

Market Slump - - Shock

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market has been dropping for weeks, but what happened Monday surprised most Wall Streeters, they said today.

For a comparison of statistics they reached as far back as 1929, year of a decline which still makes old-timers shudder. Some pointed out that most of the conditions which made investors yell "fire" in 1929 were not present and there were other statistics which seemed to indicate someone would call "halt" to the down hill rush. The question was when.

The New York Stock Exchange, the nation's largest and the bell-wether for most investors, had no comment at its New York office. But down in San Antonio, Tex., G. Keith Funston, president of the exchange, said Monday's plunge was "nothing more than a manifestation of a free economy."

A. W. Zelomek, author and economist said the paper loss "might affect some areas." But he said the decline "has looked overdone. The advance was overdone too."

A major Wall Street house said the selloff represented the "speculative excesses of the past three or four years" coming home to roost. Because of the emotional state of the market it could not be determined whether this would be the low. "But on the figures, the statistics, the earnings, the dividends and the general healthy state of the U. S. economy, stocks are rapidly becoming realistic."

Briefly, what happened to the market Monday was this: The paper values of stocks — and this is regardless of the true value of the industries which issued them, the prospects for the economy or their dividend rates — shrank about $28.5 billion on the "big board." This did not include losses on the American Stock Exchange, nation's second largest, or in the sprawling over-the-counter market where far more issues are available for trading than on the exchanges.

Volume of 9,350,000 shares was heaviest since the 9,572,000 of July 21, 1953. The drop in the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks, down to 576.93, was 34.95 points, biggest single day's drop since the 38.33 of Oct. 28, 1929. Of 1,375 issues traded, 1,212 lost and 75 gained.

At the close of trading, the ticker tape was 69 minutes behind the actual transactions. This is the standard by which the exchange measures the lateness of its reporting while trading is in progress. But the cleanup, the more detailed reporting of all transactions and price changes, ran until 5:51 p. m. on round lots, and eight minutes later on other figures.

Tiger Tales

Operation "Power Dive" is over and you can be justly proud of your "Tigers" tonight. They flew a very creditable 158 hours during this round-the-clock Fleet Exercise, Power Dive started on the morning of the 16th and continued on until the evening of the 19th.

During the operation the USS Independence (CVA-62) participated with other units of the Task Force simulating full wartime conditions. The "Tigers" of Heavy Attack Squadron One could be heard launching at all hours in their mighty A3D "Skywarriors."

During those long hours this Battle Efficiency "E" Award Winning Squadron again demonstrated its prize winning form as they met each and every commitment with the smartness and determination of a professional Naval Aviation Fighting Team. During an operation such as this, when it's time to rest, the "Tigers" don't sleep! They "Catnap" and remain always on the alert.

Congratulations are in order for Cdr. Boudinot our CO, and Lt. "Rich" Gralow, our sterling Flight Officer. They both became "Centurions" during the Exercise having made their 100th landing on the flight deck of the Big "I." We also want to congratulate our five new "Tiger Chiefs": W. J. Dulek, ATCA, J. N. Sutton, AQCA, K. R. Muller, YNCA, W. J. Thompson, ATCA and M. A. Gross, DKCA, and the other fifty-five enlisted men who advanced in rating on the 16th. These advancements demonstrate how perseverance, hard work, and devotion to duty lead to a successful Naval Career.

We'll be dropping the "Hook" in Geona, Italy on Wednesday the 21th, and the "Tigers" are looking forward to meeting our Italian friends and visiting their beautiful and historical seaport.

Bus Passenger Goes Berserk

CHICAGO (UPI) — A berserk bus passenger was shot to death by police early today after he stabbed and critically wounded two Greyhound Lines drivers and terrorized 41 passengers aboard a Chicago-to-San Francisco bus.

The knife-wielding passenger was tentatively identified from papers on his body as German-born Miles Sava Breklich, 27, of San Francisco.

Wilfred Doss, 41, Addison, Ill., who was at the wheel of the bus when the altercation began, suffered stab wounds in the neck, left side and back.

Don Paul, 38, Des Moines, Iowa, the relief driver aboard, was wounded near the heart.

Doss and Paul were listed in fair condition and doctors at Illinois Research Hospital said they would live.

Also hospitalized was a Marine, Richard Williams, who was en route to the West Coast for duty at the 3rd Area Airways. Williams was under treatment for shock. Doctors said he did not appear to have been wounded although his clothing was covered with blood.

Hungarian Refugee Is Guest Of Altamonte Sixth Grade

Tibor Menyhart, a refugee from the Hungarian rebellion in 1956, was special guest last Wednesday morning of Altamonte Elementary's sixth grade large block class.

He told of living under Communism as a child and high school student and how, after participating in the student rebellion, he escaped on foot across the Austrian border coming to the United States where, sponsored by an Episcopal priest, he went on to finish college at Rollins, graduating in December of last year.

In a dramatic, yet unemotional presentation, he outlined the basic philosophies underlying Communism and drew a qualified comparison to the American way of life. He itemized many steps through which people become enslaved when a government does too much for them pointing particularly to the loss of personal freedom.

Now a naturalized citizen, Menyhart's loyalty to his adopted country was evident throughout the talk which stressed the dangers of taking freedom for granted and suggested many ways for the children to gain an increased appreciation of their country.

The talk concluded with a question and answer period during which many pertinent questions were asked by the students.

The fifth grade class also was invited to attend the program, one of many interesting studies and talks presented during the past year through the block system of teaching.

Kennedy Is 45 Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was 45 years old today — a youth among venerable world statesmen, a scarred veteran of political crises at home.

Beyond greetings from his wife and children this morning and felicitations from his staff, a regular work day came ahead of a real birthday observance.

A quiet family dinner party was set for tonight at Glen Ora, the Kennedy country place outside Middleburg, Va., where the president will spend Memorial Day before returning to the White House Thursday.

Rotary Hears Predictions Of Trouble Coming

World traveler Henry Simpson of Geneva, just back from a three months South Pacific cruise predicted to Rotarians Monday that Bali would be the next trouble spot in the Pacific.

Simpson, a well-seasoned traveler, who has visited more than 40 countries in the past 40 years, based his predictions on the bad economic condition of the country, the dictator-type government, the build-up of armed might and the squads of troops who were seen at all points, as well as planes which buzzed the ship on their voyage.

Such things as soap, lipstick, men's clothes, and cigars are in such short supply that they bring high trades in the black market in the country of Bali, Simpson said.

