WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department told the Supreme Court today that a 1957 ruling on over-sea-marital has allowed civilians to go unpunished for crimes committed overseas with the armed forces.

Government attorney Oscar Davis gave this report in the high tribunal as arguments began on four cases dealing with the power of the military to try civilians abroad. He said there just isn't an "acceptable alternative" to the military trials.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and several of the associate justices showed keen interest in Davis' statement and asked for details. The 1957 ruling held that in a capital case a servicewife accompanying her husband aboard is not subject to trial by court-martial. The decision was reached in the cases of two wives convicted of murdering their husbands.

Justice John M. Harlan asked Davis if the armed forces have gone ahead with trials in non-capital cases since the high court ruling.

Davis said the answer was yes but that the military had been "submitting a great deal of reports." In 1956, he explained, there were 121 overseas court-martials of dependents and other civilians, but the number dropped to 35 in 1957 and to 34 in 1958. "The number of offenses has increased, however," Davis said. Warren asked if those not tried by the military were brought into any other court.

He said they were not tried at all. Davis answered.

Justice Potter Stewart wanted to know if these people committed "the less serious offenses." Davis said in general this was true, although some "minor offenses" may have been included in the unpunished group. But he added that "no capital cases or homicides" have gone unpunished.

Persian Beauty May Marry Rich Shah

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI)—Farah Diba, a home-grown Persian beauty, refused even to admit today she might marry Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi. But she made it clear they wouldn't have to drag her to the altar.

The 24-year-old Farah would neither confirm nor deny reports of an impending betrothal announcement. But the marriage reports were circulated by her relatives, court social circles and the nation's press.

The 39-year-old Shah maintained a royal silence although it was generally believed he would announce his engagement to Farah on his 40th birthday next Tuesday.

As for Farah . . . "Naturally you can't expect me to say anything on this matter or even hint anything until this matter is decided," she told United Press International.

"I will accept any decision that is made in regard to me, and I personally am not at all sure about the outcome."

The Shah admittedly has been hunting a bride to bear him a male heir to the throne since he dissolved his marriage with former Queen Soraya.

Neither Soraya nor his first wife, Princess Faqia of Egypt and sister of ex-King Farouk, produced a son. Princess Faqia produced a daughter, Soraya had no children.

Farah's relatives flatly stated the Shah's search for a bride ended in Paris last May when he renewed his acquaintance with Farah.

"We're beginning to feel practically certain the marriage will take place," one relative said. "The official announcement will be made within a month."

Farah is no stranger to Iranian royal circles. She is a close friend of the Shah's daughter, Princess Shahnaz. She also has a foot inside the palace door because her uncle, Isfandiari Tabatabai, is a member of the Parliament and is the Shah's adjutant. Her father, who died 10 years ago, was a foreign ministry official.

She also has a less-discussed royal connection. She is a step-niece of the Shah's former arch political enemy, former Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh.

U. N. Hits Out At Red China On Tibet Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—The United Nations gave overwhelming condemnation late Wednesday to Chinese Communist actions in Tibet and turned today to the pressing problem of world disarmament.

Jules Moch of France was listed as the principal speaker in the main political committee debate on disarmament. Also listed to speak were representatives of Italy, Greece, Romania and Cuba.

France and Italy are members of the 10-nation disarmament committee, formed by the Big Four foreign ministers, who will meet in Geneva in February to take up the arms reduction plans discussed before the 82-member world organization here.

Most veteran U. N. diplomatic observers admittedly were surprised by the overwhelming margin for indirect U. N. censure of the Peiping regime's oppressions of human rights in Tibet.

The General Assembly voted 45 to 9, with 26 abstentions, for an Irish-Malayan resolution calling for "respect for the fundamental human rights of the Tibetan people and for their distinctive cultural and religious life." The vote came after two days of debate.

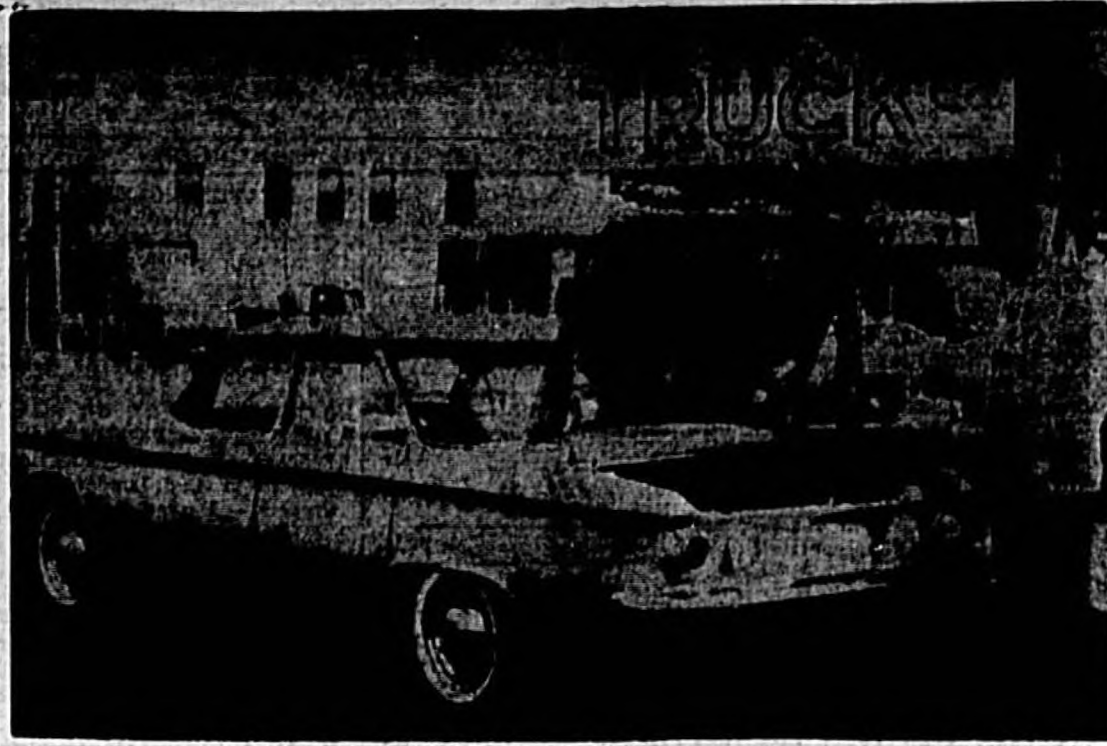

The censure was an indirect one. The motion did not even mention Communist China by name. The Peiping regime is not a member of the United Nations and many speakers, including U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, conceded there was nothing the organization could do to help the Tibetans.

The United States supported the resolution. Great Britain and France were among those which abstained.

Girls Coming Back: To Movies, That Is

BY VERNON SCOTT HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—There is good news, men—girls are coming back: To movies, that is.

During the past decade Hollywood has been a man's world. The big pictures, the fat roles, the razzle-dazzle publicity campaigns all were written for leading men.

Adventure dramas, westerns and detective stories—with occasional biblical epics—were the order of the day. Actresses had a difficult time of it, becoming almost extinct in the lists of box office attractions.

But the cycle is moving again, and nice, round, sexy, beautiful women are coming back—and one such luscious creature knows the reason why.

She's Angie Dickinson, a dazzling blonde, playing her first leading role in a new movie—taking top billing away from costar Peter Finch. Five years ago this event could never have taken place.

"The answer is simple," Angie said, a twinkle in her dark brown eyes. "Television has come to the rescue of movie actresses."

"All the westerns and detective thrillers have moved to TV, and the men who make movies realize they can't compete with the versions of adventure dramas.

So they're returning to what used to be called 'women's pictures.'"

Angie's theory holds up. New titles are reflecting the change—"The Nun's Story," "It Happened to Jane," "Cleopatra," and Angie's new Warner Brothers picture, "Rachel Cade."

"I'm very lucky this counter-revolution is taking place right now," the curvaceous beauty went on.

"The poor girls who were 25 years old 10 years ago didn't have a chance. I'm 25 now and feminine roles are getting better and more important every day."

County Begins Study To Find Way To Control Flood Water

Loch Arbor, Tanglewood Temple Terrace 'Critical'

The Seminole County Commission has authorized an engineering survey of three critical areas in the county to control flooding, Chairman John Krider said today.

The three areas termed "critical" by Krider are Loch Arbor, Tanglewood and Temple Terrace.

Krider said the survey is being done by the engineering firm of Lottor and Bush of Sanford.

The purpose of the survey is to determine what the county can do on flooding conditions in these areas and to "clean up" the critical drainage problem there.

Krider said that lakes in the county are at their highest level in 30 years and the recent rainy spell has added to the woes of residents in these areas.

County Engineer Bob Davis said this morning that the biggest problem now is that there are no outlets for overflows for some of the larger lakes in the area.

"I don't know what will be done if these rains continue," he said.

"We have the threat of many lakes overflowing unless the rains let up," Davis emphasized.

One possible way to alleviate the problem is installation of new pipes in these flooded areas that will have sufficient capacity to carry off the excess water in a reasonable length of time, Davis said.

Another serious problem, Davis said, is that many flooded septic tanks are not functioning and are creating a health menace.

Krider said the commission plans to take emergency measures when possible as they have been bombarded with complaints from all over the county.

A survey is being made to find the necessary width and length of a proposed ditch to drain the Temple Terrace and Tanglewood areas, Davis said. A path has been cleared for the mile-long channel to run from Tanglewood to Eastbrook in Winter Park where a ditch built by Orange County starts.

Even if Temple Terrace and Tanglewood residents decide they don't want to pay part of the ditch's cost, the survey information will be valuable, since ultimately a permanent drainage system must be made available to the south Seminole area, Davis explained.

If residents don't participate in a drainage system plan, a permanent system will be delayed for Temple Terrace and Tanglewood, Davis said. However, the county may pay for taking off the flood waters sooner, he explained.

The cost of a drainage district to residents of the area should be known in six weeks, Davis said.

Complaints about washouts and flooding should be made to the engineer's office, Krider said.

Living Costs Reach New Record High

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Living costs climbed to an all-time high in September, the government reported today.

Consumer prices rose for all major groups of goods and services except transportation. Food, housing, medical care and personal services all cost more.

The Labor Department's consumer price index rose four-tenths of a point from August to a September level of 125.2. The index is based on a 1947-1948 average of prices taken as 100.

The September index meant that a market basket of goods and services costing $10 a decade ago cost $12.52 last month.

The index has gone up in five of the past six months. It dipped slightly in August after setting a record of 124.9 in July.

The Labor Department's price chief, H. E. Riley, pointed out that some of the increase in recent months was seasonal. He said the outlook for October and November was for declines in food prices, possibly including big reductions in meat costs.

Van Doren Admits Giving DA Office Wrong Answer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan said today that Charles Van Doren has admitted he gave an incorrect answer to the district attorney's office when questioned as to whether he had received questions or answers while winning $129,000 on the television quiz show "Twenty-One."

