

Only Class Of People More Enduring Than Nomination Seekers Is Wives

By HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The big mystery today in this metropolis of fraternal affection isn't who's going to be the Republican candidate for president.

To heck with secrecy, I can tell you in two words who it will be—a Republican. His name? His name right now is legion. Or almost legion.

The real mystery here to one seeing a national convention for the first time is:

"How can one small subdivision of a continent with only 145,000,000 people produce so many rugged men with the stamina to face openly the ordeal of being a candidate for the presidency?"

For the people of Paducah are nothing to the trials and tribulations of a man who aspires to become the number one public servant of the American people. If he wins one race and gets the nomination, what lies ahead? Another energy-sapping, spirit-wearing race with an equally eager leaver who wears the other party's nomination.

But the first race looks to me like the hardest—the race to head the party's ticket. For in it a man is trying to do the hardest thing in the world—get applause from his own family, in this case his political family. Family fights are the bitterest, civil wars the bloodiest.

What does a man have to do to convince his political family that he should lead them? Ordinarily—plenty!

Leaving out the nerve-wearing months of preliminary travel and negotiation, there is the week-long ordeal of the convention itself.

In one evening here Governor Thomas E. Dewey shook hands with some 6,000 people at his official reception. Senator Robert A. Taft, too, has a grip worn out from greeting well wishers. He also shook the trunk of the only honest-to-loyalty pachyderm gathered here for the quadrennial meeting of the American society for the advancement of the elephant.

There is no such thing as real sleep for a candidate once the convention starts. He faces long hours of conferences with his advisers, and dozens of interviews with potential supporters in the buttonholing, wheeling and dealing sessions to win delegates.

There isn't just one smoke-filled room at any close political convention. There are hundreds of them as democracy works its way to a decision by the democratic method of negotiation. Sometimes one smoke-filled room yields the wildfire of victory. Usually it doesn't.

A candidate in a hotly contested race may give his time, his heart, and wear two or three years off his normal life expectancy in a fight to gain the nomination and still be asked to give one more thing—promises. Promises to appoint this man to that post in exchange for delegate votes.

And does it cost money to try to win a nomination? It does. To give one example it cost Senator Taft and his supporters $175,000 alone to fight Harold Stassen's bid for delegate support in the Ohio primary.

One man who has escaped most of the preliminary travel and expense is Senator Arthur Vandenberg. He has said he wouldn't seek the nomination, but like Burke in "David Copperfield," he's willing "to take it if drafted."

But suppose a man goes through the customary long weary grind to nomination, and then goes on to win the presidency. What is his reward?

A $75,000-a-year job guaranteed for four years and a free white goldfish bowl to live in. And more and more conferences and hundreds of thousands of more hands to shake. And no more privacy. And 145,000,000 leaves, pro and con.

There is only one class of people who show more enduring courage than the iron men who seek a party nomination for the presidency. These are the women who married them.

The ancients had no table forks. Greeks and Romans ate with their fingers after their food had been cut into small pieces.

Draft Signing Ends National Guard Joining

Secretary Royall Telegraphs All State Adjutants General To Halt Recruiting

WASHINGTON, June 25, (AP)—Army Secretary Royall telegraphed all state adjutants general today to stop recruiting National Guardsmen immediately.

He told them congressional leaders will not favor extra appropriations to pay more guardsmen than the regular budget provides. The budget for the next fiscal year provides for a total National Guard strength of 341,000. The rush of enlistments by men who otherwise would be eligible for the draft is believed to have pushed the strength nearer to 375,000. Under provisions of the draft act, men who were not in the guard by last midnight are subject to draft.

President Truman signalled the start of the nation's second peacetime draft when he signed the two-year selective service bill into law at 4:40 P. M. (EST) yesterday.

Just a short time before he approved a $10,000,000,000 plus fund to build up the Army, Navy and Air Force to a strength of 2,000,000 men.

Both actions gave support to this nation's foreign policy at a time when Russia is displaying new hostility to the presence of U. S. forces in Berlin and is otherwise exerting pressure against Western opponents of Communist expansion.

There was no indication whether Mr. Truman discussed the latest Soviet moves in Berlin with members of the cabinet at their regular Friday meeting at the White House.

CIO Auto Workers Oppose Ford Offer With Hiked Demand

DETROIT, June 25, (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers countered the Ford Motor Company's offer of an 11-14 cent hourly wage increase with revised demands of its own today totalling twice that much.

A UAW spokesman said the demand would cost Ford at least an additional 28 cents an hour. The union demand includes:

- (1) A flat 14-cent an hour pay raise;
- (2) A company financed hospitalization, health and medical care program equal to another eight cents an hour;
- (3) Elimination of what the union called "differences in economic standards between Ford and its competitors." This would include higher night differential pay, elimination of "so called merit spreads," more call-in pay and other fringe benefits, adding up to six cents an hour.

Ford, earlier this week, offered a 14-cent rise in all of its 110,000 employees making more than the average $1.50 an hour and 11 cents to those making less.

Siam's Leader Vows Fight On Communism

BANGKOK, Siam, June 25, (AP)—Premier Pibul Songgram said today Siam will stand firm against Communist ideology.

He said the country is ringed by neighbors already infiltrated and agitated by Communist workers. The country is bordered by Indo China, Burma and the federation of Malaya.

The premier said recent unrest in southern Siam provinces was stirred partly by Communists. He said local Moslem agitators took advantage of the disorder. He asserted the situation there is now normal and that police suppression squads have been reinforced to guard against Communist infiltration from Malaya.

Pibul said the cabinet and defense board discussed the Communist threat. The defense board was instructed to draft measures to prevent Communist infiltration.

Sanford Is Rated Tops Of 63 Cities Appraised In U. S.

Director Says Co-operation Results In 99 Percent Listing

The J. M. Clemenshaw Appraisal Company, which will complete its appraisal of Sanford property on Monday, four days ahead of schedule, places Sanford at the top of the 63 cities it has appraised in percentage of homes listed. R. P. Skelly, director of the appraisal, announced this morning.

He declared that in behalf of the company and staff he wished to thank the citizens of Sanford for their fine co-operation, hospitality and friendliness toward the appraisers, and stated that this had resulted in the listing of 99 percent of homes here.

Prior to the Sanford appraisal, Adrian, Mich., had the highest percentage of home listings with the company, 97 percent. Listings have gone as low as 95 percent where the co-operation was not so good, said Mr. Skelly. He revealed that in all his 15 years of appraisal of cities he had never encountered a "friendlier city than Sanford," and added that he and Mrs. Skelly, who assisted him in the work here, intend to return to Sanford sometime to live.