He remarked that New Zealand and Australia were two of the most socialized countries he had ever seen, with strict 40 hour weeks, no work of any kind on weekends for anyone, and cradle to the grave care by the government, paid for by taxes of 40 percent of the income.

Simpson praised Sidney, Australia, as the most beautiful harbor in the world, but decried the opinion of the newspapers and populace there which believe that all Americans are enormously rich and wealthy.

Simpson declared that "Americanized" Samoa, once the home of the finest, healthiest natives, is now spoiled. The men have become fat and lazy and leave all the work for the women to do, and everything comes out of cans, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson returned the last of April from the three month cruise which took them from Fort Lauderdale through the Panama Canal, to Mexico, Hawaii, and then down through the South Pacific Islands to Australia, up through the Near East to HongKong and back to Hawaii and the trip home. While in HongKong the Simpsons attended the International Rotary convention.

FBI Hunting Suicide Pact In Bomb Plant

CENTREVILLE, Iowa (UPI) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation today was expected to take over the main responsibility in the probe of last week's Continental Airlines jet crash which killed 45 persons.

The FBI was reported to be concentrating its efforts on a possible murder-suicide pact in which a bomb apparently was exploded in a rear washroom of the Boeing 707 as it flew as 39,000 feet over Unionville, Mo., en route from Chicago to Los Angeles by way of Kansas City, Mo.

An executive of an insurance company which wrote in-flight policies on some of those aboard the stricken plane said Monday that if there was a murder-suicide plot "everything points to passengers who lived in Kansas City or the vicinity."

The United States manufactures 500 billion wooden and paper safety matches annually.

"I MADE IT MYSELF!" is the proud boast of these young ladies of the ninth grade Home Ec. class at Seminole High, who gave a fashion show and tea for their mothers Friday. The girls displayed the outfits they have been working on, and also served refreshments of cookies, petit fours, nuts, mints, coffee and punch that they made themselves. Sanford Ave. with his wife and three children.

mittee on Mental Health, charged with securing the survey and appropriated $25,000 for the cost. Late in April of 1962 a contract was signed with the American Psychiatric Assn. to conduct the survey at a cost of $32,000, the extra amount needed was provided out of private funds.

Today, Seminole County has 105 mental patients in State Hospitals, 79 at Chattahoochee, 14 at Arcadia and 12 at Northeast Florida State Hospital, MacClenny.

County Checks Legal 'Rights' On Alleged Tax Roll Inequities

The County Commission may send County Attorney Harold Johnson to Tallahassee "if necessary" to determine what their "legal responsibility is regarding alleged charges of inequities on the county tax roll."

The board asked Johnson to look into the situation and "go up to the capital or, get an attorney general's decision" on the matter.

Commissioner James P. Avery told the board Tuesday that there was a lot of criticism directed at the board recently regarding articles in the press on these "so called inequities by the tax assessor and I for one would like to know where our legal responsibility is."

Avery said some very serious charges have been leveled in the press and if "they are true there should be something we can do about it."

The commissioner also said that from the way he reads the paper, charges have been made that the tax assessor has made a "deliberate attempt to lower assessments in some areas."

3,780 Out Of 12,885 Cast Ballots

The canvassing board met late this morning and certified the county election. Official results show that Lee Gary polled 1,904 while Pitt Varnes had 1,784. In the railroad and utility commission race, Jim Blanton polled 2,091 while Jerry Carter had 1,038. There were no major changes in the democratic committee races.

Unofficial figures show that Gary polled 1,900 votes to Varnes 1,747. Of the 12,885 registered Democrats in the county, only 3,780 went to the polls.

With the first 18 precincts in Gary led by only two votes, 1,354 to 1,352. However, Gary grabbed 339 out of the 378 votes cast in Oviedo and that told the story.

A vote-by-vote precinct total shows:
Precinct 1: Gary 63, Varnes 84; Precinct 2: Gary 79, Varnes 52; Precinct 3: Gary 147, Varnes 132; Precinct 4: Gary 26, Varnes 72.

Wall Streeters Man Offices Despite Holiday

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wall Street was able to assume a holiday mood today and used the Memorial Day breather to clean up from the most frenetic trading in 33 years. Investors Tuesday recovered more than $3.5 billion of the paper values lost on Monday and checked a downward trend of six days in spectacular fashion.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange, the nation's largest securities trading mart, was 14,750,000 shares. Brokers were happy to give up leisure time today to staff their offices and provide counsel for befuddled patrons. The Dow-Jones average of 30 industrial stocks ended at 603.96, up 27.03 points on the day, a recovery of about 70 per cent of the 34.95 point drop Monday. Standard & Poor's 500 stock index was 58.08, up 2.58.

But it was hours after the gong sounded to end trading, to the cheers of investors on the floor, before the statistics could be assembled. The last of the delayed sales figures sputtered out on the ticker tape four hours and 45 minutes after trading stopped. The last price figures cleared at 8:07 p.m. EDT. The American Stock Exchange tickers were not so far behind, but Amex trading was highest for the year, 5,330,000 shares. The day had started with the trend lower but shortly after noon, with the tape already far late, "flash" price showed some of the blue chips beginning a comeback. From then on the issues which go into the averages mostly made gains and held them. Sources were agreed on one thing: The low levels to which stocks had been driven, noticeably on Monday but coming after a six-day slide, had attracted plenty of buyers who thought they knew a good thing when they saw it. Whether the momentum would carry over into Thursday after the holiday remained to be seen. Not all stocks joined in the rise Tuesday and buyers' attention might be turned to the laggards selectively. When the tumult died, final tallies showed that of 1,399 issues traded for the day, 630 went up, 637 went down and 132 were unchanged. On Monday there had been 1,212 declines against 74 advances.

Other factors seen in the market were these: —A few brokerage houses had sent out recommendations to buy after Monday's sell-off. —Washington news was encouraging. Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges talked of tax cuts on individual and corporate income, although other administration leaders failed to join loudly in his song. Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and some other Democratic leaders called for passage of a tax credit proposal designed to help businessmen investing in new equipment. Chairman Walter Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers indicated the market was going against a trend when indicators on the economic front were going up. —Some institutions were reported in the market. Part of the rise in the prices showed large-bloc purchases.

