Water Of Tennessee River Is Still Rising To Shatter Record

Shines For First Time In Two Weeks At Nashville; City Has 4,000 Refugees
The water gauge at Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 30. (AP)—When the sun shined on Nashville for the first time in nearly two weeks, it shined down on a scene of devastation. The Cumberland river lapped at the improvised gauge at 55.6 feet. It will continue to rise for the next day or two, reaching perhaps another foot in the opinion of the weather bureau.
It is predicted that no appreciable fall will be noted before Tuesday, although there has been no fall since noon Tuesday. The water over the entire state will rise for today and Friday, E. C. Jones, meteorologist, predicted.
From 7 a. m. Wednesday until 11 a. m. this morning the river had risen 1.2 feet at Eddyville, Ky., nine-tenths of a foot at Collinsville, Mo., and eight-tenths of a foot at Carthage, where it is thought to rise slowly, 1.5 feet at Nashville, one foot at Clarksville and 1.2 feet at Eddyville, Ky. Officials at the weather bureau do not venture a prediction as to when a crest will reach here, but further data from the upper river will be available today.
Police estimate today placed the number of flood refugees in Nashville at 4,000, with 1,500 without shelter. The backwaters having inundated large areas of the manufacturing and warehouse districts spread over 200 city blocks, property damage continued to mount above the $2,000,000 mark. The waters covered valuable property in the city's leading wholesale houses and invaded homes and buildings.
It is not an uncommon sight now to see a dwelling on its top side, with the water level on the roof. In Nashville, the water is so high that it is savagely sweeping under Nashville's three traffic lights, only the top of which is left.
The water continues to rise at a rate which the record of 55.6 feet in 1882 began inundating white bluffs in East Nashville, sawed logs from the river, and boats consigned to leave behind the impending destruction.
The kitchen was opened for refugees. There was little hope in removing the material.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IS INDIANA MAN AUTHORITIES SAY

Efforts Made To Locate The Family And Relatives Of Man Killed On Highway At Longwood Late Last Night
County authorities were awaiting word from Kokomo, Ind., today advising disposition of the body of a man identified as John Bohlander of that city, who died last night from a fractured skull after being struck by an automobile on the Sanford-Orlando highway near Longwood.
C. H. Smith, said to be the driver of the machine by which Bohlander was hit, advised the office of Sheriff C. M. Hand immediately following the accident. He picked up the injured man and rushed him to Longwood, from where a message was sent out for medical aid.
The man died before Dr. Ralph Stevens, county physician, could reach Longwood. His skull was fractured, according to the physician.
The lights of an approaching automobile blinded him when he turned from the road to allow it to pass, according to Mr. Smith, and he could not see the right hand side of the road.
Letters and cards in the man's pockets identified him as John Bohlander, 800 West Jackson street, Kokomo, Ind., and a message was sent to the authorities of that city in an effort to locate his relatives.
Longwood residents stated that he had not been seen in that city, and efforts to locate any person who knew where he had been working or from where he had come were unsuccessful at a late hour today.
The body is being held at the undertaking establishment of Miller & Erickson pending word as to its disposition.

Benson Springs To Celebrate Opening Of New Hard Road

Benson Springs is to celebrate the opening of the new highway between that town and the city of Deland this evening with a dinner and dance at the Benson Springs Inn, one of the oldest hotels in the state. The mayors and civic leaders from Deland, Sanford and Orange City are expected to be on the program for the evening, which is made up of speeches and musical numbers.
The road was recently opened for traffic and provides an outlet to the cities of Sanford and Deland. It is an improvement which has been urged by the residents of Benson Springs for many years, according to city officials.
The managers of the hotel promised many interesting events for the affair and it is expected that a large gathering will be present for both the dinner and the evening of entertainment which is to follow.
The first tourist hotel to be established in the state, south of Jacksonville, the Benson Springs Inn was founded in the Brook House, one of the best known hotels in the south. Many notable events have taken place here.

Woolens And Suitcases Taken From An Auto

Woolens and suitcases were taken from an automobile, a Studebaker, which was locked when it was found, according to Mr. Martin, who said that the door had been open. Mr. Martin, accompanied by his wife, arrived in the city Wednesday and were on their way to the winter haven.

LIBERALS GAIN AS U. S. STANDS PAT ON POLICY

Sacasa Followers Continue To Threaten Positions Of President Diaz In The Interior Part Of Nicaragua
Diaz Troops Are On Retreat, Say Reports
Mexico reiterates it is not aiding liberals despite reports to the contrary.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—While Sacasa liberals continue to force ahead into the interior of Nicaragua, threatening the vital positions of the conservative forces of President Diaz, American government officials, in the face of a battering rain of far flung protests and widely divergent opinions, are standing pat on their announced policy of protection of American lives and property.
While conferences continued today between high officials in Washington late dispatches from the war zone in Nicaragua told of the retreat to El Bluff from Las Perlas of the Diaz troops, their disarming in the neutral zone, and the dispatch of 200 conservative soldiers to Monkey Ridge to save that strategic point from falling into the hands of Sacasa's army.
President Diaz who has been recognized by the United States, is reported to have asked the American minister, Eberhardt, at Managua, to have the Escondido river established as a neutral zone, in view of his inability to guarantee protection to foreigners.
Mexico continues denial.
While denials continue to be made that Mexico which has recognized Sacasa, is aiding the liberal leader in his fight, reports from Managua say that airplanes reported having sighted what the pilots believed to be a Mexican gun runner north of Corinto, and add that Diaz has sent a communication to Minister Castrollo here in refutation of the statement by President Calles that no help has been furnished by Mexico, to Sacasa.
Latest advices to the State department, denied that Admiral Latorre had effected a censorship, although Dr. T. S. Vaca, Sacasa's representative here, has charged that the "true" situation in his country was being withheld from the world because the liberals were denied use of the sole wireless station there.
May Ask Ships to Withdraw
Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, has said that he would introduce a resolution calling for withdrawal of American warships from Nicaragua if they were not taken away voluntarily. Another Democrat, however, Senator Randall, Louisiana, has advised notice that Democratic support would be given the administration in standing behind the Diaz government.
Both President Obregon of Mexico in a telegram and Wheeler in his statement said financial considerations were involved in the Nicaraguan situation, while the latter and Senator Randall referred to communistic aspects Randall asserting "communists in Mexico, are trying to implant their tentacles in Nicaragua," and Wheeler declaring "only those simple-minded souls who still believe in Santa Claus can be fooled by such hypocrisy," as the state that "marines and battleships were in Nicaragua to protect the American continent from the spread of Bolshevism."

