BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YOU TAKING NOTES AND FAITH "HELL PRENTICE" SO SAYS SAUNTERER

President Wilson tickles me about this Mexican affair. Of course I am with him no matter what the phase of the war may be, but his idea that no war exists in Mexico certainly makes me laugh. Our sailors make up a picnic party in Mexico and after landing in a warm of bees and get stung to the extent of seventeen dead and many wounded and yet there is no war in Mexico. If there is no war in Mexico, then there is no hell. My old friend Schley says does not mean that Schley is old but that I have known him seventy-five years. He is on the following about the war:

"Just how will future historians word their story of those brave sailors and marines who lost their lives at Vera Cruz? Inasmuch as President Wilson declares that we are not at war with Mexico history may read that they were killed while making a peaceful excursion one early spring day into the City of Vera Cruz and meeting a large band of Mexicans who refused to let themselves and companions pass in peace they killed a hundred and more Mexicans whereby they also lost their lives. But it is yet hard to convince the unsophisticated of the excursion features of bullets and scarpans as applied to peace."

There is war in Mexico now and there will be more of it later and America will soon mean the entire stretch of land from the Arctic circle to the Panama canal. This may not come in our time but it will come. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan are trying to keep peace in the family but peace is impossible and sooner or later we will be obliged to step in and spank that bunch of Greasers good, set up a territorial government try to seat a Mexican as governor if possible and create peace in that terror ridden country if peace can be brought about. In the first place the United States did right by not recognizing Huerta. Then they made the mistake of asking him to salute the flag and right here the U. S. reversed themselves by recognizing Huerta indirectly. If Huerta was not the president of Mexico why should he have been called upon to recognize our flag. We could have bottled up the ports all right and Villa would cut him down sooner or later. We do not want Villa as President of Mexico any more than we want Huerta. Both of them are beasts. Neither one is fighting for the good of the cause but merely for the boot in Mexico. If we are called upon to go to Mexico and take the country we ought to go at the job blithely and do it up right. We should choke that country right off at the start and after it is taken over we should not buy it or give it away. To the victor belong the spoils and it is the veriest rot to take any piece of parcel of territory and then pay for it. If there is to be any tax on account of war the country that has caused the war should pay the indemnity. Mind you, I am not in favor of a war now or at any time if we can keep from it but I do not want the United States, the greatest country on the globe to be spat upon. We should demand recognition at all times and being the greatest country in the world have the respect of every nation on earth.

I do not want war, but in the present instance we seem to be at war and yet we are not at war. Seems funny to say the least.

The mills of God grind slowly but they grind exceeding small. Last week you probably noticed that the W. Post the millionaire Postum man and manufacturer of other breakfast foods had committed suicide in California. This man Post made millions in the manufacture of so-called health foods and himself was a member of a trust or association in this manufacture yet he fought the unions in this country tooth and nail and spent many thousands of dollars trying to put the working man on the blink. Now that he is dead I will not say anything about him only in passing that it seems strange that after a man has made millions he should want to commit suicide. He spent his life in trying to build up people at his large Battle Creek Sanitarium—build them up in mind and body and yet at the last he seemed to find no solace either in his treatment or in religion and he killed the grave of a suicide. Maybe if he had spent more time while living in ameliorating the condition of the down trodden working man he would have been in better shape for money. It is precisely all right and laudable. He made objects to the manner in which he made it and spends it if he intends to continue his operations to grinding down the poor devil who toil and sweat day and night at small wages and long hours in order that the corporation can pile up millions of useless money.

Volunteers are needed in the army for a dangerous service. I strictly these armies forward to him the number of men required. These selected become heroes by their deeds, in the spur of the moment. The United States needed men to sink the Merrimack in the neck of the champion of Santiago Harbor. Hobson and his brave comrades sank the vessel and bottled up the Spanish fleet. And the men who performed them better all which they were.

But the world has little of the every day acts of heroism stretching over years instead of hours. What of the woman with a family of small children and no money? There can be no trumpet sounding the "Charge!" and no valorous knowledge that the eyes of the world are focused on her. She does not march to the battle with banners flying and stirring music urging her on. She is left to face not with an act of bravery that may be commemorated in a few minutes or a few hours, and that will be blazoned through all the land, she is confronted with a struggle that must go on for years, with nothing to lend strength but her love for those for whom she must labor.

The charge of the Light brigade at Balaklava: "Cannon to the right of them, cannon to the left of them, volleyed and thundered!" The "noble 600" were in the heat of battle. They were filled with the holy battle fire. Inspiration could point to nothing else than "to do or die." John Paul Jones "I have not yet begun to fight" deserves no greater place in the annals of heroism than the silent resolve of the widow. "I'll keep them all together, God giving me strength." It is premeditated heroism that enables a mother to say that premeditation that sees the long, weary struggle, perhaps days over the water tub, breaking task, mending the children's clothes long after the waters have been tucked into bed; twelve and sixteen hours of work a day scheming and planning instead of sleeping, in order to keep the little flock together. There can be no thought of self for the mother who elects to keep her children together. She is and must be "thankful to work for all the seven, trusting the rest to God in Heaven."

There are dark days in this life imposed task—days when it seems that life is not worth the struggle, days when it seems that flesh cannot stem the tide, days when there is no vista beyond the dull dreary monotony for doing for a brood that is too young to appreciate the Heroin struggle.

The ungrateful nation to preclude the mother with a mind. Her heroism will go unsung. But somewhere, the One who notes the sparrow's fall has weighed the wartime hero and the little mother and writing in the Book of Gold the world may be sure that the little mother's name is not going to be the last on the page. For how could the heroism of battle be possible without the foundation of the heroism of the little mother?—Indianapolis News.

It was just seventy years ago last Sunday that the telegraph was formally introduced. Samuel F. B. Morse, the inventor who had worked for twelve years on electro magnetic communication, and his associate, Alfred Vail, had strung the first line between Washington and Baltimore. On the morning of May 24, 1844 Annie G. Ellsworth, daughter of the then commissioner of Patents, burst into the United States Supreme Court chambers in Washington where Morse and several distinguished men were gathered around his telegraph instrument, and brought the news that Congress had appropriated $30,000 for official tests of the invention, after a disheartening series of refusals. Morse reached for the sending key and looked off the historic message "What hath God wrought!" Vail, in a station at Baltimore, surrounded by another group of distinguished men, read the message upon a paper tape. Two days after the telegraph gave out its first public news by announcing that Polk had been nominated for the presidency in the Baltimore convention.

Today the telegraph is one of the strands holding modern civilization together. It is estimated that something like half a billion of dispatches, business communications and social messages are transmitted every year over the six million miles of telegraph wires connecting practically all of the important settlements in the world. Nearly 400,000 miles of submarine telegraph also have been laid. One invention after another read to the reading of messages wholly by sound, to the sending of as many as a dozen messages simultaneously over one circuit and in a crude form the sending of pictures over the wire by intermittently flashing beams of light. In its most advanced form the telegraph has eliminated wires altogether and from hundreds of stations ashore and from the masts of almost every large ocean going vessel the exchange of messages through the air has likely become almost as common as an ordinary wire communication.

As Shakespeare said, "What is the meaning of the word 'adage'?" the schoolmaster asked. "A place to put cats into," was the boy's answer. "What put such an idea into your head?" "Well, sir, I heard it say in Shakespeare, 'Take the poor cat in the adage'."

FOUR DAYS AND NIGHTS OF PLEASURE AND PROFIT—GRADUATION TONIGHT

Commencement week in Sanford is always anticipated with much pleasure and pride by most of the citizens of this place as it is made up of a series of most interesting and entertaining events that are a delight from beginning to end.

There is no better way to judge of the progressiveness and prosperity of a community than by its public schools. In this respect Sanford has wrought well, and no expense has been spared in making her system of public schools one of the best in the United States...

The opening event and one of the most enjoyable during commencement week is the piano recital of Mrs. Fannie Munson's pupils. This was given at the High School Auditorium on Monday evening to a large audience...

The first part of the beautiful program was played by Mrs. Munson's advanced pupils, and every number was a gem within itself, showing a most careful training...

Miss Davis was again heard in other lovely numbers of different music, that were played with lovely expression. Miss Howler sang again 'Lovely Spring and Eucharist' that were very pretty. Responding to an encore she sang a little Scotch love song that was very charming.

Miss Wagner charmed the audience with other numbers. Mrs. Bowler closed the beautiful program with a Lullaby from Jocelyn that was a fitting ending to one of the most beautiful musical programs that has ever been given in Sanford.

Too much cannot be said in praise of Mrs. Munson's music school and her talented pupils. They have on many occasions contributed of their talent to the pleasure of Sanford music lovers and always stand for the best there is along musical lines.

On Tuesday evening the Literary societies of the High School entertained a large audience most delightfully with a charming little two act comedy, in which the participants displayed decided talents and histrionic ability.

The servants were taken into confidence and the maid Molly, Miss Mary Campbell, James the Butler, Howard Gilbert, took French leave, being notified to their young mistresses that they couldn't be expected to assist with preparations for the reception.

Rest Room Success The Rest Room of the Woman's Club has proved to be a remarkable success and now, at the close of the season's business is in brick that the ladies are in doubt about closing up the room as there is a constant demand from the out of town people for a place of this kind.

BIG BARBECUE FEAST OF REASON AND FLOW OF THE SOUL

MARKED THE MEETING AT CHUDUOTA YESTERDAP

CANDIDATES ORATED TO SAVE THE COUNTRY

THE PEOPLE OF CHUDUOTA HAD ENOUGH TO FEED AN ARMY ON BARBECUED MEATS

The big barbecue and general all round good time given by the people of Chuluota yesterday was one of the greatest political and social gatherings that has occurred in the new county of Seminole. Chuluota is famous for the excellent beef and hogs raised on the broad prairies of that section and the isomers and stock raisers demonstrated yesterday that they know something about raising stock for the finest of beef and pork and other good things went into the making of a big barbecue.

Messrs. Hodges and Billy Jacobs were masters of the culinary department and they barbecued the beef and hogs in first class style and had shelter of all kinds provided for man and beast in case it rained. There were some seventy-five people from Sanford and large crowds from other towns surrounding, many coming from old Orange because the hospitality of the Chuluota people and their big gatherings are famous all over the state.

The most that we can gather from the Sanford people who attended was that the Chuluota people had plenty to eat and the majority of those who attended ate so much that they were unable to be around town today which is proof sufficient that they enjoyed themselves to the limit.

After the big feed and speeches on all during the day a fine orchestra furnished by the unbleached of this city and also a band from Oviedo furnished good music and the young and old folks danced all the newest and the oldest dances and there were all kinds of amusements for the visitors.

The majority of the candidates made speeches and gave good and sufficient reasons why they were running for office and all of them were well treated by the audience and returned home believing that they were elected. These meetings are so entirely satisfactory to the candidates and their friends that they are all sorry not that a series of meetings all over the county were not arranged as the executive committee was anxious to do.

There should be one big meeting in Sanford before the campaign closes, if such is possible, and give everybody a chance to come to Sanford and close up the campaign.

PASTOR HAS RETURNED

Mr. George Hyman Back From Southern Baptist Convention Mr. George Hyman, pastor of the First Baptist church has returned from the session of the Southern Baptist Convention just held in Nashville, Tenn. He reports that it was the largest that has ever been held and that the movements were more far reaching than ever before.

Mr. Hyman has been for the past year Florida's representative on the Foreign Mission Board and that Board made a showing whereby $600,000.00 was spent on the foreign field during the year. He will deliver an address telling of the work of the great convention. It is expected that a large audience will meet the pastor at the first service after his return and there is promise that many interesting and instructive things will be brought out in the address. The public generally is invited to this service. Service beginning 11:00 o'clock.

MOORE'S STATION

Mr. Bartlett came over from Enterprise, Sunday, and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Querry over Sunday, yesterday morning, Wednesday and evening. He announced that the 15th day in June would see him there again if all was well.

W. W. Dresser left the 15th for Watertown, N. Y., called there by the serious illness of his mother. Neighbors are caring for his crops just ready to market.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. W. Gillis are the latest to purchase an automobile. They have a fine four passenger Ford, with a garage built to house it.