British Hopeful Of Revival Too

LONDON (UPI) — Traders on London's stock exchange, reeling from their worst day since the war, hoped today the partial recovery on Wall Street would spur a similar revival here. Whether "bargain hunters" like those who pepped up Tuesday's Wall Street trading would perform similar surgery in Europe was the big question. Wall Street's "Black Monday" was replayed as "Gloomy Tuesday" in London and on other European stock exchanges. Paper prices fell by a total of $5.6 billion in London alone. The Financial Times' ordinary share index fell 18 points to 261.30—a 6.5 per cent drop, more severe than the 5 per cent New York collapse and the worst in the 27 years of index's history. Nothing comparable to it has been seen here since London's market fell 5.4 per cent after the Munich crisis of September 1938. The watchword today from press, pundits and exchange leaders was: "Keep calm and hope for the best." Stock exchange chairman, Lord Ritchie, advised small investors to "put your heads down and let the wind blow over them."

"One must get this into perspective," the Financial Times said. Most newspapers said flatly that the present situation, either here or in New York, bore no resemblance to the crash of 1929. But European investors faced worries not affecting their Wall Street counterparts. These worries centered on the wave of strikes that have been plaguing governments in England, France, Austria and Spain and the end of the post-war boom in West Germany. In Frankfurt, the German market hit its lowest point since 1948. Stock prices in Italy tumbled an average 3 per cent. The Brussels market suffered its worst beating since the war and the Amsterdam exchange reported huge cuts in some blue-chip issues. In Paris, Figaro's Raymond Aron said that "if follies are not committed, the drops in prices will not be enough to set off a paralysis of activity."

House investigators say flatly the Kennedy administration erred in naming Texas promoter Billie Sol Estes to the federal cotton advisory committee at a time when his manipulations in cotton were officially suspect.

They have had some familiarity with this sort of laxity. Years ago a man was allowed to serve many months on a grain export advisory committee, even though he was then under indictment for illegal activities in that very field.

By and large, however, both congressional and FBI investigators are encountering heavy frustrations as they probe the vast Agriculture Department for signs of favored treatment.

What gets the investigators down is the huge morass of administrative regulations by which the department is largely governed internally.

These rules, laid down by department heads over a long span, are so numerous, so complex and so varied as to afford sanction—in the investigators' view—for almost any course of action.

How does any agency of government get so encrusted with conflicting and overlapping rules?

Congress, in writing legislation, generally sketches in only the broad outlines. To make a law "work," the department in question usually is given wide discretionary power to make regulations. Inevitably, these pile up, like barnacles fastened to a ship's hull.

Congress can hardly solve this problem by legislating every detail. Agriculture and other big departments would be running to the lawmakers with endless appeals for "updating" amendments. There would be time on Capitol Hill for little else.

What about major administrative reorganizations? Three times since 1950, plans for some reorganizations of the Department of Agriculture have been sent to Congress.

The only successful one, in 1953, was a redo of the beaten 1960 proposal—an original Hoover commission plan. Basically it was designed to concentrate more of the department's authority in the secretary's hands. In any shift of department functions, he was directed to make operations simpler and more efficient.

Results since 1953 are hardly cheering.

When bureaucracy becomes so overgrown as to blur the lines so that right and wrongdoing get tangled up in complicated regulations, free government stands in some danger. This may prove one lesson of the Estes case.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Newspapers still have "cuts" which is why they let me taunt the Food & Drug Administration and demand that the latter either put up or shut up. The FDA is postulating and thus far has not cited any evidence at all. Yet it is using the power of the government to persecute little merchants.

CASE M-433: Vivian Edmondson, aged about 38, is a spunky but very articulate housewife of Columbus, Ohio. "Dr. Crane," she said on the phone, "I have read your newspaper column in which you outlined the possibility that many or all of the ocean's 44 water soluble chemicals may be proved of benefit in deficiency ailments.

"And we have tried the sea salt with very good effects. So have many of our friends. But recently the president of the American Medical Association ran a signed article in which he catalogued the sea salt with other forms of medical quackery.

"He said it has no therapeutic value whatever in arthritis and the Food and Drug Administration has even claimed it has no medical value for any human ailments.

"Yet they never cited even one patient or one doctor's report of any test cases. They simply pontificated and apparently felt that their high medical or governmental positions would instantly intimidate all newspaper readers.

"Dr. Crane, when you wrote about the sea salt, you said your father-in-law, then aged 86, came out of coma and his arthritic right hip limbered up to the point he could even cross that right foot over his left knee to remove his shoe and sock at night.

"You also cited other cases. But the president of the A.M.A. and the FDA have thus far cited not one case. So how do they get by with their unsupported charges?"

Mrs. Edmondson has cited one of the greatest hazards to the future of this free Republic, namely, the tendency of people to accept uncritically the pontificated statements of bureaucrats, without demanding proof.

Your newspaper is doing a patriotic service to expose all attempts to regiment thinking and stifle private business by bureaucrats.

Newspapers are the last bastion of defense against domination by a central government.

The American Dental Association has shown the great value of the ocean's fluorine to reduce tooth decay.

Does the FDA wish to say the American Dental Association is unscientific and in error?

Our Department of Agriculture also reports soil deficiencies of many of these water soluble chemicals. Farmers must make up many of these deficiencies before they can even receive their Soil Bank checks.

Does the FDA think the Department of Agriculture is hoaxing the farmers of America?

Sea iodine has been added to table salt since 1924 to banish simple goiter. Didn't the FDA ever hear of that fact before?

Biochemists, such as Dr. James H. Shaw of Harvard, have identified 30 of the ocean's 44 chemicals in tooth enamel dentin and bone.

Does the FDA wish to say Dr. Shaw and his biochemical cohorts are liars?

Apparently the FDA went off half-cocked in its personal feud with me and stupidly stated: "There is nothing of any therapeutic value in the sea."

I have hundreds of clinical cases to support my newspaper comments about sea salt. The FDA has cited not even one.

So you readers might send for my booklet, "The Ocean's 44 Trace Chemicals," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

Let the FDA either put up or shut up and stop oppressing little merchants who sell sea salt.

Looks Like a Long Cold Summer

Phil Newsom Says . . .

U Thant 'Big' Decision

U Thant soon must make up his mind whether he wants to be secretary general of the United Nations for a full term.

Some friends of the mild-spoken, cheroot-smoking Buddhist express doubts that he wants the job beyond next

April 10—the end of the late Dag Hammarskjold's term to which the General Assembly appointed him last November.

Despite the lame-duck nature of his appointment, Thant's six-month conduct in the office has not looked like that of a man treading carefully to avoid anything that could wreck his election to a full term.