C. Of C. Cancels Its Meeting On Friday

Owing to the inability of the Hotel Forrest Lake to provide accommodations promptly at noon tomorrow, and the reservations already made at downtown restaurants, the Sanford Chamber of Commerce has cancelled its weekly luncheon meeting which was originally scheduled to be held at the hotel, according to an announcement this afternoon by E. J. Trotter, secretary.
The members of the opera company, staying at the Hotel Forrest Lake, require an early luncheon preceding the matinee, and as a result the meeting of the chamber could not be arranged. It was decided to cancel it. Mr. Trotter stated.

CHARGE AGAINST MRS. McPHERSON WILL BE DROPPED

Principal Accuser Of Woman Is "Turn Coat," Perjurer, Declares Keyes In Making Announcement Upon Case
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The state's conspiracy case against Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson has collapsed with the announcement from the office of District Attorney Asa Keyes that conviction of the noted woman evangelist is "almost impossible" because Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sleaff, her principal accuser, is a "turn coat" and a "perjurer."
Dismissal of the charge against Mrs. McPherson and others involved in the case is declared to be imminent.
Coincident with the announcement from the district attorney's office came a cable to the Times from Sydney, Australia, quoting Mrs. Ruth Peters Ormiston, estranged wife of Kenneth G. Ormiston, former radio operator for Mrs. McPherson, as saying she had received a "most impertinent" letter from the woman evangelist.
The dispatch said the letter had been mailed to Mrs. Ormiston May 18, last, the date of Mrs. McPherson's strange disappearance while bathing at Ocean Park, near here.
While refusing to disclose the contents of the letter, Mrs. Ormiston is said to have announced her intention of using it when she returns to Los Angeles in the early part of next year to institute a divorce suit against her former husband, a former Angulus Temple radio operator.

RUM DEATHS IN NEW YORK CITY MAY EXCEED 800

Total Of 724 Casualties In City Proper Have Already Been Reported And Others May Succumb In Hospitals
Toll Heavier Than In Wet British Isles
150 Deaths Are Reported In Philadelphia And Boston Has 145; 71 At Baltimore
NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Indications today were that the total death toll in New York City from liquor would exceed 800, including 34 since Christmas.
Health Commissioner Harris announces there were 724 deaths from alcoholism for the first 52 weeks of the year, a figure which he said represented more than twice as many deaths from alcoholism as in the whole of wet England and Wales, with a population of 38,000,000 and nearly four times as many as in wet Australia, with a population about equal to that of this city.
The total of alcoholic deaths in New York so far this year is greater than any year since 1910 when 687 deaths were recorded. Last year's total was 513.
Reports to New York newspapers tabulate victims of liquor in other cities during the year. Unofficially, 898 deaths have been reported in New York state, in Chicago there have been 328.
In Philadelphia, Coroner Frederick Schwartz, Jr., said that while only 150 deaths were from alcoholism shown by official records during the year, he had evidence that at least 150 more died from the cause. Reports from other cities were: Boston 145, St. Louis 56, Detroit 121, Pittsburgh 130, Baltimore 71, Los Angeles 30, Minneapolis 28, Seattle 23, Cincinnati 23, Columbus 8, Oklahoma 10.
Orville S. Poland, head of the legal department of the State Anti-Saloon league, has offered the services of his organization to relatives of persons dying from alcohol poisoning with the aim of securing legal redress for them from bootleggers.
Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, in a telegram to the New York American today, criticizes the government for poisoning alcohol and says that "only one possessing the instincts of a wild beast would desire to kill or render blind the man who takes a drink of liquor, even though he purchased it from one violating the prohibitory statutes."

INJUNCTION FOR FIRST BUSINESS LAND OWNER IS SESSION HELD BY DISSOLVED TODAY

Judge Wright's Decision Will Permit Highway Work To Forward At Once, According To The State Engineers
An injunction granted Louis Blackhear, aged negro woman, on Dec. 21, restraining the State Road Department from cutting the right of way for the new state highway in the south end of the county, was dissolved this morning by Judge Wallace W. Wright, following a hearing in which attorneys for the woman and for the county argued the value of the land involved in the dispute.
Theodore Howell, attorney for petitioner to have the injunction maintained as it was originally granted, first brought the case before the members of the County Commission and the state engineering department, claiming, it is said, that the property over which the new highway is to pass was worth approximately $1,500.
Various land and citrus experts of the county informed the Commissioners, at their last meeting, that a value of $250 for the land and trees involved would be a liberal estimate. The Commissioners have offered this amount to the aged woman, it is said.
After hearing the evidence, Judge Wright announced that his order of Dec. 21, with the exception of a small plot of ground said to be approximately 20 feet square, was dissolved.
Engineers for the highway department then announced that the plot would not interfere with their proceeding with the work, and that operations would begin at once.
Attorney George DeCottis, on behalf of the County Commissioners, offered to settle with the attorneys for the petitioner on the basis previously announced as satisfactory to the County. This offer was refused.

Lake Mary Plans A Party For Citizens On New Year's Eve

Citizens of Lake Mary are preparing their annual New Year's eve treat for the residents of that community whose ages are over that of 60, according to Frank Evans, who stated yesterday that the affair, held last year, was such a success that it was to be held annually.
The party is to be held at the Community house and will be the second public gathering in that structure since its completion a short time ago. All residents of Lake Mary and immediate vicinity who are over the age of 60 are to be the guests of the sponsors of the banquet.
Several events of unusual importance are on the program for the evening according to Mr. Evans. "One of the best treats is to be the singing of a former grand opera star, a resident of Lake Mary, who is now an old man," he said.

