to discuss resumption of the long suspended Korean armistice talks.

The agreement came late Thursday after the U.S. told the Reds it was ready to reopen the talks, pending the Reds do not stall on the issue of over-breaching of the armistice.

The U.N. had asked for the liaison meeting tomorrow to work out details for starting the new talks. The Reds, however, suggested it be held Sunday (9 p.m. E.T. Saturday). The U.S. agreed to the Reds' proposal.

The agreement was made in Washington. Secretary of State Acheson was quoted as saying today that "nothing in United States policy contemplated a truce which would be a prelude to a general armistice."

Chairman Chipfield of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said "all our 1950-51 activities are done in opposition" by a United Nations membership of the Chinese Nationalist Government.

Chipfield, categorically denied taking the position that truce is a prelude to a general armistice. He said the U.S. is not in a position to make a general armistice, as proposed by Chipfield, until a general armistice is reached.

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The Florida Legislature today before recessing for the weekend, Senate and House Appropriations Committees, voting up their work earlier than ever before, recommended bills calling for record general fund expenditures of more than 400 million dollars during the next two years but not giving all the spenders all they want.

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. McCall's bill to take about two million dollars a year out of the earnings of the sugar, rice, tobacco and citrus industry in the state treasury was introduced in the House today by 17 representatives.

It contains a sliding scale formula which would save the state more and the bank less out of each dollar as the total gambling through pari-mutuel windows increased in any one year.

The money would be earmarked, as the governor recommended in his message, for improvement of mental health facilities but his aides, Gov. and McCall's staff, quarrel with the Legislature if it would prefer the proceeds for some other worthy purpose.

Two other live tax increase bills, offered independently, contained a different rate formula and would save the money either to the health or to the state treasury fund or divide it equally among the two.

Campbell, Florida's governor, legislative aide, estimated the administration bill would produce $200 million extra a year for the state and $200 million for the state treasury fund because the state tax will pay half the tracks in lower income tax brackets.

In addition to the increased tax rate, the bill would take from the state the 1953-54 "break" which comes out of every dollar bet when odds are calculated in the near-dime. The dog tracks may keep the odd money, which the state has taken from the "break."

Introducers of the bill were Bryant of Miami, David Broward, both of Volusia, Moody of Hillsborough, and ...

PIRACY STIRS MIAMI

MIAMI (AP)—A case of "attempted piracy" today had the Miami harbor patrol puzzled.

Apparently somebody tried to steal a 75-foot twin-diesel yacht Poruma while the owner, two guests and the cook slept peacefully below.

The "pirate" didn't get very far. The yacht ran aground about two miles from where she had been berthed at Pier 5.

"It's the biggest mystery we've ever had on the waterfront," said Sgt. Bob Yancey, head of the harbor patrol, after hearing details of the voyage.

Over the weekend, P. Bowers, Reading, Pa., head of the Bowers Battery and Spark Plug Company of Massachusetts, was equally puzzled.

He said he and his guests, William L. Wall, owner of the Farquhar Machinery Company, Jacksonville, Fla., and E. W. Jander, Riverton, N. J., sales manager of the Henry Diston Company, saw manufacturers went to bed about 11 p.m. (EST) Thursday night. The cook, Gordon Graves, also retired about the same time.

Harbor Patrol Puzzled Over Story Of Yacht Reported Missing In Bay

The captain, Charles Knapp, Baltimore, was ashore visiting friends and the crew was ashore for the night.

At 11:45 p.m., a pier watchman saw the Poruma still berthed at Pier 5. At 1 a.m. the skipper returned and the yacht was gone.

He notified the police, the harbor patrol and the Coast Guard.

Meanwhile aboard the yacht, four slept soundly until about 4 a.m. when Jander was awakened by the noise of an engine. He thought the captain was putting out into the bay for an early start on a planned trip to Tom's River, N. J., and went back to sleep.

Graves, the cook, got up at 7 a.m., looked out a porthole and saw the yacht was aground on the north side of Dudge Island No. 4 across the government cut ship channel from the Florida Power & Light plant in Miami Beach.

Sgt. Yancey said tide and wind would have prevented the yacht drifting to the island where she was aground and that he had the slightest idea what had happened to the "pirate."

Among the several thousand copies of the Herald's annual Mailway ...

These two 13-year-old girls, middle, are the best spellers in Seminole County and will represent the county in the annual state championship spelling bee sponsored by the Miami Herald in Miami on May 1. Donna Lou Harnes, second from left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnes, Casselberry, won first place in the recent spelling bee eliminations at the Junior High School. Jennell Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock, Longwood, placed second. Mrs. Harnes, Donna Lou's mother, stands at left and Mr. B. C. Steele, principal of the Sanford Grammar School who conducted the county spelling bee is at right. Both girls attended Lyman School in Longwood. They will go to Miami accompanied by their parents. The winner of the state meet will win a free trip to Washington.

ALL SOULS CATHOLIC CHURCH
 Ninth Street and Oak Avenue
SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER
 Gospel Story from John, Chapter 10, verses 11-16. "I am the good shepherd." Certainly His sufferings and death are reviewed during Holy Week proves how good He is and how much He loves us. And His teaching and pleading with our stubborn pride shows how patient and understanding He is. How can He bear with our loud mouthed explaining of our sins as something we can't help, or something that is modern. To Him it must sound very much like the bleating of sheep that need a good shepherd.

 Practical proof of man's oneness with God, as evidenced by Christian healing, is the theme of services in all Christian Science churches next Sunday when the subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT." The Golden Text is from I John (1:3): "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ."
 Bible references include the following from Psalms (40:8): "I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life practice, and God's will must be universally done" (p. 202).

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

 Sermon Subject: "The Last Message to Bethany."
 "A young college man with the promise of a bright future was caught and won, he accepted his blindness as a sacred gift from God and then laid it on the altar as a consecrated offering for the glory of the Lord. This was his prayer: 'Father, I thank thee for the talent of blindness. May I so invest that talent that at the coming of the Lord Jesus He may receive his own with usury.' It was little he could do in his blindness—and yet this was Dr. Moon, the man who invented the Moon system of raised letters for the blind that has put the Scriptures within the reach of millions throughout the world. The system has been utilized in 500 languages and dialects and has let the light of Eternity stream into the souls of a vast multitude."

