Socialist Workers Intend To Press $40 Million Lawsuit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Socialist Workers party still intends to continue its $40 million suit against the FBI, even though the Justice Department has decided after 38 years to drop its fruitless investigation of the group.

The Justice Department announced Tuesday that the FBI was ending its long probe, which had failed to produce any criminal charges. Department spokesman Robert Havel said Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi had determined in a routine review that the party was not a serious and immediate threat to the country.

Justice Department standards set last spring permit intelligence-gathering investigations of domestic organizations only when the FBI has determined that the group presents a serious and immediate threat of harm to the country.

Low-Tar Cigarettes Better?

COLD SPRINGS HARBOR, N.Y. (AP) — The first "definitive evidence" shows that persons who smoke low-tar and low-nicotine cigarettes are less likely to die from lung cancer and coronary disease than other smokers.

However, the American Cancer Society said its analysis showed that death rates among those who smoke cigarettes low in tar and nicotine were still far higher than the death rates of those who never smoked regularly.

Schorr Faces Panel Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Television newsmen Daniel Schorr is scheduled to be questioned under oath by the House Ethics Committee seeking to learn who leaked him a copy of the House intelligence report.

Schorr, who appears today before the panel, has said he will refuse to name his source and that he would prefer to go to jail rather than compromise what he considers his constitutional rights as a reporter to protect his confidential sources.

Thunderstorm Front Develops

A significant area of thunderstorms has developed from southeastern Nebraska into southeastern Colorado, with the storms today moving eastward around 30 to 35 miles per hour.

They were predicted to produce some strong gusty winds along with heavy rain and possible hail. The heaviest of the storms appeared in southwest Kansas.

Woman Acquitted; Says Agents Lied

A 34-year-old Orlando woman who says vice squad agents lied about a purse has been acquitted at Sanford court prosecution charges.

The six-member circuit court jury returned verdicts of innocent for Mary L. Corcoran, 34, Orlando, Tuesday on charges of possession of cocaine and heroin.

Sheriff's vice squad agents said Miss Corcoran was in a bedroom with Walter Jenkins Jr., 42, on April 30 when agents looked in a door to serve a search warrant at Jenkins' 218 DeFugh St., Altamonte Springs, residence. Agents said they seized quantities of cocaine and heroin in a hassock and a magnetic key box.

Agents testified that Miss Corcoran exited the bedroom with a brown leather purse that was found to contain a small quantity of heroin. She testified, however, that she didn't even have a purse with her when she visited Jenkins' apartment that night and told the jury the first time she even saw a purse in the apartment was when deputy J.P. Bennett dumped contents of a brown purse and two bags on a kitchen table as other agents held Jenkins at gunpoint.

Miss Corcoran said Bennett had taken a "jean jacket" from her as she exited the bedroom but "he's lying if he says he took a purse from me."

Bennett testified that she had a brown leather purse with her when she came out of the room and that he took the purse and another deputy dumped its contents on a table. Bennett said he looked at the contents and found some small tin foil packets that allegedly contained heroin.

Miss Corcoran told the jury she'd visited Jenkins' apartment a number of times but she didn't know anything about the illegal drugs found there by the raiding party.

Jenkins is awaiting sentencing after earlier pleading no contest to the five-year felony offense of possession of cocaine in connection with the apartment raid. Jenkins admitted that he is a drug addict and said he's taking part in a methadone treatment program in Orange County.

Odham Found Guilty On Tax Charges

J. Brailley Odham, Sanford builder and former state legislator, faces up to three years in jail or $30,000 in fines after being found guilty in federal court Tuesday on three counts of failure to file employees federal income and Social Security tax returns.

Each count carries a maximum penalty of one year jail or a $10,000 fine. Sentencing has been set for the month of October.

In an unrelated action against Odham, a civil suit was filed in Sanford Circuit Court last week charging that he has not honoring three promissory notes.

Odham is awaiting sentencing after earlier pleading no contest to the five-year felony offense of possession of cocaine in connection with the apartment raid. Jenkins admitted that he is a drug addict and said he's taking part in a methadone treatment program in Orange County.

SCA Wins $20,000

A Standard poverty-fighting agency Tuesday won $20,000 of the county's money that agency director Amos Jones says will be used to help Williams in matching state and federal funds.

Jones, director of Seminole Community Service Agency Inc., said the award of $20,000 will allow the same level of services to continue next year as last.

"I was kind of surprised," Jones replied when asked about Williams' proposal to cut the award in half.

Jones said $20,000 was "adequately minimal."

Asked what it would have won his way and only produced $10,000, Jones said, "What it would have meant, in essence, is it would have cost Seminole County in excess of $400,000 in federal funds."

"That's an appropriate way to put it," he said.

Williams was dismayed at Jones' reply.

"I don't believe Amos said that," he said.

Double Tax: What To Do?

By JACQUELINE DOWD
Herald Staff Writer

A committee of Seminole residents has found that double taxation does exist in the county — but that fixing it exactly how much is an extremely complex and tedious chore.

The committee is preparing a report to Seminole's legislative delegation saying, as member William Fernandez put it, "There may be double taxation but we are ill-equipped to investigate because we have no funds and no investigative powers."

The study of double taxation was begun after city taxpayers began complaining that they were paying for some services — like law enforcement — twice.

All county residents, whether they live in one of Seminole's seven incorporated cities or not, are taxed at the same rate by the county, which uses the money to fund some programs and services which serve only residents of unincorporated areas.

City taxpayers — and city officials — have taken the stand that it's not fair for them to contribute taxes to the sheriff's department when the sheriff won't answer a call at their city homes. City police departments are funded by the taxes city residents pay in addition to county taxes.

Committee members, meeting Tuesday night at the courthouse, mentioned several other departments where double taxation may be a problem, including building and zoning and county forestry.

The committee members agreed that finding out exactly how much is duplicated would require a thorough audit. Seminole Sheriff John Palk, for example, has estimated 30 percent of his patrols are in the city and at least 25 percent of his detective work is done inside city limits.

A report to the legislative delegation is being prepared by committee members John Krider, Bill Simpson and Fernandez.

Charges Vs. Dr. Wing Called 'Lies'

invested was 30 years old, was dying and had returned to rest. "She is still dying but now has no choice in the matter of accepting anastomosis," Morrow wrote.

"What they don't seem to know," the local source said, "is that this surgery cannot possibly be done without the family signing for it. Some other patients don't have families, but they always have some sort of legal guardian in charge of them. The doctor has a lot of judgment (in the use of gastrostomy), but the family has the last word."

"A gastrostomy," the source went on, "is an alternative to trying a patient down in their bed and sticking a needle in their vein so they can get nourishment. Really, this is nothing but prevention over sticking them three times a day. And a gastrostomy gives the patient a better diet, too, than they get with a nasal solution."

Dr. Fred Weigand, chief of staff at Seminole Memorial, said he knew nothing of the specific allegations against Wing, but added, "As far as I know, he's always been a competent physician."

Morrow, whose contract as a state consultant was not renewed, expressed doubt that anything would come of his report on Wing.

He said it was his experience in the past that his findings on medical matters never seemed to move through the HRS bureaucracy.

Morrow said his contract was not renewed because he complained too much about the Medicaid program. HRS spokesman said the contract was dropped because of a change in organizational structure.

Askew: Cabinet Can Block Canal

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew says he is confident the cabinet can block construction of the Cross Florida Barge Canal, adding that he is inclined to oppose the $400 million waterway.

"I don't believe they will start it up again if the highest officials in the state are not in support of it," Askew said at a Tuesday news conference.

Col. Donald Widson, head of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers near Palatka, is one-third complete with the canal, a 118-mile ditch from the Gulf of Mexico to the St. John River in Palatka, is a one-third complete.

Askew denied at his news conference that he is actively supporting Senate President Askew's decision to veto the project. He said he is actively supporting Senate President Askew's decision to veto the project.

Longwood Mayor Files Complaint

By JANE CASSELL HERRY
Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — Mayor James Lormann revealed today that he filed a complaint late Tuesday afternoon with State Attorney Abbott Herring's office charging City Council member Gerard Conell and Parker Anderson with a violation of a Florida law.

Lormann said the two city officials refused to vote on the suspension of eight city employees and the firing of four others at an Aug. 30 meeting.

The law applies specifically to all officials are required to vote on all issues except in cases of conflict of interest. Both councilmen have conceded this was not the case. Fernandez indicated he would not seek the attorney's position when and if officials opt for the new system.

Salary estimates proposed for the supervising attorney and from $12,000 to $24,000 for a second attorney.

Lormann called the explanation given by Anderson as irrelevant, but added "at least he made an effort." Basically, Lormann said, the reason given was Anderson did not have enough information on which to base his vote.

Contacted today, Connell refused comment other than to say he was out of town. When the minutes of the meeting were read for approval at Monday night's session, they indicated Anderson and Connell had voted "no," but Connell insisted they be corrected to read that they had not voted. Lormann said a copy of the minutes and Anderson's statement were included with his complaint to Herring.

"I'm trying to make it as impartial as I can. I don't want it to look like I am trying to pick on anybody, but they force me to do things like this," Lormann said.