New Method Of Denaturing Alcohol To Be Announced Soon By Federal Chemists

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Having scrapped perhaps half a dozen or more formulas for denaturing industrial alcohol because bootleg chemists found a way to make it palatable, the government's prohibition tube testers are preparing a new year surprise on the rum-running gentry, but not without loud cries from the wet forces.
Announcement of the surprise, which would be in the form of a new denaturant with a more powerful wood alcohol wallop, followed a statement by James M. Doran, chief prohibition chemist, in which he took exception to claims that wood alcohol now used to adulterate industrial alcohol has caused the numerous holiday deaths among drinkers, and held that too rapid drinking and too much of it at one gulp was the chief cause of the fatalities.
Chemists hope to make the industrial product less poisonous and at the same time so distasteful that bootleg clients will seal a disdainful pair of lips if offered a flask of the doctored liquor.
The effect of the change, however, Dr. Doran said, would make it impossible for bootleggers to completely distill the wood alcohol out of the industrial product. He advised that such a small quantity of wood alcohol, even if drunk, would cause serious injury, but Senator Edwards, Democrat, New Jersey, a wet leader, took another view, charging the government with forming an "unholy alliance with the undertaker," in placing poison in its denaturing formulae.
"Those who wish to violate the law and obtain booze are merely committing suicide," said Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon League in commenting on the government's plan.
C. C. Hinkley, national secretary of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, thought Wheeler was taking a "callous and fanatical view" of the situation.

REPORTS OF DISTRICT MEETINGS HELD DURING THE PAST FALL ARE MADE; 500 ARE PRESENT FOR SESSIONS AT CAPITAL

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 30.—(AP)—The Florida Education Association, in annual convention here, today went into conference for its first business session of the meeting.
Reports from district meetings held over the state during the fall were submitted, as was that of the salary committee, recommending a general improvement of the schedule of wages of school teachers of the state.
The latter report asked for larger salaries for school workers, suggested a general revision of the state laws affecting education, and gave exhaustive statistics on teachers' compensation in all sections of Florida. Miss Mary D. Merritt, of the University of Miami, chairman of the committee, read the report.
Today's business session, which was attended by upwards of 500 delegates, was preceded by music rendered by the all-star high school chorus. The chorus is composed of over 100 of the best voices of boys and girls of high schools over the state, and is proving one of the features of the entertainment program. The chorus is under the direction of Miss Sessie L. Phipps, of the Florida State College for Women.
The conference session will continue throughout the day, and late this afternoon W. L. Taylor, of Jackson, Miss., executive secretary of the Mississippi Education association and R. L. Longstreet, supervising principal of the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach schools, will deliver addresses. Mr. Taylor's subject was "What a State Education Association May Accomplish," and that of Mr. Longstreet, "A Retirement Law for Florida Teachers."
Tonight another general session will be held, beginning at 8 o'clock with addresses by Miss T. Nell Simpson, assistant state superintendent of Maryland, and Dr. Charles H. Judd, director of the school of education, University of Chicago, as the principal speakers.
Tomorrow the convention will come to an end with a business session immediately following an address by W. S. Cauthen, state superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Cauthen, who will speak on "Education in Florida," is expected to make a number of interesting phases of education work in the state as to offer a number of recommendations for its general development.

HILTON'S BODY IS FOUND EARLY THIS MORNING

Shop Owner Believed To Have Met Death Early Last Night In Struggle With Thief
Murder Stick Is Believed Found
Five Marks Found On Body Including Two On Back Of Head
The body of L. P. Hilton, proprietor of the Hilton Barber Shop, 112 Magnolia Avenue, was found in the rear of his shop at 7:30 o'clock this morning by R. C. Pittman, negro porter of the establishment, who made the discovery when he opened the rear door preparatory to making the shop ready for the day's business.
Mr. Hilton, police believe, had been dead for several hours, and his skull had been crushed by blows on his head, according to Dr. Ralph Stevens, who examined the body.
That robbery was the motive for the murder, is the belief held by Chief of Police Roy Williams and Sheriff C. M. Hand, who immediately upon discovery of the body began an intensive search for clues which might lead to the apprehension of the murderer. It is believed by authorities that Mr. Hilton was killed shortly after 7 o'clock last night as he was checking out the day's receipts.
A heavy chair leg was found on top of a cabinet in the shop, and it is believed by police to be the instrument used by the murderer. The stick bore blood stains and bits of hair. Close search of the floor and the ground in the immediate vicinity of the place failed to reveal any other definite clues, it was said.
A number of petty thefts, together with the report of a second automobile during the night, led police to begin an investigation in an attempt to discover whether or not the murder and the other crimes were committed by a gang of traveling crooks.
What is believed to be fingerprints were discovered on a lavatory bowl, where police believe that the murderer washed his hands of blood after committing the crime. Blood stains on the floor and walls and the torn condition of Mr. Hilton's clothing gave evidence of a terrific struggle, police stated.
A fingerprint expert, accompanied by Chief of Police Baker of Orlando, arrived at the scene shortly after 10 o'clock and photographs were made of stains and marks on the lavatory bowl.
Only six cents were found in the murdered man's pockets. A watch and a small pocketknife were also found. Employees of the shop said this morning that it was customary for Mr. Hilton to have from 75 to 150 in money on his person at closing time.
A coroner's jury, hastily summoned by Sheriff C. M. Hand, ordered the body removed to the undertaking establishment of Miller & Erickson, where it was examined by Dr. Stevens and viewed by members of the jury.
Three blows on the head, one on the left ear near the temple and a badly swollen forehead indicated that several blows had been directed at the murdered man.
Mr. Hilton came to Sanford in April, 1925. Previous to that time he had been in the city for a number of years. He was originally from West Virginia.
Mrs. Hilton was in Port St. Joe on a visit but is expected to be here this afternoon. She was accompanied by other family members. Federal arrangements were made following her arrival. Mr. Hilton's body was taken to Miller & Erickson.