High walls, barred windows, armed guards—is this the cure for crime?
 When a disease epidemic breaks out in America we stop at nothing to find the source of trouble. Millions are spent each year on research for infantile paralysis, tuberculosis, heart disease, cancer.
 But what is our cure for crime? Our government spends millions annually for law enforcement, for the building of jails and penitentiaries, but it does little to prevent crime. Legal punishment is costly and ineffective. It is not a cure!
 "Overcome evil with good." This is the only cure for the disease of crime. This is the spirit of Christ that we must nurture in the hearts of our youth. This is our hope for tomorrow—that men will learn to live by understanding and love, not by law and punishment. A better world will come only with better people.
 You and your children will find the true way of life taught in the churches and church schools of America. It is the privilege and duty of all to attend church services regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and true citizenship. It is the cradle of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children's sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What plans are you making for your children?

Time has a way of slipping by in a hurry. Before you know it your children will be ready to enter college... or train for a worthwhile career. Will you have the money available? Now, today, is the time to plan for their future—and to back up your plans with a savings account. Save regularly and watch your money grow!

FREE "BEAUTYREST"

Made Only by Simmons!

To the owner of the OLDEST Beautyrest

in Sanford . . . And Anywhere In Seminole County . . . Altamonte Springs, Bear Lake, Casselberry, Chuluota, Fern Park, Geneva, Lake Mary, Lake Monroe, Oviedo, Paola, Forrest City, Golden Rod, and Slavia.

Yes indeed, we are going to give a "Beautyrest" absolutely FREE . . . to the owner of the oldest Beautyrest in this area. Ye olde time users of Beautyrest—get busy, register with us the date yours was purchased. Who can tell . . . you may suddenly find yourself the new owner of the latest and most scientifically made piece of comfort bedding in the world today. No purchases to make . . . no poetry to write. Just get busy and register the date of purchase. The only stipulation is that the original "trade-mark label" still is on the one you have. It's there all right . . . look.

Certainly we realize that many of you no longer have your purchase slip, neither does it make any difference from whom, where or when it was purchased. We know you'll honestly, to the best of your knowledge, record the date as truly correct as possible. A "good memory tonic" would be to associate the date of purchase with some important event . . . say your marriage, the birth of a son or daughter or some unforgettable world event. This will really help. Regardless of the number of years you've owned a Beautyrest, it will pay you to register with us now.

Here's how you get the new—
"BEAUTYREST"
Absolutely Free

Come to our store and, to the best of your ability, record as nearly as you can, the date you purchased your Beautyrest. Competent, disinterested judges have already been selected.

A word to the wise—Beautyrest Owners

We'd like to say this . . . if all your early home furnishing purchases were comparable in quality to your Beautyrest which has so faithfully provided you with perfect sleep relaxation all these years, you've derived great pleasure from the use of all your furniture . . . and you've pursued a safe, sound and economical course. Of course you're glad you selected a genuine Beautyrest early in life. It has contributed much to your health and happiness. Now, right now, register the date of purchase of your old one with us . . . to the user of the OLDEST, a new Beautyrest will go in exchange. The newest and finest Beautyrest ever produced by Simmons. Get busy.

A word to those who wish to sleep better

To all those not included in the over ten million purchasers and users of Beautyrest, certainly you realize the important relation to good health, of perfect body relaxation with all muscles at ease. . . . Certainly there's a source of perfect anticipation in looking forward to a good night's sleep. In fact, a good place to sleep should absolutely be "taps" on your list. Of course you already know SIMMONS was the pioneer in good bedding. You know further that the rapid progress of SIMMONS has kept the Beautyrest (and other famous sleep products) right out in front. By owning a Beautyrest, you, too, can have the world's finest in bedding.

To participate in this OLDEST BEAUTYREST EVENT, your registration needs to be in our store not later than

to take little things so seriously.

According to Florida Citrus Mutual there are now 22 concentrate plants operating in this state with half a dozen more about to start,
which will soon be consuming 1-500,000 boxes of oranges a week.

The Greensboro, (N. C.) News

that will cure back seat driving.
An even better way, however, is to get over in the back seat yourself and let 'em take over.

dential candidate in 1924, celebrated his 80th birthday this week

Congratulations to the people of Winter Park for going over the

What do you think of the Communist in Korea using the convoys of disabled Allied prisoners as a screen for their military supply lines, increasing their activity, and launch a large scale offensive while they are talking of armistice terms?
It only adds to the serious doubt of Communist sincerity.

According to John Temple Graves, "it is now official that there is no such thing as an 'Eisenhower Republican'. What could be more ruling than President Eisenhower's own statement that there isn't. Maybe there is no such thing as a "Eisenhower Republican", but some of our Florida legislators seem to be mightily concerned over certain Eisenhower Democrats.

The House has voted to open
Florida's welfare rolls by 81-7.
This does not mean that everyone
on welfare will wake up tomorrow
to find his name on the front page of the state's newspapers. The bill still has to pass the Senate. And even if it becomes law, no newspaper, in all probability, will ever publish any names unless some are found that have no business being there. No one who is properly on relief need have any fear of undue publicity.

Bob Mitchell, president of the Florida Seminole Association, does many acts of kindness for Indians
whether they are Seminoles or not.
The other day John Henry First Race, an Assiniboin Indian from Montana, who served nobly in World War II, but who got into bad company after his recent discharge at the Orlando Air Base,
and had to serve a ten day stretch
in jail for drunkenness, was given his fare by the city council back to his own people in the Yellowstone, following an eloquent plea
by Mitchell.

The government apparently has never taken too seriously the Korean War, or "police action", as Truman used to call it. It was laughed the first two years of a "slowdown basis". Senator Byrd says, under a program which amounted almost to a directive not to prepare for war, and which prevented ammunition shortages at the front. Always we were "to take with too little". And now the draft call for June has been cut from 53,000 to 32,000. What is the meaning of all those who have been drafted only to be sent home
without being sent to the front?

Overlooked Holiday

One omission in the list of celebrations is surprising.
This is April 19th, the anniversary of the battles of Lexington and Concord, Mass., the first fighting of the Revolution.
Celebrated as Patriots' Day in Massachusetts and Maine (which was part of Massachusetts until 1820), it has been passed over elsewhere.