"Jerry (Connell) threatens me on a weekly basis that he will get me if I do not do my job in enforcing the law."

Legal Dept. Plan

Freeman paid $20 an hour. But when Kwiatkowski, at Monday's news conference, called for a legal department. He said then about $120,000 was needed to make the switch. Last night he said the figure is $140,000, the amount that was already in the budget to pay for legal fees next year.

After Kwiatkowski went public with the "Kwiatkowski Plan," Freeman announced he would not seek the attorney's position when and if officials opt for the new system.

Salary estimates proposed for the supervising attorney and from $12,000 to $24,000 for a second attorney.

Blaze Destroys Residence

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

Sheriff's deputies reported an early morning blaze destroyed a house near Geneva despite efforts of a woman awakened by cracking flames to control the fire with a garden hose until firemen arrived.

No injuries were reported, but deputy J. F. Bennett said the frame dwelling and contents were totally destroyed with damage estimated at $20,000.

Mora Watkins, 22, awakened to find the kitchen of her home on fire and tried to combat the blaze with a garden hose, deputies said.

Deputies said when county fire units arrived at the scene on SR-208 about 1 1/2 miles south of Geneva, the house was a smoldering ruin.

Super Salesman Turner Faces Super Tax Bill

ORLANDO (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service is trying to collect almost $1 million in back taxes and penalties from flamboyant super salesman Glenn W. Turner, the Orlando Sentinel Star reported today.

The IRS alleges that the creator of a multi-state pyramid sales scheme that cost participants $44 million failed to report personal income of $1,254,421.99 in 1969-70-71, the newspaper said.

The unreported income came from Kosco's Interplanetary Inc., an Orlando-based cosmetics firm which Turner headed until he was prosecuted and fined for violating federal regulations, according to the IRS suit filed in U.S. Tax Court in Washington.

All three notes were reportedly signed on Aug. 23, 1975 with the first due on Dec. 1, 1975; the second was due May 1, 1976 and the third was due Sept. 15, 1976.

Each count carries a maximum penalty of one year jail or a $10,000 fine. Sentencing has been set for the month of October.

In an unrelated action against Odham, a civil suit was filed in Sanford Circuit Court last week charging that he has not honoring three promissory notes.

Sherrin Endorses Frederick Karl

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert Sherrin has endorsed Frederick Karl in the Sept. 23 runoff for all of the state's judicial positions.

Sherrin said Tuesday that Karl's experience as a legislator and the public counsel, representing consumers before the Public Service Commission, makes him the most qualified candidate for the court.

Karl is running against Charles Bailey of Naples, a former legislator and circuit judge, in the runoff. Karl is the frontrunner in the Sept. 7 primary.

"Fred Karl has a long history of dedication to serving all of the state's citizens honestly and fairly," Sherrin said. "There is no question that he would be a credit to our entire judicial system."

Overcrowding Tops Priorities

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Prison overcrowding tops a list of 10 priorities a state criminal justice panel will follow in disbursing federal law enforcement aid grants to Florida next year.

The Governor's Commission on Criminal Justice adopted the list Tuesday and promptly encountered criticism that the federally ordered ranking usurped the priority-setting authority of regional planning councils.

Suspect Held In Vermont

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP) — An 18-year-old New York City man, wanted in Florida in connection with murder, has refused to waive extradition in Vermont District Court here.

Robert G. Barnason, wanted by Florida police for the July 19 murder of Winston Hite in Miami Beach, was arrested at the Rutland State Fair last Friday on a fugitive from justice charge.

Appearing in court Monday, the carnival worker refused to waive extradition.

Insurers Want Rate Hike

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Officials of the National Council of Compensation Insurers say they need a rate increase because losses exceeded premiums by 32.4 percent last year.

"This is quite a stark picture of just what's going on in the state," National Council President George Reall of Franklin Lakes, N.J., told Insurance Commissioner Philip Ashler on Tuesday.

More Union Activity Vowed

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — Teacher union leaders, incensed by the arrest of four teachers and negotiators, vowed increased union activity against the Duval County School Board.

Jim Geiger, president of Duval Teachers United, said a lawsuit will be filed charging the school with violating Florida's Government in the Sunshine Law.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Fan May Have Caused Generating Plant Blast

ST. PETERSBURG (AP) — Investigators say a malfunctioning fan may have caused the explosion and flash fire at a Florida Power Corp. generating plant in which three men were badly burned, a company spokesman says.

But he said it could be weeks before investigators determine the exact cause of the Tuesday accident.

The three men were working on a circuit breaker at the Weedon Island plant, a routine maintenance procedure a company official said was like replacing a fuse at home.

Lineman Stole Electricity

TAMPA (AP) — A former Tampa Electric Co. lineman has been sentenced to 60 days in jail and ordered to make financial restitution for stealing more than $1,000 worth of electricity.

Bryan Hill Forrester, 40, pleaded guilty Tuesday to tampering with meters to reduce the bills of two bars in exchange for a fee.

Circuit Judge Herboth S. Ryder said Forrester, an 18-year employe of the company, would have to make full restitution to TECO after serving his jail sentence. Forrester was also given three years probation.

Fire May Delay Project

TAMPA (AP) — Army engineers say they're trying to determine how badly a dredge fire will delay a project to deepen the 35-mile long Tampa Bay shipping channel.

The fire broke out Tuesday in a generator aboard the Western Concor, a 370-foot dredge that began work at the channel's mouth early last month. The fire was put out after three hours and thousands of gallons of foam and sea water.

There were no injuries to the four crewmen manning the dredge at the time of the fire or to any of the 50 or so Coast Guard and Tampa firefighters.

Rate Increase Opposed

CLEARWATER (AP) — T.F. Green Jr. says that GenTel is a "greedy child screaming for more, more, more" and doesn't deserve to get a proposed $71.05-million rate increase.

Green was among more than 100 GenTel customers who crammed a Public Service Commission hearing Tuesday on the proposed hike. Other hearings were scheduled for today in Sarasota, Thursday in Tampa and Friday in Lakeland.

Carr Verdict Due

MIAMI (AP) — Robert F. Carr III may meet his plea and recommendation that he be electrocuted for the rape-death of two 11-year-old girls in a 16-year-old girl and a woman.

The jury will deliberate and then recommend to Circuit Judge Natalie Bastian either that Carr be executed or sentenced to life in prison for one of the deaths, that of 16-year-old Tammy Hartley of Miami.

Carr, 32, of Norwich, Conn. had argued Monday that there was no need for a sentencing jury and had asked Judge Bastian to order the death penalty. But she refused, saying such a decision was not his to make.

She said she would recommend a life sentence if a jury meets to consider aggravating or mitigating circumstances in murder cases before recommending either the electric chair or life in prison. The judge does not have to accept the recommendation.

Carr told the jury Tuesday that he had four other rape victims and two boys between the time he abducted, raped, killed and buried Miss Hartley in early April 1960 in a Miami May 11. Police say he was arrested while raping a Miami housewife.

Ford Workers Strike Could Hurt Economy

DETROIT (AP) — With 176,000 United Auto Workers on strike against Ford Motor Co. in 22 states, the key question is how long the walkout will last.

Officials for both sides say a repeat of 1967's 86-day strike would hurt the nation's economic recovery. There is almost no chance the strike will be settled quickly, because neither side expects contract talks to resume before next week.

Workers at assembly plants in New Jersey and Chicago were the first to set up picket lines on Tuesday, beating the official market deadline. At Ford's huge complex in suburban Dearborn, Mich., workers chanted a second-by-second countdown as the deadline neared.

"As soon as Henry Ford's supply of cars runs out, we'll go back to work," said Danny Harrington as he picked up his Dearborn today. "The 'in' game got caught with his pants down."

Industry analysts have said the strike would have no great impact on the economy, the union or its big car lines. At least it extends beyond a month. Ford has more than 70 days' supply of unsold cars. However, most of that supply includes slow-selling 1976 small cars. Analysts say the firm has only about a 14-day supply of 1977 models, which normally are in heavy demand this time of year.

UAW President Leonard Woodcock, asked if he was hoping for a settlement without a strike, said: "That's in the lap of the future. We will work, obviously, toward the shortest possible settlement."

But he said he sent home his bargaining committee, which must approve any settlement before it is presented to the rank-and-file.

Union sources said the strike almost certainly would extend into October because 75 percent of the cars are in dealer lots at least a week to a couple of weeks before a settlement is reached just to complete ratification.

