

Little Public Inconvenience At Start Half-Million Phone Workers Strike

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A strike by some 500,000 workers in the Bell telephone system began this morning with the prediction it would last for at least two weeks. There was little public inconvenience at the start of the action.

Pickets were up early at many Bell plants and Western Electric facilities, many even before the 6 a.m. EDT deadline.

Comprehensive union ratification procedures guarantee the strike, expected to involve 500,000 workers, will last two weeks after any tentative agreement, which is not in sight despite a last-minute contract offer Tuesday by management.

Because telephones are so highly automated, calls will continue to go through until lack of maintenance causes breakdowns.

In strike-affected areas most new telephone installations ceased, as did repair service on all but government-operated telephones essential for national security.

The strike by the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America and allied unions is over wages and fringe issues including the CWA's demand for an agency shop and the company's alleged "anti-feminist" job policies.

Last May 23, the union rejected a three-year wage and benefit package the company said amounted to a 30-per-cent increase, including a 17-per-cent boost in wages alone. Current pay ranges from tops of $118 for operators to $193 for craftsmen.

Bell's parent company, American Telephone and Telegraph Co., said Tuesday it had a new offer. Terms were not released, but in a statement the C & P Telephone Co. of Washington said it was presenting a pact for consideration "totaling more than 30 per cent in wages and fringes" over three years.

A C & P spokesman said the offer provided for a 16-per-cent boost in the first year, but he did not give full details.

County Wielding Knife In Budgetary Requests

By LARRY NEELY
The Seminole County commissioners have tentatively trimmed $153,619 from budget requests that totaled $849,119. The commissioners still have more than half of the budget to review and they have not yet begun final considerations of the county's two largest budget items, the sheriff's department and the road department.

Sheriff John Polk upped his request by $2,600 this morning, which is above his previous record request of $288,017. The additions to his request are for a hood over the cooking stove in the jail and air conditioning for the jail. The stove hood is requested to meet updated insurance requirements.

Polk said the air conditioning is necessary to prevent occurrences similar to those being experienced at the Orange County jail in Orlando. Polk added the temperature gets unbearably hot in the jail during the summertime. He said one prisoner, who was transferred to the jail from the Orange County jail, told inmates of what is going on at Orange County jail and damage resulting from the ensuing activities.

The sheriff has spent several hours on three occasions reviewing his budget request with the commissioners item by item. At this morning's session of the budget sessions, Lt. Robert Polk also has requested five additional vehicles above the present 23 requested. He requested two additional marked patrol cars, two additional detective officers and cars and an additional crime lab.

For Seminole County $58,000 Saving Seen

By LARRY NEELY

Seminole County may not have to pay $58,000 for water pollution control and abatement study that the East-Central Florida Regional Planning Council and the Orange County Pollution Control director Mickey Sheffield have said they must have if the county and the municipalities in the county are to remain eligible for federal funds for water and sewage plants.

County Commission Chairman Greg Drummond told commissioners yesterday he had information to the effect that the study includes tests that need not be made. County Planner David Farr said he has attempted to ascertain from federal and state officials the tests that are required. Farr said he had been able to determine only that the county must have an analysis of pollution sources and potential sources, pollution effects and a plan to control pollution by 1975. He said he had not been able to find out any further details.

Seminole County has indicated that whatever has to be done along the lines of the pollution control and abatement study will be conducted by Seminole Junior College. Both Orange County and East-Central Florida planning officials have been resisting the move. However, R. T. Milvey, of Seminole Junior College, has indicated that the school could conduct the study for less than Orange County will charge.

Johnny Young Freed By Rape Trial Jury

Jury found Johnny Clyde Young "not guilty" of rape at 1 p.m. this afternoon. Deputy Johnny Wright said he would serve detainer warrants from Nevada and Levy Counties on Young.

Freeman also alluded to the microanalysis report, which was a duplicate of the original having been misplaced, and noted that "I wouldn't be surprised if the state wouldn't want to lose this." Freeman said that Dickey didn't understand the test and if he did the defendant wouldn't be in the courtroom.

Freeman testified that the victim was "cool" on the stand which was inconsistent with a rape victim in that it was unusual for such a person to speak above a whisper, and they are usually embarrassed.

Freeman castigated Sheriff's Detective John Wright by virtue of the fact that no fingerprints were taken or presented although the victim's prints identified that there were prints all over the blouse. Freeman questioned by the sheriff's partner had not taken fingerprints and why Detective Wright drove to Alhambra to arrest the defendant. Freeman cited the fact that Wright worked a 10-hour shift and said most work with someone. "You know that since 1963 in 'Dragnet'."

Freeman said that Dr. Thomas Largent's testimony indicated that the victim is not a virgin and had no cuts or bruises. "In fact, had a neat appearance when examined." Freeman said the defendant is married, has five children, a good job, and that his family had no support since his arrest on April 17.

Boot Camp 'No Rose Garden'

By WILLIAM L. CHAUZÉ
Associated Press Writer

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — "This is no rose garden."

That's how Maj. Gen. Carl W. Hoffman describes the Marine Corps Recruit Training Depot on this palm-tree-fringed island on the South Carolina coast.

Few of the more than 4,000 recruits in boot camp here would quarrel with the assessment offered by Hoffman, who took over in May as commanding general.

Thirty-nine young Leathernecks were hospitalized July 3 with kidney problems blamed on excessive exercise ordered by a drill instructor.

The recruits told a Marine in visiting officer the drill instructor exercised them up to 15 minutes at a time on several occasions over a 26-hour period. The exercise broke down muscle tissues and affected the kidneys.

Regulations prohibit the existence of a recruit during the first two weeks of training for longer than five minutes at a time, with a 30-second rest required halfway through. The recruits had been training two days when they were hospitalized.