The conflict arose because General Gage, the British commander in Boston, got wind of a store of powder at Concord. His expedition to seize it might have succeeded but for Paul Revere's ride the night before, which alerted the patriots. On their way to Concord the British found American militia drawn up on Lexington. They fired, however, at the order of the British commanding officer, Maj. Pitcairn, "Disperse, ye rebels!", and at shots which killed some half dozen.

Lexington was not really a battle. Very different was Concord, where the American minute men stood their ground and exchanged shots until the British began to retreat to Boston. The retreat was a bloody affair, with colonials shooting from behind every stone wall. The British may have lost 300 men before they regained the safety of Boston.

Out of Concord arose the Revolution, which in its turn inspired the French Revolution. Well might the philosopher and poet Ralph Waldo Emerson write of Concord Bridge,
"Here once the embattled farmers stood,
And fired the shot heard round the world."

Common Languages

One of the oldest ideas for promoting international understanding is a universal language which could be taught as a second language in every school in the world. Supporters of this idea believe that international harmony would be easier to accomplish if the people of the world could communicate with each other in a common language.
There is merit in the idea. But it is not the ultimate solution to the problem of establishing peace. Many countries which share common languages have long histories of disagreement and warfare among themselves. The fact that many of the countries of South America share Spanish as a common language has not prevented them from quarrelling. In our own country the Federal troops spoke the same language as the Confederates during the War Between The States.

The real need is for a greater effort for better understanding, a greater respect among all nations for the traditions and customs of each other. A common language, while it would be desirable, is no substitute for intelligence and vision in dealing with other people.

Batons And Bats

Music lovers and baseball fans may find common ground in Cleveland this summer. The Cleveland Indians baseball club has decided to sponsor a number of popular concerts by the Cleveland Summer Orchestra. It was believed that the orchestra would not function this year since the hall it ordinarily uses is being renovated. The baseball club owners volunteered $15,000 to pay for twelve concerts to be held at the ball park as a prelude to Indian night games.

The idea of combining Bach and baseball may prove to have many advantages. It may help the club owners to sell tickets. The price of the ticket to the game will serve as the price of the ticket to the concert. It will promote interest in baseball among the music lovers who come to hear the orchestra and it will promote interest in classical and semi-classical music among the fans who come to see the games.

The Road Department, in a re-

It offered two alternatives as suggested financing for the 50 mil-

collected for use of the facility.
This would run the actual cost to following broad recommendations:

1. That the plan as prepared by the Corps of Engineers for alignment of the Sanford-Titusville Canal be supported by the Improvement Association. The plan is a result of extensive field surveys and intensive studies and constitutes the best solution of the problem.
2. That benefits from commercial navigation and recreational boating have been computed by the firm of Gee and Jensen using methods employed by engineers.
These figures should not be subjected to questioning by reviewing authorities who will handle
the report in Washington.
3. That benefits for improvement of flood control are more difficult to evaluate and the district engineer in Jacksonville asked his firm to undertake a survey of flood damages in the Sanford area.
"It is this damage survey that will form the core of today's session," declared Col. Ges. "A flood damage survey depends on the cooperation of the public in volunteering basic information that has happened in the past. The County Chamber of Commerce should
handle administrative details of such a survey."

THE WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—Even if the Russians reject President Eisenhower's peace proposals, which they probably will in one way or another, he has at least won a round
in the psychological war.

The Russians have been mumbling about peace for a month.
And Eisenhower has called their bluff. If they still or do nothing, this country can use its 40-10
propaganda against the Russians.

An examination of the reaction in Congress to the speech which Eisenhower made yesterday shows mostly approval and pleasure that he took such a definite stand but not much optimism that the Russians would accept.

The Russians had previously blacked most of what he suggested as steps to peace and disarmament.
For instance, signing an Austria peace treaty and unifika-tion of Germany.

For some unknown
reasons of their own, they were now willing to agree on Germany and Austria and on peace in Korea. It is difficult to see them going along with the brand new proposal he made:

Once the nations agreed on disarmament—if they agreed—they should take a chunk of the money saved to arm and use it into a fund for raising the living standards of people in backward and depressed areas on a world scale.

That would make people less hungry and discontented. The Communist, except when they use force as they did in Korea, have to depend on hunger and discontent to spread their doctrine.

Eisenhower proposed terms for world disarmament, using the basic conditions which were worked out years ago during the Truman administration and upon which this country has stood fast ever since.

Eisenhower stood fast to them,
too, since they have long been considered the minimum upon which this country would accept disarm-ment or feel safe in disarming.

But it was on these very points
the Russians balked years ago.
For instance, on atomic inspection.

Before the atomic bomb could be outlawed, Eisenhower made clear, there would have to be a system of checking inside a country to be sure there was no cheating.

This would mean an international inspection—freedom to wander around inside the United States
if Russia to make sure there was nothing secretly making bombs while pretending to disarm.

The Russians, who put up their own version of themselves and the rest of the world, have rejected
the idea of foreigners poking around inside the Soviet land.

Secretary of State Dulles had been an advocate of psychological warfare against Communism
until now the Eisenhower administration hasn't made much use of it, so far as is publicly known, except in a routine way.

Since Stalin's death the Russian and Chinese Communists, doing a reserve, have been using peace talk. Malenkov, head of the Russian government took the initiative
in this with public, but very vague, speeches.

The Eisenhower administration stood pat, telling the Russians that if Russia to make sure they should agree to the various steps which for so long they had ignored,
like Germany, Austria, disarmament.

Eisenhower himself, except for brief news conference statements about being willing to meet the Russians half way, had offered nothing to offset the Russian peace offensive of mostly talk and little action.

Now, with this careful, public speech, he has suddenly put them in the position of having to answer, directly or indirectly, the challenge
he made yesterday.

will form the core of today's session," declared Col. Ges. "A flood
damage survey depends on the cooperation of the public in volunteering basic information that has happened in the past. The County
Chamber of Commerce should
handle administrative details of such a survey."

Bill Introduced To End Quickie Divorce

TAI, AHASSEE—A bill which would put an end to so-called "quickie" divorces in Florida was introduced in the House today by Speaker Bryant of Marion County.
It would raise the residence requirement for getting a Florida
divorce from the present 90 days to a year. Another Bryant measure would require divorce suits to be filed either in the county of residence of the husband or wife or in the county where the grounds for divorce occurred.

New 2, 3, 4 Bedrooms, others almost new—
Also Choice Building Sites, Business and Income Property.