The recent fine rains have been much appreciated especially by those with unirrigated land. Crops are looking wonderfully fine. Cucumers are bearing well. Seminole Farms Co. expect to pick 2,000 bushel hampers this week. Florida Gardens Co. and many others are picking some fine ones. Florida Gardens shipped some very fine cacti this week and have 10 acres more. Messrs. Chappell and Bramley of Colony Springs have shipped several car lots. We hear the price is at $1.40 and one grower on the West Side is credited with receiving $2.00.

Orlando Boosters Trip

About seventy-five Orlando Good Road Boosters left yesterday morning on an automobile trip from this city to Miami. The cars were all gaily decorated in the typical green and orange colors of the city and also carried banners on which were inscribed the words "Orlando Good Road Boosters." The tour has been gotten up by members of the Orlando Board of Trade, and especially by Y. W. Estes, John M. Cook, Gray Rush and others. The trip will cover about 700 miles and will be by way of Sanford, Deland, Daytona, New Smyrna, Titusville, Cocoa, Fort Pierce, West Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Miami. Dinner was eaten at Daytona and the stop for the night was made at Melbourne. The return trip will be over a different route. The towns along the way have offered the best of assistance and entertainment for the travelers and all anticipate a very pleasant outing and expect the result will be a great help to the good roads interests of the state. The roster of the party holds the following names: Gray Rush, J. B.

Gold, James A. Knox, John Gehr, James Delaney, Mrs. L. C. Mass, Mrs. Beardsall, Arthur Butt, with his wife and child, Miss Florence Shiner, Mark Robertson, Miss L. DeHitt, Mrs. Juanita Moore, Miss J. Thought for Women. In the whole feminine creation are there any happier women than the deformed wife who is not crooked for the eyes she loves, the lame woman when her husband would not have her other than she is, and the afflicted old and grey who is still loved by him?—Balsac.

Fix Up Your Liver and Feel Good

Why Risk Being All "Knocked Out by Calomel?" Dodson's Liver Tonic Takes Its Place and is Safe

When you are constipated and your liver is sluggish it is no longer necessary to try to fix yourself up with calomel, which everybody now knows to be a poison that sometimes remains in the system and causes evil after effects—and is often very dangerous to many people. Dodson's Liver Tonic is guaranteed to take the place of calomel, to be a pleasant tasting, easy acting vegetable liquid, with no bad taste and causing no pain nor any nor interference with your regular duties, habits or diet. If you are not entirely satisfied with Dodson's Liver Tonic, go back to the store where you bought it and get your money back. It belongs to you and Dodson wants you to have it. L. R. Phillips & Co. sell and recommend Dodson's Liver Tonic and they will cheerfully refund purchase price (50c.) instantly without question if the remedy fails to please you in every way. Its use has proved beneficial to many thousands and probably will to you.

Millinery Seen on the Promenade

ON the promenade, on the Ave, o'clock tea, and en route to the matinee one sees hats in all the new shapes and styles. With greater frequency than any other the sailor haunts its charms in all sorts of beautiful designs. Hats in this shape, with moderately large and high crowns, and brims narrow and almost straight, are to be seen in every color and variety of material, and trimmed in all the trimmings known to millinery. This is the new sailor shape, and one of those lucky ventures of the hat manufacturers that take the feminine world by storm. Ribbons with small flowers or ribbons with fancy tassels and ornaments, prove to be the choice of the majority for trimming the sailor shape. It is a simple matter, too, to place the trimming successfully, and this hat has been a ready seller to those thrifty women who undertake to make their own simpler millinery. This accomplishment, by the way, is quite the fashion, and is not confined to those women who wish to trim their hats for the sake of economy alone. It is something of a fad with people who do not need to think of economizing, but who enjoy making up beautiful things of any kind. This amateur millinery does not hurt the business of the professional milliner.

There is no loss to her in selling a hat and its trimmings separately, and she takes no chances on the finished effort being pleasing to its owner. Besides, the amateur soon learns that it is only the simpler things that she can attempt with success. The sailor shown at the top of the picture, and worn with a lace veil is a smart affair, which may be trimmed as well at home as in a shop. The remaining two hats are quite without the province of the home milliner. One is a plateau of straw which must be wired to shape and mounted on a bandeau or cap to give the proper poise. It is trimmed with wide blue ribbon and a full wreath of beehives. A charming black hat is shown in the third picture. It suggests the Rembrandt hats which have been so popular. The small, flat shape of black hamp is bordered with a lace made of horsehair and wired with tiny, almost invisible wires. There is a broad spray of wheat at the left side of the low crown, and a sail of moire ribbon tied in a full bow. The wide bandeau is trimmed with a cluster of six pink roses. It would be hard to find three hats thus in shape and poise and trimmings set forth the best of the new millinery modes more clearly than those pictured here. JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

POSSIBLE INCREASES IN FREIGHT RATES

That the Interstate Commerce Commission will grant the eastern railroads a general horizontal increase in freight rates is now believed to be unlikely. The indications are, however, that the commission will permit increases on many specified commodities which are at present favored by rates so low as to be out of proportion to the general scheme and that most of these increases will be in central freight association territory—that is, roughly speaking north of the Ohio river between Buffalo and Pittsburg on the east and Chicago on the west. Such a decision is expected within a few weeks, perhaps before the end of this month.

The broad effect of such a decision would be to substantially increase the revenues of the railroads of the east. Taken into consideration with the decision already foreseen in a statement by Commissioner Harlan, which will eliminate all of the so-called "free services" now performed by the railroads for favored shippers, the increases will doubtless be ample to encourage the railroads to resume the improvement of their lines and to report a better tone to business generally.

The purpose of the commission, if it grants increases will be to equalize rates and, for permit changes which will place railroad traffic on a more business-like basis. At present freight rates in the central freight association territory are much lower on the average than those in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and in the West and South. Tables filed with the commission by railroad officials and testimony taken in the present cases clearly show this state of affairs.

Likewise the rate on raw materials—sometimes called low class freight—such as coal, limestone, and iron ore, pig iron, lumber, brick, etc., are regarded as at present sufficiently high to give the railroads an adequate return on that class of business. It is therefore on the higher classes of freight that the increases will probably be allowed. What the average increases will be when the commission has finished its equalizing process it is too early to tell. It is not likely, however, to be as much as five per cent; the amount asked by the railroads.

Of course if increases are permitted in the Central Freight Association territory the railroad business of the entire east will be beneficially affected. The railroads will doubtless be content with whatever method is adopted by the commission to give them increased revenues so long as it is successful.

Many reports are current about how the commission is lining up on the rate question, but there is no authoritative information in Washington on which to base a definite prediction.—Florida Growers News.

Growing Children

THEY SHOULD BE PROTECTED AGAINST INTERNAL UNCLEANLINESS AS WELL AS EXTERNAL CONTAMINATION.

The delicate organs of the maturing child are more susceptible to the influence of disease and infection than are the more seasoned organs of grown-ups. Malaria takes an early and strong hold of the child's liver and causes headaches, coated tongue, indigestion, cramps and many other dangerous conditions.

There are the usual possibilities of foreign nature, besides that your child may be relieved of impending sickness.

The proven remedy, Carwell's Liver-Aid which is a purely vegetable compound should be in your medicine chest ready to administer at the first sign of a disordered liver.

Fifty cents purchases a large bottle at R. C. Bowers' drug store, under the absolute guarantee that price will be returned without quibble if you want it.

THE GROWERS LEAGUE

The following letter has been sent out by Mr. Tenny, Secy-Manager, Florida Growers & Shippers League, Orlando, Fla., to all members:

Most of you are doubtless aware of the work that has been done by the United States Department of Agriculture, during the past seven years in Florida, on the influence of methods of handling citrus fruit on its keeping quality. Probably most of you have secured copies of Bulletin 63, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, entitled, "Factors Governing the Successful Shipment of Oranges from Florida." The information contained in this bulletin is extremely valuable to every citrus fruit grower and shipper in the state, and every one should read carefully the results of these experiments which have been carried on in Florida for several years past. My attention has been called to the fact that the Supt. of Documents of the United States sells this bulletin for 20c. I wish to say, however, that the Department of Agriculture has an allotment of these bulletins which may be distributed free to any one applying for them. Such application should be addressed simply to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. I desire to say, also, that at our request, Senator Fletcher has sent to the League an additional supply of these bulletins, and we can mail out from here copies as long as they last. Do not be contented with a casual reading of this bulletin. Read it carefully, and if there are any of the tables or chapters you do not understand, do not hesitate to write us about them.

TRICE'S TRUMPETER

(Articles Published under this heading furnished by M. P. A. Bureau; Jacksonville)

It is surprising how few people realize the scope and magnitude of the prohibition problem. Perhaps seventy-five out of every hundred see nothing involved in the question but "liquor or no liquor." Because of the natural and righteous antipathy of the masses toward the excessive use of intoxicating beverages this view is industriously cultivated by the prohibition leaders and agitators, in order to inflame the destructive passions where the people cannot be reached by a line of fallacious reasoning. This is deplorable, because the passions of men, when allowed to become their masters, more frequently exact their toll than their satisfaction. Who has not at some time in life seen the jolly of his unbridled passions and wept salty tears thereat, when it was too late to undo the wrong they had done.

Prohibition is the favorite slogan of the Paternal Governmental Idea and nourishes wholly upon man's inhumanity to man. It absolutely denies the right of a minority, and makes the tyrannical rule of the land. Either the best right of civilization for emancipation from the bondage of tyrants has all been wrong, or prohibition is wrong. If prohibition is right, then the tyrant King of England had a perfect right to prevent us from taking advantage of the markets of the world, and force us to buy from English merchants in 1776. The natural sequence would be that the long and heartbreaking struggle of the revolution was a mistake, and these ancestors whom we have delighted to worship as heroes inspired with wisdom and endowed of supernatural endurance from on high, were no less than common traitors, cutthroats and murderers.

If prohibition is right and a war of destructiveness has a place in the commandments of God, then Sherman had a right to march through Georgia, and try to terrorize the people into submission by burning property, and butchering helpless citizens. If right, makes right a justifies tyranny over the weak, and that is the doctrine of prohibition—Sherman's name should go down to posterity as the hero of the sixties, and the name of Jeff Davis go out of the hearts and fade from the memory of his people.

"Forbid it, Almighty God."

Thomas Jefferson sounded the key note of warning more than a century and a quarter ago when he declared that the British in the American form of government, "lurked within our own borders as well as without, and at another time we were more dangerously harassed at home than threatened abroad. It is not difficult to trace the subtle suggestion of the thought at the stirring days when the Church of England pompously planted itself upon American soil and arrogantly assumed the prerogative of judge, jury and law giver, and to the prescribing of the hours and places where all the people should assemble and rally their opposition, the part taken for instructions being the most barbarous, the traditions of heretism could suggest."

If the government has a right to assume a paternalistic attitude toward its people and enforce a "Prohibit" mandate upon them, then let us swallow the whole nauseating thing at one time—establish a temporary tent, as it were, with the face of the mere semblance of freedom and individual rights. If prohibition is right, Washington was a knave, and the signers of the Declaration of Independence a band of lawless of the most gigantic failure of the ages. Who will you pin your faith to? Washington or Dow? Bloxham or Copp?

A crisis in the affairs of this country is now upon the political horizon. How shall we deal with the big of the Meads and add with over the line, defeat for C. P. as in a plan out fight at the polls in a south in A. K. A. but who has ridden many a fancy in a life to a final victory, has a profit lion in before the lower house of Congress. To him is passage made no less than ten thousand dollars a year salary for the rest of his life. It is in the House and falls in the Senate. To the country its passage through the House is a direct map in the face of every tradition of civility for which our forefathers said the oath of dealing guns of the yams of England and waded through here? It is the most fallacious and recorded by history, and the only one that is history. It is one of the shades of the volcano that the memory of Washington and the other Revolutionary immortals, for the evening question of the hour. One and a half centuries of unparalleled prosperity, peace and happiness radiantly bear testimony to the wisdom of their ways. Sixty-two years of happiness and culture of civilization in various states bear witness to the fallaciousness of the Hobson idea. Which will you follow?