The drill instructor has been assigned other duties, away from recruit training, and Co. Theodore Metzger, head of the recruit training regiment here, says the DI probably will face punitive action.

Metzger expects most of the recruits to return to duty but some may be discharged.

The incident stirred unhappy memories of a 1956 tragedy in which six recruits drowned in one of the island's tidal creeks.

A drill instructor, deciding his platform needed more discipline, had taken the recruits on an unauthorized night march.

Largely because of the drownings, the Marine Corps today is highly sensitive to charges that drill instructors are allowed to mistreat recruits under the guise of training.

The Marine Corps says the death march resulted in more control and restrictions being placed on DI's. Those controls and restriction are in effect to date, Hoffman said, but boot training remains otherwise almost the same.

A recruit at Parris Island was almost rescued by himself. During his nine weeks on the island, he is allowed no weekend passes, goes to no movies on base, may visit the base exchange only during the platoon, and talks with fellow recruits only during an hour of free time before taps each night.

Upon returning to the states in April, Seaman Fuller has been assigned a helicopter gunner in Ben Tau, Vietnam.

Fuller has been in the Navy for three years. His boot training was at Great Lakes, Ill. and he attended hydraulics school while stationed at Memphis, Tenn. After completing the hydraulics school, he was shipped to Rota, Spain, where he spent two years in aircraft maintenance.

After a 30-day leave, he went to Imperial Beach, Calif., where he is at present for hand-to-hand combat training. When his last three weeks of training are completed, Fuller will be sent to Ben Tau, south of Saigon, for a year's active duty as a helicopter gunner.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fuller, of 201 Boston Avenue, Altamonte Springs.

MERTON Carl Allen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Carl Allen Sr., of Sunland Estates, was recently sworn into the U. S. Army Security Agency. He is presently taking basic training at Ft. Jackson, S.C. Upon graduation, Carl will attend advanced communication and electronics schooling at Ft. Devens, Mass. Carl, a '71 graduate of Seminole High School, was the president of the FDE Club.

Strikes And Spares

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

So, do you ever have it to report for you in this week's Strikes and Spares... this Friday's woman's tournament; last week's Fire Cracker Special Tourney for the men...

It starts at 9 p.m. and promises to be an exciting evening with plenty of loud cheering emanating from the husbands who'll be on hand.

Thereafter, Sigmon was bowling against others who had also tasted defeat; but, in his chaste, he started to strike and disposed of 'em all until he finally ran into undefeated Orville Touchton.

The final score had Brewer shooting a 185 to the firing of Mrs. Messersmith's 142.

Well, it wasn't too long a period of time (this past week) until a matter of fact when again we had not one but two local legends taking dead aim at making it up to a 700 three-game series.

Well, Farelta "swallowed his cigar" and couldn't get any higher than a 181, but did finish with an enthralling 623 series.

There were two others who did shoot well also in this league that same night... Wayne O'Neal with his 204, 211, 204 series, and Dick Richards putting three of 'em together with 201, 212, 203/600 series.

That's what makes it the world's largest participation sport... the FUN of it all, and most important of all, new friends you'll make by being a member of a bowling league.

And we're being told that more than likely this league will combine with the folks who've moved into the area and are now working for Stronberg Carlson and that they'll build themselves into a 20-team league.

In the event you're in that category of folks who haven't had a bowling ball in your hands for a long time, and harbor reservations about again going a league cause you feel that you're "rusty" we'd like to tell you that there are free bowling lessons each Saturday from 11:30 a.m. till noon.

More Birds Dying

BELLE GLADE, Fla. (AP)—A mysterious bacteria which paralyzes the respiratory system and causes certain death has killed hundreds of birds and crippled scores of others in Lake Okechobee, officials said.

The Department of Agriculture's diagnostic lab at Kissimmee said Thursday the problem was caused by a cousin of botulinus bacteria, one of the leading sources of food poisoning in humans.