Sanford set another record, he revealed, by having only one building not on the tax role. This turned out to be a small, $500 dwelling between the A.C.L. railroad tracks near West Eleventh Street, and which had been moved to the site a few years before. Some towns have had as much as four percent of buildings not on the tax role, said Mr. Skelly. There were only eight turn-

Judge M. B. Smith Decides Against Judge Ware's Suit

Ware Contends He Is Entitled To $500 Yearly Plus Fees

Judge M. B. Smith of the Circuit Court has decided against Judge R. W. Ware as judge of the County Court in a suit by Judge Ware against Seminole County wherein a declaratory decree was sought to determine by what statute, the salary of the judge, as judge of the County Court, should be paid, it was announced this morning by O. P. Herndon, county clerk.

"Prior to the suit," said Mr. Herndon, "the County had paid the County Judge as judge of the County Court, $500 a year salary and $3.00 docket fee on each case filed. This was in accordance with Section 6 Chapter 9344, State act of 1923."

"Judge Ware contended that he should be paid under Section 34.21 of the Florida statute, 1941, which provides that in each county where the population exceeds 22,000 people, the judge of the County Court shall receive an annual salary of $1,200."

"The statute provides that this compensation shall exclude all salary fees or other compensation which the said judge of the County Court as such, might receive or be entitled to, Seminole County, having grown into this section by virtue of its population, the Board of County Commissioners agreed with Judge Ware that he should be paid under this statute."

"Later," declared Mr. Herndon, "Judge Ware instituted the suit claiming that he should not be paid under that section which increased his salary $700 a year, and excluded the $3.00 docket fee."

World Freedom, Appeal For Unity Is Theme Of Dewey's Acceptance

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES

PHILADELPHIA, June 25 (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey solemnly set a goal of freedom for men everywhere in accepting the Republican presidential nomination last night.

"As long as the world is half free, we must peacefully labor to help men everywhere achieve liberty," he told cheering GOP national convention delegates who had just nominated him unanimously.

"Above all other purposes," he said, "we must labor by every peaceful means to build a world order founded upon justice and righteousness. That kind of a world will have peace. That kind of peace will be worth having."

World freedom and an appeal for unity to help achieve it were the two central themes of the New York governor's 15-minute acceptance speech.

"We are a united party," he told the Republicans, but "our nation stands tragically in need of that same unity."

The unity to be sought is "most of all spiritual," he said. "We have found the means to

Egyptians Fire On UNMarked Truce Airplane

Spokesman Says Spitfires Pursue White Craft To Airfield, Attack As It Lands

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 25, (AP)—A United Nations spokesman said today the Egyptians had fired upon a clearly marked white U. N. truce plane piloted by an American.

The spokesman said also that the Egyptians had refused to permit a U. N. approved Jewish supply convoy to pass to settlements in the Negev, and both incidents were regarded by the U. N. Commission here as violations of the truce.

The case was not regarded, however, as invalidating the general cease fire which has held generally for two of its four weeks.

Col. Count Harold Bonde, head of the truce mission, has informed Cairo of the violations, the spokesman added.

The Israeli government also accused the Egyptians of violating the truce. A communiqué said the Egyptians not only refused passage to the Jewish convoy, but bombed the settlements of Beer Tuvia and Kfar Warburg, midway between Tel Aviv and Gaza.

The U. N. spokesman and Egyptian Spitfires pursued the white truce plane, clearly marked with the letters "U. N.," until it was about to land near Kfar Warburg. He said the plane was attacked with gunfire as it was about to touch the ground. Fifteen shots were fired, some of them striking the plane from the rear and hitting the instrument panel. The American pilot, a colonel named Martin, was alone in the plane and escaped injury, the spokesman added.

The spokesman said Col. Bonde, through the front lines today and informed the Egyptian commander in chief that truce observers would be withdrawn from the Egyptian zone because of "failure to respect the truce mission."

A Jewish announcement and Col. Bonde had advised Jewish authorities they were "free to act as they thought fit" with regard to getting the convoy through as a result of the Egyptian action.

The Jews had declared previously that if the Egyptians stopped Negev-bound convoys, they were prepared "to fight them through."

The U. N. spokesman said there was no actual shooting in the convoy case.

Meanwhile the Mitrachi party declared that both its regional ministers—Rabbi J. L. Fishman and Yehuda Shalom—were returning to the government. They had resigned in the crisis caused by the government's dispatch of Israeli troops to oppose Irgun Zvai Leumi attempts to land no-man's ships.

The government, bolstered by a vote of confidence, was standing firm in its opposition to the challenge from Irgun. Unofficially, it said three Irgun fighters and perhaps some Israeli troops were killed in clashes that developed as Irgunists withdrew.

Sheriff Mero Seizes Distillery Materials

Sheriff P. A. Mero was back at his pursuit this morning when, at the aid of Deputy Herman "Futs" Brumley, he seized liquor-making equipment at an abandoned still near the Wekiva River. A former member of the State Beverage Department, Sheriff Mero has had much experience at "busting up stills."

The material seized included a copper coil, kettle and mash vat. T. J. Steerman and D. B. Morris, state wide motor vehicle deputies today visited Sheriff Mero before starting check-up work here.

Soviets Halt Berlin Food From Red Zone

Experts Say No Immediate Danger Of Starvation Exists But Situation Is Dire

BERLIN, June 25, (AP)—The Russians struck another blow at the Western Allies in Berlin today stopping food shipments from the Soviet zone into the Western sectors. Traffic already was suspended on the railroad supplying these sectors with food from the Western occupation zones.

Under the four-power agreement, the Western zones have furnished about two-thirds of Berlin's food and the Soviet zone one-third. The food was distributed through a central German agency to insure even supplies for all areas.

American and British experts said that while no immediate danger of starvation exists, the food situation eventually will become impossible if the Russian blockade continues.

Col. Frank L. Howley, commander of the U. S. sector of Berlin, said:

"We are living off food reserves which should last a month if the blockade against shipments from the Western sectors, that will require action by higher authorities."

There was indication that such action was already under way. The British deputy military governor, Maj. General Nevill C. H. Brownlow, flew to London for talks with British authorities. He left after his chief, General Sir Brian Robertson, held discussions with General Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor.