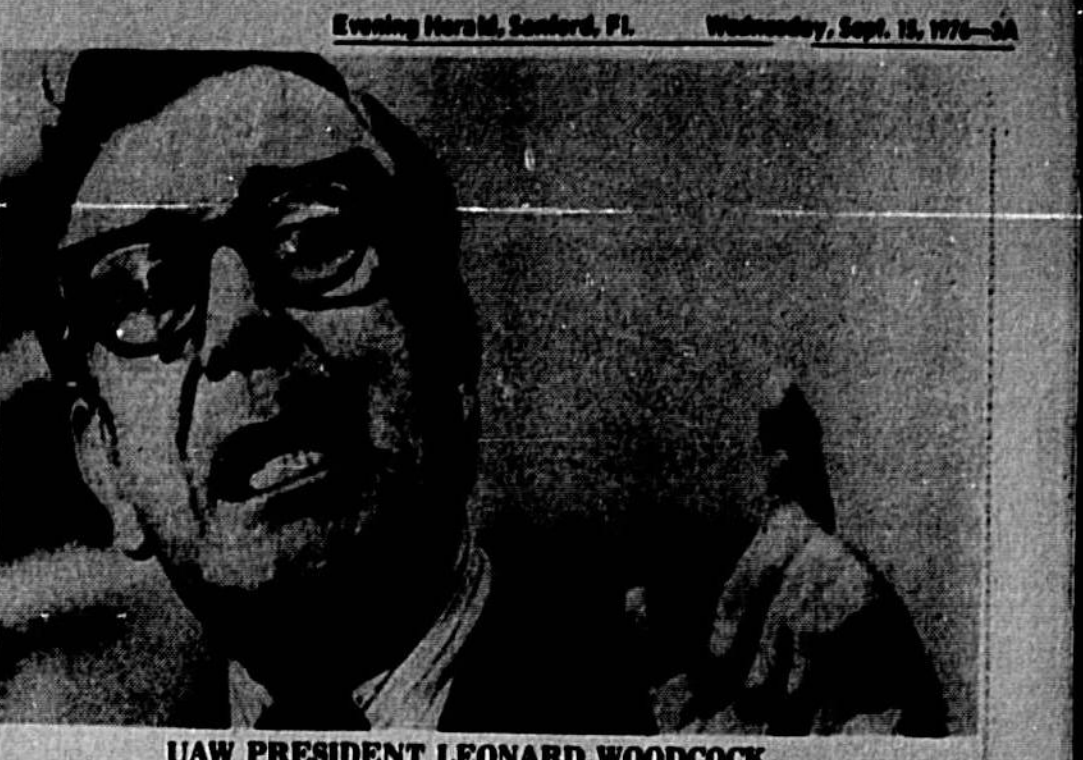

Vegetables in the U.S. have been docked on several major issues — including a key union demand for reducing work time — and the strike was no surprise. Other disputes involved wages, layoff pay, health care and pensions.

The UAW wants an additional one day off at full pay each month to bolster job security and create new openings in the work force. The union, which is working toward a four-day work week, says its proposal would reduce work time 5 percent a year, and thus require Ford to increase employment 5 percent.

The company, which now provides 30 days of paid holiday and vacation time off a year, has offered up to 40 additional hours — or five days. But the plan imposes strict restrictions based on seniority and perfect attendance. The union has rejected the plan, saying it would not create any new jobs.

Ford has offered a 3 percent annual general wage hike which averages 60 cents an hour over three years. That would raise base wages to an average of $7.66 an hour by 1979. Ford also said it would continue the current cost-of-living formula.

The two sides do not appear to be far apart on the general increase. But the union has insisted on improvements in the cost-of-living formula.

Third Worlders Are Off Target

North Vietnam's call for amity and normal relations with the United States at a conference dedicated to tearing us down may startle some. However, it was about the only clear-eyed and pragmatic policy visible at the fifth annual conference of "aligned" nations at Colombo, Sri Lanka, recently.

North Vietnam probably has no more love for the United States than do Cuba, North Korea, Sri Lanka, Syria and many of the other 94 nations that attended the conference. But Prime Minister Pham Van Dong also knows that North Vietnam will need a great deal of assistance from the United States to rebuild its war-torn nation. His technique is the carrot, not the stick.

American aid to North Vietnam is not likely in the near future, not so long as North Vietnam fails to live up to its treaty obligation about providing the United States with information on Americans missing in action. North Vietnamese are patient people, however, and will continue to chip away gradually and calculatedly.

Quite the opposite appears to be true among the hard core members of the Third World. Their vehement attacks on the United States are pointless and their call for a "new economic order" is nothing less than a demand for a massive and immediate transfer of technology and wealth from the Western industrial world to the economically depressed countries.

An impression is left that the West has been niggardly and self-serving. The truth is that since the first unaligned meeting at Bandung, Indonesia, in 1955 the poorest nations represented at Colombo received $57 billion in grants and $94 billion in low interest, long-term loans. Almost to a nation each country is far worse off today in relation to the rest of the world than it was 15 years ago. Most simply do not have the political and social order to make good use of the help. A second factor accelerating their economic slide has been the sharp rise in oil prices by some of the nations sitting around the conference tables at Colombo.

However, in the long run the only answer is economic investment that produces jobs and wealth. The multi-billion international resources bank proposed by the United States in Nairobi in May that would stabilize Third World development without dragging in problems of nationalism would be a good start.

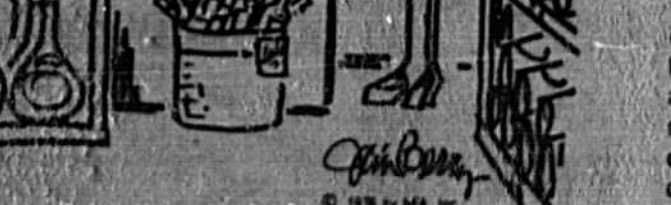

Solutions to economic problems do not come quickly nor easily — as even the United States is learning as it painfully inches out of a recession. But they are possible if the will exists.

Farm Policy

While Jimmy Carter was talking to farmers at the Iowa state fair, the House Agriculture Committee in Washington was approving a bill to reduce the government's subsidy on peanuts. The peanut farmer from Plains, Ga., has a lot of farming experience, all of it farming a crop that has historically been heavily subsidized by the government.

It might be nice to have a farmer in the White House for a change, but not if he tried to restore the bankrupt system of farm price supports and production controls that may have been needed during the Great Depression but have no place in today's economy.

Deep top the list of my pet peeves. That's not really fair on dogs, because it's not their fault that they have been advised by irresponsible owners to become a neighborhood nuisance. But fair or not, dogs still top my pet peeves list.

A friend came to visit from New York City. On her first morning in sunny Florida she jumped on her bicycle for a spin around the block. Not five yards from our back door, she was blocked by two neighborhood German shepherds, knuckled from her bike and bitten clean through the center of her jeans.

And then there was the night of the dinner party. I heard the guests' car arrive, but on a dark street. After five minutes I started wondering. . . When I opened the front door, a quivering dog by the car begged me to call off my dogs. My dogs? A whole pack of neighborhood hounds had the car surrounded and were snarling threateningly at my dinner guests.

Yes, I mentioned each incident to the dog owners — in my kind, non-assertive manner. I hate to make trouble for the neighborhood. But they obviously didn't believe that their dogs were to blame. You saw it was our dogs? Each asked. When you've lived in a small neighborhood several years, you know whose dog are who.

Not long ago, I was hearing a friend's cat while she went on vacation. One afternoon I heard pattering in the back yard. Then I saw Simba come flying across the lawn with a large, four-footed, furry-tailed creature in hot pursuit. "Wood, wood! Arf, arf!" were the sounds it made.

Could have been a squirrel or a possum, mused the dog owner who approached. Yeah. Or there's a wolf loose in the Marchman woods. Or maybe she ran into a tree, suggested the dog owner, when I described the huge, blondy gash across the cat's face and the two rows of puncture marks on her mid-vent neck.

Of course, to be rational, I should be peeved not at the dogs, but at the dog owners who refuse to keep their animals leashed and, I suspect, properly fed. But it's not the owners I see attacking my friends, ripping through my flower beds, feasting my lawn or spouting my garbage can. It's their dogs.

And if I could run fast enough, and was brave enough, it's those dogs that would get it on the behind with my tennis racket. I wonder if the dog owners would care?

PRO/CON

Family hour: a step toward 1984?

Today's Topic: "Television and Government." Hosted by Sen. John Pastore (D-R.I.), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on communications, and Sander Vanocur, former NDC correspondent and currently chief television critic for The Washington Post.

For a long, long time my committee has been receiving letters by the thousands from mothers, families, and children about the excessive violence on television. And we've been getting after the industry from time to time as they came before our committee because after all we do have oversight responsibility. I guess, as a result of this, the matter was discussed by the FCC and then the broadcasting industry on its own initiative, (established the family hour). I tend not to do it with it. I have heard about the family hour until it was published by the broadcasting association. And I think that the contention is made that it leads to bland programming. Well, I don't think so. You take the Mary Tyler Moore Show. You take the Waltons. You take the Jeffersons. Good Times. I mean, there are many many programs that really edify, educate.

My opposition is totally political and not cultural. The Congress, especially the House subcommittee on appropriations, asked the chairman of the FCC, Richard Wiley, what he was going to do about sex and — the phrase was violence, it was mostly radical or added sex, like those topless shows. My objection to it is that I thought it brought the network and the government, through the FCC, into an area that I want the government to stay out of, which is content.

If we didn't learn anything from the Nixon years — and I speak as someone who I think learned something from those years — in terms of White House interference in broadcasting, or attempts at it — we should have learned that government should stay away from the First Amendment and free expression except to guarantee our right to have it.