Hogan refused to say whether Van Doren admitted receiving any questions or answers in advance of his appearance on the TV show.

Asked if Van Doren, in appearing at the district attorney's office, had given incorrect answers to the same questions asked by a grand jury, Hogan said: "You will have to conclude that they were in the same area."

Doren previously had told the grand jury that he did not receive either questions or answers in advance.

"I think he gave truthful answers today," Hogan said, referring to a 5-minute conference with the 33-year-old Columbia University instructor.

Van Doren, who said he met with Hogan of his own volition, told reporters on leaving the district attorney's office: "I'm sorry, I can't comment. I'm in a hurry. I have a class."

Years of a federal crackdown on TV quiz shows spurred major networks today to police their programming practices.

President Eisenhower got the clean-up operation into high gear Thursday after he ordered the Justice Department to investigate the rigging of television shows.

The president, at his vacation retreat in Atlantic, Ga., said that if true, the practice was deplorable and "a terrible thing to do to the American public."

The Justice Department in Washington announced immediately that "Appropriate action will be taken."

The Columbia Broadcasting System, first of the major networks to voluntarily police its programming practices, already has dropped quiz shows and give-away programs.

John A. Aaron and Jesse Zousmer, co-producers of the popular interview program, "Person-to-Person," resigned Thursday after CBS President Frank Stanton revealed the program was rehearsed.

Aaron and Zousmer accused Stanton of making an "unwarranted slur" about the program and requested release from their contracts. Stanton agreed and accepted their resignations.

"All I have asked you is that you inform the viewing public of the production practices on 'Person-to-Person' so that the program can be exactly what it purports to be," Stanton said in a letter to the co-producers.

The National Broadcasting Company, whose quiz shows have been the chief targets of congressional investigators, pledged its full cooperation to the attorney general in his investigation.

The National Broadcasting Company, which has not been involved in any charges, had no immediate comment.

In Chicago, Earl W. Kintner, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, said that thus far "there can be no doubt that the self-policing job was muffed and added that the question of self-discipline was basic to the network's survival."

Disillusioned Fighters Form Anti-Castro Underground

MIAMI (UPI)—The former commander of Fidel Castro's air force said Thursday an anti-Castro underground has been formed by former comrades-in-arms of the Cuban revolutionary leader.

The ex-officer also blamed Cuban government anti-aircraft fire for the death of two persons during a leaflet-dropping air raid on Havana Wednesday. He said the government attempted to make it appear the leaflet airplanes caused the deaths by dropping bombs.

Pedro Diaz Lanz, who quit Castro because he said Communists were taking over the revolution, said the object of the new organization was to "bring democracy to Cuba."

Diaz Lanz, in a gesture sure to draw the special ire of Castro supporters, said the name of the underground is "the 26th of July Anti-Communist Movement," Castro's own revolutionary party is named "the 26th of July," from the date Castro landed in Cuba several years ago.

Diaz Lanz said it was made up of "thousands" like himself who fought with Castro but became disillusioned because of Red influence.

Diaz Lanz refused to be drawn out on the specific aims of the new organization. He refused to answer the question of whether the movement planned to overthrow the Castro regime, or if it contemplated violence.

Diaz Lanz denied Cuban charges that he was responsible for the leaflet dropping, but hinted that the new organization was behind it.

Castro today promised to turn all of Cuba into a great armed camp to battle mounting counter-revolutionary attacks and "bombings" by planes which he said were based in the United States. His promise to mobilize "all workers, farmhands, professionals and even down to and including our women," came near the end of a marathon television appearance in which he delivered his bitterest attack yet against the United States. The broadcast ended at 3 a. m.

Castro called a huge rally for 4 p. m. Monday in Havana to protest what he called the economic and military threats of the United States against his revolutionary government. He said details of the rally would be carried out by the Cuban Confederation of Workers.

Throughout his long speech Castro castigated the United States for permitting Florida-based planes to "bomb" Cuba and asked what would the U. S. reaction be if Canadian planes bombed automobile plants in the United States and the capital city of Washington.

Speedup Promised On Space Program

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation's space agency promised a "considerable" speedup in outer space exploration today, and indicated it will ask Congress for more money early next year.

Richard E. Horner, associate director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration made the statements at a news conference called to discuss the transfer of the Army's space team, headed by Dr. Werner von Braun, to NASA.

Horner and Dr. Herbert F. York, Defense Department director of research and engineering, discussed President Eisenhower's order to put the Huntsville, Ala., team under the civilian agency's control. York said flatly that in his opinion this "should have been done a year ago."

The Army retained NASA's efforts a year ago to take over the famed team, which put America's first satellites in orbit around the earth and around the sun. At that time Eisenhower supported the Army.

While Horner and York predicted a speedup in the space effort, they made it clear that development of the nation's largest super-booster rocket will continue for another four or five months under divided authority of NASA and the Defense Department.

That is because the plan must go to Congress in January and goes into effect only if Congress does not veto it within 60 days.

Horner said it was "almost obvious that we are considering a supplemental" appropriation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

In the last glow of the sunset, this sailboat seems to be alone in the vastness of the sea. And yet it isn't. Were this boat suddenly to get into trouble, helping hands would swiftly come to the rescue.

So it is with life. At times you may feel very much alone—yet in reality you are not. For if you didn't have a single friend in the world, you would have the Church.

The Church welcomes everyone—and that's a pretty big thing when you stop to think about it. It means that always there is a door open to you. You have but to turn the knob.

Chart a new course for yourself. Start going to church. When you do, you'll find that your voyage through life has acquired fresh purpose.

Political Pot To Boil At Homecoming

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Florida will meet Louisiana State on the football field Saturday, but the toughest game may be in the political arena as rival candidates lobby for support here this weekend.

The occasion is the annual University of Florida homecoming celebration.

It will be the last big political gathering before the 1960 elections and every serious candidate for a major state office will be shown the crowd of 50,000 to 75,000.

The weekend will see the first face-to-face meeting of Gov. Bay Roy Collins and Circuit Judge John McCarty since the latter resigned the bench to run for governor. McCarty, who has not yet made his formal announcement, looks with Collins for legislative reappointment.

McCarty and every other candidate for various state offices will be out to drum up backing from among influential alumni gathered for the homecoming.

There were reports the Senate majority bloc would meet in organization support for Senate President Doug Johnson for governor. It also was said the Senate group would talk over the possibility of switching to Sen. Fred Dickinson of West Palm Beach if he reaches a second primary and Johnson does not.

Reappointment is bound to figure in any political discussion here. Those discussions will be cropping up in hotel lobbies and cocktail parties.

Earl Faircloth of Miami, a leader of opposition to the proposed reapportionment plan, will speak at one of three law fraternity breakfasts Saturday.

Johnson, Faircloth, McCarty, Dickinson, and Sen. Doyle Carlton of Wausatcha, all possible candidates for governor, are university graduates.

Other potential candidates who would be present are Sen. Tom Adams, Orange Park and Rep. John Shipp of Marianna, both eyeing the race for secretary of state; Rep. Doyle Connor of Starke, Asst. Atty. Gen. George Jovan and W. E. Hancock, Governor-elect, already running for commissioner of agriculture.

Sens. Stuart Symington of Missouri and George Smathers of Florida, both of whom may be candidates for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, will be on hand to lead the weekend a national favor.

The Board of Control met this morning in a business session and the Legislature's roads committee will meet Saturday.

The annual homecoming parade will kick off festivities at 1:30 p. m. today. On Saturday will come the law fraternity breakfast, a farm bureau cocktail party, a legislative barbecue and the football game at 2:30 p. m.

Reds Put On Pressure To Hurry Summit Meet

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet government put new pressure on the west today to hurry up a summit conference. It said, "The earlier a summit meeting is reached the better it will be for the cause of peace."

Speaking apparently to a resistant France, the official Tass news agency issued a statement declaring the Russian position on the East-West talks remains unchanged. Russia considers such a conference "necessary and is ready for such a meeting."

The Soviets then sided with the reported positions of President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who want an early summit, and against French President Charles De Gaulle, who wants to wait until spring.

De Gaulle is also reported to want a personal talk with Russia's Nikita Khrushchev before any Big Four session.

Moscow radio said the statement was designed to correct "conflicting reports . . . in the foreign press."

"At present, the sides concerned are discussing the date when this meeting would be held," the statement said.

Quotable Quotes

United Press International

AUGUSTA, Ga. — President Eisenhower, stating that he invoked the Taft-Hartley law reluctantly in the steel strike and doesn't believe it is the way to settle labor disputes:

"If we can't settle our economic differences by truly free economic bargaining without damaging seriously and threatening to damage seriously the United States, then we have come to a pretty pass."

HAVANA, Cuba — Fidel Castro, claiming in a marathon television speech that Cuba had been bombed three times in the past 10 days by planes from the United States:

"Remember Pearl Harbor! What a difference between what happened in Havana yesterday and the reaction of the United States to the bombing attack at Pearl Harbor."

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Mrs. Charles G. Hanna, 27, mother of the quintuplet girls who died within 18 hours after their birth, describing her feelings:

"I am happy to have brought five daughters into the world. I understand God's will; not His way."

GENEVA — Hussein Dawoud, assistant Iranian consul general in Geneva, apparently confirming reports that the Shah of Iran will marry 34-year-old beauty Farah Diba:

"It is too bad the cat is out of the bag. Miss Diba had wanted so much to make her last trip to Paris incognito."

Woman Has Baby In Car; Says Cop Refused To Help

MIAMI (UPI)—A couple said a motorcycle policeman refused to escort their car through heavy traffic to a hospital Thursday even though the woman had just given birth to a boy in the car.

Mother and baby reached the hospital where both were reported in good shape.

Police officials cited a policy against escorting private autos through traffic, but said the officer in question should have offered some help.

"The least he could have done was hold the couple and radio for an ambulance," said Police Chief Walter Headler. "In this particular case he probably should have done more."

"We have a rule against escorting people to hospitals because these highly excited persons were causing too many accidents."

Despite the policy against escorts, the practice is not uncommon here and there have been several instances of police officers actually delivering babies.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Blakey said they were threading their way through early evening traffic Wednesday when the baby was born in the car.

"I was driving like crazy," Blakey said, "and Pat had already had the baby. She was holding him in her hands."

The Blakeys said they saw the officer and hailed him. Blakey said he asked the policeman to escort his car through the traffic and said the officer replied, "I'm sorry. I can't help escort you. I'll follow along behind."

Blakey said he was too excited to argue. He said the officer followed the car for several blocks and then turned away.

All This Red Tape

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials said today there was a chance that Brook Mandore, the friendly "Ferdinand" of British bulls, may be able to find asylum in the United States after all.

But they said the 14-month-old Ayrshire bull, whose cow-like face and manners have made him a target of British official ire, will have to squeeze through several legal loopholes before he can achieve sanctuary in the land of the free.

