Espionage Conspiracy Brought Against Three

FBI Makes Arrests

NEW YORK — FBI agents arrested three persons today on charges they conspired to commit espionage for the Soviet Union. One was arrested while planning to slip out of the country.

The Justice Department in Washington announced the arrests.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover identified those arrested as Jack Soble, 53; Myra Soble, 52; and Jacob Albaum, 64. The obloes are married.

The FBI said investigation in the case dates back 13 years when the bureau began scrutinizing the activities of Vassili Zubilin, who reportedly once was a general in the NKVD, the Russian secret police. Zubilin, after serving as third secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, returned to Russia in 1944.

Soble, a naturalized citizen, long has been involved in Soviet intelligence activity, the FBI said, and at one time had other Soviet agents under his supervision in the United States.

Planned to Leave
He was arrested as he was making plans to leave the country after previous attempts had been thwarted through his failure to obtain a passport, the FBI said.

Soble entered the United States in October 1941, under the name of Abraham Sobolevich. He had a visa issued in Kobe, Japan.

He became a naturalized American citizen in 1947 in New York City.

The FBI said he made frequent trips abroad until in recent years the State Department refused to give him a passport.

Soble's wife, whom he married in 1927, arrived in the United States from Japan a month before he did in 1941. She also became a naturalized citizen in New York in 1947.

Albaum was placed in a labor force by the Germans in 1912 when they took over Lithuania. He entered the United States in 1917 on a visitor's visa.

He returned to Europe the next year and then reentered the country as the husband of an American citizen. He filed application (Continued on Page 9)

Group To Study, Plan Combined County Drive

Two Stratojets Collide In Flight; 3 Crewmen Found

HOMESTEAD — Two B47 Stratojet bombers collided in flight south of Cuba Thursday night and three of the six missing crewmen were picked up on a raft today.

The Homestead Air Force Base reported a second raft was also spotted by search craft but it was not determined immediately if any survivors were aboard it.

Six men were aboard the two planes, three in each, and all had been listed as missing and presumed dead.

Maj. R. W. Bryant, public information officer, said the three survivors "seemed to be in good condition" according to reports he received from the Coast Guard. He said they were being taken to hospital for routine checkups, but he did not know where.

The planes, based at Homestead in the air south of the Isle of Pines below Cuba. Each plane carried three crewmen.

All of the fliers had wives and children living off the base near Miami.

Rescue craft from the Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard converged early today on the crash area to begin the search for possible survivors.

Assignments, Plans To Be Set Monday By Theatre Guild

Assignments for the balance of this year and planning and assignments for next season will be the bill of fare Monday night for the Little Theatre.

The group will gather at 7:30 p. m. on the second floor of the City Hall for its meeting. All former and present members and interested people are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Weather

Partly cloudy to cloudy through Saturday; low tonight 55 to 62.

With six organizations represented at last night's meeting held at the Sanford City Hall to discuss a proposed United Drive, a committee was formed to start studying a combined drive for Seminole County.

John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce headed the meeting last night as increasing interest was shown in the possibilities of reducing the number of solicitations for funds.

The Salvation Army, Red Cross, USO, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Mental Health Association and other organizations representatives attended last night's discussion meeting.

Only opposition to the combined United Fund drive came from the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the Florida Heart Association. Representatives stated that they "could not participate."

Miss Sally Eastwood, Associate Director of the United Community Services in Orlando spoke at length on the problems of organizing.

Captain Robert W. Jackson told the group that the Sanford Naval Air Station Combined Charities Drive could not participate and contribute to local funds unless organizations were members of a United Fund or some similar organized drive.

Local civic clubs were well represented at last night's meeting with the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Pilot Club, Business and Professional Women, Seminole County Jaycees, Merchants Association, and Chamber of Commerce sending delegates to take part in the discussions.

Giving the history of United Chest drives, Miss Eastwood factually explained the organization, how they should meet their problems, and what should be expected.

"I urge that you consider being countywide," she said.

In answer to questions from both the Red Cross and Salvation Army, Miss Eastwood pointed out that each organization would set its own budget and make a contract.

"There is an agreement signed," she said.

However, she pointed out "if you're going into this with a lot of enthusiasm it will be a success; if halfhearted, it won't."

Captain Jackson pointed out "The U. S. Government has emphasized the point that unless there is a United agency we cannot support it. We won't be able to give a (Continued on Page 9)

Countywide Planning, Zoning Looms In Sight

Countywide planning and zoning looms highly possible following a special meeting yesterday of the Board of Seminole County, Commissioners to discuss with the County Zoning Commission the problems with which they are confronted.

Also present at the meeting were City Manager Warren E. Knowles and Planning and Zoning Board Chairman Bob Brown.

Knowles suggested the possibilities of a cooperative program of Planning and Zoning inasmuch as the problems of the City were the problems of the county as well as the problems of the County. "As the community grows," Knowles told the commissioners and the County Zoning Commission, "the fringe areas extend on into the county, so it is the concern of the City that proper planning and zoning become a program of the county."

"There is no telling where the growth will extend," he said.

County Zoning Commission chairman Raymond Ball said "The south end of the county is growing so fast now the county can't keep up with the expansion."

The problem mainly concerning the county now, as it was revealed at yesterday's meeting, surrounds the acquiring of proper legislation to allow countywide planning and zoning. Present legislation confines the county to an expenditure of $6,000 a year and within 500 feet of highways and county roads.

The Seminole County Zoning Commission will now formulate a legislative bill, in cooperation with City Manager Warren E. Knowles, for presentation to the Board of County Commissioners and the legislative delegation.

