California Sweeps Field In Skeet Shoot

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A straight-shooting Texan from old San Antonio, 41-year-old C. H. Poulton, won the national all-gauge skeet championship at the seventh annual tourney Sunday, besting 29-year-old Alex Kerr, of Beverly Hills, Calif., in the longest shoot-off the clay target has ever witnessed.

The Lone Star sharpshooter, after breaking 230 straight in the regular event to tie with the west coast star, powdered another 178 in a row to take the laurels, Kerr missing the 158th target, a high house clay from the No. 3 station.

Kerr, however, had plenty to cheer him up, despite the loss of the big title, which he also lost in a shoot-off a year ago at Syracuse.

The blond Californian annexed the sub-small gauge title with 99 of 100's new record; took the all-round championship with 643 of 650, one of the record pace; captured the world's long-run record of 545 with the 12-gauge to erase the 512 set in 1938 by Max Marcus, of Louisville, Ky., and won up by winning the captaincy of the 1941 All-American skeet team selected by Jimmy Robinson, of Sports Afield magazine.

The long run record of 545 is unfinished, the shoot-off targets not counting in the string.

Mrs. M. L. Smythe, of Aurora, Ill., made a runaway race of the women's all-gauge contest, breaking 248 of 250 to build up a five-target edge over the feminine foe, Mrs. Barry Patterson, of Chicago, finished second, beating 217-year-old John Hoffmann, of Lake View, Ohio, 24 to 22, after they had tied at 240 of 250.

Pat Laursen, of Akron, Ohio, champion of the women the last three years, wound up in a fourth-place tie with Ruth McCutchen, of Evansville, Ind., with 239.

Mrs. Smythe, who weighs only 98 pounds, also captured the feminine over-all honors with 527 of 550 with all-caliber guns, a new record for the girls.

Fred Missidine, of Sea Island, Ga., who entered as a professional, was shifted to the amateur ranks for one event, and then pushed back into the "shoot for glory" brigade, captured the professional all-gauge title with 249 of 250. A. R. (Bing) Crosby, of Detroit, was second, beating Grant Heng, of Chicago, 23 to 23 in a shoot-off after they had knotted at 24 of 50 of 100.

shooting mall order house, manitlan, won the professional over-all championship with 534 of 550, the most coveted title in the pro field.

ARMSTRONG AGAIN BY JACK STREIB

HENRY ARMSTRONG LIGHT AND VEGETARIAN WEIGHT CHAMPION ANGIUS TO MAKE A COMEBACK

ARMSTRONG FIGURES THAT IF COCHRANE BEATEN 25 TIMES, HE CAN MAKE A SUCCESSFUL COMEBACK

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Frank Kovacs, who can play superb tennis when he wants to was at his best Sunday and won the Eastern grass court singles championship by whipping Wayne Sabin of Reno, Nev., 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, before a gallery estimated at 2000 at the Westchester Country Club.

The Oakland, Calif., star, who often has trouble keeping his sense of humor under control for an entire match, was serious from start to finish. So impressive was his form that he scored 54 points on placements alone and he hit with power that demoralized his opponent.

Sabin, a first-year player two years ago, was the tournament "dark horse," reaching the final at the expense of top-seeded Edby Riggs. Kovacs was seeded third, the same spot he holds in the National rankings.

Kovacs' triumph gave California a sweep of the eastern singles titles for top-seeded Pauline Betz of Los Angeles took the women's championship in a grueling three-set final against Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke, of New York, 2-6, 4-6, 7-5.

Sabin, making a comeback this year after serving a year's suspension from tournament play because of a misunderstanding with the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association over expense accounts, showed only one important weakness. His service gave him trouble all afternoon and he was unable to hold it in the crucial games, serving two double faults in the final set. Sabin rallied to deuce the final set and then double faulted at 30-40. Kovacs went on to take the next game and set on his own service.

Pétain's Decision

Although it has not yet been revealed what decision the Vichy government has reached with regard to further collaboration with Germany...

It is difficult to understand how a man like Marshal Pétain, who has spent a life time in the service of France and achieved a Marshal's baton for his valorous defense of Verdun...

Pétain can pursue to the bitter end the appeasement policy which French leaders began before the armistice... He can collaborate with Germany to the fullest extent...

And if Hitler loses the war, France will have nothing to fear... The French people may not have it that way.

Progress Of Defense

A good deal has been written about the failure of America's war effort and undoubtedly strikes, bottlenecks and other handicaps have tended to limit production to some extent.

In order to see for themselves just what is being done, eight newspaper editors from eight metropolitan cities recently made a tour of all national arsenals and munitions works in the country...