He has been sharp, in a quiet diplomatic way, with East and West alike on occasion.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, visiting here last month, was reported to have given Thant his government's backing for a five-year term in his own right.

Washington has been careful to steer clear of official endorsement lest it prove a cold war kiss of death that could bring Russia's veto if only because he was supported by the United States. But last Sunday, U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, in a nationwide television interview, waxed enthusiastic about Thant.

"The United Nations was fortunate, I think, to find such a distinguished diplomat to fill his demanding post," Stevenson said. "His ability and his equanimity are universally recognized and he has served well in his first months of office."

The answer to whether the "acting" will be removed from Thant's secretary general title probably will come late this summer, when he visits Moscow.

The Russians are not likely to announce any endorsement. But the reception the slightly-built Burmese gets in the Soviet capital will signal the Kremlin's attitude.

Letters

To The Editor

Dear Editor:
While my husband and I were visiting your very nice city we dropped out to the Melrose Skating Rink and while there they had the dances for the night and there were two young people there dancing on skates that were out of this world.
The only thing we could learn about them was, he is a young Navy man called Joe and the girl was 16 or 17 and they called her Rena.

Your town must be very proud of them. As I write this letter we are on our way back to New York, but will be watching your paper for news of these two.
I hope you will thank them through your paper for the wonderful evening they gave us.
Keep skating, kids.
Thank you.

Jim and Mary
P. S. Hope to see you next year.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — The White House Conference on Economic Issues wasn't an hour old before it was obvious that the big problem is the role of government in a free enterprise system.

Here were 200 leaders of business, labor and representatives of the general public—principally professors of economics. They were invited to Washington, as President Kennedy said in welcoming them, to offer specific solutions to the nation's worst problems.

And the first thing they did was to turn on government and tell it to get lost, drop dead, stay out of collective bargaining. It wasn't the expected answer.

Everybody agreed, in principle, with AFL-CIO President George Meany that workers be free to organize, bargain collectively and strike, without dictatorial government interference.

Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg, as lead-off man speaking for the Kennedy administration, said the government is committed to private enterprise as the generator of wealth and to free collective bargaining as the source of just distribution. It is against compulsory arbitration, government imposition of the terms of settlement. It does not propose wage or price controls.

And then came the "howevers" and "buts." For Goldiers, the exception was that government had to minimize economic conflicts. Also, that any government popularly elected had a mandate to define the public interest and lay down guidelines for collective bargaining. The inference was that the public interest came first, not the interest of management or labor.

It did no good. For the man who followed him, President J. W. Keener of the B. F. Goodrich Co., laid down as tough a line of opposition to government intervention in labor management relations as has been heard in years.

He rejected the Kennedy administration guideline that labor is entitled to annual pay increases equal to gains in productivity. He declared that introduction of third parties—meaning the government—into labor disputes led to compromises that did not settle their separate but mutual interests.

Finally, Keener castigated government laws which grant to labor unions privileges denied to management. What he was shooting at here were the antitrust laws which prevent business from combining but do not prevent big unions from shutting down whole industries.

William H. Davis, veteran labor relations expert who as chairman of the War Labor Board had a leading role in all the major disputes and headaches of that period, spoke as representative for the public. His first proposal was repeal of the 80-day cooling-off period injunction under the Taft-Hartley law because it hadn't worked. But what he advocated in its place was not less but more government intervention in national emergencies.

His drastic proposal is that in strikes affecting the public interest, the government should be given power to seize industries and draft striking workers. They would be ordered to resume production until an impartial board could make a fair award on the issues involved in the dispute.

In case the nation's railroads should be shut down by a strike, Davis declared that the government should take action. Surprisingly enough, Keener agreed with him.

This seemed to be the consensus: Neither labor nor management wants government interference as long as either has a chance to win what it wants by collective bargaining. The public doesn't care if it is not inconvenienced.

But when either the public or a management or labor stands to lose, then government interference is a good thing and the fine theory of free and uninhibited collective bargaining, strikes and lockouts goes out the window.

Navy Man Hurt In Car Crash

The intersection of the Longwood-Oviedo Road and HWY. 17-92 was the scene of an accident Monday evening involving cars driven by James M. Lee, VAH 3, and William F. Schwab, Tampa. Lee was sent to the Naval Air Station hospital with a badly lacerated chin. Schwab was uninjured, although his car was damaged to the extent of $650.

Schwab, driving north on the highway in a 1959 Oldsmobile, made a left turn in front of Lee, who was going south on the through route. State Highway Trooper J. L. Sykes, who covered the accident, says, "The only thing Lee could do was stand on his brakes and plow into Schwab's car."

The Tampa man, who is 63, was charged with failing to yield the right of way. Damage to Lee's car totaled an estimated $650.

Some of the suggestions made to prospective house buyers are enough to turn us purple. "Pull out this wall and you'll have a dandy living room . . ." "Rip off that porch and the house will be filled with sunshine . . ."

Maybe so. But sometimes knocking out a wall results in a living room full of plumbline. Ripping off that porch may fill you with more debts than sunshine. Seminole High Honors Top Athletes At Sports Banquet

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor

Harvey was awarded the Whitey McLucas Memorial Award for the Best All-Around Athlete at Seminole High School at Tuesday night's All-Sports Banquet.

About four hundred people were on hand to see Coach Jim Pigott present the award.

Mrs. McLucas, the donor of the award, was unable to attend. Bill Phagan was presented the Peter Schaal trophy for the most valuable member of the football squad.

The exciting awards ceremonies were preceded by a huge banquet of turkey with all the trimmings, served in the cafeteria to athletes, parents, coaches, teachers, and friends. Following the dinner, the group was dismissed to the auditorium for the award presentations.

First on the agenda was the election of new Booster Club officers. Officers for next year's term include, D. H. MacGillis, president; Lee Samuel, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Carman, secretary, and Mrs. H. L. McFarlin, treasurer.

Square Dancing Boost

"I'm all for square dancing," said Mayor J.H. Crapps Saturday as he and Mrs. Crapps led off with the Grand March at the Annual Central Florida Square Dance.

"It's good clean fun for the adults of our community," he added, "and the small subsidy which the city gives through the recreation department is well paid for. We suggest that our neighboring cities promote their square dance teams in this manner!"

Edward Kellogg of Ocala was elected new president of the Central Florida group, with John Sullivan of Daytona as vice president, Maxine Stafford of Ocala as secretary and Randy Davis of Leesburg as treasurer.

