Thomas A. Edison All-Time Champion Among Inventors

to Samuel Winslow of Massachusetts in 1641 by the Massachusetts General Court, for a novel and improved method of making salt.

Since then nearly 3,250,000 patents have been grantedalmost all of them under the patent system provided for by the United States constitu-

The Patent Office here frequently is cited as the greatest storehouse of applied scientific and technical knowledge in the world.

In fact, the industrial history of the United States can be studied in a fascinating way by glancing through patents granted to such figures as Heary Ford, Alexander Graham Bell, Guglielmo Marconi, Samuel Morse, Elias Howe and thousands of others, But Thomas A. Edison still is the all-time champ. He received about 1,100 announces that opening day of the Little League, Saturday, April 2, has been proclaimed "Jimmy Leep Day." Collections taken at all eight of the scheduled games, 10 a.m. until 10 p.m., will be given to the Jimmy Leep Fund, he said. Eight year old Jimmy, who was a star pitcher with the Lake Mary Little League last year, recently underwent extensive surgery following a brain hemorrhage. Expenses for the surgery and hospitalization exceed $3,000 and the Lake Mary Church of the Nazarene, where Jimmy is a member of the Sunday School ass, is sponsoring a fund aising campaign to assist the family with these expenses.