I think the family hour set a precedent. If the government mess, as Wiley did, with the officials of the three networks to talk about doing something about television violence, why can't they do it now?

I think that violence should be lessened on television. I think the market place should decide, as it is deciding now because commercial advertisers are taking their spots away from unduly violent shows. Let the market place decide it. I don't want the government in even an inch.

Has television affected the political process? It certainly has had an effect. What kind of an effect I don't think we know very much about. The social scientists are just beginning to turn their attention to this. But the whole question is of the cost of getting on television. Politicians are not sure what the effect of television is. But they don't be without it. They are not.

It has affected it in a very material way. Television has become an integral part of our life. There's no question about it. I think 98 percent of our population looks at television. I don't know what we would do without it. We don't do very good with it. I don't know what we would do without it. It does have an effect on educating people as to the issues and the personalities.

People would not have known Carter or Ford or Reagan or Mondale as well as they do if we didn't have television. It stands to reason. The only trouble with it is, it's become so expensive today that it's hard for people to afford it. What are going to do about giving some free time to candidates for high political office?

They would begin payments to Tenenoco. "Why in the hell haven't you done it?" growled Clements. Michaelis responded plaintively: "I don't think we will ever get them done as fast as Diesel."

Bowers volunteered that he had spoken to Diesel on the telephone. Telephone conversations, trumped Clements, weren't enough. "You have to deal with him directly — eyeball to eyeball," he said.

He invoked the names of Senate Armed Services Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., and D-III. "They have done nothing to help me in what the Navy is doing and they are not going to approve any Navy new shipbuilding programs unless they get this claims mess cleaned up," said Clements.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Soviets Announce Launch Of Two Men Into Space

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union sent a two-man crew into space today, Tass announced. The official news agency said the Soyuz 22 spacecraft was commanded by the veteran cosmonaut Col. Valery Bykovsky, 42, who rode Vostok 5 into space in 1963. His flight engineer is Vladimir Aksenov, 41, who Tass said has been active in the development of new spacecraft systems and testing them in flight since 1963.

Boycott Begins In S.A.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The three-day strike by black workers in Johannesburg eased slightly today on its last day, but many of Cape Town's 200,000 non-white workers began a two-day work boycott despite leaflets postponing it a week. Three more blacks were killed by police gunfire Tuesday night in Johannesburg's Soweto township, raising the toll to at least 16 dead since the start Monday of the job protest against the white government's racial policies, the city's leading black newspaper reported.

Efforts On MIAs Expected

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — With Vietnam's application to enter the United Nations put off until November, U.S. officials say they expect new efforts to learn the fate of Americans missing in action in Vietnam. American officials at the United Nations insisted that the American demand for a full accounting of some 800 MIAs as a prerequisite for normalizing relations with Hanoi or for letting Vietnam join the United Nations will not change, no matter who wins the presidential election Nov. 2.

New Quakes Strike Italy

UDINE, Italy (AP) — New earthquakes struck northern Italy today and were felt in wide parts of northern Italy, Austria, Yugoslavia and even in Strasbourg, France. At least five persons were reported dead and dozens were injured. Police said they had received reports of cars having been buried under landslides but were unable to say whether anyone had been trapped inside.

Lake Mary Poised For Bicentennial

By DORIS DIETRICH, Herald Correspondent
Presentation of flags and a brief ceremony at 10:30 a.m. Saturday will launch Lake Mary's Bicentennial celebration. And, according to co-chairman Don Jackson and Mrs. R.E. True, bands and other groups are welcome to form the parade that will follow.

Area arts and crafts fanciers are welcome to display their wares, at no charge, which will be judged by a qualified panel. Ribbons will be awarded the winners. Exhibitors must furnish their own tables and display equipment. Mrs. S.P. Letha Fowler, 322-5438, is chairman of this committee. Individuals and organizations are invited to set up booths as fund-raising projects, at no charge. One section will feature an exhibit of antiques, artifacts and historical memorabilia provided by any interested persons. These items will be for display only and not for sale.

One of the highlights of the afternoon will be the drawing for a red, white and blue handmade polyster alphan, made especially as a Lake Mary Bicentennial memento.

Plague Fears Trigger War On Squirrels

FT. ORD, Calif. (AP) — The Army is declaring war on millions of California ground squirrels because of concern that the animals may spread bubonic plague. The plan drew opposition from environmentalists and reached the House of Congress. The problem involves two facilities near Ft. Ord: the 168,000-acre Hunter-Leggett reclamation and 42,000-acre Camp Roberts. Both posts are overpopulated by the Beechey ground squirrel, one of 11 species of ground squirrels, which look like chipmunks.

Army officials claim they have an emergency on their hands because the population of squirrels, which may harbor fleas that carry bubonic plague, has jumped from 1 million to 10 million since 1972. No cases of the plague have been reported, but the Army said the ground squirrels still are a problem because they have undermined the land so seriously that an earthen dam collapsed. Army officials say farmers also complain that the ground squirrels eat their crops.

They have even burrowed into a road junction, through asphalt pavement," Maj. Dan O'Brien, public information officer at Ft. Ord, said Tuesday. "It gives you quite a startle to see their heads sticking up in the middle of the road."

Army officials originally said they wanted to use sodium fluoracetate, also known as Compound 1080, in the extermination campaign, which cannot be launched until spring because the animals are about to go into hibernation.

The Army had announced it would seek an exemption from a federal order issued in 1971 which bans use on federal land and indirectly, both game and nongame. Rep. William Whitehurst, R-Va., has urged President Ford to deny the exemption for the poisoning. Whitehurst, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said one ounce of Compound 1080 could kill more than 100 humans. He said the Army's problem arose because it leased a large part of the base for catfishing and the cattlemen killed off coyotes, which had kept the squirrel population in check.

What The Pending New Tax Measure Will Mean...

By JOHN LUTHER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is about to pass a tax bill that will affect everyone who files a federal income tax return. It contains this year's reductions for most Americans and offers new cuts for millions of others.

The bill continues through 1977 this year's individual tax credits, providing a tax shelter of $6 for the taxpayer and each dependent, or 3 percent of his first $10,000 of taxable income up to $10.

The election-year tax measure makes an effort to provide something for just about everybody. For instance, about two million American taxpayers are expected to take advantage of the tax provision that allows them to deduct the cost of their first $1,000 of taxable income up to $10.

of the bill — one that would reduce taxes for working parents who have baby-sitters. While cutting taxes for most Americans, the bill also will lower federal revenues by about $17.5 billion. The individual tax cuts will total about $13 billion, and business tax cuts will reduce federal income another $4.5 billion. This will be partly offset by $1.5 billion in tax increases, levied mostly against the wealthiest Americans.

Congress is expected to give final approval to the bill this week, and President Ford is expected to sign it.

In addition to the child care tax deduction, the amendment of other changes would make it easier to claim adoption payments as a tax deduction; would expand tax benefits in job-related moves and would change the way for tax-deferred payoffs for homeowners.

There is how these benefits work:

CHILD CARE

On the tax return filed next spring for 1976, working parents can subtract from their tax 20 percent of the first $2,000 spent during the year for the care of one child, or 30 percent of the first $4,000 spent during the year for the care of two or more children. The maximum tax credit for one child would be $400, and for two or more, the maximum credit would be $600. It is available to those families where both parents work, or where the only parent works. The credit would be extended to those families using the standard deduction as well as those who itemize deductions. This is expected to double the number of families using child care tax advantages, from two million to four million.

The credit will be available to separated parents and to couples when one spouse works only part-time. Qualifying parents will be hired for the child care; Social Security taxes are withheld from the babysitting paychecks.

The credit may be calculated on all qualifying child care payments made in 1976, and it will eliminate the complex, separate form used to claim child care deductions under the old law.

The old law permitted a tax deduction from taxable income of up to $4,000 a year for the expense of hiring someone to care for a child under 16 or a disabled dependent of spouse while the parents work.

There are several conditions in the old law: Both parents usually had to work full time; no deduction was permitted for payments to relatives; the deduction was reduced $1 for each $2 of annual income over $3,000.

Most importantly, the old law required the expense be claimed as an itemized deduction on tax returns. The bill changes that. Deductions are subtracted from income; credits are subtracted from taxes. There is another distinction. Up to incomes beyond $30,000 a year, where it rapidly diminishes, the credit $4,000-

High Potency Vitamin E

Sexual Potency Quickly Improves With New 'E-Pill'

NEW YORK, N.Y. (Special) — An amazing new "super-charged" vitamin E-Pill has recently been developed that reportedly "quickly" increases and rejuvenates sexual drive and potency for both men and women of all ages and makes them feel healthier and more energetic. It is now available in the American pharmacy.

The new high potency E-Pill not only seems to increase sexual ability of both sexes but also totally works up sexual interest and stimulates a person's desire, according to a spokesman for the manufacturer.

HOW IT WORKS

This new, easy-to-take E-Pill contains newly formulated, highly concentrated vitamin E. It tends to build up strength in the muscular physiological processes of the body that are believed to be basically responsible for its potency, youthfulness, health and vigor.