Delegates from the 26 member clubs were introduced at the meet. These delegates form the governing body of the Central Florida Square Dancers Assn.

The Starlight Promenade Club was host to the annual event.

The Seminole County Red Cross Swimming Instructors hope to be able to procure one of the life-like demonstrator dolls to use with their instruction. The cost is approximately $165 and a generous donation towards this cause has already been made. (Herald Photo)

HIGH ON THE LIST of Things To Do is a show which promises to be very enjoyable, and also will serve to bring a little glow of satisfaction to the heart.

MRS. BARLOW

show scheduled for 8:00 p.m. Thursday at the Seminole High School auditorium.

Lots of local people are willingly donating their time and talent to a show all about dancing, which will feature just about every kind of dance you might like to see.

There'll be snappy tapping, graceful ballet, may be cha-cha, rumba, lang and mambo; and of course that gay, delightful Can-Can.

There'll be a razz-ma-tazz Charleston, 20's style, the cuckoo dance, some intricate square dancing and maybe some others.

There'll be songs about dancing, too, by the smooth voices of Margaret Echelberger and Paul Lewis.

All in all, it will be a show that promises to have the audience tapping their feet and clapping their hands.

Melba (Mrs. John) Barlow, the guiding light of the Seminole County Association for Retarded Children, is general director of the show and tickets will be on sale at the door.

The Little Red Schoolhouse which is a small, struggling school for mentally retarded children, has to depend entirely on the generosity and kindness of various civic organizations and some of the Navy Wives clubs to keep in operation.

This is all the schooling available for these children, who are not able to attend public schools, and there are many mentally retarded children who have the potential to learn a good many things, given the proper teacher, the proper facilities and endless, almost individual care and effort.

No funds are available through the public school system for such a school as this, and without it these educable children have no hope except to stay at home with such teaching as their individual parents can give to them.

Experiments have shown, however, that many retarded children are educable to a

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: How can a mother teach her son obedience and respect for his elders? When I tell him to pick up his clothes or straighten out his bureau drawers, he sticks out his tongue and makes faces at me. Then he runs to his father for protection. I am tired of his acting up. I certainly have tried my best to raise him right, but I don't know where I got off the track. He is no child, Abby. He is 28 years old. What can be done?
FED UP

DEAR ABBY: Either this son of yours is teasing you, in which case you should ignore it—or he has the mentality of a six-year-old, in which case he needs a psychiatrist and all the help he can get.

DEAR ABBY: I have never been married, but I have nine children running from 10 months old up to 16 years old. The children are living with my mother and my aunt, but the Welfare is supporting them. I am not in love with their Daddy any more, but he hangs around my mother's house and also my aunt's house to be where the children are. He told the Welfare people that he would marry me and take care of the children if I would marry him. Should I marry him when I don't feel any love for him? I am living with someone else who treats me nice. PENSACOLA

DEAR PENSACOLA: Get back where you belong, marry the man and raise those children. Whether you are "in love" with him is unimportant now that you have nine children who didn't ask to be born.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor boy sent me an invitation to his high school graduation. I wasn't able to go, but I always liked this boy so I put a five-dollar bill in an envelope with a little note wishing him success and telling him to buy himself something with it. The following week my five-dollar bill was returned to me with the following note: "Thanks just the same, but I have a good-paying job now and you need this more than I do." It was signed with the boy's signature but in his mother's handwriting. I don't think this mother ever gave the boy my gift. Should I write and ask him or what?
VERY, VERY HURT

DEAR HURT: If the mother intercepted your gift (which is likely), she wouldn't hesitate to intercept your note to her son. Wait until you see the boy alone and give him your gift in person.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FEELS GUILTY": You are not your brother's keeper: Neither are you his banker. It's up to him to pay off his own debts. Failing to do so, his relatives need not feel guilty in the presence of his debtors.

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, care of this paper.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

We The Women:

Why does a woman have to snarl up her checkbook or turn right out of a left-hand lane to cause a man to comment: "If that isn't just like a woman?" Isn't it also just like a woman to—
Arrive on the double when she hears of trouble, ready to roll up her sleeves and go to work quietly and efficiently?
Smooth an awkward situation with a tactful or admiring remark?
Make any kind of sacrifice for her family?
Take any kind of house and give it the touches that make it look like a home?
Know just what to do in a sickroom to make the patient more comfortable?
Appear to do without effort things that take careful preparation and much unseen labor?
Take on almost any kind of unpaid job she is asked to do?

Be the best press agent any member of her family has? Overlook the faults of those she loves?
Manage, somehow, to look older than she is until she is 20 and after that to start looking younger than her years?
Know exactly what to do with leftovers to make them into a tasty dish?
Be able to stretch a dollar—when necessary—and even to seem to enjoy doing it?
Have an eye that sees potential beauty in an old piece of junk furniture, a bare yard, or a little girl with braces on her teeth?
Be right there when she is needed by any member of her family?

These, too, are "just like a woman," but have you ever heard a man use that phrase in connection with any one of them?

VAH-1 Wives Hold Plastic Party

Taxes are unpopular, but they are essential. Dues, funds, ways and means—no matter what it is called—is important to a club as well, and no one knows it any better than the officers' wives of VAH-1. But they have added a new "twist." They have fun when the group raises money!

Mrs. Lloyd Bowman and Mrs. Paul Wireman came up with an idea. They reasoned since summer is upon us in full force, and picnicing along with going to the beach marks every Tigeress' calendar, a plastic party would be the thing. The wives needed to replenish their picnic equipment, and as predicted they found all kinds of goodies to add to their kitchens and picnic baskets when the two hostesses gave the party recently at the Bowman home.

Cool canapes were served along with a colorful punch. The punch, now served for over two years at the wives' functions has become so popular that there is talk of renaming it "Tigeress' Punch." For the "E" winning squadron has as its insignia a perky Tiger smoking a great big cigar.

The group now has enough in their treasury to carry out a new medicated lipstick contains an antiseptic ingredient and a healing agent to help solve such lippy problems as chapping, splitting and peeling.

Jacoby On Bridge

When Pat Connelly of Memphis and I won the master's pairs at the Mid-South regionals in Memphis, it put me again in first place in the national master point standings.

I had never played with Pat before, but had been told that he liked to bid a lot and that he played the cards beautifully.

His no-trump overall with his bare 14 points exemplifies this desire to bid. His defense which beat four spades shows a real expert at his very best.