Agriculture Department officials first said the bull's American sympathizers could not grant refuge to the bull, which faces a possible death sentence by the British to prevent him from passing on his girlish looks to his descendants.

The unsympathetic bureaucrats cited a restriction that forbids the importation of cattle from areas like England where hoof and mouth disease breaks out from time to time.

But Claude A. Smith of the department's animal inspection and quarantine division said later that Canada in some cases allows the importation of cattle from England provided they first reside in Scotland.

He said the United States permits the importation of cattle from Canada provided they are legal Canadian residents and meet all Canadian health standards. He said there is "a possibility" that Brook Mandore could be the beneficiary of this England-to-Scotland-to-Canada-to-the-United States grand tour.

Failure To Relay Warning Blamed For Air Disaster

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board said today Capital Air Lines failed to relay a warning of rough weather to the pilot of a Viscount airliner which broke up in mid-air near Baltimore May 12.

The CAB blamed the crash, in which 31 persons died, on extreme weather turbulence.

Capital strongly protested the board's findings. It said the pilot was warned specifically about the bad weather before taking off.

All 27 passengers and four crew members were killed when the four-engine jet-prop plane bound from New York to Atlanta on Flight 75 split apart.

The CAB, in a formal accident investigation report, said veteran pilot William C. Paddock lost control of the plane at about 14,000

Midgets End Grid Season With Win

Sanford Junior High's Midget team yesterday wound up their season with a 27-0 win over Port Orange and a second place standing in the six team Sanford-Daytona Beach League.

Three touchdowns by Ricky Gallober, Rusty MacAllister and Billy Kukyendal helped give the Sanford Midgets a 4-2 record for the season. Kukyendal ran 60 yards for a TD after he intercepted a Port Orange pass.

The Sanford Junior High heavy team game with Lyman, postponed Tuesday because of a wet field, will be played in the Peanut Bowl Nov. 7.

Seminoles Host Winter Park In Grid Clash At 8 Tonight

By JERRY COVINGTON

The victory "Hungry" Sanford Seminoles play host to the Winter Park Wildcats here tonight with kickoff time scheduled for 8 p. m.

The Seminoles, who now have lost four games will be gunning stronger than ever for a win tonight over the Orange Belt Conference foe. Last week Coach Jim Pigott and his youngsters traveled to Fort Myers where they lost a thriller by a score of 14-12. It was the second time this season that the locals lost a game by a single point.

The Wildcats will be at their best tonight with quarterback Mike Mosher returning to the lineup after missing the first half of the season with an injury. This is their first conference game of the season so this is a very important tilt for both clubs. The Seminoles easily could make a showing in the conference if they are able to polish off the Wildcats, Lakeview, and Leesburg.

Lakeview is enjoying one of its best seasons with a 4-2 record at the half way point and they look like the team to beat for the OBC crown.

The Seminoles are set to go to the air early tonight if they see the Wildcat defense will not give Lundquist and Lovelace running room.

GCA Tower Takes Navy Kegler Lead

GCA Tower team took over undisputed possession of first place in the Sanford Navy Intra-mural Bowling League with a four point win over the Heavy Three Charlie team.

Heavy Three Alfa took three from Combating One to tie with Heavy Seven Alfa for second place. Bowling with a blind for the first game the Alfa boys won it then fought off a hard charging wing team as Diamond was tops for the Three Alfa gang. Boyer hit high for the wing.

Heavy Three Bravo split with the Marines after taking the first two games, only to lose pins by three. Ladd was high for the Leathernecks as he helped the cause with a 57 pickup. Mills kept it rolling with a 510.

Communications fell with a bang as Operations rapped them for three points. Operations dropped Comm into fifth place and climbed into fourth themselves. Stetler again led Operations with a 517 series and Webb took honors for the communicators. Helping by way of split pickings were Heuer and Funke with a 310 Communications and Stetler and Burke the 310 and Burke the 27 for Ops.

Heavy Seven Bravo continued their race to the bottom as they lost three points of the Fasconi Chiefs. Neri had a 213 359 and led the Seven B's to take high series for the night. Dumont led the Chief's.

Heavy Seven Alfa remained close to the top as Layberger hit for a season high game of 235, coupled with Uhr's 200.

Gators Get Set For Homecoming

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Florida's Gators will take only light limbering up drills today before meeting first-ranked Louisiana State in a homecoming clash here Saturday.

Coach Bob Woodruff said Thursday that this has been the Gators' best week of practice so far this year. He pronounced his squad "in high spirits and ready to play."

Fullback Bob Milby returned to practice Thursday after missing one day because of a boil.

The running game could be the thing to watch however, if the offensive line is able to give a little more cover than they have in the past few weeks. Lundquist and Lovelace, the "Double L's" have plenty of potential and both could break the game wide open on any run.

The Seminole defense looked much improved last week and they have been looking as good this week in practice. Co-captain Neely Ross and Johnny Whitehead, along with Alex McKibbin have been the most impressive this season and are expected to carry a big portion of the load tonight.

'Explosive' Grid Weekend Slated

United Press International

UCLA and Auburn, two strong teams on the rebound, were favored to win big games Friday night to ignite an explosive college football weekend loaded with important conference games.

The "weekend" actually got underway Thursday afternoon when the passing of Harvey White sparked bowl-conscious Clemson to a 23-0 triumph over South Carolina in the last game of a "Big Thursday" series that started back in 1896.

On Friday night, UCLA is a two-point favorite over the unbeaten Air Force Academy at Los Angeles and Auburn is a seven-point pick over Miami (Fla.) in a battle of once-beaten teams. In the only other major Friday games, Boston University is favored over Connecticut, while Clemson had little trouble in trouncing South Carolina before 47,000 fans at the South Carolina State Fair. The rivalry, always colorful and frequently stormy during its 63-year history, will be resumed next year on a home-and-home basis rather than part of the state fair celebration.

While completed nine of 11 passes for Clemson, two for touchdowns, and sub Lowndes shingler hit on two of six as the Tigers swapped their usual reliance on rushing for a pass attack because of a muddy field. Bill Mathis scored twice for Clemson, once on a pass from White, and Don Ustry slammed one-yard for the other Tiger marker. Clemson, 4-0, in Atlantic Coast Conference play, is a red-hot post-season bowl possibility.

UCLA (1-2) is on the upgrade after beating California and thus as the home team is rated a slight choice over the Air Force, which suffered its first loss last week to Oregon in an upset after three wins.

Auburn's long unbeaten streak was scuttled by Tennessee in the season opener but the Plainsmen came all the way back in upsetting Georgia Tech last week. Miami, which will be out of the line, has lost only to national champion Louisiana State.

Top-ranked LSU, third-ranked Texas, fourth-ranked Southern California, and fifth-ranked Mississippi are expected to have fairly easy sailing during Saturday's big gridiron show. LSU is a 13-point pick over Florida, Texas is 13 over Rice, Southern California is favored by 14 over Stanford, and Mississippi is rated 10 points over Arkansas.

But second-ranked Northwestern is a more modest six-point pick over Notre Dame, despite Notre Dame's two losses to Big Ten teams.

Seventh-ranked Penn State is only even money as it shoots versus the Illinois against Illinois at Cleveland in a battle between two teams that beat Army by six points each. Tenth-ranked Wisconsin is a seven-point favorite over Ohio State in a game that may go a long way toward deciding the Big Ten race.

Sixth-ranked Syracuse is a far 21-point pick over West Virginia

Wynn Hailed As Top AL Comeback For 1959

NEW YORK (UPI)—Early Wynn, a 39-year-old pitcher who believes in growing old gracefully, was hailed for making the American League comeback of the year today by the United Press International.

Wynn previously was named to the UPI's American League All-Star team and also was picked as the AL's pitcher of the year.

A 22-game winner for the Chicago White Sox, Wynn beat out Tito Francona of the Cleveland Indians by one vote, 7-6, in the comeback-of-year balloting. Eddie Yost, Hoyt Wilhelm, Gene Woodling, Bobby Shantz, Bill Tuttle and Ted Kluszewski also were mentioned.

Only a year ago, Wynn definitely seemed on the downgrade as a top-notch pitcher. He had compiled a 14-17 record in 1957 and a 14-16 slate in 1958 with earned run averages over four in both seasons.

But Wynn's answer to his critics was a splendid season in which he worked 256 innings, had a 22-10 won-lost record, struck out 179 batters and had a 3.17 earned run average. He pitched five shutouts and 11 complete games.

The big year also put Wynn within reach of the exclusive 300-victory club. With 271 triumphs, he is the leading winner among active major league pitchers and the first one in years to have a real shot at the 300-mark.

Wynn was acquired from the Indians Dec. 4, 1957 in a deal that sent Minnie Mirosco to Cleveland. The 6-foot, 200-pound native of Hartford, Ala., broke into the majors with the Washington Senators in 1941.

Francona, 25, from Aliquippa, Pa., was a "minute man" for the Indians all year. He played both first base and in the infield on short call, seeing action in 122 games, batting .263, driving in 79 runs and hitting 29 homers. He hit only .254 in 86 games with the White Sox and Detroit Tigers in 1958.

The four who will report to Manager Cookie Lavagetto at Orlando, Fla., are pitchers Fred Buckbauer and Bill Topp, infielder Jimmy Hall and outfielder Lamar Jacobs.

Buckbauer is from Sleepy Eye, Minn., and the University of Minnesota. Topp from Western Michigan University, Hall from Belmont, N. C., and Jacobs from Ohio University.

BY DR. F. LEO KERWIN

History:

The principles upon which the science of Chiropractic is based can be traced to the earliest physicians of an antiquity. They were known and practiced by Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine (460-370 B. C.) by Galen (130-200 A. D.) and other noted physicians of ancient Greece and Rome. Descriptions of this method of treating bodily ills are also to be found in the ancient manuscripts of the Egyptians, Hindus and Chinese.

Lost for centuries, the principles of this system of practice were rediscovered by Dr. Daniel Palmer in 1895, and named Chiropractic—a composite of the Greek words "Choir" and "praktikos" meaning "done by hand."

The basic observations upon which this system of practice is built have been successfully applied for fifty years on millions of patients.

The remarkable effectiveness of this method in treating disease has won for Chiropractic a permanent place in the family of sciences.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Rigney Gets One Year Pact From Stoneham

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—It was back to the old drawing board today for Manager Bill Rigney, who received a "life" Thursday in the form of a one year contract to try and make the San Francisco Giants pennant winners.

Club President Horace Stoneham, a reputed hard loser, announced that Rigney would be at the helm again next season as the Giants' pilot for the fifth time.

The cherubic Stoneham thus exploded any remaining speculation that Leo Durocher, Charlie Dressen or Lefty O'Doul might get the job.

"This is the first time I ever signed a one year contract," Rigney laughed during a press conference. "And I feel a little insecure."

The pact which expired last month called for two seasons. With its demise went the San Francisco hopes of winning a flag after the club had only been out of New York for two years.