Fit out of your mind for the time being the minor question of "liquor" or "no liquor." States' Rights and Local Option will take care of that, and the will of the people put it out where it is not wanted by a majority. Look to the fundamental question of government involved. If a friend of tyranny, support Hobson's bill. But if you have one speck of admiration for American freedom and individualism, send immediately to your representative in Congress and United States senators a protest against the passage of the Hobson bill.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Carroll, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair. At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without stopping, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

The Gainesville Sun now carries Associated press despatches. Congratulations to Senator McCreary. The Sun is one of the best in the state and only lacked the Associated.

The Herald says that work will be started at once and carried forward rapidly to have the hotel ready for the tourist business in the fall.

The new primary law forbids a paper making any attack or charge against a candidate during the last 18 days of the campaign. Of course this law will not hold water because it is not in accord with the constitution of the United States which guarantees freedom of the press. But until some newspaper causes the law to be tested the journalist will be at the mercy of the candidate. The candidate is permitted to make charges against the newspapers until the day of the primary, but the editor is not permitted to properly reply to same. -Pensacola News.

Col. W. P. Walton of the Orlando Reporter-Star announces his retirement from Florida journalism and a return to Kentucky on account of business pressure in the Blue Grass State. Just as we had learned to love him he leaves us. 'Twas ever thus. We never had a favorite flower but what it withered and died. We never started to love an editor but what he withered and went to Kentucky. Of course flowers die for lack of water and editors return to Kentucky for lack of water, we might say. Well, Walton never did accept our invitation to visit us at Sanford. We might have saved his life and he would be spared that trip to Kentucky for there is some mighty fine sulphur water in Sanford. Good luck to you, Col. Walton. Honestly we are sorry you are going to leave Florida for you were of the right sort and we thank you for leaving Ed Walton with us. If we can't have two Waltons, we can at least have one.

When four candidates for Congress the DeLand Band and a man of the magnetic influence of Judge Bert Fish can gather together only 25 men to a political speaking - possibly the only political speaking in DeLand for the entire "campaign" - shades of Bob Davis protect us. In Palatka, where the popular and genial chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee has his habit - the congressional aspirants failed to secure an audience and were compelled to adjourn the meeting and repair to a public square several blocks away, where a crowd had gathered to listen to the Palatka Band. -DeLand News.

Muzzling the Press That part of the corrupt practice law which forbids any person from printing or circulating any charges against a candidate for office within eighteen days of an election, unless the article is circulated or printed in Sanford on the candidate eighteen days or more before the date of the election or primary, evidently is intended to shut off criticism of candidates and prevent the newspapers from performing their plain duty to the public - warn the voters of the unworthiness or unfaithfulness of a candidate. This being the intent or purpose of such an enactment it is an abridgment of the rights of the press and the rights of free speech, and clearly unconstitutional. Two very eminent lawyers of this city have pronounced the law unconstitutional in that particular. As both are eminent and men of learning their opinion is worth while. Any attempt to muzzle the press should be resisted. That portion of the corrupt practice law should be repealed in order to save the very features of the law - the Gainesville Metropolis.

WELL PAID SERVANTS In the issue of the proceedings of the city council in which among other things they raised the salaries of the city officials. They may be criticised for their action. They undoubtedly expect criticism of all their deliberations and they those who are well paid servants. But in this particular instance the Herald really thinks they have acted in good faith and although such a course means a larger payroll, the officials really deserve better salaries. If a man is doing his duty he should be paid all that the commonwealth coffers will stand for. The policeman, inspector, clerk or mayor. A poorly paid official cannot perform his full duty with the same equanimity as the well paid official. If in the judgment of the city council the officials are entitled to larger salaries the general public should be satisfied with their action, for they are the judges in the matter.

ON SUFFRAGETTES The sweet suffragettes who formerly won men's sanction of their cause by softly spoken words have been misplaced by the manly women who want the earth and especially in England where the suffragettes have thrown discretion to the winds and the men against all talk of suffrage to the weaker sex. Their recent actions of burning property and forming mobs on the streets gave rise to the following poem:

Here's to the woman of days gone by (May we meet her kind above) The woman for whom a man would die, The woman who ruled by favor, Who didn't harangue and didn't parade. In whose home it was sweet to dwell, Who believed in raising children And not in raising -

GOING SOMEWHERE Everybody is going somewhere this summer or trying to go somewhere. The Great Idea of the American people seems to be to go somewhere in the summer. It is a good idea for the ladies and children to have a change of climate but there is nothing in this talk about going from Florida to a place that is cooler for such a place only exists in the Arctic circle. Right now our days and nights are cooler than they are in many states north and for the past two months the people of this city have used heavy covering and some of them even blankets at night. There is no better summer climate than Florida, none such lakes for camping, none such ocean beaches and sulphur springs for bathing, none such places for fishing and boating and automobiling. Of course the editor of The Herald could go to the Thousand Islands, or to Canada, or Michigan and stay at the fine hotels for several months, but what is the use when the climate is so much finer at home? Why go somewhere, or anywhere. The very joy of living in Florida is sufficient to keep you going.

GUILTY CONSCIENCE The following despatch from New York shows the abject fear that is engendered in the breasts of the money grabbing people of this country: "In addition to doubling his guards from four to eight, John D. Rockefeller has had installed about the grounds of his Pocantico Hills estate a system of electric lights, which he can flash by pressing a button at the head of his bed. Before the demonstrations by the Industrial Workers of the World at the down town offices of the Standard Oil company and the threats that they would visit his estate, Mr. Rockefeller was content with four guards. These he called to from an open window when he wanted to feel assured that they were on duty. With the new system in operation the flashing of the lights is answered by the guards, who press buttons and sound buzzers above their employer's bed. A similar system is being installed at the home of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

THERE'S A REASON To prove what can be accomplished by advertising, it is unnecessary to cite such examples as that of C. W. Post, who started in business ten years ago with $1,000 capital and, by adhering to the rule of spending 25 per cent of his net earnings in advertising, amassed millions, and made the phrase, "There's a Reason," a household word throughout the country. We say it is not necessary to point to such examples, for in every community there are concrete evidences of what intelligent advertising will do. Right here in Lakeland people have some new life infused into some rundown business by a new proprietor or manager who went after business through the newspaper publicity, who made a success, and who declares that success due to newspaper advertising. There has also been seen in this town instances where a profitable business was being conducted, and owing to some change of management or policy, the advertising was curtailed or discontinued, and the effect on the business was immediately apparent. Yet in the face of these facts there are people who doubt the value of advertising, or do so little, and in such a half hearted and sporadic way as to make it ineffective. Some of these business men complain that this paper carries advertising of Tampa firms. They admit that an advertisement in the Telegram brings trade to some thirty miles away, but can't see that the same advertising would influence the people who are passing by their doors every day. Complaining at that idea - what? Lakeland Telegram.

NO NEED TO BRUSH UP There has come to the Times a newspaper clipping headed about a post card which card bears the postmark of Holbrook, Mass., and which clipping carries the headline "Brush up, Governor." The governor addressed in our Governor Trammell, and the clipping has a little history leading up to it.

When the offer of mediation between the United States and Mexico was first made by the South American republics, Argentina, Brazil and Chile, the New York Sun sent out letters to all of the governors of states, and perhaps chiefs in high official positions, asking their opinions as to what should be done by this country in regard to the offer, whether it should be accepted or rejected. Governor Trammell said in his reply, among other things, that "coming from small South American republics we should turn it down." Whereupon the Massachusetts writer waxes very sarcastic at the expense of our governor and terms him "parochial and evidently intensely ignorant," and advises him to "brush up a little."

And then he proceeds to impart to the governor some items of information possessed probably by every boy in the Florida public schools of two's years of age, but which are apparently deemed matters of erudition in Massachusetts. He enlarges much upon the area in square miles of the countries that the governor had the temerity to call "small," saying not a single word about population. He shows that in square miles they are in the aggregate much larger than this country and forgets that in population they possess but a fraction of our numbers.

Peradventure it may enter the minds of some people outside of Massachusetts that the governor knew what he was talking about better than did his self appointed critic. -Tampa Times.

COMMENCEMENT DAY This is Commencement Week in Sanford and as this paper is issued the boys and girls are getting ready to bid each other farewell, some until another year calls them to their school duties again and some who are leaving the school forever to seek their fortune upon the highways of the world. To those who are coming back we wish to say that you should relax your mind for awhile and be ready to tackle your studies anew at the beginning of another year. Apply yourselves in spare moments and keep the thought ever before you that no moments should be lost in your education and each golden moment is wasted that is not fraught with some good thought.

To those who are about to leave the school we only wish to say that you have burned your bridges behind you. There is no turning back now to the instructors who in former days have been your haven of refuge in times of lack of study and poor showings. The harsh world will now judge of your education and your average will be summed up by hard hearted critics who will expect results and not promises. You have been weaned from your alma mater and sent forth to fight the battle of life. As to whether you will succeed or not remains with you and your hours of study. In the Sanford High School and the work of your instructors will assist you in determining whether you were industrious or idle during your matriculation. It is not alone with you students, as to whether your future stations in life are high or low or mediocre, it will not be your reputation alone that is builded or suffered to be torn down but the world will also take your school and your instructors to task should you fall below the mark in your future business life.

Mark well that thought then that in your future all of us are interested. The people of Sanford, your parents, your friends, your instructors and Prof. Perkins, though he may sever his active relations with the schools will still be waiting to hear from his boys and girls in after life. All these must be taken into account and your stewardship will mean your future actions and your success or failure will touch not only yourself or your immediate family but all those who have taken a hand in moulding your young lives and directing your thoughts in the proper channels. Go forth, then, ye graduates, armed cap-a-pie with your diplomas in hand and willing to struggle for the living that is coming to each and every individual in the world. Go forth now in the knowledge that you have an advantage over the other contestants in the race because of your superior educational advantages gained at the Sanford schools.

Go forth determined to conquer and surmount all obstacles not as menial laborers but as educated boys and girls confident in your strength and the power of your minds over matter and after the goal has been gained and in after life you rest in the shade of your own vine and fig tree--the reward of your efforts, no one will take greater pride in your achievements than your alma mater, the dear old Sanford High School and your teachers.

HIS MOTHER On the front page of the Palm Beach Post appears the picture of Mrs. Susie Elizabeth Earman and below is a few lines penned to her by her son, Joe L. Earman. "The mother, in her office, holds the key. Of the soul; and she it is who stamps the coin. Of character, and makes the being who would be a savage. But for her gentle cares, a christian man; Then crown her queen of the world. The tribute was called forth because that day was the anniversary of her death and each year as it passes will have the remembrance of Joe Earman to his mother. The sentiment is beautiful and most worthy of commendation. The editor of The Herald wishes to extend to Mr. Earman his sincere congratulations for the article and the sentiment. The man who thus honors his mother is certainly a most worthy, honest and upright citizen and his days will be long upon the land which God hath given him.

GENEVA ITEMS Another day of pleasure was scored for Geneva last Saturday, when so many enjoyed the school picnic on Lake Harney. The day was pleasant, launch rides were enjoyed as well as speeches from candidates and the basket dinner.

Rev. Stones, wife and daughters of Oviedo attended the picnic and were guests of friends over Sunday. Harry Phillips, Sanford's photographer visited his father last Saturday and attended the picnic.

Dan Hart has come back to his first love and is building a home in Geneva. Later he will open a beef market here.

Sanford's genial editor, Mr. Holly was a pleasant visitor in Geneva Saturday.

E. E. Brady, among many others was making friends in our little town last week.

Mrs. and Miss Clark, Mrs. and Miss Jones were visitors from Oviedo last Saturday.

J. P. Musselwhite went to Daytona Beach Monday to see how hard the wind blew there.

B. G. Smith of Oviedo was in Geneva Tuesday and was admiring our handsome new postoffice.

Last week Mr. Allison was fortunate as to lose his barn and outhouses by fire and it was with great difficulty that his residence was saved. A few days later, as soon as Mr. Allison could get material on the ground a dozen or more of Geneva's citizens went over and built his houses complete, thus showing their neighbor their kind feeling for one who has suffered misfortune.