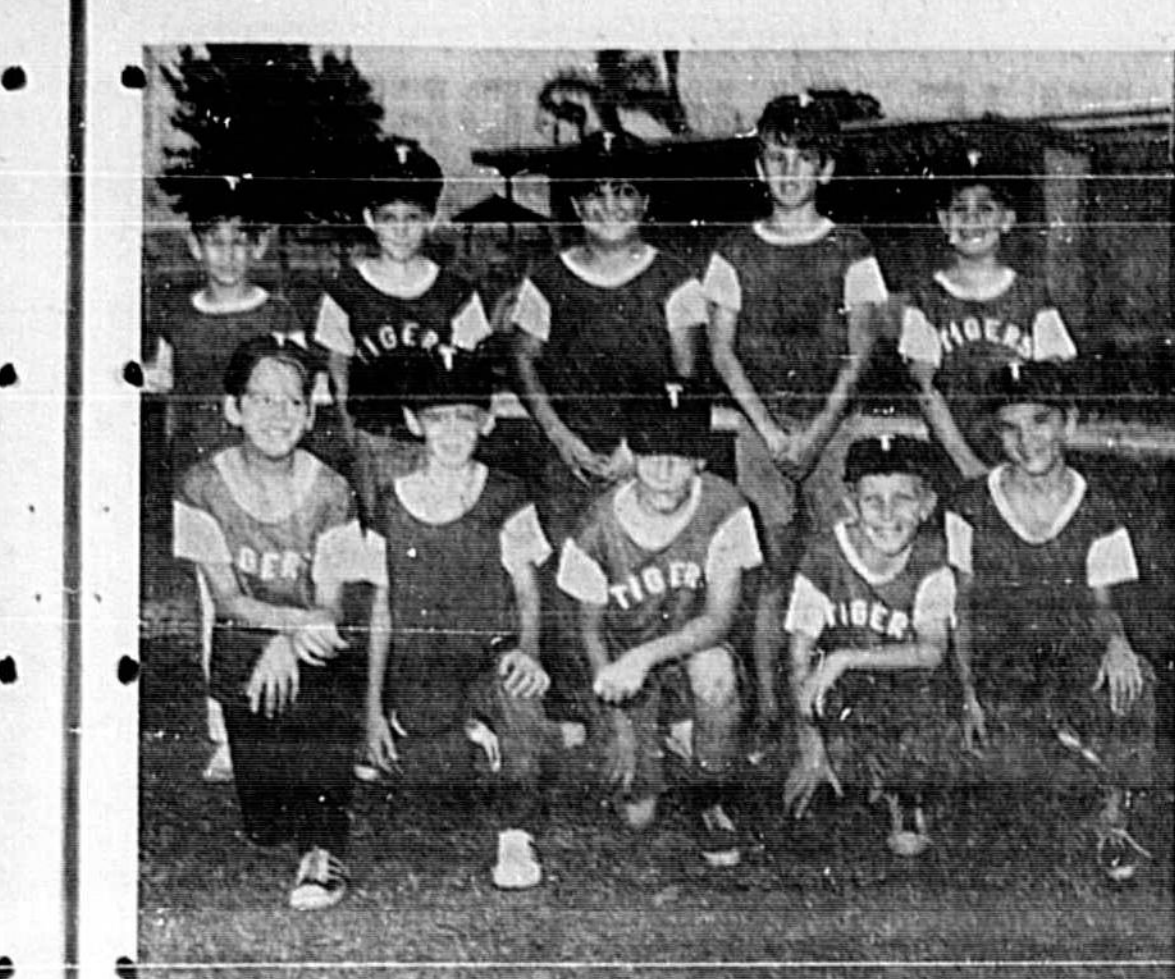

It was the second mysterious "killing" in less than two weeks in the state's interior. It has left more than 400 mallards, dus, coots and spoonbills paralyzed and dying along the lake's northeastern shore.

Blueberry Streusel Coffeecake

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

"This coffeecake isn't rich and yet it's so good!" That's a man's verdict on the Blueberry Streusel Coffeecake whose recipe follows.

One of the features that makes this coffeecake popular is its Streusel Topping. That combination of "crumbs" made with brown sugar, flour, cinnamon, butter and nuts always pleases; and this Streusel Topping is a generous one.

When we tested the Blueberry Streusel Coffeecake some of it was leftover. With a wide metal spatula we loosened this portion from the bottom of the springform pan, wrapped and refrigerated it. Before serving this portion we reheated it.

BLUEBERRY STREUSEL COFFECAKE:
2 cups unbleached flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup (1/4 of a quarter-pound stick) butter or margarine
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
2 cups fresh blueberries, rinsed and drained

Streusel Topping: see below
Grease and flour entire inside surface of a 9-inch springform pan.
On wax paper thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder and salt.
In a large mixing bowl cream butter and sugar; beat in egg. Add flour mixture and milk; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened, old in blueberries.

Turn into prepared pan. Sprinkle with Streusel Topping. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out without any batter adhering to it—45 to 50 minutes. If Topping begins to get very brown before cake has finished baking, cover loosely with foil.

Place coffeecake in pan on wire rack to cool for about 5 minutes. Run a small metal spatula round edges to loosen them; remove springform band. Cut in wedges and serve warm on dessert plates with forks.

STREUSEL TOPPING:
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup finely chopped pecans or walnuts
In a medium-size wide mixing bowl stir together the brown sugar, flour and cinnamon. With a pastry blender cut in the butter until particles are fine, then mix in nuts.

HAM LOAF WITH APRICOTS:
Bring the loaf to the table in the dish it was baked in.
2 large eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup milk
2 slices bread, crumbed
3 tablespoons prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
4 cups finely ground fat-free baked ham, lightly packed
1 can (8 1/2 ounces) unpeeled apricot halves
Thoroughly combine eggs, milk, bread, mustard and cloves and mix in ham well. Rinse a loaf pan (8 by 1 1/2 inches) with cold water; pack ham mixture into pan. Insert on an oiling glass baking dish (13 by 7 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches deep) or similar baking-serving dish. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for 30 minutes; pour apricot syrup over loaf and bake 20 to 30 minutes longer, basting a few times. About 10 minutes before loaf is done, arrange apricot halves over top. Makes 6 servings.

COMPANY SUPPER:

Pickled Peaches Are Easy

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

If you are a busy cook, pickling peaches the easy way may be right up your alley. The peaches are not preserved in jars; a batch of this pickled fruit relish simply goes into the refrigerator where it can be kept on hand for at least a week.

We served these peaches as an accompaniment for ham, but they are also suitable to offer with chicken. Take your choice.

EASY PICKLED PEACHES:
1 cup finely packed light brown sugar
1 cup cider vinegar
1 cup water
1 stick cinnamon
2 spoons (about 8 to 12 medium) ripe freestone peaches
Into a large saucepan turn the granulated sugar, brown sugar, vinegar, water and cinnamon sticks. Stir over low heat until sugar dissolves, then simmer for 5 minutes. Keep hot over low heat.
In another large saucepan cover peaches with boiling water and let stand off heat until skins loosen—a few minutes. Drain off water or use a large slotted kitchen spoon to remove peaches from water. Strip off skins. Halve and remove pits. As peaches are prepared drop them into the syrup.
Bring syrup to simmering; simmer peaches until barely tender—3 to 5 minutes. Cool.
Turn peaches into a large container, cover and chill. Before serving, drain and offer as a meat accompaniment.
Makes 8 to 12 servings—2 peach halves per portion.

DULUTH, Minn.—Hot competition from supermarket freezer cabinets is forcing in the snack industry, particularly from Jen's, Inc., America's leading hot snack company, according to the cover article in the current (June, 1971) issue of "Snack Food" magazine.