In London foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the House of Commons a "delicate state of affairs" exists in Berlin. The British cabinet was summoned in a special session, presumably to discuss the Berlin situation.

The blockade left only the airways for bringing food from the West to the 2,000,000 residents of the British, French and American zones in Berlin. Allied experts acknowledged this would not work in the long run.

Col. Howley said the Western Allies had anticipated the latest Soviet move and had accumulated food stocks sufficient to meet a difficulty.

He said these included 50 tons of whole powdered milk and 200 tons of condensed milk, which were distributed to hospitals for babies deprived of fresh milk from the Soviet zone. Under four-power agreement the Russians agree to bring in fresh milk for the entire city in exchange for meat.

Greek Raids Break Rebel Resistance By Surprise Moves

ATHENS, June 25, (AP)—The Greek general staff said today surprise attacks have broken rebel guerrilla resistance at points near Nestorion and Grevena.

Nestorion is just northeast of the Thessalonian pocket estimated to hold 7,000 followers of Communist leader Markos Vassilias. Grevena is southeast. Six Greek divisions, each with U. S. Army advisors, are assaulting the mountainous, hilly region, which lies against the border of Communist Albania.

The communists said Boufa heights had been taken, opening the way for a new assault on Amouda ridge northwest of Nestorion. The ridge is perhaps the strongest position in the 1,000 square miles of rebel territory. The capture of places south and southwest of Nestorion was claimed.

LONDON STRIKE
LONDON, June 25, (AP)—Nearly 20,000 dock workers, on strike 22 days, stood by today as 211 pollsters moved perishables from London wharves.

Prime Minister Attlee indicated troops may move other goods if the strike continues. It was called in sympathy with 11 men penalized for refusing to move a "dirty cargo" of zinc oxide without extra pay.

London's meat ration was reduced.

Dewey Confers With Delegation

Dewey Becomes 1st Unsuccessful GOP Bidder To Be Renominated

By HENRY LEADER

PHILADELPHIA, June 25 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey today became the first unsuccessful Republican candidate for President ever to be renominated.

But combats are nothing new for the 46-year-old New York governor. His career has been marked by "try, try again" victories.

Ten years ago, after Dewey had risen to fame as Manhattan's rack-etizing district attorney, the Republican Party nominated him for governor. He lost the election to Democratic Governor Herbert H. Lehman on that first try.

Two years later, in 1940, Dewey swept after the GOP presidential nomination. He and Senator Robert A. Taft fought it out in Philadelphia, but darkhorse Wendell L. Willkie beat them both in the stretch.

Republicans gave Dewey another crack at the governorship in 1942. This time he made it, defeating State Attorney General John J. Bennett, the Democratic nominee.

The victory ended 20 years of Democratic rule in New York state and put the one-time Michigan choir boy in line for another shot at the GOP presidential nomination.

Although Dewey never announced he was a candidate, he was nominated virtually by acclamation at Chicago in 1944.

He failed to top President Roosevelt's wartime re-election for a fourth term, but he made a better showing in the electoral college—59 to 432—than any of 1944's three previous opponents. He pulled the second largest number of popular votes of any Republican presidential candidate in history—22,004,755 against Willkie's 22,304,755 in 1940.

Dewey took the licking philosophically but didn't ease much for another four-year term as governor. His party renominated him in 1946, however, and he was re-elected by a record majority of 657,000 over Senator James M. Dewey New Deal Democrat.

That victory placed Dewey in the top tier of GOP presidential candidates.

FAIR LAWN, N. J., June 25, (AP)—Long range weather forecaster George J. McCormack, who predicted last winter's big snow months before it came, says this summer's weather will be awful.

McCormack, who does it all by astro-meteorology, said "the season's best vacation weather would be during the third week of July, the first two weeks of August up to Aug. 18 and the second week in September."

"Some of the hottest weather is scheduled for the end of June into the opening days of July from Mississippi Valley westward to the continental divide and in the Southwest. But the heat wave will be broken during the second week of July, about July 11-12."

"On July 4 holiday week-end, McCormack concluded, "thunderstorms and local squalls originating in the Mississippi Valley on the 2nd will move eastward toward the Atlantic from July 3 to July 6."

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy and continued warm through Saturday with widely scattered afternoon showers and showers. Breezy, with moderate variable winds, mostly westerly.

Dewey Picks Warren As Running Mate

No Other Name Is Offered For Vice-Presidency Which Is Accclaimed Nominated

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, June 25, (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey and California's Earl Warren are the 1948 Republican presidential ticket.

Dewey was unanimously nominated by the 24th National Convention last night.

He picked Warren to run with him as vice president and the convention today by acclamation confirmed that choice.

No other name than Warren's was presented for the vice presidency. Arizona gave notice of nominating Harold L. Stassen but a few minutes later withdrew it.

Chairman Joseph Martin put Warren's name before the convention and declared him nominated by acclamation.

New York's Dewey, getting his first crack at the White House.

Bisbee Presides As New President At Lions Meeting

Hamilton Bisbee today presided as newly elected president of the Lions Club at the meeting at the Tontine Center.

He had officiated but a short time at this post before acting President Dick Elsherry fined him a dime for not having a program lined up for the meeting.

A lot of fun resulted, with charges and counter charges. Jack Morrison presided at his new post as secretary and Edward McCall as treasurer.

Getting down to serious business, President Bisbee read a letter which will be sent by the Club to Lafayette Golden, president of the Florida High School Athletic Association, expressing apologies of club members as citizens of Sanford for the "regrettable incidents" attending the recent testing of the Mayfair Inn, which, while high school ball players and officials alike had to seek new quarters for the night.

Cliff Ables was named chairman of the committee to greet returning delegates, including Arnold Harrington from Bay State at Tallahassee Saturday. A letter from the latter was read in which he thanked his Lion sponsors, and told how he had been greeted by Lions on his arrival and invited to a meeting of the Tallahassee Club.

Comets were Edward Ebert of the recently organized Palmetto Lions Club at Tampa, and Hugo Duncan of Sanford.

Charles Forrester, John Gallows, George Maffett and Porter Lansing were elected to be members of the board of directors.

Plans for the coming year were discussed and an outline of the accomplishments for the past year was presented.

Nutritionist Warns Users Of Mineral Oil

TRENTON, N. J., June 25, (AP)—Don't use mineral oil as a food unless your doctor advises it, Mrs. Margaret P. Zealand, state health nutritionist warned today.