All-DAY AUCTION BEGINS AT 9:30 A.M.
An ALL-DAY HANSBROUGH ABSOLUTE AUCTION of beautiful two, three and four bedroom homes (many just completed, others built within one to four years) also choice building sites, on Monday, April 20, beginning at 9:30 a. m. in Debary, Volusia County, Florida, on U. S. Highways 17-92, approximately half way between Deland and the home of Stetson University and Sanford (the celery center of the Nation) just south of Orange City, a thirty minute drive North of Orlando and South from Daytona Beach.

Auction begins at beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B.
Schmierer (lunch and cold drink stand on grounds) in the heart of Debary on U. S. 17-92. Following the sale of this property it will then be announced as to which property will be sold next.

(April 19) from 2 to 5 p. m. All parties who are not familiar with the location of the properties to be sold will first inspect the Schmierer Home, where they will find cars waiting to direct them to other properties.

Debary rightly boasts of being the fastest growing community in Florida, five hundred charming ranch-type homes constructed within the past five years, occupied by former citizens of numerous States, many of whom are retired, joined with younger people, all in all creating an atmosphere which beckons others to live in this beautiful huge section of Florida, with the finest year round climate, pure water, near Lake Monroe and the fishing paradise of St. John River; a nice shopping center with postoffice, churches of all denominations nearby; school transportation, everything that makes for worthwhile living. Most of these homes with homelike amenities, are free of taxes; and many well furnished. The terms on all properties will be 20% cash at time of sale, balance to be announced; quick possession in most instances.

Beta Sigma Phi Sponsors Lovely Fashion Show For Cancer Drive

One of the main features of the cancer fund drive took place at night when Beta Sigma Phi sorority, which is directing the drive, presented a lovely fashion show at the Sanford Women's Club. About 150 Sanfordites were present to see the latest in spring fashions displayed by local merchants.

A lovely spring garden setting had been arranged on the stage forming a background for the display of attractive fashions. Local firms showing models were Yowell's, Purcell's, Ho-Jay, Cowan's, Hollywood Shops and Pettie Paris.

Mrs. J. D. Corbell was the narrator for the show which was based on the theme of a Spring Holiday at home carrying out the dream of a vacation by a tropical seascape, portrayed by Mrs. Lady L. Sloan, in the middle of her house-cleaning. She dreamed of the fashions she would wear on her vacation beginning with a striking lark-necked halter dress of rich brown cotton, highlighted with a dainty floral print of bright yellow and green. Displaying the Re-Jay dress was Miss Evelyn Jones.

A Yowell model was shown next, worn by Barbara Flynn, a blue broadcloth dress by Casto featuring a group neckline. For a picnic Miss Kay Hatigan wore a bright perannum colored Catalina swim suit with pleated skirt and fitted bodice from the Hollywood shop. Miss Ruthann Young, a graduate of Seminole High School with the Class of 1950. He is now serving with the United States Army, stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C. Plans for their marriage, which will be in June, will be revealed at a later date.

The Seminole High School Glee Club will present its eighth annual opera under the direction of Miss Olive Reese White. The presentation is entitled "Pickles" or "In Old Vienna", and will have met the glamour and gaiety of old Vienna during carnival time. The operetta is in three parts and will feature colorful costumes, unique lighting and original scenery. Miss Ann Barham will sing the leading role and others in the cast include Jimmie Loy, James Reed, James Davis, Ross Hammon, James Wade, Ray Davis, Johnny Carter, Richard Hall, Alma Jobe, Joe Hutchison, Mary Ann Walker and Marie Jones. Many other students will be brought into the cast with dances, songs and other features which will all make up the program.

Sanford Garden Club To Be Honored Apr. 26

WINTER PARK (Special)—The gardenias are blooming in the botanical garden here, and today opens "Gardenia Week at Mead" which will be climaxed next Sunday, Apr. 26, with a tea honoring members of the Sanford Garden Club, original donors of the beautiful gardenia bushes.

Every feminine visitor to the garden tomorrow and next Sunday will be given one of the fragrant white blooms to wear. The tea will be for members of the Sanford Garden Club and their escorts only and the ladies will be admitted to Mead upon presentation of their current membership card in the Sanford Garden Club.

The gardenia display is the result of a gift, years ago, of the Sanford Garden Club which donated $25 for the purchase of the bushes. Now grown and healthy, the flowering shrubs make a white trail of fragrance along Gardenia Walk—one of the largest concentrations of gardenia blooms in the state.

Mead Garden will be open from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. tomorrow and next Sunday and during the week from 2:00 till 5:00 p. m. The regular admission is 50 cents per person with children under 12 admitted free when accompanied by adults. There will be no advance in price during "Gardenia Week."

Simons Submits

their characteristics. Further, it may be advisable to review in revised ordinance additional provisions to satisfy such conditions as off-street parking for various uses. An examination of the present ordinance is possible of reducing the number of districts.

Apparently, some of the urgent problems relate to uses along French Avenue which is increasingly becoming a heavily traveled highway through the city, especially for truck traffic. Understood, it is proposed to make this an 80-foot street, property line to property line.

Currently about one-half of the properties fronting French Avenue are zoned Commercial or Commercial-Industrial and according to all indications, commerce or industry will continue to gravitate to this area much of which is conveniently located to the railroad and to the Farmers Market.

It would not therefore be too inconsequential to reclassify all the property along French Avenue in Commercial. The section north of French Avenue to First Street could be made C-1; also the sections on both sides of the avenue between Fifteenth Street and the north to Sarita Street on the south. South of Sarita Street to the City limits, the west side of the avenue could be zoned R-2 Multiple Family, and the east side C-1 with certain restrictions.

In the exceptions portion of the ordinance an amendment could be inserted permitting that the business permitted in the C-1 section on the east side of the avenue between Sarita Street and the City limits would conform to the uses permitted in the proposed transition zone. This procedure would eliminate the necessity of creating a new zone pertinent to only a small area of land.

To ensure an 80 foot street throughout the length of French Avenue, the establishment by ordinance of a set back line or building line on both sides of the street 40 feet from its center line might be advisable. This would include any new structure extending into the bed of the new street. Front yard depths under the ordinance would then be measured from the newly established set back lines.