Basically devoted to the biscuit, cracker and chip industry, "Snack Food" features a case history of Jen's, Inc. and its marketing and merchandising program for frozen hot snacks.

In its article, "The Case for Hot Snacks," the magazine forecast: "Frozen heat in serve snacks, a bold new concept from pizza-poppers, will be allocated more space to faster-selling items, Jen's is out to prove it this year. Baking the flavorful, meaty, nutritious, meal-replacing frozen hot snacks in a new area to stimulate impulse purchases and simplify selection by the consumer, Jen's is selling in-ratio merchandising program, while allocating more space to faster-selling items, has spurred expansion of the hot snack section idea by proving its success in-store," "Snack Food" relates.

The article describes Jen's formation of hot snack sections in supermarket freezers to organize and consolidate snacks in one area to stimulate impulse purchases and simplify selection by the consumer. Chef Offers Haunting Flavors

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

"Most Americans will not eat those dishes with all the calories and the rich, rich sauces," said Jean Claude Mille, bayish-looking chef of New York's La Mistrà Restaurant. "So I try to go in for simpler cooking than I did in my native France."

The creations that emerge from Mille's kitchen still are pretty rich by American standards and have been making him quite a name around town. Patrons have been especially struck by the subtle, unusual flavor of his entrees.

Mille's specialties range from a veal scallopine garnished with capers to a velvety fish pie that must be as rich as anything created in his homeland. It features Alaskan red crab, sole fillet, scallops and black truffles in heavy cream. It would be difficult if not impossible for the average housewife on the average budget to duplicate.

There are other, simpler dishes, however, that have a haunting flavor, such as Mille's La Poullarde Carmaguaise, which is chicken cooked in herbs and served with a white wine sauce.

Le Mistrà's personable owner, Jean Larrringa, has also been trying to condition the American palate to the cheeses of France by offering a tempting array for diners to sample.

The cheeses include Boursin in the creme category, Camembert, Coulommiers and Brie among the soft-ripened cheeses; Penz l'Eveque, Reblochon, La semi-soft cheese, Theo, La Cantal, representing the hard cheeses; Bleu de Bresse, a blue cheese, Ste. Maure and Valencay, the goat cheeses. Finally there is the blue-wrapped feta.

Here are a few tips on the proper way to handle cheeses. Always serve them at room temperature, having removed them from the refrigerator about three hours earlier. And they are best accompanied by French bread, toast or unsalted crackers. With the milder cheeses, serve a dry white or rose wine, with zestier types, medium red and for the pungent ones a full bodied red wine.

And remember: cheese at any time is an ideal accompaniment to finish up a wine you may have been drinking.

To get back to Mille and his favorite dishes, here is the chicken and wine recipe:

LA POULLARDE CARMAGUAISE

One 1/2 pound broiler
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon fines Herbes
1/4 teaspoon thyme
1/4 teaspoon oregano
2 tablespoons softened butter
1-3rd cup dry white Graves
Sprinkle body cavity of chicken with salt, fines herbes, thyme and oregano. Hook wing tips on to back to hold neck skin and the legs together, then tie to tail. Place chicken in shallow pan, rub bird with softened butter. Roast in a pre-heated 375 degree oven for 60 minutes. Remove foil to serve platter. Pour off all but one tablespoon drippings from pan. Place drippings over medium heat, add wine and scrape and stir until brown bits are loosened. Boil one minute and remove from heat. Serve sauce with the chicken which makes about four servings. Good with a bottle of cold dry white Graves.

AFTERNOON REFRESHER

Rum Balls, Iced Tea, RUM BALLS

No cooking necessary!
3/4 cups finely crushed vanilla wafer crumbs
Sifted confectioner's sugar
1/4 cup finely chopped walnuts
1 tablespoon unsweetened cocoa
1 1/2 tablespoons dark corn syrup

2 tablespoons light rum
Mix together well the wafer crumbs, 1/4 cup sifted confectioner's sugar, walnuts and cocoa. Add corn syrup and rum and blend well. Using 1 scant tablespoon for each, shape into balls; roll in confectioner's sugar. Makes about 1 1/2 dozen.

Exclusive Restaurant Gives Way

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Writer

In one of the most arduous restaurants in the country, you can find roast beef, hash and Boston baked beans on the menu along with Stuffed Filet Mignon Favorite and Scallop en Coquille a la Rita. That is authentic New England — the traditional dishes alongside the French. That's the way it is done at the Rita-Carlton Hotel in Boston on Arlington Street. The clients are amiable but not given to table-hopping. The atmosphere is deliberately exclusive, well-mannered, relaxed and expensive.

At the entrance to the dining room which overlooks the Public Gardens until recently there was a card: "PLEASE — Tardiness is not considered as a substitute for six. Pants suits and coats are not appropriate and miniskirts are acceptable only on teenage girls."

William Eberol, the 42-year-old vice president and general manager, had the cards removed last April.

"It more or less just passed away. Times change — yes, even without the strident action of Women's Lib. Now it's a more relaxed atmosphere. Accepted. But that is all that has changed."

On the same mezzanine floor, there is a lounge where quiet service, small tables, an atmosphere almost like a private club prevails. For waiting, for luncheon or supper, for afternoon drinks.

Eberol, from Cornell's School of Hotel Management, also worked at New York's Pierre Hotel, the Los Angeles Ambassador and Nevada's Harrah's, hoped as a youth to enter diplomatic service.

"But there wasn't money enough. So it was the hotel business. Instead, I found I needed to be both a businessman and a diplomat. Yes, elegance, perfect food, service, all these delightful things, must make a profit. Diplomacy is needed, not only for the guests, but also to keep the help upward oriented and cooperative," he explains.

The Rita-Carlton was opened in 1927. Its policy has from the first been to maintain a standard of good taste and good manners. This is part of the Rita mystique.