The editors spent a brief week from East to Midwest observing tens of thousands of skilled Federal employees producing weapons and munitions in greater volume now than at the close of World War I.

What the editors saw in one week could have been magnified and duplicated over the vast extent of the nation for another thirty days. Among other things they saw orange picnic acid smoke pouring from the great powder plant at Charlestown, Ind., where a year ago field corn was still in the milk...

Traveling by Army speed, the editors saw finished airports which were fields a year ago. They saw the high lights of a vast and prodigious effort of which the general public has still to grasp the implication...

Plants, arsenals and establishments which have come into this already large production in such a remarkably brief time are anything but temporary. They are built to last until World War II has changed his mind about world domination...

A WELL-BRED MAN in love is careful of every public appearance he makes with his wife or sweetheart. In short, he covers these things:

1. He says for every country he says other woman. 2. Although he is gentle and sometimes the softest from embarrassment he has seen the slightest show of love-making.

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN

By JOE HENDRICKS

FLORIDA'S "VALLEY OF THE NILE"—KISSIMMEE

On the Day of this writing I have read an editorial in the Orlando Sentinel under the title, "Now is the Time for Gentlemen to Act". In the editorial the Sentinel discusses the fertile soil of the St. Johns and Kissimmee River Valleys and points out the fact that these valleys have been flooded and that at least 100,000 head of cattle have been affected by high water.

The Sentinel goes on to say it is time to call upon the Congressmen and Senators to aid in the fact that the gentlemen should make a tour of inspection in the affected areas should form an association and promote a district with the power to levy a tax on all cattle slaughter.

Senator Claude Pepper and I have been in Washington. Not yet a year we had an approval of an important Rivers and Harbors project until local interests were ready to cooperate. St. Augustine tried for over fifty years to get an inlet. They got it when they formed a district and offered financial cooperation.

Stewart Says

New Will U. S. Regard Stalin If Axis Loses

By CHARLES F. STEWART, Central Press Columnist. WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(AP) —Stewart's Russia continues to see up a fairly effective fight against the Nazis—perhaps re-organizing more or less but still keeping Harry Shuler's forces too busy occupied in their eastern front to strike out furiously in any other direction.

What, then, is going to be our subsequent policy toward the Soviet Union? Stewart's pre-eminently representative of Communism. It's only a matter of weeks since we considered him (and, at least, of the bloodiest tyrants in creation. The State department would barely associate with his Washington ambassador, Constantine Komaroff. Secretary Hull and Undersecretary Walter give Constantine the cold hand every time he calls on us.

Albright, suppose the war ends satisfactorily to the democrats, with the Russians entitled to a good bit of the credit for it. Will the other democrats will be under no small amount of obligation to us.

But how about Joe Stalin—and the Communist party? No true, Joe didn't jump into the ranks because of any personal sympathy in his personal opinion. He didn't jump in at all. He was jumped ON. All the same, he did the rest of the Communists as well as he, and, though by no choice of their own, in the same line that the democrats are on.

At the outset both John Bull and Uncle Sam were at pains to make it clear that they're not pro-Communist (they're pro-Communist) but a business of their own. They're more so than their anti-Communist part at present.

A political commissar's job is to keep an eye on Russia's military, and give notice of it to Moscow, enabling the OGPU to liquidate the movement's leaders in its capacity.

The dispatch of these civilian commissars to the front was interpreted as meaning that, maybe they had discerned symptoms of Communist tendencies in the Russian army.

Longest Pipeline In World To Be Built WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(AP) —Plans for the longest pipeline in the world, to pump crude oil 1820 miles from Texas and Louisiana to the New York-Philadelphia area at the rate of 250,000 barrels a day, were announced Monday by Secretary of the Interior Ickes on behalf of 11 large oil companies. An immediate start is planned on the $80,000,000 project but its completion will take nine months and Ickes warned that it would not solve the immediate petroleum shortage in the east caused by the diversion of 50 United States tankers to British uses. At the same time Ickes warned that there still was serious danger of a coal shortage due to limited transportation facilities. The transportation situation already was "tight," he said, and a shortage would develop if Fall seasonal demand disarranged it.

NOW Is The Time To Buy Your New or Used Car --- While Easy Terms Are Still Available!

Curb on Installment Buying In America Is Ordered By President

Other reasons you should buy your new or used car now: 1. On account of large increases in cost of materials and labor and tremendous decrease in automobile production, the cost of cars will undoubtedly be much higher than present prices. 2. The new schedule of excise taxes now under consideration by Congress contemplates a 100% increase in Federal excise taxes on both new and used automobiles. This new tax will become effective probably in less than thirty days. 3. For the 12-months period beginning August 1st, new installment will probably be curtailed 25% or more.