City Manager Knowles appealed to the group to consider the possibilities of a cooperative program of planning and zoning.

Boy Scouts Will Observe 47th Year Feb. 6-12

Boy Scout Week has been set for Feb. 6-12 in Sanford, according to a proclamation signed yesterday by Mayor David Gatchel.

With Mayor Gatchel at the signing of the proclamation was Donald Chase, chairman of the Central Florida Boy Scouts of America Finance Committee, Fred Murray, Seminole County Finance Chairman for the Boy Scouts, and Louis Girard, residential chairman.

Mayor Gatchel pointed out in his proclamation that the Boy Scouts of America will observe its 47th anniversary of the founding of the organization chartered by Congress of the United States.

The movement, through its four-year program, "Onward for God and My Country" seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens, thereby increasing its usefulness to the nation.

Sanford's Mayor urged citizens of Sanford to recognize the unselfish, patriotic service being rendered to our community by the volunteer scout leaders who bring this program to the youth of our city, and "in all possible ways, to further this at the great National Scout Jamboree this year."

Palmer pointed out that the State organization for the Jaycees was started in Sanford; and that the present Zoo was started then by Chief Roy Williams, Chief Maek Cleveland, and Syd Richard. He pointed out that the first animals donated were: a lion by the Lions Club, a panther by the Kiwanis Club, and an oscelet by a visiting circus.

M. L. Raborn Sr. told the group that his most memorable experience was the sponsoring of a circus in which $300 was spent and (Continued on Page 9)

Jaycee Achievements Are Recalled By 10 Past Presidents

Ten past presidents of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce told members of the organization of their accomplishments while heading the local group at a luncheon meeting held yesterday at the Sanford Yacht Club.

Floyd A. Palmer told the group that the Jaycee organization's first local president was the late G. W. Spencer. "It was formed in 1924," he said as he recalled the membership which formed the group at that time.

"Some of the projects and activities which we sponsored," said Palmer, included the appointment of a permanent commission to be appointed by the City for a system of beautification; a golf match between Rotary, Kiwanis, American Legion, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Senior Chamber of Commerce members; obtained the Milwaukee-American Association to train here, opposed French Ave. as the Dixie Highway; a vigorous campaign for the safety of school children; and organized a baseball civic league.

Postmaster Change Made Today; Allen To Replace Field

The office of Sanford Postmaster was transferred this afternoon from Joel Field to Guy Allen.

The change was made during a routine inspection by the Post-office Department's Inspection Service.

Field, appointed by the late President Roosevelt, was relieved of his position in the local post-office by the Inspection Service and the office turned over to the incoming postmaster, Guy Allen.

Allen has been associated in Sanford with the Stemper Insurance Agency. Allen, 40, was born in Sanford. In recent years he returned to Sanford seasonally but came back to make his permanent home here in 1951.

Field could not be reached by phone to determine what his future plans will be.

Advertisement for 'THE SECRET' featuring a portrait of a man and a testimonial about finding peace and strength through the church. The text includes: 'In another moment he will be getting up and walking toward you, eager to tell the secret of his calmness and strength. Will you listen? He has solved many problems, overcome much grief and temptation, been able to meet the conditions of every-day living, all because through the Church he has come in contact with the Source of all power. In the Church he has found companionship. Its worship services have brought faith, peace and serenity. Its activities have furnished an outlet for his creative abilities and energy. The Church has been a part of his life from boyhood. Through its various departments the needs of his life have been met. He has enjoyed the fellowship there and, looking back, he is able to trace his own growth. Have you learned his secret? Wouldn't you like to know it? What the Church has done for him it can do for you. If you are young, it will help meet your problems. If you are older, it will bring satisfaction and peace.'

Gary Cooper finds his son, Anthony Perkins, wounded on the battlefield after the youth has entered the fight to prove to himself that he was not a coward. The dramatic scene is from William Wyler's 'Friendly Persuasion,' starring Cooper, Dorothy McGuire and Marjorie Main, and introducing Perkins, talented young New York stage actor. The Allied Artists' picture based on the book by Jessamyn West, was produced and directed by William Wyler and filmed in color.

'Friendly Persuasion' Stars Gary Cooper

William Wyler's motion picture masterpiece, "Friendly Persuasion," opens Sunday at the Ritz theatre. The dramatic scene is from William Wyler's "Friendly Persuasion," starring Cooper, Dorothy McGuire and Marjorie Main, and introducing Perkins, talented young New York stage actor. The Allied Artists' picture based on the book by Jessamyn West, was produced and directed by William Wyler and filmed in color.

STRAWBERRY QUEEN ENTERS AZALEA CONTEST - The National Strawberry Queen, Miss Mary Jane Jackson, 18, of Plant City is the latest entry in the Palatka Jaycee's Azalea Festival to be held February 10th at the Ravine Gardens in Palatka. Mary Jane is sponsored by the Plant City Jaycees.

It stands as a tribute to the film-making genius of producer-director Wyler, already a two-time winner of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences awards, and to the artistic and creative talents of all concerned.

There are many faces to the over-all quality of the production, but perhaps the greatest contribution is the general excellence of all the performances. In addition to the stars, the cast includes Anthony Perkins, a newcomer from the New York theatre; Richard Eyer, Robert Middleton, Phyllis Love, Mark Riehm, Walter Catlett and Joel Fluellen.

"Friendly Persuasion" is the story of a charming, delightful Quaker couple, Jess and Eliza Birdwell, played by Cooper and Miss McGuire, and their three children, Perkins, young Eyer and Miss Love. It relates how the family suddenly finds its peace and happiness shattered by the backlash of the Civil War.