"But customs change, of course. We never used to permit women alone in our ground floor cafe. They had to come with a male escort. But last February, 14 Women's Lib girls stormed the entrance, demanding tables. Our trusted headwaiter of many years, Joseph Vitelli, thought quickly, stood up the pressure, and quickly admitted them graciously. So ever since, women are free to enter with or without male escort. But oddly enough, not many come."

Dorothy IVENS'S BUTTER DUMPLINGS

Salad Bowl, Dumplings, Fruit Compote, Beverage

This recipe from "Glorious Stews" by Dorothy IVENS (Harper & Row) makes the tenderest dumplings you've ever eaten.

3 tablespoons butter
3 eggs
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 or 4 quart saucepan of salted water (1 teaspoon salt per quart of water)

Cream the butter until it is light and soft. Beat in the eggs. Stir in the flour, salt and pepper. This makes more of a batter than a dough. Bring the water to a simmer and make a trial dumpling. If it does not hold together in the simmering liquid, mix in a little more flour—1 to 2 teaspoons—into the batter. Drop batter by teaspoons into the simmering water. Sinker, covered, for 2 minutes. Remove with a slotted spoon to a warm, buttered baking dish. Dot with butter and sprinkle with pepper. For later serving, reheat in the baking dish lightly covered with foil. Serves 4 to 6.

Spicy Barbecued Spareribs

By AILEEN CLAIRE

Barbecued spareribs are a special treat among the finger foods a family eats during summer cookouts. Those watching calories will have to step counting the day the juicy, Spicy Barbecued Spareribs appear on the table. Serve with corn-on-the-cob, a salad and melon for a tasty meal.

SPICY BARBECUED SPARERIBS
 3 pounds pork spareribs, cut in serving pieces
 Boiling salted water
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1 cup dill pickle liquid
 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
 1 clove garlic, minced
 1/2 cup frank packed pork sauce
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 Add spareribs to boiling salted water; simmer until tender, about 1 hour. Meanwhile, blend remaining ingredients in saucepan over medium heat. Simmer sauce about 10 minutes; remove from heat and set aside.
 Drain spareribs. Broil 6 inches from source of heat or cook on outdoor grill for about 5 minutes on each side or until meat begins to brown. Brush the bony side with sauce and broil for a few minutes; turn and generously brush sauce on meaty side. Broil ribs until thoroughly glazed. Heat any remaining sauce to serve with spareribs. Makes 4 servings.

Homemade food makes perfect hourly welcome gifts for a new neighbor and tells a shut-in someone really cares. Homemade Banana Bran Muffins, Orange Marmalade and Chocolate Coconut Caramels are three nice ways to say "HELLO!"

IRISH MUFFINS

1/2 cup unsifted all-purpose flour*
 2 tablespoons sugar
 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 egg, beaten
 4 cups mashed ripe bananas (about 2 medium)
 1/2 cup milk
 2 tablespoons shortening, melted
 1 1/2 cups bran flakes with sugar-coated raisins
 (*Or use 3/4-cup sifted all-purpose flour; then sift dry ingredients together.)
 Mix together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and milk. Add to flour mixture; then add shortening and mix only enough to dampen flour. Fold in cereal. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes or until muffins spring back when pressed lightly in centers. Serve with butter and orange marmalade, if desired. Makes 16 medium muffins.
 Note: These muffins may be prepared at night and baked the next morning. Prepare muffin batter as directed and pour into greased muffin pans. Wrap in plastic or dampened cheesecloth; then in wax paper, and store overnight in refrigerator. Remove pans the next morning and let stand about 15 minutes, or while oven is heating. Bake as directed.

Open-Face Sandwich Fillings

By AILEEN CLAIRE, NEA Food Editor

Scandinavians have a special knack for fixing mouthwatering and attractive open-face sandwich fillings. A Lemon Egg Salad with Norwegian Sardines and a Cucumber Radish filling make very good summer spreads. They're refreshing but not too heavy when eaten for a light lunch or for snacks.

LEMON EGG SALAD WITH SARDINES
 1 medium lemon
 3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
 2 green onions, chopped
 1/4 cup olive oil
 2 tablespoons white wine vinegar
 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
 Pinch of cayenne pepper
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 package ground sardines
 1 can (1 1/2 ounce) sardines, packed in oil
 Boil whole lemon in very salty water until tender, about 15 minutes, then cool. Cut in half, roll out pulp, finely mince peel. In a bowl combine peel with chopped eggs and onions. For dressing, mix thoroughly oil, vinegar, dry mustard, cayenne pepper, salt, pepper to taste; add to egg mixture. Spread on bread or crackers and top with drained sardines. Makes approximately 1 1/4 cups of filling for 4 sandwiches.

CUCUMBER RADISH FILLING
 1 small cucumber, chopped
 1 small bunch radishes, chopped
 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 1/4 teaspoon dill weed
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1 can (1 1/2 ounce) sardines, packed in oil
 Combine cucumber and radishes in a bowl. Mix mayonnaise with dill weed and lemon juice; add to cucumber-radish mixture. Spread on bread or crackers and top with drained sardines. Makes filling for 4 sandwiches.