The Giants led the National League by two games on Sept. 17 then folded, a third behind Los Angeles ... astounded.

What's Rigney going to do this time to earn his estimated $30,000 salary?

"We need a good, sound relief pitcher," Bill said. "I want to keep my star hurler out of the bullpen. And we're going to have to get a more seasoned bench. The one was a little young."

Turkey Shoot Slated Sunday

The Seminole County Disabled Veterans Chapter is planning a turkey shoot at 1 p. m. Sunday, it was announced today.

The shoot will be held in the chapter's lodge area, two miles south of Sanford on U. S. 17-92. Shells will be furnished but all contestants must bring their own guns.

Umpire Marries

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Some ballplayers may disagree, but there are people who love umpires.

Sonja Buchmann, 22, a secretary in league President Warren Giles' office here, will marry National League umpire Vic Delmore, 42, next Wednesday.

Johnson Retires

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Neil Johnson, new coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, has retired as an active player after eight seasons with the National Basketball Association club. Johnson, still bothered by a knee injury, scored 10,923 points for the Warriors during his career and won the NBA scoring title three times.

Agreement Reached

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics and the city council's baseball committee have reached a tentative agreement on a new four-year contract involving receipts and rental of Municipal Stadium. The contract is subject to the approval of the city council and Athletics owner Arnold Johnson.

SEC Slaps Fine On Mississippi For Breaking Recruiting Rules

BIRMINGHAM Ala. (UPI)—The University of Mississippi, currently tied for the Southeastern Conference lead, was fined $1,000 by the SEC for violation of conference recruiting rules, it was announced Thursday.

SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore wrote University of Mississippi Chancellor Dr. J. D. Williams that an "alumnus or friend" of the school was named guardian of football player Elbert (Sonny) Holmes of Forest City, Ark., and gave the boy illegal inducements.

Moore said the alumnus, who also lived in Forest City, filed the guardianship after Holmes signed a football scholarship with Coach Johnny Vaught Dec. 7, 1957, and was made guardian of the star quarterback the next day.

Holmes' scholarship was cancelled when he married in July 1958. He later enrolled at the University of Arkansas where he led the 1958 freshman team to five victories and completed 24 of 43 attempted passes for 432 yards and six touchdowns. He has been a reserve quarterback on the varsity squad this year as a sophomore.

Ole Miss Athletic Director C.

M. Smith acknowledged the fine and indicated no appeal would be made.

"The athletic department has to accept responsibility for such actions, whether we are aware of them or not," Smith said.

He added, "We are pleased that no faculty member, staff member, student or member of the department of intercollegiate athletics was involved in any alleged irregularity in connection with this matter."

Moore wrote that the question of "guardianship" was new to him and "to my knowledge new to the conference."

Moore said the "guardian" gave Holmes gifts of $5 and $10 and about $100 worth of Christmas gifts. The commissioner said Holmes also was provided the use of a car to go to the Sugar Bowl and other events.

Moore said the guardianship was obtained so the boy could be given the gifts "for the purpose of assuring Holmes' enrollment at the University of Mississippi" and to prevent some non-conference school from luring him away before school started. He said the gifts were discontinued after Holmes' scholarship was withdrawn.

Heavy Betting Expected In Top TV Fight Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI)—Broadway "sportsmen" report tonight's TV 10-rounder between heavyweight contenders Tony Anthony and Billy Hunter is the biggest betting non-title fight in years, with the price at "even money."

As boxing returns to Madison Square Garden after a 10-week absence, both Anthony of New York and Hunter of Detroit promise a combination of class and ... marks that intrigue the betting fraternity before this nationally televised and broadcast, NBC bout.

More-experienced Anthony—fast, smart and explosive—would be a solid favorite were it not for the China in his chin. Five of his seven defeats were by knockouts. He slams too easily.

Hunter, stambulist of Sugar Ray Robinson and an enlarged replica of the middleweight champion, is a tall, rangy left-jabbing specialist who seems to lack stamina.

Ole Miss Students Up In Arms Over Big Game Tickets

OXFORD, Miss. (UPI)—University of Mississippi students staged a protest Tuesday in a shortage of tickets for the Mississippi-Louisiana State football game at Baton Rouge next week.

L. L. Love, dean of men, said the protest almost reached the "violent stage." Students shouted "we want tickets." Police and school authorities quieted the uproar.

University authorities said 727 students tickets went on sale and by noon all were gone. They said students had begun standing in line at 2:30 a. m.

Officials said they had difficulty getting rid of 300 tickets three years ago. But this year both Mississippi and Louisiana State are undefeated and both are included in the nation's top ten teams. There are about 5,600 students here.

FRANK SINATRA

Famed Singing Trio Puts Over TV Show

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — The gas-house gang of show business, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby and Dean Martin, boated through an entertaining hour of songs, dances and their special brand of 'way out' utterances on ABC-TV.

It was very easy to take. Working in front of proper, dignified and sedate sets, the trio frolicked in a carefully carefree fashion and displayed huge quantities of personal magnetism.

These three men can entertain just by snapping their fingers.

Since it was called the Frank Sinatra Show, I'll begin by saying the celebrated chairman of the board was in command most of the way. The exceptions came when his untamed buddy, Dean Martin, upstaged him with some unabashed mugging. Fortunately the trio managed to avoid embarrassing or ultra-inside ad lib.

The Sinatra-Crosby exchange of Sept. 29 is still a vivid memory. There was only one loud plug and that was earned by Martin who laid down and raised a show to the camera to display a chalked advertisement for his restaurant.

The show had a comfortable pace, although it was slowed down by an uninspired dance featuring Mimi Garp, the only lady guest on the show. And, treasure of treasures, it even had a sock finish. As Frank, Bing, and Dean imitated the Clayton, Jackson and Durant team of years ago, Jimmy Durante — in person — came on to join them. They all strutted off in triumph.

Another highlight was Sinatra pretending he was on a night club floor in front of the band. There was no need to think about the staging or the camera. Frankie just stood there and put down the songs in his authoritative way and it was fine stuff.

Prior to that Frankie sat in with a platoon of children (real looking ones) to sing "Hi-Ho." That, too, was a knowing show business touch that came off well.

Producer-director Bill Colleran managed the cameras with precision, catching the stars in fine closeups to punctuate their moves. Art director Jim Trittippe provided

Franchot Tone, Gabel Head Cast For Playhouse 90

"The Hidden Image," a drama about power politics written by David Karp, is CBS-TV's Playhouse 90 script for Nov. 12, with Franchot Tone, Martin Gabel, Nancy Marchand and Georgia Grizard heading the cast.

Imogene Coca will be George Gobel's guest on his CBS-TV half-hour Sunday, Nov. 22. Imogene's former boss, Sid Caesar, gave the U. S. Steel Hour its highest rating in seven years with his Wednesday night special.

Rock Hudson, Jayne Meadows and singer Jane Harvey visit the Silver Allen show on NBC-TV Monday, Nov. 2. Paul Gallico's Christmas fable, "The 13th Orphan," is ticketed for NBC-TV on Wednesday, Dec. 9 as a one-hour special. ABC-TV's Roger Moore, star of "The Alaskans," has written a song called "Come To My Wedding" . . . Edward R. Murrow will narrate an examination of America's world image on CBS radio Tuesday, Nov. 10, when "The Hidden Revolution" series returns.

Dialing and Filing: Wasn't Charley Weaver's Hobby Lobby, on ABC-TV Wednesday night, risking a "riffin" investigation when Weaver (Cliff Arquette) went flying over the stage attached to the mechanical aids of guest Peter Foy? Weaver's show is at its best when Charley gets a chance to comment on the props his guests bring along.

A touching contrast on NBC-TV's Perry Como show: Guest Rosemary Clooney came on in a full-length mink coat, bearing a French pouf and a flashing ring. A few minutes later, Rosie went into her song "I Got Plenty of Nothin'."

Men in Space on CBS-TV passed up an effective, dramatic death-in-space ending Wednesday night in favor of the usual lippy-happy note.

an uncluttered stage and came up with, of all things, a m'key climb for Frank and co-company to recline on and dangle from. Guess the step ladder is through on TV.

The Channel Swim: Harry Salter, producer of Name That Tune, has been asked by CBS-TV and the sponsor to come up with a suitable new show for the Monday time slot. 'Tune' was kayoed by the network's new no-quiz policy. Salter told UPI the new show, tentatively called Face The Music, would involve a panel guessing song titles, with George DeWitt as emcee. The CBS policy, besides banning big prizes, also prohibits contestants from appearing more than once.

Producer Walt Framer reports he, too, hopes to sell a substitute for his cancelled show, The Big Payoff. Called Fun, Fashions and Music, Framer would co-star Bert Parks and Betty Myerson. He said the show would offer "other non-quiz aspects" of pay-off.

Dane Clark joins Dean Stockwell, Ingemar Johansson, Glenda Farrell and Frank McHugh in the Thursday, Nov. 19 CBS-TV adaptation of "The Killers". James Whitmore is cast as U. S. Grant, Melvyn Douglas as Mark Twain, and John Baragrey as Robert E. Lee for the Sunday, Feb. 21 NBC-TV drama in the Our American Heritage series. Carol Kelly, sister of Jack (Maverick) Kelly, portrays a stripper in the Nov. 2 episode of ABC-TV's Bourbon Beat.

Experts Say Brunettes Gaining On The Blondes

NEW YORK (UPI) — Twelve thousand hairdressers, cosmeticians and manufacturers of beauty products met in Manhattan this week and found that: —Brunettes are gaining on blondes; —Hair styles for the winter will remain short with the newest "do" shaped like a triangle; —The latest dryers are air-conditioned; —Some luxury beauty salons cater to customer comfort with vibrator chairs which remove kinks from the body while curlers put them in the hair.

The occasion was the National Beauty Trades Show, an annual gathering sponsored by the Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Mrs. Edna L. Emme, of St. Louis, a beautician since 1925 and member of the association's official hair fashion committee described some of the new trends in the beauty world.

She said manufacturers have improved wave solutions to the point that getting a permanent takes little more time than getting a shampoo, and so that any type of hair—bleached, dyed or natural—can be treated.

"The same improvement goes for all the coloring solutions," she said. "And these days, almost every woman is coloring. There still are plenty of blondes, but the brunettes are advancing. This season, we're tinting all shades of brown with highlights... some rosy, some tawny."

She said the air-conditioned dryers operate on a new principle of circulation, drawing air through the curlers instead of blasting out around the face. And as for those vibrating chairs, she said most salons give the customer benefit of same without extra charge.

The association decreed "American Caprice" as the newest in cutures. It is cut so that looking at the full-face, from the chin up, the silhouette is triangular. Sometimes soft wisps of bangs break the line.

I asked Miss Emme what became of that puffy, young-looking hair-do called the Bouffant which was highly popular a couple of years ago.

"Oh some girls still wear it," she said. "But you know, women like change. Now, when a woman feels gloomy, she goes out and buys a new hairdo instead of a new hat. A hair-do you wear for 24 hours a day."