Governor To Be At Citrus Show

WINTER HAVEN - Governor LeRoy Collins is expected to discuss citrus and general Florida agricultural problems when he meets here with Secretary of Florida's commissioner of agriculture, Nathan Mayo, Friday, Feb. 13, as a part of the "Florida Agriculture Day" feature of the Florida Citrus Exposition.

The meeting of Governor Collins, Secretary Benson and Commissioner Mayo should result in pointing up some of the problems such as water resources, spreading decline, the Med fly and the expansion of our export market for Florida citrus. Lawless said.

Lawless said the governor, Benson, and Mayo would be presented to a nationwide TV audience on the Garry Moore (CBS) show Friday morning, which runs for 90 minutes over the entire network. Moore is bringing his daily shows along with his Wednesday night "I've Got A Secret" panel show to the Exposition beginning Monday, Feb. 11. This is the first time in seven years of TV broadcasting that Moore has "gone remote," taking his show out of New York.

While Exposition officials are making final plans for the big show which actually opens Saturday, Feb. 9, closes the next day, and reopens Monday, Feb. 11, entries for the annual contest to select the "Florida Citrus Queen" are being received and screened.

General Manager Bob Eastman said that because of a change in plans, calling for the new queen to be revealed on the Wednesday night Moore show, deadline for the contest has been extended to Feb. 6. "This will give us ample time to thoroughly screen all the applicants and make sure that we have the best in the state for the queen contest which is now the third ranking beauty contest in the world," Eastman said.

In addition to the $200 a month one year contract with the Florida Citrus Commission to represent the industry, the queen will get an all-expense European tour via Royal Dutch (KLM) Air Lines.

Nine basic varieties of Florida citrus will be featured during the Exposition in a renewal of the "fresh fruit contest," limited to commercial packs of fruit, Eastman said.

One of the attractions of "Friendly Persuasion" is the music, which was written by music director Dimitri Tiomkin and lyricist Paul Francis Webster. There are five tunes in the picture and all of them are guaranteed to set your toes tapping and leave the theatre humming.

The title song, which already is climbing high on popularity polls, is a song in the picture by Pat Boone, a new young vocalist who in recent months has become a tremendous record seller across the country. The other songs include "Indiana Holiday," "Marry Me, Marry Me," "Mocking Bird in a Willow Tree" and "Coax Me a Little."

Even in a lineup of outstanding performances there are certain to be some standouts and Cooper deserves special mention for his portrayal of Jess Birdwell. He scores with a sensitive but forceful characterization that can be compared only to his Academy Award winning performances as "Sergeant York" and as the marshal in "High Noon." This is Cooper at his best, which is very good indeed.

Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and Frank Sinatra bring you songs, laughs and romance in "High Society." M-G-M's big new musical is a flock of new Cole Porter song hits. Filmed in VistaVision and Technicolor, the outstanding attraction co-stars Celeste Holm, John Lund, Louis Calhern, Sidney Blackmer and Louis Armstrong and His Band.

Gay Musical Starts Sunday At Drive-In

Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and Frank Sinatra, each an Academy Award winner, topping the year's outstanding cast. Cole Porter's first original score for a motion picture in ten years. Louis Armstrong and His Band. Crosby and Sinatra singing together on the screen for the first time. Grace Kelly making her debut in a musical.

That's the unbeatable entertainment offered in M-G-M's production of "High Society," the big attraction, filmed in VistaVision and color and released by M-G-M, opens Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Laid against a glittering background of Newport's social world and its summer jazz festival, the story of "High Society" has a full quota of laughs in a plot revolving around a beautiful society girl who can't make up her mind about which husband she wants, the respective happy-go-lucky sportsman and stuffy careerman who vie for her affections, and the snooty magazine reporter who appears on the scene in quest of scandal but ends up in arranging for the right romantic parties to get together.

The Cole Porter tunes, sung and danced by the film's stellar trio and by Celeste Holm, playing Sinatra's amusing photographer sidekick, comprise nine numbers, ranging from romantic ballads to hot jazz. They include "You're Sensational," "Mind If I Make Love To You," "True Love," "I Love You, Samantha," "High Society Calypso," "Now You Has Jazz," "Little One," "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire" and "Well, Did You Evah."

Together with Celeste Holm, the cast co-stars John Lund, Louis Calhern and Sidney Blackmer, with other important roles played by Margalo Gillmore and Lyda Reed. The screen play was written by John Patrick, author of Broadway's "Teahouse of the August Moon," and the musical was directed by Charles Walters, whose last hit was "The Tender Trap."

Man Honored For Heroism

PITTSBURGH - Homer E. Terrill, 67, of Miami, was honored this week for his heroism in swimming to the rescue of a 12-year-old girl in spite of his own heart condition.

The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission awarded a bronze medal to Terrill, a retired test supervisor credited with saving the life of Virginia E. Sergison in Lake Portage at Pinckney, Mich. on Aug. 3, 1955.

Terrill had done little swimming in several years because of his heart condition, but plunged into the chilly waters of the lake from a boat when he heard the screams of the girl.

Terrill was hospitalized for three weeks after the rescue because of injury to a nerve and an artery in his head, caused by the exertion.

Improving Efficiency, Cutting Costs In Government Good Idea

President Eisenhower's request for a record peacetime budget calling for expenditures of nearly 72 billion dollars focuses attention on a truth that vitally affects all of us: When government costs rise, tax revenue also must rise unless the increase expenses can be offset by savings operations.