Other minor zoning changes that may well be considered and effectuated would be the extension of the C-1 zone along First Street to the Mayfair Hotel and second, the change of nonresidential north of Fifth Street between the C-2 zone on the west and the C-1 sons on the east (Sanford Avenue), from the present R-2 classification to C-1 commercial.

A provision might well be included in the zoning ordinance whereby the construction of dwellings in industrial districts can either be prohibited or controlled subject to the approval of the Board of Adjustment.

"Annexation is also another problem confronting the city. How far should it extend? The extension proposed for consideration is quite reasonable—in the east and south. On the west, it would seem that the proposed City limit line should extend northward from Twelfth Street to First Street following either the west line of the new Atlantic Coast Line right-of-way or the east line of Jerry Avenue projected to First Street.

"The latter line would include the ACL shop property, but the former line would exclude the shops, but include the new station property. Further study of properties west of the right-of-way may reveal that the right-of-way line is the better one to follow.

"The relocation of the Atlantic Coast Line passenger station is posing a problem of accessibility. Currently Ninth Street serves the present station. It is suggested that the extension of Ninth Street by means of a reverse curve into Eighth Street on its west side of the tracks be explored. The existing street could take off from Ninth Street between Holly and Maple Avenues, and be projected to the north of the present passenger terminal into Eighth Street.

"It is also recommended that the City consider the compilation of minimum subdivision regulations to control the design and future development of subdivisions. The City should also prevail upon the Board of County Commissioners to promulgate similar regulations so that fringe developments adjacent to but contiguous to the City would follow a pattern comparable to that within the City."

Mr. Simons concluded his report by stating "If you desire any further information, please let me know. In addition, should you desire to discuss any aspects of the planning program, I shall be glad to stop in to meet with you. Thank you again for your courtesies during my recent visit."

After a short discussion of the report, Chairman H. C. Hester requested all members of the Commission to study its points carefully and be ready to go over the suggested program at the next meeting.

mission and for stockpiling critical and strategic materials.

The committee denied the entire $178,130,000 requested for the government's normal contribution to the civil service retirement and disability fund and all of the $192,015,000 requested for payment of interest on what the government already owes the fund. It said operation of such a fund in government results in the accumulation of money that could be put to better use.

The effect of the committee's action, some Democratic members said, is to defer payment rather than to effect an economy, since the government will have to put up the money eventually when the income from corporate contributions alone is not adequate to meet retirement payments made from the fund.

The committee claimed an eventual saving of 798 million would result from its recommendation that no new public housing units be started in 1934.

Bert A. Mills has returned to duty at NAAS after winning the State AAU Boxing Title in the 147 pound novice division. The bouts were held at the Jacksonville Arena Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but Bob only had to box two of the days to bring home the title.

Wilson-Maier Seeks Oldest "Beautyrest"

The owner of the oldest "Beautyrest" mattress in the county will give a free replacement, according to an announcement today by Al Wilson of the Wilson-Maier Furniture Co.

In addition to Sanford, persons living in Oviedo, Geneva, Chuluota, Altamonte Springs, Fern Park, Lake Monroe, Casselberry, Lake Mary, Forest City, Bear Lake, Goldenrod, Palm and Shula are invited to register with the company the date their "Beautyrest" was purchased.

The only stipulation in the contract is that the original "Beautyrest" label be attached. Officials pointed out that it does not matter whether the purchase slip is available, or from whom the Simmon's product was purchased. Completed, disinterested judges have already been selected," concluded Mr. Wilson.

Wilson-Maier Seeks Oldest "Beautyrest"

The second round proved to be the lucky one for the young pugilist as he came through to win his bout Monday in that round with a technical Knock Out. Tuesday, Bob was matched against Cliff Rutliff, a Marine stationed at the NATTC, Jacksonville. Again it was the second round but this time, Bob really connected and the Marine went down for the full count. With that knockout came the state AAU title for which Bob was awarded the AAU gold Medal.

Sanford Cardinals Beat Palatka, 8-5, For First Victory

Murray Byrd Hurls Five-Hitter; Redbirds Play In Cocoa Tonight

By KENT CHETLAIN
After last night's refreshing 8-5 triumph over the sluggish Danika Azules, the Sanford Cardinals hit the road again this evening in quest of their second win in four games this year. The fearsome bats of the local Redbirds will measure Provoat Park for size tonight and test the new found strength of the Cocoa Indians.

The clash, which will be the first between the two clubs, will be broadcast by Jim Fields, Chief General Manager, over WTRH beginning at 7:45 p.m.

The Cards will meet an almost brand new team and a ex-Major League second baseman—Manager Carver "Hanna" Rowell. Against the Indiana Sanford might throw David Leonard or Paul Smith, two high salaried pitchers down on option.

Manager J. C. Dunn was still at odds this morning as to which of the two hurlers he should use. With Rowell hitting from the left side, Dunn has even given consideration of trying one of his two southpaws—Paul McMurray or Paul Corbett. Both however are rookies and may sit out a few more games until things are settled.

Smith posted a 3-14 record with Centralia of the Mississippi Ohio Valley League in his first year in organized ball last season. The 6-foot-2 righthander fanned 107 in 165 innings and pitched in 29 games.

Leonard is the largest man on the Sanford Cards weighing 215 and stands a towering 6-foot-5. He is a rookie, however, and Dunn may lean toward Smith who has one year of ball under his belt.

Last night the old pro Murray Byrd finally made his 1955 debut firing a five-hitter, yielding only two earned runs while striking out 10 and passing six.

The youthful Redbirds ripped the cover off the ball spraying hits to all fields to maintain their upstart skin of outshining the opposition in every game this year.

Their adeptness at "cutting and slashing" reminded this scribe of last year's Jay Beach Sea Birds who were second in the loop in batting with a lofty .274 mark. For the first three games, Sanford is literally clubbing the old pill with a robust .318 average.

The Cards broke the ice taking a lead in the first inning. Jim Fields, who was second in the loop in batting this year by notching two in the fourth on consecutive binges to center by Bob Folkert, Dims and Lou Calvetti. But Sanford's old hands, Al Pirle, speared a homer with Mike Kasaban on in the top of the fifth to tie things up.

Not to be denied, Sanford rallied again in the last of the fifth when Folkert sent Byrd across on an infield force play. The Redbirds' second baseman, Jim Fields, hit a home run in the sixth. Bob Skelton drove both Calvetti and Tom Leonard home in a single, and after Tom Nix singled, Bascom Hamm spelled Kacaban.