HOW AVAILABLE

The use of this high potency (one-a-day) E-Pill is perfectly safe and now available without prescription from a mail order manufacturer by mail order only. To get your supply, send $4.95 for a 30-day supply, or $17.95 for a 60-day supply. (No. 1033) Dept. 310, Merrick Road, Oceanside, N.Y. 11771. (Unconditional money-back guarantee if not satisfied.)

... And How It Works For You

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional uncertainty about the economy will mean money in the pockets of most Americans. Congress is about to extend for another 18 months the 13 percent tax rate on income over $20,000 that was enacted last year.

Without the extension, taxes on the wealthy would rise, with the heaviest burden falling on the poorest families.

The economy would be deprived of $15 billion in consumer spending.

Businesses would lose to the tax collector about $4.5 billion a year that otherwise could be used to create jobs.

Congress is expected to take final action this week on a massive tax-revision bill that includes extension of the 13 percent rate on income over $20,000.

The individual credit, which is available, but amounted to only $30 for 1975, meaning for taxes paid by April 15, 1976. The 25 percent rate on income over $20,000 is available, but amounted to only $30 for 1975, meaning for taxes paid by April 15, 1976.

Although the economy is clearly on an upswing, Congress fears that ending the tax cuts now might cause an economic tailspin.

Here is how some provisions will work:

ALL TAXPAYERS

Every taxpayer could subtract from taxes owed $35 for himself and each dependent. A family of six, for example, could save $210 in taxes over $20,000 of income, or a maximum credit of $180.

The taxpayer could choose whichever option provides the greater tax saving.

To take advantage of the credit, the taxpayer totals his income, subtracts his deductions and exemptions, computes his taxes, then subtracts the credit from taxes owed.

Some Surprises Are Expected In Ford Speech

By DAVE RILEY
Associated Press Writer

President Ford is making his first campaign trip outside Washington, a brief jaunt for a speech at his alma mater that will take him within a few miles of where Jimmy Carter is to make a major address.

Ford, who has been under fire from Carter for staying in the White House instead of meeting voters, says there will be "some surprises" in his speech tonight on domestic and foreign policy at the University of Michigan.

At the same time Ford is to speak at Ann Arbor, Democratic nominee Carter is to deliver what aides call a "major speech" to a state AFL-CIO convention about 30 miles away in the Detroit suburb of Dearborn, Mich.

Ford is to depart immediately after his speech and his aides say he may not leave Washington again all month. He is expected to Philadelphia for the first of his debates with Carter on Sept. 22.

Carter started out in Arizona on Tuesday and worked his way to Montana and the Dakotas. Both he and his running mate, Sen. Walter Mondale, accused the Ford administration of poor management that has turned the Medicare program into a "national disgrace."

Mondale and Carter were to join forces today for appearances in Minnesota.

Ford spent the day at the White House, but his running mate, Sen. Bob Dole, was campaigning in the West.

In Phoenix, Ariz., Carter said, "I'd like to know why, after eight years of a Republican administration, we're still losing 25 to 30 percent of the Medicaid money that's supposed to be for good health care."

A Senate subcommittee recently documented instances of unneeded and duplicated health exams and laboratory work paid for by the government, and Senate investigators estimated that perhaps as much as half of the money spent annually on Medicare is lost.

The Democratic nominee said he wanted to know why Ford, as a congressman, had voted against Medicare. "When an administration opposes the basic concepts of helping with public funds to provide good health care for our people, it is indefensible that health care programs will not be operated properly."

And Carter continued to tell Ford for his stay-at-home campaign strategy, scoffing at Ford's contention that he won't leave Washington until Congress adjourns because "I'm afraid the House and Senate will 'go off the deep end' without him."

Carter noted that Ford was afraid of leaving Congress alone in Washington during the Republican presidential primaries, recalling that Ford traveled extensively to such states as Mississippi in order to win delegates from Ronald Reagan.

Turning to his plan for a national health care system, Carter said: "Our country's ready for it, you're ready for it, I'm ready for it. Let's get a national health care program for our people. He later said he had no firm figure on how much the program would cost, but he has received estimates ranging up to $15 billion.

Carter said $60 billion a year in new money for such a health care program would be available to the government by 1981 if the unemployment rate is cut to 5 percent or 5.5 percent and if the national economic growth rate is 4 percent or 5 percent.

Carter also rapped Ford's economic and farm policies, saying, "Our farmers are going broke, producing food that consumers cannot afford to buy. That's got to be changed. We need a predictable agriculture policy."

He said a new basic farm law must be written and he said Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butts should be replaced with someone who would worry more about small farmers than agricultural corporations.

Mad Dog Ross Comes Back To Win Atlas Holds Up Gene Wells

By LOUIS BARRON
Special Correspondent

ORLANDO — Emmett Atlas, who has been called "Mad Dog" because of his wild, unorthodox style, won his first professional fight since he was defeated by Gene Wells in a split decision last year.

The loss, which probably knocked Wells out of his No. 1 ranking in the U.S. and out of a scheduled bout with world champion Richard Dugan, was a bitter pill for Wells to swallow, as he was in tears after the fight.

Wells, left, absorbs left from surprising Atlas

Wells, who is ranked No. 1 in the U.S. and No. 2 in the world, was surprised by Atlas' left jab in the second round. Wells was able to get back on his feet, but he was unable to land a significant blow. Atlas, who is ranked No. 10 in the world, was a surprise contender.

In Tennis, Takes Chemistry To Make Good Doubles Perez Meets Obed

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

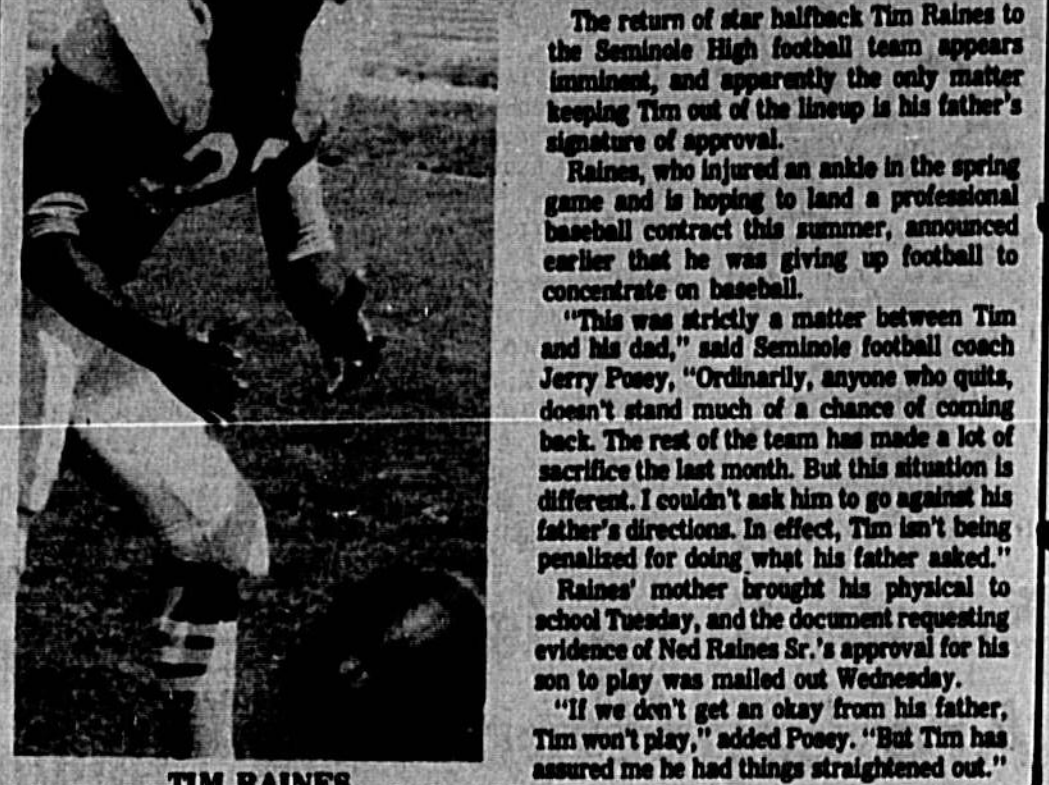

McMillan: One has to love the game

ORLANDO, Calif. — (NEA) — In tennis, there has been a singular belief that pairing the best two players available automatically creates a championship doubles team.

McMillan has spent the last two years as the player-coach of the Golden Gladiators in World Team Tennis, concentrating his own efforts on doubles play. "We have a commodity which many people would prefer to buy," he claims, "and yet the tennis promoters are selling singles. People want to buy because most identify more with doubles and enjoy a doubles match more than they do a singles match."

McMillan has a unique two-fisted style, grasping the tennis racket with both hands whether he is swinging from the right or left side, and even volleying at the net that way. He lets his left hand slip from the grip only on a smash. His reach is limited, but he is catlike at the net. Hewitt is strong, with heavy strokes and a dependable return of service, but one of the slowest men in big league tennis. Together they have achieved startling chemistry as a doubles team.

Raines Back At Seminole?

TIM RAINES

The return of star infielder Tim Raines to the Seminole High football team appears imminent, and apparently the only matter keeping Tim out of the lineup is his father's signature of approval.