No one relishes the idea of higher taxes. We turn hopefully, then, to the thought of running the government less expensively. How can that be done—that is, without cutting the services we have come to expect of government?

One way to save federal funds is to reorganize the government so that it can do its job more efficiently. Fortunately, much effort has been expended to bring about such a reorganization. Progress has been made, and there are indications that the program of reorganization will move ahead this year.

In 1947-49 and again in 1953-55, former President Herbert Hoover headed Commissions on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. Reports made by these groups have spelled out in great detail the means by which the nation could modernize and improve the efficiency of its federal government. Proponents of the Hoover Commission reports say that if the recommendations are carried out they will make possible annual savings of more than five billion dollars.

Whether savings could actually be of that magnitude without unduly cutting some services is a moot point. It is beyond argument, however, that at least very substantial savings could be made. Some of the Hoover Commission's recommendations already have been put into effect. Much remains to be done.

There are honest differences as to some features of the reports. But the basic task of improving efficiency and cutting costs is eminently worth doing.

Airline Stewardesses

The millions who travel on airlines find the personality and efficiency of feminine crew members to be an outstanding source of pleasure. These personable and capable young women are ready to perform many services to insure the utmost comfort for everyone aboard. Nothing seems beyond their capabilities.

Recently this was demonstrated in striking fashion when the stark made its appearance on a San Francisco-Honolulu plane. When Stewardesses Alice Matinez and Lorraine Mikosh learned that a young woman passenger was about to have a baby they were thrilled but calm and, as usual, efficient. Acting under radio instructions from a physician at the Honolulu airport, they performed flawlessly in the midwife role and all was in readiness to take mother and son to the hospital when the plane reached Honolulu.

Charming and accomplished indeed are these young women of the air routes. So much so, airline management reports, that retaining their services for any considerable time is extremely difficult. It isn't long until Dan Cupid pilots their planes to a land-field called Matrimony.

Russia's Policy Line Takes Shape

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Russia's new policy line is taking shape rapidly in the Soviet Union, the satellite countries and the Communist parties of Western Europe.

The new policy, made necessary by the Russian occupation of Eastern Europe, is outlined in a report from the Communist Party of the United States.

The report states that the new policy is based on the principle of "independent Communism," which is a departure from the traditional Soviet line of "provisional approval." It is a "provisional approval" in the sense that it is subject to change at any time.

The report also states that the new policy is based on the principle of "national liberation," which is a departure from the traditional Soviet line of "national liberation."

Two leaders of the Italian Communist Party, the largest outside the Iron Curtain, went to Moscow last week for a conference. A delegation of the French party, which ranks next to that of Italy in size, is to go soon.

The big victory of Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's new independent Communist leader, apparently ended any hope that Russians might have that they could bring Poland back into line.

But in the remaining Communist countries of Eastern Europe, "Stalinist" leaders—those who oppose any liberalization of Red regimes—seem to be firmly in control.

It is evident that, under the new policy, they will try to discourage by any means necessary any attempt to break away from Moscow dictation.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to four questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I started War Orphan schooling as soon as I received VA's "provisional approval." Afterwards, vocational counseling showed that I picked the wrong course. I want to change to a new course more in keeping with my aptitudes. Will this count as one of the two-course changes the law allows me?

A. It will count as a course change if you want VA to backdate your monthly allowance to the date of the "provisional approval." If you wish, however, you can have the VA payments begin when you start your new course. That way, you would not be charged with a change of course, and you still would be entitled to the two changes allowed by law.

We All Get Sniffles!

By HERMAN M. BUNDSIN, M.D.

GET the sniffles?
You're not the only one!
This is the worst time of the year for colds. Right now, between 10,000,000 and 15,000,000 Americans are catching colds every day. All told, about 40,000,000 persons—one fourth of our population—have a cold in one stage or another this very minute. For we have more colds between early January and mid-February than at any other time of the year.

Who catches colds?
Well, just about all of us are vulnerable. But those living in the North-Central states have more than three living anywhere else. Chicago, incidentally, has the highest "common cold" rate in the entire nation.

East Coast residents have a below average rate. And those living on the Pacific Coast have the best chance of all of getting through the year with only a few sniffles.

Women catch more colds than men. (I don't mean to imply that women catch men. It's the other way round, they tell me). Seriously, twice as many women as men become cold victims each year.

If you are on the stout side, you are apt to have fewer colds than your thinner friends.

While a cold is one of the most injury,

Too Late To Classify

It is "show-window time" again in Florida. Communities and areas, proud of their accomplishments and development are intent on "showing the world." Community, sectional and state fairs and festivals are being staged throughout the state.

Granddaddy of them all, of course, is the Florida State Fair in Tampa and Fair Manager J. C. Hustinson reports that the big show is shaping up in fine style with better and more attractive exhibits and many new features.

Dates of the event this year are Jan. 28-Feb. 8, 11 big days and 11 big nights of thrilling entertainment. Already bursting at the seams, with expansion impossible in its present location, every available foot of space in buildings and on the grounds is being employed to tell the fascinating story of Florida's amazing growth and development.

Plans are well formulated to move the big show to a more desirable location where it will have Commerce reports a 50 percent ample room for expansion with adequate parking facilities. A developing Florida surely needs an expanded "show window."

Under the ample management of J. C. Hustinson and his capable assistant Mr. M. F. Twidell, the Florida State Fair has steadily improved in tone, and more stress has been laid on presenting an authentic picture of this state's agricultural achievement.