In future there will be services by Rev. Stones every first and third Sundays at the Baptist church and every second and fourth Sunday at the Methodist church by Rev. Hope.

Congregational Church

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the annual Memorial service will be held in the Congregational church. Appropriate music will be rendered, Miss Aspinwall singing Kipling's "Recessional" by DeKoven and the pastor will give a patriotic sermon. All are cordially invited and especially the Confederate and Federal veterans.

In the evening the regular gospel services will be held, and an interesting theme will be presented. Good music by the choir. All are cordially invited to this service.

A New Industry

A most remarkable, interesting and useful industry is operated in our town at the Bye-Lb Hotel. It is the plating business of Mr. P. Connell, who has with him in full operation all the appliances necessary in his vocation. The work done by Mr. Connell has given entire satisfaction and will compare favorably with work done by the most skillful artisan. A few moments conversation with him and an examination of his work will convince the most skeptical of the merits of his work, which consists of plating knives, forks, spoons, surgical and dental instruments, whether brass, iron or steel. Mr. Connell says his motto is "Satisfaction or No Pay."

The First Methodist Church

The attendance at the Methodist church is increasing every Sunday. This is due to the fact that the interest is growing. The pastor is presenting themes of vital importance to every man, woman and child in Sanford. Those who have no church affiliation in the city are cordially invited to the services on Sunday.

Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Wesley Brotherhood had present last Sunday 52. The Matron's class, "Wednesday Truth Seekers" is growing. Twenty-four members present, this means something. Investigate the cause.

Preaching next Sunday in the morning, subject "Living God." The evening theme, "Is there any Profit in Opposing God?"

Every Christian is asked to pray for their services. The doors of the Methodist church are always open.

Force Organized Labor

Some question has arisen as to my attitude toward organized labor. Being a man who is almost entirely dispossessed, I am unable to see how the idea became moot, and to show my attitude toward organized labor, I attach hereto a copy of a letter written me by Hon. J. C. Brown, United States Marshal, Southern District of Florida.

Department of Justice, Office of United States Marshal Southern District of Florida, Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 2, 1913. Mr. T. K. Bates, Sanford, Fla.: Dear Sir—Kindly advise me whether or not you could accept appointment as Deputy United States Marshal at salary of $1,000 per annum. Residence in Jacksonville.

Yours very truly, J. C. BROWN, United States Marshal, Southern District of Florida.

This opportunity came to me unsolicited and I presume as a reward for the interest I took in assisting Mr. Brown to secure the above appointment, which is the only position of any importance that has ever been given a worker of overalls in Florida. I wrote one hundred and eighty-six letters to men of prominence, city councils, boards of trade and boards of county commissioners in the Southern District of Florida in the interest of Mr. Brown, securing many valuable endorsements, and besides I was largely responsible for securing endorsements for Mr. Brown from the Governor, Callahan. In addition to this I wrote many suggestions and in behalf of Mr. Brown's candidacy and the fact that Mr. Brown secured the position in the face of the very strongest opposition shows that my work in behalf of organized labor must have contained some potency and vitality, and that I am not the capitalistic foe of the man who is making an effort to better his own condition and that of his wife and family by allying himself with a trade organization.

Yours very truly, THOMAS E. BATES, Assessor of Taxes. (adv.) 78-11c

WOMAN'S CLUB

Every member of the Welfare Department is urged to attend the meeting Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be a discussion of plans for the next season's work in which every one present will have a part. It is expected that Mrs. Wideman will be in attendance for the purpose of outlining the plans for a Chautauqua week to be held in Sanford. All club members are cordially invited to attend this, the last meeting of the department for the season.

Important Notice

All members of the Women's Club are earnestly requested to attend the meeting of the Welfare Department Thursday afternoon May 28, at 3 o'clock in the club rooms.

The business men of Sanford and members of the school board desire to enlist the interest and assistance of the women of Sanford in the securing of a chautauqua for next year, a matter of vital importance to every resident. This matter will come before the department for consideration and will be presented in detail at this meeting. A full attendance of all club members, and every interested woman of Sanford will be appreciated.

Mrs. J. W. DICKINS, President. Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Secy.

PLAY WILL BE REPEATED

Mishaps of Minerva. Had Mishaps of a Heavy Night This Week. The Mishaps of Minerva at the High School Auditorium on Tuesday night was well attended but the rain kept many away who would like to witness this fine amateur performance and at the earnest request of many who failed to see the play the boys and girls have consented to reproduce it again next Tuesday night. The admission price has been reduced to twenty-five cents and every one will take advantage of the opportunity of witnessing one of the best amateur plays of the season. The participants are rehearsing for the performance in order that the second play may be better than the first, if such a thing is possible and the audience is promised a rare treat on Tuesday night. Do not make any other engagements for Tuesday night for you are expected at the High School Auditorium to see the Mishaps of Minerva.

TRADES UNION COUNCIL

Labor Organizations of Sanford Will Combine Under Central Head. One of the signs of growth in Sanford is the number of labor organizations that are strong enough to organize a Central Labor Council that will embrace all the unions of the city under one head and make the cause of unionism much stronger than it has ever been in this section. The organization held their second meeting last night in the Eagle Hall and made great progress toward perfecting the Council. H. E. Wise holds the chair as president and W. W. Van Ness as secretary and treasurer and many fine reports were read from the different organizations and also from the Federation of Labor. All of the local unions of the city will soon be controlled under the Central Labor Council or some similar head in order that a more concentrated effort can be made to enroll the laboring man under the banner of the union. The exact nature of the Central body was explained by G. W. Blackwelder who read the constitution and by laws or parts thereof and many matters of importance were discussed. The meeting was an open one and R. J. Holly of the Sanford Herald who was present by invitation was called upon to make a few remarks and gave his ideas from the point of view of the bonds shall be

The State Federation of Labor and the Carpenters' Union of the state will both meet in Sanford next year and the Council will be able to make a most creditable showing.

BONDS BROUGHT PAR Commissioners Hold Out and Get That for $600,000 Plus Per Cent. Orange county has established another high water mark in material advancement in the construction of a road bond issue at par, and accrued interest. The bonds draw five per cent interest per annum and were awarded to the banking firm of Hoehler, Cummings & Pruden, Toledo, Ohio, who were represented here by Mr. A. S. Spitzer.

This announcement came late Saturday afternoon after the commissioners had completed what is without doubt the most successful work in the history of the official organization, creating a fund that will give the county a large income.

These bonds, maturing from October 1 to the date of issue and some maturing in 1915, are a splendid financial standing, backed up by the great truck industry and large trucking interests, who no doubt the chief back of the commissioners' ability to hold such a large bond issue at par, and especially at a time when other counties were having difficulty in disposing of bonds for the same purpose.

As a matter of equity the commissioners have agreed with the bond trustees, that the funds accruing from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the seven banks those in the county receiving two fifths and the banks in Orlando three fifths. The Whitey Park, Apeeks, Winter Garden and Oakland banks will receive $60,000 each for deposit upon drawn on for actual construction purposes.

Along with the bond sale announcement came that of awards for road construction, which had also been under consideration since Tuesday.

The Southern Paying and Construction Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn. has been awarded the Conway, Winter Park and Oakland roads; the Alabama Paying Co. of Birmingham will build the road toward Kissimmee while R. M. Hudson of Atlanta will build the road to Plymouth.

Bond attorneys will require some time to pass upon the validity of the issue, following which actual paving construction will be begun, which it is estimated will be completed within eleven months—November, 1915.

ROAD BOND FOR SALE Comprising ten acres (four of them cleared) in a fine well situated farm, acreage well developed. Good buildings. On truck road and traction line and railroad, near landing station and store and church. Good location about three miles from Sanford. Going at a bargain. If you have other matters claiming all this time. Inquire at Herald office for particulars. 89-11p

Growth Of The Seminole County Bank

It is a matter of congratulation to Sanford and her people, that the financial condition of their city has so improved in the past year.

The fact that the city is supporting a third bank, and that the growth of THIS BANK has been very rapid, is a most certain evidence that Sanford has at last begun to reap the reward she has long deserved.

The Seminole County Bank has been of great assistance in bringing this change about, and the fact that the deposits of this institution have increased in the past six months from $42,915.55 to $185,975.85, shows the desire of HOME PEOPLE to support a HOME INSTITUTION.

German Women's College. During the last six years the number of women students at the German Universities has nearly quadrupled. In the winter of 1908, when the doors of German Universities were first fully thrown open to women, there were 1,408 women students enrolled; today there are 5,685 women taking regular courses and as many more who are attending lectures. Nearly 400 of the women students are foreigners.

Light House Carried Away. A remarkable accident occurred recently on the Clyde, when the new steamer "St. Quentin" collided with Cardross Light House and raised it to the water's edge. The vessel had been refloated from the sand bank on which she grounded shortly after being launched recently, and was being towed into the channel in order to be taken up to Glasgow, when, owing to the strong wind, she got out of control of the tug and was driven against the light house with considerable force. The stone built tower collapsed, some of the masonry falling into the sea, and only a few feet of the base of the building was left standing. The vessel did not sustain any serious damage.

Florida Woman Made Able to Eat Her First Meal After Two Years. Mrs. McManus Takes Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and Quits "Soft Diet".

Mrs. E. McManus of 324 East Chestnut street, Jacksonville, Fla., suffered so seriously from stomach troubles that she lived for two years on soups and "soft diet."

She took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and went to eating regular meals. Here is a part of her letter: "Your medicine is the greatest remedy on earth. Enclosed find order for three more bottles. I have eaten my first meal in over two years since taking your medicine. I have been living on a soft diet, but, thank God, I'm much better."

People everywhere have had just such experiences. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy has been proven a health restorer by thousands who have taken it. It is known everywhere.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucus accumulations and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and intestinal troubles. Many declare that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure that it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this Remedy there are many imitations. Be sure it's Mayr's. Go to Your Nearest Druggist and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing in cases they know—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects.

FLORIDA CITRUS EXCHANGE advertisement: "The Florida Citrus Exchange is purely a growers' organization, formed and operated on the most democratic basis. On the first Tuesday in May of each year the growers who form the local associations in each community that has been organized, meet and elect one of their number to represent them in the county sub-exchange. Two weeks later these representatives meet and choose a manager for the county sub-exchange and a member of the Board of Directors of the State organization, commonly known as the Florida Citrus Exchange. On the first Wednesday in June the directors of the State body meet at some central point, choose the executive officers of the organization for the coming year, and agree upon a general policy of administration. Once each month through the entire year and twice a month in the shipping season directors of the Florida Citrus Exchange meet at the State headquarters, and go over all that has been done by the officers since the last meeting. At each meeting of the board of directors there is presented a full and complete record of all the financial transactions since the last meeting. These financial statements are published from time to time, after the books have been audited by public auditors. An organization operating in this open, above-board way can never go far wrong so long as it is made up of intelligent people like the citrus growers of Florida. It is worthy of the confidence of the people of the State and entitled to the support of all growers who want to secure the largest possible returns for their fruit. It asks that this be given it in this year of great crop production, on the ground that the support is deserved."

LITTLE FIELDERS ARE FAST

Game is Full of Examples of Players Who Are Short in Stature But Long on Ability.

Big men have generally led the ball in baseball, because of the idea that the fellow with a big frame naturally has more strength behind his efforts. Such a theory may hold good in regard to pitchers, most of whom are dependent to a certain extent on their speed for success, yet the game is full of examples of players in other positions who have been short in stature but long on ability.

Among the present day midget stars may be mentioned Maranville and Evans, who will be working side-by-side this summer at Boston. Tinker, Evans' old side-kick at Chicago, too, was a small man, while Fred Matzel of the Highlanders and Eddie Foster of Grinnell's Nationals, are in the featherweight class. Miller Huggins, the Cardinals' chief, Charlie O'Leary, the Detroit shortfielder, and Eddie Collins, Mack's star, are small players, yet they are all worth their weight in gold to their clubs.

As a matter of fact, while there has been a general clamor for big men among club owners, it is decidedly doubtful whether men of short stature on the infield haven't an advantage over the taller performers, aside from first basemen. The little fellows are nearer the earth, and on those hard drives that seem to cling to the ground they have the knack generally of getting down quicker.