She said the American Medical Association has withdrawn its approval of mineral oil as a food product, and the Federal Food and Drug Administration called salad dressings made with the oil "adulterated."

Use of mineral oil near mealtime will interfere with absorption of fat-soluble vitamins, and utilization of calcium and phosphorus, Mrs. Zealand added.

MISS RIVERS IMPROVES
Some improvement in the condition of Miss Catherine Rivers, now under treatment at a New Smyrna hospital after being injured in a fall from a horse in beach racing two weeks ago, was today reported by friends. It is possible that she will be brought to her home on Cameron Avenue next week, but doctors have ordered no visitors for two weeks thereafter.

The mind that wanders and comes

Smiling an introspective grin.
As at some stirring call of mem-

Then living decently inside my

Often I think that in its joyous

Leon Blum

Leon Blum, the New Dealish Premier of France before the war, hated by many wealthy Frenchmen as certain Americans ever hated F. D. R., is now charged by Moscow with having played a double game.
France then had a treaty of mutual help with Russia. Blum, according to the story, was willing to end this if he could establish friendly relations with Germany. The German ambassador to Paris is quoted as saying that the price would be French support of France in Spain.

It sounds very improbable. Blum admittedly would have welcomed an end to the long enmity between France and Germany. He was too wise, however, to put any trust in Hitler's word. Although he supported the arms engagement that hindered the Spanish Republicans and helped France, he did it most unwillingly, chiefly because the English favored it and he did not want to part company with them.

The chief mystery is why Moscow should take this opportunity to slander Blum, who is now out of politics.

Childish Motorists

Are traffic regulations framed for the annoyance of motorists, and do the officers who act in their enforcement do their work in a spirit of persecution?

A listener to the talk of many motorists would be likely to answer these questions in the affirmative. With the advent of the "silly season," a great many drivers throw caution to the winds, and resent any attempt to curb their recklessness. They watch their rear-view mirror for the approach of a police car, and govern their speed accordingly.
They gleefully report "giving the cop the slip," boast of their seventy-five and eighty mile-an-hour traveling speed, and otherwise flout the laws of the road.

Mature individuals realize that traffic laws are made and enforced for the protection of all, and sensibly observe them. Reckless drivers are merely childish exhibitionists.

Egbert

Archaeologists, meet Egbert. This is the name given to the skeleton of an eight or nine-year-old boy, thought to be over 60,000 years old, just found in Lebanon, near the center of the Arab-Jewish dispute. Egbert has just come over, with many finds that may go back as far as 75,000
B. C., in company with Father Joseph Murphy of the Boston College-Fordham University Expedition which unearthed these remains. It is hoped that Egbert will illustrate the transition between the early form of man known as Neanderthal and the human species of today.

This is one of the most exciting of recent archeological discoveries. Now that the war is over, further excavations are looked for which may add new chapters to the still largely unknown history of early man.

Caldwell Addresses
Boys State Delegates

TALLAHASSEE, June 25 (AP)—
Declaring American government is becoming more and more centralized, Governor Caldwell yesterday urged members of Boys State to take an "active and engaged" part in civic affairs.

He told delegates to the annual American Legion sponsored state rights of state and local governments "are constantly being wiped out" because of their failure to function adequately.

"Unless the trend towards centralized government is reversed, anarchy is in danger," he said.

Predicting many of his youthful hearers would occupy government positions in the future, Caldwell cautioned them "never to get the idea the end of objective is to win by whatever means."

"The man who wins an election by off-color means will pay the penalty. That is inevitable in my opinion. Furthermore, the man who stands on sound statesmanship will meet a ready response from the electorate of the state of Florida."

Elton College in England was founded in the 15th Century during the reign of Henry VI.

Budget Commission
Releases Work Funds

TALLAHASSEE, June 25 (AP)—
The Budget Commission released $1,832,000 for new construction projects— including $800,000 for a new tuberculosis sanatorium at Lantana and $500,000 for a new hospital at Florida A. and M. College for negroes.

Other money released included $200,000 for purchase of a 915-acre governmental tract on Anastasia Island for development into a state park, $214,000 for building a new dairy unit at the University of Florida, $307,000 for extension of the Florida State University utilities system and $600,000 for additional work on new livestock pastures at Quincy, Bartow, Orlando and Belle Glade.

All the money was taken from the second priority classification, in the 1947 building act after the improvement commission and other agencies made up a new list of projects in the order of their need.

The $800,000 Lantana tuberculosis sanatorium allocation is from a $2,500,000 legislative appropriation. The total cost of the project is estimated at $3,200,000.
The federal government will put up part of the money and further state donations are expected including.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MCKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Out of the fire comes the steel, out of the trials and dangers imposed by the Bolshevik drive to conquer the globe there undoubtedly is emerging a new unity among the free nations.

By treachery, trickery and aggression the Reds enslaved Eastern Europe before a trusting world as a whole was awake to this threat from one of the major powers. However, with the full awakening of the Democratic nations are solidifying in a manner which could have been foreseen. The Communist scheme of brooding division and discord is fading.

We are thus in the fact that the world is moving toward a united front in a United States of Europe, the Moscowites unwittingly are accomplishing their end.

As far as it goes in Western Europe in the brief period since the war, Moscow that out half century for the Soviet drive of aggression has driven Western Europe and America to get together in a manner which could have been foreseen in any stretch of imagination.

The nucleus of a possible United States of Europe is the new front of Western Europe in action. This comprises Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The alliance is military and political.
Other countries of Western Europe are debating affiliation.

Today Washington is hard at work on ways and means of a united front with this two European bloc which gives real promise of expanding. Conversations between the union and the State Department are expected to take place soon. Mention was made of a further dragging of nations of Western Europe into the fold for mutual advantage.

Part of the Red scheme is to drive the Americans, British and French out of Berlin, which has been the focus of the Soviet aggression since the Russian Tang is indicated clearly enough in the latest Soviet move of halting railway transport from the west into Berlin, thus cutting off much food and other necessities for some 3,000,000 people, apart from what the Western allies supply by air. The Reds in order to escape suffering, also have seized a great deal of the electric current which supplies Berlin.

However, General Lucius D.
Clay, American military governor, has declared firmly and without equivocation that the Russians "cannot drive us out of Berlin by any action short of war. Unfortunately the only way they can put us under pressure is to make the Germans suffer."

These Russian tactics are as remarkable a piece of courage, bravery and defiance. That is to say, their offensive has bogged down.