Large Audience Expected to Hear the Opera "Aida" at the Milane Tonight

The first performance of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, "Aida," is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock this evening at the Milane Theater and a rapid sale of seats has been reported throughout the day, according to an announcement made today by members of the opera committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce.
The entire company, approximately 100 in all, arrived at noon today in a special section of the southbound Dixie Flyer. Three pullmans and three special baggage cars made up the train which brought the company to this city from Lakeland, where three performances were given.
When the curtain rises on the first act of "Aida" this evening, every seat in the house is expected to be occupied. The hundreds of reservations which have been made both by mail and out of town people are expected to be filled.

Internal Row Threatens American Supremacy In International Athletics

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—America's traditional supremacy in international athletics today was threatened by internal strife over control of the National Olympic association.

Noting unanimously to withdraw from the association the National Amateur Athletic federation yesterday struck another blow in a conflict with the Amateur Athletic union which broke out afresh recently in Washington, D. C. The federation claims within its membership 90 per cent of the nation's amateur athletic activities. With it are affiliated the Army, Navy, National Collegiate A. A., United States Lawn Tennis association and Federation of Boys' clubs, among other organizations.

Alleged domination of America's participation in the 1928 Olympic games by a minority group controlled by the A. A. U., was the basis for the federation's action, but the feud between the rival factions dates back several years. The federation's 1927 program calls for a more intensive development of its work, along state lines and forecasts conflict with the A. A. U. in its own field.

A statement by the federation gives two major counts upon which the federation based its withdrawal.

1. Charges in the Olympic association's explanation—which deprived the national organizations that comprised the federation of any influence in relation to America's part in the Olympic games and put control in the hands of one member of the association, the A. A. U.

2. Centralization of such control restored "the unsatisfactory situation that the American Olympic association was organized to correct."

The statement goes on to say that "there was much criticism in connection with living and training quarters and conduct of some of the official representatives," which came to a head after the 1920 games and led to attempts to organize the Olympic association on a "democratic basis."

After the withdrawal of Col. Robt. M. Thompson as president of the association, he federation charges, there was a "resumption of the methods of the faction that caused the 1920 crisis," Henry Breckenridge, president of the federation, charges that through a "joker in the constitution, organizations were multiplied and admitted to representation in the association."

The struggle for control between the two factions came to an open break at the recent quadrennial meeting of the Olympic association, when abolition of the two thirds vote rule caused Col. Breckenridge, Major John J. Griffith, athletic commissioner of the Western conference and General Palmer E. Pierce, president of the National Collegiate A. A. to resign all committee memberships in the association.

Rosenberg Is Hoping That Boxing Board Will Postpone Bout

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Charley (Phil) Rosenberg hopes that the State Athletic commission will postpone his bantamweight championship fight against Bushy Graham, of Utica, N. Y., until Jan. 14.

Although previously denied more time to pass down to the limit, he again will petition the board. Jess McMahon, matchmaker for Tex Rickard, already has abandoned plans for staging the match in Madison Square Garden on Jan. 7, having substituted a fight between Tod Morgan, the junior lightweight champion and Phil McGraw, of Detroit.

Since Rosenberg has flatly declined to box on the original date, observers believe the only course open to the commissioner will be to grant Rosenberg's request, or place him back on the suspended list.

Rosenberg probably has been disciplined more than any boxer ever holding a title.

After Big Grid Year Princeton Is Optimistic

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Only about 29 per cent of the sports champions, teams of individuals, that ruled the roost at the start of 1926 still wave their scepters aloft as the year draws to a close.

This is revealed by examination of a list of 247 championships in 30 branches of athletic activity, here and abroad. It shows that 71 titles were successfully defended while 176 were lost, with the previous holders overwhelmed by stronger talent or victims of the "upset flax" that beset champions on all sides.

Of the major sports, only rowing and swimming showed a majority of champions successfully defending their titles. Five out of eight rowing titles and 15 out of 28 swimming crowns were retained.

Tennis, with "Big Bill" Tilden chief among those toppled, witnessed the biggest championship carnage, 16 out of 19 titles being bowled over. National track and field sports, for men and women, showed 29 out of 43 titles changing hands. Football witnessed the shifting of line out of 15 champions while professional boxing, with nine crowns involved, saw five transferred and a sixth orphaned by Kid Kaplan's retirement.

1926 Big Year For The Dethronement of Sport Leaders

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Prediction by Tex Rickard that Sammy Mandel will be one of four titleholders to be dethroned in 1927 has drawn a reply from the lightweight champion that "Rickard will lose his title of world's champion boxing promoter, too."

Rickard forecast that Mickey Walker, middleweight, Pete Latzo, welterweight, and Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, bantamweight, also will lose their mantles.

base in 1907, and this record still stands.

In 1920 George Kelly of the New York Giants set a mark of 1,759 putouts, and that too is better than Tod's record by far putouts, but Tod excelled Kelly in total chances, for in the last season he had 126 assists. George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns has off and on excelled Tod in the matter of assists—but is out-distanced on total chances.

Tod also participated in 114 double plays and in two triple killings.

BIG BOUTS FOR DETROIT?

Tex Rickard has agreed on tentative plans for promoting boxing shows in the Olympic skating arena, under construction at Detroit, in conjunction with operators of the indoor stadium.

Leo P. Flynn, former matchmaker of Madison Square Garden, New York, will act as matchmaker. It is planned to stage a number of championship bouts during the winter.

The new arena, which will be completed in January, will seat approximately 22,000 persons. Boxing contests would start about Feb. 1.

HARGRAVE IS LEADER

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Because "Bubbles" Hargrave played in more than 100 games, the Cincinnati catcher is entitled to recognition as National League batting champion, with an average of .353. Other observers have been inclined to rate Rube Bressler, his teammate, at the top. Bressler hit .377 for 86 contests.