Of course, there are some clever big men among the inner circle guardians today, including Hans Wagner and Lafol, but ordinarily the midget can handle himself with more speed and agility on ground balls than his heavier and more bulky rival.

O'Rourke Let Go by Elsons. Frank O'Rourke has been released by the Buffalo International League club to the Wilkes-Barre club of the New York State League. O'Rourke was secured last year by the Elsons from the Boston Nationals.

Berryman Replaces Berry. The Portland Coast league has signed a catcher named Berryman from the Fresno team to replace Guido Berry. Statisticians and scores will please note the difference.

Coming Home in Night.
They tell funny things about the man who goes to the club or some other place at night and stays out rather late. The following from the Clearwater Sun is good:
A certain Clearwater man who had not been home to supper and who did not arrive in time for midnight luncheon—if there had been one—finally landed at his apartment and was greeted with a silvery, "Is that you, dear?" from his wife's room.

"It is," he responded succinctly, "but I'm sorry for much conversation."

"What time is it?"
"Oh, not to date," he answered, and observing a large bunch of roses on a table in the hall he sought to change the conversation by remarking: "What a beautiful bouquet of flowers!"

"They are lovely," assented the wife.
"Beautiful," continued the late arrival enthusiastically. "Fresh, too I should say. Their perfume is delightful."

"Can you smell them?"
"Oh, yes, their perfume goes through the entire place. It is lovely."

"You always did like the perfume of roses," cooed the wife.
"Yes, and they are especially fragrant."

"Well, go to bed if that is the case. You see my dear, those are paper roses."

Utilization of Paper.
What cork is used for a variety of purposes. Life buoys are made of cork. Undergarments, various of cloaceth, is made from cork. Oil and this is not all. Cork is made by cutting a cork oak tree, a material which is found in the mountains of Portugal. Cork is sometimes used in place of wood in the construction of vineyard posts. Determining gas has been made from cork waste by distillation in a retort.

Did you ever notice, said Mrs. N. P. that about half of the pictures in the photographs windows are of bridal couples. I wonder why they always rush off to the photographer's soon after the wedding. I think the bride is responsible for it, said Mr. Peck. He thinks that if it is not his last chance to cry, look pleasant.

Daisy was dining dinner with Harry at a brilliant cafe. They weren't accustomed to eating at such a place, but they ate along nicely well. When they had finished the waiter said: "Should I bring you a couple of demijohns?" "No, no, no," exclaimed Daisy. "Our wives might come in and see us sitting with them."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Our Special Political Edition

The political situation in Seminole county is something that no man can judge at the present time. The dopesters get out a new sheet every day and what is good today is poor stuff tomorrow, and as the campaign draws to a close the candidates are coming under the wire all heated up with their efforts to save the dear people. In order that all of them could have a chance to tell of their virtues and of the merits of their being no regular schedule of speeches and meetings. The Herald has granted them space in this issue because it will go into the homes of every taxpayer and voter in Seminole county. Following out the usual custom of letting each man fight his own battles where only Democrats are concerned, and because it would not be fair to the candidates for this paper to take sides in the controversy. The Herald has supported no man in this campaign but preferred to let the voters do their own thinking without any advice from the paper. Being an election of Democrats only there was an crying need for any of the candidates to have the support of the paper and much feeling that could have been engendered by a partisan paper has been kept down and the best feeling among the contestants has prevailed during the entire campaign. It has simply been a case of the "ins" and the "outs" and the best men to win and therefore it has been unnecessary to caution the candidates to keep cool for they are all acting in a very gentlemanly manner.

This edition is our special school edition, but the candidates have taken space to put forth their claims and as many of them could not see all the voters in person they take this opportunity of presenting their claims and putting forth a few ideas in favor of their candidacy. Read them all carefully and then pick the man who in your estimation is the best one to serve you.

Bates and the Assessorship
Thomas K. Bates is the logical and the deserving man for the office of Tax Assessor. He is a positive asset for progress and good government and has demonstrated it beyond all question in the five or six years he has been one of us. To not give him what he asks is an act of folly and frank ingratitude. Known to all who know anything Mr. Bates, is a way peculiarly and most effectively his own did in the making of Seminole county a work that no other man in our midst then or now could have done. Ask Forest Lake and Frank Forster who led the fight at Tallahassee, ask the splendid committee who were there from start to finish what kind of material it was that Tom Bates put in their hands to work with. All the mass of printed data, covering facts, figures, geography, soil production, everything indeed to make good the formation of a new and thriving county Tom Bates had it there on tap and the spigot wide open.

Not give him the office of Tax Assessor (?) Forget the county you live in is named Seminole county. Forget if possible the self sacrificing and heroic crew who the town went out and welcomed when they brought the new county home with them BUT on June the 2nd vote for Thomas K. Bates for Tax Assessor of Seminole county. Don't forget then to show your appreciation for him and what he did and is now doing as your very efficient and obliging official.
C. H. LEFFLER.

Beacham Here
Hon. Braxton Beacham of Orlando, but a consistent booster for the whole state and who is a large property owner in Seminole county was in the city last Saturday calling on his many friends. Mr. Beacham recently suffered a large loss by fire at one of his grove places near Apopka. One of his large barns stored with feed and wagons and farming implements was burned and believed to have been set on fire by incendiaries; the loss being estimated and reaching the ten thousand dollar mark. Mr. Beacham was here to purchase some farm wagons at the well known establishment of W. H. Underwood who is recognized as the best wagon builder in this part of the state.

R. A. M. Attention!
A regular convocation of Monroe Chapter will be held on Thursday, May 26th 7:30 p. m. All Mark Masters will report at this hour to receive Past and Most Excellent Master DeLoach by order of M. F. H. MILLER, Acting Secretary.

SANFORD'S PUBLIC UTILITIES

Brief Resume of the Many Advantages of the Mammoth Plant
The first question asked by the stranger within our gates is that of the water supply, its source, the quality and the price. Also the electric lights and gas and the price for same. As this big edition of The Herald will be distributed over the country and sent to many who are anxious to locate here a few words about our public utilities would not be amiss. The public utilities of Sanford are owned by the Sanford Utilities Co., being the Sanford branch of the Southern Utilities Co., one of the largest corporations of the state. Since we cannot have our own utilities in a municipal plant the next best thing is to have the Sanford Utilities Co. supply our wants in this direction as they have greatly improved the plants in every way since their purchase and under the capable management of Mr. Wesley Fry are trying to give the people of this city the very best service at the least possible expense and a living rate.

The day current supplied to Sanford is one of the best in the south and is dependable, something that appeals to every consumer. The power current is strong and the many factories of Sanford appreciate this service. The light service is also day and night with 175 Kilowatt capacity and the company expects to install in a few months as much additional to be driven by steam engines, making a most ideal service and one at the command of the patrons at all times.

The lighting rates are twelve cents K. W. hour for first 50 K. W. hours, the monthly consumption 10 cents from 51 to 150 Kilowatt hours monthly consumption, 8 cents from 151 in excess over Kilowatt hours per month.

The power rates are 9 cents for the first 250 Kilowatt hours, 8 cents for 250 to 501 Kilowatt hours, 7 cents for 501 to 751 Kilowatt hours, 6 cents for all over 751 Kilowatt hours.

The water is now supplied from deep artesian wells that fill a large concrete reservoir and from this is pumped into a large steel tank that gives a good pressure at all times. The water is aerated before it is pumped into a tank and the sulphur disappears and is not noticeable. There is a fine supply of the purest and best of water available at all times and the rates are very reasonable.

The gas plant supplies gas at a reasonable rate and is of good grade for cooking and lighting at reasonable prices.

The water, electric lights and the gas question in Sanford has been settled for the time and until the city can own their own public utilities the present owners of the franchise will continue to give satisfaction to the public. The employees are courteous and obliging at all times and ready to adjust any differences that may arise from time to time and the relations of the company and the public, have been most cordial.

Thus it will be seen that the man who intends to locate in Sanford can be assured of good water, lights and gas at reasonable rates and Sanford water is noted as the best that can be obtained from any utility plant in the south.

G. F. Dresser Dead

A telegram was received here yesterday announcing the death of George F. Dresser at his home in Watertown, New York. He was the father of W. W. Dresser of this place, who is well known here, having visited his sons here several times. Walter Dresser and wife left here several weeks ago for Watertown on receipt of a wire announcing the serious illness of Mr. Dresser's mother, who has suffered a stroke of paralysis and it is thought the death of Mr. Dresser, Sr. will cause the death of his mother. The sympathy of the many friends of the family here go out to them and it is hoped that the mother will be spared to them.

Dredge is Working

After being several charges of dynamite the dredge working on the bulkheading is making rapid headway and the filling is progressing very favorably. With the shipment of more equipment to supply the dredge the work will proceed at a rapid rate and this great work will be finished on schedule time.

Explained by Bryan
Senator N. P. Bryan, author of the primary law, after reading the many newspaper discussions about its intricacies, says it will prove simple, workable and easy for understanding when in operation. He explains the law as follows:

"Under the old plan, after the first primary was held, the leading candidate had been defeated. These defeated voters were recognized as the balance of power. The new law does not depart from this process, for the reason that their second votes are the only ones which are added to the total of the leading candidate. They determine the result."

"For instance, four candidates are in the race, A, B, C, and D, and run in order named. Your preference is D and your second choice is A. You therefore vote what is called a D-A ballot. If C and D are eliminated your vote is counted A. On the other hand if you vote an A-B ballot and A and B lead, then your B vote is not counted, for the reason that it would be illogical to permit your second choice vote to cancel that of your first choice."

"Some are under the impression that by 'single voting' or failure to vote for a second choice, an advantage will accrue for the first choice. This is absolutely impossible. If you vote for C alone and C is defeated, it is the same as if you had voted in the first primary and had failed to participate in the second. If the voter single-shoots A and declines to vote B, his second, and these two lead, nothing is gained, as I explained before, if he had voted A-B his vote for B would not be counted. If the voters will impress it upon themselves that no second choice votes will be counted excepting those for the defeated candidates, they will have the solution of that question."

"It has been said that a plurality nomination is possible. Where three candidates are running it is possible but not probable. Very early in every campaign two candidates generally impress themselves upon public opinion as leaders."

For County Commissioner

L. A. Brumley, a Successful Farmer,
Solicits Your Vote—Candidate From
District No. 1, and a Man You Can Tie To

I am a candidate for County Commissioner, District No. 1, and will appreciate your vote and assistance. Am qualified, and will give the office my very best attention, working at all times for the best interest of the citizenship of Seminole County.

I have been in the trucking business near Sanford since 1900, and have had to learn economical administration. As you honor me with this office I will undertake to handle the County affairs and money on the same economical lines and in such manner as will cause you no regret afterwards, remembering that I am the servant of the people and not their master.

Respectfully,

L. A. BRUMLEY

Frank L. Woodruff

Vote
For Him

Because of the Following Reasons:

I FAVOR the Building of the Brick Road system—not OBSTRUCTING the building of the same.

I favor a square deal for ALL PARTS of the ROAD DISTRICT and not SPECIAL interest in one PARTICULAR road.

I have done some things toward building up Sanford and the community. I am MORE FAMILIAR with the work than ANY OTHER CANDIDATE. I have had EXPERIENCE. There is no claim of mis-management of the county's affairs. As chairman of the board I am working in harmony with the other members of the board and am in a position to DO MORE GOOD FOR THE PEOPLE of the WHOLE COUNTY than ONE WHO FAVORS OBSTRUCTION METHODS. I can give the people A SQUARE DEAL because I AM NOT PERSONALLY INTERESTED in any land lying along the routes of the BRICK ROADS—I don't own a single foot. IF YOU DESIRE A SQUARE DEAL FOR ALL THE DISTRICT, I WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE ON JUNE 2nd, 1914.

I wish to say since the county has been divided the road camp has worked in the Oviedo district four months, Longwood district three months, Paola and Monroe district nearly two months, and they will be in Sanford district, east side for the remaining two months. As to the Geneva district I beg to call your attention to the work we have done at Geneva bridge. The work on the road from Geneva to Chuluota, which is about finished and it is the intention of the present board of commissioners to put the convicts in this district in about 60 days and build a good road from Geneva to the Geneva bridge.