Man, Wife Receive
Few Hits For Giving
7 Children Away

MIAMI, June 25 (AP)—William W. Harvey, 36-year-old radio announcer, who gave away his seven children, said he had received several calls but only two or three which were critical.

He said one of the callers took him to task for "trying to shift responsibility as a father."

"I told him if it had not been for my wife's health, I would have saved Heaven and earth to keep the children together. Besides, the financial problem was accruing her heart trouble."

Harvey and his wife decided to surrender the three boys and four girls, ranging in age from nine months to eight years, about two weeks ago, because of Mrs. Harvey's health and the lack of money.

They placed a classified advertisement about two weeks ago in adoption papers for three of the children, but have been signed, and the others are ready. This evening, Harvey and his wife will leave Miami, change their names, and "try to start life all over again."

Harvey said one of his callers asked if he had heard about the "baby swap" in "Central."

"I told her to mind her own business," he said.

He said he and his wife also had been criticized for posing for photographs, "but we did it only under pressure from the photographers."

A Lakewood doctor who attended the family said Mrs. Harvey was a "very bad heart condition and it's altogether possible that she won't live long."

Defendant Comes To Court Well Prepared

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 25 (AP)—Judge McDonnell looked down from his municipal court bench and recognized the defendant's face.

His brow wrinkled and he said:
"When you were tried for drunk-ness in April I told you that if you got into trouble again, you might just as well bring your tooth brush, because you'd be staying a long time."

"What have you got to say for yourself?" he asked.

Ray Goodenough, 62, who was charged with driving after revocation of his license, looked up at the judge. He said nothing, reached into his pocket and pulled out a tooth brush.

He got six months.

and they are trying to bolster it.

Warren Picked

second chance at the presidency, made it an East-West all-governor ticket after an all-night series of conferences.

The word quickly spread to Convention Hall and the delegates didn't take long to whomp through Warren's name.

Leaders of camps of other disappointed presidential hopefuls were quick to line up behind the Dewey-Warren combination.

Governor Dwight Green of Illinois said the Illinois delegation undoubtedly would support Warren.

Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio, Dewey's running mate in 1944, told newsmen he personally would support Warren and thinks the entire Ohio delegation will.

"I'll be happy to support Governor Warren," said Rep. George Bender of Ohio.

Delegates of Rep. Charles A.
Halleck of Indiana, said they, too, would support Warren. They had tried to win the nomination for Halleck.

Joseph Pev, a Pennsylvania political leader, predicted that the Keystone state would stand in line behind the California governor.

The ticket which Republicans hope will end 16 years of Democratic rule in Washington was completed at a series of conferences that went on most of the night and continued through the morning.

There was tense waiting throughout the downtown political camps as Dewey, unanimously given a second chance at the presidency, kept the convention waiting for his choice of a running mate.

At 9:30 A. M. (EST), the hour set for the convention to consider nominations for vice president, there was scarcely a major politician in the hall.

Chairman Joe Martin had not put in an appearance. The GOP bigwigs who sit on the platform were absent.

They were waiting downtown for the word from the New York governor, now quarterbacking the Republican drive to gain full control of the national government.

Most of the delegates were in their places, but there was tier after tier of empty seats in the galleries. It looked like Shibe Park when the Athletics are playing Washington on a rain night.

In a hotel suite downtown, Dewey still was pondering the recommendations he got for a running mate after he bowed over all opposition last night and became the first defeated Republican presidential candidate ever to win renomination.

For sentimental and other reasons, many delegates wanted him to pick Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio.

Pilot Club Will Sponsor Blood Bank

Plans were made to sponsor a blood bank and Mrs. Mary Rawlins was appointed chairman of the project at the monthly meeting of the Sanford Pilot Club held on Tuesday evening at the Tourist Center. The date for the blood bank will be announced later. Announcement was made that during the month of May 142 quarts of milk and one case of canned milk had been distributed through the milk fund plan. Also that under the club's cancer program 360 persons had viewed two films on the subject and that two talks had been heard by 63 adults.

The group voted to donate $15 to the Yessie Memorial Fund. Plans were also made for a dinner meeting to be held in July at the Time and Tide summer camp of Mrs. Rawlins. Those attending the meeting Tuesday were Mrs. M. H. Smith, Miss Gussie Hinton, Mrs. E. H. Holleyhead, Mrs. Frank MacNeill, Mrs. Al Hunt, Mrs. E. B. Randall, Mrs. Gordon C. Stone, Mrs. J. C. Mrs. Bihn Says Work Will Aid Life Length

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Wirefeatures Writer
NEW YORK — You can take this from an 80-year-old working girl, Mrs. Anna Bihn, who models "on the side." Work, and you'll live longer.

This, con... from the popular "Benney" — is called in the trade, "advice." She is in excellent health and believes that "people who keep an interest in life will last longer than those who just exist from day to day. Besides it is so much more fun to be independent."

Once in a while, she says, people sympathize with her — "an old lady who must work." Always, Benney says, she advises them to save their pity "for those who can't or don't want to work."

The white-haired sweet-faced Benney who looks like every body's mother is at present averaging about five 1½ hour modeling jobs a week. She could do more, but then she says "it would interfere with my main job."

Her "main job" is a full time one — six days a week in a night club as a ladies lounge attendant. She works from 8:30 at night until 3 a. m., takes a taxi home, sleeps until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, then calls the Society of Models where she has been registered three years to see whether she has an assignment. She says: "I haven't missed a day for illness in 8 years. Only once did I have to take a night off and that was when I had a modeling job in Chicago."

This was a memorable occasion in Benney's life. She had never flown before. She was wine and dined and "felt like a real glamor girl," she says.

The 5'2" model who tips the scales at 130 lbs. has no relatives nearby, her husband having died several years ago. She has lived at the same hotel for 16 years, though she originally registered for two weeks. She has no kitchen and eats all her meals out — usually alone — but she doesn't mind. As a matter of fact, she says, with a twinkle in her blue eyes, "it is fun to live alone because you can do as you please."

Usually she chooses to take walks or go to the movies. Though she "did go through the night club stage" when she was Younger, they don't intrigue her now. She sees "enough of night clubs" while on her night job. Benney uses no makeup except on an occasional job. She is not interested in romance "though the right man may come along." But she doesn't care if he doesn't show up. She says: "Live alone and like it is my motto. And I like it. I don't owe anybody anything."

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 25, (AP)—Producer Walter Wanger announces he will mine the rich vein of American history in his future films.