South won the first diamond with dummy's king, ruffed a small diamond with the ten of spades and led the three of spades.

Pat said to himself, "what is South up to and how can I beat this contract?"

He found the answer to both questions. The answer to the first was that South wanted to set up two diamonds on diamonds. The answer to the second was that if I held the king of hearts, he could beat the hand.

Therefore, Pat rose with the king of spades and led a low heart. I took my king and returned the eight of clubs to cook declarer's goose thoroughly.

Supposing South had held the king of hearts? He would have made his contract, but he also would have made it against any other defense.

TV Previews

7:30-8:30 p. m. (NBC) Wagon Train. "The John Turnbull Story." Henry Silva, usually cast as a heavy menace, is very good in the role of an Indian who vainly tries to keep invading Whites from grabbing his people's land. Though aided by a sympathetic lawyer (Steven Geray), he finds that legal ownership means little when there is gunplay. This one prominently features regulars Bill Hawks (Terry Wilson) and Charley Wooster (Frank McGrath), who have a tough time convincing the Indian they're friendly.

8-8:30 p. m. (CBS) Window On Main Street. (Rerun) The first in the summer schedule of reruns in this episode which featured Parker Fennelly who created the role of Titus Moody years ago. He plays a pennypincher who thinks Chris possesses mystic powers when she puts a whammy on his cow whose milk turns sour. Robert Young stars with Constance Moore as Chris.

8:30-9:30 p. m. (CBS) Checkmate. "Portrait of A Man Running." (Rerun) Ralph Bellamy and Chester Morris team up as guest stars and come up with one of the better shows in the series. They play a governor and his political manager, desperately trying to win another election against a reform candidate. When someone takes a shot at the governor, Checkmate, Inc. is called in to protect him, getting their feet bogged in the political mire. Anthony George, Sebastian Cabot and Doug McClure are starred.

Strikes... Spares

By John A. Spolaki
Man Oh Day! Did we ever have a good time bowling in Miami over the week-end. As a matter of fact, that's the reason I've goofed on not getting this article in to the Herald on time for publication.

All in all, I believe that two of our teams will come in in the money and that we should have a winner or two for the Singles and Doubles. Since the final positions aren't available at this time, due to the tournament running another week or two, we'll wait until we receive the official announcement before we start spreading the praise on too thick!

Gee, you leave the place for a couple of days and it really starts to pile up!

Don't forget to be at the Civic Center this Saturday at 6:30 P.M. I'm speaking now to all of the members who've signed-up for the banquet, plus their parents, from the Saturday morning Junior Bowling League.

Trophies, prizes, etc. will be awarded at that time and at last count, we had approximately 165 persons planning on being on hand to see their youngsters receive their rewards.

Our summer league will be starting next Saturday, June 9th. If you'd like to have your youngsters entered, please have them at the Lanes on Saturday at 9:30 a.m.

Talking 'bout the youngsters, whether you're seven or seventy we're having a twist party at 1 p.m. this Saturday at the Lanes. We'll have prizes and surprises for one and all. It's FREE. Come on out! Special thanks to Principal Dick Richards for passing on the word to all of his students at Lake Mary School. According to Marty Kinnard, we'll be saluting a different school each week, but it's open to one and all, all the time.

Our Monday morning women's Scotch Doubles got off and running this past week with an indication that there'll probably be 'bout 18 to 20 couples participating. It's lots of fun, gals, and if you're feeling sorry that you missed the first time out, there'll be

Some of the teachers from the Junior High School have issued a challenge to their students. Anybody from the school wanna accept the challenge? Better be careful though 'cause they're real hot kegglers... Misses Blauvelt, Secord, Westgate and Davis and Mr. Bukur and Mr. Ferguson. (I'll betcha a challenge is issued from our Junior League.)

Our Sunday Night Scotch Doubles has a new format in the sense that the handicap is now set at a maximum of 35 pins per game. Betty Callan, Margie Kipp and Sue Jackson tell me that they're gonna have almost 5 couples this coming Sunday. If someone is willing to have a 125 bowler (that's not a mistype, either) I'm available Jones!!! For those of you who've not ever bowled in this tournament, come on out this week and enjoy yourselves.

That'll do it for this week. Remember... there are lots of lanes available every night for open bowling during the summer months.

Despise those blows, and three more Cub homers by Billy Williams, Bob Will and George Altman, the Braves scored six unearned runs in the third inning and never trailed thereafter. Joe Torre clobbered a homer and two singles for the Braves, while Joe Adcock and Amado Samuel also homered. Burdette was the winner and Bob Buhl the loser.

The Pirates came from behind to win after the Cardinals had gone ahead, 6-5, with two runs in the top of the ninth. Don Leppert singled home the tying run in the bottom half of the inning and Don Hoak scored the winning run on Curt Flood's error. Tom Sturdivant gained credit for his third victory while Bobby Shantz suffered his second setback.

Ernie doubled his first time up off Milwaukee starter Bob Hendley and then hit three successive homers off Hendley, Don Nottebart and Lew Burdette to raise his season total to 14. It marked the third time in his career that he had three homers in one game.

The forecast called for the possibility of scattered thunderstorms, winds of enough velocity to be a factor in driving at high speed, and a high temperature in the mid-80s.

The race will pit the 33 fastest cars ever to qualify for this annual struggle of man and machine against nature's resistance against super-speed. The starting cars qualified at an average speed of 147.330 miles per hour, more than two miles an hour above last year's record mark of 145.302.

HIT-HAPPY HARVEY - - - By Alan Maver

HARVEY KUENN, SAN FRANCISCO LEFT FIELDER, IS EITHER MAKING A COME-BACK OR HAS BECOME ATTUNED TO NATIONAL LEAGUE PITCHING - WE MEAN HE STARTED OFF WITH A BANG.

Statistics generally put ball players to sleep. Here are a few though, guaranteed to keep most pitchers awake. —The total of 22 homers in the six major league games played Tuesday was only five shy of the all-time record for a seven-game slate! —Nine home runs, only one short of the National League mark, were hit in one game alone. That was the one in which the Milwaukee Braves outlasted the Chicago Cubs, 11-9, despite three homers and a double by Ernie Banks. —Seven more homers were belted during a game in which the Detroit Tigers bombarded the Baltimore Orioles, 12-4.

The worst may be yet to come, as far as the pitchers are concerned. There are 18 games on tap for today's Memorial Day card. And it was exactly six years ago that the majors set an all-time one-day record of 50 homers, with 26 in the National and 24 in the American.