Raines, who injured an ankle in the spring game and is hoping to land a professional baseball contract this summer, announced earlier that he was giving up football to concentrate on baseball.

"This was strictly a matter between Tim and his dad," said Seminole football coach Jerry Povey. "Ordinarily, anyone who quits, doesn't stand much of a chance of coming back. The rest of the team has made a lot of sacrifices the last month. But this situation is different. I couldn't ask him to go against his father's directions. In effect, Tim isn't being penalized for doing what his father asked."

Raines' mother brought his physical to school Tuesday, and the document requesting evidence of Ned Raines Sr.'s approval for his son to play was mailed out Wednesday.

"Tim won't play," added Povey. "But Tim has assured me he had things straightened out."

Seminole, Colonial Jayvees Vie Tonight

Junior varsity takes the limelight Thursday night as all six Seminole County high schools send teams into action.

Seminole is home against Colonial. Trinity Prep plays at Oviedo. Orlando, Edgewater is at Lake Brantley. Eustis is at Lake Howell and Lyman at Orlando Evans.

Expected starters for Seminole on offense include quarterback Peter Harby, halfbacks Michael Hayes and Mike Sutton, fullback Ricky Wells, ends James Casanova and Phil Washington, tackles Willie Jackson and Scott McKinney, guards Derrick Hayes and Wes Childers and center Scott Worley.

On defense, Seminole will counter with a front five of Worley, Jackson, Greg Davis, Marlon Mudd and Casanova; linebackers Hayes and Tony King, and secondary members Washington, Donnie Liverty, Sutton and Hayes.

The September Song Not Music To Bucs

In May, when everybody is a cowboy, a loss is just a number. But in September, when just a chosen few are cowboys, a loss can be a disaster.

UCLA QB Top Back Of Week

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The mail was pouring in and the phone was ringing incessantly, and Jim McKay, who describes himself as "not super outgoing," wasn't sure yet whether he liked all the attention.

Mets' Mike Vail out at home on tag by Giants' catcher Doug Rader in recent game.

"But," said the UCLA quarterback, "it's nice for the people back in my home town to finally know that I'm still alive."

Dankworth had left his home in Reno, Nev., five years ago to play football at UCLA. He had hardly been heard from since, as he redshirted one year and spent the others on the Bruin bench.

But last Thursday night, Dankworth was heard from in a big way, as he deftly led the Bruins to a nationally televised 28-10 victory over the Bruins.

Dankworth ran for 156 yards on 19 carries, completed three of four passes, and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass to tight end Dave Goltz.

"We just have to win," Tanner said after splitting a pair Tuesday with Minnesota — winning the first game 4-2 and losing the nightcap 4-3. "I don't know what Kansas City is doing but we have to win."

Tanner should know what the AFL West-leading Royals are doing — the same thing as his second-place A's. Starting last week, the two teams have been each other, almost step-by-step.

For the ninth-inning single scored Jerry Terrell, giving the Twins a victory in the nightcap. Dave Goltz went the distance for the Twins, scattering 10 hits and evening his record at 13-13.

Oakland's Claude Washington and Minnesota's Mike Cubbage roared.

Pressure 'On' A's

With time running out and a stalemate developing in the American League West, the pressure rests squarely with Oakland's opening-game victory. It was the first time the A's had beaten Minnesota in Bloomington since 1961.

Ford's ninth-inning single scored Jerry Terrell, giving the Twins a victory in the nightcap. Dave Goltz went the distance for the Twins, scattering 10 hits and evening his record at 13-13.

Barry Switzer, 15, trying to lead the Sooners to an unprecedented 5-0 record.

Taylor was a 28-year-old regular 12 years ago when the Phillies blew a big lead and the NL pennant in perhaps his last time around, he's doing what he can to get into the first World Series of his 19-year major league career.

Tommy John's chances to win the "Cy Young" award are about as good as Cincinnati's shot at the NL West flag.

John has mystified medical science by pitching this year with a reconstructed throwing arm. In a major operation, a tendon from his right arm was implanted into his left elbow.

John, 30, extended his lifetime record over Cincinnati to 5-1, scattering 10 hits and evening his record at 13-13.

Israel Fast Becoming Its Own Booming Arms Maker

By The Herald Bureau
TEL AVIV — Both the Israelis and the Arabs are spending more money on arms than ever before. The Israelis are now producing their own arms, and the Arabs are buying more from Israel than from any other country.

The Israeli arms industry has grown rapidly since 1973. It is now producing a wide range of weapons, from small arms to tanks and aircraft. The industry is becoming a major part of the Israeli economy.

Israel's most marked achievement has been in the production of fighter aircraft. The Israeli Aircraft Industries (IAI) has developed the Kfir, a highly maneuverable fighter that is being produced in large numbers.

Israel is also producing a wide range of other weapons, including tanks, armored cars, and missiles. The Israeli Defense Forces (IDF) has a reputation for being one of the most advanced and best equipped in the world.

As a result of its arms production, Israel has become a major arms supplier to other countries. It has sold arms to a wide range of nations, including the United States, France, and the United Kingdom.

Cook Of The Week

"Cake, anyone," tempts Alva Conway with her delicious Blackberry Jam Cake.

Sweet Treats From Conway Kitchen

BLACKBERRY JAM CAKE
Alva Conway enjoys all cooking, but she likes to bake most of all. The assortment of cakes and pies which come from her kitchen do not tempt her husband, Marion, who is not a sweet-tooth, but her son, Ted, and her fellow employees at Southern Bell appreciate her culinary talents to the full.

At family gatherings, Alva is always the one to fix the dessert. A particularly good-looking concoction is her old-fashioned Blackberry Jam Cake, dark and rich, with a pleasing crunch of pecans. Her Peanut Butter Pie is another palate pleaser, and for those with a really sweet tooth, they can't go wrong with Strawberry Mallow Pie or Buttercream Brownies. Savory Marmalade Out Flakes Muffins offer a change of taste, and are at their best hot and buttery.

Alva offers this tip to angel food cake lovers: Slice off the top of the cake and spoon in a good helping of peach filling; replace the top slice of cake and ice with heavy whipped cream mixed with some of the peach filling. Delicious!

Born and raised in Sanford, of Sanford-born parents, Alva has inherited the blue eyes and pretty blonde hair of her Swedish grandmother, a settler in the United States from Alaska. Her father, Alva Conway, is a beach fan, the Conways and Conas take their vacations together.

Employed as a plant clerk at Southern Bell in downtown Sanford, Mrs. Conway is a member of the Telephone Pioneers Club.

PLAIN
1 1/2 cup peanut butter
1/4 cup confectioners sugar
1 envelope Dream Whip according to directions on box; stir into peanut butter mixture.
Pour into pie shell.
Top with crushed peanuts.

STRAWBERRY MALLOW PIE
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 cup water
1 1/2-ounce package strawberry flavored gelatin
1 1/2-ounce package cream strawberries
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
12 lady fingers.

Combine 1 1/2 cups of the marshmallows and water in saucepan. Heat, stirring constantly until marshmallows melt and mixture comes to the boil. Pour over strawberry gelatin in a medium sized bowl; mix until gelatin dissolves. Add strawberries, stirring until fruit separates and mixture becomes syrupy.
Chill until mixture begins to mound from spoon. Fold whipped cream into strawberry mixture. Line bottom and sides of nine-inch pie dish with lady fingers, pour in strawberry filling; chill until set.

Garnish with sliced strawberries and reserved marshmallows.

BUTTERSCOTCH BROWNIES
1/4 cup butter
1/2 cup evaporated milk
2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
2 eggs
1/4 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1 cup vanilla
1 cup chopped pecans

Cream butter and sugar in electric mixer. Add eggs one at a time, whipping well in between at high speed. Stir flour with spoon and add. Add soda to buttermilk and stir well. Fold in flour, mixing alternately with buttermilk mixture. Add buttermilk, nuts, and pecans and blackberry jam.
Pour into three nine-inch well-greased and floured pans and bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 40 minutes. At 30 minutes, test with straw.
Cool in pans five minutes. Invert on cake rack and leave pans over cake for 10 minutes more. This insures a moist cake.
Ice with caramel frosting.

H.Q. Calls For Recipe

Jimmy Goes For Peanut Butter Pie

The ding-a-ling of the telephone interrupted a short late afternoon siesta.

"It really got a big kick from some of your articles in The Herald, and want your permission to use your peanut butter pie recipe in some of our publications."

"I yawned, 'Go ahead. It's okay by me.'"

Since the recipe appeared in The Herald in letter form to Rosalynn Carter, I have been bombarded with requests to repeat the rummy dessert, and understand a local eatery has it on the menu — same recipe.

This recipe is the grand finale, and as the raves would say, "never more."

The delicious dessert, which requires no cooking and can be whipped up in nothing flat, fit for royalty as well as presidential hopefuls.

PEANUT BUTTER PIE
1 black graham cracker crust 6 oz. pkg. cream cheese
2 cups confectioner's sugar
1 envelope Dream Whip
1/2 cup smooth peanut butter
1/4 cup crushed peanuts

Make graham cracker crust according to package directions. It isn't that I'm lazy and the crusts I make never turn out, but I use the ready-made crust.