Illinois Stages Its Last Ring Match With Referee Handing Out Decision

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Illinois' last fight of consequence to a referee's decision took place last night when Midget Smith of New York and Ray Ryckell, Chicago bantamweight, fought to a 10-round draw.

Beginning the first of the year fight decisions in Illinois rings will be made by judges chosen by the state boxing commission. Whether there will be two judges, with the referee casting the deciding ballot in case of a deadlock, or three judges who will work independently, probably will be decided upon when the commission meets next Tuesday.

"The knell of referee decisions was sounded when Benny Yanger awarded the world's middleweight championship to Micky Walker in the recent Walker-Tiger Flowers fight here. The decision was quite generally disputed and led members of the boxing commission to decide that hereafter the responsibility of decisions should rest on the shoulders of two or more judges.

The commission plans to have prominent Chicagoans who are fight followers to act as judges.

Fight Results

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Midget Smith, New York, and Roy Ryckell, Chicago, fought a draw 10. Henry Leonard, Chicago, beat Joey Clobin, Milwaukee, 10. Harry Forbes, Columbus, Ohio, beat Earl McCarthur, Sioux City, Iowa, 10. Denver—Jack Kane, Denver, beat Ted Blatt, Minneapolis, 4. Seattle—King Tut, St. Paul, beat Al Gracie, Spokane, 6.

On Realm Of Sport

(By The Associated Press) TODAY'S FIRST-BASE RECORD Phil Todt of the Boston Red Sox established a new record for total chances around the initial sack last season, as far as the records since 1907 disclose.

Todt accepted 1881 chances in 184 games. Algs Donohue, of the Chicago White Sox established a record of 1,840 putouts in 1925.

Deputy Captures Sixth Event At Seminola In Long Shot Day At Oval

Tuesday's events at Seminola provided the long shot artists with their lining and the backers of Tony Pascuma a miserable afternoon as the leading rider of the present meeting was set down by the stewards for alleged rough-riding. Pascuma crossed, or attempted to cross, his field in the fifth event and almost knocked Klaxon out of the going.

Twenty-four to one was the best price of the day, which was one of the best of the meeting. Threatening weather held down the crowd.

In the feature of the card, the sixth, Deputy raced to the front at the start and was never in danger of the closest pursuer, Ball Gee, who could never get up in spite of a gallant effort. Dimple Dunko got off to a bad start but rapidly improved her position and closed up rapidly for the place.

Australia captured the first event on the day's program when Pascuma brought him up after trailing the pace to the head of the stretch. Bisco, a long shot, made the pace early but tired in the final eighth and managed to last for the place. Broadview was third.

R. Paulje piloted Kathleen K. home by a nose in front of the Colonel to capture the second and to pay the longest odds of the afternoon, $50.20 for $2. The filly broke on top and stayed there for the entire route but was tiring badly at the wire. The Colonel forced the pace after getting up to the leaders following a poor getaway. Big Pardon stayed up well for the show.

Bee Bee got the best of Shamrock Flower in a stretch drive in the third and was drawing away at the wire to reward his backers with $12.40 for $2. Locarno saved ground and pulled through at the stretch turn for the peep money.

Lou Shank and Gee gave the customers a thrill by their race in the fourth event when Gee slipped up from out of the murky distance and almost caught the winner. One more stride and a different number would have been rung up. The Law captured show honors by racing along in game fashion.

Klaxon, who paid $32.80, was booled home by Healy in the feature. Barbary was second and Liberty National, one of the favorites, third.

Sakah was another long shot who delivered in the final event of the day. He outpan First Call, who had broke on top, and kept going to the wire, but was tiring at the end. Quinham forced the pace and was wearing the winner down in the final eighth. Jucko closed up ground and was in for the short end of the purse.

Proposed Third Major League Foolish, Says Pilot Of N. Y. Giants

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Contending that there are not enough skilled players now in baseball, the demands of the two big leagues, Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants considers talk of a third major circuit "foolish." He estimated that $20,000,000 capital would be necessary to launch such a venture.

He placed the cost of playing plants in eight cities at $12,000,000, the extra expenses of the teams at another million, and cost of players at $7,000,000.

He said he had not heard of any prominent men who were sufficiently interested in baseball to become owners of a third circuit.

RED PEPPER FOR RHEUMATIC PAIN

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine with the name Rowles on each package.

THE HERALD PLATFORM: A steam take at Sanford's front door.

SET THE SOUL: Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God.

PRAYER: O Lord my God, in Thee do I put my trust.

FAST WORDS: Here lies the corpse of Billy Bright.

In this urn of ashes are kept by his wid, I refer to the boob who said, "Step on it, kid."

Step softly, here lies floor hen-pecked Bones Fetter.

Here rests in peace Poor Willie Fane; Who boasted, "Watch me; I'll beat that traitor!"

I shot him dead, Poor Billy Belasco, He said the words: "I told you so."

It looks as if an organized gang were at work in Sanford.

And then, again perhaps someone has been playing the races too heavily.

It seems that we started almost too late to make Sanford "the safest city."

Remember this; you may get a front row seat with a balcony ticket, but it won't be in the orchestra.

The floods in Tennessee are causing the governor of Tennessee to think that perhaps his own state is not above reproach.

President Coolidge says the United States is fundamentally sound. Wonder if he is speaking financially or religiously.

A nationally known publication says 1927 is going to be a hard year. Real estate operators won't worry about that. They're used to it.

We didn't know that the jolly old gentleman played golf, but the newspapers are saying that on Christmas day John D. Rockefeller played Santa Claus.

They say that the making of New Year resolutions is going out of fashion. The explanation of this is that most people are living so fast they don't have time to bother with inquiries into what should constitute their "I Will" and "I Won't" in a new year.

Another explanation is that people are more honest with themselves than they used to be. In other words, they know that most of the brave words they used to say, making ready for a year of better living, turned out to be nothing but words.

But even if people do not make New Year's resolutions most of us know of resolutions that would be very valuable for us to adopt and live up to.

We all know that. We all know that the anger-habit, for instance, is a destroyer of mind and body. We all know that unkind thoughts, jealous thoughts, vicious thoughts of any kind are virulent poison.