I want to say if it had not been for my opponent and his associates we would now have had a brick road from Beck Hammock and Cameron City to Sanford.

For County Treasurer

N. H. Garner Solicits your Vote
For This Position

The office of Treasurer is just as important as any other office within the gift of the people and I am seriously and earnestly striving for this office because I expect to seriously and earnestly hold the office after my election and will fill it to the satisfaction of the taxpayers because I understand the duties of an official in his relations with the public. There have been many jokes and mock fun poked at the office of Treasurer but until it is really abolished I shall look upon it as a legitimate office and one that should be filled by a capable business man—one who has demonstrated that he is capable and one who has owned property interests in Seminole County and who is identified with the movements for public good at all times. The voters of Seminole County should give the office of Treasurer serious consideration just as they are considering the other offices and since there is a Treasurer to be elected let him be a GOOD TREASURER and one whose WORD IS AS GOOD AS HIS BOND.

FOR MEMBER OF COUNTY BOARD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

J. S. Dinkle Gives His Reasons For Being a Candidate
For This Important Position

Longwood, Florida, May 23, 1914.
To the Voters of Seminole County:

I am no "silver tongued orator," or "Philadelphia lawyer" but I know "beans" when the bag is open, and what kind they are.

Some of us are not known all over the county and in justice to you and ourselves we should give you a brief history of ourselves. To introduce myself, I will say, I was born a Democrat in "Old Virginia." I came to Florida through the advice and information of my friend B. R. Swoope, who was Supt. of the South Florida Railway for years and a neighbor of mine.

I located at Longwood 30 years ago and engaged in the manufacture of lumber and have been here ever since.

In the way of taxes I have paid out for personal and realty, here and occupation expense and for the privilege of being a citizen and doing business at least $3,000. I have sent my three children to the public school on an average of ten terms each, indirectly at an average expense of $200 per term. In offering myself as a candidate for member of school board I can truly say that from my experience I know the "troubles" of our schools and of the country schools in particular. Where the good teacher is and the other kind. We had a teacher who taught here 20 years ago, she was beloved by the pupils, and esteemed by the patrons, had she wanted to she could be teaching here yet, an ideal teacher. This is the kind we want in all our schools. If elected, I will see that our teachers if holding first grade certificates will give us first grade satisfaction and all teachers true to their grade and that they work in harmony with the pupils and satisfactory to the parents.

There are members on the present board, one who has no children, and another who has a son who will vote at the coming election, that never attended public school a day in his life, to my knowledge and he had the same opportunity my children had. I don't believe these men will interest themselves as much as a member who has children attending the public schools, as they have nothing "at stake." Cast your vote for me on the second of June and you will not make a mistake, as my interest is yours. My experience probably has been yours. "We are all in the same class" and should I become a member of the board I will make the effort of my life to see that the schools "get what is coming to them."

Respectfully,

J. S. DINKLE

VOTE FOR THRASHER FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

31 Years a Resident of Florida, 16 Years in Orange and Seminole Counties, 5 Years School Work; a Parent and a Taxpayer

There is nothing that should turn aside your thoughts in the primary election next Tuesday, June 2nd, from the fact that in your children lie the future welfare of this country. The children of today are the men and women of tomorrow and as a father and a taxpayer, a native of the state and citizen of this county and Orange county for the past sixteen years I am entitled to your consideration for the office of County Superintendent—one of the most important positions to be filled for the ensuing two years. For the past five years I have been identified with the schools as a member of the County School Board and my record and work for the schools of the county and my enthusiasm and honest endeavors for the people and their children gave me the appointment when the new county was organized. My record as your County Superintendent is not being attacked and while heartily conceding that the office is within the reach of any man who honestly strives for it for the sake of bettering the conditions if possible, I contend that unless I have been remiss in my duties as your Superintendent there is no need to change a tried and true official for a new and inexperienced one. If Thrasher has been diligent and faithful as his record will show for the few months in office he certainly deserves the opportunity of serving you for another short term in the educational interests of the county.

My record as a business man for fifteen years in this city is before you. My record as a member of the school board for five years is before you. My record as your County Superintendent for the past ten months is before you and I solicit your vote solely upon that record.

Respectfully,
D. L. THRASHER.

Member County Board of Public Instruction

The Qualifications of a Man Who Has Served the County
Faithfully and Well

I noticed what The Herald had to say about the "GUM SHOE" campaign and as I am not a speaker of necessity favor the gum shoe campaign and wish to take advantage of the generous offer made by The Herald to publish the platform of the gum shoe candidates. As far as the Board of Public Instruction is concerned there is very little material available from which to build a platform, as practically every act of the board is proscribed by law and all the board can do is to see that the laws are carried out. As to whether the present board has done its duty in that respect or not the schools of the county will attest. When the county was divided I was appointed without solicitation, as member of the board from District No. 2, embracing Longwood, Altamonte Springs and Gabriella. I have become interested in the work and now wish to be retained on the board. The members of the school board are not paid any salary, only being allowed pay enough to cover their expenses one day each month while the schools are in session. So any one seeking to become a member of the board must have one of two reasons for doing so. Either he must be interested in the schools of the county or he has a "personal touch" he wishes to gratify. As to whether I am interested in the schools of the county or not, my record on the board will testify. Before the county was divided the cities in the old county—Sanford and Orlando—together had two representatives on the school board, the county districts having only one. So the cities controlled all of the schools in the county. Since the division the conditions have been exactly reversed. Sanford now has only one member on the board, while the county districts have two and consequently control all of the schools in the county. While it is not probable, it is possible for the county members, from a sense of false economy or prejudice to so far impair the schools of Sanford as to put them on a par with the small county schools, so it is of vital importance to the people of Sanford that only men who are known to be interested in the schools are placed on the board. Under the new primary law, the members of the school board are to be voted for by the whole county, instead of by districts as heretofore, thereby throwing the election of all the members into the hands of the Sanford voters, so it is up to the people of Sanford to say whether they have men favorable to the Sanford schools on the school board or otherwise. To the people who know me, it is unnecessary for me to say anything about myself. To those who do not know me I wish to say that for the past thirty-five years I have been trading in Sanford, getting practically all of my family supplies there. For the past three years all of my children have resided in Sanford, the younger ones attending the public schools. I favored and worked for county division and while I resided nearly as close to Orlando as I do to Sanford I seldom go there, except when absolutely necessary. I am not now and never have been a tax dodger. I have worked for and voted for a special school district and special school tax every time I have had an opportunity. My opponent for the position I now hold I have been told has made several charges against me that I wish to take up. First he charges that I am a Yankee. Well, there are lots of worse things in the world than good Yankees, but I can't lay claim to being one, as I WAS BRED IN OLD KENTUCKY AND NEVER HAVE BEEN NORTH OF THE MASON AND DIXON LINE. I came to Florida thirty-five years ago and have not been out of the state since—have not wanted to go. 2nd, He says I have never patronized the county schools. Messrs. Henry Hand (father of the Hand boys), Melvin Hicks (father of Mrs. Baxter Williams), Dr. L. Miller (father of Jim Miller) and myself built and maintained a school at Myrtle Lake for three years, which later became known as Glen Ethel, which school my oldest daughter attended six years. For the past three years my younger children have attended the Sanford schools. One of them will graduate from the High School next year, and her name is always on the honor roll. The election laws forbid candidates denigrating each other. I have no desire to say anything against my opponent, but I should like the voters of the county to investigate him as well as myself. Ask the people of Longwood, where both of us reside, why he a "true blue" Democrat did not get the postoffice when he applied for it, and it was given to a Republican instead of him, the only "true blue" Democrat applying for it. Ask the people of Longwood why he was not given a place on the Democratic executive committee when Mr. C. W. Entzinger resigned, and just not but least why he wants to get on the school board. Voters of Sanford, if you are interested in the schools of the county, including the city schools of Sanford and want them to retain their present high standing and to improve them as far as possible vote for S. C. Dickson for re-election as member of County Board of Public Instruction for District No. 2.

For Sheriff of Seminole County

E. E. Brady is a Candidate and He Gives Good Reasons For Being One. Read Them Carefully.

To the Voters of Seminole County:

The office of Sheriff is one of the most important in Seminole County and certainly should be filled by a man who has the best interests of the WHOLE COUNTY AT HEART. I come before you as a candidate for this important position on my record as a citizen of Seminole and as an officer in the old county of Orange where I served as Deputy Sheriff for many years under Sheriff Vick and Sheriff Kirkwood. My record as a citizen of the county is one that any man should be proud of and I have no excuses or apologies to offer for either record. There are but two requisites for this high office—Good Character and Efficiency, and upon these two alone I make my claim to the office.

Every man in Seminole County has a perfect right to become a candidate for office. Offices in county or city or state belong to no man and every Democrat is eligible to the office.

This being true it is for the voters to judge the best men in the list of candidates and vote accordingly and I am willing to leave it them on the second day of June,

Respectfully,

E. E. BRADY,
Candidate for Sheriff.

TO THE VOTERS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY:

On January 1st next I will have held the Office of Sheriff of Seminole County, by appointment, about seventeen months.

The primary June 2nd is for a two year term, making all together, three years and five months, less than one full regular term, which is four years. It is customary and a well known Democratic doctrine to elect a man a second term if he has made good in his first. ALL I ASK, if I have made good in these few months that I have served you as Sheriff is YOUR SUPPORT at the coming primary, for my election, to fill out this unexpired term.

Respectfully submitted,
C. M. HAND, Sheriff.

To the Democratic Voters of Seminole County:

Your vote and influence are respectfully solicited by W. R. HEALEY, of Longwood, for County Treasurer.

In justice to the Country Precincts give this office to HEALEY the working man and country candidate.

For County Treasurer

Newman Gives the Voters a Few Solid Facts About His Candidacy

The Office is a Sinecure, But is Not a Pension

Starting in this campaign for the office of County Treasurer I made no promises and had no platform. The County Treasurer needs none as the ordinary citizen is competent and able to hold the position and all that is necessary is to have the ordinary intelligence coupled with an experience in the business world and a knowledge of commercial affairs. Although the office is really a sinecure it should not necessarily be a pension and a young man has as much right to aspire to the position as one who has passed his prime and thinks he is entitled to something from the county. I have been a resident of this section since early childhood which is as long and probably longer than the other candidates have resided here. I am not endowed with an abundance of this world's goods and have always worked for a living and always expect to work and need the salary as much as any man in Seminole. The office will probably be abolished at the next session of the Legislature, but until it is abolished I would like to hold it and since it belongs to any good DEMOCRAT that can obtain it certainly I am within my rights when I aspire to the office. My record and my past life are an open book to the voters of Seminole county and I solicit your vote upon the broad principle that every DEMOCRAT has the right to aspire to office in the primary.

Respectfully,
ROBERT A. NEWMAN,
Candidate for Treasurer of Seminole County

To the Voters of Seminole County:

I am a candidate to succeed myself as County Judge, of this county of Seminole. To those of you who do not know me, and who do not know when and how I became County Judge, I wish to say that I was appointed to the office in December last by the Governor of the state, after the death of our late lamented Judge, B. P. Whitner, Sr., than whom no man in the county held a larger portion of the respect and esteem of his people.

I was appointed upon the unanimous recommendation of the Democratic County Committee of Seminole County. I live on a farm about three miles south of Sanford, and have lived in the county for over three years. In that length of time I have learned to know the principal business men of the town and county, and they have learned to know me. That they believed I was worthy of their confidence and trust is evidenced by the fact that they selected me for the office of County Judge. And the fact that every man who supported me at that time for the office is now supporting me for it is proof that I have not disappointed my friends and have fulfilled their expectations of me, and justified their faith in me.

I have been a farmer and orange grower ever since I came to Florida from "Old Virginia." I was appointed County Judge, since which time I have been practicing law, having qualified and been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the state of Florida.

I have had over sixteen years experience at the bar, and I can say without boasting that I am fully equipped in experience and training to fill the position. You have honored me by bestowing upon me, and which I trust and believe it will be your pleasure to again confer upon me.