The scholarly film maker, who has alternated between serious dramas and escapist film-fam, says he plans a long-range program of movies highlighting Americana. Latest to be announced is "So Gallantly Gleaming," a story of John Fremont. The producer will soon begin "Tulsa," concerning the rise of the oil industry, and plans to follow with "Anne of the Indies," about Anne Bonny, Charleston-born pirate who operated between Nassau and the Carolinas. Both will feature his star, Susan Hayward.

Wanger has alerted researchers of American universities to inform him of little-known events of U.S. history that might contain movie material.

Burt Lancaster plans to shoot all of his "Eagle on the Beach" film making below the border a much-needed shot in the arm. It's a story of the Mexican revolution and Burt's company will film it in authentic locales, using Mexican studios for interiors. He'll use the Mexican actors except for some of the lead roles.

Another Latin American revolution is the subject of John Huston's first independent film, "Rough Sketch," which will star John Garfield and Jennifer Jones. Its background is the Cuban uprising that overthrew the Machado regime in 1937. The company will location in Cuba.

Donald O'Connor's studio has nothing for him to do so he is hopping off to South Africa on July 31 for a week of location work. He is also considering offers to appear at the London Palladium and to star in "Dollars Diplomacy" on Broadway.

Sonia Henne wants to make her next film after "The Countess of Monte Cristo" an English because that's the only place she can get a color commitment. Reasons she'd like to make more money, too.

Clothes... Sabu wants to make "Return of Elephant Boy" an independent film... Tur-ham Roy, now in "Song of India," finishes his Eagle-Lion contract in August and he couldn't be happier. He's mighty sore at the studio.

Dinah Shore is the latest to sign for London Palladium appearances. She and George Montgomery will make the trip after he finishes "Indian Scout." Wonder why Laraine Day refused to pose for still photographs with Helen Walker on the "My Dear Secretary" film.

Yvonne deCarlo doesn't want to do the proposed "Bagdad" with Tony Martin. "I've had my fill of Arabian nights musicals," she says. "The Girl From Jones Beach" had the world's shortest location trip — to the parking lot opposite Warner Brothers... Maybe movie makers aren't worried about the possibility of an actors' strike, but Universal International is timing its films to end shooting July 31, expiration date of the Screen Actors Guild contract. Just in case.

Sanford Regains Third Place By Trimming G's, 7 To 6

Lake Goes Route To Chalk Up Victory; Locals To Tangle With Ps Sunday

By ARTHUR HECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

The Sanford Giants moved back into third place in the Florida State League standings last night as they nipped the Gainesville G-men in a 7 to 6 ten inning contest at the Municipal Park.

Righthander Buddy Lake went the route to receive credit for the victory. He allowed the Gainesville aggregation but ten hits, while his mates were rapping out 15 from the offerings of two hurlers.

The score was tied after the Giants went to bat in the ninth inning at 5 to 5, but the visitors nudged one run across in the top of the tenth frame on an error by Johnny McManus, a sacrifice and a long fly to center.

Sanford came tearing back in the bottom of the same inning. Connie Kavakis stroled up to the plate and lifted one of Don Coker's pitches far over the left field wall for a home run to knot the count. Len Matte doubled to the right field.

Manager Myrl Hoge pulled Coker in favor of Joe Cleary. Lake grounded out, advancing Matte to third. Johnny McManus rolled an infield hit to second base to score Matte to place the contest in the record books as a Sanford victory.

Tonight the Giants move to Gainesville to tangle with the G's at Harris Field, and tomorrow evening the locals move to Daytona Beach for a twin bill with the Seals. The Giants play hosts to the Daytona Beach nine on Sunday afternoon.

The Leesburg Pirates scored a 7 to 2 victory over the Orlando Senators last night, and the Daytona Beach club lost a 4 to 3 battle, lasting 11 innings, to the St. Augustine Saints. Palatka's Manager Charlie Bowles pitched a no-hit no-run game against the DeLand Red Hats as the A's registered a 3 to 0 victory.

Wacheeta, OB's Classic Tangle In 9th Tonight

Limber-limbed Wacheeta, a greyhound which has finished in the money five times in six starts, will stretch her slender legs with the elite of the feature ninth race at the Volusia County Kennel Club in Daytona Beach tonight.

In the eighth race last Saturday this fawn-hued speedster romped in to win by a nose. Tonight she will be making her debut in the Club's feature, but her previous record shows that she belongs with the fleetest.

Wacheeta is owned by the lucky Randle Bros. Kennels, an outfit which has been successful in the past. OB's Classic will be one of Wacheeta's most dangerous contenders. This fast stepper in six starts has triumphed once, finished second twice and third twice.

He is a product of the Oswald Bros. Kennels, another greyhound racing outfit whose courses have been leading the packs. Other greyhounds scheduled to ramble in tonight's feature are Sooner Select, Potomac, Mr. Shortstop, Now Voyager, Jocular Jester and Lovely Dawn.

End of the line
Coaches of the Army Olympic boxing squad, picked in recent tryouts at Chicago, feel that most of the 18 candidates can hold their own with "golden gloves" fighters, but only the top eight of this group will go into the final tryouts at Boston. Claude Passau, former Cub pitcher, can't understand these high school kids. "They're book worms," Claude protests. "They're over-looking the solid future baseball nobs for them if they'd just give it a fling."

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR HECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

PLAYER NIGHTS
"State Loop Directors Ban Player Appreciation Nights," headline in the New York Times. Well, well we see the Florida State League has again gone the limit, except this time it has taken a little bit different approach and has gone toward the ridiculous.

By voting out player appreciation nights the directors are really just cutting their own throats. We do not believe in singling out players for feats in any one game, because they get paid to do their best at all times, but when the league turns thumbs down on a general appreciation night for players, that is what we term "approaching the ridiculous."

After all, who is it that pays the way for the players to be out there on the field playing for any town? Why yes, you guessed it, it is the fans, who file through the turnstiles night after night to cheer these fellows on to win. When the fans desire to give a "player night" at a park, it will be shunned, because it is against league regulations.

We feel that a short ceremony with small gifts and a "feed" for the players would be in order, and this sort of appreciation program would hurt nothing. We wonder who dreams up all of these silly little polls to be taken?

We agree that passing a hat for a player every time he hits a home run would not be good, because these appreciation stunts only breed discontent among the players. A pitcher may walk out to the mound and toss a brilliant game, and receive nothing but loud cheers, but one of the other players could not hit a home run and reap a $100 gift. We are against this type of reward for players, but not the general "player night."