If New Year's resolutions could be powerful enough to make us get rid of our bad habits—Well, likely as not we would not adopt them! We must enjoy our bad habits or we would not assist them to grow.

So probably the whole solution of what makes successful New Year resolutions is to be found in the extent to which the "Resolves" would be enjoyed by their makers.

What a list of easy-to-keep resolutions most people could make, if instead of trying to live better, healthier, more useful lives, they would choose the rules by which they are already running their days.

But, in the supposition, that most of us have beautiful moments when we find ourselves in the mood for the better things, moods in which we find ourselves fervently longing for strength of soul great enough to make and keep great resolutions, in that supposition, we are leaving this with one of the ideal New Year resolutions, whose author is not known.

I Resolve: To create happiness in myself and others. I will keep a strong body for the work I have to do; a loving heart for those about me; a clear mind for all truth, whose recognition brings freedom.

And I will possess a faith mighty enough to rout anxiety, ride over difficulty, challenge hardship, smile through grief, deny failure, see only victory, looking to the end; by which hopeful assurance now attained, I am at peace with myself, the world, and the Infinite.

Foolishly Inadequate Punishment: "Driving while drunk $104.85." "Driving while drunk $190." "Driving while drunk, forfeited $150."

Three small items in a list of eleven cases before a municipal judge in Miami. And items of that kind are found in newspapers published in other Florida towns.

Instead of sending men to long terms in jail, instead of taking away the privilege of operating an automobile upon the streets and highways, the courts of Florida impose a few fines or collect estreated bonds, and send the criminals back to their murder road.

Every man driving an automobile while drunk is a potential murderer. He endangers the safety and the lives of every other traveler on the road. He is absolutely unaccountable, except as he is accountable to himself for taking the drink that is to befuddle his brain and send the control of his car into the power of the demons that have taken possession of his mind.

Driving while drunk $184.85. The money for the fine is provided at the expense of the man's family. The city treasury is accounted enriched. "Justice" is supposed to have been satisfied. And the man goes back to his booze and his car for another assault upon the welfare of the public the city is supposed to protect.

A man who drives a car while drunk is punished as drastically as any would-be murderer is punished. A man who has been convicted of driving a car while drunk should be forbidden from operating an automobile on any public road.

NEW YORK IS a hard-boiled town. Consider an incident in a Broadway theater last Friday night. At the end of the performance of "The Pirates of Penzance" a member of the cast made a little speech saying that inasmuch as Sir Arthur Sullivan was the author of some famous hymns, and as it was Christmas Eve, the company would like to sing the first verse of "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

WHERE THEY CAME FROM: ST. PETERSBURG INDEPENDENT. The Florida Key lime has been extolled as among the finest grown, and many of the lime trees of this name have been found on the lower edge of the state on the mainland, the territory in which they grow being known as the "wild lime belt."

Who Fills the Strings? If He Were a Woman. A Dr. Work Who Works. Be Patient With Statie. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

SECRETARY KELLOGG assures Senator Borah that in Nicaragua, we are not taking sides with the established shaky government, or with the victorious rebels. Our forces are only protecting American life and property.

No one questions Secretary Kellogg's absolute sincerity, and his statement is reassuring. On the other hand Senator Borah says, "The revolution in Nicaragua was inspired and is directed by eight or ten persons here, who are not even Nicaraguans."

IT IS PERHAPS none of the American people's business, but they would like to know who it is that pulls strings in a neighboring republic, making it necessary to send our forces there.

MUSSOLINI SAYS: shall make no new provinces until 1923. Then I will reward those regions which show themselves laborious, disciplined and prolific.

THREE BETTER words, for America, were chosen by a former president of the Santa Fe, Mr. Ripley. "Organize, deputize, supervise."

AS FOR BEING prolific, Mussolini would know more about that if he were an Italian woman, instead of an Italian dictator, and had a few children on his own account.

DR. WORK, SECRETARY of the interior, says of the 1927 outlook, "There is not a single distress sign on the whole economic horizon."

SECRETARY WORK IS much interested in a most important gathering of which the general public knows nothing. It is the Pacific conference to be held at Honolulu in February.

HE PATIENT WITH statie, when it interferes with jazz music or prize fight news coming sweetly over your radio. Professor Pupin of Columbia college says statie and "fading" enemies of radio enthusiasts, really indicate that other planes are trying to talk to us.

OUR AGE LISTENS indifferently to that news, but no man can exaggerate its importance. If planets millions of years older than our earth could tell us what they know, our science might jump ahead as rapidly as a child advances in knowledge after it has learned to talk and read.

WISE MEN IN Milwaukee will devote three days to discussing high questions, including this, "Can Christianity be of any practical use in changing existing conditions?"

OUR GOVERNMENT knows all that. But facts mean less at Washington than the lobbying of ship builders and manufacturers of armor plate.

THE JAPANESE emperor dead and embalmed, will lie in state for 50 days. His son, Hirohito, 25 years old, takes the Mikado's throne, no dressed in the old strange clothes, but in the fighting uniform of western soldiers.

Contemporary Comment: Visitor (being shown round castle)—"Who is the victim in the torture chamber?" Host—"That isn't the torture chamber—that's my wife having her beauty treatment."

The lowly peanut is coming into its own again. South Georgia farmers who have remained loyal and steadfast to the little "peanut" now find what a true friend it turned out to be. Not so flickle and contrary as King Cotton, and a darn sight less expensive to grow, too.—Cobb County Times.

LOOKING AHEAD MIAMI NEWS

Despite increasing spotiness and the inability of some sections to maintain the pace previously set, the year 1926 is closing with the average of business activity still favorably high.

Every now and then, says Mr. Shaw, "in business and in other directions, it pays to take 'time out' to study the lay of the land. Perhaps in business the year-end is a particularly good time for such a looking ahead.

American has had a tremendous market to exploit. She has driven mass production to unprecedented lengths. Price margins in many fields have become thin.