I am one who believes thoroughly in filling the county offices with the very best material in the county. It is a business proposition. And all who offer for office should do so with willingness to stand or fall upon the principle that to the most competent, trustworthy and reliable man who offers for an office that office should be awarded. If I have filled the office of county judge acceptably, I am sure you will not fail to put your stamp of approval upon me by again intrusting me with the responsibilities and duties I have shown myself able to faithfully and honestly perform. I have not been "a good and faithful servant." I am not worthy to longer hold this office. Let my record speak for me; it is open to the inspection of each and every voter.

I would like to meet every man in the county before the second of June, but I know this will not be possible. I ask those whom I have not met to make inquiry about me—and if upon inquiry you find that I am the best man to represent you as County Judge, vote for me.

I submit my claims with all confidence, feeling, as I do, that I have, in the six months' administration of the duties of the office, met with the approval of all who have been in a position to judge me without prejudice, and with understanding.

I do not ask for nor want the nomination, on the ground of sympathy, or prejudice, or charity. I want to feel if I am nominated it is because my people believe that I am in all respects worthy of their confidence and trust, and that I am able to fitly represent them in the office, which is an important and responsible one. Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HERRING

HAGAN FOR COMMISSIONER

Has Made a Good Record and Seeks Re-election Upon That Record—A Constructive Citizen and Tax Payer Who Should Be Returned to Office

On account of my inability to see each and every voter in Seminole County I hereby take this opportunity of letting you know that I am a candidate to succeed myself for the position of County Commissioner from District No. 2. I seek your vote because having served but a few months I deem it fit and proper that I should be returned for another term to finish the work that has only been started in the new county. Having been a registered voter of this section (Orange and then Seminole County) for the past seven years and a large property owner I have used my endeavors at all times for the best interests of the county and make this campaign solely upon my record. The position of County Commissioner is just exacting taking the time and money of one who wishes to serve his community. The people wished me to accept the appointment and having accepted it I served them to the best of my ability and at their earnest solicitation am making the race to serve them for another term and finish the many improvements started or contemplated. As the law prescribes that the commissioners be elected from the whole county it is necessary to make a canvass of the county, but being unable to do this on account of attending to the affairs of my district and my personal business, it is necessary to solicit your votes through the paper. If my record meets with your approval I will appreciate your support and your vote for me on June 2nd will signify that my work as your public servant has been satisfactory.

Respectfully,
L. P. HAGAN

To the Voters of Seminole County:

One week from today the campaign of 1914 will pass into history and with it the consciousness of our duty well performed or not as the case may be.

I am, as you all know, the Clerk of your Circuit Court. I have filled the office for ten months and up to date have had nothing but good reports from those in authority over me. My strongest supporters today are those that have had business in the office. I have received many compliments from those that are in position to know, on the perfect system that I have established, in the language of the auditor that has just checked me up. My office is second to none in the state, which is a record that any man may feel proud of.

As a business man I have conducted the office on business principles. I believe the public's business should be conducted on the same principle that you would handle your own. This I have endeavored to do.

The office having been properly conducted up to date I feel that I should be entitled to some consideration, as the organization of a new county is no small matter and the principal part of the work falls on the clerk of the court.

It has been a time honored custom that duty well performed deserves some recognition and reward. On the other hand if I have not done my duty to the county I should be rebuked.

The duties of the office have been such that I have not and will not have time to see very many of the voters personally, so I take this means of soliciting your support, if in your judgment I merit it. In the past when you called me I responded. Now it is my time to call, what will the answer be? I don't want your support on the demerits of my opponent.

I would be ashamed to wear the spurs I did not win, but if in your judgment I have made good, there is no man that will appreciate your support more than I will. Now I leave it entirely up to the voter to discharge his duty, as he sees it to me, his conscience and Seminole County, and assure you that whatever the result may be on June the second there will be no wounds on my part to heal and you can command me at all times when the interest of my county is at stake.

Very respectfully yours,
E. A. DOUGLAS

SEARS for Congress

The Man Who Will Represent Impartially the Entire District and the State of Florida

Hon. W. J. Sears is a candidate for Congress from the Fourth District of Florida. He needs no introduction to the people of Seminole county as he has resided in this state for many years practicing law and for the past eight years has been superintendent of Public Instruction of Osceola county. The very best recommendation for any candidate is his reputation in his home county and the fact that Osceola is solid for Sears proves that his home people who know him best believe in him and are supporting him to a man. In other counties Sears is running strong as witness the following from John R. Walker, ex-Mayor of Titusville and Ex-Supt. of Public Instruction of Brevard county:

"W. J. Sears, who is he? A young man of unusual ability, a Democrat of the Jeffersonian type. He has served his county and city in many positions, and comes before the people of the 4th District with the unqualified endorsement of all the people of his county. He is now seeking them as Superintendent of Public Instruction, having been selected for the third time. He is a young man of progressive ideas, strong in his convictions, yet open to reason, a logical thinker, a good judge, a strong antagonist, when opposed to a matter he believes wrong, yet with a fair, open fighter. You can always place your trust with the use of the X-ray. If a thing is right, he is for it—If wrong, he is against it. He is not a policy politician, but is actuated by much higher ideals, by the use of statistics, or by any unscrupulous barangan against his opponents. If he says ought about them, it will be true and you can back up it. Nominate "Joe Sears" and you will have a representative in whom you can feel proud, one whom you can approach and feel that if he cannot do what you want, it is because it is either impossible or that it is beyond his power to help you. Vote for W. J. Sears at the June primary, and you will make no mistake.

CANDIDATE FOR
Superintendent Public Instruction

I earnestly ask your attention for a few minutes in presenting myself to you as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction of Seminole County.

Regarding my qualifications allow me to say that I have had a number of years of training in some of our best schools, five years of which time I worked my way entirely, earning every dollar as I went. I am perhaps not better educated by working my way, but I believe I appreciate a good education more and have a deeper heart interest in other boys and girls who may have a struggle in getting their education.

In asking for your support for this office, I do so fully realizing its responsibilities and opportunities, for I believe if one devotes himself to a thorough, careful study of the needs and conditions and keeps in touch with educational affairs in our state and other states, there is no limit to the time and effort that may be devoted to this work.

First, last and all the time the best interests of the schools should be the one great principle that should absorb all others in the purpose of your superintendent.

This is the service we are paying for and have a right to expect of those in our employ.

On the other hand, if this office is only used as a political stepping-stone, and our Superintendent only does what the law requires in visiting schools and the routine work of the office, he loses the greater opportunity, and Seminole County will be paying $1500 per year for a small service.

With malice toward none and charity for all, I earnestly solicit your votes with the promise that I will devote my entire time and effort to the work if I am honored with the office.

DON'T LISTEN TO A LOT OF BOSH ABOUT WHAT BATES IS ALLEGED TO HAVE SAID ABOUT NOT WANTING THIS KIND OF VOTE OR THAT SORT OF VOTE. NO ONE HAS BRANDED BATES AS A FOOL. HE WANTS ALL THE VOTES HE CAN HONESTLY SECURE AND HAS BEEN ASKING FOR ALL KINDS OF VOTES SINCE LAST JANUARY WHEN HE DECIDED TO MAKE THE RACE FOR ASSESSOR. A VOTE FOR BATES MEANS A CONTINUATION OF PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS METHODS IN THE ASSESSOR'S OFFICE.

I Have Not Traded My Authority to Assess Property For Votes

BATES STATEMENT

BATES OFFERS HIMSELF FOR THE OFFICE OF COUNTY ASSESSOR WHOLLY ON HIS ABILITY TO HANDLE THE AFFAIRS OF THE OFFICE. BATES KNOWS THAT ABILITY TO DO THE WORK AND ABILITY TO KNOW THAT HIS HELPERS ARE DOING THEIR WORK PROPERLY IS WHAT IS NEEDED. BATES HAS BOTH OF THESE KINDS OF ABILITY. THIS IS WHAT YOU WANT IN AN OFFICIAL IF YOU CARE TO HAVE THAT OFFICIAL RENDER THE MAXIMUM OF SERVICE. VOTE FOR BATES TO RETAIN THE PLACE. HE IS THE MAN FOR IT.

The assessed valuation of Seminole County for the year 1913 amounted to $2,250,000. This gave the county approximately $68,000 in revenue. There was paid out for the establishment of the various county departments such as equipping the offices of the officials, purchasing and equipping a jail and furnishing the road camp, close to $25,000, and $43,000 to conduct the affairs of the county for the current year.

As your Assessor of Taxes, I have thus far added to the 1914 rolls the sum of $750,000 and believe this amount will have reached one million dollars before the books are closed which will give the county an assessed value of $3,250,000.

This should give the county close to $87,000 in net revenue for the coming year on the same millage basis.

The state has already signified its intention of reducing to the extent of one mill the state millage and you can readily see that the commissioners of Seminole County have a good leeway in making a substantial reduction in the county millage, as the income on the 1913 basis will be almost double that of last year.

I have played no favorites in making this assessment and discovering these additional values. I have handled the work in a thorough manner and propose to continue on the same basis. I have not traded my authority to assess property for votes.

I believe those citizens of the county who have been paying the maximum on their property will appreciate the work I am doing in their behalf and it should eventuate in a large reduction of their tax charge for 1914.

This being the case and you knowing that I am attending to the business of your Assessor's office in an intelligent manner it seems to me that it means self protection to you when you vote to retain me in the office for the remainder of this term.

Again soliciting the vote of every citizen in the county and again pledging myself to you that I shall conduct your Tax Assessor's office in a manner that will lend dignity and honor to the county, as well as to each citizen in the county, I ask you to give me your support at the polls and away from the polls until the matter of deciding who is to be your next Assessor is settled.

BATES DESIRES ANY ONE TO PRESENT A LOGIC REASON AS TO WHY BATES SHOULD NOT BE ELECTED TAX ASSESSOR. HIS WORK CANNOT BE CONDEMNED. IT WILL NOT BE READY FOR PRESENTATION TO THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS UNTIL THE AUGUST MEETING. HENCE ALL THIS TALK ABOUT MAKING A CHANGE IN THE MOST IMPORTANT OFFICE IN THE COUNTY JUST BECAUSE ANOTHER PERSON WANTS IT IS A MISTAKE. BATES IS DOING THE RIGHT THING. PUT HIM IN FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE TERM.

T. K. BATES

ASSESSOR OF TAXES
Seminole County, Florida

WHAT IS THE USE IN MAKING A CHANGE IN THE ASSESSOR'S OFFICE UNLESS IT BE KNOWN THAT THE CHANGE WILL MAKE AN IMPROVEMENT IN THE CONDUCT OF THE OFFICE? YOU WANT YOUR ASSESSOR'S OFFICE HANDLED PROPERLY AND BATES IS GIVING YOU THAT KIND OF SERVICE. YOU KNOW BATES IS HANDLING THE WORK IN A CREDITABLE MANNER BOTH TO YOU, THE COUNTY AND HIMSELF. HENCE IT IS UP TO YOU AS A MAN OF GOOD JUDGMENT TO PLACE HIM BACK IN OFFICE AND LET HIM PROVE HIS WORTH TO YOU.

Commencement Day At Sanford High School

Class of Twenty-One Bright Pupils Go Forth Into The World Well Equipped For The Battle of Life. Many Visitors to the City Amazed at Large School and Perfect System

The graduating exercises of the High School were held in the auditorium on Friday evening. When twenty-one of Sanford's finest young people, having completed the course required by the school board were presented their diplomas. Long before the appointed time the auditorium was filled to standing room with friends and relatives and interested people, as commencement night is always the culminating event of the week around which gathers a mingled feeling of joy and regret.