'North By Northwest' Opens At Ritz

"North by Northwest," Alfred Hitchcock's first thriller for MGM, described by critics as a romantic-espionage comedy drama opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater.

The picture stars Cary Grant, Eva Marie Saint and James Mason and is about international intrigue which shifts from Long Island to New York City to Chicago and has its spine-tingling climax at Mt. Rushmore, South Dakota.

Based on a screenplay by Ernest Lehman, "North by Northwest" was filmed on the actual locations described in the story.

Police Hold Man On Holdup Attempt

Sanford police today are holding a 29-year-old Negro for questioning in connection with a beating and attempted hold up of an 81-year-old Negro woman yesterday afternoon.

The name of the Negro is being withheld by police pending further investigation.

Mrs. Cora Thomas, 81 of 1109 W. 12th St. told police that a man stopped her on the street yesterday at about 1:15, demanded her money and then began to beat her over the head and shoulders with a pistol.

Police said Mrs. Thomas managed to get the weapon away from the man who fled the scene.

Police picked up a 29-year-old Negro a few hours later who matched the assailant's description.

State Industrial Gain Ahead Of Average

By GORDON J. TOLL

Manager, Security Associates, Inc.

Industrial expansion in Florida is well ahead of the U. S. average. Manufacturing employment has doubled in this state during the past decade. In the nation as a whole, it has only risen 10 per cent. In the past three years alone, some 2,000 new manufacturing plants and major plant expansions have occurred in the state and total wages in manufacturing and mining have climbed from $544,000,000 to $745,000,000 in the same period.

Some of the largest beneficiaries of this huge expansion are our giant power corporations. Figures released from the Florida Growth Fund News show electric power production in Florida in 1,000 kilowatt hours in 1940 were 1,769,591; in 1950, 5,610,410; 1958, 15,730,815. Customer 10-year percentage gain for Florida Power & Light was 139 per cent; Florida Power Corp., 139 per cent; Tampa Electric, 82 per cent. Net income for Florida Power and Florida Power and Light for the same 10 year period resulted in over a 400 per cent gain for both companies. Earnings per share of each of the above companies have been over the past five years in a continual upswing.

A new utility company has recently come into the public view—Florida Water and Utilities Company, Organized under the laws of the State of Florida in 1954, it has its principal executive offices in Miami, Florida. The company provides water distribution service and sewage collection and treatment for the Cutler Ridge area in Dade County. Additionally, the company provides water distribution service in an area of approximately 20 square miles to the north and northwest of Cutler Ridge. Net income for the past three years has been on a steady upward climb.

In a letter to the stockholders of Florida Water, dated September 30, 1959, it was reported for the eight months ended August 31, 1959, the company's total revenue approximated $591,000 comparing most favorably with revenues of $530,000 for the entire year of 1958. The steady growth in company operations and increased demand for their facilities resulted in a backlog of $114,000 in unfinished contracts as of December 31, 1958. During the first eight months of this year, additional contracts with builders and developers have resulted in increasing this backlog to $376,000 as of August 31, 1959. The company is currently serving 2,608 sites. Under existing contracts, 3,848 sites remain to be connected. Earnings per share are 81 cents versus 57 cents last year. The dividend rate is presently at the rate of 36 cents per share a year, payable 9 cents quarterly. This company is situated in a rapidly growing area.

Trends & Tugents in Forbes Magazine claims that the San Francisco Giants did not grab the pennant, but their club has performed well anyway. Recent quote on the ball club's shares was $820, off only slightly from the year's high of $895. The low bid two years ago, when the Giants were preparing to move out of New York, was $330.00 per share.

The Short Interest on the New York Stock Exchange increased 335,940 shares in the month ended October 15, the New York Stock Exchange reported. A "short" sale is "accomplished by borrowing stock from an owner and selling it. The short seller hopes to buy an equivalent number of shares later at a lower price, thus making a profit, and then return the shares to the lender."

Studebaker-Packard Corp. continued as the issue with the largest short interest position—452,606 shares. American Motors Corp. had the second largest short position—113,053 shares.

Assignment Washington

BY ED KOTERBA

WASHINGTON — Out of the darkness, witness Herb Stempel snickered, slapped his knee and haw-hawed out of control at the ham on the screen. The ham on the screen was Herb Stempel.

Herb was watching himself win $69,500—then lose $20,000 of it—on the TV quiz show, Twenty-One, in 1954. For eight weeks running he was a star in that performance.

Now he had the center of the stage in a different type of quiz show, with Rep. Oren Harris (D., Ark.) master of ceremonies. And the only money to exchange hands was Stempel's travel allowance from Forest Hills, N. Y.

What was so hilarious to the burly young witness was how hammy he looked biting his lip and straining for answers when TV quizmaster Jack Barry popped the queries to him in the isolation booth.

"That was all rehearsed, just like the answers were," he told the committee when the lights came back on again. And, now, the reporters, who'd been taking notes in the dark, saw little humor in the truth that they'd been suckered into believing those "unrehearsed, spontaneous shows" were unrehearsed and spontaneous.

The movie screen in the House caucus room showed Herb Stempel, an ex-GI, sweating. But that, he said, was because the program people absolutely refused to turn on the air conditioning in that isolation booth. And those Klugees were hot.

A cue on the screen whose wheebling and agony was even worse than Herb's was Charles Van Doren who, by the strangest of coincidences, won from Stempel by the exact number of points in the precise manner that the New York quizzer had predicted he would.

Stempel made this prediction to a dozen people, including his doctor. And the doctor came on the witness stand between movies and quoted his man as saying: "I'm going to take a dive." And he did—before millions of viewers.

What shattered the former military intelligence man's ego was that he was told, he said, by the quiz show's co-producer, Daniel Enright, to miss a easy question. It was the third part in a series on the 1935 Academy Award picture which, ironically, Stempel had seen two days before.

"They wouldn't let me lose honestly," he told the quiz quizers.

But after he lost dishonestly, he won another $3,000. This was on a bet that Charles Van Doren would lose on a certain date. Herb said he got the tip-off from Dan Enright. And, said the witness, Van Doren muffed a question on schedule.

Listening to these quiz witnesses spill the beans, under oath, revealing that all that excitement was manufactured, leaves a fellow as deflated as the wide-eyed little boy who discovers that Santa Claus wasn't real after all.

About the only spontaneous quiz show that's real and unrehearsed any more is the one the husband gets when the Mrs. catches him trying to sneak in in the wee hours.

Acheson Forgotten Man In Marshall Salutes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In all of the salutes to the late Gen. George C. Marshall and to his Marshall Plan the forgotten man was Dean Acheson.

You might say that Acheson planned it that way. The office files will show that Acheson—then undersecretary of state—was first up with public proposals of the basic idea of what came to be known as the Marshall Plan.

Only a month in 1947 separated the two speeches in which Acheson, first, and then Marshall proposed a great post-war rehabilitation program at the expense of the U. S. Treasury.

Acheson's speech floated gently away in early May 1947 on the balmy springtime air of Mississippi. Marshall's, delivered June 5 at Harvard's commencement exercises, rang bells around the world.

Acheson spoke in Cleveland, Miss. before the Delta Council. His theme was that the United States must "push ahead with the reconstruction of those two great workshops of Europe and Asia—Germany and Japan" without waiting for Big Four agreement on such a project. Marshall's speech was of greater scope but basically the same.

He urged that the European nations get together to decide their economic needs so that further U. S. aid could be integrated. No nation of goodwill was barred from Marshall's project. The Soviet Union was expected to participate. Some satellite nations were enthusiastic, notably Poland. On June 16, the Communist line was drawn by Pravda in Moscow.

This official publication denounced the plan as an effort to exert political pressure with dollars, a plan to interfere in the internal affairs of participating nations. Top diplomats in every foreign office in the world were thinking and talking about the Marshall Plan, either about how to benefit from it or how to scuttle it.

In a matter of days, the plan had become Topic A everywhere, whereas Acheson's speech scarcely made a headline.

"Why was this so?" Acheson was asked some time ago at a cocktail party. He replied that he didn't know.

"If you were to make a vitally important speech in a relatively remote place such as Cleveland, Miss., why didn't you alert the newsmen at the State Department that it was coming up?"

"Oh," Acheson replied, "I did that. I called in the British correspondents and told them about it."

"British correspondent? Why didn't you tell the American correspondents?"

Acheson's reply to that indicated mixed motives. First, he said competition among American press associations was so intense that he feared they could not keep a confidence reposed in them and, second, he seemed not to trust American press associations, anyway.

That was a puzzler because the big, routine news of government always is handled in Washington on a confidential basis. On this one occasion, Acheson chose to change the rules. His big speech fizzled out in one small community instead of exploding throughout the world.

Washington Calling

By MARCUS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower has told officials responsible for space development to be prepared for a meeting some time next week to try to straighten out the tangle of authority that blurs responsibility for progress or the lack of it.

Such a move can hardly be delayed longer, since public opinion is warming up on this question. The fact that the United States has consistently for two years been in second place, with the Soviet Union scoring one spectacular achievement after another, could become a hot political issue in next year's campaign.

Reports to the White House indicate that the public will not be pacified by the soothing statements put out by some military men to the effect that the dogs which have no relation to Soviet military capability. In view of the extraordinary accuracy of the two shots over such vast distances, this is too much to swallow even though it may be technically true that the moon shots have no direct bearing on weapons capability.

Even more disturbing to those responsible for space development is the likelihood that in the near future the Soviets will score another first—sending a man into orbit in a space vehicle. For some time Russian scientists have been saying that they have the problem of recovery of a space capsule licked. They claim that this was demonstrated when they sent two dogs about 100 miles into outer space and reportedly brought them back alive.

While a healthy respect has grown up for Soviet claims since they have so often been proved right, space specialists here are taking this one with a grain of salt. They point out that the dogs which were returned to earth were never sent into orbit but merely on a round trip exploratory shot into outer space. Sure, the skeptics say, the Russians can tap a candidate, pin a Lenin medal on him, put him in a space capsule and send him up with the odds against his returning to this planet.

Nevertheless, there is a deep underlying concern over the American approach to the whole problem of space exploration. A vast testing of rival publicity on a scale that Madison Avenue might envy has given the public a false and confusing picture not only of the failures but of the solid achievements of rival programs. As in the famous circus race in Alice in Wonderland, prizes are handed out to everyone no matter what direction the runners take or how fast they run.

Although the orbiting of an American in space is a year to a year and a half away we have been told all about the astronauts, their wives and their children. The publicity machines have traced the course they will follow in outer space and undoubtedly someone is working on the speech the pioneer space man will make when he returns to earth. But all this has an if-and-when sound about it, a kind of brave whistling in the vast dark of interstellar space. The missile base at Cape Canaveral may or may not be the best in the world, but it is certainly the greatest adjective factory in existence since nothing is ever shot off without an accompanying stream of vivid descriptive phrases.