LADIES' LUNCH
 Seafood Salad
 Melba Toast
 Cucumber Lemon Dressing
CHERRY LATTICE PIE
 You may want to top servings with vanilla ice cream.
 Pastry for a 2-crust 9-inch pie
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 tablespoons flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 4 cups pitted sweet red cherries (you'll need 1 1/2 to 2 pounds fresh cherries)
 Shape pastry into 2 flattened balls; refrigerate 1 hour. Roll out the other to fit a 9-inch pie plate with a generous overhang; refrigerate. In a large mixing bowl stir together sugar, flour and salt; set aside. Roll out remaining pastry to a 19-inch round; with a pastry wheel cut into 10 even strips. With a slotted spoon and cherries (minus any juice) to sugar flour mixture, toss well; turn into pie shell. Weave strips, evenly apart, across cherry filling. Fold up edge of lower crust over ends of strips; pinch together to make a high edge to help keep juices from leaking. Bake in a preheated 425-degree oven on rack below center, until juices bubble and pastry is browned—35 to 40 minutes. If filling leaks, place over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils. Continue boiling over low heat until small amount of mixture will form a firm ball in cold water (or a temperature of 212 degrees), stirring constantly after mixture begins to thicken. Stir in coconut. Pour into lightly buttered 8 1/2-inch loaf pan. (Do not scrape saucepan.) Let stand until cool.
 Mark caramels in 4-inch squares with knife. Invert onto cool surface, turning marked side up. Cut in squares, using full length of long sharp blade. Let stand in cool place 2 to 3 hours to dry. Wrap each caramel in wax paper. Makes about 4 dozen caramels.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: In your column I saw the question of whether or not one who has earned a PhD degree should be addressed as "Doctor." Why not?

It irks me no end that in the United States only medical doctors are addressed as "Doctor." On the other hand, in Germany, any uneducated goose who happens to be married to a doctor calls herself "Frau Doktor."

IRKED Save your yrk. Any dumkoff can tell in two minutes whether the fruz married the title or earned it.

DEAR ABBY: Married for 12 years and we get along better than most married couples I've known. I work for an international company, and I've had four promotions since our marriage. Each promotion has meant moving to another state.

The first time we moved I noticed my wife had this old trunk filled with love letters, pictures, presents and junk from previous boy friends. She collected ashtrays from restaurants everytime she had a date. They are all

Horoscope Forecast

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1971

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early morning finds you with the urge to put in effect an interesting new plan. The remainder of the day and evening finds you preoccupied with details essential to increasing your financial well being as well as getting arrangements for the future in motion very efficiently.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19)
A good day to make financial arrangements so that you can take care of all your bills and have more in reserve. Plan the repairs to real estate that will improve it and make it more valuable.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20)
You are dynamic today and can easily get others to give the favors you want and need. Do some entertaining that will gain goodwill. Start saving more money for later needs.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
If you contact experts early you can handle those duties ahead of you and quickly. Study plans, then carry through nicely. Celebrate with friends in the evening.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Try to meet the expectations of friends and gain their favor now. Repay social obligations. Make new friends among acquaintances you have met recently. Break a bad habit if the queen would drop. The queen did exactly that. The queen did this. Now Ted will do it. Ted tricks in top cards. He could afford to test the spades without having to look for the queen of clubs.

Did Ted take a chance with his slam when he played the third diamond? Suppose the queen drew the 10 of that club. Ted would have taken the club finesse so as to be sure that West could not gain the lead and make his slam with three tricks in each of the four suits.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Make sure you handle those vicious problems well, then get into the civic matters that are important. State your aims to one in authority. You will then get the backing you need.

VIHGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have to study hard before making radical changes you have in mind. Plan a trip that will bring good results. Make sure no one is caught short on expenses. Allow for tips.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) It is wise to keep things quiet in order to help others gain their respect. You can handle a personal matter nicely. Mate in the right mood for recreation so go out together in the evening.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You can work more harmoniously with others and start on work that is ahead of you. Discuss it first with co-workers and then labor as a clever team. Take it easy tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Once your work has been completed, take time to be with friends for social and recreational pleasures that are appealing. Take only small risks and keep out of trouble. Discuss worthwhile aims.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have to be more conscientious in handling personal affairs as some are involved with our ideals. Try to please him instead of bucking them. Take extra steps with dinner tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Visit those who can help by giving information you need for greater success. A good day to make reports and obtain approval. Do important errands early.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... He or she will be one of those delightful young people who is most opinionated. Teach early to be more flexible in order to have more ideal dealing, with others, otherwise the stubbornness level could ruin a fine promise in this chart. Give the right spiritual and ethical training early and teach to plan time for practical matters and for pleasure so that the life does not become too one-sided.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Jacoby On Bridge

We have talked about Lightner slam doubles the last couple of days. Here is an example of Lightner slam play which should go to show that at the age of 75, Ted is still one of the great players of the game. The hand is an example of the best rubber bridge technique.

Ted won the club lead in dummy. He led a diamond and Jack to see if there might be a singleton queen around. There wasn't, so he led a second diamond and riddled dummy's 10. Jack had to lose the diamond finesse, he wanted to lose it, to just be could postpone hunting for the queen of clubs until later. The diamond 10 held and

Worry Clinic

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M. D.

CASE R-309: Ellen R., aged 30, is a Minnesota coed majoring in political science.

"Dr. Crane," she says, "I am worried about my parents' financial situation. I can't study properly because of this fear that they are going to get a divorce."

"For I love them both but they are beginning to fight like cats and dogs."

"Why does the divorce rate strike so many marriages of all people in their middle-40s?"

"Mr. Morris Husb., 60, Minnesota State Welfare Commissioner, predicts our welfare costs will run over a billion dollar for the next two years, starting this month."

"And he says the biggest slice of that $600 million goes for all dependent children."

"For he argues we need an extra $71 million for that purpose and says 58% goes to families broken by divorce, legal separation and desertion."

"So PLEASE cope on showing married couples how to stay happily married!"

"For it will save us children such heartache and actually reduce taxes!"

NEWSPAPER COUNSELING: Thousands of would-be divorcees have been stopped by this clinical newspaper column in practical psychology!

For we have the letters to prove that fact!

So be grateful that the modern newspaper has stepped in to the breach and helped prevent divorce, separation, desertion and school dropouts.

For it requires frank medical and psychological counsel to do that.

"Divorce usually starts in the bedroom," I have warned you repeatedly.