A splendid orchestra discoursed rarely music while the audience waited for the exercises to begin. The stage was beautiful, with decorations that were very simple but very artistic. Huge bamboo branches adorned the back of the stage. Smilar twined gracefully at the front. Potted palms at either side and the handsome pieces of statuary belonging to the school, completed the decorations that made indeed a lovely scene. At the appointed time, as the orchestra played an inspiring march the graduating class, the center of all attraction entered the building. First came Randall Chase of the Junior class at Herald. Immediately following were the teachers, Prof. N. J. Perkins, Miss Clara Guild, Miss Alice Tetherly, Miss Lillian Gibson, Miss Charlotte Katz and Prof. J. Rowland Perkins. Next came the local and county school boards, Messrs. Walker, Whitner, Phillips, Foster and Dickson Supt. of Public Instruction of Seminole County D. L. Thrasher, and of Orange County Rev. J. F. McKinnon; and the distinguished guest of the evening, Dr. A. P. Montague, president of Columbia College, Lake City, Fla.

After they had assembled on the stage and taken their places, Rev. J. F. McKinnon, invoked divine blessing very impressively. The first number was a splendid story of "A Celery Stalk." This was given by Miss Renie Murrell, and a more interesting topic for Sanford could not be discussed. The story started with the tiny seeds from the foreign lands from which they are brought, and charmingly portrayed in its many steps to maturity, till it is the much read about Sanford Celery, ready for shipment.

"The Motor Age," another subject of much modern interest was cleverly handled in a paper given by Benjamin F. Whitner, Jr. His subject was timely and his paper showed much research and thought that was a credit to the bright young student.

The Glee Club, which is composed of a charming group of High School girls sang two pretty choruses "The Moon Hangs Low in a Purple Sky" and "Song at Sunrise." Miss Mary Gatchel was next heard in a selection from Hiawatha that was greatly enjoyed by every one present. The lovely young speaker gave the touching selection with beautiful expression.

Miss Katherine C. Waldron's humorous essay, "Simon Says" was a hit. She proved that "Simon" was a dictator of styles, fads and fancies, and when Simon sets the pace the world at large will meekly follow. This was a unique paper and had very many original ideas.

At this time Supt. D. L. Thrasher arose and after a few preliminary remarks spoke with much feeling of the departure of Prof. Perkins, and expressed the universal regret of the people in his covering his connection with the schools after a most successful and batonous administration of ten years. This brought forth a round of applause as might have been expected on account of the popularity of the retiring principal. Mr. Thrasher then in a few remarks introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. A. P. Montague of Lake City. Many graduation addresses had been given, but it is very doubtful if one has ever been given before any class that exceeded in merit the grand effort of Dr. Montague to the class of 1914.

His address was a masterful effort and a mingling of old wisdom, religion and patriotism, accompanied by the best advice that could possibly be offered to any body of young people. The ripe experiences of this noted educator made it possible for him to frame his address in just the right words that would make the best impression and not one sentence was lost in its effect. Sanford people are to be congratulated on having secured Dr. Montague for the evening. He also referred to Sanford's loss in the departure of Prof. Perkins, one of the best educators in the Southland.

Prof. Wildman then came on the stage and briefly stated that he had a pleasant and important duty to perform in presenting the medals that had been awarded in the declamation contest that was held in the afternoon. The class in expression conducted by Miss Green had done good work and it was deemed wise by the school board to award two medals. A silver one, for the best declamation of a grammar school student, and a gold medal to the successful high school contestant. Prof. Wildman then presented to Rosamond Radford of the grammar school the silver medal, and Miss Gladys Morris of class of 1916 the gold medal. Both young ladies were applauded on honors bestowed on them.

Prof. Perkins then addressed the audience expressing appreciation for kind words that had been spoken of him, and best wishes for the future of the school, also stating that he was in no ways prepared for a farewell address, he knew and loved the people too well to attempt anything of the kind.

In his own kindly manner and spirit he spoke a few words to the graduates, after which he presented the diplomas. At the conclusion the graduates repaired to the library where they received their friends. They were showered with congratulations and every good wish, besides many handsome presents, making in all an event in their lives that will never be forgotten.

Those receiving diplomas were Helen Adelaide Rowland, Earl B. Paxton, Evelyn Barbara Berner, Nina Mae Brown, Winnie Brown, Lucreia Winifred Chappell, Alice Bryan Goetz, Linda Evans Connelly, Adelaide Elizabeth Higgins, Clara Goertz, Mary Elizabeth Gatchel, Ethel Mae Moughton, Renie Elizabeth Murrell, Marian Packard, Viola Padgett, Catharine Gorton Waldron, Claire Henrietta Walker, John Franklin Coates, E. Howard Gilbert, George McLaughlin, and Benjamin Franklin Whitner, Jr.

Junior Class Reception

One of the most brilliant social functions given in Sanford during the year is always the annual reception given at the High School by the Junior Class complimentary to the Graduating Class, and the reception given by the juniors on Thursday evening in honor of the seniors of 1914 was no exception to the rule. The beautiful building was illuminated from top to basement, and the interior decorated with exquisite taste. In the decorations the predominating color scheme was green and gold, the Senior class colors, in compliment to them, and the Junior colors of black and gold were also in evidence.

N. J. PERKINS

The prevailing colors lent themselves prettily to the decorations, as yellow flowers and green foliage were used in large quantities. In the halls and in reception and refreshment rooms were green vines gracefully twined, intermingled with gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums and Southern yucca. Potted palms and ferns also added to the beauty of the scene. As the guests arrived they were met by a committee of Juniors, lovely young ladies prettily gowned in white, who showed the guests to the cloak rooms, after which they were escorted to the reception room, where the honor guests stood in line and received their friends. First in line were Prof. and Mrs. N. J. Perkins. Next was Miss Annie Whitner, president of the Junior class, and next the seven members of the Senior class. They wore the regulation caps and gowns and were indeed a happy, interesting group of young people.

After being presented and congratulating the graduates the guests then repaired to the auditorium, where a rare treat was in store for them. Miss Lucille Aspinwall sang a number of beautiful selections, and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Frances Aspinwall. Miss Aspinwall has been heard in Sanford on many occasions and her beautiful voice is very popular. The singer was at her best on Thursday evening and every number was one of especial beauty. The singer was encored again and again and each time responded with an appropriate number.

The guests were then invited to go to the refreshment rooms on the third floor, where an elegant ice cream and cake course was served at small tables. Miss Clara Guild and Miss Alice Tetherly assisted the Juniors in looking after the comfort of their guests, and nothing was left undone that was necessary to make the beautiful affair that it was. Every one who had the honor to be present, thoroughly enjoyed the evening and the Juniors and able assistants were voted royal entertainers.

Eighth Grade Graduates

The graduating exercises of the Grammar School were held in the High School auditorium at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, and were witnessed by a large audience of admiring relatives and friends of the boys and girls who were completing the Grammar School course. It was a large and handsome class of girls and boys and won merited applause as they marched into the auditorium preceded by the principal, Prof. Perkins and teachers of the eighth grade, Miss Floria Walker and Miss Katz.

After being seated on the rostrum, making a very interesting group of bright young faces. Hon. C. R. Walker of the school board invoked divine blessing.

The first number of the program was a pretty chorus, "Swing Song," sung by the school. The first essay was read by Ercel Little and he handled his subject, "Man's Struggle for Food" in a very interesting and thoughtful manner. Tom Merideth came next with a splendidly prepared paper on the "Two Leading Agricultural Products." Miss Ruth Waldron played a lovely piano solo, entitled "Sounds from the South" by Fritz Spindler. Her rendition of the number was very pretty. Watson Alexander came next on the program and his subject was "Tom's Race," a sketch that was cleverly given. "The Application of Science to Agriculture" was Clifford Walker's very interesting and instructive subject, and was handled in a way that showed thought. Next number was a piano duet entitled "Military March" played beautifully by two beautiful young girls of the class, Fern Ward and Virginia Brady. Mary Gardner had a big subject "Men Influential in Improving Agriculture" but she proved herself equal to it. Rosamond Radford gave a humorous reading "The Freckled Face Girl," that was one of the best numbers on the program. The class sang a pretty chorus called "Summer," after which Rev. F. P. Strong addressed the graduates. His address was a good one, filled with excellent advice and every good wish which was much appreciated. After this, Prof. Perkins made his farewell talk to the Grammar School graduates, congratulating them on having completed the eighth grade and urging them to push on to higher attainments. The diplomas were then presented to the following:

Class Day

The beautiful class day exercises of the graduating class were given on the campus on Thursday afternoon at 5:30. A large crowd of friends and relatives assembled on the north side of the school building at the entrance on the lawn at the appointed time. In most respects the exercises on these memorable class days are the most interesting of the whole week. More of the real nature of the class and the individual characteristics are displayed than at any other time. There is always a mixture of the sadness and mirth when the class comes together for a class day program. There is sadness on account of the nearness of parting ways and a feeling of joyousness because of having finished a work of years and attained the coveted goal, graduation day.

The program began when Miss Adelaide Higgins played a beautiful march and the undergraduates marched out of the school building and assembled around the steps which were the rostrum for the occasion. They made a pretty picture and were roundly applauded. The girls wore white dresses and hadges of their class colors. The boys also wore the class colors and looked equally as fine as they took their places on the right of the steps.

The Seniors came next and stood in a group on the steps. They wore the regulation High School Yegalla, grey caps and gowns and a more attractive intelligent lot of young people could scarcely be found anywhere.

After a song by the whole school J. Franklin Coates read a passage from the Hebrew Scriptures. George Weisburghlin clearly and distinctly gave a brief History of the Peace Movement that was very interesting. A pretty chorus was sung by the classes. A charming poem, "My Fatherland," given by Ethel Moughton, in her charming style. A thoughtful, well prepared paper on "Some Famous Workers of Peace and some Sayings of Famous Men" was read by Miss Winnie Irene Brown.

Friendship of Nations was the subject of a well prepared and splendidly given paper by Miss Linda Connelly. This was followed by a chorus by the school. The crowning event as usual on such days was the president's address. Miss Helen Rowland, president of the class of 1914 wore the honors with grace and dignity and her closing remarks to her teachers and classmates were beautiful and well chosen. On behalf of her classmates, Miss Rowland presented to the school a very handsome statue of Apollo Belvedere, god of light and love. The statue was unveiled as the presentation was made. On behalf of the school board Mr. C. R. Walker accepted the splendid gift from the class and expressed all kinds of good wishes for their future welfare and happiness. With Prophetic Utterances, as class prophet, Miss Claire Walker kept the audience amused and entertained for some time. When in the Land of Nod she had heard with much interest some prophetic utterances of the future life of people and when the names of her beloved classmates were called she listened and on this happy occasion revealed what she had heard as to their futures: If the class prophet is anywhere near right in her predictions for the future of her classmates they have cause to congratulate themselves for the future seems very bright indeed. Some will reach the halls of fame and all will attain some degree of success and usefulness. Here's wishing that the class prophet has not made any mistake, at least in telling of the good things in store for the class of 1914.

The class song was a gem and sung with enthusiasm. The closing song was "Swing Spangled Banner."

Grammar School Reception

On Wednesday afternoon the friends and patrons of the Grammar School were entertained at a most pleasing reception, when they were invited to inspect the work of the various grades. As they arrived they were met by Misses May Thrasher, Fern Ward and others of this school, and served with refreshing punch and cake, after which they visited the rooms of the various grades. The teachers received in their respective rooms and showed the visitors the exhibit of school work that adorned the walls.

Every room was beautifully decorated with a profusion of lovely flowers and the display of every line of school work in the several grades most interesting and creditable. All the work was good and showed a thoroughness and neatness that was very gratifying in both the teachers and patrons.

Primary School Exhibit

On Thursday afternoon the teachers and little folks of the Primary Department were at home to their many friends and gladly received them as they had just completed a most successful year and had some very interesting proof of it. The rapid advancement of the tiny tots of the first and second grades is almost marvellous. Starting as they do, not knowing a letter, in most cases and after completing the first eight months, writing a legible hand reading and spelling and doing number work in a way that is indeed a wonder.

The walls were prettily decorated with borders of daisies, butterflies, wild roses, nursery rhymes and undornesth are the exhibits of all school work.

Lovely little booklets on which was written the perfect spelling of a month were noticed. Picture stories were written in clear large letters by first grade tots. Calendars were made for the twelve months, each a story within itself and apprais of the season. Writing is also one of the things taught and in the second grades some first by samples were shown. Certainly school work is made so festive for the little folks and each