Soften cream cheese and gradually beat in sugar with electric mixer until light and fluffy. Beat in peanut butter Mix Dream Whip according to package directions and blend into mixture (incidentally, fresh whipped cream and the whipped topping do not work).

Pour mixture into crust and top with crushed peanuts (tossing a handful into the mixture works beautifully). Refrigerate for several hours before slicing. If there is any left over, the pie will keep refrigerated for several days.

After a three-month Blegen trek which also carried them to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Walter (Bill) Gleason arrived home to carry on their community involvements and also enjoy the football season.

Several members of the Democratic Women's Club of Seminole County attended and were delegates to the Democratic Women's Clubs of Florida Inc. convention at Hotel Fontainebleau, Miami Beach.

Peggy Hattaway chauffeured several local delegates in her motor home and also two delegates from Winter Park. Jean Norris, second vice president of the Florida Democratic Women and president of the local organization said, "We really enjoyed the trip, had lots of good food and heard many good speakers."

Others attending were June Foley, Pip Slaback, Anna Mae Wells, Virginia Mercer, Corinne Campbell, and Dora Lee Russell.

Family Objects To Grandma, Beau's Sleeping Arrangement

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: This is one for the books, but I swear it's true. After 40 years of marriage, my mother-in-law left her husband and ran off with a younger guy. She just wrote to tell us that she and her fellow are coming through town and would like to stay with us for about a week. My husband (her son) says whatever I decide is okay with him. We have only one guest room to put up the two of them.

What do we do? Our teenage kids know about Grandma and her boyfriend, but can we have them sleeping together in our home?

In the past you've told parents if their college kids are shaking up away from home want to bring their roommates home for a visit, they have to abide by the house standards. But how do you handle a shacking-up Grand-

I learned through counseling to know myself and to accept myself. I discovered that what I felt, good or bad, was real and okay. I learned that approval was fine, but it wasn't necessary in order to feel good about myself.

I keep a motto on my desk at work that explains my attitude about life now. It says: "I

DEAR ABBY: How do you deal with a next-door neighbor who has a swimming pool and hold noisy parties well into the night?

Our bedrooms are on the side of the house near their pool and it's impossible to get any rest while they're partying. Their parties don't start until 10 p.m. — just when we're turning in. They are nice people and we like them, but their nocturnal pool parties are a problem for us.

Can anyone offer a solution? I can't very well sell my lovely home and move away.

PERPLEXED IN BINGHAMPTON
DEAR PERPLEXED: The best approach is to pay your neighbors a visit (during the day) and tell them frankly what you've told me. Much depends on the kind of noise they make, and for how long. Loud music can be turned down. Boisterous

Thomas, Batten Repeat Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Eugene Batten

Martha Sue Thomas became the bride of Ronald Eugene Batten in a candlelight, double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Clifton R. Hale at the Longwood Church of the Nazarene, Aug. 28 at 8 p.m. Galen Craig was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Zella Mae Thomas, 1941 Selma Rd., Longwood and the late Mr. Thomas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Batten, Matfield.

Given in marriage by her brother, Roy Thomas of Longwood, the bride wore a fall length Victorian period gown with white polyester organza. Her demure neckline and continuing down the full length of the front. The bodice and flowing A-line skirt ending in a chapel train was strewn with lace petals and seed pods. Her long sheer sleeves, all at the wrists, were also lace-trimmed. A Carnot headpiece trimmed with white lace and seed pods secured a short nylon illusion veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies surrounded by miniature yellow carnations and baby's breath. The bride carried two long stemmed yellow roses which she presented to her mother and the bridegroom's mother.

John Jordan, Alma, Ga., served her sister as matron of honor in a yellow gauze gown. The bodice was fashioned with fitted waist square neckline edged with cotton lace, and long sleeves ending in a ruffle. The skirt fell to the floor in three tiers of old fashioned ruffles, separated by bands of cotton lace. She wore a wide-brimmed hat trimmed with yellow bow and streamers down the back, and carried a bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaid Debbie Walters, Casselberry; Donna Taylor, Goldrod; and Judy Thomas, Longwood, sister of the bride, wore outfits identical to the bride, attendants, but in mint green.

Stephanie Jordan, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Rick Eckelvon, Longwood, was best man, and ushers were Mel Elkins, Longwood; Freddie Thomas, Longwood, brother of the bride; and Gary Batten, Winter Springs, brother of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was William Dell, Fern Park, nephew of the bridegroom.

Following a reception in the church fellowship hall, the couple left on a wedding trip to Hooton Island. They will make their home in Sanford. The bride is employed as a cosmetologist at Lona's Beauty Salon, Casselberry. The bridegroom is a finisher at Orlando Upholstery.

Women's Problem's To Be Aired

Included among the purposes of the new Central Florida Commission on the status of Women, is to serve as a medium to understand and solve the problems dealing with the status of women, and to serve as a clearing house for information of particular interest to women.

Family Flips Over Fondu

FAMILY SUPPER
CHERRY HANI FONDU
 A quick meal of chicken gives this fondu a special flavor.
 3 cups cubed (1/2 inch) partly skinned Italian broiler chicken
 1 1/2 cups cubed (1/2 inch) cooked ham
 1/2 pound sharp cheddar cheese, cubed (1/2 inch)
 2 tablespoons flour
 2 teaspoons dry mustard
 2 cups milk
 2 large eggs
 Rub sauce to taste in a 3-quart buttered round glass casserole (9 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches) layer 1/2 the bread, ham and cheese; layer the remaining bread, ham and cheese. In a small bowl stir together the flour and mustard; gradually stir in the milk, keeping smooth. In a medium bowl beat eggs slightly; add milk and sauce and beat to blend; pour over ingredients in casserole. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until browned and a knife inserted in center comes out clean - 45 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 5 minutes before serving. Makes 6 servings.

COMPANY DINNER
Roast Lamb GroundPuss
Apple Potato Curry
Salad Dressing/Tray Coconut Cake
Beverage
HOT AND SPICY APPLE POTATO CURRY
 Inspired by East Indian cuisine.
 1 medium potato (about 1 1/2 pounds), baked whole in skins and peeled
 3 medium apples, pared
 1 medium tomato, skinned
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1 large onion, chopped medium size (1 cup)
 5 fat cloves garlic, minced (1 tablespoon)
 1 tablespoon minced peeled ginger root
 1 1/2 tablespoons curry powder
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 cup hot water
 Mince fresh mint, if available
 Cut each potato, each apple and the tomato into 8 wedges. In a 10-inch skillet melt the butter; add the onion and cook gently until golden. Stir in the remaining garlic, ginger, curry powder and salt. Add the apple, then the potato and water. Bring to a gentle boil; simmer, uncovered, shaking pan several times, just until the apple is tender - 5 minutes or so. Sprinkle with a little mint. Makes 8 servings.

DESSERT FOR FOUR
Maple Walnut Sundae
Maple Walnut Sundae
MAPLE WALNUT SUNDAES
 The real thing!
 1 pint vanilla ice cream
 1/2 cup pure maple syrup
 1/2 cup coarsely broken toasted walnuts
 Scoop the ice cream into 4 sherbet glasses. Pour 2 tablespoons of the syrup and sprinkle 1 tablespoon of the walnuts over each scoop. Makes 4 servings.

EVENING REFRESHER
Mocha Angel Cake
Coffee
MOCCHA ANGEL CAKE
 If you're not counting calories, cover it with a mocha frosting!
 1 cup sifted cake flour
 1/4 cup sifted confectionery sugar
 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
 1/4 cup egg whites (from 12 eggs)
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup granulated sugar
 Sift together cake flour, confectionery sugar, cocoa and instant coffee. Beat egg whites with salt, cream of tartar and vanilla until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in granulated sugar, beating until stiff peaks form. Fold in flour mixture, about a fourth at a time; do not overmix. Turn into greased 10-inch tube pan; run a knife through batter to eliminate large air spaces. Bake in 375-degree oven for 30 minutes, until cake springs back when touched lightly with a finger. Invert pan over funnel and let hang until cake is completely cool. Yield: 12 servings. This delightful dessert comes from "The More or Less Cookbooks" by Maryellen Spencer (Van Nostrand Reinhold), a new paperback contribution: one cookbook contains recipes that never count a calorie and the other, recipes that cut calories.

STEAMED CHICKEN
 Low in calories.
 2 1/2 pound chicken
 1 cup bottled teriyaki sauce
 1/4 cup dry sherry
 4 slices (each the size of a quarter) fresh ginger root, minced
 4 scallions, thinly sliced
 2 tablespoons soy sauce
 blended with 2 tablespoons water.
 Dip the chicken; with a cleaver, cut it up; there are 4 pieces of breast, 4 pieces of thigh, 4 pieces of backbone. Dip the wings and thighs off the ends of the drumsticks. Use a steamer whose upper pan has a solid bottom with perforations at top of sides; if bottom is open, use a chaffin basketproof dish that will fit over rack in bottom pan. Stir together the remaining ingredients except the soy sauce mixture. Layer the chicken in the upper pan, spooning the sauce mixture over it. Add water to bottom of steamer; if bottom is open, use a chaffin basketproof dish that will fit over rack in bottom pan. Steam for 45 to 50 minutes.