The Cleveland Indians were idle Tuesday, but still took over sole possession of the AL lead when the Kansas City As nipped the New York Yankees, 2-1.

Jimmy Piersall's 10th inning homer gave the Washington Senators a 7-6 victory over the Los Angeles Angels and the Boston Red Sox hammered four homers in an 8-5 triumph over the Minnesota Twins.

In the only other game played, Pittsburgh took over fourth place from St. Louis in the NL by clipping the Cardinals, 7-6, with a two-run rally in the ninth inning at Pittsburgh.

Banks produced most of Tuesday's fireworks even though he was back in the Cubs' lineup for the first time since being benched last Friday and was tormented by a headache through most of the game.

Ernie doubled his first time up off Milwaukee starter Bob Hendley and then hit three successive homers off Hendley, Don Nottebart and Lew Burdette to raise his season total to 14. It marked the third time in his career that he had three homers in one game.

Jones Rated Top Choice As Speedway Classic Opens

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) —Racing's daredevil drivers challenge death today for the chance of gold and glory in the 46th 300 mile auto race, expected to set a hot humid speed mark in hot humid temperature, for a record purse of nearly $425,000.

The top favorite was record-setting Parrell Jones, who qualified at 150.37 miles per hour, the only driver ever to tour the 2 1/2 mile asphalt track in less than one minute and who will open the race from the pole position.

But four former champions, some outstanding experienced drivers and some challenging rookies were given a chance, too, in the usual "anybody can win" philosophy of this struggle.

Roger Ward, the 1959 winner who was second in 1960 and third last year, A. J. Foyt, last year's winner, Jim Rathmann, who won in 1960, and Troy Ruttman, the 1952 victor, were in the field. Ward qualified second fastest in this year's field and will start next to Jones in the front row.

The forecast called for the possibility of scattered thunderstorms, winds of enough velocity to be a factor in driving at high speed, and a high temperature in the mid-80s.

The race will pit the 33 fastest cars ever to qualify for this annual struggle of man and machine against nature's resistance against super-speed. The starting cars qualified at an average speed of 147.330 miles per hour, more than two miles an hour above last year's record mark of 145.302.

HEAVY Attack Squadron Seven "Peacemaker" Peter D. Anderson, AMSCA was commended at Commanding Officer's Mast for his outstanding leadership, technical knowledge and administrative ability. Particularly noteworthy was his recent participation in the ingenious repair of an A3J-1 stabilizer. The expeditionary manner in which this task was accomplished prevented excessive "down time" of one of the squadron's vitally important "Vigilante" aircraft.

Seminole College Target Date - - Sept. '63

"September, 1963, is the target date for the opening of a new college, tentatively called 'Seminole College', which will be built between now and that date on 300 acres of choice land in North Orlando," declared Dr. Morris Hale, president of Orlando Junior College and the University of Orlando, to a select group of Seminole County leaders at a luncheon meeting Wednesday.

The new school will start its academic career as a junior college offering a standard core curriculum on the academic level required by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the principal accrediting agency in the Southeast.

Hale pointed out that the most important ingredient in floating a new college is not a student body or a board of trustees, but having a suitable climate for an academic institution. "It must be located in an area which will welcome it, which needs it and is aware of the importance of the educational industry. We feel that Seminole County is such a place," said Hale.

John Schwartz, general manager of the North Orlando Co., which is donating 700 acres of land to the new school in the new town, said when he came in Seminole County a year ago he had nothing but troubles. But the sky brightened the day Jack Dodd, chairman of the Land Committee of the University of Orlando Board of Trustees, walked into his office and started to talk him into selling some property to the school to establish a new college.

Schwartz said, "Look, I told him, 'I'll give you the land, you don't have to ask me to sell it to you.'" He pointed out that if anything would make the people of his community proud of their town it would be to have a college located there, and he knew they would welcome it.

Orlando Junior College, Hale said, would continue to be located in Orlando, but the principal campus would be the Seminole County site. He pointed out that there are now 1,300 students using the Orlando campus, which has recently been appraised at over $1,000,000 in value. But it would continue as a junior college only, the principal four year installation and all the graduate and professional schools to be added in years to come would be on the North Orlando campus.

Tentatively the plans call for the establishment of the four year college, with the first class starting in September 1963, and a class being added every year until four year status is reached.

Fitzpatrick: No, all we hear from are these pressure groups. We would like to get an opinion from the people we don't hear from.

Reporter: You mentioned controversial issues. Name some.

Fitzpatrick: Well, franchise directive, home demonstration agent, administrative side . . .

Reporter: Pay raise for county commissioners?

Fitzpatrick: Don't get facetious! Yes, Okay, I'm for a pay raise.

A Sanford Naval Air Station jet flier is one of the men being considered for the second group of Astronauts to be selected by the NASA this summer, Cdr. Louis B. Hoop of VAH-7 announced at Coffee Club today.

Lcdr. Dick Wright, who is presently with the training squadron of the Wing, VAH-3 has applied for admission to the select group of men and expects to be called to Texas soon for an interview by the NASA board, after which he will undergo extensive physical and psychological examinations.

If selected Lcdr. Wright will join the other new Astronauts in the Mercury training program and later the Apollo training program for the Moon shot expected in 1967.

Lcdr. Wright listed the qualifications of an Astronaut. He must be an experienced jet test pilot, familiar with experimental type testing, hold a degree in physical or biological science, be under 35 years of age and less than six feet tall, among other requirements. He must also be in excellent physical and mental condition.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg said today employment figures for this month indicate "a continued improvement in the economy."

Goldberg made the statement in announcing that employment climbed and joblessness dropped during the month.

He announced that total employment rose by 1.4 million to 68.2 million in May about a half-million more than expected. The total was a record high for the month, up one million from the previous high in May 1960 and more than 1.5 million above the month in 1961.

Unemployment fell by 230,000 from April to 3.7 million, continuing the steady six-month decline, he said.

The seasonally adjusted jobless rate fell from 5.5 per cent in April to 5.4 per cent this month, down 1.6 per cent from the 7 per cent unemployment rate a year ago.

NEW SEMINOLE COLLEGE plans were discussed at a luncheon meeting at Spencer's Wednesday. Shown from the left are, John Schwartz, North Orlando Co., Superintendent of Schools R. T. County To Dicker For Osceola Strip

The County Commission will consider budgeting approximately $60,000 during the next fiscal year to purchase outright the Osceola Air Base, The Herald learned today.