The growth of Florida as a great cattle state can be traced to the cattle show program carried on by the Fair during the last few years. While showings have not been as large as those at some other states, from the standpoint of quality they have been outstanding and served to improve cattlemen from everywhere. As a result millions have been invested in Florida's cattle industry. More recently, as a direct result of cattle exhibitions at the Fair and the good work of the Pan-American Commission, Latin-America now looks to Florida for its breeding stock.

But cattle is only one avenue served by the Fair. Our citrus, vegetables, poultry and dairy industries have all benefited. Florida's great industrial growth is evidenced by participation of more and more manufacturers who find the Fair an excellent means of bringing their products and services to the attention of vast numbers of people.

The same service rendered the state by our great State Fair is being accomplished in a lesser way by other colorful events that occur throughout the state at this season of the year.

At Winter Haven, the Florida Citrus Exposition tells a complete and comprehensive story of Florida's gigantic citrus industry. In Orlando the Central Florida Fair presents a vivid picture of one of this state's greatest and fastest growing agricultural areas. Space does not permit the individual listing of all such events, but all of them, no matter how small help to effectively tell Florida's growing story.

Tampa is fortunate in having her State Fair tied in with the famed Gasparilla Parade and pageant which is nationally recognized with such shows as the Tournament of Roses, Marti Gras and Cotton Carnival. Gasparilla is powerful magnet that brings thousands to the area during this gala period.

The 1957 Gasparilla pageant promises to outline all past events. Indications are, the city will be hard pressed to care for the throng attending this year. The Greater Tampa Chamber of Increase in registrations this year

Roche Home Scene Of Little Women Story League Meet

The Little Women Story League met recently at the home of the sponsor, Mrs. W. Roche.

Pat Morene conducted the meeting at which time it was decided to have a story telling contest to determine who will tell the story at the senior spring party. Three seniors will judge.

The group discussed going to Tampa to visit the leagues there. The program was then held with stories told by Ruthie Carlton, Judy Robb and Linda Williams. The girls were then served hot chocolate and cup cakes.

Tampa Fair Project Discussed By Club

The Pine Crest 4th club met Thursday with Miss Myrtle Wilson acting as teacher.

The meeting was called to order and the secretary read the minutes and called the roll.

Miss Wilson then discussed the Tampa fair and the club's project.

Conning The News

BY VIRGINIA CONN

Mary Libbey and Dot Mann were co-hostesses at a Brunch Thursday morning in honor of Dorothy Hauser, who is leaving. Her husband is the North American representative in VAIL, Vt. Welcomed to the group were Polly Johnson, the new rep's wife, and Jane Prudden. Mrs. Herbert Francisco was a guest. Mrs. Francisco is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Doris and Fran Francisco. Understand the party was informal and a lot of fun, as informal doings usually are.

Dodie King went into an Orlando hospital today for a minor operation. John Robert Price came home today after a tonsillectomy at Seminole Memorial.

Have very little to talk about tonight, because I'm not a news hound these days, it seems. Was sort of looking for that ASB to fill out, but I do have something on my chest, and this may or may not be the time to get it off. Anyway, here goes.

A lot of people have been working like dogs on the High Fever Follies. Must say that the Navy really came through on the talent, but tonight I'm not talking to my navy readers. I like to think that many civilians read this column, too, and am addressing this to them. This is not our home town, although we love it dearly. The main purpose for the Follies is to purchase an orthopedic operating table. This table will belong to your hospital—you may even need it yourself, although I certainly hope not. So if there is any quarrel with committee members, or the organization behind them, or even personality conflicts, it seems to me

Members Enjoy Games At Class Meet This Week

The regular monthly meeting of the Bethany Class of the First Baptist Church was held recently at the lovely home of Mrs. Jonnie Elam, with Mrs. Irene Harris serving as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Lenora Green, president, giving the devotional with passages read from the Old Testament. Teacher, Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, led in prayer. Mrs. Reynolds also read to the members an interesting article about the Bible.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Marie Lewis, after which followed a report on any sickness or distress in the class. A discussion of a project for the class was held and report on an old and new business.

After the "serious" portion of the meeting was completed every one had "great fun" playing the "hilarious" games prepared by the two hostesses. Delicious refreshments of cream pie and coffee were served.

Those attending were Mrs. Marie Bamberger, Mrs. Lenora Green, Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, Mrs. Eloise Hunt, Mrs. Sadie Nolle, Mrs. Dorothy Odham, Mrs. Florence Sienstrom, Mrs. Marie

Girard To Head Residential Areas In Boy Scout Drive

Fred Murray, local chairman of the Sanford Boy Scout Finance Drive, has announced the appointment of Louis Girard, Coordinator of Diversified Cooperative Training at Seminole High School, as chairman of the residential areas.

Girard, who is a former boy scout and troop leader, has been active many years in the Boy Scouts of America in the communities where he has taught school. Girard stated that he has accepted this responsibility because he believes in the scouting movement which seeks to train all boys in patriotism and character so that they will become more useful citizens of their community.

The local Boy Scout Finance Drive will be held during the week of Feb. 6 through Feb. 12 which coincides with National Boy Scout Week. There are presently 424 scouts registered in Seminole County. There are also 119 registered adults who have volunteered their services as leaders to promote the Boy Scout program.

The residential drive will be made simultaneously with the business district drive. Girard stated that he is contacting all mothers and fathers of Cub and Boy Scouts in Sanford to ask them to help in contacting residents in their immediate neighborhoods to secure funds.

J. M. Edwards Holds Firm Lead For SOKC Honors

LONGWOOD—J. M. Edwards holds a firm lead among the 23 kennels competing for top honors this season at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Such stars as Ed's Deacon Jones, the track's biggest winner; Sunny Choozy, Beach Fire, and Ed's Smoke Screen have kept the Edwards' string well ahead in the money-winning department.