Food Tips
 You can season meat you are roasting before, during or after cooking. Whenever it is added, the salt and pepper will not penetrate more than about 1/2 inch.
 Don't worry about chicken having dark bones. They're the sign of a young bird.
 For a fall dessert serve steamed walnuts with port - a ruby or tawny variety. But remember that port should be served at room temperature.
 If a recipe calls for sherry and doesn't specify whether the sherry should be dry, medium or sweet, it's safest to use medium sherry.
 A pound of cheddar cheese, sliced more than 1/2 inch thick, may be frozen. But expect the cheese to be crumbly after the freezer-storage.
 Five ounces of whole shelled almonds make one cup.
 As a general rule, when you are making more than 1 inch thick, fill the muffin-pan cups no more than two-thirds full. The muffins may be baked in a preheated hot oven for 30 to 35 minutes.
 Leftover roast turkey must never be stored in refrigerator for 4 or 5 days.

Chicken Loaf is lightened with oven-toasted rice cereal.

'All Chicken' Taste Wins Accolades For Loaf Dish

Light With Rice
 By CECILY BROWNTON, Associated Press Food Editor
 When a friend of mine told me she made a good chicken loaf using oven-toasted rice cereal, my response was, "What's the advantage of switching from the usual bread?" Her reply: "The cereal makes a lighter loaf." When we tasted her recipe our taste buds enjoyed it because they said it tasted like "all chicken."
NEW CHICKEN LOAF
 1 1/4 cups oven-toasted rice cereal
 2 eggs
 1/4 cup fat-free chicken broth
 1/4 cup milk
 1 1/2 tablespoons soy sauce
 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
 1 1/2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
 2 tablespoons finely chopped celery
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
 1 1/2 cups finely chopped skin-free chicken
 Cream Sauce, see below
 Line the bottom and sides of a 7 by 2 1/2 by 3 1/2-inch loaf pan with a sheet of foil. In a large bowl slightly crush the rice cereal; add onion and egg and the remaining ingredients except the Cream Sauce; stir together well. Turn into the prepared pan. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until a knife inserted in center comes out clean - 50 to 60 minutes. Turn out onto a serving plate; peel off foil. Serve hot with Cream Sauce. Makes 4 servings.
Note: The loaf may be baked in a buttered round 1-quart glass casserole (8 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches) at the temperature and for the time given above. Serve without turning out; cut in wedges.
CREAM SAUCE
 In a small saucepan over low heat melt 2 tablespoons butter; stir in 1 tablespoon flour. Off heat, stir in 1/2 cup clear fat-free chicken broth, heating smooth. Cook, stirring constantly, on moderately low heat, until boiling and thickened; remove from heat. Beat together 1 egg yolk, 1/4 cup light cream and 2 teaspoons lemon juice; gradually stir into the hot sauce. Heat gently but do not boil. Stir in 1 tablespoon parsley and salt and pepper to taste.

Pumpkin Bread Greet's Fall '76

By AILEEN CLAIRE, NEA Food Editor
 Get a running start on the mellow mood of fall by concocting a golden pumpkin bread. Make two loaves at one time and freeze the second loaf or give it to a special friend or relative. Canned pumpkin and sour cream give this bread a welcome moistness and the enriched corn meal, pecans and raisins add texture. The fall cider is a good time to make hot buttered cider for football weekends.

GOLDEN PUMPKIN BREAD
 1 1/2-cup can pumpkin
 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
 4 eggs
 1/2 cup vegetable oil
 3 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
 1 cup enriched corn meal
 2 teaspoons soda
 2 teaspoons salt
 2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1 cup dairy sour cream
 1/4 cup water
 1/2 cup raisins
 1/2 cup chopped pecans
 Beat together pumpkin, sugars, eggs and oil. Add combined dry ingredients to pumpkin mixture alternately with sour cream and water, mixing well after each addition. Stir in raisins and pecans. Pour into two well-greased 8 1/2-inch loaf pans. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven about 1 hour and 10 minutes. Cool 10 minutes; remove from pan. Makes two 8 1/2-inch loaves.
VARIATION: Substitute one 10-inch tube pan for two 8 1/2-inch loaf pans; bake in preheated 350-degree oven 1 hour and 25 minutes.
HOT BUTTERED CIDER
 Combine 1 quart cider, one 4-inch stick cinnamon, 8 whole cloves, 8 allspice berries (optional) and one-fourth to one-third cup brown sugar, depending on taste. Bring to a boil. Simmer 10 to 15 minutes. Strain into mugs. Top each with about 1 teaspoon butter.

Golden Pumpkin Bread makes tasty use of a seasonal favorite.

Corn Main Dishes Are A Tradition In American Eating

Columbus discovered... Columbus was the first to bring corn back to the Old World. Corn is one of the oldest of earth's cultivated crops. It dates so far back, between 5000 and 8000 B.C., that no one is certain of its exact beginning. Although discovered in Cuba, corn was believed to have first grown in South America. More recent findings, however, point to the Southwest portion of North America as its origin. The ancient Incas and Aztecs were primarily responsible for further cultivation and improvement of the plant, and before the colonies began, the American Indian had been growing corn for hundreds of years.
 Columbus and his conquistadors, returning to Spain from Cuba with samples of maize seeds, began the introduction of corn throughout portions of the Old World - the Mediterranean, Asia, later the Philippines and China. Yet, by the time the pilgrims settled the colonies, Europeans had not heard of corn.
 The early settlers were forced to depend on the strange grain when their own grains failed to produce. Quickly accepting the need for corn and cornmeal, they studied closely the variety of ways Indians had devised for its use. Continually they adapted to the use of corn, Americanizing their traditional English recipes. By 1736, when the first truly American cookbook was published, corn was clearly considered a staple.
 The popularity of corn, as both a table vegetable and as a grain, continued to grow and be influenced by other cultural groups migrating to the New World.
 The history, cultivation and availability of corn is a success story of the Americas. The corn of today and its wide assortment of recipes are the direct result of contributions made by our ancestors.
GOLDEN CORN PIE (main dish)
 2 cups biscuit mix
 1/2 cup cold milk
 2 tbsp. margarine or butter
 1/4 cup chopped onion
 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
 1/4 cup fine mince
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1 can (17 oz.) Cream Style Golden Sweet Corn
 2 eggs, beaten
 1/4 cup milk or whipping cream
 8 oz. cooked ham, cubed
 Combine biscuit mix and milk; mix. Roll out; line 8-inch pie plate with dough. Bake at 375 degrees F. 5 to 10 minutes. Sprinkle with cut-outs from margarine. Blend in flour and salt. Add corn; cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Combine eggs and milk. Stir rapidly into corn mixture. Add ham. Pour into crust. Bake at 375 degrees F. 30 to 35 minutes. Garnish with cut-outs from remaining dough, if desired, before baking.
 4 to 6 servings.
TAMALE PIE (main dish)
 1 1/2 lb. ground beef
 med. onion, chopped
 1 clove garlic, minced
 2 tbsp. chili powder
 1 tsp. salt
 1 can (17 oz.) Cream Style Golden Sweet Corn
 1 can (16 oz.) Stewed Tomatoes
 1 can (8 oz.) Tomato Sauce
 1 can (2 1/2 oz.) sliced ripe olives, drained
 1 cup corn meal
 one-third cup salad oil
 In large saucepan, brown meat with onion and garlic. Drain. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Pour into a greased 2-quart casserole. Bake at 350 degrees F. 45 to 50 minutes. 4 to 6 servings.

The United Way Sets Its Sights

One hundred, eighty-six thousand, five-hundred seventy-nine dollars. It's a lot of money. Even when presented more succinctly: $186,579.

Airborne Odysseys

Flying through the air with the greatest of ease seems to be the event of the day in Sanford: Julius Griffin, 12, of Seminole Gardens Apts., display his prowess for playmates Sylvester Jones, 12, (left) and brothers, Emory, 11, and Robert Griffin, 10.

Newton Vs. Saunders

Miller Newton of Pasco County, Democratic candidate for the Florida's fifth district U.S. House of Representatives seat, has asked officers and directors of the Southeast Bank of Orlando for details concerning a personal loan to his opponent in the Sept. 28 primary election, Mrs. JoAnn Saunders.

Newton has pointed to four bank loans totaling $20,000 and contributions and loans made by his opponent to her campaign war chest.

"I don't understand how the Southeast Bank of Orlando could loan $5,000 to Mrs. Saunders, based on the financial disclosure statement she filed eight weeks late with the Secretary of State," Newton said.

Suspect Hears His Confession

A 74-year-old Altamonte Springs man sat quietly with attorney Jack A. Nantz today as a 13-member jury and Circuit Judge A. Hosemann Jr. heard his tape-recorded admission to sheriff's investigators that he shot and killed Fred Douglas Hendricks, 42, about 2 a.m. on July 3.