And then I remind the so-called innocent and ostensibly 100% grieving wives that they are 50% to blame for straying husbands!

This often arouses the ire of female readers, who then attack me via letters to their local editor.

But if you take a detached, scientific view and carefully analyze the advice given herein, they'd save their marriages.

For the odds almost always favor the wife if she will listen to my bedside talk-out-session her husband's paranoid!

Figuratively, the schools and colleges have fiddled while Rome burned, as regards the divorce and delinquency records of America.

But your newspaper does not fiddle!

It offers you sound, scientific sexual and moral advice by which to salvage your marriage and thus reduce the emotional trauma to your innocent children which a divorce inevitably produces.

For when I have taken pills with an associate new and get for better results than has been possible in the past. Then find the right means for recreation in the evening. Don't spend too much money."

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Forget annoying comparisons with others and start on work that is ahead of you. Discuss it first with co-workers and then labor as a clever team. Take it easy tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Once your work has been completed, take time to be with friends for social and recreational pleasures that are appealing. Take only small risks and keep out of trouble. Discuss worthwhile aims.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY:—One of my Pet Peeves is that so often I find a column in the newspaper offering money off on a certain item and then I cannot find the item in the store. I think every store in an area should carry such items, not just the big ones.

Also, I never seem to find a child's toothbrush, after the size for a 4-year-old, that does not fall down on the job after about a month of use. Consequently I have been forced to buy an adult's size for a child—M. A. S.

DEAR READERS:—We have received so many Peeves about coupons and redeeming them which all seems a source of irritation to many of the girls. Phyllis wishes they would have an expiration date printed on ALL of them—some do and some do not as the old unused ones could be discarded from time to time. Mrs. F. N. would much prefer having the manufacturers lower their prices and eliminate the cost of printing, handling and sometimes mailing these coupons. She says that it now needs and want an item it is going to be bought with or without the coupon. And on and on they go—POLLY.

We The Women:

I was late for a lunch appointment the other day because a neighbor girl gave me some dandelions. Such a gift quite naturally meant returning to the house in order to find a pin for my lovely corsage.

I apologized to my friends for my tardiness, shared my neighbor's gift, and the four of us agreed unanimously that the truly neat end to the ways of being loved.

Somewhat once said, "Only the aware are grateful." Thinking about my dandelions should help when I feel neglected, unloved or alone. They'll remind me to become more aware of what I've already been offered on a lonely day.

It's possible we spend too much time regretting that no grand gestures have come our way lately. We sign for the High Avenue, the big profits, the magnificent gifts, too often overlook the gestures of affection, the gifts of little or no material value.

A daughter bringing coffee to you on the patio.

The morning glazing your paper behind the screen door.

A smile shared with Gus by driver while two children hug for correct change.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1971

7:30-9 NBC The Men From Shiloh (re-run) Colonel Mackenzie has a long and unforgetting memory. A cavalry platoon shows up at Shiloh to warn that Indians are on the warpath. Mackenzie recognizes one of the soldiers, Sergeant Mulshy, played by John Saxon, as a deserter from his old company in India and gives chase when Mulshy takes off again.

7:30-8 ABC The Courtship of Eddie's Father (re-run) "I Thought You Thought" An embarrassing situation develops when Tom Corbett thinks his housekeeper, Mrs. Livingston, has designs on Norman. And Tom Corbett thinks it's just the opposite, that Mrs. Livingston has fallen for Tom. Somewhere in the confusion, Tom decides that Mrs. Livingston does not. It finally gets straightened out and Mrs. Livingston stays.

8:30-9 ABC Room 222 (re-run) "You Can Take a Boy out of the Country But..." Matt Palmer, a new student from a little town in Missouri, is given the typical going over, the butt of some cruel jokes. One of the pranks gets him into trouble, and a trip to the principal's office. Pete Dixon (series star Lloyd Haynes)

8:30-9 NBC Four in One: The Psychiatrist (re-run) "The Lawyer Trail" Best Sanford guests as an Indian who moves from the reservation to the city but finds he can't adjust to his new surroundings. His wife, played by Jill Haworth, appeals to Dr. Whitman (Roy Thinnes) to help her husband with his identity crisis.

10-11 NBC NFL Action: "Lovers" The title is misleading. We don't get a peek into the private lives and romances of the football heroes. Instead, viewers are shown the outside world. Merlin Olsen, the Los Angeles Rams back, pursues beach ecology in his spare time, and Willie Wood, Green Bay Packers safety man, works with photo gangs as a member of the President's Youth Council.

Or is it to another type ending? In the aftermath of the good news, comes reports that persons working to cut the miles of red tape that was necessary to bring the family together are being harassed by threatening telephone calls.

 DAYTONA BEACH — The "Bell's Angels" are on the move in Daytona Beach, forming a mobile picket line wherever they are needed.
 HOUSTON, Tex. — Candace Mosler, the vivacious blonde who in 1966 was found innocent of the Miami murder of her millionaire husband, marries a Houston electrical contractor.
 POMPANO BEACH — John Owen Russell, 21, bought a short-haired blond wig because employers were reluctant to hire a long hair. The wig brought him a job and a week in jail accused of robberies he didn't commit.
 TALLAHASSEE — President Nixon's decision to halt the controversial Cross-Florida Barge Canal was made to benefit oil interests and blunt attacks by conservationists, Secretary of State Richard Stone charges.