Bill Batty, who has been hitting like a house after sporting a .402 average, drove Hamm's first pitch into center to score Skelton. Batty later knocked in the last run on another bingie in the eighth.

Pirle stirred the fans in the ninth by whacking out his second circuit drive with two men on to bring in all five Azules runs in the game. It was a repeat performance for the power-packed round man who hit two homers in his last appearance at the Memorial Stadium in 1952.

CARD CAPERS: Tom Leonard, much heralded batting leader of the Coastal Florida loop, made his debut in the Sanford lineup after an absence of four days. Leonard fanned his first time up, but beat out a hunt in his next three tries. Leonard supplanted alling Lou Belfrage. The giant, Rotola in firing a swaller 4-0.

Cocoa Nips 'Hats, 14-13, In Bitter 14-Inning Battle

By The Associated Press
Jacksonville Beach held sole occupancy of first place in the Florida State League today after kicking out Orlando, 15-4, and getting some help from Cocoa which disposed of Deland.

It had been a three-way tie at the top with the season four days old.

Deland was reluctant to move down in the standings, fighting Cocoa 14 innings before yielding, 14-13, Thursday night.

In other games Daytona Beach whipped Leesburg, 12-3; and Sanford took Palatka, 8-5.

Ernie Stride, 14000 southpaw pitched Daytona Beach's first victory of the season, yielding only six hits and ending the game in the ninth by starting a triple play on Jackie Boyd's infield drive. Craumer relayed to shortstop John Skrupski who doubled Claude Ramsey off second; and Skrupski pegged to first baseman Ed Levy to nab Andy Caldwell.

Jack Hazen's Jacksonville Beach teammates backed him up with 13 hits for the victory over Orlando. Hazen, former University of Florida pitching star, had a shutout until the sixth when the Senators gleaned two runs off a double, two singles and a wild pitch. Clyde Briggs knocked in four Beach runs.

Murray Byrd, Sanford's lone 1955 holdover, gave up five hits, struck out 10 Palatka men and was well supported by a hit Redbird at bat. Al Pirle was the entire Palatka offense, blasting in all five runs—a two-run homer in the fifth and one in the ninth with two aboard.

Seminoles Rap Out 9-2 Victory Over Mainland Bucs

Fleischer Wins 2nd; SHS Plays Monday

By SAM JACOBSON
The last hit fanned, which of late has severely appressed the Seminole High School diamond, broke with a roar yesterday afternoon in Fleming pasture directly atop French Hill as the hungry Seminole batsmen unleashed the full fury of their pent-up desire to finally trounce the Mainland High School Buccaneers, 9-2.

In netting the win the Feds pounded out nine base raps to almost equal their record of ten hits for the past four games combined; while in one inning, the hectic 8th, they more than surpassed their total run output for the same four encounters.

People 11 successful ending, however, the contest opened on a dismal note for the locals as the coastal city laid rocked Sanford's home run, Mel Ingram, for three quick hits — one of which went for two bases when left-fielder Ross Hannum lost the ball in the sun and one in.

But his credits was short-lived as the Seminoles countered in the home half of the inning with two markers of their own on two batters, two free passes, and a Mainland error.

In the third frame the Feds scored again as Junior Metts, who had walked and promptly pliffed second, came home on error Terrence Coyle's hot ground ball, which scooted through third sacker Jackie's legs.

But the Bucs were still potent and in the fifth inning threatened an uprising which did not come. Nevertheless, Fleischer tightened up and retired the visitors without mishap throughout the remainder of the game.

The locals, however, could not be killed. They picked up a single tally in the fifth frame to move the score to 1-1.

Then, as the fateful sixth rolled around with the bats still somewhat in doubt, the home team broke loose and when the dust had cleared, was firmly entrenched on the long end of a lopsided 9-2 score.

Gene Estridge opened the big inning for the Seminoles by flying out to right field. The Miami Sox batter, Frank Stafford, laced a sharp single to center. Mel Ingram drew a base on balls and all hands were on deck when the field's foul grounder was booted.

Then, with the sacks piled, Humboldt drilled a single through the infield for one run. Metts led off the home half for two more, and "Jack" Kridler produced a fourth with another bingie. Metts, who had moved to third on Kridler's blow, came home on Coyle's home run to give the Feds the fifth run of the frame and the final marker of the contest.

Treadway Calls His Team "Well Rounded"

JACKSONVILLE BEACH (Special) — The 1955 edition of the Jacksonville Beach Sea Birds' annual round-robin team Red Treadway, Sea Birds, playing manager, told the Jacksonville Beaches Rotary Club in Strickland's Sea Grill Restaurant yesterday afternoon.

"There aren't any heroes on this year's team," Treadway declared. "All of the boys are just good ball players with only one thing in mind — to win ball games."

The veteran player, a former Jacksonville Sea Birds pitcher, told of the backgrounds and personalities of some of the newcomers to the Sea Birds this spring. He also said he would have a try for the team during 17 players within the next 30 days.

Treadway was introduced by Ith Bram, program chairman. Dr. George Atkins, club president, presided.

Local fans may have been a bit disappointed over last Monday night's opener when Manager J. C. Dunn and his Cardinal striplings booted five and lost out 7-1 to Orlando. The weather wasn't exactly ideal and the fans had little to get warmed up about.

Taken on face value, this might have been the beginning of the end for baseball in Sanford if it had been the Seminole Blues, because last year's club was composed of a group of "over-the-hill" veterans who had reached their maturation point in playing skill.

But, the more objective fans saw in last Monday night's game a brighter picture than the errors or final score indicated. As Hugh Wheeler pointed out yesterday, "Those kids are young, they will improve and learn as the season goes along. They showed us a taste and if they continue to do it, we will have a pretty fair club by the end of the season."

Sitting near Sanford's baseball "ambassador," C. R. "Charlie" Dawson, heartily agreed. "Why I can remember Sid Hudson when he first pitched for Sanford," Dawson recalled. "Sid did anything but impress, yet he went on to win 24 and lose only four."

One bright spot in Monday night's opener was the hurling job turned in by Clarence Ingram, crafty righthander whose roundhouse curve even fooled the ump in spite of the losing, both the opener and the Deland game in relief. Ingram more than impressed diamond critics. The fastballing Georgian, who hails from Albany, showed unusual effectiveness, marred only by poor fielding support.