With less than a third of the season yet to go, it will be a job to overhaul the well-balanced Edwards' kennel despite the powerful opposition offered by the best bookies in track history.

The Blackwell Kennel stands second in total amount of purses won during the first 10 weeks of the meet. In the third slot is Dr. Holcomb Jordan's kennel.

It's interesting to note that the top three kennels this season are all newcomers to the Sanford-Orlando track. What's more, six of the top leading kennels are newcomers, indicating just how fast the competition is this year since virtually all of last season's leaders are on hand again.

Others in the top 10 are: Herman Burkhardt, Tipton Valley Kennel; Paul Sutherland, Orville Moses, P. C. Collier, F. E. Eaton, and Jack Herold.

Mrs. Mary Kudlac Dies At Hospital Firemen Search Ruins For Six Fire Victims

Mrs. Mary Veronica Kudlac, 61, of Lake Drive in De Bary died Wednesday night in an Orlando hospital.

Coming here five years ago from Binghamton, N. Y., she was a member of the Christian Mothers and Catholic Women's Club, Sanford.

Survivors include her husband, Matthew John Kudlac, De Bary; a son, Matthew Robert, Orlando; two daughters, Mrs. K. C. Hite, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. E. R. Kukelka, Union, N. Y.; three sisters, Mrs. Michael Lesko, Mrs. Paul Matthews, Binghamton; and Mrs. Rudolph Chura, Johnson City, N. Y.; two brothers, Peter Zayac, Johnson City, and John Zayac, Binghamton, also two grandchildren.

Rosary was said last night at 8:30 at the Gramkow Chapel and requiem mass held this morning at the All Souls Catholic Church, conducted by the Rev. R. J. Lyon. Pallbearers: Ernest Walske, Harry Price, William Donaghy, Joseph Hansen, Joseph Kries and Joseph Santillo all of De Bary. Remains will be sent to Binghamton for final service and interment. Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Thirty-three others—29 of them women—were injured in the general alarm blaze, and at least 10 were reported in critical condition. Some victims tried to escape with clothes and hair afire.

The known dead and injured were engulfed by fire during a panic rush to descend a fire escape of the 30-year-old structure, situated about ten blocks from downtown New Haven. Fire Marshal Eugene J. Mulligan said "panic, as much as anything else," appeared to be responsible for the deaths and injuries.

Proposal Is Made To Require Active Recruit Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—Forty-seven state adjutants general have made a counter proposal to the (administration's) plan that would require all National Guard recruits to take six months active duty training.

The adjutants general proposed that guard recruits between 17 and 18 1/2 be given 11 week training and those between 18 1/2 and 25 six months.

The National Guard fears that the longer training for all recruits would discourage volunteers.

The adjutants general offered their proposal at a meeting called by the National Guard Assn. to develop strategy aimed at seeking congressional help in scuttling the administration's program.

At the same time, the administration moved to rally congressional support for its own tougher program.

President Eisenhower and Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker outlined the administration plan at a White House meeting of GOP legislative leaders. Later Republican Leader William F. Knowland laid it before the Senate Republican policy committee.

The National Guard said it favors "a period of basic training" for all reservists but believes it "should be of such duration as to be acceptable to young men." It said it doubts the six-month program would be "acceptable" to an "adequate" number of would-be volunteers.

The Sanford Herald Fri. Jan. 25, 1957 Page 9 Band Invited To Gasparilla Fair Feb. 4

The Seminole High School Band Parents Association held its last meeting recently in the Band Room where it was announced that the association will sponsor the University of Miami Band in a concert at Seminole High School Feb. 6 at 8 p. m.

The purchase of a drum for the band was approved and it was decided to set up a band uniform fund with the initial amount of $100 with 10 per cent of the profits from all future money making projects going to the fund.

Plans were also made for a calendar of local concerts for the Seminole High School Band.

At discussion regarding the recruiting of students for the band at Junior High School, Ernest Cowley, bandmaster, stated "there is a need for players in the reed section."

The band, according to an announcement made at the meeting, has been invited to the Gasparilla Fair Feb. 4 with expenses paid.

Bandmaster Cowley stated that band students Sidney Vilhon and Pauline Rams played in the All State Band Concert at the music clinic held recently in Tampa by the Florida Education Association.

Next meeting of the association will be held on the fourth Tuesday in February.

Seniors To Get Pamphlet Series On Marriage

The Mental Health Assn. of Seminole County and the First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. are cooperating in providing for the seniors in both the Lyman and Seminole high schools a series of pamphlets called "Milestones to Marriage." The nine pamphlets will be sent at 10 day intervals and the first one is now in the post office.

Leading educators and psychologists collaborated in writing the articles that deal with some of the questions of teen ages as they develop into maturity.

The News, publication of the Florida Assn. for Mental Health, states in its January issue that Seminole county is one of four forward thinking localities in the state that currently is availing itself of this new guidance for adolescents. The others are Daytona Beach, Fort Pierce and Miami, with 3,000 of them being mailed in the latter city.

High school authorities who have read the material emphasized of the high caliber of thought that is shown in them and the interesting manner in which the facts are presented.

The seniors are asked to have their parents become familiar with the information in the pamphlets, to discuss them with their fellow upper classmen and their teachers. The guidance thus provided, it was said, will help in getting along with each other and with adults as these young people approach maturity.

Chamber of Commerce President Clifford McKibbin said "I'd like to speak on behalf of some of the people who are asked to solicit—a man tries to maintain his business or an employe who is trying to maintain his status does not have the time to take part in the numerous solicitations."