Aware of the excesses to which this has gone, some of the space promoters nevertheless say that it is essential to survival in the struggle between competing agencies. Unless you keep the public aware of what you are trying to do, so this justification goes, you can be chopped off by the Budget Bureau or the White House with no one the wiser.

Better a little pain today in the act of walking than to moan for years as a bedfast case.

ADVICE TO OLDESTERS

And you older folks should be sure you stay in full contact with life as long as possible by having your eyes checked.

Get new glasses that will help you enjoy the color of this world, for we'll all be in our coffins soon enough.

Don't grope around in 50% darkness when new eye glasses will let you enjoy 90% or even 100% of the visual beauty of this earth.

And don't live in silence when a new hearing aid will keep you in touch with your friends and relatives, as well as birds' cells, plus radio and TV.

Finally, get a new set of false teeth which will permit you to eat the raw vegetables and other menu items of youth.

You can't feel young again unless you eat and see and hear like young folks.

So quit saving all your money for your kindfolds. Spend a little to rejuvenate yourself during your final 10 to 20 years here on this beautiful earth.

As gifts, will you children be sure your parents or grandparents get new glasses, a hearing aid and new teeth? You can't beat such gifts!

Worry Clinic

Grandpa Miller poses a problem that is growing more common in America. Old folks MUST keep in motion or they will soon be slaves to the bed or an easy chair. And be sure you prod them into rejuvenating themselves via new glasses, hearing aids and false teeth. If they refuse to indulge themselves, then your children do it for them as gifts.

BY — GEORGE W. CRANE

PH.D., M. D.

CASE C — 477: Eli Miller, aged almost 97, is Mrs. Crane's father.

He lives on our farm in Indiana and for the past year we have had to watch him closely to be sure he eats and goes to bed on schedule.

For his right hip is fairly stiff. It pains him when he tries to get up and shuffle around the rooms via the aluminum walker.

So we drop in at breakfast time to be sure he arises from bed and goes to the table.

He groans and procrastinates, but we see that he gets upon his feet.

But after breakfast, he heads into the living room to sit in an easy chair all day.

And he has spent so much time in that easy chair that his knees now remain partly bent, even when he walks.

So I have had to see that he places his feet on a hassock in order that his legs will straighten out.

WARNING TO OLDESTERS

You older folks must resist this natural tendency to take things easy.

Otherwise, your legs will grow weak and atrophy from lack of use. And as soon as you can no longer shuffle around under your own power, then you become rooted to one spot, like a tree or garden vegetable.

Remember you are only 2 feet from slavery after you pass the age of 65. And those two feet are your own feet or you will be stuck in bed or a chair the rest of your days, a slave to anybody who will be willing to wait on you or be your constant nursemaid.

And it is getting harder to obtain attendants for older folks, partly because we are having a larger percentage of folks who pass the age of 65, and partly because many oldsters have no close relatives to look after them.

Open House Sunday To Unveil New Addition To Country Club Manor

Open house will be held at Country Club Manor from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sunday to display a model home typical of the 95 new Manor homes now under construction at the W. 20th St. development. The open house will continue from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. on weekdays.

The three-bedroom homes being built by developer George H. Garrison will sell for $9,990 each with $600 down and monthly payments of $64.

About 75 of the homes have already been sold. Work on this addition to Country Club Manor was started eight weeks ago. The homes will be completed in about two weeks.

The concrete block, insulated homes each have one and one-half tiled bathrooms, terrace doors, a minimum of four closets, utility room, screen porch, carport, and 973 square feet of living area. In the typical model home the front entrance is in the living room. Next to the living room is the living-dining room and separated from it by a divider is the kitchen. One of the three bedrooms is next to the kitchen, and is reached from the hallway which runs lengthwise, through the center of the house and separates the front area from the bedroom and bathroom area in the rear. The two larger bedrooms are separated from each other by a large bath. The smaller bath is off the master bedroom.

All the lawns will be sodded and landscaped with a variety of plants, Garrison said. The concrete-curbed streets will be 26 feet wide and will be connected to driveways of solid concrete. The new three-bedroom homes are going up on Bradshaw Dr., Hayes Dr. and Mayfair Circle.

Any mechanical defect in a new home will be taken care of free of charge for the first year of occupancy, Garrison said. The down payments and monthly installments include principal, interest, taxes and insurance. Mortgages are insured by the Federal Housing Administration. The addition is within the city limits so that each house will have city water, sewage, garbage pickups, street lights, fire and police protection.

Never before have people in Sanford been provided with an opportunity to own a new home at this price and with these payment plans, Garrison said.

GETTING READY FOR SUNDAY when open house will be held in this new three bedroom Country Club Manor model home are Manor developer George H. Garrison, left, and sales manager Bernard G. Ermich. The $9,990 model home will be open to the public from 10 a. m. until 6 p. m. this Sunday and from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. on weekdays.

Manor Populated By 750 Persons

Country Club Manor now is populated by about 750 people in 225 homes, according to developer George H. Garrison. The $2 million worth of homes completed were started in 1957. Along with the new 95 home addition, the whole Manor will cover 100 acres.

The subdivision is only one and one quarter miles from the heart of Sanford, "which provides the home owner with a variety of shopping places," Garrison said. Only a short distance from Seminole High School, the Manor is also close to Southside Elementary School. School buses pick up children at both ends of the development, at 20th and at 25th streets.

Country Club Manor is two miles from Lake Mary and about a mile and one half from the Mayfair Country Club golf course.

Giving Economy Homes Is Developer's Goal

Providing a home within reach of families who otherwise might not be able to afford to buy one, is George H. Garrison's philosophy behind his development of Country Club Manor.

A veteran of 30 years in the housing development business, Garrison built about 10 subdivisions in the Los Angeles area. Each ran from 200 to 500 homes. He also built about 40 homes per year under private contract. Garrison gives his own personal supervision to all phases of the work involved in building the Manor homes, from the digging of the foundation until final occupancy.

Working with Garrison are sales manager Bernard G. Ermich, construction superintendent George Cudebec and interior decorator, Mrs. Mary J. Garrison, who supervises all of the decorating house by house. This adds a woman's touch," Garrison said.

Local subcontractors working on the 95 house addition are Evans Roofing, R. L. Harvey Plumbing, Seminole Terrazzo, Miracle Concrete, Har-Car Aluminum Products for awnings and windows and Clifford Taylor Masonry and Concrete Works. About 65 men are working on the addition.

Brides Of 100 Years Ago Got Easy Directions

NEW YORK (UPI) — New brides who anticipated pitfalls in modern gadget-filled kitchens would not have found old-fashioned cookery any easier.

A century ago, cooking was more an endurance contest than a creative experience—and not just for lack of labor-saving appliances.

For instance, take the vague directions in a typical "recipe." This one, for strawberry short-cake, appeared in "The Young Housekeeper's Friend" in 1839: "Make cream of tartar biscuit dough a little shorter than usual. Bake rather quick."

An author who can't be more specific is no friend of inexperienced cooks. And these directions for cold veal ragout: "Cut handsome slices from any part of cold veal, flour them well. Have the spider hot, with a spoonful of butter melted in it, and fry the veal a handsome brown."

What constitutes a "handsome" slice? And "handsome" brown? (For the benefit of electric-skillet cooks, the "spider" referred to is an iron frying pan, not an insect.)

If you're planning a roast beef dinner, here's a suggestion from another century-old cookbook: "The sirloin is the nicest piece for roasting. . . The gravy should not be thick or greasy, and is improved by adding a little ketchup."

How much lumpy gravy is put on American tables, we shudder to think. The author of this baffling recipe wasn't dumb, though. She kept her identity secret, signing her book, "By a Practical Housekeeper." We can appreciate her desire for anonymity, but question her choice of the word "practical."

INTERIOR DECORATOR for the 95 new Country Club Manor homes Mrs. Mary J. Garrison takes a look at some of the appliances installed in the model home kitchen. The centrally located kitchen can be entered from the living room-dining room or from a hallway leading to the three bedrooms.

Proper Cleaning Helps Waxing

CHICAGO (UPI) — Wonder why your freshly-waxed floors don't gleam? Don't blame the floor wax until you check on your own cleaning procedures before the wax is applied.

A wax company expert warns that a thorough rinsing is necessary — especially if you use cleaning compounds recommended for tile floors.

He explained that special chemicals, added to meet tile cleaners to get out dirt, don't mix with wax. If they are not washed off before wax is applied, the floor will have a dull sheen instead of a shiny finish.

Here's Flavorful Hamburger

NEW YORK (UPI) — For a mild barbecue flavor, try open-face burger sandwiches. Blend 2/3 cup (1 small can) of undiluted evaporated milk with 1 egg, 1/4 pounds of ground beef, 1/4 cup of fine cracker crumbs, 1 1/2 teaspoons of salt, 1/4 teaspoon of pepper, 1 teaspoon of dry mustard and 1/4 cup of finely chopped green pepper. Toast 6 slices of bread on one side only. Divide meat mixture into 6 portions and arrange on untoasted side of bread. Broil to taste. Serve with 1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce heated to serving temperature.

Homes Get Careful Inspections

Construction of a Country Club Manor home gets careful inspection by Sanford and FHA building officials.

Construction starts with digging the foundation and putting in the rough plumbing. After a water proof membrane is installed over the entire floor area the first inspection is made prior to pouring the concrete.

Concrete is next poured into the foundation bed in one continuous monolithic slab, which gives one solid foundation and slabbing. Then the concrete block masonry walls are run up. The steel door frames are placed and windows provided for. After this operation the terrazzo floor is poured and receives its first grind after three days.

Then the framing crews take over, laying out all the partitions and doorways. The rafters are put on over the main house and carport, and plywood sheathing placed over them. The building roof is immediately installed to minimize moisture content in the lumber.

Next the furring strips are put on all the interior walls which gives a one-inch air space between the inside finished walls and the concrete blocks. This acts as an air insulation against conductivity of heat and cold from the masonry walls.

After installation of wiring, the ceiling insulation is put in place and the window frames set. The house is now ready for its second inspection by Sanford building officials and the FHA. Plaster is laid on inside and the house made ready for finishing. Doors are hung, cabinets installed, mill work put in, the house is painted and the driveway laid. The porch is screened, the lot graded and landscaped and a final inspection is made by Sanford and the FHA. The home is now ready for occupancy.

Good Construction, Reasonable Price Highlight Manor Homes

A very reasonable price, good construction and the cooperative attitude of the developer are reasons three Country Club Manor residents have given for liking their Manor homes.

"I like the way my home is built," Mrs. Julia E. Orvis said. Mrs. Orvis said she had gone into other homes but preferred here. "We get a nice breeze here," said the 131 Mayfair Circle resident.

George Garrison is asked about it, he will come out right away. Mrs. Orvis pointed out. There's no difficulty with drainage she said. Water goes away "pretty fast when it rains hard," she explained.