We do not like to promote contempt, but we would like to see the fans of Sanford get together and hold a real appreciation night for the Sanford Giants. After all, this is still a free country, and the fans, who pay the freight for a ball club to operate, are the very backbone of the national pastime. If there were no fans, there would be no baseball games.

There are many of the loyal supporters, who attend the Sanford baseball games regularly, who never have an opportunity to meet the local players. If they wish to hold a get-together for the players, we know of no way in the world it could be curtailed. Last night the Palatka club held a barbecue for the A's players and the DeLand Red Hat players. Fans from DeLand were invited to attend. A small charge was made to attend the affair, and the price of the ball game was included in the ticket. This is the sort of thing we advocate for the Sanford players.

This type of gathering may change the Sanford club's luck, and give the youngsters an added assurance that the fans of Sanford are supporting them and are behind them.

Let's think about such a program.

Predicted Rain Threatens Third Title Postponement

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK June 25 (AP)—The world's heavyweight boxing championship became a plaything of the weather today—predicted showers threatening a third postponement of the 16-round title bout between Joe Louis and Jersey Joe Walcott.

The two veteran fighting men, their nerves strained by two delays, are scheduled to try again in Yankee Stadium tonight 9 P.M. EST.

The Weather Bureau, however, could only promise late afternoon and evening showers, following a cloudy, humid day.

The forecast for Saturday is fair and cool. The contest will be shifted to then if conditions don't permit it tonight.

The sponsoring Twentieth Century Sporting Club has through Monday to get the business out of the way. The New York Yankees come home Tuesday to take over their ball park. Prize-fighting is against the law in New York on Sunday.

The combatants will not be forced to weigh in again. At the ceremonies Wednesday, Louis weighed 213½ and Walcott 194½.

Both fighters were in their dressing rooms and thousands of fans were either inside the park or milling at the gates last night when the area was struck by the full force of a thunderstorm—pouring rain, sharp lightning and sound effects.

The storm hit shortly before 7 P. M. (EST) and the fight was called off by promoter Mike Jacobs and his assistant, Sol Strauss, at 7:25 P.M.

At the time there were some 4,400 paid customers, thoroughly soaked, inside the stadium. The promoters announced plans for replacing the subs with new tickets today and for redeeming tickets.

Indians Lose 1st Important Series Of 1948 Season

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Are the Cleveland Indians ready to be scalped?

Manager Lou Boudreau's American League pace-setters have lost their first crucial series of the year and Bob Feller shows no signs of returning to the form that made him one of the greatest pitchers in baseball. These two factors have cast a cloud over a once rosy outlook.

"This is the year," shouted Cleveland fans when the tribe opened the season by tearing off six straight triumphs. Their belief that the Indians would win their first pennant since 1920 grew stronger as the tribe opened up a comfortable lead.

Today, however, they are not so sure. Only a game-and-a-half separates the Indians from the pursuing world champion New York Yankees.

The Yanks came into Cleveland Monday night three and a half games off the pace. They knocked off southpaw ace Gene Bearden, lost a 5-2 game to Sam Zoltek Tuesday, beat Don Black in 11-innings Wednesday and yesterday thrashed Feller 4-0. Cleveland now has lost eight out of its last 12 starts.

Feller allowed the Yanks only five hits yesterday, but three of them were home runs and resulted in all of the Yankee runs. The loss was Rapid Robert's eighth as against only six victories.

Philadelphia's third place Athletics pulled to within two games of the Indians by noing out the Browns, 6-5, in a night game at St. Louis.

A four-run eighth inning rally, highlighted by Ferris Fain's triple and Harney McCosky's two-run homer enabled the A's to win. The set of those unable to stay over. Louis returned to Pompton Lakes, N. J. Walcott remained at a hotel in the city.

Browns pulled only three hits off three Athletic pitchers but 13 bases on balls kept them in the game.

The up and coming Boston Red Sox divided a double-header with the White Sox in Chicago, winning the second game, 8-5, after Bill Wright pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 victory in the opener.

Ted Williams smashed his 14th and 15th homers of the year and drove in four runs to spark the Red Sox's nightcap triumph. The Red Sox slugger also boosted his league-leading batting mark from .413 to .417.

The St. Louis Cardinals stormed to within a half game of the first place Boston Braves in the National League pennant race by trouncing the Braves, 11-2, in a night game at Boston.

The Brooklyn Dodgers dumped the Pittsburgh Pirates twice, 6-2 and 8-6, at Brooklyn. The second game was halted after the Pirates' half of the eighth inning because of darkness. The twin setbacks dropped the Pirates from second to third place and moved the Dodgers from sixth to fifth.

YES sir, there's a championship caliber all through that Buick of yours.

It's caliber that calls for mighty little "conditioning"—if the attention it gets adds up to really knowing and understanding cars.

For instance, these Fireball cylinders will keep on packing all the wallop they should, if you let us compression-check them in the Buick way. Steering will stay easy and light, tire wear will stay at the minimum, if you keep your wheels lined up on our special tracking gauges.

And when wear does take its inescapable toll, we have the parts—Buick-engineered for their job—that restore factory-new standards of performance.

Even our tools are specially designed to do a typical Buick job—and for the personal, interested, specialized attention that tops off genuine Buick care, you simply can't beat the Buick specialists in our shop.

Yes, give your champ real Buick care—Buick know-how. Buick parts, Buick interest in keeping your car at its peak. Costs no more than ordinary attentions—but what a whale of a difference it makes!

Lubricare Matched-to-mileage maintenance for Buicks

* Lubricare is specified for your Buick by the engineers who built the car—with the right kind and the right amount of lubricants carefully chosen for just one reason: they are best for your Buick.

* Lubricare is matched to the mileage your Buick has traveled—including a thorough inspection, a report of anything needing attention and a record of the service for future reference.

* Lubricare adds thoughtful care to complete lubrication. For protection and smooth performance, your Buick deserves Lubricare regularly.

CITY EMPLOYE HAILS RETONGA FOR RELIEF

After Suffering Years With The Discomforts of Stomach Gas, Sleeplessness and Constipation, Savannah Man gets Relief with Retonga.

"After suffering the miseries of acid indigestion for several years, I am glad to tell others of the relief Retonga brought me," declares Mr. G. W. Spell of 201 West Park Avenue, Savannah, Ga. A member of the Baptist Church, Mr. Spell is an employee of the City of Savannah.