Court Will Decide Sunken Dock Suit
 By MARION BETHEA
 A civil non-jury trial over the sunken docks at the Sanford marina began this morning before Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi. Action was filed in the suit by Ashland Oil Company, parent company of Monroe Harbour, Inc., operators of the marina, to have the court determine liability for the sunken docks in the marina's west harbor.
 Allegedly the docks began to sink in November 1969, but no action was initiated by the City Commission in the matter. Operating lease for the marina was sold recently to Charles Rockwell, who also purchased the stock of Monroe Harbour, Inc., with the provision that he would not assume liability for the restoration of the sunken docks.
 No financial settlement is involved in the suit, simply the determination of the liability of the contract and responsibility of restoration.
 Judge Salfi began the proceedings on a factious note by eliciting the agreement from both parties that "you cannot sue the docks." It was disclosed that all had not sunk, that 40-45 modular units are on the bottom, with "some 50 old" floated out and removed to storage.
 William Hutchison, representing the City of Sanford, defendant in the suit, explained that the piers were individual modular concrete units held together by cables. Hutchison said that the city had no quarrel with Monroe Harbour over the removal of the docks by the plaintiff, who did so upon the advice of the installer. Total units were 240 . . . of these 45 sank and 58 were removed. The entire east harbor is intact. A few docks remain in the west harbor (16 slips).
 The plaintiff presented all documents relating to the marina, which includes the basic layout of station.
 Hutchison published his list of witnesses, which include City Manager Warren Knowles, City Engineer H. C. Conklin, O. B. Bodris, Jack Morrison, Bob Kelly and Arnold Hood.
 The first witness called by the plaintiff was Dick Bishop, a civil engineer from St. Petersburg, who came to Sanford Feb. 11, 1970, to inspect the docks as a result of his firm (Tampa Bay Engineering) being requested to send a representative.
 Bishop said that his primary purpose was to observe what had occurred and to make recommendations to prevent a recurrence. Bishop testified that he found the docks in the west harbor sunken, with some removed. The dock master, he said, identified this as a progressive sinking.
 Bishop said that he found that the docks were damaged by wave action . . . rubbing against each other, and that to prevent further such damage it would be necessary to erect a sea wall against the entrance to shield the wave action.
 Bishop, in answer to a query, said that he had made no determination in inspection of the docks that they sank as a result of lack of maintenance. He said that the docks obviously sank as a result of water getting into the boxes and that holes had been punched into the concrete below the normal water line.

Sheriff Has A Suspect
 Sheriff John Polk said today his office is investigating reported threats made to the wife of Commander Merle Harris, Post 8007 Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), the latest of which reportedly occurred today. Mrs. Harris is president of the VFW Auxiliary unit.
 Sheriff Polk said threats also had been made against Lawrence Burgess, Longwood VFW post service officer. Burgess reported his phone calls to the Longwood police, the sheriff added.
 Polk estimated Burgess had received three or four calls since June 20.
 This morning, after the latest threat was received by Mrs. Harris from a "low male voice," Deputy Ronnie Miller was dispatched to her Longwood home, Polk added, and advised if she receives any more such calls a tap can be placed on her line to locate the caller.
 The sheriff said a suspect had been determined but no arrest had been made, since all the investigation has not been completed.
 Polk indicated that caller is a mental case.
 According to Sen. Edward J. Gurney's office, a visa was issued Tuesday permitting them to come to this county. Mrs. Whittemore married Sinh Thi bassy at Saigon that her tentative plans are to leave Friday. However, her reservations have not been confirmed.
 While serving two years in Vietnam with the 815th Engineering Construction Battalion, Whittemore married Sinh Thi Throng Oct. 8, 1968. He was then discharged March 2, 1969, and transferred to the VA Hospital in Augusta, Ga., for treatment.
 Polk estimated Burgess had received three or four calls since June 20.

15-40% Increase Seen In 1971 Tax Rolls—Allen
 D. Guy Allen, Seminole County tax assessor, stated today that the 1971 tax rolls will be ready for review and open to the public on Aug. 2. Prior to that date all property owners whose assessed value is changing on the 1971 tax roll will be notified of their new assessment. Property owners will then have two weeks to file a petition with the Board of Tax Adjustment if they wish for the board to review the assessment which has been set by the county tax assessor.
 Most property owners are aware of the fact that the controversial ratio study conducted by the State in 1970 showed Seminole County assessments to be at 81 per cent of full just value. Since Florida law requires all counties to assess at full just value, Seminole County conducted a major review of all property for 1971 in order to bring the assessments in the County into compliance with State law.
 Although the increases in assessments vary in some areas, approximately a 15 to 20 per cent increase in the assessed value of their homes and vacant property owners in popular areas will make a higher percentage increase, in some cases as much as 400 per cent.
 A table, which was developed by selecting at random homes in several subdivisions throughout the county, shows some of the typical increases which will be notified of later this month. The table shows the subdivision from which the property was selected, the 1970 assessed value, the 1971 assessed value and the per cent increase.
 These few examples of comparative assessed values gives some idea of what has taken place throughout Seminole County from the 1970 tax roll to the 1971 tax roll. Property owners should be reminded at this early date that if they receive a notice of increase in assessment and they wish for the Board of Tax Adjustment to review the value set by the County tax assessor, they must file a petition with the board within 15 days after receiving the notice of increase.
 Forms will be available for filing petitions in the tax assessor's office after the notices are mailed to the property owners.
 (The Herald will publish the table in full in Friday's edition.)

Port Asks $57,000 Increase
 By LARRY NEELY
 The Seminole County Port Authority (SCOPA) wants to change the emphasis at the Port of Sanford from almost exclusive marine-oriented businesses to all types of industry.
 To do this SCOPA has requested the County Commission increase salaries for next year to provide for the hiring of an industrial liaison agent and increase the amount budgeted for advertising by $9,000.
 Port Administrator James Ryan explained the shift of emphasis as being necessary since the curtailment of the Cross-Florida Barge Canal project and limbo state of St. Johns Indian River Canal.
 Ryan presented SCOPA's budget proposal to the commissioners yesterday which amounted to $23,708 compared to the current budget of $166,889. The major differences in the anticipated expenditures are in salaries, office supplies and equipment.