The price of a Country Club Manor home is very reasonable said Mrs. Daniel Boatwick, 194 Club Rd. The homes are "very cute" for the price, she emphasized. Mrs. Boatwick pointed out that the homes are well built and that her Manor home is about the nicest place the Boatwicks have lived.

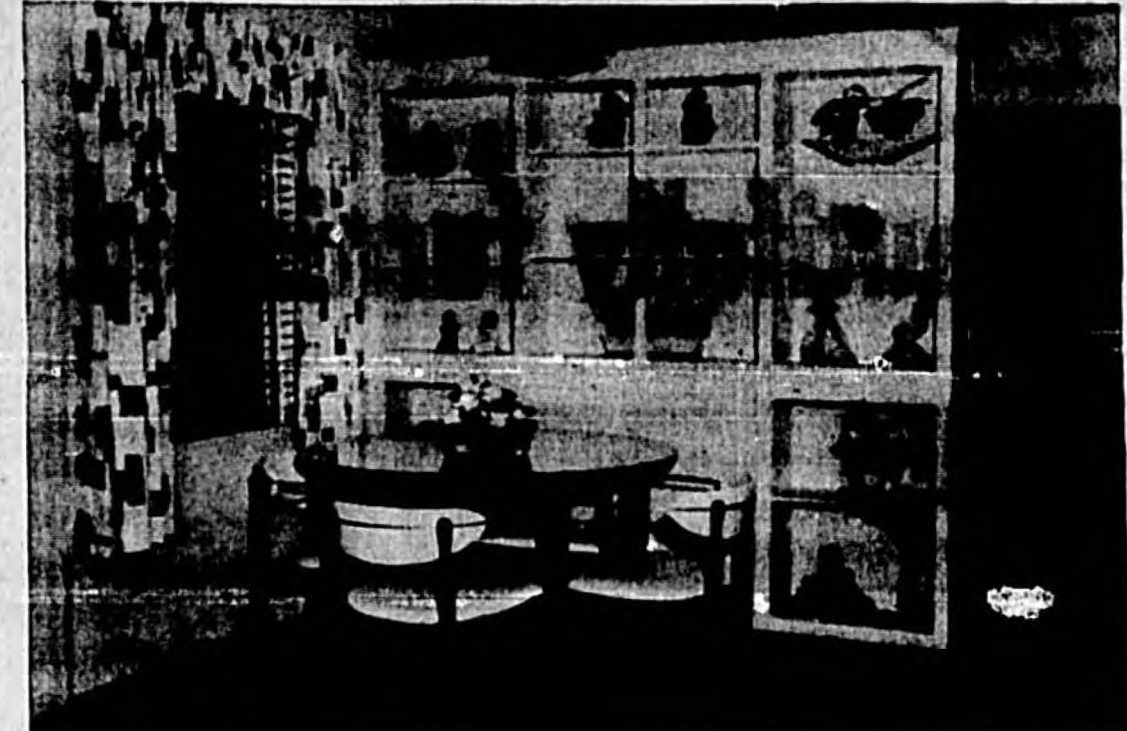

Owning her own home is what Mrs. Charles Robbins likes most about being a Country Club Manor resident. The homes are clean, of sturdy construction, and well worth the price, Mrs. Robbins said. She pointed out that her family had been paying $85 per month to rent.

COUNTRY CLUB MANOR RESIDENT Mrs. Charles Robbins said that owning her own home is what she likes most about living in the Manor. Junior members of Staff Sgt. Charles Robbins' Club Rd. family are, from left, Danny, Judygnil, Joann, and David.

THE DINING AREA in the Country Club Manor model home is separated from the kitchen by a cabinet partition. All kitchen equipment except the stove and refrigerator comes with the $9,890 homes now being built.

Fish Ponds Bring Food As Well As Pleasure

BY BEN WIGGINS
Soil Conservationist, USDA
Blue-gill bream have been distributed to the following cooperators yesterday morning: H. W. Willey, Mrs. L. P. Mills, A. B. Peterson, Nelson and Company, and Dr. G. H. Anderson. Black Bass will be provided for these private ponds next Spring. According to Howard Blasland, Biologist with the Soil Conservation Service, Florida has approximately 2,200 managed farm fish ponds. These ponds are owned by cooperators of Florida's 59 Soil Conservation Districts.

not have too much shallow water. It should be free from brush and weeds. The pond area should be a minimum of 1/4 acre. It must be isolated from other bodies of water by natural or constructed barriers or structures. And the pond must be free of all rough fish. Most natural ponds contain rough fish such as: mud-fish, suckers, gar-fish, shad, eels, and cat-fish. Any private pond containing rough fish should be killed out completely and properly restocked with only Blue-gill bream and Black Bass.

Successful fish ponds bring recreation, pleasure, and delicious food to the owners, their families, and friends. An unsuccessful one is a disappointment. The test of a successful one is simple. If the fishing is good, then it is a good fishpond. The recipe for a successful fishpond is like any good recipe. Select the ingredients carefully with an eye to quality. Then use them as directed and remember this—don't be impatient. Now the ingredients: One favorable pond, sufficient water to maintain 3 to 4 feet depth throughout year, 1,000 Blue-gill bream per acre, 100 Black Bass per acre, and 100 pounds of an 8-8-4 fertilizer per acre of water per month. A favorable fish pond should

The baby fish are provided free of cost to the land owners by the supervisors of the Seminole Soil Conservation District. The fish are obtained from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service hatchery located at Welaka, Florida. Your local Soil Conservation Service technician will check your pond and assist you in obtaining the fish. When fertilizing the pond apply the fertilizer slowly in one continuous ring around the pond, in water from 2 to 4 feet deep. The pond should not be fished until one year after it has been stocked in order for the fish to reproduce one time. A good properly stocked, fertilized, and managed fish pond should yield around 300 pounds of edible fish per acre of water per year.

Simple Solution Aids Refrigerator Interior Care

To keep your refrigerator spotless and sweet-smelling, wipe interior walls with a solution of two tablespoons of baking soda to one quart of warm water. Following this simple tip, and others given by Ann Que Brown in a recent issue of The American Home, you can assure better service and longer life to your refrigerator or freezer.

Be careful how you use hot water, abrasives, or scouring pads. They can damage the coating used on trays to keep the ice cubes from sticking! A wooden spoon or plastic scraper is best for removing excess frost. NOT a sharp metal tool which can damage the freezer compartment. Appliance wax will keep the finish of your freezer or refrigerator gleaming through many years of hard use. Safety tip: "If you are no longer using an old refrigerator, freezer, or ice box, PLEASE remove the door or latches. It takes only a few minutes and may save a child's life."

Freezer Best Bet To Keep Bread

If you keep bread at home for more than a few days, the best way to keep its freshness is to freeze it. To save time in shopping many homemakers today buy bread in quantity and store it in home freezers to be used as needed.

Because this is such a widespread household practice, an experiment station recently made tests of how long bread keeps its freshness in the freezer with different kinds of wrappings. Commercially baked, sliced and wrapped white bread was tested. One lot was frozen in the wrapping in which it came from the store. Other loaves were wrapped with various freezer packaging materials. Six different wrappings were used. The bread was stored at about 8 degrees F. for different lengths of time — 4, 6, and 10 months.

The test showed that up to 6 months bread kept its freshness—that is, its soft texture and fresh flavor—as well with the ordinary commercial wrap as with overwrapping. But the bread (tested after 10 months) showed a difference, the loaves with the extra wrap were much better. "Most homemakers don't keep bread this long, and studies show that it is more economical to have rapid turnover of food in the freezer. For the usual short keeping the stator research indicates that bread will keep well with only the commercial wrap and no extra wrap," says Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent.

For homemade bread, however, freezer wrap may be used. Other studies show that bread does not have to be thoroughly thawed before using for bread or toast. If sliced loaves are used, the slices separate easily while still hard-frozen—perhaps with a little loosening with a knife, and then they can be spread for sandwiches and put immediately into a toaster. Sandwiches made from frozen slices can help "refrigerate" the lunch box.

Harcar Products Plan Big Expansion Operation

Harcar Aluminum Products will follow its second anniversary in the Sanford area with a $20,000 expansion operation. Two years ago this month Harcar started business in the Standard Growers building on W. 13th St. Since then the aluminum products manufacturing company has moved into a modern factory on Hwy. 17-92, just south of Sanford. Today, Harcar co-owner C. R. Schilke said that a $20,000 expansion operation to include a building addition, new equipment and a new product is planned for development early in 1964.

Sales for the first six months of 1963 were greater than the company's entire sales in 1962, according to Schilke. In 1960, sales should double, the co-owner said. Harcar now sells to dealers who handle its products exclusively in most Central and North Florida cities. The company has major stocking accounts in Birmingham, Atlanta, and Meridian, Mississippi. A full time representative is promoting the sale of Harcar products in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. Harcar products are used not only in residences throughout the Southeast, but the firm's own schools, hospitals and churches, mercantile awning windows have Schilke said.

Wise Homemakers Vary Milk Usage

Milk is a staple item for the ingenious girl in the kitchen. It can and does go anywhere from appetizer to dessert with flavor and dignity. Besides being a real boon to the girl with the cooking spoon, milk-made dishes carry a big bonus of food value for the "be younger longer" look which milk can help provide. Here are some ways to get the extra dividend milk offers now, says Miss Alice Cromartie, Extension Nutritionist.

Many people find milk refreshing and better for drinking if plain. Cooked foods and other prepared foods offer many additional ways to get milk into daily meals, with much added nutritive value and often extra dividends in flavor. Try it especially if you have poor milk drinkers in your home. For more milk at breakfast, for example, poach eggs in hot milk and serve on toast. Use milk instead of water when you cook cereals. # Threat To Drinking Water Pointed Out

Seminole County residents who have their own water and sewage systems should boil their drinking water during the current high water crisis acting health officer Dr. Robert J. Smith said today.

Flooding in the county has created danger of contamination of private water systems by private sewer systems and septic tanks, Smith said. This cross-contamination could result in typhoid, para-typhoid or dysentery, the doctor explained. No cases of these diseases have been reported so far.

Mass inoculations against typhoid and dysentery will be made if any cases are reported, Smith explained. The city health department is now checking major water supplies in critical flood areas at the beginning of each week instead of every two weeks. No contamination had been found as of Saturday.

Inoculations against typhoid and dysentery may be obtained free at the health center next to the Fire Dept. building on Palmetto Ave.

Dr. Smith said he would not recommend mass inoculations yet.

LT. CDR. HAROLD Clause, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clause of Sanford, helped rescue homeless Japanese from the flooded city of Nagoya after the recent 161-mile-an-hour typhoon hit. Helicopters aboard the USS Kearsarge rescued thousands of people from the floods.

Firms May Deal With Steel Union

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Another of the strike-bound major steel companies may follow the lead of the Kaiser Steel Corp. today in breaking with the industry stand against "inflationary" wage increases.