Each organization spoke in favor of the United appeal with the exception of two.

The extreme interest shown in a United Appeal brought action in the form of setting up a committee to continue the study and to formulate plans. Two representatives from each civic organization will form the basic committee from which final plans will be made.

CHAPTER 28

"I'M GETTING PRISILLA some coffee," Bill said to Rita. "Will you join us?"

"Thanks, I've had plenty, I noticed you two with your heads together. I hope you're not trying to persuade Priscilla to pass up the sale of Lookout House tomorrow."

"I have persuaded her. Now don't fret, Rita. I asked her co-operation and she gave it."

"Do you realize you're asking her to run the risk of losing a lot of money?"

"If my plans don't get crossed up, she'll get her money—and I'll get my man."

"Alvarez?" Bill merely smiled, and Rita's eyes moved over his face. "How do you know I won't?"

"Because I trust you."

It was the nicest thing he could have said and it pleased Rita, but she would not let him know. "Really? Is that good business?"

"As an indication, perhaps. But I feel that I'm on safe ground."

Rita laughed. Suddenly she felt much merrier. She said lightly, "All this certainly puts spice into our visit. I never dreamed when we came here that we would be catapulted into intrigue—hurricanes—"

"And romance," Bill said whimsically.

"Romance?" Rita shrugged. "I still doubt that Dr. Devereaux really has romance on his mind."

"I wasn't speaking of Dr. Devereaux."

"Oh," Rita said. "I supposed you were."

"No, I was talking about you."

"About me?" Rita exclaimed, genuinely surprised. "That's ridiculous. There's nothing further from my mind at the moment."

She looked at him, smiled a little, and added, "You're talking to an adult woman, Bill, a woman who is perhaps a little hard-boiled about romance. Shouldn't you be taking Priscilla that coffee?"

Bill said, meeting her eyes, "You could be human, you know, if you'd let yourself be."

"I'm doing all right," she gave him a charming smile.

"See what I mean?" Bill said. "You look more human already. And may I say you have a beautiful smile?"

Harbor Day dawned clear and beautiful. The aftermath of the storm—broken limbs, uprooted trees—had been quickly cleared away and the town presented a neat appearance. There would be a parade in the morning, with bands from Tallahassee and Panama City. Gaily festooned stands in the park from which the visiting notables would speak—a Congressman from Alabama, a Senator from Florida, and the head of the U. S. Engineers Corps would all be on hand. There were long barbecue tables in readiness for the lavish dinner that would be served on the grounds. Later, there would be rides around the harbor, and eliminating the festivities, the grand ball at the Armory.

Visitors were pouring into town by car, and the harbor was filling with boats, among them several luxury yachts. All the business houses were closed. The big day was here and everyone was out to celebrate.

Probably the only business transaction in the whole town was the sale of Lookout House. Priscilla got the money in cash and she was so excited she said she couldn't talk without her teeth chattering. Following Bill's instructions, she had removed everything she wanted from Lookout House and turned the keys over to Mr. Todd, saying she must sell today.

Alvarez had seemed nervous this morning. He was expecting guests, he said, and must get back to his boat. Priscilla had apologized for being so dilatory in making up her mind, adding that now she wanted to get it settled so that they could be on their way.

"We could go now, you know," she said to Rita, after they had left Mr. Todd's office, "but Bill particularly wants us to stay here until tomorrow. You don't mind, do you?"

"I don't mind at all. That was a quick transaction, wasn't it?"

"Well, you know everything has been ready for a couple of days—I mean, Mr. Todd had all the papers ready for me to sign and I kept holding off. . . I wonder if Alvarez got suspicious."

"I don't think so. He may be suspicious of somebody, but not us. There's something in the air, of course, and if we wait until tomorrow, perhaps we'll find out what it is. I can't imagine what Bill thinks will happen today."

"I hope he isn't wrong about his hunch. He'll surely be disappointed if things don't go as he thinks they're going."

"I think he knows what he's doing."

"Do you like Bill, Rita?"

"If you mean like, I suppose I do. But please don't start imagining it's more than that. He's just another man; he'll never cross my mind after I leave here. And I hope you feel the same way about Dick."

It was about the middle of the morning when Pete stood in front of the grill, where he had just had a cup of coffee, watching Bill as he got out of his car and came up the steps to the sidewalk.

"How about coffee?" said Bill. "Just had some. I was watching that new boat anchored out there. Doesn't look like these luxury boats that are here for the festivities. Looks different."

"It is different," Bill said, looking off to where the boat lay at anchor. "It's a Coast Guard cutter."

"Bring in some of the big brass?"

Bill hesitated. Then he said, "They'll be around."

"I heard the Silver Song is moving out."

"Today?" Bill exclaimed. The surprise in his voice was evident.

"That's what I heard. I thought it a little strange, too, moving out on the big day."

Bill looked at his watch. "I'm supposed to meet some fellows here. . . I'm a little early. They're interested in the Silver Song—want to go aboard and look it over. Perhaps I'd better go down and find out from Alvarez if it's convenient."

"May I go along?"

"Why not?"

Pete had another cup of coffee with Bill, and as they finished, two men came inside the restaurant. They greeted Bill, glanced inquiringly at Pete and were introduced. Bill told them Pete was a first citizen of Apalachicola, a native. Pete did not understand the look that passed between Bill and the men. Something's up, he thought. I wonder who these men are.

Bill was saying that Pete wanted to go with them on the boat. He said, "He's O.K. I'll vouch for him." He glanced at his watch. "You fellows finish your coffee. I'll go down and ask Alvarez if we may see the boat."