"Yes, for about four years I was the unhappy victim of acid indigestion. My appetite had failed me, and what little I did eat seemed to turn immediately to gas. I felt as though I had been stuffed, and often I was so badly bloated that breathing was a real effort. My bowels were so sluggish I had to take harsh laxatives regularly. It was hard to get a good night's sleep, and I felt so worn out in the morning that I hardly had the strength to start the day's work.

"How thankful I am for the relief Retonga brought me! Today I have a good appetite and eat three hearty meals a day, with never a thought of my old discomforts. I sleep soundly and wake up ready for a hard day's work. What's more, I no longer take strong laxatives. I am glad to recommend Retonga to anyone who is suffering the way I did."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to give you gratifying relief, your money will be refunded. You can get Retonga at Touchton's—Adv.

GOP Candidates

contention once more for the 1948 presidential nomination.

Again, the pre-convention primaries earlier this year followed the familiar pattern. After an initial victory in New Hampshire, Dewey lost in Wisconsin and Nebraska but finally came back to capture the climatic Oregon preferential contest.

Once the convention got underway, however, the New Yorker was never headed. He ran an easy first on the first and second ballot, then capped the prize unanimously.

Dewey stakes his claim to the White House on his record at Albany, which he contends to what he calls the "bungling" and "inefficient" administration of President Truman.

Under Dewey's leadership, New York state has amassed a surplus more than a half-billion dollars, cut personal income and business taxes and provided a $100,000 bonus for World War II veterans.

The state also has reduced its bonded debt, outlawed racial and religious discrimination in jobs and admissions to colleges, begun plans for a $200,000 state university system, and banned strikes by public employees.

Dewey says he runs New York on the principle that the state is the servant, not the master, of the people.

Dewey's tools, personal and political, are in the Midwest. He was born in Oswego, Mich., Mar. 24, 1902.

His father, George Dewey, edited the Oswego weekly newspaper, took an active part in Republican politics and was postmaster when he died in 1922.

The governor's mother, Mrs. Anna Dewey, who still lives in Oswego, gave to it that young Thomas Edmund led a well-ordered life—early to bed, home-work tidy, proper manners and the like.

reasonable one.

No matter what the feelings of either side were about the law and the miners' welfare fund, they have decided to cooperate with each other so far as they can in operating it (the fund) successfully.

Moses had said yesterday that he was accepting the wage board provisions in the new contract "with reluctance."

Lewis and the operators almost completed work on the agreement last night.

Dewey Acceptance

"Never has a political party produced such distinguished men," he said.

The convention gave a burst of applause to each, as he named them, alphabetically: Senator Raymond E. Baldwin of Connecticut, General Douglas MacArthur, former Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, and Governor Earl Warren of California.

"There has been honest contention, spirited disagreement, hot argument," Dewey said, "but let no one be misled. You have given moving and dramatic proof of how Americans, who honestly differ, close ranks and move forward for the nation's well being."

At that point he deviated from his prepared text to say: "Let me assure you that beginning next Jan. 20 there will be teamwork in the government of the United States."

Dewey said he is "free" and "unfettered" from any commitment and is "proud" to support the party platform unanimously adopted at the convention.

"It will be the heart of the message I will take to the country," he promised. "After Jan. 20th it will be the cornerstone of our Republican administration."

Following his convention speech, Dewey indicated that he will start his formal election campaign at about the time the Democrats assemble here for their nominating down on home appraisals, he revealed. Owners of 40 homes were away, but estimates of their value will be within 5 percent of value, he predicted.

No direct refusals were encountered in appraisal of real property which does not include that of homes, but of business properties and stocks, it was reported by Stephen Pfeifer of Columbus, Ohio, who was assisted by Mrs. Pfeifer in his work.

Allowance had been made for loss of one week in the program, but due to the fine co-operation of owners and favorable weather, the job is being finished ahead of time, according to Mr. Skelly.

"One of the fine qualities of Sanford people is that they take a person just as he is, and do not try to impress one with their importance," said Mr. Skelly. "If anything, they run themselves down, and do not boast the town enough, or appreciate enough what a fine community it is."

James M. Clemmshaw of Cleveland, Ohio, worked personally in the valuing of industrial and utility properties.

Other members of the appraisal staff here were: Marvin Milliken of Columbus, Ohio; Robert E. Dahlfues of North Carolina; Morris S. Roek of New York State; Peter Hayden Tople of Sanford; and Mrs. Eleanor May Young of Ireland.

White House. The meeting lasted half an hour.

Asked whether this came up, Secretary of Defense Forrestal replied "No comment."

Forrestal and Royal remained after the meeting to discuss the draft program with Mr. Truman. The defense secretary told newsmen he probably will have an announcement next week on draft plans which are still being worked out.

Royal's telegram to the adjutant general commended the guard for coming up to full scheduled strength, but he added: "On the other hand, if the ceilings have been exceeded, there should be no further recruiting until the normal attrition has reduced the strength below the ceiling."

"In this connection leaders of the Armed Services Committees of Congress have indicated today that they will not favorably consider deficiency appropriation requests to cover strengths greater than those provided for in appropriations for fiscal year 1949."

Berlin Crisis

other foods contributed by the Western Allies.

The people remained outwardly calm in the face of efforts of the Soviet-controlled press to spread fear of hunger and unemployment and a Russian threat to keep the rail freight tieup on indefinitely.

L. J. Steck, American military government food chief, said the Russian food embargo order was delivered to the central food board of the German municipal government.

He said one immediate effect would be to deprive the children of Western Berlin of fresh milk. Powdered milk is being distributed.

By their action the Russians withdrew from the four-power food pool which for nearly three years has been feeding Berlin.

Each occupying power has been contributing to this pool, administered by the allied Kommandatura and the city government.

Dissolving the pool means splitting Berlin down the middle.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE ONE ABOUT THE 4 PENGUINS?

They came up here from the Antarctic. And summers were quite a problem. How could they keep cool? The first penguin plumped for attic ventilation. And it worked wonders. He's written his agent to go ahead and sell the igloo. The second penguin installed a big air-cooling fan. He's wiring money to Mrs. P. and the kids to come on up and join him. The third penguin (who smokes a lot) figured he needed complete air conditioning. He sleeps like a kitten now. The fourth penguin bought himself a big new electric fan. It's been weeks since he even thought about the old home berg. Yes, each in his own different way solved his problem of how to keep cool in summer. And they all lived happily ever after. Certainly Penguins aren't smarter than people!