The boy in an athletic competition sees for the time being only the necessity of winning the race, and that is as it should be.

GEORGIA VISITOR ENTERTAINED AT DANCE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

A pretty compliment to Miss Catherine Winn of Valdosta, Ga., who is the attractive house guest of Mrs. Albert P. Connelly, was the dance given at the Sanford Country Club Wednesday evening by Everall Dashi.

The guests were greeted upon their arrival by Mr. and Mrs. Connelly, Mr. Dashi and Miss Winn. Mrs. Connelly was gowned in a handsome robe of white georgette elaborately beaded with rhinestones and sequins.

Miss Winn was a dainty figure in a most becoming frock of red georgette.

Many feature dances were enjoyed during the evening. The music for the dancers was furnished by the Seminole Syncopators. Punch was served throughout the evening.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Robert A. Newman and Mrs. E. D. Moberly.

Invited guests were: The Misses Catherine Winn, Chivalete Smith of Ocala, Olive Newman, Maude Lake, Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Mae Holly, Mildred Holly, Camilla Puleston, Georgia Mobley, Sarah Evelyn Williams, Claire Zachry, Carmeta Barber, Emily Griffin, Eloise Brady, Lenabelle Hagan and Charlotte Stryker of Lansdale, Pa.

Also the Misses Helen Vernay, Le Claire Jones, Ava Wright, Frances Teague, Louise Wells, Margaret Cox, Margaret Zachary, Mildred Simpson of Orlando, Rosalina Williamson of Gainesville, Evelyn Anderson, Emily Lingle, Frances Dutton, Edith Bahner of St. Augustine, Emily Bailey, Naomi Scoggan.

Also Messrs. Frank Markwood, Ralph Woodruff, Frank Woodruff, Harry Woodruff, Frederick Bell, Briggs Arrington, Sam Byrd, Robert Hagan, Stanley Vernay, John Schirard, Herbert Messer, George Wilson, Andrew Carroway, James Sharon Jr., Chandler Sharon, Carol Plinson, Frank Chase and Randall Chase.

Also Messrs. Earl McCarthy, Dwight Freeman, William Lake, Lloyd Boyle, G. W. Spencer, William Du Bose, Humden Du Bose, Wallace Bell, Glenn Wimbish, Albert Connelly, Warner Scoggan, Paul R. Forbes, John Brumley.

MESDAMES WILLIAMS AND GIBBS ARE HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE

Never has the Woman's Club been more artistically decorated than on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Jane Chester Gibbs and Mrs. Fred T. Williams were hostesses at bridge.

Tall, feathery bougias of bamboo encircled the spacious auditorium, where the card tables were arranged for play. The balconies were entwined with garlands of star-jasmine and ferns. Placed about the room were white trelises entwined with greenery, on which were fastened wild pockets filled with pink roses and geraniums.

In the center of the room a huge bowl of deep pink roses and sprigs of ferns and greenery added an artistic touch. On the stage and mantel were small potted palms interspersed with bowls of white narcissus. The lights were shaded with lily shades of pink and green. This dainty color scheme was effectively carried out in every detail.

Receiving the guests upon arrival were the hostesses and Mrs. E. W. Trueman of Saint Maries, Idaho, and Mrs. Percy Hiscock of Coral Gables, sisters of Mrs. Williams, who are her house guests.

Mrs. Gibbs was attired in a stunning frock of Lanvin green georgette handsomely beaded in crystal and contrasting beads.

Mrs. Williams was regal in black brocade velvet combined with white georgette. A pretty touch of color was added by a large pink velvet rose corsage.

The quaint tulle were distributed by Miss Sarah Evelyn Williams, who wore a dainty frock of love bird green taffeta.

Scores were kept on unusual pink score pads, and the pencils were also covered in pink, being in the form of shepherd's crooks decorated with tiny pink and green flowers. After an unusually interesting game of bridge had been played, notes were collected by Mrs. Fred Daiger and Mrs. Robert Newman, and the prize for high score, a lovely blue glass vase in wrought iron holder, was awarded Mrs. Hal Wight.

For failing to score her points and honors, Mrs. Frank Vernay was given the low score prize, an attractive bridge slate. The cut prize, also a pretty vase, fell to the lot of Miss Margaret Cowan.

Following the game, the tables were laid with dainty covers and centered with crystal bud vases holding exquisite pink rosebuds, and refreshments of tutti fruit ice cream, individual cakes embossed in pink roses, pink and green mints and coffee were served by a bevy of lovely young college girls, including the Misses Sarah Evelyn Williams, Olive Newman, Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Maude Lake, Claire Zachary, Carmeta Barber, Mildred Holly, Mae Holly, Emily Griffin and Lenabelle Hagan.

Invited guests were: Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mrs. Clyde Byrd, Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. Braxton B. Daggott, Mrs. Francis E. Holz, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. R. C. Bowler, Mrs. Boyce Bell, Mrs. J. C. BROKEN REST

Caused by Bladder Irritation in Nature's Danger Signal.

C. L. Kidney, Ontario, N. Y., says: "Lithiated Buchu has done more for me than all other remedies combined. Some days I had almost a constant desire with a terrible burning sensation. Would be bothered about six times at night. Will tell or write my experience to any one." Don't take anything for this. You may get the habit or be forced continually to aid nature. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) acts on the bladder as spasm salts do on the bowels, drives out foreign matter, decreases excessive acids, thereby relieving irritation.

The tablets cost 25 each at drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicburg, Ohio. Locally at Rountel and Anderson Drug Co.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Announcement of state-wide appeal to men and music lovers was this morning by Mrs. Ed W. Packard of Winter Park effect that arrangements have been completed for the concert on Thursday evening, at the Sorosis House in Orlando. Miss Marion Rous, a musician of national reputation, who is to give her concert work, is in charge of the Greenwich Music School of New York.
According to Mrs. Packard, the concert of Miss Rous will be under the auspices of the Alpha Fraternity of Rollins, and the proceeds will be for the chapter house fund.
In view of the fact that Miss Rous has been a number of years associated with the late Hart Dyer in the creation of the Rollins College Conservatory in view of the high placed Rous made for herself her musicianship and personality, her return for this appearance will attract many people all over the state.
The late Miss Dyer founded the Florida Federation of Musicians and served as its president. Miss Rous was her closest and constant helper in carrying on many projects that have been unusual factors in the development of musical activities in the state.
The Forrest Lake has gone to work when he will spend days on business.
Reynolds Williamson of Hills is the attractive house guest of Miss Maude Lake at her home on Park Avenue.
Mrs. Mariether Lewis of Hills was an interesting guest Monday at Greenville, S. C. She returned to Sanford Wednesday night and is now at home on Palmetto Avenue.