"They both drive!"

TWIN TRACTION...

a Studebaker-Packard FIRST so good other cars will copy it

WHAT IS IT? Twin-Traction Differential gives you new pavement-gripping traction and new safe control impossible with conventional differentials. The secret lies in the fact that the Twin-Traction Differential delivers the major part of the engine's power to the rear wheel with the best traction—instead of the wheel with the poorest traction (as in a conventional differential). The result—roadability that's better in six important ways:

1. In ice, snow or mud, Twin Traction gets you out of spots where cars with conventional differentials would "spin their wheels."
2. In highway driving, it protects against skids that might otherwise occur when one rear wheel hits a slippery spot.
3. On sharp turns, it improves roadability by applying the major driving force to the inside rear wheel. This also tends to compensate for over-steering.
4. On rough or washboard roads, it reduces the rear-end bounce, sideways or swerve which results from a fast-spinning wheel suddenly hitting the pavement again.
5. When one rear wheel goes off the pavement onto a soft shoulder, Twin Traction directs the driving force to the other rear wheel, assuring safe, positive control.
6. In ordinary driving, Twin Traction cuts tire wear by assuring more positive traction.

Test it, yourself, today. See your Studebaker-Packard Dealer for a demonstration drive!

Backgrounds Of 5 Authority Members

FT. LAUDERDALE — The five members of the Florida State Turnpike Authority, appointed in January, 1935, by Gov. LeRoy Collins, have such diversified business backgrounds as farming and ranching, plant nursery and seed growing, real estate and insurance, manufacturing, and grocery wholesaling.

Besides his successful private businesses, each man engages in numerous social and civic activities.

Thomas B. Manuel, 57, a native of Greencastle, Ind., and a Florida resident for 32 years, owns a farm and ranch in Broward County. He was mayor of Ft. Lauderdale in 1937-39 and a commissioner in 1940, resigning to participate in World War II.

Serving in the Mexican Border Incident and both World Wars Manuel rose from private to infantry colonel in the field. He was a member of the State Road Board before becoming Turnpike Authority chairman.

Born in Jackson, Tenn., and a Florida resident for 32 years, W. Howard Frankland, 55, is president and treasurer of Pioneer Tire Co. in Tampa, his home; president of Hofman, Inc., manufacturer of rubber products; Pioneer Auto Supply, Inc.; Crestview Realty Co., Davis Island, Inc.; Tile Products, Inc.; Service De Gomas Pioneer, S. A., Havana, and Hampa Bay Marina, Inc.

A director of the First National Bank of Tampa and Cuban Metals Distributors, Inc., Havana, Frankland received the Civitan Award as Tampa's outstanding citizen in 1935. A past member of the State Road Board, he also is vice chairman of the Turnpike Authority and vice chairman of the Florida State Fair.

Richard H. Simpson, 52, Monticello nurseryman and seed grower, moved to Florida 46 years ago from Chicago. He serves as member on both the Turnpike Authority and State Road Board.

He was mayor of Monticello from 1937 to 1937, a state representative from 1939 to 1932, and speaker of the House of Representatives in 1942. Chairman of the Rules Committee twice, and Committee on Appropriations and the Committee on Finance and Taxation, Simpson was voted most valuable member of the 1945 and 1947 Legislatures in a poll of legislators. Newspaper correspondents of the state voted him most valuable member of the House of Representatives in 1947 and again in 1951.

Charles E. Commander, 46, was born in Florence, S. C., and moved to Jacksonville 32 years ago.

Ike Asks Lawmakers For Over $1 Billion For New Schoolrooms

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to vote $1,300,000,000 over the next four years to help states build new schoolrooms.

Mr. Eisenhower urged Congress in a special message to approve his school construction program "on its own merits, uncomplicated by provisions dealing with the complex problems of integration." An anti-segregation amendment was a principal factor in killing school aid legislation last year.

Enrollment Jump
Urging speedy action on his program, Mr. Eisenhower said the task of educating the nation's youngsters is "unprecedented in its sheer magnitude."

Joel Field Is Still Sanford's Postmaster

"It's just like it was before they came here," Joel Field, Sanford Postmaster said today as he referred to the visit made by three inspectors of the Post Office Department's Inspection Service last Friday.

Even though Guy Allen was sworn in as Sanford Postmaster, all action in the transferring of the duties was stopped late Friday afternoon after the Sanford Herald went to press.

Joel Field said this morning "In the process of the attempted transfer the inspectors counted the main stamp stock, checked the bank account and all monies in the post office in the process of regular business and I asked each inspector how he found each account and they said they checked out to the penny and before they left, which was practically immediately I asked them point blank if there were any recommendations or suggestions we could use to better serve the patrons of this office and the Post Office Department, and they all shook their heads in the negative."

Shortly after 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, inspectors notified the Sanford Herald that a change of Postmasters was being made.

However, a call to one of the inspectors in the party of three, shortly before 3 o'clock, caused both Joel Field and Guy Allen to be called into the office of the local Post Office where it was explained that the transfer had been stopped in "an unprecedented action."

Postmaster Field said this morning "I requested the inspectors to make a complete and thorough investigation in addition to the checking of accounts as the post office had not been inspected since Feb. 22, 1955."

"I was informed," said Field, "that a complete suspension could not be made without instructions from the Post Office Department." Joel Field remains as Postmaster in the Sanford Post Office today following the complete stop in the transfer which was in the process of being completed Friday afternoon.

Guy Allen, Republican Chairman for Seminole County during the 1956 election campaign, said this morning, "I don't know what the status is at the moment."