Ingram has yielded but three earned runs in 12 and one-third innings. He has fanned 10 in that span while walking only one batter. What more can fans ask? Last year, Ingram could have racked up at least 20 victories if he played for Sanford. The Seminole Blues of 1952 capped 84 batters, breaking the FNL home run record by 16. They were fourth high in batting with a .290 mark and third in RBIs, in effective hurling lost many games and possibly the pennant in 1952.

While Ingram holds an ignominious 0-2 record in the first two games, everyone including the skeptics are predicting good things from him.

BRIEFS: Mr. Dawson recalls that Manager Dunn is wearing the same number immortal Sid Hudson wore the year he played for Sanford before making the rare jump to the majors, No. 17. . . . Big Louis Rotola, Sanford righthander, has been playing with a swollen knee. The lumbering gardener twisted his knee in Albany, Ga., before coming to Sanford and has been having trouble running with it ever since. Some fans probably noticed this in the Monday night opener.

Dr. Leonard Munson has prescribed more work to strengthen it. Rotola was taken from the Deland game in the wild night after he hobbled down to first on a walk. The much heralded outfielder assigned to Sanford, Tom Leonard, finally arrived last night.

Leonard left Albany before the cards departed for Sanford to pick up his wife in New York. He was due in for last Monday night's opener but didn't arrive until last night. . . . Leonard led the Coastal Florida League with a lustrous .318 batting mark last season. He was called up to the class B Redbird farm team at Winston-Salem and played in less than 10 games at the end of the season.

Leonard also has a one-year-old daughter. The stocky flycatcher is 5-foot-11 and weighs 175 pounds. He will be one of the oldest players on the roster at 25. The flyhawk was signed out of Ithaca College. His record last year in 86 games included 17 doubles, 5 triples, one homer and 121 hits. It was his first year in pro ball.

DON'T FEAR PEACE

Humphrey States U.S. Not Headed For Bust

Treasury Secretary Asks Cut In Taxes

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey said today the United States is "not headed for depression" whether there is a no war Korea or even a real peace.

"There is no reason to fear peace," he said.

In his first address since he took office in the Eisenhower administration, Humphrey outlined a fiscal policy that called for a reduction in taxes when governmental expenses "are under control."

His address was for more than 1,000 editors and publishers attending the annual luncheon of members of the Associated Press, worldwide news gathering conveners, live at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

"Taxes must come down," he said. "It's simply a matter of timing geared to reduction of expenses. Both are too high and both must be reduced."

"The reduction of taxes, moreover, is one of the best guarantees we have against the fear of depression in the event that peace makes possible curtailment of government defense spending."

Humphrey said any fear of a depression if defense spending is reduced is unjustified. He said the nation's industrial plant "is already geared to increased civilian production."

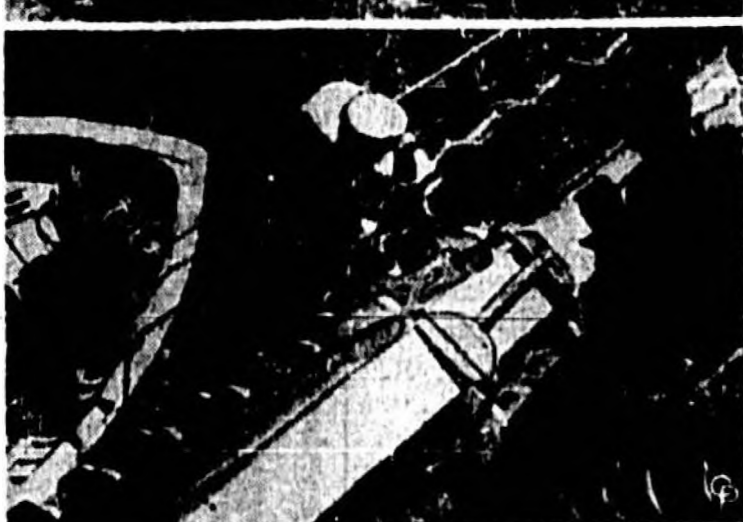

"We are not going to have a depression in America whether we have an armistice, a real peace, or continue to develop a proper and balanced posture of defense."

"There is no reason for a depression unless we fail ourselves to do the things we ought to do and lack the courage and foresight to do them."

"There will be readjustments, of course. There are always readjustments taking place in any active economy, sometimes to the advantage and sometimes to the disadvantage of one group and sometimes to another. But depression, no, we cannot preserve our way of life through another long, deep depression and we must ever try to do better."

"One essential to accomplish this goal is to bring our federal expenditures under control and at the earliest possible time balance them with our income," he said.

"The first step in preserving the nation's economic strength, he said, is to achieve a sound cur-

Survey Planned To Learn Damage Caused By Floods

Questionnaires to determine the amount of flood damage done during the past several years are being mailed to 2,000 area farmers today following Friday afternoon's meeting of the Seminole County Flood Improvement Association in City Hall.

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce today announced it will cooperate with the Association and the Corps of Engineers in obtaining reliable information on flood damage experienced by individual County landowners in recent years.

Farmers are being requested to cooperate in the important survey by providing information on damage suffered on their farms or in their businesses.

F. E. Breckenridge, secretary of the Improvement Association and also manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, said forms would be sent to those who have sustained damage. But farmers who do not receive questionnaires should request his office to send them.

When the local survey is completed, Herbert C. Gee, a retired Army colonel who represented the consulting engineer firm of Gee and Jenson of West Palm Beach at Friday's meeting, said the improvement project would be submitted to Washington for consideration.

Several farmers appeared at the meeting to give their views on flood control.

P. C. Knox of Deland, retired, pointed out that if a questionnaire (Continued on page six)

Commission To Have Adjourned Meeting

An adjourned session of the regular meeting of Apr. 13 will be held by the City Commission tonight at 8:00 o'clock in City Manager Tom Lemon's office.

The shift to smaller quarters was necessitated by the use of the Commissioners' chambers by a Chamber of Commerce group this evening.

Mr. Lemon said that "as far as he knew" only minor matters would be discussed at the session. However, it is possible that there may be some discussion of the "Jeffrey Report" following the probe now being undertaken in Ft. Lauderdale of a man who made undercover investigations in several cities including Sanford.