Kaiser started individual negotiations in Washington with the United Steelworkers Union following an announcement Sunday night that it would negotiate separately from the other 11 big steel company members of the industry coordinating committee involved in the 104-day strike.

At Philadelphia the U. S. Court of Appeals announced today that a decision on the United Steelworkers Union appeal against a Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction is expected to be announced Tuesday at 4 p. m.

Kaiser did not announce whether any terms had been agreed upon with the union, but the industry committee which it deserted said a settlement such as Kaiser contemplated would cost the corporation 10 cents per man hour for the first year of a three year contract.

The committee said for other companies, the same package would cost 17 cents per man hour, which "clearly represents an inflationary agreement."

The other companies said they found terms of the Kaiser proposal "unacceptable." However, an industry source refused to identify the firm.

Four City Street Paving Projects To Be Started

Sanford will start a four street paving project in the northwest section of the city in November.

The city will lay 1,075 feet of pavement to cost $2,312.94 on Mulberry Ave. from 12th to 13th St., on Oleander Ave. from 10th to 11th St., on Jessamine from 10th to 11 and on 11th St. from Oleander to Jessamine.

The paving work will begin as soon as the two parking lots next to the Chamber of Commerce building and at Third St. and Palmetto Ave. are finished, City Manager Warren Knowles said today.

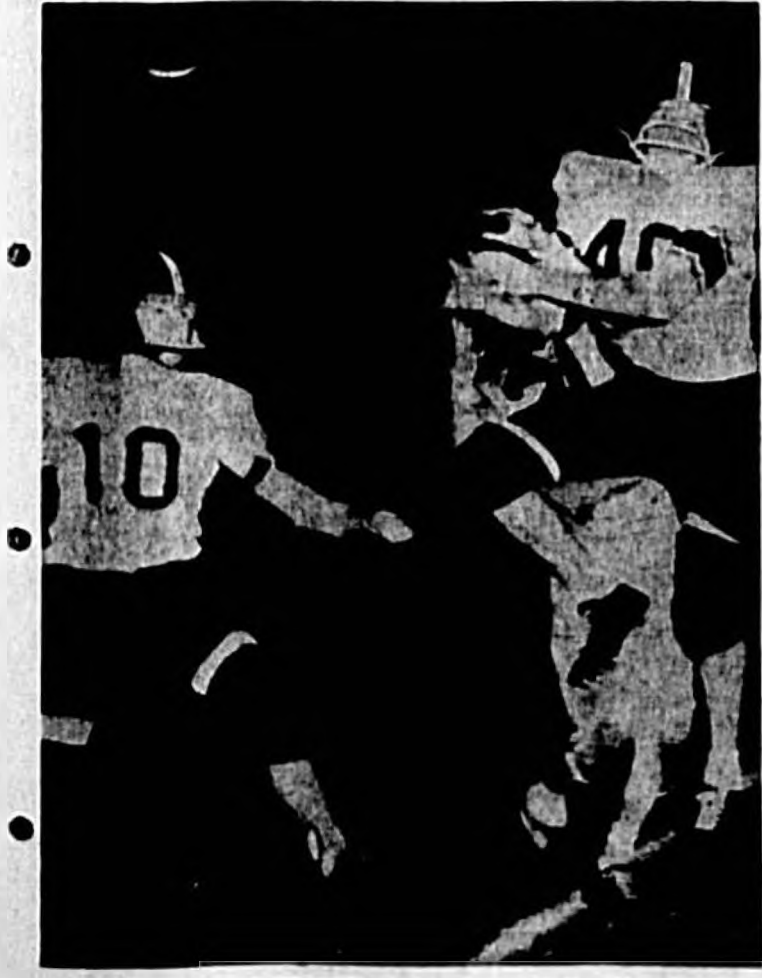

Paving projects on the city agenda for the 1959-60 fiscal year include pavement of Myrtle Ave. from First St. to Seminole Blvd., pavement of Elm St. from First St. to Fulton, on Fulton from Laurel Ave. to French Ave., and the Sanford Ave. widening project from 13th St. to 25th St. Cost to the city of these projects will be $21,635.81.

Wide Negro Vote Urged By NAACP

PENSACOLA (UPI) — The Florida chapter of the NAACP wound up its four-day conference here Sunday urging wide Negro voting, more political activity, efforts for better jobs and increased attempt at school integration.

The group adopted the statement at the final session. Earlier, the Rev. A. Leon Lowry of Tampa was re-elected state president.

The statement commended parents in Dade, Hillsborough and Escambia counties who have tried to enter their children in all-white schools. It said "We pray that more and more parents throughout the state will join their ranks."

Wife Of TV Star Attempts Suicide

HONOLULU (UPI) — Mrs. James Arness, wife of the television star of the "Gunsmoke" series, was en route to Los Angeles today, apparently in good condition after treatment for superficial wounds on both wrists.

Mrs. Arness, 38, was hospitalized briefly at Kaiser Hospital for what was described by authorities as self-inflicted razor blade wounds. The incident occurred early Saturday in her room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Detectives said Mrs. Arness told them of having "difficulties" with her husband at home the last three years. However, she insisted that she wants a reconciliation.

The couple married in 1945 after meeting at the Pasadena Playhouse where they shared leading roles in a production of "Candida." They have two boys and a girl, one of the boys by a former marriage of Mrs. Arness.

Board To Study Rezoning Move

Sanford's City Commission will consider rezoning W. First St. from residential to commercial between French and Cedar Avenues at the commission meeting in City Hall at 8 p. m. today.

The City Planning and Zoning Board recommended the rezoning after Mrs. Harold Appleby requested that a house she owns at 801 First St. be zoned commercial.

The commission will also consider bids to sell gasoline to the city for the 1959-60 fiscal year, and creation of an R-1C zone which reduces the land necessary to build a home in certain Sanford subdivisions from 7,500 to 4,500 square feet and cuts the acreage limitations to seven and a half feet for these homes.

A report on burned or partially destroyed buildings in Sanford as being unsafe is also on the agenda along with submission of the 1961 Lake Monroe pollution study for comparison with recent pollution study findings.

Mrs. Askew Named Boatcade Queen

Mrs. Miriam Askew of Sanford was chosen Queen of the Klamath Boat-A-Cade Friday night.

Judges chose the tall blonde housewife at a Clewiston Elks Club dinner which marked the end of the three-day boat trip. There were 560 boats on the trip along the Klamath River across Lake Okeechobee to Clewiston. They came from 34 states.

Mrs. Askew said she was "very surprised" when the judges made their choice. Her husband Thomas Askew, ADI, is at the Sanford Naval Air Station. The couple came to Sanford from Atlanta four years ago. Mrs. Askew is a secretary to Sanford Attorney Karlisle Housholder.

Cold Front Comes To Area, Disrupts Power

Seminole County and Sanford got their first taste of winter early this morning as the temperature dipped to 49 degrees.

The cool weather in the area last night also interrupted electric service in parts of town.

At 10:15 p. m. yesterday, cold cracked the insulation on a transmission line north of Titusville that supplies electricity to this area.

A spokesman for the Florida Power and Light Co. estimated that several hundred homes were without electricity for 20 minutes until service was restored.

Area residents were warned by the weather bureau today to get out their sweaters as temperatures tonight are expected to be between 35 and 60 degrees.

In other parts of the state and country UPI reported a cold front tightened its grip today ringed down the curtain on the 1959 hurricane season, and a five-inch snowfall blanketed the mountain regions of Tennessee.

In the Norfolk-Portsmouth, Va., area residents were just mopping up from a torrential rain that struck over the weekend, killing at least one person and causing extensive property damage from flood waters.

The cool weather firmly took hold Sunday night, dropping temperature readings in Florida counties into the low 40's.

It was the death knell for the 1959 hurricane season, which spawned ten tropical storms, including killer-hurricane Gracie.

"A tropical storm formation now would indeed be an unusual phenomenon," said Forecaster Arnold Sugg. He explained the cold front would stamp out the "ingredients" which tropical storms need to form—warm air and seas.

The first snow of the season in Tennessee was reported in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Officials reported the road to Clingman's Dome and the newly-opened observation tower was closed for a short period while rangers manned snow plows to clear it. Tourists flocked to the area at a rate of 100 cars per hour Sunday.

Heavy rains on the Norfolk-Portsmouth area marked the second flooding downpour the area has experienced in a month. Nearly four inches of rain fell during a six-hour period Saturday, forcing at least four families to leave their homes. The roofs of several buildings collapsed.

The rain caused the death of Lawrence White, 62, of Portsmouth. He was found drowned in a flooded drainage ditch.

A cloudburst raised by several feet the level of creek water flowing under the Natural Bridge, a tourist attraction near Rossmore, Va., causing an estimated $5,000 damage.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House announced today that all 13 members of the International Development Advisory Board have resigned because Congress cut off funds for the group. # Car Fished Out Of Lake Monroe; Driver Unhurt

Seminole County law enforcement officers fished a car from the waters of Lake Monroe Saturday and were kept busy investigating numerous traffic mishaps in the city and area.

Early Saturday morning a trucker on Highway 17-92 saw a car in the waters of Lake Monroe and called the sheriff's office.

With the aid of the Florida Highway Patrol, the car was fished out but no body was found inside. Officers were puzzled until a few hours later. Joseph Acker, who gave his address as the Blue Bird Motel, Fern Park, walked into the sheriff's office and told them he was forced off the road but managed to get out of the car before he veered into the muddy waters.

"I was shaken up a little but managed to get home," Acker said, adding that he escaped by the window before the car hit the water.

The highway patrol charged Acker with speeding.

Late yesterday, Richard Thorns a Sanford Negro, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, running a red light and improper brakes after he collided with a truck driven by Claude C. Howard at the intersection of 25th St. and Sanford Ave.

Saturday afternoon, a two-car collision at 20th St. and Sanford Ave. resulted in $150 damage, but no injuries to the drivers.

Tommy Toeves of 1246 Randolph St. was charged with failure to yield the right of way after he crashed into a car operated by Mitchell Hillard of Webster. Damage to Hillard's car was estimated at $250 and $100 to Toeves' vehicle.

Intelligence Agent Dies, Wife Survives Suicide Pact

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Relatives of James A. Woodbury, an analyst with the hush-hush Central Intelligence Agency, said today that pressures of his job must have driven him to join in a bizarre suicide pact with his wife, Woodbury, 32, and his wife stood on a cliff overlooking the Potomac River at Great Falls Saturday. Holding hands, the two plunged 30 feet into the churning rapids.

His body was swept down the river but Mrs. Woodbury, also 32, was found later sitting on a rocky ledge at the river's edge.

Witnesses said she wanted to throw herself back into the swirling water but they stopped her. She was under treatment for shock at a hospital here today.

Mrs. Woodbury told police she and her husband had decided to die together because "they wanted to put him in a psycho ward."

The statement was interpreted to mean that Woodbury's superiors had urged him to seek psychiatric treatment.

The couple, who have two children, recently returned from a two-year tour of duty in Germany.