BUFFET SUPPER GIVEN LAST NIGHT FOR MEMBERS OF COLLEGE SET

Members of the college set were again honored Wednesday evening at a most delightful buffet supper after the dance given by Everall Dash at the Country Club; the affair being given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Phiney Connelly and Albert Connelly at their lovely home on Park Avenue.

Most artistic were the decorations used for this occasion. Quantities of deep red poinsettias, small pines, wreaths, holly branches, and red Christmas bells lent their beauty. A huge, brilliantly lighted Christmas tree added to festive touch. Lights shaded in red cast a rich warm glow over the already merry scene.

The daintily appointed supper table was laid with a lovely lace cover and centered with a silver basket filled with vividly colored poinsettias and pines. Placed about this were four tall silver candle sticks holding tall red cathedral candles. At intervals about the table were silver compotes filled with red and green mints.

Assisting the hosts and hostess in serving and entertaining the guests were Mrs. Robert A. Newman and Mrs. Edgar D. Mobley.

Those enjoying this delightful affair were: the Misses Catherine Winn of Valdosta, Ga., Charlotte Stryker of Lansdale, Pa., Edith Rabner of St. Augustine, Rosalind Williamson of Gainesville, Olive Newman, Maude Lake, Margaret Peters, Mae Holly, Mildred Holly, Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Georgia Mobley, Sarah Evelyn Williams, Claire Zachary, Helen Vernay, Carmela Barber, Lenabelle Hagan, Emily Griffin, Margaret Cox, Margaret Zachary, Emily Lingle.

Also Messrs James Wright, Carol Pinson, Ralph Woodruff, Harry Woodruff, Frank Woodruff, John Schind, Frederick Bell, Stanley Vernay, Alvin Wight of Cairo, Ga., Joseph Robison of Thomasville, Ga., Herbert Messer, Frank Chase, Randall Chase, Briggs Arrington, Joe Meisch, Robert Hagan, Deane Turner, Sam Byrd, Gordon Cherry, Everall Dash, William Dash, George Wilson, James Sharon Jr., Harlow Mabry, G. W. Spencer Jr., Lloyd Boyle, John Bramley, Ted Merriweather, Amos Wimbish, Jerome Tillman, William Lake and W. A. Adams.

Mrs. Jeanne Kanner of Palatka is spending a short time in Sanford as the guest of Miss Tillyo Benjamin.

Miss Catherine Pittman of Daytona Beach will arrive in Sanford Friday to spend the week-end here as the guest of Miss Georgia Mobley.

Mrs. Deane Turner of Fort Myers will arrive in Sanford Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ernest Krump and mother, Mrs. F. R. Savage.

Mrs. Tom Owen, who has been spending the past few days here with her sister Mrs. Ernest Hill left Wednesday for her home at Clearwater.

Stanford Is Slight Favorite Over Tide In Betting Circles

PASADENA, CALIF., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Gridiron prophets had their inning today as the Cardinals of Stanford University and the Crimson Tide of Alabama settled into the fullest stride of practice for the clash of the east and west here New Year's day.

The westerners are favored in betting odds, but the Alabamians are getting favor because of the pep and dash they have exhibited in the preliminaries thus far.

The "wise men" point to Coach Wallace Wade's belief that his team is "right" to the weight advantage in the line and the speed of the Alabama backfield, as reasons why the southerners should hold Stanford even, if not beat the Cardinals in the Rose bowl battle.

Those who have seen the two teams in practice declare Alabama shows more pep and snap on the field than Stanford.

The only injured man on the Cardinal squad, tall Biff Hoffman, fullback, appears to have fully recuperated. His injured right toe performed nobly, booting long snafus yesterday for some time after the rest of the squad had gone to the showers.

Hopes of Alabama's followers rose high last night with the arrival of "Sherlock" Holmes, skipper and center of the Crimson Tide, who was left in El Paso, Tex., when stricken by an attack of chronic appendicitis. The southern captain said he was feeling fine, and expects to play in the New Year's day game.

Lake Mary

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lake Mary Community Church held their December meeting at the church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moran have as their guests at their home on the Country Club road, Mr. and Mrs. Spendlove, Miss Ruth Spendlove, Mr. J. N. Parker, of Mt. Dora, Mr. Harold Powers, who is attending Rollins College, Winter Park.

At the meeting of the Crystal Lake Improvement Society last Tuesday, Dr. Robert Black was the speaker of the evening, and made a most impressive talk. Dr. Black is from Brooklyn, N. Y. and he and his wife are owners of the Lake Mary Hotel.

The second annual reception to the Old Folks of Lake Mary will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Building on Friday evening, New Year's Eve. All residents of Lake Mary over 60 years of age will be guests of honor and are cordially invited. The Chamber of Commerce of Lake Mary conducted this affair last New Year's Eve, and its success was so gratifying that numerous requests have been made to them to make this an annual affair.

Miss Mary Lee Harrison of Atlanta, Ga., who has been spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. J. M. McCaskill at her home in Rose Court, returned home Wednesday evening.

Miss Georgia Mobley, Miss Margaret Zachary and Clay Bridges left Thursday morning for Tampa where they will attend the A. T. O. Convention and dance at the Tampa Bay Hotel.

Edmond Roberts, Jerome Tillman and Arch Avery of Orlando were among the out of town guests attending the dance given Wednesday evening by Everall Dash at the Country Club.