Services Held Today For James D. Hobgood

Funeral services were held at 4:00 p.m. today at Hirschen Funeral Home for James D. Hobgood who died early Saturday morning. His residence was at 1191 East Seventh Street. The Rev. W. P. Brooks Jr. officiated and burial was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

Born in Louisiana in January, 1885, Mr. Hobgood had resided in Sanford for 30 years. He entered the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Dec. 18, 1923 and retired as an engineer Mar. 2, 1948. He had been in ill health for several months.

Survivors include his widow and two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Blanchard and Mrs. Lena Mae Wisner of Baton Rouge, La.; two sons, J. D. Jr. of Houston, Texas, and J. L. Hobgood of Plantation, Fla.; one grandson and two brothers, W. D. of Silver City, Miss. and Murrell of Marietta, La.

Officers re-elected for the coming year were Mrs. Roumillat, president; Hannah Chase, vice president; Mrs. C. R. Dawson, secretary; J. B. Root, treasurer; and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Brown and Roland Dean, directors.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting on the last Monday in April of each year.

Mrs. Roumillat, emphasized the hope that through the increased membership, resulting from the drive, the society will be able to realize its dream to obtain a library memorial in which to house General Sanford's books and art treasures.

"We who will be able to preserve other items of a historical nature that county or city residents would like to have memorialized," she added.

General J. C. Hutchinson inaugurated the drive by being the first subscriber to purchase a family membership, and others attending the meeting followed suit.

House Moves To Aid Cities Thru Tax Law

Cigarette Tax Law Provision Changed

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The House today passed, 77-9, a bill loosening the requirement that cities must reduce property taxes in order to get their shares of the state cigarette taxes.

The measure, a part of the Florida League of Municipalities legislative program, provides that no city may be required to reduce its operating ad valorem tax millage to less than the tax levied by it in any year during the five-year period immediately preceding Jan. 1, 1949.

The cigarette tax law which became effective in November, 1949 gave the cities the right to collect within their boundaries but said they must make proportionate property tax reductions.

The House also voted 83-0 to repeal an old law which prohibits members of the Legislature from receiving printing contracts from the State.

The bill now goes to the Senate. Rep. Shepperd, president of the St. Augustine Herald Printing Co. who said he is the only member restricted by law, asked for its repeal.

He said he just wanted the Legislature "merely to put printers on the same basis as everybody else."

Several members suggested it would be a good idea to prohibit all members of the Legislature no matter what their businesses, from doing business with the state.

Rep. Ballinger, also, said the law prohibiting legislators from doing state printing was passed in 1907 when all the state's printing was let under a contract to one firm known as the "state printer."

The state auditor recently cited the old law in commenting that Shepperd's company had received some contracts in violation of the law.

He said he just wanted the Legislature "merely to put printers on the same basis as everybody else."

Released American Prisoners Report Fair Treatment By Reds

By ROBERT LUSKON

Released American prisoners of war and their families reported today that they had received fair treatment from the Communist Government of North Korea.

The prisoners, who were held in various camps, reported that they had been treated with respect and dignity. They said they had been given adequate food, clothing, and shelter.

One prisoner, Capt. L. Evelyn Chase, said she had been treated very well. She said she had been given a room of her own and had been able to receive mail from home.

Another prisoner, Nancy Jones, said she had been treated very well. She said she had been given a room of her own and had been able to receive mail from home.

The prisoners also reported that they had been given the opportunity to work in the fields. They said they had been given the same tools and equipment as the Korean workers.

They said they had been given the same food as the Korean workers. They said they had been given the same clothing as the Korean workers.

They said they had been given the same shelter as the Korean workers. They said they had been given the same medical care as the Korean workers.

30 Americans Are In First Group Traded

By ROBERT LUSKON

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—One hundred disabled Allied war prisoners were traded today in the first exchange of 300 Communist soldiers and wounded of the Korean War.

The trade, the first clear break in long-drawn-out truce talks, could be the prelude to an armistice in the 14-month-old war. The talks, suspended last October, resume Saturday.

The 100 Allied prisoners included 30 Americans, 12 British, 20 South Koreans, 4 Turks and 1 each from Cambodia, South Africa, Greece and the Philippines.

Another 100 return tomorrow—15 Americans, 12 British, 3 Turks and 50 South Koreans, the Reds said today. In all, 300 Allied sick and wounded are being traded for 300 Reds.

Those crossing today appeared to be in fair health and well fed. Some were wearing military uniforms, but many were in civilian clothes. They were being taken to the North Korean prison camps where some had been since 1950. The first year of the war, but one officer said treatment was "unbelievably poor" before the truce negotiations began. He picked up material.

Some came back on stretchers; others walked or hobbled on crutches.

Some showed dramatic scenes of the war but through clouded eyes in mourning.

The returning prisoners grimed with war wounds, each with a different story to tell.

Sounds of battle from a nearby front echoed over this ancient hill.

At the camp, the Reds tried to win them to communism, but there was no outward indication of success.

The prisoners said they showed no physical signs of warfare. Red doctors, they said, had given them good medical care. They said they had been given good food and clothing.

Some believed it added a glimmer of hope.

Capt. Kenyon Wagner of Detroit, Mich., a tuberculosis patient, said Allied soldiers were "exposed to Communist literature and study."

Asked if any had turned Communist, Wagner replied "I could not say."

Wagner said he was given the best medical care he had ever received. He said he had been given good food and clothing.

Historical Society Plans Drive For Members; Officers Relected

A drive for new members will be launched by the Seminole County Historical Society in the near future. It was decided at a meeting of the group in the City Hall Friday night.

In a meeting presided over by Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, Hannah Chase pointed out that it was only through large membership and broad public support of such a project that the necessary funds could be raised with which to construct the proposed Sanford memorial and historical museum.

Upon motion of Mrs. C. Stuart Brown, it was decided to fix the initial membership fee at $1.00 per year and family membership at $2.50. Mrs. Roumillat appointed Mrs. Brown chairman of a committee to conduct the membership drive. Other members of the committee named were Mrs. Fred T. Williams, Mrs. A. R. Key, Mrs. Roy Tillis, and Mrs. L. P. Hagan.

Officers re-elected for the coming year were Mrs. Roumillat, president; Hannah Chase, vice president; Mrs. C. R. Dawson, secretary; J. B. Root, treasurer; and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Brown and Roland Dean, directors.