The County Commission has authorized Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. and County Attorney Harold Johnson to communicate with General Service Administration officials for the possible outright purchase.

Beckwith said this morning the board appears to favor the purchase outright instead of a lease agreement purchase over a three-to-five year period. The commission had already paid out $87,500 for control of the air strip. Originally the board had agreed to pay off the strip on a 10-year agreement but was turned down by the GSA.

One Vote

Tuesday's race for the Democratic Precinctwoman's job in the 17th Precinct was the only one vote victory that County Registrar Camilla Bruce can remember.

The vote at the Casselberry Fire Station before the absentee votes were tallied stood at 88 for Ann Kerce and 85 for Hope Bennett. The count on the absentee ballots was three for Mrs. Bennett, bringing her total to 88, and one for Mrs. Kerce, which put her just out of reach with a total of 89.

The only other instance where one vote made the difference that Mrs. Bruce can recall was in 1956 when Mary Earle Walker came up with a total of 3,350 votes and the combined total of her four opponents was also 3,350. One more vote cast for Mrs. Walker would have eliminated a runoff election.

Seven Write-Ins By Republicans Bring Confusion

Seven hardy and dedicated Republicans had the nerve to show up in Precincts 13 and 20 Tuesday to cast write-in votes for their choices in the election for State Republican Executive Committee members, according to Camilla Bruce, county registrar.

Startled polls officials called Mrs. Bruce, who checked with Attorney General Ervin's office in Tallahassee and was informed that, strange as it may seem, the forms presented were on the level and the vote should be certified to the Secretary of State along with the other results.

The third American was identified as Daniel Gerber, a representative of the Mammone central committee at Akron, Pa.

ALGIERS (UPI) — Terrorists in Algiers and Oran today shattered the solemnity of the Roman Catholic feast of the Ascension with a flurry of attacks that left eight Europeans dead. One Muslim was wounded.

The toll brought the 1962 terrorist casualty total to 5,303 killed and 10,049 wounded.

A new law went into effect today enabling the draft of European youths into the army to prevent them from joining the outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS).

Friday And Saturday . . . Let's Twist Downtown

Sanford's downtown merchants are planning another big all-out two day sales promotion Friday and Saturday, with bargains all over town, many half-price and one-third off sales and specials on summer time needs.

Theme of the giant two-day sale is based on the popular Twist Dance with each merchant putting his own "twist" into his Herald ad. Especially appropriate at this time are gifts in every category, clothing, jewelry, sports equipment, photographic supplies, stationery and novelty items, shoes, toiletries, luggage, beach and swim equipment, and many other items.

June is gift-giving time for brides and grooms and graduates and just about any kind of merchandise can be a suitable gift for that certain person. Sanford Merchants' Twist Days sales will make it easy to solve these gift needs.

Friday night, a special Twist band, "The Ravens," will play for a giant street dance in a roped off area between Park Ave. and Magnolia Ave. on First St.

Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. with the actual Twist Contest to begin at 9 p.m. Three trophies will be awarded. One each to the best boy and best girl twister, plus $12.50 gift certificates to each, and one to the best couple with a $25 gift certificate.

Troubles Grow For China Reds

Peiping radio today reported excessive rains in central China, adding to woes caused by floods, hailstorms, cold waves and droughts reported earlier in various sections of the vast country.

Three persons were injured in a two car collision at 28th St. and Granada Wednesday afternoon, police reported.

Injured were Donald F. Smith, Leonard Shank and Clyde Howard, all of Sanford. All received lacerations.

No charges have been filed as yet, police said.

One vehicle was operated by Smith while the other was driven by Howard.

Rains Bring Relief Hopes For Crops Rise

Drought-breaking heavy rains whipped into the Sanford and Seminole County area Wednesday proving a saving grace to the county's multi-million dollar agricultural industry.

Rains also helped the city's dwindling water supply and gave home owners the first heavy rainfall for their lawns in close to two months.

Around the nation, a heat wave continued in Texas, where some points reported 100-degree readings Wednesday.

The heaviest rains fell in Mississippi, where McComb measured 3.40 inches in six hours and Greenwood had 1.56 inches. Birmingham had an inch of rain and Alma, Ga., had 1.24 inches.

The Mississippi rains broke a three-week drought, which had threatened harm to cotton and corn crops and delayed soybean planting. But there was no relief for Harrison County, a Gulf Coast area which hasn't had rain for 71 days.

New Orleans got its first rain in 30 days, ending the city's longest May drought in 63 years.

Rain helped ease the worst Georgia drought on record, but more was needed to save the state's tobacco and corn crops. Georgia farmers also were plagued by serious insect infestations.

Stock Market Opens On 'Bright' Note

NEW YORK (UPI) — Buy orders flooded the stock market in early dealings today and prices of major issues rose to levels wiping out the losses suffered in Monday's sharp decline.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market opened on a bright note today. The first shares traded showed gains.

It was a different story from the trading days preceding the Memorial Day holiday when stocks went into a tailspin Monday, then rallied Tuesday in the most frenzied trading since the crash of 1929.

The first report on the ticker this morning was Cities Service preferred, 200 shares of which sold at $102, up $2.

The first blue chip report, Standard Oil of California, was up 75 cents to $55.75 on a sale of 3,300 shares.

Continuing reports on the ticker seemed to bear out Wall Street opinion that the market found a fairly solid bottom at Tuesday's lows and that a slow but steady recovery is in the offing.

U. S. Steel was up 1 1/2 to 64 on a giant block of 20,000 shares. United Aircraft jumped 2 1/2 to 45 on 4,100. C&O in the rails was up 3 1/2 to $24 on 2,500.

Wall St. busied itself behind the scenes during Wednesday's Memorial Day holiday catching up on the bookkeeping hangover from the two most frenzied days of trading since the crash of '29.

The wave of buy orders Tuesday that sent the New York Stock Exchange rebounding to recover $13.5 billion of the $20.8 billion paper plunge on Monday was expected generally to continue at least at market opening today.

Students of the market would not commit themselves to declarations that the bottom had been reached and that the sell-off was over. But there was optimism nonetheless.

Spurring that along was the recovery on European exchanges, where shares tumbled Tuesday in the aftermath of the close-to-the-record sell-off of 9.3 million shares on the New York Stock Exchange Monday. European exchanges, open Wednesday, followed Tuesday's late rebound in New York and shot upward. London, Frankfurt, Zurich and Amsterdam all posted climbing prices.
